LIFE SAVING APPARATUS ON WHARVES OF THE CITY

City Council Discussed Matters Last Night in Reference to the Ferry Company and Street Railway Company.

ALD. GALIPEAULT ELECTED PRO-MAYOR

A meeting of the City Council was held last evening and was presided over by Mayor Garneau, those present being Aldermen Galipeault, Shink, Messervy, St. Pierre, Huard, Fortier, Barbeau, Mathieu, Verret, Campbell, Foley, Duquet, Fiset, Lavigne, Dinan, Drouin, Letourneau, Picard, Paquin, and Bedard.

A letter was read from Mr. James Woods, Secretary of the Quebec Harbor Commissioners acknowledging the receipt of a letter from the City Council regarding life saving apparatus on the wharves. Mr. Woods informed the Council that all the wharves belonging to the Commissioners were provided with ladders and life buoys and that these were placed on the wharves ready to be thrown into the water. However, a number of the other wharves in this port were not under the control of the Harbor Commissioners who were ready to accept any suggestions made by the city fathers for the protection of life in the port of Quebec.

A letter was read from Mr. Lighthall, Secretary of the Canadian union of manufacturers, informing the Council that the union would soon hold their 7th annual meeting at Fort William and Port Arthur and inviting the Council to send a delegation to the meeting.

A petition was received from the residents of Queen street respecting the prolongation of that street through the General Hospital property in the west and through St. Roch's street in the East so as to connect with the road leading to Louise Embankment. Referred to the Roads Committee.

The City Clerk read a letter from the Secretary of the Quebec Board of Trade, drawing the attention of the Council to the fact that the contract between the Quebec & Lewis Ferry Co. and the Corporations of Quebec and town of Lewis expired on the 1st of May, 1910, and recommending that the city should attend to this important matter and call for tenders as soon as possible so as to allow intending contractors sufficient time to prepare to tender and not allow the present company to be alone to tender for this contract.

Mayor Garneau remarked that it should not be forgotten that the term of office of the present Council expired on the first of March next (1908) and that the ferry contract only ceased on the first of May, 1910, and in his opinion it would not be right to consider that question now, as the next Council would have to deal with the matter. He would, however, suggest that the Ferry Committee should study the conditions regarding the contract with the Ferry Company, so as to have everything in readiness for the future ferry committee.

Another letter was read from the Secretary of the Board of Trade informing the Council that the Quebec Board of Trade had, for the last two years, made every effort to obtain the interest of local trade, that the Ferry Company hold themselves responsible for the conveying and delivering of packages of less than 100 lbs. in weight. The company had several months ago decided to erect a special building for these packages if they succeeded in obtaining a certain property in Dalhousie street but had not received any agreement from the city. By his letter, the Secretary of the Board of Trade regrets that nothing had as yet been done, but hopes that the city authorities would immediately recognize the demands of the Ferry Company and grant them the necessary land to erect these rooms.

the contract for trenches if he did not get the contract for all the streets.

At the last meeting of the Waterworks Committee the tender of Mr. Biodeau for trenching in three of the streets was found too high, and the city will undertake the work. The report, however, was adopted.

On proposition of Ald. Duquet, seconded by Ald. Shink, Ald. Galipeault was appointed Pro-Mayor for the next three months.

Ald. Messervy, seconded by Alderman Duquet, moved that the City Engineer be instructed to make a report as soon as possible as to the best means of improving Arsenal and Carleton streets with a view to relieve the heavy traffic on Palace Hill.

Ald. Galipeault, seconded by Ald. Shink, moved that the Council proceed immediately to the reading of a bylaw granting leave to the Chateau Frontenac to make certain works above and below DesCarrières street, and that the second reading take place at next meeting. This motion was adopted and the by-law read a second time.

Ald. Fiset, seconded by Ald. Duquet, moved that a special committee be known as a "Reception Committee" be appointed, whose functions would be to assist the Mayor in public receptions, and that the committee be composed of Ald. Barry, Bedard, Verret, Messervy, Foley. This motion was adopted.

On motion of Ald. Fiset, it was the unanimous Council to take place in the St. Jean Baptiste celebration on 30th June.

After some other routine business the Council adjourned until 23rd June.

A MOTOR CORPS

General Otter Considering the Question of Forming One in Western Ontario.

Ottawa, June 14.—General Otter, chief in command of the Military Division of Western Ontario, has mooted a proposal to form a motor corps, similar to the motor corps in England and European countries.

In an interview, he discussed the matter informally with the secretary of the Ontario Motor League, and has decided to request the assistance of that body in forming the corps. He is at present obtaining full information regarding the organization of the British motor corps, which he expects to have in the course of a couple of weeks.

General Otter's idea is to give to owners of motor cars who will enter the corps commissions as officers. As the honor thus conferred will be a substantial one, it will be entrusted only to those who take up the matter seriously rather than to those who might take it up as a fad for a short time.

In Great Britain, Germany, Austria, and other countries where motor corps are in existence, membership in them is considered a high honor, and these corps are most exclusive, particularly the German corps, which is under the special patronage of the German Emperor, and all the cars are painted a uniform color.

In military manoeuvres during the past three or four years motor cars have proved themselves of most decided service. Much enthusiasm has been shown by the owners of powerful cars in placing them at the disposal of the military commanders.

The three most obvious utilizations to which motor cars can be put are, firstly, as a means of rapid communication between the general staff and the officers of the line; secondly, as a means of transport; and, lastly, as engines of warfare themselves.

General Otter says that the owners of the cars would be the proposed corps never be required to take them off the regular roads, except perhaps in time of war. There would also be a regular system of remuneration for the use of the cars in the same way that the members of the cavalry are paid for their horses.

The General had an opportunity of witnessing the manoeuvres of the British motor corps last summer, and was much impressed with the possibilities of such a corps as an aid to the regular service. He says that the owners of motor cycles also occasionally did remarkable services in carrying despatches from place to place.

A MOTHER'S GRATITUDE.

Mrs. V. Cheoret, of St. Benoit, Que., writes as follows: "It is with feelings of the deepest gratitude that I write to tell you what Baby's Own Tablets have done for my baby. When I began giving him the Tablets he looked like a skeleton. His digestion was poor; he was constipated and cried day and night. I got a box of Baby's Own Tablets and from the first they did him a great deal of good. His food digested better; his bowels worked regularly; his sleep was natural; he stopped crying and began to grow fat. I got another box and am happy to say before he was all used he was in perfect health and is now a plump, rugged child. I always keep a box of Tablets in the house and would advise other mothers to do the same." The above is a fair sample of hundreds of letters that come from all parts of Canada praising Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets cure all the minor ills of babies and young children, and are absolutely safe, as they do not contain one particle of opium or narcotic. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

STEVE ADAMS MAKES ENTRY

In the Murder Trial at Boise, Idaho

PROSECUTION IN CASE

Have Entered in Earnest Upon Corroboration of Harry Orchard's Testimony.

Boise, Idaho, June 14.—The prosecution in the Steubenberg murder trial to-day, entering in earnest on corroboration of Harry Orchard's testimony, presented a continuous thread of evidence connecting George Pettibone's store in Denver with Orchard at San Francisco, while the latter was occupied by the Bradley murder plot, which it is hoped to show that Haywood engaged and paid Steve Adams for the same desperate work, and added special evidence in confirmation of Orchard's general story.

Officers of the post offices at San Francisco and Denver produced original records showing that in August, 1904, a registered letter was sent under the name of "J. Wolff" from the address of Pettibone's store in Denver, to "J. Dempsey" at the Golden West Hotel in San Francisco. Orchard swore that he stayed at the Golden West Hotel under an alias that was either "Demsey" or "Hogan," that Pettibone used the aliases of "Wolff" and "Pat Bone" and that under the name of "Wolff" Pettibone, in the month mentioned sent him a registered letter containing $100 to pay his expenses while he was attempting to kill Bradley.

Police officers of Ogden established the arrest there in June 1903, of Steve Adams and A. T. Williams. The two were found inside a sealed, east-bound car loaded with fruit. When arrested for trespass, each was found to have brass of revolvers. On being released through the influence of a detective to whom Adams appealed as a Mason, they went straight to the office of the Western Union, it was testified, and sent a telegram to Haywood in Denver. The defense headed off an attempt to get the contents of this telegram before the jury, but the State indicated that later it would further develop the incident when it had broadened its foundation.

The State through an official of the Western Union, produced the original of a telegram supposed to have been sent by Attorney Fred Miller, of Spokane, now recorded as one of Haywood's counsel, to Orchard before the latter was arrested at Caldwell for the Steubenberg murder, but did not introduce it because its identification is still inefficient. The State also obtained an order of court directing the Western Union to produce its records showing that Haywood sent money to Adams to Ogden.

When testimony bearing on Ogden was introduced, Steve Adams was brought into court under guard to be re-arrested. Adams' name has run all through the trial, but this was his first appearance in person. He seemed in defiant mood and walked to a point directly in front of the jury and gazed steadily at the witness confronting him. The State also produced several witnesses who confirmed features as to Orchard's story as to the Bradley affair, the first descent into the vindictive mind with the object of doing violence, the final success of the vindictive mine plot and the circumstances under which Detective K. Gregory was killed. Aside from his fighting the admission of all the evidence offered by the State on no way connected with the accused, the defense contented itself with showing that all of the witnesses were found and interviewed by Pinkerton detectives.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—Colonel Kotlaroff, deputy commandant of the port of St. Petersburg, was murdered this morning by a workman in the Admiralty section of the city. The colonel was recently sentenced to death by the revolutionary fighting organization because he recommended a reduction of the working force at the Admiralty works. The assassin was captured but he is believed to have had accomplices, who escaped.

THREE WOMEN BURNED TO DEATH

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 14.—Three women were burned to death and two men seriously injured in a fire that destroyed four houses in the White Water settlement near Harrison, Ohio, to-day.

DIDN'T SHOW THEIR PAPERS.

An Oakland farmer one day last year found a score of men putting up telegraph poles all over his best field. He ordered the men away, but they wouldn't go. They showed him a paper that gave them authority to put up their poles wherever they wished. The old man looked at the paper, saw it was lawful, walked away in silence. He went to the barn and turned a savage red bull into the field. The bull made for the men, the men fled at top speed, and the farmer shouted after them: "Show him your paper! Show him your paper!"

The holdup man may not be eloquent, but he is mighty effective when it comes to taking up a collection.

KELVIN WON OUT

In the Inter-Provincial Race at Montreal Yesterday.

Blue Bonnet Race Track, Montreal June 14.—beautiful weather and a fast track prevailed at Blue Bonnets to-day. The card was interesting and included a race, in which gentlemen riders had the mounts, and the Inter-Provincial purse. The latter was at a mile and a quarter and was for 3 year olds and up, bred and owned in Ontario. King's plate, and Woodbine, the winner of the Queen's plate, Kelvin was asked to shoulder 111 pounds, while Woodbine carried 123. Other starters were Guinea Gold, Mignonne and Harmony, all of which started in the King's Plate on opening day at Blue Bonnets. The race naturally aroused a good deal of interest, as the result would prove the superiority of the two place winners. Another banner crowd was on hand, and the club house balconies were crowded. The Tennis Bankers Association visiting Montreal, came out to the track to witness the sport.—Summaries:—

MARKET VALUE OF A MAN

St. Catharines, Ont., June 14.—At what age does a man cease to be useful as a wage-earner? is a question which may well have an important bearing in a case which was tried here before County Judge Carman in the county court. William Ireson, aged 88, brought suit against a farmer named Burrows for damages for injuries which he claimed resulted from negligence on Burrows' part. Ireson for many years has been engaged as mail carrier here, for which service he was paid $15 a month. Last October he was driving down the Western hill, when Burrows came driving along behind and drove into his wagon, throwing the old man out on the road and causing injuries which prevented him doing any work since. Claiming that Burrows had been driving too fast, which caused the accident, Ireson brought suit, claiming $200 damages. Yesterday when the case was tried Ireson was too ill to be present, but his wife and a doctor both testified that aside from the accident the old gentleman would have been good for several years more of service.

"It is only reasonable to suppose that he would have been able to work for another year, anyway, but we only ask for a year's wages," said Mr. Ireson's lawyer.

Judge Carman reserved his decision.

THE AGE OF TREES.

Brazilian cocoanut palms live for 600 to 700 years, and the Arabs assert that the date palm frequently reaches the age of 200 to 300 years. Wallan's Oak, near Paisley, Scotland, is known to be over 700 years old, and there are eight olive trees on the Mount of Olives near Jerusalem which are known to have been flourishing in 1099.

The yews at Fountain Abbey, Yorkshire, were old trees when, in 1132, the abbey was built, and a redwood in Mariposa Grove, California, is a magnificent centenarian. Baobab trees of Africa have been computed to be over 5,000 years old, and the delicious cypress at Chaptullepe is considered to be of a still greater age.

Humboldt said that the Dracena Draco at Orotava, on Tenerife, was one of the oldest inhabitants of the earth.

The Quebec Chronicle

QUEBEC, JUNE 15, 1907.

ADVERTISE, ADVERTISE, ADVERTISE.

We have seen nothing as yet of the booklet which was to be scattered abroad to sing the glories and the beauties of Quebec in the ears of intending tourists. Other cities have been in the field long ago; early last month the first literary Mayflower that came to our notice was a folder-booklet of forty-five pages, in a pretty cover, and profusely and elegantly illustrated, entitled "The Tourist's and Sportsman's Paradise," and issued by the New Brunswick Tourist Association, whose headquarters are St. John, N.B.; the Canadian Pacific Company, with its usual energetic enterprise, is more cosmopolitan and has been issuing a handsome series of books descriptive of various sections of the Dominion and illustrated with photographs, the latest of which is poetically entitled "The Challenge of the Mountains" and chants the praises of the Canadian Rockies. From "Banff, the Beautiful," and the Canadian National Park, to the Thompson and Fraser canyons and the Pacific Coast. This little book is a gem of its class, and its illustrations so numerous and fascinating, its descriptions so clear, that the next best thing to making the trip itself is to send four cents to the C.P.R. agent and get a copy; what may be called the three "D's," the booming of busy Berlin, under the guise of the annual report of the Board of Trade of that town we had occasion to notice not very long ago, and there have been others. Quebec is about the only place of any size that has not taken some step or other to make her existence known abroad; she has got guide books on the counters of her bookstores, and any stray tourist that happens this way may get one if he chooses, but we are a deal too modest to intrude ourselves upon the attention of strangers; not that we are not conscious that we thoroughly deserve that attention, but because—well!—because.

It may be urged that the time has not yet arrived for the tourist this year; that the weather, so far, instead of being the weather that might be reasonably expected at this season has rather been that of the days when the annual migratory hordes of sight-seers and pleasure seekers turn to the thoughts of home and coal fires, and there was no sign literally of any great elevation of the temperature. What is the use of chanting the beauties of scenery, the sights and traditional glories of the city when the weather resembles that of the Westmoreland hills as laid down by a native to a stranger who enquired if it always rained there, the answer being, "Now, Sir, sometimes it snows?" What is the use of talking hunting and fishing when it is hard enough to keep at a lukewarm temperature in-doors? The season is backward, as is evinced by the fate of the tulip bulbs which were planted in the beds round the City Hall over a month ago, and which now have to be dug up as the only means of getting them to put their noses out of the ground. All that is very true, but the migratory instinct is not dependent on climatic conditions; it comes, like the doloureux, at certain well defined times, and the only way in which unfavorable weather affects it, is to give it longer time for consideration, and, perhaps ultimately change its decision.

"Canada," said the Monetary Times of the 1st instant, "is the centre of commercial interest. Every town and city possesses its peculiar attractions. Advertising these must bring results. Success depends on how the subject is approached. The smart, business like man can do as much publicity work with a hundred dollars as another less active gentleman could do with a thousand. Banks once thought it unnecessary to tell the public of their mission in financial spheres. There was a time when towns and cities strove not for industries and population. But with an era of competition in all things, and between towns and cities in particular, municipalities have entered the everlasting race, the survival of the fittest—and it pays to advertise your fitness."

Our confreres very wisely advise moderation of language.

"In boosting a town it is not necessary to glorify excessively the facts. A great deal often may be said by not saying it at all. When you desire to interest any one in a proposition you do not usually give him an extraordinary recitation of its attractions. Enough is afforded to allow his elastic imagination some play. Sufficient is left unsaid to present him later with a little surprise. A satisfactory result is when a man says: 'I had no idea it was as good as that.' There may be a hundred reasons why your particular city should be chosen for a certain industry. Do not advertise them all. Detail ninety if you like. But the other ten should be learned by the visitor himself. There is a happy medium in municipal advertising. If you say too little, you have missed your vocation as publicity agent. If you say too much, instead of a new addition to the city you may see the cloudy face of a disappointed man. And he is more difficult to handle than a pessimist.

"Literature bombardment is a subtle art. Conservation of energy is one of its success secrets. To mail municipal advertising literature without any plan of campaign is as bad as going to war with a great deal of faith and shouting, and very little common sense or gunpowder. The Canadian authorities, whose motto is the expansion of Canada, are not far behind their cousins over the border in the matter of advertising. Some of the folders and pamphlets issued by the Dominion Boards of Trade, Industrial and Publicity Departments, and clubs, are very clever productions. As a rule, telling facts and pictures are printed. The prospective resident, the commercial man, may obtain a good idea of the suitability of various centres for a warehouse, a factory, or a dwelling. Winnipeg is one Western city, for instance, which is proving that good fruits may be gathered when the seed of publicity is planted wisely and nurtured carefully.

SESSION OR ELECTION?

The Toronto World the other day revived for the third or fourth time the report that Hon. Mr. Hyman had again tendered his resignation of the portfolio of public works coupled this time with an insistence on its acceptance. The honorable gentleman left the performance of his duties in other hands, owing, we were told to the deplorable condition of his health, and the same consideration, it appears, as hitherto prevented his return. So long a period has elapsed since his setting out in search of sanitation that it is quite conceivable that he despairs of ever being able to resume his duties, or to re-enter political life, and if Sir Wilfrid Laurier cannot overcome that view there are hopes that London will not remain virtually disfranchised much longer.

In fact Mr. Hyman has been relegated by the public to that oblivion which waits on retired politicians, and can only be removed by their reappearance on the political arena. He went out for his health, and it was well for his health that he should be allowed to stay out. The public has ceased to take even a perfunctory interest in him; it does not know where he is, or how he is, or what he is doing, and it is not consumed with an overpowering anxiety to know. Mr. Hyman's resignation is only interesting as involving the departure from the scene of another Cabinet Minister, with the probability of another vacancy caused by the retirement of the Minister of Militia and Defence, and it is held that a Cabinet which has been in need of so much reconstruction in so short a period will probably find it incumbent on it to appeal to the country, notwithstanding Sir Wilfrid Laurier's promise to the leader of the Opposition that there would be still another session of the existing Parliament.

If there is any correctness in these views, it will be well to consider what has been taken to justify the violation of a pledge supposed to have been given by one gentleman to another, and what is the true nature of the ground on which an appeal to the country is to be made. What has taken place, or, to be correct, what is regarded as certain to take place, is the successive vacations in less than a period of twelve months of the important portfolios of Public Works, Railways and Canals, and Militia and Defence, and there are some very unpleasant stories going about all these of which the least said is the soonest mended. If the reconstructed Cabinet goes to the country on its reconstruction, it will be called upon to explain the causes that have given rise to the necessity for such reconstruction, and, as it cannot fall back upon ill-health in more than one of these cases, and would not be believed in that one, the task before it would be very awkward and embarrassing one. Should an appeal to the country be made this fall it must be on the reasons for the reconstruction of the Cabinet, and not on the appearance of a live political issue which has suddenly and unexpectedly cropped up.

PRESS OPINIONS.

BRITISH POLITICS AND THE GOVERNMENT. — Notwithstanding the overwhelming majority with which the present British Government returned from the general election, the shadow of disappointment and disillusionment already rests upon it. With the first session of Parliament gone and the second well advanced in its course, nothing has yet been done to fulfil the high hopes which attended the advent of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's effective ministry. Even the measures which have been passed—such as the acts aimed at the trades union and labor laws—were not as they reached the statute books in the form first approved by the cabinet. With one or, at the most, two exceptions, the administrative honors have rested with the ministers who belong to the Rosebery section of the Liberal party, and the extent of their influence is clearly seen in Foreign and Indian Affairs, in the Irish Council Bill and in the evident determination to pursue a continuity of policy as regards the army and navy and other matters which it has been the common purpose to exclude from the area of strictly party politics. That there has been a considerable recrudescence of Conservative sentiment in the electorate is distinctly enough shown by the results of the recent by-elections. Indeed, taking all the pollings that have occurred since the general election—excluding those where the voting was complicated by the intervention of labor candidates—the transformation has been surprising, nor is the process likely to be retarded by such incidents as the meeting of the Imperial Conference and its attendant circumstances. It can hardly be denied that a real cleavage exists in the ministerial ranks and that the doctrinaire Radicals are wholly out of touch with the course which administrative responsibility has imposed upon the cabinet in its collective capacity. This was only to be expected since the extremist section of the Liberal party seems deliberately prepared to sacrifice every consideration of fact and experience to the supposed requirements of abstract theories.—Toronto World.

READING ALOUD, says the London Reader, is one of the best exercises for the family circle. It brings the family together, gives all a common interest, and besides it is instructive. "How much better, and how much happier, is this way of spending an evening than the idle and driving games, whose so frequently take its place?" There can be no doubt that this charming practice has fallen into disuse when it should have been kept up. But so have some other old-time institutions, as, for example, the literary club, and the debating society. The substitution of the evening amusements for those of an intellectual kind is to be deplored.—Mail and Empire.

IT IS REPORTED FROM London that negotiations in connection with the questions at issue between Canada and the United States are making satisfactory headway, an agreement having been reached on several of them. A little while ago it was intimated that nothing was known of any such negotiations in London. This was in reply to despatches from Washington intimating that practically which the Laurier Government made the subject of reference at the Quebec conference was to be discussed again. As in regard to every item the discussion can only be in regard to something the United States wants at Canada's expense. The sequel to the present announcement will be awaited with interest and some distrust.—Montreal Gazette.

GENERAL AND HEAVY HARDWARE

NOT LORD SEYMOUR

Ottawa, June 13.—The despatch to the Chicago Record-Herald identifying Lord Edward Seymour with the prisoner in Clayton, Mo., was founded on error. This is made more clear daily. Lord Edward Seymour, who served with Strathcona's Horse in South Africa, returned to his ranch near Calgary after the war. The letters of the Clayton prisoner are signed "F. A. Barrington Seymour," and friends who are working to secure his release describe him as son of the late Lady Barrington Seymour of Brighton, Eng., of whom no one has been able to obtain any trace. Thus the willingness of local veterans to aid a comrade in distress is slackened somewhat. Corporal Trevellick's appeal is for a man whose identity is apparently unknown and whose claims upon Ottawa, or Canada, even, may be few. This is the result of enquiries made since the story was published.

CHINESE INSURGENTS

Hong Kong, June 12.—Insurgents have attacked the village of Yung-Chun, in the prefecture of Wei-Chow, where they burned the military Yamen. A provincial punitive force went in pursuit of the insurgents and engaged them in a sanguinary conflict at Patszetan, not far from their stronghold. Ten soldiers were killed. The Viceroy of Canton is considering a suggestion to open Wei-Chow as a treaty port.

The Natural Cure For Rheumatism

"Fruit-a-tives" remove from the blood the poison which causes Rheumatism.

Rheumatism means poisoned blood. The kidneys, bowels and skin should rid the system of waste matter. If either of these vital organs become weakened or diseased, the body cannot throw off this waste fast enough.

One of these body poisons is UREA, which is eliminated both by the kidneys and skin. If the skin action is poor—urea stays in the system—is changed into uric acid—carried by the blood to the nerves and joints—and causes Rheumatism.

"Fruit-a-tives" cure Rheumatism because they eliminate urea, by increasing the action of bowels, kidneys and skin. This is the only possible way in which Rheumatism can be cured to stay cured. And "Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy in the world that completely eradicates the disease from the system.

"Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices in which the natural medicinal action of fruit is many times increased by the process of combining them.

Then tonics and antiseptics are added and the whole made into tablets, 50c. a box—4 for $2.00. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

FASHIONS AND FRILLS

-FOR-

FEMININE FANCIES

(BY "BEATRICE")

Embroidered linen collars with dainty lace, net, or mull bows, add a pretty effect to a tailored suit, and as they may be worn with a lingerie waist and adjusted over the attached stock, one is quite prepared for an impromptu luncheon, or even a table-d'hôte. The belts this year are dreams, especially those to be worn with shirt waists. One of the newest is of patent leather in color, shaped, being slightly wider in back and finished with a large oblong buckle of plain, lustrous gilt. Ribbon and silk belts are also given these large, plain buckles, and they are wonderfully smart. It is odd how much these "little things of dress" count, and it certainly is rare economy for the woman to practise it to have at least one or two really chic articles, not aggressive, of course, so that they are not in keeping with the rest of her belongings, but which stand out as special evidences of her own good taste.

Lounging robes and tea gowns are fascinating this year, more so than ever. One of the new ideas is shown in what is called a monk's robe. It is fashioned of silk or cloth, whatever material is desired, but of plain weave, and looks precisely like the long circular capes worn by the friars, with the draped hood caught up with a heavy cord and tassel. The model seen was in a delicate rose pink, and anything more effective in this line it would be difficult to imagine. Inconspicuously enough, these same robes, shortened a bit, are just as effective as evening wraps. The cord and tassel are replaced by long ends and many loops of wide satin ribbon, and the loops of wide satin ribbon, and the lines by the application of embroidery or applique of lace.

Eolienne in its silk and wool mixture is making strides in the new tortoise shell browns and yellows for what may be called dressy style of travelling costumes, when it may be required to lunch and return to town afterward. Such a costume was seen and admired at a luncheon. The skirt had three narrow, shapely folds, piped with the same for trimming on the bottom, broken in upon by three narrow panels in front and at the sides, each having three rows of silk crocheted buttons of the same shade, with cord loops, in pairs, set via a vis on the bottom. A very pretty open V bodice and half-sleeves had the silk crossed in the back and in front, while the bodice was belted in with the eolienne. A pelorine with front and shoulder placement was trimmed to match the skirt, with buttons and cord loops. It was filled out also with flat, shaped pieces of the same, laid in rows to form a sleeve drop. Upon the neck of this pelorine, as well as upon the sleeves, were collar and cuffs overlaid. They were of a darker shade than the silk of the costume and embroidered prettily with white silk, in small sprig designs. The color of the straw hat was a trifle paler than the costume material, and was trimmed with a wreath of silk and velvet poppies in the tortoise shell shades, assisted by white marabout plumes. Gloves, shoes and veil in this instance were kept upon the same lines of color. One of the short-handle parasols was carried, having for cover the new weave of pongee, heavy of quality, and resembling silk canvas in appearance. This was in Nattier blue and white stripes, a full inch in width. A pretty note of color was it, and accented by the wearer carrying a long, narrow fur-cased made up of the same pongee, and very simply mounted. Lastly, the veil worn represented the palest of shades in this tortoise shell scheme of color, and was hung to its straight depth, because fitted to the crown so perfectly all round. These details sum up the entire smartness of a toilet, which, unless brought to such perfection, never could have reached that chic mark.

All things connected with the June wedding day are dainty and delicate, so it is quite natural that the bride-to-be stocks her toilet table afresh. First she wants a delicate sachet powder for scenting trunk, bags, boxes and bureau drawers. A lasting, and yet dainty scent is secured by mixing powdered orris root and any good violet sachet powder in equal quantities. This is far more illusive and pleasing than any floral scent alone.

An excellent lavender powder for the linen closet is made by powdering and mixing 10 ounces of dried lavender leaves, 3 ounces of powdered benzoin and 6 ounces of cyprus powder, to which you add 1 1/2 drachms of oil of lavender (Mitcham). This is more lasting than plain lavender leaves.

The excitement incident to wedding day preparations is apt to cause excessive perspiration. To reduce this under the arms, try mixing common baking soda in equal proportions with talcum powder, and apply thickly.

For the hands apply this lotion first: Cologne, 4 ounces; tincture of belladonna, 1-2 ounces. When you have rubbed this in until the moisture is absorbed, powder with orris root or talcum powder.

If the perspiration on the hands is excessive from nervousness, bathe thoroughly with this astringent lotion several times daily: Rose water, 6 ounces; elder flower water, 2 ounces; simple tincture of benzoin, 1-2 ounces; tannic acid, 15 drops.

Sift the zinc, dissolving it in just enough of the rose water to cover it, then add the glycerine, next the remainder of the rose water.

Shake well and apply with a soft sponge or an antiseptic gauze. The skin must be well wiped off before the liquid dries or it will be streaked. If your skin is oily, apply this astringent lotion, and then the liquid white, being sure to rub the latter in thoroughly. Lotion for oily skin: Pulverized borax, 1 ounce; pure glycerine, 2 ounces; camphor water (not spirits of camphor), 2 quarts.

If you wish to dress your hair and make it stay in curl, wash it first with an egg shampoo as follows: Yolk of one egg, one pint of rain-water (lukewarm), 1 ounce of rosemary spirits.

Beat the mixture thoroughly up and use it warm, rubbing it well into the skin of the head. Rinse in several waters.

Dry in the sun and air, then before putting your hair in curlers or papers, apply lotion. If a hair dresser is employed to braid your hair, coiffure, and you wish it to retain its wave and shape, have him apply either a bit of brilliantine or cover it in the back and over the sides with a net the exact shape of your hair. A net in the front makes the coiffure look like a wig.

Never travel without a jar of good cold cream, for removing dust and grime. Here is a formula for a cream that contains no lanolin to encourage the growth of hair on the face, and is therefore pure and wholesome: Rose water, 4 ounces; almond oil, 4 ounces; spermaceti, 1 ounce; white wax, 1 ounce.

Orange flower, lilac, violet or elder flower water can be substituted for the rose water at pleasure, and the addition of one drachm of tincture of benzoin or 1-2 drachm of salicylic acid will insure the cream from becoming rancid. It should always be put in small, open-mouthed jars, that can be tightly closed to exclude the air.

A yellow, discolored neck is anything but adorable, particularly when a woman wishes to appear in a décolleté frock. A simple home-made remedy is made thus: Take one ounce of honey, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, six drops of oil of bitter almonds, the whites of two eggs and enough fine oatmeal to make a smooth paste. Apply this at night, covering with a bit of old soft linen. Three or four applications will bleach the surface to a beautiful satin whiteness.

Cupping devices for making the cheeks plump should be carefully avoided, for if the arrangement draws up the skin to any great extent, it will stretch the outer cuticle and form wrinkles. The best way to fill out sunken cheeks is to apply a good skin food and then draw up the muscles with a sort of elevating movement.

It is an extremely difficult matter for a woman to shampoo her own hair with soap and hard water and have the shampoo thorough. Rubbing the bar of soap directly on the head is always a mistake, because tiny particles of the cleansing agent adhere to the silky strands and no possible amount of rinsing will remove them.

If eggs are too expensive try this: One ounce of white castle soap in shavings, 24 ounces of water, 30 grains of potassium carbonate, 120 grains of borax, 2 fluid ounces of cologne water, 2 fluid ounces of bay rum. Dissolve the soap in the water by the aid of heat, add the other ingredients and dissolve. Keep this in a glass jar. Moisten the head with warm water, apply some of the soapy liquid, shampoo the hair well, then rinse with warm water until the hair is clean.

There are dozens of reasons why the hair will fall out and become thin and scraggly and broken. Ill-health, worry, sleeplessness, nervousness are the commonest causes. Improper treatment, such as "rattling" hair, washing it improperly or using lotions that are injurious are other reasons. It is a good plan to brush the hair every night. This grooming stimulates the blood vessels of the scalp, and removes the dust and dandruff from the silky strands. Every night rub the scalp lightly, applying a good tonic, such as the resorcin formula: Forty grains of resorcin, one-half ounce of water, one ounce of witch hazel and one ounce of alcohol. An electric battery with a brush attachment will do much toward encouraging the growth to get busy and recover its health.

Bath Mats—May be made of discarded bedspreads by cutting from the firm part squares of desired size and hemming. These mats are nice to lay on the floor beside the bath tub when the latter is in use, but should be folded and hung in a convenient place, as they are not heavy enough to take the place of a rug.

Worn Out Wrappers—When wash wrappers are worn at the top cut only the body of the wrapper from the skirt and use skirt separately with other dressing sacks.

Cheap Clothes Hamper—Secure a small barrel. Clean and line with cambric, covering the outside with cretonne laid on in plaits. Border the top with a ruche of same. Cover the lid with some material and put a fancy knob in centre.

Clothes Pin Bag—Take a twenty-pound flour sack, sew a hem and the top, insert a piece of wire, it into the shape of a hoop, and will have an excellent clothespin bag.

When Black Turns White—Black kid gloves that have become worn and white at the finger tips may be made to look almost as good as new by using a few drops of sweet oil and black ink, equal parts, well mixed and applied with a camelhair brush.

Home-Made Chair—Take a strong box and cover the open side with ticking, nail on firmly, using pieces of leather under the nail heads to prevent them pulling through. Saw boards for arms and back, so that they will slant and make a comfortable chair, slanting both ends of the piece used for the back and one end of each side piece so that when they are fitted together an incline is produced. Nail these together stoutly and fasten them to the box. Strong strips of boards nailed to the back and sides, and joined to the box will make solid. Pad with cotton and cover, with furniture calico or cretonne to the most expensive tapestry, and you will have a handsome chair. You can vary the style to suit your fancy, making a divan or a large deep sofa. Bore the padding over at the tops of the arms and nail on the covering with gilt upholstery tacks.

Waist Hanger—Crochet large brass ring (used for fancy work) with silk. Take three lengths of ribbon, eight or ten inches long, having the piece in the centre the longest. Sew on ring. Then at the other end of each ribbon fasten a crocheted ring (same size as used above), and through each ring put three safety pins. To each pin fasten a waist or two. In this way you can take care of nine or more waists without taking up much room.

Clothes Horse From Umbrella—To make a clothes horse of an old umbrella frame, strip off the cover, wing ribs with white cloth, screw a hook in top end of stick, and fasten a wire loop at handle. On wash day you can dry skirts quickly by slipping skirt over frame and hook it to clothes line. On ironing day hand upside down from ceiling and hang your ironing on it. Put up a strong hook in the ceiling to hang it on.

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

WANT GOOD ROADS FOUND A VAN DYKE

Quebec Delegation Studying the System Adopted in Ontario.

The Toronto Globe has the following:—"A party of five gentlemen sent by the Quebec Government to study Ontario's good roads system arrived in the city yesterday afternoon after a tour of Simcoe County and later left for a trip through the Niagara peninsula. They were accompanied in Simcoe County by Mr. R. H. Jupp, the ex-Warden, and Mr. Harry Maisonneuve, private secretary to Hon. Dr. Rheaume, who represented the Public Works Department. The Quebec Government has recently decided upon the adoption of a good roads plan, and some twenty counties have already applied for participation therein, and the party mentioned is gathering all the information possible with a view to assisting in carrying out the idea. In the Quebec party were Messrs. J. Henry, engineer of the Department of Agriculture; T. Plante, a lecturer in the department; R. Watson, J. Plant and A. Alie."

A SOCIETY EVENT.

Arrangements have been made with the Auditorium management for a grand entertainment on the 21st inst. by the naval officers of H.M.S. Hampshire. A musical comedy will be given, as well as a series of other interesting features. The entertainment will be under the patronage of the Governor-General and promises to be a social event. LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS' CONVENTION.

The delegates to the union meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will arrive here on Monday, accompanied by their wives and families. Some 5,000 visitors are expected, and the local committee have arranged a very attractive programme for their entertainment. The programme includes a concert at the Auditorium, a picnic at Lake St. Joseph, an excursion to Ste. Anne de Beaupre and Montmorency Falls, a trip on the river, and other features. The committee in charge of the arrangements would take it as a favor if the residents of the city would decorate their houses in honor of the large number of visitors and make the city look as gay as possible.

ODDFELLOWS PICNIC.

Domination Day, so long the date of the Oddfellows' annual picnic, will again this year be celebrated by the members of the fraternity with a grand excursion to that popular resort, St. Catherine's Grove. This year's outing promises to excel all previous efforts in this line. Committees have been actively at work for some time past making arrangements for the picnic and they have met with the greatest success. The programme of races and games will be a most interesting one, and the prizes to be offered will include some of the handiwork ever offered at an outing of this kind. No efforts will be spared to make this picnic a delightful one for all who attend, and the well-known success of the Oddfellows in handling events of this kind is sufficient guarantee that everything will be carried out in the most approved manner.

Picture with a History Discovered in Labrador by Mgr. Guay.

As is well known, many of the churches in Quebec and in the little towns and villages of the Province have as their main decorations pictures of the old masters or very good copies of sacred pictures that have edified the faithful for many generations. A picture believed to be a VanDyke, which is in the Hospital Guay of St. Joseph Ville-Guay, is attracting considerable attention these days, and is quite worthy of careful inspection. The picture is in an excellent state of preservation, is 5 feet by 3 1/2 in size, and represents the Apostles with the Virgin Mary in their midst.

The story connected with the discovery of the VanDyke, as those in charge of it believe it to be, is very interesting. Something over seventy-five years ago a ship was wrecked on the coast of Labrador near the village of Tebatiere. It was discovered there in 1900 by the Right Rev. Monsignor Charles Guay in the chapel of the village. Monsignor Guay, on acquiring the picture of its true value, was quite ignorant of its true value, but after he had had it cleaned and restored he found he was in possession of what is believed to be a genuine VanDyke.

PUBLIC PLAYGROUND

No Orders Given to Prevent Athletic Games on the Esplanade.

The recent stoppage of the military and boys from playing their various athletic games on the Esplanade, a practice which has been in custom for many years, appears to have been due to some misapprehension.

Mr. W. Baillarge, City Engineer, stated to a Chronicle reporter yesterday that there had never been any order given by the corporation to stop the practice of playing athletic games there, although there have been numerous complaints about the same. As the place had always been regarded as a public playground, however, nothing was done in the matter.

The only action taken was that when the trees were recently planted around the borders of the place, orders were given to have a policeman stationed in the vicinity to see that the young trees were not knocked down or damaged in the course of the games.

This old and reliable firm keep a full line of coal, lumber and timber constantly on hand. They are prepared to fill all orders entrusted to them in a prompt and satisfactory manner.

RECEPTION TO GEN. BOOTH.

At the City Hall yesterday morning a civic reception was given to General Booth, the civic building being gaily decorated in honor of the event. A large gathering of citizens, in addition to the Mayor and Aldermen, assembled to do honor to the distinguished visitor. The Headquarters' Staff Band of the Army also was present and rendered a number of selections. Mayor Garneau, in a felicitous speech, extended a warm welcome to the General, remarking upon the good work done by the Army. General Booth was received with great applause when he rose to respond to the Mayor's welcome. He thanked His Worship for the reception rendered him. He then reviewed the work of the Salvation Army, which he said did not seek to compete with any ecclesiastical organization. Those present were afterwards introduced to the General, who then returned to the Chateau Frontenac. General Booth left by the Empress yesterday afternoon, as referred to in the account elsewhere of the departure of the Empress of Ireland.

A decision is expected to-day.

FIELD GUN DRILL

Will be Given on Q. A. A. Grounds on Saturday Next.

Prior to the baseball game between the Quebec and Montreal Reserve teams on the Q. A. A. grounds on Saturday next, a big attraction has been secured for the Quebec public, Rear Admiral Neville having kindly consented to allow the men of the fleet to give an exhibition of field gun drill. This feature was prepared for the recent visit of the cruiser squadron to Jamestown, but as it was found impossible to give it there, Quebec will be the only city to witness it while the squadron is on this side of the Atlantic. Upon this occasion the massed bands of the squadron will also be present. This will undoubtedly prove a great treat for the Quebec public, which is always so much interested in the smart work of the sailor laddies of the British fleet. A percentage of the receipts will be devoted to one of the naval charities and there will without doubt be one of the greatest gatherings of the season upon the Q. A. A. grounds next Saturday.

THE DUBLIN EXHIBITION.

The Dublin Freeman's Journal, in speaking of the Irish International exhibition, says: "The best equipped display is by common consent that of the Canadian Pavilion, which attracts a constant stream of visitors. The advantages of the Dominion as a field for emigration are undoubtedly portrayed in their most seductive form. It is of interest to know that the commissioners appointed by the Dominion Government are: Colonel W. Hutchinson, formerly member of Parliament for Ottawa city; J. Brodie, of Quebec, who acts as general secretary; J. J. O'Flaherty, of Quebec, provincial president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and vice-president of the Quebec branch of the Irish National League, a highly prized worker in the Irish cause; D. M. Quinn, Montreal; R. B. Power, of Halifax, and G. Farrell, of St. John's, Newfoundland. The tableaux exhibits and pictures of the section make out Canada to be an Eldorado for emigrants."

15TH LIGHT HORSE BAND.

The 15th Light Horse Band of Calgary had a very high compliment paid them on the occasion of the visit of Prince Arthur of Connaught to the City of Calgary last year. The Winnipeg Telegram says: "Last evening the 15th Light Horse Band discoursed a fine two hours programme of classical, national, and popular music. This is one of the best, if not the best musical organization in Western Canada, and its work was warmly praised by the Prince, who, on the conclusion of the concert, came forward to personally congratulate Fred. A. Bagley, the bandmaster, and the members of the band on their splendid work. This well known aggregation of musicians will give one concert in the Drill Hall on Thursday evening, the 25th day of July, the eve of their departure for Dublin, where they have a two weeks engagement at the International Exposition, after which they will tour the British Isles, returning the latter part of September. This will certainly be a musical treat, and the Drill Hall should be filled to capacity."

"PE-RU-NA WAS SUCCESSFUL WHERE DOCTORS FAILED,"

Writes Mr. Cholette After Taking Pe-ru-na.

MR. MENESIPPE CHOLETTE.

Mr. Menesippe Cholette, Sie. Therese de Blairville, P. Q., writes: "I shall never be able to speak in terms high enough to express the entire confidence I have in Peruna." "There is nothing better to restore health. I took eight bottles." "All the pains I had in the head and bowels, also the catarrh of the nose and stomach, as well as all other symptoms disappeared after I had taken the third bottle." "Peruna was successful where two doctors had failed." "Were I the first to testify in favor of this remedy, it might be thought that I exaggerate, but many testimonials before mine have pointed out the great virtue of this effective tonic." "It would be unreasonable to undervalue a remedy which has snatched from premature death poor human beings who were beyond rescue by the doctors." "This remedy has restored many a victim of incipient consumption and other diseases." "Peruna is the best remedy for all catarrhal diseases."

WHEN the catarrh has become systemic, that is, when it has been allowed to spread through the entire system, it is a difficult disease to cure. Physicians do not always understand it and some of them do not care to treat it. Hence the inability of a great many patients to find a cure. The correct thing to do for these cases is to make use of some internal, systemic catarrh remedy, one that will reach every internal organ of the body and exercise a healing, strengthening and soothing effect upon the mucous membranes lining these various organs. Such a remedy has been found in Peruna. As Mr. Cholette states, his testimonial is not the first one written in behalf of Peruna, the remedy which brings permanent relief in all cases of systemic catarrh.

TODAY'S BIG GAMES GREAT BOAT RACE

Battle for Leadership in the Senior Lacrosse League.

To-day's matches will determine which team shall take the lead in the N.L.U. championship race. Tecumsehs, Shamrocks and Torontos are now at the top of the heap, but Saturday's games will probably make a big difference in the standing.

Montreal travel out to Mile End and meet the Shamrocks, strengthened by "Tack" Hendry, Charlie McKerrow and probably Billy Strachan. Shamrocks, however, have also strengthened.
Shaun O'Reilly, Phil O'Reilly and Johnnie Currie going on, "King" Clancy and Herb Valph will referee, and the match is sure to be the event of the season. A game between Montreal and Shamrocks in Montreal always arouses about as much excitement as did the Russo-Japanese war, and the fur is sure to fly when they come together.

McGinnis, one of the Sherbrooke men, will likely be dropped to make room for Mackerrow, and if "Tack" Hendry is played at inside home, it is thought that Povey will have to make way for him. However, it is not certain that Hendry is in condition to stand such a hard match. Povey has lots of speed, and would fit in well in the field between Roddy Finlayson and Hamilton.

Wm. Foran and William McIntyre, of Ottawa, will be referee and judge of play for the Cornwall-Tecumseh match in Toronto. The Cornwall team will be the same as that which defeated Capitals, while Tecumsehs will have one or two changes. Tecumsehs and Shamrocks are the favorites in the betting.

SAIORS WANT A MATCH.

The Editor of the Chronicle:—Dear
Sir,—The sailors of the First Cruiser Squadron have been inquiring whether there are football and cricket clubs in Quebec. Would it not be well for the officers of clubs to communicate with the sailors in regard to the arrangement of matches?

Sincerely yours,
J. OSCAR THOMSON,
Supt. Seamen's Institute.

PLAYERS FINED.

Brantford, Ont., June 13.—As the conduct of the disorderly conduct at the Hamilton-Brantford senior and Hesper-Brantford junior lacrosse matches in this city last Saturday, George Walsh and Ed. Campbell, of Brantford, Leonard Dandeno, of Hesper, and Isaac Henhawk, of Hamilton, were charged in the Police Court to-day with fighting and causing disturbance during games. All are players of the teams named and pleaded guilty. Magistrate Wooddyatt fined them $2 each.

ADAM BECK WON FIRST.

Easily Head of Corinthian Class In London's Horse Show.

London, June 14.—At the International Horse Show in the Corinthian class for hunters ridden by officers in uniform or by gentlemen in hunting costume, Hon. Adam Beck won easily with Kakabeka, jumping four high fences in a marvellously clever style.
"It was the cleanest jumping of the show," says the Express, "and quite outclassed the English horses."

In the class of a mare or gelding, not under fifteen hands, driven by ladies in a phaeton, Mrs. Beck's Lady Norfolk took third prize.

The Mail, discussing the great success of the show, says no one would have been a more popular winner than Mr. Beck, but his failure to land many prizes did not destroy his thorough enjoyment of the show and all about it. Madison Square, he said, did not compare with it at all. Referring to his lack of success he agreed that Canada was a great country for horses, but they were not trained for show purposes.

Mrs. Adam Beck, of London, Ontario, second prize with Lord and Lady Norfolk, and Alfred Vanderbilt third prize, with Columbia and High boy, in the tandem class for horses exceeding 15.2.

SHAKE-UP ON CAPITALS.

Timmins and Brennan May Be on the Line-Up.

Ottawa, June 14.—"No efforts have been made to get Butterworth out again," said Mr. Foran to the Citizen last evening. "But unless he turns out to practice we will not place him on the team." Butterworth says that he has played his last game and we will not coax him to don the uniform again, although we are sorry to lose him. Butterworth has played some great games for the Capitals, but there is no use making a man play the game against his will.

"Who will take Butterworth's place on the team?" Mr. Foran was asked.
"Probably Timmins," he replied.
"We have plenty of material. Hogan and Timmins are both good men."

"What about Jack Powers?"
"Well, as to Powers, we are more than ever determined not to make any overtures to him. He would be welcomed by the Capitals, but we are not going to get out and try to win the championship with men who do not want to play for us."

Latty Brennan is now at Sudbury and is expected back next week. Brennan is a first-class fielder and will probably take the place of Bobby Pringle, who leaves for Cobalt at the end of the week. Brennan will probably play first or second defence. Consequently three of the champions will be missing from the Capital team when they line up against the Nationals a week from Saturday. Butterworth, Pringle and Powers. The loss of Butterworth and Pringle may weaken the field, but with Timmins and Brennan shoved in to fill the breaches, the team should be almost if not every bit as strong as it was last fall.

Now that the fine weather has set in, a visit to Kent House grounds is a dream of beauty.
The grounds present a very picturesque appearance and are now in splendid shape. The Zoo is better than ever.

Drink Beauport Lager; it is the best.

THE QUEBEC TEAM

Which will Line Up Against the Ottawa Nationals
Today.

The Quebec team to meet the Nationals of Ottawa on the Q. A. A. grounds this afternoon has been definitely chosen and will be as follows:

P. Moran, Goal.
H. Copeman, Point.
J. Early, Cover Point.
J. Doyle, Defence.
P. Bolvin,
J. Metivies,
Jeff. Malone, Centre.
J. McCormick, Home.
O. Walsh,
S. Laliberte,
F. Webster, Outside Home.
D. Power, Inside Home.

Spare Men—J. Skelly, Tom Malone,
L. Gaboury, Cns. Kelly.

The National lacrosse team of Ottawa left there last night at 6.30 in a special car over the C. P. R. for Quebec. The Nationals will be selected from the following players:—
B. Dussault, Thibault, Gagnon, Roberts, Beauchamp, Menier, Deslaurier, Larouche, B. Lacroix, T. Groulx, Albert Groulx, Lassalle, G. Dussault, Mills and O'Brien.

The game will be attended by the Rear-Admiral and officers of the fleet, the former of whom will place the ball at 3 p.m. The massed bands of the fleet will also be in attendance.

The game between these two teams should prove to be a most exciting one. Both teams are strong and will put up a fine exhibition. The attendance should be large.

QUEBEC II. VS. CRYSTALS.

The match on the Q. A. A. grounds on Sunday afternoon between the Quebec II. and Crystals will be a hot argument. The race in the Junior League this year is a hot one, and both teams have been strengthening up for this struggle. Those who go out to see this game can therefore expect to see a hot struggle.

EXCITING BASEBALL GAMES.

The batting order of the Rock City team in the game with Quebec on the Rock City grounds this afternoon will be as follows:—Gillen, Gendron, Plante, Griser, Conroy, McLaughlin,
Donlin, Wilkinson and Johnston (p.).
The line up of the Quebec team:—
Woodcomb, c; O'Brien, p; Thivierge,
1st; Ramsay, 2nd; Deschamps, s.;
Copeland, 3rd; Plumb, i.f.; Hodd,
c.f.; Moore, r.f.

There will also be a game on Sunday afternoon. Both events are creating a great deal of excitement among the partisans of the two teams and there will likely be a spirited struggle for supremacy between the aggregations.

POLITICAL PURITY

Demand in Resolution Passed by Anglican Synod of Toronto.

Toronto, June 13.—The purification of the business, political and social methods of this country was demanded in a resolution passed to-day by the Anglican Synod of Toronto and the present what was termed deplorable state of affairs was set out in this resolution. There was rather an exciting incident during the discussion that arose over the Episcopal endowment fund committee's report, of which Hon. S. H. Blake was chairman.
Mr. Blake in his report had made some very caustic comments upon a number of churches in the diocese, pointing out that they had not met their obligations in the way that he sawed these churches in the report, and the rectors of a number of them
defended themselves before the Synod.
The report did not meet with the approval of the Synod, and it was decided not to continue the committee in its functions.

The Synod discussed the character of British immigration to this country. The report was condemnatory of a certain class of immigrants that came to this country and the committee urged that efforts be made to prevent the migration to Canada of any obviously criminally predisposed.
In the discussion that ensued objections were raised to this clause of the report, on the ground that the language used was too sweeping, but adjustment was made before the discussion was concluded.

HE USED TO BE MY PAPA.

Philadelphia Record.

An instance of the complications that follow the numerous divorces obtained by rich residents of Newport was related by Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, rector of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, in his sermon to the last regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania, on Sunday afternoon, Dr. Tomkins vouched for the truth of the story and said the incident occurred at Newport last summer. Two boys were at play, when one pointed to a man passing in an automobile. "That's my new papa," exclaimed one of the boys; "I think I'm going to like him." "He isn't so much," remarked the other child.
"How do you know?" indignantly demanded the first boy. "I guess I ought to," was the reply. "He used to be my papa."

HOMEWARD BOUND

Sailing of the Empress of Ireland and the Tunisian.

Yesterday afternoon a large number of people assembled on the Breakwater to witness the departure of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co.'s R.M. S. Empress of Ireland for Liverpool. Among those on the dock were the Salvation Army's band from Toronto, who were present to honor the venerable head of the Army, General Booth, who was returning home after his trip from Japan. While preparations were being made for the steamer's departure the band played and sang a number of hymns. One of the officers then offered up prayer for the safety of the General, the ship and all on board. After the playing of the hymn "God be with you, until we meet again," General Booth, who was standing at the rail on the starboard side of the ship, delivered a short address in which he exhorted the members of the Army to be true to their God, themselves, their families, their country, the poor and the Army, saying that he expected to get good reports of them when he reached home. He concluded his remarks by expressing the hope that God will bless all present. All the lines having been cast off the big steamer swung slowly into the stream. As she did so a loud cheer was given for the General, the band at the same time playing a lively air. When the Empress was fairly under way at 4 p.m., the band played the National Anthem. The Empress of Ireland has on board 333 first, 320 second and 550 third-class passengers. Among the first-class are the Bisley rifle team. Almost all parts of Canada, the United States and Australia have representatives on board the steamer, showing how popular the St. Lawrence route is becoming for ocean travellers. One passenger, Captain Patterson, of the Salvation Army, was going on a sad mission, being called to England by the death of his father. He received many expressions of sympathy from his fellow-passengers. The Army officers who accompanied the General on his homeward trip were Brigadier Cox, Colonel Higgins, Colonel Lamley and Commissioner Nicholls.

CALLED STRIKE OFF

New York 'Longshoremen
Capitulate to Steamship Companies.

New York, June 14—The striking 'Longshoremen capitulated to the Transatlantic Steamship companies last night, when, by an almost unanimous vote, the executive board of the 'Longshoremen's Union decided to order the men back to work at the "best terms obtainable."

These terms, it is understood, are the old scale of wages. The board met in Hudson Hall at Leroy and Hudson streets, and, for nearly three hours, discussed the situation. At times the meeting was decidedly tumultuous, many of the old-timers refusing, until the last, to admit that the fight was a losing one.

Then a big Irishman thundered out a motion that the strike be declared off. The motion was promptly seconded, and ten minutes later President Connors, of the union, announced that the strike was at an end. The strike was thirty-seven days old. When the board met every member was present, either in person or by proxy, while outside the hall hundreds of strikers assembled, waiting to hear the result. Inside the hall there was great excitement, but on the outside everything was quiet.

When Connors announced to the board that the motion to declare the strike off had been carried, he broke down completely and wept like a child. The big good-natured Irishman, blamed himself for the failure of the strike. His men cheered him again and again, and assured him that he had done the best he could.

The trip from Toronto was full of interest and the party enjoyed the run through the Highlands of Ontario. The Imperial party left at seven o'clock for the West.

A GREAT TRIUMPH

GAINED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE.

The Doctors of Mount Clemens Institute Prove the Value of These Pills in the Case of Mr. S. Harris, Government Inspector of Elevators at Hamilton, Ont.

From the Star, Dundas, Ont.:

We were much pleased to see Mr. S. Harris, the well known Government inspector of elevators of Hamilton, in Dundas the other day, greatly improved in health and appearance since the last time we met him. As is known to many of the Star readers, Mr. Harris has recovered from a long and severe illness, and is now quite able to attend his usual duties. From this long illness many predicted Mr. Harris would never recover, and the fact that he is once more able to go around very nearly as spry as he did before he was attacked, is little less than marvellous to them.

In reply to our reporter, Mr. Harris related the early stages of the attack and subsequent sufferings which he experienced, and while he did not court publicity, decided that in the public interest he would relate the circumstances of this wonderful cure. About fourteen months ago Mr. Harris woke up one morning with a stiff neck; try as he would, and after applying all the remedies externally that he could hear or think of, he was unable to get rid of it. The stiffness moved to the spine and shoulders, then to his hips, until it made almost a cripple of him, and it was with extreme difficulty that he could get out of bed at all. As for walking it was out of the question with him. The attack became so bad that he was unable to put on either his coat, vest or hat. From time to time he called in various medical men, none of whom were able to give him much relief. It was almost impossible for him to raise his feet from the floor, and all pronounced his a severe case of muscular rheumatism, giving him little encouragement as to his ultimate recovery. However, one medical gentleman finally recommended the baths, and a last resort Mr. Harris decided to follow his advice, and went to Mount Clemens, Mich. As is customary with all patients, Mr. Harris had to undergo a thorough examination in order to determine if the system could stand this rigorous treatment. After several examinations had been made as to Mr. Harris' condition, the physicians there finally decided that he was not suffering from muscular rheumatism at all, but that it is ailment was of the nerves, and told him that the baths would do him little or no good; that he required altogether different treatment. Mr. Harris placed himself in the hands of one of the physicians there, and what seemed quite strange to him, they did nothing for him but administered medicine in the shape of pills. Shortly after he commenced this treatment he began to improve perceptibly, and his appetite greatly improved. He began to walk around slowly at first, but soon was able to get around more than he could for a year previous. He was able to put on his coat and vest, and began to feel like his former self. His improvement was so rapid and perceptible not only to himself, but to others, that he was pined with all sorts of questions as to his wonderful recovery. The medical attendance was questioned as to the nature of the medicine which was being administered. Much to the surprise of Mr. Harris and other patients there, he was told that it was a well-known Canadian remedy, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and was advised to continue their use for a time on his return home. Mr. Harris is loud in his praise of the wonderful curative qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and consented to make his case public in the hope that he might benefit others similarly afflicted. Mr. Harris has long been a resident of Hamilton, as well as Government Inspector of the same, so that his prominence and well known integrity is evidence that he is sincere in the statements he made.

"First Aid" to the Bowels

WHEN Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Headache, Bad Breath, coated Tongue, Belching of Stomach, Gas, or any of these forerunners of Indigestion appear, Old Dr. Cascaret wants to be right on the spot in your pocket.

Dr. Cascaret guarantees to cure the most obstinate cases of Constipation and Indigestion, without discomfort or inconvenience.

His medicine does not gripe nor purge, but exercises naturally the muscles that line the walls of the Intestines and Bowels.

Want of Exercise weakens and relaxes the Bowel-Muscles, just as it weakens Arm and Leg muscles.

Old Dr. Cascaret goes directly after these Bowel-Muscles. He wakes them up just as a cold bath would wake up a lazy person.

Then he works them (through the nerves) till they get so strong from that Exercise that they don't need any more help to do their duty.

Heavy dinners, late suppers, whiskey, wine or beer drinking, nervous excitement, sudden exposure to cold or heat and a dozen other everyday likelihoods tire the Bowel-Muscles.

In such cases a little Cascaret in time is worth fifty dollars worth of Treatment later on, to say nothing of the suffering, discomfort, loss of Business Energy, and loss of Social Sunshine it saves.

Little thin Cascaret Box, shaped so you don't notice its presence in purse or vest-pocket.

Contains six Candy Tablets—Price Ten Cents a Box at any Druggist's.

Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped.

FROM THE CAPITAL

Handsome Subscription—Bisley Team—Sensational Charge Denied.

Ottawa, June 13.—Judge Taschereau has donated $1,000 towards the rebuilding of the burned church of the Sacred Heart. Mgr. Sbarretti, papal legate, who has returned to Ottawa from Rome, has sent a letter of sympathy to the parish priest on the deplorable fire.

The Chinaman, John Lee, who died at the hospital after a fracas with another Chinaman, was found to be in such delicate health that any blow or shock might have killed him. His assailant will probably be released. He was remanded at to-day's Police Court.

Earl Grey sent a message of condolence to the relatives of Thomas Macfarlane, late Dominion analyst, who was buried to-day. Sir Sandford Fleming, president of the British Empire League, also sent sympathy. The cortege contained many representative men and societies, as well as the Inland Revenue Department.

Sgt. W. A. Smith, G.G.F.G., Pte. J. S. Stevenson and Corporal R. L. Snowball of the 43rd Regiment, started for Bisley to-day. The team assemblies at Montreal to-morrow and leaves by special train for Quebec where it will board the Empress of Ireland for England.

An alderman, at a meeting of merchants, alleged that pedlars used the same carts for the sale of foodstuffs as that in which they collected garbage, in some cases from the isolation hospital. The city engineer admits the truth of this assertion. He says the courts decided that the city could not stop the garbage collection by any one, and the city is therefore powerless in the matter.

A local paper to-day editorially charged an officer in the Financial Department with selling an advance copy of the Insurance Commission report to an insurance man, Mr. H. T. Ross, assistant to the Deputy Minister of Finance, who was secretary of the Insurance Commission, gave emphatic denial to the statement. He stated that no copies had left his hands. It appears an officer, other than Mr. Ross, sold copies of the evidence of insurance managers and on this statement of the editor was built up.

Earl Grey played in a cricket match on the Ottawa Club grounds to-day between Rideau Hall staff and a civil service eleven. His Excellency scored 16, one a boundary, before he was caught out. The Governor-General's side won the single innings match by 41 runs. The Rideau Hall eleven scored 153 and the civil service 102.

CALL OF NEW ZEALAND.

Attractions That Allure the Immigrant to That Far-Off Land.

Quite apart from the prospects held out to the emigrant so far as monetary advantages are concerned, the character of New Zealand's Government, its broad-minded and liberal social enactments, says a writer in T. P.'s Weekly, has won the admiration and envy of thousands of thinking young Englishmen in the old country. There is some chance for a fellow with brains and enthusiasm to make a mark in a rising country with something under 1,000,000 inhabitants; where adult suffrage, male and female, is the rule; where locally-elected licensing benches deal with the liquor traffic; where members of the House of Representatives are paid for their services, and where old age pensions have become an established fact. These are some of the attractive features of New Zealand life to the up-to-date young man who desires to emigrate. The knowledge that the State recognizes its duty to the citizen from his early days to hoary old age, offers him advice as to the choice of a career, sends consulting scientists to deal with problems in his crops, supplies a State veterinary surgeon to keep his flocks in good health, and owns and controls over which he by which he travels and over which he sends his produce to market or to ports of embarkation—all this helps him to come to a decision, and exercises a magnetic influence towards the New Zealand islands.

Correspondence

To the Editor of the Chronicle:

Sir,—I hear it mooted that it is proposed to give a dinner to the Admiral and officers of the squadron. This, I must say, is most unjust to the ladies and I feel sure our future Nelson's and Drake's would be far more pleased if whatever is done the ladies should have a hand in it.

Emerson says:—"A beautiful woman is a practical poem, fanning her savage mate, planting tenderness hope, eloquence, in all whom she approaches."

I. G. Holland says:—"A young man rarely gets a better vision of himself than that which is reflected from a true woman's eyes."

Thirdly, Dryden says:—"As for the woman, though we scorn and flout 'em. We may live, but cannot live without 'em."

Dinners are all very well in their way but ladies do not care for them, and I feel sure the Admiral and officers would agree with "Bryon," who says:

"There is something to me very softening in the presence of woman; some strange influence, even if one is not in tune with them; I always feel in better humour with myself and everything else if there is a woman within ken."

A ball by all means in preference to a dinner. Admiral and officers showing the way.

Yours truly,

S. S. C. H.

"ARE THOSE STRANGE YARNS REALLY TRUE?"

This Was a Question Put to a
Toronto Business Firm
Yesterday.

"I have been reading the newspapers lately and I have come in from Vaughan township, over twenty miles, to see if those strange yarns about 'A Deliberate Case of Grave-robbing' and 'Literally Dragged from the Grave' are facts or fiction," was the way an intelligent Vaughan farmer introduced himself at the office of Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, yesterday. He stated that his wife was given up by a number of doctors as being in the advanced stages of consumption caused by a neglected cold. He was invited into the office and perused most earnestly hundreds of letters from grateful people who had been cured of just such troubles by Psychine. At the end of an hour he said, "I take back the word 'yarns.' All you have published and much more is true. You have not given the public half of the truth. I feel like a new man. I see there is hope for my wife, and I am convinced that Psychine will be her salvation." Her troubles all arose from a summer cold—the worst of all colds. Here is one of the letters he read:

"I cannot refrain from telling all who suffer of my remarkable recovery through Psychine. In May, 1892, I caught a heavy cold, which settled on my lungs, and gradually led to consumption. I could not sleep; was subject to night sweats. My lungs were so diseased my doctors considered me incurable. Rev. Mr. Mahaffy, Port Elgin Presbyterian Church, recommended Dr. Slocum's Psychine to me when I was living in Ontario. After using Psychine for a short time I ate and slept well, the night sweats and cough ceased.

Months ago I stopped taking Psychine, as I was perfectly restored to health, and to-day I never felt better in my life. Psychine has been a God-send to me.

MRS. ANDREW CAMPBELL,
Cottonwood, N.W.T.

Spring and summer coughs and colds, catarrh, bronchitis, chills, night sweats, rundown conditions, summer debility and all throat, lung and stomach troubles yield quickly to Psychine. To be had at all druggists at 50 cents and $1. There is hope in this remedy and almost a certain cure for all sufferers from any of these troubles.

CARDS BEFORE DEATH.

Crew of Sinking Ship Played on Upper Deck.

After drifting about in mid-Atlantic for a week with her deck awash, and her crew suffering severe privations, the oil tank steamer Lucifer, 2,473 tons, belonging to the Bear Creek Oil and Shipping Company, Liverpool, sank. Her crew of thirty-three all told, and three cats, were saved, and have been landed at Falmouth. The Lucifer left New York for Dublin on April 5, and four days afterwards it was discovered that there was a leak under the stokehold. Steam pumps were set to work, and coped with the inflow, and Captain Wilson was confident that his men could discover the leak and stop it. On April 12 an American liner was sighted, and Captain Wilson signalled asking his condition to be reported, but declining assistance. That night he had reason to lament his independence, for a heavy gale came on, the leak increased, filling stokehold and engine room, putting out fires, and rendering the vessel helpless. Fortunately the steam pumps were kept going by means of a donkey boiler on deck, but the water gained so rapidly that the crew had to assist by bailing out with buckets. Over eight hundred tons of oil were pumped into the sea, and by this means the Lucifer was lightened, though seas swept her deck and the plight of the crew was pitiable in the extreme. Signals of distress were flown by day, and flares burnt by night, and two vessels passed without apparently noticing the signals.

All the boats were made ready for launching and provisioned for twelve days, but as the mountainous seas continued Capt. Wilson realized that it would be imprudent to launch the boats except at the last extremity. While the vessel was being buffeted about two steamers hove in sight. Rockets were fired, but both steamed away without attempting to offer assistance. On the night of April 16, seven days after leaving New York, sprung a leak, the steamer Sagami made her welcome appearance. The seas were still too boisterous to attempt a rescue that night, and Capt. Wilson signalled that he thought he could keep his vessel afloat till daybreak if the Sagami would stand by. This the captain of the Sagami consented to do, and at daybreak called for volunteers to go to the rescue of the distressed crew. Three officers, Wallace and five seamen responded. That a boat would live in such a sea was doubted, but the gallant fellows never hesitated, and those on board the Lucifer, anxiously watching their would-be rescuers, were momentarily dismayed as they lost sight of the boat.

But it came up again on the crest of a wave. The work of getting alongside was hazardous, for it was feared that the little craft would be smashed against the partly awakened steamer, over whose decks were sweeping. A boatload of the Lucifer's crew was safely transferred to the Sagami, and a second trip was made, again successfully, amid the cheers of their shipmates. One of the Lucifer's lifeboats took off the remainder of the distressed crew. Their officer, Wallace, and five seamen responded. That a boat would live in such a sea was doubted, but the gallant fellows never hesitated, and those on board the Lucifer, anxiously watching their would-be rescuers, were momentarily dismayed as they lost sight of the boat.

THE PRECIOUS STONES OF AUSTRALIA.

Rough diamonds have been found lately in Queensland, one purchased weighing four and one-half carats, while many others weighing from one to five carats have been sold. Diamonds so far found in the State have not been of sufficient value to cause excitement, and this, together with the fact that European and American gem merchants have adjudged them as inferior quality, has discouraged exploration. Sapphires have been found in various places, many of the yellow and green being equal to any produced elsewhere. Recently $1,250 was refused for a rough yellow sapphire, and a large blue one, with a yellow centre, weighing two and one-half ounces, brought $2,500. The true rubies have been found of good color, but are small. Hyacinth zircons weighing twenty-four carats are well known. Zircons, sapphires, topaz, tourmaline and other gems may be picked out of ballast along the railway lines. Olivine is fairly common. The pearl is the best known of Australian gems, and for many years thousands of dollars' worth have been secured in Queensland. The oyster fisheries of Thursday Island have been the chief source of supply, but pearls are found all along the Queensland coast. The opal is pre-eminently the Queensland gem, and is found over the entire western district of the State, the total output amounting to more than $1,250,000. The moonstone, emerald, agate, amethyst, asteriated, aventurine, baccarat (lydian), bloodstone or heliotrope, carnelian, cat's eyes, chalcodony chrysoprase, citrine, hyaline, jasper, moss agate, morion onyx, plasma, prase, rock crystal, sodalite, turquoise, and sardonyx and water bubble complete the list.

SOME TEMPERATURE.

The Quaker's habit of calm sometimes deceives onlookers as to his real feelings. There was an occasion on which Mrs. Abigail Gray's peaceful countenance aroused resentment in the heart of her niece, one of the "world's people."

"I don't see how you could sit there, Aunt Abigail, and hear that man talk and never look as if you cared," she said tearfully, referring to a late interview with an unprincipled shopkeeper. "There I was boiling, and not even so much as one of your ruffles stirred."

If it had been seen far enough below the ruffled ruffles," replied Mrs. Gray, sedately, "they would have without steam, my child."

As in Berlin and Vienna, a law has been passed forbidding the wearing of long skirts in the streets of Prague. THERE WERE TWO CHARACTERS. There is a story about a company promoter who advertised for an office boy. He received 100 replies. Out of the 100 he selected ten, and with the writers of these ten replies he had a personal interview. His final choice fell upon a bright youth, to whom he said: "My boy, I like your appearance and your manner very much. I think you may do. Did you bring a character?"

"No, sir," said the boy. "I can go home and get it."

"Very well, come back to-morrow morning with it, and if it is satisfactory I dare say I shall engage you." Late that same afternoon the financier was surprised by the return of the candidate.

"Well," he said cheerily, "have you got your character?" "No," answered the boy, "but I've got yours—an I ain't coming."—San Francisco Argonaut.

LIVE TO GET DRUNK.

Queer Tribe of Savages Recently Discovered in Africa.

Some explorers, who have just returned from Africa, report the discovery of a curious tribe, the chief object of whose existence seems to be to get gloriously drunk.

They have mastered the art without any assistance from the white man. From millet they brew great quantities of a peculiarly potent beer. Not being subject to any tax, it is so cheap that the poorest native can afford to get drunk on it. It is fully equal to whiskey in promoting that heliolic condition, which in America is known as "spoiling for a fight."

In the report made to the Government, Lieut. George relates how, with an escort, he arrived at one of the native villages during a particularly happy period of general inebriety. He had much trouble in securing huts for himself and his men, because it was considered contrary to native etiquette to interrupt a spree in order to attend to anything in the nature of business.

Later in the day the chief called upon the lieutenant, and proposed, by way of appropriately winding up the festivities and amusing his guests, that his men should fight the soldiers. The lieutenant explained to him that they did not regard fighting as fun. That seemed to astonish the chief. However, he hospitably deferred to his guest's feelings in the matter. But a fight he was bound to have and promptly made arrangements for one among his own people. In less than a quarter of an hour a score of the dusky combatants were killed. The chief himself was among the first to fall.

ASSERTS SOUL IS MATERIAL.

IT CAN BE WEIGHED.

A Boston man says the Soul can be weighed. He knows this because he has tested a lot of cases before and after death.

The weight this investigator gives for an average human soul is two ounces.

This is the sort of fool science that some men give us. It is more to the point to tell us how to maintain a healthy body—how to get well if sick, and how to be able to do good work and keep everlastingly at it.

Poor health is the result of poor blood. If you let your blood get pale and thin, then all the organs of the body are sure to get weak.

Ferrozone is the remedy. Ferrozone is the quickest, surest body and blood builder; thousands have been restored from failing health or complete nervous prostration by Ferrozone, which builds up tired nerves and helps you to get sound, refreshing sleep every night.

Ferrozone gives an appetite as sharp as a razor—There is lots of pleasure eating when you take Ferrozone. Ready color comes back to your pale cheeks and plenty of strength with it, because Ferrozone is the greatest body builder ever discovered.

For a tonic to lift tiredness, weakness and ill health, you can't find the equal of Ferrozone. Get a 50c. box from any dealer and see if this is not so.

STEEL PAVEMENT IN PARIS.

It Is Expected to Give a Good Surface For Horses and to be Very Durable.

Paris is experimenting with the latest thing in pavement. They call it steel pavement, but it is really a concrete pavement reinforced with a steel framework. The trial section of it has been laid on the Rue Saint-Martin, in front of the Conservatoire of Arts and Industries.

The metal part of the pavement is a plate of perforated steel with strong bolts of steel running through it between the perforations. Each section has some resemblance to a steel barrow, only the prongs project equally on each side and they are square and blunt.

The plates are arranged close together on a bed of rough concrete such as is used for wood block pavement. Then a specially prepared cement is shovelled upon them in a soft condition and rammed down until it makes a solid mass with the steel framework just levelled off evenly with the upper tips of the prongs.

The steel prongs are so close together that the shoe of every horse and every wheel of any width must rest in part of them and in part on the cement. It is expected in this way to secure a highly durable, but distinctly uneven surface, one on which horses will have sure footing in all weathers and on which they can secure the necessary purchase to pull heavy loads.

It will be superior to asphalt in ultimate economy and to wood, both in the better footing that it affords to horses and in the fact that it will not admit of dangerous ruts developing. The sample laid cost $5.40 a square metre, little more than a square yard, but when the work is done on a large scale, it is believed the price can be cut to about $3.50. The life of such a pavement without serious repairs is estimated at ten years as a minimum.

NOT FOR HIM.

(Washington Post.)

Dr. Seward Webb, at a dinner, said of a certain poor marksman:—"Visiting his English brother-in-law, he shot the head keeper in the leg the first morning he tried pheasant shooting. The man limped away, cursing horribly. Next day he had wretched luck, though the wounded head keeper without malice had assigned him to a fairly good place. Bang, bang, bang, went his gun every few seconds, but not a bird fell before it. He was much embarrassed. It seemed, too, that at each of his misses the under keepers smiled at one another oddly. Finally his cartridges gave out. He hurried to the nearest keeper and demanded more. 'There isn't no more, sir,' the man answered. 'No more. Nonsense. Why, you've got at least 1,000 in that box.' The keeper flushed and stammered. 'Ah, but them ain't for you, sir. They're for another gent. They've got shot in 'em, sir.'"

INGENIOUS MACHINES FOR TIPPING COLLARS

Another Ingenious Laundry Appliance which adds to Man's Comfort.

There is one particular style of collar that will always be popular with well dressed men, the wing point. This collar has always been a difficult style to launder just right. Laundries not equipped with modern appliances used to try to get out these collars, but the result was anything but satisfactory. The tips would not point just right and the wearer would feel as if he was dressed to act the part of a clown in the circus, with one tip of the collar pointing dejectedly to mother earth and the other describing an angle as if trying to locate an extinct star. The edge would have a temper like a cross cut saw and the result on the hapless wearer's neck after a day's wear would look as if he had been obliged to resort to an amateur barber college shave. We have recently installed a machine that shapes perfectly all wing point collars and the same are first moistened where the fold comes, then put through this machine, which is heated at the right temperature, and when the collar is pressed in the same result is a beautiful work of art and a joy to the wearer.

Just loosen the cotter pin (see the top arrow pointing at it) and the grates on the right can be lifted out. Repeat the operation on the left, and you can do the same with the remaining grates.

Could any operation be easier or simpler?

What's left in the ash-pan is not worth sifting.

THE MACKENZIE VALLEY.

Icelandic Traveller Describes Our Great Northland.

The classic "American Desert" has faded from the color scheme of our maps, but the Arctic desert of Canada (in the minds of all but the geographical Four Hundred) still stretches white and frost-bitten well south towards the forty-ninth parallel. In 1890 it was believed even by some of the inhabitants of Dakota that the "frost years" would return and wheat raising there would always be precarious. Since then Red River wheat has become as recognized as Iowa corn; later, Manitoba began to take a few medals away from North Dakota at the exhibitions, and a few plums in the world market; now it seems Manitoba will have to fight stiffly for her laurels with Southern Alberta, and some say the Peace River Valley will make it a three-cornered fight.

It seems the star of agricultural empire has deviated from its course and is headed northwest, and even perhaps a little towards north-northwest. Wheat raising in the Peace country is already demonstrated as not only possible but safer than Dakota was in the eighties. With the development of the Grand Trunk Pacific, which cuts the valley on its way from Edmonton to the Yellowhead Pass and the Pacific, this will become the best source of wheat supply for Japan and the eastern countries of the Asiatic continent.

The very fact that the enormous Mackenzie basin produced fur well in proportion to its extent has led to the assumption that it could produce nothing else. The fur bundles have brought with them tar stains and the smell of tar, for the banks of the Athabasca are black and oozing with the stuff for miles; native coal has always been used at the company's posts for blacksmithing purposes, and the Yellow Knife Indians of Slave Lake were so named because they used copper knives—for all these reasons it has long been known there was mineral wealth in the north. But it is only recently people came to realize that the coldest winter days on Lake Athabasca could be duplicated easily in Manitoba and North Dakota, and it was the Catholic Mission that first showed that garden produce could be successfully grown in the north country. In the old days potatoes were not grown even at Fort Garry, where Winnipeg now stands; the missions have pushed their cultivation to Fort Good Hope on the Mackenzie, 14 miles south of the Arctic Circle.

But Good Hope is only 1,670 miles from Edmonton, mostly north, though a little west. Crossing the zone of possible cultivation one has to travel almost as many miles as he covers in going from New York to Chicago and back again—and in none of this strip would the conditions of life be harder than they are in the long-settled parts of the prairie. There is an abundance of game in the forests and on the prairies, though the game would, of course, not long survive settlement. Along the entire course of the Athabasca and Slave rivers the soil ranges from good to fair; in the Peace Valley and to the west the conditions are said to be better; towards the Rockies from Slave Lake the conditions are not so well known.

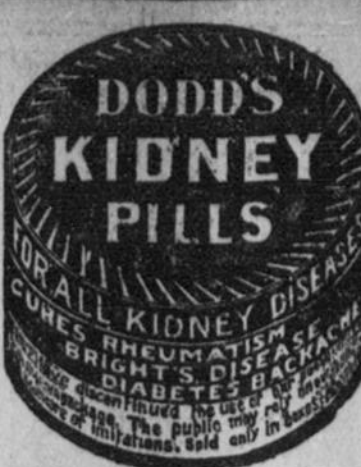

But granting that the northern half of this belt of land is doubtful and that the country east of the Athabasca and Slave Rivers is of uncertain value, there is still left between these rivers and the mountains to the west a tract that would contain several times over, whose qualities of climate and soil make it a country of definite promise. At every post and settlement at which we have touched on the way down the gardens have been in a flourishing condition, and only some three weeks behind gardens of a similar sort in New England. Spring is later here, and fall earlier, than one is accustomed to in the North Atlantic States, but the long days with sunshine for twenty out of the twenty-four hours, forces vegetable growth with a tropical rapidity, so that by the middle of August the stage of growth is as far advanced here as in Massachusetts. Strawberries ripen as early as June 10 at Fort McMurray.

North from Peace River and about parallel with the north flowing rivers, is a strip of prairie land averaging some forty miles in width, and extending all the way to Great Slave Lake. On either side of this are timber lands with logs of commercial value, were there an attainable market. There is some pine and tamarack, while the supply of good-sized spruce is practically limitless. The grazing lands of the prairie are said by the stockmen, who are beginning to occupy it, to be as good as any they have ever seen.

The extent and importance of the rivers of this country are realized by few. The Peace is fairly comparable to the Mississippi and the Mackenzie to the Missouri, while the Liard is larger than any other branch of the Father of Waters. The only "bad" river among these is the Athabasca, which has numerous rapids, and still there are two steamers on it already, and a third building. The Peace is navigable into the very Rockies, for the line new steamer Peace River, belonging to the Hudson's Bay Co., runs this summer as far up as Hudson's Hope, 56 degrees N., 101, 122 degrees W. (approximately). On the lower Peace there is one three-mile series of rapids around which the company has a tramway connecting with their steamer Grathame, which plies thence down the Peace and Slave to Smith's Landing, and then up the Slave-Athabasca to 66 degrees 30 minutes N., 111 degrees 30 minutes W. Below Port Smith (16 miles north from Smith's Landing) the steamer Wrigley plies all the way to the delta of the Mackenzie, a distance of 1,300 miles, not counting several hundred miles of side trips on Great Slave Lake. Travelling from Edmonton to the Arctic by river is now as safe, simple and (almost) as comfortable as a river trip from St. Louis to New Orleans—if one travels under the auspices of the great company which even now "owns" the North almost as completely as they did while they governed it under the charter of 1870.

Even a short and ordinary trip usually impresses the traveller with the general impression of his previous ideas of the place or country he visits; there would be something uneasy about the range of knowledge of a man to whom a trip down the Mackenzie system would not be a revelation of his former colossal ignorance and absurd misconceptions. And if he be a Canadian it is not easy to see how he could forbear such dreams as the early American travellers may have fallen into while crossing the broad stretches of the Louisiana Purchase. There is unlimited fuel in the forests and much besides in the jets of natural gas that burn summer and winter along the Athabasca and the coal mines that have smouldered and smoked since the days of Mackenzie along the river he first explored. The farmers who have been living since 1877 on the west shore of Lake Winnipeg have contended there with a poorer forest yet fully as difficult to clear, and with less soil beneath, with swamps as full of bullfrogs, black flies and mosquitoes as any here; and with as cold a winter. The prairie country of the north will be settled in a few years, and the entire course of the rivers to Slave Lake before many decades.—From a letter to The Boston Transcript by Villymure Stephenson, of Harvard, dated Fort Smith, Slave River.

"PLUG" TOBACCO.

An Old Farmer's Story of How the Name Originated.

In the jury room at the court house a few days ago an old time farmer said as he took a chew of tobacco: "All the difference in the world in tobacco. I've tried twenty different kinds, and none is as good as that we used to make ourselves down 'on the farm.' We would take a maple log while 'twas green and bore a dozen holes in it with a two inch auger. They were our molds. We selected our choicest tobacco and soaked it for a week or more in wild honey. Then we'd take the log to the log, get a good hickory tamping stick and go to work.

"A little ball of the honey soaked tobacco would be put in the auger hole and tamped in with the stick and a hammer. We'd pound it in solid. Ball after ball would be tamped in and pounded until the whole became a solid plug. When the hole was nearly full, we would pound in the plug, and then the log would be put away to season. As the wood dried the moisture would be drawn from the tobacco. And when it was split the sweetest tobacco ever made was taken from it. We called it 'plug' tobacco, and that's where the name originated."

PIC-NIC PARTY HELD UP.

Accused of Being Spies and Confined in a Cave.

A remarkable incident occurred in Basutoland recently. A picnic party decided to make a trip into the Basutoland country, which they entered by a pass known as the Uali Ingubo on the Natal frontier, and encamped for the night in a cave in the Drakensberg. Proceeding on their journey the following day they asked a native to direct them to a cave in which they could take their mid-day meal. The Basuto appears to have given information of their presence, for towards evening the party was intercepted by a number of natives. The old man who appeared to be in charge carried a gun. The Europeans were then arrested, accused of being "white men's spies," and taken to a place which had the appearance of a mountain stronghold beneath an overhanging cliff. Here the visitors' horses were turned astray, and the headman, telling them that they would not be allowed to re-enter Natal, signified that they would have to continue without their horses and would have to carry their supplies. After a night spent under surveillance in a cave, the Basutos maintaining a close watch upon their captives, the party made their escape by means of a stratagem, in which they were assisted by their Basuto guides, who helped them to capture the horses and led them back to the pass to which they had entered. After a furious ride in the darkness, the precipitous nature of the country leading to several exciting adventures, the party reached the Natal side early the morning after their escape, thoroughly spent and unweary.

EVER HEAR OF SINN FEIN?

Is Making Trouble for British Commercial Travellers—Policy of Ireland for the Irish—Want no Dealings With the English.

A systematic boycott of foreign goods has been organized in Ireland, and as the term "foreign" includes goods of English origin, manufacturers in England are concerned seriously with the active operation of the "Sinn Fein" policy.

"Sinn Fein" means "ourselves alone" and the policy consists in part of Irish men supporting and using only Irish manufactures. A commercial traveller who represents a well-known firm in London writes as follows to The London Daily Express, giving his experience of the boycott: "I have just returned from a periodical business visit to Belfast, Dublin, and other parts of Ireland. My experience, after several years of good business, has been strangely unfortunate. My best friends were unable to pass me any orders, and in place of making a good book of over £1,500 my total orders did not amount to £50. "On asking why my firm, whose goods had always pleased, was evidently being boycotted. I was taken aside and informed that buyers had been told by their principals not to purchase 'foreign' manufactured articles, as the Irish League had issued an edict that their policy of Ireland for the Irish must be borne in mind, and so far as possible, only the home-made article would be supported.

"As I am not an Irishman, and had not an Irish article to sell, I was sent away orderless, my customer not desiring to stock my goods, which in a sense had been blacklisted.

"I did not fail to point out the question of retaliation, and that the many well-known Irish-branded articles which have an enormous sale outside the Emerald Isle would suffer should this trade boycott of English goods be continued. In reply I was told that the Irish League was too strong to be disobeyed, and this from a manufacturer who admitted that two-thirds of his own large output was sold in the London market.

"As a result of my experience my firm have just announced the withdrawal of a yearly contract for a substantial sum from a well-known Dublin house."

In connection with the boycott, The Express Dublin correspondent telegraphs as follows:

Although Dublin shopkeepers are, as a rule, reticent, sufficient has leaked out to the general public to show that the sale of English manufactured goods in Ireland is seriously handicapped owing to the operation of the Sinn Fein policy.

The industries which will be most seriously hit if this propaganda takes deep root are drapery of various kinds, line, matches and tobacco. The policy is being promoted quietly and unostentatiously, but is proving none the less effective.

Already many shopkeepers in the city and in the country towns and villages are growing quite afraid to stock English-made articles lest they should be pilloried by the Sinn Feiners or held up to odium as supporters of England.

New Gold Camp Northern Ontario.

THOMAS MACAMUS, President.
Vice-Pres. of the Temiskaming and Hudson Bay Mining Co., and President of The Temiskaming Telephone Co.

FRANK WESLEY HAYNES, Vice-Pres.
Director of The New Lakehead and Northern Ontario Mining Co.

We earnestly recommend that you purchase the Lucky Boys Gold Mines stock at 6 cents per share. This advice means riches to you. The time is not far distant when Lucky Boys will be paying large and continuous dividends. By buying new at a price you can afford to pay you will be a participant in these assured profits.

As we have heretofore stated in our circular letters and advertisements, we are willing to stake our standing and reputation on the present conditions and the future outcome of the Lucky Boys district and as to its possibilities. We believe it will be the most wonderful gold field that the world has produced. When we make these assertions it is after we have made most searching and thorough investigations. We do not believe that a financial house who has every facility at its command, having a number of experienced mining men in the field, and reliable and trustworthy mining engineers, could go to more pains regarding the actual worth of a gold camp than we have done. We have been most cautious and we are very particular as to what we recommend for investment. We have built up a big business and the investors who place confidence in us and follow our advice number many thousands. We guard the interests of our investors just as closely and with as much care as we do our individual investments. This is the reputation we have attained among the investing public. We have gone to great expense in ascertaining the true merits and real conditions of the Lucky Boys properties. In order to satisfy ourselves beyond question we despatched various crews of men to make examinations. They were supplied with all the necessities, such as hand drills, dynamite and camp outfits.

6c PER SHARE

(Par Value $1.00, Fully Paid and Non-Assessable.)

If you will compare the price, 6c per share, and the organization and incorporation of the Lucky Boys against any of the other companies, you cannot but realize the great percentage there is in favor of your investing your money in this stock in preference to any other.

We say to our clients follow our advice in the purchase of shares of the Lucky Boys, rely upon our reputation and standing as being reliable and trustworthy. Follow our advice and you will make profits that will astonish you.

Law and Co. have experts and engineers who are rated among the best engaged in examining and reporting on properties. Only those properties which have every indication of richness are handled by us; all the others are turned down as too risky. Our engineers and experts are in the field at a great expense, and it would not pay us to simply make a report on and sell the stock in any worthless company.

We are looking far into the future, and we thoroughly realize that the only way to hold our customers and keep them interested is for them to invest their money in stocks that have merit and that are sure winners.

THE MAN OR WOMAN WHO INVESTS THEIR MONEY THROUGH US CAN SIT DOWN AT THEIR HOMES AND FULLY REALIZE THAT WHATEVER FUNDS THEY HAVE INVESTED HAVE BEEN WELL PLACED.

You can absolutely depend that the officers and directors of the Lucky Boys will expend the money received from the sale of Treasury stock in the development of the property. We wish to call your attention to the fact that 1,000,000 shares of the stock of this company are for the absolute use and benefit of the Treasury.

RUMOR IS DENIED

Col. Ashmead Knows of No Trouble or Resignation in Q.O.C.H.

An emphatic denial is given by Lieut.-Colonel Ashmead to the rumor that there is any trouble in the Queen's Own Canadian Hussars, or that any resignations of officers have been sent in.

A sensational report was launched yesterday to the effect that Lieut.-Colonel A. F. Ashmead, in command of the 10th Queen's Own Canadian Hussars; Dr. J. D. Duchene, veterinary surgeon, and some of the other officers of that popular regiment were to retire shortly.

Lieut.-Colonel Ashmead, who is at present in Montreal, was reached by the Chronicle by telegraph last night, and he authorized an emphatic contradiction to the report. Any statement to the effect that there was trouble in the Cavalry and that any resignations had been sent in was entirely incorrect and quite unknown to him.

MASTERING A TIGER.

"In a cage near the room in which I lived while in Khiva," says Mr. Langdon Warner in The Century Magazine, "was a tiger from the Oxus swamps. He had taken a dislike to me and every time I passed his cage he got up and paced angrily towards me, snarling. Into the cage of this beast, at the command of the prince, a Turkoman stepped, armed with a short thick stick as big round as his wrist. With this stick he struck the tiger's nose as he made for him, and then, with palm out and eyes fixed he walked slowly up to the snarling beast, and stroked his face and flank. The tiger took the man's hand in his open mouth. Keeping that hand pressed still, with the other the Turkoman tickled the tiger's jaw and scratched his ear till, with a yawn and a pleased snarl, the big cat rolled over on his back. The man then sank to his knees, always keeping his hands in motion over the glossy fur, and with his foot drew towards him a collar attached to a chain. This he snapped round the beast's neck, and rising to his feet, laid hold of the chain and dragged the tiger out. This was only the second time that the cage had been entered. As soon as the tiger was outside he espied the watchful party of photographers and started for them, but came up short on the collar. If he had chosen to use his weight and strength no four of them could have held him. But, as it was, the Turkoman found little difficulty with him, and held him, snarling, until the camera finished its work."

THE BISLEY TEAM

The Bisley team were passengers by the C.P.R. Empress of Ireland of Ireland, which left port yesterday afternoon. Among the crack shots who will represent the Dominion at the Empire's great rifle meeting will be Sergt. W. Creagan, of the R.C.G.A., who joined the party here.

A number of local rifle shots were at the dock to see the team off, including a delegation of the Quebec City Rifle Association, consisting of Messrs. W. J. B. Fraser, P. S. Coolican, A. Hay and Band-Sgt. W. Pugh, of the R.C.G.A., who presented Sergt. Creagan, on behalf of the Association with a purse of gold.

Much regret was expressed at the inability of Band-Sgt. Pugh to take part in the trip. Sergt. Pugh was eligible for the team, but arrangements could not be made to allow him to get away. Had he been able to do so, the Ancient Capital would have had the distinction of having two men on the Bisley team this year.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. What a relief to the mother who finds it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can be taken in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress, low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disordered pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of the "Favorite Prescription," and sends postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

The Bisley team were passengers by the C.P.R. Empress of Ireland of Ireland, which left port yesterday afternoon. Among the crack shots who will represent the Dominion at the Empire's great rifle meeting will be Sergt. W. Creagan, of the R.C.G.A., who joined the party here.

A number of local rifle shots were at the dock to see the team off, including a delegation of the Quebec City Rifle Association, consisting of Messrs. W. J. B. Fraser, P. S. Coolican, A. Hay and Band-Sgt. W. Pugh, of the R.C.G.A., who presented Sergt. Creagan, on behalf of the Association with a purse of gold.

Much regret was expressed at the inability of Band-Sgt. Pugh to take part in the trip. Sergt. Pugh was eligible for the team, but arrangements could not be made to allow him to get away. Had he been able to do so, the Ancient Capital would have had the distinction of having two men on the Bisley team this year.

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, with its low percentage of alcohol, is not only appetizing but an active aid to digestion, a strengthening refreshment between meals.

DAY BY DAY.

This quick jump from winter into summer is—oh, well, what's the use? We weren't satisfied before either.

The weather conditions have no effect upon the rumor crop—it's always plentiful.

The would-be bride (and groom) should realize that June is fleeting—with great fleetness.

That Orchard which has been on exhibition recently in Boise, Idaho, is a very poor specimen of the Canadian product.

Bush fires appear to be beginning to "smoke up."

Strike while the summer is hot, if you will, but remember that the winter days are cold and long.

Jack ashore appears to be just as good a boy as Jack afloat with the present cruiser squadron.

A bachelor is a man who loves all women wisely, and none of them too well.

A man has to have a mighty lot of sense to be able to show that he has it.

Religion is the quality that a man takes out for exercise every Sunday.

Regret is the feeling you have when you fully realize that foresight missed its train.

A man's conscience never catches him at first, unless some one else has first.

The heir to a vast estate never has any trouble in finding out who his relatives are.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. What a relief to the mother who finds it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can be taken in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress, low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disordered pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of the "Favorite Prescription," and sends postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.
