FEAR NATO SPLIT ON CYPRUS QUESTION

The Gaza Front

UN Security Council Approval Of Border Restrictions Sought

United Nations, N.Y. — (AP) — The Western big three have sought approval by the United Nations Security Council for a tightening of border restrictions to prevent new Israeli-Egyptian fighting along the Gaza strip.

The United States, Britain and France asked council president T. F. Tsiang of China to call the 11-power group together today to bolster the peace efforts of Maj.-Gen. E. L. M. Burns, the Canadian truce chief for the UN.

Burns, who already has won new cease-fire promises from both sides, has suggested setting up a physical barrier inside a neutral zone six-tenths of a mile wide in which neither party could erect defences or deploy troops. Burns urged placing barbed wire along the frontier last November, but Egypt declined to co-operate.

The three Western powers drew up a six-point resolution after Burns sent in a report on the latest violence, which began with Israeli seizure of an Egyptian post about three miles east of Gaza on Aug. 22.

The three-power resolution calls on both sides "forthwith" to take all steps necessary to restore order in the Gaza area.

It endorses Burns' recommendation that "the armed forces of Jerusalem — (P) — An Israeli military spokesman said yesterday that Jordanian infiltrators who crossed the border near Tirth Zai in the central Jordan valley, had blown up two water installations, dynamited a truck, cut phone lines and damaged a concrete jetty in a fish pond.

He said tracks of six persons were found leading toward the Jordan border after the incidents early yesterday.

both parties should be clearly and effectively separated by measures" such as those he proposed.

In Jerusalem, an Israeli foreign ministry spokesman said his government would support Burns' plan for a border barrier.

A spokesman in Cairo said the Egyptian government has sent documents to the Security Council supporting Egypt's position on the Gaza incidents. There was no official reaction to the Burns proposal from the Egyptian government, which last year would not help with the barbed-wire fence on the ground that such a barrier might be constructed as a permanent boundary.

Offer India Experimental NRX Reactor

Ottawa — (P) — Trade Minister Howe said last night Canada has offered to provide India with an experimental atomic energy reactor under the terms of the Colombo plan.

He said in an interview that the reactor offered to India would be similar in design to the famed NRX atomic pile which has been in operation at Canada's Chalk River, Ont., atomic project since 1947.

NRX, code name for the reactor, suffered a minor breakdown recently, its second in eight years of operation, and repairs are expected to be completed in a matter of weeks.

Mr. Howe said he was unable to say how much the new reactor would cost. However, the cost of NRX was approximately $11,000,000.

The minister, who returned last night from a summer vacation at St. Andrews, N. B., emphasized that India has not yet accepted the offer. He said he hoped the Indians would do so soon.

Dock Feud Shuts Down N.Y. Strike Threatens To Spread Up Eastern Seaboard

New York — (P) — The feud between longshoremen and the New York-New Jersey Waterfront Commission, which climaxed yesterday in a shutdown of the port of New York, threatens to spread the shipping tieup to east coast ports from Baltimore to Canada.

After some 25,000 members of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) walked off the job, ILA president William V. Bradley said:

"This is spreading very rapidly. If something isn't done by Monday, we'll have the whole coast tied up."

The walkout already has affected the entire area of the vast port of New York, including Jersey City and Hoboken in New Jersey.

Saying last night that a private union meeting would be held today, Bradley added: "I do not think that this meeting will resolve the situation at all. The men are of such a temper that we will have to come in with something concrete."

Bradley said he would like to be able to guarantee his men that a fact-finding board would be set up by Governor Averell Harriman of New York and Governor Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey. The union, fighting the two-member commission since its inception two years ago, charges it with harshness, harassment and interference with its avowed functions.

Bradley said yesterday that Canadian longshoremen in Quebec, Montreal, Halifax and Saint John, N.B., would meet today, and would probably join in the work stoppage.

The union has not called its work stoppage a strike, but has not offered another name for it. However, the waterfront cleaning commission and the New York Shipping Association, which represents 170 shipping and stevedoring firms here, have called it a strike.

The walkout has ignored an 18-month-old state court injunction banning a strike aimed at activities of the waterfront commission.

Canada — No! Montreal — (P) — There is no danger of a strike in Canadian ports in sympathy with a longshoremen's walkout in New York, a spokesman for Canadian longshoremen said yesterday.

Donat Bibeault, Canadian vice-president of the International Longshoremen's Association, said that "as far as Canadian longshoremen are concerned we have an agreement with the shippers, with the Canadian Shipping Federation."

"We are going to respect that contract," he added firmly. "I repeat, there is no danger for Canadian ports."

However, Mr. Bibeault said Canadian dockworkers will not unload ships sent here from United States ports closed by the strike.

"We will work any of our own ships," he said, "but it is useless for shippers to send vessels up here for unloading if they can't get them unloaded in the U. S. We won't touch them."

St. John's, Nfld. — (P) — Leo Earle, leader of the longshoremen's union here, said yesterday night there was little possibility of St. John's being tied up by the strike that has closed the port of New York.

St. John's longshoremen were expected to meet today to decide on their course.

"This is an independent union," he said. "We have no ties and no affiliations. We'll stand entirely on our own two feet."

away from its key spot in the Western alliance.

No agreement on the issue of German reunification is expected. The meeting is regarded in the West as a preview of Soviet plans for the conference of the Big Four foreign ministers next month in Geneva.

Adenauer planned to try to determine the Soviet Union's readiness to accept an East-West settlement in Europe which would include unification of Germany, already set out as the prime Western goal at the foreign ministers' meeting.

The Western big three have collaborated with Adenauer in his planning for the Moscow conference. They will get daily reports on the negotiations. Afterward Von Brentano will make a personal report to the Western big three foreign ministers when they go to New York for the United Nations assembly meeting.

There has been strong speculation that the Russians might offer to pull out of East Germany and unify the country if Adenauer would agree to a neutral role outside the Atlantic alliance.

Pete Townsend Says Nothing London. — (Reuters) — Group Capt. Peter Townsend flew back to his post as air attaché in Brussels today, leaving Britons none the wiser about his rumored romance with Princess Margaret.

The 40-year-old flier spent most of his three-day visit to England at the Farnborough air display. He did not see the 25-year-old princess during his visit. She is vacationing in Scotland with other members of the Royal Family.

With other air and military attaches who flocked to the Farnborough show, Townsend was wine and dined. He was also doggedly shadowed by scores of photographers and newspaper men.

He stayed in London with friends, and tried to make his exits and entrances as unobtrusive as possible by using a rear staircase.

Pro-Greek Rally By Cypriots

Nicosia, Cyprus — (Reuters) — More than 20,000 Greek Cypriots roared "we shall give our blood" at a rally near here today protesting against the suspension last night of London talks on the future of this British-owned Mediterranean island.

The crowds gathered at dawn to hear a defiant sermon by Greek Orthodox Archbishop Makarios, leader of a long campaign to put Cyprus under the Greek flag.

The pledge to continue the campaign came as relations between Greece and Turkey slumped to their lowest point since the two joined in the Atlantic pact.

Turkish tanks and troops with fixed bayonets patrolled the streets of three Turkish cities after anti-Greek rioting Tuesday which injured 57 persons and set 54 buildings—including 19 Greek churches—in flames. The riot crowds shouted, "Cyprus is Turkish."

In Athens, Greek government courses confirmed that Greece has threatened to pull her naval forces out of amphibious Atlantic pact manoeuvres scheduled to begin in two weeks.

Earlier the Greek general staff informed the Turkish and Yugoslav general staffs that Greece will not join in three-power military talks scheduled for Ankara later this month. The three have signed a mutual aid treaty.

Today's Greek-Cypriot rally was held around Kykkos monastery, a 1,000-year-old Greek shrine 60 miles from Nicosia. While the religious occasion was the annual feast for the Virgin Mary, Archbishop Makarios converted it into a demonstration for Greece's demand that the colony be allowed to decide its own future.

Alliance Forum Is Convened

Paris — (P) — The dynamite-packed relations between Greece and Turkey came before the forum of the North Atlantic Council today.

Lord Ismay, NATO secretary-general summoned representatives of the alliance's 15 powers to a closed meeting here to discuss the anti-Greek riots in the Turkish cities of Istanbul and Izmir.

Izmir is the headquarters of NATO's southeast command. Greece complained to the council that the rioters had pillaged the homes of Greek officers serving there with NATO. The officers' families were rushed home by plane.

NATO observers are deeply concerned over the relations between their two members on Russia's southwest doorstep. The bitterness poses a serious threat also to the Balkan defence alliance linking Greece and Turkey with Yugoslavia.

The NATO meeting followed the breakdown in London of the British-Greek-Turkish conference on the chief issue behind the disorder — the future of the British colony of Cyprus.

A communique announcing the failure of the London conference to reach agreement quoted Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan as saying "there is no prospect of any change in the foreseeable future" in the status of Cyprus.

Macmillan added that Britain does "not accept the principle of self-determination as one of universal application. It believes exceptions must be made in view of geographical, traditional, historical and strategic considerations."

Dairy Meet Complains Of Surplus, Of Lack

Lake Louise, Alta. — (CP) — The National Dairy Council wound up a three-day convention here yesterday with delegates still worried about too much butter and too few dairy students.

Delegates felt that the 500,000,000-pound yearly surplus emphasized the need for action if butter is to compete with substitutes, principally margarine.

The surplus brought three main proposals: a government subsidy to reduce butter prices; that quality and color be improved and made uniform across the country; and that butter be mixed with margarine to slash the surplus. The last proposal was vetoed.

Dr. H. R. Thornton, head of dairying at the University of Alberta, startled delegates with a report that only 39 students majored in dairying in Canadian and American colleges last year.

He implied higher wages and job certainty are needed to attract students.

Council speakers said a government subsidy would have to be implemented without reducing the returns to the producer.

E. H. Johnstone of Red Deer, Alta., reporting on discussions of butter manufacturers, said there is agreement that butter should be uniform in color. The proposal that butter be mixed with margarine was turned down after considerable discussion.

One delegate charged that British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Quebec be not specifically prohibiting the mixing of butter and margarine are causing a threat to the dairy industry.

Adenauer Arrives For Moscow Conference

Moscow — (P) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer flew into Moscow today for talks with Kremlin leaders which may prove a turning point in East-West relations.

The highest Soviet government and Communist party leaders came out to greet the 79-year-old chancellor. They included Premier Nikolai Bulganin, Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev, Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, First Deputy Premier Mikhail Pervukhin and others.

The airstrip was crowded by diplomats from East and West.

His foreign minister, Heinrich von Brentano, preceded Adenauer by about 40 minutes. He was greeted by Molotov and most of the diplomatic corps.

In an airport statement on leaving Bonn, Chancellor Adenauer said he was going to Moscow "with the best intentions of doing everything possible to further world peace and to restore the unity of Germany and to reach agreement for the return of our prisoners of war."

Two Constellation of Luft Hansa Airlines carried Adenauer and 49 members of his delegation on the non-stop flight from Bonn to the Soviet capital. Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano headed one party, the chancellor the other.

The rest of the 116 delegation members had gone earlier by train.

The planes had American pilots, German co-pilots and Russian navigators, radio men and interpreters.

The Moscow talks — expected to last five or six days — will be the first between leaders of the West German republic and the Soviet Union. They also will be the first between top-level Western and Russian statesmen since the Big Four "summit" conference at Geneva in July.

Adenauer entered the Soviet-occupied conference fully prepared to withstand any Russian efforts to wean West Germany

Crack Ministry Spy Ring

Karlsruhe, Germany — (AP) — The cracking of a full-fledged spy ring in the West German foreign ministry was disclosed today just as Chancellor Konrad Adenauer took off for Moscow.

The federal prosecutor's office here confirmed the arrests of "several officials" suspected of working for Soviet and East German intelligence services.

The disclosure kicked up the biggest sensation since Otto John, former West German intelligence chief, defected to Communist East Germany in July, 1954.

The prosecutor's office here said all the arrests were made in the passport division of the foreign ministry in Bonn. No further details were given.

Unofficial reports said the ministry employees arrested were suspected of providing forged passports for Red agents to infiltrate West Germany.

The arrests were made secretly in recent weeks, but the news leaked out simultaneously with Adenauer's departure on his crucial mission to Moscow.

Border Fire-Fighters' Field Day Will Be Big Event For District Children

Rock Island—The Border Fire Fighters Association of the Boundary towns are planning a gala field day on Saturday, September 10, for the children.

Children love a parade, so the big day will commence at 12:30 with a parade, which will be led by the Magog Pipe Band and will include the fire trucks of the Border towns. All youngsters are invited to take part in the parade by decorating their bicycles and tricycles. There will also be ponies and later the small children will have a chance for free rides at Baxter Park, where the event is taking place.

Davy Crockett will be on hand, all complete with muzzle loader and horse, and there will be the unbelievable acts of "the sword swallower" and "the fire eater". Small fry love sand piles to play in, and one is being arranged, which will not only have sand but several hundreds of pennies buried in it. Kiddies up to 4 years old may dig for these treasures and they may also fish from a well-stocked pond filled with prizes.

Prizes will be given for the best decorated bikes and trikes, and for races in which youngsters up to the age of 14 years may participate. Free ice cream and soft drinks will be given away by the fire departments. Local merchants have been most generous in giving valuable merchandise for prizes.

This is a day when everything is free for the children and to top it off the Border Arena officials are having free skating at the Arena that evening. All

Baseball In Sherbrooke

The baseball season has come and gone in Sherbrooke and in the sports-writer's vernacular it was rather dismal at best.

Whether or not this city will have professional baseball next season remains to be seen. The promoters this year have lost considerable money and can't be expected to personally subsidize baseball in this city.

At the same time, let us not get carried away. Except for the staunch baseball fan — and poor crowds at the ball park this year indicate a scarcity of this commodity — there will be very little chest-thumping and hair-pulling should baseball not return next spring.

A good, profitable, crowd-drawing baseball team is a definite asset to a community. City business undoubtedly is aided by it, to say nothing of indirect profits that can be accrued from a general feeling of pride in and support for a good team.

But this is not to suggest that baseball or any other professional sport merits subsidization by a municipality. Some major cities have subsidized baseball — notably Milwaukee which built a giant stadium and turned it over to the new owners of a major league franchise.

However, the situation was entirely different there. A major league team in a place like Milwaukee can attract thousands and thousands of people from surrounding territories — people who are getting their first taste of major league baseball. The parallel isn't even similar here.

Despite the poor season here, a word of praise is due manager Edd Hartness, who showed particular willingness to give of his time to promote baseball interest among the young people of this community. He was a major factor in organizing baseball schools for the kids and played a big role in the Little League baseball night at the stadium.

And as he told a group of youngsters at a recent service club dinner: "Baseball isn't all winning."

The Wonder Of Promotion

It is one of the wonders of our way of life that a person may be plucked from obscurity and lifted to fame.

It happens in many arenas of our life. A youngster from our north woods can suddenly become a national hero in the big city because of an ability to skate and stickhandle. A little high school girl wins the nation's hearts and considerable wealth because she can swim with extraordinary efficiency.

In this, Canada and the United States are almost identical. It shows more in the United States, perhaps, because there are more and louder promotional facilities there but we are gaining rapidly. Hollywood taught the first major lesson in promotional transparency; but radio has beat the same drum and now television is seeking ways and means to outpromote everything that has come before.

Sometimes the fame is fleeting, sometimes enduring. And while it may be a mark of buoyancy and flowing quality of our way of life, there is a danger in it, too. Not just for the individual, whose character may not always be sturdy enough to withstand the buffeting of fame. There may be danger for everyone.

There has been a tendency of late to endow individual success stories with a slick, promotional, stunt-like quality that cheapens and can corrupt.

Take the case of Gino Prato, the humble little Bronx shoemaker who won $32,000 in TV answering questions about opera. In his several appearances on TV, Gino won the hearts of millions of viewers by his gentle, modest sincerity.

If he is the man he seemed to be, he will hold to those qualities. But in the light of what is happening to him, it will not be easy. For example:

One of his fondest wishes was to return to Italy to see his 92-year-old father. He got that wish. But the send-off given him must have shaken him a bit.

A famous restaurant tossed a big affair with Gino as guest of honor. Then a contingent of white station wagons, representing a firm that soon will begin exploiting Gino's newfound fame, escorted him to the airport. At the restaurant, an airline and one other outfit had exhibits plugging their products and services.

When Gino gets back from seeing his aged papa, he's got a spot with a well-known TV singer. Who knows what may follow thereafter?

To the mere observer, it looks as if a lot of people have decided that Gino's sincerity is a salable article, and they mean to have a piece of it. But it really isn't divisible. Probably Gino well understands that it must be kept whole to be real.

That's something that many more of us ought to appreciate, if we are not to see sincerity promoted right off the map. You can't make a slick production out of a human being's innermost qualities.

The Talent Search

The foundation of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation of Evanston, Ill., early this week marks another gigantic milestone in the advance of education. Financed largely by the Ford Foundation, the $20,500,000 corporation expects to spend $1,000,000 a year for ten years on four-year scholarships for talented students. The Chairman of the corporation's new board of directors has explained that the purpose of the corporation is to eliminate what he terms a "national waste" — one-half of the superior high school students in the United States who do not go to college. It is truly a talent search on a large scale.

It is time that Canadian colleges made an attempt in the same direction. Overcrowding, lack of students finances, and many of the other ills besetting the present system of higher learning in Canada cannot, it is clear, be solved by the government. Yet it is the government, more often than not, that is turned to in an attempt to overcome educational problems of this type.

Students themselves, in an effort to better their own financial position, have too often turned to government sources. Last year, representatives of the National Federation of University Students in Quebec presented voluminous briefs to Premier Duplessis on student finances. They advocated more scholarship grants by the provincial government. On a national scale, NFCUS has long sought to implement the system of national government scholarships recommended in the Massey Report. Little has come of it.

Private industry can, if it will, do a lot for higher education. There is no need to put greater loads on Canadian taxpayers who must bear the burden whenever the government is called upon for increased educational aid.

Bishop's University in Lennoxville has shown what private industry can do for college students. Two years ago, the Sir James Dunn Scholarship was the largest award available to high school students entering Bishop's. Today, there are at least six larger ones. Seven new scholarships are available this year, five of them donated by private business and industry.

From this program, Bishop's will benefit, superior students will benefit, and private industry will reap rewards in the form of more highly-trained young men and women who will be the business executives of tomorrow.

Instead, then, of talking darkly about cutting down the numbers of university students in Canada, we should by thinking in terms of providing more opportunities for talented ones to secure a college education. Private industry can help provide those opportunities — that is the capitalistic way of doing things upon which democratic living is founded. If, and when, the government provides them, then the socialistic implications could be crippling.

Unique Bilingual School Saved From Extinction

Montreal — One of the oldest schools in Canada, recently faced with extinction through lack of funds, has been taken over by the Protestant school board of greater Montreal.

The school is the French Evangelical Institute at nearby Pointe aux Trembles. It was founded in 1841 by a committee of the Presbyterian Church for the education of Protestant French-speaking Canadians. Until recently it was run by the Presbyterian and United Churches.

It is believed to be the only bilingual school of its kind in Montreal, and possibly in Quebec province.

The school has been kept open largely through the efforts of its active principal, Miss R. Boucher, a former pupil.

Miss Boucher had this to say of the school: "It is a place where French-speaking Protestant children can be educated and retain their language. At the same time English-speaking children can come here to learn to speak French. At present the French-speaking Protestants go to an English school and often they lose their French."

In the elementary school all instruction is given in French, except for one hour a day. In the high school section the classes are in English, except for an hour's French each day. The pupils, ranging in age from nine to 17, speak both English and French out of school.

It is primarily a boarding school but there are a few day students. Unless they live far away, the boarders generally go home at week-ends.

Most of the students come from Montreal area, she said, but there are also a number from Gaspe, New Brunswick, northern Ontario, and even from as far away as Buffalo, N. Y. About a third of the children are English-speaking.

One wing of the building dates from 1853 and another section was added about 50 years ago. A new wing, with a gymnasium, modern classrooms and offices, was built in 1950.

Miss Boucher, a native of New Brunswick, was sent to the institute to be educated. "Otherwise I'm sure I would have forgotten my French."

She has since taught at the Strathcona Academy and for a number of years was director of the French summer school at Macdonald College in Ste. Anne de Bellevue. Three years ago she became the first non-clerical principal in the history of the institute.

According to an old treaty on wine, no country but Portugal can furnish Britain with port.

POWERFUL TEETH

Rats have such sharp incisors that they can gnaw through lead pipes to get at water, pierce tins of jelly tumblers, work their way through poor cement walls three inches thick, cut through slate shingles, sundried bricks and oak planks.

CHANGED

Prior to 1927, the 75th wedding anniversary was observed as the diamond jubilee, but since few couples live to observe that anniversary, the change was made to 60 years, and this revision now is accepted generally.

EAST CASTS ACE UPON WATERS

"Cast thy bread upon the waters," was the advice of Solomon more than 2000 years ago. East followed this advice in today's hand, with excellent results.

South ruffed the second spade and entered dummy with the king of diamonds in order to lead the singleton club towards his hand. East was tempted to take his ace for fear of losing it, but he decided to risk the loss. By playing a low club, instead of the ace, East figuratively cast his bread upon the waters.

South won with the king of clubs and chortled with pleasure. He ruffed a club in dummy, got back to his hand with the ace of diamonds, ruffed another club in dummy, and then ruffed a spade to lead a fourth club.

West ruffed with the nine of hearts to shut out the dummy, and East's ace of clubs fell on this trick. Poor East never did make a trick with his ace of clubs, but he didn't regret it.

West then cashed the ace of trumps to take the last trump out of dummy, after which he could lead another spade to make South ruff that suit for the third time. This left South with only one trump, while East still had two trumps. East was therefore sure to get another trick, and the contract was doomed to defeat.

Now see what would happen if East tamely took his ace of clubs when that suit was first led from the dummy. East could then lead another spade to make South ruff for a second time, and South would ruff a low club in dummy and lead a trump. If West then took his ace, dummy's last trump would protect declar-

Mineralization Discovered on

BEATRICE CHIBOUGAMAU PROPERTY

This property is located in McCorkill township, Chibougamau, Que., adjacent to New York Honduras Rosario Mining Company. A geophysical survey on the New York Honduras Property has outlined an anomaly 1500 ft. wide, 3500 ft. long. On the recommendation of its Consulting Engineer, W. A. Rukeyser of New York, the Company has commenced a program of exploration to extend the major anomaly outlined on the adjoining property and to investigate thoroughly the discovery of surface mineralization.

A survey is also proposed on the Company's Uranium property in the Blind River Area, Ontario, located about 1½ miles from the Algom shaft.

With the comprehensive development program in progress, results which could prove of great importance may be expected momentarily. Detailed reports of results will be forwarded to registered Shareholders in Official Progress Reports. Shareholders whose Certificates are not registered in their own names are urged to forward Share Certificates to Guaranty Trust Co., 70 Richmond St. W., Toronto, for such registration in order to be certain of receiving all Official Reports without delay.

Miss V. Lariviere Of Melbourne Guest At Shower

Melbourne — The Misses Rosalie and Marguerite Burrill were hostesses at a cup and saucer shower for Miss Vera Lariviere.

As the guest of honor arrived at Crystal Springs farm, she was greeted by a group of young ladies from her graduation class, assembled on the lawn. Mr. Alfred Burrill played the wedding march.

Miss Lariviere and her mother Mrs. Clarence I. Lariviere were presented with beautiful corsages and the bride-to-be was seated in a special chair on the veranda, beneath pastel decorations of every shade, representing a rainbow.

There followed a hilarious search over the grounds for parcels at the end of colored leading strings. As these were found they were placed in a large container at the foot of the rainbow.

The guests then assembled in the music room and the gifts were unwrapped and admired. The bride-to-be was thanked the hostesses and everyone for the lovely gifts.

Games were much enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and all joined in wishing Miss Lariviere many years of happiness.

The greatest discovery since 4000 B.C.

In Egypt, 6,000 years ago, they quenched their thirst with "hega", a brew of barley malt and hops. It was beer... but a beer that only an early Egyptian could love! Yes, times have changed, and ancient "hega" can't compare with modern beers. People have developed more discriminating tastes, and better looking, better smelling, better tasting beers have been developed to satisfy them.

Now, after years of research and experimentation, a new brewing process has been discovered—the most important brewing discovery since 4000 B.C. "Slow-brewing", brings you firmer COLLAR, superior AROMA, and mellow FLAVOUR... and you can prove this three-way superiority for yourself.

Pour yourself a glass of the new Brading's—the only slow-brewed beer—and a glass of any other beer. Before you taste either, look at the COLLAR on the new Brading's. Firmer, isn't it? It's the first sign of quality! Next—smell Brading's, then the other brand. You'll recognize Brading's superior AROMA!

Finally—and most important—taste Brading's—then the other beer. Notice Brading's mellow FLAVOUR! This test will prove to you that Brading's has a FIRMER COLLAR, SUPERIOR AROMA, MELLOW FLAVOUR—the result of slow-brewing. The secret of slow-brewing is in the brew-kettle—and only Brading's has it! Make new, slow-brewed Brading's your beer. Ask your grocer or your favorite waiter for Brading's today! P.S.—If you like rice beer, Brading's Cincinnati Cream Lager offers the same superior collar, aroma and flavour as Brading's Ale. "CINCI" is slow-brewed, too! (R)

Cleveland — The Cleveland branch of the W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Pease. Mrs. Ralph Healy led in the opening exercises. The motto for the month was "It is with life as with men, we make friends by being a friend." The roll call was answered by telling of "Something in Canada worth seeing."

Mrs. Hazel Taylor reported a good bank balance, and Mrs. Gordon Healy, convener for home economics, thanked all who assisted in any way in the booth at Richmond Fair. The correspondence was read by Mrs. Royce Taylor, as well as the Canadian Association of Consumers' bulletin.

Members were reminded of the next county meeting to take place in the St. Francis College on October 13.

You don't argue with a locomotive. So a manufacturer of rail equipment has developed a lightweight rail inspection car that carries four people yet can be taken off the track by one man.

Since men who design rail cars, aircraft and other transportation equipment regularly use aluminum to cut down dead weight and increase payload, it is no surprise that aluminum was used to replace heavier materials in many parts of this inspection car. The person who will be surprised is the locomotive engineer who first sees a rail inspector nonchalantly—and single-handedly—hosing his scooter from the track.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, September 8th—One for each day of the week! . . . I'm thinking of the seven wonderful flavors created by ROYAL INSTANT for their puddings and pie fillings! They have the freshest flavors—the new Banana Cream and the new Strawberry Cream taste as if you've just prepared the fruit! All of the seven puddings are super-homogenized—creamy and smooth—light and fluffy! You can make them for puddings or pie fillings in a minute—without cooking! So order all seven—and serve them often to your lucky family—Banana Cream, Strawberry Cream, Chocolate, Butterscotch, Vanilla, Caramel and Coconut Cream! Each one's delicious!

Your Child's Health . . . as you know so well . . . depends on his getting the formula that suits him best. Did you know that you can obtain three different types of FARMER'S WIFE milk? They are prepared especially for infant feeding—and your doctor will advise you which one to select. Maybe Whole Milk (Red Label) . . . Perhaps, Partly Skimmed Milk (Blue Label) . . . or Skimmed Milk (Yellow Label). Make sure that your baby is fed on Canada's premier baby food. It's made by COW & GATE (Canada) Limited—for babies ONLY!

The New Adventure . . . you and your baby meet when the little one first starts on solid food . . . is made truly enjoyable when you serve AYLMER Strained Bartlett Pears. It's important for baby to like the first taste of solid food—to have something light and easy to digest—yet nourishing. Aylmer Strained Bartlett Pears give the perfect answer to all these needs. They are the only strained pears for babies sold in Canada which have nothing added except a little sugar for sweetening. And of course these fully ripe pears are extra finely strained. I can recommend them highly . . . and I know your doctor will do the same.

I've Made Sandwiches—for my two children for many years. And one of the things which I know is most important—is having them fresh and tempting at noon! That's why, like thousands of other mothers, I seal them with "SCOTCH" CELLULOSE TAPE. It keeps out the air—keeps the package neat—and the youngsters happy! . . . And, of course, there are scores of other uses for "Scotch" Cellulose Tape—for mending broken crayons, schoolbooks, pasting pictures in the youngsters' scrap books and albums. It's wonderful how many uses this practical little home need has. You'll find it in the gay plaid dispenser at stores everywhere.

It Means So Much To A Child . . . with busy school days ahead, to keep healthy and full of life. Very important, is to keep the bowels moving regularly. And the best way to do that is to use the laxative clinically approved for children—CASTORIA . . . It gently coaxes, never forces . . . because it contains a mild vegetable regulator . . . So don't use a harsh adult's laxative—but get Castoria! A large bottle 45c . . . or the economy family size 75c. Irregularity can cause so many troubles—keep your child free of them!

Summer Was Lovely—but most of us find it had a drying effect on our hair. Maybe too much sun—or wind—or dust! So now that September's come—let's make up our minds to use WOODBURY COCONUT OIL SHAMPOO—because it's the natural oil shampoo. Woodbury is gentle on the hair and scalp—washes your hair to shining loveliness—yet does not wash out the natural oils which give your hair life and body. Your hair's so easy to manage, too—even right after a Woodbury Shampoo! You can discover Woodbury for yourself right now—at a special bargain—the big $1.20 size is only 59c—for a short time longer!

A Candy Treat that everyone will love is this "No-Cook" Peanut Butter Fudge made with CROWN BRAND CORN SYRUP. It's so simple the youngsters can mix it up themselves!

"NO-COOK" PEANUT BUTTER FUDGE
1 cup peanut butter
1 cup CROWN BRAND Corn Syrup
1 1/4 cups skim milk powder
1/4 cups icing sugar

MIX together (with spoon) peanut butter and CROWN BRAND Corn Syrup in a large bowl. ADD dry ingredients. MIX with hands, using a kneading motion until thoroughly blended. SCRAPE off any dry ingredients clinging to the bowl and knead into the fudge. CONTINUE to knead until smooth. PLACE on board, roll or pat to 1/2 inch thickness; allow to set 5 minutes. CUT into squares with sharp knife. YIELD: 2 pounds.

NOTE: If desired, 1/2 cup cocoa may be added with the dry ingredients.

Durocher-Roy Cop Doubles Title

Guy Durocher and Roger Roy had too much power for Majella Charest and Ivan Boissert as they rolled up the doubles crown of the Eastern Townships Tennis Tournament last night 6-1, 6-3 and 6-3.

The veteran team made a gallant bid for the title but just couldn't match the speed of their opponents. Durocher and Roy took over in the opening set and kept the pressure on for the rest of the battle. It was the final event of the local tourney and concluded a very successful event.

The E. T. Invitation tournament will open on the 14th of the month and all contestants are reminded to file their entries as soon as possible. Roger Roy was making his return to tennis after following golf for the better part of the season but he still had the punch when required.

Durocher was the main gun of the combination and ably backed his partner with some fine placement shots to upset their rivals in the clutches. A week remains before the Invitation commences and all contestants are reminded not to wait too late before sending in their entries.

Meld Wins In St. Leger Classic

Doncaster, England — (P) — Meld Wednesday became the first filly to win the 180-year-old St. Leger in 28 years.

The race, last classic of the season and Britain's oldest, was watched by a crowd of 200,000 persons including the Queen.

Lady Zia Werhner's speedy filly shot to the front in the last two furlongs and held off a strong challenge from Miss Dorothy Page's Nucleus, to win by three-quarters of a length. Beau Prince, owned by Frenchman Georges Wildenstein, was third, three lengths back.

The last time a woman owner took the classic was in 1918 when Lady Jane Douglas' Gainsborough won.

Meld's victory makes it almost certain that Lady Zia will be the leading money winning owner for the year on English tracks. Last year the Queen was the leader.

The winning time was 3:14.6. Meld was 11 to 1, Nucleus 9 to 1 and Beau Prince 4 to 1.

Quinella Pays $102.15 For Top Price; Bobby Taylor And Audrey Vic Double Winners On Last Night's Racing Card

Bobby Taylor, an 11-year-old brown gelding teamed by his owner, B. Blanchette, of Charteville, copped both ends of the "DD" Pace last night to become one of the double winners on the card. Audrey Vic, the property of O. Choiniere, of Granby, was the other double winner.

The Blanchette horse upset the railbirds in the first heat when he came home ahead of the field in 2:13 2/5 and paid $20.10, $13.30 and $6.90 across the board. It topped the rest of the classes during the evening.

The daily double of Prewin, in the first, and Tony Brook, Jr., in the second, rewarded their backers with the sum of $47.05. The high of the evening was paid in the final race when $102.15 was collected for the quinella of Helen Volo H and Smoky Signal.

In the main event, "C" Trot and Pace Audrey Vic was too much for the rest of the field as driver M. Goguen outsmarted his opponents to post a double victory in the event and haul down the major share of the purse. Jacques Hauver's Maryland Port of Waterloo made a gallant bid but just failed to edge out his rival at the wire.

The other quinellas paid the sum of $11.25 in the fourth while in the sixth Newport Abbey and Tony Brook paid $7.65 to complete the extra betting. The rest of the wagers ran in the low figures as the small crowd backed the favorites.

Carmen Basilio Beats Gil Turner But Will Do Some More Thinking Before Challenging Bobo Olson

Syracuse, N. Y. — (P) — Welterweight champion Carmen Basilio and his managers took time today for a second thought before deciding whether to challenge for Carl (Bobo) Olson's middleweight title. Gil Turner gave them cause to pause Wednesday night.

Basilio edged out a split decision over the young Philadelphia Negro in their 10-round non-title fight in the War Memorial Auditorium.

Turner figured his surprising showing had earned him another chance at Carmen, this one for the title.

Joe Netro, one of Carmen's managers, still talked about challenging Olson. But the other half of the management, Johnny Dejohn, cautioned:

"That's Joe who wants to fight Olson. What can we gain now by risking a fight with him?"

Both agreed that Basilio's next outing, probably in November, would be in defence of his 147-pound crown. They said the opponent would be decided next week.

Turner, who weighed 151 to Basilio's 150 1/2, said he is ready to tackle Carmen with the title at stake. His manager, George Katz, said:

"I thought Gil had won. We'll definitely seek a title fight. From now on, Gil will fight as a welterweight."

Turner has been ranked 10th as a middleweight.

After the early rounds, the fight was a bruising battle. Carmen seldom appeared hurt by Turner's punches and he was consistently doing damage to Turner's midsection. But Gil kept recovering and made it touch and go.

Yanks And White Sox Feeling Most Of Pressure In Hot American Race; Indians Retain Slim Half-Game Lead

It looks like New York and Chicago, caught in a vise between Cleveland and Boston, are feeling most of the pressure in that tight American League race while the first place Indians and the robust Red Sox are playing 'em free and loose.

Cleveland, making a half-game lead look big, rumbled past Baltimore 6-0 Wednesday night as Early Wynn gained his 200th major league victory and gave the Tribe seven triumphs in the last nine games. The Bostons, too, had a ball blasting Detroit 7-4 for their sixth straight success.

The Yankees and White Sox got home safe to hold the peace, but they had a much tougher time of it. Whitey Ford spun his second one-hitter in six days, yet the second place Yanks had to scrap to beat Kansas City 2-1. And Chicago, 1 1/2 games behind Cleveland and the same margin ahead of fourth place Boston, had a heckuva scare before edging Washington 4-3.

In the National League, meanwhile, Brooklyn whipped Milwaukee 3-1, giving the Dodgers no worse than a tie for the flag. One more victory by the Brooks, or another Milwaukee defeat, puts the pennant in Brooklyn.

Wynn marked up a 16-9 record for the season with a five-hitter. The Tribe backed him with four doubleplays and Larry Doby's two homers that drove in four runs.

The Yanks pulled out of a 1-1 tie when Arnie Portocarrero, who no-hit New York until the fifth, walked home the winning run in the ninth.

Ford now shares the AL lead with Boston's Frank Sullivan with 17 victories.

Sullivan needed help to get his 17th. Ellis Kinder came on in the ninth after Sully gave up a two-run homer to Frank House and a walk with none out. The Red Sox smacked over six runs in the first three frames off rookies Jim Bunning and Paul Foytack.

The Dodgers needed just five hits to put the Braves on the ropes. They scored their runs in the third off Lew Burdette on two singles, a walk, an error and Carl Furillo's double. Billy Loes spaced six hits for his 10th victory.

In the other games, Bob Friend tossed a one-hitter, striking out and walking none, as Pittsburgh beat Chicago 2-0. New York walloped St. Louis 8-2 with winner Johnny Antonelli hitting one of three Giant home runs, and Cincinnati made the best of two errors to overhaul Philadelphia 6-3.

The only Cub hit off Friend, who won his 11th, was Frank Baumholtz' scratch single in the fourth.

Six Swimmers Who Started On Wildcat Lake Ontario Swim All Meet With Failure; Argentinian Goes 16 Miles

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont. — (P) — that will substitute for the mass cross-lake attempt by more than 30 marathoners.

The course is a triangle with its base along the CNE waterfront. Its perimeter in three miles and swimmers will go around it 10 times. Then they will swim two one-mile laps along the waterfront to make up the 32-mile distance comparable to the lake crossing.

The waterfront route will be partly inside the breakwater and partly outside.

Wednesday was a nerve-racking one for the swimmers and their retinue. They stood by while the start was postponed from 3 a.m. to 5, from 5 to 6 and then hourly until 9 a.m.

A meeting of the swimmers and their crews was called. The group proved too unwieldy and a five-man committee was formed. The committee recommended the race go at 2 p.m. and, if not then, at 4 p.m.

However, small-craft warnings had been raised and, while the five-man committee was in session, powerboat skippers decided they would not take their boats out while the warnings remained up.

Finally, three boats went out to study conditions. After their report, Price announced the cancellation.

Bloc Vibre Cops First Playoff Tilt From Dow

Bloc Vibre downed Dow 9-6 to post their first win in the semi-finals of the win Senior Softball League playoffs. The second game is slated for next Monday evening at Dufresne Park at 8:30.

A circuit blow by Gregoire with two men on in the seventh was the slim margin of victory for the Bloc squad. The Bloc moved into a 4-1 lead after the second inning but Dow picked up a singleton in the third and added three more in the fourth to move ahead 5-4. In the sixth they added one more for a 6-4 advantage.

In the seventh Gregoire's home run was the payoff blow for Bloc Vibre. In the lower half the Dow failed to tally as Rene Pepin kept things under control. He gave up eight hits while his mates touched R. Carmichael for seven.

Bloc Vibre 310 000 5-9 7 0
Dow 011 301 0-6 8 0
R. Pepin and Gregoire; Carmichael and R. Bouchard.
