Conference On Suez Sets Up Committee To Complete Plans

LONDON — (AP) — The Suez conference set up a panel of experts today to complete plans for an international association designed to give the world's maritime powers a share in running the Suez Canal.

The working party, formed at a 55-minute morning meeting of conference delegates, remained behind at Lancaster House to prepare its report for the fourth full conference session this afternoon.

The working group presumably will try to reconcile the plan for the canal users' association put forward by the Western Big Three with the objections and varied views expressed by other delegations.

In advance of the third session of the second London conference called to deal with Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal Co., the Western Big Three foreign ministers arranged a strategy session today to map their plans for winning support from as many of the other 15 delegates as possible.

State Secretary Dulles Wednesday outlined a six-point Western Big Three plan calling for establishment of a users' operating staff to work with Egypt on the handling of traffic through the canal. The staff, headed by a maritime expert, would include pilots to guide ships of member countries through the channel, and would collect dues and share the income with Egypt.

The staff head could supervise the detouring of ships around Africa if the user countries should decide to by-pass the canal, Dulles said.

The American secretary made a strong appeal for support from all 18 conference countries, urging them to band together until a settlement is reached with Egypt.

Positions of the conference delegates are not yet altogether clear but it appeared today that the proposal has the backing of at least nine of them. These include five of the biggest users of the waterway — Britain, France, the United States, Italy and Norway. Others supporting the plan are Australia, New Zealand, the Netherlands and West Germany.

Five countries — Iran, Pakistan, Denmark, Sweden and Spain — have advocated taking the dispute with Egypt to the United Nations at once, but by this morning only Pakistan had definitely put itself in opposition to the association plan.

Japan, Ethiopia, Portugal and Turkey were uncommitted so far.

The plan outlined by Dulles envisaged a small governing board to develop long-term alternatives to the Suez, including the use of big super-tankers to make the trip around Africa, and the construction of new oil pipelines to Mediterranean terminals if necessary.

World News In Brief

WINDSOR, Ont. — (AP) — The general council of the United Church of Canada Wednesday approved plans to increase minimum salaries of ministers in aid-receiving charges by $200 during the next two years.

The council, holding its 17th biennial conference here, announced Saturday that the minimum had been raised this year to $3,000 from $2,800 in 1954.

DENVER. — (AP) — A marriage license was obtained Wednesday by Sharon Kay Ritchie, Miss America of 1956, and Don Cherry, singer and golfer. They will be married Saturday by Dr. Val Wilson, president of Colorado Woman's College, where Miss Ritchie was a freshman student before her selection as Miss America last year.

WINDSOR, Ont. — (CP) — The United Church of Canada's general council Wednesday night formally objected to the principle of capital punishment, but agreed it should be retained until a better alternative method of dealing with murderers is found. In a two-hour debate, the council called for the federal government to try to develop an alternative method as quickly as possible.

LOS ANGELES. — (AP) — A store clerk was hit in the back with a steel-tipped hunting arrow shot from a crossbow Wednesday night, and is in critical condition. The 16-inch arrow came whistling through an open rear door of the store and struck William E. Allen, 20, below the shoulder blade. The broad, barbed tip passed through his body and protruded from his chest. Police found a steel crossbow, cocked and loaded with another arrow, lying behind a hedge across an alley from the rear of the store.

VIENNA, Austria. — (Reuters) — A new "crime" was reported from behind the Iron Curtain Wednesday—sweeping up dirt with a newspaper which carried pictures of top Communist leaders. The culprit, a Polish naval cadet, was brought before this captain and charged with "insulting Communist personalities," according to a Polish youth newspaper, Szandar Mlodziech. It said the cadet was expelled and thrown into jail.

BERLIN — (Reuters) — Princess Grace of Monaco has "spoiled the business" of hairdressers throughout Western Europe, West Berlin hairdressers said in an outline here of latest hair fashions. They said that many women now grow their hair longer after the style of Princess Grace's following pictures published of her wedding.

OKLAHOMA CITY. — (AP) — A pilot used a highway northwest of Oklahoma City to get his light plane into the air and created a problem for the county attorney's office Wednesday, Carroll Freeman, the county attorney, said he spent considerable time thumbing through state laws before finding a suitable charge to file against plane owner John P. Paddock. The owner will be charged with permitting the operation of an over-width vehicle on the highway.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — High American officials are reported determined to find a permanent alternative to use of the Suez Canal, regardless of the outcome of the current bitter struggle over its control.

In their view, Western countries have relied too heavily on the Suez shortcut even though it was recognized as a fragile line ever since Britain evacuated Egypt in 1953.

New oil pipelines now must be seriously considered, they say, along with bigger and faster tankers to haul needed oil from the Middle East without using the canal.

These alternatives may involve the spending of big sums of money by oil companies and private shippers which have a financial stake in this Middle East commerce.

The Eisenhower administration appears willing, officials say, to give financial encouragement for such spending on national security grounds. It would be dangerous, they say, to be caught ever again in the position where interruption of Suez traffic could threaten almost immediate economic crisis for the European allies.

NEW YORK. — (AP) — A shadowy figure in the rackets-ridden garment industry was seized Wednesday in the acid-blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel. He is Theodore Rij, 43, the target of a country-wide FBI manhunt.

Rij was described as a henchman of John (Johnny Dio) Dioguardi, alleged ringleader in the April 5 acid attack on the newspaperman. Police quoted Rij as saying he met Riesel about a year ago in a restaurant on 52nd Street.

The husky, florid-faced Rij was arrested by New York City detectives, Frank O'Sullivan and Edward Cavanagh. Both knew Rij by sight.

Although Rij was described by the FBI as extremely dangerous, he surrendered meekly at gunpoint. He had $29 in his pockets.

He was the eighth man arrested in connection with the assault that cost Riesel his sight. The acid was hurled into the syndicated columnist's face shortly after he left a Broadway restaurant.

The actual attacker of Riesel was said to have been Abraham Telvi, a 22-year-old hoodlum who was found slain on the lower East Side July 28.

NEW YORK. — (AP) — A tiny Indian from Colombia, who may be the oldest man in the world, came here Wednesday to let scientists try to find out if he actually is 167 years old as some persons have estimated.

Signalling Victory — Premier W. A. C. Bennett had plenty of reason for the broad smile after his Social Credit government was swept back into power in the British Columbia election yesterday. The government was assured a majority at least 10 seats higher than after the last election in 1953. Premier Bennett's campaign theme was "Progress, Not Politics." (CP)

Cypriots Demonstrate Against Hanging Of Three Terrorists

NICOSIA, Cyprus. — (Reuters) — Police today dispersed crowds in Nicosia and Kyrenia demonstrating against the execution Friday of three Greek Cypriot terrorists.

Greek Cypriots shuttered their stores and thousands of workers went on strike in various parts of this British island colony to protest the hangings, scheduled for dawn at Nicosia's central prison.

Barbed wire barricades ringed the prison area and a curfew was clamped on Nicosia.

The condemned men—Stelios Mavromatis, 23, and Michael Koutsotas and Andreas Panayides, both 22—told their weeping parents Wednesday they would die at dawn Friday.

Mavromatis was given the death penalty for shooting at two British airmen and Koutsotas and Panayides for killing a British corporal.

Persons living around the Nicosia prison reported that during the night hundreds of prisoners shouted and screamed anti-British slogans and "long live Enosis (union with Greece)."

Nicosia streets were deserted because of the vehicle curfew. A "mourning strike" closed all but food shops in Limassol, the island's second largest city, and in the resort town of Kyrenia.

Bennett Government Increases Majority By At Least Ten

VICTORIA — (AP) — Social Credit stormed back into office in the British Columbia provincial election Wednesday, boosting its majority and defeating the candidacies of three opposition party leaders.

With only Vancouver East riding to be heard from, the Social Credit held 38 of the 52 House seats. The CCF had 10, Liberals 2 and Labor, 1.

The government party gobbled up two of the four new legislature seats at stake and took the lead in the other two. It took seats away from the CCF Opposition party, the Liberals and the Progressive Conservatives.

Of the opposition party leaders, only CCF chief Robert Strachan managed to obtain a seat. He was re-elected in the Vancouver Island constituency of Cowichan-Newcastle, defeating Social Credit and Liberal candidates.

Arthur Laing, 52-year-old leader of the Liberal party, lost his seat in Vancouver-Point Grey, a three-member riding which was swept by Social Credit. He had served only one term in the legislature.

Deane Finlayson, at 36 the youngest party leader in British Columbia, was defeated in his attempt to become Progressive Conservative member for North Vancouver, one of the new two-member ridings where Social Credit took the extra seat. The other was Delta.

The Labor-Progressive (Communist) chief, Nigel Morgan, was defeated in Vancouver Centre where Social Credit re-elected both the sitting members.

Premier Bennett and all members of his cabinet were re-elected. The premier was an early victory in Okanagan South. He later told a crowd of supporters that the campaign was "the dirtiest in British Columbia's history."

Opposition CCF leader Strachan said he was disappointed when the election results and expressed hope that Premier Bennett "will learn to accept criticism when it is offered without acting like a big kid and resorting to smear and ridicule."

R. E. Sommers, former lands minister, was re-elected Social Credit member for Rossland-Trail. He is suing Vancouver lawyer David Sturdy for slander because of accusations the barrister made against him before a royal commission on forestry last December.

Social Credit increased its share of the popular vote sharply compared with the first count in the last election, June 9, 1953, the alternative voting system was used and proportional representation applied in multiple-member constituencies.

All the other parties fared worse than last time in the popular vote, particularly the CCF and the Progressive Conservatives. Both the CCF and Liberal parties will have a lower representation in the legislature even though membership has been increased by four members.

Polls were open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. PDT. It was the west coast province's third election in four years.

Five years ago Social Credit did not win a seat in the House. Today it stands unchallenged among B.C. political parties with the most secure mandate it has obtained in three election victories.

This was the party standing compared with the 1953 election result.

SC	38	28
CCF	10	14
Lib.	2	4

In Vancouver East, Harold Thayer of the CCF party was engaged in a nip-and-tuck race with Frederick Sharp, Social Credit. The CCF held both seats in the last House and Wednesday it re-elected Arthur J. Turner to one of them.

Social Credit increased its share of the popular vote to 46 per cent from 38 in 1953, when it was elected with a working majority following a year of minority government.

The vote appeared likely to be a record, topping the previous high of 768,537 in 1952. With 89 per cent of the vote tabulated, the total stood at 772,740.

The Canadian Press reported the re-election of the government at 9:21 p.m. PDT, one hour and 21 minutes after polls closed.

The triumphant premier told supporters that Social Credit will make a big play for British Columbia's seats in the next federal election, entering candidates for all of them.

CHALK RIVER, Ont. — (AP) — The first visit by Communist diplomats to Canada's atomic energy plant here Wednesday produced some hard feelings in a group of Canadian photographers refused permission to take pictures of the tour.

Earlier the Communists, the photographers and some 400 others, including Ontario Premier Frost and Trade Minister Howe, attended the sod-turning ceremony for the first atomic power plant in Canada.

That ceremony was at the site of the experimental power plant on the Ottawa River 20 miles north of this town about 130 miles northwest of Ottawa. Both Premier Frost and Mr. Howe, the sod-turners, said the ceremony marked a significant point in Canada's power development program.

The ceremony was held in a tent during a pounding rainstorm. Then most of the entourage moved back here for a look at two atomic reactors in the plant of Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd., crown company running federal atomic enterprises.

On this tour were Russian Ambassador Dmitri S. Chuvahin, Czechoslovak Minister Bedrich Hruska and Yugoslav Ambassador Obrad M. Cicmil, along with 19 other diplomats from Ottawa and 250 members of the Toronto board of trade.

The visitors broke up into groups of about 20 each, a scientist conducting each group, and spent about two hours looking at NRX, code name for Canada's famed experimental reactor for peaceful purposes. Mr. Chuvahin, who had "no statements" to make, said he had never seen any of Russia's atomic energy reactors.

He showed great interest, however, in both the NRX and the new $50,000,000 NRU reactor expected in operation by the end of the year.

The photographers, meanwhile, were showing great interest in photographing the Communists on their first tour of Canada's atomic energy plant. Officials of AEC said, however, that the camera-men — newspaper, motion picture and CBC television — were not invited to visit the plant here and they refused to let them in with their cameras.

The irate photographers protested vigorously, saying they were being treated unfairly, but were unable to sway AEC officials.

None of the equipment seen by the visitors, including the three Communists, was on the secret list.

CHICAGO. — (AP) — Some 25,000 workers in 36 Swift and Co. meat packing plants in 35 American cities went on strike today in a dispute over wages and a union shop.

Picket lines formed at several of the plants immediately after the midnight deadline passed and as negotiators still conferred in a last-minute effort to avert the walkout. Pickets were ordered on a "round-the-clock" schedule.

Glass Of Beer Like Rattlesnake Says UC Paper

WINNIPEG. — (AP) — A glass of beer is like a rattlesnake, says a pamphlet issued here Wednesday by the United Church's Manitoba conference local option committee.

"The slimy thing has fangs." The eight-page pamphlet, called Some Questions and Answers, has been brought out in connection with the coming liquor referendum in Manitoba.

The pamphlet says a glass of beer can "strike and the poison will be harmful."

"Indeed, for countless multitudes it has proved fatal. As he finds his way back to the beginning of his troubles, the alcoholic says, 'it all began in a friendly glass of beer.'"

Crayons To Detect War Gas

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. — (AP) — Development of "chemical crayons" for detecting certain poisonous war gases — making the gases, in effect, "draw their own portraits" — was announced today by the United States Army Chemical Corps.

The crayons may also have peacetime applications in detecting fumes in industrial plants and in the atmosphere, it was reported.

A mark is made with one of the crayons on paper, wood, stone or printed surface. If the mark changes to a certain color there's war gas in the air, an army scientist reported in a paper prepared for the national meeting of the American Chemical Society.

Chemist Arnold Prostak of the army chemical center said the crayons could "simply and easily detect" the presence in air of extremely small amounts of phosgene, hydrogen cyanide, Lewisite and cyanogen — "gases that have been used or prepared for use as war gases."

"The detector crayon for phosgene, for example, will detect as little as eight parts per billion of phosgene in the air by turning a vivid red within one minute. This is an extremely small quantity, many times less than is ordinarily considered dangerous. In higher concentrations of gas the color formation is almost instantaneous."

The crayons are made by mixing previously known sensitive chemical "detector" reagents with suitable fillers and binders, and then compressing the mixture.

The marks they make on paper or other surface are white or light in color — but these will turn to red, green, or blue in the presence of relatively small amounts of different gases.

Deputy Postmaster-General Announces Early Retirement

W. J. Turnbull, Deputy Postmaster General, declared last night that he would retire from public service next April 1. He made the announcement to a gathering of the Canadian Postal Employees' Association who are here on a four day convention.

Mr. Turnbull said, "You've heard the story that I am quitting next year. I am. Don't think that I am quitting because I think its too tough or that I have been quarreling."

"I don't think that a man who got up to the top should hold on to his job to rob another man of a promotion. There always ought to be a better man to succeed you."

During his address to the delegates, Mr. Turnbull criticized modern business attitudes and mentioned some of the "sore spots" he met in his dealings with the association.

"Some think you should hold back the men underneath you. I didn't go on that principle. I believed that if every body moved up, I would too."

In another criticism, he noted "I don't really believe that the way to happiness or satisfaction or the way to personal interest is really created by always having more by giving less. I don't think that just getting more and more is necessarily the best course."

"I am not one to hold up that there's going to be a war with the Communists or a shooting war but there's the danger of their taking away production and commercial fields. We're getting a bit soft. We are trying to sell ideas and we exaggerate."

He said there was a danger in overrating your own ideas because "you begin to believe in your own sales talk."

"Because we are working ourselves up into a frenzy, and I am talking to you as Canadians," he said, "we are getting to the point where work is distasteful."

Mr. Turnbull pointed out that very few of us can do without work. He said that there was a need for a spirit of play in work.

"The idea that work is attractive — that idea is important," he added.

"What is a necessity," he said, "is to realize that when you signed up for a job that you have a responsibility to give that job the best you can. The result you'll get the best out of the job you had."

He said that post office employees were doing an excellent job and that production was higher now than at any other time in the post office history.

But he added, "I don't think you're suffering because of that fact. I don't think, by and large, that you're being pushed that much."

Turning his criticisms to the Postal Association itself, Mr. Turnbull said "We have a little tendency towards name-calling and when it gets into print, it creates a bad impression."

Mr. Turnbull's remark that there was a postal employees bargaining group was greeted with loud denials from the delegates.

"Oh yes," he said, "you have a Civil Service Commission that is made of civil servants like yourself that want an increase, shorter hours—just as you want. What better deal can you get than from men who are taken from your own ranks?"

But he did suggest some reforms in the commission.

"I think that the Civil Service Commission is not independent enough because they are civil servants, including the top, and because they have not been replaced in the last 10 years, they have a little tendency to want to please the boss."

Further, he said, "What I find right and proper is that we have some kind of tribunal, some court of appeal."

In his closing remarks, Mr. Turnbull told the delegates that they should want the good of the country as well as their

Kiwanis Club Is Sponsor Of Kids Day Show

Youngsters all across the North American Continent will have a special treat of one sort of another in store for them this Saturday when Kiwanis Clubs across the country will observe their annual Kids' Day.

Locally, scores of youngsters are expected to turn out for Sherbrooke's Kids' Day program which will include a special hour and a half long movie at the Granada Theatre.

Scheduled to commence at 9:30 Saturday morning, the movie will consist of several cartoons and sports shorts. There is no admission charged and doors will be open at 8:30, with Kiwanis members on hand to conduct the youngsters.

The event is under the chairmanship of Ron Jobel, who expects as many as 1,000 children to turn out.

Express Worker Seriously Hurt Crossing Street

A 62-year-old CPR express employee received multiple injuries last night when struck by a car on the Aylmer bridge, King St. East.

Charles Ingham, of 165 Alexander St. was rushed to the Sherbrooke Hospital by Duranleau and Jalbert Ambulance about one o'clock this morning, after being hit by a car driven by Ernest Pelletier, 3091 Galt St. West.

Ingham was crossing the road on the bridge when he was hit by the west-bound car. He was taken to hospital suffering from shock, a broken leg and injured ribs.

Three Appear On Impaired Driving Count

Two Sherbrooke men will probably think twice from now on before driving while under the influence of alcohol.

One man, who appeared before Judge Richard Crepeau yesterday morning at Municipal Court received a fine of $50 and costs and had his permit revoked for 12 months. The second man appeared this morning and received the same fine but had his permit revoked for only three months.

A third person arrested while driving with his faculties impaired had his choice of $20 and costs or a month in jail. He chose the latter.

Roxton Man Loses Feet In Accident

GRANBY, Que.—Gilbert Brodeur of Roxton Pond suffered the loss of both feet Tuesday in a corn-cutting machine while helping a neighbor put fodder into a silo.

Mr. Brodeur picked up some fodder near the machine and tried to stamp it into the hopper. His feet were caught by the blades.

Mr. Howard Baker, of Brewster, New York, is spending a few days in the vicinity, visiting friends in Abercorn and Frelighsburg.

Optimists Hold Inter-club Meet At Lennoxville

The Lennoxville and Waterville Optimist Clubs joined in a mixed inter-club meeting at Elmwood Hotel with President Bert Keenan in the chair.

Guests for the evening were President Meredith Barter and twelve Waterville Optimists, and their wives. Equally welcomed were wives of the Lennoxville members. Guest speaker for the evening was W. S. Richardson of the Dominion Experimental Farm.

Mr. Richardson gave an account of the development of the experimental farm system throughout Canada. He stated that the first farm was opened in 1886 at Ottawa and at the present time there are 32 branch farms, two forest nursery stations, 20 experimental sub-stations and 232 illustration stations.

The main work done on the 750-acre Lennoxville farm, Mr. Richardson pointed out, was concerned with animal husbandry, field husbandry and field crops.

Wes Nichol introduced the guest speaker who was thanked by Dr. H. G. Way.

Seated at the head table were President Bert Keenan and Mrs. Keenan, Mr. Richardson and Mrs. Richardson, and Mr. M. and Mrs. Barter of Waterville.

After the banquet of the Optimists and guests danced to the piano music of Ed Styles of the Waterville club.

Ed Bryant On International Y's Men's Body

Ed Bryant, member of the local Y's Men's Club has been selected by the International Association of Y's Men to act on the International Nomination Committee to elect officers for the ensuing year. This announcement was made at the first fall meeting of the Y's Men's club, held last night in the Magog Hotel.

Mr. Bryant, who is former District Governor, is one of ten club members throughout the world chosen for the position. He was appointed by Ed Miller, International president.

Agenda of last night's meeting was confined to plans for the forthcoming term. It was announced that the North Eastern Regional Conference would be held from Oct. 5 to 7 in Torrington, Conn.

Since this was the first official meeting following close of the boys' camp at Shore Acres, a special report was given concerning the annual project, which was this year under the direction of camp director, Sam Abbott. A successful summer was reported with 67 boys attending the camp. Two new cabins had been constructed by club members prior to the season opening.

Guests at the meeting were Mae Cathcart of Sherbrooke and former club member, Mel Porter, now posted with the RCAF in Chatham, N. B.

Appeal Court Delays Decision On Lowther Conviction Appeal

MONTREAL — The Quebec Court of Appeals took under advisement Wednesday an appeal by Geoffrey Lowther of Magog, Que., convicted of the murder of Gilles Murray in September, 1955.

Paul Emile Brazeau and Pierre Beaudry, of Sherbrooke, Que., acting on behalf of Lowther, said the trial judge had illegally set aside the claim of provocation made by the defence and threats by Murray had showed that Lowther "feared for his life."

The defence also contended Lowther was in a "condition of shock" when the crime was committed and doctors had established that he was not responsible for his acts.

The Crown said it was a case of "premeditated murder."

Murray was shot while he was tending bar at a golf club near Magog. Lowther surrendered to police.

The defence said it had been established beyond doubt that "Lowther was in constant fear of his life" and added he had been shot in the leg by Murray more than a year before the crime.

Mr. Brazeau said Lowther had asked for police protection and Murray had been required to sign a peace bond.

Roland Dugre, Sherbrooke Crown prosecutor, said the crime had been planned by Lowther and he knew what he was doing when it was committed.

He said claims of provocation should not be considered because the wounding had happened more than a year and a half before the slaying.

Textile Industry Seen Leading Field For Applying Technological Progress

From the technological point of view, the textile industry in Canada offers one of the greatest fields, Dr. L. J. Sheps, vice-president of Trilon Chemicals Ltd., Montreal, told the Eastern Townships Textile Association last night at its opening 1956-57 meeting.

Dr. Sheps was addressing the group on "The Importance of Textile Technical Associations." The Association, formed last year, has scheduled a series of monthly meetings during which top speakers will address the group.

Here the technical associations must continue to study and consider processes and equipment and bring the results of their deliberations to industry, declared Dr. Sheps.

"These associations," he said, "must continue to show the value and importance of the scientist in the mill and of textile scientific studies. They must show industry that knowledge to be of value must be universal and if we are to take we must give."

Dr. Sheps also explained to the gathering the formation of a textile association and what is expected of the executive and members as well.

A textile technical association is formed when the employee and employer can give his time and ability to discuss present and future problems and work toward the betterment of the industry. They are part and parcel of industrial progress.

The modern world has taken a completely new view of such groups as compared with the outlook in earlier days. Dr. Sheps said that Artisan groups formed in the centuries which preceded the 20th, had a tendency to work among themselves and thus keep all the information which could be of any help within their circle. Today, he declared, such an association works for the dissemination of knowledge.

Those who are interested in the aims and objectives of an association are usually the ones who are admitted to membership and activities are kept in close limits to obtain maximum benefits. There should be no vying between groups who through intellectual and practical interests should work toward improving industry.

Any association should be careful in the choice of their executive, stated Dr. Sheps, because they will be responsible for the advancement of the association. The executive body should understand its purpose which is to get to the goal and plan for the following stages. They must not make any expedient decisions.

In closing, Dr. Sheps said the responsibility of the technician is to introduce the best and most modern ideas to industry. In quoting a poet, Dr. Sheps said the lines could apply equally well to a scientist:

"A poet has no right to play fast and loose with his genius for it belongs to the Almighty and the world in the coming generation."

A True Canadian

Senator Adelard Godbout, whose death occurred Tuesday evening under tragic circumstances, was a man whose contribution toward the preservation of Canadian unity during the days of the Second World War was second to none. Assuming the post of Premier of the Province of Quebec at a most critical time in the history of the country, he threw his political future to the winds and embarked upon a policy which he felt essential for the preservation of the country.

In the field of strictly provincial affairs, he followed a policy of advancement and reform which did not meet with too much favor among an important element in the province at that time. He pioneered a bill for free and compulsory education, he pressed forward with the measure that extended to the women of this province the same rights of suffrage already enjoyed by their sisters in the other parts of the Dominion. He enacted many other items of legislation which were not too generally favored by the voters but which he felt were essential if Quebec were to keep its place within the Dominion.

Perhaps no one realized more than he the political implications of his actions and probably he was as little surprised as anyone when his party was thrown out of office at the end of its first term. But in going down to defeat, he could still look back at a record of accomplishment and be secure in his knowledge that he had carried out his duty to the best of his beliefs — regardless of his personal political popularity.

Despite his active career in the field of politics, Mr. Godbout was at heart a lover of the soil. Born on a lower St. Lawrence farm, he was educated in the scientific phases of agriculture and for many years, before entering politics, pursued the career of an agronomer. On his removal from the scene of active politics, he again turned to farming, this time associating himself with the Eastern Townships by the purchase of a large farm near Frelighsburg, at which he suffered the accident which was to cause his untimely death.

While one of the showplaces of the district, this was a farmer's farm, designed and operated as an agricultural enterprise and not as a hobby.

As political careers go, his active campaigning covering barely twenty years, his was a short one but it left an undeniable mark in the story of his country and his province.

Canada is truly poorer because a greater number of men of his political calibre do not enter public life.

Discrepancy

Interesting little discrepancies sometimes crop up in the most unexpected places. The Toronto Globe and Mail recently pointed one out editorially.

Speaking in Toronto to the National Union of Public Service Employees, David Lewis, national chairman of the CCF, referred to racial intolerance in the United States and was quoted as follows:

"Still closer to home we read only today of some insane individual in Hamilton who made crackpot threats against the life of a Negro unless he withdrew his children from school. We of the Western World must learn to handle these ever-recurring problems and to live with them. And the Canadian labor movement can play an important role in bringing this about."

Mr. Lewis was referring to the experience of an employee of the Steel Company of Canada who encountered at the plant a hangman's noose with a note addressed to him, warning him not to send his children to a white school. The note on the face of it was ridiculous since there was no other school to which he could send his children.

The statement of Mr. Lewis seems fair enough and, in fact, most of us will strongly support his position. But over in Hamilton at about the same time another speaker, William Lissou, international representative of Local 1005, United Steelworkers of America (to which the Negro belonged) had this to offer:

"It is up to the company, not the union to investigate this incident. It is obviously not the function of the union to find fault with an employee. As long as he pays his union dues and keeps in line with union policy he can hang anybody he wants."
Judge for yourself.

This And That...

This has been a sad week for the Province of Quebec and particularly the Eastern Townships. Sen. John Hackett was no sooner laid to rest than it was learned of the death of Sen. Adelard Godbout. The loss to community and country has been severe.

A Windsor Mills resident reports the results of a fairly wide personal survey that was conducted there recently. It seems that among a large number of births in the English-speaking population the past year, the ratio has been 3.8 boys to one girl. The pollster wonders just what it could be attributed to — the location, the rich odor, working conditions at the Canada Paper Company, or just a good local recipe.

Sherbrooke is playing host this week to the national convention of the Canadian Postal Employees' Association. We bid you welcome, ladies and gentlemen, and trust you will enjoy your stay in the Queen City of the Eastern Townships.

Education Holds The Key

(Brandon Sun)

All play and no work or organized activity can not only make a teen-age youth a dull boy, but can also get him into a lot of trouble. This is a situation in which many youths are likely to find themselves if they quit collegiate before acquiring their junior or preferably, their senior matriculation standing. Immature, untrained, only partly educated they find it hard to obtain a job and even harder to hold one. Their plight is a serious one for themselves and for the community.

It has been proven that youngsters who drop out of school tend disproportionately to become drifters and loafers; their earning power, even if they manage to get and keep a job, is very greatly diminished. Many of them cost the city a great deal of money through delinquency and other difficulties brought on by immaturity and irresponsibility.

Business men of Brandon can contribute much to this problem by helping teen-age boys to find jobs for their after four and early evening hours. For parents who do not wish their children to work, helpful and healthful organized recreation can be found in the activities of the YMCA and the Boy Scouts. There are indeed many organizations in this city which help these youths to lead an active and useful life for it is a known fact that all of life's lessons are not taught in school.

Keeping our teen-age youths happy and interested is a challenge which must be met by our school authorities, service organizations and business people. From the point of view of the young students and the community alike, it is likely to yield rich dividends. The need is to turn the idle youngster of today into the productive worker and community leader of tomorrow. Education holds the only key.

London's large-circulation newspaper, the Daily Mail, was started in 1903 as a penny newspaper for women.

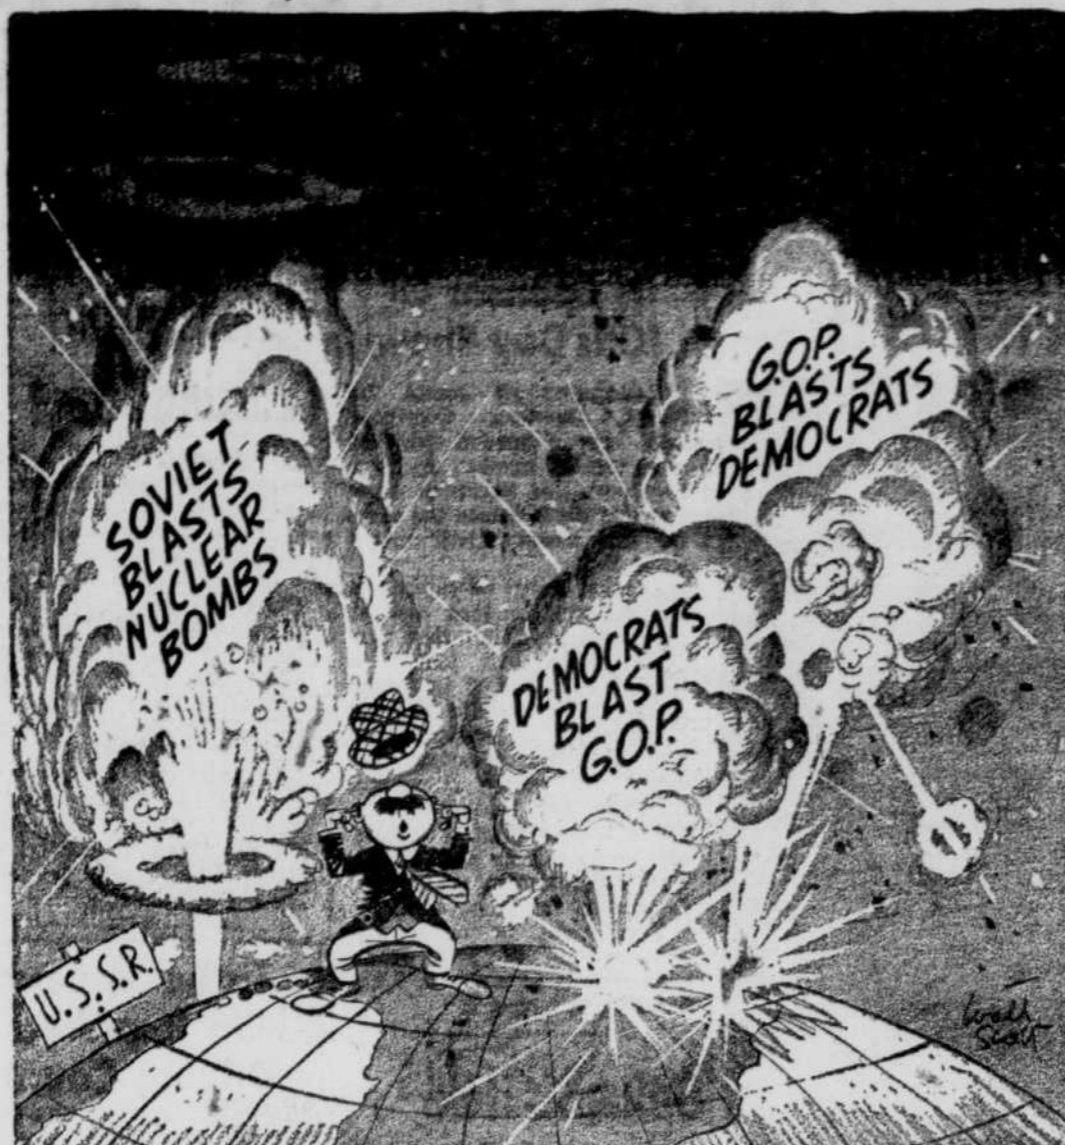

NOT TOO OLD AT 65

(Ottawa Citizen)

Since 65 was set as the reasonable age for retirement, it has been found that many men are quite capable of continuing to work efficiently beyond that time. Their skill and experience, accumulated over a long period, more than compensate for any disabilities due to age. Consequently, the federal government and a number of industries no longer retire workers automatically at 65. Each case is examined individually and where a man wants to go on working and is capable of efficient production, he stays on the job.

But the practice is not wide spread and industry as a whole is losing men it cannot easily replace. The situation is especially undesirable in a period of rapid expansion such as the present. There seems no reason why pension plans should not be adjusted so as to make the retirement age more flexible with the whole country — and the pensioners themselves — the beneficiaries.

Yep! These Are Boom Times!

SOUTH MAKES AWKWARD BID

North's jump to five no-trump was adventurous, but little else can be said for it. Since South had passed originally, he could not be expected to bid and make a slam. North should have known that he would be dropped at five no-trump, an awkward and dangerous contract.

South found a way to make five no-trump, but he wasn't grateful for being extended. He'd have felt much more comfortable at three no-trump.

West opened the king of clubs, not unnaturally, and East properly signaled discouragement with the deuce. West shifted to a spade, and South captured the king with his ace.

South discovered the bad break with a diamond lead, and then returned the queen West his ace. West led another spade, and dummy's jack won. Declarer continued with three top hearts and the queen of spades.

East had to make a discard on the last spade. He couldn't afford to throw a diamond, since then the rest of dummy's suit would be good. When East threw a club, as his only hope, South was able to take both the jack and the nine of clubs, thus making his shaky contract.

Death Of A Famous Deadline

(Ottawa Journal)

Comes an admission by the Government that the Trans-Canada Pipe Line Company will not be able to complete the Alberta-to-Winnipeg stretch of the famous Alberta gas line this year; it lacks the necessary pipe.

The Government admission of this says that Trans-Canada's lack of pipe is due to the United States steel strike.

No doubt about that. But when last May and June the Government was steamrolling its pipeline legislation over Parliament's rights and rules in order to meet a "deadline" there was no talk of the possibility of Trans-Canada falling down on its contract through a steel strike or anything else.

Trans-Canada, the Government said, "had the pipe"; were the only people who had it or could get it. When the Opposition suggested that the entire proposition might be reassessed, that there should be some exploration of the possibility of the pipeline being built by Canadians, the Government scuffed; only Trans-Canada could do the job and they were going to do it on time. The Opposition's duty was to be good boys and accept without discussion what the Government proposed; if it didn't accept didn't go along with the idea that Parliament's rights were nothing when compared with the Government's wisdom or whims, then just too bad for Parliament and the Opposition.

So over the stifled voice of Parliament the Government's unexamined plan went through; its boasts and its promises triumphant.

Now the boasts and promises end in humiliating confession of failure—another chapter in a long tale of delay, unfulfilled pledges and broken promises which make up the dismal record of the Government's handling of this whole pipeline business over a period of four years.

Add to such incompetence and mismanagement the scars inflicted upon Parliament and the story becomes one of the bleakest in our history.

UC Opposes Principle Of Hanging

WINDSOR, Ont. — After an emotion-packed debate Wednesday night the United Church of Canada went on record opposing the principle of capital punishment but added that Canada is not yet ready to abolish it.

The church's General Council, nearing the end of its 10-day 17th biennial conference, passed a three-part resolution. Jealousy with the death penalty after several ministers had described their experiences counselling convicted murderers or victims' families.

The final resolution, a compromise, condemned capital punishment as being "contrary to the spirit and teaching of Christ."

But, it added that the church "recognizes the difficulty" of a satisfactory alternative way of dealing with murderers is developed. Capital punishment should be retained until then but the government should work out another method as soon as possible.

The church should also develop an evangelistic program to aid convicted murderers in jail. At the 1954 conference the council voted 112-111 against the death penalty.

The council also approved a recommendation to build a $1,000,000 office building in downtown Toronto to house all its executive offices.

The building, to be built on St. Clair Avenue East site recently purchased by the church for $250,000, is to replace the present offices on downtown Queen Street.

Atom Ships Dangerous In Crashes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dr. Richard Fayram, an expert on atom-powered ships, says nuclear engines may propel most of the world's ships by 1970. And he warned against a new dangerous atomic shipwreck.

The 35-year-old scientist said hundreds of passengers would have suffered from radiation effects had either the Andrea Doria or the Stockholm been equipped with a nuclear engine when they collided last summer.

Last week's sinking of the American freighter Pelagia near the Arctic Circle would have ruined Norway's sardine crop if the ship had had an atomic engine, he said.

Fayram, a staff member here of Aerojet General Nuclear, has worked at Oak Ridge and the University of California atomic laboratories. As a Fulbright scientist last year he helped plan a Norwegian nuclear ship project.

NORTH HATLEY—The North Hatley Village Improvement Society held its 38th annual Rummage Sale in the Community Hall, many friends coming from the surrounding district to help make the affair its usual financial success. Over $900 was realized.

An ever popular feature is the drawing for lucky tickets, this year the winners being: Punch bowl and ladle, Mrs. Mason; cooked ham, Jack Guild; uncooked ham, Mrs. E. F. Stevenson; liquor Mrs. E. Irvine; dinner for four at Hovey Manor, Mrs. Miller Hall; hooked rugs, Mrs. C. W. Kennedy.

During the noon hour lunch was prepared and served to the workers by Mrs. J. Ditchburn and Mrs. L. Hawse.

BAPTIST LADIES CIRCLE

The Ladies Circle of the North Hatley Baptist Church held its opening fall meeting in the Sunday School Hall. The president, Mrs. L. Hawse, presided and the opening devotional period was conducted by Mrs. G. E. Bennett.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and the members were pleased to hear of the success of the summer activities, which included, three food sales, catering for a wedding reception and a demonstration.

The Circle voted to continue its support of the North Hatley High School Memorial Scholarship, and reviewed, at the request of the committee, three new considerations for a basis of award for the scholarship. The Circle voted to accept two of these considerations but rejected one.

The group also voted to continue its support of the North Hatley Community Club. Mrs. G. E. Bennett and Mrs. Simon Kezar are the Circle's representatives to the Club.

Plans were discussed for a Harvest Supper, to be held at the end of October, and preparations were commenced for the annual Christmas Sale and tea.

At the close of the business hour, tea was served by Mrs. Garland Conner and Miss Hazel Cinnamon.

Former Birchton Resident Feted At Birthday Party

BIRCHTON—The ladies of the community entertained at a birthday party in the Birchton Hall, in honor of Mrs. Lucy Hinton, a one-time resident in Birchton, now of Pointe Claire, Montreal.

Mrs. Hinton who admits to a rather formidable number of years but refuses to grow-old in spirit, will be remembered as the gracious hostess in the Parsonage, where she endeared herself to all who were fortunate enough to come into contact with her during the time when her late husband, Rev. Albert Hinton was pastor in this charge.

The afternoon was spent in renewing old acquaintances and in social good fellowship.

At the tea-hour, the guest-of-honor was seated at the head of the table with Rev. J. A. H. Plowright seated at her right and

Wives Indict Husbands For Sloppy Home Dress

By RUTH MILLETT

Men, this column is for you. It's in answer to the plea of a number of wives who claim that even though they love their husbands they get sick and tired of their sloppy dress around home.

One wife says, "My husband's idea of a perfect week-end is never to go anywhere that will necessitate his shaving or getting into decent-looking clothes. From Friday night to Monday morning he usually looks as though he had just hopped off a passing freight train."

Another says, "Writers are always telling women how important it is for them to look attractive around home. But what's the use of looking pretty for a husband whose idea of perfect lounging clothes for himself is an old pair of khaki pants, faded and paint-stained, the limpest, most bedraggled sport shirt he can find and beat-up old loafers. No matter who drops in to see us, that's how they find my husband. If I'm supposed to look neat and pretty why isn't he expected to look like a gentleman, instead of a tramp?"

Still another wife complains: "My husband goes around home in work pants and his undershirt. If he just went barefooted he'd look like a character from Tobacco Road."

You see, men, what you may consider solid comfort in the way of around-home clothing, your wife, no doubt, regards as a disgrace.

Though you surely look in the mirror carefully when you are getting dressed to go to work, do you ever glance in the mirror to see how you look to your wife around the house?

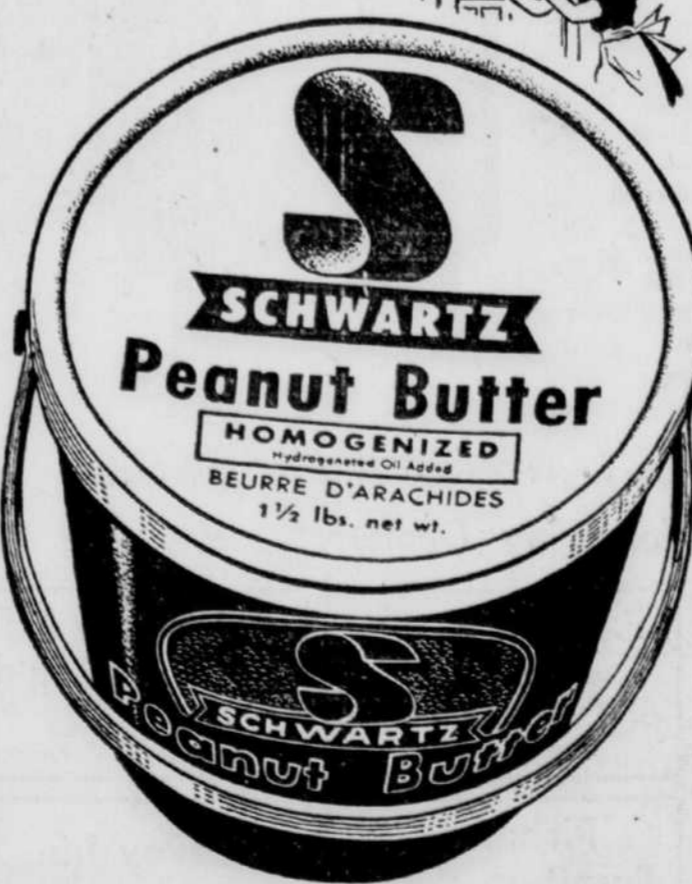

There's really no excuse for a man, these days, going around home looking like a tramp in the name of comfort. With all the good-looking sports clothes on the market surely a man can find something comfortable to wear that doesn't offend his wife.

If you expect your wife to look her prettiest just for you is there any justice in your refusing to look even halfway human to please her?

So be sure to keep a full supply of the delectable INSTANT PUDDINGS on hand for lunch, supper or dinner. You can make them in 1 minute, without cooking... and you'll never find a lump, nor a film with Royal Puddings—and none of that starchy taste. But the true chocolate flavor that youngsters love is there—also exciting Butterscotch, Vanilla, Caramel, Coconut Cream, Strawberry Cream and Banana Cream. Serve all seven Royal Instant Puddings often and give your family the nourishment and the taste-pleasure of these popular desserts!

That Priceless Softening Ingredient in the exclusive formula of Lanolin Plus Liquid Make-Up continues effective throughout the day. And you can match your skin tones exactly with this wonder make-up base... you can look prettier... and know that your skin is actually benefiting from your use of LANOLIN PLUS LIQUID MAKE-UP. It keeps your skin softer and smoother; makes it look flatteringly natural; blends all flaws into one velvety surface; protects your skin from weather, dirt and dryness—and, because lanolin is Nature's own kind of lubricant, replaces the natural moisture in your skin. Getting Chilly? That means more hours inside to enjoy the cozy friendliness of a cup of INSTANT CHASE & SANBORN COFFEE... Seems to me that it was a very good idea to put a "window" in the new label on the jars of Instant Chase & Sanborn—so that we can see for ourselves the rich coffee color... which we know means real coffee flavor. There is nothing more stimulating—relaxing, too!—than hot coffee with all the flavor of freshly made coffee. That's what you find with Instant Chase & Sanborn — it's really delicious! Won't you try it yourself?

Men's Winter Wardrobe Gets New Insulation

NEW YORK — The principle of insulation has lately become prominent in the clothing field. It seems like a sensible idea to protect against the icy blasts with an insulated lining, rather than by merely making clothing bigger, bulkier and heavier.

It's the same idea as building a house—it doesn't necessarily have to have thick walls for winter protection. The walls can be thin, but they're insulated. And winter clothing nowadays can be relatively light in weight, but warm because it is well insulated.

At the moment, this idea has come pretty far. Latest is U.S. Rubber Company's Insular lining, which meets the qualifications of lightness and warmth. As a bonus, it's also buoyant, so a hunter with an Insular-lined outfit can fall in a pond and he'll float.

Garments with Insular lining available include waist-length jackets in nylon, tackle twill or poplin plaid; similar material in jackets of fingertip- or hip-length; hunting vests and vest warmers, worn under coats; various jackets and suburban coats for campus or leisure wear; and a complete outdoor suit with Insular-lined jacket, trousers, vest and hood.

INSULATED: Complete outdoor suit of jacket, trousers, vest and hood is lined with U.S. Rubber Co.'s new Insular.

1 Ovaltine helps relieve nervous tension, aids relaxation for complete sleep.

2 Ovaltine is easily digested. It supplies the ideal light nourishment to help prevent digestive unrest.

3 Ovaltine supplies important food elements to help rebuild body cells—so that you can greet the morning with pep.

at Bishopton on January 17, 1908, was the eldest son of Mrs. Olive Ainsworth and the late Albert Ainsworth. On September 16, 1936, he was united in marriage to Freda Harrison, also of Bishopton.

For the past 26 years Mr. Ainsworth had been associated with the Bishop Casket Factory. He had served in several public capacities and at the time of his death was serving on the Bishopton Town Council, the local School Board and the United Church Board. He was also a member of the I.O.O.F. and was due for a 25 Year Jewel this fall. He was always willing to give of his time to help his neighbours and the community and his untimely passing is a great loss to all who knew him.

Funeral services were held on August 19th, at the Bishopton United Church, with Rev. Mr.

Hart, of East Angus officiating. Music was played by the organist, Robert Smith. The bearers were Lyle Herring, Colin Pashley, Herbert Howes, Carrol Bennett, Gordon Joyce and Irving Willard. Interment was in Lakeside Cemetery.

local district school and at Cowansville High School, after which she took a nursing course.

She was on the staff of the Brome-Missisquoi Perkins Hospital in Sweetsburg for three years before going to Cobourg, Ontario, where she spent ten years. Three years she was a member of the nursing staff of the Cobourg Hospital and seven years as office nurse for Doctors Stilkins, Shaw and Woods, of Cobourg General Hospital.

In March 1955, Miss Beattie was taken suddenly ill and entered the Cobourg Hospital, where she remained under observation for several days before being removed to the Toronto General Hospital where she underwent surgery. After being in hospital for two months, she was removed to the home of her sister, Mrs. Milton Tibbits in Cobourg, where she was tenderly cared for by her sisters, Mrs. Tibbits and Miss Margaret Beattie, T.A., of Dunboro, until she was able to take the trip home.

Those left to mourn her passing are three brothers, Arthur, Walter and Norman Beattie, of Dunboro; four sisters, Geraldine, Mrs. Milton Tibbits, of Cobourg, Ont.; Irene, Mrs. Earl Perkins, of East Dunham; Miss Margaret Beattie, of Dunboro; and Jennie, Mrs. George Wilson, of Dunboro; three sisters-in-law and three brothers-in-law; fourteen nephews and nieces, six grand nephews and nieces, an uncle, W.

J. Beattie, of Cowansville; three aunts, Mrs. Edwin Spencer, of Sutton; Mrs. Ophelia Hunt, of Iron Hill; Mrs. Arthur Jones, of Brigham; numerous cousins and a host of friends.

The funeral service was held on Friday, August 17 at Draper's Funeral Home in Cowansville, conducted by Mr. Irvin Wells, of Brockville, Ont., assisted by Mr. Keith Jackson, of Kingston, Ont., friends of the deceased. Mr. Wells spoke from the text "Mary hath chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her," comparing Marion's life with that of Mary's. Two favorite hymns sung, by Irvin Wells, Keith Jackson and Miss Verna Sullivan, of Magog, were "Let not my Soul be filled with Needless Sorrow" and "Called home to Rest." The many friends attending funeral and the beautiful floral offerings, testified to esteem felt for Miss Beattie.

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY Mrs. Vera Gerber (MOTHER OF 5)

The play pen is a wonderful invention, especially when it's used as a happy haven for baby. Try not to use it as a punishment, but a promise of fun to come. Rotate toys from day to day so your little one will come to learn that there are surprises in store for him. In the joy of discovery he'll probably play happily for longer periods—won't mind returning to that little world of his very own.

Has baby discovered the golden delight of those sunny Gerber Strained Egg Yolks? Creamy, custard-like in texture, they have a fresh-egg flavor that's bound to captivate an appetite. So good for baby because they're rich in vitamin A and iron.

Safety first dept. Keep that safety strap on baby's bath table fastened, whenever you diaper baby. Leaves both your hands free—provides insurance against a possible tumble.

Bright idea division. Clever, column reading mother suggests these sensible brainstormers:

1. If baby is beyond the formula stage, try using one of his bottles to measure liquids. Ounce markings insure accuracy.

2. Borrow baby's "outgrown" nursery tongs to remove baked potatoes from oven; to turn over bacon or sausages.

Pure pleasure is the natural reaction to Gerber Strained Bananas. Made of fully-ripe fruit—specially processed to preserve the true banana flavor and color—delicious "as is" or when used as topping on baby's cereal.

Delicious eating for baby too, in the shape of a delightful vegetable dish: Gerber Strained Garden Vegetables. The Garden Vegetables happily combine peas, carrots and spinach for a delightful taste surprise... are notable for high vitamin-A value and iron. Gerber Baby Foods, Niagara Falls, Canada.

Don Newcombe Is Dodgers' First Hurler To Win 25 Games In 32 Years

One Rainy, Dismal Twilight Fixture At Polo Grounds Can Be Blamed If Braves Fail To Overtake Brooklyn

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Braves isn't dead, as Charley Dressen would say, but if they do succumb in this overheated National League race their demise can be traced to a rainy, dismal twilight at the Polo Grounds when they tried to commit hara-kiri.

Trailing by half a game, this doubleheader with the Giants gave them a glittering opportunity to get back into a virtual tie with Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Milwaukee team was to face Johnny Antonelli, a hot pitcher right now, in the first game, but it had a pretty fair man man going for it itself in Gene Conley, and with their edge in power the Braves seemed to be no worse than an even bet.

To give them even more of an edge they practically were playing at home. Even loyal Giant rooters were pulling for them, as well as the contingent of Milwaukee fans.

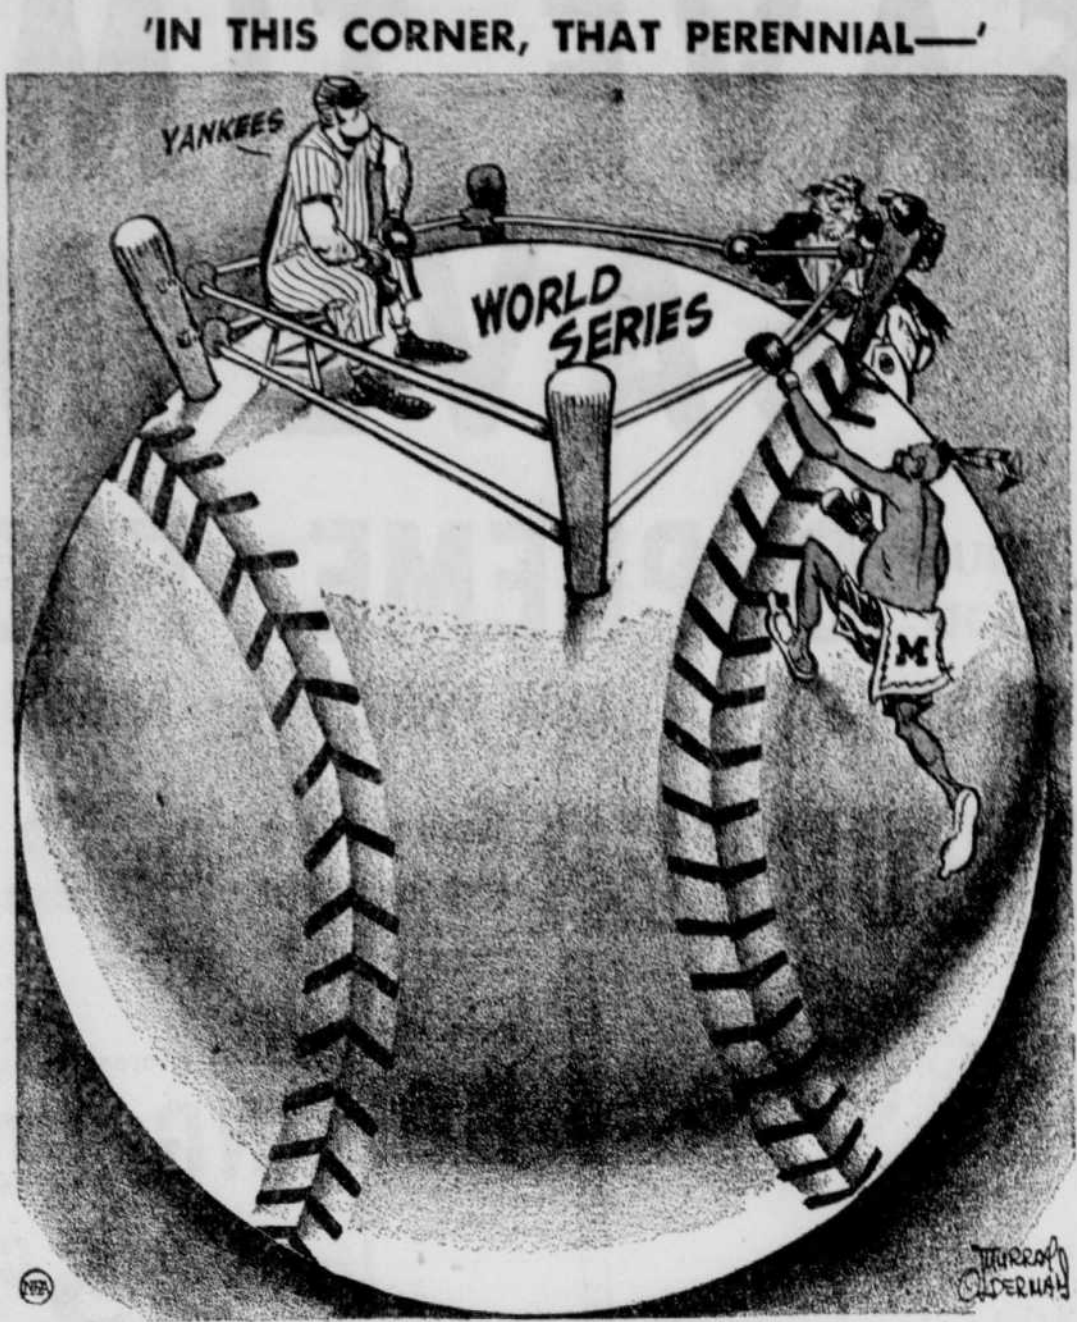

But it's history now how the Braves all but killed themselves as much as Antonelli beat them. The Giants had three runs before the second inning was completed and Conley no longer was around.

The way those three runs were made is worth noting, as it gives a vivid demonstration of the uncertainties of baseball.

Jackie Brandt, first man up, caromed the ball off Conley's glove for an infield single. Bill White sent a roller past Conley, also good for an infield hit. Dusty Rhodes went down on strikes. But Bill Sarni sent a blooper toward centre.

It should have been an easy out, but Bobby Thomson's feet began to run in one spot on the slick grass as he tried to get under way, and the ball dropped safely.

Then Daryl Spencer hit a soft line drive right at Conley's mid-section. He dropped the ball for

Double Sets High At Races Last Night With $492.45 Paid; Clever Volo And Direct Harvester Split Main Feature

An 11-year-old brown mare, Jean Campbell, owned by Albert Paquette of Drummondville, and Charles Hauver's Miss Grattan Directly of Waterloo formed the top winning combination last night on the midweek card of the Sherbrooke Racing Club.

The duo comprised the daily double pair and paid their backers the sum of $492.45 and at the same time ran 1-2 in the win department, Jean Campbell came through with the sum of $26.90 while the Waterloo mare paid $17.70.

P. H. Gravel's Sara Brooke, driven by L. Jutra, set the high for the other two bets, the place and the show, with $14.40 and $11.40 being picked up by the lucky backers. The rest of the prices ran around the usual price with no other outstanding highs being collected.

The quinella in the third, of Doctor Brooke C and Sara Brooke, paid $52.20 while in the sixth when Miss Grattan Directly and Blue Mountain Brooke, finished in that order, $32.25 was picked up. In the ninth race Lise Directly and Tom's Star Hal rewarded their backers with $13.05.

In the main event, the "C" Handicap Pace, it was split between Coombs' Clever Volo and Amedee Beaudoin's Direct Harvester. In the first heat the local horse came from behind to nip the pace-setter, Lucky G, at the wire in 2:13 4/5.

In the second half Beaudoin broke from the wire in a good spot and moved into the lead on the first turn and from then on he set the pace. Lucky G and Clever Volo made a stretch drive to try and overtake the Coombs' entry but just couldn't do it.

Marlene Stewart Survives Upset Studded Third Round In US Women's Golf Event; Three Formers Dumped

INDIANAPOLIS — Canadian champion Marlene Stewart of Fonthill, Ont., survived an upset-studded third round as she defeated Mrs. Ann T. Barry 2 and 1 Wednesday in the U. S. women's amateur golf championships.

Marlene's victory came on a day that saw defending champion Pat Lesser, 1954 champion Barbara Romack and British and French open champion Margaret Wiffi Smith eliminated.

Joanne Gunderson of Kirkland, Wash., national junior girls' champion, crushed Miss Lesser, her Seattle clubmate, 5 and 4.

Also missing Thursday when the tournament goes into its first double round will be Grace Lenczyk, 1948 U. S. champion from Newton, Conn., and Tam O'Shanter "world" amateur champion Anne Richardson of Columbus, Ohio. One ex-champion, 1951 winner Dot Kirby of Atlanta, survived the upset splurge, as did Miss Stewart.

Hennemier Fired By Stampeders

CALGARY — Jack Hennemier is out as coach of Calgary Stampeders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

Directors of the club asked for his resignation Wednesday and general manager Bob Masterson said it was with much regret that the move had to be made. Hennemier joined the club last year.

Masterson said he was not in a position to make any announcement of a possible successor.

Hennemier's contract, believed to be for $15,000 a season, would be honored in full by the club.

Assistant coach Tommy Thompson would remain with the club in his present capacity and would handle the club Saturday when Stamps meet Eskimos at Edmonton.

Last place Stampeders have been the hard luck club of the league this year, losing games to Edmonton and Winnipeg Blue Bombers by single points.

Only wins were a 27-17 at home over Saskatchewan and a 16-6 upset in Calgary over Winnipeg.

Don Campbell Breaks World Speedboat Record Streaking Across Coniston Lake At 287.78 Miles An Hour

CONISTON, England — Reuters — Donald Campbell tonight streaked across Coniston Water at 287.78 miles an hour in his turbo-jet speedboat Bluebird in the first of two runs which shattered his own world water speed record.

Then the 35-year-old British speed king made a second run of 164.48 miles an hour during which the Bluebird took a severe buffeting and he almost lost consciousness.

The average of the runs — 225.63 miles an hour — eclipsed his own world record of 216.2.

This record was established by Campbell at Lake Mead, Nev., last November.

Campbell owed his record to a fantastic first run over a measured kilometre (3/4 of a mile). On the second run trouble in Bluebird slowed him down and might have cost him his life. He came in at half throttle, believing he had failed in his

Red Wings Rally To Nip Leafs In 13-Inning Duel

TORONTO — (AP) — Rochester Red Wings came from behind three times and scored the winning run on a walk in the 13th inning Wednesday night to defeat Toronto Maple Leafs 6-4 and square the best-of-seven Governors' Cup final 1-1.

The clubs now move to Rochester for the next three games, today Friday and Saturday.

If further games are necessary they will be played in Toronto Sunday and Monday.

A chilly crowd of 3,423 fans saw the Wings, who had used 19 players, load the bases in the 13th on a single, a walk and an error by Toronto reliever Pete Wojey. Wojey walked second baseman Ron Plaza to force in the winning run and Ed Kasko plated an insurance tally, his third RBI, with a sacrifice fly.

Boston Globe Says Kuenn To Handle Tigers

DETROIT — (AP) — The Boston Globe said Wednesday that shortstop Harvey Kuenn will be named manager of Detroit Tigers for 1957, but Fred Knorr, who becomes president of the Tigers on Oct. 1, denied the report.

"People are just shooting in the dark," said Knorr. "There has been no decision reached and there positively will be no announcement of any kind until after Oct. 1."

Boston Globe sports editor Jerry Nason said in the story the 26-year-old Tiger shortstop will be named Sunday Sept. 30 to succeed Bucky Harris.

Kuenn told The Associated Press "I know nothing about any such offer. I have not been approached about any such job and have not given it any thought. I'm concerned about playing shortstop."

Belts Two Homers To Help His Cause; Braves And Pirates Rained Out; Meet Today In Lone Tilt In Majors.

Don Newcombe became Brooklyn's first 25-game winner in 32 years Wednesday as the Dodgers rolled up their highest run total of the year to overwhelm St. Louis Cardinals 17-2.

The big righthander was a one-man game as the Dodgers clubbed five Redbird hurlers for 17 hits to protect their precarious National League lead. Four home runs and four doubles were included in the barrage.

Newcombe hurled only seven innings before he was removed to rest up for the tough grind ahead. Before he left he stifled the Cards with seven hits, eluded a pair of home runs and a single to drive in three runs, stole a base and executed a fine defensive play.

New York Giants won a doubleheader from Chicago in the only other National League day games taking the first 7-2 and the second 3-2.

Cincinnati took both ends of a twin-bill from Philadelphia 6-3, 6-0.

In the American League, Kansas City drubbed Boston 8-1, Cleveland blanked Washington for the third straight time, 6-0, and Detroit continued its hot streak with a 9-1 win over Baltimore. The champion New York Yankees and Chicago were idle.

At Brooklyn homers accounted for both Cardinal runs. Alvin Dark reached the left field seats in the first inning and Stan Musial smashed his 26th of the year over the right field screen in the sixth.

Brooklyn scored in five of the first six innings, knocking out starter Tom Poholsky in the third then shelling Lindy McDaniel and Willard Schmidt with an eight-run assault in the fifth that represented the Dodgers' largest scoring inning of the season.

Suitcase Simpson blasted an eighth-inning grand-slam home run that broke up a pitching battle between Dave Sisler and Wally Burnette as Kansas City downed Boston.

Sisler, who had pitched a four-hitter for seven innings, lost his control in the eighth, walking Burnette and Hee Lopez. An error loaded the bases with one out and set the stage for Simpson's 400-foot clout. When Hal Smith followed with a double, Rudy Minarcin came in and got Eddie Robinson before rookie Jim Pisoni hit another home run.

Burnette won his fifth game against eighth losses.

At Cleveland, Bob Lemon posted his 20th win of the season as Indians blanked Washington while a crowd of 365 shivered

Harry Lumley Checks In At Neat 200 Pounds

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. — Harry Lumley checked into the training camp of the National Hockey League's Chicago Black Hawks Wednesday, two days late but determined to wrestle the regular netminding job from last year's goalie Al Rollins.

Hawk scout Bob Wilson described the impending contest between Rollins and Lumley as "one of the most interesting aspects of the entire NHL season."

Lumley went to Chicago, along with Eric Nesterenko, in a $40,000 cash deal shortly after last season's close.

Lum showed up at a trim 200 pounds.
