World News In Brief

Windsor, Ont., 17.—(CP)—End of the 121-day old strike of Chrysler Corporation workers here and at Chatham, Ont., was expected today, following completion of union balloting on terms of settlement.

More than 4,000 workers have been involved in the strike, called by the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) June 18 to enforce demands for $2-a-day wage increases and a 40-hour work week for employees in Windsor and Chatham Chrysler plants.

Last night by a 2-1 vote, employees of the Windsor plant accepted the rand formula of union security—major issue in the strike. Chatham employees vote on the formula today.

London, Oct. 17.—(CP)—Surrey police announced today that burglars last night broke into the country home of the Earl of Dudley at Sunningdale, Surrey, and stole a "considerable amount of jewellery" belonging to the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

The Duke and Duchess are guests of the Earl during their visit to England.

The Earl's home, Ednam Lodge, overlooks the Sunningdale golf course and its grounds are separated from the fairways by a 15-foot box edge. Sunningdale is near the famous racing centre of Ascot and within an hour's drive of London.

Within the last several months jewel thieves have staged a number of daring robberies in the London area, preying chiefly on the homes of wealthy West enders. Among the victims was actress Beatrice Lillie—Lady Peel in private life—who lost more than $3,000 ($12,000) worth of jewellery and other valuables early this month.

London, Oct. 17.—(CP)—Exchange Telegraph said in a Nuernberg dispatch today that it was understood the bodies of Hermann Goering and his 10 Nazi associates had been cremated and the ashes scattered.

The dispatch, without quoting a source for the report, said the action was taken "to obviate the necessity of maintaining strict secrecy over the location of the graves."

Toronto, Oct. 17.—(CP)—With the Brunner-Mond plant at Amherstburg, Ont., scheduled to resume production of soda ash next Sunday or Monday, it appeared today that a matter of time until manufacture of glass bottles would go forward again.

In the meantime, Ontario residents launched drives to collect empties and received cash for bottles that ordinarily would find their way to the scrap heap.

Bottle-making stopped when the wages-hours strike of 400 members of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) took hold. The strike, which started July 5 and ended only last Thursday, cut off the only Canadian supply of soda ash—vitally needed for the manufacture of glass.

Byrnes Reports Paris Conference Made Some Headway Toward Peace

Whole Range of Critical Issues Involved in United States-Russian Relations to Be Dealt With by State Secretary Byrnes in Address to American People Tomorrow Night—Economic Crackdown on Czechoslovakia Reported.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, Oct. 17 — (AP) — State Secretary Byrnes arrived home from the Paris Peace Conference today and declared the 21-power conclave had "made progress" towards establishing organized peace in Europe.

It certainly cannot be called a "failure," Mr. Byrnes told newspapermen at National Airport as he stepped off President Truman's personal plane which brought him across the Atlantic.

Mr. Byrnes was scheduled to confer with the President later today. This get-together will be the first personal meeting of Mr. Byrnes and Mr. Truman since Henry A. Wallace criticized Mr. Byrnes' policies toward Russia and then was ousted from the cabinet.

Tomorrow night Mr. Byrnes will make a radio address at a time still to be announced.

Mr. Byrnes' speech is expected to deal with the whole range of critical issues involved in United States-Russian relations. On top of clear indications that these issues generally were intensified rather than solved by the Paris meeting, the State Department disclosed a new development on the eve of the cabinet officer's return.

Officials said the United States had cancelled a $40,000,000 surplus property credit to Czechoslovakia and in addition had suspended indefinitely a pending $50,000,000 rehabilitation loan to the Czechs by the export-import bank.

The primary reason behind this $90,000,000 slap at one of the countries in the Russian bloc was said to be the Czech backing of Soviet charges at Paris that the United States is resorting to "dollar diplomacy" in Eastern Europe in an effort to advance "American imperialism."

There was no official statement to this effect, but the evidence appears to be that at some critical moment in the long Paris struggle Mr Byrnes himself ordered or approved the economic crackdown on Czechoslovakia.

Aside from the Czechs' support of the Russian position at Paris, the United States objected to two other factors: (1) A Czech deal to resell $10,000,000 worth of surplus property to Romania at a profit and (2) to the failure of the Czechs to agree formally to the rights of American citizens with respect to property and commercial operations in that country.

CZECHS SURPRISED AT U.S. MOVE

London, Oct. 17 – (CP) —Czech sources in London expressed surprise today that the United States had suspended negotiations for a $50,000,000 export-import bank credit to Czechoslovakia at the moment Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk and Ambassador Buraj Lavik were on their way to Washington.

A legation spokesman said "surely the State Department could have waited to give a personal explanation and to hear an answer to whatever charges there are against Czechoslovakia."

Press Visit Termed Spur For Suicide

Commotion Caused by Correspondents' Trip Through Death Row May Have Induced Hermann Goering to Take Poison.

Nuernberg, Oct. 17.— (AP) —A visit by eight Allied correspondents to death row in the condemned block of Nuernberg jail late Tuesday night may have prompted ex-Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering to take the poison which enabled him to cheat the gallows of Allied justice.

As one of those eight correspondents, I believe that the commotion caused by our visit may have served to tip off Goering and the other condemned men that the hour of their doom was about to strike.

As the correspondents, escorted by several security officers, shuffled through the narrow corridor, peeking into the small iron-barred portholes of each of the condemned men's cells, it naturally caused a stir.

At the front of each cell door stood a soldier guard whose duty it was to keep constant watch on the man inside the cell. I noticed at the time that some of the guards turned around to see what the commotion was about as we entered and started to move along the corridor.

With most of the correspondents, including the writer, stopping to glance over the shoulders of the guards into the condemned cells, it was only human for some of the American soldiers to turn their

Convicted In Torso Slaying

MRS. EVELYN MacLEAN DICK, 26, found guilty of the torso slaying of her husband, John Dick, last March 6, and sentenced to hang January 7 by Mr. Justice A. Urquhart who ignored a recommendation for mercy incorporated in a ridge in the jury finding. The comely young murderess announced her intention of appealing the verdict. She was quiet and composed as the jury filed into the courtroom and foreman Charles Paupst read the verdict of guilty. Today her father, Donald MacLean, and a companion, William Bohozuk, are being tried on the same charge.

Duplessis And Drew Flay Liberal Regime At Ottawa For Failure To Keep Faith

Bitter denunciation of the Liberal Regime at Ottawa was uttered by two provincial leaders last night when Premier Maurice Duplessis of Quebec charged that the federal regime was attempting to steal the privileges of the provinces by a policy of centralization and Premier George Drew of Ontario asserted that Prime Minister Mackenzie King had "shut the door" on any further Dominion-Provincial parleys.

Premier Duplessis addressed a monster banquet at Montreal celebrating the second anniversary of the Union Nationale Party in power in Quebec and pulled no punches in his attack on Ottawa. Premier Drew, in an interchange of correspondence, openly accused the Prime Minister of effectively blocking any further amicable discussions between the provinces and the Dominion government, and of breaking faith with all the provinces in Canada.

Quebec Premier Announces Determined Stand Against Centralization and Attempt to Encroach on Quebec Privileges.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—(CP)—All federal governments have always had tendencies toward centralization with the idea of seizing the rights of the provinces, Premier Maurice Duplessis last night told more than 1,000 guests attending a banquet held here on the occasion of his second year in power as the head of the Union Nationale Government.

He warned that if exponents of centralization had their way, provincial rights would disappear, confederation would end and there would be no national unity within the country.

The Premier was willing to return to Ottawa for the resumption of the Dominion-Provincial conference but "I am not running after invitations, it is not dignified."

Speaking on the same night that Premier George Drew of Ontario charged Prime Minister Mackenzie King of breaking faith with the provinces, Mr. Duplessis was loudly cheered when he said "when they ask me to sell my province, my race, my brothers, the answer is never."

Mr. Duplessis and his Ministers had gone to the Dominion-Provincial conference as Premier and Ministers of a province, not as party men.

There had been a lack of co-operation and continual provocations. The Federal Government members had not shown a spirit of collaboration and logic needed to be shown by men seeking co-oper-

Premier George Drew Asserts Mackenzie King Has "Shut the Door" on Further Amicable Dominion-Provincial Parleys.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—(CP)—Premier Drew of Ontario has accused Prime Minister Mackenzie King of breaking faith with all the provinces, seven of which asked for another session of the Dominion-Provincial conference.

In an exchange of correspondence released last night, Premier Drew charged that the Prime Minister had "closed the door on any further consideration of requests for an early resumption of the Dominion-Provincial conference." He said the need for a basic agreement on financial relations between Dominion and Provinces was urgent and added:

"It is apparent that not only are you preventing the possibility of such an agreement now, but that you are determined to follow a course which will still further prejudice the ultimate possibility of reaching any satisfactory agreement on Dominion-Provincial relations."

First letter in the series was dated Sept. 7 and in it Mr. Drew urged Mr. King to reconvene the conference, adjourned May 3. Mr. King replied three weeks later that since the federal government was trying to negotiate tax agreements with certain provinces, it had decided that priority should be given to those discussions.

To that, Mr. Drew said he could read the Prime Minister's letter only as a refusal to reconvene the conference.

In reply, Mr. King wrote Oct.

Wife To Hang For Slaying Of John Dick

Recommendation of Mercy by Jury Ignored by Judge —Date of Execution Set for January 7—Will Appeal.

By ALAN RANDAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 17.—(CP)—Today, differing from her program of the last nine days, Mrs. MacLean Dick remained in Barton Street jail, will stay there now under sentence to be hanged Jan. 7.

Today it was the turn of her father, Donald MacLean, and her friend of some months ago, William Bohozuk, to leave the jail for Wentworth County court house to stand trial before an Ontario Supreme Court jury and Mr. Justice A. Urquhart on a charge of the March 6 torso slaying of John Dick.

For Mrs. Dick her day in court was done, pending appeal of her sentence of death in the killing, delivered last night by Mr. Justice F. H. Barlow at conclusion of her nine-day trial.

For her this was justice in the courts on the case that broke last March 16 with the finding of the body of her husband on Albion Mountain in Hamilton. The head and the legs and the arms had been hacked from it.

This, she said in the last of five statements given to police and entered as testimony in her trial, was a killing by Bohozuk, a man whose attentions to her were resented by the streetcar driver she married last October. She said it was done with her father's gun and that her father gave Bohozuk $200 to $400 to do the job.

The jury was eight minutes short of two hours in reaching the verdict they delivered at 5.58 p. m., marching stoney-faced into the court room.

Mrs. Dick, 26 last Sunday, watched them quietly and composedly and the Judge warned against any courtroom demonstration.

Jury foreman Charles Paupst intoned: "We find the accused guilty as charged with a recommendation of mercy."

Then with the accused standing Mr. Justice Barlow asked had she anything to say.

"I want to appeal my case."

The sentence: "Solitary confinement until the seventh day of January when you shall be taken to the place of execution and then hanged by the neck until dead. . ."

Balkan Situation Reviewed By Peace Parley Reporter

Paris, Oct. 17. —(AP)— While the peace makers were writing a Bulgarian Treaty in Paris, Greece, the most interested among the victors because she has been invaded thrice by the Bulgars in the last half century, was undergoing a plebiscite, a return of the monarchy and the birth of a civil war.

These events quite naturally provided spice to the debates in the corridors of the old Luxembourg Palace where the treaties with Bulgaria, Italy, Finland, Hungary and Romania were fashioned in the last 2½ months.

Shortly after the plebiscite returned King George II to his throne, a civil war broke out in the provinces and some delegates at the Peace Conference remarked publicly that the revolutionaries were being armed through Russian-occupied Bulgaria.

The Peace Conference was unable to agree on a new frontier between Bulgaria and Greece. In fact, this argument produced the only walkout of the conference when the Slav Bloc got up and strode from a commission meeting when a vote was demanded on a phase of the boundary issue.

These issues were decided:

1. Bulgaria must pay reparations amounting to $125,000,000 divided equally between Yugoslavia and Greece over a period of six years.

2. Bulgaria must pay United Nations whose interests were destroyed or damaged in the war on a basis of 75 per cent of the total loss.

3. Bulgaria is forbidden to use or experiment with atomic weapons or to operate torpedo boats along her Black Sea coastline.

4. Bulgaria will give most favored nation treatment to all the United Nations.

5. Racial discrimination among minority groups—such as Jews—will be avoided.

6. The Danube River will be open to navigation.

The Slav Bloc—Russia, Ukraine, Byelo-Russia, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Yugoslavia — opposed every one of the above clauses. Otherwise the Bulgaria Treaty was adopted with little argument.

Behind the fight over these six points in the Bulgarian Treaty was the conflict over Greece, the last of the Balkan States that is outside the Soviet sphere.

The Western Democracies were determined to keep Russia from dominating Bulgaria, a natural jumping off place against Greece which had provided a springboard for invasion so many times in the past.

For the reason of "Greek security," the Western Powers fought for and won demilitarization of the Bulgarian frontier.

Andrei Vyshinsky of Russia said that there was no need for such a precaution because Bulgarians were "peace loving" people.

Along the same east-west lines of conflict the conference adopted a clause in the Bulgarian Treaty upholding the principle of free navigation on the 1,750-mile long Danube River. This prime European waterway has been almost stagnant since the end of the war.

The Russian delegation maintains that operation of the river boats has been difficult because

13 DIE IN PLANE CRASH

Laramie, Wyo., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A chartered passenger plane bound from Oakland, Calif., to Cheyenne, Wyo., crashed in a blinding snowstorm three miles west of Laramie early today, killing ten passengers and the crew of three.

The plane was identified by civil aeronautics authority spokesman as operated by the Nats Air Transport Service, a private airline.

Acting Albany County Coroner E. E. Knight said the plane crashed as it came in for a landing. He said 11 persons were killed instantly and two died in a Laramie hospital.

The plane was one mile north of the airport when it crashed.

Appeal Court Turns Down Defence Plea

Testimony Given by Edward Mazerall to Royal Commission Ruled Admissible at Espionage Hearing.

Toronto, Oct. 17— (CP) —The Ontario Court of Appeal ruled in a 30-page judgment handed down yesterday at Osgoode Hall that statements Edward Mazerall made to the Royal Commission on Espionage were admissible at his trial on a charge of conspiring to communicate information to the Soviet Union.

The three members of the court—Chief Justice R. S. Robertson and Mr. Justices W. D. Roach and R. E. Laidlaw—unanimously rejected Mazerall's appeal against his conviction before Mr. Justice J. C. McRuer at Ottawa last May 22. The 31-year-old engineer from Fredericton, N.B., is serving a four-year penitentiary sentence.

The appeal was based on the argument that incriminating statements made to the commission were inadmissible but the judgment, written by Chief Justice Robertson emphasized that Mazerall had sworn to tell the truth before the commission and had stated that he did tell the truth.

"If that condemns him, as in my opinion it does, our duty on this appeal is to uphold the conviction," said the judgment.

Mazerall was the third person sentenced on espionage charges laid after the Royal Commission investigation, launched after statements to government officials by Igor Gouzenko, former cipher

Pope To Issue Encyclical On Yugoslavians

Expected to Deal With Church in Russian-Dominated Nation and With Sentencing of Archbishop Stepinac.

By JOHN P. McKNIGHT

Rome, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The Rome press said yesterday that Pope Pius was expected to publish soon an encyclical on the situation of the Roman Catholic Church in Yugoslavia, perhaps dealing with the recent sentencing of Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac to 16 years imprisonment on war crimes charges.

No confirmation could be obtained at the Vatican, but prelates pointed out that encyclicals are prepared in the greatest secrecy.

The Stepinac trial, which the Pope described in an address Oct. 6 as "most sad," resulted in an announcement by the church Monday that all Catholic Yugoslav officials "physically or morally connected with the prosecution" had incurred excommunication.

Archbishop Stepinac, head of the Roman Catholic Church in Yugoslavia, was convicted of collaboration with the Axis and with forcing Yugoslavs to join his faith.

There has been much speculation as to whether the excommunication applied to Marshal Tito, Premier of Yugoslavia, but Vatican sources said they did not know whether Tito is a Catholic.

In London Dr. Franc Kos, Yugoslav Charge d'Affaires, said Tito was "not a practicing Catholic."

Dr. Kos said his government deplored the denunciation of the

12 German Employees Under Scrutiny In Suicide Probe

Nuernberg, October 17.— (AP) — Sources inside Nuernberg jail said today that 12 German employees were under constant scrutiny in connection with a three-man army board's closely veiled investigation or how, where and when Hermann Goering got the cyanide with which he beat the hangman by two hours Tuesday night.

These sources, unidentifiable by name, said the Germans were not under arrest but described them as being "protectively held" until they are completely cleared of all possible complicity in the 11th-hour suicide by which Goering managed to precede his 10 doomed colleagues in death.

The secrecy surrounding the burial place of the one-time No. 2 Nazi and the 10 who died by the noose yesterday morning remained impenetrable, although it was believed the bodies had been spirited away by plane for interment.

Rumors without confirmation circulated in the corridors of the old prison that the ringleaders of Hitler's wrecked Nazi state might have been buried at sea.

The army board investigating the Goering suicide, meanwhile, called in, one by one, every person who conceivably might have had some connection with the pudgy Reichsmarshal in his last days and nights in the death block.

Col. B. C. Andrus, prison commandant, insisted that he believed his own personnel innocent of any wrong-doing. He said that a German lawyer, perhaps in the last days of the trial, may have given Goering the poison vial that enabled him to take his own life.

In this, however, he was in conflict with his assistant, Maj. Fred Teich, who said he was convinced that Goering had found some way to conceal the vial and might have had it in his possession ever since his incarceration after the war ended.

Maj. Teich also sought to explode a circulating theory that one of the prison guards traded Goering the poison for one of the Marshal's gems. Maj. Teich said he had all the jewels safe in the prison strongbox.

News of Goering's suicide and of the execution of the other 10 men raced swiftly through the prison to the seven defendants who escaped with prison terms, to be served eventually in Spandau jail, Berlin. A guard said they received the news non-committally, but gave the impression that they were pleased Goering had escaped the rope.

These men, including Rudolf Hess, are to be transferred to Spandau some time next month, prison reports said.

Goering's suicide still was big news in Nuernberg today and a casual sampling of German opinion elicited some startling viewpoints. For instance:

A barber said the Americans gave the poison to Goering deliberately.

A laundress said she would be willing to bet that Goernig got the poison from the prison laundress in a bar of soap—or something like that.

A laborer said "straw dolls" actually were hanged and that the real Nazis were alive somewhere.

Generally, former Nazis are delighted with Goering's trick. Anti-Nazis are shocked. Everyone wants to know the answer to one question: How did he get the poison?

Wheat Price Policy And Waste Scored

By The Canadian Press

The government's wheat price policy, its alleged failure to procure production of essential goods and its "unparalleled wastefulness in the spending of the people's money," are the three major issues before the people of Portage la Prairie constituency, John Bracken, National leader of the Progressive Conservative Party, told a Bagot, Man., meeting last night.

"Don't be misled by side-issues," he said, referring to efforts by government speakers to examine his position on Dominion-Provincial relations.

Mr. Bracken said his party was "certainly in favor" of an agreement between the Dominion and the provinces, and repeated an earlier statement made in the House of Commons to the effect he thought it was possible for the provinces to get a better agreement than had been offered by the Dominion.

At Warren, Man., meanwhile, Agriculture Minister Gardiner termed Mr. Bracken's statements on the Canada-United Kingdom wheat agreement "ridiculous," and told a liberal campaign meeting that Britain was prepared to take an extra 40,000,000 bushels of wheat from Canada if this country could supply it. This was over and above the 350,000,000 already contracted for.

(In an address here Tuesday night, Mr. Bracken produced a chart which showed a spread between the price Great Britain was paying farmers for wheat and the price paid Canadian farmers. He said the contract price was $1.55 which, with transportation charges, came to $1.80 in the United Kingdom. The British farmer, he said, was being paid $2.05 a bushel for home-grown wheat.)

Saying the price paid by Britain over the next four years would be the "highest possible average" Mr. Gardiner charged the chart produced by Mr. Bracken had "not the ingredient of a single fact."

Crown Calls Convicted Spy As Witness

Espionage Trial of Former Granby Resident Continues With Kathleen Willsher Being Summoned to Stand.

Ottawa, Oct. 17. —(CP)— The Crown will call its second star witness today in an effort to convict Eric George Adams, formerly of Granby, of conspiring to communicate confidential information for Russia.

Kathleen Mary Willsher, quiet, dark English-born former deputy registrar in the office of the British High Commissioner here, is expected to repeat previous testimony in which she said Adams had asked for and received from her confidential information obtained in her office.

She was brought here from Kingston, Ont., where she is serving a three-year prison term for espionage activities.

The espionage trials will go forward on two fronts in the same Carleton County courthouse when W. M. Pappin, former clerk in the Passport Office here, appears before county court Judge A. G. McDougall this morning. He was named by the Royal Commission on Espionage in connection with an attempt to get a false passport for a Russian agent working in the United States.

Miss Willsher's testimony falls on the third day of the trial of Adams, former official of the Wartime Requirements Board, the Foreign Exchange Control Board and the Industrial Development Bank, as well as numerous government committees.

It follows that of Igor Gouzenko, 27, former Russian Embassy cipher clerk, who came under searching cross-examination after identifying documents he brought with him when he fled the Embassy Sept. 5, 1945.

Those documents made several references to an agent named Ernst and credited him with giving information on such subjects as inventions, munitions supplies and government reports.

Gouzenko admitted to defence counsel Joseph Sedgwick of Toronto that his lone knowledge of who Ernst was came from looking into an embassy folder in which a superior had listed names and cover names of some Russian agents in Canada. He could only remember that the name was "Eric Adams."

Gouzenko told Mr. Sedgwick that he had "severed my connections only with the Soviet regime, not with Russia—Russia existed a thousand years before that regime and it will exist a thousand years after it is gone."

10 that the Federal Government would welcome a definite statement by the Ontario Government with respect to the "concrete proposals for a transitional tax agreement" made in the budget adopted by Parliament at its last session.

Mr. Drew, in his letter yesterday, said the Prime Minister was not offering to reconvene at any time the conference which adjourned May 3.

"The fact that governments representing less than one-quarter of the people of Canada have found it necessary to accept terms placed before them outside of the conference is no justification whatever for your refusal to comply with the requests of other provincial governments which represent, in their local affairs, more than three-quarters of the people of Canada," said Mr. Drew.

He added:

"The Government of Ontario is more impressed than ever with the need for a national pattern within which the responsibilities of all governments will be clearly defined and each government assured of tax resources adequate for the purpose of carrying out those responsibilities. This should be done before the situation becomes further confused."

Mr. King said in his letter that Premier Drew's conception of the purpose and role of the conference appeared to differ substantially from that of the Dominion Government.

"As you have pointed out, I have consistently maintained that the conference should be master of its own proceedings and agenda," said Mr. King. "That, however does not imply that the conference has power to make decisions which are binding on the Dominion or on any provincial government.

"Such a claim would be a denial of the autonomy of all the governments concerned and of the exclusive constitutional responsibility of each government to its own legislative body for its financial policies."

He had stated that the Dominion Government was prepared at all times to consider specific proposals on any aspect of Dominion-Provincial relations.

"You do not express a willingness," he told the Ontario Premier, "to discuss any such proposals with the ministers and officials of the departments of the Dominion Government immediately concerned but claim it is your right to present your views to the whole conference."

Premier Drew said in his letter yesterday that his government had emphasized at all times that health services and social services should be on a national basis and could only be maintained at a uniform level if there was agreement between all the governments.

The point upon which most of the provinces disagreed with the Dominion Government was the refusal of the Dominion Government to give any assurance that the taxing powers of the provinces in fields other than income tax would be respected, Mr. Drew said.

"You stress the point that the conference could not bind any government by its decision," a proposition incidentally which has never been questioned at any time," he told Mr. King. "Nevertheless you say that the provinces must be bound by the decision of the Dominion Government as to what tax arrangement they can make because that arrangement, arrived at without consultation, has in your opinion gained the force of law by Parliament's approval of Mr. Ilsley's budget address.

"You deny the very principle you assert in bringing this unfair pressure on provinces which are in need of financial assistance. Ontario is not in that position but it does sympathize with those provinces which have found it necessary to accept the arbitary terms of the Dominion Government. In the interests of the whole Canadian economy and of the people of every part of Canada, the Ontario Government will continue to resist this wholly improper and dangerous trend in Dominion-Provincial relations."

ation.

Although there were centralizers in both good and bad faith, all were "illogical and unjust."

Speaking in French and English, the Premier charged that there was an "evident desire" at the Dominion-Provincial conference to reduce the provinces' power and made them tenants in their own home.

Centralization led to Communism, Hitlerism, and Fascism.

One of the federal proposals at the conference was national health insurance "with disguised federal control." This would mean the entry of Ottawa into educational matters.

With such a national health system, it would not be long before Ottawa insisted on the qualifications of doctors. This meant control of university education followed by control of secondary education and primary education.

No Prime Minister at Ottawa wished that to come.

The Ottawa old age pensions were to be for everyone, even millionaires. Quebec was in favor of pensions "for those who need them, not for millionaires."

The Union Nationale leader said: "A conference between the Dominion and the provinces is not a game where one seeks to get the better of the other, where one political party seeks to outsmart the other, but it is, or should be, a meeting where all work for Canada. Collaboration is not a one-way street. I am will to collaborate but not to be an accomplice. Complicity means selling my province, and I was not given a mandate to sell my brothers."

The guests, also honoring three recently elected Union Nationale members—Georges Octave Poulin, Beauce, C. D. French, Compton, and Dr. Arthur Leclerc, Charlevoix-Saguenay—heard Mr. Duplessis charge the Federal Government with failing to respect covenants and judgments.

He said that on three occasions the Privy Council had declared insurance matters would pertain to the provinces. The Dominion did not yield and insisted on infringing upon provincial rights, thereby keeping the millions which companies put up in deposits and which should have gone to the provinces.

Adelard Godbout, leader of the Liberal Party in Quebec and former Premier, had given his consent to permit Ottawa to control unemployment insurance by an amendment to the constitution.

One result was that as money went to Ottawa, it was spent immediately. Benefits paid workers had to come from new taxation.

"We are not for amendments to the constitution," said Mr. Duplessis, "and I tell Mr. King (Prime Minister Mackenzie King) and Mr. Bracken (John Bracken, National leader of the Progressive-Conservative Party) that we are for co-operation but through concurrent legislation."

He was "deeply humiliated" to hear public men of Quebec urge the people to accept the federal proposals because "it will pay you."

"If the Ottawa proposals had been accepted, it would have cost the province $50,000,000 per year, and the province would have lost its rights, and in memory, if no more, to those who had acquired the rights for the province, sometimes at great sacrifice, and even with their lives, the people of this province cannot sell such rights even for the golden calf . . ."

All members of the Cabinet except Agriculture Minister Laurent Barre were present at the banquet as well as several members of the Legislative Council.

The Western Powers contend that the waterway has not been restored to its pre-war traffic of nearly 4,000,000 tons of freight per year because Russia does not want communications passing from the west inside tetritory now occupied by Soviet forces.

The clause in the treaty pertaining to the Danube calls for a conference of the Big Four nations and the states through which the river flows to sit within six months after the treaty comes into force and establish a permanent body to control this vital waterway.

Press Visit

heads momentarily to see what was going on.

It is possible that in the moment, or moments, the soldier guarding Goering's cell turned his head and the crown prince of Nazidom managed to slip into his mouth the vial containing the cyanide of potassium.

It was just a few moments before when I had peeked over the guard's shoulder into Goering's cell. Lying stretched out full length on a small iron cot was the bulky figure of the man the Allied governments were most eager to have lead the parade of death to the gallows.

He was the only one of the old guard, top level Nazi chieftains they had managed to have convicted and condemned to death by the International Military Tribunal.

Goering had gone to bed, although the lights of his cell and in the prison block were not yet dimmed. His body was covered by an ordinary khaki United States army blanket. One bluish pyjama-clad arm was outstretched, the other was folded over his chest with the fist closed.

He was lying absolutely motionless, with his head resting on one side and his eyes closed, as if in sleep.

Goering was the only one of the condemned eleven who was in bed.

His cell was the last one the correspondents reached on their initial walk down the corridor. I had seen the inmates of other cells moving around and it struck me as rather strange that Goering should have gone to bed so early and apparently was already asleep.

A few minutes later, Col. Selby Little, the deputy security commandant, said to me, "Isn't that just like Goering—going to sleep on his last night?"

I still thought it strange and so remarked to one of my colleagues.

I do not believe that Col. Andrus was keen about the visit of the correspondents to the condemned block, but they had made a formal request to do so some days ago and he had been authorized by the Allied Control Council's special commission of four generals to take them through on that last night.

The mistake, in my opinion, was that we were taken through in a body. We should have been taken through one by one, or not more than two at a time.

Sydney, N.S., Oct. 17.—(CP)— Only a small number of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation's workers were on the job today as union officials and company representatives were en route to Montreal, where they will meet Steel Controller F. B. Kilbourn Friday in an effort to iron out the latest differences.

The union won a 13-cent-an-hour increase in the 81-day strike but the latest snag in the return to work of the men is an argument over whether the company is required to employ in the same jobs all workers on strength before the strike.

An appeal now is being heard in Montreal in another case—that of Fred Rose, Labor-Progressive member of Parliament for Montreal Cartier, sentenced to six years on espionage charges.

"Unity In Diversity" Subject Of Address To Y's Men's Club

Speaking on "Unity in Diversity," Neil Ganter, English literature teacher at the Sherbrooke High School, told the regular weekly dinner meeting of the Y's Men's Club of Sherbrooke last evening at the Chateau Frontenac that in seeking a suitable subject for his address he was struck by the unity of purpose of service clubs made up of members of so many diverse walks of life.

Applying unity in diversity to a larger sphere of life, Mr. Ganter said that "History is a paradox of a search for serenity for a group following restlessness of action. Man treasures his own race and religion and feels his own inheritance is dear to himself. Egotism is the real cause of slurs and criticism of another's inheritance. If one's duty is to hold one's own race and religion in respect then surely one's equal duty is to hold respect for others who do likewise.

"If Canada is ever to be united in soul and spirit the one great bond will be mutual respect," he affirmed.

Concluding, Mr. Ganter spoke of the splendid example of Canada's servicemen where men of diverse races and creeds worked and fought, and in many cases died, shoulder to shoulder. "Cannot we," he asked, "in civilian life do the same for freedom, fellowship and goodwill?"

Introduced by Bruce Bishop, Mr. Ganter was thanked by Henry Weinstein. President Frank Simms presided, and special guests of the evening included Dr. John Hibbard, Dr. M. W. Hicks and Desmond Stoker.

Highlighting the usual business session, reports were heard from the sports and activities committees, and the tickets for the forthcoming Eddie Condon jazz concert and dance, sponsored by the Y's Men's Club, were distributed to the members.

Apropos to Forest Keene's recent appeal to the club for active coaches and supporters for midget and bantam hockey teams, sixteen members offered to devote their time to this project. Bill Hammond suggested that a hockey school be held and inquries will be made as to the acceptability of this plan.

The president concluded the meeting with a very brief report on his activities as club representative to various social gatherings in the past few weeks.

WOMAN FINED BY RECORDER FOR CONDUCT

A middle-aged woman, who gave her address as Montreal, was fined five dollars and costs or eight days in jail by Recorder Raoul Gagne this morning for having caused a violent disturbance on the Canadian Pacific Railway train eastbound from Montreal last night.

When the train entered the local C.P.R. station the woman was removed by Constable H. J. Drew, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who had been advised by wire from Magog that she was behaving in a disorderly manner. Obviously intoxicated, she had kicked and struck the conductor and had contrived generally to render her presence obnoxious.

Picturesquely garbed in a blouse, slacks and a coat, the woman answered Recorder Gagne's questions with a mixture of defiance and independence, and later declared that the name which she had given was not her own. Claiming that she lived in Montreal "sometimes," she was she said, travelling to St. John, N.B., to visit a daughter.

MINOR BLAZES EXTINGUISHED BY FIREMEN

The Sherbrooke Fire Department yesterday was called to the scene of two slight fires, the first of which occurred at the Julius Kayser plant when a pile of oakum was set ablaze by a welder's torch. Although three trucks answered the alarm, the fire was put out with an extinguisher.

In the afternoon a summons to a residence on Mount Pleasant Street proved to involve nothing more serious than a chimney fire, which was easily stamped out.

2nd Annual Sale Of Pure Bred Beef Cattle Being Held Today

This afternoon Sherbrooke goes on the map again as the setting for the second annual sale of pure bred beef cattle in the Province of Quebec. Opening event of the annual Winter Fair, sponsored by the E.T.A.A., today's sale will be followed tomorrow by an auction of fat stock.

Yesterday all stock was weighed in and judging commenced and in the Arena this morning judging was completed.

Manager for the sale this afternoon is Ralph K. Bennett, of Montreal. On the committee are W. G. MacDougall, Wesley Nichol and J. A. Ste. Marie, of Lennoxville, H. B. Norris, of Montreal and Professor L. H. Hamilton, of Macdonald College.

The choice individuals of the three beef breeds, Shorthorns, Herefords and Aberdeen Angus, will be sold this afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. It is a sale of young cattle suggesting a splendid opportunity for herd replacement and for the foundation of strong new herds.

Resuks of the judging in the sheep and hogs division have been announced, and follow:

1846 — A CENTURY OF SERVICE — 1946

One hundred years ago, militant Methodism rode into Sherbrooke. Its leader was the youthful Rev. John Douglas, typical saddle bag preacher of that period. As far as can be ascertained, Methodism began its first services of public worship in the house that still stands at the corner of Court and Commercial streets, now known as Dufferin. Next Sunday Trinity United Church, stately descendant of that early start, will commence a two-week commemoration of one hundred years of growth and vital service in this expanding Queen City of the Eastern Townships.

The story of those distant years is packed with pioneer romance. It throws on the screen pictures of strong, resourceful men and courageous women; of trails through the encircling woods and the creaking of wagons pulled by plodding oxen; of fruitful days of toil from whose sowing have come the progress and opulence of the days we have inherited. Looking through the haze of long distance, we see the sturdy figures of men who refused to be daunted by difficulties, and on the foundation they laid we have built the imposing Sherbrooke of 1946.

At the end of the first year of organized effort here, the records show a definite membership of 115. Other records of the early settlements outside Sherbrooke show Mr. Douglas, astride his horse, visiting the scattered settlers of Cookshire, Eaton and Sawyerville, starting the fires of the Faith that were to illumine the minds and warm the hearts of those early pioneers of the woods. Soon the house on Court street was too small, and a Church was built on Wellington street, somewhere between the City Hall and the Quebec Central building. The Rev. Benjamin Sleight, M.A., was now the leader of the steadily growing cause, that soon outgrew its larger quarters. So in 1858-9 the Methodists climbed King Hill, West, and built what is now St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, and for twenty-five years they preached and listened to the Gospel from that pulpit, and carried on the many hued ministries of the Christian Church. Names of men like Hyndman, Hall, Long, McCurdy, and many others, appear on the records. In 1875 the old Circuit method was superseded as far as Sherbrooke was concerned, for the steady growth of the Congregation demanded the attention of a resident minister, and the Rev. Dr. Wm. Jackson was the choice of the Conference.

The present Church building at the corner of Court and William streets was commenced during the ministry of the Rev. J. Tallman Pitcher, and reached final completion during the term of the Rev. James Kines. Within its commodious walls men have preached and worshipped whose names have become widely known and deeply honored in the larger field of Dominion life. Today one of the largest Protestant Communions in Sherbrooke, it exercises a strong influence in the life of the City.

Next Sunday the immediate past Moderator of the United Church of Canada, the Very Rev. Dr. Jesse H. Arnup, will conduct the Centenary Services, and in the morning will dedicate the new Honor Roll for men and women who served in World War No. 2, together with a Memorial Table in memory of Walter S. Armitage and his wife, pioneers and workers of a high order in this Church. On Wednesday night an Old Home Week program will commence with a great banquet, calling old friends from far and near, and at 8 p.m. in the Church, the story of Our Yesterdays will be told by former Ministers and leading Laymen. The 27th will see one of the most vital and colorful ministers of the United Church in the person of the Rev. Norman Rawson, of Hamilton, Ont., who will give the final message of the Centenary. We wish this fine congregation high success, both in the celebration, and in the work of the years yet to be.

CIVIC AUDITORIUM FOR SHERBROOKE

That Sherbrooke needs a civic auditorium is obvious from the growing importance of the city, and the fact that at present there is no suitable hall where large meetings, concerts or entertainments may be held. The Community Concert organization, for instance, finds it necessary to rent a local theatre for each performance.

But the question of an auditorium should be considered in relation to the whole matter of the present locale of the City Hall, and the needs of Sherbrooke's municipal government of the future. At present the City Hall, located on Wellington Street, takes up what might be one of the most desirable office sites in the city. The building, could too, be converted into a modern store, and add to the productiveness of the city's main street, which it does not now do.

When Sherbrooke received its charter as a city no doubt the City Hall was ideally located, just as the form of municipal government was satisfactory for conditions as they existed then. But the city has grown tremendously in the past forty years, and a further expansion can be hoped for in the future. Our municipal system, which loads the aldermen with a great mass of detailed work, has not kept pace.

At the present time every city expenditure has to be passed by the Council. The result is that the aldermen, men of experience in their individual businesses and professions, waste their time approving expenditures that would be made without question by some subordinate in their own commercial affairs.

The City Clerk and City Treasurer are responsible to the Council direct, and great time is needed to get through the detail of work. To modernize the administration a city manager should be hired, and the heads of departments should report to him. This city manager would be given a certain measure of authority, and he would report to the Council, who would set the policy of municipal government, in the same way that a Board of Directors sets the policy for a business company, but leaves the detail of carrying out that policy to a manager.

These changes, greatly needed, should be considered at once, and tied in with the question of moving the site of City Hall. Office space is at a premium in Sherbrooke, and it is possible that the present building could be sold at a good price. If this was done the new City Hall would be built off the main business thoroughfare of the city, and the form of the new building should receive careful consideration.

A new, modern City Hall should certainly include an up-to-date auditorium, capable of seating at least fifteen hundred people. Here it would be possible to hold important conventions of industry, concerts, and any other type of meeting where a large hall was required. This civic auditorium would be a financial asset to the city, as its rental, although kept low enough so as to be available to all groups, could be set at a price to more than cover the upkeep.

This paper will have more to say on this subject of city government, a new City Hall and a civic auditorium at a future date. But, in the meantime, it is hoped that the question may be considered by members of the City Council, who have served the city well, at cost to themselves in time and effort, so that the business of Sherbrooke —which, with its power interests, is big business —may be even more efficiently managed.

BY PETER EDSON

PROBE ON GERMANY

Washington—West Virginia Senator Harley M. Kilgore's National Defense Committee is sending its Chief Counsel George Meader and an assistant investigator to Europe this week, for a month's probe into costs and operation of U.S. military government in Germany and Austria.

When Kilgore and Meader called at the White House to explain to original Committee Chairman Harry Truman what they were up to, the word was passed out that there would be no further publicity until Meader got back. The big idea is that he will make a confidential report to the committee. If the committee then thinks there is pay dirt, it will go to Germany itself for formal public hearings. This would be after elections, when the senators have time for world problems. Right now the only thing that counts is re-election.

The War Department originally asked Congress for $500 million to cover the costs of military government in Japan, Korea, Austria and Germany for the year ending July 1, 1947. The House cut the amount to $350 million, the Senate restored it to $500 million. They compromised at $425 million.

ARMY WANTS TO QUIT RELIEF JOB

A lot of items in the cost analysis are not properly chargeable to military government. Caring for displaced persons. Feeding the people. Trying to get Germany back on its feet so it's financially self-supporting.

The War Department wants to get out of this business. Its position is that the Army's job is to fight wars or prepare for next wars. And with all the hullabaloo now being raised cutting down on military expenditures, the War Department would like to get this three-quarter billion dollars' worth of military government off its budget.

There was a lot of fancy sky-writing around Washington during the war, trying to spell out the nasty word that the Army was going to take over civilian government. The truth is that the generals want no part of civilian government, and they wish the State Department would take them off the hook in Germany and Austria, the sooner the better. General Eisenhower favored turning military government over to civilians last June 1. But the State Department had other postwar worries. Secretary Byrnes declined to assume responsibility for the defeated enemy nations, except as a guardian giving advice at the top, policy-making levels.

IT HAS THE WHITE HOUSE BLESSING

This is the general background in which the Kilgore Committee investigators will do their digging. State and War Department officials aren't any too happy about having the committee messing around in these affairs. But the investigation goes on with White House blessing, so there isn't anything they can do about it.

Nearly every correspondent in Germany and certainly every plane-load of editors which the War Department has taken to Germany to see for itself, has come back loud in its praises for General Joseph T. McNarney and his deputy in charge of military government, Lieut.-Gen. Lucius D. Clay. They have had a tough time dealing with the Russians, the British and the French. The Germans have probably been far less troublesome than the beloved Allies.

There are a number of important problems coming up in Germany. U.S. and British zones are now being consolidated. A State - War - Treasury - Commerce-RFC team has gone to the two zones to try to get exports moving and put the German economy on a more self-sustaining basis. The whole reparations question has to be readjusted. Handling of displaced persons must be resolved. After the Paris peace conference ends, a start must be made on drafting treaties for Germany and Austria. On the table is Secretary Byrnes' proposal for a 40-year German disarmament treaty.

REMARKABLE THE WEIGHT THESE THINGS CAN CARRY!

Press Comment

Following is an interpretive political article, which appeared on the front page of the Christian Science Monitor, written by Morris McDougall, Ottawa correspondent of the paper. It had the most important position on page one, being published in the right hand corner under a two column headline.

EDITOR.

CANADA SETS PLAN ON FARM PRICES:

Plans for the stabilization of farm prices will shortly be put into operation by the Government of Canada.

The extent of the operation of the program, which is based on the Agriculture Prices Support Act passed by Parliament in 1944, likely will be limited at first as the present demand for most farm products both at home and abroad gives fairly strong market support.

A good many people think the move paradoxical, when the demand is becoming more insistent for further relaxation and elimination of economic controls. The government itself through parliament had arranged to abandon its Special Powers Act within 60 days of the beginning of the next parliamentary session. Now a new avenue of control is being opened—if even for a transitional period.

Postwar Design

The act, however, assuring the farmer floor prices as a buffer against drastic price slumps and passed in wartime, was designed specifically for postwar times.

The Agricultural Prices Support Act provides for the establishment of a board with a working capital of $200,000,000. It will buy farm products at prices "recommended by the board and approved by the Government." Or it will make payments for staple products "to bring the average returns to the producers up to prices which have been approved."

The board was established when the act was passed, with J. G. Taggart, former Minister of Agriculture in Saskatchewan as Chairman. It has been carrying out a wide survey, though this has not been completed. The board is faced with a hard job in making its survey, which doesn't imply simply a compilation of statistics on comparative prices over years, and costs of production as far as these can be obtained, but a careful study of market trends at home and abroad, and these are in a constant state of flux and future trends unpredictable.

Difficult Program

The administration of the whole plan of supporting farm income will be in any event very difficult, as Mr. Taggart stated some time ago, unless world trade is held at a high level. Canada has to export half of her farm products, if her economy is to be held stable.

The question of setting the machinery of the prices support program has been brought to a head by two developments. One has been a heavy potato crop in the maritime province of New Brunswick, with a large crop in the neighboring state of Maine, causing a slump in price. The other has been the 30-day strike of some farm groups in Alberta and Saskatchewan, an unprecedented step in the story of Canadian agriculture. The strike is based on a demand for "parity prices" in admittedly indefinite phrase, which its opponents call "illusory" but which sympathizers say means "a fair relationship of the prices of farm products with the prices of commodities which the farmers buy."

Discussions in Progress

Representatives of the farmers are now in Ottawa discussing the question with officials of the Department of Agriculture. The Minister of Agriculture, J. G. Gardiner, recently refused the demand for the establishment of a fact-finding board on "parity prices," but asked the farmers to lay their claims before the Agricultural Prices Support Board, and that is being done.

Whatever may be the merits of the claim for a range of prices bearing a fair relationship with the products of other industry, the farmers are not choosing a very favorable time for pressing their views. The voice of the consumer is being heard in many parts of the country protesting against an increase of three cents a quart in the price of milk, caused by the withdrawal of the wartime subsidy on milk production.

Valuable Service

There is a general belief, however, that the Agricultural Prices Support Board can give valuable service to the farming industry. It is likely to be re-organized, with Mr. Taggart still Chairman, but with representatives of farm organizations and the consuming public represented in the membership.

It will have direct contact with the different branches of agriculture through the Meat Board, the Dairy Products Board and other commodity organizations. Country-wide production planning which played such an important role in the industry during the war is certain to continue and while it will have nothing mandatory about it will aid agricultural production to keep in line with shifting demands for various products in foreign markets. It is felt that despite the difficulties of the task, with the co-operation of farming organizations and the farming co-operatives, the Prices Support Board will have the opportunity of giving farmers a very real measure of security in the uncertain days ahead and may become a more or less permanent factor in the country's economy.

GEN. STILWELL: WAR CASUALTY

Montreal Gazette

Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, who has just died at 63, was as much a war casualty as though he had died on the field of honor: a death which he would have preferred probably. For Gen. Stilwell was first and foremost a field officer.

It was the General's expert knowledge of China and the Chinese that made him an obvious choice for Pacific command at a time when Allied military commitments were so vast as to reduce his best efforts to a policy of hold-and-retreat. For a notably aggressive soldier that period must have been one of the most unhappy in his long service life.

The uses to which Gen. Stilwell put his meagre forces, the opportunities he created, made of him an integral part of the history and of the legend of the land phase of the Pacific war. It is for the objective future to assign him his proper place in the pantheon of Allied warriors. But nothing can ever obsecure the memory of his single-minded fixation on victory; or dim his glorious faith in the fighting qualities of the Chinese soldier; or detract from the realistic romance of his famous walk from Burma to India.

His adventures dominated his adventurous life. Enthusiasm, training and his personal characteristics made of him the ideal field officer, canny in defeat, aggressive in offence, faithful at all times. He was not, it is true, one of the soldier-diplomats which the war produced as one of the essential by-products of coalition. But he did his duty as he saw it; and the light that guided him was clear and steady and bright.

COURT CENSORSHIP

Windsor Daily Star

Mr. Justice Barlow, presiding at a murder trial in Hamilton, has adopted a dangerous course in peremptorily ordering the newspapers not to report certain portions of the evidence. He gives a reason, of course, for the restriction he imposes. The clamp he puts on has to do with two persons charged in connection with the same crime, but to be tried separately. He fears, he says, that publication of testimony referring to them might prejudice their later hearings.

There is a grave question as to the right of any court to impose pre-censorship on the newspapers. The principle of the proper freedom of the press is involved here. In this instance, the object is entirely laudable, but that does not justify the means. Such action opens the door for actual abuses later on. It sets a precedent that is extremely dangerous.

No reputable newspaper would knowingly do anything to interfere with the process of justice, and Mr. Justice Barlow should recognize this fact. He had only to make his wishes known, in the form of a request, and he could be assured that proper discretion would have been exercised. Instead, he chose to issue peremptory orders, thus actually writing a new law.

Censorship of the press can be tolerated for only one purpose, the preservation of national security in time of emergency. When it becomes political, it constitutes an unwarranted interference with democratic liberty, and it cannot be countenanced. The courts are set up to administer our laws, not to create new ones.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

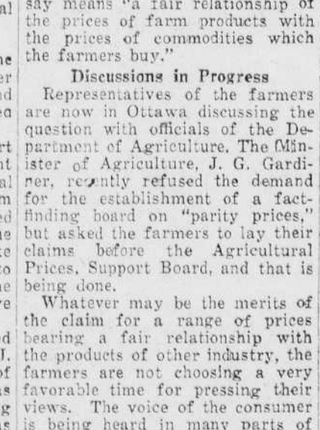

By Wm. E. McKenney, America's Card Authority

ANALYTICAL MIND IS BEST AT BRIDGE

While it is true that life is a gamble, a good gambler does not make a good bridge player. Even brilliant card players are not necessarily good bridge players. The winner at bridge is the one who plays most carefully, reasoning out the why and wherefore of the opponents' bids and plays. Eugene Bauer of New York is a keen student of the game. Although his contract on today's hand was only two-odd, he played it carefully to make four.

The opening club lead was won by Bauer (South) with the jack when East played the nine. A spade was led, East won with the ace and returned a diamond. West won this with the queen and played back the club, which Bauer won with the ace and then cashed the king and ten of spades.

A diamond was led next, which East won with the king, returning a diamond. Bauer trumped and led a heart, but he did not make the mistake of finessing the queen. He went up with the ace of hearts, and played back the jack of diamonds, which started the squeeze on East.

Bauer trumped, then discarded the queen of hearts on his last spade, and East was squeezed again. Thus declarer won four-odd.

It is true that a finesse has a 50-50 chance to win, but very often the finesse can be eliminated entirely.

MARRIAGES

MacLACHLAN—HOBBS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's Anglican Church, Sherbrooke, on Saturday, September 28, at 2.30 o'clock, when Shirley June, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hobbs, of Sherbrooke, was united in marriage to Mr. Alexander Hugh MacLachlan, son of Mrs. H. A. MacLachlan and the late Mr. MacLachlan, of Almonte, Ontario. Rev. Canon H. R. Bigg officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of white slipper satin, Queen Ann style, with train, sweetheart neckline trimmed with seed pearls and appliqued lace leaves, and long sleeves, ending in points over the hands. Her full-length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet trimmed with seed pearls and appliqued lace leaves. She carried a cascade bouquet of Better Times roses and bouvardia, her only ornament being a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The wedding music was played by Mr. W. H. Bishop, organist of St. Peter's Church. During the signing of the register, a solo was sung by Mrs. W. H. Bishop.

Miss Myrtle MacLachlan, of Almonte, Ontario, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, wore a full-length gown of dusty pink jersey, a small Dutch hat of lace, silver slippers, and carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses tied with pink ribbon.

Miss Dorothy Evans, of Sherbrooke, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a full-length gown of powder blue sheer, a small Dutch hat of lace, white slippers, and carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations, tied with blue ribbon.

Mr. Glenn MacLachlan, of Almonte, Ontario, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were Mr. James Dunlop, of Cornwall, Ontario, and Mr. Earle Hobbs, of Sherbrooke, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Hobbs, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of Elizabeth blue crepe, black accessories, and corsage of Talisman roses.

Mrs. MacLachlan, mother of the groom, wore a two-piece dress of black crepe, with sequins, matching accessories, and corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Evans, grandmother of the bride, wore a black crepe dress, matching accessories, and corsage of white carnations.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and tall baskets of pink and white gladioli. The guest pews were marked with white asters, tied with large bows of white ribbon.

The reception was held at 133 Quebec Street, where tall standards of pink and white gladioli formed a perfect setting for the bridal party. A four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a small vase of tiny red roses and placed on a circular mirror, occupied the centre of the table. Deep red roses, in crystal leaf holders, stood on either side. After the cutting of the wedding cake Rev. Canon H. R. Bigg proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom responded.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. MacLachlan left on a short honeymoon in Montreal, the bride travelling in a grey pin-stripe suit, fuchsia blouse and gloves, black accessories, a black swagger three-quarter length coat, and a corsage of gardenias.

On their return they will reside in Beauharnois, Que.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. H. A. MacLachlan, Miss Edna MacLachlan, Miss Myrtle MacLachlan, Mr. Glenn MacLachlan, Mrs. Robert Leishman, all of Almonte, Ontario; Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Caldwell, Mr. James Dunlop, Mr. Lloyd Steele, of Cornwall, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. R. Hobbs, Miss Thelma Hobbs, Miss Carol Jameson, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hobbs, of Asbestos; Mrs. F. Thomas, of Drummondville; Mrs. Agnes Fleck, of Colbrooke, N.H.; Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Quilliams, of Waterloo, and Mr. Richard Boisvert, of Huntingville.

They are made in different tread designs . . . including the famous Life-Saver Tread that wipes wet pavements dry . . . and the Road-Level Tread that puts a wider, flatter rubber surface on the road to share the burden.
Both these tires are new and both will outwear pre-war tires. Insist on the new Silvertowns for your car . . . they are the greatest mileage tires of all time . . . built by B. F. Goodrich, makers of over 32,000 rubber articles including footwear and industrial rubber products.

MANY PRESENT AT CONVENTION IN KNOWLTON

Knowlton, Oct. 17.—The members of the Women's Institute of Brome County held their semi-annual convention in the Knowlton High School. The president, Mrs. Gordon Harvey, presided over the meeting, which was opened in regular form by the members giving the salute to the flag. "O Canada" was sung and the roll was called. There were present members from all the county branches, Abercorn, Austin, Sutton and South Bolton. The secretary, Mrs. Cowan, then read the minutes of the annual meeting which was held in Sutton in May.

The conveners reports were then given. The reports were very good as it is only a few months since the annual meeting. Some of the things reported were a reception for a war bride, a school fair, money given to a cemetery for purchasing bulbs, papers read on gardening and on the Peace Garden.

Some very good articles were then given by each convener. Mrs. Ingalls read a paper on "Hedges;" Mrs. Vincent, on "Home Economics;" Mrs. Dufresne, on "Education;" Mrs. Cameron, a very humorous poem relating to W. I. work. This brought the morning session to a close, and all enjoyed a picnic dinner in the cafeteria of the school.

The afternoon session opened at 2 p.m. when Mrs. Dufresne gave the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Harvey.

Mr. Mitchell, secretary of the Central School Board addressed the group and brought greetings from the president of the board, who was ill and could not be present. Mr. Mitchell gave a very interesting address pretaining to the school and the need of education. He then took the members on a tour of the rooms, which are very moder and up-to-date and an honor to Brome County to have such a school. He then showed one of the school buses and took the ladies for a ride in it around Knowlton. This was enjoyed immensely.

Other business which then came up was about a prize to be given the Brome Fair Society. It was decided to give a prize on a crotcheted lace trimmed bed set.

Letters and regrets were read from Mrs. Lahue, past president, who could not be present, and from Mr. Eric Fisher, who had an important meeting to attend.

Mrs. Harvey then gave the history of the Women's Institute since it was started at Stoney Creek in 1897. The first branch in Quebec was in Dunham, in 1911.

A vote of thanks was ordered to be sent to the secretary of the school for allowing the W.I. the use of the gymnasium and the cafeteria, to Mrs. Dufresne, who made the arrangements for the meeting.

The meeting then adjourned and the members and guests enjoyed afternoon tea and a social time. The day was beautiful and it was noted by the members as one of the most pleasant and interesting conventions held for some time.

SCOTSTOWN

The Ladies' Circle of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church sponsored a social afternoon in honor of the three war brides, residing on Albert Street, Mrs. Philip Boy, Jr., Mrs. Antonio Lartitch and Mrs. Daniel MacArthur. The guests of honor were introduced by Mrs. Philip Boy and Mrs. A. N. Nicholson. A period of community singing was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served, following which, Mrs. Arnold MacKenzie on behalf of the Circle presented each bride with a luncheon cloth, extending a hearty welcome and sincere good wishes for their future happiness. Each bride in turn, expressed her thanks for the gift, good wishes and the pleasant afternoon, in a very gracious manner. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, a very enjoyable social evening was held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Whittingham. The gathering was in honor of three war brides, Mrs. Daniel MacArthur and Mrs. Philip Boy, Jr., of Scotstown, and Mrs. Donald Morrison, of Gould. A pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment was the presentation of a pair of lovely embroidered pillow slips to each honor-guest. The presentation, accompanied by the good wishes of the Auxiliary members, was made by Mrs. Whittingham, and was graciously acknowledged by the recipients. A social period, which included community singing was enjoyed. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Three other brides, who had been previously entertained by the Auxiliary, were present, Mrs. Antonio Lartitch, Mrs. Rene Patry and Mrs. R. F. Riglar. Mrs. Norman Morrison, of Gould, was among the guests present.

The Thank-Offering meeting of the St. Paul's Women's Missionary Society was entertained by Mrs. D. D. MacLeod with Mrs. Daniel R. MacDonald, the assisting hostess. In the absence of the president, Mrs. D. A. MacLean, the meeting was directed by Mrs. Philip Boy, who conducted the devotions, the scripture lesson taken from Psalm CVI, was followed by prayer by Mrs. Kate MacIver and the hymn, "Come Ye Thankful People, Come." A generous Thank-Offering was received and the members were reminded to send cards to friends, in hospitals. A reminder was given of subscriptions to this worth-while publication, which is valuable in keeping in touch with the work of all the mission friends. A short Thanksgiving program was given as follows: "Thoughts By the Way," Mrs. John MacAulay; "Song of Praise," Mrs. John Nicholson; "Thanksgiving," Mrs. K. M. Smith; "Harvest Song," Mrs. A. G. Murray; Mrs. Boy, a reading, "The New Formosa," by Rev. J. D. Dickson. The program closed with The Lord's Prayer, and the hymn, "From Ocean Unto Ocean." Later, tea was served by the hostesses.

Mrs. William Taylor was the hostess at the October meeting of St. Andrew's Association, which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Angus MacLennan. The opening devotions were in charge of Mrs. W. A. Ladd, who read the scripture lesson from Psalm CVII, relevant to the topic, "Thanksgiving." The treasurer, Mrs. C. M. Smith, submitted a very satisfactory financial report and outstanding bills were ordered paid. Reports of the activities in the various departments were given and it was decided that a sale would be held early in December, and it was agreed that instead of the usual tea, a fodd sale would be held at that time, each member being responsible for three items of food, and Mrs. F. B. Mayhew was appointed, the solicitor. It was also decided to have the Christmas Tree gifts, as usual, with Mrs. Charles MacRae and Mrs. George Tessier, in charge. The sum of ten dollars was donated to the Sherbrooke Hospital Building Campaign. Following adjournment, the hostess served tea assisted by Mr. Ladd.

The monthly meeting of St. Andrew's Sunday School Worker's Conference was held at the home of Mr. Robert Smith, and was directed by the superintendent, Mrs. J. D. Cox. A discussion was held concerning a Young People's class and the following were appointed a committee to investigate the possibilities of a Young People's Group: Mr. Carey, Miss Dorothy Ladd, Mr. Robert Smith, and Mr. Mallelieu. It was decided to increase the number of "Onwards," so that each family, connected with the Sunday School, would receive a copy. Mrs. Cox mentioned a unique "rabbit box," which was being used in Miss Ladd's class of little tots and suggested that the same be dedicated in the School. The Hallowe'en party was discussed, and it was planned to serve refreshments and that Gould Station be invited to attend. Prizes will be given for the best costume, for most original, for the best comic, and for the best pair; and the best adult, as well as prizes for "stunts." Women Vets Paid Tribute By Minister

Ottawa, Oct. 17.— (CP)— Commending Canada's 45,000 women veterans for their "remarkably fine" rehabilitation progress, Veterans Minister Mackenzie today said more than 8,000 women are trained or undergoing training for more than 100 different occupations.

More than 45,000 of the 48,000 women who enlisted in the armed forces were discharged by last Aug. 31. Of these, 18 per cent are training under various veterans' training programs and it is expected the figure may exceed 20 per cent within the next year the Minister stated.

Approximately 6,000 ex-service women have taken vocational training with assistance from the department and more than 2,000 have taken or are taking university training or other professional or semi-professional training in various non-university schools or colleges.

Training classed as "vocational" ranges from such occupations as radio mechanic, egg grader and linotype operator to dressmaker, practical nurse and homemaker.

A little more than 30 per cent of service women were married at the time of discharge and this percentage approximates that of women veterans who have used their re-establishment credits, which are an alternative for training or Veterans Land Act assistance, to help establish or furnish a home.

"It appears that well over 20,000 ex-service women have obtained employment since returning to civilian life," Mr. Mackenzie said. "The women of the Canadian Armed Forces are showing in their civilian pursuits the same adaptability, self-reliance, dependability and efficiency which characterized their service in uniform. They are showing the same desire to improve their skills. Many are doing outstanding work in the universities and various other schools and colleges.

"Such attributes will contribute to the general well-being in no small way—not only in the individual community but to the country as a whole."

More than 50 per cent of Canada's women veterans still have intact their entitlement to D.V.A. asisstance in the form of re-establishment credit, training or Veterans' Land Act.

At the end of August those who had used their re-establishment credit numbered 13,441, of whom 11,987 used it for the purchase of furniture and household equipment. There were 765 ex-service women who had used re-establishment credit by that date for providing working capital or purchasing a business or equipment for a business.

The Doctor Says

BODY CIRCUMVENTS CORONARY HEART DISEASE

By William A. O'Brien, M.D.

When the coronary arteries, which supply the heart with blood, are narrowed by thickening or clot, emotional disturbances or muscular effort may cause heart pain due to the failure of the blood to circulate properly through the muscle.

Dr. O'Brien.

The pain, except in severe cases, usually disappears in a few moments. It is felt in the left shoulder, left arm, head, or neck as well as in the chest.

The cause of the thickening of the coronary arteries is not definitely known. The disease is more common in men than in women and it seems to be on the increase in younger persons.

Cholesterol Involved

One factor possibly associated with its development is an increase in a fatty substance (cholesterol) in the blood which is deposited in the lining membrane of the vessels. High blood pressure is also a factor, but the disease is not so common in old age.

When a clot forms at one of the narrowed points, coronary thrombosis develops. Some investigators believe that the clot results from a hemorrhage under the lining membrane of the vessel wall which clogs the passageway.

The use of medicines to slow the clotting of the blood is being tried in cases of coronary thrombosis which involve repeated attacks.

The most hopeful information pertaining to coronary sclerosis or thrombosis is the fact that the blood has a way of getting around the circulatory blocks through the opening of new channels. It is for this reason that the majority of patients recover from so many attacks of coronary difficulty.

The coronary disease patient may find it difficult to follow his physician's advice by taking it easy. If so, he should talk this matter over with the doctor and ask for more specific advice. (Usually, patients are warned to avoid any emotional or physical exertion which causes distress.)

Normal Living Urged

The patient who has had a coronary attack should try to lead a normal life following recovery. Records indicate that those who go back to their jobs and carry on their regular activities get along as well as do those who allow fear to make them chronic invalids.

Many victims of coronary attacks develop heart nervousness as a result of anxiety over their condition, and this may cause pains to develop independently of the heart.

Plenty of rest each night, freedom from worry about things which cannot be helped, and getting the weight down to normal are all recommended for those who have had coronary attacks. If these patients learn to live within their means, they will not overtax their blood circulation.

MAPLE LEAFS AND RED WINGS TIE 3-3 IN INITIAL GAME

Red Wings Failed To Win Opener For First Time In Three Years

Detroit, Oct. 17.— (AP) —In a scrappy display that fulfilled all promises of a "fighting, crowd-pleasing" team, Toronto Maple Leafs opened the National Hockey League season by battling the Detroit Red Wings to a 3-3 draw that the Wings gained only on a "one-in-a-million" goal.

Sid Abel fired the counter before an inaugural crowd of 12,756 last night to stop the Leafs from making an early jump into first place alone. With but 11 seconds to play, his 20-foot shot beat Turk Broda after Red Wings had yanked goalie Harry Lumley to put six men up on a faceoff.

The score climaxed a rugged contest that saw the teams finish the first period in a scoreless deadlock and the second tied, 2-2.

There were 12 penalties in all, with Detroit's Adam Brown drawing a major for fighting with rookie Gus Mortson of the Leafs.

Rookie Garth Boesch, playing his first N.H.L. game at defence, came through with one goal for Toronto while veteran Bob Goldham and Harry Watson fired the others. For Detroit, Adam Brown and Gord Howe, their 18-year-old rookie, tallied one each.

Watson's goal, deadlocking the score after Wings went ahead, 2-1, in the second period, gave Toronto the opening edge in the controversy over their pre-season trading with Detroit. Centre Billy Taylor, for whom the Red Wings traded the leftwinger, was held scoreless by Toronto.

Besides the goal, Watson got an assist on Goldham's opening counter for Toronto after Adam Brown took Abel's pass to start the scoring at 7:02 of the first frame. Howe shot Detroit ahead again at 13:39, only to have Watson tie the score again on a play with Syl Apps with but 59 seconds left in the period.

Abel, playing his first full season since his R.C.A.F. discharge, took a faceoff pass from Simpson to deadlock the game for the final time after Boesch slammed home a 45-footer with but four minutes remaining. It was Abel's third point as he gained assists on both other Detroit goals.

It was the first time in three years that Detroit failed to win its home opener.

Giant Sherbrooke Horse Show To Be Officially Opened Tonight

The most enthusiastic horse-lovers have been at the Arena every evening this week to watch exhibitors from all over the province practising for the giant Sherbrooke Horse Show which opens tonight at the Arena at seven o'clock sharp. Hon. J. S. Bourque and His Worship Mayor Guy Bryant will officially open the show with M. T. Stenson, chairman.

Patrons of the Show this year will find a very clean building, newly painted and heated.

Entries for the Show, which will continue on Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoon, have broken all record this year. Four hundred and thirty-one horses from fifty-three different stables and independent owners have been entered in the forty various classes.

Followers of the saddle and harness horses will find classes in these divisions filled. Jumping classes are swamped with entries from all over the province.

This year the local citizens attending the Horse Show will be able to follow the whole with interest since Sherbrooke and Eastern Townships entries are considerably heavy.

In the saddle classes they should watch for Clipper, Dufferin Boy and Kentucky Gent. The first, owned by S.M.S. Stables, will be ridden by Aime Chaquette and Mrs. Frank S. Gravel. Dufferin Boy, owned by A. Dumas, will be ridden by Andre Renaud, Mrs. T. Lizotte, of Magog, and Mrs. George Bonnette, of Sherbrooke. Kentucky Gent, owned by Mont Pleasant Stables, will be ridden by Aime Gagnon, of Sherbrooke, and Suzanne Voisard, of Montreal.

Look for Sonny Horace, owned by Dr. A. Berube, of Sherbrooke, in the hackney class.

The patron who likes action will be satisfied with the jumping classes which in some divisions have forty entries.

Of the many prominent riders in Sherbrooke for the Show some are Vernon Cardy and the Ferguson twins, Edith and Helen; Frederick Von Lombeck; Percy Knott, and Mrs. A. O. Mackay.

Jumping in the same classes with them will be the riders of the local S.M.S. Stables: Erich Marquardt, Erich Schiller and Ferdinand Stegmaire, Aime Choquette, of Fairplay Riding Stables, who will jump M. T. Stenson's Commando, and H. L. Blias' Gamin, and Aime Gagnon, who will be up on Silver Banner owned by H. Guertin, Prince, owned by Andre Renaud, and Ben D'Or, owned by L. Desruisseaux.

These, of course, are only a few. The Show this year is worthy of the support of the entire city.

Classes scheduled for tonight follow:

Child's pony driving 13-1 and under, children 15 years and under; novice jumper; single roadster 14-2 and over; saddle horse, Eastern Townships; parade E.T. stallions; knock down and out jump; seat and hand under 16 years; single harness hackney pony 12 to 13-1; saddle horse pair, lady and gentlemen, ownership combined; middle weight hunter.

Hershey And Cleveland Tie For Leadership In American League

Hershey and Cleveland are the respective leaders in the Eastern and Western divisions of the American Hockey League today as a result of two triumphs apiece in the first week's action of the new season.

The Bears, after an opening night victory over Pittsburgh Tuesday, went to Springfield last night to meet the Indians' first team since 1942 and won 6-4 before a sellout crowd of 5,500.

Eddie Shore's Indians started off impressively with two goals in the first 10 minutes but the Bears opened up and rattled off five markers in 14 minutes of play. They added another as the third period got under way and held the Indians to two goals in the final frame.

Cleveland, successful in the opener with Philadelphia, repeated last night at St. Louis by trouncing the Flyers 6-2 before a capacity crowd of 14,513—the league's record gate so far.

St. Louis matched goals with the Barons in the second period but in the third their defence bogged and the Barons slammed home three more.

Pittsburgh, after losing to Hershey, launched its home season with a 9-4 victory over Philadelphia Rockets. The Hornets made their nine goals while appearing to be working only about two-thirds of the time.

Maurice Corteau, Rockets' goalie, was called upon to make 67 stops.

Buffalo Bisons opened the defence of their league championship on home ice with Indianapolis, the Capitals leading well into the third period when the Bisons scored to earn a 1-1 tie.

With all 10 teams now having seen action, the first seven games have drawn a total of 53,240 customers.

ST. LAMBERT TO PLAY HERE AGAINST S.H.S.

Football fans can look forward to a good match Friday afternoon when the S.H.S. Senior squad meets the powerful St. Lambert aggregation in an exhibition game at the Parade Grounds. The contest will be played as part of a home and home series.

The visiting team will arrive on the noon train and will be entertained at the Sherbrooke High School for luncheon.

The locals have played two games so far this season. They won easily over Richmond to the tune of 34-7. Then they met the powerful Stanstead aggregation and suffered a 41-0 setback.

The boys are going through regular workouts in preparation for the tilt. With more practice and experience the locals should develop into a strong light team.

The teams will enter the contest at about even strength and a close game is expected. St. Lamberts were defeated this year 6-0 by Lower Canada College who last year defeated S.H.S. Therefore St. Lamberts are no pushovers.

The game will get underway at about 3:30. Probable S.H.S. lineup. Snap, Yorke; insides, Neill and Towne; middles, Stewart and Bennett; ends, Ayotte and Beaulieu; quarter, Petts; halves, Finnerty, Davies, Wilson and Black. Subs: Turnbull, Pye, Budning, Bordoffe, Williams, Howard.

Memphis, Tenn.—Chico Morales, 125, Tampa, Fla., outpointed Jackie Callura, 128, Hamilton, Ont. (10).

New York—Norman Rubio, 148, Albany, N.Y., outpointed Tony De Rosa, 147, New York, (8).

Frank Boucher's Rangers Tackle Montreal Canadiens Tonight

In more ways than one, it will be "Frankie on the spot" tonight when New York Rangers, perennial cellar-dwellers, tread the title-encrusted ice of the Montreal Forum to open their National Hockey League season against the champion Canadiens.

In the league's 1946-47 inaugural at Detroit last night, Toronto Maple Leafs gave early support to predictions of a tighter race by battling to a 3-3 draw with the Red Wings, a team that finished last year two places better than the Leafs' fifth. Now it's up to Frankie and his Rangers to draw the extremes together.

Rangers will present few completely new faces, as Boucher's rebuilding program started before the close of the last campaign. The team played 50-50 hockey towards the end with such additions as the kid line of Cal Gardner, Church Russell and Rene Trudell and defenceman Hal Laycoe from New York Rovers.

Canadiens will present even less in new blood, with George Allen of Chicago Black Hawks replacing Dutch Hiller on the forward wall as their only change. One of last year's champions will be temporarily missing, centre Buddy O'Connor still nursing a hand broken in an early exhibition tilt.

If the game lives up to the Detroit opener, then league president Clarence Campbell's opening promise of thrills galore in this 180-game season can be accepted. Leafs and Wings battled hammer and tongs before 12,756 cash customers before Sid Abel's 20-foot shot with 11 seconds to play finally deadlocked it.

The marker came after Wings had yanked goalie Harry Lumley to play six up for that faceoff.

The game was replete with penalties, 12 in all and one of them a major for fighting to Detroit's Adam Brown. It was the same Brown who got the only counter scored while either team was shorthanded, beating goalie Turk Broda with Toronto's Howie Meeker serving a penalty.

The Toronto scorers were veteran Bob Goldham, rookie defenceman Garth Boesch and Harry Watson, obtained from Detroit in the deal that sent Billy Taylor to the Wings. Rookie Gordon Howe got Detroit's other marker.

WHISTLE-BLOWING TO BE CUT

Detroit, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Whistle-blowing in National Hockey League games is going to be less frequent this season, says League President Clarence Campbell.

The league's new boss, himself a former referee, was here for the opener between Detroit and Toronto last night and expressed himself as follows:

"There'll be a full 60 minutes of action. I've instructed all officials to keep the game moving and to lay off the whistle unless it's absolutely necessary."

JOE LOUIS LOSES BOUT

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Heavyweight champion Joe Louis lost a bout yesterday—but in the legal, not in the boxing, ring.

He agreed to pay his ex-wife's former lawyer, Bindley E. Cyrus, $2,000 for legal services on a divorce action which ended in a reconciliation in July of 1941.

After the agreement was announced, Louis grabbed Cyrus' hand, lifted it high and announced: "The winner!"

New Orleans—Baby Gonzales, 127 1/2, Los Angeles, outpointed Jock Leslie, 126 1/2, Flint, Mich., (10).

Barbara Scott First Woman To Win Lou Marsh Memorial Trophy

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—(CP)—Canada's first sportslady of the year, 18-year-old Barbara Ann Scott of Ottawa, was awarded the famed Lou E. March Memorial Trophy at a civic reception last night in tribute to the laurels she has won for this country in the figure-skating world.

It is the first time the trophy, which is given yearly to Canada's outstanding athlete, has ever gone to a woman, and the first time it has been won by a figure-skater.

Barbara Ann, ladies' figure-skating champion for Canada since 1943 and last year's champion for North America, was presented with a replica of the 300-pound Indian marble memorial. She also received a photograph of the actual trophy which remains in the office of the Toronto Daily Star for whom Mr. Marsh was a sports columnist. Her name will be inscribed on the original alongside those of other Canadian athletes including Theo Dubois, Winnipeg oarsman, who won the honor in 1941.

During the war years no civilian award was made but for that period the trophy was inscribed in memory of all Canadian athletes killed during the war.

TELEPHONE AND Y'S MEN WIN IN "Y" LOOP

Y's Men and Bell Telephone each won three consecutive strings in games played in the Y.M.C.A. Five Pin Bowling League. The "Y" team trounced Brakeshoe, and Bell Telephone set back Sherbrooke Machinery in a close game.

The Y's Men-Brakeshoe fixture was a one-sided affair. The Y's Men's pinfall total for three strings was 3165, 719 more than the total which Brakeshoe bowled. The Y's Men also won the individual honors, E. Martin getting both the high single with 258, and high for three strings, 661.

Although Bell Telephone captured all three strings in their game with Sherbrooke Machinery, the losers had some consolation. Distifano of the Sherbrooke Machinery bowled 219 for the high single and also rolled high score for three strings, 625.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Clint Smith, veteran centre of Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League, will be on the sidelines for three weeks. Smith suffered a knee injury in an exhibition game at Minneapolis Monday night. He will be replaced by Rookie Hank Blade from Hawks' farm club, Kansas City Pla-Mors of the United States Hockey League.

Edmonton Junior Canadians Rated Alberta Threat For Memorial Cup

Edmonton, Oct. 17. —(CP)— Coach Earl Robertson has problems—lots of them—but he isn't bothered by a shortage of hockey players for his Edmonton Junior Canadians, generally rated Alberta's main challenge this season for the Memorial Cup and Canadian junior puck supremacy.

In fact Robertson, scarry netminder with New York Americans of the National Hockey League a few years back, admits that he has "such a raft of players" trying for positions on his sextet that after some five practice sessions he still can't identify all the young hopefuls flying up and down Edmonton arena's big ice surface.

On early season form Canadians appear even stronger offensively than last winter when they waltzed through the city league, upset a strong Moose Jaw Canuck squad, then fell before the fast-skating Winnipeg Monarchs in the Western Canada finals.

Normie Kirk, stylish speed merchant from Nanaimo, B.C., is expected to add a lot of punch to the front line. He has been pivoting a line with Eddie Thomas, holdover from last year's club, and Red Hammond, Ex-Prince Albert, Sask., puckchaser.

Robertson's main problem appears to be in the rearguard, weakened by loss of last season's star, Bill Gadsby—now a play-for-money puckchaser with Kansas City of the United States Hockey League.

His main defensive hopes hinge on Bob Gray, recruited from Oshawa Generals, and another holdover from 1945, Ron Mathews. Marchant, used on defence by Minneapolis during the recent Cleveland-Minneapolis school at Winnipeg, may also be moved back to bolster the rearguard.

Goaltending worries aren't likely to cause Earl any lost sleep. Johnny Sofiak, young netminder from last year's club is back. His goaltending won high praise in last year's Western playoffs.

BOWLING IS FAVORED SPORT IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Oct, 17—(CP)—Winnipeggers have become "Bowling Conscious" and this fall some 20,000 of the city's 250,000 population will take time out from their work to spill both five and ten pins for their recreation. Ninety-five per cent will play the five-pin game.

With 250 leagues operating in the city, between 12,000 and 15,000 persons will endeavor to topple the "little wooden men" in league play for the various city championships.

More than 400 school children operate a five-pin league on Saturday mornings, while university and business college students have formed their own leagues. School teachers too, go after their strikes and and spares as nearly 50 per cent of Winnipeg's teachers draw a bead on the headpin in the city's largest league—92 teams.

Per capita, Winnipeg has more bowling alleys—180—than any other city in Western Canada.

"Bowling is a grand recreation," says Ray Gibson, one of the city's leading bowlers. "Most beginners exert themselves too much, they figure you have to hurl the ball to knock the pins over, but that isn't so. A medium ball along with timing and footwork are the main essentials for good bowling."

With Johnny Lake showing his oldtime form with Toronto's Balmy Beach in Eastern football, Blue Bomber officials are probably tearing their hair for letting the Eastern moguls lure "Big Jawn" away. Lake would fit in nicely in the plunging spot of the Bomber lineup this season.

ANCESTORS OF LATE PRO WERE NOTED GOLFERS

Friends of the late Dave Turnbull of Sherbrooke, and of Mrs. Harry Fowlis, Jr., of Lennoxville, and golfers in Sherbrooke and in the Eastern Townships generally will be interested in an account about "Jamie" Anderson and his son, the late James Anderson, of St. Andrews, Scotland, grandfather and uncle, respectively, of the late Dave Turnbull and of Mrs. Fowlis. According to the St. Andrews Citizen, in which the story appears, "Jamie" Anderson and his son, Jimmy, collected during their careers what the newspaper describes as probably the most remarkable assortment of golf trophies in the world to be won by a father and son.

The collection comes to light on the occasion of the celebration of the centenary of St. Andrews Golf Club, to which "Jamie" and Jimmy belonged, the article goes on.

The mementoes, it states, are at the home of Mrs. Anderson, Jimmy's widow, who lives in St. Andrews.

The record "Jamie" Anderson fashioned out on the links is one of distinguished achievements, the Citizen's story relates. Three times in succession he won open golf championship medals, in 1877 at Musselburgh, Scotland; in 1878 at Prestwick, Scotland, and in 1879 at St. Andrews.

Most of the spoils belong to Jimmy. Mrs. Anderson treasures two of them above all others, the article notes. The one she cherishes most is the Paton Quaich, which Jimmy won in 1894, in 1895 and in 1896. This trophy was presented to St. Andrews Golf Club for annual competition. Jimmy took it home with him the first time he won it, and it has remained there ever since. No one else has ever won this prize.

The other souvenir has a story behind it. Jimmy wanted to join the St. Andrews Club when he was 16, the article explains, but the minimum age limit of the club was 18. Jimmy became a member simply by stating a wrong age in applying for membership in the club. That year he played against some of the biggest golf giants in St. Andrews history, and as a result captured the club's Scratch Medal. It is the first golf medal he ever won.

Jimmy's career was an outstanding one, the Citizen's story shows. He had a happy knack of capturing spoils in groups of threes, and three times in a row, in 1900, in 1901 and in 1902, he won Royal and Ancient golf medals, each of which is emblematic of the match play championship of St. Andrews. He brought home two more of them, in 1905 and in 1907. These are the most valuable trophies in the collection. He was unable to take part in this competition in 1906 owing to illness. However, he annexed the F. G. Tait Memorial Medal in 1906, repeating his victory in 1907, and again in 1908. Jimmy is also a one-time holder of the Victory Cup, which he won in 1926, and which is now competed for in the Leven Tournament. During the last few years of his career, the Citizen's article declares, Jimmy added to his laurels the Scratch Medal of St. Andrews in 1927; a replica of the Younger Cup, which he won in 1927 as a member of All Saints Club; the Scratch Aggregate Medal of St. Andrews in 1928; in 1933, the medal that accompanies the Stewart Cup, presented to the Foresters' Golf Club by the family of the late Tom Stewart as a memorial to the world famous cleek maker; and the annual first class Scratch Medal of St. Andrews, also in 1933.

That is not all. Jimmy's trophies also include a barometer he won at St. Andrews early in his career; two golf medals he captured as St. Andrews' representative on the champion Fife team in the "Post" Cup competition, and a special medal awarded to him on one of those occasions for breaking the record for the course at Leven; the Hugon Cup and the Jubilee Cup of St. Andrews, and eight medals merchants of St. Andrews presented to him from time to time.

Minneapolis, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Opening of play in the expanded United States Hockey League will find six of the eight teams busy tonight in opening of 60-game schedule. Tulsa Oilers will visit Kansas City Pla-Mors, Dallas at Houston, and Omaha Knights at Minneapolis Millers. Houston is this year's addition to the league.

TALK HEARD ON EDUCATION AT WAY'S MILLS

Way's Mills, Oct. 17.—The October meeting of the Way's Mills Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Freeman Sutton, with Mrs. Gordon Whipple assisting the hostess. The president, Mrs. W. B. Sargeant, was in the chair, and Mrs. W. B. Holmes acted as secretary. There were fourteen members and four visitors present. The usual opening exercises were dispensed with, and after the reading of the minutes, several matters of business were transacted, which included the School Fair, and plans for a produce sale at that time; gifts to be sent to friends in the "Old Country," and the campaign for the New Sherbrooke Hospital, which is being looked after in Way's Mills by Mrs. Sargeant, assisted by several Institute members and their husbands.

It was decided to ask Miss Walker to attend the November meeting, which is to be held at the home of Mrs. Earl Hovey, and to ask her to speak on the topic of "School Lunches." Miss Davidson reported that she had completed the piecing of a quilt for a prospective bride. Mrs. Daintrey's article, "Do our schools meet our need?" was read and discussed. The roll call was answered by naming "Suggested changes in the school curriculum."

Miss Catharine MacKenzie, of Stanstead, county convener of Education, was then introduced by Mrs. Holmes and spoke on the subject, "Are our children being educated to meet modern requirements?" She promptly gave the challenge, "Are We?" She spoke of the opportunities afforded the Institutes in working for Adult Education, especially through the children. She stressed the fact that many children would never become good students, and for this class the curriculum should be altered to give them the sort of education they could assimilate through technical training. She thought that the teaching of simple biology would be a step in the right direction. The new County School Board was mentioned and she urged the Institute to make an effort to have the ruling changed which bars married women in community of property from sitting on a school board. She advocated studying both sides of political questions to broaden one's outlook. The concluding words of this very stirring address were "Help others to lead a good life."

Mrs. Sargeant thanked Miss Mackenzie for her very enlightening address. A letter was read from an absent member thanking the members for birthday greetings extended to her. The meeting then adjourned after which tea was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Mrs. C. E. Davis and Miss Davidson, teachers from the Way's Mills School, were present and took part in the educational discussions.

"Mr. Porter made noteworthy contribution to the development of new high explosive fillers for the projectiles of the navy.

Mr. Porter's mother and sister, Mrs. Clarence Porter and Miss Virginia, are now residing in Montreal.

Berliners Discuss Goering's Suicide

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

Berlin, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Hermann Goering, even in self-inflicted death, captured the imagination of many Germans, some of whom denounced him today as "a scoundrel, who certainly should have hanged."

Berliners first heard of Goering's suicide and the hanging of 10 other condemned Nazi war criminals at Nuernberg over their radios.

"I knew it," exclaimed a young blond stenographer when told of Goering's act. "I never was a Nazi, but I've always thought that 'if Goering hangs, my name isn't Inge,' I knew he'd cheat the gallows some way. Throughout the trial his mind seemed more alert than those of the other defendants."

Said a middle-aged housewife: "That's a shame. That scoundrel of all people, escapes hanging."

Several Germans expressed relief that the long Nuernberg drama was over.

But even as they heard the broadcast news of the executions, they also heard on the Russian-controlled radio Berlin a demand that more trials should quickly follow "to convict the capitalist and industrialist war criminals."
