Canada's Biggest Financing Job

New Bonds For Old In Swap

OTTAWA — (CP) — The federal government has begun the largest financing operation in Canada's history to try to persuade holders of $6,416,000,000 in wartime victory bonds to swap them for new bonds.

The goal is to remove the uncertainty which Finance Minister Fleming said Monday was caused by "this great mass" of victory bonds "overhanging" the bond market.

Those bonds—about 60 per cent of the net national debt—would fall due for repayment in stages during the next eight years starting Jan. 1. Their influence had clogged the short term bond market.

The plan, kept secret until it was outlined to the country Monday, is to launch a "Canada conversion loan" to transform the victory bond debt into a variety of medium- and long-term bonds.

OFFER ENTICEMENTS
To persuade the 2,000,000 victory bond holders to switch, the government is offering higher interest rates and cash bonuses.

Mr. Fleming told the Commons Monday the conversion loan "will lay the foundations for a new, healthy and confident tone to our whole bond market."

Then he and Prime Minister Diefenbaker joined Monday night on the largest radio - television network ever set up in Canada to explain—and sell—the complex conversion plan to Canadians in their homes. Their half - hour broadcast, was linked to every radio station in Canada and all but five TV stations.

Mr. Diefenbaker said the conversion, together with other federal operations being planned and undertaken, "will make it possible for our nation to embark on a new era of peacetime prosperity far and beyond anything we have ever known."

PLAN WELCOMED
In Toronto, heads of investment houses, who have the task of carrying the plan to the public, used words such as "courageous, dramatic and constructive" to describe it.

The scheme involves no "new" borrowing — merely a spreading-out of existing debt.

But Mr. Fleming's Commons statement disclosed another financing deal already carried out: The creation of "new money" by borrowing $400,000,000 for five months from the chartered banks and the Bank of Canada at 2½ per cent annual interest.

Experts called this step inflationary. But the plan is to pay the loan off at maturity Dec. 15 with proceeds of the next Canada savings bond issue to be sold this fall.

This $400,000,000 is part of the $1,400,000,000 in new borrowing which Mr. Fleming said in his June 17 budget speech would be needed this year to help finance government operations. Counting some earlier borrowing last May 15, only $700,000,000 in new borrowing remains to be done. Authorities feel this will be relatively easy to get later on.

HOW PLAN WORKS
This is what the conversion loan plan involves:

Five wartime victory loan bond issues, all paying three-per-cent

Libs Ask For Policy On CBC

OTTAWA (CP) — The Liberal opposition supports the Fowler royal commission's recommendation for a non - permanent 15-member board to regulate broadcasting in Canada.

Opposition Leader Pearson, expressing his party's views Monday night in the Commons, asked the government for a statement of policy to clear away what he described as uncertainties surrounding public and private broadcasting.

He presented a motion of non-confidence expressing regret that the government has not produced its proposals for regulating broadcasting and financing the publicly-owned CBC.

H. W. Herring (CCF—Kootenay West), supporting the Liberal motion, added an amendment expressing regret that the government has not declared itself in support of expanding CBC radio and television services.

NO REPLY
There was no immediate reply from the government, but Revenue Minister Nowlan, who reports to Parliament for the CBC.

Papa OKays Reunion

Argentine Quints Are 15 Today

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The world's only surviving quintuplets turned 15 today, and papa Franco Diligenti is letting them have one of their rare reunions in honor of the occasion.

The three Diligenti girls and two boys were due home today from their separate English boarding schools. Their birthday party will be a huge fiesta Saturday at the family's suburban estate, with relatives flocking to Buenos Aires from as far away as Italy and Canada.

Of the more famous Dionne quintuplets, born near Callander, Ont., in 1937, four survive.

It's a big day for the female Diligenti quintuplets, who in accordance with Latin-American custom move into the "seniority" category at 15.

ATTEND SEPARATE SCHOOLS

The wealthy, strong-willed father has had firm ideas about rearing the quintuplets. Six years ago he sent them off to five different schools. Since then they have seen each other only during holidays.

$55 Million Deficit For CNR Some Local Runs To Be Cut

OTTAWA — (CP) — A Canadian National Railway budget forecasting a $55,000,000 deficit in 1958 for the publicly-owned road — largest in North America — is to be considered today by the Commons railway committee.

The budget — with a $15,000,000 adjustment forced on the company by the government — was tabled in the Commons Monday.

The committee Monday night approved the CNR's 1957 report, that produced a deficit of $29,600,000, after hearing $75,000-a-year CNR President Donald Gordon make a wide ranging review of company affairs that included:

1. He has not abandoned hope that the CNR can operate during a long-range period without overall deficits.

2. But first-quarter figures for 1958 show "no encouragement."

Mr. Gordon added, however, that, given intelligent acceptance by the public of the meaning of the CNR's expensive long-term

Archbishop's Statement Under Fire

TORONTO — (CP)—Reaction of Canadian religious leaders Monday to a warning by the Archbishop of Canterbury that the destruction of mankind by nuclear weapons may be God's will rangled from agreement to sharply critical.

Dr. Geoffrey Fisher is quoted in a book published in England Monday as saying that for all he knows "it is within the providence of God that the human race should destroy itself" with clear weapons.

Commented Canon H. R. Hunt, general secretary of the Anglican Church of Canada:

"It may be argued that the continued production of nuclear weapons of destruction, with the intention of use, does not contravene the moral law of God as contained in Holy Scripture. But the teaching of scripture is most definite: 'God is not mockable; whatsoever man sows that shall he reap.'"

Rt. Rev. J. S. Thomson, moderator of the United Church of Canada, said in Montreal:

"It is one of the most astounding statements I've ever heard, a singularly futile, stupid and un-Christian contribution to the present crisis in the world."

Rabbi Abraham Feinberg of Toronto's Holy Blossom temple said the archbishop seemed dangerously unaware of human nature.

LATE BULLETIN

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States sent more than 5,000 Marines into Lebanon today.

They were ordered in to safeguard Americans and protect the Middle East country against indirect aggression.

The White House announced the action and said it was taken in response to an urgent request from Lebanon's President Camille Chamoun.

The statement by President Eisenhower said the American action would be reported to an emergency meeting of the United Nations Security Council this morning.

Eisenhower also said the United States will support any UN measures "which seem to be adequate to meet the new situation" brought about by the overthrow of the Iraqi government by pro-Egyptian forces.

Eisenhower said U.S. forces will be withdrawn promptly when adequate UN security measures are adopted.

President Eisenhower said in Washington his action was taken "in conformity with the spirit" of the United Nations charter which recognizes he said, "an inherent right of collective self-defence."

He said there are 2,500 Americans in Lebanon and that "we cannot, consistently with our historic relations and with the principles of the United Nations, stand idly by when Lebanon appeals itself for evidence of our concern and when Lebanon may not be able to preserve internal order and to defend itself against indirect aggression."

FURTHER BULLETINS

BEIRUT — (AP) — The rebel-controlled Baghdad Radio claimed today that Iraqi Prime Minister Nuri as-Said was seized and beaten to death.

LONDON (AP) — Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd today announced Britain's "full support" for American military action in Lebanon but he said British troops "are not taking part."

CAIRO (Reuters) — The Egyptian government - sponsored Middle East News Agency reported from Ankara today that American and Turkish troops have landed in Jordan at the request of King Hussein.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union sought unsuccessfully today to oust the representative of the overthrown Iraqi government from the UN Security Council.

Auto Strike

COVENTRY, Eng. (Reuters) — About 3,000 men were made idle Monday at the Standard auto plant through a strike of sheet metal workers in Birmingham. The 200 metal workers who supply Standard walked out early last week over a pay dispute.

Higher Learning

SHELBY, N. C. (AP) — Police said Monday a 15-year-old boy left his name and photograph at the site of a break-in so he could get back into reform school and finish his education.

Meg Stays Cool In B C

VICTORIA (CP)—A hot, sticky garden party climaxed a day of steady activity for Princess Margaret Monday.

It was the third day of her centennial tour of British Columbia, and the busiest.

Besides the party, the princess's itinerary took her to a city hall ceremony, presentations at the legislative buildings, a tri-service parade and an official luncheon.

There's respite in store for her today, however.

More than 4,500 persons at tended the party — by invitation only—and their crisply-starched shirt fronts and stiff dress panels wilted quickly in the 90-degree temperature. There wasn't even a breeze to stir the air.

DIDN'T BOTHER PRINCESS

Princess Margaret seemed oblivious of the oppressive heat. She was perfectly dressed, as usual. Her printed pink and white silk taffeta dress was defined at the front, with a loose back flowing from the shoulder to hemline and billowing slightly at the knees.

Her accessories were white; a leather box purse, elbow-length gloves, sandals and a satin, pleated hat with a waved, wide brim and slightly raised crown.

Princess Margaret's steady poise and easy charm stood her in good stead shortly after she made her entrance when, to the dismay of officials, the crowd got out of hand and surged in on her.

It took about five minutes before order could be restored. Led by Cmdr. Glen McDonald, aides-de-camp to Lieut.-Gov. Frank Ross formed a phalanx and with RCMP support cleared a path-way.

In her later tour of the rolling lawns on the Government House

Baghdad Claims Army Supporting Republic; King's Fate Mystery

BEIRUT — (AP) — Nuri Said, pro-Western strongman of Iraq, has escaped from rebel forces which overthrew Iraq's government and was hunted today with a price on his head.

The rebel-controlled Baghdad radio announced Nuri's escape. It was the first indication that the military leaders who wrested control of Iraq Monday still might have obstacles in their path.

In New York, the United Nations Security Council into emergency session today to seek a check to the new turbulence in the Middle East.

Both the U.S. and British governments alerted forces for possible intervention in the area, but the Eisenhower administration was hoping the UN could bolster successfully the forces opposed to the spread of the influence of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

However, the threat of the Soviet veto made any decisive UN action unlikely. Pro - Western sources in Beirut said failure of the West to intervene would mean the end of Western influence in the Middle East.

CLAIM ARMY SUPPORT

Baghdad radio claimed that the situation in Iraq "has finally been stabilized" and the British-trained Iraqi army of 40,000 had rallied to the new republic headed by Brig. Gen. Abdel Karim Kassem as premier.

Hours later came the announcement of Nuri's escape, with no word on how he did it. But it appeared unlikely a man of his age — 70 — could have escaped without help, and this raised hope in London that resistance forces were gathering. The commander of the rebel forces offered a reward of

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marilyn Monroe is back, and we're glad. The Hollywood press corps did not realize how much they missed her until she came back after a two-year absence.

Oh! there have been others who have tried. Jayne Mansfield? You have got to give her A for effort, but she lacks subtlety. Sophia Loren? Not enough imagination. Kim Novak? She comes close, but still lacks a certain flair. Zsa Zsa Gabor? Are you kidding? Marilyn has everything it takes, and I don't just mean the physical aspects. She still has that wonderful, wide-eyed response to interviewers' questions. And her responses are not just accidental or vague.

Such as when she was asked whether she favored the sack dress. No, she replied, it's not organic.

MONROE MAGIC UNIQUE

The Monroe magic is unique. She exudes the impression of being the dumb blonde. But she knows all the angles, including the camera ones. She chided a photographer for trying to get a shot that would show more than she wanted.

And she keeps the reporters happy. She always answers queries. Though her reply might skirt the question, she is always quotable.

Welcome home, Marilyn, and stay a while.

Proprietors To Meet July 23 On $780,000 Parking Lot Projects

A $780,000 loan bylaw to cover construction costs and land purchases for the Wellington St. North and South parking projects was adopted on three readings at last night's public meeting of the city council.

A proprietors' meeting will be held Wednesday, July 23, between 7.30 and 8.30 p. m. at the City Hall. The meeting will be open to all proprietors and not to the downtown owners only.

The scantily detailed bylaw read that $356,000 will be spent on the Meadow St. lot adjacent to Wellington St. North for a two-storey garage and the purchase of a strip of land. The south end scheme will cost $373,000.

The land for the Wellington St. South project will be expropriated.

Although no mention was made in the bylaw, presumably the south end lot will be located on properties of G. Rouillard, the Windsor Hotel, Povey's Lunch, the Wellington Hotel and I. Salois.

The Rouillard block, the Windsor Hotel and the lunch cart will likely be demolished. In the case of the Windsor Hotel, demolition may be delayed three years, until the present lease runs out.

Legal and financing fees account for the remaining $51,000 of the bylaw.

Ald. Carl Camirand gave notice last night of another loan bylaw covering the costs of purchasing the Gillman property on Wellington St. South to be presented at a future meeting.

The property would eventually be used for more parking space. The move is seen as an appeasement to merchants in that area who strongly opposed erecting the garage at the present site chosen by the council.

Also planned is a service station at the Meadow St. garage. Supporting the project, Mayor Nadeau said it was a "measure of extreme importance."

He said there would be no extra burden to the debt service in 1959.

Pointing out that cities such as Montreal and Ottawa are having difficulty coping with parking, the Mayor said "Sherbrooke shows the way in 1958 by seeing not only to the present needs but to the future demands also."

He said Sherbrooke, as the largest centre south of the St. Lawrence River, must welcome equally the visitors and the people who patronize the merchants.

"It is up to the Council not to neglect the merchants," he said. "If the citizens approve the bylaw, they will have shown the same foresight as the members of the council."

The mayor said parking was provided according to the needs of the various centres.

He said 29 spaces had been provided on St. Francis Boulevard for the East Ward merchants and 25 more in the MacKinnon lot in the West Ward.

Private enterprise was not asked to construct or operate the garages because the city was not populous enough, he said.

East Angus Band Giving Concert

The East Angus Band, conducted by Harry Tinker, will give a concert on Wednesday at 8.15 p.m. This will be the third in a series of outdoor concerts sponsored by the town of East Angus during the summer months.

Council Studies Plan To Speed Up Traffic Flow

City council last night endorsed a plan to relocate stop signs at the corner of Moore and Prospects Sts. to permit an unbroken traffic flow from highway No. 5 from Bromptonville.

The aldermen asked that Chief of Police Edouard Moreau investigate the effectiveness of the suggested plan and report his findings to the council.

North Ward Aldermen Paul Gervais and Everett Nicol indicated that they were not satisfied with the proposals.

The present sign located at the north west corner of Moore and Prospects Sts., which covers the traffic from Prospect onto Moore, would be moved across the street. This would mean that traffic on Moore St. would be controlled.

The other sign at the south east corner of Dufferin and Moore Sts. would be moved across the street to the north east corner of Prospect and Moore Sts.

Dufferin Street towards Bromptonville would be made one way.

Alert Constable, Motorist Regain Stolen Machine

The work of an alert constable and a co-operative passing motorist who joined forces last night for a midnight chase, succeeding in catching up with a stolen car and its juvenile driver.

The constable, Andre Sergerie, was patrolling the Montcalm bridge, when he saw a car go by bearing the number of a vehicle reported stolen in Lake Megantic.

He hailed a passing motorist, Herve Lessard, 202 11th Ave., and together they took off after the stolen car.

The car was soon stopped and the driver, a juvenile from Lake Megantic, was turned over to Provincial Police.

Man Had Narrow Escape

A Bromptonville man narrowly escaped with his life yesterday afternoon when the truck he was driving smashed through three guard rails and into a tree on the St. Francis Blvd., crashing over the edge of the road and into the water before coming to a halt.

The man, Leopold Jette, 42, of R.R. No. 1, Brompton, was found sitting in the cab of his truck, apparently unconscious and suffering from scratches to the forehead, when police and firemen arrived on the scene with resuscitating equipment.

The cab was partly filled with water. Witnesses said that it was only luck which prevented the truck from going into deeper water.

Captain Georges Larivée of the Sherbrooke Police said today that the truck had hit a large tree and it was probably the only reason the machine did not plunge headlong into the river.

When attempts were made to free Jette who was partly immersed in the water, rescue workers found it necessary to employ a crowbar to open the door. They were able to reach inside the cab to roll down the window, but the handle failed to function properly.

After Jette was freed, he was taken to the Hotel Dieu for treatment and later released. Police are making an inquiry today.

Model Plane Flies From Owner

MAGOG — Flying radio-controlled model aircraft can be a thrilling but expensive sport. Douglas Hall learned Sunday morning, when his six foot craft flew out of range and disappeared in the distance.

Giving his plane a test flight, Hall set the craft in operation at about 6 a.m. Sunday. It took off gracefully, climbing to an estimated 1500 feet. Then as Hall straightened its course, the plane made a northerly dash, leaving its owner unable to contact it.

The plane was last seen soaring in large circles north-west of Magog, and is believed lost in the Cherry River bog area.

Hall offers a reward for his model, valued at $150.

Orange Celebration At Inverness

INVERNESS — (Special) — Some 2,000 persons, gathered here to celebrate the 268th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. The event took place at the "Gertrude Scott Grove," situated five miles from the town proper.

The bands from the L.O.L. 1591, Lennoxville; L.O.L. 297, Second Range, Leeds; L.O.L. 559, Kinneer's Mills; L.O.L. 678, Campbell's Corner, and L.O.L. 659 Bracken's, Inverness arriving in the morning, paraded through the grounds to the grove proper, followed by members of the Lodges and their families and friends.

An air of genial friendship surrounded the place as old friends wandered among the grove renewing acquaintances, and talked over old times. There were people from as far as the West Coast. One member, Calvin Lowrey, age 63 who hailed from Blackie, Alberta, and a former resident of Inverness said it was the third trip he has made back to celebrate the 12th since his going to the West in 1900. Others came from British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Ontario, Vermont, Maine and parts of Quebec.

A picnic lunch was carried by the participants and the children especially appeared to enjoy themselves with everything in the baskets from sandwiches to dill pickles and cookies, cakes, candy and "pop".

After lunch Brother Gordon Morrison, of Kinneer's Mills, the Worshipful County Chaplain was called upon to give the opening prayer. Singing of the Orangemen's Hymn, "Oh God Our Help In Ages Past," was sung and Earl Robinson, Master of the County Lodge of Megantic officially opened the programme.

In Mr. Robertson's opening remarks he said, "It is my pleasant duty now to extend a real warm Megantic-type welcome to you all to our Loyal Orange County Lodge of Megantic. Our sincere wish is that you will enjoy the day to its fullest extent and that we may all be spared to meet here again in 59."

"For many years this has been the day of days for the Protestant population of the Eastern Townships to be joined by many others from other sections of our Dominion as well as by kindred spirits from different States of the Union, all united in their zeal to celebrate the Victory of William III, at the Boyne, in 1690, over the forces of darkness and superstition."

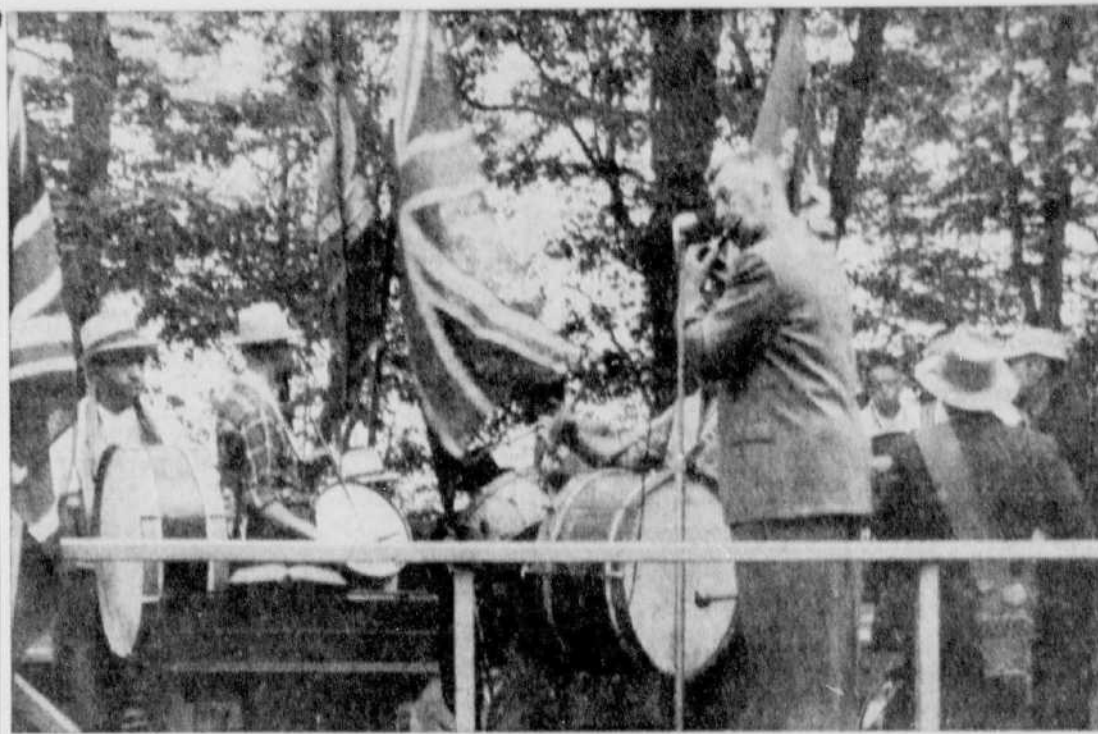

"It is most fitting that we should honor and respect the memory and those departed friends, sisters and brethren by arising and holding one minute of silence."

A telegram was received from Mrs. Gertrude Scott, proprietor of the Grove, wishing the organization all the success in their celebrations. A vote of thanks was extended by Mr. Robinson on behalf of the Orangemen.

The Band of L.O.L. 1591, Lennoxville, played a piece and Rev. Lyle Simpson of Kinneer's Mills addressed the gathering. The band of L.O.L. 297, Second Range, Leeds, then played. Andrew Patton, B.A. was called upon to speak followed by a number by the L.O.L. Band 599, Kinneer's Mills.

A bagpipe selection was rendered by Mac Bourne and John Stoke of Inverness addressed the people. Rev. G. E. Kendrick, of the Anglican Church, Inverness, also spoke.

Brother Gordon Clark, Grand Master of L.O.O.F. Bishopton addressed the people and the L.O.L. Band 678, Campbell's Corner played a number. The service closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Councillors Elected In Summer Municipalities

Elections were held for Municipal Councillors in a number of Eastern Townships villages and townships yesterday. These are so-called "summer municipalities," a substantial proportion of whose property-owners are residents only during the summer month and comprise large resort areas.

In regular municipalities, the elections are held in January. Nominations were held last Wednesday. Three Councillors are elected for two-year terms this year, the mayor and three other Councillors being named a year ago.

Among the elections reported are:

AUSTIN — Two contests featured this year's election for Austin municipality. Lawson Hoppa defeated Douglas Lee by 152 votes to 34 for Seat No. 3 and John Gauthier winning over Louis Vastoglioni 113-71 in Seat No. 4.

In Seat No. 1, Elwyn Boyd was elected by acclamation.

MAGOG — Councillor Leo St. Pierre was re-elected to the Magog Township Council yesterday and Armand Demers was named to fill a vacancy.

Other members of the Council are: Mayor Edga. Bourneval, Councillors Willie Corriveau, Semand Lacasse, E. Philippe, Robert and Dimina Fontaine.

NORTH HATLEY — Maurice Bowen and Charles Guild were elected to the North Hatley

Heavy Award To Lennoxville Man In Damage Case

QUEBEC — Harold G. Way, a Lennoxville, Que., geologist, was awarded $59,166 in damages Monday for injuries suffered in a car-truck collision more than two years ago.

The accident occurred Feb. 16, 1956, when a car in which Mr. Way was a passenger struck a truck parked without lights on the Quebec-Chicoutimi highway near Notre-Dame-des-Laurentides. Mr. Way suffered serious injuries, particularly to the head.

The geologist asked $107,000 damages from car driver Romeo Turcotte of Mackayville and truck owner Jean Voyer of St. Fabien. Superior Court Judge Antoine Lacourciere found both men responsible in part for the accident but reduced the award to $59,166.

Bees Provide Special Act For Theatre

RICHMOND — (Special) — The extra added attraction at the Myra Theatre here Sunday afternoon was not on the wide screen, but in person, outside the theatre on the marquee and the sidewalk.

The "attraction" kept moviegoers a safe distance from the cinema house and also gathered a good number of curious onlookers.

For this event was the same as a week ago and the "special show" was another swarm of honeybees. This time the insects clustered on the theatre marquee and several more were covering part of the side — and their presence kept people away from the movie house. They had to move on the other side of the street to get by.

George Mason was called in again to smoke them out and into a hive which he brought along. He succeeded in getting only a few of them in the box and left the rest of them. He attempted to knock the cluster off the sign with a long pole but to no avail as they swarmed all over. Later, theatre officials called in local firemen to do away with the pests and a booster was used with high water pressure.

Constable Leo "Bob" Guertin managed to get rid of them aided by Maurice Beaudet, who used the booster and sprayed the bees off the sign.

After a short while, the bees were knocked off the marquee. Some lived and others continued to buzz around the marquee, but only a small cluster can be seen.

Arab Nationalism Still Strong

The military coup which ousted the pro-Western government of Iraq is a clear demonstration that the forces of Arab nationalism are as powerful as ever in the Middle East.
Iraq, under the leadership of Premier Nuri Said, had been the keystone of the Baghdad Pact and leader of the opposition to ambitious Egyptian dictator Gamal Abdel Nasser. The regime was openly supported by the West, but Nuri Said's downfall may well be traced to his pro-Western and, particularly, pro-British views.

King Hussein of Jordan, cousin of Iraqi King Faisal, and deputy leader of the Iraq-Jordan union formed to counteract Nasser's Egyptian-Syrian federation, has taken over leadership of the loyal forces. But diplomatic circles express doubt that he will be able to shore up his own tottering country, let alone turn out the Iraqi rebels.

Western leaders know that only open intervention with armed forces can save Jordan and Lebanon, already torn by internal revolt. Yet the memory of Suez recalls the risks involved. The West does not want to give the Russians a chance to intervene and at the same time few would hope for a long-term settlement on the basis of occupation of the Middle East by Western troops.

Whatever the outcome of the present confused situation, it is clear that the West has underestimated the strength of Arab nationalism. Perhaps reports that Nasser's regime was falling apart because of internal difficulties were premature or exaggerated. At any rate, the Iraqi coup has strengthened Nasser's position again. The West will have to deal with this new development and Western diplomats may have to change their approach if they are to keep the Arab world, presently treading a slippery neutralist road, out of Soviet clutches.

Let The Public Be Heard

The new parliamentary committee being named to study the chronic problem of broadcasting in Canada should spend more time in listening to the desires of the Canadian people than in acting as a referee between the CAB (the association of private broadcasters) and the CBC (a government agency).

In advancing this suggestion, The St. Thomas Times-Journal declares that these two groups have argued so long and so loud about so many unimportant aspects of broadcasting that important issues have been buried.

However, some witnesses before the Massey and Fowler Commissions have succeeded in getting down to fundamentals. They were able to reveal as fallacy the theory that broadcasting, including television, is a "natural monopoly" which must be supported on a lavish scale out of the public purse. On speaking before both the Royal Commissions, S. M. Finlayson, president of Canadian Marconi Company which started broadcasting in Canada, exploded the "natural monopoly" theory very thoroughly and demonstrated that the limitations are economic rather than technical so far as practical considerations are concerned. He has also made the same case and with equal clarity before the CBC Board of Governors.

Certain cultural contributions to radio and television financed by the State are desired by some of the people and probably few have strenuous objection to the basic idea, but there is no technical reason to support the theory that the broadcasting industry needs to be set aside as a government pet — and an exceptionally expensive pet, as it is currently being maintained.

The general public would welcome a thorough study by qualified people designed to make broadcasting more effective, to make it a more effective servant of that forgotten man, the listener, and to accomplish this at much less cost to the public purse.

Mark Of Infamy

That famous secret meeting of top national gangsters last fall at Apalachin, N.Y., must have been the biggest mass gathering of criminal leaders in history.

Hardly a criminal of any consequence is apprehended in the U.S. these days who is not rumored to have been present at the great conclave. That was the meeting where the underworld was supposed to have plotted general strategy for their "big take" in the years ahead.

If this sort of thing continues, having been at Apalachin is going to be just about as important a credential to a gangster as coming over on the Mayflower was to the early Americans.

The fellow who didn't make the Apalachin guest list probably doesn't have much of a future. He'd better look around for another game. He might even try going straight.

Press Comment

SPHINX SPEAKS

(Lethbridge Herald)
There are sheepish grins at the British war office and, no doubt, purple faces among the retired brass in London's clubs and frowns on the brows of tourist officials. But thanks to one Life Guardsman and his commanding officer, the British army has shown that it is human after all.

We refer, of course, to the guardsman who moved — yes, and said, "You're a liar" — after listening for probably the umpteenth time to a Whitehall guide telling tourists that Life Guard sentries never bat an eye or open their mouths; and to the commanding officer who dropped a charge of disobeying standing orders because of extenuating circumstances.

What, after all, can the retired brass and the tourist officials and the war office expect if soldiers are turned into curiosity pieces, to be gaped at by incredulous visitors? That is debasing tradition, stretching the thongs of discipline too far.

The authorities can at least take comfort from the fact that the sentry is a man who speaks briefly and to the point. The guide may not have been a liar, but his pitch was obviously rendered inaccurate by the sentry's comment upon it.

not support either of those suits. A trap pass was in order, in which case East and West would probably have worked their way into serious trouble.

South's two-diamond call was ambitious and there was nothing to commend North's bid of two no-trump. South's bid of three diamonds was correct. There usually is one correct bid in each auction. As for North's jump to five diamonds it must be that North decided his partner held eight diamonds and did not know it.

West doubled and opened the deuce of trumps. Now, just to prove that right does not always triumph in a bridge game. South got away with his horrible contract. He won the ace of diamonds; discarded a heart on the ace of clubs and trumped a second club in his own hand. He noted that East dropped the jack. The jack of diamonds was led next and West was obliging enough to let it hold. A third diamond lead cleared up the suit and West continued his null play by leading the king of hearts.

Now all South had to do was to win in dummy; lead the queen of clubs and discard a heart. West took his king but now dummy's three remaining clubs were good and South was able to get rid of all three of his spade losers.

Gerald Waring REPORTING

OTTAWA — The way now appears open for Canadian subsidiaries of US companies to trade with Red China without risk of their parent companies being penalized under American law.

I say "appears" because there is an element of chicken counting before hatching in this matter. President Eisenhower has not, at this writing, made anything like the unequivocal statement Prime Minister Diefenbaker made on this subject in the Commons last Friday.

Diefenbaker says he has Eisenhower's assurance that the US will "consider favorably" exempting US parent companies from penalty if their Canadian branches trade with the Chinese. That seems to mean that the US won't hold parent companies accountable if Canadian subsidiaries sell to the Chinese. But until the Americans confirm this, companies will continue to be reluctant to accept Chinese orders.

And there is the possibility that there is a misunderstanding — maybe Eisenhower didn't promise as much as Diefenbaker thinks he did. All that White House press secretary Jim Hagerty would say was that it had been "decided" that where the laws of the US and Canada are not in complete harmony, the two governments will confer to try to agree on a satisfactory solution.

US law prohibits all trade with Red China. Canadian law permits trade except in items on the Canadian export control list. This list contains many hundreds of items under headings such as chemical and petroleum equipment, machinery, electronic equipment, precision instruments, transportation equipment, and strategic minerals and chemicals.

If the US lifts its ban to the extent Diefenbaker indicated, a back door will be opened for American goods to reach China by way of Canada.

Many Canadian subsidiaries produce goods (e.g., motor cars) which are partly fabricated in the US. Others manufacture some lines and import other lines from the parent plants.

Thus American companies with Canadian subsidiaries will be in a favored economic position. Indirectly they will be able to engage in what our government hopes and perhaps even expects will be a very lucrative Sino-Canadian trade.

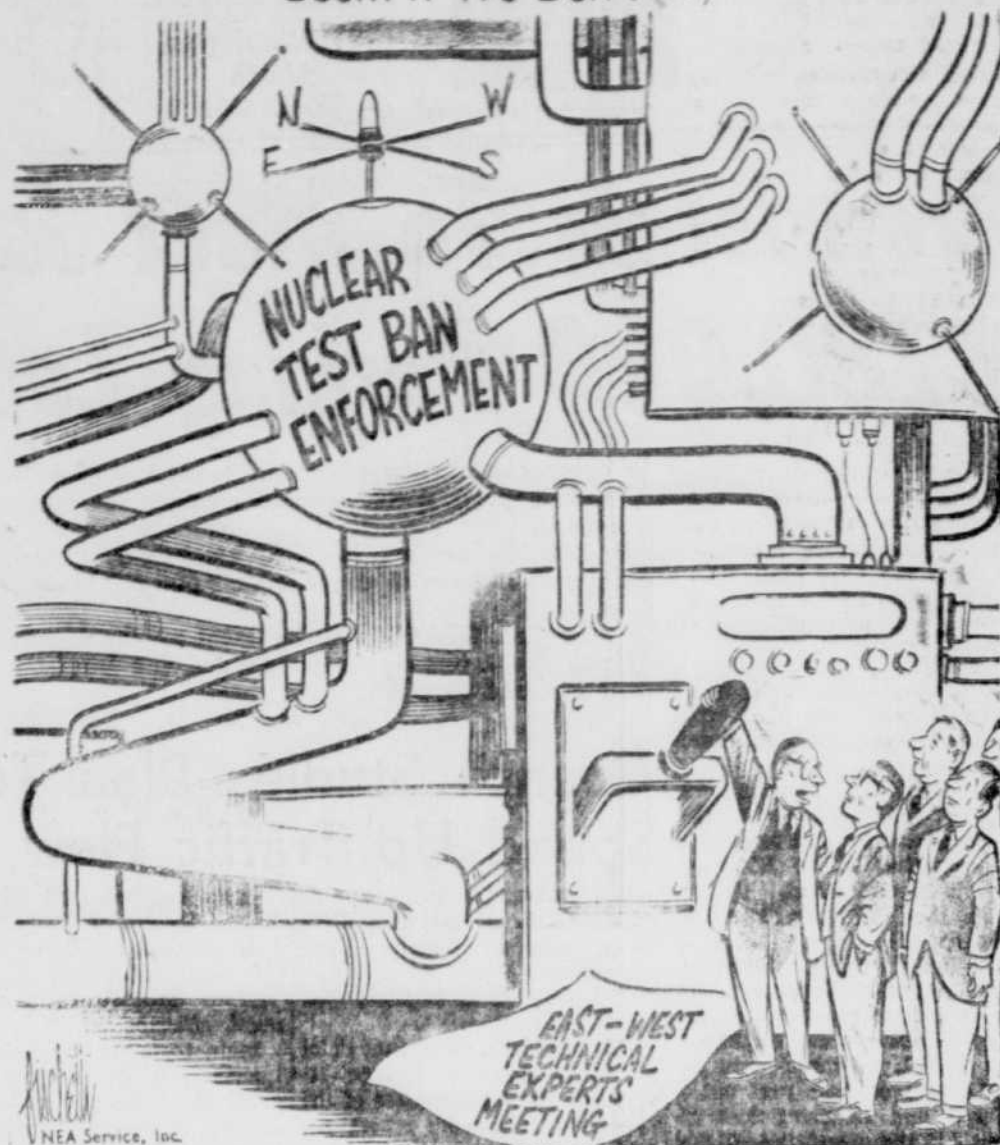

And this will encourage other US companies to acquire Canadian subsidiaries, and quickly.

If the US hopes to continue an effective trade embargo so far as China is concerned, these will be serious problems. If the US is going to throw in the towel on China trade, it makes no difference. But Hagerty said Eisenhower did not indicate the US is going to relax its restrictions on China trade.

Canadian exports to China last year were picayune — valued at only $1,391,663. But already this year the Chinese have bought $5,500,000 worth of our wheat, and the hope in Ottawa is to sell them considerably more, and also products like pulpwood, aluminum, plastics, industrial chemicals and nylon.

Diefenbaker told the Commons he hopes last fall's abortive Chinese nibble for 1,000 Canadian Ford's will result, even this belatedly, in a sale. And I'm told by a reliable source that a Chinese order for 10,000 tons of bleached sulfite, worth about $1,000,000, has been going begging on the West Coast for a good many weeks. My information is that the only two companies in the area which can handle the order — Rayonier Inc. and Crown-Zellerbach — have declined to quote prices. Both are subsidiaries of US firms.

"It May Go Boom, but There'll Be a Bigger Boom if We Don't Try"

Metals And Plastics?

(Windsor Daily Star)

Canada has immense known reserves of base metals vital to today's industrial production. It also has vast areas in the north probably rich in those minerals. But are they likely to become obsolete if not used in the decades ahead? That, apparently, is a risk that must be recognized. Industry's basic raw materials a century or even a half century hence can't be forecast with certainty, but some scientists think they see trends.

One opinion is that the dawn of the Age of Missiles — space missiles — will find plastics more suitable to its often superheated purposes than existing metals. That well might be. But skeptics who recall Henry Ford's experiments with soybeans will note that so far plastics have not displaced steel in car bodies to any great extent. Over a wide range of manufactured products, in fact, metallurgical developments have kept ahead of plastics.

But if plastics will to a great extent replace metals between now and 2058, that hardly will leave Canada poorer. In oil, wood and other products we have the raw materials for an assortment of plastics. We have, also, a developing industry to exploit (in the better sense of that word) those natural resources. Canada has an economic stake, therefore, in metals and plastics and would do well to keep an eye on both.

Pioneer History

St. Boniface Cross A Reminder

ST. BONIFACE, Man. (CP)—An illuminated cross atop a hospital here reminds citizens of the community's religious background just as the famous chimneys of the nearby basilica called residents to worship in pioneer days.

The cross is visible far beyond the boundaries of this modern city of 32,000, now celebrating its 50th anniversary, but the chimneys must compete with the traffic roar of Winnipeg facing St. Boniface across the Red River.

The history of St. Boniface goes back to 1738 when the site was reached by the French explorer La Verendrye. The first community was formed by Rev. Joseph Norbert Provencher in 1818.

Culture and commerce have combined over the years to promote growth and prosperity. From the humble mission of Father Provencher, who named the community St. Boniface, the city has grown steadily.

Now, the cathedral city boasts flour mills, cement plants, meat-packing houses and the largest stockyards in the British Commonwealth.

When Father Provencher arrived on the east bank of the Red River, opposite the mouth of the Assiniboine, he found that the German-Swiss Des Meurons regiment had settled along the banks of the nearby Seine River.

It was to these settlers that the Quebec priest first ministered. Within weeks he had built a church and later a school and a chapel. The school soon became the first St. Boniface College and the chapel was eventually to become the twin spired basilica of today.

The college later was a co-founder of the University of Manitoba.

In 1884 four nuns from the Grey Nuns Congregation of Montreal arrived. They built a little four-bed hospital.

George Washington had no rival for the office of president of the United States. Even before the Constitution was adopted, the people of the country were unanimous that if they, rather than electors, should select a president, George Washington would be their choice.

A 700-bed building now stands on practically the same site. The illuminated cross tops this hospital, still operated by the Grey Nuns.

The same year that the Grey Nuns arrived, a boy was born in St. Boniface destined to become a famous figure in Canadian history. He was Louis Riel.

With the development of the west, St. Boniface became a rural municipality in 1880. Three years later it was made a town and then in 1908 a city.

A railway to St. Paul, Minn., put St. Boniface on the road to success. Wheat and cattle passing from Western to Eastern Canada must go through the city which makes it an ideal location for mills and packing plants.

Although St. Boniface has a distinct French flavor only about 1,000 of its population speak only French. About 18,000 speak only English. However, more than 11,000 are bilingual.

The infiltration of English-speaking people came at the start of the century and they settled in the southern part of the city called Norwood. Later Belgian and central European families formed communities.

Recent immigration activity has made St. Boniface even more cosmopolitan, and in 1946 Manitoba's only French-speaking radio station — CKSB — started broadcasting.

Today the station broadcasts in German, Ukrainian and Hungarian as well as French.

Seventeen churches are located in the city's 18-square-mile area. None, however, can compare with the picturesque cathedral overlooking the Red River. The cathedral, too, is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.

LIFE INSURANCE contributes financially to medical research at CANADIAN UNIVERSITIES

Medical research aims at a longer, happier life for you and your children

Thanks to untiring research, many dangerous diseases are under control today. A number of other "killers", however, are still unsolved problems.

In the over-all research effort being made to solve them, the medical schools of Canadian universities are playing an important part.

To help strengthen and develop their research programs, the Life Insurance Companies in Canada are providing research Fellowships to these universities, every year.

Fellowships are awarded to graduates who have been appointed to teaching or research staffs of Canadian medical schools. During the past nine years 107 Fellowships of this nature, amounting to half a million dollars, have been granted.

This is just one of the many ways in which the Life Insurance Companies in Canada are helping to further the progress of medical science in this country and to promote a happier, healthier life for everyone.

started at 10 a.m. with a ceremony at city hall, where she received civic officials and was presented with a specially-struck 24-carat gold centennial medal.

From there she went to the legislative buildings, inspected an army guard of honor, replied to a speech of welcome by Premier Bennett, accepted a 540-acre golf island, received members of the legislature, deputy ministers, officials, a Victoria Cross holder and their wives.

HONORED BY PARADE

A 950-man tri-service parade was next on the list, followed by a 37-plane RCAF fly past in her honor. Elevation of the aircraft, CF-100 jet interceptors, formed the initial "M."

Following a short break, Princess Margaret received officials of the church, judiciary, consular corps and others, then went to the luncheon.

Later Premier Bennett presented her with a diamond brooch from the people of B.C. A replica of the dogwood blossom, the province's official flower, the brooch contained 238 diamonds and scores of emeralds. She wore it to the afternoon garden party.

Her schedule today, although running more than 12 hours, will be less strenuous.

In the morning she will tour the veterans' hospital and inspect ambulance and nursing cadets of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. In the afternoon she will review 25 Canadian, United States and British navy ships. During the evening she will drive to the Canadian Services College at Royal Roads for the naval review dinner and watch an illumination and fireworks display from the ships anchored offshore.

NEW BONDS

interest, are convertible: The fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth victory loans, issued between 1943-45, their mature between Jan. 1, 1959, and Sept. 1, 1966.

Available for swapping—starting immediately—are four different conversion issues. They range from three-per-cent bonds maturing in 34 years to 4½-per-cent bonds maturing in 25 years.

The government's hope is that the switch will be to the long-term issues—the 25-year bonds and another issue of 14 years bearing 4½ per cent interest. Another seven-year conversion issue bears interest at 3½ per cent.

Holders of all five victory loans may change to either the 14-year or 25-year issues. The seven-year and the 34-year bonds will not be available to holders of the eighth and ninth victory loan bonds. The 34-year bonds also will not be available for the seventh victory loan bonds.

CAMPAIGN STARTS AUG. 5

The new conversion issues will be dated Sept. 1, when their interest rates take effect. But all applications will be accepted until Sept. 15. The public sales campaign will get its main kick-off Aug. 5.

The new interest rates generally are slightly higher than the current market rate for similar maturities, and could add as much as $90,000,000 to the annual interest burden of the government.

Besides higher interest, the government is offering cash bonuses ranging up to $2 for each $100 bond converted. For example, a holder of a $100 fifth victory loan bond maturing next Jan. 1 will get $1.99 cash if he converts to a 25-year or 14-year bond. The holder of a $100 eighth victory loan bond maturing in 1963 will get a 50-cent bonus for the same conversion.

BONDVILLE ACCIDENT — Riel Laflamme, 28, of Granby, was slightly injured when his 1952 Chrysler, pictured above, went off the road and through a bridge near Bondville early Sunday morning. Blaze Cause Of Heavy Damage To Magog Grocery MAGOG — Fire of unknown origin, breaking out about 3.15 yesterday morning, gutted the interior of the meat and grocery establishment of Francois LaCaille, Sherbrooke street, causing damage estimated in excess of $20,000.

Mr. LaCaille, who lived on the second floor of the two-storey concrete block structure, was awakened by an acrid smoke and turned in the alarm.

Chief Telephone Lavoie and 20 Magog firemen fought the blaze for over one hour before bringing it under control. As firemen had not used the sirens in the run to the fire, only about 10 spectators witnessed the outbreak.

Heaviest damage was caused to the store, the apartment above suffering mostly from smoke.

Canadians Believed Safe In Iraq

LONDON — The foreign office said today it has received no specific report on the status of some 45 Canadians believed to be in Iraq.

"As far as we know they are all right," a foreign office spokesman said.

Canada does not maintain an embassy in Iraq. Canadians are advised to get in touch with the British Embassy in Baghdad, reported to have been pillaged and set afire Monday after Iraqi rebels overthrew the government.

Canada House also reported it has no reports on Canadians in Iraq.

One Canadian believed to be in Iraq is Milton Fowler Gregg, of Fredericton, N.B., former minister of labor in the St. Laurent administration. Gregg, who won the Victoria Cross in the First World War, is understood to be in Iraq on United Nations work.

A number of Canadian engineers are believed working on various power and road-building projects. Others are engaged in the oil industry.

BAGHDAD CLAIMS

old King Hussein of Jordan proclaimed himself chief of state of the Iraqi-Jordan federation which the two neighboring countries had organized in opposition to the U.A.R.

Baghdad's radio broadcasts reformed the chief source of information on the situation in Iraq. Commercial communication channels were shut down. Airports were closed to traffic and the frontiers closed to foreigners.

Nasser sent greetings to the Iraqi rebels, which had announced that they would follow his "liberated Arab policy." He cut short by one day his visit to Yugoslavia for President Tito and Yugoslav Prime Minister.

Jubilant crowds in Cairo and Damascus hailed the uprising.

PREPARE TROOPS

In London, after the longest cabinet meeting since the Second World War, Prime Minister Macmillan ordered 6,000 troops ready for possible speedy movement to the Middle East. Another 650 men already were standing by.

One possibility was the immediate reinforcement of British garrisons at the Red Sea base of Aden and in the Persian Gulf, sheikdom of Kuwait, both within striking distance of Iraq.

Britain has about 6,000 citizens in Iraq, many of them engaged in producing oil. The controller of the embassy was killed by a stray bullet during the attack in Baghdad, but other Britons were reported safe.

France sent two aircraft carriers, six destroyers and other ships speeding east, apparently to join a French flotilla now in the eastern Mediterranean.

U.S. WAITS

The United States held off a decision on direct military intervention to protect shaky, pro-Western Jordan and Lebanon from the threat of similar coups. Washington banked heavily on swift UN action but did not rule out acting outside the world organization.

The possibility of landing 3,600 marines now with the U.S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean was under consideration, one senator reported after President Eisenhower met with congressional leaders.

The 6th Fleet commander, Rear-Admiral Charles E. Brown, cut short a visit to the French Riviera and sailed for the eastern Mediterranean with the 85,000-ton aircraft carrier Saratoga and three other ships.

Huge air force transport planes at Charleston, S.C., took off for Europe, where they would be available to fly U.S. troops from

Potshot Motorist

TEWKESBURY, England (Reuters) — Worcestershire police searched Monday for a motorist who drove through four villages early Sunday taking potshots at windows with a 12-gauge shotgun. Two taverns and a number of houses reported smashed windows.

Germany to the Middle East if necessary.

The other three Asian members of the Baghdad Pact — Turkey, Iran and Pakistan — met in Ankara with Iraq. There was no official word that Iraq would pull out of the anti-Soviet alliance, but that appeared to be only a matter of time because of Nasser's opposition to it.

Authoritative sources said leaders of the other three countries considered that Iraq's withdrawal would not mean an end to the pact. One source pointed out that the three nations still form a solid geographical link along the southern borders of Russia.

Too Early To Be Sure Slump Over

TORONTO (CP) — It is too early to be sure that the downward trend in business has come to an end, says the monthly review of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

"The contraction," the review comments, "has been moderate and, with a good seasonal rise in the past three months, some observers have been suggesting that the bottom of the recession may have been reached."

"However, there have been many cross-currents at work and it has been more than usually difficult to isolate seasonal influences."

Indicating the "shallowness" of the recession to date, the review says, total volume of non-farm production in the first quarter this year was down less than two per cent from a year ago.

"As has been generally true in recent years," it adds, "the trend was down less than two per cent from a year ago."

"As has been generally true in recent years," it adds, "the trend of production and employment has been appreciably stronger than in the United States."

The review describes the current recession as "world-wide" and, in the main, a reaction to the capital investment boom of 1955-1957.

will possibly make a statement today.

Among other developments Monday:

1. Prime Minister Diefenbaker said the government plans to drive ahead to completion of its legislative program for this session without a summer adjournment.

2. The Commons agreed—over CCF opposition—to extend its sitting hours by meeting two hours Friday nights and 5½ hours Saturdays.

3. Finance Minister Fleming announced refinancing of $6,416,000,000 worth of victrol bonds through long and medium term bonds and borrowings of $400,000,000 for five months from the chartered banks and the Bank of Canada.

On arriving, we found the home well-willed with family connections, and in due time were seated at well-laden tables for a full course dinner and grace with the traditional wedding cake made and decorated by Mrs. Elvyn Bryant, and presided over by Rev. and Mrs. John Stark. retraining on transcontinental passenger traffic in favor of more lucrative intercity hauls.

2. The CNR may go into the trucking business more intensively as a means of combatting road competition, but he preferred not to give details at the moment.

3. The CNR probably will ask the government to produce legislation making new railway employees subject to compulsory contributory pensions. Those now are optional.

4. The president declined to forecast what freight rate increase—if any—might be required to cover any possible increase in operating expenses created by current negotiations with the non-operating group of employees.

5. The company should have full diesel operations in effect by late 1960 or 1961. The company had not yet had the full benefits of expenditures it has made on diesels.

6. Only a relatively small proportion of the CNR's traffic should be lost as a result of the scheduled St. Lawrence Seaway opening next year.

"There is bound to be some in the first instance, but we don't expect to suffer much actual loss," Mr. Gordon told the committee.

Mr. Gordon said ship operators looking for cheaper costs may be in for unpleasant surprises. Seaway labor costs may be high. At all events, he told the committee, the seaway at most would be a seasonal operation.

UK To Import More Apples

WASHINGTON — (Reuters) — Britain has established an import quota of 75,000 long tons for fresh apples in the 1958-59 season to be supplied by Canada and the United States.

The quota will be 75,000 long tons, of which 15,000 tons will be admitted in the period July to December, 1958, and 60,000 tons in the period January to June, 1959. Previous restrictions on the entry of North American apples before Nov. 16 will be abolished, the announcement said.

"The new arrangement is a further step toward the liberalization of imports from the dollar area in addition to that made by the establishment of the dollar fruit quota."

JAMES PATRICK McMAHON, OF WEST SHEFFORD

WEST SHEFFORD — With the death of James P. McMahon in his 79th year on June 25 last, there passed from the Shefford scene one who had lived here for more than 50 years, 20 of which he was the community's first gentleman, the village mayor. And, within the scope of 1879-1958, "Gentleman Jim" carved out a niche which now entitles him to be remembered as a "worthy" both of West Shefford and Shefford County.

James Patrick, son of Thomas McMahon and his wife, Mary Jane Dunlavy, was born on July 17, 1879 at St. Joachim. After spending his boyhood there, he eventually came on West Shefford where he carved out a successful career which embraced such roles as farmer, merchant and lumberman. In all Mr. Mac did he was ably supported by his wife, Clara Ann, only daughter of the late Edward and Mrs. Harvey, of Dunham and Granby, whom he married on September 8th, 1906.

To his wife, his seven sisters and brother, Joseph McMahon, of West Shefford, and his other relatives he left the legacy of a good name. His friends, as well as those near and dear to him, will always think of him as one of the best. Honored in life by his neighbors, friends and relatives, he will be greatly missed.

The funeral took place on June 28, Abbe St. Pierre parish priest, officiating in the church and cemetery of St. Francis Xavier. Hundreds attended and those who could not be present sent flowers, masses, cards, letters and telegrams.

Three Silhouettes For Fall

Chemise Will Take More Shape

By GAILLE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor
NEW YORK —(NEA)— The three fall dress silhouettes that count for daytime next fall are the Directoire, the trapeze and the modified chemise.

Of all the many funny things said about the chemise for autumn, one of the funniest is that the chemise will now have more form. When a chemise has more fit, it ceases to be a chemise and becomes either a sheath or Directoire, which is a dress that has the very high bosomline often coupled with a slim skirt.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

If you don't want to answer a personal question, don't. The person who doesn't have any better manners than to go around asking personal questions needn't be treated too gently. Just brush aside the question with a joke or a vague answer.

The Directoire silhouette may have this same bosomline paired with full, flared or gracefully pleated skirt. The high-bosomed line is achieved by a wrapped cummerbund, by set-in banding or occasionally by a wide belt.

Skirt lengths for daytime dresses are shorter in all collections. They look prettiest in the short lengths when the skirt is either flared or pleated. When a skirt is very short and narrow, too, it takes on an awkward look.

The blouson silhouette goes quietly on into fall, looking chic and ladylike. Coupled with a sheath skirt and given a wide or stand-away collar, it's seen in some form in the collections of many top designers. It's at its best in lightweight black wool but looks fresh and pretty in red, blue or gold.

Violet and purple, red, blue, green and gold make the collections glow with color. In some collections, the color of the dress was carried out completely through tinted hosiery and shoes dyed to match. With the shorter skirts, this creates a well-put-together, head-to-toe look that's almost a necessity.

First fabrics for fall run to the brilliant wool jerseys, printed corduroys and jerseys, tone-on-tone tweeds, loopy mohairs and chiffon flannels. There is an emphasis on the lighter weight, softer wools, since they're thought to be most wearable in our climate and in our well-heated apartments and homes.

Some of these fabrics get surprise touches, as when white mink makes the cuffs for a gray wool jersey daytime dress or when printed corduroy is combined with gleaming silk. And in the dress-with-jacket combinations, chiffon often teams up with wool. It's used both for dress top and jacket lining.

Afternoon dress for autumn, 1958, is done by Pattullo-Jo Copeland in champagne-colored wool with silk satin binding. The dress has wrapped look with jacket effect ending in side buckle. Satin outlines both sleeves and neckline.

Marriage

LIVINGSTON WESTOVER

SUTTON, Que.—The marriage of Carolyn Annette (Honey) Westover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Westover, of Sutton, Que., to Asa John Livingston II, of Richmond, Vt., son of Mrs. Lelia Livingston, of Derby, Vt., and Mr. Asa C. Livingston, of Richmond, Vt., took place at half past eleven o'clock on Saturday, June 28th, in Grace Church, Sutton. Rev. M. Brett officiated and the organist was Mr. Cecil Carr. Mrs. R. Cowan sang The Lord's Prayer and Because during the signing of the register. The altar was adorned with pink and white lupines and white satin bows and sprigs of orange blossom marked the guest pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in white poult de soie, fashioned with a Chantilly lace fitted bodice having a sash and neckline and lily point sleeves. The full floor length skirt, enhanced with lace appliques, fell into a chapel train. Her finger tip veil of tulle illusion was held by a coronet of pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. H. Heath, of Windsor Mills, as matron-of-honor, and Mrs. W. Holden, of Sutton, Mrs. R. Watson, of Montreal, Mrs. P. McGee, of Ste. Anne de Bellevue and Miss A. Stacey, cousin of the bride, of Hamilton, Ont., as bridesmaids. Gowned in similar princess styled gowns of lavender taffeta over pink, with tiny bows at the shoulders and sides of the skirt, the attendants wore large lavender lace and net hats trimmed with small pink flowers and streamers of lavender ribbon. They carried nosegays of matching shade sweet peas.

Miss Roslyn Westover and Miss Carolyn Heath, nieces of the bride, as flower girls, wore frocks of pastel green nylon or gandy over taffeta with head-dresses of yellow rosebuds, and they carried baskets of rose petals.

Master Robert John Stevenson, cousin of the groom, ring-bearer, carried the rings on a heart shaped nylon pillow.

Mr. Harry Pickering, of Boston, Mass., acted as best man for the groom and the ushers were Harry Stevenson, of Newport, Vt., Peter Sutton, Hawthorne, N.J., Wallace Holden and J. W. Westover, Sutton, Que.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Westover, chose a silk ribbon sheath dress of Dior blue with which she wore a large picture hat of blue organza, with toning accessories and a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Livingston, mother of the groom, wore a sack style suit dress of green silk, with white hat and matching accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall, where pink and white lupines were used to decorate. The bride's table, with its attractive floral arrangement of pink and white lupines and lavender sweet peas, was centered with a four-tier wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Livingston later left for a honeymoon in Puerto Rico, Haiti, Dominican Republic and Jamaica, B.W.I., the bride wearing a grey linen sheath dress with matching three quarter length coat, with which she wore white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Guests were present at the wedding from Chesterfield, Derbyshire, England, Seneca Falls, N.Y., Hawthorne, N.J., Boston, Newton Lower Falls, Woburn, Melrose Highlands and Middleborough, Mass., Hamilton, Ont., Richmond, Newport, St. Johnsbury, Derby, Burlington and Barton, Vt., Lennoxville, Sherbrooke, Windsor Mills, Montreal, Ste. CHAMBERS—TOUSAW

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday afternoon in the Lennoxville United Church, when Margaret Virginia Tousaw, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Tousaw, and the late Albert Tousaw, became the bride of Dennis Howard Chambers, of Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chambers, of Johannesburg, South Africa. Rev. Dr. L. M. Outerbridge officiated. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Fred Fox. Pink peonies, pink, white and blue lupines and mock orange blossoms were attractively arranged in the church.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Paul H. Knowlton, of Galt, Ont., the bride was in an original model gown of Swiss embroidered cotton, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline bordered with daisies, and lily point sleeves. The bouffant skirt, highlighted with a bustle effect held by small roses, fell into a chapel train. Her finger tip veil of tulle illusion was held by a crown of daisies, and she carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses and ivy.

Mrs. Robert Scott, as matron of honor for her sister, wore a ballerina length gown of ice-blue Swiss poplin, having an Empire waistline, Sabrina neckline and short sleeves.

Miss Martha Jackman, as bridesmaid, wore a pale gold gown, in the same style as that worn by the matron of honor, and both wore headresses to match their gowns and carried bouquets of Shasta daisies.

Mr. Dennis Roddy acted as best man for the groom and the ushers were Mr. Russell Tousaw, brother of the bride, and Dr. Robert Scott.

Mrs. Tousaw, mother of the bride, chose a delphinium blue printed pure silk dress, with which she wore a pink hat and a corsage of Sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Rockcliffe, where pink roses were used to decorate.

Leaving for a motor trip to Cape Cod, Mass., the bride travelled in a two-piece navy blue cotton dress with beige accessories, and she wore a corsage of gardenias. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers will take up residence in Montreal.

Guests were present from Toronto, Galt, Iroquois, Ont., Manchester, N.H., Montreal, Pointe Claire and Coaticook, Que.

World's a Stage, But Make Sure You Have Right Role

Most women do a certain amount of play-acting. And if they play roles that suit their age and background, they often put on a pretty good performance, whether they are playing "gracious hostess," "serious-minded clubwoman," "outdoor girl," local belle" or whatever.

But they make themselves ridiculous when they choose a role that is either too old or too young for their years, or one that doesn't fit in with their background and position.

Mrs. B. is a perfect example of a woman trying to play a role that makes her look absurd.

Mrs. B. is pushing it. She has a successful husband, three children and a house that could be made into a gracious, livable, inviting home.

But Mrs. B. doesn't fancy herself in the role of wife, mother and mistress of a home.

The role Mrs. B. has chosen for herself is "dangerous woman." So she goes in for startling clothes, a bored, world-weary expression on her theatrically made-up face, the kind of conversation she thinks goes with the world.

weary air, and a rudeness she expects others to find amusing.

But all that others find amusing is Mrs. B. trying to play a role that so obviously doesn't suit her age or the place in the community to which her husband's success entitles her.

Mrs. B. has made herself ridiculous not by her play-acting but by choosing the wrong role.

So if there is a little more than the usual amount of "actress" in your makeup, be careful that you change your roles often enough to keep in step with the changes of age and fortune.

Unless you do that you are likely to seem as funny or as pathetic to others as does the aging actress who is still playing the role of glamorous girl when many women her age are happily bragging about their grandchildren.

TACHY TECHNIQUE — With his Daliesque mustache emphasizing his dour look, French painter Mathieu looks over one of his paintings at a Paris exhibit. It's an example of "Tachism," which he created. He says it's a style of "action painting" wherein the artist just slaps paint around until "something develops." Mathieu's expression suggests he's awaiting developments with no great confidence.

Coaticook Girl Writes Interesting Letter On Holiday In Mexico City

COATICOOK — Miss Ann Dodds, daughter of Mrs. Glen Brown, Union Street, is presently in Mexico City, and in a most interesting letter to her family has given a word picture of life in that part of the world. Excerpts from her letter follow:

It is really quite difficult to form an opinion of Mexico from a first look at it, it is the kind of country that you learn about little by little. Most persons living there arise at 10.00 a.m., breakfast is served at 10.30 a.m., lunch is at 2 p.m. and supper at 8.30 p.m. This is not surprising when you discover that folks rarely think of retiring before 3.00 a.m.

The altitude is 8,500 feet, so that most visitors soon fall into the easy going, slow life of the natives due to the height. Most households have maids and early in the morning you see the streets crowded with those aproned, gingham clad women bustling to the markets.

The typical Mexican food is hard to get used to and the well-known tortilla, a flat, tough, greenish pancake, made of crushed corn, boiled to a paste and then fried, is strange to Canadian tastes. This is a basic food and is served over or under many other things together with the terrifically hot chili sauce.

duke. Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Jones and family of Island Pond, Vt., visited at the same home. The staff of the local Bell Telephone Co., including the retired managers, Mrs. R. M. Thompson, of this place, and Miss Beatrice Lazarus, of Rock Island, sponsored a dinner party in honor of Mrs. John Lepine, who has discontinued her services, after being on the staff for several years.

The present manager, Miss Letta Dustin, pinned a corsage on the guest of honor and also presented her with a beautiful table lamp with their best wishes for future years. Mrs. Lepine expressed her thanks. The Cliff Cafeteria catered for the dinner, which was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Thompson, Mrs. R. M. Thompson and Mrs. U. R. Thompson were guests of Mrs. C. H. Robinson and Mrs. Elsie Standish, at Rock Island recently.

Miss Dianne Ellingson, of New York City, spent the American holiday weekend at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Estella Robinson.

U.S. Davis Cuppers Make Complete Sweep Of Canadians In Round 5-0

Whitey Ford Seems Headed For His Best Year, Blanks White Sox 5-0; Red Sox Move Back Into Second Spot

This may be the year Whitey Ford, the New York Yankees' stubby southpaw, finally wins 20 games. He seldom has looked better since coming up in 1950 and supplying the push manager Casey Stengel needed for the second of his eight American League pennants.

The blonde kid was called up from Kansas City (then in the American Association) and won nine of 16 decisions as the Yankees clipped Detroit for the 50th pennant. He went on to win the clincher in the world series sweep over Philadelphia and now is a 29-year-old veteran with 102 victories in the sack.

Yet he never has won 20 in one year. In 1956 he won 19 and arm trouble held him to an 11-5 record last year.

SHUTS OUT CHICAGO

Ford is 11-4 now. He tied team mate Bob Turley for the AL shut-out lead with four by blanking the Chicago White Sox 5-0 Monday night on three hits.

The runaway Yankees pushed 13 games ahead, their longest bulge of the season, as Boston reclaimed second place with a 4-3 decision over Cleveland in 10 innings and Detroit slipped to third with a 2-1 defeat at Baltimore.

Jack Urban, a onetime Yankee farm hand, shut out Washington 4-0 on four hits for the Kansas City As.

Hank Bauer's ninth homer and Mickey Mantle's 23rd helped Ford. But he also struck out two, didn't walk a man and faced but 20 batters, three over the minimum. Early Wynn (9-8) was the loser, giving up seven of the Yankees' nine hits.

WALKS IN WINNER

The Red Sox, who scored two in the third for a 2-1 lead, wrapped it up as reliever Don Mossi walked one to load the bases, then walked a pinchhitter Ted Lepcio on a 3-2 pitch that forced in the winner, Murray Wall (4-7) won it, relieving Dave Sisler who gave way to a stomach ailment in the fifth. Jim (Mudcat) Grant lost it in relief for a 6-8 record.

Bob Boyd scored both Baltimore runs, doubling and counting on Gene Woodling's single in the first, and bagging it with his fifth homer in the eighth. Hee Brown (3-4) won it, blanking the Tigers on five hits over the last 8-13 innings. Herb Mofford (0-2) was the loser.

Urban, never beaten by the Senators, gained a 7-5 record with his first major league shut-out and fourth victory over Washington since breaking in last season. The As hit loser Pete Ramos (7-7) for three runs in the first on Preston Ward's two-run double and RBI single by Harry Simpson.

Chicago Cubs, Of All Teams, Sitting In 3rd Place, Just 2 1/2 Games Out Of First; Braves Drub Giants 12-3

You couldn't hear the snickers for the laughs when manager Bob Scheffing allowed as how his Chicago Cubs could be shooting for the National League pennant. But who was it who chilled Philadelphia Phillies? The Cubs, and who's that sitting in third place, just 2 1/2 games shy of first? The Cubs.

This is the sort of race in which a club can win three in a row and jump two positions in the standings. And the Cubs have done just that, moving up from fifth with a sweep of the last three in a four-game set with the Phils, who had won 11 of their previous 14.

The Cubs, who have finished in seventh or eighth place long enough to pay off a mortgage, gained their first extra-inning victory since last Sept. 8 Monday with an 11-0 decision over the Phils in 11 innings. That pushed Chicago free of a third place tie with idle St. Louis while Milwaukee was regaining first place from San Francisco by drubbing the Giants 12-3.

Last place Los Angeles—only 6 1/2 games from the top—hammered Cincinnati 8-5 in the only other NL game scheduled.

CUBS HOT

The Cubs, sixth after the July 4 firing, now have won seven of their last nine. And they beat the Phils the hard way—hammering relief ace Dick Farrell in a four-run ninth that tied it 9-9 and then beating Ray Semproch (11-6) on Walt Moryn's two-run double.

Moryn, Lee Walls and Johnny Goryl homered for the Cubs, who trailed 9-3 at one point against starter Don Cardwell. Walls drove in four runs, two with his 20th homer, helping rookie Glen Hobbie (7-6) to the victory. Wes Covington was 4 for 4 and drove in three runs, one on his 13th homer, and Johnny Logan ripped a two-run homer as the Braves counted 16 hits off loser Al Worthington (8-5) and three relievers. Rookie Leon Wagner homered for one of the five hits the Giants managed off Lew Burdette (8-7), now 9-0 against the New Yorkers.

The Dodgers counted all their runs on homers—and, in fact, have homered for their last 16 runs, all in the four-game sweep of the Reds. Don Zimmer, out a week with injuries, hit a pair, good for four runs; Charlie Neal counted three runs with his 17th, third of the series; and scout Steve Bilko belted his seventh, second against his ex-mates, Southpaw Johnny Podres (9-8) won it with relief help, while 10-game winner Bob Purkey lost his sixth.

US TRIALS CALLED, NO BREEZE

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—A feeble breeze Monday thwarted for the second consecutive day attempts to sail trials that will select a U.S. defender to the America's Cup. Monday's unsuccessful run was part of a series to pick a defender against Britain's Sceptre in September.

Sydney—Clive Stewart, 160 1/2, Australia, outpointed Al Williams, 130 1/2, Los Angeles, 12.

New York—Carmelo Costa, 131, New York, outpointed Al Tisi, 128 1/2, New York, 10.

New Orleans—Ludwig Lightburn, 138 1/2, British Honduras, knocked out Davey Dupas, 140, New Orleans, 9.

Dussault Hurls One-Hitter As Indians Win 10-3

Robert Dussault came up with a one-hitter last night when the Rotary Club sponsored Indians downed the Red Sox 10-3 to take over league leadership. Tonight the Yankees take on the Senators at the Parade Grounds at 6:30 p.m.

Indians went into a four run lead in the bottom of the first inning. Labrecque, Dussault, Pelouin and Malina all hitting safely.

Top of the second Red Sox got one run on two walks and a fielder's choice. Five hits in the bottom of the third counted five more runs for the Indians. Two Indian errors coupled with a walk gave the Red Sox their other two runs in the top of the fifth, this was all the scoring Indians running out easy winners.

Dussault was the Indians' big star but he was closely followed by first baseman Malina, who had three hits in the game. Sox Stars were few but Warren who got their only hit along with Marit and Mann showed up well. Griffin, O'Conner and Lardy were the Umpires.

NHL And CBS Sign TV Pact

MONTREAL (CP)—The National Hockey League Monday announced a contract has been signed with the Columbia Broadcasting System to televise 20 NHL games on the U.S. network during the 1958-59 season.

It is the third agreement between CBS and the NHL. The network carried 10 games the first year and 21 last year. The terms of the new contract were not disclosed, but it was understood home clubs would receive about $12,000 a game.

Toronto Maple Leafs are the only one of the six NHL club not scheduled to appear.

Al Balding Wins Ontario Pro Championship

TORONTO (CP)—Al Balding of Markham shot two four-under-par rounds of 67 for a 134 total to win the Ontario Professional Golfers Championship Monday.

Balding was one stroke ahead of Moe Norman of Toronto de Havilland who had 68-67-135. The victory was worth $1,000 to Balding, one of the 10 best money winners in the United States last year and a high-ranking winner this season.

Norman received $600 and George Knudsen of Toronto Oakdale, whose 67-71-138 was good for third place, won $500.

Balding was steady throughout his two rounds of the par-71, 6,061-yard Toronto Forest Hills course.

Behind the trio was Janet McWha of the St. Lambert, Que., country club with an 88.

The 16 silver division golfers will start match play today with the finals set for Friday.

Mackay And Douglas Come Through With Wins Over Willey And Fontana; Bob Bedard Out With Knee Infection

TORONTO (CP)—The group of young players who made up the United States Davis Cup team against Canada provides U.S. tennis officials with a solid core on which to base their selections when they make their team for the next round.

The makeup of the teams for each round the U.S. reaches will be determined progressively with the basis of the selections depending on what each player does in Davis Cup play, his showing in top tournaments and rankings.

The U.S. hopes in this way to come up with the best possible team should it once more advance to the challenge round against Australia next December to settle international team tennis supremacy.

The team that disposed of Canada 5-0 Monday justified the confidence placed in it. The U.S. Davis Cup committee gambled with a virtually untested team and, in beating Canada without losing a match, the squad showed that the fears it might be licked were groundless.

12TH STRAIGHT VICTORY

The four-man team, which rang up the U.S.'s 12th victory over Canada without a defeat in Davis Cup play and the ninth by a clean sweep of the best of five matches, earned serious consideration for inclusion on the squad that will meet Argentina or Israel next. These two countries play in the other semi-final round of the North American zone competition with the winner of the zone final advancing against the European champion.

Big Barry MacKay of Dayton, Ohio, the key man on the U.S.

team that Canadian captain Lorne Main described as the weakest in 20 years, and young Jack Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., Monday wrapped up the wins in the two concluding singles against Canada. MacKay defeated Paul Willey of Vancouver 6-8, 6-2, 12-10, 7-5 and Douglas, 21, former Stanford University quarterback, breezed to a 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, 6-1 decision over Don Fontana of Toronto.

The U.S. shutout win was a disappointment to Canada. The fifth-ranked MacKay beat Fontana in straight sets Thursday and Willey Reed of Alameda, Calif., No. 8 in the U.S., did the same thing Friday in winning over Canadian champion Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke. Que. MacKay and Sam Giammalva of Houston, Texas, combined for another straight-set decision over Bedard and Fontana in the doubles Saturday.

Willey originally was to play Douglas Monday and Bedard was to oppose MacKay. Bedard came up with a knee infection and Willey took his spot, with Fontana taking his original place as Douglas's opponent.

Yvon Durelle Established As 9-To-5 Favorite For Tomorrow's Fight With Mike Holt; Sherbrooke Blacked Out

MONTREAL (CP)—Early betting has established champion Yvon Durelle as a 9 to 5 favorite over Mike Holt of South Africa in their 12-round light-heavyweight bout for the British Empire title Wednesday night.

Most ring observers, however, figure the odds are a bit long now on the rock-jawed fisherman from Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., and expect the price to shorten, possibly to 7 to 5, before fight time.

Promoter Eddie Quinn, working in conjunction with the International Boxing Club, said ticket sales have picked up considerably Monday and he anticipates a gate of $35,000. The top ticket price is $7.50.

The bout, at the Montreal Forum, is to be carried on national television networks in Canada and the United States with the Montreal and Sherbrooke areas blacked out on the Canadian system. Starting time is 10 p.m. EDT.

Neither Durelle's Canadian light-heavyweight title nor Holt's South African crown in the same weight division are at stake.

Superior Judge Arnold Prager Tosses Monkey-Wrench Into Dodgers' Plans For Chavez Ravine, Not Valid

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A judge ruled Monday that the Chavez Ravine contract between Los Angeles Dodgers and the city is invalid.

Superior Judge Arnold Prager upheld contention of two taxpayers' suits that the city's deal to give the baseball club acreage in the Ravine for a $12,000,000 stadium is void because deed restrictions limit use of the land to public purposes.

The decision will further delay plans of Dodger president Walter O'Malley to build a ball park. Appeals in the case conceivably could tie up the Dodgers plans for months, even years. O'Malley had hoped to get started on the stadium this month.

The Dodgers are playing their home games this season and next in the Los Angeles Coliseum which, as is well known to baseball fans by now, is not ideally suited to baseball.

Judge Prager issued a permanent injunction prohibiting the city from carrying out terms of an ordinance approving the proposed contract.

Los Angeles voters gave their approval to the contract in the June 3 election, but the two suits then were filed.

Chad Ramsdell Cops Top Honors In Orleans Golf Tournament; N. Laberge Wins Net In "B" Clark Cops Class "C"

ORLEANS—(Special to the Record)—In spite of inclement weather, which practically washed the payers from the course on Friday and Saturday, some 785 golfers registered in second annual International Amateur Golf Tournament over the weekend.

The going was tough with all the rain but Chad Ramsdell of St. Johnsbury Country Club came through with a 74 to lead the field. Fred McKnight, of the same club, followed with 76 while Italo Marandi of Montpelier was tied. Richard Dudley won the net honors with a 70 while B. H. Taylor of Burlington Country Club was second and L. Cyr of Mt. Orford was third.

In the B. Class C. J. Hanley of Burlington, John Clement of Stowe C.C. and Wm. Stufflebeam of Newport were tied with 80s.

In the matching of score cards, Hanley placed first, Clement second and Stufflebeam third. The B net honors went to N. Laberge of Sherbrooke with 68, O. Garand with a 69 and Charles Cummings of Champlain C.C. with a 70.

The C. Class honors went to C. Clarke of Windsor Mills with an 86, Wendall Powers of Rutland C.C. with 87 and Robert Jacquish of O.C.C. with 94. The C net winners were Bobby Leys of Newport C.C. with 67, T. LaHaise of St. J. C.C. with 67 and Paul Le-gare of Mt. Orford C.C. with 70.

Coaticook And Athletics Battle It Out For Second Place Tonight At 7:30

Second place in the Junior Baseball League will be at stake tonight at the Municipal Stadium when St. Jean Baptiste Athletics play host to the Coaticook Canadians. The A's are at present five percentage points ahead of the Coaticook club. The margin was narrowed as a result of an 8-2 drubbing at the hands of Fuller on Sunday night.

In their last two games against the Canadians the Athletics have been soundly beaten 8-5 and 7-2. The A's would be glad of a much needed rest. Their pitching roster is pretty well spent after playing five games in the last seven days. The club took on an extra tilt Saturday when they played St. Laurent Jets of the Provincial Junior League in Montreal. They fared well in the game as they topped the Montrealers 9-3.

Coaticook were to have played on Sunday but the game was called off because of wet grounds. They played their last game Thursday night.

The Indians may play the game that was scheduled for Sunday in Windsor, tonight. The field was too wet to permit play following the downpour which struck the Eastern Townships Saturday.

Dube or Coupal will probably start for the Canadians; Rousseau may get the call for mound duties for the Athletics.

Game time at local stadium is 7:30.

Dr. Roger Bannister, First Man To Break Four-Minute Mile, Leaves With Queen's Message For Games

Cardiff — (CP) — Commonwealth athletes Monday sweated through their stiffest workout in days as warm sunshine ushered in British Empire Games week.

Bogged down by rain since Friday, the athletes galloped into the sun and knocked out their week-end kinks in the last phase of training.

All the activity wasn't confined to Wales. In London Dr. Roger Bannister, first man to break the four-minute mile, started off from Buckingham Palace with the Queen's message, to be read at the official opening Friday by her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh. Bannister, one of 664 runners in the four day relay, trotted the first mile and got an official greeting from George Drew, Canada's high commissioner in London, whose country was host for the 1954 games.

EARLY START
While the Queen's message is expected to reach here in time for the 6:30 p.m. official opening Friday, it will still be behind some of the events. Because of a record entry of nearly 1,100 athletes from 37 countries, all the competitions cannot be squeezed in during the scheduled eight days. So the Games Federation has decided on elimination heats for the men's 440 and 100 yard races Thursday afternoon.

This year's total entry is about 300 more than were in the 1954 games at Vancouver and about 600 more than in the 1950 games at Auckland, N.Z.

General manager Bob Osborne of the Canadian team said his athletes all are in top shape except fencer Leslie Krassa of Montreal, who is recovering from a mild heart attack and has been withdrawn from the Games. Said Osborne: "Everything appears to be going well."

The Duke of Edinburgh will watch events next Tuesday and Wednesday and will be joined by the Queen the following Friday and Saturday when she will officially close the competition.

Drummondville Edge Sherbrooke 6-4 In ET Soccer

Drummondville rallied in the last half of an Eastern Townships Soccer League game to score four goals and edge Sherbrooke 6-4. The Celanese club trailed 3-2 at the half but the rushing offense of the team soon wore down the Sherbrooke squad and Frommenwiler racked up a hat trick.

Murdoch potted two goals in the opening stanza for Sherbrooke, Willems being the other local marksman. Imlach and Frommenwiler netted the ball for Drummondville.

The second half belonged to Drummondville all the way. Imlach opened the scoring after ten minutes of play. Frommenwiler pushed the club into the lead with his second goal at the thirteen minute mark. Sherbrooke fought back to tie the count on a goal by Willems but to no avail as Celanese moved ahead on markers by Madraz and Frommenwiler.

The battle see-sawed in the closing minutes of play but neither side added to the score and Drummondville handed Sherbrooke their first defeat of the season.

Frommenwiler, Imlach and Madraz starred for Drummondville while Turnbull, Bayer and Pounder showed well for Sherbrooke.

This was the last scheduled game in the first part of the season. Play will resume in September when Bishop's University will enter the league.

Solly Drake's Hitting String Halted At 26, Fails Against Red Wings But Royals Win 4-0; Leafs Edge Bisons Solly Drake of Montreal Royals can relax today. The pressure of keeping a hitting streak going is all through.

The Montreal second baseman made it through 26 consecutive games before going hitless Monday night against Rochester Red Wings as the Royals won 4-0.

Richmond Virginians defeated Miami Marlins 4-1, Havana Sugar Kings knocked off Columbus Jets 7-1 and Toronto Maple Leafs edged Buffalo Bisons 5-4 in other games.

Montreal didn't need Drake, who went hitless in three official trips and walked once. Jim Koranda hit two bases-empty home runs and Billy Harris pitched a seven-hitter to lead the Royals. Harris walked only two men in his first shutout of the season. His pitching record is 7-7.

RICKETTS LOSES
Koranda hit his 12th and 13th homers of the season off starter-losing Dick Ricketts, now 9-9.

The Marlins let two early opportunities slip through their fingers as the setback snapped their victory string of six. They loaded the bases in the first and second innings with four hits and four walks, but scored only one run.

Miami pitcher Dick Bunker began to weaken in the fifth. A walk and singles by Ed Dick and Len Johnston scored two Richmond runs. The Vees added another run in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Borrego Alvarez and Yoyo Davallio batted in all the runs to pace Havana to its victory. The Cubans got to pitcher Art Swanson for four runs in a big fourth inning and added two more in the eighth when Davallio hit his fourth home run off relief pitcher Luis Arroyo. The victory went to starter Miguel Cuellar, although he needed help.

RAIN HELPS LEAFS
Leafs got an assist from the rain in the eighth inning and Mike Goliat's sacrifice fly in the ninth to beat the Bisons. The victory kept Leafs six games behind the league-leading Royals.

Incorrect Pivot Is Common Fault

By CLAUDE HARMON

Watch your pivot. Pivoting incorrectly must be the most common fault.

Don't over-pivot. Don't over-shift the weight. Nearly everybody over-loads this part of the swing. Resist the temptation to sway off the ball. Some golfers actually look as if they were going to swing themselves off their feet. Watch the good players and you will see that they have a minimum of turn below the waistline. They keep their "platform" solid. Keep that "platform" in mind.

Everybody it seems, has the urge to over-swing. That way lies a "loose" shot, a stroke that is not crisp. Such a shot cannot be a good one. Resist over-swinging. Remember that on all iron shots, numbers five through nine and the wedge, to keep the left heel down and don't shift the weight to the right foot on the backswing.

Merely rotate the shoulders and cock the wrists.

Big Billy Ship Returns To Alouettes But Dick Huffman Fails To Put In Appearance; Tom Hugo Breaks Thumb

MONTREAL (CP)—One import lineman is to rejoin the Montreal Alouettes training camp for a try-out today, the Alouettes reported Monday. Another one may not turn up, though.

Coming in is big Billy Ship, a veteran of Big Four Football League action with Montreal and Toronto Argonauts, and former tackle with New York Giants and the University of Alabama. Ship was with Montreal last season but was plagued by injuries and saw little service.

Dick Huffman, for many years an all-star lineman in the Western Interprovincial League, hasn't shown up yet and there's no indication he intends to. Huffman was obtained by Montreal from Calgary Stampeders earlier this year in a trade. He was last reported to be wrestling in South Carolina.

Two minor casualties developed at the Als training camp—centre Tom Hugo broke a thumb and quarterback Sam (The Rifle) Etchevery took a couple of days off to have a carbuncle removed from his neck. Hugo, his thumb in a cast, is expected to rejoin the team shortly.

U Of Washington Train For Race On Moscow Canal
MOSCOW (AP) — The University of Washington oarsmen who will meet five Russian crews Saturday worked out Monday on the Moscow Canal in a borrowed Russian shell while awaiting the arrival of their own from Helsinki.

Their five opponents Saturday will include the Trud Rowing Club eight from Leningrad, which knocked them out of the Challenge Cup at Henley and four other Soviet crews in the six-oar event over a 2,000-metre course.

Milt Smith singled and Rocky Nelson walked to start the inning and advanced on an infield out. Left fielder Archie Wilson popped midway between short and second and Buffalo second baseman Milt Graff slipped on the wet grass attempting to catch it. Wilson got a double and both runners scored.

Winning pitcher Pat Scantlebury opened the ninth with a walk and went to third on an infield single and wild pitch. Goliat's fly to right brought him home with the winning run.

All Buffalo runs came on homers, pitcher Glenn Cox hitting his fifth of the season with one on in the second and first baseman Luke Easter connecting for his 20th, also with one on, in the third.
