THE WATERLOO ADVERTISER SAYS:
A few days ago, Mr. L. Paradis, of this place, got the honor of being named as the index finger of his right hand. In a few hours his hand began to swell, and so painful that the physician was obliged to keep him under the influence of morphia almost continually for several days. His hand was soon swollen to four times its ordinary size, and began to mortify. Dr. Ducharme lanced it, and took out the virus, since when Mr. Paradis has commenced to recover, though he will probably lose his finger, if not the whole hand. Our advice to boys with picaresque tastes would be, let bull points alone.
