

ITALIANS HAVE EASED FOR MOMENT THEIR EFFORT TO PUSH FORWARD TO TRIEST

WHILE ACTIVITY HAS ABATED ON SOUTHERN END OF LINE, HEAVY FIGHTING IS IN PROGRESS TO THE NORTH AROUND GORIZIA, PLAVA AND THE VODICE—ITALIANS CLAIM 23,681 PRISONERS—INCREASED ACTIVITY IN RUSSIAN ARTILLERY—PRUSSAINS SINK BRITISH HOSPITAL SHIP.

On the southern end of the line near the head of the Gulf of Triest in the Austro-Italian theatre the Italians for the moment have eased their titanic effort to push forward to Triest, and heavy fighting again is in progress to the north around Gorizia, Plava and the Vodice. East of Gorizia and on the Vodice the Austrians attempted to carry the offensive to the Italians, but the artillery fire of King Victor Emmanuel's men stopped the assaults and in the last named sector the Italians themselves delivered an attack and despite stubborn resistance made progress on the south-eastern slope of Hill 52. Likewise in the Plava sector the Austrians were driven back and lost one hundred men made prisoner.

Around San Giovanni and Duino at the lower end of the line the Austrians heavily bombarded the Italians in their new positions and ineffectually tried to oust them. Both sides are claiming the capture of large numbers of prisoners since the new battle from Tolmino to the sea began, the Italians asserting that they have taken 23,681 and the Austrians 14,500.

Tuesday passed with relative calm on both the British and French fronts in France, the British War Office merely recording a successful raid north-west of La Bassee and the French official communication ascertaining that artillery fighting alone prevailed.

Following reports of an increase in the Russian artillery activity against the Austrians in the eastern theatre comes a statement that there has been a recrudescence in the activity of the Russo-Rumanian forces against the Teutonic allies in Rumania and that early attacks by them are expected. The visits to Jassy, the new capital of Rumania, of M. Thomas, the French Minister of Munitions, and M. Kersensky, the Russian Minister of War, possibly may be connected with the revival of the activity of the Russo-Rumanian troops.

Again another act of gross inhumanity has been perpetrated by a Teutonic allied submarine. This was the sinking in the Mediterranean of the British hospital ship Dover Castle. Although the vessel was carrying sick and wounded two torpedoes were sent into her vitals, the first without warning. Fortunately all on board except six men of the crew were saved.

A submarine also has accounted for the British armed mercantile cruiser Hilary, which was sunk in the North Sea with a loss of four men killed by the explosion.

IN EAST AFRICA.

London, May 29—An official communication issued this evening concerning the operations in East Africa says:

"The exceptional wet season has ended and the improved weather conditions have brought a renewal of the military activity. The early days of May witnessed a general southward movement of the German forces in the Rufiji valley and in the coastal area and of some to the Matandu valley, while farther south raiders invaded Portuguese territory and approached the border of Nvassaland, burning native villages, terrorizing the inhabitants and removing food supplies to German depots.

"There were many patrol encounters and occasional collisions between larger forces. The German columns which evacuated the Mahenge district in February moved rapidly in two main parties, one to the Portuguese border, and the other, commanded by Major Wintgens, breaking northward, evading our columns and reaching Kitunda, on their way for Tabora. On May 6 the latter was pursued by British, Rhodesian and other troops. Major Wintgens was captured on the 22nd in the vicinity of Lukalanka, 61 miles south-west of Taboraby.

"A Belgian column is co-operating with the British base on the central railway."

BRITISH STATEMENT.

London, May 29—The British official communication issued this evening says:

"We carried out a successful raid early this morning east of Richebourg-L'Avoue (north-west of Le Bassee).

"Two German airplanes were brought down yesterday in air fighting. Six others were driven down out of control. Five of our airplanes are missing."

FRENCH STATEMENT.

Paris, May 29—The official communication issued by the War Office tonight reads:

"There is nothing to report during the course of the day except artillery fighting, sometimes violent at the Massif of Moronvilliers and particularly on Casque and Teton.

"Belgian communication: There was slight artillery activity on the part of the enemy. German aviators having bombarded during the evening the regions of Forthem, our aviators, in reprisal, dropped during the night bombs on the barracks at Praetposth.

"Eastern theatre, 28th: There is nothing to report."

BRAZIL REVOKES ITS NEUTRALITY

GOVERNMENT AUTHORIZED TO UTILIZE GERMAN SHIPS NOW IN PORT.

Rio Janeiro, May 29.—(Bulletin)—The Chamber of Deputies tonight on its last reading, unanimously passed the bill authorizing the revocation of Brazil's neutrality in the German American war. The bill was amended so as to authorize the government to utilize German ships now in Brazilian ports.

The executive is authorized by the bill to adopt measures for the protection of Brazilian shipping abroad and to come to an agreement with friendly nations respecting measures which will ensure the liberty of Brazil's import and export trade.

COMMONS REJECTS OLIVER AMENDMENT

GOVERNMENT MAJORITY 27—EMPOWERS BANKS TO LOAN TO FARMERS.

(Special to The Chronicle.)
Ottawa, May 29—Hon. Frank Oliver's tariff amendment calling for free wheat products, free agricultural machinery and implements, free food, general tariff reductions on all other articles and an increase in the British preference, was voted down by the Commons this afternoon. It was a straight party vote of 15 to 28, a Government majority of 27.

The feature of the closing stanza of the debate upon the amendment was the "bolt" by Hugh Guthrie, Liberal member for South Wellington, who declined to give his support to the section of the amendment calling for general tariff reduction and an increased British preference. Mr. Guthrie explained that he favored the other proposals, but rather than vote for a lower tariff he sidestepped the vote altogether. The rest of the Opposition lined up with the western wing of the party in their demand for a big step toward free trade.

Before the debate was resumed Sir Thomas White introduced a bill to empower banks to loan to farmers on live stock. With regard to this he explained that legislation authorizing banks to make loans on chattel mortgages would be repealed and this authorization substituted.

Hon. William Pugsley asked if anything had been done with regard to building wooden ships in Canada. He understood the Munitions Board had been limited to ships of 2,500 tons, which did not seem to meet the case. There were many shipyards in the Maritime Provinces where vessels of a thousand tons or more could be built, and he had received many enquiries from them as to why the limit had been set at not less than 2,500 tons.

Sir George E. Foster replied that the Imperial Munitions Board were building the ships on order of the British Government, and that they had to follow the specifications laid down by the Imperial authorities.

Sir Thomas White introduced a bill to amend the Penny Bank Act, authorizing directors of penny banks to invest funds in Dominion Government securities.

MISSIONARY UNION

IN CONFERENCE.

Clifton Springs, N. Y., May 29.—The opening session of the 34th annual conference of the International Missionary Union was held here tonight with a large number of delegates present from many foreign fields. It was known as a recognition service and was in charge of the president, Rev. J. Summerstone, who announced the general theme of the conference as, "after the war, what about missions?"

After the delegates had introduced themselves by giving their names and fields of work, the address of the evening on the general theme was delivered by Rev. A. E. Armstrong, of Toronto, secretary of the Canadian Presbyterian Board of Missions.

THINKS GERMANY FAR FROM DEFEAT

DR. D. J. HILL SOUNDS NOTE OF WARNING AND URGES CONSCRIPTION.

New York, May 29—Dr. David Jayn Hill, former Ambassador to Germany, in an address to the trustees of the American Defense Society here today, warned that Germany is far from defeat and discounted the theory that the Hohenzollerns alone are responsible for that country's imperialistic ambitions. He asserted that the present war is a struggle of political systems.

"The people of Germany," declared Dr. Hill, "are more loyal to the Emperor than the Democratic party is to Wilson today. The President has said that we have no hostility toward the German people, but do not the German people support the Imperial German government to a man? Didn't a wave of general rejoicing go through Germany when the Lusitania went down? How many Germans in Germany can you find who are not imperialistic? I have never found one."

"This," added Dr. Hill, "is going to be a different world if the Central powers win the war, and it is by no means certain that they will not. Unless we conscript ourselves for this battle and lay our wealth and our lives at the altar of the defense of our institutions, we will find our descendants in the vortex of world dominating schemes of autocracy."

Professor Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard, in an address to members of the executive committee of the National Security League, sounded a similar warning. The danger confronting the United States is as great as that of 1776, he said, "and not one third of the people realize it."

"The need," added Prof. Hart, "is very grave for immediately, impressing upon the people of this country the reasons for our entrance into the war and the fact that the life of Democracy—the very life of the nation itself hangs upon victory over Germany."

DOUBLE DROWNING.

Windsor, Ont., May 29—The body of little Tommy Fullerton, who with his father was drowned in the Detroit river late Monday evening, was recovered at noon today at a point 100 feet below that where his father's body was found last night. Tightly clutched in the boys hand was the string holding the fish the two had caught. Details of the double tragedy are lacking. There will be no inquest, according to Coroner Labelle.

CARDINAL MERCIER MAKES DECLARATION

THE BELGIAN PRIMATE ANSWERS MOVEMENT MADE BY RHINELAND CATHOLICS.

London, May 30.—A despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Rotterdam, says a new movement by the leading Rhineland Catholics, ostensibly designed to renew relations between the German and Belgian Catholics has brought forth the following declaration from Cardinal Mercier, Primate of Belgium:

"Catholics over the frontier who have not found a single word of disapproval for those who slaughtered people in Belgium and shot down priests—these Catholics who for three years have looked on with folded arms at the martyrdom of a people—are now singing hymns of brotherliness, peace and forgetfulness. But it is our duty to press for the restitution of violated rights and the punishment for the guilty. The hour for the exercise of mercy can only strike when wrong has been righted and when contrition is shown and penance is accepted."

AZTEC CUSTOMS

The religious of the ancient Mexicans seems to have been characterized throughout by a peculiar blood-thirstiness, involving constant human sacrifice. This trait is even exhibited in connection with the burial of their dead. The feast of the dead was celebrated after this fashion: "They took a faggot of ocotil, which in Spain would be called pitch-wood, and they dressed it up in blanket or dress. If the dead person had been a woman, they dressed the faggot in her petticoat and put it in front of cooking pots and other household utensils. If the dead person had been a chief and a valiant man, they dressed the faggot in a rich mantle and waist-cloth and larbet, and gave it a handful of pitch-wood. The larbet was made of a piece of amber or crystal. This, which they were accustomed to wear when they drank or danced in their native ceremonies hung down from a hole pierced through the hip. They scated the image on a sleeping mat and they put much food, and they invited the principal men there. Then they put fire to the pitch-wood and everything which they had put there to burned up." The custom of burning up an image, together with offerings for the dead, was not only found among the Aztecs but also common among the Indians of California to-day.

AN INTERESTING

RUSSIAN CITY

Kieff, more familiarly known as Kiev, is the earliest seat of Christianity in Russia. As the most ancient capital of the Empire it has earned the title of mother of cities. Its monastery of Petcherskaya Lavra with its far-reaching grounds, is one of the wonders of the world. With many a church and chapel, and innumerable monks' cells within its high wall, the "City of Caves" forms a tomb by itself. To the catacombs cut out of the solid rock every year go pilgrims from all over Russia to worship at the shrines of the saints who went years ago from Bryzantium. But Kieff is not a typically Russian city. It has lost its early Byzantine character without gaining the modern Russian spirit—a result attributed to the rule of the Poles, who kept the city under their influence for centuries. It has been said one may call the Kieff people Little Russians, who differ from the Great Russians as much as the English do from the Scots. Imperialists did their best seventy years ago by est-

HINTS ON MAKING YOUR HENS LAY

EXPERT POULTRY MAN GIVES SOME VALUABLE SUGGESTIONS.

Let us look back over the past winter and see if we can discover just why the hens did not lay," says N. C. Cambell, B. S. A. in "Everywoman's World," for May. "We can then take a look ahead in prospect of the coming winter, and if we are to be satisfied with their production, then we ought now to make sure that the hens will lay next winter—just when we want the eggs at the time when prices are high.

It was my good fortune recently to meet in with Mr. J. W. Clark, of Brant Co., Ont., who had just concluded an eight weeks' lecturing and demonstrating tour with the Agricultural demonstration cars from the Ontario Department of Agriculture. He had been travelling and stopping at all local points in Western Ontario, and giving of his practical successful poultry experience to any and all who came to see. I pumped Mr. Clark for some of his more valuable ideas which he had discovered regarding poultry, such ideas as I could pass on for the benefit of the readers of "Everywoman's World" who had or have not heard Mr. Clark lecture on this fascinating subject.

He said, "The first question that farmers put to me invariably is 'What'll make the hens lay?'"

"Then I start to question them. I ask them:

"Is there any moisture in your house? Do you notice any frost on the walls? If so, you can be sure that this moisture is one reason why your hens will not lay."

"Too close confinement is another reason why the hens won't lay. They need exercise and fresh air to keep them in the best of good bodily health and vigour; otherwise there will be no eggs forthcoming.

As to the feeding of the laying hens and the poultry in general Mr. Clark remarked that it is surprising how few farmers there are who really know anything about beef scrap or animal meal, which are manufactured especially for feeding poultry, and which are as necessary in the ration for laying hens as grain and clover are in the ration of the high producing milk cow.

Buttermilk or sour milk is a good substitute for other animal food. Professor Graham, of the Poultry Department at the Ontario Agricultural College, has discovered that hens, when fed on buttermilk or sour milk, all they will eat or drink, will lay two eggs on such a ration to every one egg that they will lay without the milk. The buttermilk or sour milk seems to fit right into the digestive economy of the hens. Sweet milk has not the same effect; in fact, on the contrary, it is highly dangerous to feed sweet milk on account of its being such a good medium for the propagation of disease germs, which affect poultry and may through the sweet milk, be widely spread from a sick individual to other members of the flock.

Clover leaves may take the place of green food; they may also take the place of bran. The clover leaves have almost the same analysis in protein as has bran.

Practically every farmer has clover but farmers don't seem to think of it for their poultry.

Here it is at last! "The Devil's Toy" at the Empire today.

BETHMAN-HOLLWEG'S TAME DEMOCRATS

SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY VOTED AGAINST ESTIMATES IN REICHSTAG.

(By C. Mansford.)

On March 29th, the Social Democratic Party voted against the supplementary Estimates in the German Reichstag. It was a bid for Russian Socialist approval. It did Germany no harm whatever, for Herr Bethman-Hollweg still has the major portion of the Social Democratic party in his pocket for his political needs of the moment. What they have in theirs it would be interesting to know. The worthy Chancellor understands his Democratic Socialists and they understand him. They are the chosen set democracy against democracy that autocracy may rule. The Chancellor's respect for them may be drawn from the fact that on March 14th, in the Prussian Diet, he promised to introduce, at an early date, important reforms in the franchise. On March 29th, he ate his words, saying he would do so after the war. His speech was as perferend and untruthful as that made in the Reichstag in 1914, when he accused Russia of provoking the war, and garbled facts to prove it.

Herr Bethmann-Hollweg visited Vienna recently. He went to get in touch with the ex-Czar's satellites, and to offer them the support of the Central Empires if they could be sufficiently deluded to attempt to set up autocracy again. Failing in that plan, the German Chancellor thought the Russian Socialists could be turned to Germany's account. He planned a Peace Propaganda, using his own pocket Democratic Socialists, who were not in the Army, for his purpose. He sent five of them to Stockholm, on March 19th, in the hope of meeting delegates of Petrograd pacifists, or of communicating with them through Swedish Socialists. They had as leader Dr. Sudekum, the Reichstag member for Nuremberg, who failed so egregiously with the Italian socialists. The Chancellor and his leading socialistic tool, had a close conference before the quintette set out. Herr Bethmann-Hollweg also sent certain "Majority" Socialists to Switzerland to intrigue with Russian refugees, there. They were promised a safe conduct to Russia, via Germany, and plenty of money for propaganda purposes. They were to do their best to disorganise Russia; to set democrats and autocrats by the ears; especially to incite strikes in munition factories, leading to arson. While this was going on, the Chancellor, imitating the walrus over the oyster, wept in the Reichstag when he referred to his love for Russia. Herr Hasse, one of the few Honest Social Democrats, curtly told the Chancellor that his refusal to reform the franchise was a blow with a whip in the face of the democracy and that Germany was really the friend of Russian autocracy. He reminded him that the German government had allowed Russian refugees to be spied upon by secret service agents, and then put the refugees across the frontier to be dealt with; and that when some folks in Koenigsberg ventured to make adverse remarks about the Czar, the German Government promptly prosecuted them. Truth will out even in the Reichstag, on rare occasions.

The German Chancellor knows, however, that in the main, German Social Democrats are mere rascally-voiced demagogues. They misled British and Continental socialists for years; they preached disarmament for others, and voted funds for a big navy; they preached against militarism and voted for universal military service in Germany. They flooded Germany with over seventy scurrilous newspapers spitting venom at honest men. Their chief newspaper Vorwarts, eats its words gladly, at the mere nod of the Chancellor. On July 24th, 1914, it published an "Appeal to the Nations," beginning: "The Balkan Plains are still steaming with the blood of thousands murdered; the ruins of desolate town and devastated villages are still smoking with the Balkan War; hungry workless men, widowed women and orphan children are still wandering through the land, and yet again Austria's Imperialism unchains the War Fury to bring death and destruction to all Europe." On July 31st, the Vorwarts discovered that Austria-Hungary was the lamb, and that Russia was the wicked wolf. It has never dared to explain why it changed. Herr Bethmann-Hollweg knows. International Socialists were rightly disgusted with this state of affairs, and on the outbreak of war, German socialists were sent out by Herr Bethmann-Hollweg. Dr. Sudekum, who is again in the limelight, went to Italy. The Vorwarts published an account of the meeting of socialists there on September 14th, 1914. Dr. Sudekum defended German Social Democracy; Della Seta, a true Italian Socialist, refuted him with relentless logic: "We are enraged at the terrible fact that Germany has violated Belgium's neutrality, and worse than all, you have not even protested! We tell you quite openly, that we honour and weep for devastated Belgium, and tremble for the fate of France."

Russia will watch these socialistic visits of German democrats most carefully. They are part of the German game of "Divide and Rule." Russia's great ally, France, knows something of them. In order to beat France when cannon-fodder failed, similar attempts were made to induce French socialists to meet honest Ger-

The Carbon Granules.

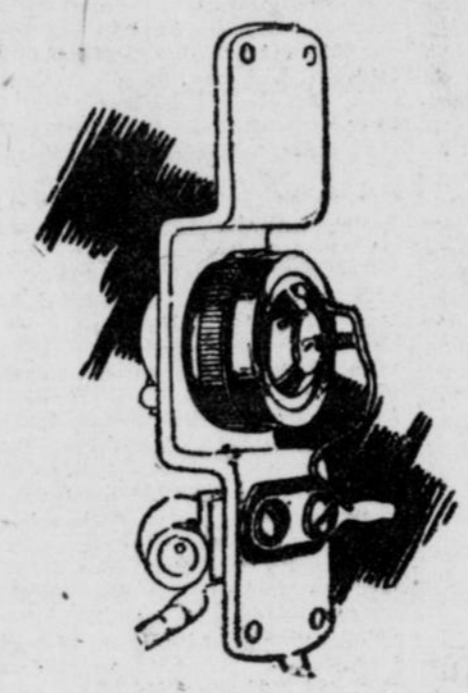

Back of the mouthpiece of your telephone there is a tiny brass drum partly filled with carbon crushed to about the size of granulated sugar. Here that little drum is shown, with the bar that holds it.

The function of the granular carbon is to take the vibrations from the diaphragm and send them out over the wires in varying impulses. If the telephone is held in your hand and tipped downward as you talk, your voice will sound "far off" because the little granules fall away from the diaphragm. If it is held above your lips and you talk up to it, the little granules "pack" against the diaphragm and your voice will sound "thick" to the listener.

The transmitter is designed for most effective use, local and long distance alike, when the telephone stand is resting on a flat, level surface.

You can help to safeguard the quality of your service by holding your telephone in that position only.

man democratic socialists in neutral countries. While this was going on, the Vorwarts and other papers were flooded with admiring articles about "Our French Comrades". To their eternal credit, the patriotic socialists of France refused to meet the German Chancellor's tools. One noticeable feature of all these articles was the fact that the return of Alsace-Lorraine to France was never to take place. It is curious, to say the least, that Constantinople is the theme of "no-annexation" among certain Russian Socialists today. The Chancellor's hand is evident in the Peace Programme, which the German Social Democrats published on August 25th, 1915, the first article of which runs: "The security of German independence and the entirety of the German Empire, which implies the rejection of all annexation plans on the part of our opponents. This includes the French plan to re-incorporate Alsace-Lorraine with France, no matter in what form that end may be sought."

But the temper of the Russian socialists is shown in the "Appeal to all the Nations," which has been issued by the Petrograd Council of Workmen and Soldiers' Deputies. Among other things, it states: "We have overthrown our despotism. We are fighting for our own liberty and the liberty of the world. We shall absolutely defend our liberty against all reactionary attacks, both from within and without." No wonder Herr Bethmann-Hollweg is seeking to undermine such determination, by means of his honest Social Democrats. The Socialist Deputy, Chheidze, President of the Council of Workmen's Deputies, said with reference to this manifesto: "Before discussing peace, we propose to the Germans to follow our example and overthrow Wilhelm, who plunged his people into war, just as we overthrew our autocracy. If the Germans do not heed our appeal, we will fight to the last drop of our blood."

Russia will not be foolish enough to enter this latest German snare. If German democratic Socialists are really in unison with democratic ideals of a people's freedom, let them, then, advise their comrades in the trenches to lay down their arms. They are fighting for the worst form of autocracy that the world has ever seen. The free democracies of Great Britain, France and Russia will not weaken in their alliance, despite German machinations, even when the Social Democrats of Germany become willing tools of oppression.

GERMANY MADE REQUEST FOR RIGHT TO COLONIZE ON CONTINENT OF AMERICA

A sensational rumor has reached one of the New York editors that Washington is in possession of the details of a German peace-proposal recently made to the Entente via Switzerland. It is alleged that Germany offered the Allies peace upon their own terms and signified her willingness to evacuate Belgium, restore Alsace-Lorraine, join Polish Prussia to a new independent kingdom, pay an indemnity, and acquiesce in the partition of Austria-Hungary into separate states according to nationalities. In return for all these concessions in Europe, Germany, it is said, demanded only one thing—a free hand on the American continent. While this story may be either true or false, it certainly adds interest to the activities of German settlers in South America and the attitude that Wilhelmstrasse adopts toward them. The London Outlook says that Latin-America is not awake to the "danger of German dominance" by colonization. This influential British weekly has been devoting considerable space to the discussion of Germany's aims in the southern continent, and it professes itself very pleased at the attitude taken by Brazil on the submarine question. It says:

WHITE HORSE SCOTCH

"Brazil has shown a courageous example in being the first of the neutrals to express a determination to follow America's lead in resisting the insolvent aggressions of Germany. We say courageous, for no country has come more completely within the Teutonic grip than the Portuguese Republic. Some of the southern provinces are practically German colonies. In Rio Grande do Sol there are about 200,000 Germans, in Parana 180,000, and in Santa Catharina 85,000. Most of the wealth and the best land are in their possession, and the male members are reported to be organized for military service and to be in possession of arms. Such a potential enemy in their midst might well make the Brazilians hesitate before committing themselves to a policy antagonistic. All the republics of Latin America may however, have awakened to the unpleasant possibilities of German penetration, and have arranged to act in concert in the event of there being any intention to violate on behalf of the Kaiser the hospitality given to these aliens.

Germany's aims in South America are very frankly stated by Prof. Gustav von Schmoller in a recent pamphlet entitled "Handels und Machtpolitik," where he writes:

"We must desire that at all costs a German country containing 20,000,000 to 30,000,000 Germans may grow up in the twentieth century in south Brazil, and that, no matter whether it remains a self contained state, or enters into close relations with our Empire. Unless our connection with Brazil is always secured by ships of war and unless Germany is able to exercise pressure there, our development is threatened."

The Monroe Doctrine, says The Outlook, would not affect the situation, for the German Government does not recognize its validity.

REDUCE CAR SHORTAGE BY FILLING CARS

The object in issuing these bulletins is not to start a controversy with the public and not to shift responsibility to the public, but to secure the cooperation of the public.

Bulletin No. 1 contained the following information, from 1907 to 1915:

The Freight carried on Canadian Railways increased.....	51%
The number of Freight Cars increased.....	91%
The total car capacity increased.....	131%
The average capacity of cars increased.....	5.8 Tons
The average weight of contents increased.....	3.0 Tons

The present heavy volume of traffic will no doubt continue so long as the war lasts. Additional cars and locomotives are needed but they cannot be secured in large numbers for many months. There is also a serious shortage of labor and in some places of yard trackage. The only way to improve the conditions therefore is to secure greater efficiency in the present equipment, terminal trackage, and man power. The railways alone cannot develop the maximum efficiency; the railways and the public co-operating can. Consignees can help by ordering full car loads instead of minima authorized in the tariffs and classifications, and consignees can help by loading cars to their full authorized cubical or carrying capacity.

A JRS Typical Train		Proposed Typical Train for 1917
Comparison	Cars	Average load	Weight of train	Weight of contents	Result
Typical train, 1915	23	18.4 tons	421 tons	145 tons	45 more tons carried
Proposed	20	23.4 tons	468 tons	165 tons	in 2 less cars

A COMPARISON		The Average Train
		1915	Proposed for 1917
Average weight of contents of cars.....	18.4 tons	23.4 tons
Total weight of cars.....	503 tons	448 tons
Total weight of contents.....	344 tons	399 tons
Total weight of train.....	847 tons	847 tons

Had the average load per car in 1915 been 23.4 tons instead of 18.4 tons the same traffic would have been handled with:

- 4,947,550 less tons of freight hauled one mile.
- 1,565,765 less car trips.
- 29,800,535 less tons of dead car tare hauled one mile.

By increasing now the average load by 5 tons per car the public could improve the efficiency of the equipment, facilities, and man power of the railways to an extent equal to:

- 54,000 additional freight cars
- 483 additional freight and yard engines
- 415 additional miles of yard trackage and
- 18.5 per cent increase in man power employed in train and yard service.

TORONTO WELCOMES NEW ZEALANDERS

HON. W. F. MASSEY AND SIR JOSEPH WARD GIVEN CIVIC GREETING.

Toronto, May 29.—The Rt. Hon. W. F. Massey, Premier of New Zealand, and Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Ward, Minister of Finance, ex-Premier and leader of the Liberal party, chief ministers of the War Time National Government of New Zealand, arrived in Toronto this morning on their way home from the Imperial Conference.

After a formal welcome at the City Hall, the party was entertained at a civic luncheon at the King Edward Hotel, many prominent citizens being present.

Premier Massey in reply to speeches of welcome prophesied a closer trade relation between the British peoples in the southern zones and those in the north. He congratulated Canada upon her conduct of her share in the war, saying:

"There is no brighter page in British history than the one recently added recording the answer of the British Dominions to the call of the Empire."

"When the state is fighting for life," he said, "it is entitled to the services of its whole people. And I don't believe it can be better provided than by universal compulsory military service."

Sir Joseph Ward advocated an imperial preference trade treaty, and a similar treaty with friendly neutrals, to combat German subventions and government bonuses in fighting for trade after the war. He advised Canada to adopt a national form of government during the war, composed of men of all political parties. This had been done in Great Britain, New Zealand, Australia and South Africa.

The party in the afternoon visited the Technical school, and at 4 o'clock reviewed the school cadets, and then, with Mayor Church repaired at Government House for five o'clock tea, leaving for Winnipeg at 8.40.

HEAVY BAIL ON AMERICAN ANTIS

FIVE OF THE TEN MEN ARRESTED HAVE PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Detroit, May 29.—Five of the ten men arrested yesterday on charges of interfering with the operation of the conscription act, were arraigned today in United States District Court. They pleaded not guilty and were held for hearing on June 6th. Bail was fixed at $5,000 for each prisoner.

It is charged that the men circulated Socialist literature which urged persons of military age not to enlist. Copies of the Michigan Socialist containing anti-conscription propaganda have been seized by government agents. The editor, Nathan L. Welch, was arrested yesterday.

FOREST FIRES NEAR FORT WILLIAM

Fort William, Ont., May 29.—Forest fires, raging all through the organized and unorganized districts around Fort William and Port Arthur, are destroying large areas of timber and uncut pulp wood. Bush fires have been raging in fully a hundred sections west of Fort William since last week, and great strips of forests in the unorganized sections of Connee and Beyond have been left blackened wastes.

WILL INVESTIGATE ORIGIN OF FIRE.

Fort William, Ont., May 29.—Deputy Fire Marshal George F. Lewis, representing the Ontario government, is in the city to investigate the origin of the fire which destroyed the plant of the Copp Stove Company.

RUSSIAN APPEAL AGAINST ALCOHOL

GENERAL WAVE OF INTOXICATION THREATENS TO SPREAD THROUGH THE COUNTRY.

Petrograd, via London, May 29.—The increase in the illicit sale of vodka and the general wave of intoxication which threatens to spread throughout the country, provoking disorders and endangering the internal peace of the country is the subject of a stirring appeal to citizens issued by the executive committee by the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates.

"We notice an increase of drunkenness in Petrograd and other parts of Russia," reads the appeal. "It is noticeable in the streets, railways, factories and barracks. Vodka feasting is found in the villages of the interior as well as at the front. An examination shows that many deplorable events in the last few weeks were due to drunkenness."

"Formerly the Emperor encouraged drunkenness since it helped to support the imperial throne. Now the Black Hundred is trying to intoxicate the country because it wants to create disorders, cause civil war and the return of the monarchy. Massacres will follow the appearance of Vodka, village will fight with each other and then the servants of the old regime will emerge from their hiding places and there will be a repetition of what happened in 1905. The work of the revolution will be drowned in blood by the enemies of the people. No one has the right to buy vodka or to drink it. Let it disappear forever, with the old regime."

COLD WEATHER DELAYS CROPS

GROWTH IN ONTARIO THIS YEAR IS FULLY A FORTNIGHT BEHIND.

Toronto, May 29.—The weekly report on conditions throughout the province of Ontario by the Department of Agriculture reveals the fact that the cold and backward weather has delayed the growth of crops both in field and orchard and has been detrimental to live-stock, as supplementary feeding is necessary to make up for the lack of grass.

Growth in field, forest and orchard appears to be fully a fortnight behind. It is many years since cattle were so late in being put on pasture. Seeding, however, is practically completed, with the exception of planting crops and roots, although considerable corn is already in. There will be an increased acreage of potatoes, beans, corn, oats, barley and spring wheat should the weather permit.

Fall wheat has been somewhat revived by the rains during the week.

STRUCK BY AUTO: DIES FROM INJURIES.

Victoria, B.C., May 29.—Following injuries received when an automobile struck him, Captain David McIntosh, who has been a resident of Victoria for many years, died this afternoon at the Jubilee Hospital. Captain McIntosh was crossing Government street when a motor car in charge of Mrs. E. S. Wina, wife of the chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board, who is learning to drive, knocked him down, two wheels passing over his body. He was taken to a nearby drug store and thence hurried to the hospital, where he died an hour later.

CONVENT BURNED IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Sechelt, B. C., May 29.—The Sechelt Indian school and convent was completely destroyed by fire this morning. The fire originated in the laundry, closely adjacent to the main building, and was first noticed about 12.30 a.m. Fanned by a fresh north wind, it soon jumped to the main building, which was a mass of ruins by daylight. There was no loss of life, and a few minor injuries to the children, sustained through falling glass. The loss is practically covered by insurance.

ALLIED MINISTERS HOLD CONFERENCE.

London, May 29.—It was officially announced today that Premier Ribot of France, Jules Cambon, General Secretary to the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Paul Cambon, the French Ambassador to Great Britain, Prof. Paul Painleve, the French Minister of War, General Foch and their military and diplomatic advisers yesterday held a series of conferences with the British War Cabinet on important matters affecting the two countries. It is announced that a complete agreement was reached on all points and that the French representatives returned to France yesterday afternoon.

RUSSIAN MONKS SERVE AT FRONT

WILL BE SENT TO WAR THEATRE FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SANITATION.

Petrograd, May 29, via London, May 30.—All the monks of Russia will be sent to the front to serve in the department of sanitation, according to orders issued by the War Ministry. Lay brothers will be recruited as soldiers.

Only recently the monks demanded equal political rights with the lay population, including the vote, and they have been giving other marked evidences of revolutionary zeal.

Five hundred criminal prisoners in the province of Nizhni-Novgorod, have petitioned the government that they be sent to join the army. A special commission has examined and accepted three hundred of those who signed the petition.

A novel measure to suppress thievery in the soldiers barracks has been put into practice in Petrograd. A captured thief was forced to walk along the Nevsky Prospect, bearing placards with the inscription: "I stole sugar and shoes from soldiers." After the ordeal he was given tea and released on the promise to be good. A similar story comes from Bessarabia where a clerk of the war organization was accused of stealing a horse. A yoke was placed about his neck and he was exhibited on a platform erected in a public square.

The Palace of Kshesinska, dancer and former favorite of Emperor Nicholas, which had served as a stronghold for the adherents of Nikolai Lenin, the Radical Socialist leader, is on the point of being surrendered to its rightful owner. After a long process in the courts the keys were delivered to the woman, who yesterday was permitted to examine the premises. One floor was still occupied by soldiers; another by extreme Socialists. The elaborate sitting room had been converted into a work shop and editorial room for the Socialist newspaper.

Part of the palace, resembling a Roman bath, was filled with short-haired girls operating typewriters. The marvellous sun parlor was utilized by the soldiers as a clubroom.

Kshesinska complained that furs to the value of 227,000 rubles were missing, although most of her valuable belongings had been carefully boxed and placed in locked rooms.

SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY FOR PARIS DRESSMAKERS.

Paris, May 29.—The Chamber of Deputies today passed a bill requiring employers in the dressmaking and millinery trades to give their employees a Saturday half holiday. This legalizes the agreement adopted by the employers and the working girls under which the recent strike was settled.

Leon Bourgeois, Minister of Labor opposed an amendment to the bill making the application of the law general to all trades on the ground that it would place difficulties in the way of bringing about an immediate realization of the object of the law. He said, however, that everyone was agreed as to the necessity of making the reform general as soon as possible.

ENDEAVOR TO SETTLE THE MINER'S STRIKE

Calgary, Alb., May 29.—President Graham and the members of the policy committee of the striking miners organization have received word that President Rees, Canadian representative on the international executive board, and a committee had left Indianapolis Sunday for Calgary, to take up the grievances between the men and the operators and endeavor to effect a settlement. There will be no change in the situation until their arrival.

Word has been received from Ottawa that this will be the last effort made to secure a settlement of the strike situation, and if it fails Hon. T. W. Crothers will be authorized to take over the mines and operate them by a government commission.

REVOLUTION SENTIMENT IN WURTEMBERG STATE.

Washington, May 29.—A considerable sentiment for revolution in the German state of Wurtemberg is reflected in news stories published in the Frankfort Zeitung. An official despatch today quoted the paper as saying on May 25 that a minority of the Social Democratic party in the state had bolted because the majority refused to advocate a revolution. The minority joined the Independent Democrats.

LAND SETTLEMENT FOR RETURNED MEN.

Toronto, May 29.—Announcement was made at the parliament buildings today that the townships of O'Brien and Owens, sixty or seventy miles west of Cochrane, on the Transcontinental Railway, will probably be set apart for returned soldiers and sailors who wish to settle on the land. Of twenty three disabled soldiers applying for grants today twenty two were accepted and will be sent to the training school at Montiel.

IS SATISFIED WITH RUSSIAN CONDITIONS

NEW REGIME CARRYING ON WORK SUCCESSFULLY SAYS NEW AMBASSADOR.

Tokio, May 29.—"I am immensely satisfied with conditions in Russia, including Siberia," said Professor Boris Bakmetieff, the new Russian Ambassador to the United States, on arriving here today. "I think the new regime is carrying on the work of organization successfully, and will soon be able to launch an offensive against the enemy."

Prof. Bakmetieff is at the head of a special commission of forty, on its way to the United States. He repudiated the idea that his country would make a separate peace. The reorganized provisional government of Russia, which had wisely incorporated labor elements in its membership, was devoting its efforts to organizing the national life, he said, and especially to strengthening the army. Difficulties have occurred, but they have been exaggerated, and it was unreasonable to assume that the ancient autocracy could be overthrown without encountering resultant obstacles.

During the trip from Petrograd, Prof. Bakmetieff said, he was impressed by the desire of the people to co-operate with the Government and continue the war to the victory which was essential to the salvation of Russia. He found local committees at work everywhere. At Irkutsk and Vladivostok, Governors had been elected and they are controlling the situation ably.

Among the members of the commission, which will sail for the United States on the Empress of Japan, on Friday, are General Ropp, who will be attached to the American army; M. Lomonoff, a railroad expert; M. Noritzky, representing the Finance Ministry; M. Borodin, representing the Ministry of Agriculture, and M. Oranovsky, an artillery expert.

TOLEDO ANTIS CAUSE A RIOT

ATTEMPTED TO ADDRESS CROWD — POLICE CALLED AND MADE ARRESTS.

Toledo, Ohio, May 29.—Two thousand persons, including militiamen, pacifists, police and citizens were participants in a riot here tonight as the outcome of an attempt of anti-conscription speakers to address a crowd in the streets.

The outbreak occurred when a citizen's cry of "Hurrah for Wilson" was answered by "Kaiser Wilson" from one of the pacifists. Soldiers stationed at a recruiting office nearby resented the remark and the riot resulted. Several persons were more or less seriously hurt. Police were called and several arrests were made.

PRICE OF GAS IN WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, May 29.—The Winnipeg Electric Railway Company has applied to the Public Utilities Commissioners for permission to raise the price of gas thirty cents per thousand feet. The present rate is $1.50 per thousand, exclusive of discount. The city will oppose the increase. The company's application states that the "increased rate is only intended to be a temporary war rate."

LIEUT.-COL. NATHANIEL NEWNHAM-DAVIS IS DEAD IN LONDON.

London, May 30.—Lieut.-Col. Nathaniel Newnham-Davis, author and playwright, died here Monday.

Lieut.-Col. Newnham-Davis, after retiring from the army, devoted his time to authorship. On the outbreak of war, however, he was appointed an officer of the military guard over prisoners of war at Alexandra Palace. He had in his early days served in hard campaigns in India and various other countries. He was part author of "Lady Madcap" produced at the Prince of Wales Theatre in 1904, and author of "A Day in Paris" (Empire Theatre) 1908, and New York (Empire Theatre) 1911. He was editor of "Town Topics" in 1914.

RELEASE OF PRISONERS.

Would Improve Prospects of Irish Settlement.

London, May 29.—The Chronicle's parliamentary correspondent says: "The prospects of success in the coming Irish convention would be improved by the release of the political prisoners now in England, many of whom have been held under martial law without bail. "There is every reason for saying that Sir Edward Carson is rendering every possible assistance to the Prime Minister in bringing about a settlement of the Irish problem."

EXEMPT MEN WITH NO VICTOR AND NO VANQUISHED

MOTION MADE IN CANADIAN SENATE YESTERDAY, BY SENATOR POWER.

Ottawa, May 29.—In the Senate today Senator Power moved that in any measure intended to introduce conscription into Canada, provision should be made that "no man whose father, brother or son has gone to the seat of war as a member of the Canadian expeditionary force, or is being trained in England preparatory to going to the front, shall be selected for compulsory service."

In speaking of the motion, Senator Power said that there appeared to be some misunderstanding on its effect. He did not undertake to pronounce upon the principal of conscription; to say whether conscription were wise or unwise; and if called upon today to vote upon conscription he would not care to vote either for or against it, until he had heard discussion by supporters and opponents of conscription. Therefore any general discussion of conscription on his motion would be out of order.

Senator Power said he had been asked why he had offered his motion at this time instead of waiting until the Government's promised conscription measure was before parliament? He would say that the Government had promised a conscription measure; that this amendment might well be embodied in the bill which the government was drafting; that it was difficult for an Opposition Senator to have the Government accept an amendment after a bill had been introduced.

Families that had sent no one to the front should be first called upon, to make up the eighty thousand men now needed, he declared.

Senator Landry said that by the resolution Senator Power wanted to bind the Senate to the principle of conscription in advance of the introduction of the Government's promised measure. He thought any such action as Senator Power proposed should wait until the Government had introduced its bill and its proposals were known.

Sir James Loughheed expressed the opinion that the resolution was out of order, as it anticipated a measure of which notice had been given, and proposed that the Senate should pass upon something which might or might not be in the Government's bill.

Senator Choquette thought that the resolution should stand on the order paper, until the Government's bill came down. He proposed to ask this treatment for the resolution he had given notice of that "in the opinion of this House, any law of conscription, voted by the parliament of this country, could not be enforced without being ratified by the Canadian people in a general election."

Speaker Bolduc said he would give his decision tomorrow on the point of order.

TORONTO TEAMSTERS CALL OFF STRIKE.

Toronto, May 29.—The strike of railway teamsters which has been hampering the movement of freight shipments from terminal yards to consignees warehouses, was called off today.

LIBERAL CANDIDATE.

Wingham, Ont., May 29.—Archib. Hyslop, of Brussels, was the unanimous choice of the North Huron Liberal Association for the House of Commons at the annual meeting of that body held here today. In the election of officers, W. H. Robinson, of Goderich, was named president.

CHILD DROWNED IN CISTERN

Forest, Ont., May 29.—The dead body of the two year old daughter of Private Joseph Blackwell and his wife of this village was discovered at noon today by Mrs. Blackwell floating in the house cistern. It is not known how the child came to fall in the place. Private Blackwell is a member of the 149th Lambton Battalion and is now in England.

SHOWERS SMOTHER BUSH FIRES.

Fort William, Ont., May 29.—Locust showers today have done much to smother bush fires which were prevalent in this district. The rain has not yet been sufficient to eliminate all danger. So far no losses have been reported among settlers in outlying districts.

VALUABLE CARGO REACHES BOSTON

Boston, May 29.—A cargo of Egyptian cotton valued at $8,000,000, was brought to an Atlantic port today by a steamer which for ten days, according to her captain, had dodged submarines in the Mediterranean Sea.

COL. BASIL WHITE IN FRANCE.

London, May 29.—Col. Basil White, formerly director of Canadian ordnance in England, is now assistant director of Canadian ordnance in France. Additional units of the Forestry Corps have arrived in France.

NO VICTOR AND NO VANQUISHED

SUCH IS A RUSSIAN SOCIALIST MINISTER'S VIEW OF A PEACE.

Petrograd, via London, May 29.—The newspaper organ of the Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates, says: "We must not allow any misinterpretation of our watchword. 'Annexation' means the forcible seizure of territory in another State on the day of a declaration of war. 'Without annexation' means not a drop of the people's blood for such seizure."

M. Tchernoff, the Socialist Minister of Agriculture, addressing a congress of delegates from the front, said: "Peace must be concluded in which there are no victors and no vanquished. There is no question, however, of a separate peace. Appeals have been published for an immediate attack, but the army should utilize the present lull to organize itself. Then it will need no prompting; it will know itself what to do."

This publication, after quoting two English newspapers to the effect that the declaration of the provisional government and the pronouncements of the revolutionary leaders show that the Russian peace formula coincides with the Anglo-French war aims, says:

"You are deceiving yourselves, gentlemen, or, rather, you are vainly striving to delude your fellow countrymen concerning the real policy of the Russian revolution. The revolution will not sacrifice a single soldier to help you repair the 'historic injustices' committed against you. What about the historic injustices committed by yourselves, and your violent oppression of Ireland, India, Egypt and innumerable people inhabiting all the continents of the world? If you are so anxious for justice that you are prepared in its name to send millions of people to the grave, then, gentlemen, begin with yourselves."

THUGS ATTACK MAN IN CHURCH

WAS PRAYING IN MONTREAL TEMPLE WHEN SEIZED AND ROBBED.

Montreal, May 29.—While praying in Notre Dame Church at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, Napoleon Clarisse, of 115 McCord street, was seized by two thugs, struck in the face, lifted bodily from the pew and carried to a quiet corner of the vestibule at the entrance where he was robbed of $4. The two men then struck him again, and left him in a dazed condition. Other people were in the church at the time, but no one appears to have noticed any undue commotion. Clarisse reported the matter to the police.

ON MISSION TO RUSSIA.

London, May 29.—It is officially announced that Arthur Henderson, member of the British cabinet without portfolio and of the War Council, has undertaken an important government mission to Russia, and that George Nicoll Barnes, Minister of Pensions, has been appointed a member of the War Cabinet without portfolio during Mr. Henderson's absence.

It is assumed that Mr. Barnes will vacate the Ministry of Pensions and that as a member of the cabinet he will represent the Labor interests of which Mr. Henderson was spokesman.

CANADIANS DESTROY ENEMY POSITIONS

HOWITZERS CONTINUE THEIR HEAVY WORK SOUTHWEST OF LENS.

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, May 29.—(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of The Canadian Press)—Our heavy howitzers continue their work of destroying the enemy's gun positions to the south-west of Lens, while trench destruction and wire cutting proceeded all along the front. The wire cutting is a slow, laborious task where the defensive system has been well constructed, as the Morcourt-Oppy line undoubtedly was. It takes about ten shells per lineal yard where the belt of wire is thirty feet wide or more, to ensure a passage for the infantry. When the stretch of wire and trenches under treatment extends for miles along the front the purely physical work involved is very great, even if the enemy's retaliation is only halted.

From a position on Vimy Ridge yesterday I watched wire-cutting and trench destruction. Across the plain there ran a tall-tale chalk line, showing the enemy trench. Standing all alone this might indicate only a dummy trench, constructed to draw fire, while the real trench was placed some distance back, but a belt of rusty wire in front proves that the chalk line is really a trench, representing the Mericourt-Oppy defensive system. Into this rusty streak and chalk line beyond the shells from our batteries drop with remorseless precision, throwing up geisers of the brown surface of the earth, mingled with the underlying chalk. In all the wide expanse there is not a man in sight. With the shells passing overhead from our batteries, concealed from observation, if the enemy is holding the trench, in any strength, he is having a hard time of it. The probability is that he has temporarily abandoned the trench, which, from our aerial observation is known to be badly wrecked, and is holding the line by the occupation of a series of strong posts in isolated positions and provided with machine gun emplacements.

The Bosche is exceedingly clever in concealing these gun emplacements. A small haystack left in a field, as the custom is here, may have beneath it an elaborate concrete emplacement for a nest of machine guns. I have seen such emplacements with reinforced walls over four feet thick. They can be destroyed only by the direct hit of a heavy shell. As a few machine guns well handled, can cut up an assaulting battalion, the artillery must keep plugging away till all the known machine gun positions are destroyed as effectively as the wire.

There is nothing romantic about this sort of warfare. In truth it is horribly monotonous for the gunners, many of whom, if home in Canada just now, would be sitting for graduation class photographs, or worrying over anticipated supplementaries in the examination results. Here they are dealing with deadly things. Happily the losses from the enemy retaliation continue to be light. The most serious recent case of losses was entirely accidental. A soldier kicked an unexploded shell which, in going off, caused thirty-five casualties including five deaths. This is the worst accident in the history of the Canadian corps, a reminder of the terrific power of high explosives and the need for vigilance in handling them.

Today the pipers of the entire corps, gave an entertainment behind the lines. The hundred pipers of the song were not in it with our pipers. There were 175 in the massed band. If the enemy airplanes were anywhere within miles of us they must have thought our whole corps had joined a pipe school.

RECONSTRUCTION OF CABINET.

The proposed reconstruction of the Borden Government with the view to effectively further enlarge Canadian operations in the war is an important step; and one that will at this crisis further impress upon the people the seriousness of the situation from the standpoint of Empire.

ITALY.

In the telling blow for the Allied cause now being struck by Italy, it is significant of the growth of Britain's military strength that a strong detachment of the British heavy batteries fought with the Italians. This is practical co-operation of the right sort. It will serve as an object lesson to the Italians on the reality of the support which the Western Allies stand ready to give them if a great tonic thrust is ever delivered against them.

The Italians have won a double victory, the one over the enemy and the other nature which fashioned the battle ground with crags and rocks which made it almost impassible. The great drive, too, was accomplished against the highly-organized forces of the Austrians who spent many months getting ready for just such an attack.

The march of Cadorna's army through the difficult passages on the front, from the hills of Castaghavizza to the sea, was one of the most dramatic incidents of the whole war. Observers at the front say that progress against the tremendous forces of nature and the enemy is almost incredible.

The actual result of the Italian drive is that Italy has now broken through a heavy Austrian defence along a seven and a half mile front, to a depth of two miles, while the big salient already held in the direction of Monte Hermanda has been accentuated until it reaches a flank on the mountain, forming a left bastion of the enemy's front.

Italy's prestige as a belligerent rises greatly by reason of this military success, which will quiet fears recently expressed that the Central Powers were preparing for a terrific offensive against her.

Imperative task on the Western front, and could only spare a modicum of raw material at considerable sacrifice. If the war had ended during the year of Italy's entry, all would have been well; and there was some hope of this then if Russia had held and Roumania had joined the Allies.

PRESS COMMENT.

At the Labor party conference in Manchester in the first month of 1917 one of the leaders said: "If the soldier was worth two pounds a week when he was destroying things, was he not worth two pounds when he was producing? A country which can find millions of 'quids' to feed the cannon's mouth can find millions to feed the worker's mouth."

The other day, says Arthur Gleason in the New York Tribune, I was sitting at luncheon with the Mayor of one of the great English cities. He said to me: "Never again will there be the cry of 'No money to spend.' A thousand million for war and you haggle over twenty million for education? Give us education. Continue the high wages. Don't knock off the war bonuses. Make them permanent. Pay unskilled labor a minimum of 30 shillings, and later raise it to two pounds. We don't need to worry about the skilled trade unionists. Let them fight for their three and four pounds. There will be no trouble after the war. Labor will obtain its demands. Wages can't be lowered. The workers won't let them."

That is one of the new ideas brought into English life by the war; there must be a better use of money and a wider distribution of it than in the past. This idea will be applied, for instance, to the care of motherhood and child welfare. At the maternity centres one has now the spectacle of the State keeping the mother and child alive, but under-nourished. If the State is to intervene at all it must do so vigorously. Otherwise the cost of intervention (which is paid for by taxation) fails to result in a sturdy race, paying back the subsidy by production.

Another change I feel in English life is an emotional change. It is the disappearance of hysteria that was caused by suppression. I don't refer to the orgasmic elements in the English nature, which are revealed at the corner public house and on Bank Holiday. These are the periodic explosions of the natural man. It was inevitable that England should have created the Salvation Army and indulged in Mafeking Night. The normal Englishman is a free, noisy creature, who talks by the hour, interrupts public meetings and lives as a human being should.

I am speaking of the English middle class, the forlornest middle class known to me. France and America have nothing like it. The suppression of emotional life in the women—the creation of the pose of "good form," the severely reticent lady, neither heard nor even seen in public—has resulted in a rather widespread hysteria in that one stratum of the community; the middle class lady. These women are desirous to be true to type, to do nothing that is not correct, and the result has been a prim and regulated life, full of negations,

GASOLINE PUMPS OBSTRUCT TRAFFIC

POLICE COMMITTEE OF THAT OPINION—MUST BE BUILT WITHIN.

It was decided by the Police and By-law Committee last night to prohibit the construction of gasoline pumps on the sidewalk, as they constitute an obstruction to traffic.

A by-law will be drafted to oblige all pumps in the future, to be erected within garages, so that when automobiles are served, traffic will not be obstructed.

A request by Mr. Poulin to erect a gasoline tank under the sidewalk on Crown street, was refused by the Committee, as the City Engineer reported that it would constitute a menace to public safety.

The mounted police will receive orders to patrol St. Valier street, near St. Charles cemetery where residents are complaining that tramps congregate and create considerable disturbance.

LATE MRS. CHAPMAN.

The death of Mrs. Chapman (widow of the late Mr. Arthur Gascoigne Chapman) which occurred last Thursday May 24th, was read with the deepest regret by her large circle of friends. The deceased lady was truly beloved by all who had the happiness of knowing her intimately. In her quiet, saintly life. She never forgot the poor around her, yet so silently were her generous acts performed, few knew of her unbounded charity.

Mrs. Chapman, was a strict follower of the commandment "Love Your Neighbor." She was never known to say anything detrimental to character, or indeed anything unkind, and her rare charity in this respect, was remarked by all, for this noble virtue is, alas, all too rarely met with, but the esteem, and reverence which it won for Mrs. Chapman must be the greatest comfort to her two sons (Mr. A. G. Chapman of this city, and Mr. Mowbray Chapman of Australia) whom she leaves to mourn their loss.

PETITION TO ABOLISH 1 A. M. CLOSING RECEIVED BY POLICE COMMITTEE.

A petition signed by the proprietors of local restaurants asking that they be permitted to keep open all night, instead of closing at 1 a.m. was received by the Police and By-law Committee last night.

It is argued that the restaurants in the city at the present time are well-conducted, clean, orderly establishments and it is a source of great inconvenience to the travelling public and many citizens who work at night not to be able to procure a meal after one o'clock in the morning.

The Committee left the question over and will reach a decision at the next meeting.

MR. W. J. ALLEN PASSES AWAY.

The sad and unexpected death of Mr. William John Allen of Champlain street, will cause a very painful surprise to the very wide circle of his friends and acquaintances. He died at his home, on Champlain street, surrounded by the members of his family, after an illness of about three weeks. It was hoped to the last, that his very strong constitution would carry him safely through.

Not much more than a month ago, the local newspapers had informed the public that Mr. Allen had joined the Aviation Corps in Toronto. The Military Authorities had found him perfectly fit and as sound as a bell. Unfortunately, a week or two afterwards, he came home stricken with the illness which eventually proved fatal.

His eldest son, who went to the front with the first Canadian Expeditionary force returned a few weeks ago seriously wounded. He is also the father of Mr. W. T. Allen, formerly proprietor of the Commercial Hotel.

ORGAN RECITAL AT THE BASILICA

MUSICIAN FROM PARIS DELIGHTED GATHERING OF ABOUT FIFTEEN HUNDRED.

For nearly two hours Mr. Joseph Bonnet, organist of St. Eustache of Paris, delighted a gathering numbering about fifteen hundred, in his Organ Recital at the Basilica last evening.

The talented young musician selected a varied program which gave him ample scope to display his wonderful skill at the organ. While every selection seemed to please the large audience, his work in "Gavotta" (of the 12th organ sonata) by Padre Martini, was especially pleasing to the large number of music lovers who crowded the Basilica. Although this piece did not seem to call for the best efforts of the musician it was beautiful in its simplicity, the thrillingly appealing especially to all.

Two of the organist's own compositions, "Romance without Words," and "Concert Variations," were termed after the Recital as revelations in organ playing by one well-known musician, who was amazed with M. Bonnet's pedal work in these numbers.

The Recital, which was given to raise funds for regions devastated in France by the war, was a huge success in every respect. The attendance comprised citizens of all creeds and nationalities.

Following is the programme:—

- 1. Alexandre Guilmant (1845-1911); Sonate en re mineur op 42; Introduction et allegro. Pastorale. Final.
2. Francois Couperin (1668-1733); "Soeur Monique"; "Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707); Fuge en do majeur"; "Padre Martini: "Gavotta" (12th Organ Sonata);
3. Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Toccata et fugue en re mineur.
4. Cesar Franck (1822-1890); Choral No. 3, en la mineur...
5. Joseph Bonnet: "Romances sans paroles" (1)...
Joseph Bonnet: Variations de Concert...

COAL OIL STOVE CAUSES FIRE.

The explosion of a coal oil stove caused about three hundred dollars damage by fire at the residence of Mr. Rheault on Bourlamaque avenue yesterday afternoon. The firemen were called by a alarm from box 523. The building is owned by Mr. Godbout. Two other alarms for trivial fires and one false alarm were rung in yesterday.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN THE HIGH COST OF LIVING?

Of course, you are, every wide-awake housewife, housekeeper, is to a more or less extent.

Well, here is your opportunity to help reduce the abnormal cost of foodstuffs and its relation to your own home. Have you ever considered the preparation of your food and the amount of waste that is entailed in the preparation of every meal? Perhaps you will say I never considered that. Many others have said the same thing, but after they had come to realize the facts, an immense saving was possible which was highly appreciated. Not only will you swell your pocket book, but you will get more nourishment out of your food, therefore, you will have better health. This can only be had by cooking electrically.

You will say, what has that got to do with it, if you are still interested in reducing your food expenses. You will please note that if you cook beef by electricity, a 4-pound joint for example, you save one pound three ounces roast beef, valued at 28c over the same if it is cooked by coal; if cooked by gas, one pound six ounces, valued at 32c, is saved.

Now, don't you think that this saving is worth while when the same applies on other meats and other articles of food as well. This will mean that if you cook two 4-pound roasts of beef a week, which is putting it at a minimum, it would mean a saving of about $30.00 per year, over cooking by coal, and $35.00 by gas.

Not only will you save money, but you will save time and health as well. The Electric Range is quick in operation, as all you have to do is turn a switch and you have heat immediately, the same as if you turned on the electric light in your home, and thereby time is saved. You have no over-heated kitchen, no ashes, soot, or smoke, which is a health saving.

Preparatory to cooking: There is absolutely nothing to contaminate the food when you use an "Electric Range." If you are interested in reducing the high cost of living further explanation of operation and advantages of Electric Cooking will be gladly given by our demonstrators at the "Electric Shop," 146 St. John street, Public Service Corporation.

EXPERT REVIVAL IN COLLEGE SPORTS

ALL EASTERN INSTITUTIONS MAY RESUME ATHLETIC ACTIVITY.

New York, May 28.—The conviction is growing among close followers of college sports that athletic activity will be resumed at almost all of the Eastern institutions when they open next fall. Several meetings and conferences are to be held to discuss this subject in the near future and if advance expression of opinions counts it is apparent that sentiment is strongly in favor of a restoration of competitive conditions which prevailed before the declaration of a state of war.

Undoubtedly the statement by President Wilson indicating that he thoroughly believes in a continuation of sport at the colleges "as a real contribution to the national defense" has had a direct bearing upon the situation. There was a wide difference of opinion among members of the various university athletic associations early this spring when sport schedules began to be cancelled.

A number were in favor of maintaining the regular system until such time as it should seem that competitive contests were interfering with the military training program. Those institutions which continued their schedules, however, found it difficult to secure suitable opponents under the prevailing conditions and it was soon realized that the situation would have to be adjusted if there was to be the usual co-operation next Autumn.

It is with this idea in mind that the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Graduate Athletic Managers Association have decided to meet and discuss plans for a revival of college sports under restrictions in keeping with the war spirit of the times. Several suggestions have been advanced which may be incorporated in the temporary rules or eligibility code to govern sport while war prevails.

These include the suspensions of both the one-year and the freshman rule, thus permitting any regularly enrolled student to compete as a member of a varsity team as well as limiting areas of competition; coaching; admission fees and the appointment of same to worthy causes, such as the Red Cross. It is conceded that under these suggested changes the standard might be lowered in certain lines of sport, such as the highly developed football played by certain of the larger university eleven. To offset this it is pointed out, however, that more students would try for the various athletic combinations and training would be adopted upon a broader scale.

RING GOSSIP.

LEONARD MAY MEET JOHNNY KILBANE

New York, May 29.—When Benny Leonard won the lightweight championship of the world from Freddy Welsh here last night he scored his fifth consecutive knockout in as many weeks. Referee McPartland stopping the bout when Welsh was hanging helplessly on the ropes in Leonard's corner. It was a technical knockout and will be credited as such.

Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, the recognized world's featherweight champion before the bout began challenged the winner. As soon as Leonard had won Matt Hinkel, a boxing promoter of Cleveland, O., who was at the ringside, immediately offered a purse of $25,000 for a twelve or fifteen round bout between Leonard and Kilbane to take place at Canton, O., on July 4, and arranged for all parties concerned to meet him here tonight.

Cincinnati, O., May 29.—Jack Dillon, of Indianapolis, and George Chip of Newcastle, Pa., fought ten slow rounds to a draw here tonight, according to the consensus of opinion among the sporting writers at the ringside.

Sporting Notes

The April showers were right there with the goods, but the May flowers are having a tough time of it.

Secretary Lepine of the Quebec Baseball League says that the Exhibition Commission have not yet given a definite answer regarding the grounds for baseball. If the League is willing to play there games there without charging an admission fee it is difficult to see what objections anybody can have.

The Standards and Sillery teams will practice Friday evening instead of Wednesday. Members of both clubs are requested to come up and assist in putting the new grounds in shape. Both clubs have agreed on terms for the season and will put the ground in good shape for baseball. Messrs. C. T. Phillips of Sillery and H. McCord, manager of the Standards are lessees of the grounds.

Next Sunday's ball games will be played in Levis. The Naps will play Patricia's while St. Patricks will endeavor to take the Lauzon team's measure.

H. LeB.—Regret we cannot publish young article as it is rather malicious.

A Boston college team is looking for games in Quebec, Manager McNulty having communicated with secretary Lepine of the local league.

"Red" Allen is looking for a bout in Quebec with Frankie Fleming. Allen says he'll make 138 ringside for the Montrealer.

Gus Lavigne and Kid Burns will be matched for a bout soon.

The two Racine brothers are playing good games for the Napoleons. These boys have a bad habit of always playing with championship teams, so the Naps should have their luck with them this season. Bot's brothers played with Royals when they won the championship in 1911 and with Victorias during the winning of the 1913 title. Last year they were with champion Laval outfit.

Charlie White says he'll enlist after he gets another fight. That's what they all say. "Just one more, before we go."

SUNDAY BASEBALL.

The proposal to play Sunday baseball in the big league parks of the eastern cities for the benefit of the military or Red Cross funds is likely to be strongly opposed by the authorities of both Philadelphia and Boston. Officers of city government in both communities have indicated that it would require a special legislative act which would be likely to meet considerable opposition.

"NEWSY" LALONDE PAYS TO GET IN

LACROSSE HOLD-OUT WATCHES THE GAME FROM THE BLEACHERS NOW.

It is understood that the offence of Nate Penny in attacking DeGray of Nationals, on Saturday afternoon without any apparent excuse and after DeGray had been sent to the side, will be reported to President Joe Lalley of the National Lacrosse Union.

It is considered that the ruling of John Denny, the judge-of-play was entirely inadequate in Penny's case, and that he should also have penalized DeGray from behind when it looked as if the latter would get the best of the conflict.

A feature of the match was the presence of "Newsy" Lalonde in the "bleacher" space set aside for spectators, where he could be seen hanging over the fence earnestly watching the doings of the teams.

He had paid his admission like any other ordinary citizen.—"The Star."

SPRING MEETING AT BELMONT PARK

ORMESDALE EASILY CAPTURED THE METROPOLITAN HANDICAP BY 4 LENGTHS.

New York, May 29.—With the Metropolitan Handicap at one mile as the feature of the card, the annual spring meeting began at the Belmont Park race course today. Only seven horses forced the barrier, owing to the inclement weather and a heavy track. R. T. Wilson's four year old chestnut Ormesdale by Ormandale-Madchen, carrying 111 pounds and cleverly ridden by Jockey Johnny McTaggart, was returned an easy winner by four lengths.

The public choice, James Butler's Spur, another four year old, finished second, a length in front of Harry Payne Whitney's aged gelding Morrow which finished third. Dick Williams, Celandria, Old Koenig and Fernock the other starters, finished in the order named. August Belmont scratched the top weight Stromboli but substituted Fernock. Celandria was another added starter.

Off to a good start, McTaggart took Ormesdale out in front and never relinquished the lead. Dick Williams, Morrow and Celandria followed closely while Spur, which was slow to get going, Old Koenig and Fernock was the order as they raced to the bend out of the back stretch. As they turned, Dick Williams and Celandria challenged the leader but they were shaken off beaten and Morrow made his bid at the top of the home stretch. Meanwhile the favorite Spur, running close to the rail, was gamely answering his riders call and in the final quarter of a mile he passed Morrow but he was unable to gain on the leader. He had to be hard ridden and whipped to beat Morrow.

McTaggart had something left in his mount and when he let him down for the final effort Ormesdale responded and won going away in handy fashion. The winners time 1:39 1/4 was excellent considering the condition of the track. The race had a guaranteed value of $5,000.

THE MODEL OF "PEER GYNT"

There are many models back of "Peer Gynt," and among them a young Dane. Isben met the young man frequently in Italy. He was a peculiarly conceited and affected young bluffer. He used to tell the Italian girls at Ischia and Capri that his father, a school teacher in reality, was the best friend of the king of Denmark, and that he himself was one of the greatest men in Denmark. To prove this, he often appeared in entire suits of white satin. He called himself a poet, but could find poetical inspiration only in the wilderness or in desolate, dreary spots. He once went to Crete to write, he said, a great drama or tragedy. He returned, however without having accomplished his purpose. He averred that he could feel tragic emotion only in the mountains, and lived in self-delusion and illusion.

Some of his characteristics have passed in "Peer Gynt." Otherwise "Peer Gynt" is supposed to be an incarnation of Norwegian folkish. Peer's lies are not really falsehoods, if this implies the intention to deceive others. "Peer Gynt" has something in common with Cervantes' "Don Quixote," and is more closely related to Daudet's "Tartarin."

AT THE THEATRES

THE AUDITORIUM HAS IT:— A BRILLIANT COMEDY THAT WILL MAKE YOU LAUGH

AND THERE IS ALSO "A TALE OF TWO CITIES," THE GREAT DRAMA OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION — IT IS DRAWING CROWDS AND TODAY IS YOUR LAST CHANCE TO SEE THOSE TWO FOX FEATURES.

Everybody is talking about them! The two features that have been drawing crowds to the Auditorium since Monday. There is, first, the big Fox laughing comedy "The House of Terrible Scandals," a screaming laughing comedy in three reels and then, there is the emotional drama, "A Tale of Two Cities," the work that placed Charles Dickens among the immortal writers.

With its scores of funny, amusing situations, "The House of Terrible Scandals" is just the comedy that makes you laugh, that drains out of your system any vestige of grouch, worry or trouble. It had been making hundreds of Quebecers go merry since Monday, and today, matinee and evening, is your last chance to see these two Fox Features.

Of the drama "A Tale of Two Cities," inspired by the French Revolution, may be said what was said of Charles Dickens when he first produced that work in book form. It is immortal. The plot is one that stirs your soul to its very depth of emotion and the love story it relates is one that rises to the very heights of human nobility and the most generous sentiment.

The present engagement of these two pictures closes with this evening's performance starting at 8 sharp, while today's matinee starts at 2.15 p.m. Popular Prices.

AT THE VICTORIA THEATRE TODAY AND TOMORROW

"MASTER OF ARMS" A STIRRING DRAMA

PAUL CAZENEUVE AND COMPANY WILL BE SEEN IN PLAY AT AUDITORIUM ON THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

The play "The Master of Arms," by Atherton Brownell, that opens at the Auditorium Thursday night for the home coming of Mr. Paul Cazeneuve, is written about a sword. Those who suspect it of being a war play in consequence will find themselves mistaken, for this sword is a rusty old blade four hundred years old, a genuine Ferrara, made by the famous "Ferrara of Cordova of Spain." All the romance and chivalry of those old days are beaten in this slender blade all thus perpetuated in the play through the character of the old fencing master, so admirably and wonderfully portrayed by Mr. Cazeneuve.

William McLennan, the Canadian author, who wrote the verses "The Sword of Ferrara," that were later set to music by Fred. Field Bulland, composer of "The Stem Song," probably had the history of the famous old Ferrara blade at his command when he called it a Spanish sword, even though the Encyclopedia Britannica gives Venice as the home of Ferrara.

There are probably not more than two or three genuine Ferrara blades in existence today and these bear the maker's mark "Arta et fabrica par Ferrara de Cordova" and this the poet translates in rhythm in the song as:
"Ferrara made and fashioned me in Cordova, in Spain."
These Ferrara swords were famous for their wonderful temper that exceeded the even more famous Toledo blades, but it is probable also that their beautiful hilts and mount-

ANNIVERSARY OF FRANCE'S MARTYR

HISTORICAL ACCURACY FEATURE OF MOTION PICTURE —GERALDINE FARRAR AS "JOAN OF ARC."

That the motion picture has opened up an entirely new and unlimited field for the presentation of great historical events in the form of most stirring dramas, is the opinion of those who were acquainted with the preparatory work on "Joan the Woman," in which Geraldine Farrar appears as the star and which was produced by Cecil B. DeMille. It will be shown at the Olympia Theatre on June 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th.

Today is the anniversary of the death of Joan of Arc.

There is a vast difference between motion picture productions, the stories of which have modern or fairly modern backgrounds, and a great cinema story of the early 15th century. Even before Miss Farrar went to California three months ago to devote her entire summer exclusively to a characterization of Joan of Arc, the most careful preparations had been made to abide by the best authorities, not only in the telling of the story, but in the customs, manners, dress and details of the period.

According to the late Mark Twain, whose book about Joan of Arc is one of the finest things he ever wrote, the life of the Maid of Orleans is unique in human history as having been recorded under sworn testimony. During the great trial when Joan of Arc was called upon to prove she was not a heretic, every incident and detail of her life was revealed. These records are preserved to the present day.

When Miss Farrar was in France as a student of the operatic stage, she became an enthusiastic disciple of Joan of Arc. In order to gratify this enthusiasm she travelled over the entire section of France sacred to the French people as being the soil on which Joan achieved her great triumphs. During the taking of the picture, in which she plays the title role, Miss Farrar was invaluable in supplying details of historic accuracy.

The cast which appears in support of Miss Farrar includes Wallace Reid, Theodore Roberts, Hobart Bosworth, Raymond Hatton, Tully Marshall, James Neill, Marjorie Daw, Lillian Leighton, Hugh Koch, Billy Eimer, Charles Clary and many others.

Only two shows daily—Prices 25 and 35 cents.

"THE DEVIL'S TOY" AT EMPIRE TODAY

Management Have at Last Received Assurance That Much-Talked-of Picture Will Be Here.

"The Devil's Toy," featuring Adele Blood, which has created much comment everywhere it has been shown and which was to have been shown here some time ago, will be screened for the first time at the Empire Theatre this afternoon and patrons will therefore be given an opportunity to judge for themselves the merit of the production which has been awaited with eagerness by local motion picture lovers.

The Empire management also announces the coming engagement of the wonderfully spectacular photoplay, "The Masque of Life," greater than "The Daughter of the Gods."

CHAS. RAY AND FRANK KEENAN AT THE CLASSIC

Wednesday and Thursday.
Charles Ray and Frank Keenan, also Louis Glaum, the vampire of the screen, will star in a society drama of strong appeal, i.e., "Honor Thy Name."

Friday and Saturday.
Coming again, Mrs. Vernon Castle in "Patria." The third episode is more exciting than the first two. Another great feature is on the bill, i.e., Wm. H. Thompson and Marjory Wilson.

In "The Eyes of the Night" She loved him—thrust him—and they were married, but when the war clouds gathered, he had to go to the front—and then the baby was born. This is a picture that reaches right down to your heart and gets it. When you have seen it you will understand why these pictures are leagues ahead of any others produced.

Here it is at last! "The Devil's Toy" at the Empire today.

A Nation Obeyed HER Command

IN the world since history began JOAN OF ARC stands supreme as the greatest woman who ever lived. Ignorant, unlettered, she rose from a peasant's hearth until, within a short span of two years, she stood beside kings.

At seventeen years of age she was commander-in-chief of the French armies. At nineteen she was burned at the stake by the people she loved. They did not understand.

It is a story which has thrilled men, women and children through the centuries. Now it is told, beautifully, wonderfully, by the marvelous motion picture.

DIPLOMATIC COMMITTEE

INTERNED SHIPS.

Rio Janeiro, May 29.—Seizure of German ships and adoption of naval measures against Germany in collaboration with the Entente Allies is recommended by the diplomatic committee of the Chamber of Deputies on receipt of the message from the president, Senhor Braz, regarding the torpedoing of the Brazilian steamship Tijuca. The commission decided to submit to Congress a bill authorizing the president to utilize German ships in Brazilian ports, to provide for defense of Brazilian navigation, to reach an understanding with the allied nations in regard to measures which will assure freedom of foreign commerce, and to revoke the decrees of neutrality issued during the war as soon as advisable. It is probable that the bill which had its first reading yesterday, for the revocation of Brazilian neutrality in the war between Germany and the United States will be amended so as to provide also for the cancellation of the decrees of neutrality in the war between the Central Empires and the European allies.

FISHERMEN NOT AFRAID.

Newfoundland Not Worrying About U-Boats Crossing Atlantic.

New York, May 29.—An Associated press despatch from St. John, Nfld today says:

Newfoundland fishermen do not share the fear expressed by some followers of the sea in Nova Scotia that German submarines may cross the Atlantic and work havoc in the fishing flotilla gathered on the Grand Banks. Word has been received that the fishing fleet of 120 vessels from Lunenburg, N.S., which annually seeks cod on the Grand Banks, is likely to abandon that region this summer because of such apprehension.

Local fishing interests consider the danger insufficient to warrant staying away from such prolific fishing grounds, and as prices for the catch promise to be higher than ever this year the indications are that the fleet from this colony will be even more active than usual on the Grand Banks.

NORWEGIAN SHIP SUNK.

Corunna, Spain, May 29, via Paris.—The Norwegian ship Unia, 3,000 tons, was sunk yesterday by a German submarine. Men from the submarine held up the Unia, boarded her, and destroyed her with bombs. The captain and crew of twenty four have reached Corunna.

BRITISH TRAWLERS AND HUN U-BOATS.

London, May 28.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Stories not hitherto published of lively encounters between British trawlers and German submarines in the North Sea were told by Robert Lowry and others at the recent meeting of the Mission to National Seamen. One trawler, Sir Robert said, became such a terror to U-boats that four of them lay in wait and eventually destroyed it. On one occasion, this trawler armed with two light guns was attacked by a submarine. One shot went through the deckhouse, another smashed the wheel "but the skipper went on steering with broken spokes." Another shot carried away the cook's galley but the trawler's gunner hit the submarine which then had enough of it and went under.

Another unarmed trawler saw a submarine on the North Sea and made a dash for it with the result that the U-boat quickly submerged. "It went underneath," said Sir Robert, "because it could not imagine it possible that a trawler would have the courage to attack if it were not armed."

Sir Robert related how they learned of the sinking of two submarines by the bodies of the crew floating to the surface, although five or six days later a report was circulated from Germany that the boat had returned to port.

Admiral Sir Edmund Fremantle said that much criticism of the navy was beside the mark. Some things had not yet been discovered and one was how to catch the big submarine. But, he said, he did not hear the scientist abused because he had not discovered the secret of perpetual motion. He added:

"We will hope that the submarine is in a different category and that with the help of our great ally,

ABOUT "SPRING SONG."

In a house on Denmark Hill, four miles from London Bridge, Mendelssohn wrote his "Spring Song," on a summer afternoon in 1842. It was not published until two years later, as a simple allegretta graziosa in A major, in the fifth book of "Lieder ohne Worte," which Mendelssohn sold to Novello for 15 guineas. How it came to be known as the "Spring Song" has remained a mystery. During this same summer Mendelssohn wrote eight little pianoforte pieces for the children of the Denmark Hill House, by whom he was nicknamed "Peter Meffert." These works were published as "Christmas Pieces," with the dedication, "To my young friends as a Christmas present." This does not prevent them having been composed in the month of June, the first signed "Peter Meffert" on Midsummer Day!

Says Dr. Cassell's Tablets Have Kept Him Fit Through Two Wars.

Sapper A. Hartley, of A Company, Canadian Engineers, whose home address is 908 Trafalgar street, London, Ont., is one of many who have written in praise of Dr. Cassell's Tablets. He says: "As a constant user of Dr. Cassell's Tablets, I would like to add my testimony to their value. I used them when I was in the South African war, and finding the benefit of them there, have taken them since whenever I felt rundown. I always recommend them, for I know that they do all that is claimed for them. In my opinion they are the best tonic anyone can take for loss of appetite, poorness of the blood, or general weakness of the system."

New York, May 29—Efforts by the short interest to depress prices in today's irregular market met with indifferent success, the list rising briskly in the last hour and wiping out many early declines of 1 to 3 points. Selling of long stock by traders who chose to close out their contracts over the holiday was an additional factor in the unsettlement of the forenoon, together with an abatement of public interest.
The Russian situation, as disclosed over-night advices, was one of the developments put forward by professional traders to affect values. Initial prices were 1 to 2 points under yesterday's close. United States Steel was among the first to yield, dropping 2 points to 130 7-8 in first hour. In the last fifteen minutes Steel crept slowly up to 133 7-8 and closed only a fraction lower, making a net gain of a point. The belated recovery was accomplished on the customary free buying, individual lots running from 1,000 to 6,500 shares.
Other industrials of like description made almost proportionate recoveries, Bethlehem Steel, Crucible Steel and Lackawanna Steel accompanying the movement at moderate net gains. Among the war supply issues sugar's were a pronounced feature at advances of 1 to 3 points.
Rails and shipping's dropped during the morning with metals, motors, oils, leathers and the gas shares. People's Gas fell 2 1-2 points to the new minimum of 68 1-2 but recovered more than half. Interim dividend heaviness in Industrial Alcohol and a few other high priced specialties yielded to extensive short covering. Pool activity was observed in the paper shares and American Linseed issues. General Chemical featured its particular division at an advance of 34 points to 239. Total sales of stocks amounted to 1,025,000 shares.
Bonds were irregular, the trend, however, being mainly upward in rails and utilities. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,485,000.
United States coupon and registered 2's declined 3-4 per cent; coupon 3's 1-4, and Panama registered 2's, 1 per cent on call.

Montreal, May 29—The markets today gave a better account of themselves than they have for a long time. There action was due. The Russian news in the morning papers was bad and, after a weak opening, the market rallied. The markets closed strong at top prices, not far from the highest prices sold at in this movement. Dominion Steel directors are meeting this afternoon and they will give out their year's statement which should be a good one. The local market is in the shape where it should do better. Stocks have been well liquidated. Money is tight over the end of the month, but with grain moving, it should work easier shortly. It is a very difficult matter to get space for general shipments and a lot of produce is being held up by this and this has to be carried by the banks. The way the American market closed tonight it gave every indication of doing better. The New York market will be closed tomorrow.

New York, May 29—Selling on a large scale virtually a renewal of the movement which began yesterday, featured the stock market at the opening of today's session. A generally lower price level in consequence characterized initial transactions, recessions in the steel group being particularly noteworthy. While these offerings were believed to be made up largely of realizing, bear pressure, to a considerable extent, helped in the declining tendency. The setback in prices occurred in the industrials, mostly those shares that were prominent in the recent extended advance, while the railroads displayed a strong inclination toward improvement. Buying in fair volume developed before the expiration of the first hour, however, and this had the effect of steadying prices somewhat. Fluctuations from about mid-day to the close of business held more or less within trading limits, but with a satisfactory undertone in evidence throughout. Final prices were at about the best of the day.

Chicago. — Wheat — Recent observations by crop experts indicate a material improvement in winter wheat while no complaints of consequence are being received in regard to the spring crop. It is true, of course, that we are much below the normal stocks at this season, but those in position to know claim that the high prices of this year in such economies that the per capita consumption for the last year will be at least three quarters of a bushel under the average.
Corn—Corn was held firm early, by short covering and by traders who hoped to see a rally the day before a holiday. The late weakness resulted from reports from Canada and Kansas City that car lots were in very poor demand and from the posting Chicago receipts at over 300 cars, as against early estimates for 180 cars. While a good portion of our receipts are being applied on former contracts, they are, nevertheless, gradually catching up with the demand and it will be no surprise to see a severe decline should receipts some day exceed requirements by only a few cars.
Oats—The same conditions that broke Corn depressed Oats. There are plenty of Oats in commercial channels and crop prospects continue highly favorable.

(By Bruneau & Dupuis)
New York, May 29—The market opened under the influence of yesterday's reaction and this continued throughout the morning session, but from noon on prices have hardened again, showing that no liquidation was induced by the reaction in prices and that much of the advance and the moderate decline was due to professional trading both on and off the exchange and that the great majority of the holders of stocks are inclined to be confident as to the outlook. Indeed when one sees the enormous governmental expenditures to be made in this country on our own behalf and that of our allies coming after the two years of exceptional prosperity, the results are really revolutionizing the values of most of our industrial companies.
The strength in the market this afternoon is all the more notable from the fact that tomorrow is a holiday.

We offer, subject to prior sale and advance in price, the unsold balance of our recent purchase of $760,000 5% gold bonds repayable 1st February 1927, at 96.94 and interest yielding 5.40%
City of Quebec bonds have always enjoyed a ready market and usually sell at higher prices. In 1909 and 1910 they sold to yield only 4 1/2% which is equivalent to 107 and interest for these bonds. At 96.94 they are very attractive and should appeal particularly to the residents of this Province.

THE REFERENDUM QUESTION.
To Editor of The Chronicle.

Sir,—As it is evident that the Dominion has drifted into a very dangerous position, and that unless the present excitement can be allayed that position will inevitably rapidly become worse, you may possibly allow one who is not only loyal to England, to the United Kingdom, to the Dominion and the Empire, but also to the Province in which his home has long been, and to the people amongst whom he lives, to point out that the present question is not at all one of conscription or anti-conscription, but of whether conscription shall be enforced without a referendum, or be submitted to the people for their approval or rejection.

I have been a lifelong opponent of conscription, and feel that my position has been amply justified, for without conscription the extreme probability is that this war would never have been, or that at the least such a war as is now raging would have been utterly impossible. At the same time, matters being as they now are, I am heartily and entirely in favor of conscription, not only of men, but of wealth and property of all kinds, as may be found necessary by whatever Government has the responsibility of winning the war and so accomplishing what I believe to be the will of the people. At the same time I would oppose the Government commandeering from every man the greater part of his money and property without first submitting the proposition to the people, and liberty is more than money or possessions, as life is more than food, or the body than raiment.

Properly speaking, there have not yet been any anti-conscriptionist meetings. Those called for that name, though they invariably included a certain number of noisy anti-conscriptionists, have passed resolutions voicing their willingness and readiness to loyally submit to conscription if the Government can show it has a majority of the people behind it. This seems fair and reasonable indeed, but if nothing is done to meet such readiness to submit to and concur in the decision of the majority, the anti-conscriptionists will gain adherents and increase in numbers.

There are many who urge that there is no time for a referendum now, but that every available and fit man that can be spared should immediately be enrolled and in due time sent to the front, whether he is willing to go or not. To such I would say that the ancient Romans, a most military people, had a proverb "festina lente" or hasten slowly, and that is a good old English saying, "more haste, less speed." Properly, selective conscription should have been in force long ago. The United States, profiting by others experience, has wisely started with it. It seems strange that it should have taken two years and nine months to wake us up to the idea that conscription is so pressing a matter that there is no time even to take a referendum.

Every day we defer taking a referendum is a day lost. We must keep clear of party politics and this is no question as to the country on exception as a referendum, pure and simple, not affecting other issues. If the people of Canada are against conscription no Government has the most remote right to enforce it, and any Government attempting to enforce it against the will of the people, will not long have the power. My own conviction is that if conscription is promptly submitted to the people it will be carried, but let none imagine it is only a question between provinces or races, for at the recent win-the-war-and-unity convention at Montreal, the only feeling openly displayed, or in any way expressed against conscription, came not from the numerous French-Canadian members and delegates, but from labor representatives from the west.

Further, allow me to remind all that a divided people cannot hope to succeed, either in assisting to win the war or anything else, and if any one questions the infallibility of the assertion "If a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand," I can supply him with historic proof of its truth and correctness. The Toronto City Council exhorts all loyal citizens, amongst other things, to sink all differences. As there is evidently a difference over conscription, let us sink it at once without any avoidable delay in a referendum, and loyally abide by the result, whatever it may be. I would suggest only troubling our boys in England and at the front in case we fail to carry conscription at home in Canada. My own conviction is there will be no need to trouble them, but let everything be in readiness for taking their vote and if necessary let it then be taken.

ED. HARPER WADE,
Quebec, May 29th, 1917.

How to Rid the Skin of Objectionable Hairs
(Aids to Beauty).

A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths, and rarely is more than one treatment required: Mix a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every hair has vanished. This simple treatment cannot cause injury, but care should be exercised to get real delatone.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in the private chapel of St. John Baptist Church on Monday morning, when Miss Elizabeth Ferguson was united in marriage to Mr. Max Pelletier, formerly of Providence, R.I. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Abbe Doucet. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Archibald Ferguson, of Montreal, was attired in an imported costume of brown chamois serge with hat to match, and a natural fox fur stole. She also carried a shower bouquet of roses. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Mr. Romeo Blanchet. After the ceremony a recherche breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's mother, only the immediate relatives being present. Mr. and Mrs. Pelletier left later in the day for New York and other American cities, and on their return will take up their residence in Sherbrooke, P. Q. They were the recipients of a large number of valuable gifts, testifying to the esteem in which they were held by a large circle of friends.

A pretty wedding took place in the private chapel of Villa Manrese Church yesterday morning, when Miss Angeline Fortin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Fortin, St. Foye Road, was married to Mr. Emile Hudon, of the Federal Parliament. The Rev. Father Hudon performed the ceremony. The chapel was prettily decorated with natural flowers and palms. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a blue silk suit with blue fox, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies. The groom was attended by Mr. T. LeVasseur, Secretary of the Board of Trade. The immediate relatives then repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where the wedding breakfast was served, the tables being ornamented with American Beauties and carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Hudon left on their honeymoon trip, which will be spent in visiting New York, Washington, and Atlantic City, after which Mrs. Hudon, who is very popular among a large circle of the younger social set of the Ancient Capital, will reside in Ottawa. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Hudon, of Ottawa, sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Tetrauk, of Springfield, Mass., uncle and aunt of the bride.

The Real Secret of Rejuvenating the Face

She holds the true secret of facial rejuvenation who has learned how to remove the dead skin particles as fast as they appear. It is a secret anyone may possess. The aged, faded, or discolored surface skin may be gradually absorbed, in an entirely safe and rational manner, by the nightly application of ordinary unperfumed wax. Within a week or two the underlying skin, youthful and beautiful to behold, has taken the place of the discarded outside. So little of the old skin is absorbed each day there's no inconvenience at all, and no one suspects you are putting anything on your face. The marvelous wax, procurable at any drugstore (on once in sufficient), is applied like cold cream. In the morning it is creamed with soap and water. It's the best thing known for freckles, blackheads, pimples, moles, patches, liver spots and fine surface wrinkles. For the deeper wrinkles and crowfeet an excellent and harmless recipe is: Powdered ancolite, one ounce, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution produces quick and wonderful results. It is fine for saggy cheeks or chin.
