UNION NATIONALE LANDSLIDE

Duplessis Forces Win 72 Seats; Rumor Liberal Leader May Quit

A Grateful Johnny Bourque — Returned to his Sherbrooke County seat with a healthy majority, Marquis of the Sherbrooke Record last night. The Lands and Forests Minister had the seat conceded to him by the Liberal Gerard Berard within an hour after the polls closed. (Record photo by Gerry Lemay)

QUEBEC — Quebec's Union Nationale government, its majority increased in heavy voting in yesterday's general election, today inaugurated a record fifth term in office.

The triumph was the third successive landslide victory for Premier Duplessis, 66-year-old bachelor-lawyer, and was a bitter blow to Georges Lapalme, 49-year-old Quebec Liberal leader.

The Union Nationale won 72 of the 93 seats at stake. The Liberals took 19. Independent Frank Hanley was re-elected in Montreal St. Anne. The outcome in Hull was still in doubt when the counting of ballots ceased for the night.

In the last general election in 1952, the Union Nationale won 68 of 92 seats and the Liberals 23. At dissolution April 25 last the standing in the Legislative Assembly was:

Union Nationale, 65; Liberals 22; Independent, 1, vacant, 4, total 92.

The hard-hitting premier described the victory as an example of the province's faithfulness to the policies of his government. His 20 cabinet ministers were all re-elected.

"I bow to the public's choice," was the only statement Mr. Lapalme would make to newspaper men gathered with him at the Liberal party's Reform Club in Montreal. He said he would make a fuller statement in a few days.

There was speculation that the forthcoming statement Mr. Lapalme might mean his resignation as Liberal leader. The defeat was his second since assuming the party leadership in 1950.

In the vote there was a free-swinging exchange of seats. The Union Nationale won 13 formerly held by the Liberals. The Liberals took nine Union Nationale constituencies. The exchanges occurred in both urban and rural ridings and followed no set pattern.

The bitterly-contested campaign had given rise to speculation that Mr. Duplessis and his supporters might face one of their stiffest tests at the polls.

But once the counting of ballots started, a Union Nationale sweep was indicated. The re-election of the government was reported by The Canadian Press at 7:39 p.m., one hour and nine minutes after polls closed.

It was strictly a two-party fight all the way. The Union Nationale had candidates in all 93 constituencies. The Liberals nominated 91 candidates and backed independent Pierre Laporte in Montreal Laurier and Rene Cahouit in Jonquiere-Kenogami, a new seat in the Lake St. John district. Both were defeated.

A total of 96 among 273 candidates lost their $200 deposits by failing to get half of the number of votes cast for the winners.

In the group were Mme. Therese Casgrain, 57-year-old leader of the Social Democratic (CCF) party, and her slate of 25 candidates. Guy Caron, leader of the Labor-Progressive Communist party, and his 32 candidates trailed the field.

A record vote was cast. With 99 per cent of the polls reported, the total vote was 1,661,902. There were 2,500,000 eligible voters. The previous high was in 1952 when 1,679,327 cast ballots. The Union Nationale obtained 52 per cent of the total vote; the Belief Social Credit support was believed responsible for Liberals gains from the Union Nationale in Rouyn-Noranda and Abitibi West. The two northwestern Quebec seats are in an area where Social Credit has its greatest following.

Other Liberal gains included the constituencies of Bonaventure, Rimouski, Compton, Riviere-du-Loup, Brome, St. Hyacinthe and Chamblay. These gains were believed the result of local issues and the personal popularity of candidates.

The Union Nationale gains from the Liberals were in Quebec East, Quebec County, Levis, Montreal St. Mary's, Montreal Jeanne-Mance, Maisonneuve, Drummond, Richelieu, Shefford, Temiskaming, Frontenac, Wolfe and Vercheres. The party also won the new seat of Jonquiere-Kenogami.

Marcel Lafaille, leader of Montreal city council, was defeated as Union Nationale candidate in Montreal St. Henry. Paul Dozois, sponsor of a multi-million dollar slum clearance plan for Montreal and a member of city council, won for the Union Nationale in Montreal St. James. The seat formerly was held by Omer Cote, who resigned as provincial secretary to accept an appointment to the bench.

Yvon Dupuis, 29, youngest member of the last legislature and a former member of Parliament, was defeated in Richelieu.

But another of Mr. Lapalme's strong supporters, Rene Hamel, was elected in St. Maurice riding.

Election Trouble In Montreal

MONTREAL — A gang of men carrying baseball bats and other weapons Wednesday raided the committee rooms of Jean-Paul Noel, Liberal candidate in the Quebec election, and two men were reported injured. The number in the gang was estimated at 40.

Mr. Noel was defeated in the Montreal Jeanne-Mance constituency.

The raid was carried out at his committee rooms on Rosemont boulevard. Taxi-driver Jean Bounbrier, who said he was present when the gang came in, told newspaper men: "They poured out of their cars with baseball bats and crowbars waving, and I could see two guns."

Georges Beaulieu, committee worker, was reported to have suffered a fractured arm and Jacques Granger, another worker, scrapes and bruises.

In the city constituency of Maisonneuve an unlisted number of men raced into a polling station, smashed open the ballot box, grabbed up the deposited ballots and disappeared.

Police arrested five men in Montreal St. Louis riding for allegedly throwing a reported 200 marked ballots into a sewer on Bellechasse street. The ballots were recovered by police.

Will Increase Air Squadrons

OTTAWA — Measures to counter the "continuing grave" thermonuclear air threat against North America have been outlined in the Commons by Defence Minister Campney.

Primary measure, he said Wednesday, will be to increase from nine to 12 the number of CF-100 jet interceptor squadrons in the RCAF's home air defence command. There are also 12 RCAF Sabre jet squadrons in Europe.

To provide a reserve of jet fighter air and ground crew, six of the 10 auxiliary fighter squadrons—two each at Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver—will be equipped with Sabres. The other four will be given new jobs.

Mr. Campney opened the debate, first at this session of Parliament, on defence estimates of $1,775,000,000 in the 1956-57 fiscal year. The debate continued today.

Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, VC, Progressive Conservative military critic, said Mr. Campney has taken "some halting steps" in the direction pointed out by the Opposition during the last several years. The Conservatives had for years advised strengthening of the air defence system.

Solon Low, Social Credit leader, said Canada should have a long-range bomber force and not sit back and leave its defence to the United States.

Wallace Nesbitt (PC—Oxford), Second World War naval officer, recommended establishment of an Arctic base for anti-submarine ships.

Mr. Campney said the three new CF-100 squadrons will be established "over a period of time." Officials estimated it will require about a year.

Mr. Campney also sketched a "new look" for the Canadian Army. Long-term objective will be to train and equip the army more and more as an air-portable force.

The army would have to be more flexible on the ground. As one means of accomplishing this, it was intended to form a third armored regiment, thus enabling the three infantry brigades of the 1st Division to operate independently if necessary.

Dealing with the navy, Mr. Campney said his department is continuing to improve as rapidly as possible the fleet's anti-submarine capabilities.

The Russian submarine force was of "tremendous size and modern design" and perhaps could make long-range nuclear missile attacks on the north American coasts.

The defence research board was in final stages of development of new sub-detection equipment for the navy's destroyers. Research into other promising anti-sub devices also was in progress.

Mr. Campney said the DEW (District Early Warning) and mid-Canada radar warning lines are rapidly nearing completion. Recruiting and training of civilian technicians would begin shortly to assist RCAF members in manning the Mid-Canada line along the 55th parallel.

The minister added that it is hoped in the near future to link the North American and European radar warnings systems to cover the entire NATO area.

Gen. Pearkes questioned the necessity of building the $170,000,000 Mid-Canada line.

He had no criticism of the principle of constructing the DEW line in the Canadian Arctic, though it was a blow to Canadian pride that the U. S. should build and man it. But one was forced to ask whether two warning lines were essential.

Return CCF In Sask. With Majority Slash

REGINA — The CCF party of Premier T. C. (Tommy) Douglas, its majority reduced from 1952 and its popular vote cut to its lowest point since it was first elected in 1944, today starts its fourth consecutive term as Canada's only Socialist government.

Premier Douglas and all but one of his cabinet ministers were returned in Wednesday's general-election balloting, but the CCF's majority way cut by a possible seven seats from 1952.

The election, a full-scale three-cornered fight for the first time since 1938, also saw Social Credit elect its first representation to the legislature in 18 years, taking three seats from the Liberals.

The Liberals gained several seats from the CCF in voting so close that an upset could occur in any of a dozen constituencies when absentee and declared ballots and advance polls are counted in two weeks.

The Progressive Conservatives lost the lone seat they had gained with Liberal support in a 1953 by-election.

One doubtful seat is Turtleford, in west central Saskatchewan, the Liberal candidate, Franklin Foley, had a nine-vote margin over R. H. Mooff, CCF member of the last House. Four polls were unreported.

In far-northern Athabaska, held by the Liberals in the last House, voting was deferred until July 4 because a late breakup slowed setting up of election machinery.

Social Credit's first all-out bid for power in Saskatchewan ate into both the CCF and Liberal popular votes. With about 65 per cent of the polls accounted for today, the CCF's popular vote share was cut to 45 per cent from 54 per cent in 1952 and 48 per cent in 1948. The Liberals' share dropped to 31 per cent from 39 in 1952.

Social Credit, with 52 candidates running for the 52 seats at stake Wednesday, polled 21 per cent of the total vote, compared with four per cent when it unsuccessfully ran 24 candidates in 1952.

Early returns gave the lead to the CCF, and 68 minutes after the polls closed The Canadian Press said return of the govern-

World News In Brief

TORONTO — The Retail Merchants Association of Canada Wednesday urged the federal government to clamp down on credit buying. Delegates representing 40,000 retail merchants passed a resolution requesting the establishment of minimum down payments and repayment time limits, similar to wartime credit restrictions. Trading stamps, coupons, and giveaways were criticized.

WASHINGTON — The United States Wednesday announced agreement to sell Australia 1,100 pounds of U-235 to fuel atomic power plants in Australia. The announcement came a few hours after the state department officially confirmed a similar agreement, but for only 88 pounds of U-235, with France.

MONTREAL — Twenty-eight Mark VI Sabre jets and two T-33 Silver Stars left St. Hubert airport Wednesday to join the RCAF's overseas air division at Marville, France. Aboard one of the planes was Air Commodore H. M. Carscallen, commanding officer of the RCAF air transport command at nearby Lachine.

VIENNA — Opposition of governments along the way has killed a U.S. plan to bring Middle East natural gas to Europe through the longest pipeline in the world, the world power conference was told Wednesday. The 2,500-mile line, estimated to cost $1,000,000,000, was to have come from Iran through the Arab countries, Turkey, Austria, and Germany to France. The gas is now being burned as waste in the Arabian deserts.

NICOSIA, Cyprus. — (Reuters) — A British soldier was shot dead today by terrorists at Larnaca, in southern Cyprus, while another British serviceman died in the hospital from injuries suffered in last Sunday's forest fire.

The shooting brings the total of Britons killed by terrorists to 45, of which 40 were servicemen. The figure does not include the 20 soldiers who died as a result of the forest fire which may have been set off by terrorists.

The soldier was driving a military vehicle when he was fired at from the roadside, according to reports. The killer lurked in the narrow, twisting market place where the serviceman went regularly for supplies.

Terrorists Wednesday night threw four bombs at houses occupied by British servicemen and their families in Famagusta and Limassol. Three failed to explode and the fourth caused no casualties.

Early returns gave the lead to the CCF, and 68 minutes after the polls closed The Canadian Press said return of the govern-

UN Ups Edge In Total Vote; Record Is Set

QUEBEC — (CP) — The victorious Union Nationale party rolled 52 per cent of a record provincial election vote in Quebec Wednesday.

Premier Duplessis' government, winning re-election for a fourth consecutive term, increased its share of the popular vote from the 1952 election when it received 50 per cent.

The Liberals received 44.4 per cent of the vote, compared with 46 per cent four years ago. The Social Democratic party, the CCF in Quebec, received a 6-per-cent share, compared with an even one per cent last time.

With 99 per cent of the province's 11,843 polls recorded when counting stopped for the night, the total vote stood at 1,661,902. The remaining 10 per cent was expected to swell the total beyond the previous record figure of 1,679,327 polled in 1952.

UN Gains Two Seats In Eastern Townships Shuffle

The Big Parade — Hon. J. S. Bourque and Mrs. Bourque are shown in the big victory parade that followed his re-election as Union Nationale representative for Sherbrooke County. (Record photo by Gerry Lemay)

Compton, Brome Go Liberal; Nine Of 12 Won By Government

By CUTHBERT JONES

Six of the 12 Eastern Townships constituencies changed hands in yesterday's provincial general elections, the Union Nationale forces emerging from the game of political musical chairs with a net gain of two seats, increasing their representation in this district from seven to nine seats. Of the six seats remaining unchanged, five were formerly held by Government supporters and one by a Liberal.

The two counties taken by the Liberals were Compton where a newcomer to the political field, Dr. Fabien Gagnon, edged out Union Nationale candidate John French by a majority of approximately 700 votes, and Brome, which elected School Teacher Glen Brown over Jacques Jolley, insurance agent. This seat was made vacant by the retirement of Warwick Fox elected in 1952 by a majority of 1,550.

Counties reclaimed by the Union Nationale forces were Drummond, Frontenac, Shefford and Wolfe.

In Drummond, Robert Bernard registered a majority of 2,000 votes over Bernard Pinard, the man who defeated him in 1952 by a majority of 118.

Frontenac returned to the Government fold by giving Eloi Guillemette a lead of nearly 500 votes over Dr. Gerard Noel, elected for the first time in 1952 by a majority of 286 over Hon. Patrice Tardif, later appointed to the Legislative Council.

Shefford, made vacant a year ago by the resignation of Gaston Ledoux, Liberal elected in 1952 by a majority of 230, elected Union Nationale Armand Russell by a lead of 1,300 over his Liberal opponent, Henri Lizotte.

A veteran campaigner returned to the House when Union Nationale Henri Vachon was elected in Wolfe, edging out Dr. Gerard Lemieux, who was first sent to the Legislature in 1952. The Union Nationale candidate, who has been contesting Wolfe for the past 21 years, was given a slim majority of 49 yesterday, to win his fourth election in seven starts. In 1952 Dr. Lemieux was elected by a majority of 66 over Mr. Vachon.

The five Government candidates re-elected included three cabinet members — Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and of Hydraulic Resources, who has represented Sherbrooke continuously since 1935; Hon. Tancrede Labbe, Minister without Portfolio, who has served Megantic county for 19 of the past 21 years, and Hon. Wilfrid Labbe, also Minister without Portfolio, first elected for Arthabaska riding in 1948.

Other Government representatives returned were Denis Gerin for his third consecutive term in Stanstead by a majority of 57 votes, compared to a lead of 91 in 1952, and J. J. Bertrand, Parliamentary Assistant to Lands Minister Bourque, who starts his third term as Missisquoi representative.

The Liberal member returned was Emilien Lafrance, who held a 550-vote lead over Dr. Ephrem Jacques in Richmond. Mr. Lafrance was elected for the first time in 1952 by a majority of 341.

Mr. Bourque took an early lead in the Sherbrooke County voting and despite several rallies by his principal opponent, Ald. Gerard Berard, Liberal, he continued to forge ahead steadily, his rival conceding the election 37 minutes after the close of the polls. Mr. Bourque's unofficial majority was placed at 3,364 votes as compared with 3,480 amassed in 1952.

The announcement from Liberal headquarters conceding the election of Mr. Bourque was the signal for the traditional victory parade through the streets of the city.

Headed by the Harmony Band, which has been an integral part of Sherbrooke elections, provincial and federal, for almost fifty years, and the open car containing Mr. and Mrs. Bourque and the chief organizers, a motorcade of hundreds of cars left the residence of the Minister in East Sherbrooke and proceeded along Bowen South through the Centre, West and North Wards, stopping briefly at the Record office where the Minister thanked the electors for their support.

In his remarks, Mr. Bourque said: "I wish to thank all those electors of Sherbrooke who voted for me today and appreciate the satisfaction they have expressed in my 21 years of service at Quebec. "I especially wish to thank my chief organizer, Guy Crepeau, and his associates, for the fine work they did in assuring my election."

After the Minister had been roundly cheered by the throng gathered outside the Record to receive the returns, the parade moved off to the arena, where Mr. Bourque was greeted by sev-

T.M. Man Held On Attempted Murder Charge

TRETFORD MINES, Que. — Leopold Arcand, 37-year-old restaurateur from Ste. Anastasie, Que., has been arraigned on an attempted murder charge in connection with the shooting of a 24-year-old youth at Ste. Anastasie Monday night.

The youth, Arsene Halle, 26, also of Ste. Anastasie, was shot in the head with a bullet fired from a .22-calibre rifle. Police said the incident occurred following an argument in Arcand's restaurant.

Arcand was arraigned in court here Tuesday and ordered for preliminary hearing June 27. Bail was refused.

One Injured, Two Escape In Accident

One man was injured and three miraculously escaped unhurt early this morning in a two-car collision on the Montreal Road.

Complete details of the accident are not yet known but it is believed the injured man, Maurice Patient, 46, of Magog, was driving toward Magog when his car became involved in collision with one driven by Norry Jamieson, 21, 678 Papineau Street, Sherbrooke.

The accident occurred at 1:30 this morning opposite the Au Vieux Panai cabins, about three miles from the city limits. Patient was rushed to St. Vincent de Paul Hospital here where he is being treated for severe head and forehead injuries.

In the car with Jamieson were 20-year-old Dorothy Bennett, 1343 Prospect Street, Sherbrooke, and 21-year-old Gaston Gregoire, 10th Avenue, Sherbrooke. They were not injured.

The impact of the collision sent the Jamieson car onto its side in the ditch, while the Patient car landed on the opposite side of the road where it hit a telephone pole.

Both cars were badly damaged. The Patient car was a new 1956 model with less than 600 miles on the speedometer.

The Union Nationale Returned

Two important factors contributed to the smashing victory of the Union Nationale party in yesterday's provincial general elections. The first, obviously, was the satisfaction of the majority of the voters, especially in the rural areas, with the policies of the administration. The second was the dissatisfaction of the moderate voters with the alliance between the Liberals and the Social Credit forces.

Prime Minister Duplessis came before the electors of the province with a clear-cut record of achievement, which he invited the voters to accept or reject as they saw fit and he promised them to continue along the path he had followed for the past twelve years.

On the other hand, Liberal Leader Georges-Emile Lapalme based his hope for election on a campaign of charges of "scandal," which he admitted he was unable to prove and could only hope to do so by gaining power, and a combination with the Social Credit group which in the end may have done him more harm than good.

When a man bases his party's bid for election on charges of "scandal" he must be in a position to prove at least some of the charges he advances, and one of Mr. Lapalme's weaknesses has been his readiness to charge irregularities against the administration without being able to substantiate his statements. Ever since assuming the post of Leader of the Opposition, Mr. Lapalme has attacked every major undertaking of the Government as a project to provide opportunities for graft rather than something for the advancement of the interests of the province.

The policies he presented to the electorate did not add up, promising as they did substantial increases in the social welfare program and in other governmental expenditures and at the same time pledging tax reductions.

The lack of clear fiscal thinking may have made his alliance with the Social Credit group seem even more dangerous to many moderate supporters of the Liberal party. These moderates may have feared, with reason, that Mr. Lapalme, if he took office, might be forced to adopt some of the little-understood economic policies of his new-found friends — a fear based on the fact that the average elector could not understand increasing expenditures and cutting revenues at the same time and on the knowledge that the Social Credit supporters would be uncompromising in their insistence upon implementing their policies.

It became apparent in the latter stages of the campaign that the Social Credit speakers had taken over control of the Liberal meetings, turning regular party rallies into sounding boards for Social Credit propaganda and leaving the regular Liberal candidates and their speakers in second position.

One of the features of the Eastern Townships results was the poor showing of the Liberal party which managed to win only three of the twelve seats — a net loss of two seats from 1952.

The loss of Brome and Compton to the Liberals can be ascribed largely to divisions within the Union Nationale forces — to dissatisfaction over the manner in which the candidate was selected rather than objection to the man himself or the policies of the party.

The re-election of Emilien LaFrance in Richmond can be ascribed to still-bitter memories of the Asbestos strike of 1949, which rightly or wrongly still lingers on as a source of political argument.

The return of Hon. J. S. Bourque in Sherbrooke need occasion no surprise in view of the splendid record of service he had rendered to the citizens of the county during his 21 years at Quebec.

This service has comprised not only the traditional "big things" for which the politician likes to take credit — the erection of a new bridge, the establishment of a new school or a grant to this or that organization — but a host of little things, personal favors rendered with kindness and understanding. And these are two qualities possessed by the Minister, who always had time to listen to a constituent despite the fact he was heading two of the most important departments of the Government.

This And That...

This is officially the first day of Summer. What a laugh!

Most of the trouble in yesterday's provincial elections seemed to centre in Montreal. For all of Mr. Drapeau's clean-up campaigns, the Montreal Mayor seems to be having difficulty keeping his city in order.

If any group ever deserved support it is our local firemen who are now selling tickets for a draw to help finance the Firemen's Festival and Field Day next month. That day, everything is free for any youngsters who want to take part.

Look for the summer highway slaughter to get underway this weekend. Two holidays in a row should take a terrible toll. This weekend is St. Jean Baptiste Holiday; the next is Dominion Day. Remember to take it easy on the highway and come home safely.

Song Of The Open Road

(Christian Science Monitor)
I think that I shall never see
A billboard lovely as a tree.
In fact unless the billboards fall
I'll never see a tree at all.
This Ogden Nash jingle has now become an export, appropriated by the most unlikely terrain in the world: the desert. The Suez Canal seems likely to become the successor to U.S. Route 1, by general consent a spoliated highway.
The plan for the canal is as blatant as advertising itself. An advertising "genius" has secured the right to sell advertising space on enormous billboards. These will be built at intervals of half a mile along the 50-odd miles between Port Said and Ismailia. A captive audience of some 800,000 people a year on ships using the canal will pass these signs at the agonizing speed of 10 miles an hour. Advertisers hope that passengers, who are always interested in the sight of a passing shoreline, will stay on deck to see the panorama of the Suez Canal unfold before their eyes.

They will. And, lo and behold, what will they see? Sun and sand? Yes, palm trees gently undulating in winter zephyrs? Possibly. Certainly they will see cigarettes in 20-foot-high packs, giant bottles of soft drinks, and convertibles three times life size. Probably, too, there will be an expensive advertisement for "Travel by Air" — and we will.

THE ARTS NEED DOMINION AID
(Toronto Telegram)
Mr. A. G. S. Griffin, president of the National Ballet Guild of Canada, told the Guild's fifth annual meeting that its financial position is "grave in the extreme." As at the end of last April, the Guild shows a deficit of $83,878. Mr. Griffin looks to business leaders and to the provincial and Dominion governments for the support the Guild needs. He deplores Ottawa's failure to implement the Massey Commission's recommendation for the creation of a Canada Council in support of the arts.

Canada is not alone in its difficulty of financing the arts. In Great Britain, Germany, Italy and France, government subsidies are the rule. Last week London's Royal Opera House reported a deficit of $280,000 and is demanding a larger share of the public purse. The arts everywhere seem doomed to lose money. Governments appear to be the logical source for making up deficits.
Mr. Griffin is justified in his complaint over the postponement of consideration of the Massey Commission's report. In appointing the Commission, Ottawa indicates interest in the state of the arts in Canada. This interest cannot be served merely by calling together experts for discussion. Other Canadian cultural projects, such as the Stratford Festival's permanent building campaign and the Opera Festival Association, are also struggling to raise funds. Further delay in implementing the Massey report is inexcusable.

EQUAL RIGHTS

(Winnipeg Tribune)
For years a dead set has been made on fathers in films, radio and TV. Fathers are pictured as lunkheads and morons who are saved from their follies only by the amused vigilance of their wives and families. The air waves and channels are deliberately populated with Chester A. Rileys who have to be brought in out of the rain by their long-suffering wives and bright children but who, in some laughable fashion, earn weekly pay cheques that keep those same wives and children in adequate comforts.

WHAT! NO WATER?

Brantford Expositor
With one of the world's largest lakes at its doorstep, Toronto runs annually into the embarrassing and ridiculous predicament of being short of water.
Recurrent crises afflict the suburban areas in particular and only lately lack of water forced the closing of a big factory and the laying off of about 3,400 employees.
The fault lies in lack of foresight and lack of conservation, a subject with which this newspaper has dealt repeatedly.

MR. HARRIS' CURIOUS THINKING

(Ottawa Journal)
Mr. Walter Harris is accepted pretty generally as an able cabinet minister who some day may be prime minister.
All the more remarkable then to find Mr. Harris justifying the use of closure as something — "to limit the time available for debate, so that a government could meet a timetable."
Now on the basis of this sort of thinking any government which through its own blundering or incompetence found itself pressed for time could remedy its own errors by denying Parliament its rights; it could simply come to the Commons and say: "We are late with this project and must rush it through so we just can't afford to let you talk or try to find out what the project is about."
Under that sort of thing, with Parliament subordinated to a government "timetables," why have a parliament at all?

'Be Sure To Vote'

(Ottawa Journal)

On the eve of New Brunswick's provincial election the Saint John Telegraph Journal, largest newspaper in the province, came out with an editorial captioned "Be Sure to Vote on Monday."
Under certain circumstances this is good advice. Unfortunately this was the first mention of the election that had appeared in the Saint John paper's editorial page for at least a week prior to the election; it made no attempt whatsoever to try to clarify the issues or to help the elector to cast his vote intelligently or usefully. It was just neutral. Silently neutral.

A neutral newspaper or neutral individual has no right advising or exhorting anybody to vote. And if a voter has to be exhorted to vote the chances are that he would be serving democracy and his community better by staying at home.
There is no particular merit in a "big" vote; no merit in it certainly unless intelligence and earnestness go along with the bigness. Otherwise, without some active informed interest in the issues, a big vote may do nothing more than enlarge the circle of electoral ignorance, possibly hinder an intelligent decision.

In Canada in recent years we have had altogether too much of this "get out and vote" business — too much of such exhortation from organizations which seem to think that democracy can be made to work so long as people can be dragged to the polls once every four or five years.

Little could be more unrealistic or silly.

SWIMMING HAZARDS

(Windsor Star)
A 16-year-old Kingsville youth has a dislocated vertebra in his neck because of an early-season dive off a town dock. Apparently he had made a similar dive last year, with no ill effect. His unhappy experience perhaps may serve some purpose by demonstrating that last year's safe swimming holes can be unsafe this year.
The currents and grinding ice of winter work their own fancy on lake bottoms, filling deep spots in some places, and gouging out deep holes in others. It's never safe to take anything for granted where such changes could have been created.

ERROR LEADS TO SPADE RUN
South managed to go down fairly quickly in today's hand. Can you spot his error?
East won the first trick with the king of spades and returned the ten. South covered with the queen, but West played low. South next led ten of diamonds and finessed. East won with the king and led his last spade, whereupon West defeated the contract with the rest of the spades.

You've spotted the error, of course. South must not cover the ten of spades at the second trick!

If East is allowed to win the second trick, he leads his remaining spade. South must play high this time, and West takes the ace. Now the defenders are limited to their three spades and one diamond trick. South has tricks to burn.

South shouldn't really have much trouble seeing this point. He can afford to lose one diamond and only three spades. He must take precautions against losing four spades. The way to do so is to hold up his own spade trick long enough to cut the communications between East and West. By the time East gets a diamond trick he has no more spades to lead.

Duplessis

Continued from Page 1. He won despite Mr. Duplessis' promise to voters in the constituency that they will not get a bridge they want until they elect a Union Nationale member. Including Mme. Casgrain, there were seven women candidates. All lost their deposits. The election was marked by some violence in Montreal where 50 persons were arrested for attempted impersonation at the polls or for causing disorder. A disturbance developed in Hull when the returning officer stopped counting votes when the Liberal candidate held a slight edge. The returning officer said some scrutineers had deposited the reports of their counts in the sealed ballot boxes instead of handing them to the returning officer. The ballot boxes were reopened today for an official recount. The seat was held by Alexandre Tache, former speaker of the legislature, who was appointed to the bench before dissolution.

Nehru Flies To Damascus

NEW DELHI.—(P)—India's Prime Minister Nehru flew to Damascus today on the first lap of a month-long tour slated to take him to London, Washington and other world capitals. Accompanied by his daughter Indira, her two small sons and a personal staff, Nehru planned a night stopover at the Syrian capital before pushing on to the London meeting of Commonwealth prime ministers. In a farewell address to 50,000 persons here Wednesday night Nehru renewed his plea for an immediate ban on all tests of nuclear weapons and warned of a possibility of a future world of sterile men. He said he has ordered Indian scientists to prepare a book on the effects of hydrogen and atomic explosions on mankind.

Rebels Spray Capital City

ALGIERS.—(P)—A rebel band sprayed death and terror through a downtown section of Algiers Wednesday at the peak of the homebound rush hour. The raiders killed two persons and wounded 13 others. All their victims were European civilians. The French speculated that the raid may have been a reprisal for the beheading Tuesday of two convicted terrorists. The wounded included two women and a 10-year-old child. Police and military patrols fought a running battle with the rebel band through the streets. They shot and killed two terrorists and captured two. Sporadic fighting continued in other areas of Algiers and spilled over into Morocco. France's defence minister Maurice Bourges-Maunoury said in Paris that a half million French troops will be thrown into Algeria next year. He said Algeria must be won back by a long, slow campaign of pacification.

CCF In Sask.

Continued from Page 1. ment was indicated. At the same time, the heavy vote for Social Credit was evident. The only member of the Douglas cabinet defeated was Provincial Secretary J. W. Burton, beaten by a woman in what was considered a major upset, Mrs. Mary Batten, making her first bid, won Humboldt for the Liberals, edging out Mr. Burton and knocking off Joseph Thauberger, Social Credit League president, who lost for a second straight time. The rest of the cabinet went in, but several, including the premier, were given stiff runs. Mr. Douglas, 52-year-old Saskatchewan apostle of socialism for many years, defeated Liberal J. H. Staveley by about 600 votes in Weyburn where the premier had a 1,900-vote majority in 1952. Liberal leader A. H. Hammy McDonald, 37-year-old farmer leading the party in a general election for the first time, won re-election in Moosomin. Alvin Hamilton, leading the nine Progressive Conservative candidates in the election, was beaten by CCF candidates in Saskatoon's two-seat riding. It was the 44-year-old school teacher's second straight setback. He lost in Lumsden in 1952. Robert Kohaly, the PC in the last House, was third in balloting in Souris-Estevan. He was elected there with Liberal support in a 1953 by-election but ran as a straight Conservative this time after losing the Liberal nomination. The party hasn't elected a member in a Saskatchewan general election since 1934. Raise Submarine In Danish Water; Scuttled In War

COPENHAGEN.—(P)—A West German salvage crew raised a mystery submarine in Danish waters Tuesday. It had been on the bottom for 12 years. Danish naval men said the U-boat was of such advanced type that even today it would be highly effective. They said it was the only one of its kind ever built and the Germans probably scuttled it in 1945 to keep it out of Allied hands.

Lakeside Party Being Planned By Magog Group

The June meeting of St. Luke's W.A. (Women's Auxiliary) was held at the home of Mrs. H. V. Macdonald, Georgeville Road. The president, Mrs. A. Cotterell was in the chair. Several items of interest was reported. The Dorcas Secretary, Mrs. H. Dingman, displayed the articles ready for the bair to be sent to the Prince Albert Indian Residential School. A letter was read from the Rev. H. Harvey of London, England, who was one of the clergy families supplied with food parcels from the W.A. during the food shortage in England. Accompanying the letter was a present for the parish in the form of a beautiful white stole embroidered in gold, to be worn by the clergy when celebrating the service of Holy Communion in St. Luke's Church. This was sent in appreciation of the kindness of all who helped to send the parcels. Mrs. Comfort read a most interesting report of the meetings in Shawinigan Falls of the 5th biennial meeting of the Quebec Diocesan Board of the W.A. and of the Church of England in Canada. Story books, given by Miss Constance Purser, W.A. Missionary on furlough from Japan who spoke at the meetings, were shown to the members. The stories were written in English, with illustrations of colored picture drawings, made by the pupils of Miss Purser, who teaches English in the Junior College in Osaka Japan. The school paper produced by the senior girls and printed in Japanese looked very interesting. Final arrangements were made to hold the annual Lakeside Garden Tea at the home of Miss Maud Hall, Georgeville Road, on Wednesday, June 27th from 3 to 5 p.m. It was also agreed to include a sale of home made cooking. Tea was served by the hostess Mrs. Macdonald and a social time was enjoyed by all.

In Memoriam

JOHNSTON — In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Johnston, who departed this life, June 21st, 1956. Treasured thoughts of one so dear, Ever bring a silent tear; Thoughts return to scenes long past; Time rolls on but memories last. Ever remembered by THOMAS JOHNSTON & FAMILY. CUNNINGTON — In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Henry Claude Cunningham, of Stanstead, who passed away on Father's Day, June 21st, 1953. The stars tonight are shining upon a lonely grave; Beneath them lies the one I love, And the day before that too. I mourn for him in silence, no eyes can see me weep. But many a silent tear is shed while others are asleep. Ever remembered by HIS WIFE, CHILDREN & GRANDCHILDREN. BELL — In loving memory of our dear husband, father and son, Herbie, who passed away two years ago June 21, 1954. We are thinking of you today Herb, But then that's nothing new. Ever remembered and sadly missed by, LISE (wife), DAWN (daughter), MOTHER.

MAGOG — Anglers from Magog and various outside places will rally here this weekend, to try their luck at winning one or more of the prizes offered by Molson's Breweries in the Memphremagog Conservation Club Fishing Derby. The contest will begin Saturday, June 23, and terminate at 9 o'clock, Sunday.

A prize of fifty dollars will go to the fisherman who registers the biggest catch during these two days. Three prizes, the first being ten dollars, will be given

All catches must be weighed in at either of the three weighing stations, M. W. Rolfe, Big Timber Camps, above Georgeville; Henry McGowan's, Georgeville; or at Henri Morin's Boat Shop, Thomas Avenue, Magog. The distribution of prizes will be at the Chateau du Lac Hotel, Sunday evening, at nine o'clock. Entries for the contest can be Started in 1950, the group now has forty members, 33 of which are able to play. The band is often seen parading in Magog. The band received its musical training from Sister St. Gerard of the Sacred Heart Convent, and foot drill instruction is given by Rivard St. Jacques. purchased at either of the weighing-in stations, and at DeSeve's Sport Shop, Magog. An additional $100 prize has been offered by the local conservation group for everyone entering the derby. Of course, the contest is open to all who wish to enter.

Miss Raymonde Gaudreau, the Memphremagog Conservation Club's entry for the Magog Tourist queen contest, will receive much publicity this weekend, when the local sportsmen's organization will make an all-out effort to sell tickets in her support.

In summing up the accomplishments of the Memphremagog Conservation Club, it was noted by Leo Doucet, club president, that last year his organization was classed with the fifteen top conservation groups in the province, which has 338 such associations. The club received a bronze trophy and fifty dollars in cash as an award, and five of the group's members divided $105 in prizes for their efforts in the club.

In describing other work accomplished by his club, Mr. Doucet said that the Quebec Provincial government had shown keen interest in his club, and will soon begin construction on a dam at Cherry River, in the Mount Orford Provincial Park limits, where it is hoped that 15,000 salmon will be raised at a time, after which they will be released into Lake Mem-phremagog. He also noted that Hon. C. E. Pouliot, Minister of Fish and Game has given special permission to anglers to catch smelt in Powell Brook, emptying into Memphremagog.

Mr. Doucet said that his club would have a room in Magog's old pump house, now being converted by Rolland Lessard to be used, as a boat building, repair and service shop. Mr. Doucet said that his club enjoyed a good financial standing.

Dental Clinic Held In Magog

The third successful Dental clinic sponsored by the Junior Red Cross and the Magog and District Home and School was held in the Princess Elizabeth High School during the latter part of May and the first days of June.

Dr. Michel Boissinot, a native of Quebec City and a graduate of McGill University was the attending dentist. Dr. Boissinot has already established a practice in his native city of Quebec. The dentist was assisted in his work by the County School Nurse, Mrs. Shipway and by other members of the association.

All pupils in school were examined and about 100 received treatment, this treatment consisted in fillings and extractions.

The benefits of this clinic are far reaching and congratulations are due the Magog and District Home and School Association for the organization of this splendid effort.

Magog's Man Of The Week

W. ROBERT VAILLANCOURT

W. Robert Vaillancourt, proprietor of the Chateau du Lac Hotel, 85 Merry Street, South, Magog, was chosen as Magog's Man Of The Week for various reasons, as pointed out by Jacques Audette, secretary of Magog's Retail and Service Association. First, he has proved his belief in Magog, and secondly for the wonderful work he has done to promote the district as a tourist centre.

Mr. Vaillancourt came to Magog in 1939, when he purchased the Hebert Restaurant on Main West. Immediately he became enthused with Magog's possibilities for the future, and in the spring of 1947 he bought his present hotel, The Chateau du Lac. Since then, Mr. Vaillancourt has gained much popularity, for Magog and for himself through his hotel, which sits on the outlet of Lake Memphremagog. He has always maintained that it pays to operate a good establishment, and always features the more select of entertainers. He has proved his theory many times.

Presently, the Chateau du Lac is undergoing more improvements. Mr. Vaillancourt has purchased the adjoining lot at the north side of his establishment, which measures 200 ft. by 290 ft. Here he intends to provide parking space for his patrons.

Robert Vaillancourt's ambition, and good judgment, as well as his efforts to promote Magog, have gained him various responsibilities other than running his hotel. He was recently re-elected Stansfeld County director in the Provincial Hotel Keepers' Association. He is president of a committee here, to handle exterior affairs for the Mount Orford Development Organization, a vice-president in the Magog Lions Club, is a member of the Canadian Hotel Association, a director of Magog's Retail and Service Association, and is at present heading the local hotel keepers, in sponsoring a candidate for Magog's Tourist Queen contest. At A Party She's A Doll But How About Neighbors?

By RUTH MILLETT

Why is it that so many housewives have the ostrich-like attitude that if they aren't expecting to see anyone special, nobody is going to see them?

Here's the comment one husband made about a woman in his neighborhood: "I've never seen her when she wasn't in some sort of a floppy housecoat or blue jeans."

That's because the only time the neighbors see that housewife is when she isn't expecting to be seen.

They see her when she is out in the yard hanging out clothes, when she is sitting in the yard watching her two-year-old play, when she goes out to get the mail, when she makes a hurried trip to the neighborhood shopping center, wearing blue jeans and with her hair done up in pin curls.

Yet when she goes to a party this same housewife is a really good-looking woman.

Then she spends time on her hair and make-up. She wears becoming clothes in colors that are just right for her. She is a woman whose looks any husband could be proud of.

But most housewives are seen far more often when they aren't thinking of being seen than when they are all dolled up.

They're seen marketing, in their yards, chattering their children, doing errands at neighborhood shopping centers. And it is then that they make an impression on friends, neighbors, casual acquaintances, and those who serve them.

No matter how much she dresses up for special occasions or how well-groomed she can look when she puts her mind to it a woman gets a reputation for be-

Medical science has at last developed Children's Own Tablets — clinically tested for children's needs — just strong enough... not harsh... in tablet form, pleasant-tasting, easy to take! Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY Mrs. Dan Carber (MOTHER OF 5) June may be the time when brood or moon make a pretty rhyme—but more practically speaking it's the time for mothers to think of energy-saving tips. A few helps: Baby does best with a minimum of clothes. Pick no-iron fabrics to lighten your laundry load. Tuck away as much bric-a-brac as possible. Rooms look cooler, need less dusting. Try to get your big chores done in the cool of the morning. Catch a cat-nap while baby's asleep. Plan simpler meals for both baby and the family.

Hot weather may increase teething discomfort. If so, you'll find Gerber Teething Biscuits a real help. They're extra-hard to provide good biting satisfaction—smooth-surfaced for tender gums. Gerber Teething Biscuits are made of wholesome cereal ingredients and baked into a tapered shape that's easy to grasp. Each one has a sanitary cellophane jacket.

Shutter bugs, please note: the early morning or late afternoon summer light is especially flattering for pix of your darling. The mid-day sun is too harsh and may provoke squints or frowns.

PEACHY SNACK FOR TODDLERS 1/2 tablespoons Gerber Strained Egg Yolks 2 tablespoons Gerber Peaches Cup of cool Milk

Blend thoroughly with egg beater. Serve to the tune of blissful sighs. Gerber Strained Egg Yolks are delightful "as is" if baby's too young for a nog. Creamy, custard-like in texture, delicate in flavor, high in iron and vitamin A. Gerber Strained Egg Yolks are heat-sterilized for baby's protection. For you: no wasted whites! Gerber Baby Foods, Niagara Falls, Canada.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS —by Byrne Sanders

MONTREAL, June 21st—Every evening, I take a little time, teaching our Budgie to talk. It takes patience, but it's fun. I take him always to a quiet room, and shut the door. Then very clearly, repeat over and over the one or two words I'm starting with. He listens, apparently absorbed... and seems to enjoy his lessons. Like all Budgies, Sir Isaac delights in all the personal attention he can get... thrives on it! Thrives, too, on the well-balanced BROCK'S Natural Feeding Diet which, of course, we always use. I say "of course", because with all our birds—we've always used Brock's and they've all thrived on it.

Have You Had A Swarm Of "Uninvited Guests" at the summer cottage yet? I mean mosquitoes and blackflies—not the human kind! If so, here's a simple, easy, inexpensive way to get rid of these troublesome pests. Include FLY-TOX on your weekend shopping list. Personally, I prefer the handy, push-button Fly-Tox Aerosol, which isn't any bigger than a water tumbler yet sprays up to 100 rooms when used as directed. But, if you prefer, Fly-Tox is still available as a standard Liquid Spray in 8 oz., 16 oz., and 32 oz. tins. Either way Fly-Tox has a clean and pleasant fragrance... won't stain blankets or clothing... and keeps your home or cottage "insect free" all summer long for just a few pennies a day!

Will You Try This? Make a "Peek Test" with your hair... through your fingers, is it as pretty as it should be? Then turn to LANOLIN PLUS Hair Spray Set—and see the difference. You'll be grateful for its "triple purpose"—the way it holds your hair style softly and securely—the ease with which you set pin-curls when you use it—and the silky-soft "just brushed" look it gives. Lanolin Plus Hair Spray Set has a miracle ingredient which guards against wind and damp-day droopiness. And it actually beauty-conditions your hair. You'll find a new hair personality with it—$1.50 at all drug stores.

Don't Discard that ripped canvas chair! You can mend it yourself, in seconds, with BONDEX RUG BINDING! You'll find this a wonderfully easy way to mend. Just lay a piece of BonDEX Rug Binding over the tear; press with a hot iron for 15 seconds, and the job's done! You'll find dozens of uses for BonDEX Rug Binding... for mending drapes, slipcovers, awnings, work clothes, auto seat covers and hammocks... and of course for mending torn and frayed rugs. Try these top-quality BonDEX products too: BonDEX Hot Iron Tapes, Fabrics, Jean Patches. All approved by Good Housekeeping. In a wide range of sizes and colors, at notion counters everywhere.

Golden Cheese Nuggets! "My friends are wild about them!" writes Miss Mary Campbell of New Westminster, B.C. in sending me this recipe for using BORDEN'S Chateau Cheese. It's so delicious that Borden's is sending her this week's $10 prize.

GOLDEN CHEESE NUGGETS 1/2 (8-oz. pkg.) Borden's Chateau Cheese 4 tbsp. butter 1/4 tsp. paprika 1 unbroken egg white Garlic or onion salt Unsalted bread Cream butter and cheese together until smooth. Add paprika and egg white, blend thoroughly. Cut 1 1/2 inch slices of day old bread. Remove crusts and cut slices in 4 or 8 depending on size of nuggets required. Spread 2 sides of the nuggets with cheese paste; sprinkle generously with onion or garlic salt. Refrigerate until ready to use. Bake in hot oven 425 deg. F. 3 to 10 minutes, until bubbly and slightly browned. Serve at once. Makes approximately 20 to 40-1/2" nuggets.

Bless That Baby!... So pink and rosy—and so placidly happy when he's enjoying the benefits of FARMER'S WIFE. This, as you may know, is the original formula milk that is prepared especially for babies. You can buy it in one of three types—whichever your doctor says is the right one for your little one. There's the Partly Skimmed Milk formula (Blue Label) which was originally created at the request of pediatricians, and which is a high-protein, low-fat concentrated milk with Vitamin D content increased. Maybe he should have Whole Milk (Red Label) or Skimmed Milk (Yellow Label). Ask your doctor!

Fans Wonder What Fred Haney's Success Secret Is, Win Again; Mickey Mantle Raps Two Homers

What's Fred Haney's secret weapon? Haney took over as manager at Milwaukee after the Braves under Charlie Grimm had lost 12 of 17 and tumbled from first to fifth in the National League race. Four days later the Milwaukee squad is in first place again.

The Braves haven't lost since Haney reluctantly took over in Brooklyn last Saturday night. They made it five in a row Wednesday night, beating the plunging Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3. The Braves moved into the top spot as last-place Philadelphia stopped Cincinnati 3-2.

Milwaukee has a 13-point edge over Brooklyn Dodgers, who snapped a three-game losing streak with a 4-2 decision over St. Louis Cardinals. The Cards are fourth, two points back of the Redlegs, who in turn are two points behind the Braves.

The Pirates with five straight defeats, are fifth, but still very much in contention, only one game behind the Braves.

New York Giants reclaimed sixth place from Chicago, beating the Cubs 4-1.

In the American League, New York Yankees made it seven-in-a-row as Mickey Mantle hit his 26th and 27th home runs in a 4-1 verdict over Detroit Tigers. Chicago White Sox held second, 5 1/2 games behind, with a 12-8 decision over Baltimore. Cleveland ended a third place tie with Boston by topping the Red Sox 5-4 in 10 innings. Washington came from behind to beat Kansas City 5-4.

The Braves have been playing like most folks figured they could since Haney took charge. Question is, why? He's the same type of "nice guy" manager as was Grimm.

In the majors he was last in three managerial years with the Pirates, who released him after last season, and was no better than sixth in three years as field boss of the old St. Louis Browns in the American.

Haney, 58, hasn't juggled the Braves' lineup or junked Grimm's pitching order, but he's getting results. Gene Conley Wednesday night pitched his first complete game since last July 10 white Danny O'Connell starring role.

With capable batsmen and a potent bowling foursome, the English team is heavily favored to win the five-day match and take the lead in the five-test series for the Ashes, fractional symbol of cricket supremacy.

The Australians, whose showing against English county teams has been disappointing, barely escaped defeat earlier this month in the opening test at Nottingham when rain delayed play and allowed the Aussies to gain a draw.

Should England emerge victorious as expected, Australia will be faced with the task of winning two of the three final matches and forcing a draw in the other in order to regain the Ashes, won last year by England and Australia.

President Buzzy Bavasi Suspends Catcher-Coach Dixie Howell; Walz And Harris To Face "Drastic Action"

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — Catcher-coach Homer E. Dixie Howell of the Montreal Royals Wednesday was suspended from baseball "indefinitely" for taking part in an early morning fracas at a night club.

Howell, 35, and pitcher B. Billy Harris, 25, of Dorchester, N. B., were fined $25 each on disorderly conduct charges in city court this morning and Robert F. Walz, 25, also a pitcher, drew a $50 fine on charges of creating a disturbance and resisting arrest.

Howell told judge Albert Saperstein he had been suspended for one year and later said the action came from E. J. Buzzy Bavasi, executive of the Brooklyn Dodgers, parent club of the Royals.

Bavasi, who is president of the Montreal team, said the suspension was "indefinite."

Greg Mulevay, manager of the Royals, said he knew nothing of Bavasi's action but that he had suspended Howell indefinitely. Mulevay said Harris and Walz will face "drastic action" but declined to say what their punishment might be.

Howell told the judge "if I were found not guilty, that might help some." Saperstein said he was taking into consideration the fact that the players faced further discipline from baseball authorities and called the city court sentences "very lenient."

The three players were arrested early Tuesday at the Harem Club. All were charged with disorderly conduct and Walz also was charged with drunkenness and resisting arrest.

Harris said a man in a white shirt struck him in the club men's room. Police said the baseball players went looking for the assailant.

None of the three was in uniform Tuesday night when Miami defeated the Royals, 4-3, in the first of a three-game series.

Needles May Clash With Nashua Again In $100,000 Monmouth Handicap Next Month; First Test With Older Horses

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP) — Needles, the Florida-bred three-year-old champion, may oppose Nashua in the $100,000 Monmouth Handicap on July 14, it was reported yesterday.

Joe Tannenbaum, Miami Daily News racing editor, wrote that Trainer Hugh Fontaine may send Needles out in the mile and a quarter event if his weight assignment is right. It would be the Florida flash's first test against older horses.

Master Your Game... No. 31

Ball In Play At All Costs

By JACKIE BURKE
Master of the Masters

Leave yourself a margin for error.

From the standpoint of percentage, it is often wiser to play short or beyond the pin than to choose a club which will carry directly to it. If the green is trapped to the rear, it pays to play to the front of it. If it is trapped to the front, it pays to play to the rear even at the cost of going over.

Missing hazards is much more important than taking a chance on being close to the pin.

While you may get close, you may nevertheless miss your putt. Playing safe, you may make the putt anyway, probably get down in two, at the most three.

Once in a hazard, the chance of getting down in two is slim indeed. The chance of getting down in three is not too exciting. Keep the ball in play at all costs.

Nothing is more important than giving hazards a wide berth.

White Sox Nip Yankees 11-7; Cadieux Homers

St. Pat's Old Boys sponsored White Sox travelled to Lennoxville last evening to take on the Optimist sponsored Yankees in a Little League fixture and edge out a 11-7 victory.

White Sox opened up with two runs in the top half of the first inning and added five more in the second. They got three of these when Pierre Cadieux knocked out a homer with two men on and a single by Finley brought home the other two.

Yankees broke into the scoring column in the bottom of the third when they got a singleton. White Sox added three more in the top of fourth but Yankees came back with another run in their half of the same inning. A big rally by the Yankees in the bottom of the sixth netted them five runs and they were threatening. Coach Gerry Daniels brought in Finley to stem the uprising, the game ended with the White Sox on the long end of a 11-7 score.

Though going down to defeat the Yankees played vastly improved ball and their infield play being a feature. Young Grooms with two unassisted double plays and the Taylor-McLeod combination showed up especially well. Cadieux with his homer and Finley showed up for the winners. Tonight at the Parade Grounds Senators meet the Athletics.

Holman To Meet Pastrano In New Elimination Bout

CHICAGO — (AP) — A 10-round heavyweight "elimination" bout between Willie Pastrano of New Orleans and Johnny Holman of Chicago at the Chicago Stadium July 18 was announced Wednesday by the International Boxing Club.

The winner may emerge a potential contender for the heavyweight title vacated by retired Rocky Marciano, especially with a hand injury jeopardizing Floyd Patterson's proposed meeting with light heavy king Archie Moore.

Quinella Pays $210.30 For Tops; Guy Desrochers And Dave Adam Win Dow Award; Two Double Winners

Watchim's Girl, the property of Joe Stiles of Massena, N.Y. and driven by V. Larose, came through with the main upset last night at the local track when she pulled away in a convincing manner to win the ninth race of the evening. He paid $56.40 for a win bet and $10.90 for show. No tickets were sold for place so the pari-mutuels paid on the second and third horses.

Lindsay Brooke came home ahead of Buster Hught's Janie B to finish second and form the top quinella of the night. The sum of $210.30 was picked up by the lucky ones who had a ticket on Watchim's Girl. The American mare was making her first start of the current season and had a mark of 2.24 from last season and had never broken her mark.

In the main event Coombs Garage little horse, Clever Volo, walked off with the first half of the Jr. Free-for all when driver Gene Aubin teamed him home in 2:12 3/5. He started from the second position. In the eighth he got away in the fourth slot and finished fourth while Joe Laporte and his Sturdy Allie nosed out Doctor Brooke C at the wire.

The daily double combination was number three, Guilty, in the first and Ramuntho, number seven, in the second. They paid the sum of $70. The Gagnon mare also paid the price of $23 for a win bet. The first two quinellas were low as only $13.55 was collected in the third with $47.75 being picked up in the sixth with the big payoff coming in the ninth.

Guy Desrochers teamed Dave Adam to first place in the third and seventh races to win the sterling silver tray presented by Gilles Dube on behalf of Ivan Dugre, Dow representative. Robert Couture of Sherbrooke was the lucky fan to be awarded the other.

Carleton Mitchell's Class "D" Yawl Wins Bermuda Trophy For Annual Newport-Bermuda Classic

HAMILTON, Bermuda — (AP) — Carleton Mitchell's class D yawl Finisterre from Annapolis Tro-Finisterre from Annapolis, Md., snatched the Bermuda Trophy from mC class Figaro by 14 minutes Wednesday, as another yacht whose home port is in Chesapeake bay struck a reef and sank.

Coming to grief near the end of the 635-mile Newport, R.I.—Bermuda race, the 46-foot cutter Elda struck a reef and sank, but her crew of eight including Henry A. Wise, Jr., of Wilmington, Del., owner and skipper, were safe. Elda's home port is Gibson Island, Md.

Figaro, a 47-foot class C yawl, owned and piloted by William T. Snaith, Georgetown, Conn., crossed the finish line at Saint David's head shortly after midnight. Her elapsed time in the race which began last Saturday was three days, nine hours, 38 minutes, 11 seconds, and corrected time was two days, 16 hours, 14 minutes, 11 seconds.

Then at 9:10 a.m. Finisterre crossed the line under full mainsail, mizzen staysail and spinnaker. With elapsed time of three days, 18 hours, 25 minutes, 55 seconds, the 39-foot Annapolis yawl had a corrected time of two days, 16 hours.

Bisons Post Their Fourth Straight Victory, Down Jets; Leafs Lose Again; Royals Edge Miami 4-3

Buffalo Bisons, who recently plunged into the International League depths after a sustained losing streak, have started the long climb back with four successive victories.

A three-run homer by Lou Ortiz in the first inning sent the Bisons away in front Wednesday night and they went on to down Columbus Jets 7-3 as 36-year-old Karl Drews notched his seventh victory in 13 decisions. Al Pilarcik's ninth homer of the season in the last inning gave the Jets their final run.

The victory kept the seventh-place Bisons a half-game in front of the cellar-dwelling Richmond Virginians who made it two out of three against second-place Rochester with a 3-2 decision.

Niles Jordan checked the Red Wings with seven hits before Sonny Dixon took over in the ninth after pinchhitting Cot Deal doubled. Dixon got the final out.

The second-division teams continued their mastery over the top teams with Havana Sugar Kings sixth in the standings, dumping Toronto Maple Leafs for the third straight night. The score was 3-2.

Two second-inning errors by shortstop Hector Rodriguez paved the way for Havana's first three runs. The Cubans' Woody Smith hit his 11th homer of the year in the sixth.

Montreal's pace-setting Royals saved the leaders from being shut out by downing Miami Marlins 4-3. First baseman Earl York, who arrived recently from Oklahoma City to replace Rocky Nelson, graduated to the majors, drove home the winning run in the ninth with a single. He also had another single and a double.

Bob Satterfield Dumps Summerlin

CHICAGO. —(AP)— A boxing "dud" who keeps exploding, Chicago's Bob Satterfield today drew a bead on a heavyweight match with equally unpredictable Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

Satterfield, a 3-1 underdog, Wednesday night put an end to young Johnny Summerlin's 12-bout winning streak with a unanimous 10-round decision in a nationally-televised scrap.

The 32-year-old Satterfield nearly knocked Summerlin out of the ring in the third round with ponderous rights and then went on to win by a substantial margin.

Satterfield weighed 183 against Summerlin's 194.

Truman Gibson, secretary of the International Boxing Club, said he favored a Satterfield-Jackson meeting this fall because of their "interesting styles."

Rochester Gets Conditional Berth In AHL

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. —(AP)— Rochester was awarded a conditional franchise in the American Hockey League Wednesday.

James Ellery, league public relations manager, made the announcement following the annual meeting of the league board of governors.

Ellery said the Rochester club must produce working capital of $150,000 by July 31, 1956, "of which $100,000 must be accomplished through the sale of stocks on or before July 3, 1956."

Representatives of other cities in the league taking part in the meeting were from Buffalo, Cleveland, Hershey, Pa., Providence and Springfield, Mass.

If the Rochester club meets its requirements, it will join the league during the 1955-56 season.

Mantle Clouts Two As Tigers Serve Floaters

DETROIT.—(AP)—One of the American League's finest south-paws decided to let Mickey Mantle supply his own power, and the Yankee slugger had power to burn.

Billy Hoelt, Detroit Tigers' leading pitcher, fed the New York Yankee centerfielder two change-up pitches Wednesday night at Briggs Stadium.

The 24-year-old Mantle, who has exhausted every superlative with his home-run feats, churned both pitches far over the stadium fences to lead the pace-setting Bombers to a 4-1 victory.

They were his 26th and 27th home runs and put him comfortably ahead of the pace set by Babe Ruth when he clubbed a record 60 home runs in 1927. Ruth did not hit No. 27 until July 8.

The heir-apparent to Ruth's title hit the home runs right-handed. Only six of his round trippers this year have been hit from that side of the plate.

Canadian Boxers Leave For Home

LONDON.—(AP)—The victor and the vanquished, both Canadian boxers, left by air Wednesday for Montreal.

Gordon Wallace, 26, of Brantford and Creighton Mites, Ont. is the victor, now the British Empire light-heavyweight champion after defeating Britain's Ron Barton Tuesday night at London's Clapton stadium.

And the vanquished is Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., who lost a 10-round decision to Arthur Howard of Islington, near London, in a semi-windup bout on the same card.

Harry Sheppard, their Montreal manager, saw them off at London airport. Sheppard plans to remain in Britain for a while.

Durelle was to continue to Moncton, N.B. by Trans-Canada Air Lines later today. Wallace is expected to travel by train to his home in Brantford.

Seven Bad Number For Golfers But Dr. Cary Middlecoff Cards Two And Still Won U. S. Open Golf Title

New York — (AP) — There's an ancient links adage that golfers who roll sevens don't win big championships, but don't they?

Dr. Cary Middlecoff had two sevens on his card last weekend in capturing the 56th National Open at the Oak Hill Country Club in Rochester, N.Y. He took seven whacks on the par-five fourth hole on his first round and a triple-bogey seven on the 17th on his second.

Yet he finished with rounds of 71-70-70-281 to beat out Ben Hogan and Julius Boros by a stroke for golf's premier crown.

The mighty Bob Jones shot four sevens during tournament triumphs back in the golden era.

In 1926 at Scioto Jones had a seven on the 18th hole in the opening round yet rallied for a winning 283. In 1929 at Winged Foot he had not one, but two, sevens on the final round. Yet he tied Al Espinosa at 294 and won the 36-hole playoff.

Tommy Armour, the Silver Scot, pulled perhaps the most fantastic rendezvous with the magic number in the U.S. Open at Oakmount in 1947. He took three sevens during the 72 holes, finished in a tie with Harry Cooper at 301 and won the playoff.

Republicans Win Baseball Clash Over Democrats

WASHINGTON. —(AP)— The annual congressional baseball game recorded a new "first" Wednesday — a hospital case — as House Republicans gloated over their second victory in nine years over House Democrats.

The Republicans broke a tie in the fifth and final inning of Tuesday night's charity contest at Griffith Stadium to make it two in a row over the Democrats. They won 8-7.

The GOP's catcher, 45-year-old Tom Curtis of Missouri, was not on hand at the finish but heard the good news at Bethesda Naval Hospital.

Curtis was rushed to the hospital in the fifth inning after being knocked over during a six-run rally. He suffered a dislocated left shoulder and won the acclaim of the spectators as he was carted away on a stretcher.

The game was sponsored by the Washington Star.
