Many At Church For Xmas Pageant

Shawville United church was well filled Christmas night when 18 young people assisted by the choir of the church presented the Christmas pageant, "The Messiah's Birth". Through pantomime drama and costumes the Christmas story was given most beautifully.

The scene was laid in the courtyard of the Bethlehem inn crowded to capacity. The two chief characters were the inn-keeper, taken by Everett McDowell, and his wife by Beulah Cotie. Other young men taking part were Philip Hodgins, Russell Wilson, Billy Hodgins, Neil McDowell, Clare Strutt, Bert Howard, Hilliard Connelly, Richard Kingdon and Irwin Hayes and the women's parts were taken by Faye Smart, Dorothy Hodgins, Roberta Dagg, Jean Stark, Shirley Sharpe, Doris Hayes, Eunice Strutt, Madelon Hayes and Gwyneth Armstrong. A solo was sung by Jean Stark.

Dr. A. F. Fokes, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. G. Lester through illness, led the opening devotions, and he and Miss Mary McDowell, helped behind the scenes. An offering was taken, the proceeds of which is going as the young people's share to the Missionary fund. The choir was led by Miss Kay Woodley with Mrs. Edgar Hodgins at the electric organ.

Organize Hockey For The Pontiac

The annual organization meeting of Pontiac Hockey League was held at the Bryson Lodge Hotel, Bryson.

Delegates attending were: L. McKechnie, Quyon; B. Allen, Shawville; C. Bowie, H. Th... Campbell's Bay; Rev. J. N. Klatt, Fort Coulonge; H. Routliffe, Amedee Poisson, Bryson.

Howard Routliffe was named president, and Frank McDonnell, Bryson, secretary.

The Pontiac League this year will seek recognition as an Intermediate Class "B" organization The Ward Cup, along with the Routliffe-Poisson Trophy, will be at stake. A committee was named to draw up a schedule of games, the series to begin early in January.

Pupils At Bay Present Concert

Pupils of the Campbell's Bay Protestant Intermediate School held a rousing "Variety Concert" in the Town Hall Wednesday, December 17.

The program introduced by Asa M. Smith, the chairman, consisted of short plays, solos, duets, recitations and choir singing. It gave about two and a quarter hours entertainment.

The program was under the direction of the principal, A. F. Crumney, and the teachers of the school. The musical director was Mrs. Cora M. Robinson, and the musical assistants were Joan Carey and Sandra Graham. Assistant directors of dramatics were Rita Robinson and Evangeline Smith. The usherettes were Vera Moorehead, Joan Wilson, Gail Letts, Gail Campbell, Dorothy Brown, Jean McTiernan and Norma Lunam.

The choir consisting of fifty voices sang carols and choruses on two occasions and two action songs, the Little Wooden Soldiers and the Song of the Snowflakes were received by the audience. Two other outstanding items were:

A girls chorus consisting of eight Grade VIII and IX girls: Connie Campbell, Evangeline Smith, Gayle Campbell, Joan Carey, Marilyn Corrigan, Rita Robinson, Dianne Fraser and Coral Renshaw; a Playlet "Welcome Happy New Year", by grade III and IV.

The audience consisted of approximately three hundred and seventy-five people not counting the school pupils. It was thought that this was the largest crowd ever seen in that hall.

Proceeds will go toward buying sports equipment for the school.

Many From Here Take Short Course

The annual Christmas Short Course at Macdonald College, which ended Wednesday, December 31, was attended by several from this district, most of the visits sponsored by local farm forums.

The course program, geared to the needs of rural people active in community life, endeavored to show how adult education techniques may be applied to improve the quality of and participation in group meetings and recreation. Talks, discussions, practical demonstrations and recreation with the short course members taking an active part in all phases made up the five day course.

Attending from here were Graham Connelly and Neil McDowell, Seventh Line Forum; Boyd McCagg, Austin No. 2; Keith Dagg, Clarendon Station.

Who Will Be It?

Thanks to the generosity of local merchants and the organizing ability of Mrs. Kathleen Sutfel, retiring superintendent of the Pontiac Community Hospital, it will be just like Christmas for the first baby born in the hospital in 1953.

Awaiting Master or Miss Pontiac of 1953 is just about everything a child needs to start life. Donations include: Shawville 5c to St Store, baby bottles; Dean and Merritt, baby gift; Langford's case of baby food; Fraser's Men's Wear, $5 gift certificate; Hobb's Corner Store, baby box; W. A. Home Bakery, $3 in baking; Shawville Bakery, Christening cake; Palmer's Grocery, baby gift;

Edna Russell, Bristol and Joyce and Joan Telford.

Friends Entertain Mr. and Mrs. Young

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Young and their two sons, Bob and Fred Young, gathered at the Forrest Inn, Bryson, to wish the family 'bon voyage' on their departure to Chelmsford, Ont., where they will take up residence.

Mr. Young, while living in Bryson has held a position with the New Calumet Mines during the past five years and has now accepted a position as Master Mechanic with Ontario Pyrites Co. Ltd. in the development of their large body of ore containing copper, lead, zinc, gold and silver on their property in the Sudbury basin not far from Sudbury.

A coffee table and a purse were presented and the good wishes of the gathering were expressed by Emmett Johnston, past president Mill and Mine Union Local 880.

The Municipal Council of Bryson, headed by Mayor J. C. Poisson, also presented Mr. Young with an office desk in recognition of his valuable assistance in the installation of the Water and Fire Protection system now in use in Bryson. Mr. Young, in a few well chosen words, expressed their surprise and thanks to their many friends.

To save time in peeling potatoes, peel only a thin strip around the potato lengthwise. When these are cooked, the remaining peel will come off easily. Skins will come off much more quickly from apples if you dip them in hot water just before peeling. Peeled apples will not turn brown if you sprinkle them with lemon juice or place them in cold water to which a pinch of salt has been added.
