GAMBETTA'S CAMPAIGN.
PARIS, August 9.—Articles by Paul Agate and Lauré, both of whom are well known to be closely interested with Gambetta, have been published, the former strenuously supporting Gambetta's programme, and the latter vehemently attacking Premier Ferry, who is described as the enemy of liberty and supporter of the present State of France.

THE CANADIAN VICTORY AT SHORE-BURNNESS.
LONDON, August 9.—Since the commencement of the national artillery meeting at Shoreburness, a week ago, a cable message was received by Lt. Col. Cowell, commanding the Canadian contingent from the Marquis of Lorne, instructing him to offer a prize for a special Canadian shot at repository exercise. It was accepted, and in the afternoon the Canadian detachment tied with the Third Kent. The Canadians made the shift in the incredibly short time of a few seconds over six minutes. This afternoon the tie was decided, the Canadians winning by three seconds, a mark of great admiration by style of performance. The trophy is an exceedingly handsome centre piece, representing a gun on a Canadian design.

THE FIVE REGAL TOUR.

The Cathedral, College, convent and town buildings were decorated with arches across the streets, and a cheering throng in French and replied to by the Governor. Afterwards the party visited Emerson and Mennonite settlements by special train, returning at six o'clock. The party left by train this morning for the West. On the departure of the train the artillery fired a salute and the crowd gave three hearty cheers.

PACIFIC RAILWAY LANDS.
WINNIPEG, Man., August 9.—Additional particulars have been received, respecting the business transacted by the Canada Pacific Railway Directors at their meeting here. The prices at which lands are to be sold occupied the Directors' attention. Actual sale of land will be encouraged by selling at $2.50 an acre, with 50 per cent rebate on all land brought under cultivation within three years. A higher price will be charged non-settlers, to discourage speculators and farmers. The lands are to be sold at all important points along the Company's line, for which grounds will be issued at normal rates to the parties building them. The land commissioners are organizing a Land Department of the road. It will open this month, and sales of land will begin.

THE PENIAN CONVENTION.

Another Split in the Ranks—O'Donovan Rossa telegraphed for The Infernal release, the Freeman's Press says.

CHICAGO, August 9.—The Penian Convention of the Irish delegates to the Clan-na-Gael Council in the Palmer House took a new turn at the evening session, and was now in the Penian committee. It was so far that the president and temporary secretary resigned. In their place were elected Edward O'Meara chairman, and William Hoare of Massachusetts, secretary. Captain McKay, of Philadelphia, made a long, conciliatory speech, intended to bring about peace between the factions, and for a time with good effect, but it was all lost when some terrible looking and deadly dynamite informal machines were brought in for exhibition by the extremists, and the whole discussion, from which Saturday's and today's troubles arose, was repeated. One who was the author of the "Pena" sensation, was present, and spoke in favor of the informal machines. Haynes, O'Brien and others expressed themselves as disgusted at the numerous turn affairs, and taking, as they, with their adherents, got up and left the room, declaring their intention of withdrawing entirely from the convention. They declared that they would not even meet with the extremists, never be used in their cause or have the endorsement of Irish agitators. These withdrawals were so numerous as to leave the Council in control of the O'Donovan Rossa faction, who were jubilant and cheered at the departing delegates. The majority then caused telegrams to be sent immediately to O'Donovan Rossa at New York, and James Kennedy, of Providence, inviting them to come to Chicago, and they never be used in their cause or have the endorsement of Irish agitators. Patrick Crowe arrived yesterday. In connection with the Irish convales, he says $20,000 of the original $250,000 fund, which was squandered, was lent him by one of the managers; $20,000 was used building a torpedo boat, which never worked, but was profitable to the ring, $20,000 going ostensibly to start an anti-fur movement in England, and the disposition of the rest being known only to Heaven and the insiders. Crowe and his fellow-patriots, last year, organized a movement of United Irishmen, and started a pen fund, which has amounted to $100,000, and has been devoted to harassing England and preparing for the total extinction of her greatness. Crowe intimates that the Penian Convention is keeping up the Scrimishing Fund than in any more remote interest was obtained from him.

ARCTIC TRAVEL.
Four Hundred Vessels Impounded in the Ice—Prospects of the Exploring Expedition of the "Tern" and "Tiger" are bright.

St. John's, Nfld., August 9.—By an arrival last night from the coast of Labrador, your correspondent has received a communication from the captain of the "Tern," a small schooner, which along the coast in the service of the Government of Newfoundland. The information forwarded by Captain Delaney is the following:—Since the vessel left St. John's, it has been in a heavy fog, and has been unable to make headway. It has been unable to make headway, and has been unable to make headway. It has been unable to make headway, and has been unable to make headway.

"Kite" broke through the ice, pressing against the land only after a continuous ramming of one of the smaller icebergs during two successive hours. When leaving Battle Harbor, the party proceeded on the shore of the harbor, and the weather is described as a desolate wintry coldness down to the 29th ult. The ice was so thick that the vessel was unable to make headway, and on several days previously the atmosphere and water were so bitterly and intensely cold as to obstruct the fishermen very materially in the fishery operations. Taking into consideration, the one written at Nain and published of the 29th of July, and the other at Battle Harbor, separated, too, in point of time by an interval of fourteen days, we cannot but reasonably conclude that a condition of things almost the very opposite of that now described obtains in the region at present by the Arctic explorers. The prevailing phenomena observed down to within one bare week of the present date, and as far south as the fifty-second parallel of north latitude, while on the other hand, northward of Nain and below Cape Chudiberg ice-fields form the exception even as early as the first week of June, and the atmosphere was of genial summer character. The novel facts are chiefly valuable in so far as they bear upon the delusion of the "Proteus," namely, the search for and possible success of the Arctic relief yacht "Proteus," and the successful landing of the Greely party at the distant shores of Lady Franklin Bay. Assuredly all present and coincident circumstances were most auspicious and point to a successful termination of the expedition across the straits of the "Proteus." The clearing of Baffin Bay through the dis-embarking channel of Davis Strait, thus waiting all loose and detached circumlocution in the southward in the basin of the North Atlantic Ocean, brightens the prospect that new life through the waters that traverse the Arctic region, and sweep in an easterly direction from Lancaster Sound and into Baffin Bay.

THE RETROCESSION OF THE TRANSVAAL.
LONDON, August 9.—The formal retrocession of the Transvaal to the Boers took place yesterday. The Boers have been in possession of the Transvaal since the establishment of the Republic of South Africa. The officers of this latest born family of the republic have already been chosen, have taken the oath of office and have begun the discharge of their duties. This proclamation has been made public, the chiefs dispersed quietly and returned to their homes. All is quiet now in South Africa, and the new Republic begins its career under very favorable circumstances.

THE IRISH TROUBLES.

John Dillon's Release Quite Unexpected—Land League Meeting.

DUBLIN, August 9.—Speaking of the release of John Dillon, Mr. Dillon says:—"We trust this act of justice is as the dawn of the day of liberty to Michael Davitt, and to all John Dillon's fellow prisoners. No tenant could celebrate a Land Bill while the advocate of the tenanting in goal. Mr. Dillon was arrested nominally for a speech at a Land League meeting, but really for the determined agitation against the tyranny which the Government itself has had to acknowledge. A correspondent saw Mr. Dillon to-day. While ready to speak on personal matters, he did not wish to say anything of a political nature. Mr. Dillon stated that he got off well for the first two months, but in the last month his health had given way and caused great uneasiness to his friends. Dr. Kenny and the prison physician both recommended his discharge a week ago, but on Saturday Mr. Dillon was informed that the first three months of his confinement had expired and that his term had been extended for three months longer. Dr. Kenny visited him on Sunday afternoon, but then had no idea that his patient would be released for several weeks. The correspondent is informed that a congratulatory meeting of the League was to have been held on the 10th of August, but it was declined. It is not likely that he will speak at the League meeting to-morrow. If he does speak he will be brief. He will remain in a complete and total isolation, but he declined it. It is not likely that he will speak at the League meeting to-morrow. If he does speak he will be brief. He will remain in a complete and total isolation, but he declined it.

Mr. Dillon created almost as much excitement in Dublin as his arrest on the 3rd of May last. No reason, whatever, has been given for his release, but it is believed that Mr. Dillon is not in a state of health as was at first reported. The statement that he had been released on this ground turns out to be a mere guess. The imprisoned Mr. Dillon is at his evening meal, and the Government of Kilmahoney visited him and informed him that he was no longer under restraint. In less than 30 minutes Mr. Dillon was driving home. As he passed up Sackville street he did not even stop at the Land League's offices, although there were lights in the windows. The news of the release was accidentally made public by a reporter who called at an outdoor-theatre, and the result was that the amendment in form was accepted by the Government by 255 to 100. The minority was composed of Parnellites, Home Rulers and Radicals.

The discussion declared he would not agree to the amendment of the House of Lords or relate to Ulster tenant right in any shape or form.

Mr. Brand, speaker, who hitherto has been one of the principal seceders, support of the Government. After a lengthy discussion the amendment of the House of Lords was rejected by 272 to 145, the Home Rulers voting in a body with the majority.

THE WINNIPPEG EXCURSION.
WINNIPPEG, MAN., August 9.—The Great Western pleasure excursion party arrived from Toronto and Hamilton Saturday night, and over 100 passengers. The Grand Trunk Express from Montreal and Ottawa, in charge of Mr. A. H. Taylor, arrived yesterday morning with 250 excursionists, among whom were many leading merchants of Montreal and Mayor Mackintosh, Hon. Wm. McDougall, Capt. McNaughton and other prominent citizens of Ottawa. They had a splendid trip with four Pullmans, four coaches and one baggage van.

PRESIDENT GARFIELD.

A Great and Constant Sufferer—Mrs. Edson's Opinion—The Belief.

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Mrs. Edson says the President is a great and constant sufferer, and at present is exceedingly feeble. He talks very little. She regards his condition as serious. It is said the President has become tired of all the doctors. He is very much debilitated, and now looks worse than ever. After they had been married, and when his wife and nurse sat at his bedside, he said, "I am glad to be among friends again. They hurt and cut me to suit themselves." Dr. Boynton says the President was not excessively weakened by yesterday's operation.

Mr. Vice-President Cullax at the White House this afternoon carried away with him what he called a good evidence of the President's general condition. It was the President's autograph which Dr. Bliss secured during one of his waking hours. The President was resting, and less than a pen and asked to show how he could write his name. He wrote it full and free, and his hand scarcely trembled. Dr. Bliss allowed Mr. Cullax to take the autograph as a keepsake.

Official bulletin—The President has been very early during the day, and has continued to take the nourishment allowed without gasping, and the disturbance of pus from the wound is quite abundant, and it is evident that a thorough draining has been secured by yesterday's operation. The degree of fever this afternoon differs little from that of yesterday, Pulse, 108; temperature, 101.9; respiration, 19.

Midnight—The President's pulse is below 100, he is still sleeping and no dangerous symptoms have arisen.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.
The Lords' Amendments to the Land Bill.

LONDON, August 9.—The Duke of Argyll's amendment to the Land Bill, excluding from the right of free sale tenancies on which permanent improvements have been made by the landlord, was accepted by the Government with an amendment that the improvements must have been substantially maintained. Mr. Parnell wished to amend the clause still further, that an out-of-the-way condition, but it was not credited until the reporters inquired at Mr. Dillon's house and found him in bed. In answer to inquiries he stated that his release was unexpected, and he had not the slightest expectation of his imprisonment being so suddenly curtailed.

At a meeting of the Land League to-day, Dublin, the Duke of Argyll, who said they should be thankful that Dillon was not killed in prison. The Land Bill was nothing to them. The League should continue to resist landlordism.

WAZOOLA, Mass., March 7, 1880.
MR. H. R. STEVENS—I wish to inform you what Vegetine has done for me. I have been troubled with dyspepsia for many years, and have been a great sufferer. I seem to be perfectly free from this humor, and can recommend it to every one. I don't need it now, but I feel it is more to me than gold and I feel it will prove a blessing to others as it has to me.

Yours most respectfully,
—MRS. DAVID CLARK.

Her parents informed me that it had done her more good than any other medicine, and she is now a healthy and happy woman.

Yours respectfully,
—J. BENTLEY, M.D.
