ELECTIONS STILL GOING TORY.THE LATEST RECORD OF THEIR SUCCESSES.

Interest Dying Out in View of the One-sided Results—Details of the Returns of Yesterday and To-day.

LONDON, July 25.—This afternoon the following were the numbers of members of Parliament elected by the different parties:

Conservatives	327
Unionists	62
Government Total	389
Liberals	152
McCarthyites	59
Parliamentary Labor	10
Opposition Total	223

Yesterday the losses and gains were:

UNIONIST GAINS.	LIBERAL GAINS.
Scotland, Argyshire, 1	Staffordshire, N. W., 1
Scotland, Elgin and Nairn, 1
Scotland, Falkirk, 1
Scotland, Kirkcaldy, 1
Lancashire, Darwen, 1
Lancashire, Lostock, 1
Wiltshire, Salisbury, 1
North, York, 1
Yorkshire, York, 1
Leicestershire, Leicester, 1
Previously reported	15
	16

Net Unionist gain 65.
Equal to 125 votes in division.
Interest in the elections is waning to a certain extent, the monotony of the returns showing Unionist gains and reduced Liberal majorities aiding to bring about this result.
Some Unionists claim that they are bound to make gains in some of the districts yet to be heard from, while the more conservative campaigners believe that the result will show little change either way in the complexion of the new house. The last polls will be held on Saturday.

To-day's results present no special features. The election of Millbank, for Radnorshire, and Wylie, for Dumfriesshire, are Conservative gains from the Liberals, and in the election of Wilson to the seat for Mid-Norfolk the Liberals gain one seat from the Conservatives. The re-election of T. W. Russell, the leader of the Ulster Liberal-Unionists, and against whom the Nationalists made the hardest kind of a fight, was expected, but Mr. Russell's majority was considerably reduced.

The results in detail follow:
Huntingdonshire. Huntingdon division—A. H. Smith Barry, Conservative, 2439; J. J. Wilkes, Liberal, 2083. Conservative gain, 329.
Leicestershire. Harborough division—J. W. Logan, Liberal, 6699; Lieut. Rowley, Conservative, 5028. In 1892 the Liberal majority was 656.
Suffolk. North division—B. Collier, Nationalist, 3232; Mr. Harrison, Conservative, 1542; Mr. Crofton, Conservative, 767. In 1892 Collier's majority was 3258.
Sutherlandshire—J. McLeod, Liberal, 590; W. S. Wainman, Liberal-Unionist, 580. In 1892 the Liberal majority was 816, and in a by-election held subsequently Mr. McLeod was returned without opposition.

Yorkshire. Morley division—A. E. Rutland, Liberal, 5894; W. Carr, Jr., Conservative, 4106. The Liberal majority in 1892 was 2152.
Yorkshire. Hallamshire division—Sir F. T. Mappin, Liberal, 5949; F. S. Hatfield, Conservative, 3061. In 1892 Sir F. T. Mappin was returned without opposition.

Yorkshire. Otley division—M. d'Arcey Wylie, Conservative, 1679; Sir J. Barran, Liberal, 1622. Here the Liberals lose a seat.
Yorkshire. West Riding. Eildon—A. T. Clay, Conservative, 5081; T. Wayman, Liberal, sitting member, 3587; majority, 306. The Liberal loss, 1515 votes.

Yorkshire. West Riding. Spen Valley—F. Ellis, Conservative, 3877; T. P. Whitaker, Liberal, sitting member, 4700; majority, 823. The Liberal loss, 723 votes.

The following are today's returns:
Derbyshire. Chesterfield division—T. Bayley, Liberal, 4572; A. W. Byron, Conservative, 3061. The Liberal majority in 1892 was 180.
Devonshire. Totnes division—F. B. Midway, Unionist, 4650; A. J. Sparks, Liberal, 2271. In 1892 Midway's majority was 2431.

Suffolk. Rye division—F. S. Stevenson, Liberal, 4477; J. W. Leason, Conservative, 3693. Mr. Stevenson's majority in 1892 was 1120.
Radnorshire—F. C. Millbank, Conservative, 1819; Mr. Edwards, Liberal, 1858. In 1892 Mr. Edwards' majority was 233.

Durham. Middle division—J. Wilson, Liberal, 5957; Mr. Wilkinson, Conservative, 4625. In 1892 Wilson had 1962 majority.
Norfolk. Middle division—F. W. Wilson, Liberal, 4220; R. T. Gordon, Unionist, 4086. In 1892 the Liberal majority was 470.

Lancashire. Leigh division—C. P. Scott, Liberal, 5130; W. W. A. Fitzgerald, Conservative, 4295. In 1892 the Liberal majority was 891.
Lancashire. A. O. Wylie, Conservative, 5375; Capt. Sinclair, Liberal, 5342. Sinclair's majority in 1892 was 283.

Tyrone. South division—T. W. Russell, Unionist, 3239; T. Shillington, Liberal, 1016. In 1892 Russell's majority was 95.
Oxfordshire. Henley division—R. T. Hermon Hodge, Conservative, 3531; Hermon Samuels, Liberal, 3470. The Conservative majority in 1892 was 419.

Cornwall. St. Austell division—W. A. McArthur, Liberal, 4193; M. Williams, Unionist, 3962. In 1892 McArthur was returned by 1698 majority.
Berkshire. Newbury division—W. G. Mount, Conservative, 4885; Sir John Swinburne, Liberal, 4770.

Queen's County. Ossory division—E. Crean, Nationalist, 2936; Col. H. Poe, Conservative, 2800; Mr. Macdonald, Parmentier, 363. In 1892 Crean's majority was 3143.

Cheshire. Norwich division—Sir J. T. Brunner, Bart., Liberal, 5705; Ward, Conservative, 4058. Liberal majority, 1698. Sir J. T. Brunner, who is the sitting member, had a majority of 1255 at the last election, showing a gain of 383 votes.
Mayo. North Division—Daniel Crilly, Nationalist, 2037; Egan, Parmentier, 1316. Crilly's majority in 1892 was 830.

Monaghan—South division, Daly, Nationalist, 3855; Major Tompkins, Con., 1015. Nationalist's majority in 1892 was 1228.

THE TRAIN UNCONTROLLED.
It Crashed Into the Station, Killing Two.
London July 25.—While a railway train was approaching the station at Trautenau, in Prussia, Silesia, last evening, the building, the waiting-room was filled with men, women and children, two of whom were killed. Several others were badly injured.

BROOKLYN TROLLEY VICTIM 115.
Brooklyn, July 25.—Mary Ozudo, aged five years, was run over by a trolley car to-day and killed.

ST. ANN'S WARD

—VOTE FOR—

Mr. Bernard Connaughton

AND MUNICIPAL REFORM.

Friday, 26th July, '95.

VOTE EARLY.

1731

OFF TO THE FAR WEST.

LORD AND LADY ABERDEEN

LEAVE FOR THE COAST.

They Will Spend Some Time on

Their Ranch and Do Not Return East Until Autumn—Their Excellencies' Relatives.

Their Excellencies the Governor-General and the Countess of Aberdeen, accompanied by Mr. Munro Ferguson, A. D. C., and Mr. Campbell, secretary, left Quebec yesterday, en route for Regina, where they will open the exhibition on Tuesday next, the 30th inst. The Vice-Regal car was transferred from the Quebec train to the Sault Ste. Marie train at St. Martin's Junction, and taken as far as Renfrew, where Their Excellencies are to open a park in the morning, and a creamery in the afternoon.

From Regina Their Excellencies hope to return to the Valley of the Reserve, in the Qu'Appelle district, to meet the Indians. From Qu'Appelle they will go direct to Victoria, where they will be joined by Lady Marjorie, Lord Haddo, the Hon. Dudley and the Hon. Archie Gordon, accompanied by Miss Wetherman and the new household physician, Dr. Gibson. At Victoria, Their Excellencies will occupy the Lieutenant-Governor's residence, placed at their disposal by the Hon. Mr. Dewdney. After a stay of some weeks, the Vice-Regal party will go to the coast to the Pacific, where they will live in very simple fashion, interested in everything belonging to their country home, and in the result of the Governor-General's ventures in fruit and cereals. Early in November it is Their Excellencies' intention to return to Victoria and do a little entertaining before turning their steps eastward.

It may safely be said that no previous Governor-General ever so systematically tried to make the acquaintance of the whole Dominion as the present one. The charming hospitality of the Vice-Regal household will soon be proverbial from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific. Being obliged to throw over the Lake St. John trip was a matter of much regret to Their Excellencies, but owing to the uncertainty of transportation at Ottawa, and their other fixed engagements—notably the opening of the exhibition at Regina—it was impossible not to do so, although the visit to the famous inland sea and the picturesque scenery of the Lake St. John and Chicoutimi districts had been anticipated with much pleasure; but such are the penalties of exalted position, the most desired things are not always attainable.

It is interesting to Canadians to notice that in the new Cabinet Their Excellencies have two brothers-in-law and two cousins, Lord Balfour, of Burleigh, is married to a sister of Lord Aberdeen's, and Sir Matthew W. Ridley, Home Secretary, is married to a sister of Lady Aberdeen. Lord Lansdowne, Lord George Hamilton, the former by marriage, are cousins. Mr. Arthur Balfour, who is no connection of Burleigh, was His Excellency's best man, and is a very great friend of both the Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen.

ST. LAURENT COLLEGE.
New Appointments Made—The Teaching Staff.
Rev. Father McGarry was yesterday elected Superior of the St. Laurent College, in about to proceed to Washington.
Rev. Father Tessier, of the same College, is about to proceed to Washington.
Rev. Father Elchege Guertin has been transferred from the Cote des Neiges College to that at St. Laurent.
Rev. Father Choiniere is transferred from the Memramcook College to that of St. Laurent.

ANTHES-HAMMOND.
A very pretty wedding took place at the summer home of W. F. Leonard, Esq., at Recollet, yesterday afternoon, the contracting parties being Mr. Martin F. Anthes, of Berlin, Ont., and Miss S. B. Hammond, of St. John, N. B. The bride looked charming in her travelling costume, and was attended by Miss Anthes, of Berlin, Ont. The groom was supported by Mr. G. Hammond, of Boston, Mass. The presents were numerous, and included several from Berlin, Ont., and St. John, N. B. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Quebec en route to Prince Edward Island, where the honeymoon will be spent.

PRAYERS FOR RAIN.
Public prayers and a procession in the interior of the various parishes of the city will be held on Sunday next to ask God to protect Montreal against the invasion of grasshoppers in this district; also for rain, which is badly needed by the farmers. At Riviere du Loup yesterday, High Mass was sung, followed by a public procession in the leading streets of the village. Friday (to-morrow) has been specially set aside as a fast day to implore the mercy of God and the protection of our crops.

Special Notices.
Good wine needs no bush. Stenhouse Liqueur Scotch once drunk is first, the rest nowhere. Agent, Wm. Farrell, 420 St. Paul street, Montreal.
