Typhoon, Floods Take Heavy Toll In China Disaster

HONG KONG — (AP) — Typhoon Wanda, one of the worst such Pacific storms of the century, snuffed out the lives of at least 2,161 people, inflicted injuries to almost the same number and left millions homeless on the Chinese mainland, reports from Red China said today.

Peiping radio also reported that heavy rains in the wake of the hurricane winds during the last week have resulted in a "fairly tense" flood situation.

But China's two greatest rivers, the Yellow and the Yangtze, were described as under control.

The Red radio said rail transportation, disrupted for several days by the typhoon, now has returned to normal.

Wanda struck coastal China with devastating force last Wednesday and veered north to spend itself deep in the interior.

Chekiang province, south of Shanghai on the coast, bore the brunt of the big blow whose winds reached 150 miles an hour. The death toll in this province alone was given as 1,096, with 1,200 hurt.

The city of Shanghai, which was spared the full force of the storm, counted nine dead and 100 injured. The lakeside beauty centre of Hangchow, 100 miles southwest of Shanghai, had 92 dead and 300 injured. These figures may be augmented as reports reach Peiping from more remote regions.

Wanda played havoc with rice crops, orchards and gardens throughout the devastated area. Preliminary estimates were that 40 per cent of the cotton crop and one-third of the rice crop of the area were lost in the catastrophe.

China's worst natural disasters in recent history include floods that took 900,000 lives in 1887 and 100,000 in 1911.

KARACHI, Pakistan — (Reuters) — Thousands of persons fled their homes this week as the great River Indus, swollen by heavy rains, swept through West Pakistan leaving a trail of wrecked dwellings and flooded fields.

Reports reaching here today said a state of emergency has been declared in the worst areas where flooding tributaries have brought the Indus to danger levels. In the province of Sind alone about 30,000 were reported homeless.

Food and medical supplies are being rushed in by relief teams using boats and helicopters.

Police and emergency teams are standing by. The Indus is reported nine inches above the highest level previously recorded.

At nearby Khairpur the Indus has broken its banks and flooded 20,000 acres of land.

In Baluchistan, extensive flooding is reported from the Quetta district. Rivers have broken their banks and 20,000 are reported homeless.

Yugoslavia Bans Critical Papal Letter

BELGRADE — (Reuters) — The government Monday banned the printing and distribution in Yugoslavia of a pastoral letter from the Pope.

An announcement by the federal public prosecutor said the letter "contains a series of slanders and untrue allegations about conditions in our country, particularly that possibilities do not exist in our country for the free activity of religious communities and their adherents."

"It represents a gross attempt to misuse religion for political purposes, and is an inadmissible interference in the internal affairs of our country."

The whole contents of the letter confirm that it was written with the intention of harming the reputation of our country by making untrue allegations."

A dispatch from Rome said the Pope's letter, published July 14, was addressed to the archbishops, bishops, clergy and members of Catholic lay organizations in Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Poland, Romania and East Germany.

For the last 10 years "the Church of Christ (in eastern Europe) has been deprived — though not everywhere in the same manner — of its rights," it said. "Pious associations and religious organizations have been violently broken up. The clergy has been hindered in the exercise of its ministry — when it has not been deported, exiled or imprisoned."

Today's Chuckle

"Doesn't it EVER rain out here?" the visitor asked the Arizonan.

"Well, do you remember about Noah and the Ark, when it rained for 40 days?"

"Yes."

"Well, we got a half-inch that time."

DENVER — (AP) — An 831-page record of John Gilbert Graham's trial for murder growing out of the time-bombing of an airliner which killed 44 persons was filed Monday with the Colorado Supreme Court, automatically staying his execution. Graham had been sentenced to die the week of Aug. 26 in the gas chamber. He was convicted in the death of his mother, one of the passengers aboard the airliner which exploded last Nov. 1 near Longmont, Colo.

Session Nears Completion

OTTAWA — (AP) — Government legislation affecting labor is getting fast handling in the closing days of the parliamentary session with the compliance of the opposition parties.

The administration's two major labor bills of the long session zipped past several stages in the Commons Monday, with the only dissenting voice coming from a Liberal who didn't vote against the measure he opposed.

The day's score on Labor Minister Gregg's legislation:

1. The Commons gave second and final reading to a bill establishing equal pay for women doing the same work as men in industry under federal jurisdiction. It now goes to the Senate for ratification, which is certain.

2. The House accorded swift approval to a resolution preliminary to a bill to enable fishermen to get unemployment insurance and to re-instate some of the 100,000 other workers disqualified from collecting insurance benefits after 1955 amendments to the Unemployment Insurance Act.

The unusual inter-party co-operation led to the insurance bill getting first and second readings on a single day.

Opposition members were reserving any criticism for the bill's examination by the Commons industrial relations committee, to start today, and for later committee-of-the-whole debate.

Indications were that the near-record session in length of sitting days would end Saturday night.

Finance Minister Harris, government House leader, told a reporter the parties have agreed on a Saturday night target. At the latest, he said, prorogation would come by Tuesday, Aug. 14. This will make the session the second, longest in history, beaten out only by the 155 days of the 1903 Parliament.

The second-longest session — 148 days in 1907-08 — will be matched Thursday, Aug. 9.

The House gave final approval in 10 minutes to the government measure tightening federal control over small loans companies.

Mr. Harris also amended his income tax bill to reduce from six to four years, starting next Jan. 1, the period in which the revenue department can reopen old tax returns and boost assessments.

Speaking on a bill altering customs tariffs on some goods, Mr. Harris said it would be impossible for the Canadian government to induce the United States administration to change the American tariff on Canadian potatoes. However, "something" might be done for potato growers and the government was "considering it."

The House heard from Trade Minister Howe that wheat exports in the crop year ended July 31 will be about 310,000,000 bushels, third highest since the Second World War. Mr. Howe made the statement as the Commons approved the new International Wheat Agreement, which Canada has signed, running from last Aug. 1 to July 31, 1959.

The bill dealing with fishermen and the requalifying of previously-disqualified workers for unemployment insurance got quick treatment with agreement among the four Commons parties.

While Mr. Gregg did not elaborate on the effect of the reinstatement legislation, it was expected to requalify about half those unable to get regular insurance benefits last fall because of a general overhaul of the Insurance Act conducted by Parliament in 1955. The complication developed from a change in worker-employer payments into the fund from a daily to a weekly basis.

The new system called for a worker to have 30 weeks payments in a year to qualify for benefits. Mr. Gregg's bill reduces this to 24, at the same time cutting the minimum length of benefits from 15 to 12, respectively, half of the payment weeks.

On the bill providing equal pay with men for the 73,000 women in industry under federal jurisdiction, the only basic objection came from Liberal C. W. Carter of the Newfoundland constituency of Burin-Burgeo.

He suggested it should be laid over until next session for more consideration. While there should be no pay discrimination against women, wage differences could be due to economic factors, which might impel employers to hire men instead of women.

Red China Lifts Bar On Newsmen, But U.S. Doesn't

HONG KONG — (AP) — Red China lifted a seven-year ban on American correspondents Monday and gave 15 of them permission to visit the China mainland. But the U. S. state department promptly denied them permission to go.

A Hong Kong paper calls the Chinese invitations "load-dice."

The Peiping government authorized visas for the 15 representatives of U. S. agencies, newspapers and radio and TV companies, the French News Agency's correspondent there reported. Magazine reporters also were reported invited.

In Washington, press officer Lincoln White of the state department said the department would not validate the correspondents' passports for travel to Communist China, with which the U. S. has no diplomatic relations.

Ste. Agathe Chief Killed In Shooting

STE. AGATHE, Que. — (CP) — Police Chief Ernest Chalifoux of the Ste. Agathe force was fatally shot early today investigating two suspects, headquarters reported.

First reports said that the police captain, who was acting police chief, handled a call to investigate two suspected prowlers. Several shots were fired, police said, and the captain, who was alone, managed to drive his squad car back to the police headquarters.

He died in hospital. Police seek the slayers.

Ste Agathe is about 60 miles northwest of Montreal.

Provincial police at Montreal said a medical officer has been sent to the scene for the autopsy.

One report said that the acting chief attempted to stop two men breaking into a car and that Capt. Chalifoux was struck by six bullets.

It was not known whether Chalifoux fired any shots.

Seek Cause Of Explosion That Killed 3 At Niagara

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. — (AP) — Investigators today sought the cause of a million-dollar explosion at the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. plant Monday that killed three men and injured 17.

Company officials said the blast wrecked three buildings where an insecticide was being manufactured, and damaged six others.

The three dead were Herman C. Strablow, 29, John Maule, 34, and Francis Kramarik, 22, all of the Niagara Falls, N.Y. area.

Twelve of the injured are still in hospital and a company spokesman estimated the damage to buildings and equipment at $1,000,000.

He said the explosion, which came shortly after noon, was in a building near an area where classified government work was being done but that no buildings in the restricted area were damaged.

The fire which followed the blast was brought under control in about two hours.

Ike Vetoes Proposed Army Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower in effect today turned down Soviet Premier Bulganin's proposal that the West match Russia's announced move reducing the size of its armed forces by 1,200,000 men.

In a letter replying to one received from Bulganin June 6, the president also urged anew that Russia agree to Eisenhower's earlier proposal to freeze production of atomic weapons.

The president also sounded a new appeal for the Russians to reconsider their rejection of his "open skies aerial reconnaissance proposal."

Eisenhower called on Bulganin "do more to realize the hopes which were born at our meeting at Geneva" a year ago.

In his June 6 letter, Bulganin proposed what he called a "new approach to disarmament." The Russian's plan was basically unilateral, unsupervised armed forces cuts by the big powers. He coupled the proposal with one for withdrawal of all foreign forces from Germany.

Eisenhower said he welcomed Russia's move in reducing manpower but that it merely followed earlier moves by the U. S. to "steadily reduce" the size of its armed forces.

May Boycott Parley In Favor Of Taking Suez Problem To UN

LONDON — (AP) — Uncertainty today clouded prospects for the proposed 24-power conference on the Suez Canal as an Egyptian-sparked move to throw the dispute before the United Nations appeared under way.

Egypt, the Soviet Union and India head the list of countries which still have not said whether they will attend the talks the Western Big Three propose to open in London Aug. 16. And there were rumors today that India's Prime Minister Nehru might be shaping a counter-plan to give Egypt a face-saving avenue of retreat.

After a two-hour session Monday night, the Egyptian cabinet gave no indication whether it will accept the conference bid, but an official source asserted: "Egypt has plenty of time to answer. The deadline to deliver a reply is midnight Aug. 15."

Washington sources said then that all American planning was going ahead on the assumption that the conference would start on schedule, but the possibility of a postponement was not ruled out.

The rumors today had it that Nehru might come up with a proposal for some kind of mediation, or that he might join Egypt in demand that the whole issue be taken before the UN Security Council.

The Liberal newspaper News Chronicle says it has learned that Nasser already has informed Nehru that "Egypt will discuss the Suez Canal issue in the United Nations—and nowhere else."

Nehru scheduled a statement to the Indian Parliament Wednesday on the canal dispute, but gave no advance inkling of the position he would take.

Egypt's semi-official Middle East News Agency said the proposed London meeting could not alter nationalization of the canal company, and described the parley as "a conference of aggression not of peace." The statement by the agency's general manager, Galal Hamamsky, declared the conference plan was "charged with threats and the concentration of naval, land and air forces."

Prime Minister Eden virtually has ruled out any proposal to turn the question over to the UN. He recalled to Parliament last week that Egypt since 1951 had been flouting a Security Council request to lift restrictions on the passage of Israeli ships through the canal.

Eden is scheduled to give the British people a television-radio report Wednesday night on the situation that has brought deep concern here and sent British military reinforcements into the Mediterranean area.

In addition to Britain, France and the U.S., 11 countries have indicated that they will be represented.

As opposed to the general reaction in much of the West, Egypt's nationalization move has drawn firm support from the Arab world. Iraq, the only Arab member of the Western-sponsored Baghdad pact, has officially informed the other alliance members she is backing Egypt in the dispute.

Steel Price Raised Expect Wide Impact

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — United States Steel Corporation, the world's largest basic steel producer, today raised its prices an average of $8.50 a ton.

While steel prices vary widely, depending upon the many types, the composite price in the U.S. was about $130 a ton before the five-week strike which ended last weekend.

The price increase ultimately may be felt by millions of persons who buy the thousands of articles made from steel. Even before the increase came, the automobile industry indicated that it was anticipating such a move and making provisions for it in higher prices for 1957 models.

U.S. Steel's increase, anticipated in the wake of the strike, was somewhat lower than had been generally expected to revise their prices along the same line.

Clifford F. Hood, president of U.S. Steel, said his company's employment costs will increase approximately 7.6 per cent during the first year of the three-year contract which ended the walkout. He declared that the price increase amounts to "about 6.25 per cent."

A spokesman for David J. McDonald, president of the USW, said he would have no comment on the price increase. McDonald had said previously that the steel industry boosted prices in recent years by amounts substantially higher than their added costs in labor agreements.

Suez Company Won't Order Out It's Employees

PARIS — (Reuters) — The Suez Canal Company decided Monday against ordering the immediate withdrawal of its employees from their posts in Egypt.

An announcement issued at the company's headquarters here said non-Egyptian employees have been asked to choose before Aug. 15 between loyalty to the company and willingness to work for the canal's Egyptian state management.

It said those who remain loyal to the company should stay at their posts until a date to be decided later in view of the London conference on the Suez's future Aug. 16.

Egypt has ordered the employees to remain at their posts under threat of imprisonment.

NZ Backs Britain On Suez

WELLINGTON, N.Z. — (AP) — Prime Minister Sidney Holland told Parliament today New Zealand will support Britain in whatever she does in the Suez crisis.

"This means exactly what it says," he declared, "and if you are reaching conclusions about this, you are probably right. There is no doubt that some nations in the world appreciate a show of strength."

Holland said New Zealand will increase its forces in Malaya substantially in response to a British request. Presumably the New Zealand troops would free part of the British garrison in Malaya for shipment to the Middle East.

New Zealand faced a great crisis with grave possibilities as a result of Egypt's nationalization of the Suez Canal. It was vital to the United Kingdom, and the United Kingdom was vital to New Zealand.

The question at issue was whether or not an international waterway was to be under the control of one country. He could not accept such a proposition.

Difficult Reconciliation

One wonders how Finance Minister Harris will reconcile the apparent need for a bridge on our frisky economy and the obvious need for tax cuts to grease the Government's slide back to power.

There has been a strong suggestion that tax cuts would not be good for the country at this moment and would aggravate inflationary tendencies. This is difficult for the tax-tormented citizens to stomach, but it may very well be true.

If so, what of the traditional pre-election tax reductions? Are they to be dropped or will they be so small as to be insignificant and ineffective politically?

This seems highly unlikely. Inflationary tendencies or not, the Government is in no position to discard its most effective vote-catcher. The tax cuts may ultimately mean nothing to us in buying power, but we'll get them nonetheless.

Kefauver's Gambit

In the final phases of the presidential nominating process, there are often big moves which give a psychological lift to one candidate or another.

The withdrawal of Sen. Estes Kefauver is the first such development in the 1956 Democratic sweepstakes. The likely beneficiary is, of course, Adlai Stevenson, the front runner. This would have been so whether or not Kefauver urged his supporters to switch to Stevenson.

Analysis of convention delegates' leanings makes this evident. The fact that Kefauver did call on his people to back Adlai may be of further help to the Illinoisan. But that is not an automatic result when a withdrawing candidate seeks to throw his strength elsewhere.

At such moments the delegates may be governed by one or more of three considerations: Loyalty to their original favorite, their second-choice sentiments, and their desire to ride with the winner. Of these, the weakest is the urge to find the winner.

Released delegates are free agents, and cannot be commanded. In Kefauver's case, however, the evidence indicates that Stevenson is the second choice of a good many of the senator's delegate supporters. Thus they will be quite happy to take his suggestion to switch.

Publicity

It has always been deemed an indisputable fact that publicity pays — if the publicized object can deliver the goods.

We were under the impression that publicity meant recognition, or something that gave an impetus to sales, or fame, but apparently we have labored under a delusion. According to the dictionary, publicity means notoriety, with an undesirable connotation.

Health Minister Martin must have known the real meaning for he says that the publicity re Canadian cheese was, to say the least, unfortunate.

It certainly was, for a three-man investigating team found that until a few years ago, Canadian cheese was produced in unsanitary factories. Some samples of that period contained such foreign matter, as hairs of rats and cattle, and fragments of manure.

Such fearsome facts should perhaps have been published only to those interested, and not to the public in general.

Dr. F. S. Thatcher, head of the investigation, says there is no need to get hot under the collar, for there has been "quite widespread" improvements in factories since the survey was taken. Here is one fact that should be published even at the risk of publicity.

These dictionaries sure get a fellow all mixed up. Pub, in England, means tavern. To publish means to announce, proclaim, or circulate, publishing means making public, and yet publicity means notoriety.

We don't get it.

Teaching The Young Idea

Peterborough Examiner

—Too many people, having grasped the idea that schools exist to teach young people what they need to know to enter adult life, have widely misinterpreted that purpose to include just about anything which seems desirable to themselves.

But subjects of school study vary greatly in value. There are great subjects—history, literature, languages, mathematics, and sciences—which not only provide students with factual knowledge but also train them to reason and to discipline their minds; and there are lesser subjects which simply provide students with particular skill.

The mind is like a muscle; give it hard work and it will become strong and sinewy. The subjects which provide hard mental exercise are the important ones, for they build up an intellectual strength which can be preserved and increased as long as life lasts.

And people of genuine intelligence are quick to learn to drive cars, swim and refrain from despoiling nature; they will find their way in religion and sex because they have learned to apply intelligence to life. They are educated because they have learned to use their brains.

PARLIAMENT IS NOT A PLAGUE

(Ottawa Journal)

What is all this cry-baby stuff about Parliament sitting too long and being brought to an end?

Hearing it, one might almost imagine that it wasn't about Parliament at all, but about some plague.

Parliament is performing important public business; should any one want it to skip such business, to run away from it?

It is true that if the Government had organized its program better, and some members hadn't talked too long about too little in the earlier part of the session, the business of the House would have been over earlier. That, however, didn't happen—it never does—and so the House has work left to do, and should do it.

If some members think that by having to stay on to do this work they are being saddled by some awful hardship they have a remedy near at hand—the simple one of staying away from the next Parliament.

Bygone Days

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From the Record of Saturday, Aug. 7th., 1926.

Nineteen year-old Gertrude Ederle, the first woman to swim the English Channel and the sixth person on record to do so, has created a new record of 14 hours and 31 minutes.

A serious clash has been reported between Mexican troops and the populace which is rioting against the religious suppression measures of the Radical Government.

The condition of Hon. George H. Boivin, former Canadian Minister of Customs and Excise, and Member of Parliament for Shefford, who underwent an operation in a Philadelphia hospital, is reported as extremely critical.

The Canadian National Railways have denied the intention of closing the shops at Richmond and transferring a large portion of the staffs elsewhere.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Record of Friday, August 7th., 1936.

Fears are being expressed in European capitals that despite its signing of a non-intervention pact, Germany will take an active part in the Spanish Civil War on the side of the Insurgents. The Government forces are claiming several new victories although neutral observers indicate that the Rebels are gaining around Madrid.

A new trade agreement is being concluded between Canada and the Reich which, it is hoped, will materially improve the relations between the two countries.

It is indicated that King George II of Greece may be deposed again as the result of popular indignation against his support of the present dictatorship of Premier John Metaxas.

Local bakers are anticipating a rise in bread prices following a sharp upturn in the quotations for wheat and flour. The jump might be a cent a loaf.

TEN YEARS AGO

From the Record of Wednesday, Aug. 7th., 1946.

Dr. David Shugar, wartime Naval anti-submarine expert, has been re-arrested on a charge of conspiracy and of breaking the Official Secrets Act of 1939. He was previously arrested following the final report on the Royal Commission on espionage, was released through lack of evidence, but the Commission's two supreme court judges still considered the Polish-born physicist guilty of communicating secret information to Russia.

Col. A. A. Munster, president and managing director of Canadian Silk Products, and president of the Canadian Association of the Sherbrooke Hospital, has been appointed chairman of the campaign for the new hospital. The campaign will be conducted from September 30th., to October 12th., with an objective of 500,000 dollars. The existing hospital on Park Ave., is inadequate to meet the demands of the Eastern Townships patients.

DRUNK OR SOBER DRIVING

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

In a Sherbrooke, Quebec, court a few days ago a man was charged with criminal negligence in driving a car. The report in the Sherbrooke Record says:

"The judge asked him if he had been drinking and after receiving a negative answer, told the man it was hard enough dealing with drunken drivers without having those 'cold sober' make an appearance in court. He doubled the fine because of this fact."

The Ottawa Evening Journal takes the view that it appears that in Sherbrooke at least, if a man drives negligently he can save money by partaking first of a few drinks; that it is cheaper to claim having taken a drink or two than to be obliged to admit to the court that he was sober.

That is one way of looking at it, but there is also another. If a sober man drives carelessly, recklessly or negligently, whichever way the charge is worded, there is surely less excuse for him than for a man who has dulled his wits by taking a few drinks. One man is fully aware what he is doing; the other is not. If the question of drink entered into this particular case, surely the charge should have been that of driving while "impaired." Such a charge would have been much more serious than that of criminal negligence.

THINKING LIKE A FISH

(Kitchener-Waterloo Record)

"The nearer a man can think like a fish, the more fish he can catch," says a sports writer. Now will you quit bragging about how many fish you caught?

"SEE HERE, MY MAN - YOU CAN'T GET AWAY WITH THAT YOU KNOW."

DOUBLE RISKY IN SHUT-OUT HAND

How many defensive tricks should you expect from a partner who has opened with a shutout bid of three in a suit? None at all, assuming that your partner uses modern bidding methods.

The opening bid of three in a suit shows a long but far from solid suit in an otherwise worthless hand. East's hand, shown today, is stronger than average for an opening bid of three. He contributed nothing to the defense, but he had promised nothing. (A stronger hand is needed when vulnerable, particularly when the opponents are non-vulnerable.)

West opened the ace of spades and shifted to the queen of hearts at the second trick. South took the king of hearts, ruffed a spade in dummy, got back to his hand with the ace of hearts, and began on the clubs.

The proper management of the clubs was simple since East's announced length in spades warned declarer to expect shortness in the other suits. South began with the king of clubs and followed with the ten to dummy's queen. East's spade discard made the situation clear. South got back to his hand with the king of diamonds to lead another club through West's jack.

West ruffed the fifth club, but by that time South had already

Cookshire Couple Feted On 50th Anniversary

COOKSHIRE. — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Learned were at home to their relatives and friends at a celebration marking the 50th anniversary of their wedding. The actual date fell on June 13, but due to illness the anniversary was observed at a later date.

Guests came from far and near to wish this highly esteemed couple many more years of happy union. Mrs. Learned wore a powder blue crepe dress, trimmed with matching lace. Her corsage of yellow roses was a gift from Mrs. Vonda Huntingdon. The groom's flower was a yellow carnation.

The rooms were decorated with many vases and baskets of beautiful flowers. The tea table, covered with an exquisite lace cloth, an anniversary gift, was centered with a three-tier wedding cake which had been decorated by Mrs. Rupert Learned, a daughter-in-law of the honored couple. Gold colored candles in gold trimmed candlesticks completed the table arrangements.

Luncheon was served buffet style by friends and relatives and Bruce Learned was in charge of the punch bowl.

Mr. Rupert Bishop, who had been Mr. Learned's groomsmen, made the presentation of gifts from relatives and friends, the bride receiving an electric mixer and the groom an electric shaver and a purse of money.

Mr. Bishop gave an interesting account of the wedding in the horse and buggy days of 50 years ago. He told of the lavish feast served the guests after the ceremony and recounted many other interesting facts. He also spoke of the kindly and generous hospitality received by all who called at Evergreen Farm at Learned Place.

Burgess' Mother Returns

LONDON. — (AP) — The mother of runaway British diplomat Guy Burgess returned Monday night from visiting him in the Soviet Union. She hinted Burgess now is at odds with fellow renegade Donald Maclean.

The two foreign office men fled from Britain to Moscow five years ago and subsequently disclosed they had been Communist sympathizers for years.

Mrs. Eve Bassett, 69-year-old mother of Burgess, flew back to London after spending a month's holiday with him at a Black Sea resort.

She was not very communicative about her son and when asked whether she had seen Maclean and his wife she replied with a sniff:

"I saw and heard nothing of those people."

She declined to say whether that meant Burgess and Maclean were no longer friendly.

Mrs. Bassett was escorted off a Stockholm plane by a burly red-haired man who was not identified. Her second husband, Col. J. R. Bassett, met her at the airport.

She said Burgess is "very happy in Russia."

Moving Performance

Members of a Canadian Legion branch have designed and built a portable outdoor stage and donated it to a Veterans' hospital. Mounted on a trailer, it can be assembled in a few minutes into a 20' x 27' stage and moved to any part of the hospital grounds.

Light, easy-to-handle aluminum was the Legion members' obvious choice of material. And in case of sudden thunderstorms, it would be a simple matter to roll the performers, stage and all, under the nearest shelter. A typical example of how aluminum often provides not just one but several advantages on a single job.

BLOOD—YOUNG

On Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, in St. Peter's Church, bedecked in white flowers, the marriage took place of Miss Barbara Joan Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Maxwell Young, of North Hatley, and Mr. Thomas Ewing Blood, of Chicago, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Graffen Blood, of Chicago, the Rev. James Fisk officiating. Mr. Morris C. Austin played the wedding music and Miss Mona Biggs sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the signing of the register. Tall white standards of Shasta anemone chrysanthemums and gladioli stood against the pillars in the side aisles and decorated the chancel. The altar was centered with a silver basket of identical flowers flanked by white candles in silver candelabra, with a single large candle at each end. Pews reserved for the guests were marked by white candles in wrought iron aisle candelabra, embedded in clusters of Shasta anemone chrysanthemums and gladioli, tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a short-sleeved gown of white organza worked with lace and seed pearls around the neckline and down the back, with long white kid gloves buttoning at the wrists. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by a Juliet cap made of the same lace and tiny seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white delphinium featuring a touch of pale blue delphinium.

Miss Patricia Gilbert Young was maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were Miss Marguerite Johnson of Medford, Mass., Miss Chela Terradas, of Havana, Cuba, and Miss Margaret Anne Savage of Sherbrooke. All the attendants were dressed alike in ballerina length frocks of shrimp colored chiffon, the shirred bodices having portrait necklines and very full bouffant skirts. They wore white short kid gloves and tiny band hats made of the same material as their dresses, matching silk shantung shoes and carried cascade bouquets of white Shasta anemone type chrysanthemums.

Lieut. Lloyd V. Morris acted as best man for Mr. Blood, and the ushers were Mr. William Blood and Mr. Robert Blood, brothers of the bridegroom, and Mr. Allan Farmer.

Mrs. Young, mother of the bride, was gowned in a taupe pure silk dress with matching hat, and she wore mink colored bag and shoes with lustre finish and a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Blood, the groom's mother, was in a Wedgwood blue silk ribbon dress and she wore a black picture hat, matching accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

The reception was held on the grounds at Hovey Manor, North Hatley, where the bride's table, backed by standards of white gladioli, was decorated with a low oblong centerpiece fashioned of Happy Day roses, gypsophila and Adiantum greenery. The four-tier wedding cake was placed on a smaller table nearby.

For their wedding trip to Christmas Cove, Maine, the bride chose a champagne color silk frock having a bouffant skirt, and she wore a white feather hat, matching accessories and a bronze cymbidium orchid corsage.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Blood, parents of the bridegroom, and their sons, Messrs. Robert and William Blood of Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. W. G. Blood of Keokuk, Iowa, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Ferrabee, Mount Bruno, Que.; Lieut. Lloyd V. Morris, New York, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus S. Blagden Jr., Stewartville, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jefferson, Lake Worth, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lafleur, Mr. and Mrs. William Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Falconer, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bickley, Quebec City; Mr. and Mrs. Theoparr, and Mr. Irwin Goldhart, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Blood will reside in Boston, Mass.

Don't Just Blame Husband Break The Bars Yourself

By RUTH MILLETT
Why do so many wives blame their husbands for the dull lives they lead?

Because it is easier for a wife to put all the blame on her husband and decide there's simply nothing she can do to change her life—short of changing her husband—than it is for her to get busy creating a little fun and excitement.

Maybe her husband doesn't perk up when she says half-heartedly, "Would you like to see a movie tonight?"

But if she gives the movie she wants to see a big buildup, and dangles a little bait before him by mentioning that his favorite Hollywood glamor girl is in the picture she might get a better response.

Perhaps her husband doesn't ever offer to take over the children while she gets away for a few hours. That doesn't necessarily mean she has to be tied down.

If she can't afford a baby sitter she can usually find a neighbor who will be glad to take over her children occasionally if she will reciprocate by doing the same for the neighbor.

She may be sold on the idea that her husband doesn't like entertaining and so has stopped inviting people in.

But did she ever try inviting HIS friends instead of hers for an evening and then watch him shine as a jovial host?

So her husband doesn't talk to her about his work? Lots of husbands don't.

But wives who have plenty of outside interests of their own don't feel shut away from the world just because they don't share in their husband's business lives.

So her husband throws cold water on most of her plans and ideas.

Let him throw. He'll get tired of throwing cold water if it never does him any good.

No, husbands aren't responsible if their wives lead dull and boring lives. With a little gumption and imagination a wife can get some of the things she wants out of life, no matter how little cooperation and encouragement she gets from her husband.

Giving up is never the fault of anyone but the one who decides to give up.

British Columbia Making Third Bid For Willingdon Cup At Edmunston

EDMONTON — (CP) — Three newcomers and one returnee are to represent British Columbia next week in the west coast province's bid for a third-straight Willingdon Cup team victory at the Canadian amateur golf championship, but there'll be more than one familiar face around.

It's the same story with the other three western provinces, each of which has only one of the 1955 team members repeating in the competition starting Monday at Edmunston, N.B. Bob Kidd, 29-year-old six-footer from Vancouver Marine Drive, is the only member of last year's record-shattering B.C. team who is back this year, but Bob Fleming, 25, of Victoria Gorge Vale, was on the winning B.C. team in 1954.

The other B.C. team members are newcomers Gordon McKenzie, 21, and John Russell, 25, both of Vancouver Point Grey.

Bill McColl, 26, of Victoria Royal Colwood, a member of the B.C. team that fired a record 561 score last year, is an alternate this time.

The Alberta team, second in 1955, has veteran cup player Doug Silverberg, 23, of Red Deer as the only repeater from a year ago.

The others are R. B. "Mike" Pyke, 35, of the Calgary Country Club, who played on a Quebec Willingdon team in 1948, and newcomers Joe Ferguson, 21, of the Calgary Shaganappi Club, and Ricky Collier, 20, of the Edmonton Highlanders.

Three Regina Wascana players — Del Wilson, 29, Dr. Ben Reid, 41, and Dr. Doug McAlpine, 35 — and 23-year-old Jack Tait of the Saskatoon Golf and Country Club are representing Saskatchewan with Wilson the only one back from 1955.

Representing Manitoba are four Winnipeg golfers — Bob Gray, 28, of the Elmhurst Club; Don Gardner, 25, and Harry Critchley, 39, of the Charleswood Club; and George Knudson, 19, of the Pine Ridge Club. Ray is the lone repeater from 1955.

Each province will also have a junior shotsmith at Edmunston for the Canadian junior golf championships, won last year by Knudson.

Manitoba's hope this year is Wilf Homenuik, 18, from Winnipeg Elmhurst. The other junior entrants are Rob Kennedy, 18, of Moose Jaw Willowdale, for Saskatchewan; Bruce Murray, 17, of Edmonton Highlands, for Alberta; and Bryan Copp, 18, of Vancouver for B.C.

In the entire list, the faces of Silverberg and Gray among the most familiar in national play. Silverberg is making his eighth consecutive trip to the Canadian championships, his fifth in a row as a member of the Alberta Willingdon team after three years as junior representative.

Gray, who started golfing at 16, is in the Willingdon competition for the seventh time. It is his fourth trip with the Manitoba team. He was with Saskatchewan in 1949, Manitoba in 1951-52, with New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island in 1953-54 and back in Manitoba in 1955 and again this year.

Burke Emery Decisions Jimmy Webb; Rory Calhoun Wins 23rd

NEW YORK — (Special) — Sherbrooke's Burke Emery scored a hard fought decision over tough Jimmy Webb here last night. Emery weighing 161 pounds, two less than his opponent, rocked Webb repeatedly with left hooks and hard rights. The only round Webb showed to any advantage was in the last of the six-round affair, when he caught Emery with a series of combinations and opened a gash over Emery's eye.

Emery, by virtue of this win, earned a semi-final shot at Chicago Aug. 29th.

On the same card Rory Calhoun, winner of 23 straight pro fights, wasn't at all satisfied with his decision over Charlie Cotton because he "wanted to knock

Senators Edge Yankees In Little League

Senators and Yankees battled it out last night at the Parade Grounds in a little league game which ended in a 14-6 victory for the Senators. This loss by the Yankees puts them back in cellar position in the league standing. To-night the big one is on with the White-Sox meeting the Indians with both teams fighting for top spot.

The game last night was close for two innings with the Yankees leading 4-2 but the Yanks added two more in the top of the third to take a 6-2 lead.

Senators coming to bat in the last part of the third eventually got to McNaire the Yankees pitcher and scored six runs to take the lead for the first time. Thomas came up with a home-run with two men aboard in this inning and Senators added three more runs in each of the fourth and fifth innings. Thomas again hitting a homer in the fifth inning.

Starring for Yankees was McLeod with three hits while Thomas was the winner's big gun. Yankees 3-1-2-0-0-0 6-6-3 Senators 0-2-6-3-3-x 14-6-1 McNaire and Parker.

Montreal Royals Take Doubleheader From Toronto; Four Games Behind

Montreal Royals, who once threatened to make a runaway of the International League pennant race and then skidded to fourth place, are back in the fight today—trailing the pace-setting Toronto Maple Leafs by 4½ games.

The Royals, their attack and defence crippled when hard-hitting Rocky Nelson and Chico Fernandez moved up to the majors, personally knocked two games off the Leafs' lead Monday when they beat their Canadian rivals 10-6 and 12-6.

The second-place Rochester Red Wings lost a chance to close in on the Leafs by dropping a 4-1 decision to the last-place Buffalo Bisons on Peanuts Lowrey's grand slam homer in the league's only other game.

The Royals came from behind with nine runs in the last two innings to beat the Leafs in the first game and then carried their attack over into the second with 11 runs in the first two frames.

After scoring one run on Harry Schewagan's fourth-inning homer in the opener, the Royals crashed through for three in the eighth with Clyde Parrish's homer accounting for all of them. John Roseboro drove home three of the six ninth-inning tallies with a homer. Two of the Leafs' 12 hits were homers by Sam Jethroe and Pete Wojcik.

The Royals scored six runs in the first inning of the nightcap. Then Jasper Sears homered in the second and the Royals parlayed two singles and four walks into another four runs.

Dave Cole received credit for both victories in relief. He took over from starter Frank White in the seventh of the opener and relieved Glen Mickens in the third of the seven-inning second contest.

Marlene Stewart Favored To Cop Women's Title

WINNIPEG — (CP) — Canadian women's national and interprovincial golf championships will be decided on Niakwa Golf club's flat 6,501 yards here starting Thursday and running through next week.

Championships to be decided this week are the interprovincial, the women's junior and the Canadian women's closed title. The Canadian women's Open, with defending champion Marlene Stewart of Fonthill leading the entries, will be played Aug. 10. Four-member interprovincial team play, the two-member interprovincial and the junior individual medal play will go over 36 holes in the first two days. The close championships, for Canadian players only, is over 54 holes in three days, to end Aug. 11.

Miss Stewart, with an accurate and powerful swing, is expected to have little trouble with the Niakwa course in defending both the closed and the match-play Open.

Last year's junior winner was Noreen Laing of Port Credit, Ont., who came in with a 36-hole total of 167 at Victoria. British Columbia holds the 1955 four-member team title while two Manitobans, Donna Patton and Joanne Percy, were the two-women team champions.

In the close, Mary Gay of Kitchener, runner-up to Miss Stewart last year, is likely to be the big competition again although she lost out by 15 strokes in 1955.

Miss Stewart and Miss Gay also finished one-two in the Open last year, but both will have some stiff competition from United States golfers this year.

Milwaukee Loses; Red Legs Creeping Up On Idle Dodgers; Rookie Pitcher Hurls First Win For New York Yanks

Free-speaking Frank Lane deals baseball players in whole-sale lots while Gabe Paul blows a muted horn, deals 'em one or two at a time and has nothing to show for it but a pennant contender in his Cincinnati Redlegs.

Francis Frank built his trading reputation with Chicago White Sox before taking over as general manager of St. Louis Cardinals, but he met his match in Gabe.

Cincinnati's 7-6, 10-inning victory over the Redlegs within two games of Milwaukee's National League leaders. The winning run was knocked in by ex-Cardinal Alex Grammas after fine relief work by Hal Jeffcoat and Buster Freeman, who were picked up by Gabe in little-publicized deals.

The victory also edged the Redlegs to within five percentage points of Brooklyn's idle second-place Dodgers. The Braves were beaten 5-4 in 11 innings by Chicago Cubs.

In the American League, young Ralph Terry, with relief help, won his major league debut as New York Yankees ended their losing streak at six games, cooling off Boston Red Sox 4-3. The victory again gave the Yanks an eight-game bulge over second-place Cleveland, beaten by Detroit 9-0 in the only other game scheduled.

Grammas—a shortstop Paul dealt to the Cards for $100,000 a few seasons back, then reclaimed from Lane this spring plus outfielder Joe Frazier in return for utilityman Chuck Harmon—delivered a two-out single to score Gus Bell with the clinching run in the 11th. Bell, whom Paul picked up from Pittsburgh in 1952 for three lesser lights, had doubled to open the frame. He also slugged his 20th homer in the first inning.

The Card starter was Jackie Collum, the lefty who originally was St. Louis property and then was traded back to Lane this spring for Brooks (15-3) Lawrence. He left in a four-run third that produced a 6-4 Cincy lead.

Jeffcoat, obtained by Paul from the Cubs for excess catcher Hobie Landrith, relieved Joe Nuxhall in the third and would have had it wrapped up except for two unearned St. Louis runs in the eighth. Freeman, bought by Paul from Boston, pitched just the 10th, and won his 10th.

The Cubs had only five hits, but three were for extra bases—including home runs by Monte Irvin and Ernie Banks (No. 25) that built a 4-0 lead. The Braves tied it with three in the seventh. But reliever Dave Jolly issued a walk, a double to Walt Moryn and a sacrifice fly to Pete Whisenant that broke it up. Jim Davis won it in relief.

Henry Aaron, top NL hitter, stretched his hitting streak to 23 games with a single and double in the Braves' eight hits.

Gerry Coleman's two-run single capped a three-run fourth for the Yankees and they added the winning marker in the fifth on Hank Bauer's double and Yogi Berra's single.

Jim Piersall's two-run homer got Terry, a 20-year-old right-hander just up from Denver, into sixth-inning trouble. Tom Morgan took over, then gave way to Tommy Byrne in the seventh and the veteran lefty retired the seven men he faced. Tom Brewer was the loser for a 15-4 record.

A seven-run eighth inning nailed down Detroit's fourth straight victory, with Ray Boone's bases-loaded triple the big blow against relievers Art Houtteman and Bob Feller. Paul Foytack gained his first major league shutout with a five-hitter. Herb Score fanned 11 and gave just four hits, but trailed 2-0 when lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth.

Rain postponed Philadelphia at New York in the National. It was rescheduled in a two-night doubleheader today.

Egyptian Princess Favored To Cop Hambletonian At Goshen Wednesday

GOSHEN, N.Y. — (AP) — Most of the sulky veterans around Goshen like the chances of Egyptian Princess in the $100,000 Hambletonian Wednesday at Good Time Park, but there are several "dark horses" to reckon with in harness racing's greatest spectacle.

Twenty horses, third largest number ever entered for the race, will line up behind the starting gate for the classic. Most attention is being paid to Egyptian Princess, Saboteur, Nimble Colby and Ego Hanover, the big four so to speak.

But trainer-driver Bob Parkinson has a pair, Bold Rodney and Moray, while New Bower has a real dark horse in the The Intruder, the latter a doubtful starter.

Parkinson will drive Bold Rodney, a son of Rodney who won a heat in the 1947 race eventually taken by Hoot Mon.

The Intruder was sick last year and didn't race," said Bower, 33, from Ravens, Ohio. "But he's won several races this year, although I've got to call him a real dark horse here."

The brown colt is a son of Scotland. Scotland has sired four Hambletonian winners, Rosalind (1936), Spencer Scott (1940), the Ambassador 1942 and Hoot Mon, who set the stakes record of 2:00 flat in 1947.

Last Saturday, the railbirds looked twice when the Intruder worked out two one-mile spins in 2:04 4/5 and 2:05.

the Clearview Stable, Winthrop, Me., drew the favorable No. 3 post position, and if she races as she did earlier in the season it should be all over in two heats. Earle Avery of Woodstock, N.B., will handle the reins.

Fullmer Tired Of Robinson's Indifference

WEST JORDAN, Utah — (AP) — Middleweight contender Gene Fullmer's manager says he is tired of what he called "stalling" by Sugar Ray Robinson. Manager Marv Jensen said Monday that if the champion has not signed for a championship fight with Fullmer by Wednesday he will seek other opponents.

Jensen said he has so advised Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club.

Jensen said Robinson verbally agreed two weeks ago to defend his title against Fullmer next month. Jensen said the agreement called for Robinson to receive 47 1/2 per cent of the gate, with Fullmer to take a challenger's share of only 12 1/2 per cent.

Fullmer currently is rated the No. 1 challenger by Ring magazine, and the No. 2 challenger by the National Boxing Association.

Jurisdiction Argument In Football Suit

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The suit of British Columbia Lions against quarterback Rudy Bukich and the Los Angeles Rams has been set over for a week until the courts here decide whether they have jurisdiction to hear it. Lions, of the Western Interprovincial Football Union, claim they signed Bukich to a $32,000, two-year contract while he was in the United States Army a year ago and that Bukich has since signed with Rams of the National Football League.

15 SAVE STROKES

By JACKIE BURKE

If the shot appears to call for a five-iron, also consider the four and six.

If the four is obviously too much and the six not enough, use the five. But don't let your decision rest on the five until you are satisfied that something else might not serve better.

Leave a margin for error. From the standpoint of percentage, it is often wiser to play short of or beyond the pin than to choose a club which will carry you directly to it. If the green is trapped to the rear, it pays to play to the front of it. If it is trapped to the front, it pays to play to the rear even at the cost of going over.

Missing hazards is much more important than taking a chance on being close to the pin. While you may get close, you may nevertheless still miss your putt. Playing safe, you may make the putt anyway, probably get down in 2, at the most 3.

A raised green has a bearing on the choice of clubs. Frequently the level of the green may be 10 feet higher than the spot of fairway you are standing on.

This can mean as much as a full club more.

DETROIT — (AP) — Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League Monday ruled out Detroit Lions' bid to sign halfback Tom Tracy of the Ottawa Rough Riders.

"We don't want war with Canada," he said.

Bell said Tracy, raised in a Detroit suburb, must play with the Big Four club again this season under an option clause in his contract.

IBBOTSON WANTED TICKET, RAN MILE IN 3:59.4

LONDON. — (AP) — Derek Ibbotson of Britain joined the exclusive four-minute milers' club today thanks to the arrival of his fiancée's cousin from the United States.

Ibbotson, a 5,000 metres specialist, was undecided about running the mile at the London White City track meet. Then into London flew his fiancée's American cousin, Maureen McCarthy. "We wanted an extra ticket to tonight's banquet after the track meet," Ibbotson said. "The only way to get one was to run in the invitation mile. That made up my mind. I told the officials 'I'll run if I get another ticket.'"

They gave him the ticket. The 23-year-old Yorkshireman went out on the wet track to clock a surprising 3:59.4 and win the Emsley Carr trophy.

The time amazed him and 35,000 cheering fans. A four-minute mile was about his last thought when he was 200 yards from the finish. Then someone in the crowd shouted: "Go on, you can do four minutes easily." So Ibbotson sprinted ahead and did just that. "I thought I might as well be under the four minutes as over it," he said.

Ibbotson won the mile—a special invitation race—at the final session of the two-day British Czechoslovakian track and field meet, won by Britain. The British men totalled 119 points against 93 and the women 58 to 48.

On Saturday, Ibbotson won the three miles in 13:28.2, the second fastest in the world this year for that distance.

After his success today, Ibbotson said: "I still think three miles or the Olympic 5,000 metres is my best distance. The time amazed me. I had done only two days' serious training in a fortnight because of ankle and knee injuries."

Ibbotson thought he had little chance of winning the mile. He wanted to help his friend, Ian Boyd, put up a good time to qualify for Britain's 1,500 metres trio in the Olympics.

The smiling, wise-cracking Yorkshireman did not seem a threat until the last quarter.

Then he turned in a time of 37 seconds.

The first quarter was passed in 59.2, with British steeplechaser John Disley in the lead and Ibbotson sixth. Disley still led at the end of the half mile in a time of 2:00.2, with Ibbotson fourth. Alan Gordon of Britain led at the three-quarter mark in 3:02.4. Boyd was second and Ibbotson third. Then came Ibbotson's final burst.

Boyd finished second in 4:03.2 and Ron Delaney of Ireland, who ran the mile under four minutes in the United States, was third in 4:06.4.

The four-minute mile now has been broken 15 times by nine men. World record holder is Australia's John Landy with 3:58, set at Turku, Finland, on June 21, 1954.

Head-On Smash-Up Takes Father of Two

Widow and Children Receive $10,000 on $5,000 Policy

On his way to spend the week with his family, a young businessman was the victim of a highway smash-up.

His death came only a few months after he took out a Confederation Life Policy for $5,000, with an Accidental Death & Dismemberment clause. He chose this policy because of its low cost Double Indemnity guarantee in case of accidental death.

It was a wise choice because Confederation Life promptly paid his widow twice the face value of the policy, $10,000 instead of $5,000. This substantial sum of money was a godsend to the bereaved family.

A $5,000 policy with Confederation's Accidental Death and dismemberment Benefit pays:

- Liberal cash payments for non-fatal dismemberment accidents and
- $5,000 if you die from natural causes.
- $10,000 if you die by accident.
- $15,000 if you die by accident while a passenger in a commercial bus, street car, train or ship, or in a fire in a public place.
