THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

OTTAWA, October 20.—It having been rumored that the Governor-General was suffering from a severe attack of congestion of the lungs, Colonel De Winton says:—"It is impossible to say where the rumor originated, but probably from the fact that His Excellency has been suffering for the last two days from a heavy cold. There is nothing, however, to prevent him from leaving Ottawa for Quebec, all arrangements having been made."

THE GUITEAU CASE.

Mr. Scoville's Appeal to the Public—Guiteau Arrogant and Unreasonable.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Scoville furnishes the following to the public:—"The trial of Guiteau is fixed for November 7. The short time allowed makes this appeal to the public necessary. He attempted to lecture on religious subjects through several Northern States. It is believed there are many people in that connection who can, if they will, furnish evidence of his insanity. Will they not do so in the interests of patriotism, justice, humanity and mercy?—Patriotism, because, if he is hung as a sane man, it will be an eternal blot on our history; justice, so that it may not be said hereafter that he, being denied by Heaven of the guidance of reason, was put to death contrary to all law, human and divine; humanity and mercy that should prompt laying aside passion and dealing with this case in Christian charity. If any person knows of facts bearing on the case, will he not furnish me information? None will be called to testify unless it seems to be important to a just defence and fair trial."

NEW YORK, October 19.—The Washington Post says Scoville (Guiteau's counsel), is becoming discouraged. He saw Guiteau this morning and found him arrogant and unreasonable. Scoville thought he might be himself discharged from the case. Guiteau says he thinks there will be no difficulty in getting an acquittal, if time can be had sufficient to allow people to calm down and take a dispassionate view of the facts.

WASHINGTON, October 19.—Scoville to-morrow will ask the court to assign counsel to assist in defence of Guiteau. He will also file argument for allowance of witness fees.

TROUBLED IRELAND.

The Land League Proclaimed—Consternation Among the Leaguers—Opening of the Law Court—Archbishop Croke on the Manifesto—Mitchell Henry's Advice.

DUBLIN, October 20.—The Land League has been proclaimed as an illegal and criminal organization, and all its meetings will be dispersed by force. The proclamation warns all persons that the Irish National Land League, or by what other name it may be called, is an unlawful and criminal association, and all meetings to carry out or promote its designs or purposes are unlawful and criminal, and will be prevented and dispersed by force. The proclamation warns the Queen's subjects connected with the League to disconnect themselves from it, and abstain from giving further countenance to it. All powers and resources at the Government's command will be employed to protect the Queen's subjects in the free exercise of their lawful callings and occupations, to enforce the fulfilment of all lawful obligations, and save the process of law and execution of the Queen's writ from hindrance or obstruction. It calls upon all loyal subjects to uphold and maintain the authority of the law and the supremacy of the Queen in Ireland. The proclamation was issued by Earl Cowper, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

The League's officials were seized with a panic when the proclamation became known. It is believed the Government intend to make arrests of members of the League in England. Another despatch says it is all over with the Leaguers. The greatest consternation prevails amongst those associated with the League. It is now stated that the business of the League will be transferred to Boulogne, France, when it is no longer possible to conduct it in Dublin.

When news reached the Land League's office of the Government's proclamation, a hurried council was held, the books and documents were secured, and letters from the country destroyed. Many books and papers were carted to a place of safety, the lights extinguished and doors locked. The executive officials decamped, fearing arrest, leaving only a stack of notepaper and envelopes.

Biggar says the future action of the league must be determined by experience. He predicts that the Government will be beaten in the struggle. Biggar has started for England to confer with Healy. The League mailed copies of its manifesto and placards containing only the words "No rent" to every Land League branch. It is thought that the next important step of the Government will be the seizing of the paper United Ireland. It is said the next number will exceed all previous numbers in defiance and bitterness.

DUBLIN, October 20.—The Land Court opened to-day. There was a large attendance. Lord Justice O'Hagan said the Court had decided on extremely simple rules of procedure. The fee for entering the Court would be only one shilling, so nobody could have an excuse for not taking advantage of the Land Act. There will be a similar fee on giving notice of appeal. Many tenants, he said, had already applied to have rents fixed, but no decision could be given before ten days. The Commissioners would do their best to make the Act a success. The Judge's statement was received with applause. It is understood that the Land Commission has received notification of 350 cases, principally from Ulster and Connaught. The Commission intends at present to merely hear applications. A sub-Commission will then be sent to various districts to take evidence.

Archbishop Croke says: "I read the manifesto with the utmost pain, indeed, with absolute dismay; against the committal of the people of Ireland, even under still more exciting circumstances to such doctrine I enter a solemn protest. I have been a stedfast uncompromising supporter of the public policy of the League, believing it constitutional and calculated to effect great national results, but I always unequivocally stated I stand out for fair rents as a safe foothold of agriculturalists on the soil. Absolute repudiation of rent would meet no sympathy from me. There is no more reason now for abandoning the original platform of the League than there was when Davitt was sent to Portland and Dillon first imprisoned. Its original policy was righteous, and tested by experience the results welded clergy and laymen in one loving brotherhood. I believe a new policy can lead to nothing but disintegration and defeat."

Archbishop Croke's letter is the deadliest blow which could be struck at the League at the present moment. It will do more to turn the edge of the League's words than the Government could do in a month. It changes the face of affairs completely. The majority of the priests, who have followed him throughout, will continue to follow him, and will make every farmer pause before entering upon this life and death struggle. He will turn to the Land Commission, which is now in session. If the decisions of this tribunal are within the bounds of fairness, there can be no doubt of the result.

Mr. Mitchell Henry, Home Ruler, member of Parliament for the County of Galway, has issued a circular to his tenants pointing out that if any of them think they can get better terms from the Land Court, he has neither the power nor the wish to prevent them, but he points to the unequalled lowness of present rents and other advantages. He is willing to allow a reduction of 15 to 20 per cent. on the half year's rent due May last, but hereafter the old rates will be expected. He hopes the rents will be cheerfully paid, and that tenants will not, at the bidding of false friends and teachers, reverse the relations which hitherto existed, but will maintain their self-respect and character as honest men.

Dublin is quiet this evening. The Irish party held a meeting in London to-day to arrange details far the Hyde Park meeting on Sunday. The party denounced the British Government and pledged Irishmen in England to carry out the Land League principles with increased vigor. Arthur O'Connor has left Holyhead for London. It is stated that nothing has been decided upon regarding the moving of the offices of the League. The police arrangements in connection with the Parnell demonstration at Hyde Park on Sunday are very extensive. Five hundred constables will be kept in reserve at the magazine. Along the route of march, bodies of police will be stationed to protect property.

The Freeman's Journal, in reference to the manifesto of the League, says:—"We foresee dire confusion, ruin to individuals, possible strife and bloodshed. However opinions may differ as to the propriety and legality of the advice tendered to the people by the imprisoned leaders of the League, there can be no difference as to the eloquence and ability with which the case of the League is stated. We do not believe tenants will follow the course not to pay rents. We believe a better, wiser spirit is springing up. There is shown in many districts an extreme desire to eliminate fruitless controversy. We have no proof yet that the Land Act will not be carried out otherwise than in the most honest way."

Goddard, a member of the Property Defence Association, asked the Government for protection on account of the threatening mobs outside his house. The house is now guarded by Police. The Irish Land Committee has amalgamated with the Property Defence Association.

Mr. Dorvis, who has been in charge of the League office since the arrest of Sexton, was arrested this afternoon and conveyed to Dundalk. Michael Hogan, farmer of Clare, Daniel Kenne and Jas. Daly, of Anacott, have been arrested. Cobbe, a leading member of the Board of Guardians at Mount Mellick, has been arrested. A troop of Lancers escorted him to Naas jail. Michael Power, member of the Tralee branch of the League, was arrested on a charge of intimidation and treasonable acts. Goodsell, a Limerick publican, was arrested under the Coercion Act. Higgins, secretary of the Carrigtohill League, and Joyce, who was recently liberated from prison, have been arrested.

Dublin people who complained of the violence of the police on Monday are now calling for more efficient police protection. Last night was more especially a good time for glaziers. There is hardly an unbroken window left on Sackville street. I have just walked through the main streets. The damage done is very great. The beautiful lamp at Westmoreland street and O'Connell Bridge is broken in pieces, and many lights were extinguished. At a dry goods shop in Sackville street, where the windows were smashed, I saw people stealing goods and making off. Many public houses are closed. The police appeared about 10 o'clock, cleared the streets and stopped the damage to a great extent. This rowdy mischief should not be laid to Land Leagueism. It is simply blackguardism.

It is stated that the League manifesto was drawn up in Kilmainham jail and passed out by some means. Davitt's permission was obtained from Portland prison by some secret means. At the meeting of the League which adopted the manifesto, Father Cantwell predicted that the day was not far distant when England would cease to control Ireland. Ten thousand Land Leaguers at Ballyshannon yesterday denounced the Government. A largely attended conference of tenant farmers at Ballymoney, County Antrim, passed resolutions of gratitude to Gladstone and the Liberals for their services in connection with the Irish Land Act. The Conference regarded the Land Act as just and practical, and recommended the farmers to give it a fair trial. Many farmers in the counties of Westmeath and Roscommon lay claims for a re-adjustment of their rents. The city of Derry and town of Drogheda have been proclaimed. Two hundred tenants of a large estate near Henah, county Tipperary, paid their rents to-day. The police tear down "no rent" notices wherever posted.

LONDON, October 20.—A Dublin correspondent says the settled determination of the League to endeavour to demonstrate the Land Act worthless, is shown by the fact that the test cases selected are almost exclusively those in which the rent is the same as and in many cases lower than the Griffith's valuation. It is not true that the Marquis of Waterford applied to the Land Commissioners to have the rents of his tenants raised. The 31st Regiment left Dover for Ireland yesterday. It was loudly cheered. The second battalion of Grenadier Guards, stationed at Windsor, has been ordered to get ready to proceed to Ireland. A sensational report says the War Office is arranging to despatch an army corps to Ireland. General Steele says the reinforcements on the way to Ireland are sufficient.

The Law Journal says all three warrants against Parnell appear unassailable. The prisoners in Kilmainham jail have been informed that they can only see physicians with the warden present.

Healy is reported as saying: "I would not care to be the man who would apply to the Courts under the provisions of the Land Act with Parnell in jail; I think there will be a general refusal to pay rent rates and tax while Parnell is imprisoned, and the entire system of local government in Ireland may be wrecked."

Mr. Cowen, M.P., calls to mind that it had been declared in the House of Commons that the Land League cannot be suppressed without an Act of Parliament.

The Ladies' Land League has addressed a letter to Victor Hugo, asking the assistance of his powerful voice in Ireland's favor.

CARRICK-ON-SUIR, October 19.—The Ladies' Land League to-day expressed sympathy with Miss Parnell on account of the shock she sustained through the arrest of the "uncrowned King of Ireland." They resolved to redouble their efforts, and advised no rent to be paid until every suspect was released. At a meeting of the Carrick branch of the League to-day, twelve hundred were present. Two hundred tradesmen joined the organization. A detachment of hussars, with sabres drawn, paraded the streets, and the shops were closed. Miss Parnell telegraphed to her mother not to come to Ireland, as she would be more useful in America.

CORK, October 19.—The military have been instructed to be prepared for every emergency.

PARIS, October 19.—Egan to-day said that he considered Parnell's arrest due to an outbreak of temper on the part of Gladstone. The Land League did not depend on any one man or set of men. The reserve fund amounts to over £50,000. None of it is kept in Ireland, except what is needed for expenses.

ST. LOUIS, October 19.—At a large mass meeting at the Court House to-night several clergymen and others denounced the British Government for the arrest of the Land League leaders. A message of sympathy was sent to Ireland.

PHILADELPHIA, October 19.—At a meeting of the two branches of the Land League to-night resolutions were adopted denouncing Gladstone and the English Government. It was decided not to purchase any goods bearing English marks.

CHICAGO, October 19.—Four thousand attended the Irish indignation meeting here to-night. Many were unable to gain an entrance. A message from Senator Logan was read, expressing sympathy with Parnell and declaring his imprisonment an outrage. The usual resolutions were passed.

BOSTON, October 19.—The President of the Irish National Land League in America has issued an address to members, calling upon them to respond to the appeal of their brethren in Ireland.

BOSTON, October 20.—The President of the Land League of America to-day sent the following cablegram to Dublin:—"The Land League of America expects the people of Ireland to follow the advice of the Irish Executive. You must sacrifice and suffer in the present to win in the end. Upon the first eviction special funds will be raised to help your war for justice."

THE YORKTOWN CENTENNIAL.

Celebration of the Principal Day—President Arthur's Address—Saluting the British Flag.

YORKTOWN, October 19.—At 10.40, while the Marine Band played, Blaine and the French and German delegations in full uniform entered Lafayette Hall. They passed through the aisle on one side of which was a line of military officers, with Senators, Congressmen and other persons of distinction on the other. At the end of the Hall the President was met by Blaine, and two gentlemen walked through the aisle bidding good morning to those present as they passed. They then returned, and in a few moments the party started for the grand stand, Arthur and Hunt leading. They received hearty cheers as they appeared upon the platform. Next came Blaine escorting the French delegation followed by the German delegation, General Sherman with his staff in uniform next in line, Hancock and staff following. Hancock had a little boy with him and was given three cheers. After a general hand-shaking the ceremonies opened with prayer by Bishop Harris, lasting 20 minutes. He invoked a blessing upon the United States and France, but did not refer to Germany at all, except in conclusion, when he prayed that God would bless the Crowned Heads of the world. The Point Dexter Centennial Hymn was sung by a chorus from Baltimore, Richmond and Washington. President Arthur was introduced by Blaine, and he then delivered the address. The President was not interrupted during the delivery of the address, but there was great enthusiasm at the close.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Upon this soil a hundred years ago our forefathers brought to a successful issue their heroic struggle for independence, and there was established, and as we trust made secure, upon this continent for ages yet to come, the principle of Government, which is the very fibre of our political system—the sovereignty of the people. The resentments which attended, and for a time survived, the clash of arms, have long since ceased to animate our hearts. It is with no feeling of exultation over a defeated foe that to-day we summon up the remembrance of those events which have made holy the ground whereon we tread. Surely no such unworthy sentiment could find a harbor in our hearts now so profoundly thrilled with the expression of sorrow and sympathy which our national bereavement has evolved from the people of England and their august Sovereign, but it is altogether fitting that we should gather here to refresh our souls with the contemplation of the unfaltering patriotism, sturdy zeal and sublime faith which achieved the results we now commemorate; for so, if we learn aright the lesson of the hour, shall we be incited to transmit to the generation which shall follow the precious legacy which our fathers left to us—Love of liberty protected by law. Of that historic scene, which we here celebrate, no feature is more prominent, none more touching, than the participation of our gallant allies from across the sea. It was their presence which gave a vigorous impulse to the hopes of our countrymen when well nigh disheartened by a long series of disasters. It was their noble, generous aid, extended in the darkest period of the struggle, which sped the coming of triumph, and made the capitulation of Yorktown possible a century ago. To their descendants and representatives who are here present as honored guests of the nation, it is my glad duty to offer a cordial welcome. You have a right to share with us the associations which cluster about the day when your fathers fought side by side with our fathers in the cause which was here crowned with success, and none of the memories awakened by this anniversary are more grateful to us all than the reflection that the national friendships here so closely cemented have outlasted the mutations of a changeful century. God grant, my countrymen, that they may ever remain unshaken, and that ever henceforth with ourselves and with all the nations of the earth we may be at peace.

Suitable speeches were made by the French Ambassador, and the Counts Rochambeau and Steuben, after which there was a reception in Lafayette Hall to which the general public were admitted. Hundreds of people thronged the building. Blaine acted as Master of Ceremonies, and Hawley introduced the people to the President. Among those who shook hands with the President was the wife of ex-President Tyler. All the guests have gone to the ships, and the monument is deserted.

SALUTING THE BRITISH FLAG.

The following order was read by Blaine at the celebration to-day:—"In recognition of the friendly relations so long and so happily subsisting between Great Britain and the United States, in the trust and confidence of peace and good will between the two countries for all centuries to come, and especially as a mark of the profound respect entertained by the American people for the illustrious Sovereign and gracious lady who sits upon the British Throne, it is hereby ordered that at the close of these ceremonies, commemorative of the valor and success of our forefathers in their patriotic struggle for independence, the British flag shall be saluted by the forces of the Army and Navy of the United States now at Yorktown. The Secretary of War and Secretary of the Navy will give orders accordingly." (Signed),

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,

By the President, JAMES G. BLAINE,
Secretary of State.

New Regulations for the Detective Force.

In the Police Committee, after our going to press on Wednesday afternoon, the report of the Chairman and Chief of Police on the detective question was taken up. The report recommended a detective force of six detectives, one of whom shall act as chief and one as secretary; that the whole force be under the Chief of Police; that every complaint made to the detectives shall be entered in a book for the information of the Chief of Police; that the Chief Detective shall be responsible to the Chief of Police for the carrying out of all orders, and shall report to him the work done every day; that the detectives be considered as always on duty, although a few hours each day be allotted for their attendance at the station; that they shall not absent themselves from the city without permission from the Chief of Police; that rewards which are publicly offered and earned by any detective shall be divided between those who have been actively engaged on the case, and all disputes to be decided by the Chief of Police; that information of general character likely to facilitate success in a case shall be entered in a book; that a detective shall be permitted to work up any case belonging to another, but the latter shall be called upon for information, and that the secretary shall keep books for entering names of criminals, telegrams, correspondence, description of prisoners, etc.

The report was adopted and the Chief of Police instructed to get the rules printed. The appointment of a chief and secretary of the detective force was left over until next meeting.

For the Holidays—Beauty in Miniature.

Refinement loves elegance, and personal adornment is a first duty of civilization. The refined man or woman rejoices in the beautiful; art, music, flowers, all charm the polished mind, while the taste for perfumes, odorous applications for preserving the beauty of the hair, skin and teeth, and all those artistic appliances of the toilette which science has produced are dear to the cultivated taste. The body is God's temple, and a perfect care of it in cleanliness and adornment is the parent of pure thoughts and happy ideas. When we see any one neglectful of personal attractions, we expect no exalted ideas, no marks of a cultivated mind. How much does a traveller, accustomed to a bountifully furnished toilette table, miss these adjuncts to a stylish appearance when on a journey. To obviate this Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston, have invented a beautiful little article known as "BURNETT'S MINIATURE TOILET," and by its aid travellers of either sex can indulge in luxurious adornment wherever they may be. Prettily made and delicately fitted with the leading articles of Joseph Burnett's unequalled preparations in miniature size, it occupies no more room than a small despatch case, and yet is furnished with Burnett's Cologne, Florimel for the handkerchief, Cocoaine for the hair, Kalliston for the skin, and Oriental Tooth Wash, and a beautiful brochure of advice for the toilette, and other matter which has already become very popular, and is used by the principal artists of the drama and opera. We will only add that this petite and recherche Toilet Companion is admirably adapted for the Holidays. Examine it at any fashionable drug store, and it will be found as neat and as suitable a present both for home or travelling use as anything that can be purchased at such a small cost. Druggists should order it early.

Special Notice.

The grand opening of the Boston One Price Clothing store, 41 and 43 St. Joseph street, takes place Monday, October 3rd, and following days. The overcoat department is fully stocked with all the latest novelties at prices ranging from $3.75 to $18.00. The custom department has three first-class American cutters.

HYDROLEINE!

("HYDRATED OIL.")

For Consumption and all Wasting Diseases

Among the many new preparations brought to the notice of the profession, none perhaps deserve more attention than Hydroleine, a preparation of Cod Liver Oil. The efficacy of Hydroleine is, it is claimed, not confined to cases of phthisis solely, but it also has a valuable tonic effect on the system generally. We have been using Hydroleine for some time, with the most satisfactory results, and value it very highly for its nutritive and waste preventing properties. We have also been using Maltopepsyn in cases of indigestion with marked success.—Canada Medical and Surgical Journal, Montreal, November, 1880.

WHICH will have a Free Public Library first —Montreal or Toronto? In the Queen City the people are pushing ahead vigorously and a public meeting of citizens will soon be held, and, it is said, means will be taken to give the undertaking headway. In Montreal we have not yet got that far, but we have good reason to believe that our efforts will be successful before long. The subject is too important to be allowed to fall to the ground, and the friendly rivalry between Montreal and Toronto on this question cannot but spur the people of both cities to generous action.

THE HON. MR. LORANGER is a politician —that is he can cover up a direct issue by equivocation. Here is a sample of what we mean. There was some speech making at the formal opening of the Quebec Central Railroad, at Sherbrooke, the other day. The Hon. Mr. Loranger was among the speakers, and he is reported to have "disclaimed the idea that the Province of Quebec was bankrupt, inasmuch as we only required time to be the richest province in the Confederation." Not at all, Mr. Loranger, time will have nothing to do with making us "the richest province in the Confederation." It is economy and not time that will work the change. If there was a single elector present to put the issue on the basis of economy, and not the fictitious plea of "time," the Hon. Mr. Loranger would have discovered that he had a hornet's nest about his ears.

The Senate.

The tendency of the time is towards taking all power from the few and giving it to the many. This is the peoples' age and everything that stands in the way of popular Government must yield. In England we see indications that even the House of Lords is likely to form no exception to the general course of events. In a short time England will probably have an elective Upper Chamber, and the Lords will elect from among themselves those peers they think most qualified to represent the peerage in the councils of the nation. In Canada we have our own difficulty about the Senate, and there is a growing feeling that some means must be taken to limit its power and make it obedient to the popular will. People cannot understand why a few gentlemen—selected for services done the party, not for services done the State—should have the power of blocking all legislation. They may be worthy men, but, as a rule, they are partisans. They may desire to act fairly, but they owe their position to the party and they feel some moral obligations to stand by their friends. Patriotism, ability, worth, commercial enterprise, and gifted talents do not necessarily weigh in the balance when a Senator has to be made. Party journalism, or party exigency, are the usual considerations that guide the selection, and people fail to see why a houseful of political favorites should have in their hands the final legislative power. We do not say that the abolition of the Senate is desirable. We do not admit that there is no necessity for a second chamber, but we know that public opinion is in favor of limiting the powers of the Senate, and of remodelling the method by which the appointments to it are made. The Senate should check hasty legislation, but it should not be allowed to check the popular will. The Senate should yield, say in all cases where the representative chamber passes an act a second time, by say a three-fourths majority. The Senate should be removed from all party influence; it should be the seat of learning, of literature, of commercial enterprise and of patriotism, and not the shelf where party deposits its well worn hacks.

Thanksgiving Services.

Thanksgiving services were held in most of our Protestant churches yesterday and were generally well attended. Many of the churches were beautifully decorated with grains, fruits, etc., emblematic of the occasion. In some two or three episcopal churches no gatherings took place, as such services had been previously held. The collections in the Anglican churches were in aid of the North-West missions.

In the St. James street Methodist, the Rev. Hugh Johnston preached eloquently to a very large audience and, after referring at length to the great blessings Canada had received during the past year and to her material prospects for the future, drew the conclusion that the sure pledge of national stability is the virtue and moral worth of the people, and that the true way to offer thanksgiving is both by our lips and by our lives.

In Christ Church Cathedral the devotional services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Sullivan, Canon Baldwin, J. P. DuMoulin and Mr. Sweeny. The Rev. Canon Evans preached, and during his discourse dwelt upon the fact that a day of national thanksgiving was not only an act of gratitude to God for mercies received, but it was an open and fearless acknowledgment that we believed in a God who ordered all things both in heaven and earth. He pointed out the difficulty for those who were now sorrowing under the cloud of misfortune to give heartfelt thanks, but said that individual misfortune was easier to bear when surrounded by general good fortune and prosperity, and such a one would surely catch some sunshine from his brother's sky. The service throughout was very impressive.

PARNELL'S ARREST.

Mass Meeting of Irishmen in Albert Hall—Resolutions Denouncing the British Government Adopted.

A largely attended meeting, called by the Montreal branch of the National Land League of Ireland, for the purpose of giving Irish citizens here an opportunity of publicly expressing their indignation at the last act of the British Government in the Irish drama, viz., the incarceration of Charles Stewart Parnell and other prominent members of the League, took place last evening in the above Hall.

Among others, on the platform, there were present Messrs. C. J. Doherty, President of the League in Montreal; John Purcell, H. J. Kavanagh, J. P. Whelan, P. J. Coyle, M. C. Mullarky, P. Carroll, F. A. Quin, B. Wall, J. C. Fleming, etc.

The Chairman (Mr. C. J. Doherty) opened the proceedings, and said they had been called together on that occasion, in order that Irishmen here might express their united opinion on the last act of the British Government in Ireland, which was an attempt to terrorize the Irish people. He then entered into a description of the League, its desires and objects, which were to obtain for the Irish people the same freedom and privileges Canadians enjoyed, and liberty to live at home (cheers.) Mr. Parnell had been considered a criminal for asking a Land Bill, and afterwards tried as a criminal for opposing the one brought in, which did not meet the wants of the Irish nation, that under the Coercion Act, Parnell, Dillon, Father Sheehy, Davitt and others had been imprisoned, but in spite of the fact that these men were felons in the eyes of British law, all true hearted Irishmen were proud to consider them their representatives and honored leaders. (Cheers.) He asked those present not to hiss Mr. Gladstone, but to let him go down to posterity (as he assuredly would), not as the people's William, but as "Coercion Bill." (Cheers.) He concluded by asking all present who were not members of the League to at once join, and do all in their power towards assisting the great cause.

Mr. H. J. Kavanagh then addressed the meeting. He exhorted all Irishmen to stand firm in defence of their just rights, and to oppose a passive resistance to such legislation as they had received from the British Government, concluding by asking all present to join the League and support Ireland in her defence of her just rights.

Mr. J. J. Curran, Q.C., here entered the Hall and was greeted with loud and prolonged cheers. He said that not since the days when Daniel O'Connell had been thrown into an English prison had the hearts of the Irish people been so stirred as was the case now, that Charles Stewart Parnell had been incarcerated. He thought the Irish people were entitled to the same form of Government as was enjoyed by Canadians. The Land League was on its trial as well as the Land Bill, and Mr. Gladstone never made a greater mistake than when he imprisoned Mr. Parnell and other members of the League. When Parnell came out of prison, as come he must some day, he would do so, the most popular man in Ireland, and whatever organization he connected himself with would receive the hearty support of the Irish people throughout the world. (Loud applause.)

Mr. J. D. Purcell said that Mr. Parnell had met Mr. Gladstone upon his own ground and had defeated him, and that Mr. Gladstone had then resorted to the dastardly means of putting into jail the man he could not conquer. The times for barbarous warfare had passed, but if war were forced upon them, give them time to prepare for the battle, give them arms, and then, "God help the English." The time was coming when Mr. Gladstone would be hurled from his proud position, and that too by his own countrymen. The reward which Parnell had received from the British Government for his moderation was that which past experience had taught them to expect.

Messrs. J. C. Fleming, F. A. Quin, P. J. Coyle, and P. Carroll then addressed the meeting, after which the Chairman read the following resolution:—"That we, the Irishmen of Montreal, declare that the conduct of the British Government in imprisoning the elected and recognized leader of the Irish people, for no other reason than his having fearlessly acted upon the programme adopted by the Irish nation in Convention assembled, meets with our unqualified condemnation; that no words are strong enough to express our indignation at this despotic proceeding; that, while condemning the act of England's Premier, this meeting urges upon the Irish people the duty of following out the line of conduct laid down for them by their imprisoned chief, and of persisting in carrying out the policy of the Land League that has reduced the British Government, as a last resource, to means of endeavoring to terrorise the Irish nation that would disgrace the despotism of the most absolute of tyrannies; and that we here solemnly renew the expression of our never failing confidence in our people's leader, and our assurance that we will assist our countrymen by every means in our power in whatever course they may adopt to bring the present great struggle to a successful termination, and to secure for the Irish people the land, the law making and the Government of Ireland."

The resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Chairman read the following telegram from the Irishmen of Hemmingford:—"The Irishmen of Hemmingford are with you Hurrah for Parnell, and God save Ireland." Also, a telegram from Mr. P. Ford, of the Irish World, announcing that Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M. P. for Galway, would lecture in Montreal on the 9th of November.

The meeting closed with three cheers for Ireland and Parnell.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.

Wednesday Afternoon Session.

The testimony of I. H. Stearns and C. N. Murray, managers of the Albion Hotel, was in substance that they had offered the defendant $250 to $300 a year for the vacant lot, and had been refused. He had put in a protest against the erection of a building on the lot because there was at that time no other entrance to the rear of his premises.

Jas. Tuckwell, of Hart and Tuckwell: Had leased property from defendant in 1879, including the vacant lot. Considered the lot worth $200 or $300 a year.

Mrs. T. B. Ross testified that Miss Cressy had come to defendant's in 1873 as a servant.

Miss Annie Johnson:— Knew Miss Cressy (whom she called Eliza Little) as nurse at defendant's; had been her fellow-servant there.

Mrs. M. Hamelin:—Knew Eliza Little as servant at defendant's; her position later on had become undefinable, but Mrs. Thayer still called her a servant; witness had trimmed a ball dress for Eliza, in which the latter went to a ball with Dr. and Mrs. Thayer; it was a public ball, which any one could attend on payment of ticket; still witness thought the affair very strange.

For the defence Judge Badgley testified that Mrs. Thayer's lease to Miss Cressy had been drawn up entirely under his advice; he was not then aware that higher prices had been offered for the lot.

NATIONALIST AND HOME RULER.

A Deliberate Attempt at Murder.

An example of how keenly the Irish question permeates the minds of Irishmen here is shown by a deliberate attempt of an adherent of O'Donovan Rossa, named Thos. Cunningham, to kill an admirer of Parnell, named James McElroy, on Wednesday last. McElroy was engaged in repairing one of the pipes of the New City Gas Company, near Canning street, when Cunningham came up and deliberately drew a revolver from his pocket and fired at him. McElroy managed to escape the shot, and immediately grappled with his assailant and gave him in charge of the police. The only reason assigned for the outrageous conduct of Cunningham, as explained by McElroy, is that two weeks ago they had a conversation together at Kerrigan's saloon on St. Joseph street, when McElroy made some uncomplimentary remarks regarding Fenians and more especially touching O'Donovan Rossa, when Cunningham said he would "get it out of McElroy" at some other time. Cunningham will be charged with shooting with intent to kill.

Fatal Accident.

A wharf laborer named Thomas Stanton was run over near Colborne street by a Grand Trunk train backing down to the wharf on Wednesday evening and killed instantaneously, the head being severed from the body and fearfully disfigured. An inquest was held yesterday, when the engineer, Walker, said the bell of the engine had been ringing the whole time, that he saw the man about six feet ahead, that he called to him, but that he took no notice of him and approached the engine at a rapid rate. The engine was stopped and the unfortunate fellow found lying across the track under the rails. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, and recommended that watchmen be placed at each crossing from Wellington bridge to the wharf, and that the speed of the engine be regulated to three miles an hour on that part of the road.

THE "JEANNETTE" SEARCH.—LONDON, October 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette prints a letter of B. G. Jenkins, commenting on the probability that the Hudson's Bay Company will ask to send a small body of men down the Mackenzie River to search for the "Jeannette" crew. He says:—"I think it possible that in the Summer, 1881, the 'Jeannette' made her way north through some fortunate opening in the ice ring which encircles the polar region into comparatively mild quarters, and that she is now on her way home, or, being provisioned for three years, that she will spend another Winter there."

A HUNGARIAN DEFICIT.—PESTH, Oct. 21.—In the lower House of the Hungarian Diet the Minister of Finance presented the budget for 1882. The net result is a deficit of 25,665,542 florins as compared with last year. With the view to cover the deficit it is proposed to introduce a tax on petroleum, revise the customs tariff and increase the tax on alcoholic spirits. The Minister announced that 240,000,000 florins, gold rente, have already been sold, and that conversion operations are nearly half completed.

THE FIRE ON THE "BOTHNIA."—LONDON, October 21.—The Standard, referring to the attempt to burn the Cunard Line steamer "Bothnia" at her dock in New York, says it looks as if it were intended to carry out O'Donovan Rossa's threats.

HUMBERT AND FRANCIS JOSEPH.—LONDON, Oct. 21.—A despatch from Vienna to the Cologne Gazette says that Vienna is very positively mentioned as the place of meeting between Emperor Francis Joseph and King Humbert.

AMERICAN.

WASHINGTON NOTES. — NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A Washington special to the Sun says the general impression is that Cabinet changes will not be announced till Monday. It is ascertained that Ex-Gov. Morgan is severing his connection with the importing house, so that the objection made against A. T. Stewart for Secretary of the Treasury cannot be raised against him. It is expected the Senate can close its labors the present session by the middle of next week. There will be no contest on the Cabinet nominations.

THE YORKTOWN CELEBRATION. — WASHINGTON, October 21.—The expenses of the Yorktown celebration were greatly in excess of the money left with the Commissioners. The subject of the deficit may possibly lead to some disagreeable debates. The money was appropriated only upon the most positive assurances that not another dollar should be required; moreover some body has violated the law in pledging the faith of the Government in incurring any expense above the actual sum appropriated.

THE WARDS OF THE NATION.—WASHINGTON, October 21.—Mr. Kirkwood suggested that it would be a good plan for the Government to give the wild tribes of Indians herds of cattle. When herds become large enough to withdraw Government support. He also thinks it would be a good idea to erect the reservations of the tribes who have advanced considerably towards civilization into counties under the laws of the State or Territories in which they are situated.

SALUTING THE BRITISH FLAG.—YORKTOWN, Oct. 21.—The entire fleet yesterday saluted the English flag, which was hoisted at the foremast of each vessel. Each vessel fired twenty-one guns. The batteries on land also honored the British standard, and the French emphasized the friendly sentiments towards the English by joining in the American salute. This was seconded by a hearty cheer from the crowds on the bluffs.

GUITEAU.—NEW YORK, October 21.—The Herald says a lawyer who has known Guiteau for years visited him yesterday, and says the assassin is either insane and totally irresponsible, or simulates madness with more remarkable precision than any one he has seen. It is probable that Scoville will appeal for a continuation of the case at least thirty days.

THE ASSASSINATED PRESIDENTS.—NEW YORK, October 21.—The Tribune says District Attorney Corkhill is about to publish a history of the assassination of President Lincoln, on which he has been engaged for several years. He has also gathered good material for a history of the assassination of President Garfield.

THE COST OF A STRIKE.—NEWPORT, Ky., October 21.—The Rolling Mills stopped by the strike last June are now all running except two. During the strike the men lost nearly a million dollars in wages, and the mill owners and other branches of manufacture more than three millions worth in business.

FOG ON THE HUDSON.—POUGHKEEPSIE, October 21.—A dense fog prevailed along the Hudson before daylight. The steamer "City of Troy" landed here at half-past eight, seven hours behind time, and sent her passengers to New York by rail.

LOW RATE.—CHICAGO, October 21.—At least one of the railroads leading eastward from Chicago is said to have contracted to carry a large amount of pork to New York at the rate of 12½ cents.

ADVANCE IN COCOANUTS. — NEW YORK, October 21.—The price of cocoanuts has advanced nearly 100 per cent. Over ten million nuts were handled here last year.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

As Directress of the Montreal Ladies' Benevolent Society I beg to call attention to the needs of this worthy Institution, a noble charity which relies almost entirely for its support on the generosity of the public. We have recently completed the new wing, which is free from debt; but we have no money to furnish it, and we have been obliged to refuse destitute women on this account. A portion of this wing, the 2nd flat, is set apart for the sick and hospital convalescents. We could judiciously employ a much larger sum than we are able to collect, as we have daily applications, which we, unhappily, have to refuse; all of a very respectable class of women and children, who, from force of circumstances, have become objects of charity. After the most economical management, we are in arrears this year for a large sum for current expenses. As the collectors of this Society are about to solicit the annual subscriptions it is hoped that our generous citizens will increase their donations to this worthy Protestant charity, now nearly half a century old, so that we may have greater facilities for carrying on our good work. The Ladies' Benevolent Institution is always open to the inspection of the public, who are cordially invited to visit it, and details of its management will be given to anyone interested.

I have had a good chance to test Horsford's Acid Phosphate, and can safely say that it is a remedy of great value. From my experience I would say that as a nerve restorer in cases of exhaustion from any cause, and as a hypnotic or inducer of sleep it is of the greatest value. It is also a valuable vehicle for the administration of quinine. I can cordially recommend it.

CHAS. MINZESHEIMER,	THOS. C. BUCK,
JNO. J. KIERNAN,	GEO. O. JONES,
HORACE E. DILLIGHAM,

We claim that W. H. Markland has discovered a new departure in electricity, and has produced a most wonderful Electric Lamp for which he was granted a patent in August last, and which is now the property of this Company.

Among the advantages are:

First—Its intensity is so clear that it possesses the property of developing all shades and colors, thereby closely assimilating the rays of sunlight.

Second—It is positively safe.

Third—Its construction is simple and requires less care and attention than any competing light.

Fourth—It stands pre-eminent in its clear, perfect and unchanging steadiness. It is free from any flickering, or liability to extinction, so prevalent in all Electric lights now in use.

This uniform steadiness renders it immeasurably superior to every other illuminating process in existence. We direct particular attention to this distinguishing quality of "freedom from fluttering or wavering, the only light possessing this property."

The Edison and United States Electric Light Stocks are selling at $1,000 and $160 per share respectively.

And we see no reason why the Stock of this Company should not soon be in demand at a premium.

A limited number of Shares are now offered for sale by subscription at $1.00 per share, as follows: FIFTY CENTS payable on application, balance as called for by directors of the Company.

Subscription books are now open at the following offices:

WM. EUCLID YOUNG, 30 Broad Street.
WM. M. PATTESON & Co., 67 Exch. Pl.

IT IS WELL-KNOWN THAT Henry J. Shaw & Co. pay their upholsterers and polishers the highest wages, and therefore turn out first-class work. Their exhibit of furniture at our Provincial Exhibition this year (not specially made for it, but taken out of their ordinary stock) well sustains this fact, having carried off all the first prizes, besides five extra prizes. Call and see their immense stock at their warerooms, 726 Craig street. Prices lower than elsewhere. 245 3

THE MONTREAL ABATTOIR.

Slaughtering Commenced—Modes of Killing the Animals.

The slaughtering of cattle at the Montreal abattoir was formally begun this morning in the presence of a number of gentlemen connected with, or interested in, the abattoir. Some eight or ten animals were butchered, and the different modes of killing them were tried. Some were stunned after the old manner, a blow from an axe, and others were shot through the brain by a ball from a rifle. Mr. Bonneville, the well-known rifleman, tried his hand at the shooting, and that mode was pronounced very neat and effective, as the animals fell without a struggle. The cost of this mode of killing, though only some three cents on each animal, will on the great number slaughtered foot up to a considerable sum, so it is probable that still another method, that of spearing or passing a keen lance through the base of the brain, will be followed. The various apparatus were found to work remarkably well for their first trial, and the butchers present were much pleased with the arrangements. From the 1st to the 15th November butchers will be admitted free to examine the modes of killing and dressing the animals. On the 15th November slaughtering will commence in full blast, and a full staff of experienced butchers is now engaged.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH.

Morning Session.

The Thayer case was continued. Mrs. J. T. Kerby was at a family meeting in reference to the building of the house in question, refused to consent to the building in her husband's absence.

Zotique Leroux, carpenter—Constructed the building in question. Passed the contract with Miss. Cressy, in Dr. Thayer's presence, and was paid by her $695. The first interviews about building witness had were with Dr. Thayer.

O. W. Stanton, real estate agent—Valued lot in question at $2.00 a foot, or $1,330 for the whole lot. Fair rental for a vacant lot is 5 or 6 per cent. on the value. $100 for the lot would be excessive rent. Not knowing the building, cannot say what value it adds to the lot.

J. A. P. Bulman, architect—Estimated the lot at $2.00 a foot.

P. C. Wand, builder—Thought the carrying out of the original plan of building a row of stores failed through Mr. Kerby's opposition.

This evidence having closed the case, Mr. Geoffrion, Q.C., addressed the jury on behalf of the defence. He was followed by Mr. Ritchie, Q. C., on the same side, after which the Court adjourned.

The Opponents of Laval Still at Work.

Laval University it appears is not to be allowed even now to continue the even tenor of its way in Montreal unopposed, and steps have already been taken to found an opposition French University in the city. The scheme is being organized by some very prominent and influential French Canadian citizens, and, in the event of the decrees from Rome of the 13th October being maintained, application will be made for a Royal charter immediately. The University will be organized independent of the clergy, but, at the same time, the promoters of the scheme are confident the clergy of Montreal and the district will zealously support the proposition, as the branch of Laval here is claimed to be very obnoxious to the majority of the population including the clergy. It is also said that abundant funds will be forthcoming to inaugurate the undertaking.

THE CANADA ATLANTIC RAILROAD.

The Injunction Held in Abeyance.

His Honor Mr. Justice Rainville has decided to hold the injunction asked for in this matter in abeyance, until such time as the applicants may have time to consider the advisability of accepting the price offered for the land by the Railway, and in the event of the offer not being accepted to permit of the immediate appointment of arbitrators. The Company has, through its notary, Mr. Pharam, notified all proprietors whose land has been appropriated, and no settlement made, that it is ready at once to arrange for the payment either by arbitration or otherwise. The number of properties expropriated and not settled for only amounts to six or seven. The work on the road has not been interrupted by the proceedings, and ballast trains are running regularly.

THE SS. "COREAN."

All Hopes of Saving the Vessel Abandoned.

Since the stranded steamer filled and settled in the storm on Tuesday evening, the grain which was in her after compartment has swollen and burst the hull plates. The Government Inspector, who was sent to the scene of the disaster from Quebec, had a thorough survey made of the wreck yesterday, and has condemned the vessel and recommended her to be sold for the benefit of all concerned. All of the running rigging of the vessel, spare spars, ropes, anchors, etc., have been put into lighters and her crew is to be paid off at Quebec to-day or to-morrow.

Dr. Bibaud.

The funeral of Dr. Bibaud, who has been for many years professor of Anatomy at the Montreal School of Medicine, took place this morning from St. James Church. The students followed the hearse in a body and also conducted the musical portion of the service. The funeral was one of the largest witnessed in Montreal for many years, and was attended by members of all the professions, not only in the city, but from all parts of the Province.

Mr. Vennor and the Winter.

In a letter to the Gazette, Mr. Vennor, after noticing the recent movement of migrating birds southward, and the general unreliableness of such movements as predicting anything beyond a temporary cold snap, which itself is not indicative of a severe Winter, but rather the contrary, states his reasons for looking forward to a mild season. He does not consider it at all established that solar commotion should affect the temperature of our globe, and therefore does not agree with the scientists who, holding that there is a connection between the present size and activity of the sun spots and the heat and drought of the past Summer upon this continent, infer from the actual increase of the activity and proportions of these spots, a high average temperature for the Winter months. Mr. Vennor's expectations, however, coincide with those of these gentlemen, but are based upon a different ground, that of weather-cycles, or "the recurrence of similar weather conditions at irregular but ascertainable intervals of time." Disregarding as unreliable the principle of opposite, or law of general compensation, Mr. Vennor, turning to the weather-charts, finds that in the past cold or heat have "usually extended over more than a single season. We note," he says, "a great number of complete and even triads of years of similar weather, and but very few, and these widely separated, in which intense cold or great heat was confined to a single year." Drawing his conclusions from these considerations, combined with his observations made during the present year, Mr. Vennor looks to "a further continuance of the warm wave on our continent during the approaching Winter." If this be broken, as it may, by waves of low temperature, these will be of brief duration. The Winter may open with severe cold and snow, but in this case we are to "look out for an open Christmastide."

To the Editor of THE STAR:

SIR,—In your report of an interview with Mr. Hannaford, he is made to say that the effect of my scheme, if constructed, would be to lower the water in the harbor eight feet. How can this be when the difference in the level from opposite the Hudon Cotton Factory, at Hochelaga, to the foot of the Lachine Canal locks is only two feet three inches, as can be seen by the Harbor Commissioners' plan. Will the water in the harbor sink five feet nine inches below the surface of the St. Lawrence opposite the Hudon Cotton Factory? If, as Mr. Hannaford says, the fall opposite the city was eight feet, no vessel could be brought into the harbor without a lock. As for the sewage, at present the main current of the river comes into the harbor nearly opposite Jacques Cartier square, and the sewage opposite the city above is carried down by the current from the Lachine Canal and its mills. This current will not only continue to run as usual, but will be driven in more closely to the wharves by the cross current of one-fifth of the entire St. Lawrence coming through the embankment, not mostly in one channel down near St. Helen's Island, as at present, but equally distributed all the way from Point St. Charles to St. Helen's Island, removing the sewage much more effectually than it does now, and making it altogether unlike the still water bay at Toronto. I remember when it was said the Victoria Bridge would never be constructed, that it would flood and destroy this city.

Yours, truly,
JAMES SHEARER.

"Welcome Home" Gathering.

A well-attended meeting of the members of Zion Church and other friends met in Queen's Hall on Wednesday evening to welcome home the Rev. A. J. Bray, pastor of the church, after his absence in the West and in England. The programme consisted in speeches and recitations, interspersed with music, instrumental and vocal, by Mrs. Rockwood, Mrs. McEntyre, Mr. Delahunt, Mr. Hird and others. Among the speakers were the Revs. Mr. Barnes, Gavin Lang and A. J. Bray. The Rev. Mr. Barnes, in welcoming Mr. Bray, spoke of the mistaken idea that religion must be kept entirely separate from the business of everyday life, and congratulated Zion Church and especially its pastor on their course in the matter. The Rev. Mr. Lang spoke to much the same effect, and thought it might be well for many of our city churches which were overburdened with debt to follow the example of Zion Church and address itself to the public in a public hall. The Rev. Mr. Bray expressed his thanks for the welcome he had received, and spoke humorously of the ignorance in England regarding Canada. He was confident that a large stream of emigration would flow from England to the North-West next year. Refreshments were provided by the ladies of the congregation at the close of the addresses.

Cruelty to Animals.

Abraham Kent, cattle dealer, was fined $10 and costs for bringing 26 horned cattle and 16 sheep from Lachute to Mile End, a distance of 43 miles, in one car, the carrying capacity of which would be sufficient for only 16 or 17 head. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals prosecuted, and Mr. Dugas announced his intention of putting a stop to this practice.

Vennor Vaticinates.

Severe gales again between 23rd and 26th of present month with cold and stormy weather and snow falls for Lower St. Lawrence and Maritime Provinces. Snow in far West. Wintry weather in Great Britain. Rain belt across Texas.

A further meeting will be held to consider the matter to-morrow.

GUARDING THE PREMIER.—LONDON, Oct. 20.—A gentleman who has just returned from Hawarden says that the Premier is still confined to his house by a chill and a sore throat he caught when out in the woods surrounding his castle for the purpose of ascertaining what damage the late gales had done to the trees. He did not rise to-day until past one. No one was admitted to the castle, and those approaching it are closely scanned by the policemen, of whom there are four on duty, relieved by relays. The gentlemen met there the chief clerk of the police of the district, who said that the measure was a precautionary one, undertaken with the idea of deterring any attempt to molest Mr. Gladstone. Hawarden Park is, as a placard at the entrance states, "free to visitors from sunrise to sunset," and the sombre uniform of a policeman is strangely out of keeping in the peaceful pleasure grounds of Hawarden, a typical English country gentleman's estate. It is a most unusual sight in England.

BRITISH INTERESTS IN SOUTH AFRICA—LONDON, October 21.—A despatch from Pietermaritzburg to the Times says: "It is reported that the Transvaal Volksraad has sent a reply to England. Nothing has transpired as to its contents, but it is believed to be pacific." The Natal Legislative Council has passed the resolution, of which notice had been given, that General Sir Evelyn Wood, the British High Commissioner, be informed that the present form of government is no longer suited to Natal.

"PASSAIC" THIS TIME.—LONDON, Oct. 21.—The race for the Cambridgeshire Trial Plate, at the Sandown Park Autumn Meeting, distance one mile and a quarter, was won by Mr. P. Lorillard's three-years-old bay colt "Passaic." Mr. F. Hardinge's two-years-old bay filly "Kate Reilly," second, and Mr. C. Hibbert's five-years-old chestnut horse, "Mar," third. Six ran.

They are said to be pressing the claims of certain of their nationality for Senate appointments. Mr. Coursol, M.P., is mentioned as likely to succeed to Mr. Penny's seat in the Senate.

THE VACANT OFFICE of Chief Architect of the Public Works Deparment has been indirectly offered alternately to Messrs. Hopkins and Hutchison, of Montreal, Mr. Sheard and Mr. Stone, of Toronto. As the salary has been reduced to $3,400 a year they did not accept, and it is probable Mr. Lecourt will get the place.

TROUBLED IRELAND.

The Land League Declared Illegal—The Proclamation.

DUBLIN, October 21.—Earl Cowper, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has issued the following proclamation:—

Whereas, an association styling itself The Irish National Land League, has existed for some time past, assuming to interfere with the Queen's subjects in the free exercise of their lawful rights, and especially to control the relations between the landlords and tenants in Ireland.

Whereas, the designs of the association are being sought to be effected by an organized system of intimidation, by attempting to obstruct the processes and the execution of the Queen's writs, and by seeking to deter the Queen's subjects from fulfilling their contracts and following their lawful callings and occupations.

Whereas, the said association has now avowed its purpose to be to prevent the payment of all rent and to effect the subversion of law as administered in the Queen's name in Ireland.

Now we hereby warn all persons that the said association styling itself The Irish National Land League, and by whatever other name it may be called or known, is an unlawful and criminal association, and that all meetings and assemblies to carry out or promote its designs or purposes are alike unlawful and criminal, and will be prevented and, if necessary, dispersed by force. We hereby warn all subjects of Her Majesty the Queen, who may have become connected with the said association, to disconnect themselves and to abstain from giving further countenance thereto, and we do hereby make known that all the powers and resources at our command will be employed to protect the Queen's subjects in Ireland in the free exercise of their lawful rights and in the peaceful pursuit of their lawful callings and occupations, to enforce the fulfilment of all lawful obligations and to save the processes of the law and the execution of the Queen's writs from hindrance or obstruction, and we do hereby call on all loyal and well affected subjects of the Crown and to aid us in upholding and maintaining the authority of law and the supremacy of the Queen in this her realm of Ireland.

Trade and Commerce.

WEEKLY REVIEW — WHOLESALE PRICES.

STAR OFFICE, October 21.

The trade situation has undergone no material alteration since last review. As previously stated the bulk of the Fall trade is over in some leading branches, but in others the change to more wintry weather has stimulated the distribution of merchandise very considerably. There is likely to be a good export demand all Fall for apples, potatoes, hops and other farm produce at paying prices. Winter apples are now $3 to 3.50 per bbl, and early rose potatoes, 70c to 75c per bag.

GROCERIES.—The trade with the country is very good for the season, and has never been much better than at the present time. Remittances are satisfactory, and the business situation is a healthy one.

SUGARS.—The market has risen ⅛c since our last report, and is now steady. We quote granulated, 9⅝c to 10c; yellow refined, 7⅞c to 8⅞c; Porto Rico, 7½c to 7⅞c; Barbadoes, 7⅞c to 7⅞c.

CANNED GOODS.—Tomatoes are scarce, nearly the whole stock having gone into second hands. Prices are now $1.55 to 1.60. Other canned goods are not quoted yet, but peaches, it is said, will be unusually dear.

TEAS.—Good medium and fine Japans are in demand at former prices. Seconds Young Hysons are scarce and in demand at wholesale at 36c to 39c. We repeat last week's quotations;—Quotations run about as follows:—Japan, common, 22½c to 25c; good common to medium, 27c to 30c; fair to good, 34c to 45c; fine to choice, 45c to 55c; Nagasaki, 25c to 35c; Young Hyson, firsts, 48c to 55c; seconds, 38c to 45c; thirds, 30c to 35c; fourths, 26c to 29c; gunpowder, low grades, 38c to 40c; good to fine, 50c to 60c; finest, 65c to 70c; Imperial, medium to good, 33c to 38c; fine to finest, 45c to 60c; Twankey, common to good, 29c to 32c; Oolong, common, 33c to 38c; good to choice, 40c to 65c; Congou, common, 26c to 32c; medium to good, 32c to 40c; fine to finest, 41c to 60c; Souchong, common, 28c to 30c; medium to good, 33c to 45c; fine to choice, 50c to 70c.

FRUITS.—Valencia raisins keep firm at 9c to 9¼c, and currants are steady at 7c to 7¼c. Some leading houses state that the high price of Valencias is checking the demand, and it is not thought likely present rates will be sustained as the crop is not so short as at first reported. There is not much likelihood of currants being lower, because French buyers are taking large lots from producers for wine making. Layer raisins, $2.95 to 3.00; loose muscatel, $3.10 to 3.15; London layers, $3.35 to 3.40. Nuts are unchanged. S. S. almonds, 15c to 16c; walnuts, 10c; filberts, 10c to 11c.

SYRUPS AND MOLASSES.—The former are quiet. In molasses we hear of sales of Sugar House at 36c to 37½c. We quote:—Bright 62c to 78c; Medium, 55c to 58c; fair, 51c to 54c. Molasses, Barbadoes, 57c to 59c; Trinidad, 50c to 52c; Sugar House, 36c to 40c.

SPICES.—Not much doing, pepper is held firmly. Cassia, per lb, 13c to 18c; mace, 90c to $1; cloves, 40c to 50c; Jamaica ginger, bl, 22c to 28c: Jamaica ginger, unbl, 17c to 21c; Cochin ginger, 14c to 18c; African, 10c to 11c; black pepper, 15c to 17c; pimento, 14c to 15c; mustard, 4 lb jars, 19c to 20c; mustard, 1 lb jars, 24c to 25c; nutmegs, unlimed, 85c to 95c; limed, 65c to 90c.

COFFEE is still difficult to move in any quantity and prices continue nominally as follows:—Mocha, 32c to 33c; O. G. Java, 26c to 29c; Singapore and Ceylon, 22c to 24c; Maracaibo, 21c to 23c; Jamaica, 17½c to 20c; Rio, 16c to 18c; chicory, 12c to 12½c.

HOPS.—The market is unsettled and we quote 19c to 22c, according to quality and size of lot.

FISH.—Labrador herrings have sold largely at $6 for new arrivals, now held at $6.25. We quote North Shore Salmon at $18, $19 and $20 for Nos. 3, 2 and 1. No. 1 Split herrings, $5.25 to 5.50 per bbl; dry Cod, $4; green do, $4.50 for No. 1; $3.75 for No. 2; mackerel, No. 2, $5 to 5.50 per bbl; No. 3, $4.25; white fish, $4.75 per bbl, and salmon trout, $4.50; No. 2 split herrings are worth $3.75 to 4, and No. 1 half bbls, $3.25.

IRON AND HARDWARE.—The country trade is being liberally supplied with miscellaneous hardware, and higher prices are being asked for certain lines of such. Bar iron has been selling freely at $1.90 to 2. Several thousand boxes of tin plates have changed hands on the basis of $4.75 for I.C. coke, and $5.50 for charcoal. Prices are now 25c per box higher. The prices of pig iron keeps firm as stocks here are almost run out; only small lots are now offered, and winter freight rates, as before stated, are in force. The following are revised quotations:—Pig iron, per ton, Coltness, $23.50 to 24.50; Siemens, $23 to 24.50; Gartsherrie, $23 to 24.50; Summerlee, $23.50 to 24.50; Langloan, $23.50 to 24.50; Eglinton, $23.50; Carnbroe, $23.50. The local market for flour has kept fairly steady of late, considering the large receipts, large stock and light demand. Holders now feel confident that buyers on Lower Ports account will have to go into the market this week for the Newfoundland steamers in port, but it is also rumored that the latter have opened negotiations in the West. The market to-day appeared somewhat shaky, and prices of leading brands were easier. The only sale reported was 250 barrels of Spring Extra at $6.45.

Wholesale Provision Market.

Outside of the home movement there was nothing much done in dairy produce to-day, and prices are about steady. Messrs. Hodgson & Sons write as follows from Liverpool under date of October 8th:—"Butter has only been in small demand, and the enquiry is for really choice parcels principally, medium grades being somewhat neglected. We quote finest creamery, 118s to 125s; other grades of American and Canadian at 75s to 110." Eggs may be quoted here at 20c to 23c according to freshness. Last Edition.

THE WESTERN UNION COMPANY.

The Mutual Union makes Serious Charges against it.

The New York Times states that a circular has been issued by the Mutual Union Telegraph Company, addressed to the President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, alleging that the officers and directors of that Company paid certain sums of money to an employee of the contractors for building the Mutual Union Company, to bribe him to steal certain documents from his employers which it was hoped might be used to the injury of the Mutual Union Company. The circular in question further alleges that the Mutual Union Company hold an original letter of Mr. Wiman, a director of the Western Union, directing the payment to the clerk and requesting that one of the documents thus to be received should be handed to the General Manager, and also the receipt of the General Manager of the Western Union for the paper in question. It also alleges that the Mutual Union holds an autograph letter of one of the Directors of the Western Union offering to provide the clerk who supplied the document with a situation of $1,000 a year in the event of his losing his present position. The circular concludes :—"We respectfully request that all of the papers relating to our affairs be returned, and that hereafter the opposition to this company be limited to an honorable rivalry. The very high character of the large majority of the Directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and the relations which they sustain to the other great corporations of the country, give us every confidence that they will not, even by their silence, appear to approve of this conduct of their associates. The $250 will be returned when application shall be made for it and proper receipt given."

The President of the Mutual Union stated to a Times reporter, "we are prepared to prove every allegation in the circular, and more if it be necessary."

Mr. Erastus Wiman, in an interview with a N. Y. Herald reporter, most emphatically denied the charges made. He said: "Many parties know, and I have made no special attempts to conceal the fact, that I have been endeavoring to learn something about the affairs of the Mutual Union Company. My principal object was to ascertain whether the company was started in opposition to telegraph companies in Canada in which I am interested. I am curious to know what amount has been subscribed to the stock of the company. The story is that $50,000 was subscribed in Canada, and I am anxious to know whether there has not been an illegal division of the money for the purpose of building telegraph lines in this country. But in all my inquiries in this direction I claim to have acted properly."

Bank of Montreal Dividend.

The Bank of Montreal to-day declared a half yearly dividend of 5 per cent. (4 per cent. and 1 bonus). The stock was not materially influenced at the morning session of the Stock Board, the news being received too late. At noon Bank of Montreal stood at 202 bid, 202¼ asked, ¼ per cent. better than before.

In the afternoon Bank of Montreal stock fell 2¾ per cent. to 199¼ bid. The break is due to the fact that brokers have to pay 5 and generally as high as 6 per cent. for money with which to carry bank stocks.

DEPREDATIONS OF TUNISIAN INSURGENTS.—TUNIS, Oct. 21.—The state of the country around Susa is unsatisfactory. The insurgents have carried off 4,000 sheep. Mehdia is threatened. Ali Bey has been ordered to march from Mesiour to Zaghouan.

TWELVE PERSONS DROWNED.—LONDON, October 21.—The British bark "Lebere" is abandoned off Douglas, Isle of Man. A life-boat rescuing the crew of the bark capsized, and twelve persons were drowned.

SHIPPING DISASTERS.—LONDON, October 21.—Accounts of shipping disasters continue to come from all around the coast. A brigantine was wrecked near Falmouth and all hands drowned.

AMERICAN.

THE GUITEAU CASE.—WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—In the Guiteau case this morning Judge Cox decided it was clearly in the discretion of the Court to allow expenses for a reasonable number of witnesses to be paid in the same manner as Government witnesses. He will decide in chambers as to the number of witnesses to be allowed. The Judge deferred the assignment of counsel until after a consultation with Mr. Scoville.

TRICKETT CHALLENGES HANLAN.—ST. LOUIS, October 20.—Trickett, the Australian oarsman, has sent a formal challenge to Hanlan to row a three mile race on the Creve Cœur Lake, near here, for one thousand dollars a side and the championship of the world, on or about the end of November next, the date to be agreed on at the signing of the articles.

LACROSSE IN NEW YORK.—NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Considerable interest is manifested in New York in the coming lacrosse exhibition, in which the Shamrocks, of Montreal, are to participate and meet the New York Club. The two teams are to be entertained at dinner after the match by Mr. Erastus Wiman, at the rooms of the Westchester Polo Club.

THE MISSING BALLOON FOUND.—CHIPPEWA FALLS, WIS., October 21.—Prof. King and the Signal Officer who accompanied him have arrived here safely. The balloon descended in the woods 65 miles from here. The men were lost in the swamps five days, and suffered a great deal.

TROUBLED IRELAND.

Passive Resistance—Government Spies in the League Camp.

DUBLIN, Oct. 21.—The Freeman's Journal publishes an advertisement from the Land League, advising the people, while remaining firm, to abandon for the present all projected meetings which the Government could take advantage of.

NEW YORK, October 21.—The Herald's Dublin special says the Government had spies in the League, and have known every turn of the movement. It is on information thus divulged that the leaguers were arrested for treasonable practices. It seems hardly possible that the striking of Parnell from the list of Justices of the Peace of Wicklow could have been mere spite. A much stronger reason supplied is that the Government possesses knowledge on which they are now preparing Parnell's indictment for treason. The Registrar of the Land Court yesterday created much laughter by erroneously declaring the "Court of the Land League" had opened.

MINNIGREY.

BY J. FREDERICK SMITH.

"Forestalled, my dear Frank—forestalled!" replied Gus. "Hickman came and offered his services—it was impossible to refuse the kind old fellow's offer. I am sure you will forgive me."

"Forgive!" repeated Wilton; "I have nothing to complain of—of course I shall accompany you to the ground. I can't make it out," he added, with a smile; "I might be challenged, shot dead, and buried; and deuce a being, except yourself, would regret me; but with you the case is very different: the strictest disciplinarian to the service proffers his assistance as your second. I should not have been astonished if Talbot himself had come out with you; for, despite his grave looks, I am convinced he is as much attached to you as if you were his son."

"Talbot, now you are falling into the absurd!"

The words had scarcely passed his lips when the party named entered the room. Wilton imagining that the colonel had returned for the purpose of some private conversation with his friend, would have withdrawn; but much to our hero's relief, his visitor prevented him.

"I have nothing to say to Lieutenant Manton, Mr. Wilton," he said, in his usual quiet manner, "which you need not hear; pray remain."

Gus looked at his friend as if he wished him to remain, too; so Frank quietly took a seat, and began caressing Mingo.

"Lieutenant Manton," said the colonel, "you had a conversation with Lieutenant Howard this morning?"

"I had."

"And the result?"

"I expect every instant to receive a message from him."

"You intend to meet him?"

"The eyes of our hero flashed fire.

"Meet him!" he exclaimed; "ay, colonel; do you think I am without a heart? His pride, his insolence I could have forgiven—smiled at the petty malice with which he tyrannised over me; but he insulted virtue in its very image—laid a ruffian hand upon the girl I love—yes, love, Colonel Talbot," he repeated, "with as true a passion as ever glowed within the heart of man—the girl whose sufferings and captivity have rendered her doubly dear to me! You cannot do me the injustice to doubt that I shall meet him?"

"In that case," observed his visitor, in a kinder tone, "you will require a friend?"

Wilton glanced at Gus, who imagined that his ears must have deceived him. The former bit his lips, to conceal a smile.

"Certainly," replied the young man, "I shall require a friend—or rather I have found one."

"Lieutenant Wilton?" demanded Talbot.

"No, colonel; my friend the adjutant, who generously offered."

"What! Hickman!" exclaimed the astonished Talbot; "whom I have heard rail against duelling by the hour together—who regards every bullet fired out of the field of battle as an assassination—who regards a breach of discipline as worse than a breach of the whole Ten Commandments!"

"Even so, colonel," said Gus.

His visitor reflected for a few moments before he resumed the conversation.

"You must leave the affair in my hands," he said. "Nay, I will take no denial; Hickman, I am sure will not feel offended, when I explain my reasons to him; but I particularly wish, for my old friend Manton's sake, and for your own," he added in a kinder tone than he had yet employed, "to be your second on this occasion."

"Colonel Talbot!" explained the young officer, with a look of astonishment; "you are jesting with me?"

"I seldom jest," was the reply.

"Pardon me; but the surprise——the——"

"I understand you perfectly," interrupted his commanding officer; "the step I have taken I am aware is unusual, but I have my reasons; you accept my services?"

The offer was too flattering to be declined.

"As for Hickman, I undertake to arrange the affair with him. This, I presume, is the first affair of the kind in which you have been engaged?"

"The very first."

"I thought so," said Talbot; "you must not feel offended, therefore, "if I remind you that from this moment you are a mere automaton in my hands; that you have neither will nor action of your own in the affair; that you are either to fight or to decline as I shall decide; in one word, that your honor is in my hands."

"I could not wish it in nobler ones," was the reply.

"As soon as Howard's friend arrives," continued the colonel, "you will refer him to me."

Gus could only bow his head in token of assent, so completely was he bewildered by the whole proceeding. Nodding to the young men, Colonel Talbot took his leave; just as he reached the door, he turned and paused; then, holding out his hand with a grave smile to our hero, he added, "remember your honor is in the hands of a friend!" and left the room.

"Gus!" exclaimed Wilton, eyeing his friend with a look of comical surprise.

"Frank!"

"Do you understand this!"

"Understand it!" repeated the young man; "ask me to read the Sphynx; decipher the tables of Ptolemy, which have puzzled my kind old guardian for the last thirty years of his life. I am mystified; I begin to doubt my own identity, the identity of every one around me."

"Not mine I trust!" interrupted Wilton.

Nothing could exceed the astonishment of Ensign——, when our hero referred him to Colonel Talbot as his second; the young aristocrat began to think that the gipsy parvenu, as Howard called him, was not quite so doubtful a personage as had been represented: at first he thought it was a jest that Gus was playing off at his expense, till the seriousness of his manner convinced him to the contrary. Still it was not without considerable hesitation that he announced to the colonel, who received him with perfect urbanity, the purport of his visit.

"Certainly," replied Talbot, after having listened to the message; "at present I know of no reason which should prevent my friend Lieutenant Manton from meeting Mr. Howard. When do you propose the encounter should take place?"

"To-morrow morning, colonel."

"And the hour?"

"Six,"

"Good!" said Talbot, making a memorandum in his tablets; "and the weapons?"

"Pistols."

"Say to your friend that we shall be upon the ground punctually at the hour arranged. You will find him," he added, "most probably at the shooting gallery."

The messenger colored to the temples beneath the glance of the speaker; for, by a strange coincidence, the shooting gallery, where Howard for the last three weeks had been a constant attendant, was the place appointed for him to find him, and report the result of his mission. He was not naturally a heartless youth; his faults were those of education and his caste.

Lieutent Howard had invited a party of his friends to witness his skill, and the young men had adjourned to the gallery. The address with which he repeatedly hit the spot on the ace of spades fixed in the centre of the target elicited the warmest admiration.

"Do you think the fellow will fight?" demanded Captain Berry, alluding, of course, to our hero.

"I trust so," was the reply.

"Yes; it would be a pity so much practice should be thrown away. But perhaps, after all, Howard does not intend to kill him."

The look of ferocious hate which the countenance of the marksman expressed convinced those who were watching him how little chance there was of his antagonist escaping. He had a pistol in his hand; he deliberately raised it, and for the sixth time successively hit the card.

"Poor devil," exclaimed—or rather lisped—a young cornet of dragoons; "there will be a vacancy in his troop by this time to-morrow."

"I trust so," said Howard, coolly. "But here comes the ensign. Well," he demanded, impatiently, "the reply?"

"To-morrow morning at six," said the messenger.

Howard turned to his friends. "Gentlemen," he said, "remember you are engaged to breakfast with me at seven!"

And taking a pistol from the hand of one of the attendants at the gallery, he prepared to fire again.

"By-the-bye," said one of the officers, "who has the fellow got for his second—some parvenu like himself, of course?"

"That is the most extraordinary thing of all," replied the ensign. "Whom do you imagine?"

"Wilton?"

"No."

"Perhaps the old adjutant?"

"No."

"Out with it," impatiently muttered Howard.

"Colonel Talbot."

Just as his friend pronounced the name, Howard fired. This time he missed the mark: the group of officers exchanged glances. Talbot was not only the intimate friend of the commander-in-chief, but one of the men most respected in the army for his courage and honorable character. The very fact of his appearing on the ground as second to any man was sure to create an impression unfavorable to his opponent.

"Pshaw!" said Howard, petulantly throwing aside the discharged pistol; "my hand is getting tired."

At this moment an orderly from the adjutant-general's office approached, and placed a letter in his hands. No sooner had he broken the seal, and read the first two or three lines, than he turned deadly pale. Without a word he thrust it in his bosom, and rushed like a madman from the gallery.

Various were the comments passed amongst the young men on his departure. The evening, however, explained the mystery: it was read in general orders that the commander-in-chief had ordered a court-martial on Lieutenant Howard, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

By the kind forethought of Colonel Talbot, not a word was whispered reflecting on the courage of our hero. The reputation of his second was a shield against the malignancy of his enemies.

CHAPTER XL.

"The illusion o'er, the spell dispersed,
Life and life's bubble burst."
HEIR OF THE SEPT.

Our readers may easily imagine the shock which, to a proud and ardent nature like La Pascata's, the base proposition of Gomez produced. He had wounded her to the tenderest point: she had toiled for him—suffered for him: and despite the impression which the generous conduct of the young soldier had made upon her heart, in all probability it would have remained faithful to him, had he but remained faithful to himself. Men are fools when they show the woman they profess to love how little they value their fidelity: it is the surest way to lose them. After the first emotion had subsided, the heart of the actress felt lighter than it had done for many years: it had received and welcomed a new inmate—one whom she fancied could appreciate both her genius and character.

She was in that dreamy, half-excited state which follows violent emotion, when Gus was announced. A deep blush suffused her countenance as she rose to meet him.

"Welcome!" she exclaimed, "most welcome!" at the same time gracefully extending her hand to her visitor. "Did I not fear to make you vain, I should confess that my thoughts were of you."

"Of me alone?" demanded the young man coolly, without touching the proffered hand which the actress, with a disappointed air, let fall by her side.

"Of whom else should I think?" she replied.

"I cannot presume to read a mind so variable as yours; perhaps of the son of the corregidor, or the young Prince Piombini."

"Jealous!" though the actress with a smile.

"Perhaps of Mendez, the money-changer," he added, in a reproachful tone.

The smile vanished from the lips of La Pascata, and a look of agony succeeded: that name at once destroyed the vision she had formed, for the tone in which it was uttered convinced her that the treacherous part she had undertaken was discovered.

"Of Mendez?" she faltered.

"Aye, of Mendez, lady," repeated Gus; "the man who leagued with my deadliest enemy to blast my honor; rob my life of all that gives life value; brand me in the eyes of my companions and the world as a felon, a mean, despicable forger, a thing for scorn to point at! The plot was deeply laid, the snare well set, the scene well acted, and the part studied to perfection: they knew where I was weakest and struck accordingly!"

As La Pascata listened to the accusing words which fell with fearful distinctness upon her heart, she gradually sank upon the seat from which, upon the entrance of the speaker she had risen, and veiled her burning countenance with her hands. The dream she had so lately indulged in was vanished; she felt humbled, crushed and desolate.

The speaker in his indignation was pitiless; her tears, her despair, appeared to him but a display of that talent which had made her the idol of the opera of Lisbon.

Testimony of an Eminent Physican.

The proofs which authenticated the claims of Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver oil and hypophosphites to be regarded as the finest pulmonic in use, emanate in many instances from physicians of eminence. Dr. J. Corlis of St. Thomas, writes as follows:—

"During ten years of active service, I. have had occasion to prescribe Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites. Since your preparation came under my notice I have tried it, and take great pleasure in saying that it has given great satisfaction, and it is to be preferred to any. I have ever used or recommended. I have used it in my own family during heavy colds, and in every instance a happy result has followed. I cheerfully recommend its use in all cases of debility arising from weakness of the muscular or nervous system."

What can be more convincing than this? Here is a professional man of long practice and high reputation bearing direct and positive testimony to the value of a remedy which he has thoroughly tested. Who can read and doubt? Assuredly no one of common sense.

This matchless specific for throat and lung diseases is also most serviceable in scrofulous cases. Purchasers should be careful to observe that each wrapper has a fac simile of the firm's signature upon it. Prepared only by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Can.

MAITLAND, Ont., Feb. 26, 1880.

Messrs. Perry Davis & Son & Lawrence, Montreal,

I have much pleasure in adding to the number of the numerous testimonials you have already received, as to the value of your renowned Pain-Killer. I have sold it, and used it in my family for twenty years or more, and have no hesitation in saying that it is the best patent medicine I have ever used for the purposes for which it is recommended; and, moreover, every person to whom I have ever sold it has been perfectly satisfied with it, and I know many persons who will not go to bed at night unless they are sure there is a bottle of "Perry Davis" in the house. All who have used it once will use it again; it makes friends and retains them.

Yours truly, JOHN DUMBRILLE, Druggist.

Sold Everywhere, 20c and 50c per bottle.
