PROSPECTUS

OF A NEW WEEKLY PAPER, TO BE PUBLISHED IN QUEBEC,

BY

JOHN CHARLTON FISHER LL. D.

CONSIDERING the present juncture favorable to the project of establishing a Weekly Newspaper, of Conservative views—and under the impression that the great majority of educated readers in Canada is imbued with similar principles—it is the intention of the undersigned, as soon as a sufficient number of Subscribers shall warrant the undertaking, to issue, at the ancient seat of Government, a Newspaper, to be called

THE CONSERVATIVE,

A WEEKLY GAZETTE OF NEWS, POLITICS, AND LITERATURE.

In choosing the title of his paper, the Editor has preferred that one which directly and frankly conveys to his readers the principles on which only he can solicit their patronage. In this Province, he conceives that the distinction of Tory and Whig is entirely out of place—but since the words continue to be used by a portion of the press, as a rallying cry of party, he has selected a phrase which conciliates the support of the moderate of all parties, and necessarily includes all who are loyal subjects of the Crown, and desirous of preserving the connexion between her Colonies and the Parent State. Whatever tends to the honor and renown of Great Britain, and to bind in ties of affection all her sons, must be dear to every true Conservative, and to no other does the Editor look for support or sympathy.

The Editor, being, he trusts, not altogether unknown to the reading public, as the original Editor of the "Albion," and of the "Quebec Gazette by Authority," is content upon the present occasion with pledging himself that all subjects of controversy, which may come under notice, will be treated in a moderate and conciliatory tone. It is avowed that the Administration of the Provincial Government by a Conservative Statesman, at a critical period, will be strenuously supported—while the measures of Her Majesty's Ministers for the welfare of Canada will be vindicated, whenever misrepresentation or prejudice shall render such vindication a duty.

The unwise, and even pernicious, articles which have appeared, and may appear, in the columns of certain London Journals, on the subject of Canada, require close attention on the part of every friend to British supremacy and Colonial connexion. The following sentences are from a London "Globe" of a recent date; and it is sufficient for the present to observe, that it will be the endeavor of "The Conservative" to point out, as events occur, the reverse of the prognostication:—

FROM THE LONDON GLOBE.

"There may be some doubt of the extent of mischief which the Tories will cause at home by again obtaining ascendancy, but there can be none as to the fearful consequences to our North American dependencies. The very name of Tory will be sufficient to excite a general resistance to the head of the Provincial Government, if he claim to be one. It will be nothing less than to throw into the hands of America, already excited by the McLeod affair, the very provinces which we have so recently led to regard the Mother Country with more acquiescent feelings."

"To put a Tory at the head of such a people is to make of Canada an Ireland; to plant another colonial rebellion, and to lead on to all those consequences which it has been the aim of the more ameliorating and conciliatory policy of late years to postpone to a very distant period, if not to avert for ever."

"The Conservative" will be printed in Quarto form. Price, Five dollars, per annum: To Subscribers to the "Quebec Gazette by Authority," Four dollars.

It will contain a digest of the latest news, domestic and foreign—notice of the Debates in Parliament, and of the opinions of the British Press on Colonial subjects—Spirit of the Canadian Press—Army and Navy Intelligence—Immigration—and Commercial summary. A portion of its columns will be devoted to Classical Literature and Education—Ecclesiastical Intelligence—and Reviews of Works relating to the Canadas.

The whole, it is hoped, will form an useful and agreeable miscellany of general information for town and country readers.

Subscriptions will be received by the Editor, if by letter, postpaid, No. 7, St. Genevieve Street, Upper Town, Quebec; by Messrs. T. CARY & Co. and Mr. CULLEN, Superintendent of the Quebec Exchange—and in Montreal by Mr. F. A. WILSON, of the Reading Room and Merchants' Exchange.

III. And be it enacted, that every person keeping or using a Still, shall obtain a Licence from the District Inspector; which Licence shall continue and be in force until the thirty first day of December of the year on which the same is granted, and not afterwards, and shall be renewed annually.

IV. And be it enacted, that each person requiring a Licence to use a Still or Stills, shall make a requisition to the District Inspector in the following form, and stating the entire capacity of the Still, or of the Stills, for which it is required, and the exact location of the same.

VI. And be it enacted, that any person or persons refusing to permit the District Inspector, or those acting under him, to enter into any Distillery, Still House, or other place containing, or reasonably supposed to contain any Still, between sunrise or sunset, as aforesaid; or obstructing, preventing or hindering such Inspector, or those acting under him, in his or their lawful entry, or search, as aforesaid, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, currency, to be recovered in a summary manner before any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction in the place where the offence is committed, on the oath of one credible witness, other than the informer, and to be levied, with costs, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, under the warrant of such Justice, if not forthwith paid; and one moiety of such penalty shall belong to Her Majesty, and the other to the informer or prosecutor.

VII. And be it enacted, that the said duty of one shilling and six pence currency, per gallon, shall be paid and calculated upon the entire capacity of every Beer Still, Faint Still, Doubler or other vessel of any kind or description whatever, in which the Beer or Wash is heated or prepared, or which may in anywise act as a Still, or be used as attached to, or connected by pipes or otherwise, with, or be assistant or auxiliary to the vessel ordinarily denominated the Beer Still, and every vessel of any kind or denomination whatever, and by whatever name it may be known, into which the Beer or Wash is put, or into which the steam therefrom is carried or forced, or any vessel by which the process of distillation is carried on, so as to increase the quantity of Spirit produced from the use of the vessel into which the Beer or Wash is actually put, excepting only any worm or vessel intended expressly for the condensation of such steam, and which is immersed in any cistern or vessel of cold water for the purpose of effecting such condensation, and also excepting from the operation of this law, any Still or Stills kept and used for the sole purpose of rectifying the high Wines or Spirits of the first extraction from the Beer or Wash; and further that no allowance shall, in calculating the contents of any Still, be made for Steam Room, or working of the Steam, or for any other cause whatever; and that every tub or vessel placed on the top of, or connected with, any Still or vessel containing Beer or Wash, saving for the purpose of a cap, or receiver of the Steam, shall be considered as part of the Still in calculating the duty payable on the same.

VIII. And be it enacted, that from and after the said first day of January next, each District Inspector, and those acting under him, shall, and may measure and gauge any Still or Vessel within his District for the use of which a duty is hereby imposed, in such manner as he, or they, shall deem most advisable for the purpose of testing the accuracy of the requisition made by, or on behalf of the owner as aforesaid.

IX. And be it enacted, that for any wilful false statement made in any such requisition as to the contents of any Still or Stills therein mentioned, the owner, or proprietor thereof, shall forfeit to Her Majesty the sum of fifty pounds, currency, to be recovered in any manner in which a debt to the Crown of a similar amount may be recovered in Lower Canada; and in such case, as well as in any case, where the capacity of any Still or Stills shall have been mistaken by error, the owner or proprietor shall, as soon as such mistake shall be discovered, pay to the Inspector such sum, as with the sum paid on obtaining the Licence, will make up the sum which ought to have been then paid, as the duty on such Still or Stills; and such sum if not forthwith paid, may be recovered in the same manner as the forfeiture last mentioned.

X. And be it enacted, that any person who shall use, or work, any Still or Stills, without having first obtained a licence for the same, shall, for each offence, incur a penalty not exceeding the sum of twenty pounds, currency, to be recovered before any two or more Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction in the District in which the offence shall have been committed, and to be levied and applied in the manner provided in the sixth section of this Act; and the person so convicted shall be incapable of obtaining a licence under this Act, during the year next after such offence.

XI. And be it enacted, that whenever any District Inspector shall, in pursuance of this Act, require to measure or gauge any wooden vessel on which a duty is chargeable under this Act, he, or those employed by him, may bore one or more holes in such wooden Vessel, so that no such hole shall exceed two inches in diameter.

XII. And be it enacted, that any person who shall refuse or neglect to appear before any Justice or Justices, to give evidence, when summoned, or any complaint made by the District Inspector, or those acting under him, for any breach or evasion of the provisions of this Act, shall for every such refusal or neglect, incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, currency, to be recovered, levied, and applied in the manner provided in the said sixth section of this Act.

XIII. And be it enacted, that the duties imposed by this Act shall be paid to the Inspector of the District in which the same shall become due, at the time the licence shall be taken out, and shall by him be paid over to the Receiver General within three months after they shall have been so received.

XIV. And be it enacted, that all fines, penalties, and forfeitures recovered under the authority of this Act, or so much thereof as shall belong to Her Majesty, shall be paid over to the Receiver General, and shall, as shall also all duties to him paid under the authority of the same, form part of the consolidated Revenue Fund of this Province, and the due application of all such moneys shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of the Treasurer for the time being, in such manner and form as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors shall direct.

XV. And be it enacted, that each District Inspector appointed under the authority of this Act, shall enter into a recognizance to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, jointly and severally, with two good and sufficient sureties, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and the due payment to the Receiver General of all moneys which shall be payable to that officer by such District Inspector; and such recognizance shall be in the penal sum of five hundred pounds, currency, if such Inspector be appointed for the District of Quebec, or of Montreal, and in the penal sum of two hundred pounds, currency, if such Inspector be appointed for any other District.

XVI. And be it enacted, that each District Inspector may, out of his duties by him received, retain a sum equal to five per cent on the amount by him collected.

An Act to encourage the establishment of, and regulate Savings Banks in this Province.

(18th September, 1841.)

WHEREAS certain Provident Institutions or Banks for Savings have been or may be established in this Province, for the safe custody and increase of small Savings belonging to the industrious classes of Her Majesty's Subjects, and it is expedient to give protection to such Institutions and the funds thereby established, and to afford encouragement to others to form like Institutions; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that if any number of persons, who have formed or shall form any society in any part of this Province, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining any institution in the nature of a Bank, to receive deposits of money for the benefit of the persons depositing the same, and to accumulate the produce of so much thereof as shall not be required by the depositors to be paid in the nature of compound interest, and to return the whole or any part of such deposit, and the produce thereof, to the depositors, deducting only out of such produce so much as shall be required to be so retained for the purpose of paying and discharging the necessary expenses attending the management of such Institution, according to such rules, orders and regulations as shall have been, or shall be established for that purpose, but deriving no benefit whatsoever from any such deposit or the produce thereof, shall be desirous of having the benefit of the provisions of this Act, such persons shall cause the rules, orders and regulations established or to be established for the management of such Institution to be entered, deposited and filed in manner hereinafter directed, and thereupon shall be deemed to be entitled to, and shall have the benefit of the provisions contained in this Act.

II. Provided always and be it enacted, that no such Institution as aforesaid shall have the benefit of this Act, unless the rules, orders and regulations for the management thereof, shall be entered in a book or books to be kept by an officer of such Institution, to be appointed for that purpose, and shall be open at all reasonable times for the inspection of the persons making deposits in the funds of such Institution, nor unless such rules, orders and regulations shall be fairly transcribed on parchment, and such transcript shall be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the District wherein such Institution shall be established; and such transcript shall be filed by such Clerk of the Peace, with the rolls of the Session of the Peace in his custody, without any fee or reward to be paid in respect thereof; but nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent any alteration in, or amendment of any such rules, orders or regulations so entered and deposited and filed as aforesaid, or the repealing or annulling the same or any of them, in the whole or in part, or making any new rules, orders or regulations for the management of any such Institution, in such manner as by the rules, orders and regulations of such Institution shall from time to time be provided; but such new rules, orders and regulations, or such alterations in, or amendments of former rules, orders or regulations, or any order annulling or repealing any former rules, orders or regulations, in the whole or in part, shall not be in force until the same, respectively, shall be entered in such book or books as aforesaid, and a transcript or transcripts thereof shall be deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, who shall file the same without fee or reward as aforesaid.

IV. And be it enacted, that all rules, orders and regulations from time to time made and in force for the management of any such Institution as aforesaid, and duly entered in such book or books as aforesaid, and deposited with such Clerk of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several Members and Officers of such Institution, and the several depositors therein, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full notice thereof by such entry and deposit as aforesaid, and the entry of such rules, orders and regulations in such book or books as aforesaid, or the transcript thereof, deposited with such Clerk of the Peace
