TWO SCIENTISTS HEAD CANADIANS ON KING'S BIRTHDAY HONORS LIST

Dr. Frederick G. Banting, Who Gave World Insulin for Diabetes, and Charles E. Saunders, Discoverer of Four Famous Varieties of Wheat, Named Knights—Five Women Among Even Dozen Canadians Honored—List Raised Lord Wakefield to Viscount, Created Four New Baronies, Five Baronets and Fifty-Four Knighthoods.

London, June 4.—Two scientists with knighthoods today headed an even dozen Canadians named in the King's Birthday honors list. Of the remaining honors five went to women, one an aged nun, the first woman in religious orders of Canada to receive such recognition.

Dr. Frederick Grant Banting, research worker, who gave the world the insulin treatment for diabetes, was made a Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire. The aging, bearded Charles Edward Saunders, former Dominion cerealist and discoverer of four famous varieties of wheat, was named a Knight Bachelor. Both Sir Frederick and Sir Charles live in Toronto, the latter in retirement.

Science and literature bulked large in the Canadian section of the list. Dr. Duncan Campbell Scott, of Ottawa, a noted poet and former Superintendent of Indian Affairs, was made a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, and Miss Margaret Marshall Saunders, author of "Beautiful Joe," a dog story for children that has been read the world over, a Commander of the Order of the British Empire.

Miss Saunders received her honor for service to the Canadian Humane Society. She has made a life work of teaching kindness to animals.

For service to crippled children in connection with the Canadian Welfare Service, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Waagen Allan, former Montrealer now living in Alberta, was named a Commander of the Order of the British Empire. Three other women received similar honors: Miss Winifred Kydd, of Montreal, president of the National Council of Women; Miss Margaret Eleanor Theodora Addison, former Dean of Women at Victoria College, University of Toronto, and Rev. Mother Marie Anna Piche, Superior-General of the Grey Nuns, Sisters of Charity, Montreal.

Three other men were made Companions of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, Alexander Johnson, Ottawa, former Deputy Minister of Marine; Ernest Joseph LeMayre, Clerk of the Privy Council at Ottawa; and William James Roche, chairman of the Civil Service Commission at Ottawa.

Edwin Lester Brittain, of Ottawa, was named an officer of the civil division of the Order of the British Empire. Mr. Brittain was an accountant for fifty years in the Finance Department. He was honored for his service to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, of which he had charge.

In London, his adopted home, Edward B. Peacock, noted banker who once lived in Toronto, became Sir Edward Peacock. The King's list named him a Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victoria Order.

The name of one adopted New Yorker appeared in the list. Michael Gerald George Campbell, British colonial general in the United States metropolis, became Sir Gerald Campbell, Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Two honors went to Newfoundland. Sir Edgar Bowring, the island Dominion's first Commissioner in the United Kingdom, was named Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George, and Abraham Kean, who spent sixty years in the service of Newfoundland's sealing industry, was named an officer of the civil division of the Order of the British Empire.

At the head of the United Kingdom's list, the Baron Wakefield of Hythe became a viscount in recognition of his numerous benefactions to Empire enterprises, particularly those connected with aviation.

A man in the public eye, Anthony Eden, Lord Privy Seal, was made a Privy Councillor. Mr. Eden received news of his honor in Geneva, where he is representing the United Kingdom at the World Disarmament Conference.

The King's list brought titles to Canada for the second time in fifty years. They reappeared in the King's New Year's honors list, in which knighthoods were conferred on Sir Lyman P. Duff, Canada's Chief Justice, and Sir Joseph Matthias Teller, knight of the Quebec Court of King's Bench.

The list issued last night raised Lord Wakefield to the Viscountcy, created four new baronies, five baronets and fifty-four knighthoods. Of the seven knighthoods that went to the Dominions, Canada got two, New Zealand two and Australia three.

BRITISH SPORTS WORLD REPRESENTED ON LIST

London, June 4.—Sport had its share in the King's birthday honors list. Among those it named were a distinguished cricketer, widely known in Canada, and a man who once played international football.

A step up in precedence went Sir Julien Charles Knight Bachelor and now baronet. Sir Julien last year led a cricket eleven on a tour of Canada, the United States and Bermuda. Previously he had taken cricket teams to Jamaica, Argentina, Denmark and Jutland. Sir Julien was knighted in 1929.

Sid David McCowan, also a new baronet, whose home is Monzie Castle, Perthshire, Scotland, played international rugby for Scotland for five seasons.

RAILWAY STATION RAIDED

Comilla, Bengal, India, June 4.—Twelve armed men, described by police as English, attacked the railway station at Hatiganj on Saturday night, shooting and killing an employee and seizing mail valued at $4,000 or $20,000.

NEW JERSEY PLANT DESTROYED IN MILLION DOLLAR BLAZE

South River, N.J., June 4.—A fire which swept through the American Enameling and Tile Company late last night caused damage estimated by company officials today at more than $1,000,000.

Charles E. Jaquart, superintendent, gave the estimate and admitted he was unable to say how much was covered by insurance.

No plans, he said, would be made immediately for rebuilding. He and other officials were busy today in setting up temporary offices and in going over the ruins to determine how much might be salvaged.

Jaquart said it had not been determined as yet what caused the fire.

VICTIM OF DUTY, POLICE CHIEF DIES OF INJURIES

Jules Vachon, of Three Rivers, Succumbed to Injuries Sustained in Automobile Smash-Up.

Three Rivers, Que., June 4.—Victim of duty, Police Chief Jules Vachon, of Three Rivers, died here yesterday as the result of injuries suffered in an automobile smash-up last Thursday as he was giving chase to a car said to contain three youthful alleged gasoline station thieves. He had been unconscious since the accident.

The question between them arises over British insistence on the Disarmament Conference should bring about disarmament and a levelling of armed forces among the bigger powers and France's insistence on security measures as a prime necessity.

Meanwhile one of the League of Nations' troublesome problems seemed solved, for the moment at least.

France and Germany yesterday gave written undertakings to respect the freedom of voting in the Saar plebiscite on January 13th, 1935.

Both governments undertook to abstain from pressure of any kind, whether direct or indirect, likely to affect the freedom and trustworthiness of voting; to abstain from taking any proceedings or making any reprisals or discrimination against persons having the right to vote as a result of their political attitude or connection with the plebiscite during the League's administration of the territory, to take necessary steps to prevent or punish any action by their nationals contrary to these undertakings.

Differences between either country and a "member of the Council of the League" will be referred to the League World Court for arbitration. The Supreme Plebiscite Tribunal will start to function on January 7th, and will continue in being until one year from the time the new regime, whatever it may be, is established.

GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE SEEK TO HEAL BREACH ON ARMS POLICY

World Disarmament Conference Heartened by Reports that British and French Foreign Ministers Have Found Considerable Community of Interest Despite Varying Viewpoints—Agreement Between France and Germany on Saar Plebiscite Removes Troublesome League Problem.

Geneva, June 4.—The World Disarmament Conference took heart today over reports that the United Kingdom and France were about to seek means of healing the breach in their arms policies that arose last Wednesday.

Reports were current that Sir John Simon, British Foreign Secretary, who went home on Friday, and Foreign Minister Louis Barthou, of France, will hold a frank examination of Franco-British relations.

These statements, despite their differences over the arms question, especially as it applies to Germany, were represented as agreeing there is a considerable community of interest between their countries.

NEW BRUNSWICK FIRE HAZARDS ARE INCREASED

Changing Wind and Continued Lack of Rainfall Cause Great Concern as Flames Menace Valuable Timber Limits.

Fredericton, N.B., June 4.—A south wind today increased the forest fire hazard in New Brunswick. Low humidity continued with no immediate prospect of rain to alleviate the serious conditions.

At the Rectory River were received here before noon, indications were that in at least three places considerable concern was felt after already existing fires had sprung up anew when fanned by the increasing wind.

The Blackville area, fire on the north side of the Rectory River was endangering a long wooden-covered bridge over the mouth of the river and the Department of Public Works was co-operating with the Provincial Forest Service in making precautionary preparations there.

The guns of the Royal Artillery boomed out the official birthday salutation at noon today in Hyde Park. Bells rang gaily in St. George's chapel, at Windsor, and in many more lowly churches throughout the British Isles.

To the cheers of thousands, the King rode from the palace to the Horse Guards' parade to take the salute at the famous ceremony, the trooping of the colors. His Majesty wore full dress scarlet of the colonel-in-chief of the brigade of Guards, with the blue ribbon of the Garter across his breast.

Behind him rode the Prince of Wales in the uniform of colonel-in-chief of the Welsh Guards, the Duke of York as colonel-in-chief of the Scots Guards, and the Duke of Gloucester in his Hussar uniform. The Earl of Hawwood, husband of Princess Mary followed in the Grenadier's uniform, the Earl of Athlone in Hussar uniform and the Duke of Connaught in the uniform of the Scots Greys.

Eighteen hundred officers and men answered the command, present arms, at the Royal salute. Meanwhile the National Anthem crashed from the massed bands of the Guards.

As the King rode to the salute point, he looked up and saluted the Queen at the window of the Horse Guards building with the Duchess of York, and young Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose. The King and Queen of Siam were with the party. The princes followed their father's example before wheeling into position.

The color trooped today was that of the Scots Guards, an ensign of the regiment taking it from a sergeant-major who guarded it with drawn sword—this being the only occasion in all British army routine when a sergeant-major draws his sword. First in slow march, then in quick time, followed by an impressive march past, the whole stately ceremony was carried out.

The King showed no signs of feeling the cold as he sat his horse, nor did he take any notice of the slight drizzle that was falling before the ceremony ended.

Accidents and heat claimed twelve lives in Ontario during the week-end as motorists and pleasure-seekers thronged the highways and beaches. Three persons were drowned; two died from the heat and a child was scalded to death. Traffic accidents and the premature discharge of a revolver caused the other deaths.

Dr. Gordon McKay, of Hagersville, was killed when his car overturned into the ditch near Jarvis. The wife of the thirty-one-year-old physician was slightly injured. St. Papazian, aged forty, was fatally injured when his bicycle was struck by an auto at Windsor, and George Hood, of Windsor, was killed when he stepped from the sidewalk into the path of an auto.

John Austin, a Gaister Centre farmer, died from the excessive heat at St. Catharines and George Corrigan, eighty-six years of age, was found dead on the road near Collingwood, believed a victim of a heart attack brought on by the heat and exhaustion.

Mrs. David Van Every, aged seventy-five, was drowned in the waters of Meldrum Bay and eleven-year-old Gerard Lagace, of Ottawa, went to his death in the Ottawa River when his rowboat upset. The revolver victim was William Neil, forty-three, of the Hollinger Mines police. He was cleaning the gun when it exploded, killing him. The third drowning victim was thirteen-year-old Mitchell Ganefice, of Windsor, who was drowned in the Detroit River.

Norman Waver, eleven, of Hamilton, was killed by an auto, and David Volkingsburgh, an infant, was scalded fatally at his Kingston home by boiling water. Derivation of a freight train near North Bay claimed the twelfth life when Ernest Harrison, Vancouver transient, was killed.

BRITISH WAR DEBT NOTE WILL BE DELIVERED AT THE WHITE HOUSE TODAY.

London, June 4.—The Government today sent instructions to its Ambassador in Washington, Sir Ronald Lindsay, to deliver to the White House a note explaining the British point of view concerning the debt interest due on June 15th.

The contents of this note will probably be made public tonight, according to information learned today.

The note has been in the hands of Sir Ronald for several days.

FEAR MANY FISHING BOATS WERE LOST DURING STORM

Four Bodies Have So Far Been Recovered and Fourteen Injured Have Been Attended Following Storm Near Coast of Korea.

Seoul, Korea, June 4.—Over two hundred fishing boats are feared to have been lost during a severe storm off Enpei in Kokaido Island near the coast of Korea yesterday.

Four bodies have so far been recovered, and fourteen injured men have been attended to.

It is feared, however, that many more men lost their lives.

SHIPPING BILL AND BANK ACT BEFORE HOUSE

Likely to Be a Battle or Two Before Bank Act Is Approved—Civil Service Is Celebrating King's Birthday with Holiday.

Ottawa, June 4.—Facing another week of grappling with heavy legislation, Parliament reassembled today. Except for the House of Commons, however, Government buildings are empty, for the civil service is celebrating the King's birthday with a holiday.

Having approved the new Companies Act last week, the House will this week set to work on the new Bank Act. A few clauses have been passed already, but there will be a battle or two before it is entirely approved.

While the Companies Act moves from the Lower House to the Senate, the Shipping Act, an even heavier and more bulky piece of law, moves from the Senate to Commons. It was passed by the House last week and members of the Commons representing special constituencies have been studying it closely.

The only committee meeting today is the mass buying committee, which is continuing its probe into the packing and livestock businesses. Last week a number of packing company executives were examined, and today the committee will conclude its probe of the financing of the Burns and Company enterprise in Western Canada.

STANSTEAD COLLEGE ONCE AGAIN SCENE OF COLORFUL CEREMONIES

Alumni Banquet, Junior Recital and Baccalaureate Service Featured Week-End Activities at Stanstead College Commencement Exercises—Convocation Tomorrow Marks Conclusion of Another Successful Year in History of Historic Institution.

Stanstead, June 4.—Stanstead College, hummed with activity over the week-end as former students gathered once again about the beloved halls and amid the familiar scenes of other days to take part in the annual commencement exercises.

The annual Baccalaureate Service was held yesterday morning in Centenary United Church, when the special preacher was Dr. Fred B. Smith, LL.D., S.T.D., of New York.

The impressive service was conducted by the principal of the College, Rev. Errol C. Amaran, M.A., B.D., and the assisting clergymen were Rev. H. Carson, B.A., Rev. A. T. Jones, M.A., Rev. W. Conklin and Rev. J. H. Philip, Ph.D. The music for the service was in charge of A. H. Martin, F.T.C.M.

Dr. Smith delivered two impressive sermons and his words were listened to with rapt attention by the large audience which filled the church.

"I am among those who believe that the world is on its way to a universal religion, a common prayer, a common altar, a common fellowship," Dr. Smith said at the morning service, which he preached on "The Fruit of Religion."

"The Gospel of Jesus Christ," he said, "abides in ever-increasing value and power. There have been important changes in interpretations, modifications in methods and revisions in literature. But the Gospel of the Sermon on the Mount has lost none of the glow of its glory. It abides. It is secure. It is the trust hope of the world."

Explaining his belief that a common religion for the world was evident in many respects, Dr. Smith said: "The great spaces which in ages past have kept races and nations segregated are being dissolved by modern science. It would be impossible to have any one state in America Christian and the bordering ones Buddhist, Mohammedan, Confucian and Hindu."

Before the Premier took the floor, the crowd, assembled in the veterans' hall at Todmorden, a Toronto suburb, more than once drowned out the voice of William Morrison, K.C., for East Hamilton, the other guest speaker. Factions of the crowd buried question after question at Mr. Morrison and never gave him much opportunity to reply. Shouts of "beer for the unemployed," "what about unemployment insurance," and cheers for the C. C. F. were applauded loudly in sections of the hall.

One man stood and shook his fist at Reeve W. Leslie, chairman of the meeting, who described a group of hecklers as "hoodlums." The interrupter told the chairman to "come outside and see if we're hoodlums or not."

The same conditions greeted the Premier when he rose to speak but within minutes silence fell over the hall as he denounced constant interrupters who, he said, came not for information but to ask questions merely to cause a disturbance. He outlined the defence of his administration, pictured "what you have got on the other side," and reminded his listeners that Mr. Morrison had promised one interrupter, who cheered for both Liberals and C.C.F., that he would vote Liberal if the man could name his leader. The interrupter sat down at the insistence of those around him.

Overcome by fear, Carrasco was quoted as relating he struck Mrs. Smith on the head with a stick of stove wood.

Officers said Carrasco told them he then started to prepare his supper but when he poured gasoline on wood in the stove, the fuel exploded and soon the house was ablaze.

Canadian Dollar Strong in New York.

New York, June 4.—Pounds sterling's continued decline featured trading today on the foreign exchange market. In fairly active dealings sterling lost 1 1/2 cents to $5.04 1/2.

Canadian dollars were firm at 100-16 cents compared to Saturday's closing rate of 100 1/2 cents. French gold francs improved three-quarters of a point to 6.88 1/2 cents.

SIX HUNDRED SCOUT ENTHUSIASTS TOOK PART IN SUCCESSFUL RALLY

Eighteen Eastern Townships Communities Represented at Outstanding Gathering of Scouts, Cubs and Rovers at Exhibition Grounds on Saturday—Possession of Many Coveted Trophies and Badges Decided Before Large and Appreciative Audiences.

And a jolly time was had by all. Thus in brief could be summed up the eleventh annual Eastern Townships Boy Scout Rally, which came to a successful conclusion here late Saturday afternoon following a day of intense activity.

It was a successful rally from all points of view. The attendance was all that could be desired. There were present over six hundred Wolf Cubs, Boy Scouts and Rover Scouts representing eighteen towns and villages of the Eastern Townships.

Those in charge of the arrangements had left no stones unturned to make the programme an attractive one, and their efforts were certainly crowned with success, for every boy returned to his home after the strains of the National Anthem had drawn the curtain on the 1934 rally thoroughly convinced that Sherbrooke was a hospitable city and that it had been a pleasure to be a citizen of Sherbrooke for the day.

From ten o'clock in the morning, when the day's programme began, until the final event in the late afternoon there was not a dull moment. The Weather Man smiled kindly on the city throughout the day, and while there was a warm sun watching over the city a cool breeze helped materially, being especially appreciated by the sturdy youths who took part in the various Scouting competitions which featured the day's programme.

The Parade Grounds was the starting point of a busy day. There all units assembled and drew up in line for the mammoth parade to the Exhibition Grounds. With colours flying and bands playing, the route of the parade was along Queen, Montreal, Dufferin, Wellington, King and Park streets.

Upon arrival at the Exhibition Grounds the groups formed in horse-shoe formation about the flag pole just inside the main entrance. There F. G. Hicks, of Montreal, Provincial Field Secretary, acting as master of ceremonies, called for a flag break, which was followed by Scout Silence and a short opening prayer by Rev. C. E. St. Jean.

Following this a very cordial civic welcome was extended to the group by His Worship Mayor F. H. Bradley, and Lee Aude, president of the Sherbrooke Boy Scouts Association, warmly welcomed the visitors on behalf of the officers of the Local Association.

After dismissal the teams competing in the competitions for the Trussler Shield, the Giovetti Trophy and the Granby Proficiency Badge Trophies reported immediately to the judges, headed by Messrs. A. G. Muzey, W. J. McCormick and C. Drummond; woodcraft, F. G. Hicks; general questions, E. R. Paterson; Giovetti Trophy, H. M. Jockell and C. G. Blake; Granby Trophy, E. R. Paterson.

During the lunch hour ample opportunity was afforded out-of-town units to visit and to establish friendship with other groups. A special luncheon for visiting officials at the New Sherbrooke House was attended by twenty-five gentlemen, headed by the officers of the Local Association.

The following were the judges for these important competitions: Trussler Shield, first aid, E. R. Paterson, Dr. A. J. Walters, J. W. Blain and T. G. McConnell; woodcraft, K. Muzey, W. J. McCormick and C. Drummond; woodcraft, F. G. Hicks; general questions, E. R. Paterson; Giovetti Trophy, H. M. Jockell and C. G. Blake; Granby Trophy, E. R. Paterson.

NEW DEALS FOR AGRICULTURE IN WESTERN CANADA PRAIRIE BELT

With Drought Fears Relieved by Continued Rains, Farmers Are Today Busily Engaged Fighting Grasshopper Pest—Mixing Stations Working Day and Night to Supply Poison Bait—United States Government Plans Action to Relieve Western Cattle Owners—Even South Pole Reports Heat Wave.

Winnipeg, June 4.—Two new deals concerning agriculture on the prairie belt of Western Canada were in the making today. Nature's new deal to the farmer, rich, damp earth that revived wheat plant life, created a new spirit of optimism. Out of this came the farmer's new deal to the grasshopper—increased poison bait.

Across the southern wheat belt of Manitoba and into Saskatchewan municipalities mixing stations have arranged day and night shifts to supply poison bait in the war against the grasshopper. Although the damage has been heavy in some districts, agricultural officials said it was not more than had been expected.

The rapid-fire phase of poison warfare will be directed principally against infestations in southeastern Manitoba, where the sprinkling of moisture failed to remove official apprehension. Light showers fell at some points, but the downfall was piecemeal. Farmers in some districts are ploughing in myriads of newly hatched hoppers feeding on scanty wild oats and new weed growth.

The weather man came to bat again today with a cheerful outlook. A general rainfall over Saskatchewan and Alberta was sufficient to begin germination of late sown crops. Rain is forecast for the three Prairie Provinces "chiefly over southern districts."

At the head of the United Kingdom's list, the Baron Wakefield of Hythe became a viscount in recognition of his numerous benefactions to Empire enterprises, particularly those connected with aviation.

U.S. GOVERNMENT PLANNING AID FOR CATTLE RAISERS

Chicago, June 4.—The parched middle west sections of United States cooled off today under June showers, but the effects of May's unparalleled aridity remained.

While week-end rains brought the mercury well below the century mark in sections where it soared to record heights last week, government officials met in Washington at the call of President Roosevelt to consider various proposals for alleviating the distress of farmers and stockmen in the devastated areas.

The Weather Man aided with a promise of a continuation of cooler weather and rains.

Soaking rains fell over central and southern North Dakota; a two-inch downpour was welcomed in the sugar beet section near Scottsbluff, Neb.; heavy rains fell in parts of Illinois; Ottawa, Kansas, had 1.06 inches and elsewhere there were scattered showers, but none of drought-breaking proportions. Weather bureau officials reported the drought appeared to be broken in the Rocky Mountain section. A brisk snowstorm pelted Leadville, Colo., for several hours Sunday.

Governors of the drought-stricken states took steps to aid the farmers. Governor Alf. M. Landon, of Kansas, requested aid for livestock in fifty-three central and western counties of his state.

The Minnesota National Guard was mobilized to enforce an embargo on shipments of livestock into the state for grazing. A similar embargo was declared by Governor William B. Langer, of North Dakota, and the Governor of Wisconsin planned to follow suit.

Emergency reductions in rates for shipping starving cattle and feed supplies were announced by western railroads.

Following Arkansas' lead, private agencies began the collecting of feed.

KING ATTENDS TRADITIONAL ARMY DISPLAY

Trooping of the Colors in Honor of King's Birthday Central Event in Empire's Tribute to His Majesty.

London, June 4.—Leadens skies, a biting east wind and more than a suspicion of sally-needed rain, made the aged but still vigorous Duke of Connaught, former Governor-General of Canada, being one of the first callers to offer his congratulations. Princess Victoria, sister of the King, King George of Greece, and the Grand Duchess Xenia of Russia were among the visitors.

The guns of the Royal Artillery boomed out the official birthday salutation at noon today in Hyde Park. Bells rang gaily in St. George's chapel, at Windsor, and in many more lowly churches throughout the British Isles.

To the cheers of thousands, the King rode from the palace to the Horse Guards' parade to take the salute at the famous ceremony, the trooping of the colors. His Majesty wore full dress scarlet of the colonel-in-chief of the brigade of Guards, with the blue ribbon of the Garter across his breast.

CRAZED YOUTH CONFESSES TO DOUBLE MURDER

Continued Nagging Given as Reason for Brutal Slaying of Mother and Brother by Los Angeles Youth.

Los Angeles, June 4.—Louis Rude Payne, aged 21, cracked under the strain of an all-night grilling by police and confessed early today, officers said, to the details of the hatchet slaying of his mother and brother in their Westwood mansion here.

"I killed them last Tuesday night," detectives quoted the youth as crying.

"Many things my mother and brother had done to me finally multiplied themselves a million times in my mind and at last something set off the spark and I couldn't stand it any longer—so I killed them."

Mrs. Carrie L. Payne, aged forty-five, and her son, Robert, aged fourteen, were found hacked to death in their bedrooms of the luxurious Spanish-type Payne residence near the University of California at Los Angeles campus yesterday.

Only a few hours after the horribly-mutilated bodies were discovered, they were hacked to death in their bedrooms of the luxurious Spanish-type Payne residence near the University of California at Los Angeles campus yesterday.

Police found in young Payne's pockets an unsealed telegram and a letter, both addressed to his father, Lucius F. Payne, wealthy executive of a St. Louis utilities company, and both confessed to slaying.

The youth was returned immediately to Los Angeles, where officers began intensive questioning.

The repeated questions of "why, how and when" he committed the crime he at first answered:

"I don't remember, or I can't seem to figure it out."

Police broadcast a "wanted" alarm for a mysterious woman who, posing as Mrs. Payne, called last Friday at the Beverly Hills High School and told an instructor that Robert had accidentally shot himself in the foot and was unable to attend classes.

The woman, police said, asked for Robert's trumpet—the boy was a member of the High School orchestra—and selected it from a large assortment of similar instruments.

Louis, police asserted, could not explain the woman's presence at the school.

Neither could he explain why he had not sent the telegram or letter to his father, who informed relatives here he planned to catch the first airplane from St. Louis to Los Angeles.

"Dear Dad," the letter began, "please steel yourself for what I have to tell you. I don't know why I did what I have done and I wish to God that I hadn't been able to do it. I really felt that something inside of me did it in spite of myself. Believe me, I have always loved you and Mother and Bob and I do now and always will."

DRUMMONDVILLE NINE DEFEATED LOCAL SENIORS

Pete Landry's Team Today Heads Eastern Townships Senior Baseball League Parade After Scoring Five to Three Win Over Notre Dame Yesterday.

Drummondville, June 4.—Pete Landry, the catcher who formed half of the different batteries when baseball flourished in Sherbrooke, is now piloting Drummondville in front of the Eastern Townships Senior Baseball League. In the Celanese centre yesterday afternoon Landry led his team mates to a five to three victory over Notre Dame, a triumph which gave the Drummondville nine undisputed possession of the leadership. In the other game of the circuit Granby was at home to Acton Vale and absorbed a five to four defeat, their third loss in as many games.

The locals packed the verdict safely away almost before all the fans had settled down in their seats. In their half of the initial frame the Drummondville nine scored four times, three singles, two bases on balls and a disastrous error on a pop fly behind base providing a margin which Drummondville never relinquished.

After the first frame Maxwell and Jim Long settled down to an interesting mound duel. The victor out Drummondville's lead in the second canto on the strength of a free ticket to first base and a long single, and the Landrymen forged further ahead in the fifth session by molding three successive singles into a tally.

The Trussler Shield, donated by W. Trussler to promote Scouting in Eastern Townships Scout Troops, was won by the Thetford Mines Troop with a total of 179 points out of a possible of 310. The 6th. Sherbrooke Troop captured second place with 173 points, with the 4th. Sherbrooke Troop finishing third with 172 points. This shield covered competitions in first aid, signalling, woodcraft and five general questions on Scouting.

The Giovetti Trophy, offered by W. Giovetti, former Assistant District Commissioner, for the promotion of Cubbing in the Eastern Townships, was carried off by the Asbestos Pack with a total of 310 points out of a possible of 330. Drummondville Pack held second place with 300 points, while the 8th. Sherbrooke Pack came third with 295 points. This shield covered competitions in the Grand Howl, the opening ceremony, a jungle dance and a star test, this year's test being the skipping relay, and three questions on general Cubbing.

The Granby Proficiency Badge Trophy, donated by the Granby group to develop the efficient acquisition of proficiency badges by Boy Scouts, was won by the Granby Troop with a total of fifty-four points, with the East Angus Troop holding second place with 52.75 points. This trophy covered an examination of each entrant on any three of five proficiency badges.

The Asbestos Sports Trophy was awarded to the Asbestos Troop with a total of seven points out of a possible of eighteen. The 3rd. Sherbrooke Pack held second position in this event, with Thetford Mines Troop coming third with five points.

The latter part of the afternoon was occupied with a varied programme of Scouting display which provided excellent entertainment and gave the public an insight into the work being done in Boy Scout training.

Cub displays were as follows: a football match by Cubs of the 3rd. Sherbrooke Pack depicted the Team Player Badge. A boxing display by the Cubs of the 4th. Sherbrooke Pack created considerable amusement, as did also a blindfold boxing display and tub tilting game.

A demonstration of bridge building by the Asbestos Troop and construction of a signal tower by the 1st. Sherbrooke Troop proved very interesting and showed just what could be made with the Scout staves and rope properly lashed together.

A display of rope spinning by the 7th. Sherbrooke Troop showed much preparation and skill on the part of those taking part and drew loud applause, as did also rope spinning and tumbling by Scouts of the Drummondville Troop.

Another interesting event was the display of horsemanship by the 2nd. Sherbrooke Troop, while the 4th. Sherbrooke Troop gave their idea of a Cowboy sing-song.

Certainly one of the most interesting and instructive features of the programme was the stave drill and display of the uses of the Scout stave by the 4th. Sherbrooke Troop. This exhibition showed considerable preparation and depicted a Scout camp in miniature, constructed almost entirely by Scout staves and rope. A fine display of fire by friction which consisted of rubbing sticks of wood together, was given by the 3rd. Sherbrooke Troop.

The Trussler Shield, donated by W. Trussler to promote Scouting in Eastern Townships Scout Troops, was won by the Thetford Mines Troop with a total of 179 points out of a possible of 310. The 6th. BURLESQUE ACT POINTS WAY TO UNIQUE UTOPIA Louisiana Bill Would Make Every Man and Woman a King and Queen Each Entitled to a Crown, a $90,000 Castle, a Silk Suit, a Pair of Green Silk Pyjamas and $50,000 Annually.

Baton Rouge, La., June 4.—A bill to make every man a king and every woman a queen was introduced in the State Legislature Sunday night by Representative Rupert Peyton, of Caddo parish, with a flourish of burlesque distinctly directed against some of the pet theories of United States Senator Huey P. Long.

The act, whose author is an anti-Long leader and anti-administrationist, would require that every citizen of Louisiana be addressed as "Your Majesty." It was one of 254 new measures tossed into the hopper during a two-hour Sunday night session just ahead of the midnight deadline for new proposals.

"Every king and queen," says the act, "shall be entitled to a crown, a $90,000 castle, a hotel suite, a pair of green silk pyjamas and $50,000 annually."

Section three says "Every king shall be entitled to a queen, or a harem if desired." And section four continues, "In order to provide for the crowns, castles, etc., for the kings and queens of Louisiana a tax of $10,000 per square foot is levied upon Wall Street and a levy of $10,000,000 annually is made upon the sacred Standard Oil Company."

But the bill provided that "this shall become effective on the day that the share-the-wealth programme becomes effective."

FIRMER TONE DISPLAYED ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE

New York, June 4.—Despite dullness the stock market was inclined toward firmness in the early transactions today. The ticker tape moved haltingly. Steel shares were a bit improved while moderate gains were registered by motors, metals, farm shares and rails.

U. S. Steel recovered fractionally while American Telephone turned inactive after yielding slightly. Advances of sizeable fractions to a point or so were recorded by Bethlehem, U. S. Steel preferred, Du Pont, Case American Commercial Alcohol, Montgomery Ward, Sears-Roebuck, General Motors, U. S. Smelting, American Smelting, Santa Fe and New York Central. Call money renewed at one per cent.

The market moved sideways during the second hour with extreme dullness continuing. American Telephone came up slightly around noon.

WARM TEMPERATURES IN ANTARCTICA REPORTED

Little America, Antarctica, June 4.—A "tropical heat wave" beat down on the Antarctic on Saturday— which was all of two degrees above zero and the mercury was still rising.

While North America donned linens and straw hats, the winter season had set in here, but one wouldn't know it by the thermometers. Although temperatures of fifty and sixty degrees below zero are normal for twelve days the temperature has not been under twenty-eight below.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK MARKET

Montreal, June 4.—Offerings on the two local livestock markets today totalled 5,163 head.

Cattle receipts were 1,008 head. Cattle sales were slow and prices easier. Buyers were picking out cows and plain to medium quality steers at prices barely steady to around twenty-five cents lower than last week's quotations. Good steers were not moving. The top for good cows was $4. Medium cows sold from $3 to $3.50 and plain butcher cows from $2.50 to $2.75. Canners and cutters were from $1.50 to $2.25.

One load of good steers averaging 1,090 pounds sold for $5.50 and one load of medium quality steers, averaging 1,120 pounds, sold for $5.80. Common steers sold from $3.75 to $4.25. The bulk of the cattle were not sold at time of writing.

Calves receipts were 1,731 head. With a large increase in the offerings of calves and a large percentage of common to just plain drinks. Sales were very slow to start. Prices were estimated to be twenty-five to fifty cents lower. Good quality calves were sold at $4.25 to $5, with an odd one picked out at $5.25. Common to medium good quality calves brought from $3.25 to $4. Common thin light drinks were as low as $2.50. The bulk of the calves sold between $2.75 and $3.75.

Good and choice veal sold at $4.25 to $5.25; common and medium at $2.50 to $4, and grassers at $2. Sheep receipts were 453 head. Lambs were easier. Medium good to good quality lambs averaging fifty pounds or better were sold for $9 per cwt. Common kinds were sold as low as $7 per cwt. Sheep were moving slowly at $2 to $3.50, according to quality.

Quotations: Ewes $2 to $3.50. Lambs, good, $9; common, $7 to $8. Hog receipts were 1,071 head. Hogs were unchanged. Sales were made early at $9.25 for bacon, fed and watered, with $1 per hog premium on selects. Butchers, heavies and lights, were $8.75 and extra heavies $8.25. Sows ranged from $6.50 to $7.50.

ABBOTSFORD

A wonderful programme of music was given in the parish hall by a group of fifteen singers from the Erskine and American Choir, of Montreal, under the direction of Mr. B. E. Chadwick, director of the choir and also conductor of the Montreal Elgar Choir. The choir did some very fine unaccompanied singing and also their singing with piano accompaniment, was excellent. The accompanist, Miss Harriet Prutman, of Montreal, accompanied both the choir and the soloists. The soloists were: Mrs. A. W. Schell, alto; Miss Vera Liversidge, soprano; Mr. Herbert Buzzell, the sad views of the death of her father, Mr. Charles Cook, of Chicago, at the home of his eldest daughter, Mrs. Acton, who has tenderly cared for him during his long illness. Mr. Cook was a former resident of this place, born on the farm now owned by Mr. Guy Williams near Sweetburg, his wife, Miss Loretta Pickle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jared Pickle, also resident of Sweetburg, who died a few years ago. When their children were young they left Canada and settled in the United States, where their family now live, with the exception of Mrs. Johnston and daughter, who are residents of Brome. Mr. Cook reached the ripe old age of eighty-four years, and he leaves to mourn his loss, two sons, Scott and George Cook, of Chicago, also two daughters, Bertha, Mrs. William Acton, also of Chicago, and Beatrice, Mrs. Robert Johnston, of Brome, and sister, Mrs. Martin Sweet, of Brome, and Mrs. George Crittenden, of West Brome, and one brother, Mr. George Cook, of Brome. A pleasant event took place on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joyal, when a number of old friends and neighbors gathered there to participate in the celebration of Mr. Joyal's eighty-first birthday and to offer congratulations and best wishes to the guest of honor. Dinner was served at the banquet, during which gifts and cards were wished, among them being a purse of money from his son, Franklin, and family, of Berkeley, Calif. Mr. Joyal is enjoying the best of health and is hale and hearty, and his greatest enjoyment is angling for the speckled trout, being an expert with the rod and gun. Miss Arlene Patch, R.N., returned from Knowlton on Tuesday, where she has been helping in the care of Mrs. E. Fleury, who passed away early on Tuesday morning of a brief illness. It was the passing of this beloved and highly respected lady, who will be greatly missed in her wide circle of friends. The sympathy of the community at large is extended to the bereaved family.

UNIVERSAL.

Myrtle J. Doe.

A poet has no country, A poet has no place, He only flits about a bit, In thoughts from place to place. So though you localize him here, And localize him there, You've erred, my friends,—a poet Makes his home everywhere.

Swifter than a winged aeroplane, His heart may dwell here or in Spain, For where his heart a landing makes, Rich flowering is till off he takes.

A poet has no lover, Yet love's emotion's sway He gains from silver star-light, Or sunlight's golden ray, He gathers love like honey, From the world's flower hearts, And yet to ordinary folk, Untouched by Cupid's darts.

His is the spirit's kingdom vast, Which none may give or from him cast, His feet may halt on velvet earth, But none may guess his soul's wide girth.

ART AND KINDERGARTEN ART.

Two art exhibitions in Sherbrooke within a week should arouse more interest in the furnishing of the cultural home. The Loan Exhibition at Bishop's University brought many valued paintings from the private collections in and around the city, and many people who are fond of well-painted pictures enjoyed the all-too-brief days in which the assembly hall was converted into an art gallery.

Fernleigh Ramus, the Montreal art dealer, and himself a painter of degree, brought a part of his collection from the Dominion Square building and tarried but a fortnight in temporary quarters on Wellington street. He, too, had a large attendance of people who enjoy pictures, whether they own them or view them.

The love of Art is natural within the mind of the possessor of an artistic taste. It is a cultural sense which develops with cultivation and study. Yet oftentimes the student is led astray by the myths and mirages of men who seek only the passing phase of notoriety. The painters who call themselves modernists and impressionists and who dash off a painting with more faults than colours have had quite a long innings.

Their appeal is to the kindergarten stage in art, and many of their disciples and admirers, accepting their wretched productions, never get beyond the phase of mollesism. The usual impressionistic production gives one the idea of a lazy brush wielder who is too tired to take pains with any details, and hopes the imagination of the victim will vision hidden and imaginary meanings of an untaught painter.

The original creators of the modernists were accepted as half-mad persons whom we now politely term as eccentrics. Oscar Wilde was an artist in psychiatry, but he was not always sane. We are prone to accord originality and genius to some man of the day who has stolen his ideas from people who passed away a century ago; just as Toronto ascribes to a little alderman of recent years the credit of planning a water front boulevard, the real credit for which belonged to the City Fathers of 1844.

The impressionist painter, who daubed paint on canvas, brought his first production to light in 1819, though his successor, Cezanne, is credited with what was called the founder of the modern movement, as he was more eccentric. Cezanne was like the man who can see magic and mirage in a clouded sky, as one fleecy cloud chases another in the evening sky, and he hoped the buyer of his pictures would have the same vivid imagination "to see things that ain't."

Fantastic attempts were made through the years, but it was not until Whistler used strychnine in phrases to confound his critics that real impressionism found disciples. They were men who found it so much easier to dash off a daub of mystery. Some productions actually look as though the impressionist had stood off a yard or more and thrown gobs of paint at the canvas, tamping it down with a jack-knife or chisel.

With clever conversation they could sell these alleged paintings to the nouveau riche who mistook colour rhythm for some hidden creative conception. But what would you? All through the years men have been selling beautifully engraved stock certificates to people who do not take the trouble to enquire; or perhaps fire insurance policies in fake companies set up by people of no standing. The lack of perception is current in every walk of life; even in business some men have the spark, and are diligent and furious workers, but they do not always attain.

The impressionist painter is one who has the sensations and illusions, but have not the skill to impress. So they just daub and daub and put their trust in the equally ignorant. Some good painters are spoiled by the sort of collector who thinks that he should buy many pictures by the same painter whom he fancies. Such collections are like the same dinner every day in the year.

Parthenically, I am in accord with the grant of $300 to the St. Jean Baptiste Society, but would grow enthusiastic about it if it were matched by a like special grant to the Art Union and Public Library, which is in need and which is free to every resident of Sherbrooke, and maintains the only Free Public Reading Room in this city.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK.

The Socialist and Radical in the United States might devote some time to Recovery Acts to cure the Breach of Promise Racket, the Alimony Plunderer, the two-time Divorcee and the Kidnapping Gangs. Yes, yes, I know we were whacked and whanged in the United States on account of the forty-nine Senators who wanted to legalize lottery gambling. Fortunately we were not seduced, as the younger men had reached the age of discretion.

Prisoners in Portsmouth penitentiary are voting for the Globe, as that journal has a sincere sympathy for criminals and little thought of the victims whom they have injured. A benign set of new rules call for two "go's" of cream at every meal, and a day's outing on the prison farm on Collins Bay.

One correspondent asks me why, oh why, does not the government go into action quicker on the waste and extravagance injected into the cost of government. Some of these frisky lads are giving more thought to waists than to waste.

Mitchell Hepburn is reported as forging ahead in Ontario, where his fiery speeches have started forest fires. Mitch should put some of his funny notions in the fire for re-forging.

MAKING LIFE WORTH-WHILE.

Grenville Kleiser.

When you have chosen a great purpose, and are certain you have chosen well and wisely, concentrate upon it. Bend your best energies to it. Guard yourself against subtle and innumerable influences that tend to divert you from it. Make that single great purpose the definite aim of your daily life. Be enthusiastic about it. Your thought and time will be solicited by many influences, and you will do well to take special means to protect yourself against them. Make your resolutions so clear and firm that nothing can lure you from your chosen path of purpose and duty. Substitute doing for dreaming, and achievement for wishing. The great things of the world are done by men who specialize and concentrate.

The practice of daily meditation is one of the most effective means for developing clear and accurate thinking. Concentration of mental energy tends to bring into view deep and hidden thoughts, and thus are great ideas conceived and great projects planned. The mind is an informing and originating force, and the sphere in which all true culture must begin. Diligent and daily mental training is essential to the enlargement and enrichment of your life. Intuitions, desires and aspirations are silent sculptors fashioning character and conduct. Reserve a definite time each day for quiet thinking, for the cultivation of incentives to higher and nobler purpose and living. Your superior mental powers impose upon you a responsibility to make the most of them.

Down deep in every human soul is a hidden longing, impulse, and ambition to do something fine and enduring. This secret intimation from within is in truth a summons to rise above the dead level of mediocrity and to use your powers to large purpose. As you listen to this inner voice and heed its divine command, you will not be content with a life of commonplace endeavour, but will set your eyes upon some great and lofty purpose. There will come to you a new and wonderful revelation of the exalted powers placed in your keeping, and a deeper realization of your personal responsibility to God. He has endowed you with supreme gifts as well as with the faculties to use them aright. If you are willing, great things are possible to you.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

From the Files of the Sherbrooke Record.

June 4th, 1904.

ARE JURIES CREATING DISRESPECT FOR LAW?

The Huron Expositor

"It is not too much to say that trial by jury does not inspire the same confidence today as it did in former times. This is proven by the large number of appeals which are made wherever it is possible." The above remarks are from the Brantford Expositor, and were made in reference to a complaint recently voiced in Toronto by Judge Daniel O'Connor in reference to motor accident cases, when he said "the tendency on the part of juries is to hesitate to convict when the evidence is of a convincing character."

That is a serious complaint, but unfortunately there seems to be a growing need for such expression. We do not believe that juries are in favor of willfully opposing law and evidence, but there are cases where their actions are doing just that.

The condition does not arise entirely from a feeling of sympathy for the under dog. It is more likely a spirit of antagonism against those who are sworn to carry out the law. Some jurors seem to reason thus: "You big bugs are not going to browbeat and rule us. You can't put anything over on me or my kind, either."

What too many jurors fail to realize is the fact that if they persist in their present course, it is the breakers of the law whom they are protecting, who will in the end put something serious over on them and not the judges and other arms of the law.

BARDS TO DEBT PAYMENT.

London Times.

All the old fallacies have been revived by the budget surplus in Great Britain, a surplus which it is remarked in Washington is roughly equivalent to the annual payment due America. This, of course, has no relevance to the real difficulty, which is not of payment but transfer.

If the whole of the British surplus had been put at the disposal of the American Treasury, they could only have used it, either directly or by triangular or polygonal exchange, to pay for goods produced in Great Britain or for services rendered by agents—British shipping companies for example—domiciled in Britain.

On the other hand, the American tariffs, American shipping legislation and shipping subsidies are exchanged for the express purpose of preventing Great Britain and other foreign countries from supplying goods or giving service to the United States.

MODERN JUSTICE.

Halifax Herald.

In New York, the other day, a man got into a fight with a friend, and unintentionally killed him with a blow of the fist. The killer was brought into court, where he pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter. The ordinary sequel would have been a prison sentence. But the judge, who has some ideas as to how to have been a man of considerable discernment. So instead of sending the slayer to prison, he ordered him to abstain from all alcoholic drinks for five years, to pay the funeral expenses of his victim, and to pay the widow $15 a week for five years.

If the man fails to live up to this agreement, he goes to prison for a five-year stretch. This, as far as it goes, looks like a sensible decision. Too often, when society punishes a law-breaker, the break is left to the gentleman in East Aurora, N.Y., who thought it would be fun to play a little trick on some newly-married friends of his.

His friends were just starting on their honeymoon. So this chap notified the state police that the car they were riding in had been stolen.

This is an old gag, among practical jokers, guaranteed to cause the victims of the joke a good deal of annoyance and humiliation; and in this case it worked perfectly. However, when the perpetrator finally admitted that it was all a joke, the police failed to see anything funny in it; and they took the joker into court, where he was promptly fined $50 for being a nuisance.

The world would be a pleasant place if the sort of thing happened to practical jokers more frequently.

20,000-MILE PROCESSION.

Canada Week by Week.

The motor vehicles of Canada, if mustered out in one monster parade with a hundred feet of highway allowed to each vehicle, would form a procession over 20,000 miles in length—four-fifths of the distance around the world at the Equator. With a little crowding, and utilizing the trucks and buses, the whole population of Canada might be carried. Such a motorcade, in motion, would consume more than 40,000 gallons of gasoline for each mile of travel.

DID IT PAY?

Victoria Times.

There are no available statistics to tell us the extent of the effect of last year's two-cent sugar tax on domestic preserving, but if a tabulation could be made it very probably would be found there was a considerable falling-off, while it would be interesting to compare the revenue under the two-cent tax with that derived under the old schedule. Relatively speaking, it would not be surprising if the tax defeated its own object. It is likely Mr. Leonard Morris, Mr. Archibald MacGregor, Mr. Harvey Lee and Mr. Cyril King, of Montreal,

A LARGE NUMBER PARTICIPATED IN PROCESSION

Many Devout Roman Catholics from Various Parishes of City Reverently Took Part Yesterday in Corpus Christi Procession.

Hundreds of devout Roman Catholics yesterday morning reverently walked in the annual Corpus Christi procession in which all parishes of the city participated to make this impressive public demonstration of worship in keeping with those of previous years.

The procession was, as usual, characterized by the pomp and ceremony of the Roman Catholic Church. The Sacred Host was borne by Mgr. E. Vincent, Vicar-General of the Sherbrooke Diocese, who walked under a golden canopy surrounded by incense bearers and members of the clergy wearing costly golden vestments.

The procession formed in front of St. Michael's Cathedral, and shortly after nine o'clock wended its way along the customary route to Racine Park, where the repository was arranged and where benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was held.

Hundreds of citizens of all races and creeds lined the streets through which the procession passed. Houses were gaily decorated with flags and bunting, while spectators on streets and verandahs reverently knelt as the Sacred Host passed along the way.

Heading the procession was a detachment of local police, following which came the representatives of the various organizations, the brothers and nuns, the pupils of all the Catholic schools, representatives of the legal profession, including His Lordship Mr. Justice Hector Verret and Judge J. H. Lemay, and a gathering of distinguished citizens headed by His Worship Mayor Bradley, who walked under a golden canopy, followed by Ald. E. H. Fortier, M.P.P., leader of the Municipal Council. The Harmony and St. Charles Seminary bands provided the music.

The weather was ideal for the procession, which was even larger than in previous years. From the time the Sacred Host was removed from the tabernacle on the Cathedral altar until its return to the church the bells of the Cathedral kept ringing, and the bells of the other Catholic churches were also rung as a mark of tribute and respect.

The procession was indeed a most colorful one and was featured by the reverence which such an occasion demands.

In the other towns and villages of the Eastern Townships similar processions were held as the Roman Catholic Church again observed one of its most important religious ceremonies.

IRISH ACADEMY OLD BOYS HELD HAPPY REUNION

Distinguished Guests and an Interesting Address by One of the School's Alumni Featured Annual Gathering of Alumni of St. Patrick's Academy.

A happy re-union of old students of St. Patrick's Academy—when old friends met again and school day acquaintanceships were renewed— took place at the New Sherbrooke House on Saturday evening when the St. Pat's Old Boys' Association held their annual banquet.

Over ninety old boys, quite a number from out of town, were present at the banquet, which was featured by a splendid address by Emmett McManamy. Among those present were J. W. Whalen, Provincial for the Dominion of the Presentation Brothers, Rev. Father J. C. McGeer, pastor of the Association and parish priest of St. Patrick's Church, Rev. J. P. Nicholson, Ph.D., of St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N.S., Mr. Justice Fabre-Surveyer, of Montreal, Senator W. E. Tobin, Rev. Father Napoleon Coderre, Fernin Campbell, J. H. Walsh, J. McManamy, D. A. McManamy, W. McManamy and Eddie Loomis, president of the Sherbrooke High School Old Boys' Association.

Austin Workman, president of the Association, expressed his pleasure at seeing such a large turnout of old students of the Academy and said that he took the splendid attendance at the banquet as a mark of appreciation and confidence in the Association, which has done its best to cement a firm relationship among the boys—men today—who spent their happiest years in St. Patrick's Academy.

"I wish particularly," he said, "to call your attention to the fact that we have present with us tonight all the past presidents of the Association, John Wolfe, Tom Bonner, Kenney, Flaherty and Emmett Kenney." Mr. Workman said that he had a special message to deliver to the Old Boys, which was to continue to show the same spirit of co-operation and in particular to make it a point to attend the annual meeting in the fall.

Following Mr. Workman's remarks, Hugh Crochetiere, secretary of the Association, introduced Dr. Nicholson, of St. Francis Xavier College, and read a number of letters from old students who expressed their regret at being unable to be present and extended their best wishes for the success of the banquet and of the Association in its future activities. These letters had been received from the following: Old Boys: Rev. Father T. J. Walsh, S. J., Rev. Michael Hawkins, Allan Macdonald, Walter Miller, Martin Redmond and Ernest Sylvester.

The toast to the Academy, which was proposed by Ashley Hibbard, was responded to by Principal Rev. Brother Benedict, who said that the school was ever ready to help the Association in its activities. The toast to the guests, which was proposed by Mike Stenson, in proposing the toast to the Commissioners and guests, were especially impressive. Mr. Stenson traced the history of St. Patrick's Academy from the time of its foundation in September, 1911, recollecting that prior to that date the Irish boys in Sherbrooke had a school with the Sacred Heart Brothers. Mr. Stenson stressed the great work done for St. Pat's Academy by the early Commissioners, mentioning Dan McManamy, W. A. Hawkins and D. J. Steele, and emphasized the fact that many of the obstacles that had threatened the continued welfare of the school had been overcome through the great help of the late Canon C. E. Fiset.

Mr. Stenson remarked that although today St. Patrick's Academy is a school for the Irish Catholic boys of the city, nearly fifty per cent of the boys attending that institution are French lads anxious to learn English. Thus the school is developing the sentiment of cordiality which is invaluable and essential for the future welfare, not only of this city, but of the province and of the Dominion.

Replying to this toast, J. H. Walsh, one of the founders of the Academy, said that the Commissioners were today rewarded for the work they carried out in connection with the School and in overcoming the difficulties which faced them from time to time.

A few remarks were also made by Rev. Brother J. W. Whalen, principal of the Academy for a number of years, who has many warm friends in Sherbrooke that were glad to welcome him back, if only for a brief time. Rev. Brother Whalen paid a high compliment to the Academy, stating that in all his years of teaching spent in England, Ireland and two provinces of the Dominion, he had never come in contact with such a fine gathering of boys as he had in Sherbrooke. Their application to study, their general bearing and their clean manner of living, he said, had made St. Pat's outstanding. It was a pleasure to teach at St. Patrick's, he continued, and the Order of the Presentation was proud of the school.

Before Mr. McManamy's address, a few brief words were also spoken by Mr. Justice Surveyer, Senator W. E. Tobin and Rev. Father McGeer, who said that the Irish Catholic parish of the city was proud of the fine work being carried on by the Old Boys' Association.

An attack upon the Co-Operative Common-Wealth Federation was made by Emmett McManamy in his address. The entire platform of the C.C.F., he said, was a direct attack upon the present economic system of the country. "Naturally," Mr. McManamy said, "there is not a person here who would for one moment say that the present system is perfect. But what one must consider is whether the failure of our economic system was due to what may be described as a social order based on private property, which has SEVERAL ARRESTS OVER WEEK-END Municipal police officers made several arrests for minor offenses over the past week-end. Alphonse Guereite, of this city, and Joe Roberge, of St. Elie, were taken into custody charged with being drunk and disorderly on Lansdowne street on Saturday night, and Arthur Giguere, of this city, was arrested on a charge of being drunk and incapable on Gillespie street. Joe Vachon, of Sawyerville, was found loitering on Depot street, according to a charge of vagrancy. The four men will appear before Recorder Lionel Forest in Police Court tomorrow morning.

FLAGS FLYING IN HONOR OF KING'S BIRTHDAY Wellington street is today gaily decorated with flags in honor of the birthday of His Majesty King George, which this year came on Sunday but is being observed today.

The City Hall, court house and hall are decorated for the day. While other people are working as usual, the fact is not overlooked that the beloved ruler of 450 million people has passed his sixty-ninth birthday. In his quiet way Sherbrooke is joining with the rest of Canada and the other nations of the British Empire in the prayer "God Save our gracious King; long live our noble King."

FIREMEN ANSWERED THREE ALARMS A slight explosion in a gas stove in an apartment on King street west, a grass fire on Dufferin avenue and a false alarm turned in at the Fair Grounds called the local fire-fighters out three times over the week-end.

The explosion occurred at 11:25 o'clock yesterday morning at 193 King street west, property of E. A. Bernard, occupied by tenants. When the firemen arrived upon the scene, however, the occupants of the apartment had turned off the main gas and eliminated the danger of an outbreak. Very little damage was caused by the explosion.

The grass fire occurred at the rear of the Precious Blood Convent on Dufferin avenue and was checked before any serious damage was caused.

POPE TO HONOR FORMER SHERBROOKE RESIDENT Many friends in Sherbrooke and elsewhere throughout the Eastern Townships of Lawrence I. McMahon, of Montreal, a former resident of this city, will be pleased to learn that he is to be invested as Knight of St. Gregory the Great, a high tribute conferred by His Holiness the Pope.

For the past twenty years Mr. McMahon has been president of the Order of Honor of the Blessed Sacrament in Montreal. The investiture will take place on June 6th at the Church of Perpetual Adoration, Montreal, by Right Rev. E. A. Deschamps, Auxiliary Bishop of Montreal.

Mr. McMahon was born in Sherbrooke and educated at the Sacred Heart School and later at St. Charles Seminary. Possessed of a fine voice, Mr. McMahon sang on numerous occasions at St. Patrick's Church here.

CANADA OFFERS ITS RESPECTS TO SOVEREIGN

Ottawa Celebrated King's Birthday with Display of Loyalty and Affection Typical of Capital of Britain's Oldest Dominion.

Ottawa, June 4.—Ottawa celebrated the King's birthday with a display of loyalty and affection typical of the capital of the oldest dominion of the British Empire. The city was decked with flags and the colorful ceremony of the Trooping of the Color by the Governor-General's Footguards took place last night on the wide green lawns in front of the Parliament buildings.

The congratulations of all Canadians were conveyed to His Majesty in a message sent by the Governor-General, the Earl of Bessborough, and a message of thanks was received from the King. On the social side was the annual garden party at Government House on Saturday, when hundreds of people gathered at the official residence of the Governor-General.

His Excellency was prevented by illness from making the salute in person. Prime Minister R. B. Bennett took it with the Countess of Bessborough in attendance. Great crowds turned out to see the complicated and stately movements executed with faultless precision by the red-coated Guardsmen with their towering black bears.

The Governor-General's message to His Majesty at Buckingham Palace read, "With my humble duty I beg to offer the loyal and devoted congratulations of all Your Majesty's Canadian subjects on the occasion of Your Majesty's birthday, signed Bessborough."

The reply from King George was, "Please convey to the people of Canada my sincere thanks for their kind and loyal message of congratulation on my birthday. Signed George R. I."

ASBESTOS AND CLAY PRODUCTS SHOW INCREASE

Healthy Expansion Shown in Quebec Mining Industry by Official Returns—Silver Alone Records Decline.

Sharp increases in the production of asbestos and clay products were noted during April compared with the corresponding month last year, according to the monthly bulletin of the Quebec Department of Mines. Production also compares favorably with March, 1934.

Asbestos production, totalling 10,611 tons, was produced in April, 1934, compared with 8,168 tons in the preceding year and 12,629 tons in March. The output of by-products, sand, gravel, etc., was 276 tons in the month under review, 256 tons in the corresponding month of 1933, and 384 tons in the preceding month.

SETTLEMENT OF MANY STRIKES IS ANNOUNCED

Toledo Workers Accept Compromise and General Walk-Out in U.S. Textile Industry Has Been Avoided—Great Lakes Shipping Troubles Appear.

Washington, June 4.—Capital-labor troubles were fewer in the United States today. The Electric Auto-Lite strike at Toledo, O., which brought death to two persons in riots, is over and the National Guard troops have been withdrawn.

The settlement came when the Auto-Lite Company accepted an agreement calling for a five per cent wage increase and recognition of the workers' bargaining committee. The strikers agreed to return to work tomorrow. Progress toward peace was reported in other auto-lite plants as well.

Efforts to avert a threatened steel strike were redoubled here following Hugh E. Johnson's success in silencing the threats of a widespread cotton textile workers' strike. The textile strike, set for Saturday, was cancelled after a study of the workers' grievances.

At St. Louis steps were taken toward arbitration of the strike of one thousand filling station attendants. Demanding a five per cent increase in pay, the attendants walked out Saturday. Several major oil companies reported stations under police protection.

A wage adjustment ended the strike of twenty-six engineers and firemen of four Omaha breweries. The Remington Rand Company's plant at Ilion, N.Y., closed several weeks by a strike will reopen tomorrow for any of the two thousand employees that want to return to work, the company announced.

Strike leaders replied, however, they would seek to continue the strike until the company recognized their union. New labor troubles appeared on the Great Lakes. Crews of a tugboat line went on strike at Milwaukee last night. A mass meeting of the Chicago members of the International Longshoremen's Union voted to strike if lake shippers do not grant their requests for more pay and recognition.

NOMINAL SENTENCE ENDS EIGHT-YEAR FRAUD CASE

Associate of Stavisky Sentenced to Eight Months in Jail and $3.30 Fine for Million-Dollar Security Disappearance.

Paris, June 4.—The famous Stavisky trial, which for eight years lingered in French courts as unfinished business, has come to an end with the conviction of Sylvain Zweifel.

Zweifel was an associate of Serge Stavisky, whose manipulations are blamed for the collapse of the Bayonne pawnshop and whose death in a villa near Switzerland is set down officially as a suicide.

The action disposed of Saturday began in 1926 with a police raid on Stavisky's villa at Malby-le-Roi, a suburb of Paris. The charges were that nearly $1,000,000 had disappeared from offices of numerous brokers.

Six men were indicted. The case was postponed twenty-five times. All defendants but Zweifel have died, or have vanished. Zweifel was sentenced to serve eight months in prison and was fined fifty francs or about $3.30.

MARRIAGES EVANS—DENISON Denison's Mills, June 4.—The marriage of Dorothy M., daughter of Mr. W. S. Denison and the late Mrs. Denison, to the Rev. Mr. M. to Mr. R. John Evans, of Concord, N.H., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Evans, took place Saturday afternoon at half past one o'clock at Holy Trinity Church, Denison's Mills, the Rev. William C. Dunn officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with syringas and ferns, and the bride's sister, Mrs. S. C. Hill, played the wedding music, with violin obligato by Mrs. A. W. Herbert.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in her gown of lemon lace Chantilly lace, made on princess lines, the skirt, falling gracefully to the floor in circular effect, being finished with a rouching of pleated tulle. Her hat matched her gown and she carried an arm bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and hollyhock-valley.

The bridesmaid, Miss Bernice E. Driver, of Concord, N.H., who was the bride's only attendant, was becomingly gowned in pale green mousseline de soie with which she wore a large picture hat and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern.

Mr. George Evans, of Concord, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. William and Avery Denison, brothers of the bride.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, where a profusion of tulips, daffodils and ferns were used in decorating.

Later the bride and groom left by train for their home.

CLOSE PENNANT RACES IN BOTH MAJOR LEAGUES

St. Louis, New York and Chicago Virtually Tied for National League Leadership, and Another Trio Grouped in Space of Single Game at American League Apex.

If close pennant races mean money in the pocket for baseball magnates, prosperity must be right at hand instead of just around the corner for several owners of big league clubs.

The standing in both major circuits today showed about the keenest competition for the top places the season has produced so far, with three clubs in a virtual tie for the National League lead and another trio grouped in the space of a single game at the American League apex.

It took three of yesterday's four games to bring the National League tangle into its final status. Pittsburgh's Pirates knocked off the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals by four to two as Heinie Meine and Waite Hoyt pitched shutout ball for Pepper Martin's home run in the seventh inning. That left the Cards only a few percentage points in front of New York and Chicago, who once again went into a tie.

The Phillies, led out of their seven-game slump by Irvine Jeffries, turned back the Giants by six to two, while the Cubs pounded out a seven to one triumph over Cincinnati.

The fourth National League game added Pittsburgh's return to fourth place after a day in the second division. With Emil "Dutch" Leonard on the hill, the Brooklyn Dodgers snapped a seven-game winning streak of the Boston Braves by a five to one count.

The New York Yankees returned to the American League lead with a five to three victory over Philadelphia in a battle of the home run kings. Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig hit a homer apiece for the Yanks and Jimmie Foxx pulled a pair of circuit smashes for the A's. It made thirteen four-oaggers apiece for Gehrig and Foxx.

Detroit trailed a half game behind the Yanks into second place with a smashing eleven to two triumph over the Chicago White Sox. The St. Louis Browns knocked the Cleveland Indians down from first place to third position, winning a twelve to eight slugfest on the strength of a seven-run outburst in the sixth frame. The Browns, incidentally, advanced to fourth place as the Boston Red Sox pounded out a seven to two decision over Washington behind Fritz Ostermueller's steady flinging.

CRAWFORD LOST SINGLES TITLE TO VON CRAMM

Overdose of Whiskey, a Restorative Commonly Used, Blamed by French Hard Court Officials for Australian's Defeat — "Peggy" Scriven Won Women's Singles Crown.

Paris, June 4.—Too much whiskey in a glass of water led to the death of Jack Crawford, Australian ace, as the French hard court tennis singles champion, in the opinion of tournament officials. Crawford, losing the second of three major titles he won last year, bowed to Baron Gottfried von Cramm, of Germany, in a long-drawn out five-set match. The scores were 6-4, 7-9, 9-6, 7-5, 6-3.

During the rest interval after the third set of his match with Cramm on Saturday, Crawford asked for whiskey and water, a restorative commonly used. His team mates, however, poured so much liquor into the glass that Crawford's legs went "cut in two," and the champion stumbled and faltered his way through the last two sets, both of which the German star won.

In the men's doubles final yesterday the French veterans, Jean Borotra and Jacques Brugnon, ousted Crawford and his youthful team mate, Vivian McGrath, to win by 11-9, 6-3, 2-6, 4-6, 9-7. The French pair scrambled about the court to such good effect that it looked as though they would polish off the Australians in a straight sets. Crawford was losingly fatigued as a result of his losing fight in the singles on Saturday, and young McGrath was unsteady. However, after the Frenchmen had taken the first two sets, the Australians braced, squared the match and then were at match point in the fifth set, but muffed.

Another surprising reversal on Saturday saw Helen Jacobs, United States titleholder, fall on her fifth bid for the women's singles crown. Margaret "Peggy" Scriven, left-handed English star defending the title she won last year, packed too much power in her strokes for the American contender and won by scores of 7-5, 4-6, 8-1.

Borotra shared in a second title when he and Colette Rosambert defeated Elizabeth Ryan, of England, and Adrian Quist, of Australia, in the mixed doubles final by 6-2, 6-4.

Miss Ryan, a former Californian who has lived in England for many years, teamed with Mme. Rene Mathieu, of France, to defend the ladies' doubles title they won last year. Before a crowd of seven thousand the defending titleholders defeated America's No. 1 Wightman Cup doubles combination, Helen Jacobs and Sarah Paley. The scores were 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

one-sided triumphs over the Syracuse chiefs by twenty-one to seven and eleven to nothing, took firm hold on fifth place and found themselves only a game and a half back of the fourth-place Montreal Royals.

Rochester's eight to seven defeat at the hands of Buffalo coupled with Newark's even split with Baltimore tightened up the race between these two top-ranking outfits. Rochester's lead today stood at one game.

Baltimore took the opener from Newark by eight to five in ten innings when Marvin Duke passed noddy Abernathy with the bases filled and Ray Schalk muffed George Puccinelli's grounder, and the Bears came back to win the nightcap by eleven to one behind Vito Tamulis' seven-hit pitching. Abernathy clouted two home runs in the first game and George Selkirk's string of three safeties in the second encounter included a home run and a triple.

Toronto and Montreal split a double bill at Montreal before 10,659 customers. The Leafs smacked Chad Kinsley out of the box in the second inning of the first game and won by eight to four, but Montreal snared the second due by six to two.

YESTERDAY'S STARS Outstanding players in yesterday's major league games were: Frank Frisch, Cardinals; Played 2,000th major league game, facing the Pirates.

Lefty Gomez, Yankees; Limited the Athletics to seven hits and fanned seven.

Gabby Hartnett, Cubs; Hit Cincinnati pitching for eleventh homer, a double and a single.

Deb Garms, Browns; Knocked in three runs against the Indians with a single, a double and a triple.

Emil Leonard, Dodgers; Limited the Braves to nine hits and one unearned run.

Fritz Ostermueller, Red Sox; Gave the Senators eight hits for seven to two victory.

Irvine Jeffries, Phillies; Clouted two homers, knocking in three runs in triumph over the Giants.

Tommy Bridges, Tigers; Recorded seven strikeouts in beating the White Sox for sixth victory.

VAUGHAN SHOVED MEDWICK OUT OF "BIG SIX" Floyd "Arky" Vaughan, of Pittsburgh, joined the "Big Six" yesterday by putting on a hitting spurt just when Joe Medwick, of St. Louis, struck a slump. Medwick lost nine points from his average when he failed to hit, while Vaughan gained seven points by connecting twice in three times at bat. This gave him a .364 mark and last place in the sextette.

The leaders of the two leagues, Sam Leslie and Rollie Hemsley, lost one point each, but Heinie Manush equalled Vaughan's hitting stunt and gained four points.

The standing to date follows: G. A. B. R. H. P. C. Hemsley, Browns 31 111 14 46 .414

Manush, Senators 44 186 33 72 .387

WINDSOR MILLS AND CAPELTON SHARING LEAD

Paper Town Squad and Miners Scored Third Straight Victories Yesterday to Move into Tie for First Place in Eastern Townships Intermediate Baseball League.

Capelton and Windsor Mills forged to tie for front of the Eastern Townships Intermediate Baseball League yesterday by chalking up their third successive victories. The Miners sent the Bromptonville entry home on the short end of a thirteen to five count, while Windsor Mills, playing at home, downed the Sherbrooke Nationals by a score of seven to three. The second Sherbrooke contenders threw away the opportunity of creating a triple deadlock for first place when they dropped a seven to five decision to Magog in twelve innings, while Richmond handed Barnston their third straight defeat by winning the fourth scheduled fixture in Richmond by a score of ten to five.

With "Lefty" Coderre on the mound before a home crowd, Windsor Mills coasted through to an easy victory over the Nationals after assuming the lead in the first three innings. The Paper Town boys nicked Alie Morin and Emile Lemay, the visiting hurlers, for eight safeties, among which were four doubles. Lack of control, which resulted in a large number of free tickets to first being issued the home team matters, paid the way to the Nationals' second consecutive defeat.

Morin lasted five innings and then was relieved by Lemay. In his three innings on the hill Lemay was shelled for three tallies. Included in the collection of seven hits secured by the Nationals were triples by Philemon Dion and Ryger Brault and a two-bagger by Charlie Letarte. These extra-base blows, however, were so scattered as to have no effect on the scoring column. The box score credited Coderre with seven strikeouts, Lemay with a pair and Morin with one.

The score by innings was: R. H. E. Nationals 000 300 100—3 7 1

Wind. Mills 303 112 100—11 8 2

MAGOG WON OUT AFTER UP-HILL FIGHT

At the local ball park the Sherbrooke Intermediates found Magog determination harder to overcome than the actual brand of baseball played by the Textile Town aggregation. It looked like a rout when the home team tallied five times in the second inning, but thereafter they were held scoreless for ten innings. A tinge of over-confidence crept into the locals' play when they had established an apparently safe margin, and the climax came when first baseman Clark let St. Pierre's sharp grounder go through his legs in the twelfth frame. The error allowed two Magog runners to cross the plate and gave the visitors a seven to five verdict for their first victory in these starts and Sherbrooke's initial setback in a similar number of fixtures.

Camire, pitching for Sherbrooke, allowed fourteen hits against twelve permitted by his rival, Wally Ducharme. The local mound artist added sixteen strikeouts to his impressive record and should have won his game had his infield given him better support in the critical moments. Ducharme whiffed a half dozen and walked four, while Camire issued but one base on balls. Magog scored twice in the fourth chapter and shoved across the three innings which deadlocked the count in the sixth chucker.

Sherbrooke had golden opportunities to end the struggle in both the ninth and tenth cantos, but poor headwork spoiled their chances. In the third extra inning Magog filled the bases and claimed a run on a balk by Camire. The points, however, was not allowed, and the stage was set for St. Pierre to rifle a hit down the first base line to score Arnold Buzzell and Louis Lanctot with the winning runs.

Albert Turcotte and Arnold Buzzell led the fourteen-hit assault on Camire with three safeties apiece, while Clark was the only local batter capable of solving Ducharme's deliveries for more than a pair of blows.

The score by innings was: Magog 000 203 000 002—7

Sherbrooke 050 000 000 090—5

The teams lined up as follows: Magog: N. Hawley, A. Buzzell, L. Lanctot, A. Turcotte, R. St. Pierre, A. Turcotte, J. Dorey, V. Gaucher, W. Ducharme and J. St. Jacques.

Sherbrooke: C. Clark, A. Savage, J. Hall, H. Asselin, A. Briere, T. Gingues, L. Farrell, C. Pepin, C. Camire and G. Guild.

AYER'S CLIFF AND ROCK ISLAND UNDEFEATED Ayer's Cliff, June 4.—Ayer's Cliff and Rock Island today are setting the pace in their respective sections of the Stanstead County Amateur Baseball League.

On Saturday Ayer's Cliff travelled to Magog and inflicted a nine to five defeat on the Textile boys to add to the seventeen to one victory they realized over East Hatley in the opening game of the season. Albert Rexford was tossing the batters for Ayer's Cliff, while Couture and Lussier shared Magog's pitching burden, Lussier relieving Couture in the fifth inning after Ayer's Cliff had amassed a seven to two lead.

Rexford had an eleven to three edge over Couture in the strikeout column, while Couture walked four opponents against two for Rexford. The other Saturday afternoon attraction resulted in a sixteen to two triumph for Coaticook over Beebe. East Hatley was idle.

The feature game of the Sunday programme was witnessed in Rock

REGIMENT WON VERDICT FROM BEEBE EVEN

Soldiers Defeated Border Town Squad by Four to Two on Saturday to Join Drummondville Entry at Head of Eastern Townships Football Association Race.

Beebe, June 4.—The Sherbrooke Regiment jumped into a tie with Drummondville for the leadership of the Eastern Townships Football Association pennant race here on Saturday when the Soldiers romped away with a four to two victory in the opening game of the local soccer season. Under a blistering sun the two teams played a hard battle which gave the gathering of local spectators plenty of action.

Beebe drew blood after twenty minutes of play when Crook worked his way behind the Sherbrooke guards and booted a wicked shot which Harold Stoyles failed to reach. The Soldiers maintained a stiff offensive through the resulting free-off, but their best efforts were turned aside by the sparkling reminding of Kirwin. The attack, however, finally succeeded when Johnny Gardner rifled a high shot which the Beebe netminder misjudged. The remaining fifteen minutes of the first half were scoreless and the teams left the field for the rest interval with the count knotted at one-all.

Lewis Hatch leaped into the limelight during the second half. The Soldiers' centre forward took Kirwin's measure twice, once on a pass from Ernie Taylor and the second time with the assistance of Bobbie Bell, while Clint Gardner converted a pass from Russ. Foley into the visitors' fourth and concluding point. In the last few minutes of play Henderson put the homesters again in the running, but a well-knit Sherbrooke defence prevented any further scoring.

The Regiment continued the pressure in attempts to increase their margin, but Kirwin was outstanding, stopping many shots which would have evaded a less agile goalie.

The goalman handled the game. The teams lined up as follows: Sherbrooke: H. Stoyles goal, J. Kirwin, A. E. Jackson r. fb., R. Hamilton, H. Taylor l. fb., V. Denney, M. Parsons r. hb., T. Lees, J. Quinn c. hb., B. Haselton, J. Gardner l. hb., J. Anderson, C. Gardner out. r., W. Griffiths, R. Foley in. r., A. Henderson, L. Hatch centre, R. Crook, E. Taylor in. l., J. Lowther, R. Bell out. l., D. Newlands.

SPORTING NOTES CAVALCADE WON AMERICAN DERBY

Chicago, Ill., June 4.—Cavalcade, marvellous foreign-bred son of Lancelay, which has been almost unbeatable under the racing silks of Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloan, of New York, clearly demonstrated his superiority over three-year-olds with a decisive victory in the renewal of the American Derby that thrilled 25,000 at Washington Park here Saturday afternoon.

Taking on top weight and sweeping to victory with a machine-like rush in the locals' play, Cavalcade triumphed in a fashion expected of a champion. Running the mile and a quarter in 2:04, he won by one length, with Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's Discovery second and Singing Wood, racing for Mrs. John Hay Whitney's stable, third.

The result, like that in the Kentucky Derby which saw Cavalcade and Discovery in the same order at the head of a field of thirteen, was another smashing triumph for the east.

Plight, winner of the Texas Derby, saved consolation honors for the west by bringing William Sachsenmaier's colors to the end of the route in fourth place, a length back of Mrs. Whitney's Withers Stakes winner.

Six lengths intervened between Discovery and Singing Wood, the big margin more than off-setting a loss in the last few rounds in the imports carried by the two, Singing Wood shouldering 121 pounds or five less than the winner and three more than Discovery.

MRS. DARLING IS IN BEST OF HEALTH

Montreal, June 4.—On June 1, the Canadian Press carried a news despatch from Montreal stating that Mrs. B. Darling had been accidentally overcome by gas in her apartment. This information, obtained through the usual channels and issued in good faith, was incorrect. Mrs. Darling is in the best of health, and at no time suffered any such experience. The Canadian Press regrets the error and any inconvenience suffered by Mrs. Darling.

Mrs. Darling, whose maiden name was Dora Virtue, is one of Canada's best known golfers. Last year she won the Quebec women's golf championship.

Island, where Tomifobia made a glorious bid for its initial victory. After assuming a comfortable advantage, Tomifobia saw its lead vanish as Rock Island came from behind to salt the verdict away in the eighth chucker. The final score was eleven to eight in favor of Rock Island.

Stanstead was amply repaid for its journey to Way's Mills in the form of a twenty-three to eight victory. The Stanstead boys were superior to their opponents in all departments, and were never in danger of being on the short end of the final count.

WATERLOO BOY WON STANSTEAD COLLEGE RACE

Sam Porter Captured Premier Honors in Third Annual Cross-Country Race at Stanstead College on Saturday—Donald Bennett, of Inverness, Finished Second.

Stanstead, June 4.—Sam Porter, one of Waterloo's students attending Stanstead College, won the cross-country run which annually culminates athletic activities at the local educational institution. Negotiating the three and one-half mile distance in twenty-two minutes, Porter held a long lead as he reached the finish line Saturday afternoon over Donald Bennett of Inverness, who carried off second honors.

Twenty-five contenders faced the starting gun when Dr. Fred B. Smyth, of New York, lined the contestants up on the campus. The seventy-year-old chairman of World Alliance for Friendship through the Churches, formerly a baseball player of note while attending the University of Iowa, gave the boys a word of advice before he started them on the long grind which winds along the Tomifobia River as far as Crystal Lake cemetery, follows the railroad track as far as the old Stanstead station, continues up Willow Lane and concludes in front of the College.

Porter assumed the pace-setting position when the favorite, Bill Barnard, of Danville, stumbled along the railroad track and injured his knee in a fall. At the time Barnard held a five-hundred yard lead over Porter with three-quarters of a mile to go. Porter finished one hundred and fifty yards in front of Bennett to capture first honors. Sixteen of the original starting field finished the marathon.

Porter is the third winner of this classic. In 1932 Alton Cass, of Beebe, breasted the tape first, while last year Bill Amaron, of Stanstead, headed the field and set a record of twenty-one minutes.

Grade Eight won the Norman Smyth Cup offered to the team finishing with the highest number of points. The members of the winning quartette were Normal Ball, of Magog, fourth; Paul D'Aubenas, of St. Lambert, fifth; David Bindman, of Thetford Mines, ninth, and Bruce Vipond, of the Town of Mount Royal, tenth.

GOLF

CONTENDERS GATHERING FOR CLASSIC U.S. OPEN

Philadelphia, June 4.—Many contenders for the United States most prized golfing trophy — the open crown—tested their shots on the 1934 battleground today.

While waiting for Thursday's starting song of the three-day classic, the early arrivals swarmed over the Merion Cricket Club's tricky east course in practice efforts to solve the championship layout's intricate bunkers and traps.

Already three sub-par rounds have been carded in practice, with the most outstanding the sixty-seven chalked up by Paul Runyan, avocet from White Plains, N. Y. He was three under theoretical perfection.

But that was three days ago, and Runyan now is having his troubles—or, rather, his trouble, for it all seems to lie on the eighteenth hole.

In four practice rounds, the diminutive New Yorker's tee shot has failed to carry a quarry on the home hole, and has kept his pre-tourney scores well above par since his first day's sixty-seven.

Members of the triumphant American Walker Cup team, including the new British amateur king, Lawson Little, of San Francisco, are expected to arrive tomorrow.

Among other prominent contenders already getting the feel of the course are Gene Sarazen, Walter Hagen, Tommy Armour, Denny Shute and Bobby Cruickshank.

ERTIN MANES AND HARRY FOWLIS LED LENNOXVILLE EVENT

Ertn J. Manes captured the prize for the lowest net score and Harry Fowls, Jr., carried off the honors in the best gross division in the handicap sweepstake staged over the Lennoxville golf course on Saturday. Manes' handicap of twenty brought his gross card down to a net total of seventy-two, an aggregate which proved a single stroke better than G. F. Giacchi's net mark of seventy-three. W. Scott, J. M. Shoultice and R. Clarke finished with net scores of seventy-four, and in the draw Clarke won the third-place net prize.

Fowls negotiated the eighteen holes in eighty strokes to lead his nearest rivals for the gross prize by seven strokes.

Fourteen players took part in the event, the detailed scores of which follow:

Gross Hdcp. Net E. J. Manes 92 20 72

G. F. Giacchi 104 31 73

R. Clarke 110 36 74

W. Scott 98 24 74

J. M. Shoultice 106 32 74

H. Fowls, Jr. 80 5 75

R. Brooks 90 14 76

J. J. Morrin 101 24 77

S. Walker 90 11 79

R. L. Brooks 87 7 80

H. Moffatt 109 27 82

R. Anderson 105 11 87

H. W. S. Downie 98 11 87

W. Watson 114 24 90

"Well," drawled the farmer, "I reckon he's a dang sight safer than you are list now."

LABOR TROUBLE AND HIGH TAXES WORRY MARKETS

United States Company Dividends Likely to Be Severely Trimmed Between Demands of Labor and Exactions of Administration.

Toronto, June 4.—Canadian industrial stocks gained momentum on the down grade last week, again moving along under the guidance of the New York market, where much importance was attached to the growing labor unrest in the United States. Fear also appears to be widespread there that between the demands of labor and the exactions of the Washington administration, company dividends in the near future will be severely trimmed.

While industrial stock prices led the ground, Canadian mining stocks presented a sold-out appearance and the week closed with gains more prevalent than losses. Both on days of good volume and small the active mining shares resisted the pull downward exercised by the industrial markets through interlistings, which was not surprising in view of the fact that the intermediate swing has been downward for about three months.

Failure of copper to show the price improvement that had been predicted in the spring may account for the moderate weakness of such base metal leaders as Noranda and Hudson Bay. Silver shares are up only a little, although passage of the silver bill at Washington, giving the metal a more important place in the United States monetary set up, is practically assured. The market, however, lacks the moral and actual support of the speculators in metal. The speculators have been subdued by the government's proposal to levy a fifty per cent. tax on their profits.

In the industrial section the week's soft spots have been C. P. R., off $1;

Consolidated Smelters, off $5; Ford of Canada, off 75 cents; Bell Telephone, off $1.12; Steel of Canada, off 75 cents; and International Nickel, off $1.45.

Regarded from the angle of their day-to-day performance, Canadian stocks appear to rise and fall with the so-called big board in Wall Street, but a long range observation reveals the fallacy of the close up view. On May 31st, the standard statistical averages of the New York market closed at 76.3 compared with 76.6 at the close on May 31st, 1933. The big market therefore actually lost ground in the year, although it swung up to 96.9 last July and back down to 64.3 in the spring of this year.

In the same period the industrial stock index compiled by the statistical department of the Toronto Stock Exchange showed a net increase of 16.31, rising from 87.54 to 103.85. The index is based on the movements of twenty representative issues. The mining section did almost as well. Twenty gold stocks advanced in the index from 97.05 to 120.04, a net gain of 22.99, while twenty miscellaneous mines, including coppers and silvers, fell back 8.05. Thus the net rise for sixty Canadian stocks in the year was 10.02, or an average of 16.7 per cent, while ninety representative stocks of the New York board had a net loss of 3.

While markets appear feeble and brokers' revenue is getting very thin, pessimism is not so prevalent in the financial districts as might be surmised. Brokerage houses, in many cases, are arranging holiday schedules to have full staffs on the job early in July in anticipation of a revival of market activity. It is understood a number of New York houses have informed their employees there will be no holidays after the end of June. Adjournment of Congress, now expected within ten days, is counted on to produce an easier feeling in Wall Street and possibly even a disposition there to view the recently devised restrictions on stock or exchange as something less than pure vandalism.

Paris, June 4.—Emanuel Hanbauk, 79, noted French Jewish sculptor, died here Saturday. He was a Commander of the Legion of Honor.

WORLD RENOWN AIRMEN TO COMPETE IN COMING RACE

Planes of Every Description, Many of Them of Radically New Design, Built for Great Speed and Long Cruising Range, Will Be Entered in Melbourne Air Race in October.

London, June 4.—World renowned pilots will be among the flyers to leave England in the Melbourne air race in October, according to the entries which closed on Saturday with fifty-eight planes booked for the flight.

Prominent among the British entrants are Jim and Amy Mollison, Colonel James Fitzmaurice, Irish hero of the first westward Atlantic crossing, and Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, the Australian ace.

In the race there will be ships of every description, produced by practically all the leading manufacturers. Many of them will be of radically new design, built for great speed and long cruising range. Some of them will have retractable undercarriages that can be drawn up like the feet of a gull in flight. There will be countless other innovations.

All will compete for the $75,000 prize Sir McPherson Robertson, wealthy Australian, has offered to the winner in connection with the centenary celebrations of the City of Melbourne and the State of Victoria.

The planes will be started off in two groups, one for high speed machines, all of which will start together; the other for smaller craft of all types, each of which will get its special handicap, according to its speed.

Seventeen Americans, the largest group from any nation, will participate in the race. The last six to fly enter are Jacqueline Cochran, Ruth Nichols, Clyde Ganger, Roscoe Turner, Captain Lyon and Captain George Pond. Captain Pond will be accompanied by his trans-Atlantic flying mate, Cesare Sabelli.
