

British Again Resume Smashing Blows on Hindenburg Line

DESPITE HEAVY FIGHTING HAIG'S TROOPS PUSH FORWARD AND TAKE STRONG POSITIONS

British Attack Along Entire Front on Which Battle of Arras Was Begun on Easter Monday, and is a Major Operation. French Make Important Gain on Champagne Front By Reducing Position Held by Germans on New Lines East of Monthaut. Garrison of More Than 200 Men Captured.

LONDON, May 3.—The British began another attack this morning. The war office announces that progress is being made. A number of strong positions already have been captured by the British.

The announcement follows: Heavy fighting is taking place all along the front from the Hindenburg line south of the Zenne river to the Acheville-Vimy roads. Our troops are making progress and have already captured a number of strong hostile positions.

The new British attacks take in virtually the entire front on which the battle of Arras was begun on Easter Monday, and evidently is a major operation. It is the fourth great attack which the British have made along this line. The attacking front is about twelve miles long.

FRENCH MAKE IMPORTANT GAIN IN CHAMPAGNE.

PARIS, May 3 (noon).—The French made an important gain on the Champagne front last night, reducing the position which was still being held by the Germans in the new lines east of Monthaut and capturing the German garrison of more than 200 men, the war office announces. There was active patrol fighting on the Chemins-des-Dames.

BRITISH CLOSING IN ON FRESNOY.

LONDON, May 3.—In their new attack of today the British made progress in the direction of Fresnoy and Cherisy, and also towards Bellecourt, Reuter's correspondent at the British headquarters reports.

HEAVY FIGHTING ON MACEDONIAN FRONT.

PARIS, May 3.—"There was heavy artillery fighting near Juma and in the Cerna bend on May 1," says today's official report from the Macedonian front. "On Monday night the Russians repulsed an enemy reconnoitring party. The bombardment of Monastir continues."

BRITISH ATTACK MADE IN DARKEST HOUR BEFORE DAWN

LONDON, May 3.—Reuter's correspondent at headquarters says:

The British attacked in the darkest hour preceding dawn this morning, striking at the German positions east of Arras. The infantry assault was delayed until half an hour after the half moon had gone down. The night was clear and star-lit, and the almost ceaseless flashing of guns gave definite shape to the shadowy outlines of the salient points.

The correspondent says the attack was directed to the taking of certain points of considerable importance and to improving the British line. The British desired to gain complete mastery of dominating positions whence their artillery would be able more effectively to devastate the fresh troops which the Germans continue to throw in.

There was the usual preliminary tornado of fire from weapons of all calibres and then the equally familiar creeping barrage, working with absolute punctuality as the order to the men to go forward was snapped forth simultaneously down miles of trenches. Thousands of crouching figures formed into regular waves for the advance.

Then came the inevitable deadly rattle of machine gun and rifle fire, and the crashing of bursting bombs as the infantry reached the parapet of the first enemy trench.

As to the results obtained, the correspondent adds, reports thus far are vague, but the British made progress in several directions toward Fresnoy and Cherisy, and also toward Bellecourt, which is a point on the Hindenburg line.

The Germans counter-attacked heavily near Gavrelle and Loos. These onslaughts were dealt with satisfactorily by the British gunners.

FRENCH OFFICIAL STATEMENT

PARIS May 3.—The French official statement follows—There was heavy artillery fighting all along the front of the Chemins-des-Dames, where numerous patrol encounters also occurred.

In the Champagne we repulsed German attacks in the wood west of Mont-Cornillet and on the heights east of Mont Haut. In the latter region we reduced an isolated German position which was still offering resistance and captured the garrison of nine officers and 210 men.

On the left bank of the Meuse our detachments penetrated German trenches at Avocourt Woods. Patrol encounters occurred on the right bank of the river, near Baulou and Bezonvaux. There was intermittent artillery fighting at some points along this portion of the front, especially in the sector of St. Mihiel.

BRITISH TAKE ANOTHER BITE IN HINDEBURG LINE

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, May 3.—(From a staff correspondent of the Associated Press.)—Another of the continuing British attacks was launched against the Germans early this morning. Hard fighting is in progress under a warm spring sun. There has been no rain for more than ten days now and the battlefields at times, are enveloped in dust. British reinforcement moving along the roads toward the front look like millers under heavy layers of chalk-white powder.

Reports from the battlefronts are as yet meagre but it appears that satisfactory progress is being made. The attack was on a wide front. At Bellecourt the British took another bite into the Hindenburg lines.

FRENCH ARE STILL TAKING PRISONERS

GRAND HEADQUARTERS OF THE FRENCH ARMY, ON THE FRENCH FRONT, May 2.—(From a staff correspondent of the Associated Press.)—Prisoners were still being brought in yesterday as a result of Tuesday's French success between Beine and Moronvilliers, and two fierce though unsuccessful, German counter-attacks to the northeast of Mont Haut.

Combatants who have taken part in the recent fighting declare that the German positions are of the strongest character and the resistance most obstinate. A French assaulting wave of infantry found a deep cavern at the foot of a steep cliff in Chivy ravine, west of Craonne into which the grenadiers threw grenades while their comrades continued to advance up the slope.

When they arrived at the top they observed a column of smoke pouring out of a hole on the summit of the plateau, and soon afterwards a

SINKING OF THE BALLARAT

Australians Behaved as Did Men on the Birkenhead and the Southland.

LONDON, May 3.—The story of the sinking of the steamer Ballarat is a partner to the stories of the Southland and the Birkenhead in the behaviour of the men of the Middlesex Regiment. In this case it was the Australians who added to the page of British tradition. It was Anzac Day, and the officers were planning to hold a memorial service when there came a dull crash and the ship began to take a list. The alarm instantly was sounded by the bugles, and without confusion of any kind the men fell in at the boat stations. "It's all right, boys," called out the old man on the bridge. "Don't sing too loud," said one officer, laughing, "because I can't give orders."

The turn of the navy came now, and the men instinctively knew the navy would turn up. It turned up. Destroyers and trawlers appeared like magic. A moderate sea was running, and the ship, having been struck near the propeller, began settling down by the stern. She did not actually sink until about four hours later.

STARTED PLAYING CARDS

While waiting for the boats to be lowered, some of the men sang, some actually settled down to play cards, and most of them smoked. The nurses remained with the medical staff until all the patients were provided for, and the whole medical staff remained with the patients until they were safely placed in boats. Every pet was saved with the exception of some of the ship's cats. The mails written by the men were in the sacks and were saved. The bandmaster saved his cornet, and was wont to call upon his band to fall in by means of a certain call on his cornet. When the men were in the boats they heard the old familiar cornet playing, as they had not saved their instruments, and though they fell in there was no answering life and drum bugle.

PRESIDENT OF REICHSTAG IN DEFIANT MOOD

Declares Germany Will Win Despite Entry of America Into the War.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) AMSTERDAM, May 3, via London.—The German Reichstag resumed its session today. The president of the Chamber, Dr. Johannes Kaempf, in his opening address, speaking of the entry of the United States into the war said a new and mighty opponent had joined the ranks of Germany's enemies. President Wilson in a message to Congress on April 2 declared he was waging war against the Germans in the interest of mankind and of justice. President Wilson, Dr. Kaempf declared, had lost his sight in making this assertion since he had not stirred a finger to hinder England when England announced her war of starvation against Germany, a war in violation of all human and international rights. President Wilson had lost his sight when he rejected the German proposal to secure the lives of Americans on American vessels in certain routes which carried no contraband, and by this rejection exposed his own compatriots to danger and death. This remark evoked thunderous applause.

"With our truest heart's blood we established the German Kaiserdom, and with our truest heart's blood we shall fight for the Kaiser and the Empire. (Renewed applause.) What our forefathers fought for and longed for, what we have achieved on the battlefield, will not perish even at President Wilson's word of command.

"We decline all interfering by a neutral government in our international affairs. If all signs are not misleading the decisive point of the world's war is approaching. We see our death-defying troops withstanding the enemy's assaults. Our U-boats will show England how German can avenge her nefarious starvation war. We proved recently our financial strength by a sixth war loan. We adhere to our firm belief in Germany's star and in a peace which will be secure for all time the Fatherland's happy development."

MARKET BY-LAW CAUSE OF COMPLAINT.

On Thursday, April 6, 1916, the Town Council passed the By-law No. 137, more generally known as the Market By-law. Since that time this has been more or less of a thorn with a number of the citizens. Local residents of the towns and townships, not that there seems to be anything particularly terrifying about the by-law, but rather in the interpretations of it. Because a Town Council passes a set of rules and calls them a by-law does not mean that they are necessarily legal, but it has had the effect of scaring individual farmers into submission. In fact, Councilors themselves, give different versions of the powers given the market clerk by the by-law. As it seems to be interpreted, a merchant or consumer cannot order a bushel of potatoes or a pound of butter from a farmer and have him deliver it, but if the same farmer can ship into town by boat or train it seems to be legal. At least, this seems to be the way it is being enforced here. However, legal opinion has been given stating that if a merchant orders butter or other produce from a farmer the same as he would if he were ordering it from an outside firm, that he cannot be prevented from delivering it. It has had the effect of preventing a number of farmers who used to sell butter in town by contract through the season to ship their cream away. Other farmers have taken their produce to other localities. The aim of the Council was to keep down the price to the consumer as much as possible, but in some cases it has had an opposite effect. A week ago eggs were selling for more on the market than in the stores. However, as stated above, the Market By-law as a whole seems to be all right, but its enforcement has been the cause of considerable complaint.

The following is a couple of clauses of the By-law:

Sec. 11. — "No person bringing goods, wares, or merchandise into the town for sale shall expose them for sale on none of the streets or public places or in no place whatever in the town except on the market." It will be noted that even merchants, according to this are supposed to take wares, etc., down to the market and pay their fees before they can be sold, although they have to pay a business tax. This is, however, evidently not the intention of the framers, for they have endeavored to enforce it only as it refers to farm produce.

Another section that is interesting is Sec. 14: "No trader, grocer, huckster, butcher or dealer in provisions in the town of Magog, either by himself or by his agent shall buy or offer to buy or forestall any meat, vegetables, provisions or other articles for family use brought on the market for sale before the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon. This is

THE LATE PTE. ARTHUR SEQUIN, NORTH HATLEY

Memorial Service Held For Fallen Soldier. Meeting of Cemetery Association.

NORTH HATLEY, May 3. — (Special) — Wednesday morning at 8.30 there was a memorial service at the Roman Catholic Church here for the late Arthur Sequin, who gave his life for his country recently. The Canadian Order of Foresters, of which deceased was a member, attended in a body, and the attendance of citizens of all creeds was large. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family. Thus another of the North Hatley boys has made the supreme sacrifice in this great struggle, in which so many local lads are engaged.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the North Hatley Cemetery Association, held at the Union Church, Red's Crossing, on Tuesday evening, was fairly well attended. The president, Mr. H. R. Slack, presided. The treasurer, Mr. W. E. LeBaron, gave his report, which showed that after all bills had been met and paid there remained a balance of $112.47 in the treasury. The officers were all re-elected. The board of directors is as follows: Messrs. C. M. Reed, J. B. LeBaron, A. H. Ham, S. A. McKay and F. W. Tyler. The report of the solicitors for the improvement fund, Messrs. J. Messers, J. B. LeBaron and F. W. Tyler, reported having $1,525 on the subscription list, of which sum about $325 had been paid in and was now in the bank. A resolution was passed that the association be entitled to make any changes or improvements to the cemetery, that any lot therein, which will improve the appearance of the whole. The question of how the cemetery should be improved was discussed, and in view of the fact that efforts to secure a suitable man to confer with the directors and to manage the work had proved unavailing, it was decided to advertise for a caretaker for the summer months, one who could both plan and work.

A wise provision as it safeguards the consumer against any dealer from buying up all the produce of any particular variety, and thus forcing up prices. There is not the least doubt but that the City Fathers were endeavoring to do what was best for the public as a whole, but the interpretations that are made do not all seem to be in the best interest of the public. It is understood, however, that a delegation will visit the Council in the near future, and if necessary, a test case made to prove or disprove the validity of certain sections of the by-law.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

The concert given in St. Luke's Church Hall on Friday evening last under the auspices of the Ladies' Patriotic Society, proved to be a musical treat, and although there was not a crowded house, there was a representative and an appreciative audience present to listen to Mrs. F. H. Bradley, soprano, and Mr. J. A. Hurley, pianist, of Sherbrooke. They were also accompanied by Mr. J. Parker, of the same place. These artists gave their services free, so that the proceeds of the concert will all be devoted to patriotic requirements.

MR. GEORGE NORTON STRICK-EN.

WOMEN'S AILMENTS

Come from the Heart and Nerves
Young girls budding into womanhood who suffer with pains and headaches, and whose face is pale and blood watery, will find Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills build them up. Women, between the ages of 40 and 50, who are nervous, subject to hot flashes, feeling of pins and needles, smothering feelings, shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, etc., are tired over this trying time of their life by the use of this remedy. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have a wonderful effect on a woman's system, making pains and aches vanish, bringing color to the pale cheek and sparkle to the eye.

FOR PATRIOTIC WORK.

The members of the Knitting Club of the Ladies' Patriotic Society met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Oliver, on Friday afternoon last. The ladies, possessing the bonne entente spirit, permitted the men to attend, so that there was a good attendance. A short programme interspersed during the working period, and provided by Mrs. F. H. Bradley, Mr. J. H. Hurley and Mr. J. Parker, proved an interesting and attractive feature.

AFTER FAST AUTO DRIVERS

For many years past, there has been considerable fast driving on our streets, automobile owners being the chief offenders. The authorities realizing that the desire to speed up is sometimes irresistible have been more or less lenient, but the practice having become all too common, as it entails considerable danger to pedestrians that they will drop these objections, as they consider that the main street is sadly in need of attention of some sort.

NAVIGATION OPENS.

The steamer Anthemis came down the Lake on Tuesday of this week, thus opening the navigation season on Lake Memphremagog.

TOWN ON "DRY LIST."

Magog went dry on May 1st as was anticipated. Rev. F. X. Brassard in commenting upon local opinion, urged his hearers on Sunday last to give it a good trial, and to report any contraventions of the law, or even suspicions of it.

PRICE OF SEED POTATOES HIGH.

Quite a number of the townsmen, who have been accustomed to plant potatoes in their kitchen gardens, are planning to omit this tuber owing to the present high price of seed. There are other who think this is a wise plan as a bushel of potatoes planted now will produce from ten to twenty bushels, in the fall, so that every bushel now, even if the price is high, will have a tendency to reduce the price in the fall and even if it does not it will eliminate to a large extent the necessity of buying at a high price.

NOTES.

EVERY India Paper SET

of the new

Encyclopaedia Britannica

in the entire world that is still unsold

in America

This great work, written and edited by the scholars of the world, is the accepted international authority on all branches of knowledge. Consequently, it has a large sale in every civilized country.

But of all the sets printed on the famous India paper, the only ones in the world still available are the few thousand now being sold in this country. And these will soon be all gone—a few weeks at the outside will see the very last set sold.

Thousands of sets were sold in Great Britain. Today it is not possible to buy the Britannica in that country except at secondhand and at whatever premium is put upon it.

Every set offered in Australia is gone.

South Africa is "sold out."
India is "sold out."

Japan, where more sets of the Britannica were sold than of any reference work in any language, is "sold out."

Argentina, which led all Latin-America in sales of the Britannica, is "sold out."

In Canada, the only sets that can be purchased must be sent from the United States.

You have the opportunity NOW to acquire one of these last sets of the Britannica printed on genuine India paper. But only for a few weeks longer at most—because the remaining sets are selling fast. Orders are coming in from all parts of the United States and Canada at an increasing rate from day to day.

If you let this chance pass, you will never have another to buy this world-famous work printed on the beautiful India paper.

It is NOW or never if you want a set.

More than 175,000 sets have already been sold in America—only a small fraction of the entire stock remains. You cannot delay and expect to get a set. Therefore we urge you to act immediately.

No one should buy the Britannica unless he is convinced that it would be useful to him. And in your case YOU are the one to decide how much this Library of Knowledge would help you in your business or work,

You can see sets and leave orders at:

Ansell's Drug Store

just as it is helping tens of thousands of others.

This great work leads to the highway of Success—it not only gives you practical information on any subject, but it increases your efficiency, broadens your point of view and employs the scope of your activities. It has a dollars-value because the knowledge it gives you increases your earning power.

You need the Britannica for a hundred and more reasons. You certainly owe it to yourself to find out all about it before you order it. And if you then decide that you want it printed on beautiful India paper, NOW is the time to buy it —at the specially attractive price at which these very last sets in the world printed on India paper are offered.

You are not asked to pay cash for it—only to get your order in at once with a first payment of one dollar. You can pay for it in a limited number of convenient monthly amounts of as low as $3 for the cloth binding. And you have the use of the books (29 volumes) while paying for them—they will be shipped as soon as your order is received.

But you must act promptly. Every day's delay lessens your chance to own one of these very last sets of the Britannica printed on genuine India paper. You must buy it NOW —or Never!

Those who cannot go to the store may use this Reserver Order form, which will be legally binding upon us to reserve one set for you, just the same as if you ordered it in person.

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO., Chicago, Ill.

Please reserve me a set of the "Handy Volume" Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper. I enclose $1.00 as first payment. Send me an order form which I agree to sign and return immediately.

COWANSVILLE NOTES OF NEWS

Two Former Residents of Place Pay Supreme Sacrifice on Battlefield.

COWANSVILLE, May 3.—(Special)—Word has been received here confirming the news of the death of Pte. Jas. Freeman. His name appeared in the casualty lists of Monday, March 5th as 859303 F. J. Freeman, Scotland. His correct number was 859-353 and his friends did not then feel absolutely certain that Pte. Jas. Freeman was the one mentioned.

Former Resident Fell in Action. Mr. J. B. Downey residing at 2462a Clark St., Montreal, who formerly resided in this place has received the news of the death of his son Pte. Forrest Cotton Le Roy Downey who was killed in action on April 9th 1917 in the Vimy Ridge battle.

SEEDING IS LATE. For the first in many years May 1st arrived with no seed in the ground in this vicinity. The mountains are still clad in their winter garb and not a few banks linger at the foot hills.

Grass Has Wintered Well and Should Be a Good Crop. Material is being got together to put a new concrete abutment under the north end of the bridge near Miller's corner. The work will be proceeded with under the management of bridge man I. B. Shepard as soon as the cement can be secured.

WILL USE A KING DRAG. The road division from the Post Office East is constructing a good King drag with which to grade their roads in place of using the road machine too much. A good coating of gravel and kept well crowned is preferable to having the sods taken from the ditches and placed on the road bed for the public to travel over.

TWO INCHES OF SNOW FELL. Several inches of snow fell on the mountains during the night of May 1st. The storm was from the south east and a cold wind prevails throughout the day on the 2nd.

Little Boy Had Eczema On Face and Hands—Local Doctor Treated Him in Vain How Cure Was Finally Effected.

TRENTON, Ont., May 3.—This letter will interest all mothers of young children, because it tells of the best means obtainable of overcoming the annoying and torturing skin troubles which come to so many children.

Mrs. Waldron had several doctors treating her boy for eczema, but all in vain. Finally she heard about Dr. Chase's Ointment and her letter tells of the wonderful results obtained by the use of this soothing, healing ointment.

Mrs. Samuel Waldron, George Street, Trenton, Ont., writes: "About four years ago, my little boy had a rash on his face and hands which the doctor called Eczema. He gave us a wash for it, and some ointment, which we used, but without benefit. I think we tried all the doctors here. Finally we tried Dr. Chase's Ointment, and gave it a good trial. We could see that it was gradually healing. At first it appeared to burn the skin, then this skin would peel up, finally he got rid of it entirely. During the winters of the next two years we noticed a symptom of the disease under the skin. Each time we used more Dr. Chase's Ointment, curing it both times. For the last two years he has not had any return symptoms at all, so we think that he is now entirely cured."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

(NOTES FROM RECORD FILE MAY 3, 1897.)

Mr. Jos. Bedard, conservative candidate for Richmond, is in town.

Mr. T. B. Rider, ex M.P. for Stanstead, arrived in town this morning on his way back home from Colorado Springs. Mr. Rider hastened back to take part in the political contest in his county.

Mr. John Black of Scotstown has been appointed a justice of the peace for the district.

Crop prospects in Manitoba are very bright. A harvest two or three weeks earlier than the usual season is assured.

The immigration into Western Canada thus far this season has been heavier than for many years. More bonafide settlers have already been brought in this year than since 1886, which was a record year.

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of the Massawippi Canoe Club on Saturday:

F. E. Lozain, Vice-President; W. E. Paton, Commodore; J. G. Walton; Sec.-Treas. J. P. Walls.

Messrs. F. J. Robinson and H. C. Ayer of Ayer's Flat, D. W. Nault of Laton and B. H. Kezar of Massawippi were in town on Saturday.

EAST SHERBROOKE

Miss Ethel Price, Hubbard Ave., is ill with an attack of pleurisy.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bartlett left this morning for their home in La Tuque, after spending several weeks in town. Mr. Bartlett underwent a serious operation at the Sherbrooke Hospital, and during his convalescence, was the guest, with Mrs. Bartlett, of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hutchinson, King St., E.

Mrs. H. Wilcox entertained the members of the E. S. branch, Patriotic Society, at a pleasant tea yesterday afternoon. Sewing and knitting was industriously carried on during the afternoon, and tea was served at small tables, daintily arranged with hepaticas. The hostess was assisted by the Misses Dora Coates, Evelyn, and Doris Price.

KLAIRE DOWSEY TO SING HERE

Miss Klaira Dowsey, the charming and popular New York soprano, through the courtesy of Foster & David, her managers, and J. Albert Hurley, her former accompanist, and present organist of the Sherbrooke Methodist Church, will give a recital in Wesley Hall, Wednesday evening, May 15, 1917, at 8.30.

Miss Dowsey, who is very popular in the States, will make a special trip from New York City for this concert. It will probably interest the Sherbrooke people to know that wherever Miss Dowsey sings she is guaranteed the sum of two hundred dollars, and expenses. She is coming to Sherbrooke for expenses only, and is donating her services for the recital.

Miss Dowsey is under the same management as a number of the Metropolitan Opera Company artists, among them, Madame Olive Fremstad, and Edith Mason. Miss Dowsey has sung in joint recitals with Paul Althouse, of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and has been most favorably compared by the press with Anna Case and Alma Gluck.

Miss Dowsey's programme will include operatic arias, concert songs and some of the finest ballads of the day. Besides these, she will sing a group of songs in French, also the "Mad Scene" from "Hamlet," by Thomas, in French. The rest of the programme will be in English.

The personal charm of this talented artist has won her a host of friends in the world of music. Miss Dowsey has a rich voice of rare quality and sings with a freshness and charm which at once wins the enthusiasm of her audience.

The recital will be one of the large events of the season, and will undoubtedly attract a large number of music lovers from out of town. The proceeds of the recital will be devoted to the organ and choir fund of the church.

The accompanist will be J. Albert Hurley, who for four seasons has toured with Miss Dowsey.

THE NEW BANK BUILDING IN UPPER TOWN

The handsome new building for the Upper Town branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, on King street, was formally inaugurated on May 1, the staff then taking possession, their former quarters having become confined and inadequate.

The construction is of tapestry and Ascot brick combined, plain but solid, with a frontage of 42 feet, and in every respect is admirably adapted to its purpose. Granite steps lead from the sidewalk to the wide plate glass door, protected by brass rods and with massive, shining brass handles. The first view of the rotunda is very pleasing and further examination shows that all the arrangements have been carried out to facilitate business, and also with a view to the convenience and comfort of the customers and the working staff. Floods of light are admitted by large plate glass windows placed in pairs on three sides, with deep sills of polished oak, and all the woodwork, counters, desks, etc., are of the same material, substantial and suitable to a marked degree. The walls are finished by a new process in pale green, separated from the darker green dado by an oak rail.

The high paneled ceiling shows a still fainter tint, and the cork carpet, which covers the hardwood floor and renders every footstep noiseless, carries out the color scheme and is particularly restful to the eye. On the right is the manager's room, railed off from the rotunda, and fitted up with rug, large table and the usual appliances, and on the right again, but at the rear, is a large vault floored and lined with steel, where are the safety deposit boxes.
In the roomy basement is another vault for storage, together with boiler room, furnace room, etc. The hot water heating and the electric lighting are of the most modern and up-to-date description, and the system of ventilation has been carefully planned. Throughout the entire building there is a sense of the fitness of things which does credit to the contractors, Messrs. A. Dakin, McGee, and the second floor are four light-airy offices, to which access is gained by a separate entrance, enclosed vestibule and easy staircase, of polished birch, lighted, heated and furnished with lavatories, etc. The manager of the Upper Town branch is Mr. N.
Fergus Dinning, with a competent staff of assistants.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT SAWYERVILLE

Tribute Paid to Former Principal G. W. Gilson Who Fell in Action in France.

SAWYERVILLE, May 3.—(Special)—There took place on Tuesday afternoon, at three o'clock, a service in commemoration of Mr. G. W. Gilson, the former principal of the Public school here, who fell in battle at Vimy Ridge on April 9th, last. Mr. Gilson enlisted first for home defense, then later with the 87th Grenadier Guards, and was finally assigned to a machine gun battalion. Mr. Wm. Turiff, present chairman of the school board, presided. The pupils marched from the school to the hall and sang the hymn, "Oh God our help in ages past." Rev. J. M. Newby then rendered an extempore prayer, and Rev. R. D. Smith read the Ninetieth Psalm. The Rev. H. Spencer Percival, M. A., read the New Testament lesson from the eleventh and twelfth chapters of the Book of Hebrews, beginning at the thirty-second verse, and closing with the third. The school pupils then sang "O Canada." Dr. F. P. Vorston, former chairman of the Board, gave an address. The service was purely a school affair, said he, by way of introduction. He gave a military history of the war, commenting eloquently upon the second battle of Ypres, when Canada's noble sons offered the most valiant resistance recorded in history, and in spite of gas attacks, saved Calais from falling into the hands of the Germans. He referred also to the battle of Vimy Ridge, where the sons of Canada won the most glorious victory recorded in military history, and first gave Canada a military history from a world point of view. He mentioned touching reminiscences he had with the departed hero, and gave out the practical suggestion that the school should at some time, prepare a memorial tablet for their former principal and set it up. The school then sang, "For Our Valiant Men." Miss Morrison, the present principal, officiating at the piano. Rev. G. H. Ford then delivered an address dwelling on the ethical and spiritual significance of the war. The school then sang "God Save Our Splendid Men," and the audience joined in singing the National Anthem. The school commissioners and local clergy were present upon the platform.

FORMER CANTERBURY MAN FELL IN ACTION

Pte. Jack O. Hughes Was One of First From Place to Join Colors.

SCOTSTOWN, May 3.—(Special)—Word has just recently been received by the effect that Private Jack O. Hughes, of the 10th Canadian Infantry Battalion, had fallen in action, presumably in the great and glorious attack which the Canadian troops made when they captured Vimy Ridge. Pte. Hughes came out from England several years ago and worked out on farms in different parts of the Eastern Townships, and gave universal satisfaction wherever he went. For some time he was in the employ of Mr. Stimson, of Gore, Melbourne, and latterly he stopped with Mr. Cecil Lefebvre, of Canterbury, from whence in the early stages of the war he enlisted with the 41st Battalion. He was the first of the nine young men of Canterbury who have gone forward to fight for their God, their King and their Country, and was the first of the above-named group to make the supreme sacrifice. It may be truly said of him, in the words of our Canadian poet, the Hon. Major Rev. Canon F. G. Scott, C.M.G.:

"He saw in wider vision
The Empire and its need,
And came, with swift decision,
To do the utmost deed.
And now, and ever after,
His fame will grow with years,
He went with songs and laughter—
We leave him there with tears."

In the early part of the year he received a gunshot wound through the arm and was sent to a hospital for a while, but as soon as he recovered rejoined his regiment, and soon after was killed.

It may be of interest to his many friends to know that only a few weeks ago the Rev. P. R. Roy, pastor of the deceased, received a personal letter from Captain Rev. F. Raynes Smithers, chaplain, stating that Pte. Hughes was a model soldier and doing his best in every way to lead a Christian life. "Jack," as he was known by his friends, was well liked wherever he went and, being of a sympathetic disposition, was kind-hearted and always ready to do one a good turn.

He was a member of Christ Church, Canterbury, and a regular attendant at its services. He was also a member of the Bible class and, he is said to his credit that from the time it was organized to the time he enlisted, was never absent once.

REEDSDALE

Miss Jessie McIntyre, of Montreal, called home on Saturday by the serious illness of her aunt, Miss Ross. Messrs. Keenan and Small, of St. Agathe, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walker, Saturday. Mr. C. O. Ward, Clapham, here on business Monday. Mrs. Robert White to Nelson on Friday to see her mother. Mrs. McCullough, who has been seriously ill.

Miss Jane Ross passed away Monday evening, April 30, after a long illness. She was tenderly cared for by her only remaining sister, Mrs. W. McIntyre.

KENNEBEC ROAD

The Breakey drive is progressing very well, much better than had been expected some time ago. Mr. Walter Cathcart brought his drive out of the Metgermette on Monday, and Messrs. Hagan and Roy theirs on Tuesday. The Wilson also came out on Monday and the Monument on Tuesday. The rear of the Du Loup drive is opposite the Barkley farm. The dams built a few years ago, on the various streams, are a great help in holding back the water for a time, and then, when the gates are opened, it rushes forward and carries the logs with it. An additional improvement was made when the large boulders in the streams were blasted, thus preventing the formation of so many large jams. This year there is a still further improvement by using the motor truck on the Kennebec Road for moving the men, etc., from place to place. The men lose much less time than when they had to walk or be moved by teams.

The Berlin Mills and Penobscot companies are rushing their supplies to the various streams to take advantage of the remainder of the water. It is said that in places in the woods there is a depth of 2 feet of snow still remaining.

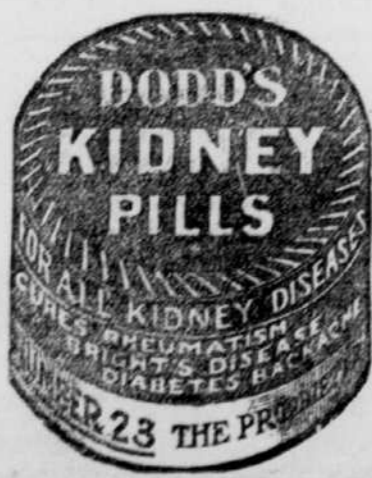

NORTH THETFORD

Sugaring is finished in this vicinity with a successful yield both in quantity and quality.

Mr. Jas. Connolly went to Haverhill, Mass., to attend the funeral of his sister Annie, who died last week. During her residence here before going to Haverhill she was much respected on account of her lovable qualities, and leaves a number of friends as well as her three brothers, Edward, James and Tom, of this place.

Canada's Finest

A correspondent wrote from England: At the beginning the men of the Fourth Canadian Division make no secret of their intentions to break all records. Gen. Odium's first appearance as a brigadier aroused especial interest. His fame as a modern soldier has already reached far beyond Canadian lines. Old professional soldiers of continental armies are watching him with the same interest that leaders of the British army watched Turner during the Boer War.

VICTIMS OF HUN U-BOATS

Thirty-Eight Vessels Over 1,600 Tons Reported Sunk Last Week.

LONDON, May 3.—The British official announcement of the number of vessels sunk in the week ending on Sunday last shows that 38 merchant ships of over 1,600 tons each were sunk. Those of less than 1,600 tons numbered thirteen and eight fishing vessels were sent to the bottom by submarines or mines.

Last week's statement showed that forty vessels of over 1,600 tons each were sent to the bottom by mines or submarines.

The announcement says: Arrivals of all nationalities, over 100 tons, 2,716, sailing, 2,690.

British merchantmen sunk by submarines or mines over 1,600 tons, including three not previously recorded, 38.

Under 1,600 tons, including one not previously recorded, 13.

British vessels unsuccessfully attacked, including two not previously recorded, 24.

British fishing vessels sunk, including two not previously recorded, eight.

MANY SUBS. DESTROYED.

A Port in Europe, May 3.—The mines newly placed by the British in the war zone of the German coast have recently been destroying many submarines.

It is known that these results have greatly heartened the British Admiralty.

ALARMED OVER U-BOAT WARFARE

Washington Hears That German Craft Sunk 400,000 Tons in Two Weeks.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Secretary Lane at the conference of Governors of States at Washington yesterday, called for the purpose of discussing co-operation with the Council of National Defence, made the remarkable and highly disturbing statement that the Federal Government had heard that submarines had sunk a total of 400,000 tons of shipping in the last two weeks. This, if true and the rate could be continued for a sufficient period, might spell disaster, not only for England, France and Italy, but also for the United States. This total is confirmed in a measure by Lord Balfour's statement in the House of Lords, in which he said the recent losses had been appalling and that he had a mind to defy the Defence of the Realm Act and make known the facts. Making allowance for deliberate exaggeration made to bring England and the United States to a realistic sense of the dangers that stare them in the face, there is no question that the submarines are doing a deadly work that must be curbed soon if even a comparatively early peace is to be brought about.

The U-boat success may explain why Bethmann-Hollweg has postponed his much advertised peace statement scheduled for today in the Reichstag. But it may be that Secretary Lane has got his figures all twisted and the four hundred thousand in one week really is four hundred thousand in one month, which would be a very different though still serious story.

CO-OPERATION IN BLOCKADE.
LONDON, May 3.—Replying to a question in the House of Commons whether he would ask for an American expert to help the Foreign Office in making the blockade effective, Lord Robert Cecil, Minister of Blockade said yesterday that arrangements for the most effective co-operation of the United States with the Allies in the prosecution of the war were proceeding satisfactorily.

ST. PETER'S GUILD TEA.
The hostesses at the Guild tea at St. Peter's Church Hall, yesterday, were Mrs. Bray, Mrs. Dumbell, and Miss Bray, and although owing to the bad weather the attendance was by no means as large as it should have been, those present enjoyed a pleasant hour, while the chill of the day made the daintily served tea, and refreshments most acceptable.

JEAN CAMBON SEES UNDOUBTED END OF SUBMARINES

PARIS, May 3.—Jules Cambon, general secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in the course of a talk yesterday referring to General Petain's nomination as chief of staff said: "The nomination of General Petain to the post of chief of the General Staff will assure a closer means of communication between the Government, which has the responsibility of conducting the war, and the commander-in-chief on whom is incumbent the direction of the operations. One of the factors making this change useful was that it conforms to the necessities of a democratic government in which public opinion has its legitimate part in the general orientation of the war. The action of the Government will now be thanks to the presence of General Petain as chief of the General Staff, of a character more precise and practical while the conduct of the actual operations will remain in the hands of the commander-in-chief."

Concerning the extent of losses from submarines, M. Cambon said: "There is no occasion to be pessimistic over the submarine menace, which is now receiving attention from the Americans. It is foreseen that American energy and precision will gain effect in that and in the settlement of the question of feeding and of freight. It is not doubted that the end of the submarines is in sight. The effect of the means of destruction employed against them by the English and French navies is viewed with much satisfaction and it is interesting to note the recent successes obtained near Dunkirk by scouting and bombing hydro-airplanes in operating against submarines."

WANT ARMY OF 5,000,000 MEN IN UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, May 3.—One thing which Washington has come to realize is that the money America must put up is far in excess of the amount originally anticipated; that the ships and food and raw materials which must be sent to England, France and Italy are larger in number and amount than the original plans called for, and that instead of planning to raise an army of one million men, we must plan to raise in three years an army of five million men, unless we are to bury the first million in the fields of France, says a correspondent.

If anything could bring Germany to terms it would be the knowledge that within the next three years America would put five million men in Europe. That would mean that Germany could not hope to hold out and win the war. Probably some such announcement from the Washington Government will soon be made.

An urgent appeal has been made to the President that he lose no time in taking the people into his confidence and in the name of the nation assure the world that Uncle Sam is determined to go to the limit, regardless of the billions of dollars or the millions of men it takes to put the German Government out of the business and rid the world of the menace which that autocracy constitutes today to the liberty and life of democracy the world over. Troops in France will be the living proof that the United States is in the war to stay until peace with victory is an accomplished fact.

DISCOUNT ANY PEACE FEELERS

Allied Envoys Believe There is Not Slightest Chance of Separate Peace.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Any peace terms Germany may propose must stand this acid test of all the Allies, including the United States: Do they mean a permanent peace? It is violating no confidence to say that members of the foreign missions in this country expect no proffer of peace from Germany which they can accept. The German people, or a large element among them, are clamoring for peace, Austria is worn out and Turkey is helpless except under immediate German direction, which the Kaiser is now unable to give. But the submarine campaign of the Imperial German government is yet too young to discourage the Allies and on the other hand is showing too tragic results to permit any weakening of the German will to consider no peace which does not yield sixty per cent. of concession to the German cause.

The German idea of a peace which she can afford to make is relatively simple, as it is being explained by experts in international affairs. She can surrender much in the west of Europe and suffer no important loss from her point of view, but she must keep open a "corridor" from Germany into the Far East to the Suez Canal and the Panama Canal as the two great main arteries of the world. The German Government never must surrender a position from which she can strike at either, particularly the great waterway which England controls. She must establish her base on this continent, and this cannot be done at present, but it is one of the principal chapters in the German book of the future. Germany therefore may make a dozen peace proposals which might appeal to the lay mind of Europe and America and ostensibly consent to surrenders which, on their face, would appear to be the giving up of some of her most prized possessions. But if the settlement does not hamper the power of Germany to threaten the world through an attempted control of the two greatest waterways of the world it will amount to nothing as a guarantee of permanent peace.

BRITISH RESUME

crowd of Germans, numbering about 200 in all came out, having climbed 180 steps through a chimney cut in the solid rock from the cavern below. The French had scaled the cliff quicker than the Germans had gone up the stairs and they took all the Germans prisoners.

A German officer was caught while in the act of telephoning to his headquarters. He surrendered, holding his arm up with the telephone receiver in one hand.

30 ENEMY AIRPLANES BROUGHT DOWN

LONDON, May 2.—From an infantry point of view the day was a quiet one on the western front, but it was a day of heavy artillery bombardments. The exchanges were violent along the entire British line and on the Champagne front held by the French. During last night and today the British and French airmen brought down thirty adversaries, destroyed or very seriously damaged. At least half of these are known to have been destroyed. The British losses were lighter than usual, however, only four machines having failed to return. A number of raids of enemy organizations many miles behind the firing lines were successfully undertaken.

GERMANY TO SEIZE ALL GRAIN

Will Requisition All the New Crop, Says Bavarian in Reichstag.

AMSTERDAM, via London, May 3.—The whole of Germany's coming grain harvest will be requisitioned by the government, according to Dr. Georg Helm, Bavarian member of the Centre party in the Reichstag. In a speech at Neustadt, Dr. Helm warned the farmers to be prepared for new and heavier restrictions. He said that from the moment of the first ripening the entire crop will be confiscated and that only from one quarter to one third the crop will be left for the farmers. Every ton will be organized on military lines. The farmers, according to Dr. Helm, will receive the maximum price in addition to a bonus for early threshing. This measure, he said, is absolutely necessary in order to insure the period of transition to the new harvest. Dr. Helm then proceeded to condemn the imperial chancellor's economic policy as having failed to show sufficient foresight and as responsible for existing conditions.

AMERICANS ARE "NOT ENEMIES"

Germany Does Not Consider Herself at War With United States.

LONDON, May 3.—German authorities have ordered the immediate cancellation of the Berlin order placing American residents there in a status of enemy subjects, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from The Hague. The order, adds the message, is regarded as a blunder, the German Foreign Office arguing that Germany does not consider herself at war with the United States. Americans, it is stated, will still be subject to police supervision.

TWO SOLUTIONS OF CANADA'S RY. PROBLEM

Majority Report Suggests Making Two Systems, But to Leave C.P.R. Alone.

OTTAWA, May 3.—Two solutions of the Canadian railway problem were placed before Parliament yesterday when Sir Thomas White laid on the table of the House the majority and minority reports of the investigating committee appointed by the Government last June. Sir Henry Drayton and Mr. Acworth agree in their findings, while A. H. Smith proposes a solution diametrically opposite to that of the majority.

Sir Henry Drayton and Mr. Acworth would solve our railway problem by increasing the mileage owned by the Government, but Mr. Smith would continue corporation ownership and operation, but would re-arrange and consolidate the scope of operation of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern.

Of the Canadian Pacific Mr. Smith says, "Let the Canadian Pacific alone," while Sir Henry Drayton and his colleague think Government operation of the other railway systems should be followed by an offer to purchase the Canadian Pacific, but they do not recommend Government operation.

The chairman of the Railway Commission and his colleagues would consolidate our railways into two systems—the Canadian Pacific, owned and operated as at present, with the Grand Trunk, Canadian Northern, Intercolonial, National Transcontinental and Grand Trunk Pacific owned by the Dominion Government, but operated by a board of trustees to be known as the "Dominion Railway Company."

Mr. Smith would reorganize our railways into four systems—the Canadian Pacific as at present, also the present Government system of the intercolonial, National Transcontinental and Prince Edward Island Railway would remain as at present, but he would make the Canadian Northern a purely western system from Winnipeg to the coast, and the Grand Trunk an eastern system, including the C. N. R. eastern lines.

The Grand Trunk Pacific would be leased to the C. N. R. and a Government line from North Bay to Winnipeg leased to either the C. N. R. or Grand Trunk would provide a connection between these two systems, which, while independent organizations, would be dependent on each other for interchange of eastern and western freight and passenger traffic.

The three investigators agree that we have one too many transcontinental lines; that the Canadian Pacific should not be interfered with, that all railways should be brought under the control of the Railway Commission, and that operation of railways by a minister directly responsible to Parliament is not in the public interest.

DUTCH SHIPS REACH HOLLAND

Some of the Vessels Had Laid in at British Harbors Since January.

AMSTERDAM, via London, May 3.—The arrival of fourteen Dutch ships in Holland from England was the occasion of great joy. A dozen of the vessels were from New York and Baltimore and were loaded with badly needed bread, grain and fodder, aggregating some thirty thousand tons. Some of the ships had lain in English waters since the end of January, but their cargoes are reported to be generally in good condition.

GERMAN "MASTER SPY" TO BARE PLOT

Charged With Attempt to Embroid U.S. With Mexico and Japan.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Efforts to embroid this country with Mexico and Japan so as to stop the shipment of munitions from the United States to the Entente Allies were, by his own assertion, made by Captain Franz Rintelen, of the German navy, according to testimony given yesterday at his trial on a charge of conspiring with seven other men, Americans, to foment strikes in American munition factories and on docks.

John C. Hammond, an advertising man, said Rintelen went to him with a plan to carry on a pro-German publicity campaign.

"I notified Secretary Tumulty and the Department of Justice," Mr. Hammond said. "I wrote a letter saying that Rintelen had stated to me that he was doing all in his power to embroid this country with Mexico, because if this country had war with Mexico it would stop the shipment of munitions to Europe, and that it was only a matter of time before German diplomacy would embroil this country with Japan."

LEGITIMATE PROPAGANDA

Up to this time, Mr. Hammond said, he had spent $5,000 to $10,000 "on legitimate advertising propaganda" for Rintelen.

Using the name of Hansen, Rintelen went to him, Mr. Hammond testified, in April, 1915. "He told me," the witness said, "he wanted to bring about a better understanding between the United States and Germany. He said that Germany and the United States should dominate the world's trade after the war. There could not be any peace, he said, until the shipment of munitions from this country was stopped."

When the trial was resumed yesterday counsel for Captain Franz Rintelen, "master spy" of the German government, said Rintelen was ready to tell everything he knows about the conspiracy.

GREAT LOSSES IN THE AIR

GERMAN LIARS WRITE BUSILY FOR MOSLEMS

"Literature" by the Ton in Many Languages for all the Orient—Tricky Work Exposed

The "Journal de Geneve" (Swiss) has an illuminating account of Germany's underground activities. It derives special interest from the fact that its writer is himself an Arab, Ali el-Ghaithi. It reads: We used to think that we knew all about the methods employed by the German propagandists in Mohammedan countries to convert the followers of Islam to the "German truth".

In order to give an idea of their wholesale distribution it will be enough to note that one of these pamphlets, "A Judgment on England," an edition of 5,000 copies was published in Berlin on May 2, 1915. Eighteen days later 10,000 more were printed. If subsequent editions are printed on this basis, one may imagine the result.

Several of these works purported to have been published at headquarters of the Entente in Paris, in London and in neutral countries, in Stockholm, Amsterdam, Zurich, Rio de Janeiro. Most of them are anonymous; some of them describe themselves as written "by a Neutral". Many are printed on paper of very fine quality, some are illustrated, and others are written in verse, especially those in Arabic and Persian. Tunisians, Turks, Tartars, and Persians have lent their signatures to these publications.

According to some of the writers, conquest and victory have been from all eternity vested in Germany, whose Emperor is the all-powerful protector of the Koran. One is amazed to discover that the Sultan, Mahomet IV, suddenly finds himself turned into a paladin and a hero who has taken into his own hands the destinies of the Empire and assumed all its responsibilities!

Can't Fool the Arabs
The other Governments of the Entente are fairly steeped in outrages; the mere titles of some of the pamphlets prove this more than sufficient: "The Atrocities of the English"; "Russian Cruelties"; "French Lies"; "The Barbarity of the French in Tunis and Algeria"; "French Intrigues against Islam"; and the texts are to match. On the other hand, all those which deal with Germany have nothing but praise for the prosperity and the greatness of Germany under Wilhelm II. Germany has forgotten every thing, but forgotten to take account of one thing—the intelligence of the Arab!

BOER DOGGEDNESS WINS

Smuts Lost the First; Won the Second Decisive Day
Major Wedgwood, M.P., returned from staff duties with the Smuts expedition to German East Africa writes: "Part of General Smuts' advance was marked by the building of a light railway, carried forward at the rate of two miles a day. The ground offered little resistance to heavy loads and the rails gradually sink until they become embedded in a sort of cutting. I have seen a train crawl along for a mile or two and then stop while the men got out and cut some grass to put underneath the sleepers to prop them up. Though the task of discovering the enemy owing to the thick bush is a tremendous business we do contrive to locate him, and it is a case all the time of forcing him back. The decisive battle, to my mind, was the battle of Latema, that was fought through the night. By winning this battle General Smuts placed the issue of the campaign beyond doubt.

"Smuts has a great sense of humor—his stories, told half in Dutch and half in English, are delightfully quaint—and what particularly amused him was to find out that the Germans, concluding from the first twelve hours' fighting that the battle was turning in their favor, decided they had won a great victory to be appropriately celebrated by a champagne banquet in Mosil Fort. The next evening we were in the fort. "I suppose it would be right to call General Smuts' staff the most remarkable of any of our war staffs, including as it does representatives of the most vigorous fighting Boer element. The commander of one of the regiments, for instance, is the son of the man who captured Majuba Hill, Colonel Ben Smith, so magical are the transformations wrought by time."

This is a surprising admission that many German waiters were spies.

AMUSEMENTS

"A POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL."
On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, His Majesty's Theatre will present the world's most popular screen star Mary Pickford, in her latest subject for Arctcraft Pictures, "A Poor Little Rich Girl," adapted from the well-known Eleanor Gates' story and play of the same name.

A tale of particular heart appeal throughout, offering many smiles and situations of humane charm, "A Poor Little Rich Girl" affords the incomparable Mary Pickford a screen play which allows the foremost motion picture favorite ample opportunity to portray touching situations as only she can. Gwendolyn, the "poor little rich girl," is so called for her wealth and material comforts and her poverty in the happiness and affection she craves. She is a full-blooded little girl, but as is often the case in real life, is denied the actual pleasures of childhood through her selfish parents who are too busy with their own ambitions to realize that their child is unhappy. A tragic incident brings realization to the parents, and the doctor's prescription of plenty of play, to be taken in a gingham dress is immediately acted upon, and love, as we know him with quiver and bow, leads three loving hearts over the hill of shadow into the valley of sunshine.

RUSSIANS WILL KEEP UP THE STRUGGLE (Canadian Press Despatch.) PETROGRAD, May 3, via London.—The Russian provisional government has sent to the Russian representatives in the entente allied countries a note assuring the Allies that the change in government in Russia cannot afford a pretext for any slackening on the part of the Russians in the common struggle of all the entente allies.

TWO WORKMEN DROWNED AT ASCOT CORNER E. Cayer and T. Rheame Were Thrown Into St. Francis When Boat Was Upset.

ASCOT CORNER, May 3.—(Special)—A double drowning accident occurred in the St. Francis River here this forenoon, the victims being two men named Edward Cayer and T. Rheame. It appears that the men were engaged by an engineer of the Quebec Streams Commission who was engaged in determining the flow of the river at this point. It was decided to string a cable from a bank to an island in the centre of the stream so that communication could be more easily accomplished. The two men started out with the cable, and the boat in which they worked was guided by a rope controlled by fellow-workmen on the shore. When about 50 feet out in the stream the boat upset and the occupants were thrown into the water. Both made desperate efforts to reach the bank, but they could not make headway against the current, and the last seen of them was several hundred yards from where they fell in. The victims were both middle-aged men and leave families.

Other Matters Being Subordinated Before the Confererences in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—That the submarine menace and ways to combat it by increased shipping freight and naval co-operation, is the main issue of the British mission, became certain today from many different sources. The issue was focused by Premier Lloyd George's statement in Parliament recently that the need was for ships and still more ships. Lord Percy's explanation here that destruction was out-running construction, and declarations of Secretaries Lansing and Lane that the submarine situation is grave, it is now evident that other matters before the British Commission, however vital, are being subordinated. The British naval officers in coming to this country hoped to get a considerable number of small boats to use as submarine-chasers, but they have been disappointed to discover that the few available are needed here. The British shipping experts, however, have found encouragement in the emergency efforts of the shipping board and the availability of many German ships. Proposed curtailment of non-essential freight now being carried to Europe would give increased tonnage for necessary supplies. The American government has agreed not only to restrict imports, as the British already do, but to impose export restrictions, authorized by the bill now pending in Congress. One of the greatest uncertainties of the situation is a total ignorance of the number of German ships in building. Admiral de Chair has estimated this at two or three a week, but many officials here believe it possible to turn out many more on standard plans.

NEWFOUNDLAND LEGISLATURE LATE IN OPENING ST. JOHNS, N.F.L.D., May 3.—The Newfoundland legislature, which ordinarily convened about the middle of February, has not yet begun this year's session, because of the absence of the Premier, Sir Edward Morris. Premier Morris is attending the conference in London, and it is not known when he will return. Well informed parliamentarians express the opinion that the session will not open before June 1, and that it will be brief, as most of the members of the legislature are connected with the fishing industry, which at that time will be its busiest season.

FIGHTING CONTINUES IN ARRAS REGION

(Canadian Press Despatch.) British Headquarters in France, May 3, via London.—(A. P. Staff Correspondent)—Another bite into the Hindenburg line just north of its point of junction with the Drocourt-Queant Switch has been made by the British. Good progress was also reported early in the direction of Cherisy and Fresnoy. Fresnoy is just east of Arras, which was captured last Friday by the Canadians. These two villages, having been looped about with intricate trench fortifications, form one of the strongest points on the Mericourt-Oppy-Gavrelle line, running slightly southwest from Lens to Scarpe, and being one of the last of the older fixed positions protecting the Drocourt-Queant switch to the Hindenburg line. The Germans have delivered strong counter attacks at several places, principally against Gavrelle and towards Loos. At all the points attacked and counter attacked heavy fighting is proceeding.
