Sixty-Six Year

Action Provinciale is formed at Marieville

4 E.T. candidates named by new provincial party

By CUTHBERT JONES
(Record Staff Writer)

Quebec electors today were formally presented with a new political party which plans to contest at least 50 of the provinces 95 ridings in the Nov. 14 provincial general elections.

The new party, Action Provinciale Party, was born officially in a church hall at Marieville, 75 miles west of Sherbrooke, Thursday night. Opposed strongly to the expropriation of 11 private power companies proposed by the Liberal Government, the APP released the names of 14 candidates already selected for the current campaign. The list includes four candidates for Eastern Townships constituencies — Claude Perreault in Sherbrooke; Gregoire Beaudoin, of Thetford Mines in Megantic; Germain Houde, of East Angus, in Compton, and Robert Roy, also of East Angus, in Wolfe.

A spokesman for the local delegation to the Marieville meeting said this morning that it was planned to name candidates for most other ET ridings by the middle of next week.

The exact set-up for the new party is hazy in many respects. For instance, it apparently lacks a leader — usually a matter of importance for any political group, new or old.

Many of its leading supporters were closely linked with the Social Credit forces in the last federal elections. When the party was first mooted, overtures were made to Real Caouette, deputy leader of the federal Socreds, to lead the provincial party or at least give it his official blessing.

Mr. Caouette told them to go home and stay out of provincial politics. Next, Dr. Guy Marceau, chief Socred organizer in Quebec, was invited to quit the House of Commons and lead the new group.

After some deliberation Dr. Marceau gave them the same advice: Go home and forget the provincial field. But the organizers were not deterred.

They decided Mayor J. A. Mongrain, a dissident Liberal, would be an excellent leader for the new movement.

VATICAN CITY (Reuters) — Stamp collectors crowded the Vatican City post office Thursday to have a special eccumenical council cancellation mark put on their letters. A special series of stamps commemorating the council will be issued Oct. 30.

Urges leaders to work against war

Pope makes peace appeal

CP from AP-Reuters

VATICAN CITY — Pope John solemnly appealed to the world's leaders today to do everything possible to meet "the anguished cries for peace."

The 80-year-old Roman Catholic leader, speaking to the assembled envoys of 85 governments sent here for the opening of the Vatican ecumenical council, made one of the most dramatic appeals for peace in his four-year reign.

He said all leaders of the world carried on their shoulders "the destiny of peoples" and must do everything possible for peace.

War, at this stage, could "mean the destruction of humanity," he said.

He said the council, which opened Thursday, "will certainly help to prepare this new danger of war, that scourge of nations, which today would mean the destruction of humanity."

Let the leaders of the world, the pontiff said, "continue to meet each other in discussions and reach just and generous agreements that they faithfully observe."

The Pope spoke to the delegates of the governments in a special audience he convened in the Sistine Chapel — the first time in history the famed chapel had been used for a papal audience.

Pope John walked vigorously into the chapel after the envoys had assembled. He looked fresh and alert despite the strain of the 4½-hour council opening ceremony Thursday.

He took his place on a throne, and in a firm voice, speaking French, told the envoys:

"Let them (the world's leaders) be ready to make sacrifices that are necessary to save the world's peace. The nations will then be able to work in an atmosphere of serenity. All the discoveries of science will assist progress and help to make life on this earth, which is already marked by so many other inevitable sufferings, ever more delightful."

EMPHASIZES PLEA
Speaking solemnly and emphasizing this plea for peace, the Roman Catholic leader said: "We must indeed render an account to God. We and all the heads of state who bear responsibility for the fate of nations. All of them must remember that they will one day have to account for their actions to God, their creator, who will also be their supreme judge."

"In all conscience let them give ear to the anguished cry of 'peace, peace' which rises up to heaven from every part of the world, from innocent children and those grown old, from individuals and from communities."

"May this thought of the reckoning that they are to face spur them to omit no effort to achieve this blessing, which for the human family is a blessing greater than any other."

ENDS THRONE SPEECH DEBATE

Socreds again provide margin as government survives 5th test

OTTAWA (CP) — The Progressive Conservative minority government reached a calmer waters Thursday night, easing over the last reef in its immediate path with more help from the Social Credit party.

It faced and won its fifth vote of confidence in the two weeks since the 25th Parliament began Sept. 27.

For the fourth time, the margin of victory was provided by the Social Credit group against the combined opposition of the Liberals and New Democratic parties.

The vote, 136 to 108, marked the end of the eight-day debate on the speech from the throne.

Today, the Commons turns to its first item of government legislation—a resolution proposing extra millions to underwrite export credit.

The lineup—Thursday night was 109 Conservatives and 27 Social Credit against 92 Liberals and 16 NDP. Another 18 MPs were absent and one Liberal did not vote because he was "soured" with a Conservative who was unavoidably absent.

The Speaker votes only in ties.

AWAIT SUPPLY MOTIONS
The vote was based on the formal thank-you address to Governor-General Vanier for reading the throne speech to Parliament. This outline of government legislative planning is prepared by the federal cabinet.

Failure of the government to achieve a majority on the vote would have constituted non-confidence—or defeat—as clearly as approval of a non-confidence motion moved by the opposition.

The next major assault on the government's minority position is expected to be the first of six applications to Parliament each session for more spending funds—a supply motion.

Before that happens, the Commons is expected to spend some time on the legislative program before it.

Final contributions in the throne speech debate drew heavily on back-benchers whose speeches were flavored with the charges and counter-charges that have characterized an unusually heated and political debate.

Chinese toll much heavier "probably touching 100."

The Chinese, he said had concentrated their forces in a strong position on high ground above an Indian border outpost where Wednesday's fighting broke out.

Lt.-Gen. B. M. Kaul, one of India's leading officers, was sent to head a newly organized army corps on the northeast frontier last week.

An Indian government spokesman said the fighting broke out day after a Chinese Communist soldier hurled a grenade at an Indian outpost.

The Indians reported their casualties at 17 killed or wounded.

Radio Peking claimed the Indian troops "fled in confusion, leaving six corpses and arms and ammunition behind."

In Northeast Frontier Agency area

Indian troops ordered to oust Red Chinese

NEW DELHI (Reuters)—Prime Minister Nehru announced today that Indian troops have been ordered to drive Chinese Communist forces out of India's Northeast Frontier Agency area.

His announcement came in the wake of the biggest Sino-Indian frontier battle since the border clashes began between the two nations began three years ago.

Nehru said the Chinese had suffered about 100 casualties in the battle which erupted Wednesday on the northeast frontier between Bhutan and Chinese-occupied Tibet.

This was nearly three times the figure reported by Peking Thursday and indicated that the battle is continuing.

Red China lodged a "strongest and most serious protest" with the Indian embassy in Peking, accusing India of invading Chinese territory and spreading the flames of war.

Nehru spoke to reporters before taking a plane for a three-day trip to Ceylon.

He said there appeared to be no chance of reconciliation talks with the Chinese "so long as this aggression is continuing."

Wintery conditions were setting in along the mountainous border area, he said, but the Chinese remain "a menace to us."

Nehru described Wednesday's clash as "a major incident" with Indian forces suffering some casualties but with the Murder charge

JOLIETTE, Que. (CP)—Quebec Provincial Police said Thursday a charge of capital murder has been laid against Jerome Beausoleil, 37, in connection with the fatal shooting of his brother-in-law, law Ferrier Arsenault at St. Charles-de-Mandeville Sept. 29. Preliminary hearing has been set for Oct. 17.

Alliance works in Dominica

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—"My girl and I want to get married," young Ricardo Gil Morales said. "But my country comes first. There will be some fighting to do."

Violent trouble may be coming soon. It must be met before young men like Ricardo can put their attention to binding up the wounds inflicted on their nation of 4,000,000 people by 30 years of dictatorship.

"But you can see the hope in their eyes now," says Newell Williams, administrator for the U.S. Alliance for Progress in the Dominican Republic.

This is one country where the alliance seems to be off and running. It seems within reaching distance of its first significant victory in Latin America over communism and Castroism.

EAST'S KING
NOT WASTED

The unlucky expert was holding forth on the bad luck that seems to haunt him. Here is his sad story:

"My luck had been bad as usual, but I finally got vulnerable and picked up a nice comfortable no-trump hand. My partner raised to game and when the deuce of spades was opened against my only four-card suit, everything looked rosy. But look what happened to me!

"I played the three from dummy and East went into conference with himself. Eventually he played the eight and then from on my cause was hopeless. I won with the ten and led club. East got in with the ace, laid down the king of spades and continued with the four whereupon I lost three spades and two clubs. To add to my troubles the opponents picked up a lay down slam on partner raised to game and when the deuce of spades was opened against my only four-card suit, everything looked rosy. But look what happened to me!

Kupples Klub
opens season

DERBY LINE — The Universalist Church Kupples' Klub, held its first meeting of the season in the church vestry on Sept. 28.

At the short business session plans were made for a gala Halloween party to take place as the October meeting on Oct. 26, which promises to be spooky.

Following adjournment, games were served. Refreshments were enjoyed under the convenship of Mrs. John Price and Mrs. Millie Adam.

DANVILLE —

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Judge and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Desruisseaux, of Sawyer-ville, were Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Statton and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Statton. Mrs. Desruisseaux remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bellevue, accompanied by Mrs. Betty Brook-Dow, spent a few days visiting relatives in Philadelphia, Pa., and Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rick and family, of Quebec City, were holiday weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Rick, and Mrs. Dorothy Carmichael.

GOLDEN WEDDING — Mr. and Mrs. A. Victor Beale of Foster, Quebec celebrated their 50th anniversary on September 21st. Mr. and Mrs. Beale were married in St. Mathias Church, Upper Tulse Hill, London, England. They came to Canada in 1924 and have one son, Rev. Frederick Beale, Rector of Immanuel Anglican Church Bellow's Falls, Vermont and two granddaughters Linda and Christine Beale.

Foster couple honored

FOSTER — The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. Victor Beale occurred recently. During the day they received calls and messages of congratulations from many friends and neighbours. On the previous day they were visited by their son, Rev. Frederick Beale, Rector of Immanuel Anglican Church, Bellow's Falls, Vt.

During the evening they were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Price, who assisted by members of the Evening Guild of St. James Church had arranged a delightful party of intimate friends of the honored couple.

Following congratulations and best wishes Rev. T. J. W. Liggett presented them with an electric hand mixer for the friends assembled, and Mrs. Adrian Whitehead, president of the evening guild, gave them a dainty gold clock. Mr. and Mrs. Beale expressed their thanks to their friends for the gifts.

Stanstead North institute holds
October meeting

STANSTEAD — The October meeting of Stanstead North Women's Institute was held in the Red Brick school house on Oct. 4. Mrs. John Byers and Mrs. I. W. Drew were co-hostesses.

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Ivar Lemon, Miss Ruth Hetherington submitted the minutes and read correspondence. Mrs. E. J. Curtis, sunshine convener, read thank you notes for gifts to brides, the sick, and a couple who celebrated a golden wedding anniversary.

Mrs. W. H. Rudd, treasurer, announced that $79 was realized from the September Monday dinner and sale.

A vote of appreciation was extended to Mrs. Douglas Johnston for the donation of linoleum for the kitchen floor covering.

Mrs. Drew, home economics convener, distributed the CAC bulletins, and submitted the 1963 Ayer's Cliff fair list.

Under the convener of citizenship, Mrs. Miriam Osborne, working in conjunction with Dr. K. Harper, principal of Sunny-side School, and her staff, the annual UNICEF collection will be made by the students on Halloween.

Miss Hetherington, convener of Welfare and health, appealed to the members for old clean cotton to be used for dressings for the Cancer Society. Those may be left with Miss Hetherington.

As a quarterly county meeting will take place in Beebe on Nov. 1, it was decided to hold the next meeting a week later than usual, on Nov. 8, at the home of Mrs. William Curtis.

Miss Hetherington, who will give a broadcast on retarded children over a Sherbrooke station, Nov. 15, plans tentatively to visit the Cecil Butters Hospital, Austin on Oct. 23, with the members.

Following adjournment, Mrs. Drew and Mrs. Byers served afternoon tea from a table arranged with a lace cover and a floral center of dahlias. Mrs. Cooper poured.

WEST BROME —

The card club met with Mrs. Charles Bisailon, Sweetsburg, on Oct. 3. Cards were played at five tables, the prize winners were, Mrs. Cecile Darbe and Miss Helen Butler.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC
CITY OF SHERBROOKE

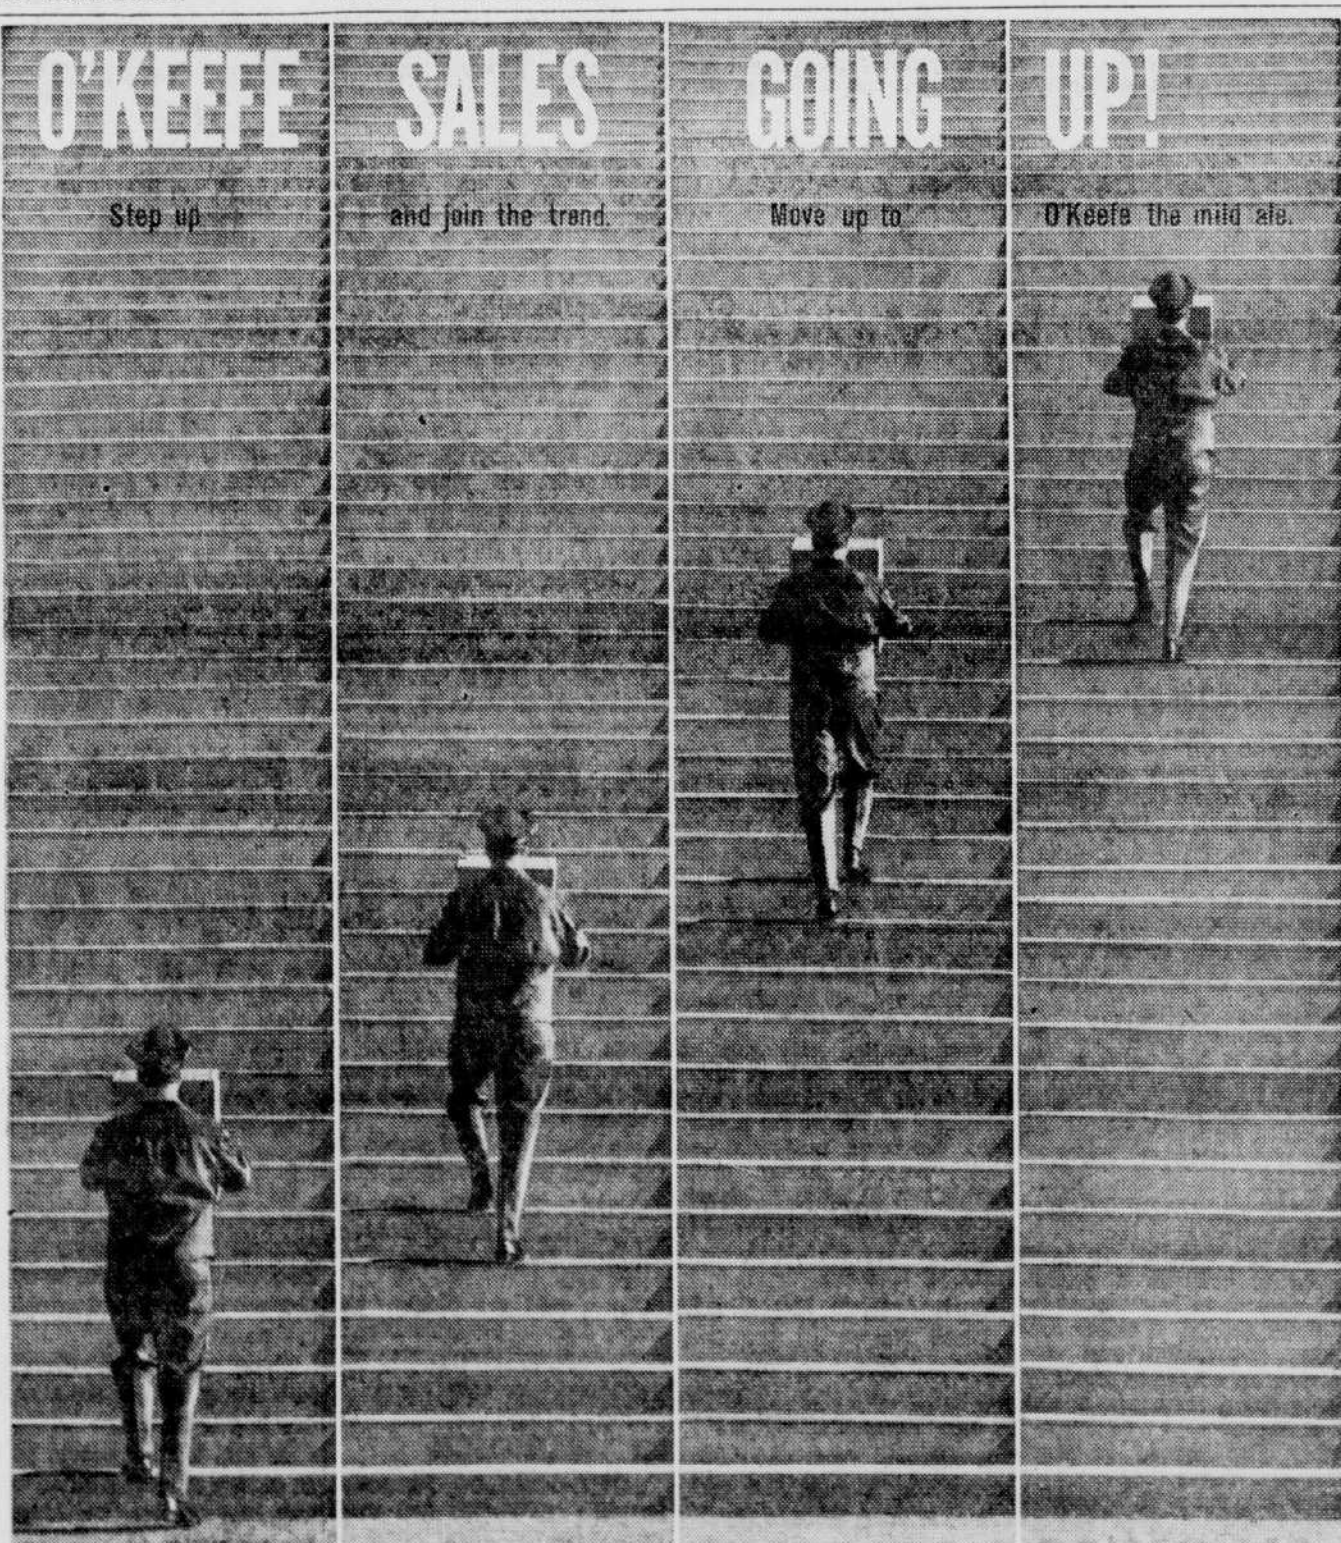

PUBLIC NOTICE

By-Law No. 1247

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that on the 17th day of September 1962, the Municipal Council of the City of Sherbrooke has adopted By-Law No. 1247 of the City of Sherbrooke authorizing a loan of $208,000, for industrial purposes (Graham Farm).

That the original of said By-Law No. 1247 is kept at the City Hall, in the Municipal Archives, where everybody can take communication thereof.

The By-Law will take effect on October 26, 1962. Given at Sherbrooke, this 9th day of October 1962.

H. P. Emond,
City Clerk.

"THERE'S A TREND TO O'KEEFE!"

JEAN-LOUIS DUPUIS, agent: "It's amazing how many people are following the current trend to mild O'Keefe Ale. Brewing with costlier, seedless hops gives the mild, natural flavour they all seem to prefer. Try mild O'Keefe ale. Chances are you'll be the next to switch, once you discover just how mild and satisfying an ale can really be."

Firing of Richmond chief

Hearing again postponed

RICHMOND — (Staff) — The hearing into the Town of Richmond's firing of ex-Police Chief Gerard Paquin has been postponed again, this time to Oct. 23 and 24.

The hearing opened Sept. 17, but Judge John Sheehan, presiding at the Quebec Municipal Commission proceeding, told the town's lawyer last week that he would prefer to delay the continuation until he has the full transcript of the first day's testimony. It was to have re-opened Oct. 12.

Georges Savoie, acting for the town, said ex-Chief Paquin's lawyer was also agreeable to the day.

Mr. Paquin's appeal against dismissal—for which the town at first gave no reason but "insubordination"—is the first since an amendment to the Quebec Cities and Towns Act permitted such appeals.

Mayor Marcel Roy's testimony Sept. 17 aired a number of what the town considered lapses of duty by the chief, and also revealed that Chief Paquin had asked the council for a pay raise shortly before his dismissal.

Stolen car is recovered

A 1959 convertible car that was stolen from the service station at the corner of King and Bowen Street Thursday morning was recovered at 7:45 p.m. the same evening in damaged condition at the Reliable Motor Sales on Denison Street in Granby by its owner Guy Monfette.

According to Sherbrooke Police, in addition to the theft of the car, some six or seven gallons of anti-freeze were stolen. Furthermore, the soft drink cooler, peanut stand and cigarette machine in the garage were rifled of money according to police.

The robbery was committed after the thieves broke a small glass window in the station door enabling them to slip the lock on the door.

Police believe that the car had been driven into a pole thus causing the estimated $400 damage to the car.

Shot Thursday

Operate on Jutras for wound

The condition of a man shot early Thursday by a Sherbrooke constable was "satisfactory" this morning in Hotel Dieu Hospital.

Dr. Carol Cote, who operated on Fernand Jutras, 22, of Assomption Street, for the pistol wound, said the police bullet has not yet been removed from his back, and may not have to be.

Jutras was a back-seat passenger in a car stopped by patrolling police around three a.m. Thursday at the corner of Argyle and Dominion Streets on suspicion of having been used in several robberies and being intended for another at Larochelle Bakery on King Street West.

Chief Edouard Moreau of Sherbrooke Police reported that Jutras moved his hand as if to draw a gun, and was shot by one of the two investigating constables through the window of the car.

The driver and two other passengers were released after questioning, however, and their car returned to them. It was not damaged by gunfire.

The bullet entered Jutras' thorax just under the collarbone on the left. Dr. Cote said, and almost came out under the left shoulder in the rear.

Auxiliary to mark anniversary

MAGOG — (Special) — The Ladies of Magog's Army, Navy & Air Force Veterans' Association Unit 203 Ladies' Auxiliary No. 72 will celebrate their group's 10th anniversary this Saturday evening at their hall on Main West in Magog. A buffet supper and dance will be the event's main feature. Music for dancing will be provided by the Hetherington orchestra.

At the ladies' last business meeting, held on Oct. 8, presided over by Mrs. Judy Rogers, president, Mrs. Alice Viens was elected color bearer, Mrs. Doris Camber was named convener for a chicken pie supper scheduled for November 24th. The group also discussed and decided to assist the annual U.N.I.C.E.F. drive.

Cigaretts are stolen from local company

Between $800 to $1,000 in cigarettes were loaded into a blue panel truck at noon hour Thursday from the Epicerie Cooperative at 280 Wellington Street South by two unidentified men who entered the store in the pretext that they wished to use the washroom.

According to Captain Armand Genest of the Sherbrooke Police, the two well-dressed men walked into the store just before noon hour and requested the use of the bathroom facilities. Police said they remained in the lavatory until the employees left the wholesale grocery distributor for lunch.

The men then proceeded to break the lock on the cigarette compartment, remove the contents, and load them into their panel truck that they had parked nearby.

A passerby told police later that he remembered seeing a blue panel truck speed away from the area.

According to Captain Genest, a similar robbery was attempted only a few weeks ago at the G. T. Armstrong & Sons Ltd.,

No permit, work stopped on house

Sherbrooke city contractor Hercule Marcoux was forced to stop construction on one of his houses on Lincoln Street because he didn't have a city building permit.

Charles Langlois, city director of services, said city building inspectors ordered Mr. Marcoux to call his men off the job when no permit was found for its construction.

"Mr. Marcoux stopped the construction while we inspected and approved his plans, then bought a permit and was able to start work again," Mr. Langlois said.

Mr. Langlois said Mr. Marcoux probably forgot to buy the permit for the house, "because he builds so many and no charges are being laid against him." The city could have fined him.

To face trial on cheque count

Rene Pomerleau, 35, of Sherbrooke was ordered to stand trial at the 1963 criminal assizes after he appeared Thursday in Sherbrooke Court of Session on a charge of passing false cheques.

Pomerleau is accused of passing the cheques, totalling $275, about the end of July, 1961. He was arrested by police in a local hotel through a car registered in the name of Andre Germain, of Montreal.

According to the charges, false cheques bearing the name of Beaudry Lumber Co., of Sherbrooke and Sherbrooke Auto Electric were found.

Several witnesses appeared at Pomerleau's preliminary hearing.

To meet autoroute officials

The Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce announced Thursday it will host officials of the Quebec Autoroutes Office next Thursday at a dinner in the New Sherbrooke Hotel.

Following the dinner there will be a discussion between the invited guests, Guy Poliquin, president of the office, Aime Laurion, commissioner of the office for the Eastern Townships and Roger Trudeau, engineer in charge of the autoroute.

The Sherbrooke C of C also invites regional members of the C of C to attend the dinner meeting during which Sherbrooke 125th anniversary Queen Jacqueline the 1st, Jean Louis Gauthier, president of the 125th Anniversary Committee and Jean Paul Savard, vice-president of the 125th Anniversary Committee, will all be present with medals.

The Chamber also announced there will be eight assistant trade commissioners from the Federal Department of Trade and Commerce in Sherbrooke for a two day tour of industries in the area next week.

The assistant commissioners will arrive Monday and during their stay they will visit the Canadian Ingersoll-Rand Co. Ltd., the Austin Glove Mfg. Co., and the Walter M. Lowmyer Company.

During their stay in Sherbrooke they will be received at city hall by Mayor Armand Nadeau and before they leave a reception will be given for them by the Ingersoll-Rand Company Ltd., at St. George's Club.

Langlois says pavement is not dangerous

Sherbrooke's Director of Services Charles Langlois told The Record Friday the reason so many people lose control of their cars on King Street West when the pavement is wet is probably because they are going too fast.

"I tried the street myself this week, when it was wet and I was travelling around the St. Elie bend at 50 miles an hour, and I didn't have any trouble," Mr. Langlois said.

Mr. Langlois said he tried the road after Raymond Chabot, a garage owner complained to city officials that the street near the Rock Forest Road intersection and near St. Elie was slippery when wet.

"City engineers and myself examined the pavement of the street there and found it to be the same as other pavement on city streets," Mr. Langlois said.

"After trying the street myself when it was wet, I say the reason motorists find the street slippery is because they are travelling too fast, or maybe it is because they have worn tires of poor quality," Mr. Langlois said.

Several weeks ago the city repaved the King Street West hill because motorists had trouble driving on it when it was wet.

Tests of the pavement proved that the stone used in the mixture caused the pavement to be slippery when wet or damp.

Mr. Langlois said the pavement elsewhere on King Street didn't cause trouble because different stone was used in the mixture.

City protection committee head, Alderman Everett Nicol, said he will bring the matter up before council at its Monday meeting.

Weedon man succumbs to injuries

Rosario Palardie 34, of Weedon, died in the Hotel Dieu Hospital Wednesday night as a result of injuries received when the car that he was driving rammed the rear of the truck driven by Raymond Paradis of Valley Junction.

The collision occurred on route Number one as both vehicles were entering Weedon. According to the Provincial Police the driver of the truck, Paradis, was uninjured in the accident.

Police officials also said that there were no other passengers in either vehicle.

FOUND NOT GUILTY
GRAND FALLS, Nfld. (CP)—A Newfoundland Supreme Court jury took 30 minutes Wednesday to find Edward Barker of nearby Windsor not guilty of criminal negligence in the death of John Fisher, 4, of Windsor, who died after being struck by a car driven by Barker Aug. 19.

Scots in exile will celebrate Sat.

The sound of the pipes will bring memories of Auld Scotia to many Scots "in exile" Saturday evening at the William Street Armory in Sherbrooke. The occasion being the third annual Gathering of the Clans.

Featuring the event will be the Pipes and Drums Band of the 24th Tech Sqd R.C.E.M.E. The band is under the leadership of Pipe-Major Jim Moore and has gained in popularity in the Eastern Townships in the past few years.

Another well known local group the Hamish Smart Troup will be featured in Eightome Reels Strathspeys and Waltzes. Piper Andy Forrester will have his Scottish Juvenile Dancers also on the program, these youngsters will feature Sword Dancing and Highland Fling. In the group are Diana Johnson, Judy McDonald, Nancy Cillis, Patsy Gagnon and Pattie Johnson.

Missisquoi County plowing match on Oct. 13

STANBRIDGE EAST—Missisquoi County's 84th annual plowing match will be held at the farm owned by K. D. Tree of here on Oct. 13.

Three generations of one family and four of another are expected to attend the competition. Another interesting feature of the match is the fact that it was held on the same farm many years ago and Edgar Beck plowed in the meet with a yoke of oxen.

expropriating the private power companies and the proposed television debate between the two party leaders.

Mr. Johnson is campaigning today in Vaudreuil - Soulanges riding west of Montreal, while the Premier stumps the vast Duplessis riding 375 miles north-east of Quebec City.

The Union Nationale party leader made his attack on the government's education policy in St. Anne de Beaupre. Mr. Johnson charged one of the reasons the election was called was a split in the Liberal cabinet over education and non-denominational schools.

"One of the reasons for the election," he said, "was because a few men wanted at all costs to nationalize and neutralize education in this province."

WANTS MINIMUM WAGE SET

He said Mr. Levesque would run education with Le Mouvement Laïque de Langue Française, a group promoting non-denominational French schools.

These people have a right to their opinions, he declared, "but they should not be imposed on the immense Catholic and French-Canadian majority of the province."

Mr. Johnson reiterated his

THETFORD MINES — The regular monthly meeting of our Lady of Lourdes Council Catholic Women's League, was held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 3, at St. Patrick's School.

After various reports had been given by the conveners, Mrs. O'Brien thanked and congratulated the members for the very successful card party, which was held recently at the St. Patrick's School, with special thanks to Mrs. Duncan MacLean, Convener.

It was announced that Miss Eileen Davis, immediate past president, had been appointed Diocesan Spiritual Convener.

A mass is to be held in the Chapel, in the St. Alphonse Convent, Oct. 14, with the children's and youth's groups participating.

A closed retreat for ladies from the 5th to the 8th of Nov. will be held at Ste. Marie de Beauce, with an English speaking Redemptorist priest, in charge.

Plans were made for a bursary to be awarded annually to a student of St. Patrick's School, by the League.

Rev. Father Gravel and Mother Mary Pia, were guests at the meeting, and at the conclusion, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ed. O'Brien and Mrs. Harry Marshall, assisted by Mrs. Duncan MacLean and Miss Susan Donovan.

promise to eliminate provincial taxation for low-income workers and to set a standard minimum wage of $1 an hour throughout Quebec.

There were 250,000 people in the province making less than that "and this is nonsensical in 1962."

He estimated the cost of expropriating the power companies at $1,000,000,000 compared to Premier Lesage's estimate of $600,000,000.

Premier Lesage spoke at a rally in the Laurentian foothills of St. Jerome.

"He (Daniel Johnson) doesn't know what he is going to do," the premier said. "Each time I ask him what he is going to do (about the expropriation) he skates backwards. I have asked him 20 times."

Premier Lesage also charged the Union Nationale wants to return to a "gestapo system" of welfare payments.

If the Hospital Insurance Act were scrapped and the province returned to the system of hospital care payments only to those unable to pay, he said investigators would have to search into family affairs to decide who would get assistance.

Mr. Johnson reiterated his

A Sherbrooke Regiment RCAC firing party will be in attendance at the Mansonville ceremony under the supervision of Lt.-Col. Douglas W. Ward, C.O. of the unit. Sgt. Betrix Bourque will be in charge of the fourteen man party.

This Saturday evening the 3rd annual Gathering of the Clans party will be held at the William Street Armoury, auspices of the 24 Technical Squadron Highland Pipes and Drums.

Candidates for the Captain to Major Field Officers course are reminded that Oct. 13th is deadline for assignments.

Cpl. Ross Bishop of the 8th Medical Company, RCAMC has been promoted to acting sergeant.

Officers of 9 Militia Group Headquarters have been reminded of a special meeting scheduled for Thursday evening, October 18th, at which their presence is most necessary.

The Sherbrooke Air Force Association have their annual oyster party scheduled for October 26th at the Legion Home on Prospect Street in Sherbrooke. There'll be the usual spread and plenty of fun.

Don Martin, president of the group and parade marshal Gordon Smith have been gaining numerous compliments of the fine job they did in organizing and conducting this year's Battle of Britain parade, held Sept. 23rd.

Ed Martin, chairman of the association's welfare committee notes that he has had numerous requests for use of their three wheel-chairs. He asks that all members support the coming raffle and funds-raising events so money can be raised to buy other chairs, which apparently are much in need.

President Don Martin, back from the national convention held in Halifax, will give a report on meetings he attended when his group meets on October 24th. Members will be duly advised by bulletin of this coming meeting.

THETFORD MINES —

Due to the weather on Oct. 6, the golf game scheduled by the C.I.M.M., as part of their Annual Ladies' Night, had to be cancelled. In spite of bad weather and the difficult road conditions leading to Mont Adolphe's Ski Club, where the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy held its eighth Ladies' Night, it was quite well attended.

Greeting the guests were, Mr. F. P. Hodgson, chairman, of the C.I.M.M., assisted by Mr. Marcel Michaud, Vice-Chairman.

Later a reception was held at 6:30 followed by a buffet supper after which dancing was enjoyed to the music of Raymond Lachance's band.

The Nov. meeting of the C.I.M.M. will be the annual meeting combined with the oyster smoker, and will be held on the 22nd, when the election of officers will take place.

Do-it-yourself

Should store, clean yard tools

Idleness could be tougher on your lawn and garden tools than the heavy use you gave them all during the season.

Dirt, rust and unkind weather could mean a whole new set of equipment in the spring. But proper care and storage will get them past the hard months and insure readiness for immediate use.

Clean Way

If you remember to put things away clean you will have gone a long way in preventing damage. Grass and pruning shears are generally caked with dirt, oil and juice from the plants you've been cutting. Clean with kerosene. Finish up with wire brush and emery cloth. File cutting edges so they will be sharp. Coat surfaces with oil to prevent rusting.

Hoes, rakes, spades and shovels will have an accumulation of soil that can be cleaned off easily. Sand off rust spots. File edges of hoes and spades. Straighten bent tools.

Check wooden handles for splinters, cracks or splits.

By MR. FIX

Sand rough areas. Coat handles with linseed oil. Do not paint, since this may cover a crack or faulty piece of wood.

Coat metal parts with oil and hang up tools where they will be secure. Leaving them brushing will remove any material that has caked up on the inside of a spray can. Coat metal parts with light oil, but keep oil away from rubber parts.

Remove dirt and grass clippings from mower. Oil and grease wherever needed.

TO STORE IDLE GARDEN TOOLS...

on the floor is a menace to them and to you.

Put the wheelbarrow away clean. Wash it and dry it thoroughly. Sand off rust spots and repaint, if metal.

Drain Hose

Hose left with water in it will burst during a bad freeze, or rot if unused. Drain it thoroughly. If you have several pieces fastened together, disconnect them first. When they are emptied leave them out to dry. Coil the hose loosely on a reel.

Sprinklers, nozzles, watering cans should all be washed out and allowed to dry before storing. Remove all rubber washers and throw them away. This way you will have to put new ones in next time you use them.

Clean Spray

Spray equipment used for insecticides and weed killers should be scrubbed with a soap or detergent. Rinse with plenty of water. A good

Two Beauties In Harmony

New ideas for homemaking always spark the imagination of the modern lady of the house. When they add to the attractiveness of her home and increase her family's enjoyment, she welcomes them with open arms.

Makers of fine furniture are well aware of her desire for colorful pieces that blend with her decorating scheme for a harmonious whole. They are turning more and more to Johns-Manville Colorlith® and Colorchip® for furniture tops for tables, desk inserts, and for terrace tables as shown above. Johns-Manville offers this blend of asbestos, cement and pigment in a variety of colors that harmonize with the latest in modern decor. Colored marble chips are added to produce Colorchip in Snowflake and Carnival patterns.

Colorlith and Colorchip are also serving commercially as shower stalls, laboratory panels and window sills. Chalkboard and laboratory surfaces using these materials demonstrate strength and durability.

These are just a few examples of the many fields in which Johns-Manville research scientists and technologists, production specialists and sales representatives serve you. Their specialized performance helps in countless ways to make our standard of living safer, more enjoyable and efficient.

Foliage plants are a fine decoration

By MARGARET E. DOVE

Flowering house plants must have sun if they are to succeed indoors. Therefore the sunny window space is usually their setting.

There are, however, places in the home other than the sunny areas where green accents are needed for their decorative value, and it is in these locations that foliage plants prove useful.

Foliage plants are decorative year round. With few exceptions they will adjust themselves to the diffused light of many homes, apartments and office buildings; their upkeep is easy and they have no equal for adaptability.

During recent years a great abundance of new and unusual varieties has been introduced. No longer do we have only the choice of a Boston fern, the rubber plant, dracaena or an aspidistra.

FOLIAGE PLANTS

Foliage plants with exotically shaped and colorful leaves and attractive growing habits can be found to blend with almost any interior.

As most foliage plants are native to warm regions, they thrive in a humid atmosphere. To increase humidity indoors,

HOUSE PLAN OF THE WEEK

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. F-643

DESIGN F-643. This home could be arranged on a suburban plot, a city, or corner lot. For a narrow plot, garage door and windows can exchange places, permitting a straight driveway.

The utility area serves as laundry, mud room and outside entrance. There is lots of work and cabinet space, appliances, even a dishwasher in the kitchen and a large family room.

All four bedrooms have floor-to-ceiling wardrobe closets. The master bedroom has its own adjoining lavatory. The hall bath has a vanity-lavatory.

A covered garage passage opens to central vestibule. Natural stone covers three walls of garage, extends to a wainscot under bedroom windows, combines with vertical siding. Floor area is 1632 square feet; cubage, 30,281 cubic feet (not including garage).

For further information on DESIGN F-643, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn. In Canada, Small House Planning Bureau, St. John, New Brunswick.

The Record's Farm Report

HAMILTON

This week Agriculture Minister Hamilton was pushing forward plans for agriculture as outlined in the Throne speech. The steps necessary to provide more adequate supplies of feed grain in eastern Canada are the most complex. Feed grain supplies have become increasingly important as a complement to community pastures and the shift from dairy to beef cattle production, particularly in Ontario and Quebec. But the job of ensuring adequate grain stocks there, without disruption to the established grain marketing structure is requiring careful consideration.

On farm credit, the lending power of the farm credit corporation will be increased to $400 million as forecast in the last session. In addition, both the act and regulations will be modified to give more flexibility in loans and in repayments particularly for farmers wishing to shift from dairy to beef production.

Mr. Hamilton has been pressing for co-ordinated action to meet the crisis in grain handling and transportation now developing in the West. He has held discussions with rail presidents Gordon and Crump as well as the heads of the Prairie pools to encourage them to get together in planning the adjustments they face. Prospects are that Transport Minister Balcer may now take up the job of bringing together the agencies concerned including the railways, elevator companies, transport Commission and farm organizations.

EGG PRICE SET

Renewal of the federal support program for eggs was announced by Agriculture Minister Hamilton. The agricultural stabilization board is authorized for another year to make deficiency payments to eligible producers on maximum deliveries of 400 dozen eggs of the top three grades. A deficiency payment will be made if the national average price for grade A large falls below 34 cents, the same basis as the past year. Final figures are not yet available for the 1961-62 year which ended September 30 but the national average price for grade A large is expected to be close to 33 cents indicating a deficiency payment of one cent per dozen.

Prospects for egg prices for the balance of the year remain good. Although production is being sustained above last year's levels by a holdover of old hens, numbers of replacement pullets and chicks are down and egg prices which have strengthened during the past few weeks should continue strong, especially for the top three grades.

CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

Distributor of Architectural concrete spray requires Dealers for Sherbrooke area. Extremely profitable venture into industry's most revolutionary product. Interested parties require $7,800.00 for initial investment. Net, $50,000. per year. Fully secured principals only write immediately Name, Address, to Box 189, Sherbrooke Record.

Ottawa plans to move forward soon on a national program of land capabilities mapping as a part of the federal rehabilitation (ARDA) research program. Lee Pratt, formerly with the federal soil survey staff in Manitoba, was this week appointed as land-use co-ordinator for ARDA to work on this mapping program.

TURKEY PRICE BRIGHT

Number of turkeys on farms at June 1 was down 13 per cent, according to DBS' poultry survey. But big hatches of broiler pullets in June and July brought these up above last year. Poults hatched for finishing to mature weights were down 8.5 per cent. Although storage stocks of all classes of turkey were well above levels of the past two years, Thanksgiving and Christmas demand and the price of other meats are expected to insure reasonably good prices for turkey for the balance of the season.

Mail and frost have reduced the flue-cured tobacco crop this year. The Ontario crop which is now expected to yield about 170 million pounds has suffered an estimated loss of 25 million pounds. But the quality is good. Quebec's crop will add another six million pounds to the total.

In spite of the seven million pound carryover from Ontario's 1961 crop of 190 million pounds

OCTOBER ...
On a drive through the Country the other day.
Beauty unsurpassed I must say —
The Trees with their riot of colours.
Each one tried to out do the others.
And among them the Evergreen
Which seemed to enchant the wonderful scene.
Such a grand; grand display
A gorgeous sight on an Autumn day.
Then the tall Majestic Mountains were a sight to behold
With their gay colours. That stood out so bold
And as I gazed about me at this wonderful sight.
My heart was filled with delight —
Why destroy; what Nature has made.
Beauty in Autumn. Summer shade.
Let us admire and protect these Beautiful Trees
No painter can produce; such a Picture as these.

Now with 26 members, the Sherbrooke House Builders Association was founded during the summer of 1959, and has as its main objective a program designed to promote better construction in practical homes, planned for the liking of average Canadians. The group is affiliated with the National House Builders' Association, and working with this Canada-wide organization obtain up-to-date information on housing trends, and benefit from experience gained from other members from coast to coast.

In Sherbrooke this organization applies the common demand of local home owners in building residences, which is in turn reflected in greater home-owners' satisfaction, and generally results in better quality buildings.

Moisan - Gervais vows solemnized in St. Patrick's church

MR. AND MRS. CLAUDE M. MOISAN

The marriage of Constance Marie Gervais, daughter of Mr. Justice Gervais, of Sherbrooke, to Mr. Claude M. Moisan, Winnipeg, Man., son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moisan, Montreal, took place on October 6, 1962, at 11:30 a.m. in St. Patrick's Church, Sherbrooke. Msgr. Rosario Moisan, D.P. officiating. Mr. John Codere was the organist and the soloist was Mr. Jean Paul Fortier. Standards of white gladioli were used to decorate the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Paul Mullins Gervais, wore an ivory peau de soie sheath, fashioned with a high neckline and a blouson top, long sleeves ending in points over the hands and the skirt terminating into a cathedral length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a pill-box. She carried a prayer book, covered with white stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. David Gregory, Town of Mount Royal, as matron of honor, and Miss Micheline Moisan of Montreal, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, wore dresses of emerald green velvet, matching pill-box hats, and carried crescent bouquets of white pompons.

The junior bridesmaid, Miss Louise Mullins, of Westmount, cousin of the bride, wore an emerald green velvet dress with a matching headband, and carried a crescent bouquets of white pompons.

Master Charles Gervais, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Mr. Michael Hayes, of Montreal, acted as best man and the ushers were, Messrs. Michael St. Barb Harrison, Toronto, Anthony Miller, Ottawa, and Andre Gervais, Montreal, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a Royal blue, pure silk sheath, matching French velvet hat, with net brim, and a pink Sweetheart rose corsage, pinned to her handbag.

The mother of the groom, wore a glazed chestnut wool and silk ensemble, and sand Lyons velvet draped hat, and a gardenia corsage pinned to her handbag.

Following the service, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The bride wore for travelling, a moss green suit, matching hat and black accessories.

The couple will reside in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

ASK THE DESIGNER

by gail dugas

Dear Gail: I am starting a four-month course in a Minnesota school. I would like to know the type of clothes to buy—and accessories, too—for school and dates and church. I am 5 feet 2, weigh 110 pounds and have dark hair and olive complexion.—D.S.

Dear D.S.: As a graduate of the University of Minnesota, I can give you this advice first: take warm clothes. Minnesota has long, cold winters, beautiful and sparkling but severe. Now, fashion advice comes from Jeanine, designer for Helen Harper sweaters. She says:

"You've picked a great winter to go to school in Minnesota. For this is the year of the muffled-up look—hoods, great yards of fleece stoles and high, turned-up collars that keep your ears warm, too. This new 'layered look' means that you can wear two sweaters and a blouse all at once and be both warm and fashionable."

"Have your clothes for campus wear casual and unfussy. I recommend a wardrobe of five skirts and eight sweaters. A turtleneck, V and crew neck are three classic types plus a mohair cardigan in a pastel color and a striped blazer sweater with a hood."

"For Minnesota, keep your party and date clothes simple and understated. A sweater dress in a bright color, one of the new A-line shifts and a velvet skirt with two dress-up sweaters, an intarsia print and a sweater with some type of glitter. Make your coat choice the furry type, inside or out."

"For classes, you might like a forest green melton reefer with red pile lining. Don't be afraid of color against all that deep Minnesota snow. As for shoes, the two-inch heel is the favorite of leading designers, even the great Mainbocher. Have one pair of leopard-spotted pony skin pumps on a small stacked heel. And this fall, there's a boot for every occasion, so have at least one pair."

"For your height and weight, stick to accessories that won't overpower you. Have a small handbag and don't wear clothes that are too full, plaids or patterns that are oversized. Look for good lines without fuss or feathers."

Dear Gail: I am planning a trip to New York with two friends from October 20 through October 28. My problem is: what shall I wear? We'll be seeing Broadway plays, television shows and doing sightseeing. Could you help me plan a travel wardrobe? I am especially having nightmares about shoes. I am 5 feet 3, am 22, have reddish hair and brown eyes.—M.A.B.

Dear M.A.B.: First, the New York way of dressing is simple, spare and clean of line. But the clothes you buy for New York will be equally at home in Detroit. Now, advice as to a travel wardrobe comes from couture designer Larry Aldrich. He says:

"For New York in autumn, you will need a lightweight dressy coat, in a day length, for evening, it might be silk. You should have a wool suit, a lightweight wool dress, a silk crepe for afternoon and two cocktail dresses, neither of them fussy, for cocktails, dinner and the theater. If you like, one might be a cocktail suit rather than a dress."

"You'll need one hat only, for daytime wear. Have two pairs of oval toe pumps with the stacked heel for all of that walking about and a pair of black silk pumps for late day and evening."

Sylvia Fluet weds Maurice Beauregard

BEEBE — The marriage of Sylvia Rose, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fluet of Beebe, to Mr. Maurice Beauregard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Beauregard of Holland, Vt., took place on Sat., September 22, 1962, in St. Therese de l'Enfant Jesus church, Beebe.

Rev. Father Roger Cadieux officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Tancred LeCours played the wedding music and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Georges Brault the soloists. Mr. and Mrs. Brault are cousins of the bride. Baskets of hydrangea, gladioli and zinnias were used to decorate the altar. The guest pews were marked with white ribbons and hydrangea.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a bell silhouette gown, fashioned of white peau de soie, with a fitted bodice, and elbow length sleeves, featuring re-embroidered Alencon lace, jewelled with seed pearls and iridescent sequins at the bodice and trimming of self fabric bands across the skirt, terminating in symmetrical roses and full chapel train. She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion, held by a pillbox applied in seed pearls on lace. The rose effect was carried through on the back of the headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Colette Fluet, was maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Roger Beauregard, and Miss Dorothy Sheldon. The attendants were attired in bright-berri sheaths of silk organza, fashioned with overskirts, the bodices being styled with scoop necklines and elbow length sleeves. They wore matching bow hats with veiling. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of red roses and white pomps. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of white carnations and white pomps.

The best man was Mr. Robert Lavoie, and the ushers were Messrs. Roger Beauregard and Raymond Fluet.

The bride's mother wore a metallic brocade of bright berri and black. Her accessories were a bright berri hat and mink stole. Her corsage of white cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a beige gown, of soft gold metallic. Her accessories were a matching hat and mink stole. Her corsage was of white cymbidium orchids.

The reception was held at Ripplecove Inn, Ayer's Cliff. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Beauregard left for Cape Cod, Mass. For travelling Mrs. Beauregard chose a beige wool suit with mink trim and dark brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink cymbidium orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Beauregard will reside at 10 Prospect St., Newport.

Out of town guests were present from Biloxi, Miss., New York City, Rochester and Lake George, N.Y., Groveton and Berlin, N.H., Esmond, Providence and Cranston, R.I., Burlington, Barre, West Charleston, Newport, Derby and Derby Line, Vt., Montreal, Valleyfield, St. Helene de Bagot, Coaticook, Stanhope, Dixville, Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Stanstead and Rock Island.

Mocha chiffon cake ... rises to new heights

This beautifully light and tender cake has an unusual volume, accounting for its high and handsome appearance. Chiffon cake recipes call for liquid shortening, which not only affects the texture, but also makes mixing much quicker and easier. This recipe uses cocoa and instant coffee to give the cake its mocha flavoring.

Before serving, sprinkle the top with some sifted icing sugar, or frost it with a suitable light icing, in a color to blend in with the table setting. Since the cake keeps exceptionally well, it can be made a day or two ahead of time. Either ice cream or fresh fruit can be teamed with the cake when serving.

MOCHA CHIFFON CAKE

Yield - 1 large tube cake
1 2/3 cups once - sifted all - purpose flour, or 2 cups once - sifted pastry flour 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 cups fine granulated sugar 1/4 cup cocoa 2 tablespoons instant coffee, 1/2 cup peanut or other salad oil, 5 egg yolks 3/4 cup water, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup egg whites (at room temperature), 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar.

Preheat oven to 325 deg. F. (rather slow).

Sift together in a mixing bowl, the all-purpose or pastry flour, baking powder, salt, sugar, cocoa and instant coffee. Make a well in dry ingredients and add in the order given, the oil, egg yolks, water and vanilla. Blend the liquids a little with a wooden spoon, then stir into dry ingredients and beat until batter is smooth.

Measure egg whites into a large bowl and sprinkle with cream of tartar. Beat until egg whites are very, very stiff - much stiffer than for an angel cake. Add batter to egg whites, part at a time, folding with a rubber scraper after each addition just until combined. Turn batter into ungreased 9 or 10 - inch tube pan. Bake in preheated oven about 1 1/4 hours. Immediately invert cake in its pan and allow it to hang suspended until cold. Loosen cake around edges and carefully shake from pan. Turn top side up and, if desired, sprinkle top with a little sifted icing sugar.

Learn to make ruffles

We haven't had an epidemic of ruffles such as now in 20 years.

Double fold ruffles—center-gathered ruffles—lace-trimmed ruffles—pleated ruffles—you have but to choose what you like. Ruffles are easy to produce and to apply to almost any simple pattern.

Crepe de Chine is in the picture, georgette—a heavier-than-chiffon fabric, and chiffon in several weights—choose any one of the three, make a dress such as we show, a dress you can wear all fall and winter.

Use a milliner's fold at neckline and bottom of sleeves easy to do once you learn the trick, and a finish you will use many times on sheer or lightweight fabrics.

First decide how wide you want the fold. A 1/4 to 3/8-inch-wide finish is good.

Cut the fabric on a true bias, twice the width you want the finished fold. Fold bias through the center, stitch the two raw edges to the wrong side of the garment, turn the fold over to the right side. Bring center of the turn to the stitching line, baste, then stitch directly in the center of the fold. In applying such a fold do not stretch it or allow it to be full at any point.

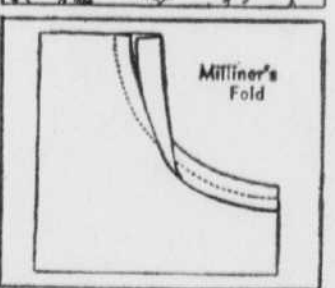

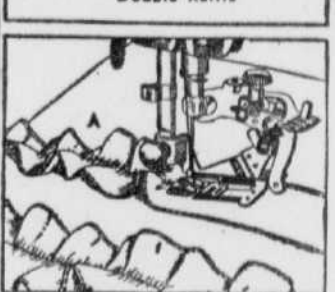

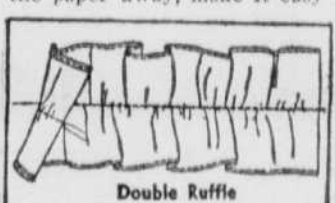

Dear Mrs. Picken: Chiffon is so fashionable, yet so squirmly. Is there any easy way to work with it?—A. B.

Dear Mrs. A. B.: There is no magic way for chiffon. I buy large sheets of tissue paper, place 2 thicknesses together. Place the pattern pieces over the tissue and cut. Mark the grain with a tracing wheel through the tissues. Remove the pattern.

Separate the tissues. Lay the chiffon out over each thickness and pin very carefully. Cut both sides of the garment. Join pieces together with tissue in the seams, baste; try the garment on, make necessary alterations.

Remember, you want a chiffon dress to fit easily—never too snugly. Paper helps to insure easy fit.

Stitch the seams, stitching through the tissue paper. Your machine needle will cut the paper away, make it easy to remove from the chiffon. Turn raw edges of ruffles, bottom hems, cascades, all with a scant 1/8-inch. Stitch this with 10 stitches to the inch, taking care that edge cannot tighten.

A ruffle may be gathered and sewed on at the same time, as in A—on curtain edges, for example, or on the bottom of petticoats.

Turn the stitched edge in and finish with a rolled hem. Ruffles can be finished with a hemmer, if you practice on the fabric you are using and can be sure of an even hem, all the way. When using the hemmer, stretch the fabric slightly so edge cannot tighten.

Sherbrooke High eked out 3-2 win over Drummondville as Lennoxville trounces St. Patrick 5-1 in soccer Sherbrooke High School Juniors soccer squad edged Drummondville 3-2 yesterday in a match that was a 3-2 decision. In the Lennoxville-St. Patrick match Wednesday, Billings with two goals, Ayrd, Dunn and Rothery each with one were responsible for scoring on Lennoxville's behalf.

The goal scored against goalie Englemann was the first in Lennoxville's four games. Englemann withstood three hours and forty-five minutes of playing time without being scored on.

Drummondville's Meyer followed up the SHS drive at 4:00 to tie up the score but, at 5:00 Connor of the visitors put Sherbrooke in possession of a 2-1 lead when he knocked in a long goal.

MacLeod made it 3-1 at 17:00 and Drummondville started fighting their way back and Van der Barre did chalk up one point for Drummondville at 18:00.

Carling to sponsor mixed duck pin event

Continuation during the 1962-63 winter bowling season of one of last year's largest participation sports events, the Carling Duck Pin Provincial Mixed Bowling Tournament, was announced this week by the sponsoring brewery.

Jean Louis Dupuis, Carling agent for Sherbrooke, made the announcement as arrangements were being completed that are expected to bring participation in the giant tournament by virtually every duck pin establishment in the Province of Quebec, including those in this area. Full details concerning the 1962-63 tournament are expected during the coming month.

The unique tournament permits bowlers in established mixed duck pin leagues to participate while bowling in their regular league games. A special handicapping system developed for Carlings by Bowling Promotions Inc., who will again direct the tournament in 1962-63, provides equal opportunity for experts and beginners alike.

Close to 500,000 bowlers of both sexes were enrolled during the 1961-62 season with most local league players participating.

Pitching, hitting and defense is difference in World Series, says Bobby Richardson, Ford will win

This is another in a series of articles analyzing the World Series by Bobby Richardson, second baseman of the New York Yankees.

By BOBBY RICHARDSON
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It looks as though our defence, Tom Tresh's hitting and Whitey Ford's pitching may be the difference in this World Series.

One thing we're hoping for in the sixth game is that the wind stays dormant. Whitey Ford says he hasn't been able to throw a good curve in Candlestick yet with men on base last Thursday when we won the opening game, 6-2, he got two double plays. Five times with men on the Giants went on in the infield plays to end an inning.

I've been looking over World Series box scores in which Ford has pitched and it's no wonder he has won 10 games. When Tom Haller hit that two-run homer last Monday I had to go back 54 innings to a 1958 game at Milwaukee to learn when Whitey last allowed two runs the same inning.

As to our hitting, Tresh has been outstanding, just as he was all season long at shortstop or in left field. Tresh drove in 93 runs for us and was leading off most of the year. He's got to be the American League's top rookie.

When I speak of defence I'm thinking of a run Mickey Mantle saved in Wednesday's game by backing up Tresh. It was two out in the fourth when Felipe Alou hit a shot that caromed off the left field concrete. It looked like an inside-the-park home run until Mantle raced over from right centre to the 402-foot sign near the Giant bullpen and made a fine throw back to third base. Nobody mentioned this great defensive move. Had Alou scored the Giants would have had a 2-0 lead.

Sher-Lenn Little League holds final meeting, reports presented, nomination committee is named

The Sherbrooke-Lennoxville Little League held their closing meeting last night at the New Wellington Hotel with President Bill Smith presiding. Most of the teams were represented and the nomination committee was named.

Reports were heard from different committee chairmen and these showed that the past season compared favourably with other seasons. The league showed a fair balance on the season's operation and prospects for 1963 were very encouraging.

One important question was discussed at the meeting that regarding players who had attained the age of twelve years of age and were no longer available for Little League. At a meeting held previously it was suggested the league might form a senior loop to take care of the over-age Little Leaguers. On reports heard of the work the O.T.J. were doing for boys in juvenile and hantam age the Little League decided not to operate as there is room for over-age Little Leaguers in the O.T.J. organization, if they still want to play ball during the summer months.

The Little League decided at the meeting an endeavour would be made to increase the league to eight teams next season if suitable sponsors were available. In doing this it would increase the number of boys playing in Little League.

Charles Clark, chief umpire of the league, was named chairman of the nomination committee and his report would be given at the general meeting to be held December 6th.

Mickey Mantle suggests pitchers get credit in holding him to two hits and other sluggers down also

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—also is hitless with an 0-for-8 mark. San Francisco's Willie Mays is having a sub-par series with a .238 batting average. Yankee Roger Maris is way down at .188.

Ralph Houk, the Yankee manager isn't too upset about Mantle's slump. He, too, spoke highly of the pitching on both sides.

"Mickey has looked pretty good at the plate," said Houk. "He is swinging good but he is looking at a lot of good pitching. I don't think it is the book they have on Mantle or our other hitters. I give all the credit to the guy on the mound."

"A lot of the so-called big hitters aren't having much of a series."

Mickey didn't mention any names. He didn't have to. All you had to do was look at the composite box score of the first five games.

CEPEDA, KUENN HITLESS
Mantle is hitting only .111 but he is doing better than Orlando Cepeda, the San Francisco Giants' slugging first baseman, who batted .305, hit 35 homers and drove in 114 runs during the regular season. Cepeda still is looking for his first hit with a horrible 0-for-12 record. Giant Harvey Kuenn, a .304 batter, one of their eight touchdowns via the aerial route. The fact that the game was played under the lights may have contributed to this. This week fans should be treated to a more diversified attack. They will certainly be able to see a better contest as Macdonald College will undoubtedly field a strong and experienced team for this grudge match.

Both teams are presently undefeated. The Gaiters having trounced the University of Sherbrooke Green and Gold, and the Aggies downed St. Pat's of Ottawa in their Ottawa-St. Lawrence league openers.

A blow to the Gaiters' defensive unit was dealt this week when safety Bob Coates, of Sherbrooke, dislocated his shoulder. This injury, coupled with earlier injuries to linemen Squee Gordon, Bob Piper and Peter Dunn have left the Bishop's squad with a sorely weakened bench. Coates' loss will probably mean that offensive halfback Glenn Way, of Lennoxville, will have to play two ways.

Offensively the Gaiters should field the same twelve men that performed so ably last Thursday in Sherbrooke. Fullback Mike Somerville, who scored two touchdowns on long runs, will undoubtedly see action, and it is quite likely that quarterback John Milligan will again make use of his own running ability, and call the quarterback pass-run option.

The Gaiters' passing attack seemed to have been lacking last week, as they only scored

WEATHER

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—

There is a 90 per cent chance that it will rain intermittently in San Francisco through today, the weather bureau said late Thursday.

The sixth game of the World Series between the New York Yankees and San Francisco Giants is scheduled for noon 4 p.m. EDT.

The weather bureau posted Gale warnings for south winds of 30 to 45 miles an hour at times.

Liston refuses to meet special N.Y. committee public hearing of the New York state legislative committee investigating boxing has left the committee miffed and its acting chairman doubtful of heavy-weight champion Sonny Liston's reported rehabilitation.

NEW YORK (AP)—

Liston refused to appear at the hearing Thursday after being invited to refute testimony made before the committee on Oct. 2 by New York heavy-weight Cortez Stewart.

The refusal nettled state Sen. Frank Pino (Dem - Brooklyn), the acting chairman, who said: "We are not very happy with the reply that we have received from Sonny Liston."

"I think that if Mr. Liston is acting in good faith it is incumbent upon him to answer some of the statements that were made by Stewart here under oath which very definitely tie him in with the underworld as of the time that the championship fight took place."

Later, the chairman said the committee must conclude that Liston still has some connection with the underworld.

However, since Liston is not licensed as a fighter in New York, Pino said, the committee can take no action against him. Stewart had testified that racketeer Blinky Palermo had tried to hire him in Philadelphia as a sparring partner for Liston last spring when Sonny was training for his title fight with Floyd Patterson.

Johnson paces Stamps to 7-5 win over Flyers
CALGARY (CP)—Veteran centre Norm Johnson scored three goals and set up two others Thursday night in piling Calgary Stampeders to a 7-5 victory over Edmonton Flyers as the teams opened their 1962-63 season in the Western Hockey League.

Other Stampeders goals were scored by Fred Huel, Gord Vejpava, Cliff Bristow, and Dale McDonald.

Bishop's University opens home stand tomorrow against Macdonald Aggies, game slated for 2:00 p.m.

Bishop's University football Gaiters meet their arch rivals the Macdonald Aggies Saturday afternoon in Lennoxville at 2 p.m.

Both teams are presently undefeated. The Gaiters having trounced the University of Sherbrooke Green and Gold, and the Aggies downed St. Pat's of Ottawa in their Ottawa-St. Lawrence league openers.

A blow to the Gaiters' defensive unit was dealt this week when safety Bob Coates, of Sherbrooke, dislocated his shoulder. This injury, coupled with earlier injuries to linemen Squee Gordon, Bob Piper and Peter Dunn have left the Bishop's squad with a sorely weakened bench. Coates' loss will probably mean that offensive halfback Glenn Way, of Lennoxville, will have to play two ways.

Offensively the Gaiters should field the same twelve men that performed so ably last Thursday in Sherbrooke. Fullback Mike Somerville, who scored two touchdowns on long runs, will undoubtedly see action, and it is quite likely that quarterback John Milligan will again make use of his own running ability, and call the quarterback pass-run option.

The Gaiters' passing attack seemed to have been lacking last week, as they only scored back 54 innings to a 1958 game at Milwaukee to learn when Whitey last allowed two runs the same inning.

As to our hitting, Tresh has been outstanding, just as he was all season long at shortstop or in left field. Tresh drove in 93 runs for us and was leading off most of the year. He's got to be the American League's top rookie.

When I speak of defence I'm thinking of a run Mickey Mantle saved in Wednesday's game by backing up Tresh. It was two out in the fourth when Felipe Alou hit a shot that caromed off the left field concrete. It looked like an inside-the-park home run until Mantle raced over from right centre to the 402-foot sign near the Giant bullpen and made a fine throw back to third base. Nobody mentioned this great defensive move. Had Alou scored the Giants would have had a 2-0 lead.

The odds-makers established the Yankees a 13-to-10 choice to win today and a 7-to-2 favorite to win the series.

According to the weather bureau, there was a 90-per-cent chance of rain today. Warnings of 30- to 45-mile-an-hour winds have been posted.

Houk planned to start the same line-up he has used in every game but the second, when injuries forced the benching of first baseman Bill Skowron and catcher Elston Howard. Skowron underwent treatment for a shoulder and hand injury Thursday but Houk said he would be in the lineup.

Dark, who has been shuffling his line-up from game to game, made another change. Because of the left-handed opposition, he restored the right-handed Harvey Kuenn in left field in place of Matty Alou, with Felipe Alou switching to right field, and returned Orlando Cepeda to first base, replacing Willie McCovey.

Should rain force a 24-hour delay, the same pitchers—Ford and Alou—will face each other Saturday.

Rain, hail or wind don't daunt Houk in predicting Yanks will take World Series in six games

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Neither rain, nor hail nor wind—all predicted for today's scheduled sixth World Series game between New York and San Francisco—could prevent manager Ralph Houk from forecasting a world championship for his Yankees in six games.

Houk was undaunted by manager Alvin Dark's choice of Billy Pierce as the Giants pitcher, although he knew the veteran left-hander's record at Candlestick Park is 12 wins without a loss. Houk confidently expected the Yankees to wrap it up today-weather permitting—behind the left-handed slants of Whitey Ford.

The Yankees lead the best-of-seven series three games to two.

"I expect Ford to beat Pierce," Houk said Thursday, picking Whitey to start instead of Bill Stafford although it was the young right-hander's turn in the pitching rotation.

"I know Pierce hasn't lost here yet. But neither has Whitey. Remember he beat the Giants in his only appearance here."

WON THE OPENER

Houk was referring to the opening series game in which Ford scattered 10 hits and won 6-2, with left-hander Billy O'Dell the loser.

The odds-makers established the Yankees a 13-to-10 choice to win today and a 7-to-2 favorite to win the series.

According to the weather bureau, there was a 90-per-cent chance of rain today. Warnings of 30- to 45-mile-an-hour winds

Have backs to wall but this isn't anything new to Giants, says Kuenn

This is the eighth in a series of articles analyzing the World Series by Harvey Kuenn, San Francisco Giant outfielder.

By HARVEY KUENN

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sure, we've got our backs to the wall. But that's nothing new. We've been bouncing back all year.

We are all very confident we can take two straight from the New York Yankees. We've faced situations before where we simply had to win a couple of games, and did it. There's no reason we can't do it again.

The home field helps. It's not so much that winds you hear so much about. But there's a certain familiarity. And having that last time at bat sure helps. Candlestick certainly is a better hitting park than the stadium. First of all, it's faster. Of course, the rain slowed the field in New York, but that's not an excuse. Both teams had to play on it. But a fast field is usually considered to be a better hitting park. And it's easier to hit a home run in San Francisco, because of the dimensions of the park. That helps a power team, and we've got good power.

Also, you get a good hitting background in Candlestick. We have a green backdrop and a batter can pick up the pitch real well. In Yankee Stadium, the ball comes at the batter out of a crowd of people sitting in their shirtsleeves in centre field. The pitch is hard to pick up and hard to hit.

And we just might have a little advantage in the pitching. Opposing left-handers complain that the wind holds up their curve ball, and Whitey Ford will pitch the sixth game.

Our left-handers are more used to it and know how to handle it. For instance, there's Billy Pierce, who will pitch today. He's a left-hander and he won 12 without losing one at home this season.

Blue Bombers still rated tops in CFL but Lions have gained ground to move into second, Eskis drop Mighty Winnipeg beaten again by Vancouver, making the Lions definitely a rising power in Canadian football. But the Bombers still have to rate tops. In the East, Argos are coming and Hamilton and Montreal still skidding. So, for this week, it's:

1. Winnipeg Blue Bombers: Coach Bud Grant's machine sits upon a shaky throne, but which club could you pick over them for sheer consistency?

2. British Columbia Lions: Two wins in a row over Peg; a decision over the quick-rising Argos and moving fast. Have to be second.

3. Saskatchewan Roughriders: Steve Owens' collection is behind Calgary and ahead of Vancouver, but they have a slightly more solid club than the Stamps.

4. Calgary Stampeders: Next best is not slightly better. But for now, Earthquake Earl Lundford & Co. have to settle for fourth as the West dominates the nation in hitting, running and passing.

5. Ottawa Rough Riders: Strongest in a weak Eastern Conference. Russ Jackson and Ron Lancaster have too much moxie for any other club east of the Lakehead.

6. Toronto Argonauts: Coach Nobby Wirkowski has Tobin Rote and the ex-NFLer has receivers. That makes them sixth best but without running, poor bets for sudden-death playoff action.

7. Hamilton Tiger-Cats: Even without Bernie Faloney, Cats only lost in Toronto by a field goal in the final 82 seconds.

8. Montreal Alouettes: That squeaker loss to Ottawa might have killed the Montrealers. Rote and the ex-NFLer has receivers. That makes them sixth best but without running, poor bets for sudden-death playoff action.

9. Edmonton Eskimos: Age and J. Parker only half ready leaves the Eskis low men on the CFL's totem pole. Going, Going... (TNS).

REMEMBER WHEN

Ted Phelps of England captured the world's professional sculling championship 32 years ago today. Phelps defeated Bert Parry in their race on the Thames River in England. Phelps lost to Australian Bobby Pearce three years later in Toronto, when Pearce won the three-mile race by 200 yards.

Rookie Bob 'Miche' Perrault blanks Canadiens 5-0

Turns in spectacular performance in stopping favored Canadiens, Red Wings rally to edge Rangers

Boston Bruins finished last in the National Hockey League last season and opened in first place this season. Rookie goalie Bob Perrault, playing his 10th NHL game, turned away 27 shots to shut out the Montreal Canadiens 5-0 Thursday night.

It was Bruins' first opening-game victory since the 1957-58 season when they defeated Chicago Black Hawks 3-1 in Boston. The shutout is Boston's first registered against Montreal since Don Simmons blanked them 2-0 at Boston Nov. 25, 1958.

The win puts Boston in first place, for a while anyway. In other league play, old pro Gump Worsley held Detroit Red Wings scoreless for two periods, but the Wings scored two third period goals to beat New York 2-1.

Although both Boston and Detroit won their opening games, Boston holds the first place on better goal averages — five scored by the Bruins and none against.

John Bucyk of the Bruins, who scored only three goals against Montreal all last season, chalked up two goals. His first turned out to be the winner.

Doug Mohns also scored two goals, tying his record of two goals scored against Montreal last season.

The Bruins' other goal was scored by Irving Spencer.

MACDONALD GETS WINNER
In the other game Dave Balon scored New York's only goal, giving them the lead near the half-way mark in the second period.

Detroit tied the game up 1-1 at 6:04 of the third period when Howie Young scored after being

Jose Pagan is turning into iron man

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — They call shortstop Jose Pagan the San Francisco Giants' iron man with good reason. He has played about 270 games of baseball annually without a vacation since 1955.

Yet none thought the 165-pounder with the wide range and good throwing arm would be the Giants' hitting hero in the World Series.

While some others talk of being tired, the little guy from Puerto Rico says, "I like to play in the big games."

He's hitting an even .500 in the series with 7 hits in 14 at bats, including Wednesday's solo homer off Ralph Terry.

"I guess I'm just lucky," he says with an accent. "And I'm feeling real good. I'm okay."

Jose estimated he played 100 games of winter league ball in Puerto Rico before reporting to spring camp. After playing the exhibition schedule with the Giants, he appeared in all but one of the 163 regular season and playoff games, and in the five World Series contests against the Yankees.

"We knew he was good," manager Ralph Houk of the New Yorkers said when asked if Jose's play surprised him.

San Francisco's manager Alvin Dark claims that since June 1, Pagan has been the best fielding shortstop in the National League.

Stuebenville, Ohio — Freddie Martinovich, 138, Pittsburgh, stopped Roy Carruthers, 143, Akron, Ohio, 1.

Miami, Fla. — Rocky Randall, 141, Houston, Tex., and Bobby Monroe, 142, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., drew, 8.

A club from the Prairies could have a big say in who gets a bye into the Eastern Football conference playoffs.

Saskatchewan Roughriders invade the east this weekend and lay each of the two clubs locked in the battle for first place and the all-important rest while the second and third teams meet in the sudden-death semi-final.

Tomorrow the visitors meet Ottawa Rough Riders, who hold the EFC lead by one point. Monday night they visit Hamilton Tiger-Cats who, with 11 points, are one behind Ottawa.

Sunday — Toronto the fight is for the third and last playoff spot. Montreal Alouettes and Toronto Argonauts are tied for third with six points and there are only three games left for the loser to catch up after Sunday.

Saskatchewan coach Steve Owen won't say who'll sit out the games in the east, but speculation is that Dave Sarette and Dave Mince will be on the sidelines.

OWEN OPTIMISTIC
Owen won't predict the outcome but says:

"We can't do any worse than break even with the east and we may do a lot better. With this race as tight as it is, we need every point."

The Roughriders are in third place, two points behind Calgary Stampeders and one ahead of British Columbia Lions.

The east's Rough Riders remain fairly healthy. Millard Fleming has a twisted ankle and Coach Frank Clair is considering resting him and dressing Doug Daigneault who has yet to see action this season.

Of his western opponents, Clair says:

"They do everything well. We studied the films and they're a strong club. . . . Very much improved. And they're in play-off position so it's as big a game for them as it is for us."

ALS STILL CRIPPLED
The Alouettes still have five players on the injury reserve list—Don Clark, Don Paquette, Ron Brewer, Ted Page and Milt Crain—and none will be off the list before Sunday's game against Argonauts. Joe Stracina will also be sidelined with a leg injury.

Marv Luster is expected to see considerable action on defence. In addition to his work as an offensive end, because of the injury situation.

It's expected Argonauts will dress newcomer A. D. Williams, a former National Football League end. But coach Nobby Wirkowski isn't announcing any changes just yet — "it's too early," he says.

Nor does he subscribe to the theory that if Argos win this game they have a good foothold on the last playoff spot.

"I like to think we need to win four ball games," he says. "If we win four games, then we're away."

Esks healthy, meet Lions in crucial game

"Isn't that something," said coach Eagle Keys of Edmonton Eskimos. "Now that we're all but out of the playoffs, everybody turns up healthy."

Eskimos have suffered a rash of player injuries for most of the Western Football Conference season and Saturday night go against the rampaging British Columbia Lions in Vancouver.

Quarterback Jackie Parker has been back for two games after suffering a broken collar bone against Calgary Stampeders Labor Day, and fullback Johnny Bright and halfback Dunc Harvey will be back after missing two games with assorted injuries.

This will allow Keys to move Tommy-Joe Coffey back to his accustomed end position after filling in for Bright and halfback Bob Walden, injured earlier in the season.

The game is all-important to Eskimos. One more loss would put them out of contention for third and final playoff spot in the conference. Esks have not missed the playoffs since 1950.

STAMPS PLAY BOMBERS
Another important game will be an afternoon encounter in Winnipeg, with Calgary Stampeders seeking the win that would put them in front of the Blue Bombers atop the league standings.

The Bombers, after losing two consecutive games to the Lions, have a one-point edge over Calgary—16 points to 15—with two games in hand.

Meanwhile, Saskatchewan will be trying to enhance its playoff hopes also with an eastern swing in the interlocking schedule series. They start Saturday with Ottawa Rough Riders and play Hamilton Tiger-Cats Monday.

Saskatchewan is in third place in the conference with 13 points, on ahead of the Lions.

Lions star halfback Willie Fleming is hobbling slightly on a big toe that is out of line. Stampeders fullback Earl Lunsford, the league's leading rusher, has had trouble running on an ankle broken early in the season while guard Don Luzzi still favors a pulled hamstring in his left leg.

Among the Riders, the only possible question marks are halfback Ray Purdin, who suffered a slight concussion in the first quarter Monday against Edmonton, and alternate quarterback Dave Sarette, who has missed the last two games with a sore knee. Both will be traveling with coach Steve Owens to Eastern Canada.

Lions have beefed up their re-serve with the acquisition of tackle Bill Frank of the University of Colorado. Coach Dave Skrein was not expected to dress Frank for the Edmonton game.

Now an Economy Compact Can be a Luxury Car Too!

PRESENTING

THE NEW RENAULT R-8

The world's first production car with four disc brakes

"Luxurious" is the word for this new R-8. You can see it. You can feel it. And you can afford it, because it's priced considerably lower than standard compacts. The R-8 is definitely an economy compact with its roomier interior, larger trunk, greater power and performance. Truly a powerful addition to the Renault line of fine cars.

The coachwork is immaculate. And the glistening body trim and heavy duty bumpers are coated with six protective metal layers: three copper, one nickel and two chrome. The entire uni-body construction is dipped in an anti-corrosion bath.

Four big doors open on an interior designed without compromise. The driver and passengers are held secure in plush, wrap-around bucket seats. The family size back seat cradles passengers with generous leg-stretching comfort. There's generous headroom and hiproom.

You get 27 sq. ft. of effortless vision: a graceful dished hood permits fender-to-fender visibility. There's a powerful

2-speed heater/defroster for winter warmth and comfort; or, in summer, flip a switch and cool, refreshing air circulates throughout the car. The rear doors have child-proof locks.

The new, fully independent coil spring suspension features rubber buffers on all four shock absorbers which automatically adjust to the weight of the car to give you a completely shock-free ride. In addition, anti-sway bars in the front and V-bars in the rear eliminate pitch and sway on the roughest roads and when cornering.

Disc brakes (on all four wheels): This is an engineering feature that is found only in one or two high-priced luxury cars. These brakes are self-adjusting and outwear ordinary brakes. They never fade. They never distort. They are twice as safe and dependable as ordinary brakes.

The Renault R-8 has the world's first sealed cooling system: That means you never have to add water or anti-freeze. It's factory-sealed for life. You never check it. You never flush it. The best way to maintain it is to ignore it.

Five main bearings: The five main bearings make the new 4-cylinder engine truly a jewel. Supporting the crankshaft on either side of each piston, they eliminate vibration at all speeds. Smoothness is what you get. And smoothness means less friction, and that means two other things: low maintenance and long life. (P.S. You enjoy 40 miles to the gallon).

You get a Renault Warranty for parts and labour: 12 months or 12,000 miles. Please yourself (and your nearby Renault dealer), stop in and test-drive the luxurious new Renault R-8 today.

Would cost $25,000 for lights

In a report to council Tuesday, Sherbrooke Police Chief Edouard Moreau said it would cost the city about $25,000 to install push button traffic lights and safety zones at different intersections on King Street West for the protection of pedestrians.

The report recommended safety zones with push button lights, rather than a centre hand which would continue from Radisson Street to Jacques Cartier Boulevard.

Chief Moreau who made the report to council following a meeting with Jean Lacoste, traffic director for the City of Montreal, in Montreal, said a safety zone was installed at the intersection of Vimy and King Streets last week and has solved the problem of protecting the public.

Chief Moreau recommended that a safety zone be installed at King and Cate Streets near the Shopping Center and at Frazer and King Streets. He recommended that push button traffic lights also be installed at both intersections.

The police chief also recommended that push button traffic lights be installed with safety zones at the intersections of King and Boccage, King and Burling, and Bryant and King. City council decided to study the chief's report before approving the installation of the push button traffic lights and safety zones.

154 Queen Street — Lennoxville

There are light groceries — milk, butter, picnic meats, bread and cakes.

Adjoining is a billiard room which is another one of the proprietor's enterprises—the proprietor being Roma Lemay.

Mr. Lemay says his restaurant is open seven days a week, from seven in the morning to 11 p.m.

"Our exterior renovation has included work in mosaic, aluminum and fiberglass," he says.

As seen in the accompanying photo, the entire facade of the restaurant has been redone in pale, inch-square tiles, dotted with sprightly colored tiles in a geometric pattern.

The fiberglass and metal work is found in the awning overhanging the whole store front, and one of the front windows is devoted to displaying the books, toys and puzzles on sale.

STANSTEAD —

At a special meeting on Oct. 3, at Centenary United Church Hall, members of the United Church Women of Centenary United Church, Stanstead South United Church, Rock Island, and Wesley United Church, Beebe, were privileged to hear Dr. Kenneth Prior, a former agricultural missionary in Africa for 30 years.

Mrs. A. McKinley Rose, president of the Centenary United Church Women, opened the meeting, and Rev. Carl Gustafson led the group in prayer.

Mrs. Mabel Bullis welcomed the two visiting United Church Women groups.

Rev. A. McKinley Rose introduced the speaker, who gave a very interesting talk on the great need for United Church Missionaries. He stated that today, there are only half the number of missionaries, as there were at the time of union 37 years ago. This year the United Church is asking for 98 recruits. The talk was followed by a brief question and answer period, and Mrs. Merton Davis, president of the U.C.W. of Stanstead South Church thanked the speaker.

Prior to this meeting, the Centenary U.C.W. held a brief business meeting, with the president in the chair.

Routine reports were read and bills were voted to be paid.

It was decided to pay one delegate's expenses to the Summer School, and also to take up a collection among the members as a special Christmas gift for the Foster Child.
