

Dr. J. J. Griffith Will Contest By-Election

N.U. Names Prominent Surgeon

Dr. James J. Griffith, 56-year-old surgeon-in-chief of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, has been unanimously selected as the National Union candidate in Westmount-St. George riding, for the provincial by-election, July 6.

Hon. William Cottingham, Provincial Mines Minister is personally supervising the campaign to elect Dr. Griffith, and is drawing support to the N.U. banner locally from a long list of prominent local residents who believe that the riding should move into the government side of the Legislature.

Dr. Griffith was selected at a meeting of prominent Westmount residents held under the chairmanship of John P. Rowat and his selection was immediately approved by Premier Maurice Duplessis in Quebec.

In giving his approval to Dr. Griffith's choice, Premier Duplessis said he felt confident the voters in Westmount-St. George would find in Dr. Griffith a candidate who was fully competent to defend their interests in the Quebec Legislature.

Hon. W. M. Cottingham, Quebec minister of mines, who is directing the National Union campaign in Westmount-St. George, said that as English-Protestant representative in the Quebec cabinet, he would welcome the assistance of another English-Protestant of Dr. Griffith's capacity.

Public Health Progress

Premier Duplessis reminded the voters of Westmount-St. George of the strides made in the public health domain under the National Union administration

Weredale House Receives Cheque From Rotarians

A cheque for $2000 was presented to Weredale House by the Rotary Club of Westmount Wednesday. Receiving the cheque from President Borden Empey, was E. A. Everson, president of Weredale House.

The money will be used to purchase a portion of land near Camp Weredale on which is the camp's water supply. If the land had gone to private parties the camp's water supply would have been jeopardized, it was pointed out.

Vern. McAdam, secretary-manager of Weredale House thanked the Rotarians on behalf of his establishment. He pointed out that springs, which supply water to the camp on a gravity feed are located under this land near the camp. He said when the Camp was first opened cottages were miles away, but that in recent years, houses have been built near the road leading to the camp. Mr. McAdam noted that if action was not taken immediately to secure the neighbouring land, it would probably be bought by people interested in building private homes.

"Thanks a million for another fine gesture on the part of the Westmount Rotary Club", Vern McAdam said.

Canadian photoengraving establishments carry a complete service to printers, Brock Batten told members of the Westmount Rotary Club Wednesday.

Giving his classification address at Victoria Hall, Mr. Batten told his fellow Rotarians that a modern photoengraving plant would even include facilities for the production of films for the motion picture and TV industries.

In describing the production end of the photoengraving business, Mr. Batten started with the art department. He said an amazing variety of works passes through the art department in the course of a business day, and that the department must carry approximately 60 artists in order to cover all phases of the field.

An important section of a photoengraving plant is naturally the photography department, the speaker noted. Here photographers work with everything from still objects to lovely models. The photoengraving house carries five or six photographers, and a fully equipped darkroom.

In describing photoengraving, Mr. Batten said the process was the engraving of an original printing plate etched on metal used for letterpress printing.

Protect Vote Urges Hyde

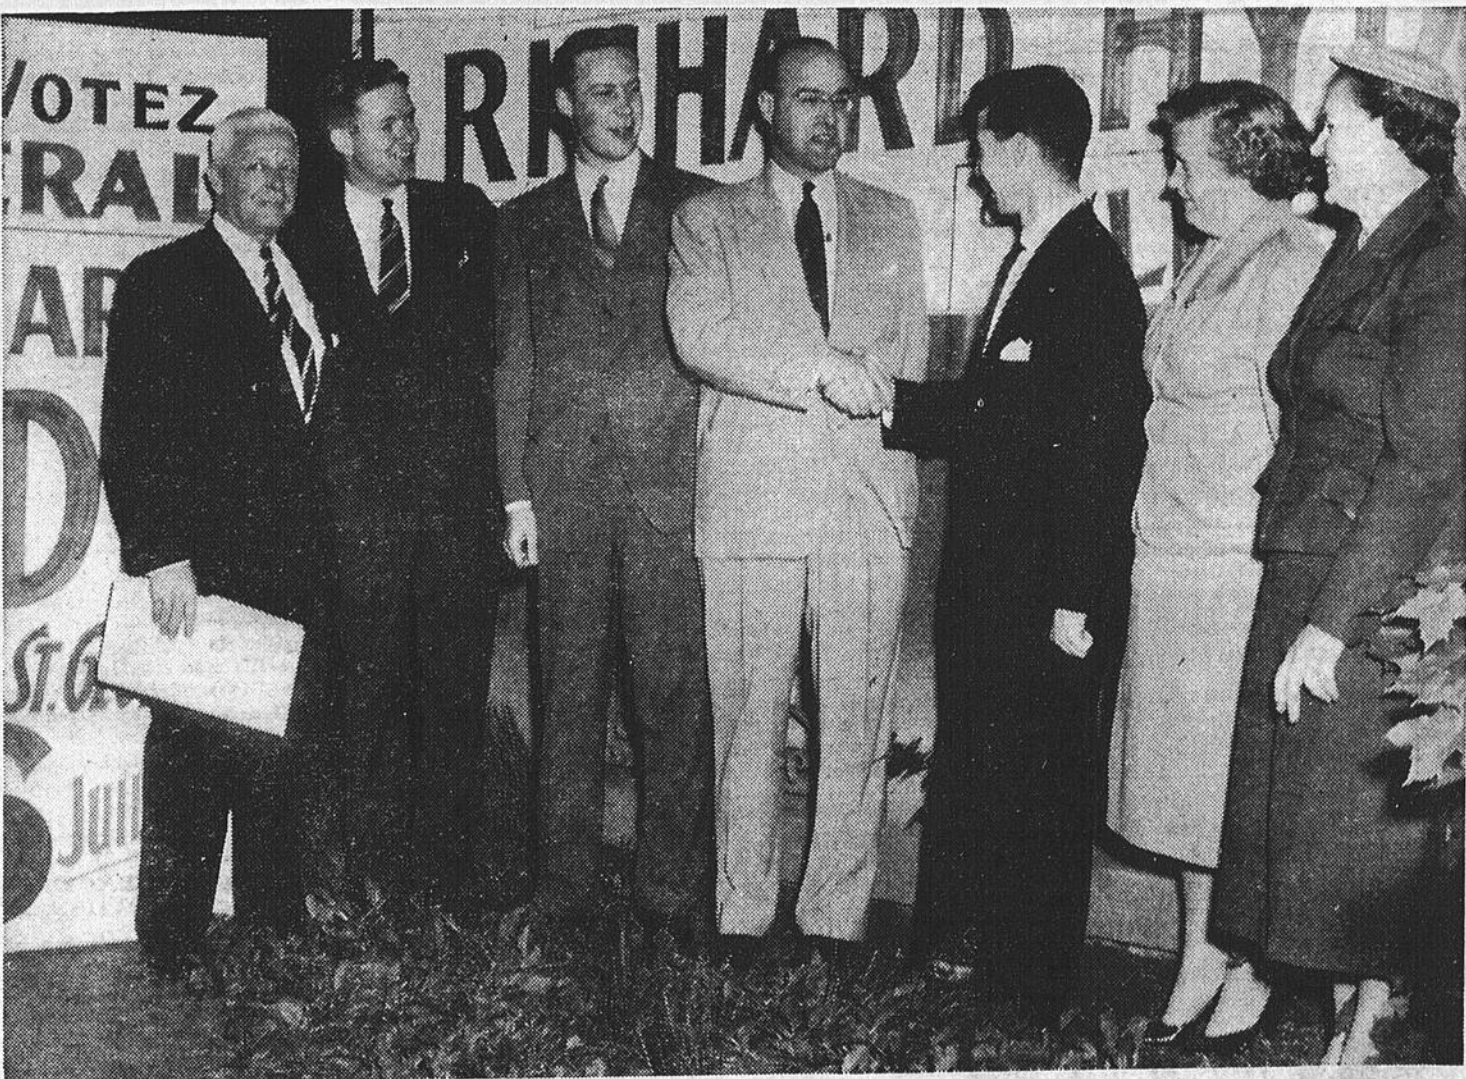

Westmount voters in the forthcoming provincial by-election were urged yesterday to "protect their right to vote," by Richard Hyde, as the Liberal candidate for Westmount-St. George opened his campaign.

He said it was every resident's duty to "ensure that your name appears on the list posted in your neighborhood. If it does not appear, it is your duty to see that it is added during the revision period from June 7 to 13."

He said voters should have already received a special certificate from enumerators: in order to vote, this certificate must be presented July 6 at the polls.

"For the first time, in Westmount-St. George, there was only one enumerator, appointed for each poll and he was appointed by the Union Nationale," Mr. Hyde said.

"I thus appeal to the electors of Westmount-St. George to (Continued on Page 14) but said much remained to be accomplished.

"I feel confident," said the premier, "that as a member of the Quebec Legislature, Dr. Griffith could make a worthwhile contribution toward the solution of the many problems that face us today in the vital matter of adequate medical and hospital care for our population."

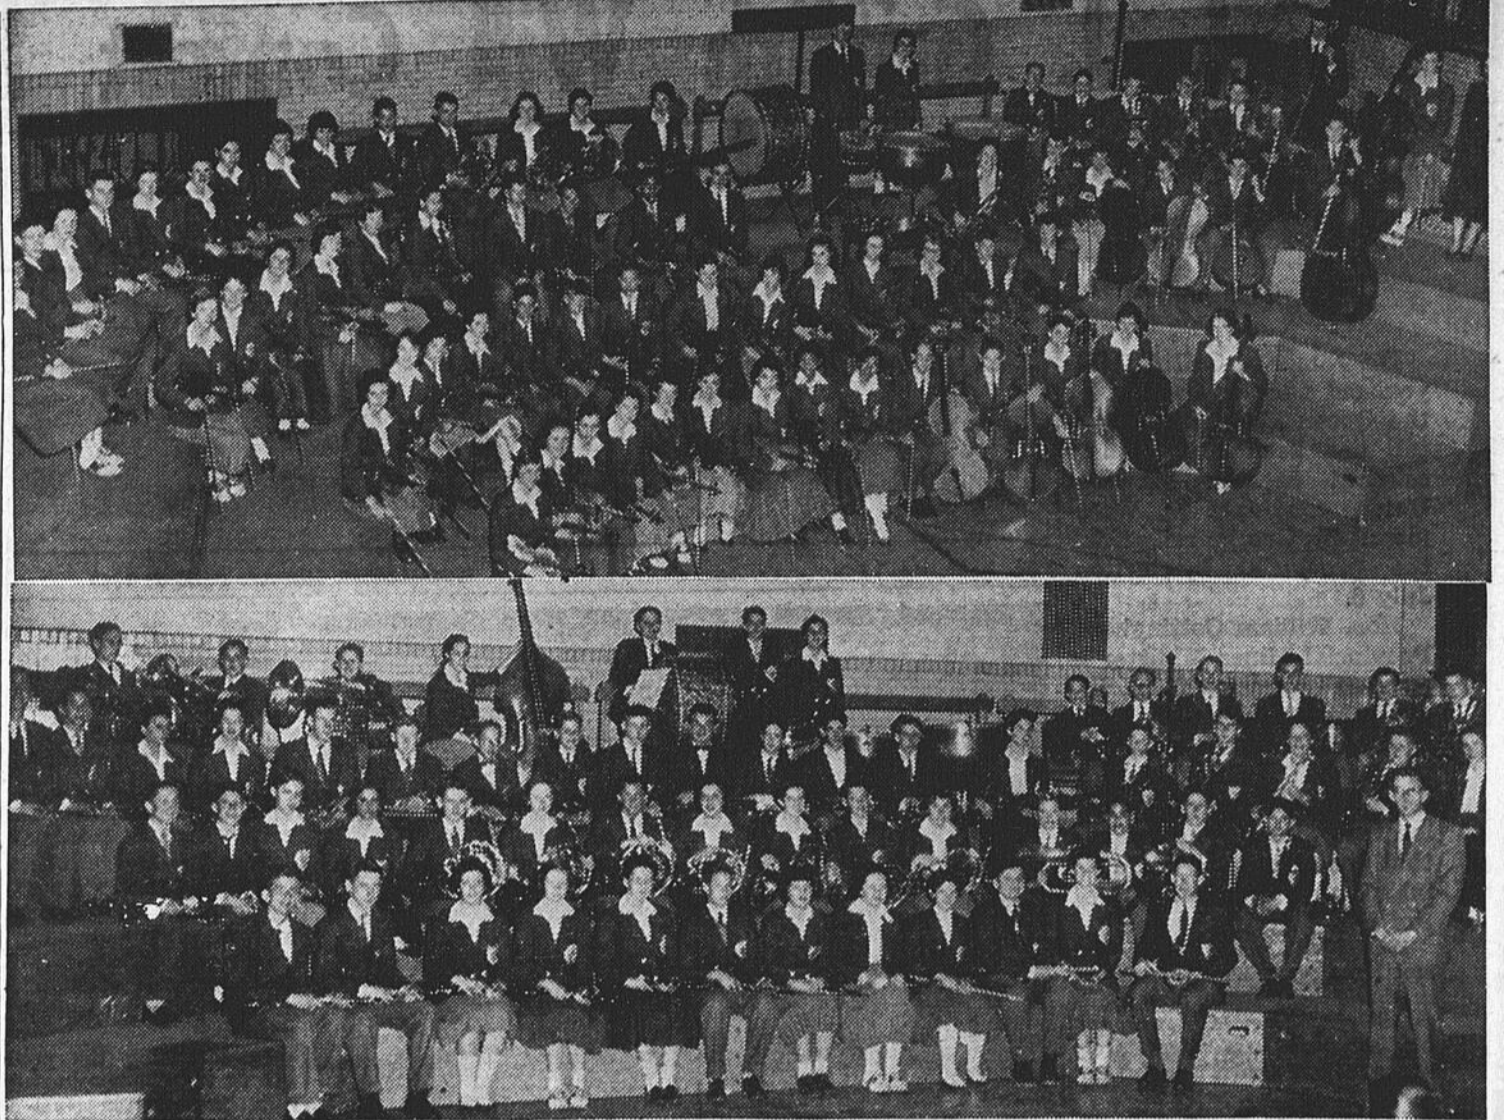

Mines Minister Cottingham in a statement issued following Dr. Griffith's nomination, said that the question of public health was one which had received the attention of the National Union administration since the party was returned to power in 1945.

"We need men of Dr. Griffith's training and background in Quebec to help us find a solution to the many problems which still confront us and we are fortunate in finding a man of Dr. Griffith's standing who is willing to sacrifice his time and his energy to serve the public in a field in which he is well qualified," said the minister.

Dr. Griffith said a great deal had been done by the present government in the field of public health but that a great deal more was required.

The National Union candidate said government help was essential for hospitals today if they were to be in a position to purchase the modern facilities required for their administration. He felt sure such assistance would be forthcoming from Quebec.

Dr. Griffith was born in Montreal in 1899 and was educated at the High School of Montreal and McGill University, where he received his M.D. degree in 1924. During the first world war he served overseas with the 7th Canadian Artillery. He is married and is the father of two daughters.

Dr. Griffith and his family have been residents of Westmount since 1936.

The candidate is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, a Fellow of the American Society for the Surgery of Trauma, a member of the Quebec Association of Surgeons, and a member of the Council of the Medical Council of Canada. He is a member of the University Club, the Club Chapleau, the Heather Curling Club and the Seignior Club.

Dr. Griffith has had wide experience in hospital administration and in the many problems facing modern medical service.

The by-election in Westmount-St. George is one of three called by Premier Duplessis several weeks ago.

30 Motorists Get Summonses For Speeding

Thirty motorists received summonses for speeding through Westmount in an attempt by the police department to curb 'flagrant abuse' of the speeding-by-law in the city.

A survey by police showed that almost 25 per cent of the motorists passing through Westmount were exceeding the speed limit of 30 miles per hour, Chief Robert Byford said.

Fines levied on Wednesday ranged from $5 to $50.

given by Dr. Hugh L. Keenleyside, and John Ra gave the valedictory.

In his address to the graduates Dr. K. E. Norris principal of the college pointed out that this was the 85th birthday of the College and Schools. The historical statement of the College and Schools points out that the present Faculties of Arts, Science and Commerce of Sir George Williams College developed from the formal educational work of the Montreal Young Men's Christian Association. This work, inaugurated in 1873, took the early form of unit evening courses in vocational and general educational subjects, later co-ordinated into the system known as the Y.M.C.A. Schools.

In 1920 the Evening High School was inaugurated and in 1926 the name Sir George Williams College was adopted to designate, from that time forward, the expanding formal educational program of the Young Men's Christian Association in Montreal. (Sir George Williams was the founder of the Y.M.C.A. in London, June 6th 1844, seven years before it was established in Canada). In 1926 also, the college was made co-educational.

In 1928 the Association held a building campaign for $1,500,000 part of which sum was to provide enlarged facilities for the work of the College. In 1929, the College program was extended to include First Year Arts, Science, Commerce and pre-Engineering. In 1930 the College began occupation of an enlarged plant and equipment, which has since been expanded repeatedly to include four building annexes. In 1931 the Junior College was organized, offering two full years of College work in Arts, Science and Commerce, leading to the Diploma of Associate. In 1932, day courses were inaugurated in the College, providing pre-Professional and Associate programs of study in the same three fields. In 1934, the two-year program in Arts, Science and Commerce were expanded to four-year curricula culminating in the award of the Bachelor's Degree. The members of the first class were graduated in 1936 and by 1954 over 1902 degrees had been presented.

Throughout this period the College had been conducted under the terms of the charter of the Montreal Young Men's Christian Association (consolidation June 1888). In March 1948, however, the College was granted a specific Charter by the Provincial Legislature, establishing it a body corporate and politic, for

The final meeting for the current season of the Roslyn Home and School Association was held at the School on Monday. Mrs. George Maughan, the retiring President, reported that the past year had been highly successful with practically every child in the school taking part in at least one of the activities sponsored by the Association.

A presentation was made to Geoffrey Merrill who is retiring as Vice Principal to take an appointment at Lower Canada College.

The meeting was highlighted by a program of songs given by the Girls' Choir under the direction of Miss Vera Jamieson and the purpose of conducting a college or university in the Province of Quebec.

Just about now, the houseflies are about to come to life. In a matter of a few weeks, they will become parents to frighteningly large numbers of more flies, all of them carriers of disease germs. Norman Holland Retires As Last Post President

The Last Post Fund of Canada announced at its annual meeting, with the deepest regret the resignation of its president, Norman Holland.

Mr. Holland, whose indefatigable services to countless charitable organizations have been a long outstanding feature of Montreal life, had been connected with the Last Post Fund for 33 years, 16 of which as its President.

His term of office saw this organization grow from a small society, founded in 1909, to a world-wide organization which has cared for the burials of more than 20,000 ex-service personnel on the North American Continent and in countries of the British Commonwealth.

In the Province of Quebec it was largely due to his initiative and unflagging interest in the welfare of veteran ex-service men and women that this Society was able to purchase their "Field of Honour" Cemetery at Pointe Claire — one of the beauty spots of the Province — which was consecrated in 1930 and whose "Gate of Remembrance" was opened by the late Lord Tweedsmuir, while Governor-General of Canada, in 1937.

Another notable feature of Mr. Holland's term of office was the removal from the Papineau Avenue Military Cemetery, fallen into sad disuse, of the remains of all Naval and Military personnel buried there and their reinterment in the "Field of Honour", together with the re-erection of the Monument to Lt. General Sir Benjamin D'Urban, Commander in Chief of Her Majesty's Forces in North America in 1849.

Mr. Holland's retirement brings to a close a noteworthy achievement of conspicuous success and leadership of the Last Post Fund in its work on behalf of the Armed Forces of the Crown.

From the president's remarks and the secretary-treasurer general's report, it was noted that 20,200 veterans had been buried on the North American Continent since the Fund's inception in 1909, and the total expenditure for these burials amounted to $2,319,930.60.

Tribute was paid to the various branch secretaries and representatives for carrying on the work of the Last Post Fund so capably.

Reporting on the work of Quebec branch, the president and secretary-treasurer gave details relative to the fiscal year under review, and it was noted that 104 regular burials were taken care of, in addition to 42 special burials.

The Officers elected for Dominion Council were:—

Good Ambassadors

Y.M.C.A. World Service Men
Teach and Learn

Our citizens are on the move these days. Technical experts, teachers, businessmen, students, soldiers, or just plain tourists, tens of thousands of us are scattered over the face of the earth.

Although many do not realize it, each of these travellers serves our country as an unofficial ambassador, from the moment he sets foot on foreign soil. By his words and actions, he makes friends or enemies for all of us here at home. He can be a great asset or a dangerous liability.

The Y.M.C.A.'s of this country, through their World Service program, now have 50 such unofficial ambassadors at work around the world. These are

Y.M.C.A. secretaries assigned to serve abroad.

Y.M.C.A. World Service men are stationed in 30 key countries. They go abroad only in answer to a specific appeal. They go not to tell others how things should be done, but to share their technical skills and insights with others. They learn as much as they teach, which may be why they are respected.

Their jobs vary according to need. Some are experts in physical education; some in boys' work. J. M. Singleton, of the Notre Dame de Grace Y.M.C.A. tells us that the World Service man in Ethiopia is opening up a new world for Addis Ababa youth with his homemade telescope, lectures in health and sanitation, and his printing press. Another is helping to raise standards in a Y.M.C.A. rural centre in Mexico. The World Service man in Japan has invented small area games which are solving the problem of diminishing recreation space in overcrowded cities.

Because the Y's program has no political, economic or sectarian strings attached, its ambassadors are acceptable to thousands who would be suspicious of government workers, businessmen, or even missionaries.

They number only 50—these Y.M.C.A. World Service Men. But this handful is exerting an influence for good that cannot be matched by many times that number of our other unofficial ambassadors. They deserve our wholehearted support, as does the Y.M.C.A. itself.

The Summing Up Of Revelation

BY REV. CANON R. KENNETH NAYLOR

Rector of Trinity Memorial Church

Pentecost was the end of the self-revelation of God. He had disclosed Himself in the Old Testament from Abraham onwards as a personal God who entered into communication with His people; made a covenant with them; protected and punished them, and allowed them generation by generation to learn more of His Nature. Then in the Gospel period of the self-revelation was deepened in Jesus Christ, and men came to see that God is best known in Jesus' revelation of Him as a Father, ready to make sacrifices for His people. In Jesus we see God walking the ways of Earth. But even then His disciples did not understand, and the revelation had to go a step further. As Jesus said, it was expedient that He should go away from His disciples; otherwise the Comforter could not come unto them. It was not good that they should enjoy his continued visible presence. If He remained with them they would never raise their thinking above earthly things. So He was withdrawn from their eyes and the Father sent to them the Holy Spirit; invisible, but known through the various symbols of dove, fire and wind; and through the various manifestations of His power in the lives of the disciples.

The disciples, through their experience, came to realize that each of these revelations is a revelation of God. They never doubted the God of the Old Testament; they found that they could not explain Jesus except by saying that He is God; and the Power Who dwelt in them and controlled their lives was very clearly God also. Yet they could think of Father, Son and Holy Spirit separately.

The real problem was how, in spite of their experience, they were to maintain the unity of God. The first generation did not try, they simply took it for granted, that though the Father is God, and the Son is God and the Holy Ghost is God, yet there are not three Gods but one God.

And eventually the next generations devised the word Trinity to cover the fact. That is why some churches speak of next Sunday as Trinity Sunday.

The other great days of the Church stand for events, the mighty acts of God in bringing salvation to men. But Trinity Sunday does not stand for an event, but for the fact which stands behind all events, the fact that God is not a single Person, but a single God, who has made Himself known to men in His Three Persons. Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

 Jack Hirshberg Reports Direct From * Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, June 2 — Here's something for the attention of those who wonder why film stars can't put on a show at the drop of a hat for any worthwhile cause anywhere. Mind you, Hollywoodians do give away more of their time and talent gratis than any other business or industry in the land — all to benefit charities and public service projects. But a short time ago — and at the very last minute — Jerry Lewis was ordered by his union NOT to make a scheduled appearance at a charity affair. Jerry very much wanted to do the show. The union said no. If Jerry had gone on against the union order he would have been heavily fined.

Last year alone he paid over $10,000 in fines for "appearances" not cleared by the union.

For instance, he would pay his way into Ciro's Cabaret as a regular patron, buy his own dinner with friends and start to enjoy the show.

Being Jerry Lewis, he is something of an exhibitionist and always a clown, but the public loves it. So on two or three occasions Jerry got up on the floor at the presiding star's request and cracked a joke or two.

These appearances were never advertised in advance. They led to no additional revenue for the club. Jerry was just a ringsider having a good time — much as a visiting fireman from Montreal might have a good time if he had sufficient whiskey in his belly to make him carefree and happy for the evening.

But Jerry was fined.

Not long ago this same lad, who annually raises millions of dollars for welfare groups via benefit shows, attended what amounted to a private party in a New York resort hotel. Milton Berle and others present got up and did their turns at entertaining.

Then up came Mr. Lewis — and next day another fine. Seems the union lies in wait for Jerry and a few other stars.

The question seems to be "What constitutes a performance?"

As a union member, Jerry is supposed to be paid for his work unless the union specifically permits him to appear free at a charity affair.

But is it putting on a performance when a guy goes out for an evening's fun and enjoys himself a little with other people around? The union seems to think so.

And the union could conceivably prevent an artist's appearing for pay if they felt he had broken union rules. By suspending him from membership, the union could virtually cut off his means of livelihood.

Of course, such a case can always be taken to court — but even if the artist wins in court he still loses. Some evening he'd be putting on a show and suddenly the spotlight would go dead or the microphone would begin to hum, ruining his act.

These things happen.

The unions, it must be pointed out, do their share in the public interest. They sanction free entertainment for worthy causes if they deem the cause sufficiently important. It is the union's job to protect members from unfair demands upon their talents and from public exploitation.

But sometimes the unions indulge in excesses, themselves. It's the same old thing. Too much power concentrated in the hands of anyone or any group is dangerous. This goes for the government. It goes for religious organizations. It goes for management.

And it also goes for the unions. Brighter side of this story is the fact that with union okay and union cooperation, hundreds of Hollywood stars each year make thousands of free appearances here and abroad to benefit worthy causes.

No other industry gives so generously of the one product it has to sell. In show business that product is entertainment. Through it, money has been raised to defeat polio, to fight cancer and other diseases, to teach the blind to read and the deaf and dumb to lead normal lives, to build schools for underprivileged children and hospitals for those in need, to erect and maintain radio transmitters overseas to spread the word of democracy behind the Iron Curtain.

In all these efforts and others the show business unions have made miracles possible.

And that, too, is something worthy of attention.

APPROACHING WEDDING

The marriage of Mary-Jean, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Senkler Morgan, of Westmount, to Mr. Hugh Seymour Watson, son of Lieut.-Col. Julian Watson, C.B.E., M.C., and Mrs. Watson, of Chalfont St. Giles, Bucks, England, has been arranged to take place on Saturday afternoon June 4, at four o'clock in Trinity Church, Ste. Agathe des Monts.

The bride will be attended by Miss Frances Summer, as maid of honor, and by her sister, Miss Joan Morgan, and Mrs. W. B. Spalding; and by little Miss Patricia Ann Morgan, another sister, as flower girl. Mr. Seymour Alden of Boston will act as best man for Mr. Watson, and the ushers will be Mr. John Sampson, Mr. Brian Wharbuton, and Mr. Robin Smith.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held at the summer residence of the bride's parents, Pooh's Corner, Lac Manitou.

The marriage of Miss Vivien Audrey Wrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Wrong, to Edward Arthur Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Rice, is tak-ed as best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Clifford Gill, Mr. Garth Clendenning and Mr. Keith Wray.

Mrs. Wainwright, the bride's mother, was gowned in dusty pink pure silk shantung. She wore a navy blue hat and accessories, and a corsage bouquet of pink sweetpeas.

Mrs. Binmore, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of Delft blue figured silk with a pink hat and accessories, and a corsage bouquet of pink camelias.

The reception was held in the Montreal West Town Hall where pink and white snapdragons were used as decorations.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Binmore left by motor for the Southern States, the bride travelling in a frock of blue and violet flowered silk, under a periwinkle blue linen coat, lined in the same material and wearing a matching blue straw hat, navy blue accessories and a corsage bouquet of violets.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Power, of Vancouver; Mrs. Victor Phelps of Lac Manitou; Mr. Gerald Taylor, of Barrington; and Mr. Wentworth Young of Winnipeg.

WEDDING

BINMORE - WAINWRIGHT

The marriage of Patricia Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wainwright, of Montreal West, to Mr. David R. Binmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert M. Binmore, of Westmount, took place on Saturday morning at eleven o'clock in the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola, the Rev. Father T. McDermott officiating. Mrs. Evelyn Monahan played the wedding music, and Mr. Howard Lobar sang during the ceremony. Baskets of white snapdragon and gladioli were used as decorations.

The bride who was given away by her father, was in a floor-length gown of white organdy, with a fitted bodice fashioned with a portrait neckline and short sleeves, and a full flared embroidered skirt having a deep flounce of organdy. Her fingertip length veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap of embroidered organdy, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white lilac and carnations.

Mrs. Raymond Binmore, as matron of honor, and Mrs. David Baker, and Mrs. William Wilson, as attendants were in waltz-length frocks of dotted Swiss organdy over taffeta the matron of honor being in turquoise blue and the attendants in daffodil yellow. They wore picture hats to match their frocks, and carried bouquets of turquoise and yellow carnations.

"Hello, Daddy! Coming home now?"

At the end of the day there's nothing more exciting than Dad's voice to report when he will be home for dinner.

It makes such a big difference to little people who have waited all day for Daddy's voice. It makes a difference to your wife, too—she likes to have some warning when you have been delayed.

This is just one of the countless ways your telephone pays its way as it makes life happier, easier, more secure.

Try A Cherry Snow Ring To Celebrate Canada's Red Cherry Week June 5-11

June 5-11 has been named Red Cherry Week by the cherry producers and processors across Canada and endorsed by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Picked at random from a long list of prime cherry desserts, try this cherry snow ring.

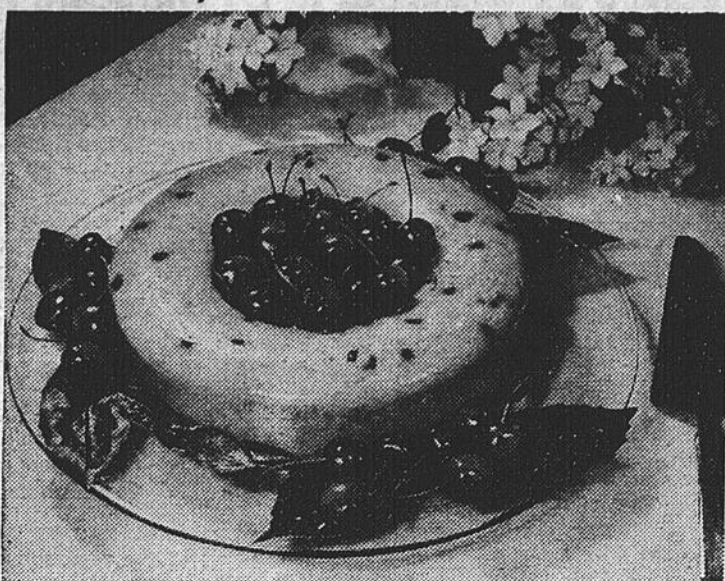

Cherry Snow Ring (Serves 8)

Two cups pitted sweet cherries, 2 pounds unpitted dark sweet cherries, stems on, 2 packages lemon flavored gelatin, 2 cups boiling water, ¼ cup lemon juice, 1 cup cold water, 1 cup cream for whipping, ¼ cup sugar.

Dissolve the gelatin in the boiling water. Add the lemon juice and cold water and refrigerate until partially set. Whip the cream and add the sugar. Fold into the gelatin. Add the pitted cherries and pour into a ring mold (5½-cup size).

Refrigerate for at least 4 hours. Unmold on a large platter. Place washed and drained cherries in the center and around the outside. Garnish with garden leaves.

We think these red sweet cherries are at their best served simply and without much fuss and they add interesting texture to every medley of fruits. Combine with grapefruit sections and juice for a fruit cup which is equally delicious served first on the menu or last with the dessert coffee.

For breakfast heap a bowl and let everyone take as many handfuls as wanted both before and after the scrambled eggs and bacon. For excursions to the beach or play field, fill a cellophane bag with them.

Stewed Sweet Cherries

Wash carefully without bruising. Remove stems. Either pit them or prick well. Cover with boiling water and simmer gently until nearly tender.

Add sugar to taste and a few drops of lemon juice. Simmer 3 or more minutes. Serve in glass dishes as a dessert or as a relish with meat.

Favorite Dress Becomes Pattern

Have you, too, worn a favorite dress or blouse until it came apart at the seams? And have you regretted that you could not find a duplicate that fitted you as well?

A comfortable, two-piece yellow dress had lasted a friend of mine for years. It fitted beautifully across the shoulders, at the waistline and through the hips. But she had to admit, at last, that the once bright cloth had worn through in obvious holes.

She searched the pattern books for a similar design. No success. Then decided to use the well-loved dress as a pattern. And it was surprising how easy it became to create a similar garment from a pattern already molded to the ins and outs of her figure.

The first step was to rip apart each seam, including darts and zippers. Since the old material was light colored she wrote in ink on the material the name of each separate section. It was particularly important to designate the right sleeve and the left sleeve. (On dark material you could write the name of each pattern piece on paper and secure it with a paper clip.) The next step was to press each section. Then she pulled a thread down the length of every piece and marked the line in ink to show the straight of the goods.

In order to estimate the amount of new material to buy, she cut newspapers thirty-six inches wide, pinned them together and laid the pattern pieces on them. Sewing experience helped her unconsciously in adjusting the pattern into the most economical length of new material to buy.

As she cut out the new garment, she marked darts and seams and buttonholes from the old dress. You can easily tell the right side from the wrong side, even though the old seams have been pressed. And you will probably find, as she did, that this will be the fastest dress sewing you have ever attempted.

One last precaution: keep all the old dress pieces together in a box or bag. Mark the outside with the amount of material necessary to buy. Include a rough sketch of the way you laid out your pieces. Then your second new dress can be made even faster than the first duplicate.

The olive is considered civilization's oldest fruit.

Ten Appetizing Sandwich Fillings To Keep Stored In Refrigerator

Making sandwiches for school or spring picnics is certainly a challenge to any one. Why not tack a list of appetizing fillings on the inside of the closet door where supplies are kept for handy reference. Here are some combinations you might like to include:

Pineapple-Shrimp: Two-thirds cooked, chopped shrimp to one-third well-drained pineapple bits, with sufficient mayonnaise or salad dressing to spread.

Dried Beef-Cheese: Blend 1 cup chopped dried beef, ½ cup pineapple-cheese spread, and 2 tablespoons lemon juice. Add a small amount of salad dressing if mixture is too stiff.

Frankfurter-Egg: Combine ½ cup chopped, cooked frankfurters, 1 chopped hard-cooked egg, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1 tablespoon chili sauce, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon prepared mustard, and ½ teaspoon pepper. Makes ½ cup of filling.

Cream Cheese-Fruit: Combine 1 three-ounce package cream cheese, 3 finely cut, pitted, dried prunes, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon sugar, and 1 tablespoon finely chopped nuts. Add sufficient top milk or thin cream for spreading consistency. Makes about 1 cup of filling.

Peanut-Apple Butter: Combine ¼ cup peanut butter, ¼ cup apple butter, ½ cup grated cheddar cheese and ½ teaspoon lemon juice. Makes 1 cup filling.

Liver-Pickle: Combine ½ cup chopped, cooked liver with 2 tablespoons pickle relish and 1 teaspoon minced onion. Use salad dressing to moisten. Make 1 cup filling.

Vegetable: Combine ¼ cup each grated raw carrot, grated cabbage, and finely chopped celery, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 tea-

Participants Named For Piano Recital

The pupils of Viola L. Benson will present their annual piano recital Thursday, June 9, at 8.15 p.m. in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

The program given by 32 young pianists consists of solos, two-piano music and two concerti, with music by Bach, Haydn, Mozart, Kabalevsky, MacDowell and others.

The following students will take part: Mary Hawken, Shirley Copland, Lorna Birks, Darrell Errey, Janice Crump, Margaret Rose Davies, Minerva Robert, Robbie Case, Penelope Caie, Beverly and Barbara Rowat, Stuart Morin, Frances Peters, Cecily Gardner, Annabelle Thorne, Linda Pottel, Jean Spencer, Sandra Taylor, Sandra Moulton, David Binmore, Scott Bromley, Heather Stone, Richard Bolton, Susan Eversfield, Margaret Joan Errey, James Boake, Anthony Camillo, Gloria Camillo, Robert Birks, Peter Annand, Walter Kemp.

spoons chili sauce and 2 teaspoons mayonnaise. Makes about 1 cup filling.

Peanut Butter-Date: Cut 14 seeded dates into small bits; add ½ cup peanut butter, ½ cup table sirup, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, and ½ cup warm water. Cream all together until well blended. Peanut butter sometimes varies in its consistency, so it may be necessary to add a little more water to obtain easy spreading. Will spread about 8 large slices of bread.

Ham-Olive: Combine 1 cup ground cooked ham, ½ cup chopped, stuffed olives, ½ cup walnut meats, finely chopped but not ground, with enough salad dressing to produce spreading consistency. Makes about 2 cups filling.

Salmon-Nut: Combine 1 cup flaked canned salmon, 3 tablespoons finely chopped nuts, 3 tablespoons minced celery, and add enough salad dressing for spreading consistency. Makes about 1½ cups filling.

It is easy to provide variety in sandwich fillings, and also save time, by making up several kinds at once and keeping them in tightly covered glass jars in the refrigerator.

Try Chicken Stuffed Pancakes With Wild Rice And Mushrooms

Dainty pancakes, rolled around a filling, make an unusual main dish for special luncheons or suppers. For this purpose, you can use your favorite pancake recipe, or make the base from a recipe that requires very little flour, just enough to hold the eggs together. Both types of pancake are baked on a griddle and folded around a rich filling. A sauce to pour over them completes this dish.

Add wild rice with mushrooms, a crisp green salad with a tart dressing, and fruit or ice cream for dessert.

Chicken Pancakes Imperial

3 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup milk
2 tablespoons flour
Fat for frying
Beat eggs with salt, milk, and flour until smooth. Pour 2 tablespoons batter into heated, lightly greased skillet to form a pancake 7 inches in diameter. Cook over medium heat to a light brown on one side only (pancakes are not turned). Continue making pancakes, placing each, brown side down, on moisture-proof wrap or clean towel.

Gravy and Filling

1 tablespoon butter or chicken fat
1 tablespoon flour
¾ teaspoon each, mace and paprika
1 cup milk or chicken broth

Salt and pepper to taste
2 cups finely chopped cooked chicken
1 cup grated or crumbled Cheddar cheese.

To make gravy: melt the fat over low heat; blend in flour, mace, and paprika. Add milk or chicken broth all at once, stirring constantly until uniformly thickened and bubbly. Add salt and pepper. Remove from heat.

For filling: add enough gravy to moisten chicken. Spread about ¼ cup of the mixture on each pancake. Roll tightly. Place in shallow baking dish. Pour rest of gravy over rolled pancakes, and sprinkle cheese on top. Bake at 375° F. 20 minutes or until sauce is bubbly. Serve hot. Makes 6-7 chicken pancakes.

Washing And Waxing Done By Dual Machine

Washing and waxing floors may never become pleasurable pastimes, but they have been lifted another large notch out of the drudgery category by an electric polisher-scrubber now on the market.

With performance approved by the Underwriters Laboratory — and by many housewives who have tested it—the new machine offers many attractive features. The manufacturers boast of one-finger operation, light weight, no spattering of soapsuds or wax on baseboards or furniture, easy brush changing, and adaptability to all types of floor surfaces, including garage, basement, or porch.

Dairy Foods And Chickens Are Plentiful

From Washington, D.C., the markets experts of the United States Department of Agriculture report milk and other dairy foods will be in great abundance. Next in prominence will be broilers and fryers.

Other foods to be in lush supply in June are citrus and citrus products, rice, beef, vegetable fats and oils, prunes, raisins, lard and fishery products. So June will be a good eating month, and easy on the budget, too.

Here is a top barbecued chicken recipe for a crowd of 50.

Barbecued Chicken (Yield: 50 servings)

Twenty-five 2½-pound ready-to-cook frying chickens.

Barbecue Sauce: One pint vinegar, 1 pint Worcestershire sauce, 1 pint salad oil, 2 quarts water, 4 quarts catsup, ¼ cup salt, ¼ cup chili powder, 1 tablespoon pepper, 2 quarts chopped onions.

Simmer all ingredients for barbecue sauce about 30 minutes or until onions are tender. Split chickens in half down breastbone and backbone. Rinse and pat dry. Fry chicken in deep fat heated to 350 degrees F. about 8 minutes to brown. Place chicken halves skin side down in a single layer in large baking pans. Pour sauce over chicken.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Turn chicken skin side up. Spoon sauce over chicken. Continue baking 30 minutes or until chicken is fork tender and well coated with barbecue sauce.

Note: This barbecued chicken may be wrapped and frozen at 0 degree F. or colder. To serve, uncover, heat in oven about 30 minutes.

Lemon Barbecue Sauce (to serve 4): Mash 1 small clove garlic with ½ teaspoon salt in a bowl. Add ¼ cup salad oil, ½ cup lemon juice, 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion, ½ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper and ½ teaspoon thyme.

A priority is the right to ask first for something you can't get anyway.

Great emphasis is being laid on training in this province all down the line: the well-known Bronze Arrowhead course for Patrol Leaders followed by the Silver Arrowhead course for successful candidates (this latter at Camp Tamaracouta); Wood Badge courses for Cub leaders, Scout leaders and Rover leaders (the last of these particularly being open to Commissioners and Scoutmasters as well); specialization courses for leaders of all branches of the Movement; and Scouting Explained courses for laymen. Write or telephone Provincial Scout headquarters in Montreal for further information.

There is a mythical 11th Scout law which states that a Scout is not a fool. Let's all observe that law this summer. If we can't swim, let's learn; if we can, let's do better and learn something about life saving. And don't forget that life-saving is not confined to the water, swimming or boating. It includes first aid, knotting (the right knot in the right place at the right time), use of the Holger-Nielsen method or the Schaefer method of resuscitation. And by a Scout's know-how, the life he saves may be his own!

For Scouts everywhere, this time of year is ideal for camping and out of doors is the place to practise all the things they have heard about and learned during the fall, winter and spring, probably indoors most of the time. Day hikes, overnight hikes, week-ends and regular camping experiences are all part of a Scout's training. Let's put the "outing" into Scouting as soon as and as often as we can! A good rule for choosing your camping equipment: Get out all your gear and arrange it in three piles, first, what you rarely use, second pile, what you use occasionally, and third lot, what you need to take. Throw the first lot away; make up your mind about the second lot — then put that away somewhere. What you have left, in the third pile, is what you take with you. Simple, eh?

a plate start by making a negative of the job to be done. The negative is then laid on glass; the metal to be used sensitized, covered by the negative, and then actually developed. What appear on the piece of metal is then etched by splashing the face of it with acid.

From here the partially completed plate goes to the routing room, where excess metal is removed before it goes to the finishing department. After leaving the finishing department, the plate is quality checked and then proved.

Mr. Batten pointed out that all zinc plates are etched in the same manner, while when dealing with copper plates some of the fine etching to bring out the highlights is done by hand by mastercraftsmen.

In making color printing plates, only four basic colors are used, yellow, blue, red, and black. Four negatives are taken, each one for the different color, and each one is filtered with the screen angle changed.

In producing duplicate plates, or electros, as they are commonly called in the trade, a mold is first made by the direct pressure process. This mold is separated from the plate and sensitized and then backed with molten metal.

The stereotype department makes stereotypes and mats, the latter from a paper and plastic material. The stereo is then made from the mat, he said. Plastic plates are also produced in the same method, using heat and pressure. Rubber plates are made of both synthetic and natural rubber and are used on presses specially designed to run with rubber plates.

Offset printing is entirely different from letterpress, Mr. Batten said, and the manufacture of offset plates is also different. The plate is made from a positive photo taking of the job to be reproduced. The offset department is tied in closely with the department manufacturing color process plates, he said.

In concluding, Mr. Batten pointed out that most Canadian photoengraving houses are equipped with film making studios to produce movies for the motion picture and TV industries. He said, the plant can turn out films, either full length documentaries or flash TV commercials.

Putting Tournaments Start Wednesday

Quite a number of people have been taking advantage of the putting green and have been enjoying some very pleasant evenings.

The green is coming along nicely and it is expected that when the first season's tournament is held, it will be in very good condition, indeed.

The first competition is scheduled for Wednesday, and will be in the nature of a sealed hole tournament.

Engineers have estimated that 1405 gallons of water are required to bring a helping of potatoes to the dinner table.

Green is a sacred color to Moslems, who carry a green flag and have prayer rugs with green backgrounds.

MacRae, Prudential Take Close Tilts Over Saints, RCMP In Inter Play

Two one run decisions Tuesday highlighted the week's play in the westend intermediate softball league, with a pair of highly regarded teams grabbing the wins in each case.

MacRae Electric won their second straight start of the young season behind Cliff Bowles' fine relief pitching and hitting, 5-4 over St. Augustine's, at Westmount.

Prudential made it two wins in three starts with a dramatic ninth inning run to slip past RCMP 7-6, at Trenholme.

Last Thursday's matches saw Trenholme and RCMP draw 1-1 in an 11 inning thriller at Trenholme, while Prudential smashed 11 runs in the eighth inning to trounce St. Augustine's 17-0.

Next week MacRae play Trenholme Tuesday at Trenholme, while St. Augustine's tee off against RCMP at Westmount 2. Thursday RCMP and MacRae are due at Westmount 2, while Prudential and Trenholme hook up at Trenholme. All games are at 7 p.m.

The big game Tuesday saw Prudential with a 6-1 lead at the end of the sixth inning. But the Mounties came back with a single tally in the seventh and counted four times in the top of the eighth to knot the score at 6-6.

In the bottom of the ninth Prudential unloaded some of its big guns and managed to load the bases with one out. But RCMP fireballer Al Anderson bore down to fan two batters and maintain the status quo.

In the bottom of the ninth he retired the first two hitters, but Pappy Ryan kept the Prudential hopes alive by whacking a double. Lulu Denis entered the game as a pinch runner, and Fred Killingsworth came up to bat for pitcher Jack Kugler. He singled to drive in Denis with the winning run.

Ed Brown started for the winners, but was taken out in the eighth for a pinch hitter too. Kugler was credited with the win, while Anderson suffered his second loss.

Kevin Brady slapped two hits for Prudential, while Renault and Dupont each picked up a brace for the Mounties.

MacRae came from behind a 4-1 deficit after two innings to score three in the fourth and knot the game at 4-4. The big blow was Cliff Bowles two run homer in that frame. He came into the tilt in the second inning to relieve John Urbas, and fanned 13 the rest of the eight inning stretch.

Urbas was charged with all the runs, and was tagged for a round tripper by Ray St. Pierre. Bud Selby and Pat Lomasney each connected twice for MacRae.

Conley Forey tallied the winner in the fifth on a single, moving to second when there was an error on the play. He took third on a wild pitch and scored on an infield out. John Thomas took the loss.

In Thursday's matches, Anderson fanned 22 in 11 innings as the Mounties tied with Tren-holme 1-1. He gave up three hits, while his mates collected five off the offerings of Ray Price.

Al Bownass led Prudential to their 17-0 victory over the Saints, with a grand slam clout in the 11 run eighth. Ryan hit four for five, while winning pitcher Billy Graham chalked up nine strike outs. Valois was the loser.

Browns Grab Lead In Little League

Lions Club Browns grabbed an early lead in Little League action this week, playing in the American B section, though a featured tilt yesterday against Unity Boys Club Indians at the Westmount Athletic Grounds was washed out.

The Browns and Indians are top rated in the four team loop, with the Lions entry holding one decision over the Greene avenue crew.

The Browns won their only start of the week 6-2 Friday against Iverley Red Sox, behind Cliff Mumford's 13 strikeout pitching. Indians topped Red Sox 7-5 last Thursday at the W.A.G. In the only other action during the week Red Sox topped St. Andrew's White Sox 6-5 Tuesday.

The Browns make their next start tonight at St. Remi park against the Red Sox, with Mumford again due to take the mound.

Other games for the two westend teams this week see the Browns meet the White Sox Friday at Little League stadium, and again next Tuesday at St. Remi. The Indians clash with the White Sox Monday at the Westmount Athletic Grounds and face the Red Sox there Wednesday.

Mumford allowed the Red

Sox only one hit Friday, but was in trouble over the six inning route because of dropped third strikes. Bill Mains was the loser and allowed four bingles.

In last Thursday's tilt Blanchette started for the Indians, and was relieved by Jimmy Crouch in the first inning after giving up four straight walks. Crouch continued on through the sixth when Claude Schaffer took over.

The Indians won the game with two runs in the seventh, while Schaffer completely handcuffed the Red Sox. After allowing a leadoff single in the sixth to Bebeau, he fanned six straight batters through the two innings he worked.
