

EVIDENCE?: This was all police had to go on in the Wednesday morning bombing of Westmount City Hall. Even what little there is was hard come by. The bomb was planted in the rear or west end of the Hall and exploded at 12:27 a.m. One of the recovered parts was found in front of the Shaar Hashomayim Congregation some 90 yards away. The blast broke all the windows in the rear of the City Hall and several in the area. The Hall itself was not damaged and the spot where the bomb was placed against the building is not even cracked. The walls at that point are almost two feet thick and solid stone.

Les Stuart Heads Club

At the weekly meeting of the Westmount Rotary this week, Les Stuart took over the duties of president from Bill Reay.

In his final address as president, Mr. Reay thanked the members of the club who had helped him in the past months and asked the members to work even more for their new president.

Mr. Stuart said he was looking forward to his term and would do his best to serve the Rotary.

The Rotary Club of Montreal expressed its congratulations to Dr. Arnold Jones of Westmount on the recent award made to him by the Purdue Frederick Co., for his research in angiology during the year 1964-65.

Montreal rids Westmount of burglar

Career burglar Saul Sheinberg, who in the last 20 years has been an uninvited guest in some of the most luxurious residences in the west end of the island, yesterday was sent to prison for the next 11 years.

Sheinberg, 40, who listed an address on Somerled Ave. in Notre Dame de Grace, was sentenced by Judge Armand Sylvestre. Earlier he pleaded guilty to seven charges including housebreaking and illegal possession of stolen goods.

Judge Sylvestre spelled out a number of sentences ranging from six months to two years but to Sheinberg's chagrin the court specified that they be served consecutively — one after the other.

One of the charges was indirectly concerned with a $150,000 armed robbery at the Sherbrooke St. East headquarters building of the Montreal Catholic School Commission in April.

The robbery was carried out early one morning and the thieves fled after tying up the watchman and blowing open a safe.

Sheinberg's arrest came when Lieut. Steve Olynk of the Montreal Police Social Security Squad raided a suspected book-making establishment in the lower east-end several weeks after the hold-up.

Lieut. Olynk noticed that Sheinberg was trying to rid himself of something by way of one of his pant legs. The officer "frisked" Sheinberg and recovered 10 $100 bonds that turned out to be part of the loot taken from the school commission.

Westmount has best year yet

Following is a round-up of the different civic departments and their statements for the year 1964-65.

Finance

Commissioner of Finance Mr. P. M. McEntyre reports that last year was one of the best in Westmount's history.

Results reflected the progressive improvement which had been evidenced in the city's financial position over the past six years. Since 1939, Westmount's total revenues amounted to $18,536,334 and its expenditures to $18,331,383, leaving a net surplus of $204,951 for the six year period.

Actual revenue in 1964 exceeded the budget forecast by $157,292 to reach a record total of $3,855,362.

Expenditures, by comparison, were only $19,599 in excess of the forecast, totalling $3,717,669. Thus the years' operations ended with a surplus of $137,693.

Health and Welfare

The Health and Welfare department moved to new quarters in the city hall annex in 1964 and the consequent improvement in working conditions was reflected in greater efficiency and better service to the community.

Commissioner of Health and Welfare, Mr. C. P. Beaubien stated that health services provided by the City of Westmount were maintained at a high level, although expenditures only totalled $49,393.

This figure is $53,653 less than had been anticipated in the budget. Public welfare service, for which $16,210 had been budgeted, actually cost $13,594.

Light and Power

Power needs created by Westmount's redevelopment projects continued to preoccupy planners in the Light and Power department during 1964.

Commissioner D. N. Byers, QC, reported capital expenditures of $195,788 were made for acquisition of new assets and that the department realized a profit of $85,724, considerably higher than the $61,850 forecasted.

Construction of the Metro station made it necessary to abandon the main conduit line on Western avenue, east of Greene avenue. Since infeed cables to the Olivier sub-station had followed that route, the City had to construct new conduits along St. Catherine street and north on Greene avenue. Rerouting was completed at the end of May.

Increased distribution transformer costs — $46,832 in 1964 as compared with $11,936 during 1963, — provided the first concrete evidence of the load increases with which the system has now begun to cope.

Parks and Recreation

The start of renovation work in Westmount Park highlighted the department's activities during 1964, reported commissioner F. W. Gross. A total of $237,718 was

Westmount, St. Andrew's Combine

As in past years, Westmount Park Church and St. Andrew's Church will combine their services during the summer.

Beginning the first Sunday in July the services for both churches will take place in St. Andrew's and will continue at that church until the second Sunday in August.

On the second Sunday in August, the services will switch to Westmount Park Church and will be held there until September 5.

spent on the first phase of the extensive renovation program. The project in line with a plan adopted by council in 1963 will be completed in 1965 with the planting and final landscaping.

A highlight of the year was the 32nd Annual Spring Flower show which had an attendance of 16,447.

Public Works

Completion of public safety headquarters on Stanton street and the development of plans to renovate City Hall vied with the Westmount Park renovation project and the Dorchester street redevelopment as the major preoccupations of the Department of Public Works during 1964. Public works expenditures as reported by Commissioner I. S. Backler, amounted to $564,245, which was less than the $601,378 budgeted.

Reconstruction of the Police headquarters was completed in the spring of 1964. The second phase of the project, involving the fire station and construction of the city hall annex was completed in November.

Public Safety

For the department of Public Safety, the year's outstanding event was the completion of the new headquarters on Stanton street, officially inaugurated in November.

Commissioner M. L. Tucker reported the department had a satisfactory year of operation and the work of departmental personnel won wide recognition from citizens.

Criminal activity in the city showed an overall drop. While burglaries and attempted burglaries totalled 134, an increase of 13 over 1963, the incidence of all other types of crimes decreased to 327 maintaining a steady reduction from 496 in 1961. The value of stolen property was slightly higher than last year at $297,000.

CITY HALL WINDOW: The remains of a Westmount City Hall window indicates the force of a bomb that exploded there early Wednesday morning. The shock waves from the blast were so strong, windows in buildings up to 140 yards away were broken. Other than broken windows, the City Hall itself suffered no damage.

Fellowship Winners

Thirteen postgraduate fellowships in science and engineering, each valued at $3,500 annually, have been awarded to students at Canadian universities by The International Nickel Company of Canada, Limited. Since 1956, when an enlarged program was initiated, the Company's educational grants have totalled more than $8,000,000.

This phase of the Company's extensive educational-aid program was recently expanded from ten to a maximum of fifteen fellowships annually including renewal awards. The value of each fellowship was also increased from $3,000 to $3,500.

Since the commencement of Inco's fellowship program in 1951, 72 awards of this type, many of which were tenable for more than one year, have been granted for postgraduate studies.

Of the thirteen awards now announced, six are new fellowships and seven are renewals of previous awards. Each has a maximum tenure of three years and provides an annual stipend of $3,000 to the student as well as an annual supporting grant of $500 to the university to assist in defraying costs of the recipient's research work.

New fellowships this year have been awarded to: Norman H. Gray, of Westmount, Que., attending McGill University; David R. Making a Tour: The Examiner was taken on a tour of the new police station on Stanton street this week and following are a few of the very interesting facts we learned.

The tour was led by Chief Training Officer Andrew Lawson, a retired inspector, whose job it is now to see that all his men are trained with the latest equipment and by the latest methods. (A job he does very well.)

I was taken to the basement of the new building and shown a firing range.

The room is 65 feet long and has four firing booths. Each firing lane is 55 feet long and the back of the room has a lead wall to catch the bullets. Each lane is equipped with a target pulley. This is a clothesline type of affair that can be operated from the booth. You place a target on this pulley and it moves down the lane to the desired length, anywhere to ten feet for shotguns to 55 feet for rifles.

Next I was shown some of the guns used by the police in Westmount. (See picture).

The ones I was shown ranged from a .22 cal. target pistol to a F.N. semi-automatic rifle.

Every squad car carries a shotgun, I was told, and all constables carry a .38 cal. S. and W. revolver.

The tear gas gun is a 1.5 cal. weapon and comes with three types of shells. The longest shell is used for firing through doors and windows at long or close range. The second was for close range firing and a third, which is not shaped like a shell is pure tear gas and used in riots.

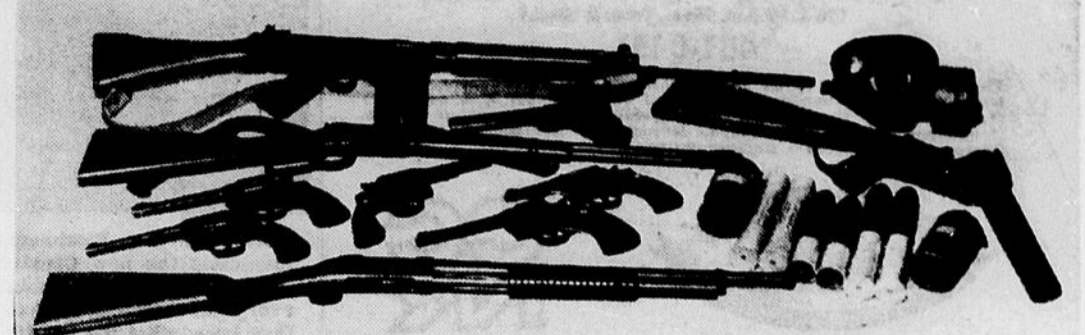

A hand bomb was displayed. It is called a "triple chaser" for the simple reason that when you separates into three bombs in the air.

The police department is also equipped with riot sticks.

Every officer and man on the force has been trained to handle all the above mentioned weapons, well, very well.

CTO Lawson explained that every man on the force has been tested many times on his ability to handle everything from a missing dog case to a mass riot, and have passed their tests pull the pin and throw it, it with high grades.

WESTMOUNT POLICE ARTILLERY: Don't ever pick a fight with the Westmount police, there's a lot more where these came from. Police here showed some of their guns to THE EXAMINER and here is a list: F.N. semiautomatic rifle, 30-30 rifle, 12 gauge shotgun, several .22 cal. revolvers and .38 cal. revolvers, a tear gas gun, and shells, gas mask, and triple chaser bomb.

Government's timid approach doesn't face facts says Hart

The government's "timid approach" to revisions of the Bank Act fails to face the facts of economic life and will not take into account the needs of small businessmen, among others, G. Arnold Hart, chairman and president of the Bank of Montreal, said in Jasper, Saturday.

Renewing earlier criticism of present draft legislation, Mr. Hart told the Investment Dealers' Association that the government is failing "to take into account the realities of the world today and the vast changes that have occurred in recent years in the structure of the Canadian financial system

TAKING AIM: Const. James Coleman of Westmount takes aim with a shotgun at a practice range in the basement of the New Police Station on Stanton street. The range is used everyday by officers and men of the Westmount police to keep their aim in shape. Once a month, policemen go to the army range at Mont St. Bruno where they practice with the larger rifles and tear gas.

WE SAY

Don't be angry; let's sympathize

WEDNESDAY morning's explosion behind City Hall poses one simple question:

Why?

If, as early surmises suggest, it is the work of "separatistes," what did or will it achieve?

Nothing positive.

It certainly won't advance the legitimate urge of French-speaking Canadians for their rightful place in the national sun, in Westmount or elsewhere.

Only a lunatic fringe could realize such acts only blot Quebec's magnificent reawakening.

Let's not be angry. Westmount's English-tongued citizens should be thankful for no loss of life or injury, regret the damage to their civic property, and sympathize with the vast majority of their fellow Quebecers to whom this sort of incident is an acute embarrassment and shocking folly.

Integrity enough in public office?

STARTLING parallels cloud possible reappointments of two West End men to public offices indirectly but vitally concerning Westmount.

Mr. Guy Favreau, M.P., has resigned as Federal justice minister. Indications are he may be given another cabinet post.

Mr. John Rowatt, M.L.C., is up for reappointment to the Montreal Protestant School Board, through which he is chairman of the Central Protestant School Board of Greater Montreal.

Formal inquiries — the Dorion commission and the local school land probe, respectively — cleared both these gentle-

FIRST MEET: More than 150 contestants took part in the first Municipal track meet on Wednesday afternoon in Westmount Park. Sponsored by the Westmount Recreation Department, these meets will take place every Wednesday during the holiday season.

This first meet, 25 years ago, consisted of 30 events.

HEIZLER CASE: Steve Heizler, 35, a native of Hungary, was ordered to voluntary statement when he appeared before Judge Marin this week. The charge was previous assault.

Heizler was charged with attacking Mrs. Geoffery Worms in her home at 370 Grosvenor Ave., on June 15.

It was alleged that he impersonated an officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police searching for German aliens.

The judge was of the opinion that there was sufficient crown evidence at the preliminary hearing to make a prima facie case.

ONE KISS COSTS $1,025: That was the week that Marlen Deitrich offered a kiss to the highest bidder at a party given by Edward G. Robinson. The kiss went for $1,025 and the whole sum was given to the International Red Cross.

men of wrong-doing.

Yet the judgment of one and the wisdom of the other were questioned.

The question for the re-appointers, Prime Minister Pearson and Premier Lesage, is the same, simple but fundamental:

Is integrity enough in public office?

INSPECTING: Westmount firemen are seen inspecting the new Charles Fraust building in Westmount. Firemen make it a point to inspect every new building so that if fire should strike they know what the building is like inside, how

Blind students graduation

The completion of the 53rd year of the Montreal Association School for the Blind at 6980 Sherbrooke street west was marked Friday by a variety of performances by blind children, including a bilingual dramatic sketch.

The school choir, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Hill, which had won third place in the recent Kiwanis Music Festival, present a number of items, and a demonstration of the Cuisenaire System of mathematics was presented by some of the pupils.

General proficiency prizes were won by Leo Bissonnette, James Senden and Christine Theoret; Typewriting by Rodrick Roy; French by Sandra Manley; Music by Charlene Webb; Braille Music Notation by Marc Baillargeon. The prizes were presented by George Brown, a director of the School, and an officer of the Protestant School Board of Greater Montreal.

Among the features of this, the only school for English-language blind children in the Province of Quebec, is the after-hours activity program, under the direction of Miss Carol Gray, who instructs the children in many activities that would come more naturally to sighted children. Progress in such social skills as eating, dressing, participation in games, swimming, bowling, skating, etc. is evaluated and reported upon.

Leslie G. Ogilvie presided at the closing exercises and was assisted by W. E. Williams, the executive director, and Mrs. Beryl Neil, the School Principal.

Military band featured at garden party

The Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps band under Captain C. A. Villeneuve presented an afternoon concert to the blind guests at the Garden Party on the grounds of the Montreal Association for the Blind at 6980 Sherbrooke street west Monday. Captain Villeneuve and his band are shortly leaving for a European tour.

The Garden Party was held as one of the social features for the blind provided by the Montreal Association for the Blind and was followed by a tea.

and the environment in which it operates."

He added, "While the legislative restrictions which apply to the banks are designed primarily to protect the public interest and to facilitate monetary management, in the circumstances of today some of the restrictions tend to work in such a way as to frustrate these very objectives.

"By inhibiting growth of the banks relative to other financial intermediaries which are not similarly subject to central control, they weaken and dilute that control. And by preventing the banks from offering a full range of services at competitive prices, they force the public to seek more expensive accommodation elsewhere," Mr. Hart stated.

Expressing disappointment in the present proposed revisions to the Bank Act, Mr. Hart said removal of the 6 per cent interest ceiling on bank lending, as strongly recommended by the Porter Commission, "would accomplish a number of important and desirable objectives."

Two shiny new busses, the property of the Montreal Boys' Association, a recent donation from the Lions Club of Montreal, are now being used by the M.B.A. affiliated Clubs and the Unity Boys' Club plan to make good use of them this summer. The first opportunity to use them was on Tuesday past when some 120 children and their parents were transported to the Granby Zoo.

COUNCILLORS VOLUNTEER:
Club members Heather Gwyne and Heather Baylis answered

last week's request for summer Councillors to assist the full-time staff with the Summer program and both have volunteered their services. Both Miss Gwyne and Miss Baylis are working toward additional points for the major club award, the Big "U".

Teacher Wins

Nineteen Protestant teachers and school administrations from across the Province, most of them from the Montreal area, have received recognition from the Protestant Board of the Order of Scholastic Merit this year.

One of the winners was a Westmount teacher, Dorothy E. King, of Westmount High School.

Christian Science Summer Schedule

It is an established custom of the Christian Science denomination to hold only one church service each Sunday during July and August. Accordingly, the Christian Science churches in Montreal, Westmount, Pointe Claire and Sherbrooke will hold Sunday morning services only.

There is no suspension of classes during the summer months in the Sunday Schools maintained by the churches of the Christian Science denomination. All children, including those of tourists and vacation travellers, are welcome as visitors in Christian Science Sunday Schools provided they have not reached the age of 20. The Christian Science churches in Montreal and Pointe Claire maintain nurseries for the care of infants whose parents wish to attend the church service.

All over the world, people are demanding more freedom, but how many really understand what it is? This question will be discussed on the Christian Science radio program "The Bible Speaks to You" broadcast over station CKVL (dial 850) next Sunday morning at 9:45.

TWO MINUTES

WITH THE BIBLE
 BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES.
 BERIAN BIBLE SOCIETY
 CHICAGO 35, ILLINOIS

In 1909 Dr. G. I. Scofield wrote the following passage in the Introduction to the Scofield Reference Bible:

"The last fifty years have witnessed an intensity and breadth of interest in Bible study unprecedented in the history of the Christian Church. Never before have so many reverent, learned and spiritual men brought to the study of the Scriptures minds so free from merely controversial motive. A new and vast exegetical and expository literature has been created . . ."

Even the years that followed the writing of this passage produced many great Bible expositors, but their number has since dwindled fast, until today evangelistic-revival campaigns have all but replaced the great, thrilling Bible conferences of a few decades ago.

Regardless of the popularity of such campaigns, however, the Church will not make true progress, either in spiritual power or in the number of genuine converts, until it once again places due emphasis on the Word of God, both in private study and in public ministry.

Cheese cake
'A la Mode'

By Millicent Hickmore

MOST GOOD COOKS and housewives are familiar with Royal pudding and pie fillings and now Standard Brands has come up with a delightful packaged no-bake dessert — Royal Cheese Cake. This delicious concoction was seen and sampled at a press Royal Buffet Luncheon at the Ritz Carlton Garden on Tuesday.

Doris Clark, women's editor for CJAD, demonstrated the method of the packaged cheese cake filling and topped it with luscious strawberries. Each carton contains two packets — one with the cheese cake filling, the other with Graham cracker crumbs — and after mixing, the cheese cake needs refrigeration for only one hour.

Mrs. Claire Friefeld, dietitian, and the mother of three children, said the versatility of cheese cake depended on your imagination, fresh, frozen or candied fruits and peel, spices, chocolate and nuts can all be added in a variety of combinations to both the crust and filling for any flavor desired. Pureed strawberries, raspberries or blueberries are other most suitable additions. Or any one of these could be spooned over the cheese cake prior to serving.

Cheese cake recipes with many variations are used all over the world as the following resume depicts.

Ever since culinary history has been recorded, people have eaten cheese cake. The ancient Greeks earliest recorded recipe for Cheese Cake appears in the world's oldest cookbook, published in 228 AD.

Cheese cake became one of the most prized specialties of the times in Ancient Rome.

Early English cookbooks and "receipts" handed down through the centuries describe cheese cake tarts. These tarts, were called "Maids of Honor" named for the maids of honor at the court of Elizabeth I. They have become such an important part of English cookery that the Lord Mayor of London picked them as the dessert with which to regale Queen Elizabeth II at the city luncheon in Guildhall, honoring her coronation.

The Russians have Pashka, a cream cheese and sour cream cake filled with raisins and candied fruit or peel. Pashka is traditional for Easter and bears the sign of the cross or "XB", initials which mean "Christ is Risen."

The French learned of cheese cake from the Russians. Czar Alexander when visiting in Paris always brought along his chef — who taught the French chefs how to make Pashka. They changed it into the shape of a heart and named it Coeur à la Crème.

The Balkan countries also have their versions of cheese cake. Jewish immigrants who came to America increased the demand for cheese cake, and now two restaurants in New York are famous for their Jewish-American cheese cake.

Canadians are becoming more and more conscious of this delectable dessert, many of the high class restaurants find it a popular dessert — and now the housewife can prepare cheese cake with her own variation in less time than it takes to prepare an ordinary dessert.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE, in association with the Montreal Festivals Society, will present an Evening of Strauss with the Montreal Symphony Orchestra on August 24 in the Grande Salle of the Place des Arts. Above are members of the program committee, from left, Mrs. John Dinsmore, chairman, Mrs. Terrence Egan and Mrs. M. Struan Ritchie. The director will be Eduard Strauss.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Vail formerly of Westmount, and now residing in Rawdon, P.Q., celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on June 2, 1965. A reception was held on that evening for relatives and friends in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church, Cote St. Luc road, Montreal — of which they have been members throughout their married life and before. Mr. Vail has been a Deacon of the Church for 48 years and still maintains an active interest therein. Mrs. H. R. Boyce, a sister of Mrs. Vail, and Mrs. Ross Wiens were the hostesses. Seven of the original nine of the wedding party were present — amongst whom was the officiating Clergyman, Rev. Dr. Miles F. McCutcheon who, during the course of the evening, paid a humorous and also somewhat moving tribute to the couple being honored. The Master of ceremonies was Mr. Ross Wiens who kept things moving along in an interesting and lively manner.

The out-of-town relatives and friends came from Halifax, Moncton, Glens Falls, N.Y., Sherbrooke, Ottawa and Rawdon. Altogether the guests numbered some 230.

Greetings were received and read from Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson, Opposition Leader, Mr. John Diefenbaker, Premier Jean Lesage, Mayor Tucker of Westmount, Mayor Vital Perreault of Rawdon, and Mayor Jean Drapeau of Montreal, also from Mr. Hector (Toe) Blake of the Canadian Hockey Team. Valleyfield Regatta set for July 17-18

The 1965 version of the annual Valleyfield International Regatta, scheduled for July 17 and 18, is expected to be the most important running of the annual speedboat classic, in its 27 year history, according to an announcement today by Charlemagne Chatel, of Valleyfield, President of the Regatta.

Key to the increased activity at this year's Regatta, according to Chatel, is an agreement with Expo 67 to present the 1967 World Regatta as a part of Canada's World Exhibition program. It is said to be the first sport event to be officially recognized by Expo and Canada's Centennial Commission.

Although the Valleyfield Regatta is already sanctioned by both the Canadian Boating Federation and the American Power Boat Association, says Chatel, the Expo agreement plus the consideration being given by the A.P.B.A. to name the Regatta as the official 1967 North American championship event, have resulted in a crash program to make the Valleyfield event second to none in the world. The North American Championship has never been held outside the U.S.A.

As a part of the new program this year, the Club Nautique de Valleyfield, organizers of the annual international classic, have already announced a record number of 12 trophies to be placed in competition, a new high of $3700 in cash purses and a broad extension of classes on the program, to cover every conceivable world class of competitive power boat, inboard or outboard.

36 races in all

In all a total of 20 races are scheduled continuously from 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 17, and 16 races from 1:00 p.m. on Sunday.

The new classes and the expanded program are expected to bring a record number of competitors to Valleyfield this year.

Among the new classes added to this year's program, the SK or Ski Boat class is most likely to prove a crowd pleaser. These powerful boats, designed to tow several water skiers at high speeds, should provide a new dimension of speed and thrills for the over 50,000 persons normally on hand during the Sunday afternoon heats, where they are scheduled at 2:00 p.m. and 2:45 p.m.

Still most popular of all the events with the crowd, however, is expected to be the 266 class, fastest of all the entries on the two day program. Speeds of up to 80 m.p.h. over the surface of St. Francis Bay are not uncommon as these "prima donnas" of power racing, literally skim over the 1 1/2 mile Valleyfield course. They will be competing for the top position O'Keefe Trophy and the $175 purse per heat. 266 class races are scheduled for 3:30 and 4:00 Sunday afternoon.

A further part of the Regatta expansion program, includes new modern facilities at the Club Nautique regatta headquarters and within the Valleyfield area itself construction of extended new motor facilities to accommodate competitors and spectators alike.

Presiding over the social side of Regatta weekend will be the Regatta Queen, 23 year old, brown eyed, black haired Rachel Mercier, of Valleyfield.

Queen Rachel will have plenty to do with 3 dances and literally dozens of special receptions and shows set for the July 17-18 weekend.

In 1964, La Belle Province held the national record for traffic deaths with 1,581 persons killed on highways, an increase of more than 20% over the previous year. If this trend continues, about 2,000 persons will lose their lives on road accidents this year, according to the Province of Quebec Safety League.

These appalling figures plead for the necessity of the best possible training for would-be drivers, if only to survive.

The Institute of Safety Education of the Province of Quebec Safety League offers training through another course in driver education.

Consisting of 27 1/2 hours of classroom instruction and six hours behind the wheel of a dual-controlled car, this course is designed for teenagers of 16 years and up, as well as for adults. The course will be held at the Institute, located at 5566 Upper Lachine road, Montreal 28, five consecutive Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. commencing July 10.

This course is placed under the direction of a qualified high school teacher and is approved by the Motor Vehicle Bureau of the Province of Quebec.

For information, call 482-9110.

Baseball Programme

The City of Westmount Recreation Department will be running a baseball programme for boys between the ages of 11 and 13.

Registration is open to residents in that category and all boys who are interested may enroll by calling the Recreation Department — 932-4293.

Instruction will be under the direction of Mr. Colin MacGregor and will commence on Saturday, July 3rd, at 9:30 a.m. at the Westmount Athletic Grounds.

Local Sharp-Shooter In National Event

The Canadian trapshooting championship will be held at the Calgary Gun Club, Calgary, Alberta, July 1 to 4.

Calgary Gun Club officials under president Jack Simpson are completing final arrangements for what is expected to be a record breaking meet. Reports from across the country indicate that most of the nation's top shooters from both East and West will be in attendance.

When the championship shoot is held in the west attendance from Eastern Canada suffers because of the travelling involved. This year Eastern representation will be very good. Shooters who have indicated they will make the trip include Canadian Trapshooting Association president Harry Willis of Westmount and Montrealers Ido Evangelisti, Gilles Barrette, Charlie Paul and Phil Dumas. Ontario will be represented by Doug Norton, Gil Henderson, Miss Frances Searle and Ron and Ricky McGarry.

The first Canadian trapshooting championships were held at the Calgary Gun Club in 1956 and participation has grown steadily ever since.

The 1965 championships open Thursday, July 1st. This is preliminary day and the grounds and registration will open at 10 a.m. Shooting program for the day will be 100 — 16 yard singles targets and 25 pair of doubles.

Championship competitions starts at 9 a.m. Friday with the 16 yard class championships on 100 birds, and the first half of the handicap championships on 100 targets. Saturday competitors will fire the first half of the singles championships on 100 birds and the 100-bird doubles event. Sunday, final day of the meet, the second half of the singles and handicap championships will be fired with 100 targets in each event.

Canadian champions in 1964 were: 16 yard singles, Doug Norton, Cooksville, Ont; handicap, John Emmett, Thorold, Ont., doubles, Al Beck, Hamilton, Ont.; high-over-all, Ed Wladichuk, Ancaster, Ont.; high all-round, Ed Wladichuk; Lady singles champion, Mrs. Vera Holdsworth, Calgary, Alta.; junior singles, John Emmett, Thorold, Ont., and sub-junior, Ron McGarry, Niagara Falls, Ont.

THE MAYOR'S REPORT

C. H. DRURY

The year 1964 brought the City of Westmount to the threshold of the most significant developments in its history. City Council was called upon to consider implementation of projects which will ultimately affect the well-being of every resident.

provision of adequate open spaces.

Redevelopment of obsolescent areas is not only desirable but essential to meet the City's fiscal and economic requirements. Results achieved since adoption of the new zoning by-law in March, 1963, indicate the importance of the program. Since that time, old buildings valued in the City's rolls at $370,000, have been replaced by new buildings valued at approximately $9,340,000. — an increase of 8% of the City's total assessed valuation, which in tax revenue amounted to approximately $178,000.

Other highlights of the year within Westmount included the completion of the Police, Fire and City Hall Annex on Stanton Street, the first phase of the renovation of Westmount Park, a number of important public works projects and construction of new electrical distribution lines to keep pace with the City's growing power needs.

Westmount's municipal institutions, both cultural and recreational, experienced an active year. The Westmount Public Library had one of the most successful years in its history with membership up to 17,884 and circulation of books totalling 271,674.

In the field of intermunicipal relations, the City of Westmount participated actively in the establishment of the Intermunicipal Coordinating Council, consisting of the majority of suburban municipalities on the Island of Montreal. Council also submitted an important brief to the study commission of intermunicipal problems on the Island of Montreal, better known as the Blier Commission, established early in 1964 by the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

In emphasizing the desire of Westmount citizens to retain control over their local administration, Council was equally conscious of its responsibilities to the metropolitan community. It called for establishment of a regional government structure which would enable all municipalities in the Greater Montreal area to coordinate efforts and to share the costs of regional services. Council strongly urged the Quebec Government to create impartial appeal machinery to serve as a court of last resort in the event of intermunicipal differences.

Council's mandate was solidified by broad support from the citizens of Westmount. In this connection, the efforts of the Westmount Municipal Association proved of singular service to the community.

During the year, the City gave a practical demonstration of its desire to cooperate with its neighbors when it offered to contribute to the operating deficit of the Métro, an offer reflecting Council's long-standing view that Westmount had a duty to pay its fair share.

The year marked the conclusion of my term of office as mayor and also the end of the terms of Aldermen F. W. Gross and Peter M. McEntyre. On their behalf and on behalf of the other members of Council, Aldermen I. S. Backler, Claude Beaubien, D. N. Byers, Q.C., and M. L. Tucker, as well as in my own name, I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to the citizens of Westmount for their assistance, support and cooperation. The staff also deserves Council's gratitude and that of the entire City for its dedication and proven sense of responsibility.

Finally, may I tender sincere thanks to my colleagues on Council whose purposeful attitude and valuable counsel helped make the year's achievements possible.

The future holds much in store for our municipality both in terms of internal developments and of its role within the metropolitan community. Although approaching the 91st anniversary of its original incorporation, Westmount demonstrates that it is a vibrant progressive community attuned to the times and conscious of its responsibilities.
