Before June 1?

Summit meet a possibility

WASHINGTON (AP) — An East-West summit conference on disarmament before June 1 appeared today to be a definite possibility. But Soviet Premier Khrushchev's reported proposal for such a session March 14 seemed likely to get a polite Western turn-down.

Bobby arrives in Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (Reuters) — Robert Kennedy arrived in Indonesia today as city workers hurried to whitewash anti-American signs plastered on downtown Jakarta buildings.

The U.S. attorney-general and his wife, Ethel, came by plane from Hong Kong via Singapore as they continued their round-the-world tour. Their plane was three hours late because of a late departure.

City workers whitewashed signs on public buildings reading "Kennedy go home" and "America no, Indonesia yes." Army officials declined to comment whether measures would be taken against those responsible, but said strict precautions were being taken to guard Kennedy.

The slogans accused the United States of siding with the Dutch in the New Guinea dispute and warned the Americans to keep their hands off the territory.

'NOTHING NEW'

(In Singapore, Kennedy told reporters a peaceful solution to the New Guinea problem is possible. Told about the signs in Jakarta, he laughingly said "they are nothing new. I've seen them before."

The left-wing peoples youth front handed letters to Attorney-General Sunawan and Foreign Ministry Secretary-General Suro Kusumowidagdo accusing the U.S. press of suppressing the Indonesian point of view in the dispute.

The letters demanded that Kennedy be asked if the United States would guarantee it would stay out of any conflict between Indonesia and The Netherlands and deny use of its bases to Dutch ships and planes.

Four ounce fish biggest of derby

COLMAN, S.D. (AP) — Some 1,200 participants and more than 3,000 spectators cheered Sunday as Rich Closs landed the biggest fish in the annual ice fishing derby at Lake Madison.

The angler won first prize, a 14-foot boat, for his catch — a four-ounce perch. Other prizes were awarded by lot. Closs's perch was the only fish caught.

Allied planes fly W. Berlin corridors

BERLIN (Reuters) — British and U.S. planes flew in the air corridors to West Berlin today as Russia warned they were making the flights at their own risk.

But a Soviet embassy spokesman in East Berlin denied Western statements that Russia wanted exclusive use of the corridors at certain times and altitudes.

He said the Russians merely "informed" the Western allies that Soviet military planes would fly at indicated heights and times.

"If the allies want to send their own planes to the altitudes at these times, there is nothing to stop them. They will, however, be warned and will take the full responsibility in case of accidents."

He added that Western press reports "distorted and dramatized" the situation.

He said "the Soviet Union controls the air corridors between West Berlin and West Germany and has a right to use them whenever it likes."

Four British transports flew in two of the corridors in defiance of the Soviet claim, an RAF spokesman said.

A U.S. Air Force spokesman said American military aircraft were "just flying routinely" in the corridors. Four U.S. Air Force planes landed at Tempelhof Airport.

Questioned about the Western moves, a British embassy spokesman in Bonn said "the

23rd government since 1943

Italian politicians aiming for coalition

ROME (Reuters) — Political leaders today headed into bargaining aimed at the formation of a centre-left coalition that would be Italy's 23rd government since the fall of fascism in 1943.

Caretaker Premier Amintore Fanfani, a Christian Democrat and long-time advocate of the "opening to the left," planned to meet with leaders of the Social Democrats and Republicans, prospective coalition partners. Fanfani also will be seeing Pietro Nenni, leader of the left-wing socialists, whose parliamentary support would be needed by the coalition.

The various party executives were expected to meet to draw up their positions in the negotiations, expected to take several days.

Fanfani, 54-year-old professor and three-time premier, said the coalition would aim at economic planning to enable the impoverished south to share prosperity with the industrial north.

He said it also would improve educational opportunity and reform public administration to meet modern demands.

Fanfani and his Christian Democrat government resigned Feb. 2 after the party congress voted overwhelmingly in favor of formation of a new government.

YPC meeting

OTTAWA (CP) — The Young Progressive Conservatives Association will hold its annual meeting here April 13, President John MacLean, said Sunday.

Mr. MacLean, MP for Winnipeg North Centre, said about 500 to 600 delegates from across Canada are expected to attend the one-day conference.

The announcement came following closed sessions of the national executive to decide meeting details.

2 die in crash

TONOPAH, Nev. (AP) — Two of Nevada's most prominent businessmen, hotelman Newt Crumley and banker E. J. Questa, were found dead Sunday in the wreckage of their light plane. A U.S. Air Force helicopter located the wreckage in the Monitor Mountain range foothills, 36 miles northeast of this west-central Nevada town. Crumley, 50-year-old president of the Holiday Hotel, and Questa, 63, president of the Statewide First National Bank, vanished Saturday night on a flight from Palm Springs, Calif., to Elko, Nev.

France bracing for new strikes

PARIS (AP) — The government strengthened its riot forces throughout France today as anti-De Gaulle leftists prepared for two days of strikes and demonstrations to protest "fascism" and Secret Army Organization terror in Algeria and France.

A half-hour strike called for noon was expected to affect railroad, subway and bus traffic as well as electrical, gas and possibly telephone service.

University students were asked to boycott early afternoon study and class sessions.

New clashes between the police and demonstrating mobs were feared at a demonstration tonight called by the socialists, Communists and other leftist groups to protest the secret army's continuing terrorism and French police action against leftist demonstrators Thursday.

The government banned the demonstration and said force would be used if necessary to break it up. Leftist leaders called for the demonstrators to parade in silence and calm.

CALLED MARTYRS

The leftist leaders also urged their followers to attend funeral services Tuesday in a hastily built chapel in a labor hall for some of the dead from last Thursday's riot. The Communists called them "anti-fascist martyrs" and said they deserved a "grandiose and dignified funeral."

One Communist leader said the real target of the protests is the de Gaulle government. He charged it had opened the way for fascism through "collusion with the secret army," which opposes independence for Algeria. Interior Minister Roger Frey counter-charged that the Communists and their "blind followers" were being duped by the secret army into trying to bring down the government.

Officials said 30,000 extra riot troops and 2,400 auxiliary police, backed up by about 130

light tanks and armored cars, were on hand in Paris to meet any disorders.

The Christian Labor Union and the student federation withheld support of the demonstration tonight. However, the Christian labor union announced its co-operation with the largest

Communist-led union for a four-hour strike tomorrow morning.

The school teachers' federation called a 24-hour strike and urged parents to keep their children home from school.

Appendix removed

Charles' condition said satisfactory

LONDON (Reuters) — Prince Charles was reported in "satisfactory" condition today as he awaited a visit from his mother after undergoing surgery for acute appendicitis.

A medical bulletin issued from his hospital here said the 13-year-old heir to the British throne spent a comfortable night.

Charles was operated on at 2 a.m. after a 38-mile dash to London from his school at Cheam in Buckinghamshire.

He spent the night in a private ward of London's Hospital for Sick Children, attended by two nurses, after his appendix was removed by Dr. David Waterson.

The Queen authorized the operation by telephone from Windsor Castle where she was spending the weekend before returning to London today.

Speculation undiminished

Electoral nerve war continues in Commons

OTTAWA (CP) — Parliament steps gingerly today into another round of what Opposition Leader Pearson has aptly described as the "electoral war of nerves."

All eyes focus on Prime Minister Diefenbaker amid undiminished speculation that the Parliament elected March 31, 1958, will be dissolved towards the end of the week for an election Monday, April 16.

There is also, however, an informed body of opinion that the election will be in June or in the fall. Because Easter intervenes, the first two Mondays of June are generally considered the next most likely election dates after April 16.

Last week the government got most of its major welfare legislation through the Commons—increases from $55 to $65 a month in old age pensions, old age assistance and blind persons allowances. A similar increase in disabled persons allowances need only final reading, scheduled for today when the Commons opens its sitting at 2:30 p.m.

SPURS SPECULATION

An unusual feature of this week—and another spur to the gallipole election speculation—is that the Senate is starting its work week tonight instead of Tuesday, as is customary early in a session.

Senator Walter Aseltine, government leader in the Upper House, told the senators when they adjourned Thursday that he expects "the Senate will have a very busy week." He mentioned the bills on old age assistance and blind and disabled persons allowances. The Senate already has given first reading to the old age pension legislation.

After the formality of third reading of the disabled allowances bill today, the order of Commons business set out by the government concerns three national development projects—

the core of the Conservative platform in 1958—and the remainder of the welfare legislation. The development projects are proposed railway extensions in northern Alberta, northern Manitoba and the Gaspé region of Quebec. The welfare measures are amendments to the Civilian

War Pensions and Allowances

Act, the Children of War Dead

(Education Assistance) Act, the War Service Grants Act and the veterans insurance act.

Beyond that, in the estimation of some veteran observers, there is little on the Commons order paper or in the throne speech which cannot wait until after an election as far as voter appeal is concerned.

PROGRESS RAPID

Regardless of how imminent

the election is, the Commons has made rapid progress since the session opened Jan. 18.

Francis Gary Powers

Powers to face grilling

WASHINGTON (AP)—American U-2 spy pilot Francis Gary Powers faces detailed grilling from U.S. intelligence agents when he completes a secret rendezvous with his wife.

Among questions awaiting the flyer, free after 21 months in a Russian prison, is: What really happened the morning of May 1, 1960, when he was downed deep inside the Soviet Union? And how much did he tell the Russians about his mission?

Presumably, preliminary questioning began shortly after the 32-year-old pilot crossed a Berlin bridge into U.S. hands Saturday in a two-for-one trade for Soviet spy Rudolf Abel.

Official sources did not say Powers is in military or government custody. But ever since he crossed a white line where Communist East Germany ends and West Berlin begins, contrived secrecy has cloaked his movements.

ANNOUNCEMENT BRIEF

All the White House would say in a brief announcement Sunday was that Powers was home again and that he had been reunited with members of his family.

In a far-flung game of hide-and-seek Sunday, reporters tried to find out where Powers and his wife, Barbara, were holding their reunion. Various leads pointed to Maryland's eastern shore but the exact meeting place could not be pinned down.

Powers presumably met also with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Powers, of Norton, Va.

The Central Intelligence Agency was believed to be setting up a board of inquiry to look fully into the Powers case.

Another figure in the unprecedented exchange arrived home Sunday. He was James Britt Donovan, the New York lawyer who defended Abel in Here is story of the people...

The terrorists and the victims of SAO

... behind headlines from France

By TOM A. CULLEN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

PARIS — (NEA) — You are a terrorist with orders to kill a man you have never seen before. You are to stalk this man until you know his habits as intimately as you know your own—then murder him in cold blood.

You walk the streets of Paris with enough plastic explosive in your suitcase to blow out a store front and, in doing so, to injure women and children who might be passing.

This is what you are and what you do if you are a member of the Secret Army Organization which commits these outrages daily in the name of "Algerie Francaise."

These SAO terrorists are desperate men with a desperate cause. For never in seven years of bloody warfare has peace in Algeria seemed so close as it does today. The French government is about to reach an agreement with the Moslem F.L.N. rebels after months of secret negotiations, and it seems that nothing can halt Algerian independence. Not even the rear-guard fight being waged by ex-Gen. Raoul Salan and his Secret Army Organization.

The SAO killers can, however, do incalculable harm, in the opinion of political observers. They can create an atmosphere of terror and thus weaken confidence in the De Gaulle government.

Who are these gunmen who Algerian war.

Probably few of the SAO killers now at large in France started their terrorist careers like Philippe Castille, 35, who threw a bomb into the crowded Casbah killing 15 Moslems. That was back in 1956.

Today Castille's face stares from the front page of French newspapers, for the young killer has been caught by the police in the act of setting up an SAO terror network here in Paris.

It is not an attractive face.

The eyes stare with the openness of two ripe olives baked in a pizza. One senses

that the soul behind them too is dead.

Operating in France, the SAO assassin's training in guerrilla warfare stands him in good stead. Frequently he has to start from scratch in building up a secret network of terrorists. Usually he has only the names of fascist crackpots he can contact and money to buy supplies.

He holes up in some sleazy hotel in Montmartre where no questions are asked. Gradually he procures equipment. Police found in Philippe Castille's room over 50 pounds of plastic explosive, plus detonators and fuses.

They also found detailed plans for 48 plastic explosions which were scheduled to take place Jan. 31 and Feb.

1. Police found a list of personalities who Castille had been assigned to wipe out.

One of the intended victims,

Colonel Debrosse, escaped by 24 hours, for he was scheduled to be murdered Jan. 31 and Castille was arrested on

Jan. 30. Among Castille's

papers police found a complete dossier on Debrosse, including his car license number, the time he usually left home for his office, the route

he followed.

The terrorist is by the nature of his calling cut off from the rest of humanity.

He has no one in whom he can confide. He watches the couples pass in the street

without sharing their happiness; as though separated from them by a glass wall.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The annual stockholders meeting of Walt Disney Productions was called to order.

Present in the studio theatre were 200 stockholders, mostly middle-aged but with a sprinkling of juvenile capitalists.

The meeting was called to order by company lawyer Gunther Lessing. He suggested waiving the reading of the minutes of the last meeting as well as the annual report.

"Is that satisfactory?" he asked.

"Very satisfactory," said a voice from the stockholders. The cheerful atmosphere may have been due to the firm's profits: $4,465,486 compared to a $1,342,037 loss the year before.

President Roy Disney made his report. Production chief Walter was not present—"we've got to keep him working" explained his brother.

ANOTHER GOOD YEAR

"We had a very good year and we're on the way to another good year," Roy said. He mentioned that Pinocchio in its fourth re-issue might double the box office total for its original release in 1940. He also called Bon Voyage the best picture out of Hollywood in four years.

There was a report on Disneyland—attendance going up, $6,000,000 in improvements this year. Then Roy fielded some

Outside Windsor Arena

Police and three spectators clash

WINDSOR — (Staff) — Three men, whom police said were under the influence of alcohol, engaged in a stand-off brawl against three Windsor policemen and some twenty bystanders after police had put them out of the arena during the second period of the hockey game for throwing an empty beer bottle on the ice, and for molesting three women.

The men were waiting for the three constables after the game. One man, the biggest and the one who seemed to be the leader of the trio hit one constable in the face.

The two other men then jumped on the stunned constable. When the two other policemen came out of the arena, they went to the help of the first constable who by that time, was on the ground being punched by the three.

It then broke into a wild brawl that lasted for a half hour and involved some twenty people.

Pushing, scratching and kicking was the order of the day as the fracas wore on. Finally, with the help of two Windsor hockey players, the police managed to corral the three into a squad car.

By that time, the three policemen and three law-breakers were all sporting cut lips or black eyes, or both.

Because the men heavily outweighed the constables in size, the police were forced to use their billys on one man. He was knocked unconscious and immediately taken to the St-Louis Hospital in Windsor. The other two were arrested and booked for attacking a police officer.

Municipal Police, Chief Esdras Turgeon, said that the men will appear in court in Sherbrooke sometime this week, to be charged.

Fund-raising banquet attended by over 500

Over 500 people attended the banquet held Sunday night under the auspices of the Sherbrooke-Orford branch of the Jeuneunesse Musicales de Canada.

The event was held to raise funds to send young musicians from this area for three week courses at the J.M.C. camp at Mount Orford next summer. The banquet was under the patronage of Senator and Mrs. C. B. Howard.

Mrs. Paul Emile Genest, founder of the local branch and a director of the organization, said Sunday that because of the number of people who purchased the tickets for the banquet, the Sherbrooke-Orford branch would be able to send more students than ever to the summer camp.

Violinists, cellists, and violinists will participate at the IMC competition to be held next summer. As was the case with the entrants in last summer's piano competition, the musicians will be required to have studied extensively and be able to show their proficiency as soloists.

The names of some of the musicians who will instruct at the J.M.C. camp next summer were announced at the banquet Sunday evening.

Pianist Vlado Perlemuter will be returning to the school as will Sylvio Lacharite, conductor of the Sherbrooke Symphony, who will be in charge of the orchestra. Raoul Jobin will be teaching opera and Marcel Laurencel will direct the choir.

Receiving the guest of the banquet were Mrs. Sarto Roy, president of the branch and Mrs. Pierre Comtois.

Sale of liquor to minors

Crack down on hotels, nightclubs

The Provincial Police detachment of Sherbrooke is cracking down on the hotels and night clubs of the Sherbrooke area regarding the sale of liquor to minors, it was learned Monday morning from Sgt. Ralph Allen head of the detachment.

The third in a long series of "checks," as Sgt. Allen described them, on the hotels swung into action Saturday night as a half dozen Provincial police constables from Sherbrooke entered a hotel on St. George Street in Windsor and took several names and addresses of people who were drinking liquor.

Sgt. Allen said this morning that the "check" was the third of several which are planned for the hotels of the Sherbrooke area.

"They can be expected to continue in the future," the sergeant said. When asked if every week a hotel would be hit, the sergeant said, "possibly."

The provincial police constables entered the combined night club and hotel in Windsor about 11:30 Saturday night. After ordering that all the lights be turned on, they proceeded to ask all those who appeared young to show proof that they were of age. Those having no proof were asked their names and addresses.

Sgt. Allen said this morning that the names will now be referred to the attorney-general of the province and the police will act on his orders.

The sergeant said that it is possible that the found-ins, the waiters and the hotel owner fined.

Representatives of Presbyterian churches from widely scattered sections of the province gathered at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Sherbrooke recently for a session of the Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbytery.

The Presbytery Moderator, Rev. Dr. Wilfred F. Butcher, of St. Andrew's Church, Quebec City, presided over the day-long deliberations.

One of the highlights of the day was the presentations of an illustrated talk on the extension work of the Church in Northeastern Quebec. Recently the Presbyterian Church established a charge at Port Cartier, one of the St. Lawrence river ports serving the mining areas of Ungava.

Members of the Presbytery were present from churches in Quebec City, Valcartier, Asbestos, Melbourn and Sherbrooke.

TCA service for Sherbrooke airport

A city proposal that TCA aircraft on the regular Montreal-Quebec run detour twice a day to serve Sherbrooke's nearly-completed airport has apparently met with indications of approval from Transport Minister Balcer.

Mayor Armand Nadeau, who headed a delegation of Sherbrooke aldermen to Ottawa last week, said the meeting with Mr. Balcer was "very satisfactory."

The Sherbrooke plan would have a Montreal to Quebec flight touch down at Sherbrooke airport before going on to Quebec, and envisages the return flight from Quebec City doing the same thing, in effect, giving Sherbrooke once-a-day air service to and from both Montreal and Quebec.

The example of Trois Rivières was used as a precedent for the local proposal.

Just how Sherbrooke's suggestion would effect Trois Rivières service is not, as yet known. This presumably, will be spelled out by TCA officials when city authorities meet with them, perhaps this week.

But on the face of it, the Sherbrooke proposal sounds like a workable one, and if it is, TCA should waste no time in implementing it once the airport has been completed. Sherbrooke citizens have been haunted by the spectre of a giant white elephant on the outskirts of the city for too long.

It was, it should be remembered, a TCA survey that started the airport project rolling in the first place.

Even if the Sherbrooke detour proposal is found not to be perfect, it would seem TCA — despite repeated warnings from transport authorities that the city must find its own service — has some responsibility for helping to work something out.

Remarks that soar beyond thoughts

Associate Defence Minister Pierre Sevigny blew up quite a storm last Thursday when he alluded in a talk to "Communist" governments in Ecuador and British Guiana.

Diplomatic authorities of both countries, quite understandably, have officially given him sharp raps over the knuckles, pointing out that in both nations the present governments have pledged to protect and uphold a parliamentary system of government.

Since his unfortunate statement, Mr. Sevigny has been quoted as saying that he did not want to say what he did, but that his remarks went beyond his thoughts.

This is a somewhat different line for a politician to take. It is usually assumed that a politician's thoughts go far beyond his remarks.

Indeed the line is so much different that it might be cause for anxiety. It is difficult to believe that a man of Mr. Sevigny's stature and platform experience said something — of his own free will, in calm, dispassionate talk, unhindered by questioners or hecklers — that he did not want to say.

One can only wonder if Mr. Sevigny's words did not, in fact, really reflect his thinking. This leads one further to wonder about official, if unpublicized thinking in the Department of National Defence, for which Mr. Sevigny is a chief spokesman.

In some high quarters in the United States, the government of British Guiana is regarded as, if not Communist, then at least, Red-leaning.

Has some of this kind of international witch-hunting rubbed off onto our Defence Department?

His beneficial influence lives on

George Edwin Ewing was a man who liked to keep busy, and up until a year before his death at his Sherbrooke home on Saturday at the age of 82, he channelled his energies and talents into a wide variety of community enterprises.

Although he retired as manager of the main Sherbrooke branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in 1946, he did not retire an extremely active sense of community responsibility.

One of the duties he undertook at that time was the post of secretary-treasurer of the Sherbrooke Protestant School board, a position he filled with unflagging zeal and devotion to the cause of education in Sherbrooke right up until last year.

In a very real sense, the manner in which he carried out these duties were the measure of the worth of George Ewing as a citizen of the Townships. In 1957, when the Sherbrooke High School yearbook was dedicated to him, the student editors put it this way:

"Mr. Ewing has long and faithfully served as secretary-treasurer of the Protestant School Board, and more than this, he has taken a deep interest in the students themselves."

Mr. Ewing's abiding interest in all the spheres in which he was active — the Sherbrooke Rotary Club, the Sherbrooke Hospital, the Wales Home, Richmond, the YMCA and the business life of the Townships — will be missed, but the beneficial influences of his career will live on.

Other papers say:

Ghana cautious towards Communism

The fairly widespread Western disposition to suppose that nations flirting with Moscow are lost beyond recall appears to have received a setback in Ghana.

That West African country, lately noted for its shopping in the Communist bloc, is currently seeking to have Britain and Canada provide its military training staff.

Earlier, Western military attaches had feared the Nkrumah government would replace British command officers with military advisers from the Soviet bloc.

Ghana appears also to be hedging on other matters where it had appeared to lean dangerously eastward. According to as yet unconfirmed reports, President Nkrumah is having so much difficulty with his fleet of Soviet airplanes that he is seeking to trade them for Soviet trawlers. Last year an International Civil Aviation Organization technical study indicated that Ghana could not afford the extravagant operating costs of the Soviet planes. Spare parts difficulties have added to the burden.

Another indicator of Ghana's more cautious attitude toward Communism was its treatment of supersonic jet pilot Mikoyan. During his recent official visit all the ceremonial welcoming stops were pulled out, but the trade czar reportedly had less than an hour's time given him for private talks.

As was the case in Egypt, Iraq, and Guinea, Soviet attempts to use trade for political penetration have gone awry. To be sure this does not mean democracy is triumphing over authoritarianism. Nor that playing off East against West is at an end. But it does show how unwise it is to write off prematurely those ambitious nationalists who go shopping for Eastern bargains to strengthen their domestic hold.

VIN ROUGE

Now on a zig course

Red diplomacy zigs and zags but the old tensions still remain

WASHINGTON — (NEA)

— Keeping track of the zigs and zags of Russian diplomacy is one of the occupational hazards of trying to conduct foreign relations with Moscow.

Right now, relations are said to be on a zig course. Things are looking up.

• Khrushchev's daughter Rada, and son-in-law, Aleksandr Adzhubel, editor of the Soviet government's official newspaper Izvestia, had lunch at the White House.

• Presidential Press Secretary Pierre Salinger is going to Russia on a semi-official exchange visit to make contacts, establish better communications and see what comes of it.

• In Washington, negotiations over a renewed cultural exchange visit with the Russians are said to be on again, after being off for some weeks.

• In Moscow, President Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday was celebrated more than in the United States.

All this gives superficial impression of relaxing tensions.

It just happens, however, that this F.D.R. birthday observance at which Khrushchev made such a touching tribute to the late president was organized by the Soviet America Society. Its members are Russians who have been to America. It came in to being last summer on the same day that the Russians resumed nuclear testing after the last previous bust-up of the Geneva test ban conference.

• IN OTHER WORDS, it is a propaganda front. There may be some wishful thinking that a companion America-Soviet Friendship Society will be formed in the United States. But the odds are that any American who tried to organize such a lodge now would fail and be damned for his effort.

For underneath all the ziggings, the Russians are still zagging, meaning that the old tensions are still there.

• Officially, U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson is still talking to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko on the Berlin situation and not making any progress.

• The Russians have again broken up the Geneva test ban conference. This makes the outlook for the new disarmament talks scheduled for March much more uncertain.

There is a semblance of Russian-American agreement on creating a neutral Laos, but everyone has his fingers crossed.

• The Russians tried to gum up the Congo situation some more, before the U.N. Security Council. Fortunately they got slapped down by a 7-to-2 vote, with two abstentions, against even considering their proposal. So nothing has changed.

• THIS IS THE WAY THE RUSSIANS conduct diplomacy. It is never in straight lines. It is always by the zig-zag route, out behind the barn.

An official invitation for Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy to visit Moscow is not issued directly. A feeler is put out, unofficially.

By PETER EDSON

invitation had ever been issued.

It's no wonder, therefore, that President Kennedy says his acceptance of an invitation to Moscow will have to await an easing of tensions. He is nevertheless hopeful, and all lines of communication are being kept open. They have to be.

THE PRINCIPAL RAY OF HOPE in this is that the Russians are in trouble at home. The Communist bloc is no longer a solid monolith against the rest of the world. It is cracked by the row with Communist China they are trying to conceal, and the more open row over Albania. World communism has had setbacks in Africa, and Vice Chairman Anastas Mikoyan was packed off there to see if he could patch up relations.

In Russia, everyone who could be blamed for failure of the farm program has now been fired except Khrushchev himself. He has been touring outlands to whip the collectives into making good his promises to outstrip America on food production. But he's way behind on that.

This, it is now believed, may be responsible for much of the recent zigging.

The MacPherson Report (Winnipeg Free Press)

The second volume of the MacPherson royal commission's report, which was tabled in the House of Commons on Tuesday by the prime minister, recommends some very radical changes in national transportation policy, changes which, if they are carried out to the full extent of their implications, could go a long way toward solving the whole railway problem.

The report is long and it deals with a very complex subject, but what the commission recommends essentially is that the railways be freed from general government control by the transport board and allowed to set their own prices in competition with other forms of transportation. "The implementation of this recommendation," the commission states, "will see the end of general horizontal percentage rate increases and the expensive and protracted hearings which accompany them."

For "captive" traffic in which the railways enjoy a monopoly the commission proposes a complicated technical formula under which minimum and maximum rates would be established, partly through negotiations with shippers and partly under the supervision of the transport board. This key recommendation, without which the other proposals would be meaningless, will have to be scrutinized very carefully by the transportation experts who have been retained by the western and maritime provinces. The great bulk of the "captive" rail traffic over the years has been in western Canada and on the long-haul lines connecting the west with eastern industrial centres.

In its first report the commission recommended some long-overdue abandonments of branch lines which the railways can no longer operate at a profit. Many of these lines are in the west and their abandonment is bound to disrupt established communities and the grain handling industry. To offset the cost of maintaining unprofitable lines during a 15-year transitional period, the commission recommended a $13,000,000 annual fund from which the railways would be subsidized. In its second report, the commission has added a recommendation which should help those grain handling com-

U.S. pension program

Only 15 per cent draw top benefits

By HAROLD MORRISON

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The United States old-age pensions system—known as social security—is somewhat like a giant lottery where most contributors get something in return but a few persons get the big prizes.

In operation for a quarter-century, the contributory system provides for monthly pensions ranging from $40 to $127 for single persons and from $60 to $191 for married couples.

Built up through a special tax levied on wage-earners, employers and the self-employed, this pension is payable to contributors reaching the age of 65. A reduced pension is paid to those retiring at 62.

A survey by the Social Security Administration shows that 58 per cent of the beneficiaries are receiving $75 a month or less. About 41 per cent get $55 a month or less and 21 per cent get $50 or less.

FEW GET MAXIMUM

Officials said that for actual and other reasons only a handful of the pensioners draw maximum benefits. In fact, only 15 per cent of the retired contributors are drawing more than $100 a month. The pension is trimmed or eliminated for pensioners who continue to work and make more than $1,200 a year.

In contrast, all Canadians who have established resident requirements draw the universal $55-a-month pension in Canada on reaching 70. Married couples of 70 and over get $110. Through provincial-federal co-operation, the pension is extended to the needy in the 65-69 age bracket.

The Canadian government has now approved a boost of $10 monthly.

U.S. officials, asked how they would compare the Canadian and American systems, suggested that considering the disparity in living standards between the two countries, there may not be much of a gap in the two schemes.

AIDS WIDOWS

A feature of the American pay-as-you-go plan is its disability and life insurance protection. Under it, a widow with two young children can draw as much as $254 a month if her husband had been paying the social security tax for at least two years on the maximum pay rate of $4,800 a year.

She continues to draw that monthly benefit until her children reach the age of 18. She can start getting payments again when she reaches 62.

A disabled worker can draw his full pension if he becomes severely disabled after paying the security tax for 10 years.

But except for elderly workers at present nearing the retirement age, the system pays nothing to contributors who have been paying the tax for less than 10 years.

Another oddity is that the social security tax keeps going up but the benefits don't increase. When collections began in 1937, the combined employer-employee tax was two per cent of salaries and wages. The self-employed, such as a shopkeeper or barber, paid nothing. Currently, the annual rate is 6.25 per cent for employee-employers—3 1/4 per cent each. The self-employed pays 4.7 per cent of earnings.

RATE WILL INCREASE

This rate will gradually go up until it reaches 4 1/2 per cent each for employee and employer and 6.9 per cent for the self-employed in 1968. By that time probably more contributors will be drawing maximum benefits. The tax is levied on the first $4,800 of annual pay. The Canadian pension is supported by the 3-3-3 plan—three per cent each on personal and corporation income and on commodity sales. The Canadian tax fund has no financial reserve. The America fund, administered by the U.S. government but to which the government makes no contribution, has a reserve of about $23,000,000,000.

Officials estimated that this reserve might go down a bit this year but that it is likely to increase rapidly in later years.

While the government administers the social security operations, cost of administration is borne by the social security tax.

ADDED POLICE

BERLIN (AP) — There's a new type of po-German slang for policeman—now. To the vopos (Communist people's police) and the trapos (transport police) have been added the bapobahn, or road police.

Ever tie a knot in a handkerchief to remind yourself of something? Perhaps the earliest person to use knots as reminders was the Persian king, Darius. He gave a bridge guard a thong with knots equal to the number of days he was to guard the bridge. If the king had not returned by the time the knots were untied, the guard was to destroy the bridge.

BURY — The public speaking contest sponsored by the Women's Institute was won by Arthur Cuming and Janet Joyce in the senior group and by Carol Luce and Bonnie O'Brien in the junior.

The topics chosen by the seniors were, The Good Old Days and Queens Around the World; and by the juniors, A World of Dolls and My Trip to Saskatchewan.

In all there were 15 contestants and other various topics included: Hockey, The Wise Men, A Trip to Montreal, Dickens, The War That No One Won, Diamonds, Queen Elizabeth, the Granby Zoo, Ann of Green Gables, Education, Friendly Dogs, Canada's Most Famous Lawyer, Hans Christian Andersen.

World Alliance Day observed by Sutton Baptists

SUTTON — Along with nearly 25 million others of their denomination in 110 countries throughout the globe, members of Olivet Baptist Church observed Alliance Day on Feb. 4.

Addressing a large congregation the lay-pastor, A. Moffatt, gave a forceful and illuminating exposition of Baptist beliefs and principles, listing the necessity for repentance, conversion, belief in Scriptural teachings and insistence on complete religious freedom for all.

Tracing the history of the Baptists from the 16th Century, the pastor noted that although there are less than 3,000 Baptists now in Quebec, yet there are more than 50,000 in Ontario, a large number in the Maritimes and the Western provinces, and millions in the U.S.A. In fact, in size, the Baptists have the largest total membership of any Protestant denomination.

Mr. Moffatt also commented upon Baptist evangelistic work at Feller College, and in New Brunswick and Bolivia. In Quebec, he noted, there are a number of French Baptist churches.

After the sermon, the rite of holy communion was observed by the members and visitors from other denominations.

POWERS TO FACE

his 1957 espionage trial and then negotiated his deportation to Russia in a trade for Powers and Frederic Pryor, a graduate student held since last Aug. 25 by the East Germans as a spy suspect.

EXPECTS RELEASE

Donovan brought word that he thought still another American imprisoned in Russia would win his freedom. He is Marvin Makinen, 22, of Ashburnham, Mass., serving an eight-year sentence in Kiev on espionage charges.

Said Donovan: "I have what I believe to be assurance that if the better relations contemplated by this exchange should develop, the Soviet Union would contemplate a extending clemency to Makinen."

He added he considered the direct negotiations on Makinen's release "concluded" but would not amplify.

The secrecy that shrouded Powers' return was in sharp contrast to the homecoming of Pryor, the third principal in the trade.

The 28-year-old graduate student arrived in Detroit Sunday on his way home to Ann Arbor, Mich., and talked freely with reporters. He described himself as "just a bonus in the deal" and said he was "happy and grateful to be here."

Pryor was seized in East Berlin last August and held 5½ months in prison in the city for investigation of possible espionage activities.

There still is much mystery surrounding Powers' flight. Military, diplomatic and intelligence officials are expected to join in the questioning. Only when this is completed, it is believed, will Powers be able to pick up the threads of his private life.

The Russians have claimed his plane was brought down at an altitude of more than 60,000 feet by anti-aircraft rockets. U.S. investigators are eager to find out if Powers was shot down or if his plane had mechanical trouble.

They would also like to have a better picture of the kind of treatment he received at Russian hands and how he managed to survive immediately after his plane was downed. Soviet officials claimed he carried suicide equipment on his flight.

J. CLAUDE HEBERT

Mr. Hebert was appointed for a three-year term as a member of the National Productivity Council, representing industry and commerce, it was announced by the Governor General in Council.

Born in Magog, Quebec, Hebert is president of an importing cellulose firm and director of several companies as well as the Society for Crippled Children Inc., St. John Ambulance and Notre Dame Hospital.

He began his business career as a manufacturer's agent in Montreal, importing cellulose film from Great Britain. In 1947, Hebert began the converting of packaging material.

J. Claude Hebert served in the RCAF during World War II. He enlisted as a pilot officer (flying) in December, 1939, and came out with the rank of Wing-Commander in September, 1945, after having graduated from RCAF War Staff College.

From 1945 to 1951, he commanded the 438 City of Montreal Auxiliary Fighter Squadron.

Married with four children, Hebert lives at 3795 Gray Avenue, Notre Dame de Grace. He is a member of Club Laval-sur-le-Lac, Chimo Fishing and Hunting Club, Hermitage Country Club, Mount Stephen Club and the Young President Organization.

DUNHAM —

Rev. and Mrs. M. F. Cutts were hosts at a Fireside at the rectory, when Mrs. Cutts demonstrated the flannelgraph visual aids used in the Sunday School. There will be another Fireside next month.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and family were Mrs. Harold Barnes, Steven and Michael, of Knowlton.

Mrs. Robert Johnson spent the weekend in Montreal visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. H. Riordon has returned from a trip to England, where she visited friends and relatives. In New York she re-united with a sister from Philadelphia.

Mrs. Edward Bracey was a recent visitor of Mrs. Carrie Doherty and presented her with a plant from the Guild of All Saints' Anglican Church.

RICHMOND — Mr. Patrick Smith attended the funeral on Feb. 5 in Montreal, and interment in Danville, of his nephew, Mr. Charles Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dobson have been guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Fortin, after returning from their wedding trip. They have now left by motor for their future home at Fort Smith, N.W.T.

Word has been received from Grand Forks, B.C., of the sudden death on Feb. 4, of Mr. John T. McMannis, a former well-known resident here.

Full range of Canadian made fashions presented in the "National Collection"

MONTREAL — The Canadian woman apparently intends to leave little to chance in fashion this year. Ruffles and bows, frills and lace, bangles and beads define a look that's definitely feminine. The trend, developing for the past two years, appears to be reaching its climax in 1962, judging from a wide range of spring and summer fashions presented Friday in the National Collection showing at Montreal's Botanical Gardens.

The presentation by the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union was designed to promote Canadian-made fashions bearing the Union Label, and admission was restricted to the nation's leading fashion editors and to a handful of representatives from Canada's principal department stores.

It was the first show in the history of the $500,000,000 Canadian fashion industry to include a full range of ready-to-wear apparel designed by fashion houses in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Edmonton and Vancouver, and an ILGWU spokesman said the National Collection would be presented on a bi-annual basis in future.

SOFT TONES PREDOMINATE

The accent on femininity in the showing wasn't restricted to trimmings alone. The trend was strong in color and texture as well. Soft tones such trends in Paris, New York and elsewhere, now can hold their own with their foreign peers.

RED, WHITE AND BLUES SCORE BIG HIT

Fitted lines, wide flared skirts, the wasp waist are among the highlights. Canadian women will also enjoy the softness and ease of Chanel-inspired styles, a softness also felt this year in Dior and St. Laurent creations. The Balenciaga and Givenchy influence, adopted by the New Wave couturiers Courreges, Venet, is illustrated by curved seams, stark necklines and lines which contour the body without really defining it.

Th fun-loving red, white and blues—which took up a complete segment of the showing promise to be a big hit throughout Canada this year, giving the flag colors almost a perfect North American batting average.

Judging from the National Collection, spring and summer fashions for 1962 will abound in details — belts, pleats and self-fabric insertions. Leather, suede or braided buttons and trims draw attention to a shifting waistline.

Fashion editors from across Canada on hand for the showing found what was probably the most comprehensive collection of ready-to-wear fashion ever assembled in this country, and ILGWU vice-president Bernard Shane emphasized that the styles represented a balanced cross-section of Canadian ready-to-wear production, from swimsuits to expensive evening gowns.

Mr. Shane and ILGWU educational director Yvette Charpentier welcomed guests to the showing. They pointed out that the presentation, conceived and carried out by

by gaile dugas

Dear Gaile: I am a housewife with two children grade school age. I will be going back to work in an office in a little over a month from now. This is my first job since my marriage. (I live in a large city as you see from my letter.) But I feel very out of touch with fashion as a result of being at home all these years. (I've had very little need for good clothes.) Please give me some idea of what clothes I should buy at the very start.—Mrs. S. P.

Dear Mrs. S. P.: I took your problem to David Crystal, a designer who does clothes for young women just like you. He says:

"To start, you might decide to get a basic wardrobe which would include a three-piece costume suit with contrasting overblouse. If gray or taupe are good colors for you, have it in one of these.

"Another fashion that won't show its mileage no matter how often it's worn is a marvelously new linen dress with matching jacket that is guaranteed washable. You can wear the dress, then have a complete costume when you wear it with the jacket.

"Arnel Jersey in a dress with a permanently pleated skirt would be another good choice. This will wash and drip dry; you can wear it and wear it. Such a dress with its own sweater companion would give you another complete outfit. A skirt with color-coordinated blouse and sweater would be another wardrobe plus for you.

"And, since fashion means a complete look, you will also need carefully chosen shoes, gloves, bags, jewelry and hats. All of this means just a beginning. Good luck!"

Dear Gaile: I still have a lot of those "Jackie Kennedy" unwaisted fashions which are perfectly good. But now that the waistline is back for spring, what do you suggest I do with them? I buy good clothes and take care of them so it seems wasteful to get rid of them and buy new things. Still, if they're out of style, perhaps I should get some new clothes. What do you think?—Mrs. J. G. B.

Dear Mrs. J. G. B.: I put this question to designer Mollie Parnis; I think you'll find her answer extremely helpful. She says:

"Fashion is a very personal thing. The best way to maintain a wardrobe is to add to it in the very same sense that you would add to any collection. This does not mean throwing out everything else you own. Some women on the yearly best-dressed list own and wear fashions they've had for anywhere from 5 to 10 years.

"It's true that the new clothes ARE closer to the body with an emphasis on the waistline. So, of course, you will want some of these new fashions. But if your old favorites are comfortable, becoming and you're fond of them, by all means, keep them and wear them, too."

MISS MARCELLA ANNE MACEACHERN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacEachern of Sherbrooke and MR. ROLAND LOUIS BLANCHARD, son of the late Gerard Blanchard and Mrs. Blanchard of Sherbrooke, whose engagement has been announced. The marriage has been arranged to take place on Saturday, March 3, in St. Patrick's Church, Sherbrooke.

Polly's Quiz

Antiques blend with modern to produce warming effect and gold.

Dear Polly: Would it be good taste to use a wingback couch and chairs with lined oak tables if we stick to plain fabrics rather than Colonial prints?—Mrs. D. M.

Dear Mrs. D. M.: Be brave and go ahead. Even use a print if you like. But avoid the use of too many bitsy patterns, any time and any place.

Dear Polly: My bedroom walls are white and the draperies are light green. Bedroom suite is gray. What color would be a nice change for walls and woodwork?—Mrs. M. R.

Dear Mrs. M. R.: The simple lines of modern will be quite compatible with Early American. Do get the green-and-blue sofa. White walls, a deep green rug and draperies to match should provide a handsome background for the sofa. Recover the rocker with white plastic fabric and slip cover the large chair with a quilted chintz in blue, green, white

There is such a thing as single blessedness

You hear a lot about the advantages of marriage but there are times when an unmarried man is glad he doesn't have a wife and times when a single woman is glad she doesn't have a husband.

For a man some of those times are—

- When he loses a nice chunk of money at poker.
- When he realizes he made a fool of himself at last night's party.
- When he splurges on some luxury for himself—like a new gun when he already has a rack full of guns.
- When he gets a ticket for speeding.

For a lone woman the times when she momentarily doesn't mind not having a husband are—

- When she decides to change the color of her hair and it turns out a little on the green side of blonde.
- When she crumples a fender backing out of a parking space.
- When she overdraws her bank account.
- When she spends too much money on a silly hat.
- When she decides to go on a liquid reducing diet.
- When she gets a yen to paint the living room some off-beat color.

Of course, the times when it is more convenient to be unmarried than married don't make up for the times when not being married is a terrible disadvantage.

But that's no reason for the single not to count their blessings. There are times when they are bound to find it convenient not to have a mate to have to explain things to.

Have a hot dog

By LOUISE MOORE

Hot Dog! From a "Come and get your hot dogs" at a baseball field or circus grounds the hot dog surely has come a long way for its now apt to appear at the best parties.

The wedding of the hot dog and the roll began in Bavaria when a sausage peddler used to hand a pair of white gloves to a customer along with the hot dog to prevent them getting their hands soiled. As the gloves so often disappeared along with the hot dog he finally hit upon the idea of cuddling the dog in a roll and its been rolling ever since.

Today's franks are made of choice beef, juicy pork and invariably tasty veal mixed with specially blended spices and seasonings. The mixture is chopped, ground, cured and then stuffed into casings. The links are then placed in a smoke-house supplied with smoke from smoldering hardwood until they take on a ruddy color and zesty flavor.

Next step in the treatment of franks or hot dogs is cooking. That's why they are ready to eat when you buy them for they've been completely cooked in steam, water or water spray before they leave the processing plant.

Once you purchase the franks give them the same consideration to maintain their fine flavor. Store them promptly in the refrigerator and use them within a week. Don't freeze franks for they deteriorate when held at freezing temperatures just as other cured and smoked meats do. When ready to serve them just heat enough to warm them through.

The protein in franks is equally as nutritious as that in any cut of meat so why not add them to your menus more frequently in some of the following ways.

To Serve Hot Dogs Or Franks

Very tasty on a cold winter's night are beans and franks. Accompany this with cole slaw, pickles, potato chips, ripe olives and other relishes for the gang after a merry twist—they'll need the stamina this dish provides.

Or for supper make it franks with a hot potato salad or add cold franks cut in slices to any tossed vegetable salad.

When teen agers cook—franks with barbecue sauce will be popular, or serve them with the dish of macaroni or spaghetti; in a frankfurter cheese bake; sweet and sour style or save yourself a lot of bother and put the five inch dog in a bun and serve with lots of mustard—most of us favor it that way.

the union, was designed to further the interests of its 20,000 members and of the entire fashion industry while providing "a real service to hundreds of thousands of Canadian consumers."

Mr. Shane described the Union Label as "a symbol of Canadian craftsmanship," indicating to consumers that the garment to which it is attached "was made by skilled mechanics in sanitary shops where Canadian wages and working standards are respected."

At a private luncheon later at St. Helen's Island, both Mr. Shane and Miss Charpentier made the point that "Buy Canadian" campaigns were "all good and well" on the condition that consumers were offered "equal or better styling, equal or better value and equal or better quality" than could be offered by foreign competition.

"Canadian industry," Mr. Shane said, "cannot expect to enjoy special privileges from the consumer merely on the strength of being Canadian." He added that women's fashions bearing the Union Label could complete effectively with imported counterparts in styling, value and quality.

Said the ILGWU vice-president: "Canadian craftsmen are at least equal to any in the world when it comes to fashion."

Kitchen Magic

One way to add warmth to any kitchen decor is to hang wall plaques made of polystyrene finished in shining copper. These come in charming Early American and other scenes. The non-tarnish finish requires no laborious polishing.

Edge Nelson Lothrop of Sherbrooke 7-6 while Frank Pearson's quartet cops consolation event of 'Spiel

By LEN O'DONNELL

Lloyd Styan of Magog walked off with the Balfour Trophy in the main event of the Sherbrooke Mixed Bouspiel Saturday evening while Frank Pearson's Sherbrooke quartet copped the Canadian Liquid Air Trophy in the consolation section of the 'spiel.

President Ernie Taylor, immediately following the finals, assisted at the presentation of the trophies and prizes. He thanked all the contestants for helping to make the event the largest and best in the history of the club. Wyatt Johnson presented the Balfour Trophy to the winning rink while Ralph Gosselin awarded the Can. Liquid Air Trophy to skip Pearson.

In the finals of the main event it was a close battle before Styan's Magog rink posted a 7-6 decision over Nelson Lothrop and his Sherbrooke quartet. In the consolation section skip Pearson had little trouble in emerging with a 13-8 victory over Gerry Burt of Sherbrooke.

In the main rinks opened with a dead-end but Magog picked four points in the next three ends. Skip Nelson's quartet rallied with a three in the fifth and one more to knot the count 4-4. In the next end Styan got two and when skip Lothrop missed on a take out Magog picked up one. Sherbrooke got a single in the ninth and in the final end they had a good chance of tying it but skip Styan kept them down and allowed only one as the game finished 7-6 after a close battle.

In the consolation Pearson's rink opened with a big five and picked up two with two singles for a 9-0 lead after four ends. Burt's rink got their first point in the fifth and registered another. In the next end skip Pearson's rink got three for a 12-2 advantage.

Skip Burt came through with a beautiful shot on a take-out and picked up six to reduce the lead to 12-8. This was the end for Burt's rink as Pearson got one and then playing it close snared two as the game ended 15-8.

In the semi-finals of the Balfour Trophy the battle between Bartlett of Lennoxville and L. Styan of Magog was close and wasn't decided until the final stone of the game was tossed. Styan's rink eked out a close 10-7 win.

At the end of the fifth the Magog quartet held a 6-4 lead but skip Bartlett's rink came up with a three-end to change things. Magog got it right back for a 9-7 lead coming home. In the final end it was a close game and finally Bartlett's rink got two in but skip Styan nicked out the counter to stay. Skip Bartlett tried but was a little wide and Styan counted to win 10-7.

Nelson Lothrop had no trouble in posting his 10-0 win over Gratton Crosby's Sherbrooke foursome. The Crosby rink who had been playing well just lost all touch and weight and just couldn't do anything right. They conceded the match after the seventh end.

The games in the Canadian Liquid Air Trophy saw Gerry Burt's Sherbrooke rink pull out with a 6-5 win over Andy Michael's Windsor quartet after a very close battle. In the other half of the draw Frank Pearson of Sherbrooke rolled to a 9-1 verdict over Bill Griffiths of Magog.

The matches in the quartet-finals were close. Lothrop posted a 7-5 win over J. Thompson of Sherbrooke while G. Crosby came through with a squeaker over L. Bouchard of the Celanese 6-5. Styan of Magog posted a 6-4 victory over Stan Hamilton of Lennoxville and Bartlett downed his club-mate, George Garard, 11-6 but needed an extra end.

At the end of the seventh Bartlett was leading 6-4 but skip Garard pulled out with two in the final end to tie the match. In the extra session skip Bartlett counted five when Garard missed his take out to win 1-6.

Gerry Burt posted a 12-3 win over N. Beath of Bishop's University while A. Michael of Windsor downed Bruce Millard of Sherbrooke 14-4. In the lower section it was Frank Pearson's rink and Bill Griffiths of Magog came up with a 7-4 win over George Mulvah of Sherbrooke. The finalists follow:

Armstrong's rink wins round-robin and Quebec title

QUEBEC (CP)—Bill Armstrong's Lachine Curling Club rink scored three points in the first end Sunday and was never behind — though often in trouble — winning the provincial curling championship with an 11-6 victory over Herve Richard of Louiseville.

Armstrong, who will represent Quebec in the Canadian championships at Kitchener, Ont., March 9-9, won in a special playoff series forced when the regular round-robin bonspiel ended in a three-way tie for first place Saturday.

The Lachine rink, formed three months ago, defeated Bill Tracy of Arvida 11-8 Saturday and advanced to the final against Richard who had drawn a bye.

Austrians cop first two spots in women's giant slalom at Chamonix, Joan Hannah of Franconia is third CHAMONIX, France (AP)—A Crutcheild of Shawinigan, Que., pioneer of organized alpine skiing believes true amateurism in top-rank skiing has virtually come to an end.

Britain's Sir Arnold Lunn, who organized the world's first slalom race at Muerren, Switzerland in 1922, has blunt views on what he calls the pretense of amateurism in such events as the current world ski games.

The Chamonix Games, originally scheduled as the world championship, had a training day today with no competition.

The first of the 1962 gold medals was won in the women's giant slalom Sunday by Austria's Marianne Jahm, 19, followed by Austrian Erika Netzer.

Joan Hannah of Franconia, N.H., North American giant slalom champion of 1959, was third, less than a quarter of a second behind Miss Jahm.

All-Star cast breaks loose and sets records in Los Angeles games

LOS ANGELES (CP)—An all-star cast of track and field performers headed by Peter Snell of New Zealand broke loose at the Los Angeles Games Saturday night, setting a world indoor record for 1,000 yards and smashing the four-minute barrier for an indoor mile.

Snell added the 1,000 indoor mark to his growing list of conquests with a time of two minutes, six seconds. Hot on his heels was Bill Crothers of the University of Toronto, who also bettered the record by finishing in 2:07.4. The old mark was 2:07.9 set by Ernie Cunliffe of the United States in Boston Jan. 28, 1961.

Jim Beatty of Los Angeles became the first man in history to break the four-minute mile indoors when he reeled off a 3:58.9 to eclipse the standard of ARVIDA, Que. (CP)—Andry Hrycko's Arvida high school rink won the Quebec junior curling championship for the second straight year Saturday by beating a Trois-Rivieres quartet 2-1 in the championship's seventh and final round.

East declares champions for Dominion title

All but two of the Eastern provinces have declared their curling champions and there'll be new faces around when rinks from across the country gather at Kitchener, Ont. to seek the Dominion crown.

Still to be decided are Ontario's two rinks and one from New Brunswick.

Art Burke scored a major upset Saturday over Prince Edward Island's defending champion, Doug Cameron of Charlottetown. Burke, also of Charlottetown, defeated Cameron 7-6 in an extra end to win the trip to Kitchener May 5-9.

Newfoundland's representative was decided last week when George Gannou of St. John's ousted A. C. (Bud) Fisher, Dominion entry for the last four years.

Jim Florin's Dartmouth crew earlier won a repeat appearance as the Nova Scotia entry. Bill Armstrong's rink from the Lachine Curling Club won the Quebec crown Sunday, defeating Herve Richard of Louiseville in the final.

New Brunswick's champion will come out of this week's provincial bonspiel at Newcastle. The Northern Ontario entry will be settled next weekend at Copper Cliff and the southern Ontario champion will be crowned the following week at Owen Sound.

Canadiens down Leafs 4-2 and Hawks 4-3

MONTREAL Canadiens are the Canadiens' big gun at Toronto threatening to run away with their fifth consecutive National Hockey League title.

They zoomed into an imposing nine-point lead atop the standings during the weekend by stifling their nearest rivals — Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks.

The Habitants whipped the runner-up Maple Leafs 4-2 at Toronto Saturday night, then followed up with a comeback 4-3 win at Chicago Sunday night that dropped the third-place Hawks 16 points out of the lead.

Then Detroit Red Wings gave an assist by blanking Toronto 5-0 Sunday night.

New York Rangers stayed two points ahead of the Wings by posting a couple of weekend triumphs — 2-1 over Chicago Saturday afternoon and 5-3 at Boston Sunday night.

Detroit and Boston tied 2-2 in another Saturday matinee outing.

WIN EVERYWHERE
In beating the Leafs at Toronto for the first time this season, the Habs became the first team to triumph at least once in each NHL city in 1961-62.

Young Bobby Rousseau was left to smother a loose puck an instant before Chicago's Ron Murphy could get his stick on it and nudge it in the open net for the tying goal.

The Red Wings built up an early lead against the Leafs, then protected goalie Hank Bassen's second shutout in four games.

Bassen, filling in for veteran Terry Sawchuk, stopped 31 Toronto shots.

Norm Ullman, Alex Delvecchio and Parker MacDonald counted for the Wings in the first period while Larry Jeffrey and Gordie Howe got the second period counters.

Earl Ingarfield's 20th goal of the season in the third period brought the Rangers their win over Chicago Saturday. It was the Hawks' first loss in seven games. Johnny Wilson got New York's other goal while Eric Nesterenko scored for the Black Hawks.

At Boston, the Rangers were led by Andy Bathgate, the league's leading point-getter, and Dean Prentice.

BATHGATE LEADS
Player-coach Doug Harvey and Andy Heberton also scored for the Blueshirts while Johnny Bucyk, Don McKenney and defenseman Ted Green tallied for the Bruins.

Defenceman Warren Godfrey's goal at 9:29 of the final period enabled the Red Wings to tie the Bruins Saturday. Alex Delvecchio scored Detroit's other goal while Boston marksmen were rookies Wayne Connelly and Tom Williams.

St. Francis High School hockey team dumps Sunnyside High 6-0 in first playoff tilt of QAPSA

ST. FRANCIS HIGH SCHOOL hockey squad trounced Sunnyside 6-0 Saturday afternoon at Richmond Arena with 'Junior' Tibbets getting three goals in the lopsided game.

Goalie Murray Richards was a standout for the victorious Richmond group and stopped all goal attempts by Sunnyside who, although they lost by a wide margin, came close to goals at a number of times during the battle.

Junior Tibbets opened scoring in the match at the 6:05 mark of the first period when he tallied on a pass from P. Moore. G. Bushey followed up with his teammate's goal effort at 8:15 of the same stanza when he fired one in past Sunnyside goalie D. Rever thanks to passes from P. Frazer, and T. Whittingstall.

P. Dunn closed scoring in the period for Richmond when he clicked on a pass from T. Rodgers at 14:20 of the period.

In the second period, T. Rodgers picked up a pass from L. Dubuc at 2:38 to fire in Richmond's fourth point. Junior Tibbets beat Sunnyside for his second goal when he notched his points thanks to an assist from T. Rodgers at 6:54.

In the final stanza, one point was tallied by St. Francis when Junior Tibbets scored with a minute and a half left in play from P. Dunn, giving Richmond the game by a wide 6-0 margin. Nine penalties were handed out in the contest with Richmond having six and Sunnyside the remaining three.

After the game, lunch was served in the St. Francis High Cafeteria by the social convener Eleanor Chatter assisted by Judy McCourt, Sylvia Sage, and Mrs. Barratt.

Olympics edge Beavers in overtime, Rockets upset Vics

Claude Richard tallies winner in overtime, Rejean Hamelin notches two, meet Rockets in final tilt

Claude Richard was the pay-off man for the Montreal Olympics Sunday afternoon when his overtime goal gave Coach Fillion's squad a close 4-3 victory over the Sherbrooke Beavers at the Arena in the final home game of the schedule for the Dube team before 1,000 fans.

The decision settled all Sherbrooke's chances of overtaking the Olympics in their battle for third place in the standing. The final two games of the season will take place Thursday evening with the Beavers visiting Drummondville and Montreal at Granby.

The tilt was listless as the teams were taking no chances, but the Beavers lost the services of Ray St. Cyr who suffered an accident when he fell with a Montreal defense player. The extent of his injury wasn't disclosed but it is assumed he will be out for the balance of the season. Coach Dube used C. Leandre from the Junior Beavers and the youngster turned in a fine performance. Marc Bouvette and Normie Dussault didn't dress.

Phil Latreille paced the Olympics with his two goal effort while C. Poxon and Claude Richard tallied the others. For the Beavers Rejean Hamelin came up with two while young Louis Arpin accounted for the other.

Latreille opened the scoring right after the face-off but this didn't stand long as Rejean Hamelin got his first marker to square things. A Binet, Olympics' goalie, tried to block a puck behind his net but missed and Hamelin picked it up to circle and flip it in the net before he could get back.

In the closing minutes Latreille came up with his second when the local defense backed in on their goalie and he fired from close range. In the middle session Poxon extended the lead when his shot deflected by Joe Lacoursiere to catch the meshings. It was a tough break for the local goalie but his defense again was to blame.

In the final seconds of play Hamelin reduced the margin as the period ended 3-2. In the third frame both teams opened up and the fans saw some good hockey.

It was about the only time during the tilt they played well. Arpin flipped a high shot in the air and when Binet tried to catch it the disc rolled down his TALLIES FREAK — Rejean Hamelin, down on ice at left, is seen just after he snared the disc behind the net to tally the Beavers' first goal. Binet, goalie, tried to stop the puck but missed and Hamelin circled the net to lift it into the open net with the Olympics standing around surprised.

Windsor Paper Makers battle league leading Asbestos to 3-3 overtime tie, still four points off pace

WINDSOR — (Staff) — A crowd of some 700 people watched the Windsor Paper Makers salvage a 4-4 overtime tie here yesterday afternoon after blowing a 3-0 lead in the dying minutes of the third period.

By the time the half-way mark of the scoreboard still showed the home club holding a 3-0 lead. But just then, when things looked brightest for the Paper Makers, the roof fell in.

The Miners struck for the first time at 14:11 P. Perron came down centre ice and let go with a slap shot from the neutral side of the blue-line. The puck caught the lower left-hand corner to start the Miners on their comeback trail.

St. Laurent who had played brilliantly in nets up to that point, was weak on the shot. R. Arguin made it 3-2 forty seconds later. He scored from a scramble at the side of the net. R. Guay evened the count with less than two minutes left in the game to force the contest into overtime.

Both goalers pulled off fine saves in the opening minutes of the overtime period. Bergeron stopped both Lapierre and Spennard on the door step. Lapierre was in for the second time and although he had the Asbestos goalie beat, his shot hit the goal post. "Red" Dubois was in alone about a minute later and he too rattled one off the post.

On their sole offensive threat of the overtime period the Miners scored. F. Carignan drove one from the blue-line that St. Laurent failed to see. It came at 6:45. It looked like Asbestos had come all the way to win the game until at the 7:02 mark, R. Spennard, a determined hockey player, combined with Leblanc for some fancy passing and after deking both defenses, Spennard made no mistake with his shot to the corner. No further scoring was witnessed and Asbestos went home happy and lucky that they were able to salvage a tie with the Paper Makers.

In the scoring race, both the Miners' Larry Drouin and Windsor's Red Dubois were unable to pick up a point. With only four games remaining in the regular schedule, Drouin is half-way home to winning his first Intermediate hockey scoring title. He now holds an eight point lead over Dubois.

The game was featured with a "rock-em sock-em" style of hockey but the two referees handled it well. At no time did they lose control of the game.

M. Fortin opened scoring in the match at 5:20 of the first stanza when he tallied ADS' first point on an assist from J. Ward.

T. Raymond made it 1-1 for Classique at the 14:09 mark of the second period when he fired his unassisted goal in past ADS' goalie Tom Heron to tie things up at the end of two periods of play.

Bang home four goals in overtime to down Granby, Andy Payette stars for Vics, juniors standout in tilt

DRUMMONDVILLE — The Drummondville Rockets banged home four overtime goals here yesterday afternoon to knock over the Granby Vics 9-5. The Vics were without the services of Mentis, Bergeron and Bedard. Leblanc was injured in the opening minutes of the game and was unable to continue.

Leon Michelin, the league's second scorer, C. Aubry and A. Boucher all registered two goals apiece for the victors. Andy Payette was brilliant in the regular sixty minutes of play but he cracked in the overtime period. He let four big goals slip by him, three of them coming from a junior line playing for the Rockets yesterday.

At the end of the first period, the Rockets were holding a 3-1 lead. They still held a lead at the end of the second, but the Vics had cut it to one goal. It stood at 5-4. Granby notched the count at the one minute mark of the third, but two quick Drummondville goals gave them a 7-5 lead. Granby scored again at 14:53 to again cut the lead to one goal. Finally with less than three minutes left in the game, Samson tied the count forcing it into overtime.

In the overtime period Lou Poliquin showed confidence in his juniors and it paid off. Before the ten minute overtime period was over, the Rockets had struck four times and were sporting a 9-5 lead.

Aces upset Jets 3-2 in close battle

ROCK ISLAND — Real Boucher's second goal with ten seconds left in the game gave the Magog Aces a 3-2 upset victory over the Rock Island Jets here yesterday afternoon. By virtue of the win, the Aces moved to within two points of the fourth place Jets.

Magog took an early lead in the game when Real Boucher scored his first goal at the nine minute mark of the opener. A Rock Island goal by Pierre Langlois evened the count at 18:22. The Jets went ahead in the middle period scoring the only goal of the period. Serge Cregoire was the marksman.

At 5:14 of the third period, Pierre Dauphin again evened the count for the Aces. Jacques and Gaudreau drew assists. Then at 19:50 of the last period Real Jacques found the range with a goal scored in the back ten of the third period. They have a strong first and second period club but seem to weaken in the last minutes. Real Provencier, the star goater for the Jets, was hurt in the second period of yesterday's game. He stopped a puck with his forehead, and needed eight stitches to close a gash. After a 35 minute rest the goater returned to finish out the contest.

Arnold Palmer cops Phoenix Open and will take a rest now, picks up $5,300 for his 260 for event

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Arnold Palmer will play only one golf tournament in the next five weeks, much to the pleasure of his fellow professionals.

The long-driving star, playing out of Miami, Fla., has said for some time that he needs a rest. After his performance in the $35,000 Phoenix Open many rivals agree.

Palmer, 32, won his second straight Phoenix title Sunday with a 72-hole total of 260, one stroke off the pace. The margin was the largest ever for an event sponsored by the United States Professional Golfers Association.

"My driving was by far the greatest reason for the big margin," Palmer said as he pocketed the $5,300 top money "those long irons came through for me several times. But now I need a rest."

Before Phoenix, Palmer won the $50,000 Palm Springs classic. He tucked away the Phoenix event with a five-under-par 66 Sunday after carding a 71 Saturday. His two earlier rounds were 64 and 68.

Sharing second place money at 281 were Jack Nicklaus, 1961 U.S. amateur champion, Bob McCallister, Don Fairfield and Bill Casper. Nicklaus, McCallister and Fairfield scored 71st over the 7,675 - yard Phoenix course Sunday.

NHL STARS

Bobby Rousseau, who scored what turned out to be the winning goal and set up the clincher when Montreal Canadiens beat Toronto Maple Leafs 4-2 Saturday night.

Earl Ingarfield, whose goal midway through the third period gave New York Rangers a 2-1 victory over Chicago Black Hawks Saturday.

Warren Goldfrey, whose goal at 9:29 of the third period brought Detroit Red Wings a 2-2 tie with Boston Bruins Saturday.

IN THE PLAINEST OF TERMS

what are the basics of our Hospital Insurance plan

THE POLICY HERE...

Sickness is a universal hazard. And regaining health frequently calls for extensive and expensive hospital treatment. Since last January, our Provincial Government sees to it that you receive — free — the required hospital care every time your doctor deems it necessary. This includes standard ward accommodation, the usual meals and the agreed hospital services. That sums up our Québec Hospital Insurance Service.

1st condition: BEING A RESIDENT

Firstly, you must have lived here at least three months. In which case, your children qualify from birth. But if you are just getting settled in this province, you must wait three months before being entitled to free hospital treatment.

THE CASE OF TRANSIENTS

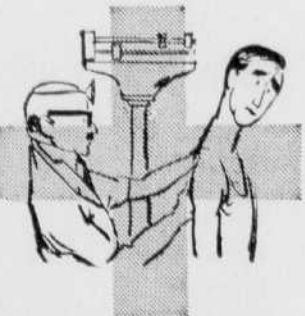

Transients — such as tourists, visitors and relatives from other provinces — do not qualify under our Hospital Insurance Act. Services received by such persons in a Québec hospital are charged to the patient, or to the hospital insurance of his own province.

PROVING YOU'RE A RESIDENT

The hospital may request at any time that you prove your residency, namely, that you have been permanently established in this province for over three months. You can perhaps handle this by showing the usual identification papers: birth or marriage certificate, driving licence, credit cards, hunting or fishing permit, passport or what have you. If you are too weak or ill to comply personally with this formality, the person with you must attend to it.

... AND ELSEWHERE

In several other provinces, you must register and then pay a monthly premium in order to qualify under their hospital insurance systems. In Ontario, for instance, the monthly premium is $2 per person or $4 per family. Here, nothing of the kind. Québec supplies you with free hospitalization, providing you fulfill two prerequisites.

2nd condition: THE DOCTOR'S RECOMMENDATION

Free hospitalization is conditional on your doctor considering it medically necessary. If he deems that your case can be handled satisfactorily elsewhere, you are not entitled to free hospital care. But if you are sent to the hospital on his recommendation, you may remain there as long as required from a medical point of view.

IN CASE OF ACCIDENT

If you ever require urgent admission — for instance, as the result of being injured in a serious accident — the person in charge at the hospital may authorize your admission, without waiting to check with your own doctor.

A COSTLY OPERATION

As you can see, our Hospital Insurance plan provides every resident of this province with the required full-range hospital care — on a free and efficient basis. A truly colossal and costly undertaking: the assignment is to supply, as needed, free hospitalization to over 5 million insured residents — entailing this year a governmental expenditure of more than $140 million!

HELP US HELP YOU

Plain common sense suggests that each one of us fully cooperate with our Hospital Insurance Service. Never ask your doctor for hospital treatment unless it is absolutely needed. Never remain at the hospital one day too many: this is an unfair and costly practice. Don't stretch a fine prerogative. Your conscience... and your taxes... will feel all the better for it!
