Homage To His Excellency Bishop Joseph Alfred Langlois

Members of the Valleyfield diocese heard with sadness of the passing of their spiritual father on Thursday, September 22nd. After a long illness, Mr. Langlois has reached the end of his road on earth, but his memory will last. Bishop Langlois has been the head of the diocese for almost forty years. During this time he accomplished many works which have been to the great advantage of those under his direction.

His Excellency Bishop J. A. Langlois

Let us see what Bishop Caza has to say about him. (Note: We will try to make a resume of what he has written.)

"Bishop Langlois has accomplished his mission as Pastor of the diocese with an edifying piety, a regularity in living, a fidelity to the solitude of his working office which I would qualify as heroic."

Father of the diocesan family, he was through his prayers, his apostolic activities, by his kindness.

Many members of his flock would have liked to see him more often; some even believed that he was far from them. But on the contrary, he was always very near. He used to pray for long periods in his chapel; he prayed for their spiritual and material welfare. Through his prayers he reached all the members of the great family.

He was also a Father through his apostolic activities. His duties were to transmit to his flock the message of Christ. In other words, he must teach them through his collaboration the truth of the Christian faith which the Son of God made man, taught to humanity. During his long career, he accomplished through his verbal and written teachings this most important part of his duties. He addressed himself to all: family groups, institutions, priests, religious orders, secular order, social clubs, educational and social groups. His family numbered one hundred and eighteen thousand members. During his term, nineteen new parishes have been founded. In the city of Valleyfield, of two parishes at the time of his arrival, the number has reached eight; the Chateauguy region which only had one now has six for a population of approximately thirty thousand. When we think of the many schools and institutions which in peace.

He will be remembered as one of the most eloquent orators of our time. Whenever he addressed an assembly, his words were an inspiration to all; he knew how to keep his audience tied to his lips. His soft voice, his excellent memory, his mastery of the French language combined with God's grace enabled him to say the right words at the right time.

Bishop Langlois was what we call a "good man". He was kind through and through. He put into practice the advice given by Peter two thousand years ago: "The Bishop must guide his herd not with condescension, but in a gentle manner; not as a dominator, but by being a model for all the members of his flock and that with all his heart."

To conclude I want to remind all members of the diocese that it is our filial duty to pray for the departed. You will surely fulfill this duty towards their Father who has been admired and loved for so many years. I hope his memory will be cherished for as long a time. On Monday, in the Cathedral, the funeral service was held. The church was filled to capacity; the faithful wanted to pay their Bishop a last homage. Cardinal Paul-Emile Léger officiated assisted by three bishops. Church, civil authorities were represented. May he rest in peace.

Faulty wiring is believed to be the cause of the fire. At present Mr. Trepanier is using the empty stable of his neighbour, Mr. Caza, in which to milk his cows.

Barn Lost By Fire At St. Anicet

About 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, fire broke out in the barn of Paul Trepanier of St. Anicet. The father was away to work but the two older boys who work on the night-shift in the mill at Huntingdon, were at home. They tried to put out the fire with loses but it spread too quickly.

Fire equipment from Fort Covington, N.Y. was called but by the time it could reach the farm it was too late to save the barn, stable and milk house. Paul had just finished filling a snow-fence silo with corn on Saturday. All the winter's hay was stored in the barn. A tractor as well as other farm equipment was also lost.

Police, Barrington and Rennie are doing a good job for our town. It is always the police who get the verbal raps and name calling, but when the real story is investigated, it always appears to be the same persons who cause most of the trouble in town. Our town police have been called to stop child beatings, wife beatings, minor street brawls, traffic infractions, and recently they searched for two young boys who had run away. We need them, and you young fellows can be gentlemen or goons... take your choice, you will be treated accordingly.

Speaker At Rotary Meeting Talks On Freedom From Hunger Campaign

The Huntingdon Rotary Club held a lively meeting at its regular luncheon gathering on Monday at the Chateauguy Hotel, Huntingdon. There was a fairly good attendance of members.

Rotarian Anderson brought to the attention of the members the Road directional signs in areas with signs in our area and called for a resolution to be sent to the Quebec Roads Dept. asking for something to be done. The complaint was made that many visitors do not know the location of the signposts. Anderson pointed out that the signs are placed by the name of the nearest or largest town in the U.S. to the Canadian Border — such as Malone, Chateaugay, Champlain, etc. Many of the members present were willing to endorse the suggestion. Consequently a resolution will be forwarded to the Quebec Dept. of Roads asking for more directional signs, including mileage and names of U.S. towns near the border and the elimination of Frontiere E.U.

Mr. James O. Wells, manager of Hoffmanns LaRoche Ltd., Food and Pharmaceutical Industry, was the guest speaker at the meeting. He spoke of introduced by Rotarian Erling Martin and thanked by Rotarian Brockman. Mr. Wells' talk was on the problem of feeding the hungry of the world and what the Canadian Mysore Project was doing. An abstract of his talk follows.

Freedom from hunger and the Mysore project. One half to one third of our 3 billion world citizens face permanent hunger. Launched by the Food and Agriculture Organization and running from 1960 to 1965, the Freedom From Hunger Campaign seeks to generate action that will make food production adequate to the needs of all men. World-wide population growth-patterns forecast feed-

The aims of the Freedom from Hunger Campaign were best summarized by Dr. B. R. Sen, Director-General of FAO, who opened the FFH Campaign in Rome by stating that "One man's hunger and want is every man's hunger and want. One man's freedom from hunger and want is neither a luxury nor a secure freedom until ALL men are free from hunger and want."

12 Year Old Boy Drowned Near Wharf at Somerville Park

A tragic accident occurred at the wharf at Somerville Park sometime on Saturday afternoon, when Richard Rouleau was drowned. Richard, 12 years old, was staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rouleau, of Montreal, at their summer camp at Somerville Park. About 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, he decided to go off somewhere on his bicycle. At about six o'clock, his mother called him for supper, but he did not answer the call. She became alarmed and some of the people nearby organized a search party of which Mr. Georges Parent of the Customs Office in Huntingdon was a member.

Mr. Parent informed The Gleaner that the party searched along the roads and in the ditches between Cazaville and Dundee and St. Anicet and all around the area. It was thought the boy had gone for a ride on his bicycle and might possibly have been hit by a car. No trace of the boy was found.

At 1 a.m. on Sunday the search was still going on and the bicycle was pulled out of the water near the wharf by Mr. Parent, who also later found the boy's jacket a few feet away. No trace of the body was found and the search was called off. The search continued later in the morning and at 9:30 the body was recovered from the water near a ladder at the wharf and about 10 to 15 feet from where the bicycle was discovered. Mr. Hector Deschamps recovered the body which was later taken to Huntingdon by Montpetit ambulance.

It is said that the boy was able to swim and it is thought that he may have tried to get back to the wharf ladder. Saturday was a very windy day and it is believed that the boy may have been blown over the wharf in a gust of wind. The water at this point is about 8 to 10 feet in depth.

Rev. A. E. Loree Tells Ormstown Lions Of Newfoundland Visit

At the regular meeting of the Ormstown Lions Club, Rev. Mr. Loree told of his recent holiday visit to Newfoundland when he replaced the incumbent minister at Port Blandford for the month of August during which he (Mr. Loree), had opportunity to see and observe a part of the province which he had not heretofore had opportunity to visit.

Travelling somewhat leisurely, after leaving Ormstown at noon on July 24th, the Loree family spent that first night at Rivière du Loup, and the second night at Amherst, N.S., while after visiting friends in New Glasgow they found themselves having a breakfast in North Sydney before embarking on the S.S. Leif Ericson which, some eight hours later, deposited them at Port aux Basques from whence the trip was continued by motor on the Trans-Canada highway, arriving at Corner Brook, Newfoundland's second city, at 8:30 p.m.

They found Corner Brook a progressive and prosperous community, the site of the world's largest pulp and paper mill, but were unable to linger long because of the necessity of arriving at Port Blandford where Mr. Loree was to meet the other holiday-bound minister before his departure.

Although Port Blandford itself is a village much smaller in population than Ormstown, the Lorees found themselves in a very modern headquarters while in Newfoundland. Unfortunately, however, they had not been warned that this was not an area in which fresh water was to be found abundantly regardless of the depth of wells, with the result that, with the lavish use of water to which they were accustomed in Ormstown, they soon found themselves out of that precious commodity for a while, and learned to be more economical in its use when the flow was restored.

Mr. Loree told of visiting St. John's and standing on historic Signal Hill overlooking the city from which so many "firsts" had been heralded over the years. This was obviously one of the highlights of the trip, apart, of course, from having the pleasure of enjoying Fish and Freewis, the Newfoundland breakfast long hailed in song and story, and which he described to the Lion members.

Mr. Loree gave it as his impression that Newfoundland was still way behind the rest of Canada in many ways, except for the scenery which he and his family had more time to enjoy on their way back to the mainland of Canada and which, he said, had a beauty all its own. Touching on its political life in conclusion, he intimated that evidences of the regard in which the party in power, both provincial and federal, was held showed themselves almost everywhere. Mr. Loree was introduced to the club by Lion Barry McGerrigle and thanked by President Bill Lawrence.

Brawl At Ormstown Hotel

It was about a week ago that a young Ormstown lad was barred from one of Ormstown's hotels for disturbing the peace. The following week he became unusually brave and entered the same establishment with four of his brawny friends. He ordered a drink and was told that because of his previous performance and behaviour he would not be served, whereupon he and his friends proceeded to tear the place apart. Several occupants of the room were abused and had to make a hurried exit as chairs were thrown at the bar, breaking a mirror, several bottles and glasses. The damage was estimated at between $500 and $600.

Existing laws do not allow the town police to enter business premises to quell trouble, and it was some time before provincial police arrived on the scene, allowing the culprits ample time to leave. These brave young men are well known to Ormstown residents, some holding positions, which entail serving the public.

Ormstown has a group of zoons, several of whom spend their time harrowing the local police. Last Saturday night a young lad was reprimanded by the town officer for reckless driving and he and his brother decided to teach the "cops" a lesson. While one officer was making out the ticket one of the culprits took a swing at the second officer, opening a gash in his chin. It was only a matter of seconds before both, would be

An art gallery of wild animals, birds and fish portrayed by Alex Colville, a Canadian artist of international reputation, has been chosen for the new designs that will appear on the special Centennial coinage to commemorate the hundredth anniversary of Confederation.

The Honourable Mitchell Sharp, Minister of Finance, announced today that designs submitted by the Sackville, N.B., artist for the reverse sides of all six denominations of coins were selected by an 11-member board of judges in a competition that was opened in 1964.

Mr. Colville has pictured a Canada Goose in flight for the silver dollar, a wolf in mid-howl for the 50 cent coin, a prowling wildcat for the 25 cent coin, a sleek mackerel for the 10 cent coin, a speeding rabbit for the five cent coin, and a dove for the one cent coin.

He said that in choosing his images, "I decided that only the world of nature would provide themes with sufficient depth of meaning."

"It is a question of finding images which are worthy and appropriate for use in celebrating our country's Centennial, images which will express not merely some particular time, place or event but a whole century of Canada, and even more."

The Centennial coins to be issued at the start of 1967 represent the first full-scale redesigning of the reverse of Canadian coinage in 30 years — since 1937. In that period, special commemorative designs have appeared for brief periods on only the five cent coin and silver dollar.

The Minister of Finance said the Government will consider next year whether the new designs will be adopted for regular issue following the Centennial year. The Centennial coins will carry the words "Canada 1867-1967".

"The response of the public should, of course be considered in making that decision, and we will be most interested in hearing from Canadians as to how they like these new designs", Mr. Sharp said.

The Minister said that a country's coinage is one of the ways in which it can give expression to its culture. "The power and beauty of these designs reflects the character and spirit of our people," he added.

The Colville designs were selected from among many attractive designs submitted by Canadian artists. Four other entries received honourable mention: submissions by Roland D. Guilbault of Jonquiere, Que.; Eric Aldwinckle of Toronto; Arthur Price of Cyrville, Ont.; and the late Elizabeth Wyn Wood of Willowdale, Ont. The board of judges included prominent Canadian artists and designers and senior public servants.

Mr. Colville, 45, was born in Toronto but grew up in Amherst, N.S. He was a Canadian army war artist between 1944-46, and taught at Mount Allison University in Sackville from 1946-1963. He has had three one-man shows of his work in New York and two similar shows in Toronto. He was one of three artists chosen to represent Canada in this year's Venice Biennial, and his paintings are in the collections of six Canadian galleries and of the New York Museum of Modern Art.

His style has been described as "magic realism".

A recent Toronto show of his paintings was described by art critic Robert Fulford as "powerful, highly charged pictures of common objects and ordinary people, of barns and boats and men and women and dogs, all of them painted with such intensity that they soar far beyond anything we can call realism."

Mr. Colville said that in choosing birds, animals and fish for his designs, "I wished to use creatures which were common, which had certain moving or symbolic associations, and which had not been made trite by repeated and, perhaps, unthinking usage."

The designer has commented on the attributes he sees in the six natural creatures he selected. Some excerpts: the Canada goose — "it is the one of our most majestic creatures and is also particularly Canadian"; the wolf — "symbolic of the vastness and loneliness of Canada"; the wildcat — "expressive of a certain intelligent independence and capacity for formidable action"; the mackerel — "one of the most beautiful and streamlined fish"; the rabbit —

"symbolically connected with ideas of fertility, new life and promise"; the dove — "having associations with spiritual values and also with peace."

Remarks by Alex Colville On His Centennial Coin Designs

"In considering what would be most suitable for Centennial coins, I decided that only the world of nature would provide themes with sufficient depth of meaning. It is a question of finding images which are worthy and appropriate for use in celebrating our country's Centennial, images which will express not merely some particular time, place or event, but a whole century of Canada, and even more; natural creatures provide this enduring and meaningful continuum."

"Admittedly there have been persons and human events in the century of our history which could be memorialized, but I believe that these are of more fleeting and doubtful significance. The elements of nature have been, and are, here, all around us; they are our context; I would even say that nature is a kind of golden metre against which human acts are measured. It is no accident that animals have appeared as powerful symbols in the life and art of man from the beginning of history. Thus I believe that nature provides us with that which is most worthy of being, so to speak, 'held up' and remembered."

"I therefore decided to use birds, animals, fish, as my images. I wished to use creatures which were common, which had certain moving or symbolic associations, and which had not been made trite by repeated and, perhaps, unthinking usage."

Notes on Individual Designs

One Dollar: "The Canada goose seems appropriate for the dollar since it is one of our most majestic creatures and is also particularly Canadian. There are other associations with travelling over great spaces, and a kind of serene dynamic quality in this bird."

Fifty Cent: "The wolf, unfortunately no longer common, is here symbolic of the vastness and loneliness of Canada, and thus of our tradition and, to a degree, of our present condition. Yet the wolf is not a pathetic creature."

Twenty-five Cent: "The wildcat (bobcat) seemed appropriate for this coin, which is large enough for the subtle shape of this common, though rarely seen, animal. It is expressive of a certain intelligent independence and capacity for formidable action."

Ten Cent: "Being the smallest coin, this requires a simple and unambiguous image. I used the mackerel, one of the most beautiful and streamlined fish, common on both coasts. The fish has ancient religious implications; I think of it as a symbol of continuity."

Five Cent: "The rabbit (variegated hare) is common, much loved by children, perhaps because of its vulnerability. It survives by alertness and speed, and is symbolically connected with ideas of fertility, new life and promise — it is thus a future, or united, animal."

One Cent: "For this I wished to use a very common bird, but one with symbolic overtones. I selected the dove (rock dove) — very common in cities as well as the country, as the pigeon, and having associations with spiritual values and also with peace."

From Design to Finished Coin, in Nine Steps

New designs for Canada's special issue of Centennial coins have come from the easel of New Brunswick artist Alex Colville. But to transform the designs into finished coins will require nine major steps in production, using skills ranging from sculptor to metallurgist.

At one point an electronic "three dimensional pantograph" will take over from human craftsmanship.

The complex nine-stage process developed by the Royal Canadian Mint has earned for it a high world reputation for the quality and appearance of its coins and medallions.

First step in the process is virtually complete — the sculpting of plaster replicas, eight inches in diameter, of the six new designs of animals, birds and fish to appear on the reverse side of Canadian coins in 1967.

From this original plaster a second plaster cast called an intaglio is made — a mould which is the reverse of the first plaster cameo. This mould is waxed and an impression in acrylic — a hard plastic similar to dental plates — is taken from it. The acrylic model, still eight inches across, is mounted on the pantograph. This is an automatic device which engraves the design on a steel master die and at the same time reduces it in scale to the size of the final coin.

Corrections and improvements are made by hand engravers on the master die before the steel is hardened and tempered. The design now is ready for transferring onto another piece of steel which is to be the matrice — the "negative" or reverse of the master die.

A block of softer steel is coned and polished free of all blemishes. The master die and soft steel cone are brought together in a hydraulic press with the point of the matrice placed in the dead centre of the die and the impression transferred into the soft steel at pressures of up to 100 tons.

The Mint then produces from this matrice its "working punch". It is these punches which are used in making the working dies that are employed in the Mint's coin presses to manufacture the actual coins. In presses capable of producing up to 225 coins a minute, the working dies have a relatively short life and must be replaced periodically.

Farm equipment was also sold. The Holstein Herd of Mrs. Alouine Leduc, Ormstown was sold by auction on Saturday last. No Registered animals in his Herd, but good quality Dairy cows made a fine average of $349.00. Highest priced animal being $405.00 for a grade cow. Very good quality farm equipment was also sold at this sale. All being dispersed in 2 1/2 hours. Both sales were under the management of Auctioneer Lyell Graham of Athelstan.

Fair Committee reported on finances from the Fair and thanked everyone for their cooperation and assistance. Service and Hospitality reported proceeds from sale of refreshments at Clarence Stark's Sale, also further donations to our recent food sale.

The first item of new business was the election of officers for 1966-67, with Charlotte Paul, Grace Lallemand and Robina Goodfellow as scrutineers. The result of the ballots cast was as follows: —

Master, Rosemary Cosgrove; Overseer, Clarence Stark; Lecturer, Cecil O'Connor; Steward, Leo Curran; Ass't. Steward, Peter Tully; Chaplain, Margaret Wilson; Treasurer, Ruth Stark; Secretary, Ruth Kerby; Gate Keeper, Wayne Wilson; Ceres, Margaret Hunter; Pomona, Bessie Carr; Flora, Evelyn Donnelly; Lady Ass't., Anita Smith; one member on Executive Committee, Rupert Hawley.

Plans for the 25th anniversary of Maple Leaf Grange are underway and news of it will be given shortly. A committee with David Rankin, chairman, is in charge.

It was noted that Frederick McNaughton won the Grange Trophy for showmanship at the Fair and he also won it in 1964. Congratulations, Freddie. A meeting to confer the 6th Degree will be held at Madrid, N.Y. in October.

At the next meeting a Harvest Gathering for the Huntingdon County Hospital will be held. Members are asked to bring donations of vegetables, jams, jellies and canned goods.

WEDDING AT MONTREAL

The marriage was solemnized on Saturday morning, September 24th, at Notre Dame de la Salette Church, at 11 o'clock of Monique Mailloux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Mailloux and niece of Mrs. Rella Corbett of Huntingdon, to Mr. Gilles Morin, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Morin of Montreal. Rev. Father Legeur officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of peau de soie and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Among the many guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Omer Mailloux, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bisson, Mr. Maurice Bisson, all of Sherbrooke; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Corbett, Cowansville; Mrs. Rella Corbett, Mr. Philip Corbett, Mr. Ronnie Corbett, Miss Alberta Corbett of Huntingdon; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Feeny of Tetreaultville; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mailloux, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Mailloux, Mr. Morris Mailloux, Miss Irene Mailloux and Mr. and Mrs. Omer Viger all of Sherbrooke.

Dundee

Zion Church U.C.W. DUNDEE — The September meeting of the U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Fleming. Mrs. Clarence Platt led the worship service using a commentary on the Apostles Creed. A portion of the creed will be used and commented upon during the next few months. "I believe" were the words dwelt upon for this meeting. Hymn 635 which is the nineteenth Psalm was repeated in unison. A minute's silence was observed in memory of the late Ella McNicol. For roll call pictures of Brazil were passed around. It was decided that, as funds were too low, we could not send the 2 pairs of new boys trousers which had been requested by headquarters in Montreal. The church is to be decorated for Thanksgiving with fruit, vegetables, canned goods, these to be at the church the Friday evening before Thanksgiving. Later the donations will be taken to the Huntingdon County Hospital. Each family in the congregation is asked to contribute something. At the October meeting Mrs. McOutat, the Regional Vice-President will be present. She hopes to have a discussion as to problems, aims, etc., so members are asked to have questions ready. Montreal West United Church is having a Bake Sale Nov. 18th. Mrs. Carpenter has made arrangements for Dundee to have a table there with baked goods which she will help to deliver and sell. More plans will be discussed next month. Mrs. A. Fraser then read excerpts about Brazil from "This is Brazil" a U.C.W. study book. The meeting was followed by delicious refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. Fleming and Miss Thelma MacMillan.

Longer, racier hoods. Sporty rear decks. Fastback flair. The dashing Toronado inspired the Oldsmobile look for 1967. And Oldsmobile going is now smoother than ever. New ride improvements and engine refinements see to that. Front wheel disc brakes are available. You can personalize by choosing from the huge selection of extras and luxury options. Add your imagination and you can have that one car in a million.

'67 Olds

A lot of new ways to express yourself

Oldsmobile thinks of your safety, too, with the GM-developed, energy absorbing steering column that can compress on severe impact up to 15 inches, with 4-way hazard warning flasher system, rearview mirror, dual master cylinder brake system, plus many other safety features... all standard for '67.

This and That in Town

✓ Rail strikes, postal strikes, dock workers' strikes... all may seem distant and unimportant at the time, but everyone feels the reaction in due time. Is there anything that hasn't increased in cost within the past twelve months? Food, yes. Clothing, yes. Commodities, yes. We ask you, where will it end? We at The Gleaner were stunned on Friday when paper salesmen announced we would be paying approximately TEN percent AGAIN for paper. Frankly, we don't know anything that has increased in cost as often as paper.

✓ Now that we've said we're sorry for ourselves, let us say how pleased we are (and everyone else, too) for Mrs. Edward McLean of 62 York St., Huntingdon, who was awarded twenty-seven hundred and some odd dollars on Saturday for correctly naming a mystery tune, "Play That Barber Shop Chord". And, Mrs. Eddie McLean, didn't you recently win a hundred dollars at bingo? The latter may be luck, but we think the big prize required talent, too. Congratulations and we hope you do it again!

✓ Talking about Barber Shop Chords, the presentation at the Huntingdon Theatre Saturday evening was excellent for anyone who enjoys this type of singing. The 400-odd people in the theatre certainly did, judging by the rounds of applause, but there were plenty of vacant seats which was a disappointment for the organizers. The Legion Building Fund may be somewhat improved financially, but we sincerely doubt if by more than a few $5, which is unfortunate.

✓ Consider this: a dollar may not do as much for us as it once did, but then again we don't do as much for the dollar.

✓ The wind and the rain and the cold over the week-end caused disappointment to duck hunters. Fishermen, too. St. Anicet Outfitters tell us Dore are still going for minnows or worms, but who wanted to buck those white-caps on Saturday and Sunday. We're told some pretty big Muskies are being landed these days (ask Leslie Keddy) and bass and perch seem plentiful.

✓ Valleyfield Chapter of Toastmasters International convened at the Salaberry Hotel in that city on Monday evening. (See elsewhere).

✓ Gasoline price hike of two cents per gallon? Oil up five cents per qt.? Could very well be and perhaps before the week is out.

✓ Read about the 12-year-old Montreal boy who drowned at Somerville Beach Saturday afternoon.

✓ Nonagenarians of the area are in the news this week. Read about the lady and gentleman who attended Howick United Church turkey supper Saturday eve and the birthday party for Mr. James Mannagh at Havelock.

✓ Did you know Mrs. Rosemary Cosgrove has been named Master of Maple Leaf Grange?

✓ Robert D. Barrington of Detroit, Mich. visited The Gleaner late Friday afternoon to renew his Gleaner subscription. "Wouldn't be without it for world," he told us. Mr. Barrington says it's 612 miles from his door in Detroit to the home of his cousin, Mr. Ivan Barrington, Ormstown, with whom his father, Herb Barrington, is living. "Bob" makes the trip twice a year, at Ormstown Ex. time and usually in the early autumn. Born at Hemmingford, he faithfully reads the news from that town. Due to retire in another year, or so, he says he'd like to move back to this area but he doubts if his wife would want to be quite so far from the couple's married daughter, also in Detroit.

✓ Did you watch the TV programme late Sun. afternoon featuring the canoe pageant from Montreal to New York? Eric Brown and his Lorraine B weren't in the spotlight because most of the pictures were taken from the deck of the Lorraine B, but it really must have been an enjoyable trip.

✓ Now, does anyone have a recent serial photograph of Huntingdon? A very good friend is anxious to have such a picture and we're hoping to help him out.

✓ According to local growers, it's time again to buy MacIntosh apples. And only twelve more days until Thanksgiving (and that means wash double windows and get them on). Then Hallowe'en and then, would you believe it, Dec. 25th. What happened to the good old summer time?

✓ The diocese of Salaberry-de-Valleyfield is bereft of a very fine old gentleman who was a guiding light in civic as well as religious endeavours in that city for more than forty years, Monseigneur J. A. Langlois. The 90-year-old Bishop of Valleyfield passed away on Thursday of the past week and funeral services were held on Monday afternoon. (Please read elsewhere).

✓ Shipping lanes in the Seaway appeared unusually crowded early in the week, reason being that a 730-ft. laker, "John E. F. Misener", rammed the lift bridge at St. Louis de Gonzague over the week-end. When the all-clear was given Monday, eleven ships were behind the laker and passed through Lake St. Francis late in the day and during the night. Faulty steering is believed to have caused the accident.

✓ Fire destroyed a large barn this week owned by Mr. Paul-Emile Trepanier, Rang St-Charles, near St. Anicet. (See elsewhere).

✓ The Ladies' Auxiliary of The Huntingdon County Hospital are pleased to announce they will sponsor a concert by a party of well-known Montreal artists, all of whom are members of the Montreal West Operatic Society. The programme will consist of excerpts from favourite Gilbert and Sullivan operettas and other musical selections. This event will be held at the Huntingdon Theatre at 8:30 p.m. Friday, October 7. The members of the County Hospital Auxiliary are hopeful that music lovers in Huntingdon, Ormstown, Valleyfield, Hemmingford and so on will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the well-known group. (This is NOT grand opera, it's LIGHT Musical Comedy and should appeal to all). The visiting artists, incidentally, are donating their time and talent free of charge, so all money taken in will be directly in aid of our Hospital. Your encouragement is earnestly solicited.

Sex Education Starts At Ten

By Louise Chase Women's Medical News Service

Many boys and girls 10 years old and older are unaware of the male's role in procreation and get most of their sex information from the locker room and gutter. To break this barrier of silence and ignorance, courses on sex and family life education are now included in the curriculum in 69 public schools in Plint, Mich., and the surrounding county, George Chamis, Ph.D., coordinator of the family-life education program, told Women's Medical News Service at a recent conference.

The course is introduced at the fifth-grade level, he said, to pre-adolescents who are about to enter the rapid and confusing period of sexual development. Specially trained family-life instructors meet with boys and girls separately to give them factual information on the male and female reproductive systems and how conception takes place. Each learns not only about his own body but about the opposite sex's as well.

Two or three times during the school year the boys and girls are taught jointly. "Having by this time acquired a factual and acceptable vocabulary, the youngsters are by and large relaxed and unembarrassed at these co-ed meetings," according to Dr. Chamis.

Before the course begins, parents attend an orientation meeting where the objectives and content are spelled out in great detail. Parents are shown the visual aids and other materials their children will be seeing and working with. "The program has thus far met with an enthusiastic response, despite the diversity of religious, social, and economic backgrounds," Dr. Chamis noted.

Adolescent Sexuality
Although reproductive biology continues to be part of the course for eighth graders, these adolescent youngsters are also given information on matters of immediate concern to them. Masturbation, the sex drive, venereal disease are all discussed frankly with the teachers taking their cues from the young people's questions and comments as to where the course emphasis is to be placed. On the tenth-grade level, the discussion centers around dating, the responsibilities of boy-girl relationships, the differences between male and female.

What's Happening At Notre Dame
By Danny Sanders
My name is Danny Sanders, spice being added to the No. and I am in grade eleven, "I tre-Dame "Menu".
I wrote many "Notre-Dame High News" articles last year and will continue to do so this year. PLEASE NOTE OUR NEW TITLE, look for it from time to time in the Gleaner if you are interested in finding out just what is "happening at Notre-Dame".
ADMINISTRATION
Our High School is now under the expert leadership of Mr. Francis Pinto. If you already know Mr. Pinto you will agree with me, when I say, that he is a fine man dedicated entirely to youth. His policy is new and exciting. He emphasizes sports, thus realizing the importance of producing a fine body as well as a fine mind. Mr. Pinto has organized an internal body of students, who are being given a taste of responsibility. A new

Many Guests Attend Toastmasters Meeting At Valleyfield

Toastmasters International, an organization formed to help individuals to improve themselves through interesting and instructive experience in communications and human relations, was founded by Ralph C. Smedley in Santa Ana, California, in 1924. More than half a million men, 21 years of age or over, have joined more than 3,000 Toastmaster clubs since that time. Valleyfield Chapter of Toastmasters International was founded in 1952 and on Monday evening a full roster of members and some twenty invited guests, more than half of whom are Huntingdonians, attended a dinner meeting of the club at Hotel Salaberry when Mr. Francois E. Cleyn was guest speaker.

President Philip Tinker opened the meeting at 7:15 by introducing the members at the head table, Messrs. Eric Bouffard, Ken Scott, Paul Thomas and Martin Lindner. Mr. Tinker said that on October 24th the Valleyfield club will be celebrating its 14th birthday and the parent body will be observing its 42nd anniversary. While comparatively young, the Valleyfield Club has been active and four members have completed all courses offered by Toastmasters International. In total membership in 33 countries apart from Canada and the U.S.A. only 800 members have achieved this distinction. Toastmasters Clubs are grouped in areas and the Valleyfield Club is part of District 61, comprised of the Maritime provinces, all of Quebec and west as far as Kingston, Ontario. A charter member of the Valleyfield Club, Mr. Jim Childs, is now Governor of District 61.

Normally a meeting lasts about two hours. After a brief business meeting which affords opportunity to practice parliamentary procedure, a table-top program is presented. Four speakers including a guest, Mr. Keith Renwick, participated in this. Toastmaster Ken Scott then resumed control of the meeting, mentioning that fellow members hoped the guests would consider becoming members of Branch 1125. He then introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Francois E. Cleyn of Huntingdon, a member of the Canada Economic Council. Mr. Cleyn was allotted fifteen minutes for his talk, entitled "Toastmasters As An Aid to Management and Leadership." Mr. Cleyn said managers as a whole were a more specialized group today than they were ten years ago. Usually they specialize in a certain field of business, have degrees, or are trained to deal with problems that arise from within. All managers, however, have one common goal: they must lead. These men must understand problems that confront all levels of industry and they must be capable of interpreting these problems and explaining them to others. And it is in this area that Toastmasters International are in aid to those involved in management.

Mr. Cleyn stated that the Third Report of the Economic Council of Canada will be available shortly. He suggested the Valleyfield Toastmasters Club obtain a copy and then use it as a basis for discussion and debate at meetings.

Following a five-minute break, three Toastmasters delivered speeches and the guests were advised that the speakers were in varying degrees of classification. Roger Bedard, as his second basic assignment, spoke on "Expo To Be or Not To Be". Archie McGown, classified "Beyond Basic Assignment, chose "Word Without Music". Jim Childs, veteran member, chose as his subject "The Challenge of Leadership". All three speeches were well delivered and a pleasure to hear, but the critics were severe and by Toastmaster standards, Jim Childs' talk was the best.

For anyone willing to accept constructive criticism and who wishes to improve his ability to speak, Toastmasters is undoubtedly the organization to join. As members pointed out cost is negligible and benefits are great.

Sex Education.....

"Our objective is not to preach to the youngsters, not to try to hand them ready-made solutions to all the problems facing them," Dr. Chamis observed. "Rather we try to open a dialogue, to stimulate serious examination of moral and ethical considerations that will help these youngsters make responsible

HELP YOU DRIVE ABROAD

Canadians wishing to drive while traveling abroad will find an International Driving Permit a considerable convenience. The Financial Post points out. The IDP, as it is known, is available to all residents (18 years and over) of Canada holding a valid driving license issued by an authority in any of the provinces or territories of Canada. Fee for the IDP is $3. It is valid for one year. Canadians join the residents of 77 other countries that have signed the 1949 Convention on Road Traffic and enjoy the international benefits of IDP.

Everything comes in aerosol cans these days - hair spray, air freshener, laundry starch, insect repellent. Even paint is sprayed - one of the fastest methods of painting. But before starting, take care to cover everything that's not slated to be painted. Spray paints are ideal for small objects and inaccessible places such as radiators.

Two Nonagenarians Attend Turkey Supper At Howick

(By Mrs. Crawford) One of the happiest groups at the Turkey Supper at Howick United Church on Saturday evening was a party of 23 with their host W. G. McGerrigle, formerly of Ormstown and now, in his mid-nineties, living at the Griffith-McConnell Home, Montreal.

Among his guests were: Mrs. Margaret White (Margaret Yonnie), born at Tullochgorum 97 years ago and Miss Swan, both of the Griffith-McConnell; Mr. and Mrs. Ross McGerrigle of South Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Harold McGerrigle of Quebec City, and his son of Montreal; Mrs. Clarence McGerrigle of Ormstown; a niece Mrs. Margaret Graham of Ormstown, and a number of nieces and nephews from Montreal. They were greeted by other friends and relatives from this district, some of whom had not met for more than 40 years.

Twelfth graders, many of whom marry within a short time after graduation, may take a full semester's course, for credit, on marriage and family living. For those who do not take this course, regular discussions continue to be held on all aspects of human sexuality. "The only subject we are forbidden by state law to discuss is contraception," Dr. Chamis noted. When contraception is raised by the students they are referred to community agencies, physicians, and ministers for guidance.

LITURGIE — La longue série des "dimanches après la Pentecôte" va vers sa fin. Avec ce dix-huitième dimanche, nous entrons dans l'automne liturgique: temps de la récolte, de la récompense, de la réunion de tous les fils, autour du Père de famille. Depuis notre baptême, nous sommes en route vers le ciel, la Jérusalem définitive, où nous trouverons la paix et la joie. Chaque dimanche, l'Eucharistie nous apporte l'annonce et le gage du retour glorieux du Christ, qui viendra nous chercher au dernier jour, pour nous réunir à jamais dans la maison du Père.

LITURGY — In various ways, grace can be compared with electricity: it's difficult to explain what it is; it's easier to explain what it can do; it's easy to see how beneficial it is and how life is much more difficult without it. It gives light, warmth, energy. Electricity is one of God's great physical gifts to mankind. Its benefits are self-evident. And once a community becomes dependent on electrical power as part of its daily activity, all kinds of precautionary care are taken to protect the supply of electricity to the community. So it is with sanctifying grace. With it we partake of the life, the energy, the light of God's own life. By the illumination of faith, we see our way in life. St. Paul points this out: "I keep thanking my God always for you because of the favor which he gave you in Christ Jesus, in whom you have been enriched in every way."

Le diocèse de Valleyfield perd son évêque

Son Excellence Mgr Joseph Alfred Langlois, évêque de Valleyfield, est décédé jeudi dernier à l'âge de 90 ans, dans son Evêché de Valleyfield. Son entrée dans la vie éternelle marque le terme d'une vie terrestre donnée au service du peuple chrétien, spécialement dans l'Eglise de Valleyfield, dont il était l'évêque depuis 40 ans.

Mgr. J. A. Langlois

Troisième évêque de Valleyfield, Mgr Langlois était originaire de la région de Québec: en effet, il naquit à Ste-Claire-de-Dorchester, le 4 septembre 1876; après de brillantes études au Séminaire de Ste-Thérèse, puis à l'Université de Louvain (Belgique), il fut ordonné prêtre le 25 mai 1902 par la suite, il enseigna au Petit Séminaire de Québec dont il fut Supérieur; il fut également curé de la paroisse du Sacré-Coeur, à Québec; le 14 juillet 1924, il fut nommé évêque auxiliaire de Québec, et reçut la consécration épiscopale, le 23 septembre suivant, par S.Exc. Mgr Pietro di Maria, délégué du Siège apostolique au Canada; nommé évêque de Valleyfield, le 10 juillet 1928, il fut intronisé le 12 novembre de la même année, succédant à S.E. Mgr Rouleau, o.p., qui devint archevêque de Québec. Durant son épiscopat, il s'acquitta avec un profond humilité et une grande pureté de son ministère apostolique; il est également reconnu comme ayant été un des institutions diocésaines, notamment du Séminaire de Valleyfield, et de nombreuses paroisses urbaines. Mgr Langlois présida également à la reconstruction de la nouvelle cathédrale de Valleyfield, l'un des plus beaux monuments gothiques du pays, sur les ruines de la précédente, consumée par les flammes en 1933.

Comme le signalait Son Eminence le cardinal Léger, dans son Oraison Funèbre, Mgr Langlois accompli sa tâche, malgré de nombreuses épreuves physiques et morales; ainsi, depuis près de seize ans, la cécité avait presque complètement envahi ses yeux; de nombreuses maladies et des interventions chirurgicales affaiblirent sa robuste santé; ce qui l'amena peu à peu à remettre ses pouvoirs à son assistant, S.Exc. Mgr Percival Caza, qui devint coadjuteur avec droit de succession en 1955; enfin, le 31 janvier 1964, Mgr Langlois remetta l'entière administration du di-

Outre une assemblée de près de 3000 fidèles, de nombreuses personnalités présentes prirent part à cette célébration, notamment une quinzaine d'évêques, et des représentants des autorités civiles du diocèse et de la province, dont M. Le corps de Mgr Langlois a été inhumé dans la crypte de la Cathédrale, à l'issue des funérailles, dans un tombeau qu'il avait lui-même commandé depuis de nombreuses années.

C'est S.Exc. Mgr Percival Caza qui succéda à Mgr Langlois comme évêque de Valleyfield; Mgr Caza, âgé de 70 ans, est originaire de notre région, puisqu'il est né à St-Anicet; il fut consacré évêque auxiliaire de Valleyfield, le 19 octobre 1948. Mgr Caza est ainsi le quatrième évêque Car Prices To Advance?

INFLATIONARY tendencies are gradually advancing into every sphere of the economy and now an advance in 1967 car prices is announced.

The raise in the car prices has been announced in the U.S. which is said to bring as much as $359 on some 1967 models.

It is just another of those things which will up the index a few more points and up the cost of living.

A Centennial Project For Huntingdon

AT a recent Town Council meeting Mayor Cappiello announced that a meeting will be held in the Legion Hall to discuss what can be done to commemorate the Centennial of Confederation.

There have been several moves in this direction but none have materialised, so it is hoped that a good turnout will be in attendance at this forthcoming meeting.

Several ideas have been suggested. Dr. George Lefebvre has suggested the idea of fluoridation of water supplies in order to stop tooth decay among our growing children.

Whether such a meeting will handle such suggestions at this point, is not known. Perhaps thoughts will only be in a form of celebration for a special day, or a week, or something of that sort.

The point is that this meeting is to be held and in view of the importance of what is to be dealt with, then all organizations should make a point of being represented there and their representatives should be charged with authority to commit their organization to a part in any plan which may be decided.

When the railroad came through Dewittville a station was placed a mile north of the village. A big business was done for many years at this point, much freight was moved here also mail for the area was delivered here.

It is recorded that Todd had borrowed quite a sum of money from Jacob Dewitt, who may have lived in Montreal. He had charged high interest on the loan and Todd in time got into difficulties and was unable to pay Dewitt.

It is something to think about.

SMILEY TAKES HIS STAND

A chap called Richard J. Needham writes a daily newspaper column in Toronto. Quality and content range from high-class to hog-wash, but it is eminently readable.

Needham is not a true humorist, but has a sharp satiric sense, a wild imagination, and a clear view of the ridiculousness of many of our moral, social, political and economic fables.

Despite the clear view, he is an incorrigible romantic. A 1966 model Don Quixote who tilts at windmills with a type-writer, forces flowers on strange ladies, and thinks of life and love in capital letters.

For him, teachers are a bunch of dull clods, whose only desire is to stuff kids with useless information and promptly squelch any signs of initiative or creativity.

Well, I'm here to tell brother Needham it's time he got into the twentieth century. His ideas are pure poppycock.

He did a big business for many years, also he had a tavern together with a sort of hotel. This was a natural stopping place at the rapids, as all canoes had to portage here, and heavy Bateaux had to be towed by oxen, which Todd kept for this purpose.

It is recorded that Todd had borrowed quite a sum of money from Jacob Dewitt, who may have lived in Montreal. He had charged high interest on the loan and Todd in time got into difficulties and was unable to pay Dewitt.

firmly established long before Huntingdon or Ormstown. Only small mention is made of Dewittville in the Sellar history this is in part of what he says of Todd and Cameron establishing themselves at Dewittville. Mention has been made the presence of two mills and more people flocked to the village up to 1845.

"COUNTRY NOTEBOOK"

BY WALKER RILEY

Congratulations to Caroline or 12%. This is about the right protein level for fattening beef, and for the dairy herd can make a saving on the protein concentrate bill.

By the way, I hear that Ross Oswald, that pillar of 4H strength in the Lachute area, suffered a broken arm the other day when he fell off a load of hay. Fast recovery, Ross.

Limestone as an addition to corn silage keeps on popping into the news. And right now silos are being filled. I asked Peter Hamilton what the Department of Animal Science thought about the practice.

"For beef cattle," he said, adding ten pounds of finely ground limestone or calcium carbonate to each ton of corn silage as it goes into the silo, is worth trying. But for dairy cattle stay away from it, until we know more about it.

Apparently, the limestone changes the fermentation pattern in the silo. Twice as much lactic acid is formed, and proportionately less acetic acid. And it is lactic acid, the nutritionists tell us, that is the more easily converted to animal fat in the digestive system.

Urea is another material that is being blown into the silo along with corn. There is only one reason for using it. It is a cheap source of protein, compared with soybean oil-meal or even alfalfa hay.

Don't be naive, Mr. Needham. Both Justice Minister Cardin who introduced the case and Prime Minister Pearson have been vindicated in their actions.

Coming at a time when there is a bit of a furor on the leadership issue of the Conservative Party, this report could have a bad effect on Mr. Diefenbaker's retention of that leadership. Although it is reported that many of the Party stalwarts are rallying to Mr. Diefenbaker's cause.

ROUND BYRE and RING

By Frank Napier

Honour Where Honour... "Mr. Row said it had been a privilege to live in a small community with the Church in the centre, to raise his children on a family farm, which meant a lot of work but lots of interest, too; and to see his grand-children growing up in a similar environment."

On hearing what Mc Arthur was doing, Brown warned him that he was infringing on the seignior's rights and would be prosecuted. McArthur defied him to stop his mill, as it was driven by horses and not by steam water or wind as specified in the deed.

Before McArthur broke with the seignior, at Norvals request he built a threshing machine on his model farm. Its principle was that of beating the straw and shaking it over a sieve and was driven by a crown gear and two horses on a sweep beam with a pair of horses. It would thresh as much as many mills of a later age. The grain had to be sifted to clean it by hand.

Peter McArthur wanted to lease the power rights at Durham, but the agent refused, being neither willing to build a mill or let others do so. He came up the river to Dewittville, when he looked the situation over there, he found that by throwing a dam across at the island at the head of the rapids he could have a fall of 4 ft., without interfering with other mills which were below this. In 1830, he bought this lot from Dr. Munro of Montreal for 400 dollars and set to work clearing it as a heavy stand was on it.

The kits for these plastic "silos" are being sold in the States. Prices for a 200 ton unit were given as $330., and 60% of that for the second year to replace the huge 40 foot wide top and bottom plastic sheets.

This works out about one dollar a ton, not much more than the interest charges on a tower silo. But the costs of getting the feed from the silo to the cows must be compared, also.

The annual Angus sale of the Quebec Aberdeen Angus Association brought an average price of $495 for 41 head. The top of $1400. was for an open heifer consigned by Irwin Schenk, Petersburg, Ontario. This animal went back to Ontario, into the herd of Senator McCutcheon at Gormley, but most of the rest stayed in Quebec herds.

It would not seem that this case is any worse, or perhaps not as bad as some other things that have been reported upon since this case was first in being. It would be well to soft pedal too much propaganda on this report for it could cause a political upheaval all around.

It is thereby reported that a total of 252 persons have applied to the Canada Department of Agriculture for permits to import cattle from France this year. The number of cattle represented by the applications total more than 1700 head, but the present capacity of the Grosse Ile, Quebec, maximum security quarantine station is 110 head (end of quote).

Incidentally, cattle imported from France must meet stringent health requirements and go through a multitude of tests, all under the direct supervision of the Health of Animals Division of the Canada Department of Agriculture. Both in France and Canada.

Continues the report: It is expected that the Canadian period at the Grosse Ile station will begin in October (presumably October 1966, since the issue of Farming Today is dated August 1966, F.N.). This means that cattle from France will enter the French quarantine at Brest, France, sometime during the latter part of August or early September. Also, since the cattle must be tested 30 days before entering the Brest station, selections will have been made by the end of July.

The quarantine period on Grosse Ile is for a minimum of 90 days but because of the exhaustive testing required and ice conditions in the St. Lawrence River at that time of year, it is not expected that cattle will be released from the island until next April or May.

neighbour of Mr. Row, added "We honour him more for what he is than what he has done." The above is an extract from a Holstein-Friesian newsletter which also reads, in part: "The Oxford Holstein Association sponsored a 'Bob Row Night' September 20th, at Woodstock, Ont., to recognize and honour G.R. Row of Curries, a Master Holstein breeder and immediate Past-President of the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada" (to which we might add: A man who is well and favourably known to most progressive Holstein breeders across Canada, albeit, also to many adherents of other breeds of cattle. "Over 300 friends of Bob Row, many of whom had travelled a considerable distance, were on hand to pay tribute to him".

Charolais Cattle Again "Canadians Clamour for Charolais Cattle", is the title of an Ottawa report which was reproduced in the August issue of Farming Today, published by Massey-Ferguson Industries Ltd.

Extensive Tests Incidentally, cattle imported from France must meet stringent health requirements and go through a multitude of tests, all under the direct supervision of the Health of Animals Division of the Canada Department of Agriculture. Both in France and Canada.

Continues the report: It is expected that the Canadian period at the Grosse Ile station will begin in October (presumably October 1966, since the issue of Farming Today is dated August 1966, F.N.). Costly Purchase Importers are required to pay for the care and feeding of the livestock, both at the Brest quarantine station and on Grosse Ile, as well as charges for special tests required on these animals. In addition, importers will pay a $500-per-day-per head quarantine charge for a maximum of 90 days on Grosse Ile (end of quotes).

While we are not aware of the actual cost per head to the purchaser, we can presume that a considerable amount of money per head is involved.

First of all there is the purchase price of the animal and, since there would be the aforesaid subsequent charges we may presume that only top animals will be considered, the initial purchase price may be quite substantial. And the so-called evangelists to be (insofar as the raising of our beef cattle standards are concerned) must surely have in mind only top-breeding material. It may be the cost of the test that must be made before acceptance at the Brest quarantine station, but there will doubtless be expenses in connection with the selection of these animals and the negotiations with respect to price etc., also the freight from the farm to the Brest Station. Following the foregoing there will be the costs of the care and feed at Brest: the Trans Atlantic freight charges, plus feed and attendance costs; the Grosse Ile charges for feed and care and tests. Finally, the cost of transporting the animal or animals to the farm of the purchaser subsequent to the farm final tests.

We might therefore suggest that the Better Beef Production Evangelists might be better advised if they were to concentrate on good animals of livestock: that the amount apparently involved in the purchase of Charolais cattle would obtain for them outstanding animals of established Canadian breeds, either dairy or beef.

Report Given on Munsinger Case

AT last a report has been given on the inquiry into the Munsinger Case. It will be remembered this caused considerable apprehension some time ago when it came up in the Federal House and involved several ministers in the former Diefenbaker government. One newspaper report gives the following heading "Diefenbaker Indicted in Munsinger Report."

As far as we can gather from reading the report, the whole thing is an opinion that has been reached and there is no actual charge against Mr. Diefenbaker except that he mishandled the case when it was brought to his attention. Mrs. Gerda Munsinger says she does not even know Diefenbaker, she does admit knowing some of the other cabinet ministers named. There was no actual breach of security says the report. Mr. Diefenbaker should have dismissed one cabinet minister from that position, or the minister should have resigned, the report states.

Thus, despite nothing was found to involve Mr. Diefenbaker in the case itself, as the leader of the Government at the time, he is to bear the whole brunt of the report.

Introducing BUICK '67... the tuned car
Buick presents the '67 version of the tuned car. New styling, new power, new overall performance... logical steps in the evolution of a great engineering concept. "Tuned car" means more than pure mechanical performance. It means the whole car. Styling, performance, ride and handling. All in perfect harmony.
There's a Buick exactly in tune with you—Riviera, Electra 225, Wildcat, LeSabre, Skylark and Special Deluxe. Choose one at your Buick dealer's.

Here are a few of the many standard safety features incorporated in all '67 Buicks: dual master cylinder brake system with warning light; energy absorbing steering wheel; GM-developed energy absorbing steering column; passenger-guard door locks—all doors; four-way hazard warning flasher; soft low profile window control knobs.

Il accomplit une retouche de décoloration en seulement 10 minutes, une teinture ou une coloration en seulement 5 minutes. Et il ne s'arrête pas là! Il vous offre de meilleurs résultats que jamais. Incroyable? Venez le voir vous-même. Prenez une minute pour venir nous voir — et cette minute vous éparanera toutes les heures que vous consacrez chaque fois à une coloration.

Dear Friend:
We have such a remarkable new technique in our salon that we can't wait 'til your next appointment to tell you about it. It's Helene Curtis' new ColorMaster and just listen to this. It means a retouch bleach can be processed in as little as 10 minutes, or a tint or toner in as little as 5 minutes. And that's not all! The results are even lovelier than before. Hard to believe? Come in and see for yourself. Take one minute to call us—it will save you hours of hair-coloring time.

What Is Ormstown Doing

(By Bernice Cullen)

A ninety-year old lady from Ormstown made the press headlines last week when she boarded a BOAC Jet liner to visit the home of her childhood. Mrs. Emily Mann was photographed by a National Daily Newspaper and made radio news when she left Dorval airport for a trip to England.

Mr. Bill Bennett, a resident of Ormstown for the past decade, passed away last Wednesday at the Barrie Memorial Hospital. The sincere sympathy of the entire community is extended to his wife, Dorothy, his daughter Susan and his two sons, Bill and Kevin. Bill Bennett was in his early fifties.

The fall activities are beginning to take shape in our town. The Cubs and Scouts will be calling at each home on Oct. 15 with light bulbs. This will be your opportunity to stock up on bulbs while helping the hard working cubs and scouts. The Anglican Fellowship ladies are planning a Christmas sale on November 19. The Presbyterian Young People will pick up your summer's accumulation of papers on Oct. 8th and the Ladies of the Presbyterian Church are planning a turkey supper early in November.

Two weeks ago a letter appeared in this paper from a lady in Noranda who said she had been treated (in a financial manner) at one of our hotels and she also stated that she had no desire to return to our town. We are sorry, however, we do feel that if the treatment she received was as serious as her letter indicated, she would have done well to have named the hotel. We also feel that it is a little unfair to judge the entire population by the actions of an unscrupulous waiter. There are many places in Ormstown the lady could have taken her friends where she would not have been cheated or overcharged, like church... Ormstown Goes, she read that in a nation wide paper, or various clubs, Field Day Activities, Senior Citizen's Club, the Legion Hall... open several nights a week, or the Curling Club, the doors will be open soon, or she could have gone to visit our hospital, or if she had contacted some of our better sportsmen she could have gone sailing, fishing, swimming, or for sheer hellery, she could have been taken on a joy ride over our unmarked road construction sites. Lady, we know of one store in our town which refused to give a relative of the cubs exchange on his American money... he had bought over twenty dollars worth of groceries, we know now, why he was NOT to go, we and they do not condemn the town for a man's action. Come on back and try us again, every person (but one) is of the utmost integrity.

Miss Freda Ovans, teenage daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ovans is attending St. Helen's School in Dunham, Que. This school specializes in the art of social graces as well as scholastic subjects. Freda's many friends are looking forward to seeing her as a ravishing Lucille Ball type when she gets home on that first vacation.

The entire town is regretting the decision of Dr. John Davidson and Mrs. Davidson in leaving our town after two decades in Ormstown. The Legion members tendered them a farewell supper last Thursday evening, with presentations to each. We wish you well John and Dorothy in your new home in St. Sa. Who is dumping garbage along No. 4 in the Ormstown Dewittville area... in green plastic bags?

Do you buy or sew your clothes? Whichever you do, you're concerned with obtaining clothes that spell quality at a reasonable price. What marks the quality look?

1. Good fabric in
2. A fashionable and flattering color.
3. Notions — Are buttons, zipper and trim good looking and well applied? are they suited to the garment in design and color?
4. Finishing: Is the hem straight on you? Is it the proper length and unnoticeable?
5. Are there linings and interfacings where strain will occur and where body is required?

Sometimes a change of buttons will transform a garment's appearance. If your budget is limited, restrict your choice to a simple, well cut garment without trim. Prices include the high cost of labor and materials required to apply trim such as fancy braids. Sometimes, by removing fancy buttons and trim you will have a more classic looking dress than can be worn on more occasions.

O.H.S. MEMO

(By Gary Burton)

The doors of O.H.S. have opened once again. This year they open to a body of some 400 students and to a teaching staff of 17. Of the 17 teachers 5 are new, Mr. John Johnson B.A., B.Ed., Mr. David Shaw B.Sc., B. Ped., B. Ed., Mr. John Thompson, Mr. Norman Frame and Mr. James Coulter, B. of Journalism. To these gentlemen go our heartiest wishes for a happy and successful year.

As in other years O.H.S. has an extensive inter-house sports program. This year the inter-house program began officially with the House track meet held on Monday, September 19th, at the Exhibition Grounds. The track meet was a great success with every Elicee House won with Munro coming second, Salaberry third and Durham fourth.

There have also been various other sports activities underway. Mr. White has been busy coaching the Senior Girls even better.

Basketball team while Mr. Thompson has been coaching the Senior Boys Basketball and Soccer teams and the Junior Soccer team. The soccer teams played their first games against, as it turned out, a too formidable opponent Huntingdon High with following results:

Seniors: Huntingdon 5; Ormstown 3.

Juniors: Huntingdon 3; Ormstown 1.

The Student Council of Ormstown High is sponsoring a record hop. Date: Friday, September 30th. Place: School gym. Time: 8:00 - 12:00. Admission: 50c, stag 75c. Everyone is, of course, welcome.

Prehistoric Skeletons Found At Coteau Du Lac

Two skeletons, very probably of prehistoric origin, have been uncovered by archaeologists of the Canadian Historic Sites Division at Coteau-du-Lac, about 30 miles to the southwest of Montreal.

The anthropologists think that the skeletons are 3,000 years old or older. The first one found in a horizontal position, is not complete, and the specialists think that it was disturbed during the construction of the ramparts of the fort under which it was found.

The second one, found nearby, in a flexed position, is intact. The archaeologists have found red ochre in the vicinity of the burials, which has enabled them to affirm with reasonable certainty that the skeletons are those of Indians, due to the fact that ochre was a part of their funeral ritual. This interpretation is further confirmed by the absence of any objects of European origin.

These discoveries crown two seasons of archaeological excavations during which all physical remains of the fort have been uncovered.

Short Historical Note
The first post was constructed during the late 1770s for the protection of small boats which had to pass the very dangerous rapids of Coteau. During the war of 1812, this post acquired a strategic position of the first importance.

In 1780, the Royal Engineers Corps, under the command of Captain William Twiss, completed the construction of a three-lock canal dug through solid rock, with permitted the passage of flat-bottomed "bateaux". The warehouse, the powder magazine and the barracks date from the same period.

The construction of a wooden octagonal blockhouse, an uncommon form, goes back to the war of 1812, when there was a garrison for the defence of the canal. The solidly constructed stone foundations of this building was still in an excellent state of preservation.

The building of the barracks, the warehouse, the commandant's house, and the other blockhouses date to the early years of the 19th century. The fort was abandoned in 1851.

During the summer of 1965, the archaeologists have found

Franklin Centre

FRANKLIN CENTRE—The Right Rev. Monsignor G. L. Cassidy of Montreal also Mrs. P. H. Sarrazen of Baie d'Urfe spent last week with Mr. Charles Cassidy and sons, Gerald and Charles.

Mr. Gerald Cassidy and Mr. and Mrs. Du Mesnil of Boucherville recently returned from visiting friends and relatives in New York City, Wildwood, N.J. and Atlantic City. They also spent a day touring in and around Washington and any places of note nearby.

Friday and Saturday's weather certainly held up the apple picking, as neither days were pleasant to be picking apples.

The Church Booth had another very successful day Saturday.

Mr. Floyd Stevenson returned home from the hospital on Tuesday but is still on the convalescent list at present.

Mr. Robert Stevenson from Ottawa was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevenson, on the main structures of the Fort: the commandant's house, the octagonal blockhouse, the barracks, the powder magazine, two blockhouses situated to the northwest and southwest of the canal, two warehouses at the west of the canal, and also a hospital to the east.

During the season which has just ended, the archaeologists have completed the cleaning of the stone lined canal. They also excavated secondary structures, a guardhouse, a barracks warehouse, cookhouse, and a retaining wall going from the north blockhouse to the northern end of the canal.

They have also uncovered the Fort entrance and different sidewalks. The section of the road situated to the east of the canal is built with medium-sized stones, while the west section is covered with stones slightly larger than pebbles.

Four gun platforms have been reworked during the summer, one at each corner of the Fort. The one to the southeast of the canal is the best preserved. The historians know that there existed three other gun platforms in the clover leaf, formed by the eastern ramparts, but in spite of work done last year, the archaeologists have only found a few remains of wood.

Systematic work undertaken in the bastion has permitted conclusions to be drawn about the method of construction of the ramparts. They also led to the recovery of the two skeletons. Several other native remains have been found, among which there are projectile points, one of copper and others of worked stone, a carved face on a small pebble, a bone fishhook, and worked bear teeth, undoubtedly of ritual objects of an ancient Indian culture.

The work of the stabilization of the ruins will continue during the autumn and winter. The Canadian Historic Sites Division is at present building a model of the Fort, which will be placed in the visitors' center. The model will depict Fort Coteau-du-Lac as it appeared at the end of the 18th century.

Mrs. L. W. Parker spent Monday in Montreal. Miss Irene Jemczyk entertained seven of her school mates on Saturday evening. It was to have been a wiener roast but rain prevented any outdoor party so an enjoyable evening was spent indoors.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Boone of Montreal were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Parker. Sunday supper guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. George Marlin of Hemmingford.

Mr. Jerry Dunn of Athelstan and niece Mrs. Nelson Beattie of Huntingdon were Sunday afternoon callers at the Harvey home.

Mrs. Hamlet, Miss Hoare of Montreal and Mr. and Mrs. E. Yates, Metehosin Road, Vancouver Island were Wednesday afternoon tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Dunn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Dunn recently returned from a month-long motor trip. In Jasper National Park they took the sky tram ride to the top of Whistler's Mountain and also rode by snowmobile over the Athabaska Glacier. In Banff they enjoyed a swim in the hot springs and also visited with Rev. and Mrs. Travis. At Vernon, B.C. they visited at the home of Canon and Mrs. Reeves and at Creston with Mr. and Mrs. K. Lindsay. They were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ted Reeve and family in Vancouver and with their cousins visited Victoria, Squamish and the Pacific National Exhibition. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn returned via the United States on the northern Route 2 as far as Lake Michigan where they boarded a ferry for Ontario. They travelled 7800 miles and in all the time they were gone they did not see one accident.

In Agreement

Sept. 20, 1966

Mr. Ian Watson Howick, P.Q., Canada

Dear Mr. Watson: We note with interest your letter to Senator Robert F. Kennedy concerning the U.S. Ports of Entry, which was printed in the September 7th edition of the Huntingdon Gleaner.

We agree that some of the border facilities are antiquated and inadequate and that some, such as Champlain, are understaffed. We also agree that the office hours at the smaller inspection stations leave much to be desired as far as convenience to the travelling public is concerned. While the controversy continues as to the time it takes to clear customs at the Champlain crossing, and the hours of service at the other small stations, we should not lose sight of the fact that work has been started to improve Route No. 4, a primary highway from the border to Montreal.

We believe that, if travelers have to wait in a line of auto-al which was conducted from St. Mary's church, Fort Covington, Monday, September 19th, at 10:00 a.m. with the pastor, The Rev. Thomas J. Robillard, officiating. Burial was in the parish cemetery.

mobile 20 miles long to clear Customs, they would take another route the next time. Certainly Trout River, New York is a modern Port of Entry, adequately staffed and with 24 hour service! Route No. 30 from the Border to Malone was resurfaced about 3 years ago and is a beautiful, convenient and quick way to cities west, the State camps, resort areas and New York City.

Sincerely, Earl M. Prue, President, Malone Chamber of Commerce

Aubrey-Riverfield

AUBREY-RIVERFIELD—Mr. and Mrs. George Endres of Albany, N.Y., and Mrs. Wesley Ray of Lachine, were super guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Gruer on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gruer, Laurie, Baird and Melanie visited Miss Cathie Gruer at Bishop's University on Sunday. Little Elinor Bubbury, spent a couple of days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Templeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ransberry of Dorval, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKell and family. Sunday guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Williams of Rockburn.

Miss Esther Craig returned to Montreal on Sunday, where she has taken a position. The community was shocked on Sunday morning to hear of the sudden death of Mr. Lyall Stewart, a native of this community although of late years he was a resident of Montreal West.

At one time he lived on the farm now owned by John Bus, tard and later on the farm now occupied by Douglas Templeton.

The sympathy of his friends is extended to his bereaved family.

Hot And Hearty Sandwiches

Hot from the broiler, these hearty "knife and fork" sandwiches are the answer for TV snacks or patio meals. Serve them with a crisp salad and a refreshing drink. The suggestions for the above come from Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture in Ottawa.

GRIDIRON ROLL (left) is a crusty roll stuffed with slices of process cheddar cheese and strips of green pepper.

MEAT AND SWEET ROLL (top) is a hot dog roll stuffed with corned beef and tomato at one end and cream cheese and pineapple at the other.

GRIDIRON ROLL (right) is stuffed with a spicy ham filling.

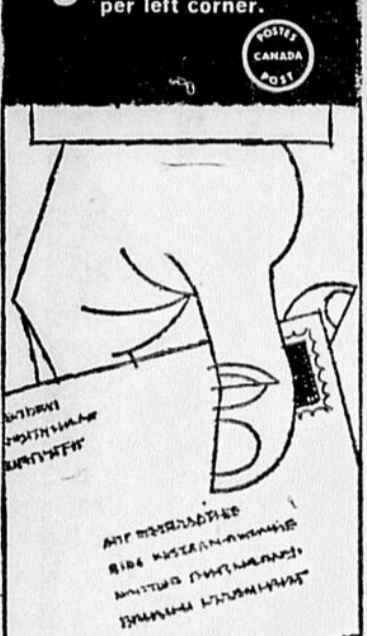

CHICKEN SALAD SNACK is an open face sandwich on half of an English muffin, topped with sliced tomato and buttered crumbs.

These can be prepared ahead of time, kept refrigerated and then popped under the broiler before serving.—Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

YOU NEVER SAW YOUR Copy of The Gleaner

Thrown into the gutter or a waste basket before it was read, did you?

But waste baskets and gutters are constantly being filled with unopened expensive direct advertising, sales ammunition shot into the air.

A newspaper always commands an audience with prospective customers. It is never thrown aside without first being read from "kiver to kiver". Then it is borrowed by the neighbors.

That's why intelligent, attractive newspaper advertising is accepted as the most effective form of advertising your business.

An advertisement in The Gleaner will reach over 90 per cent of the buyers in the local trade territory. The cost is very small, and besides, we do the mailing and pay the postage.

Green Giant Plant Visited By Cubs

By Edith Bate
Last Saturday morning, 22 Wolf Cubs of the Seconee Pack of St. George's Church visited the Green Giant plant at nearby Ste. Martine. The boys and their leaders watched the processing of corn from the time the trucks unloaded it — until it was finally in the tin. The boys and their leaders found this a most fascinating experience. The whole trip would have been impossible had it not been for the kindness of some of the boy's fathers, who supplied the cars for transportation. The leaders wish to thank those who volunteered their time and cars and are indeed indebted to them. To say that the boys enjoyed this outing — is putting it mildly. They are learning how some industries operate, while having fun at the same time.

Education In The Valley No. 11-22

48. We recommend that the existing regional school commissions be immediately entrusted with exclusive responsibility for the elementary and secondary education as well as the social, medical and psychological services for all elementary and secondary schools in their areas.

At present there are various local school commissions which have not joined any regional board, and, in fact, are making little or no provision for the secondary school education of their students. A typical example is the Protestant School Board of Greater Laprairie.

The local Protestant school boards of the Valley have already requested that the regional board assume responsibility for the organization and administration of classes for exceptional children throughout the Valley. Mr. Ferris, Director of Studies for the regional board is already performing the necessary organizational work in this regard.

49. We recommend that the law immediately require regional commissions to take an annual census throughout their territories of children and adolescents up to the age of eighteen in order to anticipate the best means by which to meet the wishes of parents regarding the type of education they desire for their children.

50. We recommend that the regional commission be made responsible for the immediate organization, when it is justified, of non-confessional education at the elementary as well as the secondary levels, or also make sure that children for whom it is not feasible to arrange such education, because of their insufficient number, benefit, in the school they attend, by the exemptions authorized by law.

51. We recommend that during the next few transitional years, local school commissions gradually transmit all their powers and responsibilities to their regional commissions, as the law already authorizes them to do, and that the regional commissions do what is necessary to make it possible for them within a few years to accept all the powers and responsibilities which will be turned over to them.

The local Protestant school boards of the Valley have requested that the regional board assume responsibility for the standards of education in all the schools of the Valley. This will entail guidance and supervision of teachers, in-service training of teachers, development of curriculum and methods of instruction.

News Notes:

1. That meeting with the architect noted in our last bulletin took place as scheduled on Monday evening, Sept. 19th, 1966 formal board approval was given on the detailed plans and specifications for:
 - a) a 19-room Protestant elementary school to be erected in the Seignior Park area, Chateaugay;
 - b) a 13-room Protestant elementary school to be erected in the Terrace area, Chateaugay; and
 - c) a composite regional high school for 1,300 students to be erected on the former Wylar farm in St. Malachie d'Ormeau.
2. The several Home and School Associations in Chateaugay have completed a brief on Vol. 3 and 4 of the Parent Report for submission through the Federation. The Protestant Regional School Board also intends to present a Brief.
3. Mr. W.F. Steeves, formerly of Chateaugay High School staff and since Sept. 1st engaged by the regional board as a guidance officer, is currently working in the various schools of the Valley administering tests:
 - a) to determine the relative standards of the schools;
 - b) to determine the level of achievement in basic subject skills;
 - c) to develop sufficient information on each student who will enter the regional High Schools to permit them to choose their subjects and to plan their school programs wisely.
4. Mr. J.A. Ferris, Director of Studies, is busily engaged in classroom visits throughout the Valley and in the development of an in-service training programme for teachers and principals.
5. Mr. A.Y. Templeton, Assistant to the Director-General, is also visiting schools to obtain complete details required for the organization of a co-ordinated regional school transportation system. It is our intention to discontinue recording each of the ensuing Recommendations of the Report with comment on each, and, in lieu of this, to continue comment on only specific recommendations or groups of recommendations. In previous comment on the organization of Councils of School Development we considered this co-ordination and communication between a dual language system of schools at the regional board level. We would further point out, however, the inherent danger of an intermediate organization such as the proposed Council of School Development forming a block in communications between the regional boards and the Dept. of Education. For this reason we would recommend that the Council of School Development serve mainly as an advisory and consultative body with very limited legislative powers.

Recommendation 59 is of particular concern to this area. It follows in its entirety.

We recommend the immediate establishment of two Councils of School Development for the area surrounding the Island of Montreal, one having jurisdiction over all school commissions within the territories of the following regional commissions: Le Gardeur, Maisonneuve, Duvernay, Mille Isles, Deux Montagnes, Vaudreuil and the North Island Protestant Commission; the second having under its jurisdiction the territory of the following regional commissions: Chambly, Lignery, Youville, Salaberry and Honoré Mercier, and the South Shore and Chateaugay Valley Protestant regional commissions.

Recommendations 75 to 89 are concerned with school commission financing. They are self-explanatory and are included for your information.

(75) We recommend that the real estate tax be retained to meet the financial needs of school commissions, but that it take the form of a general tax to be raised uniformly everywhere in order to pay for the basic educational services offered by the public school.

(76) We recommend that the evaluation of all real estate taxable for school purposes be made at one hundred per cent of its true value as quickly as possible and that, in conformity with the recommendations in this connection of the Royal Commission of Inquiry on Taxation, a provincial real estate valuation commission be established to direct and supervise the evaluation of landed property throughout the province and that this commission should first proceed to make all assessment rolls uniform and then make sure that the evaluation of all real estate is standardized.

(77) We recommend that a special system of school taxation be set up for the landed property of companies, under which:

- a) the evaluation of all these properties would be entrusted to the provincial authorities;
- b) the tax rate to be applied to them, once their evaluation has been set at one hundred per cent of their true value, would be the same for all school commissions and would be fixed by the provincial authorities, and
- c) the amounts levied by the school commissions by means of this tax would not be added to their own funds, but would be assigned to the provincial treasury.

(78) We recommend that as soon as the assessment rolls have been standardized, a general school tax rate on landed property be fixed by the provincial authorities, applicable by all school commissions to all the taxable real estate of individuals — at the values resulting from these properties from standardizing the rolls — and that this rate be used in taxing company real estate, similarly re-assessed, until the time when special tax rate for company real estate has been fixed.

(79) We recommend that, when evaluation at one hundred per cent of true value of all real estate belonging to individuals has been fully effected throughout the province, a general school tax rate on landed property, applicable by all school commissions to all the taxable real estate of individuals, be fixed by the provincial authorities.

(80) We recommend that all school commissions, with the approval of the competent authorities, be allowed to levy, apart from the general school tax, an additional tax on the landed property of individuals to cover the supplementary costs of special services and, if need be, an administrative deficit.

(81) We recommend that until the evaluation of landed property taxable for school purposes has been corrected by standardizing assessment rolls, the Department of Education, by means of indices of wealth elaborated by its own services, seek to normalize the tax contribution of the rate-payers of all school commissions.

(82) We recommend that a provincial plan of school development, establishing standards for all the operating expenses of school commissions, except debt service, and including all anticipated additional school facilities at various places within its boundaries, be prepared by the services of the Department of Education and the regional school commissions, and that this provincial plan take into account the regional plans prepared by the Councils of School Development.

C.P.O.A. News

C.P.O.A. held its first general meeting of the winter season this past Thursday. All members will be receiving a notice for payment of their membership fee of $5.00 due by Nov. 1st, balance of fees to be paid by June 1st. We would like to point out that this $5.00 to be paid by Nov. 1st is needed to help us know what we can do during the coming season and also to have some money on hand when we open the pool next summer.

The meeting was conducted by the president Mr. Gord Snee who mentioned a few things planned for the future but stated he would confirm them at our next meeting. The meeting was extremely lively with all members present participating.

As guest speaker the alderman of the district, Mr. Phil Bonneau, was present. He answered all forth-coming questions and informed the members of the conditions of our parks and why they have not yet been completed. It should be noted that he has been appointed to the Parks Commission. Many heated questions were tossed at Mr. Bonneau, who answered all to the best of his ability and I might add, in my eyes he is doing a very good job by attending all the meetings and doing everything possible for our district. Thank you Mr. Bonneau.

Fall Season Starts With Success

The Ladies Auxiliary of the W.E.H.O.A. held their first social of the fall season and it was a great success with 38 in attendance. The door prizes were won by Mrs. Furi and Mrs. Boyle. Coffee was sold and it sure is nice to have our own urns. A show of hands was asked for — re purchase of chairs for the L.A. and the Assn. and the response was unanimous. Thirty-six stacking chairs have been ordered. The details will be made known at the meeting. Thanks for starting the season off so very well, as everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Conveners Mrs. Egan and Mrs. Fure did a very fine job, and your next conveners will be Mrs. Watt and Mrs. Lowe. Keep up the good work 700 and Westview as all those new faces were very welcome. Next time call a neighbor and bring her along.

Youville Boulevard Paved This Week

(By Fergus Horsburgh)
Mr. George Kennedy, M.P.P., This project is being financed by a Provincial Government grant to the Municipality of the Towns of Chateaugay and Chateaugay Centre. The greater portion of the road lies within the Town of Chateaugay. Youville Boulevard has never been one of the worst roads in the area. The build-up of the level of the road was $40,000, and work done will include guard rails all the way of floods in the area.

Stagemasters Present One-Act Play Party

(By Fergus Horsburgh)
The Stagemasters of Chateaugay, to whom we are all indebted for keeping amateur dramatics alive in our area, successfully put on something new for lovers of the live theatre last Friday evening at the old Parish Hall, Chateaugay Centre.

The innovation was the presentation of two one-act plays in a party atmosphere. The audience sat at tables, cabaret style, and drinks were available before and after the plays, and during intermission. After the show, tables and chairs were pushed aside, and dancing was the order of the night until 1 a.m.

The first offering, The Ugly Duckling, by A.A. Milne, saw outstanding performances by Colin Keleher as the Chancellor and Martha Strike as the Queen.

Irene Plusinski belied the programme description of a "rather plain Princess Carilla". Anyone less plain would be rather difficult to imagine! The audience responded warmly to a delightful presentation. I wonder, though, why everyone except the Queen, who wore a special costume, wore street clothes.

The second play, "The Great Western Melodrama," by Florence Huntington Morris, was very funny indeed. Perhaps the highlight of the evening came when prompter's box and curtain collapsed at a crucial point in the play. Some members of the audience had been fooled by Phyllis Hale's explanation that the entire original cast had been smitten by a rare disease, and that the performers were all last-minute substitutions. It is perhaps unfair to single out any performer from an excellent cast, but Keith Strike put on a masterly comic presentation of Mrs. Abigail McKesew, and Charles Baranowski excelled as the would-be lover-poet. Set in the 1890's, the simple heroine triumphed over the objections of her hard-hearted father. The costumes were excellent, and the round effects were, shall we say, original!

A very successful evening, enjoyed by all who attended, and let us hope the first of more of the same to come.

Week Before Opening Nursery School Homeless

(By Fergus Horsburgh)
It was not planned that way, but the General Meeting of the Seignior Park Co-operative Pre School Association last Monday evening was a crisis meeting.

Chairman Mrs. Pat Bedard opened the meeting by informing the 16 members present that after six months of negotiations, the executive had been unable to obtain insurance that last year's premises in the Seignior Park Country Club would be available for classes scheduled to start next Monday, October 3rd. Mrs. Bedard stated that 2nd of Monday evening, 26th September, all efforts to obtain a commitment or a definite refusal had been unsuccessful. Strenuous attempts including telephone calls, letters, meetings and registered letters, had been made to obtain a definite response. A firm refusal at any time during the six months' negotiations would have been preferable to the uncertainty of a refusal to commit one way or the other. With school opening just one week away, the end fact was that the Nursery School was homeless.

In this dilemma, the executive with all plans other than premises carefully prepared, had had no alternative but to draw to a close, and the Club is indebted to Gordon and Blair Watson for their indefatigable efforts in maintaining a high degree of interest throughout the season. Thanks are also due to Mrs. Penny Blink for her excellent job of coaching the younger players and future members.

The Finals Day on Sunday saw Ronnie Oliver win the Men's Singles from Bobby Moore, 6-2, 6-4 Mrs. Blink won the Ladies' title by defeating Mrs. E. German, 6-1, 6-1.

Other final results were: — Mixed Doubles: — Bobby Moore and Mrs. German defeated Mr. and Mrs. Blink, 6-3, 6-3.

Men's Doubles: — Bobby Moore and D. Magbee defeated Ronnie Oliver and Hans Vandewoude in a closely-fought 2-6, 6-4, 7-5.

Ladies Doubles: — Mrs. Penny Blink and Mrs. M. Vandewoude defeated Mrs. P. Hart and Mrs. C. McGregor, 6-3, 6-2.

Prizes were awarded to winners and runners-up at the party after the games. The weather was cool and a fine big fire in the clubhouse was enjoyed by all. Trophies provided by the Club were awarded to the winners, and prizes for the runners-up were donated by Mrs. Watson.

What do we, the residents of Chateaugay, think its worth to have a church where we can worship, educate our children, socialize, get married, and take care of all those problems that none of us can avoid in life. I don't know but the people at St. George's want to find out so they're paying an intimate call on each one of their more than 600 families during the week of Oct. 17 to 20.

Chateaugay Ramblers In Quebec Senior Cellar

(By Fergus Horsburgh)
Chateaugay Ramblers, after second successive year, with 8 leading throughout last Saturday's game in the Quebec Senior Football League against Hawkesbury Hawks, lost a touchdown and the game with only 48 seconds to go.

Ramblers dominated play in the first half, but failed to do more than a three-point lead on a field goal by Mike Corcoran.

Just after the half-way mark, Chateaugay came up with a big interception on the Hawkesbury 35 yard line. Two plays later Ray Milley scored a touchdown on an end-run. Corcoran converted — 10 - 0.

In the fourth quarter, three ex-Abouette Bob Geary, guard on offence. Club officials confidently predict that Ramblers will make the playoffs.

All games for the remainder of the season are to be played in the afternoons. Ramblers meet Montreal North at LaBerge Park on Sunday, October 2nd, at 2 p.m.

If a psychologist were to ways to make the job easier, give housewives a word as Let's talk about ways and the find most of us have pretty size of the loads, and the normal responses to common aftermath ironing. Let the words — except for the word little ones romp around in "summer". Instead of responding with words like "hot", "swimming", or "vacation", many of us would say "laundry". He'd probably wonder about that one — and, no doubt, think we were suffering from some kind of phobia. But actually it's a normal response. Summer does mean piles and piles of laundry.

From Chateauguy's avid radio listeners, congratulations to Huntingdon's Mrs. Edward McLean on winning $2,752.00 last Saturday on CFCF's Claradio program. Mrs. McLean correctly identified the mystery tune as "Play that Barber-Shop Chord". Happy to hear someone in Chateauguy Valley was the winner.

Those sidewalks we see here and there on d'Anjou and St. Jean Baptiste seem to be first on one side for a block or two, then on the other side. We do know one fact: the sidewalks will NOT be constructed in front of Plaza Shopping Centre — too much fill is required there and cost of course too high. This was from a reliable source at Town Hall.

From the Police accident reports of Town of Chateauguy: A 9 year old boy was struck by a car while he was riding his bicycle on St. Jean Baptiste Blvd. The accident happened opposite No. 75, on Sept. 21st at 7:30 P.M. The child was taken to hospital where he is undergoing treatment for a broken leg.

In another accident, a 5 1/2 year old boy was struck by a taxi on Clermont Street (Station) and was fortunate to have only bruises and shock.

On the 25th at 2:40 a.m. Youville Blvd. and entrance to Grey Nuns Island, a driver lost control of his car and struck three trees before coming to a stop. The driver and one passenger were taken to Lasalle General Hospital for treatment of slight injuries.

A Chateauguy resident had a minor accident last week. While backing out of his driveway his car struck another vehicle, with no injuries but both cars damaged.

The Civil Protection, Section 821 South Shore, is presently recruiting new members in order to form a RESCUE TEAM in the area. For further information please contact Mr. Georges Bouchard at 692-0901.

LETTER FROM SEIGNIORY PARK

Seignior Park was well represented at last Friday's experimental one-act play party by the Stagemasters, with outstanding performances by Marsha and Keith Strike and Colin Keleher. We thoroughly enjoyed the show, and hope the Stagemasters will be encouraged to put on a repeat performance at an early date. A fuller account is to be found elsewhere in this issue.

I understand that the annual election meeting of the Home Owners Association will be held in the near future, and that former Association President Colin Mason will handle the election proceedings. Note to John McKay in Ottawa: — You didn't think anyone else could do it, did you?

It was reported that it has been decided to postpone the grass-seeding of Woodbine Park at least until the Spring. A group of homeowners on Montclair is planning to call on Mayor Joseph Laberge to find out the reason for the decision and see if there is any hope that it might be reversed. I shall try to get more information on this development in time for this issue.

An executive meeting of the Pre-School Association was held in Mrs. Karch's house on Tuesday, September 20th. Plans were discussed for the general meeting of members on Monday, September 26th, in the Clubhouse.

The Secretary was instructed to write letters to six persons, asking them to serve on a proposed Advisory Board for the Nursery School. It is planned that the Advisory Board would be constituted to advise the executive on legal, medical and psychiatric problems as they develop. It is also hoped to invite three ladies with previous teaching experience. It was reported that registration was full, with eleven children on the waiting list. Capacity is limited to 20. Mrs. Malvina Chart has again agreed to teach, for which parents and children alike are truly thankful. The executive planned to propose to the General Meeting that a few minor changes be made in the Constitution and By-Laws. School is scheduled to start next Monday, October 3.

Among the audience at the Stagemaster's one-act play party we saw Mesdames Pat Bedard, Marjorie Hewlett, Mad. die Karch (and niece) Janet Chappell, Edith Bate, Anna Schenkelberg, Rita Fletcher, Adelaide Penny and Anne Van der Leden. But what happened to all the husbands?

Tel: 264-3031. There is also a demand for knitting machine operators and mechanics with experience. A knowledge of the English language is necessary.

A cement finisher is also needed. Finally, competent electricians with a "C" license, as well as cabinet-makers with experience, may find work through the National Employment Service.

Moreover, automobile salesmen are constantly needed. The women division is presently offering permanent employment for domestic help in well recommended families.

The National Employment Service is still recruiting hostesses for '67 Expo; to meet requirements, candidates must be 20 to 35 years old, single, high school graduates; a pleasant personality is an important asset.

National Employment Service is particularly concerned with the recruitment of security guards for Expo '67. $2.00 hourly salary is offered and special training will be given to qualifying candidates.

St. George's Notes

(By Edith Bate)

St. George's Anglican church, one of the more familiar churches in the Chateauguy area having first established as a mission in 1924 and then building a new and modern church in 1960, is in the midst of reorganizing the social and business side of the church organizational structure.

Last January, following an intensive inventory of what members thought the church was doing and what it was not doing; what could be accomplished and what was realistic in terms of today's requirements; and what the church's role in the community should be, management of St. George's was reorganized to consist of a corporation and a new body known as the Parish Life Council. The corporation is comprised of the rector, Rev. Gavin F. Barnett; Jack Sheppard, Rector's Warden; Arnold Curran, Asst. People's Warden; and John Friedlander, People's Warden. The Parish Life Council groups together eight committees responsible for worship, education, finance, maintenance, communications, social relations, administration and community relations.

St. Andrew's Notes

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

Two little girls were christened last Sunday morning, September 25th. They were Teresa Ann Darius, born April 24th, 1966, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Darius, 596 Haute Rivière; and Lisa Joanne Mahabir, born August 6th., 1966, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mahabir, 127 Royal Street.

Both babies behaved beautifully and looked charming in their new white dresses. Terry Lisa caused added delight by yawning widely just after being blessed by Rev. Howard Fraser.

The choir, who are so well trained and led, sang the anthem "Sun of My Soul". Their phrasing is exemplary and they can perform the difficult feat of singing quietly yet clearly. It is far more difficult to sing a couple of real friends, and a wife and children to share life's beauty with you.

What On Earth Are We Going To Do With Young Drivers?

(By Russ Faughnan)

Mr. J. B. Humphrey, past President of the All Canada Insurance Federation, in a recent address to the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, really summed up the insurance Company's position on under age drivers. His opinions were so well put that I give him full credit for this article which is a general summary of his position.

Most people believe that those of us employed in the insurance industry tend to see automobile accidents as a dollar and cents affair. As a practicing insurance man, I can tell you that we don't. The heart rendering stories told in our claim files cannot help but influence our hearts and feelings.

If the automobile insurance industry is facing a major problem, in a nut shell it's this: "What on earth are we going to do with young drivers?" Rather arbitrarily, we use the age of 25 as the dividing line between young drivers and old drivers but there is really nothing very magic about that number. However, statistics do show a sharp drop in accident costs at age 25.

Our big problem isn't so much the hoodlum with the old beat up car. The teenager with the family car is a problem but again, generally speaking, he's a minor problem. No nut intended. He is still under the watchful eye of his parents and he doesn't get the car too often.

The problem driver, in a word, is the modern, intelligent, good living young Canadian. This fellow can be 18 or 20. He is single and has a good job. He is a responsible young citizen... the kind we worry about if he should decide to move to the United States. He has a sports car or a convertible. Or, at least something with bucket seats and lots of power. He drives quite a bit and he's been known to take the odd drink. No matter how good his past driving record the chances are about 1 in 6 that he will have an accident this year. On an average, that accident will cost his insurance company about 11 hundred dollars. Add on some bits and pieces for agent's Commission, taxes, administrative charges and so on and it develops that we have to charge that young man a pretty healthy chunk will live.

Handy Hints for Homemakers

Damp shoes may be given a high polish by adding one or two drops of paraffin oil to the polish. This also prevents the leather from cracking.

Dog and cat hair on your upholstery can be whisked away by stroking the surfaces lightly with a damp piece of sandpaper or a rubber sponge.

To remove tea stains from chinaware try salt and vinegar which usually does the trick.

To remove the stains from glass vases, particularly crystal ones, wash the base thoroughly in warm suds, then rub the stains with a cloth saturated in turpentine or mineral spirits, and out they come.

You can whiten the inside of enamelled pots and pans by putting a half cup of laundry bleach in them, filling the rest of the way with water, then let it stand for 24 hours.

Well, here's another column, — but still readers not cooperating by telephoning in their news items!

First of all, we say get well wishes to John Lalonde of Duquette St. John is in hospital at time of writing and we hope he'll soon be back home all well again. I had the pleasure of working on the Maple Home and School Association, with John and I'm sure all the members would like to send their greetings too.

Such excitement on McLeod Ave. these days. Carol Morgan will be wed this Saturday to Brian MaGee of the Heights and it's such a busy time for a bride — not to mention the mother of the bride. Another shower was given Carol on Friday evening, September 16th, in which Carol received best wishes and many many "miscellaneous" for her new home. The shower was given jointly by Mrs. Rose Young and Mrs. Jessie Robinson. Last Saturday afternoon a trossoussau tea was given Carol by her mother. So many friends, relatives and neighbors enjoyed seeing all the lovely gifts and the trossoussau.

Last Tuesday 19th, I had the pleasure of accompanying three Grade sixers of Maple School to Upper Canada Village. There were two buses. I was hectic, but very enjoyable. I had charge of fourteen very nice students — all very well behaved and polite. It was a pleasure to be with them. They enjoyed the day at the historical site, and learned how some of our fore-bears lived and prospered in the pioneering days. I found it difficult to choose a favorite place; they were all so beautifully and authentically put together.

An aftermath of the Upper Canada Village tour was two very stiff legs — both attached to my body. I rarely walk anywhere and I'm sure I (and my group) walked about fifteen to twenty miles that day.

Last Friday evening, I went to the Stagymasters' Play Party. It was quite amusing. There were two plays — both one act. — We sat at small tables — cabaret style, and really it was quite unique in a way — made me feel 'continental'. Fergus has an article about the plays elsewhere in this issue.

I'm hoping ladies from other areas of Chateauguy read this column — because I am about to appeal to some of them to write a weekly column of newsy items for the Gleaner. If any of you are interested, I would be glad to hear from you and I can give you details on this. It is not necessary to have a typewriter as long as your handwriting is legible. You also are paid for this, and I have heard that this is done for talent money in some areas. Your church group or other club no doubt would welcome a little boost in their funds. a fight and broke up we were relieved. Then Mary began to hear lies he was circulating about her and she was furious. She said she never wanted to see him again.

For three months Mary dated others and seemed happy. Last week Art called her for a date. She accepted. I told her she couldn't go. She said she still likes him and she's going to see him even if she has to sneak out. What can we do with this headstrong brat? — MISSISSIPPI MOM.

Dear Mom: Your last sentence persuades me that your relationship is so poor you can't do anything with her.

You will probably ride the girl until she gets into trouble or runs off and marries the bum. I hope you will get some belated counseling and prove my predictions wrong.

Confidential to True Or Lies? Nobody knows for sure. And I would not accept your friend's "survey figures" as fact. The answers depend to a great extent on the wording, the skill of the interviewer, and the integrity of those who are questioned.

Unsure of yourself on dates? What's right? What's wrong? Should you? Shouldn't you? Send for Ann Lander's booklet "Dating Do's and Don'ts" enclosing with your request $5 in coin and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope. 1966, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.

Parks Development

It was expected that a contract for $22,000 would be awarded at last Tuesday's Council meeting. Opinions voiced by Council members left no doubt that they considered the offer of $22,000 excessive, and no motion for approval of the contract award was made.

Councillor Philip Bonneau proposed that approval be given to dig wells around existing trees in the various parks, and cover the adjacent ground with sod, but there was no seconder to the motion. However, permission was given the Parks Committee to spend some $400 to dig wells around remaining trees in Woodbine Park, and to dig wells around the trees in Mercier Park, and protect the park's banks, and the Little League Baseball site with sod at a cost of some $200.

I understand that various members of the public are planning on visiting Town Hall to state their viewpoint that unless there are compelling reasons why the work should not have been done, the grassing of the Park should have been placed under contract this Fall. However, it appears unlikely that any action can now be taken this year.

Some $100,000 of the $455 thousands Parks By-law has been spent. Treed areas have been cleared, and citizens generally tolerated the removal of the trees on the basis that this was a necessary evil. The various parks now lie barren and ugly, and in some cases represent hazards to the safety of children.

St. George's are gearing up for an every member visitation of the more than 600 families on their parish roll. Oct. 17 to 20. Anyone interested in working on this project should get in touch with Kirk Keeler at 692-9139.

Ann Landers...

Answers your problems

Dear Ann Landers: My boy friend is a junior in college. He has been considering quitting before he flunks out. If he quits, however, he may be drafted and the Army appeals to him even less than school. We want to get married pretty soon so I don't want to see him go into the service, either.

Last night he came up with an idea. He thinks he will chop off his index finger. I was horrified at first, but after we discussed it he made me see that it might not be such a bad idea. He says two years of his life is worth a finger any old day, and I agree that he has a point.

What we want to know from you is this: Will the Army take a man with nine fingers? No lectures, please, just the answer. Thank you — DON'T WANT TO GO.

Dear Don't Want: The Army has been known to take men with nine fingers so don't count on an insane act of self-mutilation as a sure out. The Army does not take idiots, however. Perhaps your boy friend will be rejected on mental grounds. And I'm not kidding. He rates plenty subnormal with me — and so do you.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm writing about the woman who complained because her husband called her "The Old lady." Some people don't know when they have it good.

My husband calls me "That Nut" and a few other names which are unprintable. In fact he has called me everything under the sun, except a lady. I've heard people talk better to their dogs.

Electors Block Curbs For 'Reservation Project'

(By Fergus Horsburgh)

The Electors Meeting for the $143,000 By Law to provide curbs in "Reservation Project" blocked the project by casting 35 votes against the project. "Reservation Project" is the name officially given by Town officials to the new area of Seignory Park above the transmission line.

The Council does not now propose pursuing the matter further, and there will be no referendum. 35 contrary votes is a very substantial part of the property-owners who would be eligible to participate in a referendum.

YOUR DAYS MAY BE NUMBERED?
 Federal officials who deal with the public in this computer age dearly wish they could give everyone a standard number, according to a report in The Financial Post. They point out it would save time, trouble and a considerable amount of tax money. And they have the necessary system set up and ready to go. When the Social Insurance numbering system was developed, it was deliberately made one of the most sophisticated in the world.

It has eight identifying digits and a ninth that is self checking. If there is a mistake in the other eight the ninth won't "fit", warning the computer. It could, The Financial Post says, provide every Canadian now living, plus another 80 million, with a unique number that would provide positive identification and would allow fast and efficient processing in any computer.

FINCH

Mercury Sales Ltd.

190 ST. JEAN BAPTISTE BLVD., CHATEAUGUAY
 TEL. 691-2621

Sept. 28, 1966

Mr. Brian Finch, President Finch Mercury Sales Ltd., Chateauguy today announced that all purchasers of 1967 model Mercury cars and light trucks will receive a 24-month or 24,000-mile basic vehicle warranty along with a 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty on the power train components, which includes the engine, transmission, driveline and rear axle.

The new warranty, Mr. Finch said, is the best the industry has to offer and will be an important factor in backing up the superior performance which customers have come to expect from Ford/Mercury cars and trucks.

The 24,000-mile warranty was pioneered by Ford Motor Company on the Lincoln Continental and was later extended to the entire vehicle line.

"Extension of this warranty on the power train components for 1967", Mr. Finch said, "is possible because of continued progress toward quality and reliability goals that year after year have enabled Ford dealers to be leaders in providing products requiring less and less maintenance."

Terms of the new warranty provide 24 months or for 24,000 miles on the entire vehicle, whichever comes first, and for 5 years and for 50,000 miles on the power train, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labour, will be made by authorized Ford of Canada dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or material.

Tires and tubes are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will continue to be made by the tire people. Owners will remain responsible for normal power train and other maintenance operations, such as wheel, brake and clutch adjustments and engine tune-up, and for routine replacement of such items as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades, and brake and clutch linings. To maintain the power train warranty protection the owner need only present evidence to a Ford of Canada dealer and obtain his certification, once every 12 months, that the minimum services required every 6 months or 6,000 miles have been performed. This means that the engine oil and oil filters have been replaced and the carburetor air cleaner and filter, crankcase oil filter, breather can, automatic transmission clutch intermediate band, ignition control system, lubricants and engine coolant have been serviced according to the recommended maintenance schedule of the vehicle in question.

The new warranty covers both the original owner and subsequent owners during the specified mileage and time periods.

Mr. Finch said that his dealership would introduce the new 1967 models to the public on Friday September 30.

essentially normal life. My booklet, "Diabetes, The Sneaky Disease," discusses the problem in detail and will teach you how to take care of yourself, with your doctor's guidance, and not waste your nervous energy in needless worry. (For the booklet, send 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper.) Note to Mrs. J.A.B.: I do not see any need to worry about such dental X-rays as are taken for hidden cavities, preparation for extractions, etc. The X-ray dosage is small. Furthermore, the rays are directed only at a small part of the body (as opposed to "total body radiation" which is quite another matter). Finally, dental X-rays are shielded so they cannot reach the reproductive organs of the body, which is an important consideration.

To learn of the many factors that can be involved in the treatment of hiatal hernial which concerns the esophagus, write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper for a copy of his booklet, "Hiatal Hernia and Eight Ways to Combat It," enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dear Dr. Molner: What do you think of a boy of 18 sniffing glue every other day "for kicks"? He says it can't hurt anything, and that cigarettes are worse than glue sniffing. — W.P.

The boy is foolhardy and doesn't know the facts. He can easily end up with a ruined liver or worse ailments that cannot be cured. I've warned many times that cigarettes are harmful, but glue sniffing, gasoline sniffing, abnormal breath-holding and other such stunts that teenagers try "for kicks" can be far more dangerous and even fatal. A recent report on glue sniffing discloses two deaths and a number of cases of brain damage and mental retardation from the practice.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please settle these arguments: In racial inter-marriage is a child even darker than the darker of his parents? And is the blood different from a white person's so it can be told immediately by transfusions? — MRS. R. W.

First question: Usually the child will be somewhere in between — but it is quite possible for him to be darker than either, depending on whether he happens to acquire genes from some earlier, and perhaps much darker, ancestor.

Dear Dr. Molner: My seven-year old daughter was home for 10 days with what the doctor called scarlet fever. Then she was fine and returned to school. My sister was discussing this with a co-worker who said it couldn't have been scarlet fever as the child would have been out from three weeks to a month, and it must have been "scarletina," of which I never heard. What is your opinion? Mrs. S. K.

The co-worker evidently meant scarlatina, another name for the same disease, which is caused by the streptococcus germ.

The person who spoke to your sister doesn't seem to realize that scarlet fever, like most diseases, can be mild, severe or in-between; also that the new antibiotics now subdue such infections much more rapidly.

Dear Dr. Molner: What could frequent urination mean in a man of 62 in good health? — B.D.W.

Several things, all of which deserve attention by your doctor. Enlarged prostate (the commonest); infection anywhere in the urinary tract, from kidneys to bladder; prostate infection; diabetes.

Dear Dr. Molner: My neighbor's lung was collapsed some years ago for T.B. I have emphysema and am told to lie with my head toward to help clear my lungs. Is there a possibility of collapsing one of my lungs temporarily to clear it? — A.H.

These are quite different diseases. Tuberculosis is a bacterial infection, and sometimes a lung is made to collapse deliberately to give it a chance to rest and heal. This is by the injection of air and is called artificial pneumothorax.

Emphysema is not a matter of infection. The lung tissues have been damaged and have lost their elasticity, or ability to contract and expand. A person can't exhale strongly enough and hence can't inhale very strongly.

Consequently a sufferer can't even cough as effectively as would be wished, and there's trouble in clearing phlegm from the lungs, and bronchial passages. If a person lies with head lower, some of this is taken care of by drainage instead of relying on coughing. Collapsing a lung, therefore, would not be of benefit.

In order to present St. George's programme of re-utilization to the more than 800 families on the parish roll, an every member visitation is planned for late in October.

The Good Old Dollar

by C. J. Harris

It may come as a shock to Canadian workers who are under 40 but back before World War Two an income of $2,000 a year, a pay cheque of just under $100 a week, was very much the exception. In 1939, in fact, the average factory worker put in 47 hours for a wage of $20 a week. Today in the manufacturing industry the average is 41 hours for a wage of $90 a week. The $5,000-a-year man is now almost the rule, rather than the exception.

Looking at these figures, it is obvious that we are much better off today. But a study made by the National Industrial Conference Board indicates that, because of taxation and inflation, the figures are quite misleading. The Board is a private economic research group headquartered in New York and the study dealt with U.S. statistics, but no doubt it would apply to Canada in principle. The income tax takes so much more than in 1939 and sed, stamped envelope and 20-cent coin to cover cost of printing and handling. Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Reader's questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible. 1966, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.

Inflation has so reduced the purchasing power of the dollar that a U.S. worker has to earn $13,234 a year to be as well off as the $5,000 earner of 1939. The escalation is even more pronounced in the higher income brackets. In 1939 the $25,000-a-year man who was married and had two children paid $1,727 income tax. To have as much money to spend today he has to have an income of $76,416, because out of that sum the income tax takes $22,562 and the effects of inflation will subtract another $30,581.

As noted, these are American figures, but there is evidence that inflation and taxation have undermined workers' income to about the same extent in Canada. As a measure of how much less the dollar buys because of inflation there is the point that the consumer price index has risen from 63.5 in 1939 to 143.8 in June of this year, which means that the cost of living has gone up by about 125 per cent in the period. On the taxation side, the combined take of the three levels of government as a proportion of the country's total output of wealth has risen from less than 20 per cent in 1939 to more than 32 per cent today.

To consider income tax only, in 1939 the average amount remitted to Ottawa by those Canadians in the $4,000 to $5,000 taxable in-

Textiles

Easy care — phoeey — is the reaction of a lot of Canadian housewives who inflict the worst possible punishment on modern textiles. And no wonder. They might as well beat their washables against rocks as misuse their automatic washers, and dryers and their cleaning materials the way they do.

Boiling water, strong bleaches, overworked machines, wringers and overheated dryers all take their toll of fabrics especially designed to lighten the housewife's workload — fabrics which really can be "easy care."

Fabrics which have been decimated by the time they are relatively well off since their incomes were four to five times that of the average factory worker — was only $71. Today the person with a taxable income of $650 pays a tax of $71. Those with a taxable income four to five times the average factory wage — that is, something like $20,000 a year — pay an income tax to Ottawa of $6,400.

Perhaps it is pointless to mourn the passing of the good old days, but the workman might reasonably earn for the good old dollar.

signed to shed soil don't need to be beaten to a pulp in a machine. It isn't really fair to test colorfastness in bleach strong enough to rot any fibre.

Fabrics which have been either chemically treated or heat set to retain their smoothness should not be put through the wringer or the dryer. The wringer puts creases in and the heat of the dryer may cook the finish to death. Instead of drip dry you'll get drip and droop.

Consumers don't really need to know "all about the new fabrics." So many developments are taking place at such a rapid pace, it would not be possible anyway that the consumer needs a general understanding of the basic characteristics of modern textiles and an appreciation of the constant efforts being made to improve the wear and care factors of all fabrics.

The whole trend in textile development today is to give every fabric as many virtues, as many easy care and better wear features as a consumer could desire. Each section of the Canadian textile industry is working to reduce the technical advantage that one fibre has over another and to mix and blend fibres to create fabrics with the best possible balance of desirable qualities. A music consumer guide to fabric characteristics that will prove helpful to most people is published by the Canadian textile industry. It is simply called "Fibre and Fabric Facts" and is offered free to all Canadians. The guide indulges in no fancy promises and gives honest facts about disadvantages as well as advantages, because it has been expressly prepared to help consumers.

The fact booklet shows natural and man-made fibres in a handy chart giving origins, basic characteristics, the common uses of fabrics made from the fibres and advice on general care. The chart also includes a convenient listing of Canadian trade names. Anyone who wishes to obtain a copy may do so by writing to the Canadian Textiles Institute, 630 LaGauchetiere St. W. Montreal.

Property Improvements

The house-painting fever has spread on Colville St. Mr. H. Patenaude's home received a fresh coat and the Jenneau home next door, some fresh trim; the Carmichael home, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Slawve and family of five has a new coat of white. The barn at the Carruthers place, with a bit of paint presents a cheerier view to the neighbours. Now the fever has spread to Academy Road and the Marsdens have changed their former colour scheme to white and Piccadilly green. A prefabricated house is being erected beside the Crawford's, providing interesting entertainment for the neighbours. In fact nobody wants to leave home in case they miss the next move.

Active Senior Citizens

On Wednesday of last week Mr. J. D. Lang, Mr. Keith Hale, Mrs. McColm and Mrs. Gallie paid a surprise visit on Mr. and Mrs. William Guynan of Hemmingford, and they in turn got two surprises. Mr. and Mrs. Guynan had just arrived home from the Barrie Memorial Hospital where Mrs. Guynan had spent several days getting treatment for a dislocated shoulder. It was their 48th wedding anniversary so they were glad to see their friends from Howick. They are a lively couple. Mrs. Guynan gave swimming lessons during the summer season and when they heard of the need for apple pickers they offered to help and have been busy at that work. We hope Mrs. Guynan's shoulder gives her no further trouble and we send best wishes for many more happy wedding anniversaries.

Indiscriminate Hunters

Once again tame cows and tame ducks and geese are running for their lives, while wild hunters are on the rampage shooting where they will and what they will. Angry farmers and angry farmer's wives protest vigorously in view of the danger to valuable livestock, but they are talking to the wind. To add insult to injury folk are wakened even earlier than usual by the sound of shooting around the farm buildings.

Turkey Supper

The turkey supper at the United Church last Saturday evening, was a real success. Every woman in the congregation helped in some way and many young girls helped with serving and drying dishes. Youths and men poured tea and coffee and helped also with the cleaning up afterwards. All hands were needed as 660 dinners were served between 4:30 and 9:30 p.m. It was a delicious meal, served piping hot and the con-venters deserve a special thank you for the tremendous job they did. There were four con-venters, Mrs. W. K. McRae and Mrs. J. J. Peddie in charge of the meal and Mrs. Melville Brown and Mrs. K. Younie in charge of reception, waiters and other details. They and their assistants, the road con-venters, were busy far ahead of the actual date.

Baskets and bowls of colour-ful autumn flowers arranged by Miss I. Frith, beautified the church and hall, and organ music played by Mr. A. J. Harris of Riverfield created a pleas-ant atmosphere for the folk who had to wait their turn to be served.

U.C.W. Meetings

Unit A of United Church Women met in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, Septem-ber 20th., with eleven mem-bers present. The devotional was taken by Mrs. Bradley.

The highlight of the meeting was a talk by U.C.W. President, Miss I. Frith, who gave a his-torical review of the begin-nings of missionary work in Canada. The first W.M.S. was formed in 1825. In 1845 John Geddie left P.E.I. as the first Missionary and the two Gor-don brothers who followed him in 1857 lost their lives as Martyrs in the New Hebrides. One hundred years later we find many schools, colleges and hospitals named after their lives spreading the good news.

The treasurer reported $28.40, August offering. A short business meeting was held when supply work was handed in and visits to Nurs-ing Homes and shut-ins report-ed. The leader, Mrs. Math Mc-Kell, closed the meeting with a little article called, "Our Problems" and the benedic-tion was repeated.

Unit B met on Tuesday eve-ning, September 20th., at Shir-ley Ness' home. The leader, Mrs. Clarence Kerr, presid-ed and 19 members and two visitors were present. The de-votional was led by Mrs. Bro-die McFarlane. Mrs. Eldon Orr introduced the new study, "The Church and the World". It proved to be most interesting and the unit is looking forward to further study. A report was given on the McLeellan Library books which are now available at the church and may be taken out before and after services.

Miss Frith reported that food sale receipts amounted to $38. Tentative plans were made to entertain at the next meeting.

Refreshments were served with a birthday cake as a special treat. Evelyn Turner ar-ranged with Shirley Ness for records to be played on the Ness Hi-Fi. This feature of the meeting was enjoyed.

United C had eight members present on Wednesday eve-ning, September 21st., at Eve-lyn Lamb's home. The devo-tional was taken by Mrs. Lamb. An excellent Bible Study was

92nd Birthday Observed

HAVELOCK — On September 23rd, James Mannagh was pleasantly sur-prised on his 92nd birthday, when a car load of young fel-lows from Hemmingford drove to Havelock and picked up his brother, Oswald Mannagh. A pleasant afternoon was spent reminiscing about the good old-time dances.

Mr. Edward Elerton played some fine selections on the violin to the enjoyment of all. James Mannagh at 92 also played and Wilmer resigned the bow for them.

These young fellows were Mr. Robert Campbell, Mr. Lor-ne Sample, Edward Elerton, Malcolm Brown and Oswald Mannagh. The youngest of this group is 79 and the eldest is 92. Quite a gathering of young fellows! Mr. Malcolm Brown drove the visitors to and from the Mannagh home.

It might be noted that some of the fellows in this group supplied music for many a Square Dance or House Party, in the "Good Old Days". One group was known as the Man-nagh Brothers with Mr. James and Mr. Wilmer playing the violin and Mr. Oswald or "Oasie" as the caller. It is not too many years ago that Mr. Oswald would "call off" at least one square dance at Havelock Town Hall. Mr. George Laurin of Os-hawa, Ont., and Mrs. Laurin and family, were recent Sun-day callers of Mr. and Mrs. E. Aisen and family and Mr. and Mrs. F. Laurin.

Birthday wishes to Danny MacCuaig, who celebrated a birthday on September 26th. Mr. Neilson Baskin and Bobby of Montreal and Mr. Ronald Rabideau of Montreal and Morrisburg, Ont., were re-cent callers at the J. Laurin home.

Mr. and Mrs. John MacCuaig of Ste. Rose, spent the week-end at their summer home here.

HEMMINGFORD NEWS

(By Mrs. L'Esperance)

A 25th Wedding Anniversary — Mr. and Mrs. Henri Legault celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on August 27th. At St. Frank Orr with ten members Roman's Church at 7:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Legault attended Mass, celebrated by Abbe Gilles Laplante. They were ac-companied by a number of relatives and friends and two of their sons served at the Mass. Not until Mr. and Mrs. Legault were on their way back to the Golf Club-house were they told that the very special cold buffet, which Mr. Legault had so carefully pre-pared earlier in the day, was, indeed, their own anniversary dinner. The party, planned by the children, and attended by 65 guests, had been a well-kept secret and proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Legault were married at St. Stanislas de Kostka and Mr. Legault has been in the hotel business ever since. He is now the Secretary of the Hemming-ford Golf Club and is respon-sible for the smooth running of the catering department. The many members and guests can well testify to the excel-lent service of this depart-ment. Mr. and Mrs. Legault have three sons, Pierre-Paul who is a student at the University of Sherbrooke, Jean-Francois in college at Valleyfield, Jean-Marc in college at Longueuil and two daughters, Christine and Sylvie who attend Aca-demie Langlois in Hemming-ford. Congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Legault from your many friends in this community. May you celebrate many more anniversaries.

An invitation to the ladies of the congregation to attend the annual Fall Thank-offer-ing meeting of St. Andrew's, Huntingdon, W. M. S. was read. The President thanked all Guild members for their co-operation and hard work in connection with the booth at Havelock Fair. It was most successful this year and a special appreciation was ex-tended to all who contributed in any way. The sick and visit-ing committee had a busy time this past month, six visits were made and numerous cards were sent. The Hall commit-tee announced that a "bee" would be organized Thanks-giving weekend to paint the church.

Arrangements for the 'sand-wich sale' to be held during the McKay auction were left in the hands of the Social committee, also the choosing of a date for the card party. It was decided to make the usual donation towards the school prizes. A donation will be sent to the Canadian Can-cer Society in memory of Mrs. W. Napper. Members agreed to support, to the best of their ability, the proposed Child-ren's Bilingual Library and during the discussion, one member expressed the hope that the library service would be available also to adults. News of the donation of an electric kettle for use in the church.
