US-French 'Peace' Talks

Egyptians Halt Radio Campaign

CAIRO (AP)—A truce prevailed today in Egypt's propaganda war against Jordan's King Hussein. Whether it will be a permanent cease-fire was uncertain.

Reliable sources said Saudi Arabia and Iraq, pleading in the name of Arab unity, had persuaded President Nasser's government to halt most of his press and radio barrage against Hussein.

Jordan had asked for other Arab states to intervene on its behalf.

The voice of the Arabs, Cairo radio station, Sunday night refrained from attacking Hussein for the first time in more than a week.

Egyptian state broadcasting station were said to have cancelled attacks on Hussein and substituted criticism of France's policy opposing arms shipments to Tunisia.

US Tornados Kill 5 People

JASPER, Ala. (AP)—Tornadoes ripped through sullen skies Sunday to strike at 13 rural communities in Alabama and Mississippi. Five persons died and scores of homes were battered.

A number of buildings were damaged by another twister at White Settlement, a suburb of Worth, Tex.

World News In Brief

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Four crewmen were found alive and six dead Saturday in the wreckage of a United States Air Force B129 that crashed into an Alaska mountainside during a snowstorm Friday night.

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A passing motorist fired several shotgun blasts at a group of Negroes in front of a night club Sunday night, wounding seven.

OTTAWA (CP)—Oil and gas from Canada's Arctic may one day find an economic outlet in Europe, says R. G. Robertson, deputy minister of northern affairs.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—Five countries introduced a proposal Saturday to pave the way for ending United Nations trusteeship over French Togoland and recognizing it as an independent country.

LONDON (Reuters)—Current talks between Yemen and Britain probably will lead to ending tension between the two governments, British diplomatic observers said Sunday.

PERTH, Scotland (AP)—Sir David Moncreiffe, 35-year-old baronet, was missing today in a fire that destroyed his 50-room ancestral home. Servants expressed belief he died trying to save his three dogs.

Reds Boast They Have Missiles Ready To Use, US Scientists Doubtful

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet marshal says Russia has intercontinental missiles that would be decisive in any future war. One U.S. scientist, however, says Russia's satellite launchings provided only partial evidence that Russia has such weapons.

The Russian missile boast was made by artillery Marshal S. Barentsev Sunday in an article in the Communist newspaper Pravda. Barentsev's article followed the line taken by other Russian military leaders in celebrating Soviet Artillery Day.

Barentsev said long range missiles give the Soviet Union the ability to smash any aggressor anywhere and under any conditions.

Another artilleryman, Marshal S. Varetsov, said Russia has ready a vast array of modern weapons, "including atomic, thermobaric (hydrogen) and long-range rockets capable of destroying enemy targets at distances unimagined at the end of World War II."

And Mikhail N. Chistyakov, still another artillery marshal, claimed that Soviet artillery is maintaining "its superiority over those who openly call themselves our enemy."

Dr. Fred Singer, a University of Maryland astrophysicist, said Sunday in Washington that the launching of two Russian Sputniks demonstrated positively only one of four requirements for an effective intercontinental ballistic missile.

The four requirements, he said, are propulsion, accuracy, guidance and a means for protecting the missile's warhead from destruction by atmospheric friction.

TV Star Robbed

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Television's Tennessee Ernie Ford returned from a weekend vacation in Palm Springs today to find that burglars had stolen an estimated $6,000 in furs and jewelry from his home. He said "we were wearing most of our parties."

Arrest Farmer After Four Bodies Found

PLAINFIELD, Wis. (AP)—Investigators found the remains of four women Sunday in the home of a 50-year-old farmer who was taken into custody Saturday night after a business woman was found butchered at his secluded home. District Attorney Earl Kileen said "It appears to be cannibalism."

Law enforcement officials, sifting through the 160-acre farmstead of Ed Gein, refused to furnish any details of the investigation conducted by dozens of city, county and state officers since Saturday night.

But this community was full of rumor how the bedroom of Gein, a bachelor and sometimes baby-sitter, was decorated with furniture upholstered in human skin.

Kileen said Gein will be arraigned before county Judge Boyd Clark today on a charge of robbery.

Kileen, who earlier had said first-degree murder warrants will be issued, explained that the robbery charge will involve theft of a cash register and its contents from the hardware store which Mrs. Bernice Worden, 58, had operated in this community since her husband died 26 years ago.

FIND BODY HANGING
The cash register was found in Gein's rambling old farm house on an obscure town road seven miles southwest of Plainfield, which is about 120 miles northwest of Milwaukee.

Mrs. Worden's disappearance Saturday touched off the search that led to the grisly trove. Her decapitated body was found Saturday night hung by its heels in the summer kitchen of Gein's home.

Officers said state crime laboratory officials had found four skulls and other segments of female bodies in the house—mostly in the first-floor bedroom and kitchen which Gein occupied. The rest of the house is nearly furnished in a period of 50 years ago.

Neighbors said most of the house was little used since Gein's mother died many years ago.

Late Bulletin

PLAINFIELD, Wis. (AP)—The Wausau County district attorney said today five more human heads have been found in an isolated farm near Plainfield, raising to 10 the number of cadavers discovered so far in the house where a mild-mannered handy man lived alone.

Wool Industry Brief

OTTAWA (CP)—An appeal for sharply higher protection against imports was voiced by Canada's wool cloth industry today as the tariff board opened a study of the Canadian textile tariff structure.

"This industry is in grave danger," said H. Roy Crabtree of Montreal, president of the Primary Textiles Institute, in referring to the wool cloth situation. But it was not only the wool cloth but all branches of the textile industry that needed protection to prevent layoffs and financial losses.

No country can be economically mature without a textile industry sufficiently large to meet the needs of its citizens, Mr. Crabtree added in opening argument before the board. The Canadian textile industry wanted to be assured of a part of the Canadian market sufficient to protect the jobs of its 150,000 workers.

Wool cloth manufacturers appealed for increased protection three years ago but this was turned down. The board said at that time, the problem was not so much the low tariff on imports from United Kingdom producers—main competitors for the Canadian market—but the high price of Canadian woolen products and other factors. Consumers were switching more to synthetic products.

SITUATION CHANGED
The industry argued today, however, that the situation has changed. The Canadian wool cloth market had grown, but because of low tariff protection and increasing imports from the U.K. and Italy, Canadian producers were getting a smaller and smaller share of their own market.

Canada's civilian demand for wool cloth had increased to an estimated 41,700,000 yards this year from 29,300,000 in 1954, an increase of 42 per cent. However, in the 1954-57 period, the Canadian industry's share of the Canadian market dropped to 51.2 per cent from 58.4. Imports from the U.K. rose to 15,207,000 yards in 1956 from 11,433,000 in 1954. Those from Italy took a spectacular jump to 1,718,000 pounds from 207,000.

The industry maintained that Italian producers could keep their prices low because most of their cloth was made from rags and other old clothes while Canadian competitors used new wool.

SEEK TARIFF CHANGE
One of the industry's biggest headaches has been the Canadian tariff ceiling on imports from the U.K. For more than a quarter-century the rate ceiling has been held at 50 cents a pound, though the price of cloth has risen sharply during that period, reducing the degree of tariff protection.

The industry maintained this ceiling should be scrapped and new and higher rates imposed, based on yardage rather than weight. The move would protect the current trend in the use of lightweight materials.

Tariff proposals advocated by the industry would boost rates on imports from the U.K. to 18 per cent and 20 cents a square yard from the present 20 per cent and 12 cents a pound. The rate on imports from Italy and other most favored nations would rise to 27½ per cent and 39 cents a square yard from the present 27½ per cent and 30 cents a pound.

Slaying Suspects Arrested

TORONTO (CP)—An Ontario Provincial Police inspector will fly to Saskatoon tonight to bring back two men suspected of the holdup slaying of bank manager J. J. Walter Bridges in Blind River, Ont.

The suspects were arrested by RCMP near Saskatoon Sunday on a tip from a farmer.

Acting chief Inspector Ward Kennedy of the OPP's criminal investigation branch said he is satisfied the men are a truck driver and his 17-year-old son for whom warrants were issued last week.

The warrants charged Fred Montgomery, alias John Chadwick, 41, and his son, Rodney, with murder in the Oct. 9 shooting. Police said both were from the Parry Sound, Ont., district and both had distinguishing scars on their heads.

TIP FROM FARMER
Both were arrested in the Delisle area, 25 miles southwest of Saskatoon, after a district farmer who had read reports of the crime went to RCMP in Saskatoon.

The farmer was suspicious of two strangers who had been working on a nearby farm for the last month.

Police arrested the older suspect in the barn where he was working. The younger man slipped out of the barn and fled to a bush four miles away where he was tracked by an RCMP dog. Officers said the younger man was carrying a rifle but did not attempt to use it.

THE SCOUTING TRAIL

LENNOXVILLE SCOUTS AND REMEMBRANCE DAY

All Scout groups of Lennoxville took part in the annual Remembrance Day observances last Sunday. The Anglican Cubs and Scouts presented their colors at the service in St. George's Church, then marched to the Town service at the Lennoxville War Memorial. Both Scout groups with the Girl Guides and Brownies took part in the crowd remained in silence in memory of those who fell during the great wars. A wreath of poppies was laid on the War Memorial by one of the 2nd Lennoxville Pack Six, David Lane. Contingent leaders were Clifford Force, 1st Lennoxville Troop; Harold Bench, 1st Lennoxville Pack; Henry C. Knight, 2nd Lennoxville Troop, and George H. W. Le Mesurier, 2nd Lennoxville Pack. The poppy sales were handled this year by the Cubs of the 2nd Lennoxville Group and sales were higher this year than ever before.

LOCAL CUBS INVADE Y.M.C.A. Some fifty Wolf Cubs visited the local Y.M.C.A. this week for an evening of swimming and gym activity. There were Cubs present from the 3rd Sherbrooke Pack (Plymouth United), 5th Sherbrooke Pack (St. Peter's) and the 2nd Lennoxville Pack (St. George's). The opening ceremonies were led by the Cubmaster of the 5th Sherbrooke Pack, R. Tracy after which Cubs went swimming or played in the Gym. Closing ceremonies were conducted by the Cubmaster of the 2nd Lennoxville Pack, G. H. W. Le Mesurier. Other leaders included Ken Bartlett of the 5th Sherbrooke Pack, Roger Smith of the 2nd Lennoxville Pack and Miss Harriet Edmond of the 3rd Sherbrooke Pack.

The following Cubs passed the Swimmer's Badge Test: John Maheu of the 5th Sherbrooke; Steve Elkas, Eric Baumer, Robert Cadman and John Angrove all of the 3rd Sherbrooke and Mike Patrick of the 2nd Lennoxville.

During the evening a member of the 2nd Lennoxville Pack, Senior Sixer Martin Taylor, was presented with the Cyclist and Observer Badges.

Visitors from all parts of the province are invited to attend. — This coming February is the 101st anniversary of the birth of Lord Baden-Powell and all Scout groups will be holding special meetings and banquets. — Until next week, Good Scouting!

Thanks Voted To Stanstead Game Club Members

AYER'S CLIFF — A regular meeting of the Stanstead County Fish and Game Club was held in St. George's church hall, at which, due possibly to the hunting season, there were not as many members as usual present. President Win Hunter was in the chair.

Charles Brewer announced that fish from the Stanstead rearing pond have been deposited in Crystal Lake at Stanstead. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Brewer, Albert Young and W. E. Kendrick for the time and work they spent in overseeing the dam construction at the Lake and for cleaning out the brook.

The membership tickets will be on sale at the January meeting, and a form, listing all the stocking of brooks, lakes and ponds in the county this year will be given to each member.

President Hunter gave an account of the recent Federation meeting and a discussion on his report followed. The members expressed concern about the numerous reports of fawns being shot this fall and hope something can be done towards having closed season on does and fawns as in previous years.

A letter of appreciation is to be written to Game Warden B. Myscen of Foster for his excellent work in apprehending poachers fishing in O'Malley pond. This brought up a lively discussion and resulted in a notice of motion to be voted upon at the January meeting in regard to making a gift of $10 to any county warden who secures conviction of poachers fishing in club ponds.

It was announced that the club ranks third in the Molson's fishing contest, also that a meeting of the Eastern Townships Federation of Clubs will take place at Shawinigan Falls on December 5-6-7. The president and Phil Poaps were appointed as delegates of this club.

Tentative plans were made for a meeting of directors of the Lake Memphremagog and Lake Lyster Fish and Game Clubs, to be held early in December, with the directors of this club to discuss conservation of game, in the County.

Eastern Townships Federation trophies were presented as follows: The Stanstead County Fish and Game Club to Dr. Dean Mosher, Newport, for the largest landlocked salmon, St. Francois Club trophy to Gerald LePitre of Beebe for the largest rainbow trout, East Branch trophy to Leo Groleau of Stanstead for rainbow trout, Brompton Lake hand carved trophy to Hugo LePenna for the largest brogue trout.

The hunter's lamp was won by Harold Hall of Rock Island.

A note of thanks will be sent to Sam Cohen of Sherbrooke for a donation of $5, to the club.

COWANSVILLE

The Ladies of the Emmanuel Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting in the Church House when Mrs. Octave Dominique was hostess. It was announced that the next meeting will be on Wednesday, December 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Scott. Members are asked to note the date: the second Wednesday has been chosen to replace the first owing to the Friendly Tea on December 4 at the Anglican Church. Prior to the meeting the ladies conducted a busy and well-patronized rummage sale. Elections will be held at the December 11 meeting.

The Cowansville Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star held a successful food and handwork sale at the Express (LeRoy) store. The ladies expressed thanks to the management of Robbs and to all who patronized this fund-raising effort.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Leonard have left for a vacation in Florida. During their absence, their children are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Stowe.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

NEW YORK (AP) — The guy who started it all has some advice for the 16 other singers who have TV shows this season. Says Perry Como: Get yourself some good writing.

There can be no doubt that Perry triggered the age of the singer in television. Last season, he got an assist from Dinah Shore, but hers was not a weekly show. It was Perry who stood up against the giant, Jackie Gleason, two years ago and in his own easy manner eventually pushed him over. The age of the comics was finished.

"I don't see how all of us singers can survive," Perry observed during a rehearsal break. "Seventeen singer shows on the air! Something's got to give."

"I can see what's going to happen: Next year we'll all be off the air and the comics will take over again."

Not likely. But it's certain that some of the singers will be casualties. If they follow the advice of the master, they'll take the money for lavish sets and costumes and put it into writing.

DUE TO WRITING

"I can't emphasize that too strongly," said the crooner. "I'm convinced that if we've had success it's due to the writing. Some of the things that Goodie Ace will write for us are just fabulous. We're not the obvious things. They're not bring guests on and let them go right into their specialties."

"We find things to do with them. Little things. Cute things. Things you might not expect. For that reason, stars seem to enjoy playing our shows."

Perry said he hasn't encountered much trouble in landing guests this season, though the competition is fierce. Also many of the singers he has hosted in the past now have their own shows. And Perry won't work a lend-lease deal.

"I think it's a mistake to exchange guest shots," he said. "If I did one with Bob Hope, I'd have to do others with Dinah Shore, Dean Martin and other stars. They're all my friends and I couldn't refuse them. But then I'd be working all the time."

EAST PINNACLE

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Beaman left by motor for Bristol, Tenn., to spend several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Edwards, and Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Howard Baker from Patterson, N.Y., was visiting old friends in this place recently.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hancock attended the funeral of Mr. Harvey Wing at Foster, on November 6. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morrison of Sutton, accompanied them.

These Are Great Days For Flying Saucers And Those Who See Them

WASHINGTON (AP) — These are exciting days and nights for those who believe there are such things as flying saucers!

In the last two weeks the very air has seemed to be filled with mystery.

A round, glowing thing in the sky above Illinois . . . a something that roared like thunder in Texas, shaking one truck and stalling another . . . a dazzling, fiery object that flashed treetop high across Georgia and Florida.

A Nebraska grain buyer who said he stepped aboard a space ship and chatted with its crew, in broken English and high German.

And above all this, glowing with scientific respectability, are those Russian Sputnik moons, evidence that in these times anything seems possible.

It has been 10 years since a Boise, Idaho, businessman, flying alone in his private plane, saw mysterious objects playing around Mt. Rainier.

After Kenneth Arnold came down to earth on that now historic June 24, 1947, he made a report that was to reverberate around the world. He told investigators he had seen not one, but nine, of the things, and in his report he gave them a name that would stick.

SAUCER-LIKE THINGS

"I could see their outline quite plainly against the snow as they approached the mountain," Arnold said. "They flew very close to the mountain top . . . like geese in a diagonal chain-like line, as if they were linked together . . . a chain of saucer-like things at least five miles long, swerving in and out of the high mountain peaks."

So the flying saucer was born, and immediately skeptics put it in swaddling clothes of snickers and incredulity.

Scientists scoffed at it. Fancy names have been used to explain the saucers, terms like muscae volitantes or scintillating scotoma. Which, roughly translated, means spots before your eyes.

Only last week Dr. Donald H. Menzel, director of the Harvard Observatory, said saucers are caused by a layer of heated air that acts as a lens and forms an image as far as 40 to 50 miles away.

"They are nothing more than a mirage," Menzel said.

The air force repeatedly has poo-pooed the whole idea. It even had a document made up, ready to go, for the next rash of flying saucers. So last week, at the height of the current epidemic, the air force was ready with a conclusion it had announced many times before:

NO GUIDANCE

"After 10 years of investigation and evaluation of UFO's"—air force talk for the 5,700 unidentified flying objects it has tried to check on—"no evidence has been discovered to confirm the existence of so-called 'flying saucers.'"

The air force said they could be many things — weather balloons, planes of unusual shape, fireworks or even a wild goose flying.

Since Arnold's report, people all over the world have been seeing saucers. Clubs have sprung up, composed of seers and potential seers. Innumerable books and pamphlets have poured in. Theories have been tossed about like dry leaves in an autumn wind.

There are those who obviously are sincere and enthusiastic, but who after a brief discussion show they were born to believe the unusual. In another age, they would have been 100 per cent elves, or witches, or evil spirits, long before, or after, such beliefs went out of style.

Yet it would be a mistake to decide, as many do, that everyone who believes in flying saucers is a boob or a crackpot. Airplane pilots, for instance, have seen objects they think are real.

At least one private organization has been working hard to convince everyone that there is, indeed, a great deal of this. It's the National Investigations Committee on Aerial Phenomena. It lists retired admirals, airline pilots and college professors on its board of governors.

Two Killed In Week-End Accidents

Two Eastern Townships residents met death in highway accidents over the week-end while a third succumbed to injuries received a week ago.

At Lake Megantic, Miss Carmen Isabella, of Springhill, was instantly killed when struck by an automobile while crossing Frontenac street yesterday morning.

The young woman was leaving the Blue Bird restaurant where she was employed and was hit by a car driven by Neil Stewart, of Lake Megantic.

Gaetan Lacroix, 23, of Thetford Mines, was instantly killed when the car he was driving left the road near Beauceville early Sunday morning and struck a tree.

Jean-Paul Ouellette, of Cowansville, died in the Montreal Neurological Institute on Friday from injuries received when the truck he was driving collided with a C.P.R. freight train at the Potvin Crossing near Cowansville a week previously.

Ouellette had not recovered consciousness from the time of the accident.

In the only accident reported locally, Mrs. Lucien Valence, 50, of 990 Perry street, Sherbrooke, received a broken elbow when she and her husband were struck by a car while crossing Galt Street about 5 p.m. yesterday.

Both were taken to Hotel Dieu but Mr. Valence was released after treatment for minor bruises.

The car was driven by Henri LaRue, 31, of 249 Alexander street.

Fire Destroys Large Cottage In Magog Area

A fire at East Branch Pond, about six miles from Magog Friday evening, completely destroyed a two-storey cottage belonging to Henri Gingras of Sherbrooke.

Magog firemen, with an auxiliary pump and water carrier, under the direction of Capt. Maurice St. Jacques, answered the call but were unable to save the building. However, their efforts were enough to save neighbouring buildings, including one owned by the Sisters of the Sacred Heart, which serves as a summer residence for girls who are wards of the Order.

Mrs. George Smith and daughters, Susan and Brenda, of Swanton, Vt., have returned home after spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Copper.

Mr. George Buckland Sr., and Mr. Guy Gendreau were in Peribonka, Lake St. John, last week on business.

Mr. Bernard Taylor, of Waterloo, visited his sisters, Mrs. Russell Woodward and Mrs. Charles Woodward recently.

Friends of Mrs. Robert McIntosh will regret to learn that she is a patient in the Broadview General Hospital, Newport.

Miss Janet Reeves was an overnight guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Getty and family in Sherbrooke.

Miss C. Emslie and Miss Yvonne Woolfrey, of Montreal, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Emslie and family.

Mr. Charles Henderson, of Three Rivers, and Miss Daphne Burns of Shawinigan were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henderson.

Stolen Cheque Is Offered At Local Hostelry

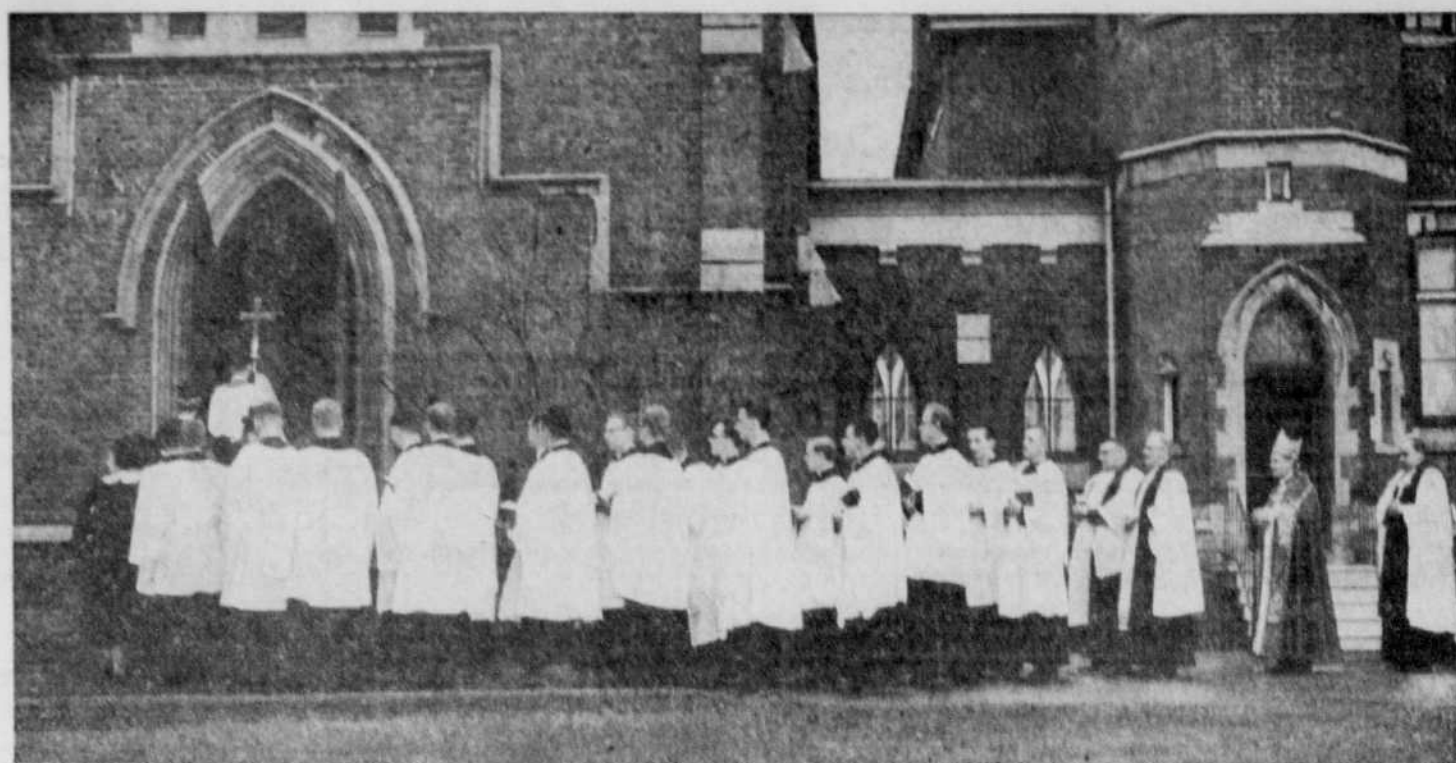

An attempt was made yesterday to cash a cheque, reportedly stolen in the robbery in Bromptonville early Saturday morning, at one of the local hotels according to Provincial Police sources this morning.

Sgt. Eugene Morin, head of the Sherbrooke branch of the Provincial Police, said that two men had attempted to cash the cheque for about $180 at one of the Sherbrooke hotels some time Sunday.

The robbery took place early Saturday morning in Bromptonville, when thieves made off with a safe weighing about 500 pounds, containing $4,640 in cheques and $2,764 in cash from the Fred Castonguay Supermarket store.

Max V. Long Funeral Tuesday For Lifelong Local Resident

The funeral service will be held at Trinity United Church at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon for Max Vincent Long, a lifelong resident of Sherbrooke, who passed away early Saturday in his 74th year.

A native of Sherbrooke, Mr. Long received his education at the Sherbrooke High School and Stansfeld College and served overseas during World War I with the Seventh McGill Siege Battery.

Mr. Long was for many years a member of the Official Board of Trinity United Church, serving as property steward and at the time of his death was on the Trustee Board.

A member of the Sherbrooke Snow Shoe Club for over 50 years, he served as honorary president for the 1956-57 season. An active member of the Sherbrooke Curling Club, he also filled the office of president for one year. He was a member of Prince of Wales Lodge, A.F. and A.M.

He is survived by his wife, the former Florence M. Hyndman, a son, Donald, of Rosemere, Que., two daughters, Mary, Mrs. R. B. Wilson, of Thetford Mines, and Barbara, Mrs. J. P. Scott, of Toronto, and five grandchildren.

In addition, he is survived by four sisters, Mildred, Mrs. J. W. Davis, of Toronto, Clementine, Mrs. H. Thompson, Lucille, Mrs. A. E. Marston, of Montreal, and Flora, of Beverly Hills, Calif., and two brothers, Arthur, of Montreal, and George Jr., of Beverly Hills.

Maine Bishop Preacher At Impressive Service Sunday

Services commemorating the 100th anniversary of the dedication of the original chapel were held at St. Mark's Chapel, Bishop's University, yesterday.

The guest preacher for this service was the Right Reverend Oliver Loring, Bishop of Maine, one of whose predecessors had delivered the sermon at the dedication ceremonies 100 years ago.

Contrary to normal practice, the choir was robed, and entered in procession from the west doors of the chapel. During the service, the choir gave a very effective rendition of the beautiful Christian anthem, "Holy, Holy, Holy," the music of which was written by Tchaikovsky.

The theme of the Bishop's address was the heritage gained from the first 100 years of worship at St. Luke's. He told the congregation of the pioneer efforts of his predecessors and the local clergy in establishing the chapel, and said that these traditions must be upheld. Commenting on the present emphasis on the "religious future depends on a present awareness of the problems which beset the world."

The evening service was also designed to fit into the centennial of the chapel, and the Arch bishop of Quebec, Rt. Rev. Philip Carrington delivered the sermon. A second ceremony was also performed by the Archbishop, the installing of Rev. J. D. Anido as Professor of Pastoral and Liturgical Theology, and the investiture of Rev. Gordon Ellens as lecturer in New Testament and Systematic Theology.

The ceremony, which requires each man to affirm the oaths and declarations of the Anglican Church, was impressively performed. The Archbishop, in cope and mitre, presented the two appointees with their license to lecture at Bishop's, and gave them his blessing in their new work.

His sermon was also directed towards the heritage received from the worship at Bishop's. He said that memories of the first days and their hardships were obscured, since no living memories remained, only spiritual ones. He concluded his address by affirming the necessity of carrying the faith which students gain through worship at college with them in future life.

Student Campaign

Football Match Opens Drive At Bishop's

The student campaign in the Bishop's University Expansion Fund was kicked off with a 35-yard drive by L. M. Watson, chairman of the Eastern Townships division of the drive.

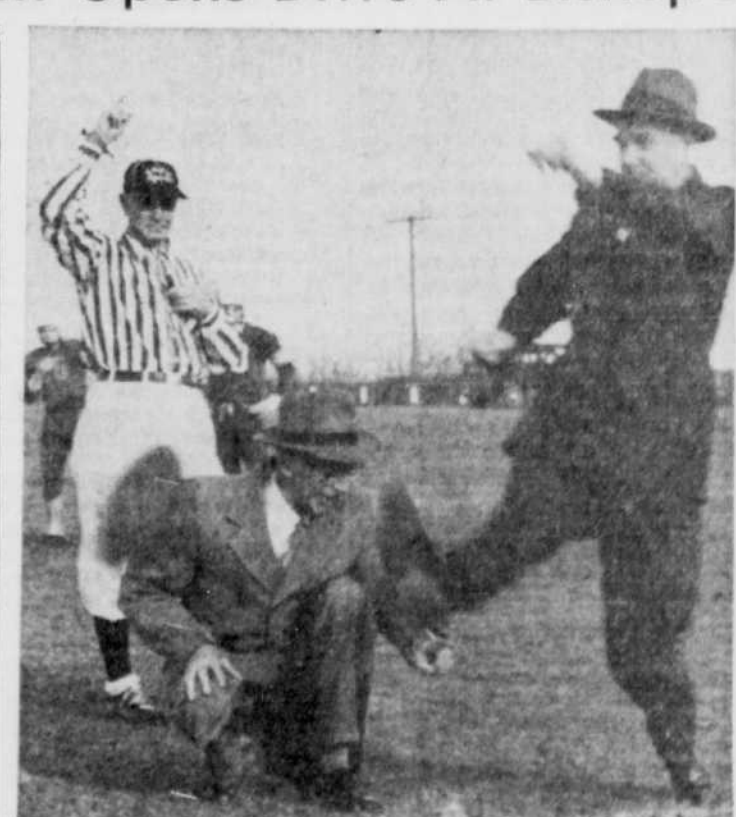

This campaign launching took place at the Saturday afternoon football game between Bishop's and Royal Military College, which the Gaiters won 15-14. The goal of the student drive is $300, some of which was collected at the game.

At half time, a huge "tree" whose leaves were decorated with the objectives of the drive and other catch slogans of the campaign, was drawn around the gridiron by a vintage vehicle, emphasizing the rags to riches history of Bishop's. Two powder bombs, emitting purple and white smoke were exploded, the rising column of smoke visible for several miles.

Attention was also drawn to the campaign by a group of "poverty stricken" students, dressed in seventh generation castoffs. One of this learned group read a proclamation, stating the aims of the Fund, which has been underway for four days on a coast to coast level.

The annual Football Formal was held at the Sherbrooke Hotel on Saturday night, and was attended by over 100 couples, many of them recent graduates, who were returning for Alumni Weekend. Alumni were also entertained by the Eastern Townships Branch of the Association, which held a cocktail party at the Elmwood Manor prior to the dance.

In connection with the expansion drive, the student committee held a small raffle at the dance. Being raffled was a beautifully dressed and decorated snow goose, which nobody seemed to want, but was quickly devoured by the winner, Peter Leslie. The response to this stunt, designed to start campus fund-raising, was almost unanimous, and student chairman John Pratt reported that over $50 was collected.

John was also rewarded for his efforts on the football field this year, when he was elected Most Valuable Player on the 1957 Gaiters. Although the team has had a poor season this year, and Pratt was far below his last year's record of 10 touchdowns, he was undoubtedly the mainstay of the squad. He will be re-

Restoring Confidence

The news that Canada is swinging back to an "easy money" policy will be welcomed as an indication that responsible authorities consider the threat of inflation to be well under control. The tight money policy which had been in force in Canada for some two years had seriously hindered business, particularly small business, and cast a pall of gloom over our economic prospects.

Serious doubt had been raised as to whether the government's tight money policy was doing the job it was supposed to. The cost of living has continued to climb. Unemployment is higher now than a year ago, though the labor force is also larger. The time had come, many people believed, for a reversal of policy in order to stimulate once again economic activity.

One of the most resented results of the tight-money policy was the fact that it hamstrung small business in a time of increasing competition while large companies were able to find ways of raising money despite shortages of bank credit. In addition, more vulnerable areas such as the Maritimes were hard hit by rising interest rates and forced to curtail investment programs.

One of the principal factors in maintaining economic activity at a high level is confidence and the government's decision to ease credit restrictions is a bold step toward restoring confidence in our basically sound economy.

A One-Passenger Train

When a Canadian National train was derailed and its engineer killed near Granby recently it was carrying two passenger coaches with but a single paying passenger. This man was at least helping to keep the conductor company but as a passenger-carrier the train was running decidedly in the red.

There are fewer passengers on the trains these days, it has been reported, but they are going longer distances. The passenger-mile picture has picked up, if only by a little, in the last few years and the one-passenger train is, of course, a rarity. But passenger traffic, providing a decidedly lesser part of railway revenues, would have to pick up considerably before the Canadian railway situation could become one for confidence.

In the United States the Pennsylvania Railroad and New York Central have been talking merger, though only in a nebulous way. Sharply reduced revenues provide the background of the mooted move. The Pennsylvania last nine-month net dropped from $31,000,000 a year ago to $19,000,000; the Central's slump was even more drastic, dropping from $28,000,000 to a little less than $9,000,000.

These two great railways serve one of the most populous sections of the United States. If their revenues are feeling the pinch how much more severe must be the strain on the Canadian railways, their tracks flung over long distances of sparsely settled prairie lands and their engines puffing over mountain passes?

In addition, the Canadian railways are handicapped by having to operate many miles of line which return losses instead of profits.

A business man would have a more lively appreciation of the railway were he forced by the government to keep on hand a large stock of "poor sellers."

If the profit returns of Canadian business in general had been limited proportionately to those of the two railways systems in the last few years conditions throughout the country would, indeed, be in a bad way.

Sport And Sportsmanship

Professional sport is on the spot again in Canada. The recent criticism by University of Toronto Professor John Farina, a former player and football official himself, aroused a storm of protest from those connected with sports. But taken in context, his attack on excessively rough playing has considerable merit. Those interested in keeping sports healthy in this country should examine carefully what is going on, particularly in some minor leagues.

It is unfortunate, therefore, that at this point some irresponsible people have given a display of stupidity and poor sportsmanship before the eyes of thousands of fans in Montreal and elsewhere. The action of the minority "goon" element has already brought shame to Montreal as a sports centre in the hockey riots.

The same element has not only shown the worst type of sportsmanship but has cost Montreal Alouettes an important point in a two-game total points championship series by their ignorance of the rules of the game.

The fan has an important role to play in sports. And every fan should do everything he can to promote old-fashioned sportsmanship in sports, including the play-for-pay type. Otherwise, Professor Farina may find himself writing an epitaph for sport in this country.

DOUBLED BID TROUBLES SOUTH

Adelbert Wahl of Rochester, N.Y., sent me today's hand.

South's opening club bid is normal and West chose to double. Everyone passed and as the play developed South was able to make only five tricks: the ace-king of diamonds and the ace-king and a small trump.

While a 500-point penalty is not a real tragedy it did represent a rather large loss since East and West could not make a game and there was considerable discussion about how North and South could have escaped the ax.

South contended that North should have seen the danger and bid one heart right over the double while the others thought that South should have run out to one diamond when East left the double in.

To start with, North's pass was the correct bid. He did have some fear that the one club double would stay in but it is unusual for this to happen and a run-out to one heart or one diamond might just have been the start of real trouble.

So East's pass left South in a tough spot. He chose to stay in his trouble at one club but really should have tried to get out by bidding one diamond. This might have proved a leap out of the frying pan and into the fire but the point is that South knew he was already in the frying pan. A leap might have landed him in a hotter spot but it also could get him out of trouble and certainly was worth trying.

Sharing The Tax Dollar — 1

Provinces Expect To Get More

OTTAWA (CP)—The provinces' historic struggle for a bigger share of a $3,000,000,000 tax pot may soon pay off with some far-reaching concessions by the Progressive Conservative government.

The provinces, facing an increasing cost burden, may not only get a larger slice of the direct taxes on personal and corporate incomes but also higher federal subsidies or equalization payments. Federal-provincial negotiations to revise a tax pact that has been in effect less than a year will be initiated at a conference of government leaders here Nov. 25-26. They may be concluded at another conference of premiers early in the new year.

It is understood concessions granted to provinces would become effective with the new fiscal year next April 1 and likely would be embodied in a formal federal budget which may precede a new general election in 1958.

What new formula will be adopted has not yet been completely decided. The central government will wait to hear first what the provinces may suggest. But Prime Minister Diefenbaker has made an election promise to boost the payments and some experts feel this will result in a general increase in the federal tax deductions.

Current tax-sharing arrangements embody two major features. One is the tax formula 10-9-50. The other is the federal subsidy or equalization payment to bring the per capita direct tax income of the less wealthy provinces up to the average of the two wealthiest—Ontario and British Columbia.

The tax formula allows the provinces to levy taxes equal to 10 per cent of the federal levy on personal incomes, nine per cent of taxable corporate income and 50 per cent of succession duties without increasing the burden to taxpayers.

In other words the federal government reduces its levy by this amount so that there are no added charges to taxpayers. The provinces can collect their own taxes or have the federal government do so on a rental or fee basis.

All provinces except Ontario and Quebec have rented all their direct tax fields. Ontario has rented personal income tax but collects her own corporation income levies and succession duties. Quebec collects all her own taxes.

These various concessions are estimated to cost the federal treasury about $630,000,000 a year.

Some experts said a boost in the tax formula will be accompanied by an increase in the equalization subsidy to maintain some form of balance among the wealthy and the less wealthy provinces. The over-all cost to treasury may rise by some $200,000,000 a year.

They see at least three major developments arising out of any new concessions granted the provinces:

1. Municipalities may get larger grants from the provinces and thus be able to hold the line on the rising burden of taxes thrust on property owners.
2. More road, sewer, water, hospital and school construction may be undertaken, increasing the supply of jobs for a growing Canadian labor force.
3. There may be a weakening of federal fiscal control over the economy.

Over the years, more and more Canadians have been settling in towns and cities. The demand for municipal services has increased. The Gordon economic commission has estimated that in the next 25 years municipalities may require $100,000,000,000 for housing and other construction.

Municipalities repeatedly have appealed to the provinces for more aid. In turn the provinces have besieged Ottawa.

Federal-provincial battles over tax sharing are woven through history. Originally the central government sought to appease the provinces with the provision of fixed subsidies. But no sooner was the ink dry on these Confederation pacts when the provinces clamored for more money. Ottawa gradually gave ground. In wartime tax rental pacts and in post-war agreements, the provinces got increased concessions.

The central administration argued that it also faced increasing responsibilities for a growing Canadian population—in defence, social welfare payments such as pensions, financing of the public debts and costs of an expanding civil service.

Federal administrators declared the granting of increased tax concessions to the provinces would dangerously reduce federal fiscal control over the economy. There would be less room for manoeuvring to reduce or increase taxes to fight recession or inflation.

Nevertheless ground was given. Under the constitution, both levels of government have equal rights to the direct tax field—personal and corporation incomes and succession duties. But provinces have consistently refused in recent years to impose any major income tax of their own, fearing the reaction of electors faced with the prospect of having to pay two heavy taxes, federal and provincial.

Rather, the trend has been to demand that the central government give ground on direct tax levies, allowing the provinces to take over the vacated area.

Announcing New York Life's pace-setting FAMILY INSURANCE PLAN

Covers you, your wife, your children—all in just one policy with a low monthly premium

Modern as the minute, this new policy offers "family plan" convenience and economy. Taken out on your own life, the same single policy insures your wife and children as well—even covers children born later. If your family qualifies, here's the protection each unit of New York Life's Family Insurance provides:

FOR YOU—$5000 of permanent insurance which builds generous cash and retirement values.

FOR YOUR WIFE—$1250 of term insurance if she's your age—more if she's younger, less if older. Her insurance expires at your age 65* and can then be converted to permanent insurance. If your wife dies before you, her insurance becomes payable and, in addition, you receive $1250 of term coverage to age 65.

FOR YOUR CHILDREN—$1000 of term insurance on each insured child (subject to regular statutory limitation under age 5) which expires at his age 22 or at your age 65—whichever is earlier. At its expiration the term insurance on each child can be converted to as much as $3000 of permanent insurance.

OTHER SPECIAL FEATURES: Newly arrived babies from the age of 15 days to 6 months are covered for insurance subject to statutory restrictions—at no increase in premium. Automatic waiver of premium on you and double indemnity on both you and your wife are also included. What's more, if you die, the term insurance on your wife and children becomes fully paid up!

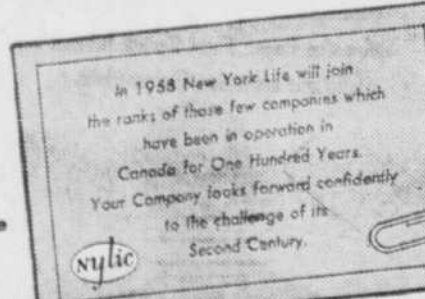

So why not make both present and future more secure for your entire family this easy, economical way? Ask your New York Life agent how you can insure yourself, your wife and your children all under this one new low premium policy—Family Insurance. Or write to New York Life for further details.

Commerce Group Asks Full Tariffs Review

OTTAWA (CP)—A full review of Canada's tariffs was asked of the government today by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, representing 125,000 businessmen.

The chamber, in its annual submission to the cabinet, said tariff legislation should be adjusted to "meet the demand of Canada's dynamic economy."

Some parts of the Canadian economy are seriously affected by competition from foreign sources, the chamber said. These problems could be alleviated by:

1. Exercising closer control over the way foreign goods are designated in tariff classifications.

2. Strengthening regulations against "dumping"—selling products into Canada at less than their normal price in the country in which they are produced.

3. Prompt investigation of reports of imports suspected of evading duties.

WOULDN'T BREAK GATT
The chamber said in its brief that these steps could be taken without Canada deviating from any existing agreements with other countries including the 35-country General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, aimed at lowering tariff barriers.

About 40 policy declarations—previously adopted at the annual convention of the businessmen's association—were placed before

Prime Minister Diefenbaker and other ministers.

Dealing with taxation and government spending, the chamber said the current level of government spending calls for personal and corporate income tax rates that are too high for a developing country. The burden of taxation should be reduced by curtailing or eliminating government functions "which can reasonably be dispensed with."

The chamber gave implied support to the government's view that the current of Canadian trade should be shifted to some extent from the United States to the United Kingdom. It mentioned what it described as the desirability of doing everything possible to attract a larger volume of United Kingdom investment in Canada.

It asked that the facilities of the government's Industrial Development Bank be extended to embrace the tourist industry. This fund is used to make advances to businesses—usually small ones—for expansion.

WOULD MAINTAIN DEFENCE
Other points in the chamber submission:

There should be no relaxation of Canada's defence effort until international tensions have eased.

There should be a "much clearer policy" with respect to the future of Canada's reserve forces.

The government should adopt a policy that will ensure that the functions of all Crown companies are reviewed by an independent agency set up by Parliament. The agency should determine the need for the continuance of each Crown corporation and the relation of each to private industry.

Farnham Trade Board To Hold Dinner Meeting

FARNHAM — The first dinner meeting of the Farnham Board of Trade will take place on Tuesday, November 19th, at the Montclair Hotel at 7:00 p.m. The guest speaker will be Dr. L. I. Vallee of the Canadian Cancer Society, St. Luc Hospital, Montreal.

As this is the first dinner of the season, the president, James J. Dempster, requests all members to be present. As usual the ladies and friends are invited.

The president in a recent message reported that the Board has established a name for itself away from home and congratulated the members, Mr. and Mrs. E. Giroux, Mr. and Mrs. L. Durivage, Mr. and Mrs. H. Delorme, Mr. and Mrs. H. Paquette, Mrs. A. Couillard and Mr. Couillard, secretary of the Board, who so ably represented the Board at the National meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce held at Victoria, B.C. The Farnham Board of Trade had the largest representation of any board in the country, and its secretary, A. Couillard, was one of the delegates chosen to sit on the National Committee of Resolutions and Policies of the Canadian Chamber.

At the last meeting of the directors of the Farnham branch it was decided that the Board would join the Quebec Association of Industrial Agents.

The Farnham Board was represented by Director G. Harbec and Mrs. Arbec at the Provincial meeting of La Chambre de Commerce de la Province of Quebec at Chicoutimi. At the 8th annual convention of the Retail Lumber Dealers Association held in Montreal Director Eugene Giroux of the Farnham Board was elected a Director of the Eastern Townships Section of this Association.

National YWCA Executive Will Make Visit Here

Miss Agnes Roy, National YWCA Executive Director, will pay a two-day visit to Sherbrooke this week, addressing public meetings at the MacKinnon Memorial on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 and Thursday evening at 8:15. She will also speak to the Y-Teens on Thursday at 4:30.

Miss Roy, a graduate of the School of Social Work, University of Toronto. In 1951, Miss Roy did further study in the areas of community organization, administration and Group Work at the School of Social Work, University of Southern California. Her work experience has been varied and valuable. After graduation, she worked for several years on the Staff of the Toronto Children's Aid Society. Following this, she was Director of the Ottawa YWCA West End Branch, where she gained first hand experience of the problems and challenges facing those who work in a local Association setting.

As Director of Housing Registries in the Consumer Branch of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, Miss Roy further widened her experience, not only through the variety of the work but also through the opportunity it gave her to travel from one end of the country to the other, always using this as an occasion to call in on the YWCAs in the centres in which there were Associations. Miss Roy joined the staff of the National Council YWCA, first of all in the War Services Department and then as Assistant Executive Director.

In December 1951, she went to Haiti at the request of the World YWCA to work with Haitian women in surveying the need for an Association.

In 1955, Miss Roy attended the Leadership Consultation sponsored by the World YWCA in Switzerland and also the World Council Meeting in London, England.

GOULD —
Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rowland and Peggy Ann of Angus, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Morrison.

Mrs. D. MacIver has closed her home and is spending an indefinite time with Mr. and Mrs. L. Elger.

Mrs. Inez Morrison has closed her home for the winter and has gone to Sawyerville to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lake.

Those from here who attended the funeral of Kenneth MacAulay of Sherbrooke, formerly of this place, were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Martin, Mr. K. W. MacIver and Mrs. K. N. MacIver, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Morrison, Mrs. M. A. Matheson and Messrs. Allan and John Matheson, Dave Hillis and Wm. MacDonald.

New Landlady
DES MOINES (P) — Mrs. Genevieve MacPhee, 48, was granted a divorce Saturday but she signed an agreement to rent two rooms — second floor rear — to her ex-mate, Maurice, also 48.

Farm Forum Activities

BROME CENTRE

The Knowlton District Farm Forum held a well attended meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Frizzle at Brome Centre.

The president, R. Dollenbach, of Knowlton, presented Miss Patricia Frizzle of this place and Harris Shufelt, of East Farnham, with travelling alarm clocks in honor of their fine judging of four classes of cattle at the Sherbrooke Fair last August. Mr. Shufelt won 545 points out of a possible 600 and Miss Frizzle won 529 points on the same score, which made them eligible to attend the National 4-H convention held in Toronto, November 15-19.

These young people are in Toronto as representatives of local 4-H Clubs. Mr. Shufelt is vice-president of one club and Miss Frizzle the secretary.

Mr. G. Caron motored them to Toronto as their official chaperone on an "All-Expenses-Paid-Tour."

Over 30 people were in attendance at Miss Frizzle's parents' home, among them as invited guests were Mr. Shufelt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Shufelt.

A bountiful lunch was served by Forum members after which thanks for hospitality were expressed by all for a pleasant evening.

Miss Frizzle and Mr. Shufelt were in Montreal recently where they were interviewed by the C.B.C. They were accompanied by Mr. Gustave Caron, of Adamsville, agronomist for Brome County.

COATICOOK

An interesting meeting of the Coaticook Valley Farm Forum was held at the home of Stanley Drew. After listening to the broadcast, the gathering formed three groups to discuss the topic which was on Farm Credit and to form their opinions.

A summary was then made in full meeting and the following statements were made.

Question 1 — What is the minimum amount of capital needed to farm in your area? The majority thought that $15,000 was the minimum amount of capital.

SO YOUR GOUT IS ACTING UP AGAIN! SERVES YOU RIGHT FOR CAROUSING HALF THE NIGHT!

BUT, MAGGIE, IT'S NOT THE GOUT!

I WUZ SITTIN' HERE MINDIN' MY OWN BUSINESS WHEN...

DON'T TRY TO DENY IT-- IT'S THE GUILT! WHAT ELSE COULD IT BE?

SOMETIMES I THINK YOU ARE GROWING UP FROM ME!

Women's Groups

ST. FAITH'S GUILD

The regular meeting of St. Faith's Guild was held on Monday in St. Peter's Church Memorial Hall, with Mrs. Guy Bryant presiding.

In the absence of Mrs. G. F. Chapman, Mrs. F. W. Jackson gave a report of the successful Nearly New Sale held November 6 and 7. The customary rummage sale held after this event took place on Thursday.

Plans were completed for the anniversary cafeteria and sale, which will be held on November 21 from 11:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. The meeting of November 18 was cancelled in favor of a work meeting, November 20, in order to begin preparations for the cafeteria.

Tea was served by Mrs. C. S. Ives and Miss Barbara Bishop with Mrs. E. E. Goodenough presiding at the tea table.

PHILATHEA GROUP

Members of the Philathea Group of the Lennoxville United Church held their regular meeting in Douglas Hall with the president, Mrs. W. P. Lowery, in the chair.

Final arrangements were made for the Bazaar to be held on November 21 and 22 and various work conveners collected finished work and donations for the sales tables.

A nominating committee, headed by Mrs. G. Sutherland, was named to draw up a slate of officers for the coming year.

Members were reminded of the usual Christmas party and exchange of gifts at the December meeting.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. A. Scott, Miss J. Lear-month and Mrs. A. Raycraft and Mrs. S. McLean presided at the lace covered table centered with an attractive arrangement of bronze mums.

PLYMOUTH W.M.S.

Mrs. A. M. Sangster entertained the November meeting of Plymouth W.M.S. at her home, on Quebec Street on Thursday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. Z. W. Griffith presiding.

The financial report given by the treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Gibson was very satisfactory, and reflected the proceeds of a successful food sale in October.

The resignation of Mrs. G. A. Dougal, due to health reasons, from the leadership of the Ellery Read Mission Band, was received with regret.

Subscriptions to the Missionary Monthly and World Friends were taken by Mrs. C. A. Beaton and United Church calendars were distributed among the members. The roll call showed the usual large number of calls on sick and shut-ins.

Mrs. W. S. Sutherland gave a talk from the Study Book on Japan, and stressed the necessity of members reading for themselves about the needs of that small country with its large population and various religions.

Mrs. E. V. Kimmis was pianist for the day and accompanied Mrs. W. W. Gibson in her solo "Be Thou My Vision".

Mrs. N. S. Lothrop, presided at the tea table during the social hour, when refreshments were served by Mrs. Sangster and Mrs. J. B. Bowman, assisted by Mrs. F. S. Rugg.

MOTHERS' AUXILIARY 7TH SHERBROOKE GROUP

The Mothers' Auxiliary, 7th Sherbrooke Group held its monthly meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 13th, at the home of Mrs. W. Henderson, Bouchette St.

With the president, Mrs. D. Davis in the chair, the meeting opened with the Scout Mothers' Promise.

Mrs. J. Brown reported on the very successful Food Sale held recently at Steinberg's.

The Sangster Memorial W.A. has again consented to the Auxiliary having a candy table at their Christmas Tea to be held in the Church Hall on December 7th. The committee appointed to take charge were Mrs. N. Pattullo, Mrs. D. Davis, Mrs. R. Henry and Mrs. J. Brown.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. W. Henderson and Mrs. F. Gelineau.

The next meeting will be held on January 8 at the home of Mrs. J. Robinson, 628 Victoria St., with Mrs. D. Hutchison as joint hostess.

VALUABLE MATERIAL

Papyrus, as well as being used for paper in ancient lands, was also eaten raw or boiled.

Marriages

GIDDINGS-BARLOW

BELLEVEILLE, Ont. — The marriage of Miss Margaret Ann Barlow, daughter of Mrs. Herbert Barlow and the late Mr. Barlow, of Belleville, to F/O Glenn Bradford Giddings, of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Giddings, of Granby, took place recently in the Church of St. Margaret's-on-the-Hill, in Belleville, Ont. The Rev. L. A. Page officiated and six choir boys sang during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Maurice Barlow, the bride was gown in white crystal over taffeta, the empire style bodice was formed with folded crystal and a round neckline of French applied lace. Inverted folds of crystal accented the skirt. Her veil of tulle illusion was held by a pearl trimmed tiara and she carried a bouquet of white shasta mums.

Mrs. Roger Moulton, of Seeley's Bay, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Michael Valiquet, of Toronto, as bridesmaids, were gown alike in ice green taffeta, the bodices fashioned with low V necklines offset with folded tucks from the waist to shoulders. The bouffant skirt was highlighted with back panels showered with bow knots. They were matching green feather handbags in their hair and carried semi-cascade bouquets of bronze and gold mums.

Mr. Roy Naudie acted as bestman for the groom and the ushers were Lt. Michael Valiquet, of Toronto, Mr. Robert Barlow, of Fort Erie and Mr. John Barlow, of Oshawa, Ont.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Barlow, chose a gown of Queen's blue faille with a pink hat and wore a corsage of feathered pink carnations.

Mrs. Giddings, the groom's mother, in a pink and white dress, wore a brown hat and a corsage of yellow feathered carnations.

F/O Giddings graduated as an electrical engineer at the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ont., and Mrs. Giddings graduated from the Teachers' College, Peterborough, Ont. They will reside in Toronto, Ont.

ISLAND BROOK

Among those present at the burial of Mrs. Charles Burns in the Island Brook Cemetery were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seale, Mr. Colon Cameron, Morin Heights; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Armstrong, Cartierville; Mr. Ansell Burns, St. Rose; Mrs. Maggie Seale and Mrs. Monk, Greenfield Park, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. N. Burns, Massachusetts; Mr. and Mrs. Jean Deardon, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Kerr, all of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Westgate, Mrs. Bob Irving and Mr. Joe Burns of East Angus, and several other friends and relatives from Sawyerville and Island Brook. Following the committal they gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Burns for tea.

FINE STONE

Jade has been used for fine carvings and personal ornaments since prehistoric times.

Senate Speaker's Wife Takes On New Duties

OTTAWA (CP) — Mrs. Mark Drouin has one qualm about her new duties as wife of the Speaker of the Senate.

"I don't know how I will be able to remember all the new names," the petite and vivacious Mrs. Drouin told a reporter.

Her life as the wife of a Quebec City lawyer was changed in early October, when her 55-year-old husband was appointed to the Senate and made speaker of the upper chamber.

The dual appointment came as a "complete surprise," she said, but she added that she is an "enthusiastic person," who can adjust quickly to new surroundings.

DAUGHTER AT SCHOOL

The mother of 13-year-old Julie who is at school in Quebec, Mrs. Drouin said the Senate appointment has sparked her daughter's interest in history and home-work.

Mrs. Drouin tried to spend each weekend in the Quebec City home where an orphaned niece and nephew also live.

She said she is a housewife who hasn't time for hobbies, but she enjoys writing "for amusement, not for publication."

"I even wrote a novel when I was 14," she said. "But I had to hide it because I was at a convent then. It was a love story and the nuns were very strict."

Nursing Care Studied By Red Cross Group

By MARY FRAN BURKE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — A study of nursing care in the home in Canada is now being carried out by a national nursing committee of the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Helen McArthur of Toronto, national director of nursing service for the society, says that as national health insurance plan develops nursing care must be forthcoming and the number of patients that demand attention at home is bound to increase.

Miss McArthur has just returned from the Canadian Nurses' Association conference in Ottawa where it was recommended "that more attention should be given to the provision of nursing care in the home as a means of achieving more effective use of hospital and nursing resources."

PLAN WIDE STUDY

The study of ways and means of providing home nursing care will be conducted by Kathleen Russell, past director of the school of nursing, University of Toronto, and former adviser in nursing to the Canadian Red Cross.

She will assemble data from across Canada concerning existing services and will outline recommendations to be presented at the annual meeting of the society in May.

The Red Cross plans to provide a scheme for home nursing care that will be tried out in one or more centres and be adopted later, it hopes, by other communities.

The situation needs immediate attention, Miss Russell said. So far as any thought has been given to the matter it has been felt that the nursing profession should organize this service.

POINT THE WAY

Voluntary services such as the St. Elizabeth Visiting Nursing Association, the Red Cross Society and the Victorian Order of Nurses, with their salaried staffs, have pointed the way.

But the catch is that their nursing services cannot offer resident care and are limited to very few communities, Miss Russell said.

"Someone must carry on nursing in the home all day—and night—and every day."

It is this continuous and prolonged character of nursing that makes it too costly for the majority. The cost would be met if shared publicly, she said.

To obtain adequate nursing care in the home Miss Russell feels that communities need a staff of nurses on salary.

She believes that future home nursing service will need a form of organization to which the family may turn to immediately when sickness occurs.

Also, she emphasized that a community nursing organization will require an auxiliary nursing group to save the time of highly skilled nurses for patients who need them.

Fashion

A red coat is a sound investment this year. When you think about it, it pairs up well with nearly as many colors as black.

Social and Personal

Most Rev. Philip Carrington, Archbishop of Quebec, who is arriving tomorrow to officiate at the Induction Service in St. George's Church, Lennoxville, of Archdeacon, the Ven. T. J. Matthews, of St. Francis, will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Watson, Clough Ave.

Miss Maureen McClements, who spent the week-end with her grandmother, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Metcalfe St., has returned to her home, in Magog.

Miss Margaret Sheridan, of Montreal, is spending a few weeks with her sister, Miss Flossie Sheridan, Vimy St.

Major and Mrs. L. H. Overing, of Quebec City, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Nichol, Queen St., Lennoxville, while here to attend the Induction Service in St. George's Church, of Archdeacon, the Ven. T. J. Matthews, taking place tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Planché, Victoria St., have returned from Rock Island, where they spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hull.

Flowers on the altar in St. George's Church Lennoxville, on Sunday, November 10, were in loving memory of Mr. Robert Findlay, and were given by his wife and family.

Miss Florence Clark, The Gordon, and Miss Vivian Allard, of Montreal, have returned from a ten days trip to Boston, Mass., and New York City.

Mrs. Robert Newton, Victoria St., and her niece, Miss Emily Watkins, of Montreal, returned by plane from Cairo, Egypt, on Friday, after spending several weeks with the former's daughter, Miss Margaret Newton. They also visited Amsterdam, Germany, on their journey home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. White and their children, Gerald, Lesley, Christine and Stephen, Bouchette St., were guests, for the week-end, of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vincent, of Montreal.

Homemaking

Cleaning filters in the air conditioner is simpler than it sounds. Remove the filter, shake off loose dirt and dip filter in hot suds. Rinse and dry. Before replacing, apply special filter oil that aids in trapping foreign matter in the air.

Dr. Simon Marcus Feted At Hospital

Nurses on the staff of the Sherbrooke Hospital, student nurses and former graduate nurses, combined on Wednesday afternoon to entertain at tea in honor of Dr. Simon Marcus, prior to his departure during the course of the week.

The tea table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, and green candles in silver holders, which harmonized with the floral decoration of the lounge.

Pouring were Miss Clara R. Aitkenhead, Miss Leah Henshaw, Miss Dorothy Whiteher and Miss Bertha Boyd.

Assisting in serving, were the student nurses.

As a token of appreciation of his interest and co-operation in the work of the nurses of all grades and their regret at his leaving the hospital, Miss Ruberta Sutton presented Dr. Marcus with a gift from the group.

Earlier in the afternoon, a corsage had been presented to Mrs. Marcus, by Miss E. Saxlund, a student nurse.

Beauty Tips

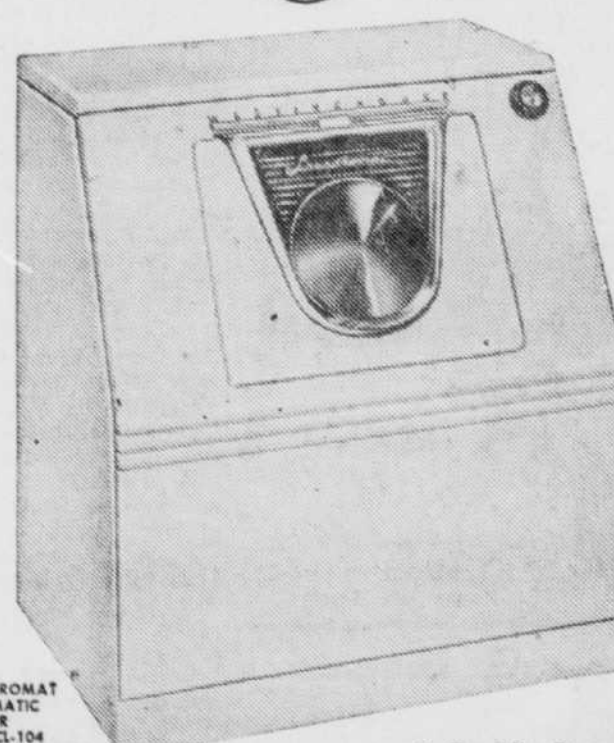

American Revolutionary girls knew the value of soap and water for good skin care. Beauty instructions in those days read, "Wash with warm water and sweet-scented wash-balls." Wash-balls were the early American words for our present day toilet soap.

KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest..

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—blame it on "nerves"—when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they fail and impurities stay in the system—disturbed rest often follows. If you don't rest well, get and use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's help the kidneys so that you can rest better—and feel better.

Historic Cheque — This cheque, dated November 11, 1825, was written by novelist Sir Walter Scott to a Mr. Pringle for the sum of 12 pounds. The cheque belongs to Peter Rogerson of Knowlton who received it last summer from William Bell, proprietor of the Hole In The Wall Hotel, Dumfries, Scotland. Mr. Bell, a collector of curios, was given a Canadian one dollar bill by Mr. Rogerson when he visited Scotland several years ago to add to his collection of "curios."

Reports On Varied Projects Given At I.O.D.E. Meeting In Melbourne

MELBOURNE — The Udalphus Lord Aylmer Chapter I.O.D.E. of Melbourne and Richmond met in the Melbourne hall. Mrs. J. S. MacNaughton the regent opened the meeting.

The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. G. W. Ewing, and Mrs. L. F. Somerville read the correspondence which included thank-you notes for several boxes of fruit sent, sympathy cards and money received from a bursary.

Mrs. C. Hannan reported that all wool had been given out for knitting and that she had bought several articles to include in the nursery bags which had been sent recently. A number of gift labels were to be ordered and the bills were to be paid.

Mrs. C. E. Manning gave the treasurer's report which was very gratifying. Mrs. C. Spence gave a report of the Bridge Marathon which has been playing for several weeks and ended on November 4th. Over $154 was raised by this project.

Papers which have been donated to St. Francis High School were to be renewed and the amount to be sent to Notre Dame School this year also. A number of I.O.D.E. calendars had been purchased and are on sale at 40 cents.

Mrs. C. Spence, convener of Empire and World Affairs, read extracts from "Women's Work Is Only Beginning In India And Pakistan" by Anne Francis which was very interesting.

Members were reminded that donations of articles suitable for the Christmas boxes for veterans at St. Hyacinthe Annex at Ste. Anne de Bellevue are to be brought to the December meeting.

Reports of interest were given from various conveners. The subject of gathering in old eye glasses and frames for a certain project in one of the I.O.D.E. Chapters was brought up and it was decided that anyone having same could get in touch with Miss Hazel Boast, Carpenter Street or telephone 909W. This is for a worthy cause and a large donation of glasses will be appreciated.

A report from Mrs. Pope said that she had sent out several letters in connection with the Drama Festival which will be held in February.

Mrs. C. E. Manning gave an outline of the work accomplished so far this year in the Chapter.

Mrs. John Barrington gave an address on Armistice Day and read the poem "Flanders Field".

Mrs. MacNaughton thanked Mrs. Barrington for the informative talk and a hearty vote of thanks was given by the members.

The hostesses Mrs. L. M. Fee and Mrs. A. B. Lyster served refreshments assisted by Mrs. MacNaughton.

W. A. Meeting Is Held At Bulwer

BULWER — The members and friends of the Woman's Association were entertained at the home of Mrs. Archie Moore with Mrs. G. A. Williams and Mrs. R. A. Drake assisting the hostess.

A short devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Douglas Grapes and plans were made to serve a pot luck supper at the Church Hall to welcome three families recently moved into this community. Arrangements also made for gifts and candy for the children of the community to be given at the Sunday School Christmas tree to be held at Birchton on December 13.

A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Roberta Richardson, Mrs. Archie Moore and Mrs. G. A. Williams was appointed to bring in the slate of officers for 1958.

The annual Christmas party for the members of the Association and their friends will be held on December 10 at the home of Mrs. Lindsay Nutbrown. A picnic lunch will be served and each member is asked to bring a gift.

GENERAL NOTES

The first card party under the auspices of the L.O.L. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lowd. The prizes were won by Mrs. R. A. Drake and Mr. David Wood and consolation by Mrs. E. H. Parker and Mr. Pascal Carboni.

The North Hatley Library Association recently announced it was offering free library subscriptions to children 12 years of age and under, for a period of six months. This would provide books to the young people through April, 1958.

The members of the Library Association hope, by this means, to encourage reading among the children, and that they will avail themselves of this opportunity on enjoying the many good books the Library has to offer them.

Mrs. MacNaughton thanked Mrs. Barrington for the informative talk and a hearty vote of thanks was given by the members.

The hostesses Mrs. L. M. Fee and Mrs. A. B. Lyster served refreshments assisted by Mrs. MacNaughton.

GENERAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Waterman and Dr. and Mrs. McCarthy of Woodville, N.H., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnston.

Miss Margaret Frank, of Montreal, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Frank, Upper Melbourne.

Mr. William Taber, of Sherbrooke, spent the weekend with his daughter, Mrs. John Levitt and family.

This community was sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Macey and family as residents here. They have purchased the Gilchrist farm and have taken up residence there.

Mr. E. J. Fee of Rosemount, spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. L. M. Fee.

Mrs. Roy Harrison was a recent guest of her brother, Mr. A. Rowe, at Spring Road. She was joined there by Mr. Harrison who had visited at his home in Bury.

Mr. Robert Harrison of Sherbrooke, brought Mr. and Mrs. Harrison home and was an overnight guest of his parents.

Mrs. Eva Robert spent several days with her son, Mr. George Tetreault, at Waterloo, and also visited relatives in Granby.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davidson and Mr. Donald Davidson of Danville, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Johnston visited Mr. J. W. Cooping in the Sherbrooke Hospital.

The community was saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. R. Woodburn, a resident of this place which occurred at Montreal recently.

Miss Jeanne Tetreault and Mr. Menard of Granby were recent visitors at the home of the former's uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Smith.

Mr. Fred Day of Skowhegan, Me., was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Montgomery.

LITTLE HELPERS' PARTY

The Little Helpers of St. Barnabas Anglican Church held a special meeting, followed by a supper party at which the mothers were present. The meeting was held in the Church where the minister, Rev. C. J. Fisk spoke to them.

Following the meeting they re-assembled in the Guild Hall, which was decorated in the Halloween theme, where they enjoyed a party. A fish pond was a special attraction.

Lunch was served to 17 Little Helpers, and 11 mothers.

FREE READING FOR CHILDREN

The North Hatley Library Association recently announced it was offering free library subscriptions to children 12 years of age and under, for a period of six months. This would provide books to the young people through April, 1958.

The members of the Library Association hope, by this means, to encourage reading among the children, and that they will avail themselves of this opportunity on enjoying the many good books the Library has to offer them.

Winnipeg Blue Bombers Pull Upset Knocking Over Favored Eks 19-7; James Gallops 101-Yards For TD

WINNIPEG — Professional bettors down east, who already have made the west 12-to-5 favorites for the Grey Cup, may have to revise their odds as a result of Winnipeg Blue Bombers 19-7 upset victory Saturday night over Edmonton Eskimos in the Western Interprovincial Football Union final opener.

Eskimos still aren't out of the running, but the convincing manner in which the Bombers walloped them in the opener of the best-of-three league final, may send the gamblers scurrying into their backrooms to alter their books.

Actually, when the eastern bettors laid the odds they were figuring the Eks were a cinch to capture the western title and go on to win an unprecedented fourth successive Grey Cup championship.

Whatever the outcome of the second game in Edmonton Wednesday night, rookie coach Bud Grant of Winnipeg likely has convinced any sceptics that he rated the new two-year contract Bombers gave him prior to the semi-final. If Eks come back with a victory Wednesday, the third game will be played in Edmonton Saturday night.

ONE-MAN SHOW

Highlight of Saturday night's match was a 101-yard touchdown dash by Bomber fullback Gerry James. Behind the excellent blocking of his teammates, the WIFU scoring champion raced alone, the sidelines for the score from his own nine-yard line after taking a kickoff following an Edmonton touchdown.

The sparkling run seemed to lift the entire Bomber team to heights unattained this season against the defending Canadian champions. They took an 8-7 lead at the half and never looked back.

James also booted a field goal and a single. Halfback Dennis Mendyk took a pass from quarterback Kenny Ploen for 72 yards and a touchdown. Ploen converted once, while fullback Charlie Shepard booted two singles.

Fullback Johnny Bright gave Eks the lead early in the second quarter after a scoreless first quarter. He climaxed a drive from the Edmonton 48 with a typical Bright smash over left tackle from 11 yards out. Mobra converted and that was all the scoring for the Eks.

Horse-Vs-Man Marathon Ends, Nothing Settled

ROOSEVELT, Utah (AP)—The results of that 158-mile horse-versus-man marathon that ended Sunday apparently didn't settle much. The exhausted footracer who lost wants to try it again next year.

"I'll be back again," said Albert Ray, 24-year-old Brigham Young University student, as he hobbled around on swollen feet.

Ray gave up Sunday 50 miles from here on the Sale Lake City-to-Roosevelt run. He was hushed and the two horsemen he tried to beat were near the finish line. The race began in the Utah capital city Friday morning and ended 57 hours and 15 minutes later after some bone-pounding jogging by man and horse along a highway through east central Utah. It snowed at times and the temperature dropped under freezing.

The marathon that was supposed to settle an old western argument about which is faster—man or mount—ended when 76-year-old cowboy Roy Hatch and co-rider Ray Hall, 18, trotted their steeds down the main street Sunday night and broke a ribbon stretched across an intersection.

Little Big Four Holds Closing

The Little Big Four Football League ended their 1957 season with a special dinner Saturday evening at the New Wellington Hotel at which the various trophies won during the year were presented.

Close to 133, including players and their parents along with some guests attended the event. Gordon Breen acted as chairman for the dinner. Sixty-five youngsters out of a possible 75 were on hand for the annual closing fixture.

Len O'Donnell, Sports Editor of the Record, and Jean-Paul Pinel, who replaced Jean Chatter, spoke briefly to the youngsters pointing out several good points of the league. They also congratulated President Evans and his executive for their fine work.

Mike Leprohon, coach of the Eskimos, league champions, received the Tip Top trophy, emblematic of the loop championship. It was donated by Jacques Laliberte and presented by Jacques Marchal. Coach Leprohon thanked his players for their fine co-operation during the season and stated without a doubt he would have been impossible to cop the league championship.

The Dawson trophy, awarded for the Most Sportmanlike player in the league was won by Rus Marois, who was unable to be present. Don O'Dell, who is in charge of the sports department at Dawson's was to have made the presentation.

The Tot's Town Trophy was won by Jacques Cloutier of the Eskimos for the top scorer of the league. Izzie Echenberg made the presentation to young Cloutier.

The set of flat silverware was won by Guy Crepeau Mrs. J. Maysenholder drew the winning ticket. The portable radio was won by Roland Genest with Bro. Gatten picking the winning ticket. A total of 20 special prizes were drawn during the evening for the players.

Dutchmen Cop ORFU Title To End Season

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen have their fourth straight Senior Ontario Rugby Football Union championship trophy taken away with nothing to show for it except bumps and bruises and a few dollars in the kitty. Their football is over for the year.

The Dutchmen wrapped up the title Saturday night with a tight 17-16 verdict over London Lords, their second straight triumph in the best-of-three final series. They took the opener 14-8 at Kitchener a week ago.

There was some hope earlier this year that the ORFU title-holders would meet a Big Four club in a post-league game to prove a point they made in a committee room: that the ORFU belongs in the Grey Cup picture.

This post-season game appeared to be all set when the matter was brought up last March. But the Big Four gave a final "no" to the deal a few weeks ago and the ORFU champions now have nowhere to go.

Bishop's University Upsets RMC 15-14 For Second Win Of Season

After three straight losses, the Bishop's Gaitsers came to life last Saturday, and downed the Cadets from Royal Military College 15-14 in a tight contest, played at the college field. This was the Gaitsers' first win in Ottawa-St. Lawrence play this year, and gives them a season record of two wins and four losses.

Conditions were ideal for football, with the sun shining warmly until the final quarter. The game was well played, with both teams showing their best offensive displays of the season. Bishop's scoring their highest total in intercollegiate play, and RMC notching their first touchdowns of the year.

Bishop's racked up a total of 19 first downs to 14 by the soldiers. They also led in total yardage, rolling up 246 yards along the ground, and 77 through the air, as compared with 184 and 93 by RMC.

John Pratt, Gaitsers halfback who was voted Most Valuable Player on this year's squad, was easily the outstanding player on the field. He made several long runs, ripping holes through the centre of the line, then breaking into the secondary line. Pratt also ran back punts for the Gaitsers, and did the kicking, averaging 43 yards for seven tries.

Hugh Macdonald, playing quarterback in place of injured Bud McMorrin, played a steady game, and drove for several important first downs into RMC territory. Defensive standouts for the Gaitsers were John de Laverne who made several driving tackles, two of them resulting in injuries to RMC backfielders, and Bill Carsley, who despite an injured leg, bolstered the centre of the Gaitsers line.

All the scoring in the first quarter came as a result of kicking. After a series of running plays which bogged down on the Gaitsers 35 yard line, RMC kicked for a single point, Howard driving the ball deep into the end-zone. Pratt fumbled the punt, and was forced the fall on the ball, and concede the point.

Pratt then reversed the tables, and kicked a booming punt from the 43 yard line, which caught RMC safely men napping, and landed in the "coffin corner" to neutralize the early single.

Soon after the second quarter got underway, De LaVerne intercepted an RMC forward pass, and streaked down the sidelines for the first touchdown of the game. Although several tacklers had a chance to down the Bishop's guard, he crashed his way into the end-zone. Vincent's convert attempt was blocked, and the score remained 7-1 until half time.

As has been usual in their games this season the Gaitsers started the third quarter strongly, and had soon scored another major. This was set up by Carsley's recovery of an RMC fumble. After driving down the field in six plays, Macdonald crossed the goal-line on a quarterback sneak, and then threw a perfect pass to end Wally Denver for the convert, making it 14-1.

RMC's first major came on a 60 drive, after Scott recovered his own kickoff. Two ends run netted 46 yards, and then Salmon went over on a line plunge, carrying three Gaitsers three Gaitsers with him. Their second touchdown came in much the same way, but this time it was Salmon carrying, and then converting to tie up the ball game 14-14.

Then with five minutes remaining, and the ball on the 10 yard-line, Macdonald called for a punt, and Pratt drove the ball through the end-zone for the margin of victory.

The cadets took to the air in the final minutes of the game, but the Gaitsers, keeping only four men on the line, with eight back to defend against passing, managed to stop their closing assault.

Shearwater Flyers Stop Brandford 12-7 To Win Eastern Intermediate Title; Meet Fort William Saturday

One more football weekend in Canada and it will be all over for 1957 except for the biggest show of all—the Grey Cup and the post-season all-star game.

The junior and intermediate leagues battled out their divisional finals Saturday and Sunday and are all set to square off next weekend with the two national titles at stake.

Shearwater Flyers gave Maritime football players a tremendous boost Saturday by downing the powerful Brandford Tiger - Cats 12-7 for the eastern intermediate crown. They tangle next Saturday in Halifax with Fort William Redskins, who took western honors Sunday by crushing Oak Bay Drakes from British Columbia 39-14.

Toronto's Parkdale Lions and Winnipeg Rods will meet at Winnipeg Saturday to settle the junior championship. The Lions rolled over Montreal Notre de Grace Maple Leafs 39-14 Saturday while the Rods won the western final Sunday with a 14-7 defeat of Edmonton Huskies.

PROLONG STREAK
The Flyers, naval airmen from the RCN's Dartmouth, N.S. base, delighted 3,200 Halifax fans by running their undefeated streak to 20 and becoming the first Maritime club to get into a Dominion football final.

They outtrashed the Hamilton Tiger-Cats affiliates, whose win streak was snapped at 25 games, 285 yards to 218 along the ground although the Tabbies had a wide 20-12 margin on first downs.

The navy crew stubbornly barred the door after Bob Hayes' fourth-quarter touchdown put them ahead. It went unconverted, as did George Mayne's touchdown in the second quarter.

Brandford opened the scoring with an 89-yard pass-and-run touchdown from Paul Hrysko to Len Chandler but could only manage a rouse thereafter.

Als Drop Opener 17-10; Fans Attack Hamilton Players And Officials; Had To Fight Way Off Field After Game

MONTREAL — Big Steve Oneschuk, placement specialist, hoofed for 10 Hamilton points Saturday and the Tiger-Cats won 17-10 over Montreal Alouettes in a game that left thousands of fans both deflated and disgusted.

The let-down was in the Als' failure to win on their home field in the first game of the two-game total-point Big Four football final for the eastern title and a bid for the Grey Cup.

There was disgust at the sickening exhibition of hoodlums, pre-dominantly teen-agers, who raced on to the field after the game and attacked and slugged Hamilton players.

The beleaguered Tiger-Cats, in the centre of a milling 200 or more wild-eyed trouble-makers, literally had to fight their way out. There were times in the five-minute uproar when the ugly situation might have exploded into something far worse.

34-YARD TD RUN
In winning the game, the Tiger-Cats one touchdown contribution was supplied by Gerry McDougall. The Hamilton backfielder slipped through the Montreal line in the second quarter for a 34-yard gallop.

But it was Oneschuk who kicked Als' hopes sky-high. He booted three field goals in four attempts and converted McDougall's touchdown. Cam Fraser lofted a punt that went for a Hamilton single.

Bill Bewley kicked a field goal for Alouettes and converted a touchdown score by Hal Patterson on Sam Etcheverry's pass.

Rough play cropped up early in the game and Cookie Gilechrist of the Cats was ejected for slugging Etcheverry. His loss didn't appear to weaken Hamilton seriously. McDougall was a consistent ground gainer, uncorking one run for 47 yards, while Tony Curcillo took up a lot of the slack in the backfield.

FANS ANGERED
Als lost a single point in the last few seconds of play when Etcheverry kicked into the Hamilton end zone. As the ball bounced about, youngsters came swarming up and grabbed it. The ball was inside the deadline. The officials ruled no single had been scored.

This decision, along with Gilechrist's swing on Etcheverry and the unmistakable displeasure of the fans at several rulings by the officials during the game, may have set off the blowup at the end.

The teen-agers, many in leather jackets, streaked on the field. Several Hamilton players found themselves wedged in the jam. Others were able to get to the stadium entrance to their dressing room.

One young hoodlum snatched field judge Norm Maxwell's cap. Maxwell went after it and was hit and pushed, falling backward into the crowd.

PLAYERS FIGHT BACK
Then four Hamilton players, struggling to get through, were singled out for attack. They were

He said the bulk of the people doing the fighting "were definitely not teen-agers. The guy who kicked me was older than I am—which is 33."

McKelvey was kicked in the back and hurt his hand taking a swing at his attacker. He said the results of X-rays will be known today.

The fracas occurred after Hamilton Tiger-Cats beat Montreal Alouettes 17-10 in the first of the two-game, total-point final.

"As usual the officials gathered in the centre of the field to walk off together. As we were going off I was kicked in the back," said McKelvey.

In the brawl, umpire John Munro, field judge Ray Boucher, referee Seymour Wilson and spare man Bob Lye all were punched or kicked.

"I don't know what would have happened if the Tiger-Cat players hadn't come over to help us off," said McKelvey. "Montreal's Tom Hugo saw what was happening and he came over too."

Notre Dame Stops Famous Oklahoma While Rice Upsets Texas A And M From Unbeaten Ranks Over Weekend

NEW YORK (AP)—Notre Dame's stunning 7-0 victory over Oklahoma, ending the Sooners' fabulous 47-game winning streak, overshadowed such Saturday American college football specials as Rice's 7-6 upset of previously unbeaten top-ranked Texas A and M, underdog Yale's 20-13 triumph over Princeton, Rose Bowl-bound Ohio State's 17-13 victory over Iowa and unbeaten Auburn's 6-0 squeeze over Georgia.

In other important games, Michigan State raised its stock with a convincing 42-18 thumping of Minnesota, Mississippi moved closer to a bowl bid with a 14-7 victory over tough Tennessee, Duke virtually clinched an Orange Bowl bid with a 7-6 thriller against Clemson and Dartmouth took over first place in the Ivy League with a comeback 19-13 victory over Cornell.

In the far West, Oregon practically clinched the right to represent the Pacific Coast Conference in the Rose Bowl with a 16-7 victory over Southern California.

Before 62,000 onlookers at Norman, Okla., the twice-beaten Notre Dame team staged one of the greatest upsets in modern times to put an end to football's longest winning streak.

By failing to score, the Sooners saw another of their national records snapped—scoring in 123 consecutive games.

Rangers Post Double Victories Over Canadiens To Take Over In NHL

Marcel Paille's Showing In Nets Big Factor In Rangers' Two Wins; Brawls Feature Two Weekend Games

There's a new name at the top of the National Hockey League standings today for the first time this season.

Montreal Canadiens, who has either held or been tied for the lead since ripping off five wins and two ties to start the year, were beaten twice during the weekend by New York Rangers.

The victories, both by 4-2 scores moved New York into a one-point lead but Canadiens have two games in hand.

It was a weekend of home-and-home series and each split differently. Boston Bruins beat Toronto Maple Leafs 4-2 Saturday and the teams tied 2-2 Sunday night. Detroit Red Wings beat Chicago Black Hawks 1-0 Saturday but Hawks came back Sunday with a 3-2 victory.

New York's surprising showing came largely on Marcel Paille's goaltending. He was called up eight games ago from Providence Reds of the American Hockey League to replace the injured Lorne (Gump) Worsley and since has won the regular job.

SHINES IN BOTH GAMES

Sunday night he made several spectacular saves in stopping 34 shots. Canadiens' Jacques Plante handled only 14 Saturday Paille was just as spectacular—and effective—in stopping 28.

New York's Hank Ciesla and Montreal's Claude Provost traded first-period goals Sunday before Danny Lewicki's neat effort put Rangers ahead for good. Andy Bathgate and Jack Evans both scored before Tom Johnson counted for Montreal with 51 seconds left.

Leafs twice took the lead in Boston Sunday but each time Bruins rallied. The tie was Bruins' first of the season.

Bronco Horvath's 10th goal of the season late in the second period gained the split. Rudy Mityga's opening goal for Toronto was matched by Larry Regan. Bob Pulford's 40-foot screened shot early in the second put Toronto ahead 2-1.

Chicago put on a burst in the third period to score two goals and gain a split with Detroit. Each team won on the other's ice. Sunday's game was peaceful compared to Saturday's when 108 minutes in penalties were handed out.

HOWE SCORES AT HOME

Eric Nesterenko put Chicago ahead in the first period but Detroit rallied in the second on goals by Gordie Howe and Norm Ullman. It was Howe's first home-ice goal this season and he got it while behind the Chicago net. He reached out to poke at the puck and goalie Glenn Hall inadvertently pushed it across the goal line.

Hawks' third-period burst saw Nick Mickoski score from close in and then defenseman Elmer Vasko scored his first goal of the season on a long shot for the winner.

Two of Saturday's games featured fights and penalties. At Chicago a last-period brawl involved almost every player with eight drawing misconducts and a total of 82 minutes being divided equally by the two clubs. Ullman scored the game's only goal.

FIGHT IN TORONTO

At Toronto there were 68 of the game's 72 minutes in penalties in the last 12 minutes of play. Eight players got into one all-out exchange with two receiving misconducts.

Fleming Mackell, Vic Stasiuk, Johnny Bucyk and Don McKenney scored for Boston. Dick Duff and Brian Cullen scored for Toronto.

At Montreal Dave Creighton's first two goals of the season were the Rangers' margin of victory. Camille Henry and Guy Gendron were the other New York scorers. Doug Harvey and Jean Beliveau scored for Montreal.

Action resumes Wednesday when Chicago plays at Toronto and Detroit is at New York.

Sarnia's Perry Dies Suddenly

SARNIA, Ont. (CP) — Norm Perry, one of the finest broken-field runners Canadian football ever produced and one-time head of the sport's governing body, died of a heart attack Sunday at the age of 52.

A tall, slender figure in his football days with Sarnia Imperials of the Senior Ontario Rugby Football Union, he was called "the galloping ghost of the gridiron."

Perry played on five Sarnia ORFU championship teams in days when the east ruled Canadian football. He played on the Grey Cup-winning Imperials of 1934, the year he was voted the ORFU's most valuable player.

He started playing halfback in 1918 as a junior and his playing days ended in 1935 when he suffered a broken leg while playing with the Imps in an exhibition game at Calgary.

Lennoxville High Sweeps Double Cage Fixture From Sherbrooke; Seniors Win 47-34, Juniors 31-25

Lennoxville High School's senior and junior basketball teams each scored victories Friday night over squads from Sherbrooke High in a twin fixture played at Lennoxville. The score of the junior tilt was 31-25 while the seniors chalked up a 47-34 decision.

In the junior affair, the boys from Sherbrooke seemed to have a definite edge in the play despite the fact that they had only a 7-5 lead at the quarter and a 16-14 margin at half time. In the third quarter, however, the boys in black and gold forged ahead to take control 26-19. The difference remained about the same in the last period, the final score leading 31-25.

The senior tilt if not providing a close score, at least showed some fine basketball. The Lennoxville quintet found the target early in the game and piled up a 24-8 lead by half time. The boys in red and white gamely held their own in the latter half, but were unable to produce the big rally necessary to overcome Lennoxville's margin. The final score read 47-34.

The line-ups follows:

SENIORS
L.H.S.—R. Allen 17, W. Nugent 14, W. Winget 8, R. Pelletier 4, A. Reynolds 3, D. Aldrich, T. W. Dobinson, D. Munkittrick, M. Cavin, G. Lavers—47.

S.H.S.—M. Allatt 20, R. Smith 5, T. Beaulieu 3, P. Garland 2, D. Gosselin 2, L. Austin 2, R. Batrie, R. Hirby, B. McNeil—34.

JUNIORS
L.H.S.—H. Gilchrist 10, P. Crosby 10, A. Mandigo 6, J. Grooms 5, D. Dodge, A. Nelson, C. Stronach, G. Peak, B. Caswell, D. Crosby, J. Klinek, R. Winslow—31.

S.H.S.—R. Coates 18, C. Matthews 3, M. White 2, P. Covey 2, D. Hirby, P. Ross, R. Steinman, D. Billings, P. Math, P. Echenberg, P. MacLean, K. Pariseau—25.

Russian Hockey Team On Way

LONDON Reuters — Russia's hockey team left for Canada Nov. 17, Tass announced Saturday.

The lineup does not include veteran Soviet players Vsevolod Bobrov, Yevgeny Babich, Alexander Uvarov, Valentin Kuzin and Viktor Shuvalov, who have been replaced by young players aged 18 to 29.

The team was picked after three games played this week in Moscow against a visiting Swedish team.

Hearing On NHL Players' Group Is Postponed

TORONTO (CP)—The hearing of the National Hockey League Players Association before the Ontario labor relations board, originally scheduled for today, has been postponed until Thursday.

The association is applying for certification as bargaining agent for members of the Toronto Maple Leafs hockey club.

Asbestos Meteors Dump All-Stars 9-3 In Annual Massawippi League Tilt; Moore, Vachon Get Three Each

ASBESTOS — Combining a strong attack with some fine defensive work the Asbestos Meteors, Provincial Intermediate "B" champions last year, rode to 9-3 victory over the Massawippi League All-Stars here yesterday afternoon before 1,340 fans in a wide-open affair.

The Meteors were paced to their win by Albert Moore and Maurice Vachon, both who registered hat-tricks, while Michelin, a newcomer, Leo Allard and Laurent Drouin notched the others. For the All-Stars Godhue came up with two goals while Bert Cotterell picked up the other.

The home club, last year's champions, had the edge over the All-Stars, some who had been on skates only a few times. The Meteors displayed a fine passing attack and their conditioning helped them to victory.

The All-Stars, coached by Pee Wee Theriault, who handled the Magog Aces last year, just couldn't cope with the Meteors. The home team had the edge in territorial play but the outstanding play of Beauchesne, Richmond's goalie, kept the score down. Time after time he was called upon to extend himself and came up with some great saves.

The Meteors got the jump on the All-Stars in the first frame and ran in four goals for an early lead, which they never relinquished. It was the first time the All-Stars had played together and their passing was off however they managed to give the Meteors plenty of trouble.

In the second stanza they held the fast-breaking Meteors to three tallies but failed to beat Bergeron, who was having one of his better days. In the final frame the All-Stars commenced to click, instead of going back, and before the Meteors could rest on their early lead Cotterell and Godhue reduced the margin on two quick goals.

Asbestos got one back but Godhue came up with his second tally of the afternoon but Maurice Vachon offset it when he teamed up with his line-mate, Al Moore, to tally the last marker of the game.

Ten penalties were dished out, all for minor offences, as the boys were playing good hard hockey. Only two of these figured in the scoring. Al Moore was sitting out a tripping infraction when his mates tallied the third goal of the game. Moore was in the sin-bin, in the third frame, when Bert Cotterell notched the All-Stars' first tally.

The All-Stars despite their lack of conditioning and team-play gave a good account of themselves and with a few breaks should have notched a few more goals. Over anxious and poor shooting robbed them of a couple when they had Bergeron beat in close.

Asbestos: Bergeron, Glaude, Michelin, Lussier, Forgues, Perron, Drouin, Bisson, Moore, Vachon, Allard, Champagne.

All-Stars: Beauchesne, Bachand, Mireault, Cotterell, Vaillancourt, Godhue, Langlois, Gagnon, Beaudoin, F. Bergeron, Drouin, Bellehumeur, Abrian, J. C. Bergeron, Ross, Lapierre.

2—Asbestos, Michelin 6:42
3—Asbestos, Drouin (Moore) 10:37
4—Asbestos, Moore 19:47
Penalties: Allard, F. Bergeron, Moore.

Second Period
5—Asbestos, Allard 5:02
6—Asbestos, Moore (Vachon) 5:28
7—Asbestos, Vachon (Moore) 15:57
Penalties: Michelin, Drouin, Gagnon (2).

Third Period
8—All-Stars, Cotterell (Abran) 4:33
9—All-Stars, Godhue (Abran, Cotterell) 5:31
10—Asbestos, Moore (Drouin) 9:02
11—All-Stars, Godhue (F. Bergeron) 10:51
12—Asbestos, Vachon (Moore) 12:06

"IT'S AS FAITHFUL AS I AM!"

In a Shepherd dog it's called faithfulness, in an Exide Battery it's called quality. Actually it amounts to the same thing. Through ice and snow; torrid heat or hurricane an Exide will answer every demand—and still have lots to spare.

Exide's patented alloys maintain the peak of power continuously—for years longer. At any time an Exide is a motorist's best friend—in an emergency, nothing could be more faithful—it's a lifesaver.

"Sputnik" Rare Red Donation To English

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Six weeks ago few people here had heard the word Sputnik. Today it's on the way into the dictionaries, as one of the Russian language's rare contributions to English.

In Russian, Sputnik means satellite in an astronomical sense (thus the moon is a Sputnik of the earth) as well as in the sense of an artificial satellite. But in English all Sputniks are artificial.

The Russian word Sputnik also means a travelling companion. The Russian prefix "s" means with. The word "put" (pronounced "poot") means road, way or path. The suffix "nik" is commonly used to make a noun from a general root—and give it a diminutive sense.

LITTLE WATER

The Russian word "Lalka" doesn't seem to have caught on as well. This is the given name and the name of the breed of the dog put up in Sputnik II.

In a specific sense Lalka refers to a breed of dog common in Russia and Siberia. In a more general sense Lalka—derived from "lai," meaning bark—is approximately equivalent to the English "how-wow" and can be applied to any dog.

One Russian word in English to stay is vodka. It literally translates as "little water." Vodka is the Russian word for water.

Some Russian words now in the English vocabulary come from politics and government. Tsar (or czar) meaning emperor originally derived from the Latin Caesar. There is ukase (or ukaz) meaning decree.

Kremlin, used to describe the ancient fortress in Moscow and also the Soviet government as a whole, comes from the Russian Kreml. This means not just the fortress in Moscow but any elevated fortress in the heart of a Russian town.

In English Bolshevik may be used to describe any violent revolutionary.

NYET WELL KNOWN

Originally in Russia it meant

"one of the majority"—the majority being that in the Russian Social Democratic party in the early years of this century when it split. The opponents of the Bolsheviks became known as the Mensheviks—the minority.

The word Soviet, now common in English, refers to the Soviet government or Soviet Union. In Russian the word originally meant council. Bolsheviks took it over when they made councils or Soviets of workers and peasants their apparatus of government.

Commissar, originally French in origin, came into wide use in English via the Russian language. The Bolsheviks used it to avoid the bourgeois term minister. Now the Russian Communists have reverted to the term minister in their government.

Nyet can thank Soviet representatives at the United Nations for its spread.

Several Russian words came into common use in English during the war to describe particular weapons but all except MIG are virtually forgotten. MIG derives from the initials of the aircraft designing team of Mikoyan and Gurevich.

DENISON'S MILLS —

The November meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Stevens with Mrs. Elton Carson presiding. Plans were completed for the luncheon to be served by the branch at the next County meeting, to be held in Richmond. The Sunshine Committee reported that two boxes had been sent to shut-ins and several cards. The Citizenship Convener, Mrs. Guy Andrews, gave a reading of interest on "Immigration and New Citizens." Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Stevens.

The Harvest service of Holy Trinity Church was well attended and many products of the land were placed in the church making a colorful and decorative display.

Rev. W. D. Chapman finished his services in Kingsley Mission for the year, as his work in the Windsor Church and studies at Bishop's University now require his time. Mrs. Wheeler, formerly of Windsor, now of Richmond was organist for the service. Miss Doreen Robinson 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson of Greenlay, has been organist for many services during the summer and this has been very much appreciated by the congregation.

Misses Marjorie-Ann Denison and Jolene Denison were recent weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Kendall Brown and daughter Kendra, in St. Lambert.

GLEN SUTTON —

Misses Oona Strath, Elizabeth Wighaus and Betty Meilke of Long Island, N.Y., were weekend guests of Miss Ruth Flueller.

Misses Kay Haggerty, Gwen Davis and Ruth Flueller of Montreal, spent the week-end with their parents.

Mr. M. G. Flueller was recently elected president of the Swiss Club of the Eastern Townships at a meeting held in Sweetsburg.

Mr. Robert Staines and Roger McCarthy of Montreal, spent the week-end here. Mr. Staines at his camp, and Roger with his grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Wilson.

MYSTIC —

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Near and family spent a week-end in Island Brook, guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Walbridge and family of Pointe Claire, visited the former's parents recently.

Miss Edith Bockus is visiting friends in Montreal.

Miss Margaret Pendlebury of St. Lambert has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. E. Capsey, and brother, Mr. W. J. Pendlebury.

Quebec, Nov. 4th, 1937.

The simple fact is this.

Over the years Imperial has earned its position of leadership by a policy of continuous improvement in Esso and Esso Extra gasolines.

To maintain that leadership we are continuing to invest in research and in new methods of refining highest quality gasolines, as we have in the past, on a scale unequalled in Canada's oil industry.

A good reason why more people than ever...

ALWAYS LOOK TO IMPERIAL FOR THE BEST
