

B. M. GARFIELD WITHDRAWS FROM ALDERMANIC RACES; HEADS BUSINESS MEN'S ASS'N.

Turns Down Nomination After Receiving Petition Signed By 1,200 Voters — Contends That Election Will Be "Bought" — Will Still Lead North End Business Men.

It has just leaked out that at the time when B. M. Garfield yielded to the demands of the citizens of St. Michael's Ward and consented to become a candidate for alderman in that ward that he tendered his resignation as President of the Business Men's Association on the grounds that if elected alderman he would not be able to fulfill the duties of both, his resignation was not accepted by the Executive Committee of the Association on the grounds that his services as President of the Business Men's Assn. was worth more to the North End than it would be as alderman of St. Michael's Ward. In the meantime Mr. Garfield announced his withdrawal from the civic campaign stating:

"To be elected Alderman of St. Michael's Ward fairly as the honest choice of the voters would be an honor to any man but to buy your election or obtain it by dishonest or crooked methods would be an equal disgrace in my estimation and if I cannot be elected honestly and fairly I don't care to be elected at all, I will not resort to dishonest and crooked methods and after a careful study of the situation for the last two weeks I have decided to withdraw as a candidate for alderman and remain at the head of the Business Men's Association.

"To conduct an honest campaign for Alderman in St. Michael's ward should not cost a penny over $2,000 yet I understand that some candidates are willing and intend to spend from $8,000 to $10,000. What is the answer, the salary for an Alderman is only $2,000 a year or $4,000 for their term of two years and they are spending $8,000 or $10,000. Are they going to serve the citizens of St. Michael's ward honestly or are they going to serve their own pocketbooks first? Answer this question in your own minds, why is it worth so much to be alderman of St. Michael's ward when the honest income is only four thousand dollars for the two year term?"

"If my last two weeks of activities is an example of what I can expect during my campaign if I was to continue I can truthfully say that I'm mighty glad that I have decided to withdraw. I have been approached by men of good standing with political experience who have stated that it would cost the man who was elected this year at least $10,000 and I have been approached by other men who were willing to telegraph me all the votes I wanted at $3.00 a vote saying that it was the only way that any man could be elected this year, if such is the case I don't care to be elected as I will not resort to any such tactics but I think it is due time that we showed this class of people that a good man can be elected honestly in St. Michael's Ward, the Business Men, the Property Owners and every citizen who has any interest in St. Michael's Ward should join

Austro-German Trouble Nearing Climax

Having little faith in the ability of the League of Nations to protect his country against German aggression, Prince Ernst Rudiger von Starhemberg (top, centre), supreme leader of Austria's Heimwehr, heads a steadily-growing army in the Tyrol, where he declares, he will make a last fight for Austrian independence. Although an admirer and ardent supporter of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss (top, right), Prince Starhemberg believes that Dollfuss' appeal to the League of Nations is so much wasted effort. He thinks nothing can avert a fight with Germany, despite the fact that Chancellor Hitler (left), recently promised Nazi activities in Austria would cease. Shown above is the Austro-German Customs House at Kiefersfelden, Austria. The Nazi flag flies on the German side of the border which divides the house.

VACANCIES ON DIRECTORATE NOW FILLED

Business Men Elect New Vice-President, Financial Secretary, Director

The Business Men's Association of the North End, at yesterday's meeting of its Executive Board, elected three new officers to fill vacancies of long standing. This action brings the Board again up to full strength. The new incumbents are Messrs. Art. Lemay, third vice-president; J. A. Blair, financial secretary, and D. Mosca, director. The last two named, while members of the association since its inception, have never before held office. Mr. Lemay has acted previously as financial secretary. He will, incidentally, have charge of arrangements for the luncheon on Wednesday next.

OUTREMONT CURLERS TO REDUCE FEES

Make Special Attraction For Balance of Season

Members of the Outremont Curling Club held a very interesting meeting in their club rooms last night. In the absence of Fred Orr, president of the organization, now on the sick list, Vice-President Eugene Courvete occupied the chair. A general report of finance and club operations with regard to the recent installation of the artificial ice plant was presented. Various other matters were discussed. Chief among these was a motion, proposed and passed unanimously, to lower the fees for membership to one half their previous rate for the balance of the season. It was felt that the six remaining weeks of curling should be a good inducement to gentlemen to join the club. A cordial invitation was issued to all to visit the club house, a comfortably heated building, to watch this cosmopolitan game being played, numbering amongst its participants English, Scotch and Irish enthusiasts, as well as Canadians. Announcement was made of a luncheon on Saturday next, at 1:30 p.m. in honor of the French-Canadian section of the association.

Murray's Feature Afternoon Tea

Among the pleasing daily features at Murray's Park Avenue branch is that of an appetizing "Afternoon Tea," served from three until five p.m., with a particularly appetizing menu. This "Afternoon Tea" affords a splendid opportunity for the entertainment of guests, the discussion of social events, or the transaction of business matters, in a pleasant and quiet atmosphere. Murray's, of course, need no introduction. The name is synonymous with all that is best in the restaurant field. The waitresses, efficient and obliging, in their trim uniforms; the artistic interior decorations; the quality and courtesy — everything is typical of the high standard which prevails throughout the entire organization. The "Afternoon Teas" served at the Park Avenue branch are in keeping with the general excellence.

A Canadian professor says that comparatively pure English is spoken in this country. We think he ought to give the speaker's name.

BON VIEUX TEMPS SUPPER ENJOYED BY CAPACITY CROWD AT ST. GEORGES ON MON. LAST

Ladies of Notre Dame Give Ample Evidence of Traditional Hospitality of Old Quebec — "Old Fashioned Supper".

There was a "Bon Vieux Temps" Supper served in the Parish Hall of the Church of St. Georges, on Monday evening last. And what a supper! It was organized by the Ladies of Notre Dame, under the presidency of Cure Aime Boileau, and was for the benefit of the parochial funds of St. Georges. It was typical of the hospitality of the province of Quebec. The tables groaned under the plente of good, substantial foods, served in the proverbial fashion of the old-fashioned quadrille performed, which evoked much hilarity. Among the numbers presented were a song by Mr. M. O. Dumontier, an accordion solo by Mme R. Leville, "Dances of Other Days" by Mes. Marchand and Valiquette, and Miss A. Lacroix, and selections by Professor Boyce and his orchestra. Mr. Lanouette acted as Pore-Frais, "Creme Boulee," pies, master of ceremonies, and Cure Boileau was ably assisted by Fathers Wil- and one other delicacies so dear, to the heart—and stomach — not only working committee of ladies in looking after the comforts of his guests, the younger generation as well. There were ample evidence to prove the latter assertion. The menu were shawls and bonnets, and artistically arranged, and each item multi-colored sashes of the early was accompanied by a verse ex-planatory of its specific purpose. To ful one, and was thoroughly enjoyed the "Roti de Pore-Frais" for in-stance, roast pork, in plain English—

Seth Parker Club And Fairmount String Ensemble

An interesting musical event in the North End Community is the forthcoming Concert by the Fairmount String Ensemble, on Monday evening, February 26th, in the Assembly Hall of Fairmount-St. Giles United Church under the auspices of the Seth Parker Club, Outremont and North End district. The Fairmount String Ensemble is a local group of young musicians that is making a splendid progress, and its coming public appearance in a specially arranged programme will no doubt be watched with interest. In addition to the numbers to be rendered by the complete Ensemble, the programme will include solo, duet, trio and quartet selections by members of the group. A vocal soloist and an outstanding elocutionist, will round out a programme that gives promise of a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

In presenting the Fairmount String Ensemble in this Concert programme, it is the desire of the Seth Parker Club to encourage local artists, and at the same time to raise additional funds for the carrying on of the Relief work of the Club. Tickets may be had from W. Gatenby, AT. 0051, or A. Martin, AT. 3184, or any member of the local Seth Parker Club.

PISTOLS AT DAWN

How Can Demonstration of Marksmanship Result in Appeased Honor—Futility of Duels Is Only Deeper When Nations Go to War

Perhaps the famous Duke of York had the right idea when he marched his 10,000 men up the hill and down again. Perhaps, by so doing, he got what has been called "satisfaction of arms." Certainly he cut no more ridiculous figure than some others who have marched to more disastrous effect.

The other day in Paris two citizens, one a lawyer and the other a newspaper editor, at day-break in a football stadium faced each other with pistols seeking "satisfaction of arms." Happily the aim of neither gentleman was accurate. Each missed—twice—and the world chuckled hugely over the picture of the two stalking angrily out of the park, honor unappeased and argument unsettled. One wonders how any intelligent person could consider the argument settled or honor appeased by a mere demonstration of marksmanship had one of the bullets found its mark.

The Duke of York did have the right idea whether he knew it or not. Napoleon marched his men into Moscow and marched them back again. He left a trail of misery and human suffering that darkened a page of history. Yet honor was unappeased and accomplishment as distant as ever. The armies of Germany marched into Belgium, stayed through four horrible years, and marched home again. That movement of troops took a dreadful toll of manhood, plunged the world into chaos and bitterness. And nothing was accomplished. Honor has remained unappeased.

The spectacle of the gentlemen of Paris is worthy of more than passing notice. There is a note of terrific import behind the comic outcome. These gentlemen provide an example of the futility of expecting "satisfaction by arms," a futility that is only deepened when nations go to war. For howitzers and machine guns are but the dueling pistols of nations. The tragedy lies in the fact that nations are seldom as fortunate as were these gentlemen of Paris.

A LAURIER ANNIVERSARY

Fifteenth Anniversary of Sir Wilfrid's Death Will Be Observed This Month—Ghost Would Be Amazed At Spectacle of The World Today

The fifteenth anniversary of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's death will be observed on February 18. Time has not dimmed his reputation as a great citizen, a great orator and a great Canadian. Seen in perspective, the unique qualities of his statesmanship are emphasized.

He was not, it is true, a master of financial analysis. He dealt in principles rather than in details of practice. But his principles were such as endear his memory to a multitude of Canadians. He sought national and international harmony; his sturdy Canadianism did not make him the less a champion of the Empire; his loyalties did not make him the less a friend of all mankind. He preached tolerance of race and creed. He sought unity within the country of his birth. He was somewhat of the grand gentleman, yet in many respects a true democrat. He had "the vision". He knew how to move the hearts and the minds of men

One of the interesting things about him was that he believed in trade as a vivifier and revivifier of the nation's commercial life. If Sir Wilfrid Laurier—and if Sir John Macdonald—were to come back to us today, they would be amazed at the spectacle which the world presents; a world in which each nation appears bent upon the impossible task of living unto itself.

THE ATTACK ON MR. BELL

Alderman Biggar's Accusations Will Not Be Taken Too Seriously

Alderman Biggar has made the headlines again with a scathing attack on Alderman Lionel Bell, English-speaking representative on the Executive Committee, accusing him of failure to look after the interests of the English-speaking electors. From this distance the "attack" looks little more than a bit of old-style political ballyhoo—a build-up for the coming elections. Mr. Bell, it is true, has not been a spectacular alderman. He has been careful of the city's money, unusually businesslike at the City Hall council table. He is not very good at the usual tricks that make an alderman popular, and has been an especially poor bet to contract-seeking contractors and builders. That is one class that he has neglected rather badly, it is true. It may be that Alderman Biggar has some genuine complaint against Mr. Bell—something bigger than politics—and if so, he should lay his cards on the table, or keep quiet, for Alderman Bell is popular in Notre Dame de Grace. Delegations of private citizens and local business men who have visited the Executive have seldom failed to get entire satisfaction for any reasonable proposal put forward. There is no complaint, locally, that English-speaking electors have not been properly looked after.

The many friends of General Smart, M.L.A., are glad to know that he is making a satisfactory recovery and is able to attend to his legislative duties at Quebec where as usual he will take an independent stand on all questions which arise. He does not hesitate to vote with the Government or against as he thinks he is justified in the circumstances. General Smart, in this respect, is somewhat unique, but it would be greatly to the country's advantage if we had more legislators like him

By Howard Ross, K.C.

Science has placed in the hands of we humans weapons of power and control which if used intelligently would banish once and for all human misery and inaugurate a reign of material and cultural prosperity unprecedented in history.

It has become a platitude to describe the world in which most people merely exist as a madhouse. Our poverty is equalled by our superabundance of commodities. Our ability to produce is only equalled by our ability to starve for lack of production. We are so insane that there is serious talk of the possibility that we may again slaughter each other as the only way we can devise to bring about more employment.

Hon. George Sedgewick, chairman of the Tariff Board recently stated that even a 50 per cent application of the principles of the church would remove the conflict between nations and between capital and labor. Why not apply it 100 per cent and make a real job of it?

Word comes H. S. Ross, K.C., from Agnes Macphail, M.P., from her home in Ceylon, Ontario, that she is rapidly regaining her health after an operation which completely removed the cause of her ill-health. The news will be received with great satisfaction by her many thousands of friends from coast to coast.

When she returns to the House of Commons she will receive a warm welcome from her fellow members of all parties.

British Canadian Co-operative Society Limited doing business throughout the county of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, report sales amounting to $243,231.77 for the three months ending November 1, 1933 being an increase of $33,754.28 compared with the two previous quarterly periods. This indicates a substantial improvement in the industrial conditions of the district.

There are 3,107 members. A dividend of 7 per cent, for the quarter was declared on members purchases and half that rate on purchases of non-members.

The total investment of the members in share and loan capital is $162,979.95.

Zeal without knowledge is dangerous and too often it is worse than useless.

Premier Taschereau stands the rough and tumble of public life better because he has a sense of humor. At the opening of the legislature he teased the new Opposition Leader about the division in the Conservative ranks and then said: "Nevertheless, the Government could not have chosen a more satisfactory opposition leader than Mr. Duplessis. We are glad to have facing us a man whom we know to be loyal, a hard fighter who is ready to give and take hard blows but who never strikes below the belt. In that respect, it must be conceded that you were our candidate at the Sherbrooke Convention and that we won".

The recent cut of 14.5 per cent in electricity rates granted the city of Memphis by the Memphis Power and Light Company was nothing but a sop according to Robert S. Keebler, leading Liberal of the Memphis Bar who became famous during The Scopes Trial when he was obliged to leave the Southern Methodist Church because of his participation in

The Scopes Defence. Mr. Keebler charges that the recent Muscle Shoals Committee appointed by Mayor Overton of Memphis was a blind. All the Mayor needed to do he said was to apply to the Tennessee Valley Authority and he could have got electricity for Memphis at a saving to the people of 50 per cent. Mr. Keebler insists that it was the close association between the local Crump Political machine and the Memphis Power and Light Company which brought about the deception to the people of Memphis.

Business spends more time and money selling things for profit than it does in making things for use.

The present distressing economic stagnation does not indicate 100 per cent efficiency inherent in the profit motive.

Why Loan Corporation Shares Are so SAFE

Mont - de - Piété And so PROFITABLE

Loan corporations, whose principal business is advancing money against pledges, constitute one of the most profitable businesses in the world — because the capital is, of necessity, so well protected in each and every transaction. Hence shares in such enterprises constitute a high-yield investment of sterling value. Among the many reasons why such shares are sought by even the most conservative investors are—

1. Absolute security of capital invested—because a Loan Corporation always keeps in its vaults pledges worth at least 3 or 10 times the amount of money it loans.
2. Dividends always assured—because a Loan Corporation receives in advance the interest on all loans it makes.
3. The market value of such shares always increases—This has been proven time and time over again and can be easily ascertained by securing data concerning the loan Corporations now existing in all large cities throughout the world, such as Paris, Brussels, Antwerp, Berlin, New York, San Francisco, Cairo (Egypt), etc. One hundred dollars invested in such institutions at their foundation has multiplied several times over!

Quebec Province Now Has a Loan Corporation

By Special Act of the Quebec Legislature, sanctioned on March 11, 1931, Credit & Warehousing Corporation was constituted with exceptionally wide powers thus providing a reliable institution where people may apply for loans at rates that, while not onerous, will give ample security for the amounts advanced—the pledges being worth several times the amounts loaned.

In addition our Corporation is entitled to do all of the other financial commercial real estate and industrial operations pertaining to financial institutions. "To receive money on deposit", etc., etc.

Space does not permit giving full details as to the Corporation's exceptionally wide powers, its methods of operations, etc. A folder has been prepared giving full particulars concerning this safe and remunerative business. Sending for a booklet entails no obligation and will not expose you to high-pressure methods of salesmanship.

SAYS MACHINES KILL MAN'S PERSONALITY

Canon Shatford, In Eloquent Address Before Fairmount-St. Giles Men's Assn.

Declaring that the church and religion have not failed, and cannot fail, and scoring adverse criticism of religion, the Rev. Canon Allan P. Shatford delivered an inspired address before the members of Fairmount-St. Giles Men's Association, on Tuesday, at a Supper Meeting in the Assembly Hall.

Speaking on the topic "Popular Criticisms of Religion," Canon Shatford stated that the church in the fields in which it was most severely criticized had a finer record than any other institution on earth today. One popular criticism of the church, he stated, was that it had in a large measure failed. "I am willing to admit," he said, "that there have been blunders and mistakes by members of the church, but I here declare that the church and religion have not failed and cannot fail. Its destiny is divine destiny and is above the failures of men." He pointed to the fact that, as far as he knew, not one unit of the Christian church had failed financially in the stress of the economic depression. He asked if that was a sign of failure. "Among the institutions of mankind," he added, "the church has a finer record than any other."

Another criticism, Canon Shatford continued, was that science had so far outstripped religion as to leave the latter antiquated and obsolete. He scored this attitude by declaring that science had made more mistakes than religion and that it was questionable whether science had done very much to help mankind. "I believe," he said, "that our present troubles are more due to science than to anything else," naming the machine as being one of the greatest causes of man's personality being killed. It was natural, he added, that there should be mistakes in theology, "but I am certainly not willing to admit," he declared, "that religion has made more mistakes than science."

"Theres Many a Slip Twixt....!"

"There's many a slip twixt the cup and the lip" goes the old adage and it refers to a great many things besides tea-cups. Economic conditions have gone somewhat awry these days and a great many families that previously were getting by very well are finding that the pinch is beginning to be felt. Many of them are at their wits end. There is however one way out.

The Gold Scrap Shop is offering the highest prices ever paid for old gold. Where to get the old gold? Just look in the cellar or attic and in the old chest of drawers. There you will no doubt find jewelry in the form of rings, bracelets, watches, earrings, coins, etc., which are out of date. Yes, this old gold has value at the Canadian Mint and that is where the Gold Scrap Shop sends it. Thus it becomes a national asset and by cashing it in we are not only helping ourselves but also our country. Just look around in your cellar, attic or old chest and bring the old gold down to one of the branches of the Gold Scrap Shop. They are situated at 363 St. Catherine Street (four doors west of Bleury) and 884 St. Catherine St. West (four doors east of the Capitol Theatre). There expert valuers will weigh the gold for you and you will be paid in cash—the highest prices ever paid for old gold.

If you are unable to make the trip to the Gold Scrap Shop just phone PLateau 6973 and an expert valuator will call at your home with ready cash. There is no slip in this. It is the modern way to raise ready cash. No articles purchased by us are displayed in our windows.—C.

MacVICAR MEMORIAL CHURCH NOTES

Great interest is being taken in preparation for the Senior Sunday School Service which will be held in MacVicar Lecture Hall on Friday, March 16th. The various classes responsible for the programme are exceedingly busy and a good time is anticipated.

There was a large attendance at the Young People's Society meeting on Monday night when Dr. Morley of the Presbyterian College gave a most helpful address on "How to overcome temptation". Wilfrid McLatchie was chairman. At the conclusion of the meeting a very enjoyable social time was participated in by all assembled. The president, Clinton Davis, directed the programme after which refreshments were served.

MacVicar was favored with the visit of the Boy Choristers of the London (England) School Choir under the direction of Carlton Burrow, A.R.C.O.

Next Sunday Dr. Potter will preach at both services. In the morning the subject will be "The Shadow of the Almighty—or the Rest Giver" and in the evening at 7.30 Dr. Potter will answer the question "What Christ Came For?"

These services are open to everybody and strangers are cordially invited.

The Teachers' Association will meet for supper at 6.30 in the School Room after which an interesting programme has been arranged.

The Meeting was under the chairmanship of Geo. E. Palmer, president of the Men's Association. Among those seated at the head table were: Rev. B. H. Robinson, M.A.; Rev. J. G. Potter, D.D.; Rev. Wm. McLean, Rev. Chas. G. Smith, J. W. Heather, and S. Lindsay. During the Supper a number of Orchestral selections were rendered by the Fairmount String Ensemble. Mr. Western McCallum, well-known local baritone, was guest soloist, and his contribution to the evening's programme was thoroughly enjoyed.

"Darling, I want you to do something about the hands on my diamond wrist watch."

"But I'm a banker not a jeweller."

"Exactly. It's a pawnbroker who has his hands on it."

SPLENDID REPORT IS PRESENTED AT BANKERS' MEETING

City and District Savings Bank Holds Annual General Meeting

"We are now in the fifth year of an economic crisis which for severity is unequalled in History. Like so many other crises of the past, it has come after the conclusion of a great war when the wealth of contending nations had gone up in smoke leaving in its wake nothing but ruins. These depressions have been of almost mathematical recurrence which fact historians and economists might have pointed out to the world in order to prevent them or lessen their intensity. They did not happen immediately at the expiry of the conflict, as production was forced upwards to restore depleted stocks," said Hon. R. Dandurand, president of the City and District Savings Bank at the annual meeting this week.

"This propulsion of industry created the mistaken idea of a permanent return to prosperity and everyone wished to profit by this new era when fortune seemed to smile on all. But they went too far. Overproduction, abuse of credit and speculation caused these beautiful dreams to fade.

"Ours is of a more serious nature because it is complicated by the fact that machinery becoming more and more perfected from year to year, has an ever increasing output with a minimum of hand labor and it leaves millions of men without employment. Such is the problem which sociologists and statesmen have to study and solve. The return to the land movement seems to be one of the first remedies to claim our attention. As we study the economic situation as it appears to us today, we have reason to hope for better times before long. Business is at last leaning towards recovery, farm prices are holding their own and even going up a little; inventories which were at low ebb must of necessity be replenished. Nevertheless, we must not deceive ourselves. Our troubles have been too serious to respond to quick treatment.

"We observe with a certain amount of misgiving the experiment by the President of the United States to substitute for the free exercise of the law of supply and demand that of the principle of economy by control. We heartily wish him success; as the failure of his scheme might be calamitous for his country and for the outside world. As to our own Institution, the report which is before you and which is the eighty-seventh of this Bank, may be considered as very satisfactory. Although our deposits in common with those of the other banks, have slightly diminished on account of the various Bond issues of the Federal Government, we find a continual increase in the number of our depositors. Our profits also show an increase over the previous year and our reserves are constantly on the up grade.

"As mentioned in this report, we have deemed it opportune to extend our sphere of activities by the erection of two new buildings, the cost of which, as usual, is taken from a special reserve fund built up for that purpose.

"Whilst on this subject, it may not be amiss to say what the Bank has done towards lessening unemployment during the last four years. In addition to the two buildings aforementioned, the Bank has erected six other banking offices. That of Park Avenue in 1929-30; St. Catherine West, St. Denis-Rachel and Masson Street Branches, in 1930-31 and those of Verdun and Mount-Royal-DeLorimier in 1931-32. Moreover, important enlargements were carried out in Centre St. and St. Denis-Faillon branches in 1932-33. Those undertakings have given employment to a large number of our citizens during those hard times and the amount of money spent thereon is over a million dollars."

FAIRMOUNT-ST.GILES CHURCH NOTES

WHEELERS AND EPEVIER DRAW

Gabias Cornell and Bertrand Play Stellar Roles

Some 700 fans witnessed one of the season's finest exhibitions of local hockey when the Winged Wheelers met the Epevier squad at Jarry Park. The tilt ended in a 0-0 draw.

The game was fast right from the face-off, but the fine work of the goal-keepers Cornell for the Wheelers, and Bertrand for Epevier, prevented any gains for either side. A high spot came in the second period when Padveen of the Wheeler team got through, only to be foiled by Bertrand's save. During the third, Murray of the Wheelers received the game's only penalty, but Epevier was unable to profit by the Wing's shortage.

This is the third encounter between these two unusually evenly matched teams in recent weeks. The two games previously, resulted in a win for the Wheelers, and a draw.

Regent Hockeyists

Trim Monarch Team

In a hard-fought double-header, the North End Regents defeated the Monarchs Hockey team by scores of 1-0 and 2-1. Pat Griffin and Bill Brennan scored the winning tallies. Sidney Levine, goaler of the Regent team, played a smart game.

In a second encounter, the Regent team tied the St. Michael's Juniors by a score of 2-2.

The Regent team are open for opposition, and challengers are invited to get in touch with Jimmy Guest, 4902 Colonial Ave.

The line-up is as follows: Goaler, Sidney Levine; defence, John Durning, Roland Campreau; centre, Bill Brennan; wings, Morty Pesper, Joe Obrien.

A preacher on looking up from the sermon he was reading was horrified to see his young son in the gallery pelting the congregation below with horse-chestnuts. Before he could get out a word of reproof, his young hopeful cried out: "You 'tend to your preachin', daddy; I'll keep 'em awake".

North Branch "Y" Notes

On Monday night the North Branch Reds in the Inter-Y League, were hosts to the N.D.G. Blues. A regular league fixture, with less than a minute to play, the visitors came from behind to spring a 31-29 surprise over the North Branch league. For the winners, Mont and Hawthorn with 12 and 9 points respectively, were the heavy scorers. For the home team, Jimmie Roberts came out from two years' retirement to be the leading scorer gaining 10 points, playing a steady game on the forward line. Jim was at one time one of the main stays of the North Branch teams in the city league. Eddie Haviland, Howard Gordon-Smith and Ivan Edson also turned in stellar performances for the losers.

The next game for the Reds is against Central "Y" on Monday the 17th. The line-up for the North Branch "Y" team will include, Tom Pierce, Eric Lunn, Jim Roberts, Leo Fisher, Ivan Edson, Eddie Haviland, Tom Kennedy and Howard Gordon-Smith.

In the Juvenile section of the Inter "Y" League, the North Branch Y.M.C.A. entry have yet to meet their first defeat. If they maintain the pace at which they are now travelling they are the likely looking champs. The tale will be told when this team meet Central "Y" so far suffered only one defeat, that at the hands of the North Branch team. Should North Branch be defeated on this occasion, these two teams will be tied.

The North Branch team consists of Clive Leguette, Cliff McClay, Dunc McPhee, Earl Carney, G. Blackburn, Ronald Gibson and Bruce Melville.

Last Thursday evening, the North Branch Y.M.C.A. Fencing Club was well represented at the Provincial Foil Championships. Three of the North Branch men reached the semi-finals, and George Tully missed the finals by only one point.

The North Branch representatives were Geo. Tully, Harry Yale, Harry Elsie, Jack Thomas and George Nott. The great surprise of the evening was when Harry Elsie beat K. Brown the Dominion Champion by 3-1 in the preliminaries.

GYM LEADERS HOLD MEETING

The Gymnasium leaders corps at North Branch will hold a regular meeting on Saturday with a religious discussion under the leadership of C. J. McGerrigle.

Following this short session, the group will then meet on the gymnasium floor for an instruction period on several pieces of apparatus, including set movements on the high bar, parallels, mats, flying rings and horse. The group are divided up into squads with several leaders taking charge of the groups.

Last Saturday, following the health talk under the leadership of Milton Townsend, the senior leaders were introduced to a group of junior members who are to be formed into a Junior Corps. Amongst these are the following: C. McClay, E. Carney, T. Wilkinson, G. Young, C. Gregory, R. Abraham, D. Gilmour, R. Gilmour and J. Leslie. Others will be added within the next two weeks.

The Senior Corps also ran through a series of movements on the elephant for the Spring display, to be held sometime in the early spring and drew their activities for the day to a close with a Supper meeting.

G. Staton, Ed. Holden, and F. Boston of the Senior Corps are entering as a team in the Provincial Glimnastic Meet at Central Y. Others are expected to enter as individuals on selected pieces of apparatus.

Lillian Rubin Shoppe Under New Management

The Lillian Rubin Shoppe, Registered, at 5103 Park Avenue, will, it is announced, be continued under the management of Messrs. Philip M. and Jack Rubin, son of the late Mrs. Rubin, who passed away suddenly at her home some weeks ago from heart failure. Mrs. Rubin was, it will be recalled, identified with the millinery business in various locations in Montreal for a number of years, and it is stated that the same standard of excellence will be continued by her sons as she herself maintained. The Shoppe has been remodeled and redecorated, all old stock cleared out to make room for new lines and is already featuring an advance showing of the latest straw models of all descriptions. The Shoppe is located just below the Regent Theatre.

Strathcona Academy Highlights

Lecture

The school has finally completed the arrangements to have Colonel T. V. Scudemore of Vancouver speak to the senior high school division and teachers. Colonel Scudemore will be heard at the school on Tuesday, February 27th, speaking on "Italy Under Mussolini".

This lecture should prove both interesting and instructive to the pupils of the senior grades who appreciate the efforts of the school to help them understand something of the current events of the world.

Public Speaking Contest

Once more a mile-stone in the history of public speaking has been passed successfully at Strathcona. Attended by a large and attentive audience, the afternoon can rightly be called a success. Noreen Patterson occupied the chair. The judges were Mr. W. R. Allen, former chairman of the Protestant Board of School Trustees of Outremont; Mrs. Hilliard Norris, B.A., and Mr. G. W. C. Ginn, B.A., B.D. The speakers heard during the course of the afternoon were those who had successfully passed the elimination tests held during the past week. The judges awarded the "J. D. Hudson" Cup, together with a small one for herself to Pearl Garmaise, adding that the decision had been unanimous. The second award, another small cup, was a toss-up between Isadore Gottheil and Evelyn Eibel. However, Isadore won by a small margin. "We wish to congratulate all the participants and thank them for the success they made of the afternoon."

Following is a list of the speakers and their subjects: Eileen Kingsley—"Women Through the Eyes of Literature"; Leo Michael—"Humour"; Isadore Gottheil—"Canada and World Peace"; Pearl Garmaise—"The Menace of Fascism"; Evelyn Eibel—"What is Progress?"; John K. C. Struthers—"The St. Lawrence Deep Waterways"; Ralph Moore—"The Tragic Drama of the Greeks"; Sammy Mislav—"Sport and the Depression"; Jack Tritt—"Current Events".

Magazine

One of the interesting features of the magazine is now under way in the taking of pictures both of groups and of individuals. Although more material in the form of articles is now coming in, still more would be gratefully received by the Magazine Board. But, however, the pupils are to be reminded of the fact that all material MUST be in by February 21st.

A Grade IX Scholarship

A special scholarship has been offered to any pupil in Grade IX who obtains the highest average marks while a pupil in Grades VIII and IX. This scholarship is valued at $35.00 and will be used as providing free tuition in Grade X for the successful pupil. The Outremont Jewish Women's Group are responsible for this offer which was gladly accepted by the Board and made available to pupils now in Grade IX. Due and proper reference will be made to it in next year's prospectus.

Current Event Club

Strathcona's Current Event Club was privileged to attend a lecture on Friday last at 3.30, given by that eminent business man and lecturer, Mr. Guy Tombes. Mr. Tombes took as his topic "The St. Lawrence Waterways Treaty", and discoursed learnedly and wittily upon this treaty, which has been in the public eye for quite some time of late. Mr. Walsh introduced the speaker to the senior class, and Pearl Garmaise extended the vote of thanks at the conclusion of the address. The assembly was held in the Science Hall.

Hockey

Strathcona's Seniors inflicted a loss upon weak L.C.C. team on Thursday last, the score being 4-2. Walker and Griffiths on the reconstructed first line combined to garner all four goals for the winners. The combination, passing and speed of these boys was too much for the L.C. team and they were completely unable to cope with these factors. Play was clean throughout.

Junior

Strathcona Juniors have clinched their section title, as a result of their victories over Baron Byng and Commercial High Schools in the last week by the scores of 8-1 and 4-1 respectively.

The team after a poor start when they lost their opening game to Baron Byng by the score of 4-0, have settled down and taken their next four games, as a result of smart hockey, scoring twenty-one goals to their opponents' five.

Cuke, Robert and Grande have shown the best hockey, and will be the main scoring threats, when the blue and white meet the winners of the western section, for city honours.

Intermediates

The intermediates are in third place, after their win over Montreal West High School by the score of 1-0. The game was a closely checked contest with both teams playing defensive hockey throughout, the only tally coming from the stick of Wood in the second period, which was sufficient to turn the contest for Strathcona.

This victory places the team in the running for championship as they are only 3 points behind the leaders. Their next game is the crucial game of the season as they meet the league leading W.H.H.S. a loss means elimination, while a win places the team one point behind the leaders.

Seniors

After playing smart hockey for the last three weeks the Strathcona seniors seemed to suffer a relapse in the game with Mount Royal High and when the smoke of battle cleared found themselves at the short end of the 3-1 score, and eliminated from the running. The game was slow with both teams playing loose hockey, missing many chances to score.

The only highlight of the game was when Griffiths stick-handled his way through the entire opposing team to pass the puck to Boosamara, who scored, late in the second period. By this time Mount Royal had scored three times, and the game ended shortly.

Levitt who usually plays a steady game in nets, had an off day as three mediocre long shots from the blue-line passed him for three tallies. The next game is on Feb. 16 when the seniors meet the league-leading Montreal High team.

The Rhyming Optimist

By ALINE MICHAELIS

PSYCHIC

When something in me shrinks away
From certain voice or eyes,
I do not stop, I do not stay
To question mysteries.
Although it is in wretched taste,
Uncouth and very crude,
I run away in utmost haste
As though by fiends pursued.

And, when it happens otherwise,
Somebody comes along
Who with his laughter or his eyes
Turns sighing into song,
Again I may no questionnaire
Of things to deep to see;
I set him out a plate, a chair
And bid him sup with me!

"Girls were harder to kiss in your day weren't they, grandpa?" "Mebbe, mebbe," ventured the old man, "but it wasn't so dangerous. The old parlor soft wouldn't smash into a tree".

Robinson had taken his car to a garage for minor repairs. "You wouldn't think it was a second-hand car, would you?" he remarked to the mechanic. "Great Scott, no!" said the man, "I thought you'd made it yourself".
