VALUABLE MUSIC BOOKS.

Musical Literature.

Musical Literature, at present, must be restricted to a narration of incidents connected with the career of great composers and distinguished performers. There is really nothing else to be written, except perhaps a good volume of musical history, and this again, at its 50th page, must arrive at Bach and Handel, since their birth, marked the creative era in music.

In the books below enumerated, is concentrated nearly all that is valuable in the history of musical events for a century or more, ending at a very recent period.

All are handsomely bound. None have tedious narratives. Interest is sustained to the end.

Every Student of Music should Read them.

They should be in every Town Library.

They should, in fact, be in all Libraries of any extent.

LIFE OF BEETHOVEN. Schindler and Moscheles. 2.00

BEETHOVEN'S LETTERS. 1790–1826. 2.00

"Beethoven, in Music, is quite as great as Milton in Poetry."—Transcript.

LIFE OF MENDELSSOHN. Lampadius. 1.75

Edited by W. L. Gage, and contains supplementary sketches by Benedict, Chorley, Rellstab, Bayard Taylor, Welles and Dwight.

"Still the best. The only Life of real value."—Dwight's Journal of Music.

LIFE OF ROSSINI. H. Sutherland Edwards. 1.75

"Eminently readable and interesting."—Orchestra.

LIFE OF CHOPIN. F. Liszt. 1.50

"We wish the book would be bought by every amateur."—Musical Review.

MENDELSSOHN'S LETTERS. With catalogue of his works. Lady Wallace. 1.75

"There is not a page in this delightful volume which would not yield matter of pleasure and instruction."—Athenaeum.

"We wish our Religious Societies would call out a few letters, and scatter them broadcast."—Atlantic.

MOZART. A Romantic Biography Heribert Rau. 1.75

"Has the charm of a fascinating narrative, and the value of a genuine memoir."—Transcript.

MOZART'S LETTERS. 1769–1791. Lady Wallace, 2 vols., each. 1.75

"Delightful volumes."—Evening Gazette.

POLKO'S MUSICAL SKETCHES. Elise Polko. 1.75

"Charming little book, from the pen of one of the most felicitous of writers."—Home Journal.

POLKO'S REMINISCENCES OF MENDELSSOHN. 1.75

"The world cannot know too much of Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy."—Chicago Tribune.
Elise Polko was one of Mendelssohn's pupils.

LIFE OF SCHUMANN. Wasielewski. 1.75

An energetic, struggling, laborious, successful life.

LIFE OF VON WEBER. Max Weber. 2 Vols. each 1.75

Max was the son of the great composer, and of course had abundant and reliable material for his narration.

LIFE OF HANDEL. Victor Schoelcher. 2.00

Cannot fail to interest.

EHLERT'S LETTERS ON MUSIC. 1.50

"Topics selected from the most attractive questions of modern culture."—N. Y. Review.

LIFE AND LETTERS OF GOTTSCHALK. Hensel. 1.50

Interesting as the experience of an American Composer and Pianist.

HISTORY OF MUSIC in the Form of Lectures. Friedrich Louis Ritter. 1.50

A sketch of the Rise and Progress of Music, in a most agreeable form.

HASTINGS' MUSICAL TASTE. 1.75

GARDNER'S MUSIC OF NATURE. 5.00

MASON'S MUSICAL LETTERS. 1.75

CATHOLIC MUSIC.

For the Catholic Service.

THE CANTATE. By Anthony Werner.
Late Organist and Director at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston.

Book 1st. Morning Service, $2.25

Book 2nd. Evening Service, 2.25

THE MEMORARE. By Anthony Werner. 2.75
Six Masses, a Requiem, Mass, Vespers, and Miscellaneous Pieces.
Highly recommended.

THE OFFERTORIUM. By W. O. Fiske.
Cloth, $2.75; Boards, $2.50

A Complete Collection of Music for Sunday and Holiday Services. Masses, Vespers, Anthems, Hymns for Offertory, Benedictions, and all special occasions.
Here will be found a very great variety of music, and all of it, it is believed, sufficiently easy for ordinary choirs.

MASSES.
All that are of note, by Mozart, Hayden and other composers of world-wide reputation.

GLEE & CHORUS BOOKS.

NATIONAL CHORUS BOOK. $1.50
Sacred and secular choruses.

CHORUS WREATH. 1.50
Sacred and secular choruses.

GREETING. By L. O. Emerson. 1.50
New Glees, Choruses and Four-part Songs.

BARNBY'S EIGHT FOUR-PART SONGS.
Mixed Voices. 50

ARION. Four-part Songs for Male Voices.
Complete, 4.00
Separate Vocal Parts, each, 1.00
Set of Vocal Parts, 3.50
Piano Score, 1.50

OPERA CHORUS BOOKS. 2.50

FORTY-FIVE OPERA CHORUSES. E. Bruce. 3.00

THE YOUNG MEN'S SINGING BOOK.
G. F. Root, assisted by Dr. Lowell Mason. 2.00

NEW YORK GLEE AND CHORUS BOOK. W. B. Bradbury. 2.00

WORLD'S PEACE JUBILEE MUSIC. 75
Sacred and Secular Choruses.

The above books will furnish the best music, in great plenty and variety, for all musical gatherings.

CARMINA COLLEGENSIA. H. K. Waite. 2.25

"Old Noah, he did build an ark."

And since that day no jollier book of songs has been put together than this, made up of contributions from every college in the land. "Carmina Collegensia" means "College Songs," and college songs must needs be classical. And so they are, in spite of their pervading nonsense. This should be a familiar book in every parlor, as nothing lightens up the dullness of a company more than a short course of Upidee and any of the two or three hundred others. The book, on the last pages, has a condensed history of the more prominent American colleges, which is quite convenient for reference.

CANTATAS.

SACRED.

As the Hart Pants. Mendelssohn. Pa. 40; Bds, 50
Hymn of Praise. " " 60; " 75
Ninety-Eighth Psalm. " " 60; " 75
Three splendid works, universally considered as standards of musical excellence.

Woman of Samaria. Wm. Sterndale Bennett. Paper 1.00; B'ds. 1.25; Cloth, 1.50
Modestly assuming the title of Cantata, it may as properly be termed an easy Oratorio, and has been received with marked favor.

Forty-Sixth Psalm. Dudley Buck. Pap. 80; Bds. 1.00
A truly classical composition.

Belshazzar. J. A. Butterfield. Paper, 1.00; Bds, 1.25
A sacred musical drama, the main incidents of which are taken from the Bible account of the fall of Babylon. A well-arranged, musical, interesting production.

Belshazzar's Feast; or, the Fall of Babylon. Dramatic Cantata in 10 scenes. G. F. Root. 50
The same general subject as the preceding, but a different arrangement of everything.

Daniel; or the Captivity and Restoration. In 3 parts. By G. F. Root and W. B. Bradbury. 50

Esther; or, The Beautiful Queen. " 50
This, with the three Cantatas previously named, are just what is wanted for practice and recreation by Choirs and Societies that are not yet qualified to attack regular Oratorio Music.

Secular Cantatas.

The May Queen. A Pastoral Cantata. Wm. Sterndale Bennett, Paper, 1.00; Cloth, 1.25
A beautiful composition, by a highly esteemed composer.

The Pic-Nic. ..... J. R. Thomas. 1.00
A spirited affair. The Gathering, the Departure the Arrival, Sports and Games, The Storm, Breaking Away, the Farewell, and the Return, all "narrated" in lively poetry, and accompanied by the best of music. For mixed voices, but there is also an edition arranged for Soprano and Alto only.

A Spring Holiday. ..... C. C. Converse. 75
In 3 parts, and designed especially for Seminaries, &c., where it will add much interest to exhibitions and concerts.

The Haymakers ..... G. F. Root. 1.00
This genial work renews its popularity with "each grass," and will do so for many seasons, and for many reasons, among which are its pretty, familiar, sylvan character; the good, smooth, easy-going music, and the ease with which the appropriate "machinery" can be obtained. Scythes, rakes, &c., are found everywhere, and a Haymaker's costume is not expensive.

The Pilgrim Fathers. ..... G. F. Root. 50
Will be a useful and agreeable piece to sing on Forefathers' Day or "thereabouts."

The Flower Queen. ..... G. F. Root. 75
Quite celebrated, and has many smooth-going choruses and solos, especially fitted for Seminaries.

The Culprit Fay. ..... J. L. Ensign. 1.00
Most delicate, sweet and poetic Cantata. The finer your taste the better you will like it.

Fairy Bridal. ..... J. H. Hewitt. 50
Subject from "Midsummer Nights' Dream." Very sweet and graceful.

Quarrel among the Flowers ..... Schoeller. 35

Twin Sisters ..... H. S. Saroni. 50
Well composed Cantatas with simple but beautiful subjects.

Musical Enthusiast ..... J. H. Hewitt. 50
The "Enthusiast" agrees to give his daughter to the "best singer," and the songs and choruses evoked by the contest make up the short but very musical drama.

Winter Evenings' Entertainment. Cull. Paper, 1.00; Cloth, 1.25
A regular rustic opera, as good for winter as the Haymakers is for summer.

The above Cantatas range from the easiest to the most difficult, but each one in its place is good and entertaining. May be procured of any dealer.

A Catalogue describing the above and about 1,000 other books published by Ditson and Co., sent free on application. Also all books mailed, post-paid, for retail price.
