Next week's weather

By ERIC NEAL

February 27 to March 5

Mainly sunny, afternoons mild and clearing, nights cold with wind. Light snows in the mountains, freezing mists or fluffy snow in the south, 3 to 6 inches. Only 25 hours of sunshine this week; temperature range 30 below to 35 above in the north, 0-40°F in the south.

Bright and quite cool mid-week, with occasional cold mists or light snows and clearing. Gusty winds and blowing snow on icy roads could upset traffic.

Storms all along the border, with their rainy fringes bringing 2 to 4 inches of fluffy snow to the mountains, and mixed rain and snow in the south during the weekend.

Unity Boys' Club

Ninth annual meeting guests Mayor Cushing

By MAURICE MARIASINE

The Unity Boys' Club Quiz Contest, now in its fourth week, continues to be the principle attraction at the club and in the community, where the members and their parents are combining to win the 1st prize radio or one of the other ten prizes offered.

The quiz, which began on February 5, will continue until April 15, with answers accepted to April 26. A total of 100 questions, ten per week, has been scheduled, and each right answer is worth one point, making the grand total aggregate at 100 points. The over-all point average for the nearly 100 contestants still stands at eight, indicating a high calibre of participation.

NINTH ANNUAL MEETING: Mayor J. C. Cushing of Westmount will be a special guest at the ninth annual meeting, which will be held at the Unity Boys' Club on Wednesday, March 2, at 12:30 p.m.

This meeting will be held in conjunction with the regular luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club of Westmount. Unity Boys' Club President James G. Lawson will act as chairman.

HOUSE COUNCIL MEETS: Peter Doherty, president of the Unity Boy's Club house council, has called a meeting of the Council for Wednesday, March 2, at 7 p.m.

Matters pertaining to the general activities in the club will be discussed. An evaluation of the council's participation to-date will also be discussed.

VISIT TO PLATTSBURGH:

It was announced at last week's Unity Teen Hop that 17 couples and three supervisors will be the guests of TV's Teen Time at Plattsburgh, N.Y. on Friday, March 18, with a special chartered bus leaving the Unity Boys' Club at 3 p.m. and returning to Montreal at 10 p.m.

Couples selected to go are urged to attend a Teen Hop at the club on Friday, March 4, at 8 p.m. when finalization plans for the Plattsburgh jaunt will be discussed.

CREATIVE CRAFTS: Girls' work supervisor, Crystal Cunningham, introduced a new craft to the club last week. It's called pillow craft and the following members are participating: Susan Fein, Shane Malloy, Carole Huggins, Norah Witham, Pierre Boulanger, Andree Deschenes, Harold Witham, Shawn Malloy, Susan White and Linda McKaig.

RIFLE CLUB: Rifle club supervisor Harry Houston reports that his group is planning inter-club competition in the not too distant future. The boys attending regular sessions at the Royal Montreal Regiment every Saturday afternoon are: Range Master, Don Vollett, Billy Standing, Bruce Moreland, Donald Taylor, Claude Servant, Michael Tagieff, Johnny Walker, John Butler, John Atherton and Truman Neilson.

IDDY BIDDY PLAYOFFS: Sports director John McDonough reports that playoffs have started in the Iddy-Biddy basketball house league. In the first semi-final series, Royals defeated the Knicks and now the Warriors take on the Lakers — the winners to meet for the championship.

OTHER PROGRAM NOTES: Unity's Biddy Basketballers defeated the East End Boys' Club 19-12 in a regular Biddy fixture. Richard Holden was the game's top scorer with eight points.

Obituaries

J. M. SEATH

A funeral service was held Monday from the Funeral Chapel of Jos. C. Wray & Bro., for J. Marshall Seath, who died here Saturday after a short illness.

Mr. Seath, an engineer, worked on projects for the National Harbors Commission, and ice studies of the St. Lawrence River. He was resident engineer at St. Timothee, and during World War II was employed at United Shipyards in Montreal.

He graduated from McGill University in 1910 and was active in university sports. After leaving McGill he played for the MAAA football team and was a member of the Dominion Championship team of 1919.

He is survived by his wife, the former Doris Mathews; a daughter, Mrs. John Almond; a son, William; a sister, Mrs. Charles Gurd; and two brothers, Robert of Kelowna, B.C., and Pringle of Westmount, Que.

Burial was in Mount Royal Cemetery.

Westmount's snow removal is a problem

Two weeks ago it appeared to Westmount City Hall authorities as though the snow removal costs would be 30 percent lower than the previous year.

"I wish I hadn't said that," City General Manager T. J. Hughes said.

The yearly average snowfall is 112 inches, taken on figures collected over the past 10 years. About 88 inches have fallen so far this year, leaving a possible total of 24 inches yet to come before winter can be declared as being over.

Mr. Hughes said that in the two weeks previous to the storm which tied up the entire Island last weekend, Westmount streets had to be chemically treated every day because the daily snowfall, while not large, still amounted to one half to two inches.

"It is a completely superimposed cost," he said, referring to the increase due to the recent bad storms.

City snow removal crews have already completed their five days work when a big storm arrives on a weekend, meaning overtime must be paid at time-and-a-half for Saturdays and double time on Sundays.

Asked if the city might go over its snow removal budget, Mr. Hughes said: "It's hard to say yet. Daily weather forecasts aren't accurate, and we can't go by the long-range forecasts."

Housing photos go on display at city library

Beginning Tuesday, March 1, and continuing for two weeks, the Westmount Public Library will have a collection of housing photographs on display.

The pictures have been supplied by the Canadian Housing Design Council of Ottawa, and include the prize-winning houses of the last three years.

The photographs and text cover such subjects as the siting of the house, entrances, internal zoning and circulation, shapes and sizes of rooms and outdoor living.

The public is invited to attend.

An aerial ladder needed to remove roof obstruction

Westmount firemen braved last Friday's snow storm at its worst to remove a dangerous object from endangering passers-by.

A call from Westmount Moving and Warehousing company, 350 Victoria, brought an aerial ladder truck to remove a large piece of tin protruding from the roof and hanging out over Somerville avenue.

Mlle Pierrette Champoux, Dorchester street west, president of the French Women's Press Club, recently expressed her views on the influential part a wife may have in politics.

I would like to mention that many men today owe their success to the co-operation of their wives. The presence of Mme. Vanier at Rideau Hall has already brought about many changes in Ottawa. Having a family makes a man more conscious of the problems, of education, public health, employment conditions and social security. Should a woman be interested in social problems, it is impossible that in turn, her husband should not become influenced by her activities."

 McGill post

Appointment of D. Lorne Gales, 486 Mountain avenue, General Secretary of the Graduates' Society of McGill University as the University's first Development Officer, was announced here today in a joint statement issued by Dr. F. Cyril James, Principal and Vice-Chancellor, and Stuart M. Finlayson, president of the Graduates' Society.

The new position at McGill, created by a resolution of the Board of Governors, carries with it "responsibility to plan and co-ordinate all Fund-raising activities of the University for the integration of the Alma Mater Fund, the McGill Associates, Gifts, Grants, and Bequests", the announcement said.

In carrying out his new duties, it was pointed out, Mr. Gales would continue to supervise the activities of the Graduates' Society and would thus provide "an additional important link between the Society and the University."

The announcement also disclosed that John T. Lafleur, a McGill graduate in Arts of 1937, had been named Assistant General Secretary of the Graduates' Society to assume some of Mr. Gale's responsibilities in the alumni organization.

Mr. Gales received his B.A. degree at McGill in 1932, and his B.C.L. degree in 1935. After practising law in Montreal for a number of years, Mr. Gales served with the Royal Canadian Armoured Corps during the Second World War. He was appointed Field Secretary for the Society in 1945 and was named to his present position in 1949. Mr. Gales is married to the former Isabel G. Dawson and they have four children.

Marler raps Dief. on administration

Never before has there been such an uncertain touch about the government of our country, George C. Marler, former Liberal minister of transport told a meeting of the St. Antoine-Westmount Young Liberals Association Monday night.

"Never has so much hesitation, so much fumbling, uncertainty and confusion characterized the actions of the government in Ottawa," he said.

Mr. Marler, who represented St. Antoine - Westmount in the Saint Laurent Liberal government until 1957, is executive vice-president of the National Liberal Federation of Canada.

He said the coming years are a challenge to Liberals "to persuade Canadians that Liberal policies are in the best interests of Canada as a whole and that Liberal administration has been in the past better than Conservative, and will be much better than the kind of administration we have been getting from the Diefenbaker government."

Speaking on the current political situation, Mr. Marler asked the group: What are some of the problems of the present and how is the Diefenbaker government dealing with them?

Unemployment was perhaps the greatest problem, he said.

"The Dominion Bureau of statistics claims," he said, "there are 8.1 percent of Canada's labor force unemployed — in short, 504,000 people. The Unemployment Insurance Commission figures, perhaps the most accurate, claims 780,000 persons on their 'live files' at the end of January."

"In the housing program, Mr. Starr says 'in two years we have put $750,000,000 into housing — one of the greatest job creating activities in the whole economy. The result was that more than 280,000 homes were built'."

Mr. Marler then said: "Let us look at the figures for the last half of 1957, the whole of 1958 and the first three-quarters of 1959—a period slightly more than two years.

"The government investment out of a total of 268,826 home units built, representing a total expenditure of $2,320,000,000, or 83,581 home units, or roughly 30 percent of the total figures.

"Private investment has spent $1,635,000,000 to build 185,245 units, or 70 percent of the total figure."

Bakery fire extinguished

The automatic sprinkler system at Harrison Brothers Bakery, St. Catherine street and the Glen road, sent an alarm to Westmount Fire Station Monday afternoon that something was amiss.

Firemen found a small fire on the 2nd floor of the building, caused by an exhaust fan becoming overheated and igniting an accumulation of grease around it. A one-and-a-half inch hose quickly extinguished the small blaze.

The building was only slightly damaged from smoke and water.

Hit and run
 toots, goes

Jeffrey G. Carrique, 49, of 4721 Westmount boulevard is looking, along with Westmount police, for a motorist with a strange sense of humor.

Last Friday evening, Carrique told police, he was at the Upper Roslyn Lookout when his auto was hit by a tan and dark blue Mercedes, causing extensive damage to his door and fenders.

The driver of the offending vehicle, he said, honked his horn a couple of times, then drove away.

Police have the description and licence number of the hit-and-run driver. The complaint is still under investigation.

Police charge
 hit-and-run

An alleged hit-and-run driver who injured a motorcyclist on Atwater avenue early in the morning of February 12 will appear in Westmount court this week.

The cyclist, Roger Seguin, 23, of 4303 Wellington street, told police that he left the CBC building at Guy and St. Luke about 12:30 a.m. on February 12, driving west to Atwater and then south. He remembered going through the CPR underpass, but that was all until he woke up in the Montreal General Hospital.

Three witnesses to the hit-and-run, pedestrian Richard Gleason, 23, of 935 Calumet Place; motorists George Wong, 37, of 802 Rachel and Judith and Norman Boudreau of St. Martin, said the driver failed to stop after hitting Seguin's cycle and knocking him down.

City Council wins plaudits

WESTMOUNT City Council is to be congratulated.

So are the residents of Lansdowne and Ingleside avenues.

Together they have solved problems.

Which is as it should be.

Residents of both streets protested traffic conditions to City Hall.

City Council heeded, studied, and acted.

This heralds the dawn of a new era in Council-citizen relations long desired on both sides.

May it grow into fullest confidence — end secrecy on one side and uneasiness on the other.

'Kangaroo courts' are not good enough

FROM an incorporated association which embraces a particular category of professional persons in this province we have received a press release stating that one of its members, residing in the West End, has had his licence to pursue his calling cancelled.

No reasons are given. Improper professional conduct is inferred.

We are not printing this release.

The group concerned say that we would help protect the public by printing it.

We say that by not printing it we help to protect the rights of the individual against which the group has acted.

We say that if this person is guilty of a serious enough impropriety or crime, the association should complain against him in the courts.

We think professional bodies have altogether too much power over the individual, power exercised without reference to judicial authority.

The full majesty of the courts disciplines other men.

DDT used on elms poisonous

Sir: The city of Montreal has been sending out letters reminding the public to have their elm trees sprayed in order to prevent Dutch Elm disease. However, no mention is made of an indisputed fact — DDT, used in this operation, will exterminate entire populations of birds and squirrels. It can also be injurious to pets.

In 1955 the Dutch elms on the campus of Michigan State University were sprayed with DDT. That spring, large numbers of robins died. The birds ate poisoned insects, pulled worms through poisoned soil, or absorbed the poison through their feet. Squirrels, rabbits, foxes, went into convulsions and perished. In Texas, after certain areas were sprayed, 95% of the blackbirds were exterminated, and the song of the meadow lark was stilled forever.

The elm tree is a thing of beauty, true. But to preserve a tree at the expense of a living creature is inconceivable. Reverence for life must be our foremost consideration. The Reader's Digest (June, '59) states that DDT may be a factor in the rise of leukemia, hepatitis, Hodgkin's disease. This possibility is not one to conjure with. Let us stop spraying our trees with DDT before we are faced with irreversible consequences. "Our forests flourished without chemical help through eons of time. DDT is relatively new. We would be wise to halt massive spraying until we know what effects the toxins are having on ourselves and our animal co-heirs to this planet."

We don't need DDT to destroy insects. A house wren feeds 500 spiders and caterpillars to its young during one summer afternoon.

A swallow devours 1000 leafhoppers in 12 hours.

An oriole consumes 17 caterpillars a minute.

A thrasher can eat 6180 insects in one day.

The great Shelley was inspired by a humble skylark to write immortal lines of poetry. Has the world changed so much that we have lost sight of God's creatures, and have become blinded by a dazzling scientific display of pesticides and insecticides?

Licence buyers claim no money

By LARRY McINNIS

Monday, February 29, is the last day to get licences in Quebec, and this year the Provincial Police say they are not fooling! Those without 1960 plates can expect the worst if caught on provincial highways after that date.

The West End's only licence bureau, at the corner of Kensington and Sherbrooke, and which serves Westmount, has been going steady for several weeks and expects a greater rush in the next few days. About 10 lines with eight to a line keep the office filled. As one person leaves the office, another takes his place.

But the leading question is: Why do people leave things until the last minute?

Vic Broston, 4865 Cote St. Catherine road, said: "I came today because I thought the bad driving would keep people away."

"Besides," he added, "I was short of money."

Jack Brayton, 77 6th avenue, Verdun, said: "I don't usually wait until the last minute, but this year I've been busy working and didn't have the time."

With a smile, he said "And I didn't have the money before."

Although waiting in a queue is not pleasant most of the people passed the time in pleasant conversation with their neighbors.

The main topic of conversation? Everyone is short of money!

Yes, people seemed to think it was very funny that everyone waits until the last minute to get their licence plates.

All except one fellow. He had filled in the forms and documents for several sets of operators licences and licence plates for his boss, waited all afternoon in the line, then offered to pay with a personal cheque.

Immediately above his head at the cashier's cage was a sign saying, "Cash or certified cheques only."

It makes you wonder, doesn't it?

Still in the spirit of good clean fun, hardy men coming in to make their last minute purchases paused to help a motorist whose car was stuck on Kensington avenue.

Busy housewives took their young children along to play on the office floor while they pored over the many necessary forms, probably to save hubby the job of lining up this weekend.

A Provincial Policeman on duty said early in the morning was the worst time to come. Crowds of people try to get through on their way to work.

"The crowds thin out as the day wears on," he said.

One taxi driver, a big smile spread across his face, said "I wait until the last minute because I figure I can use the money from December 31 to February 29 a lot better than the provincial government."

Everyone has heard of the car pool some commuters use for getting to work, but there's a new one on the go this year. Office workers stood in line to purchase as many as a half dozen licences for co-workers.

One employer (who wouldn't give his name) bought licences for all his staff — with their money. "Can't let the whole office staff off, y'know," he said.

Besides licences, the bureau is a good place to pick up your 1959 provincial income tax forms.

The school offers them a chance to learn to read and write, to develop their skills. Minister asks City Hall to keep Sabbath holy

The 4th Commandment, "Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy." Exodus 20:8, we are very proud to say, has had a great significance for Westmount.

We were shocked to hear however of the service station openings being forced on us by absentee landlord oil companies that apparently put imaginary profits before the sanctity of the Sabbath in a city that has had a long tradition of respectability, and against the wishes of their lessees and their economic well-being.

All these years people have been proud that we, in Westmount, had enough respect for the Lord's Day as to have had at least a semblance of peace and quiet, but now our City Hall gives the impression of wanting to wash its hands and surrender without a fight these precious traditions.

I believe this issue was brought to the attention of the City Hall about five months ago. Why has this been hanging fire all this time, and all the while the oil companies encroaching upon our sacred traditions more and more? To my knowledge there never has been one citizen asking for the stations to open longer and especially on the Sabbath and when there are already the Victoria and Cliffside garages open 24 hours a day.

Just think of the extra noise and traffic in the summer time.

The B.A. Station started late last September to open at night and has been open on Sundays already for quite a while. The first week in February the other five companies began opening at night and the B.A. till 11.00 p.m.

One station grossed 59 cents profit from 7 p.m. till 10 p.m. one night and had two men and all the lights blazing at a cost of $15. with not one cent cost to the oil company.

Most Ontario Cities regulate sales from 7 to 7 and have a rotating system for Sunday.

Who is going to decide the character of Westmount — the citizens or the oil companies?

We owe a great debt of gratitude to the lessees of the service stations who bravely and honorably presented their views to the City Hall, not only to defend their own interests but our sacred traditions as well. Are we not grateful to them? It is just incomprehensible why this important issue has been stalled so long. One person called it assinine.

There are standard procedures for dealing with matters of this nature, just waiting to be made operative. The City Legal Advisor, Arthur Weldon, was very cooperative when I spoke to him on the phone. The City Manager, Mr. Hughes on the other hand said that the city could not accept responsibility for the private matter between the oil companies and the lessees. If this is a private matter I would like to get the city's views of the 10 commandments. Mayor Cushing was very busy and didn't want to discuss the matter with me.

If the council has doubts of public support, it would be simple to get.

An important issue like this, which would alter drastically the basic character of our city, to be treated so secretly causes people to wonder what is going on. Is there any justification whatsoever or doubt in anyone's mind that we should let down the bars? Why the secrecy? Why can't this be publicly ventilated. This sort of thing causes the imagination to work overtime in unhealthy channels.

If this has been yet another illustration of the way our affairs have been conducted for 52 years, discouraging public interest, and participation and fostering trust in secret negotiations, then we

Rotary told:

Economic condition is healthy, but government is behind times

Canadians have a great deal to learn about themselves, and their economy, but generally the economy is in a healthy condition, John Meyer, Financial Editor of The Gazette told the Westmount Rotary at their regular Wednesday luncheon meeting at Victoria Hall.

"In one generation, we have changed from a predominantly agricultural and extractive economy to a predominantly industrial economy," he said.

Criticizing some government policies through the years, Mr. Meyer told the meeting there was insufficient selectivity in commercial, taxation and welfare policies. "We have omitted to take into account the changes which have taken place."

"Nothing has been done to change the basic rules of our taxation policy. The tendency in Canada has been to tax — and damn the consequences!" Mr. Meyer said, indicating taxation has become a powerful influence on the shape of industry.

"If we are to achieve the flexibility in our national economy, which we must have if we are to successfully compete at home and abroad, we must also have flexible economic policies which can be implemented or withdrawn as the need arises," he continued.

"The government must be prepared to reduce costs and increase efficiency... and learn to adapt its practices to the requirements of business and industry, rather than to its political aspirations and the theories of its advisors."

Mr. Meyer pointed out that when he referred to 'government' he meant any government.

Speaking on Canada's economic boom in the past 10 years, he said "foreign investors generally now own — or control — better than half of Canada's production, and the principal foreign investor, by far, is the American."

He also said, "It is highly unlikely that many principal components of the Canadian economy will ever be anything else but foreign-owned unless the foreign owners should choose to sell out or, at the extreme, be forced to sell."

Interests and dividends paid out to foreign investors last year amounted to $600,000,000, and this year the figure should be higher, Mr. Meyer pointed out.

In concluding his talk, he suggested the government encourage new forms of investment.

"Heaven knows," he said, "we'll need all the encouragement we can get."

This year's chairman is Miss Judy Davis. In charge of the booklet, which should be distributed during the second week of March, is Dave Devolpi. Miss Doreen Connors is correlating entries as well as the department of indoor athletics. Miss Heather McMartin is in charge of the opening and closing of the show, and Miss Sue Mackenzie is directing the publicity.

Other members of the executive at present are: Miss Suzanne Langlois, Miss Maureen Atkins, Miss Judy Bryant, Miss Alice Nasmith, Miss Barbara Clarke, Miss Gail Mulhall, and Rod Holmes, Pete McCabe, Frank Carpenter.

Two departments are still without chairmen, collections, and pets. Anyone who is interested in one of the above positions is asked to contact Ron Watt, Youth Work Secretary, at the Westmount YMCA at WE. 7-3916.

This year's Hobby Show will be held from April 20 to 23. As in previous years, the show is open to residents of Westmount, and those attending Westmount schools who are under the age of 20. The one exception to this is the department of indoor athletics, in which residents of Greater Montreal may participate.

A number of inquiries concerning the Hobby Show have already been received, and it is hoped that the show will be as much a success this year as it has been in the past.

In order to insure as large a show as possible, participants are urged to start work on their entries soon so that they will be ready for competition by April 20.

NOTE: The Y's Teen's Club will be holding their regular Saturday night dance this Saturday, February 27, from 9 to 11:45 p.m.

Traditional May moving set for Family Welfare

May 1 is the traditional moving day in Montreal, and this year Westmount will gain an additional "family" — the Family Welfare Association, largest of the Red Feather agencies, and Belvedere House, a home for the elderly.

Both the home for the aged and the offices of Welfare will move into new spacious quarters on St. Catherine street, between Melville and Park Place.

The new building is being financed privately, largely from the sale of their properties at 1634 Dorchester and a branch on Durocher street. Red Feather funds, used for services to the community, will not be used. In the case of Family Welfare, the service is family counselling.

The quarters formerly occupied by the Welfare were considered old, dilapidated and over crowded.

The move to the new address will coincide with a change in policy within Family Welfare, leaving the staff to devote a greater percentage of their time and energy to family counselling. Formerly the staff spent much of its time handling financial grants under the Quebec Charities Act, but during the past year individual communities have been licensed to administer public funds directly.

Some of the problems handled by Family Welfare: Financial worries; misunderstandings between husband and wife; struggles between parents and children; difficulties of mental or physical illness.

These — or any distressing family problem — can at last be handled in the pleasant atmosphere of a new office.

one who still believes the well cultivated myth that we have a well run city. It can happen and will, if we don't act now!

Phone or write the City Hall now. Start a petition, a discussion, and organize your group, your church, your street, to keep Westmount's Sabbath Day holy, and to provide decent service station closing hours.

Thank you most sincerely,
 Rev. William Morris.

Quiz number four

1. Where are the 1960 Winter Olympics being held?
2. How much is a mill?
3. Who is the president of the Unity Ladies Auxiliary?
4. Who was "The Merry Monarch"?
5. Supply this famous author's last name. Charles John Huffam
6. What is a "brown creeper"?
7. What are the natives of New Zealand called?
8. What great family fortune was founded by a book-keeper?
9. Name a symphony in which all the musicians except two leave the platform before its completion.
10. Who was the rookie of the year in the Big Four football league last year?

This is Quiz No. 4. Each question is worth one point, making 10 points each week for a total aggregate of 100 points. A radio is offered as first prize, plus nine other prizes. The contest is open to any reader of The Examiner.

Police sign warns:

The one for the road may prove to be fatal

A sign on the notice board at the Westmount police station plainly states: "The one you have for the road may be fatal."

The notice lists the number of alcoholic drinks of various types which may safely be taken before a driver is officially classed as 'over the hill.'

For example, six shots of straight liquor; six beers; six highballs; four martinis; four glasses of boosted wine; eight glasses of table wine. Of course that means "or" between each type — not "and." The sign warns: If you've had two drinks, wait for one hour before driving; four drinks, two hours; five drinks, three hours; six drinks, four hours. It's after this that the one for the road may be fatal.

Police picking up a driver who has been drinking, finding the alcoholic content in his blood between .05 and .15 percent, will make him walk a chalk line. If he can't do it, then he can be pretty sure of conviction.

"If you drive, never exceed the maximum number, and stop with the drink that makes you tipsy," the sign warns.

The poster goes on to say that a big man can drink more liquor than a small man because he has more blood to absorb the alcohol.

Sounds logical, anyway!

Food slows the absorption of alcohol into the blood. A drink before dinner will probably affect one more than a drink after eating. Also, straight liquor is not absorbed as fast as diluted drinks.

"Diluted drinks," the sign says, "hit you quicker and harder."

Practice landings

West Enders this week have been treated to frequent and exciting aerial glimpses of Trans-Canada Air Lines' giant, new DC-8—the jet aircraft which soon will be in trans-continental and Atlantic service. The activity: aircrews being familiarized, flying in and out of Montreal Airport, Dorval.

1960 queen likes Canada, but unsure about staying

"What a surprise! I must have a lot of friends."

This was all the comment 18-year-old Vivienne Lee of Hong Kong could make when it was announced she had been elected queen of the McGill Winter Carnival at the Forum Ice Revue last Friday. Quiet by nature, she was on the verge of tears.

Moving to the centre of the dais on the ice, the queen's robe was placed on her shoulders while students cheered. She received the crown from university chancellor, R. E. Powell, and the sceptre from last year's queen, Diane Powell.

Elected by a campus poll last Wednesday, the result was kept a closely guarded secret.

"I must have a lot of friends," Vivienne said. "The campaign was tremendous. I enjoyed it all, even though it was a lot of hard work."

"This is something to write home about," she added.

She sent her parents a note last week telling them she had been nominated one of the princesses from among whom the queen would be picked.

They wrote back saying "they were happy I was running, but they didn't expect me to get elected any more than I did."

Vivienne was brought up in London and Hong Kong where she received her matriculation last year. She came to McGill to get her Bachelor of Arts degree.

Her plans for the future? Back to study!

The co-eds who lost out kept their title as princesses, acting as attendants to the queen. They were: Renny Pennacchiotti of Venezuela, locals Sandra Sherman, Janet Martin and Joan Van Boven.

Miss Lee says she likes Canada, but is unsure if she wants to live here forever.

Winter Carnival Week

The City of Westmount Recreation Department has scheduled a Winter Carnival Week commencing Monday, February 29 and ending Friday, March 4, at the Westmount artificial rink.

Following is a schedule of the schools holding carnivals that week:

- Monday, Feb. 29 — Queen's School.
- Tuesday, March 1 — St. Leo's and St. Paul's.
- Wednesday, March 2 — Roslyn School.
- Thursday, March 3 — King's School.
- Friday, March 4 — City of Westmount.

The city carnival will hold races for boys and girls in each age group from six to 13. Entrants will be the winners of the same age group in their own school carnival and special entries from private schools. Prizes will be given for costumes. Balloons, favors and hot chocolate will be handed out.

A figure skating exhibition will be presented by the class under the direction of J. Szathmary, instructor for the Westmount figure skating program.

Fathers and mothers are asked to come along with skates. There will be some surprise events for them, officials announced.

Accompany your child to the Carnival—don't just send them.

Anti - Semitism

II

By
The Venerable
R. Kenneth Naylor, D.D.,
Rector, Trinity Memorial Church

WE HAVE SPOKEN of reasons why Christians should abhor Anti-Semitism, the facts that Our Lord was a Jew, and the Christian Church in its beginning was Jewish. That, however, does not end the tale of the bricks which Judaism has contributed to the building of the City of God. Each of the great civilizations of the past has made its contribution to our modern world, science, literature or law, but from Israel has come the inheritance that has shaped our spiritual lives.

From Israel has come our belief in One God. The Greeks seemed to come—in the persons of their philosophers—to a belief in one God, but their idea of God was of an impersonal, characterless God. They thought of the Supreme God as that which is, while the Hebrew prophet realized that God is He who is. The Jews believed in a God who acts and speaks, a God who is personal, and therefore can be approached by persons. It is a following up of the fact that God made man in His own image.

The second thing we owe to Israel is our belief in the dignity of man. It could not be otherwise, for Israel believed that God has made man — not simply the Israelites — in His own image. That is where the Psalmist comes in with his question: "Lord, what is man?" and his answer: "Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and worship." The honour is claimed for man as man. Perhaps that is the reason why slavery never became the social cancer in Israel that it was in Greece and Rome.

The third debt falls in a different class. It is our belief in one universe. The Greeks had a practical conception of the unity of all things, but their philosophy tended to dualism. But the only theory on which modern science can be built is a theory that the universe is a single whole governed by a single set of laws.

Trucker out -- cars crashed

The sudden lapse into unconsciousness of a truck driver Tuesday spelled injuries to motorists Harry Houston, 37, 4488 St. Catherine street west, and Joseph and Gloria MacDowell, Verdun, when the truck crashed into MacDowell's car which, in turn, was forced into Houston's auto.

Trucker Romeo Ouellette, 45, RR2, Lafontaine Village, told police he remembered going down some street, and then remembered nothing more until he woke up in hospital.

Reconstructing the accident, police reports state that witnesses say the truck came through the stop sign at Elm and Western, hitting MacDowell's auto, travelling east on Western.

The force of the impact caused MacDowell to go across the street and hit Houston's auto, travelling west on Western.

Ouellette was detained overnight in the Montreal General Hospital; Houston was X-rayed to check a sore neck, and Gloria MacDowell was treated for lacerations.

Julius Richardson Hospital WA re-elects Mrs. McC. Cooper

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Julius Richardson Convalescent Hospital was held on Tuesday, February 16, at the hospital. The president, Mrs. McCrae Cooper presided. Mrs. Cooper is her president's report stated that personal service to the patients continued to be their chief endeavour. In a small hospital the working members of the auxiliary have an opportunity of really knowing the patients and this creates a special interest for their well being.

Fund raising projects for the year were: a rummage sale, a coffee party, and a dessert bridge, and the sale of bridge scores continued throughout the year.

During the year the auxiliary purchased the following equipment for the hospital: 1 wheel chair; 1 travel cart; 1 steel cupboard; six steel tables; a percussion vibrator; a spinal applicator practice stairs for the Therapy department; a Hobart mixer and two dollies for moving heavy equipment in the kitchen.

The sewing group finished 326 articles for the hospital during the year and are now in the process of making new drapes for the women's floor.

The Service Wagon committee made over one hundred visits during the year and personal shopping for the patients continued to be the outstanding effort.

At Christmas attractive ditty bags holding fifteen gifts were distributed to the patients and greatly appreciated, but their greatest joy was the use of a piano which the auxiliary rented for the two week period.

The presidents of the three working units of the auxiliary, Mrs. R. A. Whiting of the Bertha Birch Unit, Mrs. R. Scroggie of the Cote Saint Luc Unit and Mrs. Alan Wynn of the Elizabeth Fry Unit reported on the activities of their groups. These units contributed over $435.00 to the auxiliary raised by a garden party, bridges, a drawing and sale of Christmas decorations.

The guest speaker at the meeting was Mrs. Andrew Fleming MBE whose subject was "Community Planning for Elderly Citizens."

With need of something great to make it whole,

Wilde story set for MRT

Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest will open at the Montreal Repertory Theatre on Tuesday, March 8. Leo Ciceri will be guest star in the role of John Worthing (Ernest) and Roberta Beatty is directing the production. The play will run from Tuesdays to Saturdays in the MRT Playhouse.

The Importance of Being Earnest was first produced in 1895 by George Alexander, who created the John Worthing role. Wilde himself took a great interest in this last and most successful of his four comedies, and interfered so consistently at rehearsals that Alexander was obliged to ask him to leave the theatre. Despite the play's immediate popularity, Wilde commented acidly to Alexander after the opening performance that "from time to time it bore some resemblance to a play he had once written which had the same title."

Sir John Gielgud first played the role of John Worthing in 1930 at the Lyric Theatre in London. In 1939, he produced the play himself and again played the leading role.

S T. LEO'S SPORTS

By PETER RASSENTI and RAY MAYNARD

The bantams came from behind three times before subduing a stubborn Westmount Junior High outfit 5-3 in their closing game of the regular schedule. Fred Fisher notched the winning counter on a fine effort at half way mark in the second period.

Connie Nucci and Tony Tyrrell with two goals each were the big guns for the winners, while Peter Johnson was a standout on defense. The Academy show an impressive seven wins with two losses in a nine game schedule.

The seniors will battle with Chambly High at Verdun Auditorium this afternoon, with fourth place in the standing at stake.

With the season fast drawing to a close, the race for St. Leo's most improved hockey player award is beginning to take shape. For the seniors are John Rinfret, Bob Fournier and Pierre Leduc, while the Bantams have some fine candidates in Tony Tyrrell, Peter McCormick and Claude Servant.

John Bonneau, on the receiving end of some favorable comment for his fine comeback in the senior goals after a very shaky start early in the schedule.

Efforts to line up a Duds hockey team to play against a girls' team from St. Paul's Academy is meeting with some difficulties as the candidates for this team are reluctant to take a chance on the girls showing them up in skating. To qualify for this team, a boy must be a beginner on the blades. The game would be played as a part of the programme in the forthcoming St. Leo's and St. Paul's Carnival, Tuesday, March 1.

A special plea is made to parents, to dig out their skates or borrow a pair, so they can join in the fun at the Carnival. There will be free skating periods.

MORE AND MORE OPENERS OPEN O'Keefe ALE

You'll see this new trend in homes, bars, clubs and taverns. Every day more and more people are discovering O'Keefe Ale. Next time you're opening a bottle of beer, make it O'Keefe — you'll enjoy its natural mild flavour.

THE O'KEEFE MILDNESS SECRET

Ever bitten into a grape seed? It's bitter, unpleasant. Grape growers found by experiment that they could develop seedless grapes with nothing to spoil the delicate flavour. It's the same with hops.

Ordinary hops contain seeds which give an unpleasant bitterness to ale. However, O'Keefe master brewers insist on costlier "Seedless Hops", result—there's no unpleasant bitterness, just the right, natural mild flavour.

Drink O'Keefe The Mild Ale! 40.

Fusiliers down the Guards 9-5

Gaston Proulx fanned 12 Guardsmen as Fusiliers de Montreal trounced the Grenadiers 9-5 in a Military Fastball League game played at the winners' armory.

In yielding only six hits while his mates were hammering Dick Seward for nine, Proulx racked up his sixth win of the season. Offensively he had big help from his battery mate, Andre Vaillant who made five hits in six bows at the plate.

Leon Deslauriers, back to play second base for Fusiliers after a two year absence, went four for four at bat.
