

Massage parlors rub city wrong way

Westmount city fathers Monday night gave assent to a lengthy bylaw aimed at bringing massage parlors here into line — or banishing them from the municipality.

Bringing the city police and health departments into play, it is expected that this bylaw will regularize a situation that for some time has caused concern in the city.

Assent of both the police and health departments is necessary now, before any license for a massage parlor may be issued — and before such assent is given the candidate for the license must have convinced the authorities that 'section six' has been complied with.

Section six provides for proper lighting and ventilating of the premises; the building must have hardwood floors, be free of vermin; walls and ceilings must be of suitable material; furniture, etc., must be so arranged that cleaning may be done readily; floors must be thoroughly cleaned every 24 hours; and other similar provisions.

Police, firemen sign new pacts

Westmount City manager T. Hughes announced Wednesday that new collective labor agreements had been signed between the city and the police and firefighters associations.

As and from October 1st policemen in Westmount will work a 44 hour week instead of a 48 hour week as in the past. This will remain in effect until January 1st 1958 when the working week will be again reduced to 40 hours.

In addition the City will in future pay part of the hospital insurance premiums. For married men this will amount to $4.90 per month and in the case of single men $1.50 per month.

As a further concession the City will review salaries for police officers in the following budget year. The new contract will run for two years dating from June 1st.

In the agreement signed between the City and Local 981 of the International Association of Firefighters, the same hospital benefits are given to the firemen as for the police. Their present work week of 60 hours is reduced to 56 hours. The City also undertakes to review their salaries during the recent budget year.

It is understood that these concessions have been instigated by the difficulty of attracting young men of the right calibre into the police and fire services of the City. The City recently embarked on an intensive recruitment campaign to replace losses due to retirement and resignations.

September 28 to October 5

This is a transition week, opening the autumn with cool nights and relatively warm days. Heavy frosts here in the south, and killing frosts probable for the Laurentians. Coastal storms will bring gales and some rain.

Generally improving and a little milder for the end of the week. The showery periods will still be Wednesday, Friday and Sunday evenings for another month. A good hunting weekend everywhere.

Rotary awards total of $900 in bursaries

At the Rotary luncheon Wednesday four local students were presented with scholarships and bursaries amounting to $900 by members of the Rotary scholarship committee.

Introducing the students, A. W. Callard, chairman of the scholarship board, reminded the club that since the scholarships were first awarded 13 years ago and 26 local boys had gone on to University and graduated in many professions.

All these boys have been very successful, said Mr. Callard. Among them have been doctors, lawyers, engineers and geophysicists. Today we have four more boys who will receive Rotary awards. They have one thing in common, they speak French, he said. In the past we have only awarded two scholarships each year, but this year we are in the happy position of being able to give two bursaries also.

Present at the luncheon was principal Cody of St. David's, vice-principal Connolly of St. Leo's, and principal Bartlett of Westmount High. The boys were then presented with their scholarships of $300.

Scholarships were given to Brian Martin, 5370 Monkland avenue, who is a student at St. Leo's and intends to study Arts at Loyola College, and John Hardy, 1483 Atwater avenue, a student at Westmount High who will study engineering at McGill. John Clark, 58 Bruce avenue, a student at Westmount High, who will go on to grade 12 at Montreal High, and Jacques Chatel, 451 Mount Pleasant, of St. Leo's who intends to study engineering at McGill were awarded bursaries of $150. each.

WOVEN in WESTMOUNT

By DONALD J. HENDRY

SAD BUT TRUE . . . Montreal's Mayor Jean Drapeau declared this week that although there was a considerable increase in the number of persons who voted in the City of Montreal municipal elections three years ago, the general public is still apathetic with regards to municipal affairs. This could be applied not only to the City of Montreal but also to the City of Westmount. It is not surprising to come across residents of our suburb who are almost totally ignorant of the affairs of our local government. Except for those persons whose work is closely connected with the Westmount City Hall, there are practically none at all who could, if called upon, give the names of the aldermen who make up the Westmount City Council. In fact one would not be too presumptuous in going as far as saying that there are a considerable number of persons who could not spell the mayor's name correctly. So what some people will say: Is this really important? The answer as far as this columnist is concerned is, "Yes, definitely." Westmount is a well-run municipality. There is little doubt about this. But, no matter how well any organization functions, there is always room for improvement. This improvement comes only as a result of interest and the more far reaching the interest the more rapid the resulting improvement.

TYPES IN TYPE . . . Sol Polatshek appointed editor-in-chief of the McGill campus publication "Hillelight" . . . Emile "Avenue Snack Bar" Kalil aspiring to a career as a radio announcer under the tutelage of CFCF's Bob Crabb . . . that should guarantee me at least two meals next week . . . Don Willard in the service station business with a Sunoco dealership in Pointe Claire . . . that should be worth a tank full of gas . . . Reuben Berger claims the over-sized shoe in his Victoria window is about size 40 . . . Dave Schell reports back from an Atlantic City holiday . . . Lou "YMCA" Waller stops to say a half a dozen freshmen and a couple of freshettes from Sir George Williams College did a bang up job typing, cleaning, etc. at the local "Y" as part of the SGWC first year initiation . . . Peter Molson being plagued for hockey tickets . . . Jack Côté to Queen's university for an MA in psychology . . . Jon Anderson abandons Gazette bylines shortly to resume law study at McGill University . . . and did you know there is another Donald Hendry in Westmount?

THOUGHTS AND DOTS . . . informed sources say traffic lights are to be installed at St. Catherine and Victoria when the St. Catherine extension is completed . . . Isn't it about time the CPR built a new station for Westmount? . . . It's a little late now but Summit Park would be an excellent site for a summer tent theatre . . . the concrete stand which gives the altitude, longitude, latitude etc. at the lookout needs a bit of patching up . . . The 1958 Plymouth will be on view at Girard Automobile on Victoria Avenue on or about October 15th . . . by the way, are there any Edsel-owners in Westmount? . . . maybe a good place for the artificial rink would be on the lawn in front of city-hall. No? . . . what ever happened to the little man who used to sharpen scissors with his mobile unit . . . and will leave you with this comment overheard on the 114 bus and originating with a young lad who had been intently studying a brewery ad concerning the football game broadcasts and telecasts: "Daddy, do the Alouettes really use footballs with the word "Dow" painted on them."

'Y' group friendship plan

FINAL CHECK on the Westmount 'Y' 1957-58 program is made by Jim Hawkes, youth supervisor; Norm Millington, director of the local branch and Lew Waller, program director. —Acme-Harrison Photo

During an interview with Mr. J. Hawkes, Youth Program Supervisor at the Westmount "Y" the Fall program was outlined with special emphasis centering around a new "Youth Friendship Plan".

The idea of this new plan would be the forming of groups of children, each group being of one particular age. A group of selected parents and/or volunteers will be trained at the "Y" and one adult will be in charge of each group of children. A special "Leadership Conference" meeting will be held on Saturday, September 28th. Any adults interested in helping with this new program are invited to telephone Mr. Hawkes.

The regular "Y" Fall physical program is now underway with more swim and gym time for the girls. Girls 12 years and over will have two gym and three swim periods each week and under 12 years one gym and two swim periods. The same number of periods for swim and gym are available for boys 11 years and over and under 11 years of age. This year there will be a Swim Team for girls as well as for boys and both teams will be under the supervision of Fred Rowley and Dick Dendy. The age limit for the teams is from nine to 16. Mondays and Thursdays will be for girls and women and Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays for boys and men.

Saturdays are a beehive of activity. The day starts at 8:30 with a beginners swim and from 8:30 to 1:30 there are gym and swim classes. There are three classes for boys and one for girls and a Leaders Class for boys and girls. In addition there are swim team practices, Leaders Corps swim training classes and the Junior Frog-men Club. Craft classes and friendship club groups also meet on Saturday mornings.

The Saturday program is designed to be a full day for children and they are invited to bring a lunch. Between 12 noon and 1:00 p.m. there is a general rest and children eat their lunch, sing songs, etc. From 1:00 to 3:30 p.m. are the ever popular movies. The Junior Service Corps who are responsible and look after the ping pong needs, gym equipment and generally keep things in good order meet and plan their program for the next week. The Y's Teen Club takes over

Westmount library receives Carnegie grant

Chief librarian Kathleen R. Jenkins watches one of the newer librarians Miss B. Mackey check out books for Joanne Buckmaster, 14; Maureen Atwood, 13; and Silke Maria Heinig, 16.

Miss E. R. Jenkins, chief librarian of the Westmount Library, announced this week that the Carnegie Corporation of New York had selected the Westmount Library as one of the Commonwealth libraries which are to receive a grant of about 350 books.

It is not known yet when the books will be received but Miss Jenkins stated that when they are received they will likely be placed on display for a time.

Miss Jenkins, who joined the library staff in 1927, was appointed head librarian in 1932. Although the library is generally regarded as a regular department of the City the administration of the library differs in the following respect. A Board of Trustees with D. A. Hanson as chairman and which also includes Mrs. Dent Harrison and R. Panet Raymond together with Aldermen Cushing, Gates and Powis are directly responsible for the administration. Miss Jenkins is Secretary of the Board and meetings are held monthly in the Library. This system of administration was set down in City By-law in 1899 when the library was built and is followed in most libraries in North America.

The library is open to Westmount residents from Monday to Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

At the present time there are about 60,000 books and last year the circulation was over 214,000. There are approximately 2,000 reference books which always remain in the building. A breakdown of the remaining 58,000 shows about 50% being novels, 30% non-fiction and 20% children's books.

Statistics show a continuous growth in the reading of non-fiction and an increase of 1200 circulation was recorded in August 1957 as compared to August 1956. Miss Jenkins attributes this to more and better book and to the fact that—to some extent—the television novelty has worn off. Plays or a story by a popular author on television however always create a demand for that particular work.

There are eight permanent librarians and four part time assistants who work on Saturdays. There are 650 non-resident members who pay $7.50 annually for membership. The only other source of revenue separate from the library appropriation is from overdue books and last year fines from this source amounted to $3,500.00.

A part president of the Canadian Library Association, Miss Jenkins is faced with a never-ending problem of what books should be chosen from thousands available to maintain the stock. Approximately 4,000 new books are purchased each year at a total cost of about $10,000.00. Selections are usually made by Miss Jenkins for the Adults books and by Miss K. Fraser for children from book reviews, contacts with publishers, catalogues and experience. Miss Jenkins quite proudly stated that most requests for books are usually anticipated.

Canadian Housing Design Council 1957 Awards showing photos and plans for prize-winning designs are on display until mid-October at the library.

Safety like charity begins at home

ONE does not have to be an adventurer or a soldier of fortune to run great risks, and live side by side with death.

Today the home with its complex electrical fixtures, its sharp-edged modern furniture, and its ever increasing altitude is becoming as dangerous as a busy downtown intersection.

The housewife has a role to play every bit as important as that of the traffic cop, or the air traffic controller.

Don't believe us? Very well, then, just study these figures:

Last year 2,600 people were killed in home accidents in Canada and 125,000 were injured.

This averages out at 350 people killed and injured every day of the year.

Home accidents were the greatest single killer of children less than five years of age.

The home accident is a danger that is with us every hour of the day, every day of the year.

The sudden slip on the bathroom floor, the tiny hand groping into the wall socket, the gas ring burning too low waiting to be extinguished by the slightest draught.

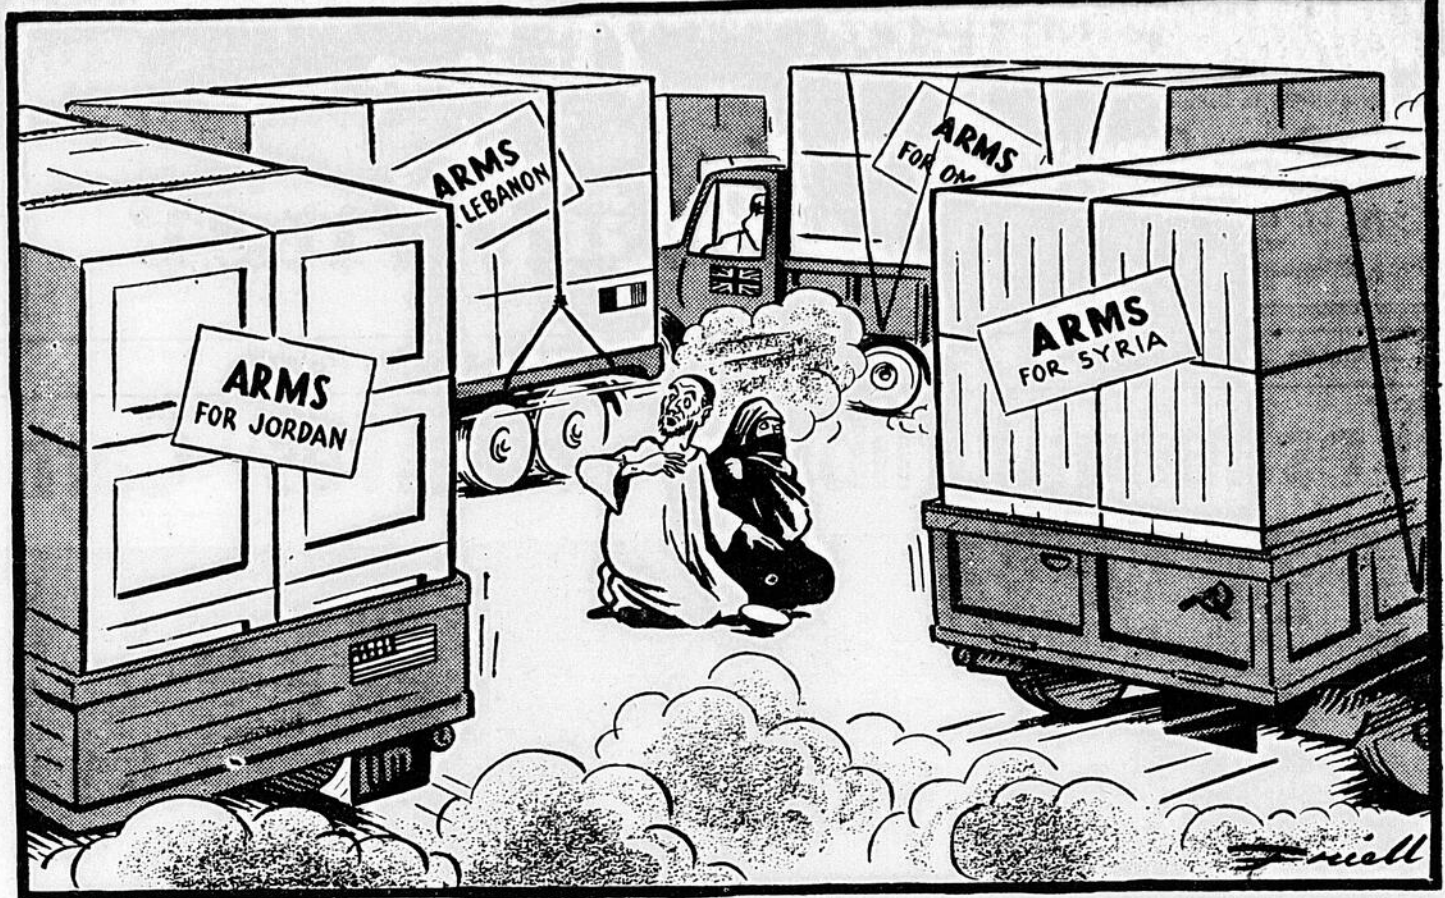

It is almost impossible for the normal person to achieve complete immunity from such risks, but common sense goes a long way.

There are certain steps that can be taken to minimize the risks and eliminate the more obvious hazards.

This is where the housewife has a role to play; she must be the traffic cop and crossing guardian.

Like the safety engineer in a large plant, she can look around for dangers, while hubby can do the fixing — as always, but this time for a good reason.

That loose carpet on the stairs, nail it down; the missing rail on the

What is alternative for teenagers when private-home parties balked?

Sir: Much has recently been spoken and written about the "problems" of teenagers. It has been asserted that the youth of this generation is causing trouble to society. Prominence is given to the activities of "black jacketed" delinquents, and the disorders of teenage gangs.

After an experience which my wife and I had a few weeks ago, we have come to the conclusion that if some teenagers are not entirely co-operative with their elders, much of the blame should be laid at the door of eminently "respectable society."

Two young relatives of my wife — one 14, the other 15 — asked permission to have two parties at the house which we own in Westmount. The 14-year-old girl gave her party one Saturday evening. She invited 10 friends, whose ages ranged from 13 to 16. The party started at 7 p.m. with the guests dancing to a record player, drinking soft drinks, munching ice cream and cake. Upstairs, our four-year-old boy was sleeping, as was a three-year-old girl who was staying with us. These two children slept without disturbance throughout the entire party.

ANGRY NEIGHBOR

At 9.30 p.m., the tenant of the house next door rang our bell, balcony, replace it; the chair with the wonky leg, heave it out.

Remember, safety like charity begins at home.

and angrily demanded that this noise should end immediately. We muted the record player somewhat, although the noise had been far from excessive by any standards. Even if it had been, the earliness of the hour for a Saturday evening would render such a complaint particularly petty. This party ended promptly at 11 p.m., and the last of the young people was out of the house by 11.15 p.m.

The following Saturday we gave a party for the 15-year-old boy and the same number of friends. The guests were a little older and, if anything, somewhat quieter than the previous group. The circumstances were the same with four adult chaperones, and the same two young children sleeping peacefully upstairs. This time our friendly neighbor lost no time, a telephone call came at 8 p.m. But this time I replied I did not intend to make any concessions since the noise could hardly bother any normal family.

Shortly after 10 p.m., a police car came to the door, and a constable said he had received a complaint. We invited him inside, showed him the "criminals," and he departed apologizing.

The point I wish to make is that if teenagers are to be persecuted when attending an innocent party in a friendly house, how can they be persuaded to stay away from streetcorners and environments where they will find serious trouble?

WHAT CAN THEY DO?

It is unfortunate if they made a noise which may have penetrated through to another house, but teenagers like making noise to a certain extent. They like to dance, and probably they talk somewhat more loudly than most of their elders. If they cannot entertain in a house, which I own, with my permission, what can they do?

Even in many apartment leases, it is specified that there should be no undue noise after 11 p.m. or even midnight. The implication is that tenants are allowed to entertain until these times.

I would be grateful if your readers would suggest how teenagers can be helped if its forbidden to have them in one's own house. Come to think of it, what rights does a property owner have at all?

It might even be feasible to call the police if one's next door neighbors' children are imper-

Something I want to say:

Our males are different

By AGATHA VAGI

SOMEONE once said that the Anglo-Saxon frequently substitutes a hot-water bottle for love.

He may have been right.

Certainly, something of the sort has led me to offer the following few comments on the ways of English-Canadian males, as I see them, and contrasted with the Hungarians I knew so well.

In Halifax on my way to Canada we spent a week in hospital for a medical check. I shared a room with a real Hungarian beauty. She was dark, shapely and young. Practically all the Hungarian men around were crazy about her, hopelessly so. As soon as she reached Canadian soil she managed to fall in love with an English-Canadian. The boy was not indifferent either. One night he took her out.

Or if another neighbor lighted a charcoal fire in his garden and some smoke wafted over into my garden. There could be no end to the complaints that might be made to the police. Such a state of affairs would probably delight criminals. The police would be too busy to solve serious crimes.

"What is the matter? He took me to a drug store, bought me four cups of so-called coffee, discussed the baseball scores and when I couldn't stand it any longer and told him how madly I loved him, he said: 'Well, I wouldn't say I dislike you either...'"

OTHER QUALITIES

EIGHT months passed, and I have now discovered other qualities that make the English-speaking Canadian men different from Europeans.

Generally speaking they are far better balanced in their sentiments. They don't lose their tempers over completely insignificant things — like Europeans do.

In Hungary, for example, two men meet on the street. One of them insists that German reunification is impossible in the present circumstances. The other does not agree. After five minutes a policeman has to disperse a mob around them.

Well, I doubt that cases like that are typical in this country. At least I have never seen pointless quarrels. If a Canadian man quarrels, he must have some good reason, something like income-tax or landlords who want to raise the rent, or a parking-ticket... or anything reasonable.

Perhaps it has something to do with their being much more realistic than Europeans. All European nations inherited something of the old Greeks' day-dreaming and idealism. They are always enthusiastic about something and it usually doesn't help family peace. I had a friend in Hungary who insisted on working in a miserably dark office for practically nothing, because it was over the music academy and every morning he listened to rehearsals. His wife was not impressed. I am almost sure that an average

Minimum annoyance to church promised through ice rink

Westmount's battle of the ice rink has ended at last. City manager T. Hughes announced Tuesday that the contract for the construction of the rink has been awarded to the Douglas Brebner Construction Company Ltd. Work will commence immediately.

Making the announcement Mr. Hughes said that the rink will be in use before the end of this winter, although the building will not be completed until later.

In order to avoid unnecessary annoyance to the congregation of nearby Westmount Park Emmanuel a special public address system will be installed. This will operate on the multiple speaker system. Instead of one or two large loudspeakers, blaring all over the area, a series of small speakers of limited volume will be placed around the rink. Each speaker will be heard in only a limited space and the whole system is designed in such a way that noise of music and voices will be inaudible outside the building.

As a further concession to the Church the site of the rink has been moved in from Western avenue. At present there are eight tennis courts at the intersection of Western and Lansdowne but as the numbers of people using them have fallen off the City will build on four of the courts, leaving four courts between the church and the rink, as a buffer zone.

The rink will have two entrances both facing East. Since all the tenders submitted were more than the City had estimated on spending, certain modifications have been made to bring the price down.

The rink will be divided into two parts, one for hockey and the other for ordinary skating. Admission will be free. At certain times carnivals and other events will be staged in the rink, and while no seating will be installed allowances have been made for the installation of a limited number of temporary seats for special events.

In summer the rink will be used by the recreation department for various activities.

While the rink itself will be only partly enclosed offices will be built at the back. These will be the new headquarters of the City's recreation department at present housed in the old MAAA building on St. Catherine. The old MAAA building however will not be abandoned as the City intends with the co-operation of the various schools to turn it into a joint high school recreation building.

Plans for this however have yet to be finalized, and discussions will be held with the various school boards. For special occasions the two separate parts of the rink can be made into one large rink by simply removing the hockey boards. Total cost of the building will come to $580,000.

Canadians own this big share of The Bell Telephone Company

Of every hundred Bell common shareholders, 98 are Canadians. And following the recent sale of additional common shares, they now own 92% of Bell stock.*

No other company has so many Canadians sharing in its ownership. Bell shareholders in Canada today total 150,000. Of these, 12,000 are our own employees and pensioners. And, of course, many, many more are Bell customers.

So Bell Telephone—owned, controlled and operated by Canadians to serve Canadians—is a distinctly Canadian enterprise.

*Of the balance, 6.2% is held in the U.S. (including 4.2% by American Telephone and Telegraph Company); 1.7% in the United Kingdom and elsewhere.

Mrs. Paul Obrycki

Final tribute was paid Tuesday to Mrs. Jennie Bell McIntyre Obrycki, who died at her residence, 340 Metcalfe avenue, Sunday. She was 81.

Mrs. Obrycki was born and educated in Apple Hill, Ont. She has been a resident of Montreal for 45 years. Her husband, Paul Obrycki predeceased her. Mrs. Obrycki was a member of Temple Emanu-El congregation.

Services were held in D. A. Collins Chapel and burial was at Montreal Memorial Park.

Canadian would never go that far. He may be sentimental, but it does not make him forget on which side his bread is buttered.

DOMESTICATION

I DON'T think I should say too much about the difference between the Canadian and European in relation to housework. A Canadian man will always be a "shamefully domesticated creature" and he will always be shocked at the attitude of an European who would sooner volunteer to fight the next world-war with his bare hands than wash the dishes.

Many Canadian girls have asked me if Europeans are more polite than Canadians. I should not think so, though they are more formal. I think every Canadian male citizen shudders at the thought of kissing a woman's hand, and I feel sure The Reader's Digest would publish a scientific article about the possible danger of disease as a result of the practice.

But there is one place where Hungarian men are more "polite" than Canadians: they give equal pay to women.

Last, but not least — men's fashion.

There are three things that would never occur to any Hungarian:

- (1) To wear a jacket to work in warm weather;
- (2) To wear ties when pavements are melting;
- (3) To wear blue ribbons with white dots on their hats — after they passed their third birthday...

All dogs have the same number of bones in their bodies, regardless of their size.

Trinity Season Opens October 9

"Witness for the Prosecution", as the opener for Trinity Players' 1957-58 season. Only Agatha Christie, the master of the modern murder story, could have conceived such a suspenseful plot guaranteed to hold the audience in its grip until the final curtain. "Witness" enjoyed a run of over two hundred performances in London, England, and was the winner of both the New York Critics Circle award and the Antoinette Perry award as the best foreign play of the year. "A walloping success" was the comment of the Herald Tribune, "a decisive knockout" said the Journal-American. At the present time it is being filmed in Hollywood, with Charles Laughton, Marlene Dietrich and Tyrone Power in leading roles. At Trinity Hall it will be brought to local audiences for the first time in English. It will run for four nights.

Under the direction of Robert Verniks, permanent director of Trinity Players, a cast of thirty two has been assembled. In past years, any play calling for 24 men would have made its production impossible by an amateur group. That Trinity has been able to overcome this problem, proves once more that interest and participation in amateur dramatics is very definitely on the upsurge in Canada.

Federal voting soon Fulton declares here

Monday night Justice Minister Davie Fulton told the annual meeting of the St. Lawrence-St. George Progressive Conservative Association, that, "Quebec province should return a minimum of 30 members in the next federal election."

Mr. Fulton commented on the fact that certain newspapers had criticized Prime Minister John Diefenbaker for having appointed but three Cabinet Ministers from Quebec.

"Quebec, you will recall elected eight Conservative members in the June 10 voting," said the minister, "of the eight elected members, three have been appointed to the Cabinet and two have been named parliamentary assistants. I would say that is a pretty fair representation."

Mr. Fulton said he felt confident that if more members were elected from Quebec this province would have greater Cabinet representation.

He cautioned members of the association to be ready for a general election at any time and said the election could come a lot sooner than is forecast.

"You should go forward with tremendous courage and good heart in the next election campaign," the minister said.

Paying tribute to the job being done by Mr. Diefenbaker, the minister said that the Prime Minister could be counted upon to fulfill the promises that were made during the recent election campaign.

"You can feel confident Mr. Diefenbaker and his government will not waste any time in implementing a program that will be designed for the good of the entire country," said Mr. Fulton.

As Minister of Justice, Mr.

Fulton said that he had examined the report of the Royal Commission presided over by Mr. Justice Gerald Fauteaux on Canada's panel system and he had given instructions to members of his staff to examine the report and find out just what could be done to put some of the recommendations into effect.

The minister said his department will "try to produce what I might call working paper and will then invite the provinces to meet us to discuss the report on the basis of these proposals."

The proposals will not be submitted on a "take it or leave it basis" but rather as a starting point for the proposed discussion.

He told the meeting he had discussed the matter with a number of provincial attorney generals and they agreed the plan was good.

The speaker was introduced by Egan Chambers and thanked by Mrs. Simonne Gelinax.

The seed and the soil V

By

The Venerable
R. Kenneth Naylor, D.D.,
Rector, Trinity Memorial Church

"These are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some a hundred." St. Luke expands the explanation slightly: "That on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience." Some of the qualifying words are added to St. Mark's account to make the parable more ready of application. The receiving ground must be ready for the seed. The hard soil is broken up; the stones have been reduced to soil; the weeds have been eradicated and the receiving soil is now "honest and good."

Curiously the words that St. Luke uses to describe the "honest and good" heart are exactly the words that the Greek pagan writers used to describe a "gentleman." And I suppose a gentleman is a man whose concern is not wholly himself; a man who treats his fellow-men with consideration; or to use our Lord's words, who does unto others as he would that they should do unto him.

The third of the Beatitudes a nationwide speaking tour. During World War II, he served in the Far East as a chaplain in the United States Army. An authorized teacher of Christian Science, he has devoted his full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing since 1937.

Testament prophets knew that and laid a great stress on it; but they also stressed the fact that a man might serve God and fall away from Him at the end. St. Paul said there was a possibility that he might preach to others and himself be a castaway. Our Lord spoke of His disciples as those who had continued with Him, but even so He must wash their feet. We may not presume on our standing but continue in His love.

Christian Science

The unchanging, harmonious nature of all that is created by God divine Mind, will be brought out of Christian Science services Sunday.

"Reality" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Scriptural selections will include the following (Psalms III:2,7,9): "The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein. The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and over, and are done in truth and uprightness."

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (335:25-29): "Mind is the divine Principle, Love, and can produce nothing unlike the eternal Father - Mother, God. Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmonious, or eternal."

Local volunteers urgently needed

An opportunity for local women to devote some of their free time to an excellent community service is given by the Women's Voluntary Services. This organization is making an urgent appeal at this time for volunteer workers in the following classes: typists, bookkeepers, telephonists, librarians, receptionists in hospitals, nurses aids (non-nursing), nurses to teach home nursing, teachers aides, drivers, baby care assistants, homework helpers (for boys and girls), junior Red Cross work (sewing supplies, preparing Christmas stockings, assembling bulletin), community work with boys and girls for supervision and teaching crafts to groups and YWCA projects.

Volunteers should call BE 4442 or go to the office at 1019 Sherbrooke street w. The time required for most of these services is usually only one half day or evening per week. There are 250 volunteers required in hospitals and Red Feather Agencies in the immediate future, so help or ideas in putting this across to the public would be greatly appreciated.

Membership tea

Mrs. Virginia Anderson is in charge of arrangements for the invitation membership tea to be held by the Venture Club of Montreal on Sunday, October 6 from 3 to 5 p.m. in the nurses' lounge of the Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital.

Local food expert suggests helpful hints to gain weight

Local women will be interested in the fact that despite the clamor for reducing diets, the Montreal Diet Dispensary reports far more calls from people who want to gain weight than from those who want to lose. If anything, it is harder for the too thin person to gain than for the overweight to reduce, Miss Garvock, director of the Red Feather dispensary, said. Often the same problem is at the root of the trouble, no matter which way the needle on the bathroom scale swings.

"Tension and worry drive some people to nervous nibbling and kill appetite in others, so the fat person gets fatter and the thin one thinner," Miss Garvock said. Tracking down the cause of the worry and trying to solve the underlying problem is the obvious first step.

Obviously the thin person should add to the caloric intake and sometimes it is helpful to take vitamins that whip up the appetite. Vitamin B is particularly valuable for this. Eating small amounts of food often is usually a more effective way of putting on weight than trying to force large quantities on a finicky eater.

A short rest before and after meals is a good idea and falling into the pleasant habit of between-meal snacking is also recommended. There are snacks and snacks, however, and would-be weight-gainers are advised to munch nuts and olives—40 calories each—and leave the celery and radishes to the reducers.

Drink whole milk which is even further enriched by the addition of skim milk powder, Miss Garvock advises. This gilds the lily chealy and effectively adding food value and calories at the same time. This is a better way of adding to the calory count than by concentrating on two rich foods, Miss Garvock said. Fat satisfies so quickly that the finicky eater may have all she can manage too soon and defeat the whole purpose. It's much better to add a little here and there—an extra pat of butter on the vegetables, soups made with whole milk and the other extras that make food more appetizing than to try to change the pattern of a lifetime by forcing down large quantities of rich calory-freighted food.

Come Royal Queen

Awake! Oh land of maple trees
And windward point thy face,
For yonder summit's gentle breeze
Brings news of coming grace.

Thy stirring sleep, which came to be
When Princess bade farewell,
May, as a swan on tossing sea,
Lift from its restless spell.

Come Royal Queen! Thy proud domain
Is waiting your return;
Thy subjects hearts uplift again
And for your presence yearn.

The above poem written by Robbie Stuart Smith, 1668 Millar street, Saint Laurent, received recognition from Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II.

Rosh Hashonah story

The traditional Torah reading for Rosh Hashonah has to do with Abraham, the progenitor of the Jewish people undergoing a test of faith when God summoned to offer up his only son Isaac, said Rabbi Dr. Harry J. Stern at the New Year Service, Wednesday evening, at the Temple Emanu-El.

Rosh Hashonah in Jewish tradition is meant from the story of Abraham to test our own characters in relationship first and foremost to our children. And what a test it is! Parents and children are truly tested in character when they are at home. For the family is an institution where different ages must meet. And because of the revolutionary times in which we live parents must be wonder workers. The task of maintaining the family on the highest standards of ethical life requires all our qualities of mind and heart and patience. On this holy day — the Day of Judgment we must realize that we are being tested in our ability to keep our children close to us. It cannot be done merely by generosity. It cannot be done with too heavy a hand. It must be done with super human skill and God blesses honest parents in striving to do thus, he said.

GUEST SPEAKER at the Snowdon Major Fastball League annual banquet Monday at the Windsor Station will be Tex Coulter. A resident of NDG and a former member of Montreal Alouettes, Mr. Coulter is now the art director of Football Fanfare and columnist. He also writes football articles for half dozen Canadian papers across Canada.

Scorers for Swiss were Morrison, Schmiginger and Schuler. For Vickers Angelo Totta was the sole marksman.

Morris ball nine

WILLIAM MORRIS swept a double-header from Super Service Carters 14-5 and 10-8 to capture the championship of the Snowdon Married Men's Softball League. William Morris took the final best-of-seven series 4-0.

By GEO. E. JONES
(Sports Editor)

IT has been a historic year for the Snowdon Major Fastball League and on Monday, at the annual banquet scheduled for Windsor Station, the league will pay tribute to their champions Steinbergs, pennant, league and third place winners in the recently completed World's Tournament and every past president.

Steinbergs, home from the best showing any Canadian team gave except the Tip Top team who won the tourney about 10 years ago, received the Sportsman Award and placed two men, Buddy Atchison and Percy McCracken, were voted on the World All Star team.

As president Gerry Snyder put it, "It certainly has been a great season in every way you can think of and the grand showing of Steinbergs in the tournament, plus the All Star placings has made the season just that much better. It is a grand way to finish off our season."

Tex Coulter, art director for the Football Fanfare, columnist for half dozen Canadian daily newspapers will be the guest speaker.

As commissioner, President Snyder presented the Sportsman Award to Sam Steinberg, company president at a special gathering on Tuesday.

Steinbergs came out of a tough tourney with a 7-2 record. They won their opener, lost the second then won the rest until the ninth game losing 3-1 to Aurora. Clearwater won the tourney beating Aurora 1-0 in 18 innings.

Clearwater played six games winning them all while Aurora had four wins against two losses. The awarding of the Sportsman Trophy to Steinbergs marks the first time that a Canadian team has won.

Atchison won the right field position, McCracken the pitcher along with Bombers' Herb Dudley and Aurora's Harvey Sterkel, 23 year old twirler. McCracken had a 5-0 record. He allowed 14 hits in 36 innings of ball, fanned 34 and walked eight. The three pitchers named to the All Star team were right handers.

Atchison, the oldest player in the tournament at 42, had 10 raps in 23 trips to the plate for an average of .357. His 10 hits included three doubles and he drove in four runs.

McCracken also hit more than .300 as he collected four hits in 13 at bats for an average of .307.

Ricky Tomlinson, the MVP and leading hitter of the Snowdon League, and Gibby Wesolowski, who won two while losing one, were given honorable mention on the All-World squad.

Tomlinson went 6 for 26 at the bat for a .230 average while Wesolowski pitched both a no-hitter and one-hitter in the tournament. McCracken also threw a no-hitter.

Tomlinson lead Steinbergs in RBI's with five and two of his six hits were doubles. Wesolowski pitched 30 innings and allowed but 10 hits. He passed six while striking out 37. He hit one batter with a pitched ball.

School soccer opens Monday; football underway Tuesday

THE Montreal Interscholastic soccer and football leagues open their 1957 season next week with soccer underway on Monday and Canadian football on Tuesday.

Less than a month since school opened after two months vacation, coaches have drilled their squads for this opening day. Later, hockey will show its action; baseball, water polo, swimming and curling will keep the students busy after study periods.

In all 94 football games and 80 soccer matches are on tap. There are new rules for the football teams. For many years the schools have used unlimited interference, a mixture of American and Canadian rules, but this year will go by the CRU rule book with only a few changes.

The call is still out for officials to handle the whistle. Anyone interested are invited to attend a meeting tonight at Gilson School, 1020 Harvard avenue, which is south of the CPR railway tracks.

Mules unbeaten in Westmount football

MULES scored their second straight win the City of Westmount Recreation Department football league with 24-7 win over the Huskies. The other game saw Broncs tie up second place with a one-sided 42-6 defeat over the Bulls. Broncs are tied with Bulls while Huskies are in the cellar.

Two games are scheduled for play at Westmount Grounds Saturday morning with the first, Huskies and Broncs clashing at 9.30 and Mules and Bulls in the second tilt.

For the Broncs, Peter Fitzpatrick, Jackie Britton and Curly Reddy stood out defensively. The scoring opened early in the first quarter with Tony McCullagh going over on a reverse end around play.

Later in the quarter, George Spare threw a forward to Tony McCullagh who went over for his second major of the day. Both converts were missed.

In the second, McCullagh gathered in a beautiful throw by Spare to chalk up his third touchdown of the game. Spare added another major by running through the Bulls after receiving a punt. Spare again went over on a quarter sneak from one yard out. The score at the end of the half was 30-0.

Third quarter showed one touchdown by the Broncs. Tom Reddy went over from three yards out or the major score.

In the fourth, the Broncs added another TD, when Spare went around the end from the 10. Finally the Bulls, who never stopped trying, came up with a 65 yard run by Dave Summerton to score their first points in the game. Quarterback Ronnie Sheel, Gilbert Gagne, and Dave Summerton were the stalwarts of the Bulls in defeat.

George Spare turned in the greatest performance of the day. His play-calling, passing, running, kicking and defensive work was a treat to watch.

Bernie (Rags) Kelly went over twice for Mules in the first quarter on runs of 35 and 55 yards.

In the second quarter, Claude Servant went over for the Huskies from 4 yards out. David Tyldsley converted to make the score 12-7.

The fourth quarter saw Tony Tyrrell score twice to run the score to 24-7. Mules failed on all convert attempts, Tyrrell's majors were scored on a quarter sneak from one yard out and an end run for 15 yards. Mules' Gary Duncan was exceptionally strong in backing up the Line.

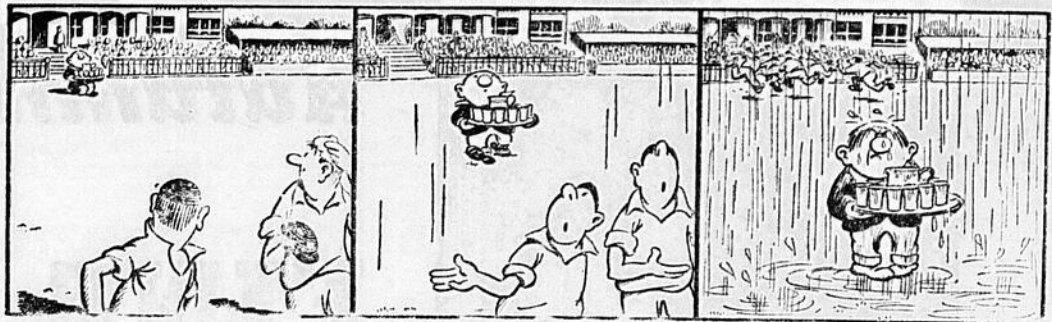

Huskies Claude Servant and Tyldsley were strong offensively, while Richard Dicker was outstanding both ways.

Referees and officials were Tom Grant, Bobby Brown, Phil Martin, Bren Guilfoyle, and Frank Rooney on the field; Ross Murray, Brian Heeney and Bobby Stewart on the yard markers and down box.

Badminton starts season on Oct. 15

The City of Westmount Recreation Department will commence their Badminton Club, Tuesday, October 15 from 7:00 to 9:45 p.m., at the Roslyn School Gymnasium.

All residents, 16 years of age and over, are eligible to join, and may register by calling the Recreation Department at WE 5-6975.

There is no membership fee; but the players must supply their own equipment (racquets and birds).

The nurse is saving regularly for a vacation trip

The father is saving for the things a growing child will need

Both have a bank account - and a purpose for saving

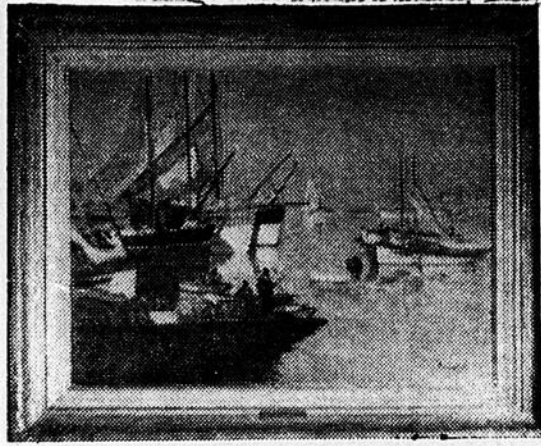

Nurse and father both agree that some things are too important to leave to chance. So, like most Canadians, each uses a chartered bank for planned saving, making regular deposits to accomplish a definite purpose.

Your own savings plan may be a short-term, modest one — maybe a vacation trip, or new drapes for the living room. Or your goal may be long-range, like providing more security, greater comfort and independence for you and your family.

But whatever use you find for the money you save, you'll always be glad you saved it!

Save at a bank — millions do!
