Beautificationettes Aid Mayor to Plant

Mayor J. S. Cameron of Westmount, shown with two lovely Beautificationettes, Pat Elder, of Montreal West, and Lise Fortin, of Montreal, doing a little "Plant-Up" job. They are participating in the Greater Montreal Beautification Campaign which is strongly supported by local community organizations because of its influence in promoting better standards of community living. This year's slogan, "Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Plant-Up and Light-Up", has received ardent support from local citizens. The campaign is sponsored by the Young Men's Section of the Montreal Board of Trade which has a large number of members from this district. The drive will end on May 27th.

First Limerick Contest Winner Is Announced

B. Kennedy, 5967 Cote St. Antoine Road, Apt. 1, N.D.G. has been chosen as the winner of the Business Association of Westmount's Limerick Contest which was conducted in the May 5th issue of this paper. The voucher for $15 is already in the mail.

The winner, who sent in a limerick for each advertisement appearing on the page, formerly lived in Westmount and continues to shop in Westmount stores although now residing in N.D.G. Contact with local events and Westmount merchants is maintained through the pages of the Examiner. Every limerick sent in by the winner was very good but the best one of all was finally judged to be the one appearing in the Denyse Chocolates ad and read as follows:

Sufficient a word to the wise
If you'd like a delicious surprise
Denyse fine candy
Is perfectly dandy

And also their famous meat pies.
C. A. James, one of the judges of the contest, stated that many of the hundreds of answers received were good enough to warrant consideration but, unfortunately, everyone could not win. Mr. James also announced that another contest will appear in the next issue of the Examiner and it is hoped that all those contestants who entered the last one will try their luck once more.

EXAMINER OFFICE OPEN MAY 24th

The offices of The Examiner will remain open May 24th, Victoria Day. Employees will add the extra time to summer vacations.

Dr. R. E. Powell, Westm't Heads Medical Society

Dr. R. E. Powell, of 20 Holton avenue, Westmount, who is on the staff of the Montreal General Hospital, has been elected president of the Montreal Medico-Chirurgical Society.

The election took place at the annual dinner-meeting held in the Windsor Hotel.

The meeting heard Dr. Ray F. Farquharson, professor of medicine at the University of Toronto and physician-in-chief of Toronto General Hospital, guest speaker and Dr. J. S. L. Browne, retiring president of the Society, stress the need for more interest in the general practice of medicine.

J. R. Day Gains City Promotion

J. R. Day, Engineer of the Westmount Roads Department has been appointed Assistant City Engineer, a report from the Westmount City Council stated today.

Born in Hillborough, N.B., in 1925, Mr. Day graduated from the University of New Brunswick in 1946, and in May, 1948, joined the Westmount Engineering Department.

Prior to that, he served with the Shawinigan Engineering Company and the Public Works Department of the Federal Government in St. John's, New Brunswick.

The appointment becomes effective immediately.

Dr. Browne told the more than 250 doctors from Montreal and nearby centres that while the wide scope of medical science to-day made specialization necessary and advantageous in many respects, doctors should not forget "that the patient is a human being" and should try and preserve the human approach to medical problems.

"The family physician used to be the one who knew everything" he said. "This is no longer possible but the family physician to-day should be a man who knows what he knows and respects the knowledge of others."

Besides Dr. Powell the following officers were elected: Dr. A. T. Henderson, vice-president; Dr. J. H. Palmer, trustee; Dr. McIvor Smith, hon. secretary; Dr. H. S. Morton, hon. treasurer.

R.M.R. Chaplain Stresses We Must Guard Heritage

The Rev. G. F. Leigh, R.M.R. chaplain, in his address to the regiment at the annual church parade held on Sunday to St. Matthias Church, Westmount, reminded his listeners of their responsibility to children, and youth generally.

It was their duty, he said, to see that youth was made to understand and appreciate the benefits of living under a democratic form of government, and to be thankful for being Canadian, blessed with the many advantages and opportunities with which this rich land has been bestowed.

The benefits of being partners in the British Commonwealth of Nations, should also be impressed on our youth.

The part we as Canadians should play in the Commonwealth, was also stressed by Rev. Leigh.

Heritage Important
The Chaplain took as his text Exodus Chapter VI, verse VIII. "I give it unto you for an heritage I am the Lord."

Heritage, he said, originally meant real estate holdings, but we in our modern age think of heritage in terms of things not so tangible. We should respect the laws of the country, which have been handed down as a heritage, and which are enjoyed by free peoples living in the British Commonwealth of Nations.

The Bible, the Canadian home, and freedom, are heritages and, the Rev. Leigh said, they are worth preserving at all cost.

The Bible is God's guidance to man, and man's guide to God, he said.

The Chaplain pointed out that this was Hospital Sunday, also the anniversary of Florence Nightingale, and was observed in some countries as Mother's Day.

The reason for men having to wear uniforms and bear arms, was so that we could preserve our way of life, and be prepared to defend our heritage for the benefit of posterity, and so that

Donald B. Ross To Head Annual Rotary Carnival

Donald B. Ross, prominent Rotarian and past president of the Rotary Club of Westmount, was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of organizing this year's Westmount Rotary Carnival in Westmount Park.

The Carnival this year will be held from June 20 to 24 inclusive, and as in the past will be held in the lower section of Westmount Park, and center around the now celebrated midway which has always been its main attraction. A wide variety of entertainment is planned and hundreds of prizes are to be given away.

This will be the ninth year Westmount Rotarians have staged this unique attraction as a means of raising funds to finance their widespread charitable interests. Expenses are kept down to a minimum, as the club owns all its fair equipment, and Rotarians and volunteers man the

Radio Helped Win Second World War Rotarians Told

"The outcome of the Second World War may have been a very different question had it not been for the field of radio work," William Dean, one of the newest members of the Westmount Rotary Club, told his fellow members at their luncheon meeting, Wednesday.

Mr. Dean was speaking of what he called "a mysterious branch" of radio, known as radar, which enabled the allies to concentrate on the attacks launched by the Germans throughout the entire war.

The Montreal Manager of the Electronics division for R.C.A. Victor said that radio was bound to have an affect on our daily life, and told several stories of how radio communications are invaluable to the development of the nation.

Switching to television, he said that like radar, it has been widely publicized, and predicted that such an entertainment will have a great effect on the way people live.

Mr. Dean, who was introduced by Maurice McQuiggan, said that the speed of radio telephone service was one of the greatest features of the industry today. He related how two men would have died in far off communities had it not been for the efficient service rendered by the radio telephone, and said that the Ungava project in Northern Quebec will be helped greatly by the use of radio telephone.

Rimouski Mayor Sent $500 by Westm't Council

The Westmount City Council approved of a grant to the relief victims of the Rimouski fire disaster at their last meeting, a cheque for $500 already being sent to the Mayor of that town.

It was reported that the money is being sent to the Mayor for direct relief purposes. Meanwhile, money from all parts of the Dominion is being sent to the Rimouski fire victims who were left homeless by the conflagration that broke out on May 7th.

The speaker was thanked by Robert Clarke, while presiding at the meeting was Director-elect, Frank Sharpe.

Among the reports given was one by Jim Lawson, who paid high tribute to William Moxley of the Westmount Club who was one of the guest speakers at the Rotary District Convention held in Hull, Quebec last week.

Scouting Around

with REG. GROOME

St. Matthias Pack held its annual Parents' Night last Friday with a very good turnout, some forty parents being on hand to see the Cubs in action. Some games new to the Pack were played, the jungle dance "The Hunger Dance of Kaa" was put on, there was a display of badge activities and the evening's highlight was a skit performed by the Sixers and Seconds.

The Pack Chaplain, Rev. Canon Gilbert Oliver spoke to the gathering as did Col. J. E. Slessor, chairman of the Group Committee. Refreshments were served at the conclusion by Mrs. T. Harper, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Slessor and Mrs. T. Gilmour. The Pack's thanks are due these ladies for their fine work. Tonight the Pack resumes its regular activities and there will be a visit from the Area Examiner to pass some Second Stars. All Cubs are reminded of the Scouts' Own to be held in Westmount Park on Sunday, May 28th.

Due to the repeated requests, a fifth and final Dance for this season will be run this Saturday evening at Western Area Headquarters, 5867 Cote St. Antoine Road, corner Draper. All Scouts and their girls will be welcome, starting between 7:30 and 8 p. m. Those who have been to the previous dances know the fun that will be had by all . . . so remember, that's this Saturday evening for the last dance of the season at Western HQ . . . see you there.

Trinity Memorial

Thirty cubs were present at last Monday's meeting of Trinity Memorial Pack. The meeting was opened as usual with the Grand Howl, led by Sixer David Shaw. Sixer Graham Martin was presented Homecraft badge, while Edmond Bergeron was presented with First Star, having completed his tests last meeting. Norman Price, newly appointed Second of the Brown Six, received his stripe from Akela.

Following inspection a game of Soup was played, and then the cubs had an opportunity to see how exactly they could guess a minute. During instruction the following tests were passed: Union Flag: Ian Taylor, Alex Chidley; Knots: Bevin Boyd, Herbert Doyle; Skipping: Bobby Buckley, Wayne Duggins. David Shaw passed Toy-maker and Homecraft Badges and will receive them next meeting. Alex Chidley was invested into the Pack at this meeting, and certainly all the cubs wish him Good Hunting. Alex is a brother of Jim, recently a Cub and now a Scout at Trinity.

The applications of Lloyd Hiscock Warren Franklin, Douglas Lindores and Teddy Gosse have now been received for Camp in addition to those listed last week.

Contract Awarded for Oliver Avenue Sub-Station

The Westmount City Council awarded the contract for building the new Oliver Avenue sub-station to Ross and Anglin Company Limited.

According to the Council, they approved of a tender for $26,390 to build the station that will house the electrical equipment of the City.

Work on the project is expected to start soon.

booths, police the grounds and fill in generally wherever their services are demanded.

The major proceeds from the Westmount Rotary Carnival this year will be devoted to the completion and equipment of the Unity Boys Club building, which is now in the process of construction on Greene Avenue below Dorchester Street. Other Westmount Rotary projects will also share in the funds raised through the carnival.

New Navy Tunes Traditional Airs Now in Discard

Westmount ex-navy blokes will be interested to learn that the strains of "O Canada" will replace "Rule Britannia" as the formal salute by navy bands to the Chief of the Canadian Naval Staff, the Naval Board of Canada, admirals of the fleet, admirals and commanders-in-chief.

The replacement of the traditional navy musical salute is one of three such changes announced on Monday by Naval Headquarters in Ottawa.

The first and last two bars of the chorus of "The Maple Leaf Forever," will salute vice-admirals and rear-admirals instead of "Iolanthe."

For commodores and equivalent officers and officials, the salute will be "C'est l'Aviron Qui Nous Mène en Haut," instead of "Garb of Old Gaul."

C'est l'Aviron is an old Canadian paddling song.

Overseas Trip Plans Are Made

Tobin's Travel Bureau of Montreal are arranging an especially attractive overseas vacation tour for the holiday season this summer—a novel tour in that it combines a Mediterranean cruise and an Atlantic crossing.

The tour leaves Montreal on July 1st on the T.S.S. Columbia to Naples, Italy, with a stop over at Lisbon, Portugal, where a visit will be made to the shrine of Fatima. The party will return to Montreal via Cunard S. S. Scythia from Liverpool, reaching there on August 24th.

The cost of the tour, all expenses, is $1,650.00. All accommodations throughout will be first class. Visits will be made to Rome, the Passion Play at Oberammergau, Switzerland, France, Holland, Canon Gilbert Oliver, M.C., rector of St. Matthias Church, conducted the service, with Rev. Leigh saying prayers and giving the address.

Lt.-Col. R. S. Schwob, M.C., Officer Commanding the Royal Montreal Regiment, read the lesson.

Maj.-Gen. C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., Hon. Colonel, and Brig. J. B. Weir, O.B.E., Commanding 9th Inf. Brigade, took the salute accompanied by Mayor J. S. Cameron of Westmount.

More than 300 members of the Regiment took part in the parade, which was witnessed by a large turn out of citizens.

Roman Catholic members of the Regiment attended the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord, Westmount. Prior to the Benediction, Rev. John Colford delivered a sermon to the members of the Regiment and parishioners.

The parade was headed by the regimental drum and bugle band under the command of Drum Major R. H. Bale.

The regimental brass band under Captain T. Jackson, followed. No. 14 (R.M.R.) Branch of the Canadian Legion under command of Major Henry Campbell, the regimental companies, under Lt.-Col. R. Schwob, M.C., and the Lower Canada College Cadet Corps in command of Cadet Capt. R. Chambers, rounded out the parade.

Receptions were held in the Officers', Sergeants' and Men's Messes after the regiment returned to the armoury on St. Catherine Street.

Planned Saving

paid off for the Browns

The neighbors remember how sick young Donny was a few months ago, and how worried the Browns were. But they never guessed what a serious drain his illness had been on the family purse.

Wisely, the Browns had made it a rule to put something into their savings account, week by week, almost from the day they were married. So when they consulted their bank manager, their credit was good. With the help of a small bank loan, they were able to pay all their bills promptly. Now Donny is healthy again—and so is their bank account.

Planned saving pays off, when bargains, opportunities or emergencies come along.

Fun and Pop at St. George's Fair

The children attending St. George School, Westmount Boulevard, held a fair on Tuesday with the money raised going to the Joint Hospital Fund, and the U.N. International Children's Emergency Fund. Youngsters in charge of the many booths were able to extract a lot of small change from the parents and friends who patronized the midway. The fishpond and the skittles game seem to be doing well in the above pictures.

Mayor Cameron's Paper On Westmount Concluded

So much interest has been evinced in the address given by Mayor Cameron to the members of the Westmount Municipal Association at its annual spring meeting that The Examiner is publishing in this issue that part of the Mayor's speech dealing with the mechanics of City government.

This concludes the series of articles dealing with His Worship's address.

This portion of Mayor Cameron's paper explains the setup of the Metropolitan Commission, the method of taxation, and the borrowing powers of the municipality.

The Pillar

By GEORGE COCHRANE

The noguls of film land have finally become aware of the Russian menace and have embarked upon a cycle of anti-Communist pictures which remind one all too readily of the anti-Nazi productions that were being shown in Montreal theatres just a decade ago. The sad fact is that the peoples of the West are being prepared psychologically for war with Russia.

In the past week I was privileged to see two of the better anti-Russia films, one in a local theatre and the other in the preview screening room of the Eagle-Lion Company down on St. Alexander street. It was at the latter location that I saw a really top-rate bit of celluloid propagandizing. So far as I am aware, the film I saw there has not yet been released.

It is entitled "Guilty of Treason" and tells the story of Hungary's Cardinal Mindszenty. Based on the private papers of the Cardinal, this film holds the attention from beginning to end. It is an out-and-out condemnation of Russian policies, particularly their policy of complete separation of church and state.

The role of Cardinal Mindszenty is portrayed by Charles Bickford and he does a magnificent job. Bonita Granville is the girl in the case and she is the only unconvincing member of a cast that is otherwise excellent.

"Guilty of Treason" is one picture that every Canadian should see, and should think about.

The other anti-Communism bit of celluloid I saw is one which has been around for some time. "The Red Danube." This is one of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's contributions and it is one of their best.

There are probably few readers who haven't seen it by this time but for the benefit of these few the plot has to do with the gradual disillusionment of a Britisher who is sent to Vienna to work with the Russian occupation authorities.

Woven into this, of course, is the inevitable Hollywood love story with the principals being Peter Lawford and a pretty newcomer Janet Leigh.

This, too, is a picture well worth seeing but it falls somewhat short of the high mark set by the "Guilty of Treason" production.

Jack Hirshberg, this paper's able Hollywood correspondent, two weeks ago wrote about a scientist who feared that we had advanced so far along the road to war that we have reached the point which novelist John P. Marquand has termed "The Point of No Return."

If what this scientist says is true, and there are many who are reluctantly compelled to agree with him, these pictures can be looked upon as more than entertainment. They are propaganda pictures. As such, they are putting the people who see them in a mood for war.

We have gone farther than we think.

Permits Granted to Build Garages in Westmount

The Westmount City Council authorized the building of two garages less than 50 feet from the street line at their meeting Monday.

Arthur Pascal received permission to erect a garage on the south side of Deveon Avenue, between Lexington and Summit Crescent, while H. Auerback was granted a permit to build a garage on the west side of Grosvenor Avenue, between Cote St. Antoine Road and Westmount Boulevard.

Hospital Drive In First Week

"We have had some encouraging reports from various sections of the city so far", J. Arthur Lapres of Montreal West, general chairman of the Montreal Convalescent Hospital Fund campaign stated this week. "More money needed, however, and we are appealing for a wide public response to make the drive a success. This is the first appeal to the public which the hospital has made in many years and the public must see to it that the drive is permitted to fail. This is a vital task."

The drive, which started officially on Monday, will run through May 30. $255,000 is being sought to enable the institution to go ahead with an extension program calling for the addition of 37 beds to the hospital's present 200-bed capacity.

In a review of the activities of the hospital, Mr. Lapres said that it was worthy of note that about half those of the average rates at the institution were just general hospitals. This was made possible, he explained, by the lesser expense of operating a convalescent hospital.

There's Something About a Soldier

The Bugle Band of the Royal Montreal Regiment made a brave showing as they led Westmount's own battalion to and from the annual church parade at St. Matthias Church on Sunday. Mayor Cameron had a place on the saluting stand where Major-General C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., honorary colonel of the regiment, and Brig. J. B. Weir, commanding 9th Infantry Brigade, took the salute.

$6,500 Budget Home To Be Seen at CNE Will Go to Winner

To show that a Canadian family can build a budget home today for around $6,500, the Women's Division of the Canadian National Exhibition is building such a house in the Coliseum West Annex and arranging for some lucky C.N.E. visitor to win the house, which will be duplicated free of charge on his own lot anywhere in Canada.

Built according to a plan approved by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the C.N.E. Budget Home has five rooms. It embodies everything Canadian builders and designers have learned in the last 10 years, as well as a number of brand new ideas. Surrounding this $6,500 Budget Home, will be one of the most complete home-furnishing and decorating displays ever assembled in this country. An information centre will be set up with people qualified to give practical advice to prospective home builders on heating, construction, flooring, lighting, plumbing, landscaping. Special attention will be given to couples with children in planning playrooms and living quarters for the youngsters.

Exhibits to help a family economize by doing their own upholstering, slip covers, hangings and carpentry are planned. Designer of the Budget Home is John Hall and interior decorator, Cliff Henry.

3rd Div. RCASC - Notes -

Recently a presentation was made to the Unit Officers Mess of a Plaque of Campaign Medals dating from 1879 to 1946, by Capt. T. W. Carlyon of the Reserve of Officers of the R.C.A.S.C. and this was unveiled last Friday by Lt.-Col. Paul Desautels, A.A.&Q.M.G. of Quebec Command in the presence of the Commanding Officer and Officers and Lady Guests of the Mess.

The Unit took part in operation "Oka" and as this is a Transport Unit, certain personnel served on both attacking and defending force.

The 1st Corp Troops Ammunition Company R.C.A.S.C. Association is holding a dance on Saturday evening, in the armoury.

Recruiting is still taking place and recruits will, if qualified, be allowed to attend the annual camp at Valcartier.

Congratulations are in order to George Mason of the Association on his recent marriage to Miss Dorothy Harris.

English Soccer Stars Work Out at Westmount

The English International soccer team which is touring Canada has been working out at the Westmount Athletic Grounds since Wednesday in preparation for their game against Montreal "All Stars" at the Baseball Stadium, Delorimier avenue, tomorrow afternoon.

Many complimentary remarks were passed by the visitors on the splendid condition of the turf and the general neatness of the ground.

They are only hoping that Westmount ground is a fair sample of the grounds they will be called on to play during their tour out to the west coast.

Business Assn. Will Sponsor Shopping Week

The Westmount Business Association held an executive meeting on Tuesday evening.

Amongst some of the matters discussed was the Fall Shopping Week which will be held towards the latter part of September after most of the residents have returned to the city.

C. A. James said that it was the intention to dress up the business section with the shops and places of business being decorated with streamers and bunting urging people to buy locally.

Mr. James stated that Westmounters would be well advised to hold off buying until shopping week, as goods will be offered at bargain prices which will bear favourable comparison with Montreal price tags.

Buy Westmount and support home-town business establishments, will be one of the slogans used, Mr. James added.

It would be rather nasty to disillusion them at this stage of the journey but the loud complaint which emanated from officials of Newcastle United which toured Canada last year over the lack of grass in a Vancouver soccer ground last year is still fresh in our memory.

Stanley Matthews, Mr. Soccer of English soccer, said Westmount ground reminded him of some of the playing fields in smaller English towns.

100 Years Since First Air Raid

Venice, the first city to be bombed from the air, was besieged by the Austrians 100 years ago, and the attackers were annoyed because their guns could not range on the buildings.

Two "Aerial Torpedo Battalions" were formed, mustering between them 100 Montgolfier hot-air balloons, made of writing paper, with a capacity of 3,320 cubic feet. They could each lift 68 lb., but to get the range, bombs of 33 lb weight were used.

The Austrian Army reported that the results "justified" the military effort, declaring that a number of bombs fell in the precincts of Venice, and that the moral effect was even greater than the damage caused.

F. Stanbury Haydon, the American historian on air war, wrote in 1941: "In spite of detailed preparations, the effect of this new form of attack seems to have been slight."

And yet, all is not dark

The point has now been reached where the facilities of The Montreal General Hospital, The Children's Memorial Hospital and the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital can no longer accommodate the demand we daily place upon them

This is shocking—but it is the truth.

Children are being turned away every day, for only one reason: there are no beds for them.

Hundreds of people are suffering needlessly because surgical facilities lag far behind the need.

Wards are crowded beyond all reason, limiting the healing power of modern medicine.

Teaching and training facilities are outdated

Research and progress are stifled by cramped quarters and insufficient equipment

The buildings of these hospitals—to which we entrust our lives—range from 63 to 130 years of age!

It is not a pretty picture And yet, all is not dark.

The Joint Hospital Fund is now seeking voluntary gifts to relieve the situation: to build, extend, modernize, provide new units. This will cost money—$18,000,000, in fact

Through your sympathetic understanding and appreciation of the issues involved, through your generosity, this money is being raised by public appeal starting this week.

In the strictest and deepest sense this is a personal problem touching the lives of every one of us, calling upon each of us to act at once—to help others, and to help ourselves.

Parks Department Busy Cleaning Up On Mountain Top

E. J. Anderson, Superintendent of Parks for the City of Westmount, informs The Examiner that work is proceeding on cleaning up the dead wood on the top of Westmount mountain.

Mr. Anderson said, however, that only very essential work is being done as the overall job will take considerable time and of necessity this will take some time to accomplish.

Some tree surgery is being done in an effort to preserve some trees which might otherwise die.

The top of the mountain will look much better as a result of the clearing now taking place, Mr. Anderson thought.

The spring show is now a thing of the past but the greenhouses still continue to attract.

The late spring has delayed the flowering of the early plants in the parks.

Tiles Protect Against Damp from Flower Pots

Radiator tops of tile provide a waterproof surface for plants and miniature indoor gardens.

Entrance halls, often prey to the rough elements by way of rubbers, and swirling outdoor dust, will be cordial to all comers if dressed in an easy-to-wash pleasant tile.

In England, clay-tile contractors have noted a prevalent toning-down of color treatments. Favorites are peach, green, ivory, pink and white. However there is a new leaning toward suntan and gray. Orchid and blue, they find,

Many Guest Speakers Announced Adventist Youth Convention Here

A two-day convention of Adventist Youth will be conducted in the Seventh-day Adventist Church at 4250 Western Avenue in Westmount. The convention, which will begin officially Friday evening, will be attended by about 300 people from many parts of Ontario and Quebec. The session will also have in attendance students from the Seventh-day Adventist Missionary College in Oshawa, Ont.

An outstanding feature of the convention will be the personal appearance of one of America's youth leaders, Rev. E. W. Dunbar, spiritual leader of some 150,000 Adventist youth. Mr. Dunbar is a resident of Washington, D.C. His recent youth work has taken him on an extended trip to the heart of Africa where he preached to thousands of natives. His trip was made by air, train and boat.

Other speakers at the convention will include Rev. G. Eric Jones, Oshawa, Ontario, former missionary to India, and former President of the Seventh-day Adventist College in Lancaster, Massachusetts. Mr. Jones is now President of the Ontario-Quebec Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Rev. A. W. Kaytor has charge of the Youth work in the Ontario-Quebec Conference. Rev. D. M. Michael of Kingston, Ontario, Rev. Clarence Long of Ottawa, and Rev. Malcolm Fisher of Waterloo, Quebec, and others will be in attendance.

Local Adventist youth leaders in attendance to greet the visiting ministry and youth will include Arthur Cheeseman, Quentin James, Joyce Jones.

Plans are that a number of workshops will be organized in which youth and youth problems will be handled. Young people will receive expert counselling in the field of Christian endeavor, vocational guidance, marriage and pre-marriage counsel, youth recreation, etc.

The meetings will be presided over by Rev. O. J. Ritz, pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Westmount. All services will be open to the public.

Chrysanthemums Ancient Flowers

Chrysanthemums were probably first cultivated in China and introduced from there into Japan in the eighth century. It was not until the end of the seventeenth century that they seem to have been grown in Europe.

In 1690 six varieties were grown in Holland, but they appear to have been allowed to die out for they were not heard of in Europe until about one hundred years later. In 1780 three varieties were introduced into France, and one of these found its way to England. During the next twenty years a number of the varieties came to England direct from China and Japan, and in 1830 the first all-chrysanthemum flower show was held in that country. Varieties now available are numbered in the thousands and new ones are added to the list every year.

Tortoises Bore Lights At Ancient Garden Fête

The park of Yildiz on the lower Bosphorus originally belonged to the palace whose name of Chira'an — The Torches — has been corrupted by Europeans into Chera-gan The name Chira'an goes back to the time of Ahmed III, whose Grand Vizier and son-in-law, Ibrahim Pasha, had a palace there . . . Among his other talents was one for humouring the tastes of his splendour-loving master.

Ibrahim Pasha gave the Sultan one night at Chira'an, a garden party, at which countless tortoises with lights fastened to their shells, made a moving illumination among the trees. Whence the name of the Torches.

Ahmed III gave many similar entertainments in his own gardens on Seraglio Point, sometimes fetes of lights, sometimes fetes of flowers. Of the latter he had such an admiration that he created at his court a Master of Flowers.

R.M.R. in Exercise "Oka" Spent Active Week-End

The Royal Montreal Regiment spent a busy Sunday, for besides holding the annual church parade to St. Matthias Church, two platoons took part in "Exercise Oka" over the week-end.

Umpire of the Motor Machine Gun battle was Major John Coupland, R.M.R., and he was assisted by Second Lieut. Vernon Murray.

O.C. of the defending platoon was Second Lieut. G. C. Kimmerly while Second Lieut. Ian MacFarlane led the attacking platoon. N.C.O.'s who took part in the scheme were Sgt. Harry Hesketh, and Sgt. Jack White, both had over six years service overseas with the regiment.

Major Coupland said it was pretty cold jumping into the waters of Lake of Two Mountains at the 5:00 a. m., zero hour, most of the men on the attacking side were up to their knees and some even up to their waists getting to the shore after leaving the whale boats.

Corporal Miller was unfortunate enough to drop his machine gun and got pretty well soaked retrieving it from the bottom of the lake.

The exercises proved to be very successful and actual war conditions were very well simulated.

"D" company won the inter-company bowling league for 1949-50 season.

Major Don Macrae who will shortly leave for Bisley as Commandant of the Canadian team is busy running off the inter-company rifle competition.

Over 70 members of the regiment are turning up for rifle shooting every Thursday night, which is a very good attendance.

The R. M. R. regiment will go to camp on June 3rd to 10th, with the 9th Brigade under Brigadier J. B. Weir. The Vics and the Black Watch will be in camp at Valcartier at the same time. The Grenadiers go later.

resolution of the Commission. Municipalities may, however, contract temporary loans in anticipation of the collection of their annual revenue.

So soon as a municipality fails to meet its obligations without the help and credit of the Commission and so long as such condition continues to exist, all loans for such municipality are made by the Commission.

The valuation roll, which is the basis of annual taxation, is prepared and deposited by the assessors about the end of July in each year and is open for inspection by interested parties for a period of thirty days. Owners, not satisfied with the valuations placed on their properties, may protest in writing to the Secretary-Treasurer; these protests being received by the Council at its first meeting in September, following which decisions are made regarding any revisions.

Based upon the experience of past years, the Budget is prepared for the ensuing year. This covers the amounts required for general administration, maintenance charges and takes into consideration anticipated changes in labour and material costs as well as any additional carrying charges for capital works. When the Budget has been prepared, it is reviewed by the Commissioner for each Department concerned before being presented to the Council for adoption.

The Revenue from various sources, such as business taxes, licenses, fees, court fines, sales taxes and interest on tax arrears are then estimated and a tax rate on immovable property is established, sufficient to balance the budget and provide for contingencies. This tax must not exceed 2% of the real value, as shown on the valuation roll, and further taxation cannot be imposed without special authorization of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council upon recommendation of the Minister of Municipal Affairs.

Funds for capital works are provided by loan by-laws and the issuing of bonds. The by-laws have to be submitted for approval by the electors who are proprietors. If no poll is demanded by the electors, the by-law is automatically approved. When a vote is demanded, the by-law must be approved by the majority in number and in value of immovables of electors who are property owners and who have voted. The carrying charges on the bonds, in the form of interest and sinking fund installments, are provided in the yearly budget from the general tax if the work is of a general nature; in other words, these are assessed on the taxable lands and buildings of the whole City.

Where the capital improvements are of a local character, the carrying charges are raised by means of a frontage charge and a special tax on land values. The cost of street paving is apportioned by charging one-third against the fronting proprietors on each side of the street and one-third, including intersections, against the City.

The assessments are made over the periods for which loans have been authorized, which coincide with the life of the asset, for example—10 years of equipment, 20 years for roads and 30 years for sewers. The portion of the cost of the works borne by the whole City is made from the special tax on land values which, at the present time, is 1.85 mills on the dollar.

Without special authorization, borrowing is limited to 20% of the taxable valuation. The City's bonded indebtedness is well below the 20% allowed and the sinking funds are ample to meet the maturities when due. No bonds have been sold since 1936 as the City has been able to finance the work by borrowing from reserve funds. These funds being replaced year by year as assessments are made.

Naturally there are limitations to this method of financing and any extensive capital commitments would necessitate the sale of bonds on the open market.

The school tax rates for the Protestant and Neutral panels are established by the Montreal Central Protestant School Board by statutory authority. The City is the collecting agency and the total amount has to be paid over to the School Board by June 30th each year irrespective of the collections. The School Commission of St. Leon levies and collect the school taxes for the Catholic panel. The taxes collected from the neutral panels are prorated to the Protestant and Catholic Boards proportionally to the number of school children.

Proposed New Modern Hospital Buildings

Development of Montreal's medical area through The Joint Hospital Fund is shown in the proposed new buildings of the Montreal General and Children's Memorial Hospitals (above) and the new wing of the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital (at right). The 500-bed General Hospital, located between Pine and Cedar Avenues, will provide the most modern treatment and teaching facilities, including a new nurses' training school and residence. To lower right is the joint laundry and power plant. Directly across Cedar Avenue from the General is the new 250-bed Children's Memorial Hospital, with its modern teaching facilities and own nurses' training school and residence. The new 100-bed surgical wing of the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital on St. Urbain Street, will fill a long-felt need in fighting tuberculosis in Montreal and district. It will house a new operating suite, together with general, bacteriological and research laboratories.

Decarie, 304 Grosvenor avenue, Noble Power, 57 Forde Crescent, Lyman Roberts, 3443 Peel street, Jacob Elkin, 132 Arlington avenue, and Mrs. A. McCarthy.

This Liberal Convention calls together approximately 1000 delegates for the purpose of naming a new party leader to replace Senator Adelard Godbout and to draft a program which they hope will lead to the defeat of Premier Maurice Duplessis' Union Nationale Party in the next provincial election, probably in 1952.

Among the delegates will be at least one woman from each riding, the first time in Quebec's political history that women have been represented on such a scale. The only other political convention in Quebec history attended by women was the 1939 Liberal convention, when almost 40 of the 1000 delegates were members of the so-called weaker sex.

The women delegates at this convention will campaign for the removal of discrimination against women in the Quebec Civil Code.

All told, there will be 100 delegates from 92 different ridings throughout the province, and sessions will be held in the form of a series of meetings and dinners at the Palais Montcalm in Quebec City on Friday and Saturday.

Don't keep telling the lady you are unworthy of her. Let it be a complete surprise.

Around the Home...

TOM GARD'S NOTE BOOK

Our new neighbours moved in yesterday and we had fun watching them start immediately to fix up the interior to suit themselves. With the house shortage being what it is, I didn't think it would take long to find a tenant. I have met the man of the house, "Red" Breast, but not his good wife—she was too busy! The two robins must have liked the shelter I put up for them in the early spring as they have decided to stay.

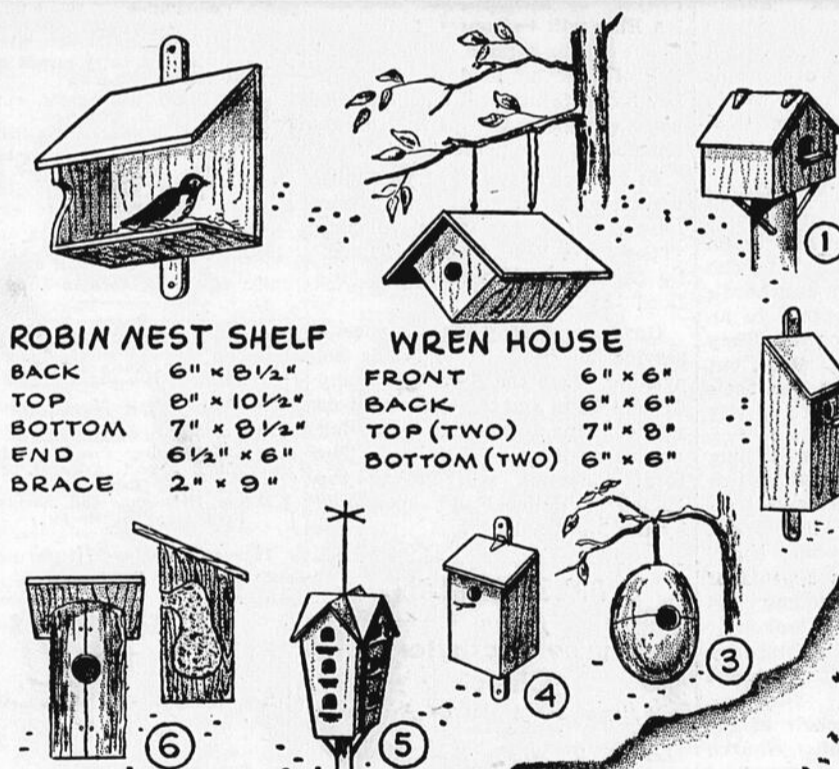

Most of our feathered songsters will be returning soon and looking for a nesting place. Help ease their housing problem by building one or two of the houses illustrated. Weathered wood without paint is a satisfactory building material. It's wise to stay fairly close to the dimensions as given in the booklet "Around the Home".

Doorways

Does your doorway extend a welcome? It's a most important feature of the home that can be made very attractive by an arrangement of flowering shrubs for summer, ornamental evergreens for winter effect, and climbers. Perennial plants are best for the man who owns his property, annuals for the one who rents.

Rock Gardens

I spent two enjoyable hours in The Botanical Gardens last week admiring their beauty, listing some of the plants that are in bloom even at this early date, and getting some ideas for rock gardens. When asked what can be done with a sloping bank my usual suggestion is to build a rock garden. When carefully planned and executed, it's a decided asset to your property. You'll find directions and a list of plants that can be used in the booklet "Around the Home".

KEEP THIS DISTRICT CLEAN

Co-operation of Everyone Necessary

The responsibility of the citizens themselves in maintaining a neat, clean city was emphasized effectively by Claude Robillard in a radio talk the other evening. "Your city is what you make it", he said, "not what the city's cleaning staff tries to make it." "Imagine that you have just arrived in the city. You travel through streets cluttered with paper, refuse, cigarette boxes, candy bar wrappings, rubbish of all kinds. 'What a dirty city," you say; and you will probably add: "Why do the city authorities neglect their streets in this fashion?"

"Just a minute. Are you sure that it is the civic authorities who are negligent? How much time does it take for a clean street to become dirty? As the citizens are so is the city. If the people are careless, the city will be dirty."

That is good advice, advice that should be heeded by every citizen who takes some pride in the place in which he makes his home. It is the citizens' responsibility to keep the city clean. The City's cleaning staff cannot do it without co-operation. For instance, half an hour after the street cleaning staff finish working on a road, careless citizens can make it look just as dirty as before by throwing wastepaper and other rubbish about. As Mr. Robillard pointed out: "It takes only one newspaper dispersed by the wind, only one truck overflowing with rubbish, to give a whole street a soiled appearance."

Let us all co-operate in keeping the city clean, by keeping the area in the vicinity of our home or place of business clean.

The Witness of the Church

By Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor,
Rector of Trinity Memorial Church

When our Lord took His disciples out of Jerusalem for the last time on Ascension Day their minds were still obsessed with the idea of earthly power. It was perfectly natural that it should be so. They had seen the powers of this world seize their Master and put Him to death. They had realized that God had put forth His power to raise Jesus from the dead. But quite naturally as they were still in the world

Westmount Baptist

"A Sunbeam for Jesus". This, which is a quotation from a Children's Hymn, will be the title of the morning sermon in Westmount Baptist Church. When we remember that the beam is projected from the sun and has to travel ninety-three million miles to reach the earth and that then it does so many wonderful things, revealing the nature of the sun, communicating the warmth of the sun and unveiling the glory of the sun, the matter of "being a sunbeam" is not nearly so simple as it seems. For Christian people to live as "the offspring of light" would transform every church in the city and bring about a spiritual quickening that would be felt throughout Canada.

Last Sunday the "Family and Mothers' Day Service" was as beautiful as it was impressive. One part of it consisted of the presentation of tiny babies and the dedication of their parents to the duties and responsibilities of Christian parenthood. Following this, the children from the nursery and primary departments received floral tributes to give to their mothers. The school meets in two sessions, the upper grades assembling at 10 a.m., the nursery, primary and lower grades assembling at 11 a.m.

"The Man who Came Back". History carries the record of a number of men who "came back". Homer tells the story of the return of Ulysses. England had its Charles II and France its Napoleon who returned from Elba. The and He had come back to them in the world, they expected His exercise of power in that same sphere, in which He had been humiliated. And, because they were Jews, they naturally asked "Wilt Thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?"

"Kingdom" suggests "authority" and "power" and our Lord picks up both words. "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father hath set within His own authority; but ye shall receive power — and ye shall be witnesses." (R.V.)

No doubt the disciples expected further exhibitions of divine power to glorify their Master on the earth in the face of those who had crucified Him, but our Lord's words directed their minds to an entirely new use of power. They were to receive it themselves, but it was not to be used for their own purposes, nor even to glorify

Bible, too, records a fascinating account of a man who "came back", who made a successful recovery, who started life anew. The possibility of a "come back" is one of the glorious aspects of the Christian Gospel. No man need be permanently downed, broken or defeated. God Himself is always for the man who wants to begin again.

The orchestra and choir of the Russian-Ukrainian Baptist Church will supplement the Ministry of Westmount Baptist choir in the evening service. Following the evening service this musical ensemble of new Canadians will present a programme of sacred song and music.

their Master in the way they had expected. It was to be used for moral and not for material ends. But it was none the less to be used in reality. And it was to require just as much power to establish a kingdom that is not of this world, as one that should be based on the shields and spears of Roman soldiers.

Christian Science

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Psalms 62: 5, "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for by expectation is from him."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible:—

"O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of this praise to be heard: Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved." (Psalms 66: 8 and 9).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Christian Science explains all cause and effect as mental, not physical. It lifts the veil of mystery from Soul and body. It shows the scientific relations of man to God, disentangles the interlaced embiguities of being, and sets free the imprisoned thought. Rightly understood, instead of possessing a sentient material form, man has a sensationless body; and God, the Soul of man and of all existence, being perpetual in His own individuality, harmony, and immortality, imparts and perpetuates these qualities in man, — through Mind, not matter." (Pages 114 and 280).

Ever since man ate of the Tree of Knowledge he has been out on a limb.

Salvation Army Campaign Total Now at $136,021

"Not all good deeds are done with fanfare". Hon. J. Arthur Mathewson, K.C., Red Shield Salvation Army Campaign Chairman, stated today (Tuesday) announcing the total turned in to date as $136,021. "By special Delivery came a donation of $50 'to help a good cause', from Well Wisher, he said, adding that it is surprise donations of this type that give that glowing feeling of fighting in a worthy cause to all and sundry engaged in the drive for $165,000.

All workers in the campaign are commended by Mr. Mathewson for their endeavours and appeals to every one to redouble their efforts during the closing stages, that the campaign may once again conclude triumphantly, all Red Shield services assured of the practical support necessary to maintain efficient operation throughout another difficult year.

Major T. L. Creswell, speaking enthusiastically concerning the canvassing by volunteer workers, stated today that the generosity of Montrealers is every bit as evident as in former years towards the appeal, but that all-out effort will have to be maintained to ensure success of the drive.

It was pointed out by Hon. J. Arthur Mathewson, K.C., that allocations from the current Red Shield Campaign would be available to help in the Rimouski catastrophe, where the Salvation Army has already played a prominent part and will continue to do so as long as the need remains.

Calvary United

In great numbers of pulpits around the world emphasis will be laid upon the releasing and empowering of the believers heart and faith by recalling the experiences of John Wesley, whose heart was strangely warmed through faith in Jesus Christ at a meeting in Aldersgate, London, while the leader of the group expounded the great truth of redemption set forth in Luther's preface to the Epistle to the Romans.

In Calvary United Church Dr. T. W. Jones will preach on the theme "A Heart Strangely Warmed Through Faith in Jesus Christ," on Sunday morning. At the evening service the Choir and the Organist, Gifford Mitchell, will render an inspiring programme of vocal and organ music. Dr. Jones will deliver a message in harmony with this Sacred Musical Festival on the theme, "The Song of Men and of Angels."

All the hymns to be sung at both the morning and evening services will be those composed by the Wesley Brothers, John and Charles.

What this country needs is a fly that will go OUT when the screen door is left open.

How to Make a Crooked Candle Go Straight!

If you put those long tall candles away during warm weather and have taken them out to discover they are anything but straight, there is a remedy. They can still be restored to their upright state.

Submerge each candle in hot water just comfortable for your hands. In approximately two or three minutes, the candle will be pliable enough for careful reshaping. Be certain not to exert any great amount of pressure until the candle becomes pliable. Return the candle to the hot water as often as necessary to keep it workable while reshaping. An easy way to check its straightness is to roll it on a flat surface.

LITTLE FURS: 'Necklaces,' Jeweled Jackets

Wrap Fashions in New Luxury

Chin-chucking necklace furs and embroidered jackets wrap their luxurious charms around spring and summer fashions. The rope of starlight mink which the model (center) wears double-looped and knotted at the neckline is brightened by a pink rose tucked in the knot. Sheared pearl gray fox scarf (top left) is long enough so that it may be wound around neck and shoulders. White American broadtail jacket banded with gold embroidery (top right) makes a handsome wrap for day or evening.

NEW YORK — "Little furs" for the season ahead take their fashion cues from necklaces that the loop or twist in ingenious ways.

One so-called "little fur" of starlight mink, which strings out its lavish look to two and one-half yards, is designed to be looped and knotted at the throat like a string of pearls. To replace heads, tails and claws which are noticeably missing from neck pieces styled by Esther Dorothy, this designer suggests tucking a pink rose into a fur-looped knot.

Another "necklace fur" winds around the throat and again around the shoulders. To give this scarf the looks of a newcomer fur, shaggy fox is sheared down to its guard hairs to reveal unsuspected depths of silvery luster. This scarf, with a uniform width of seven inches and a length of 78 inches, can be spirally wound or looped in a variety of ways.

Not to be eclipsed by "necklace furs" are fur jackets with a bejeweled look. Examples are jackets which button up with jet or rhinestones. Even more bejeweled is a jacket of white American broadtail bordered and belted with gold galloon embroidery.

Special handling of a jelly mould is not necessary if you grease the tin slightly before liquid is poured in. Before unmolding, moisten the plate and the top of Jell-o, then turn plate over top and invert to slide into place neatly.

Carved Broadlooms, Needlepoints Feature 1950 Trends in Carpets

What's afoot in 1950 carpeting? Lots of interesting new creations to delight prospective buyers! These 1950 trends in carpet fashions were shown on Friday to a group of Montreal press representatives, including the writer, at a rug fashion show held by the Perfection Rug Company at their big modern store on Stanley Street, under the direction of Mr. E. Lewis Yaphe.

What promises to be the biggest hit of the season is the new carved or embossed broadloom, which goes under the name Cambridge. There is a lower priced version, the Deauville, which is very attractive, but the Cambridge, the better quality rug made to the firm's own design in a wide range of lovely pastel colorings — forty shades in all, is the chief pride of Perfection. Highlights are accented by this "carving," achieving beautiful sculptured effects which are not only delightful to the eye but have overcome a criticism often levelled at the broadloom, that of "shading". The all-over motif in a delicate leaf tracery is the answer given by carpet technicians, to shading, or "water marking." The Cambridge is of solid color construction, of course, like the plain broadloom, and in its new and perfected form fits gracefully into either ultra modern or more conventional home decoration.

Another star of the Perfection fashion show is the needlepoint carpet, which is really an old friend in disguise, this creation being a modernized version of Brussels carpeting. Needlepoint is a designed broadloom with an uncut pile which does not crush or show footmarks, and has excellent wearing qualities. It achieves its quiet and beautiful effects through the introduction of three heights of pile, each raised portion being a different shade of the background color.

Another newcomer is the chintz or floral carpet. So far this season these are selling at a price less than the embossed and needlepoint. They are gay and give a cheerful effect in apartments.

The plain broadloom is holding its popularity, of course, but the new trend is towards stronger shades as being more practical than delicate pastels. A tip for housewives, gleaned from Mr.

Yaphe, is the advice to buy a solid color broadloom in a shade several tones stronger than she perhaps planned, as the very light pastels may be easily dulled by dirt, dust and traffic over the pile. This season according to Perfection Rug reports, all kinds of lovely greens are particularly popular.

Devon tone on tone carpeting seems to be the men's fancy for their business offices, as being practical and also rich in appearance. Nice looking carpet it is too, with its clever blend of two or more shades, in a floral design.

The price of wool which has just increased 40 per cent in Australia has been the reason for every carpet manufacturer raising his prices by as much as 20 per cent up to the present. There's still some carpeting available at the old prices, but with alert shoppers hunting them out, they are quickly disappearing. "How can a home-maker know she's buying good carpeting, not shoddy stuff?" we asked Mr. Yaphe. "Her best bet," he replied, "is to buy from a reputable company, and also, she can note whether the wool pile of the carpet is resilient or not. If it is, when she presses it with her finger, then it is likely to be good wool pile." — H. B. S.

Lift For Crackers

Those crackers which linger on the pantry shelf after the most popular ones from the box assortment have been eaten can still be made appealing and appetizing. Just transform them into sandwiches. Simply spread a toothsome layer of marshmallow creme between two crackers and see if these dainty sandwiches do not find favor with all the family, especially when they are served as an accompaniment to fruit or gelatin desserts.

It will tell her how to make her allowance go farther, too, by selecting patterns and fabrics wisely. Then there are sewing centres all across Canada which offer excellent courses in dress-making for teen-agers. With a little help and encouragement she will be able to augment her wardrobe with her own creations that will make her the envy of her whole crowd.

Perhaps a good project for her to start on would be a one-yard skirt. For even without experience she will be able to stitch it up with a minimum of fabric waste. It takes just one yard of 54" material to make a skirt with the new slim lines and with trouser pleats for waistline interest.

And here are some other fashion-wise hints you can pass along to an up and coming young Miss. With less than two yards of material she can achieve the "Toreador" look by making a gay young bolero jacket. A bell-hop jacket will take on a cute military air if miniature buttons flank the front closing in double file from neck to jacket hemline. Or if she fancies one of the new little capes, it can be made in a solid colour and lined with a print material that matches the dress over which it is worn.

ASBESTOS "OXYGEN - PROOF"

Asbestos doesn't burn because there is nothing in it to unite with oxygen. Wood burns because it is largely carbon and hydrogen and combines with oxygen from the air to form carbon dioxide and water.

In 1949 there were 164 wheat flour mills in Canada with a total daily capacity of 105,949 barrels in 24 hours — Quick Canadian Facts.

One-Yard Skirt

The sensational one-yard skirt that has taken the home sewing world by storm is a boon to the teen-ager who wants to stitch up additional wardrobe changes quickly and easily. For even without a wealth of sewing experience, she won't have qualms about fabric waste with this easy assignment. And your local sewing centre is glad to assist you with helpful suggestions. Tweed, as shown here, wool crepe and flannel are all ideal fabric selections for this skirt made from one yard of 54-in. fabric. It has the new slim lines with trouser pleats for waistline interest.

St. Genesius Guild Presenting Spring Concert May 30, 31

The St. Genesius Players Guild Glee Club will present "Melodies For Spring," at Victoria Hall, May 30 and 31.

The choir of forty voices, conducted by Stephen Wiercinski, will offer Lecuona's "Malaguena," Palestrina's "Agnus Dei," and Schubert's "Ave Maria," as well as such Negro spirituals as "Set Down Servant," and the Tudor rounds of the "Torch Dance."

Miss Dorothy Lehman, of Westmount, a student at the Ecole Normale de Musique, is the Glee Club accompanist. She will present two piano solos, Debussy's "Danse" and Liszt's "La Valse Oubliee."

The Glee Club was formed seven years ago, by Rev. M. D. Dubee, and is now one of the three parts of the St. Genesius Guild, which has staged three dramas this season. The spring concert, however, will be the organization's main performance of the year.

Conductor Wiercinski, a native Montrealer of Polish extraction, directed an Air Force Glee Club at Hagersville, while in the capacity of R.C.A.F. chaplain, and he is at present Professor of Philosophy and Sociology at the Arts and Trades School.

Tickets for the presentation may be obtained at the Campion Bookshop, the International Music Store, and the Guild office, 3454B Peel Street.

Auxiliary News Letter Tells of Royal Edward Hospital Needs

A recent News Letter published by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital, in connection with the Joint Hospital Fund Appeal, reports that the Royal Edward is to receive a 100-bed new surgical unit and equipment, the total cost of which will be $1,700,000. These beds will be used chiefly for the care of patients who can pay only part, sometimes none, of the cost.

Despite marked progress in the last twenty years, the tuberculosis death rate in the Province of Quebec is still twice that of Ontario. There are now approximately 13,000 known case of pulmonary tuberculosis, active or potentially active, in Greater Montreal. The Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital is endeavoring to care for nearly 5,000 of these.

Last year, 7,187 persons made 28,073 visits to the Royal Edward's Out-Patient Department, and its nurses made over 11,000 visits to the patient's homes. The Royal Edward is constantly attempting to treat active cases in their homes. Over 2,000 of these have never had sanatorium care.

Approximately 1,500 have had such treatment and are trying to get back to work. These cases are non-infectious.

But the Royal Edward now has on its hands 750 infectious cases. Five hundred are receiving hospital care. Between 200 and 250 known infectious cases, however, are in their homes anxiously awaiting beds; and 200 to 250 more are awaiting examination. These 400 to 500 infectious cases, scattered throughout Montreal, represent points of danger to people around them.

The Auxiliary President, Mrs. J. Cecil McDougall, who is chairman of the women's committee appealing to special names in this city-wide effort, recently stated "If we believe in our present system of hospital care and treatment, then we must all support it, help to make it work as well as assume some of the responsibility for making it effective. The alternative is a government financed and controlled system similar to that currently operating in Britain, with all its burden of additional taxes. The new surgical unit planned for Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital will provide the means of saving many more lives than has been possible heretofore."

Coming Triennial, Many Fields Of Endeavor, Aired at Council

At the meeting of the Montreal Council of Women held yesterday in the Alan Shatford Memorial Hall, the president, Miss Esther Kerry, reporting briefly on the International Council of Women, said that the next Triennial Conference is to be held in Greece in the spring of 1951. Its theme will be "Responsabilités de la femme; Gardienne de la vie".

It was also announced by Miss Kerry that in connection with the annual meeting of the National Council of Women, being held in London, Ontario, at the end of this month, "Fifty Years of Women's Work" is to be published by the London Free Press as a special supplement.

Mrs. John S. Corbett, chairman of the Recreation Committee, spoke on the Canadian Youth Hostels Association; and the Montreal Council, recognizing the value to the young people of this Province, arising from the opportunities for healthy outdoor recreation afforded by the St. Lawrence Region of the Canadian Youth Hostels, put itself on record as approving the program of the organization.

Education

Mrs. R. C. Dickinson, chairman of the Education Committee, spoke of the Federation of Protestant Women Teachers of the Island of Montreal. There are 1155 members of this federation, who have been working towards the appointment of women teachers to executive positions when vacancies occur. School boards tend to appoint male principals and vice-principals of schools, even though 50% of the enrollment may be female. Mrs. Dickinson recommended that a letter be written to the Montreal Central School Board, asking that women be considered for, and appointed to, such positions.

Outstanding Accomplishments Of Imperial Order Reviewed

Educational work of the I.O.D.E., which at the completion of the 50th anniversary year averages $100,000 spent annually on gifts to schools, scholarships, community projects, is well known across Canada.

Records show that by 1902 the Order already had laid down its programme of developing a love of Empire and Country in Canadian children. It began with the famed "Comrades' Correspondence," a movement which has grown until 4,000 names alone were added in 1948-49 to the already lengthy "pen pals" list.

Linking Canadian children with youngsters in New Zealand, Australia, England and South Africa, the project has been described by Empire Correspondence Convener, Miss Ethel Raymond of Brantford, Ontario, as "the happiest, liveliest and one of the most far-reaching branches of the Order's work."

In the early years this Comrades' Correspondence, plus the Order's effort to put Canadian schools in touch with others in the Empire, grew so rapidly that by 1904 an advisory committee of men was formed. Ontario's Education Minister at the time, Hon. R. Harcourt, and Professor J. Loudon, then President of the University of Toronto, were among the first members of the committee which eventually took in education ministers in the different provinces. The board continued to act until around 1918 when the I.O.D.E. annual meeting urged the setting up of an educational committee of ladies.

The educational policy as clarified by the Order in 1919 stressed the Canadianizing of the foreign element and "that we should see that our native Canadian children are trained according to British ideals". It was a natural outcome from the Order's educational growth, which included the areas where there was a large adoption of schools, a project begun three years earlier. Schools were first "adopted" in outlying percentage of foreign-born pupils. Libraries were presented called "historical loan libraries" and arrangements were made to equip the schools with historical illustrations — in order that the youngsters might learn something of British ideals and British institutions. Over the years the "adoption" plan has grown until in 1948-49 more than 2,000 schools alone were helped and 310 libraries valued at $5,640 were distributed. Thousands of dollars were spent to supply sports equipment, art supplies, sewing-materials, tools and films.

The National Educational Secretary, Mrs. J. D. Detwiler, M.B.E., F.R.S.A. of London, Ontario, reports I.O.D.E. books going into every province, filling the minds of young persons with "an intelligent sound patriotism".

It was with this in mind that the Educational Committee last year undertook to have a book written designed to combat Communism in Canada. It also took a firm stand against the wave of "crime comics" sweeping the country.

For years the Order has been known for its prizes for essays on "Empire" topics, bursaries, and the scholarships it gives annually to deserving boys and girls. As early as 1906 prizes were presented to children in the public schools for Empire Day essays. In 1923 a resolution from the Quebec Municipal Chapter prompted the establishment of short-story and one-act play competitions. At this time a prize of $200 was given by Mrs. R. W. Wood of Fernie, B.C., for the best story. Mrs. Preble McIntosh of Montreal gave the $100 prize for the best play. Both awards continued for 10 years.

The prize and scholarship idea continues. Mrs. Detwiler noted in her 1949 report that during that year $62,663. was spent on students, more than half of this going for scholarships and bursaries. During the year 2,628 prizes were given, including medals, trophies, cups, pens, and even community concert season tickets.

E. has asked the Women's Voluntary Services to undertake the selling of these pamphlets and programs on Saturday, May 27th, and Sunday, May 28th.

Mrs. J. T. Gibaut is the convener for this exhibition, with Mrs. Leslie Boyd, the Captain, for May 24th; Mrs. Gibaut, Captain for May 25th, and Mrs. Loynachan Captain for May 26th.

Glamorous Touches For Short Hair-Do

WITH a few twists of the wrists and some odds and ends from a jewelry box, any woman can change a short hair-do from daytime simplicity to evening glamor, according to Manhattan hair stylist Jean De Chant.

He suggests, for example, that a double strand pearl necklace be intertwined with black velvet ribbon to create the "prima donna" look for short hair which has been snipped just below the ear lobes. Hair this length can be brushed up and swirled in the back which will give the illusion of long hair swept high.

Another De Chant treatment for short hair is the use of a length of pastel tulle wrapped about the head in much the same manner as the pearls and finished off with a glitter brooch or tiny scatter pins.

A third treatment can be in brushing all of the hair into a soft roll atop of the head, either away from or toward the face, and crossing two decorative hat-pins in the roll for an exotic touch.

The best length for short hair, this stylist thinks, is about two and a half inches, a length which is both smart and easily adapta-

Denise Darcel does her best to bring some cheer into the lives of American soldiers quartered in her house in Bastogne in this scene from "Battleground", the spectacular G.I. drama which starts Sunday at the Westmount Theatre.  direct from Hollywood
 By JACK HIRSHBERG

HOLLYWOOD, May 18 — It's just over a month since close to 600 friends of Walter Huston paid him final homage at a non-denominational service in the Beverly Hills headquarters of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

It was my lot to have written the final interview Huston granted in a career spanning 45 years in show business. That story broke in The Montreal Standard the day after Huston's death. In it he spoke of turning down long film and theater contracts in favor of loafing through his remaining years.

Huston was one of the nicest men I've ever known. That's a trite word — nice — and Walter might not like it. He was rough and regular, preferred the small-town life of Running Springs, California, to an existence in Hollywood. But he was an all-around likeable hombre.

And he was the best darned actor this town has ever seen.

Spencer Tracy voiced this in his eulogy:

"He was easy to rate," said Tracy. "There were no long-winded arguments over Huston in Broadway cafes. He just happened to be the best."

And so he was. I recall the 1949 presentation of Oscars when Walter and his son, John, won for their work as star and director of "Treasure of the Sierra Madre." It was the fist father-and-son combine in Academy history, and the glow of pride they showed was as much for each other as for themselves.

Huston would have liked the memorial service tendered him. Nothing maudlin. The body was already cremated when his relatives joined the throng at the Academy for the last tribute. The stage was banked with ferns from Walter's ranch. The organist played his favorite music, including the deeply moving number he popularized eight years back, "September Song."

I liked Tracy's remarks in tribute to this great Canadian. Huston, you recall, was born and got his theatrical start in Toronto.

"He turned guts into a good word," said Tracy. "He filled in 45 years with the best playing you'll ever see. It was the works — singing, dancing, Shakespeare. Call your shot — Huston could do it. Walter had a gentle mind. He had the strength to quietly oppose things that were wrong. He had a unique copyright on kindness."

When I lunched with Walter some weeks back he had just completed his final film, "The Furies." He reminisced about his youth in Canada, his sister Margaret, who taught John Barrymore the rudiments of good acting. He talked about his paternal grandfather, a hellfire and brimstone character who turned Walter against organized religion but not against a firm belief in God. He spoke of his last visit to Canada, when he was given the key to the city in Toronto. He spoke of his collection of souvenirs from various productions in which he worked — the oil painting of himself from "The Furies," a machete knife from "Treasure of the Sierra Madre" and many more. He showed me two items from his collection of ash trays, ash trays swiped from every hotel and bar he visited in four decades. This collection was his pride and joy — and his wife's prime worry since the trays filled the house.

Walter Huston will be missed by the public. He had the quality of humility. He was always human, never aloof. You saw in him weaknesses and traces of strength you felt in yourself. That was one secret of his success.

Huston would not contemplate retirement, in the strict sense of the word. He was scheduled to begin another movie the day of his funeral. He loved his ranch, his pastime of cabinet work, his fishing trips. His white hair and blue eyes topped a ruddy, happy face. Man and actor, he was in his prime until death cut him down without notice.

On the subject of retirement he liked to quote Gratiano: "Why should a man, whose blood is warm within, sit like his grandsire cut in alabaster?"

So now Huston goes to join Valentino, Barrymore, C. Aubrey Smith, Wallace Beery, Frank Morgan, Richard Dix and the rest. He gave to his craft, as Spencer Tracy phrased it, some splendor it did not have before.

Twenty-one guns comprise the national salute to The Flag.

Two Excellent Features Sunday At the Westmount

A motion picture that everyone has been waiting for—the first down-to-earth story of the G.I. of World War II, sans flag-waving and mock heroics — has been brought to the screen in "Battleground," the impressive Dore Schary production, starts Sunday at the Westmount Theatre.

Taking the members of a squad in the 101st Airborne Division as its pivotal characters, "Battleground" gives you the laughs, the tears, the bravery, the cowardice, the griping, the bantering, the boredom and the guts of a cross-section of American G.I.'s. In the fateful December of 1944 this squad of mud-stained, weary, battle-scarred soldiers is awakened from reports of crumpled Paris resistance and dreams of Paris furloughs to find itself once again on the move to make a stand against the Krauts at a French town called Bastogne.

And here we get a close-up of some of these bedraggled "Screaming Eagles"—Holley (Van Johnson), carefree six-footer with a weakness for gals, gags and purloined eggs; Jarvess (John Hodiak), cynical small-town reporter whose own editorials inspired him to enlist; "Pop" (George Murphy), thirty-five plus, sweating out his discharge; Roderigues (Ricardo Montalban), courageous California Mexican; Wolowicz (Bruce Cowling), combat loving squad leader; "Kipp" (Douglas Fowley), typical "wise guy"; Standifer (Don Taylor), second in command and leery of inheriting the squad leader's job; Bettis (Richard Jaeckel), who has undergone one shelling too many; Layton (Marshall Thompson), the naive new replacement, and a number of others.

Second Feature

"Whirlpool," the thriller that is rated as another "Laura," is the added attraction. Starred in the mystery drama are Gene Tierney, the star of "Laura" returning to the screen after an absence of two years; Richard Conte, for whom "Whirlpool" marks the beginning of his sixth year at Twentieth Century-Fox; Jose Ferrer, in his first starring role on the screen; and the veteran Charles Bickford. The man who made "Laura," Otto Preminger, is also responsible for producing and directing "Whirlpool."

Beautiful Miss Tierney returns in what she has described as her best part. In "Whirlpool" Conte has found a rich role very different from those he played in "Thieves' Highway," "House of Strangers," and most of his other films.

Austria Employs Policewomen

The Austrian state for the first time in its history has begun to employ women detectives. Thirty-four of them are now working in Vienna, one stationed in each of the city's twenty-six police districts, eight of them at headquarters.

Most of them are under 30. They must have had at least a high school education and two years' training in welfare work. After that they get the same training as male detectives, including self-defence and the handling of a pistol.

But women detectives ordinarily do not go armed since experience has shown that to flash a gun generally makes a bad situation worse. They are taught instead to employ psychology and since most of their work is with women and young persons, psychology generally works.

They may have to frequent all sorts of places, including night clubs. To play the part, a woman detective may have to wear fashionable clothes—for which she receives a special allowance — and must have acting ability of a kind.

MRT Production "The Heiress" Held Over

Three extra performances of the Montreal Repertory Theatre's production of "The Heiress" will be given due to a completely sold-out week and a half which ends on Saturday. "The Heiress" will be repeated on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 22, 23 and 24, and seats are now available for the extension.

Few productions in the history of the MRT have been so successful as that of the Ruth and Augustus Goetz play or as highly praised by local critics. It is the consensus of opinion that the uncommon interest shown in "The Heiress" is due, not only to the recent Paramount film version, but also to the inherent beauty and intelligence of the MRT's treatment of one of the outstanding New York productions of recent years.

"It surely must be one of the best things the MRT has done", one critic wrote. "It is also among the best theatre productions that has been seen in the city in the past year."

Another critic reported it as "a remarkable achievement and one of the year's most satisfactory theatrical events". Still another recorded that "the production justifies the MRT's courage in undertaking it."

Mary Douglas and Richard Kronold have been specially praised for their interpretation respectively of the roles of Catherine and Dr. Sloper. Richard Gilbert has the part of the dilatory lover, Cynthia Michaelis that of the aunt, and other players are Leslie Crombie, Gwyn Williams, Sheila Rogers, Doreen Lewis and Talbot Johnson.

The play is directed by RoBERTA Beatty with settings by Hans Berends. Both direction and setting have won the admiration of critics and public alike. Equal praise has been bestowed on the period costumes designed and executed by Virginia Watt.

Taylor, Miss Leigh Outstanding Team

Vivien Leigh and Robert Taylor form one of the most outstanding romantic teams of 1940 in "Waterloo Bridge," their starring film which comes to the Seville Art Theatre for a return engagement.

In her first American screen appearance since she won the Academy Award for her performance as Scarlet O'Hara in "Gone With the Wind," Miss Leigh was a no less romantic, but more tender and sympathetic role in the new film as a ballet dancer who falls in love with a dashing young officer she meets an Waterloo Bridge during an air raid.

As the officer, Taylor has one of the finest roles of his career, a characterization which requires him to age from twenty-five to forty-eight. Their breathless love story and the effects of war on their romance and lives in graphically told in the film.

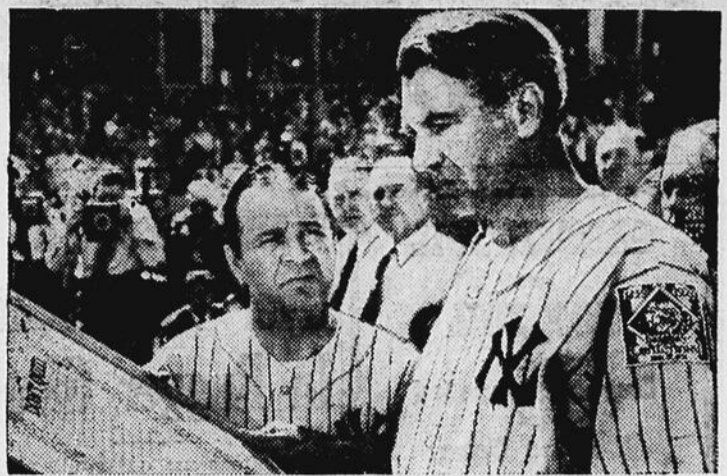

Giving the picture more timeliness and vitality, the Robert E. Sherwood stage success has been adapted to open in London in 1940 and then turns back the pages of history to 1917 for its major theme.

Wanderers Win Over Westmount In Rugger Game

Despite some outstanding playing by the Westmount forwards, the Toronto Wanderers English Rugby team proved too powerful and swept to a 15-0 victory, Saturday afternoon.

On the muddy Westmount Park field the visiting Torontonians ran a touchdown in the first half and then converted it to make the score 5-0.

Midway through the second half, they again went over, proving that their backfielders were far superior to the Westmounters. The touchdown was again converted and a few seconds before the game ended, they swept down the field to their third major which was converted as the whistle went to end the game.

Outstanding for the Westmounters was wiry little scrum-half, Eoin Ruthven, who proved a mainspring of the losers throughout the match.

It was the second match for the Westmounters this spring, having lost to Harvard University in Boston, 9-0 a few weeks ago. Plans are now underway to play a return engagement with the wanderers before the spring season closes.

Several McGill players also took part in the game Saturday, and proved a great asset to the Westmounters.

Nevil Martin Decisions Marcoux in Feature Bout

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Action was the keynote of St. Leo's Tenth Annual Boxing Show held a week ago tonight. A total of 26 battlers kept the capacity crowd entertained throughout with a display of fistic finesse that was a direct compliment to St. Leo's Andy McGillis, the man who organized the whole affair.

It was quite a night for St. Leo's boxers. Of the 11 bouts staged against outside competition, wearers of the distinctive white, red and green boxing trunks of the Clark avenue institution copped the

MARTIN WINS FEATURE

In the feature bout of the evening, the battle that brought to an end the 13-bout card, St. Leo's Nevil Martin chalked up a close decision over Andre Marcoux, of St. Paul's, in a three-round slugfest that featured some of the heartiest punches of the evening.

Martin started off with a flurry and dropped Marcoux to the canvas midway through the round. The black-haired visitor leapt to his feet before a count could be started but was forced to take the compulsory eight-count. This was Martin's round all the way.

LOW BLOW

In the middle round, a temporary halt had to be called to the proceedings when Marcoux planted a punch below Martin's belt. The game St. Leo's mittman doubled up in pain but came back fighting mad after a few seconds' rest with a two-fisted attack which had Marcoux in serious trouble.

This was a very close round. Marcoux landed one on Martin's nose which started a stream of claret spouting. If any edge existed in this session, it was in favour of Marcoux.

THIRD ROUND FLURRY

Both fighters put up terrific displays in the first half of the final round. Martin slipped to the floor for a no-count when he was off-balance and a slashing right by Marcoux started the blood pouring from Martin's nose once again.

Martin fought back with all he had and opened up a cut over Marcoux's mouth which had more blood flowing.

Both fighters were exhausted in the latter half of the round and clinched almost constantly.

It was a good bout, one of the best of the evening.

PRIZES PRESENTED

The presentation of prizes to St. Leo's top athletes of the year was one of the highlights of the evening. The outstanding senior boxer of the night was, according to the three judges who rendered the decisions for all 13 bouts, John Foy. Outstanding junior boxer was Tommy St. James.

Other prize winners were: The Trophy of Rt. Reverend W. E. McDonagh to St. Leo's best all-round senior athlete for 1949-50: John Foy.

SOCCER TILT AT STADIUM ON SATURDAY

H. H. Hughes, vice-president of the Football Association of England, who along with Council Member J. Richards of Barnsley is co-chairman of the English international soccer tour of Canada, announced on Wednesday the eleven players who will represent England at Delorimier Baseball Stadium tonight against Montreal "All Stars".

Hughes waited until he had seen all the men in action at Westmount grounds in their first try-out after the boat trip.

Both he and Richards stated to The Monitor that the team chosen to play here represents the cream of English soccer players, and they were of the opinion that the game tomorrow will rank as probably the best exhibition staged in Montreal.

The team selected is: Goal, S. Hanson, Bolton Wanderers. Backs, E. Mozeley, Derby County, and W. Ellerington, Southampton. Half-backs, H. Johnston, Blackpool; R. Flewin, captain, Portsmouth; T. V. Ward, Derby County. Forwards, Stan Matthews, Blackpool; F. Bowyer, Stoke City; N. Lofthouse, Bolton Wanderers; J. Hagan, Sheffield United; J. W. Hancocks, Wolverhampton Wanderers. Trainer, T. Ed Meagher Named Director Loyola High School Sports

Ed (Edmund Richard) Meagher, at present Director of Athletics and Physical Education at St. Paul's College, Winnipeg, will return to his alma mater, Loyola, to direct all high school athletics.

Formal announcement to this effect has been made by the reverend James Toppings, S.J., prefect of the high school, who stated that Meagher would be in complete charge of all high school activities as director and head coach. He will have a competent staff to assist him in the coaching of the various teams participating in intra-mural and extra-mural athletics.

SHORT CHANGE — Pitcher Pinky Woods daintily shows his knee and the first major equipment change in baseball uniforms in 111 years. The champion Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League are trotting out in the shorts.

Meagher will complete the present scholastic term at St. Paul's, which is affiliated with the University of Manitoba, and will take up his duties at Loyola during the coming summer.

As Father Toppings pointed out in announcing the appointment, Ed Meagher will bring to his new duties an intimate knowledge of Loyola, gathered during his high school and college courses, plus the experience of an old Loyola player and coach.

Academic Record

Meagher's academic record reads as follows: Followed the entire high school course at Loyola and went on to the college from which he graduated with Bachelor of Arts degrees in 1946. He has enrolled at Springfield College in the Physical Education Course and will receive from that institution his Master's Degree. He was a member of the faculty of Loyola High School for three school terms.

In the realm of athletics, Meagher played bantam, junior and senior football and hockey for Loyola. He played tackle on the Loyola College football team which won the intercollegiate title. Extra-murally, Meagher was associated with the Winged Wheelers when that team won the provincial title and he was selected most valuable player in the league. Other hockey activities included associations with Royals and other teams operating in the Montreal district. He was on the Detroit Red Wings list. In Winnipeg, during the past winter, he found time to play in the popular Parochial League in that hockey-conscious city.

Fine Coaching Record

Before and after graduation, Meagher coached many Loyola High School football and hockey teams and his teams acquired no less than five city championships. In the summer of 1949, he took over his new duties at St. Paul's and was that famous college's first full-time Director of Athletics and Physical Education.

A job of rebuilding confronted him from the outset but with the active support of faculty and student body, Meagher put together a fighting aggregation which went on to win the championship of its own league and then proceeded to capture the Manitoba Provincial Championship.

At St. Paul's, Meagher organized also junior and bantam teams and ran a full programme of basketball and boxing.

Fighting Blood

For the past two weeks, Meagher has been taking an active part in the flood-fighting which has been engaging the attention of all Winnipeggers. In the company of Jesuit members of St. Paul's faculty, many tours of each day and night have been spent on the dikes and in assisting evacuating families from the more dangerous sections of the water-filled city.

Talking with a Montreal friend who recently passed through the Manitoba capital, Meagher gave expression to his unbounded admiration for the manner in which Winnipeggers are meeting a major catastrophe. He referred to the way in which sports writers across the nation have extolled over the years the athletic virtues of Winnipeggers. By actual experience, he says, he has learned to recognize and appreciate these sterling qualities.

In the past 20 years the average Canadian's work week has dropped from 51.5 hours to 42.3 hours — Quick Canadian Facts.

Work on St. Remi Tunnel Progressing Very Fast

Westmount residents who have occasion to cross the Lachine Canal will be pleased to learn that good progress is being made with the new vehicular tunnel at St. Remi street.

The job is a federal government project and will provide a much needed traffic improvement to the west end.

It is learned that there is every likelihood of a second tunnel being constructed at Atwater avenue.

The federal government is said to be working on plans for the Atwater tunnel. Several sections of land will have to be purchased or expropriated to prepare the approaches to the tunnel under the canal.

It is hoped by local politicians that a start will be made on the Atwater tunnel before the next Montreal municipal elections in December.
