MONTREAL CO'S MEXICAN CAMP SEES REBELS

"Stayed 40 Hours; Threatened McNab; Cost Camp $1500 Mexican"

So Runs the Despatch to Montrealer —Mr. Greenwod and Others Knowing Mexico Do Not Fear Serious Trouble.

Though removed thousands of miles from Mexico, certain Montrealers are in almost daily touch with the centre of the insurgents' operations, and telegrams are being received here by the Mexican Northern Power Co., two or three times a week, telling how those under arms are conducting themselves.

Mr. G. F. Greenwood, the President of the Mexican Northern Power Co., when seen by a Star representative had just received a telegram from the town which the company has built about twenty miles from Santa Rosalie in the State of Chihuahua,—Camp Las Babisas.

The telegram which was sent from Mexico City via Galveston, Texas., refers to conditions in the camp just spoken of and says:

"Rebels stayed forty hours in camp. Executed three of their own men. Threatened McNab. Cost of entertainment fifteen hundred Mexican dollars. Everybody scared badly. Forty of our men joined the rebels."

The telegram was sent by Mr. Frederick Adams, Managing Director of S. Pearson and Sons, the contractors for the Mexican Northern Power Co., and the McNab he refers to is the General Agent of a big English contracting firm. Further messages from day to day have shown that the Montreal Company interested had been put to no bother on account of the disturbances in the Mexican Republic.

Mr. Greenwood said:—"My ideas of the United States moving troops to the Mexican border is as a matter of help for the Mexican Government, and to prevent filibustering, which they have a perfect right to do, for it is pretty evident that the arms which have been getting over into the Mexican territory have been supplied by people in the United States. Therefore, it is proper for the United States to stop it. They are a friendly nation to Mexico, and it is not right that war material should be supplied from their own country.

"We have built a town on the sight of our camp, and at present employ about 759 men, which means some 2,500 to 3,000 souls in Las Babisas." We have already built a railway line for a distance of about twenty miles from the town of Santa Rosalie, to the camp, where we expect to have everything in working order in about a year and a half. At the present time we are supplying power for our own mills and light for the town, where a hospital among other things has been built. We employ a lot of native labor and I really do not think that our progress will be interfered with to any extent."

Other Montrealers Reticent.

Several other Montrealers who are acquainted with the situation in Mexico and who are personally familiar with the Mexican leaders are loath to discuss Mexican affairs. It is claimed that there is such a perfect system of espionage carried on by the men of President Diaz's government that a statement made in Montreal by any man of prominence will soon reach the Powers that be in Mexico and the return message telling him so will probably not take longer than three days in getting here. Under such circumstances there is very little desire to say anything which might be construed into criticism of the present government of Mexico.

One man in the city yesterday who has not long since returned from Mexico, said he really did not think that the people down there knew what they were squabbling about. "The mobilization of the United States troops on the frontier of Mexico is capable of different meanings," he explained, "but I do not believe that these troops would be there if there had not been a previous understanding with the Mexican Government. To my mind things have got too hot for the Federal troops to manage.

Fighting is in the Blood.

"Some of the insurrectionists are just in the game because it is in their blood. President Diaz will brook no interference, and those who try to fight him are generally given a long rest in a foreign country. I am of opinion that he wants to break up the system of large land holdings, which gives the aristocracy such sway in the country and in so doing he would be actually helping the lower classes, but the common worker on the soil cares little for the progressive methods of a President. Some of the large land owners and rauchers in Mexico have as many as five and six thousand hirelings on the estate, and the owner is the very God of their existence. The insurrectionists themselves are more of the middle class, men who have become apparently tired of the untiring rule of the family of Teresas. Recently the insurgents attacked a train and leaving the other passengers alone, they held up the son of Teresas and made him pay $5,000 for his release.

"General Diaz is getting to be an old man, and there is very little doubt that the politicians and statesmen of the ruling Government have things arranged as to how they will act in the event of his death. Some of his Ministers are very capable men, and it only needs a look into recent movements in the financial world to see how well the interests of Mexico have been looked after in securing the large loan which has just been obtained."

OTTAWA TO HAVE FINE EQUESTRIAN STATUE OF KING

Memorial to King Edward VII. Will Be Erected by Dominion Government on Plaza Laurier.

Quite a lot of excitement was caused at the City Hall to-day, when the news was brought that a citizen was about to ask a quo waranto against the City Council for voting money to charter a special train to take a delegation to Quebec to protest against the passing of the Tramways Bill.

EXPRESS RETURNS BILL IS AMENDED

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, March 14.—Major Sharpe's bill providing for annual returns to the Government of unclaimed balances of express companies, and to make the Receiver-General custodian of such funds, raised a long discussion to-day in the Railway Committee.

Council for the Dominion Express Company raised the objection that in the past no record had been kept of numerous small money orders issued. He also objected to unclaimed moneys being turned over to the Government. The company's credit was good, and there was no reason why the money should be taken from it.

The deputy Minister of Finance wrote that the Department had no machinery for dealing with such claims. Finally the clause providing for annual records passed, but the one making the Government custodian of the funds was dropped. In that way the bill was adopted.

Strikers Causing Trouble in Portugal.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Lisbon, March 14.—Strikers at Setubal yesterday afternoon attempted to capture a cartload of sardines. The Guardia Civile, resisting the attack, fired and killed two strikers and wounded several others.

Another strike has started at Lisbon, that of the Union Fabril, chemical workers. There was much excitement last night. The working class element assembled in large crowds at Rocio.

MR. FREDERIC LECLAIR, FORMER THEATRE MANAGER, SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS

THE LATE MR. FRED LECLAIR.

Mr. Fred Leclair, for thirty years connected with the theatrical enterprises of Mr. J. B. Sparrow, died last night at the residence of his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. B. Brunet, 1747 Esplanade avenue. Mr. Leclair was connected with the management of various local theatres, specially with the Theatre Royal, where he was manager for a long time. He was also at one time manager of the Theatre Francais and the Academy of Music. His death follows a long illness, attacks of pneumonia and pleurisy having developed into valvular disease of the heart, leaving him an invalid for the past two years.

Mr. Leclair was born in St. Hilaire 58 years ago, but spent most of his life in Montreal.

TWO WOMEN SEERS QUIT OCCUPATION

CASAVANT GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Rosario Casavant was found guilty of manslaughter this morning in the Court of King's Bench, on the charge of killing Ernest Bigras on December 23, by hitting him with a stick. Justice Lavergne in his charge to the jury said that while Casavant, according to the strictest interpretation of the law might be found guilty of murder, yet he advised that a verdict of manslaughter be found in view of the circumstances, which hardly warranted the taking of a human life, and yet deserved to be punished severely.

THE USEFUL DIPPER EXTINGUISHED FIRE.

Dippers played a prominent part in extinguishing a blaze which broke out at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Thompson, 155 Ottawa street. She upset a lighted lamp and flames caught curtains and drapings in the sitting room. While a neighbor gave an alarm Mrs. Thompson busied herself with dippers of water. So effective was the treatment, that before the firemen arrived the flames were extinguished.

SAVED CREMATION IN MORTUARY CHAMBER.

Firemen reached 284 Manufacturers street to-day in time to prevent the cremation of the body of Mrs. John Monpetit which was being thr n d by a blaze in the temporary m uary chamber. As District Chief Brier's force entered the room the coffin had ignited.

A candle fell from its socket and fired the drapings which in turn fired the coffin. An elbow of the corpse was scorched.

The death is reported from Gananoque, Ont., of Mr. O. B. Goulette, for a number of years past Inspector of Islands and Pavilions on the St. Lawrence in the vicinity of that place. He was 76 years of age and leaves a widow and family of four children. Mr. Goulette was born and lived his entire life in Gananoque.

Is Ishmael On Grosse Isle

Zisbe Carries Cholera Germs and is Source of Danger Though Healthy.

The trouble with the seventeen undesirable immigrants on the SS. Volturna, who are being carried back and forth on the sea because no country wants them, has brought to the minds of local shipping men an even worse fate that has befallen an immigrant who last November left Russia for Canada.

This man is Gottlieb Ziebe, the man who was taken off one of the boats running to Montreal and landed at the quarantine station at Grosse Isle as a cholera suspect. At Grosse Isle he still remains, and the authorities are in a quandary as to what to do with him.

The trouble is that he is one of those strange beings who, while apparently enjoying perfect health himself, is a source of grave danger to everybody with whom he comes in contact. He is what is known as a cholera carrier—that is to say, his system is apparently stocked with an inexhaustible supply of cholera germs, and while these do not cause him any inconvenience they are a source of danger to everybody who comes near him. Probably no nation in the world would allow him to land.

The United States authorities for years had a similar problem in a woman as "Typhoid Jane" who carried in her system tyhpold germs that were a source of danger to everybody but herself, and the only thing that could be done with this woman was to keep her in perpetual isolation. This apparently is the only alternative with the poor fellow at Grosse Isle, who is now a very Ishmael, without kindred, friends, or country.

MORMON WOMEN IMMIGRANTS ARRIVE.

The campaign now going on in England against Mormonism has had the result of considerably decreasing the number of girls passing through Canada from England on their way to the great Mormon headquarters at Salt Lake City. Formerly large numbers were constantly passing through the city, landing at Portland in the winter, and coming up to Montreal by rail, and at Montreal in the summer. The traffic has not altogether been done away with, however, for to-day a party of fourteen young women, who have become Mormon converts, arrived at the Bonaventure station, and later left with an emigrant special going west, their destination being Salt Lake City.

Social and Personal--Opening Night at Theatres

A PASTORAL PLAY IS "THE ROSARY" AT HIS MAJESTY'S

Religious Sentiment and Humor Mingle in Good Play With Harrington Reynolds in Lead.

Linked together by religious sentiment, with Celtic proverbs and some quiet Irish humor added—the various scenes of "The Rosary," at His Majesty's call to mind the hearth-and-home species of pastoral plays that used to delight years ago.

Although the action verges into decidedly melodramatic lines, this is probably done to bring out the moral aspects of the play so vividly that they can at once be grasped by the popular mind. The lessons are made still more popular by Mr. Harrington Reynolds, who portrays the priest, and who is no stranger to Montrealers. He not only lives up to pleasing conceptions of a warm-hearted Irish clergyman, with a pleasant Irish brogue, but he also adds touches of character study wh people of almost any creed would admit to be just and true to life. Those who happen to remember Mr. Reynolds' popularity when he played in the old Francais stock company here can readily understand the cheery and broadminded spirit which he incorporates into the role of a spiritual adviser bringing comfort to stricken hearts or else instilling every-day dash and vim into people who have no cause to be troubled.

The play is undoubtedly intended to touch the heart rather than arouse the faculties, and thus its appeal is largely concentrated upon the fam circle. No pains is spared to make this appeal as vivid as possible in a play of this class. The basis of the play is not new, and the moral is just about as old as good and evil are in the world.

For instance, the play opens in a sort of "garden of Eden," of A.D. 1911, situated in a country home not far from New York. There is a happy husband and a happy wife. The latter has a twin sister, and both sisters, by the way, are sympathetically portrayed by Miss Grace E. Reading. Into the garden comes Kenward Wright, whose "serpentine" nature is immediately detected by the priest.

By jumping over the intervening action to the last act, it will be seen that the happy husband has become suspicious of his innocent wife. He has become ruined by drink; he returns to the scene of his home in rags and tatters, crazed by liquor and collapses near the chapel of the Rosary, which he had caused to be built with his own money. His wife after wandering around homeless for a year is at the moment in the chapel singing "The Rosary," and at the selfsame moment a ray of light strikes the enemy of the family, who falls to the ground and confesses the plot he has laid to ruin their homes. Then the husband is converted from drink and atheism and enters the chapel with his wife.

Of course, all this is fortunately very much brightened by the character of Rev. Father Kelly preaching his doctrine of religion mingled with good sense and homely humor. The play would naturally appeal more to people who are linked by sentiment to the Emerald Isle, especially during the week of St. Patrick's Day, but its wholesome teachings which intersect the melodramatic elements are certainly not confined to barriers of race or doctrine.

Other characters in addition to the priest, who are intended to offset the pathetic portions of the play are presented by Mr. Edgar Murray, Jr., who plays the role of a moonsick lover gradually merging into a husky Irishman; Billy Champ in the role of a converted crook and Miss Grace Childers and Miss Eleanor Rella in the supplementary female characters. Mr. John C. King appears as the husband and Mr. Walter S. Fenner as the enemy of the household.

Good Show at the Royal.

By all odds the best entertainment of the season at the Theatre Royal is that which is given this week by "The Lady Buccaneers." The olio is the feature and Arvi's "The Grecian Temple," is in the lead. Dissolving pictures have long been exhibited but dissolving "living pictures" is a new idea and it is carried to a perfection that deserves the greatest praise. The whole thing is artistic in the extreme and the mystery surrounding it makes it easily the best attraction of the season of its class. Helen Van Buren again sang her way into favor. M'lle. Emmerie is a very clever trapeze artiste. Martin and Ware do a good dancing act. Ross and Shaw have a unique musical act.

The Lyric Hall.

An overflowing audience with people turned away at the Lyric Hall last night. This week's programme is a good one, with three good acts and plenty of fine pictures. The leading novelty is: "The Mexican Hermann" who presents some illusions. The musical Pierrotts" a pair of Parisian Instrumentalists perform some intricate selections on different string instruments. Miss Beatrice Lilly, character artist was well received. Among the pictures are "A Real Russian Bear-Hunt," "A British Bluejackets' Mimic Battle," and "The American Fleet in British Waters."

Highland Society Honors President.

The regular meeting of the Highland Society took the form of a Box Social. Mr. Cameron, president of the society, was presented with a handsome tea and coffee service by the ladies of the society. Mrs. Bark made the presentation in an eloquent address, to which Mr. Cameron replied on behalf of Mrs. Cameron and himself. A programme of Gaelic songs and a reel brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

Kusel-Underwood Wedding.

The marriage was recently solemnized at Trinity Church, Finchley, England, of Miss Gladys Beatrice Branksmere Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Underwood, of Platt's End House, Hampstead, London, formerly of Montreal, and Mr. Kenneth Kusel, second son of the late Baron Kusel, and of the Baroness Kusel, of Meltreck, Allerton, England. The Rev. Henry Summerhays performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of ivory satin charmeuse, draped with ninon, and trimmed with pearl embroidery; the long train adorned with orange blossoms, in the form of horseshoes. She was attended by five bridesmaids, Miss Mignonne Peregrine, Miss C. Fay, Miss Chatfield Clark, Miss Josephine De Silva and Miss Marjorie Darwell. They were dressed alike in gowns of pearl meteor with real lace fichus and aprons, made in Quaker style, and wore little Quaker bonnets. Each wore a rose shaded enamel placque, the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. Reginald Kusel, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and later Mr. and Mrs. Kusel left for a trip to the continent. The bride travelled in a costume of pearl grey chermeuse veiled in marquisette of the same shade and trimmed with silver lace. A hat of grey satin straw with black trimming completed the costume.

Mrs. de Sola's Tea.

Mrs. Clarence I. de Sola entertained yesterday afternoon at a very pleasant tea, attended by over eighty guests. Yellow spring flowers were effectively arranged in the drawing room, where the hostess received wearing a gown of violet satin meteor hand-embroidered in two shades of violet, and steel beads, with a violet crushed velvet bandeau in her hair. In the dining room the table was prettily decorated with Killarney roses and lilies of the valley in the centre, surrounded by Venetian glass dolphins, with a cluster of the same flowers in the mouth of each. Tiny electric lights glimmered amidst the flowers. Mrs William Markland Molson and Mrs A. J. Ferguson poured tea and coffee and were assisted by Mrs. Edward Schlesinger, Miss Mary Campbell, Miss Gwendolyn Stanley Bagg, Miss Amy Mathewson, the Misses Du Lisle and Miss Jill Johnson.

Mrs. Hart's Tea.

Mrs. D. A. Hart, Sherbrooke street west, entertained a number of young people yesterday at a delightful tea in honor of her guest, Miss Goodwin of New York.

The marriage of Ethel Male, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Holtby of Prince Rupert, B. C., formerly of Ottawa, to Mr. Thomas Bernard Bland O'Neill of Quebec, is announced to take place on April 6th in Prince Rupert.

Mrs. C. A. Pugsley and Mrs. Harry Gilbert, of St. John, N.B., who were in Montreal for the Pugsley-Ross wedding, are spending a few days with Hon. William and Mrs. Pugsley, at Ottawa.

Mrs. John McKeen and her daughter, Miss Marion McKeen are leaving Ottawa for New York on Wednesday and sailed on the following day for Bermuda.

Miss Jessie Clark, formerly of St. Lambert, who has been a patient in the Montreal General Hospital for the past week, is progressing favorably.

Mrs. H. Healy, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Crowe, has returned to her home at Windsor Mills.

Captain Newton was the guest of Their Excellencies at Government House, Ottawa, for the week-end.

Lady Tilley, who has been in Ottawa for the winter, is returning shortly to her home in St. John.

Mrs. W. G. Macnaughton, of Montreal, is in New York for a month, the guest of Mrs. W. L. Voigt.

A PLACE TO EAT.

There's always a call for good board. The hosts of men and women who do not eat at their own table are always on the lookont for a conveniently located boarding house where they are ensured of well-cooked, wholesome food.

Many a man, and his family, too, like to take an occasional meal away from home, and are often influenced by the announcements of boarding houses, restaurants and others who tell of their preparedness to serve meals.

The Want Columns of The Star contain many such items of news under the headings "Board" and "Rooms and Board," and they are welcome announcements to hosts of people who are in search of neatly served palatable meals.

MISS FRANKLIN PLEASED THE ORPHEUM PATRONS

In a repertoire of character types, appropriately set in original songs, Miss Irene Franklin appeared as the headliner at the Orpheum last night to justify all that had been said about her in advance. From the personation of the simpe chambermaid and the blase chorus girl to the pathetic girl-mother and the coy little school tot. Miss Franklin was warmly received in every offering, and then the audience clamored for more. She was ably assisted at the piano by Burt Green, who saw to it that there was not an instant which was not fully occupied. Following closely in popular favor was Ed. F. Reynard in a "A Morning in Hicksville," which as a ventriloquial turn, stands by itself in a class all its own. Even the setting called for rounds of applause, while the artist's work was quite in keeping with the way he has it dressed.

The electric spark of the show, was no doubt Brent Hayes, the banjo artist, and the way he painted pictures from the classic to ragtime on his different banjoes, was a revelation in the art of playing this instrument. He was rewarded with several encores and an enthusiastic audience heartily demanded several more.

The Landry Brothers in their strong act and "aerial triumph," gave an exhibition of muscular strength, clean cut and entertaining, while Abbott and Minthorne Worthley in a dainty little sketch, "At the Seaside," were the forerunners of the holiday season. Gerald Griffin and Company in "Other People's Money," kept the audience in the best of humor with their laughable playlet, which is fun and sage advice, presented in a capable manner by the head of the miniature company.

To vary the programme there are bits of musical comedy by Klein Bros. and Sibyl Brennan, all three of whom worked hard to please and succeeded. The Georgettys present a novelty acrobatic act, in which there is some very clever single-hand balancing. The pictures and the orchestral selections are fully up to the Orpheum standard.

From a Special Correspondent.

Toronto, March 14.

THERE is no sentiment in a modern city. For many years people have been describing the oldest building on King street as a shack and an eye-sore that ought to be torn down, and no one is shedding any tears over the announcement that it is to disappear. Every Torontonian and visitor to the city knows the old frame building just west of Yonge on King street, which for many years was occupied by a sporting goods store and has more recently been an auction room. It was erected in 1834, and may have been, at that time, quite an imposing looking building, but it has long been out of place among the fine banks and sky-scrapers which surround it. Its front looks as though it saw its best days fully a century ago, and numerous signs do not add to its decorative appearance.

It is now to give place to a new building to be occupied, when completed, by the Quebec Bank, and the whole will seem in keeping with the dignified section of the town. Torontonians have often wondered why nobody pulled down the old frame stores, but it now appears that the owner, an Owen Sound man, refused to sell them. It is not stated whether his reasons were sentimental or financial, but if the latter he proved wise, as he received $126,000 for it, when he finally decided to surrender his ownership.

The inland naturalist watches for the birds as a sign of spring, but in Toronto the average youth watches for the first boat in the harbor. Two weeks ago, men were teaming across the ice to the island, but the thaw which began on Saturday has practically ended the winter, and the warning was given to-day that men must not cross the ice as it is in process of breaking up.

The first of the season's sail boats were also seen this morning on Humber Bay, and the breeze, though chilly, was one that a racer would glory in. In the course of the next few days, the harbor master's hat for the first boat which breaks through the ice and lands at the Yonge street dock must be awarded. Spring has arrived in Toronto.

A paper is to be established in Toronto in the course of the next month to further the interests of the labor party in Canada. The exact nature of the sheet has not yet been announced, but in some particulars it is unique as a journalistic venture. In the first place it will not rely on advertising for support; in fact it intends to go further and accept no advertising, on the ground, probably, that it would have to come from capitalists.

However, the expenses are not going to be very large, as the editors and managers intend to contribute their services gratis, and the printing and similar expenses are all that will have to be met. The men behind the paper have decided to call it "The Canadian Labor Party Bulletin," and they intend to use it entirely for educational and propaganda purposes.

If the paper serves the purpose for which it is designed, some Socialist or Labor members may yet be found in Parliament. There are a number of organizations which claim to represent the working classes, but they do not work together sufficiently to have a voice in elections. The Bulletin hopes to bring about the solidification of these parties so as to make them a power in politics. The exact date of the publication of the first number has not been announced, but it will probably be about the first of April.

Following hard upon the denunciation of the Toronto slums by Dr. Helen MacMurchy, comes another statement which will doubtless shock fastidious citizens. Dr. Hastings, the Medical Health Officer, declares that a large amount of diseased meat is sold in Toronto during the course of a year, and he proves his assertion in a most convincing manner.

He calculates that 36,400 cattle are killed in Toronto in the course of a year, but says that the city does not supply enough inspectors to examine all of them. Last year only 1,694 cattle, or a little over four per cent. of the total, were inspected, and of these one per cent. could not be used on account of disease. Taking this proportion as a basis for his figures, Dr. Hastings believes that among the uninspected cattle were 340 animals which should not have been used for meat on account of different forms of disease, and yet these were killed and sold as food.

After making this startling disclosure for the benefit of all those who are not vegetarians, the Medical Health Officer urges very strongly the employment of enough experts to make a thorough inspection of all the cattle slaughtered in the city. The diet which Toronto offers its citizens becomes every day more appetizing. In addition to drinking impure water, they now may feel that they are perhaps dining off diseased meat.

MARCHING OUT ORDERS.

A Shoe Sale and a Shoe Opening to be Simultaneous All Over Canada.

For the first time in the history of the Slater shoe in Canada the privilege of a fortnight's revel in shoe bargains has been accorded by the makers of the shoe with the "Sign of the Slate."

In view of the radical changes in styles and shapes introduced by the Slater Shoe Company over 500 Slater Shoe dealers in Canada agreed that two weeks of cut prices should be given in order to dispose of all broken lines and all styles which will not be "repeated."

There are few back number styles, or what is known in the trade as "Spiffs," but the shoes bearing the Slate Mark are all of good leather and mostly new. But they are models which may not be in vogue next year, and certainly will not be in accord with the new Slater styles for Spring and Summer.

April the first is the Slater Spring Opening Day all over Canada, and in preparation for the event we give this once-in-a-lifetime event.

Every shoe marked down for this quick disposal will be plainly marked, so that buyers may know at once just what shoes have received their marching-out orders.

MEMBER FOR RICHELIEU IS FIRST WITNESS

Admits Work Was Done and Materials Borrowed, But Insists All Was Paid for.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, March 14.—With a crowded attendance of members and witnesses, the Committee on Privileges and Elections began this morning, the inquiry into the charges made by Mr. P. E. Blondin, member for Champlain, against Mr. Adelard Lanctot, M.P. for Richelieu.

Briefly, the charge is that Mr. Lanctot's house was painted by employes of the Government ship yard at Sorel, and that the materials were supplied from the yard. The defendant admits the work was done, but says it was paid for.

Mr. J. M. MacDougall, K.C. of Hull, appeared for Mr. Blondin, assisted by Messrs. Doherty and Barker. Mr. Lanctot was represented by Mr. N. K. Laflamme, K.C., of Montreal.

At the outset Mr. Barker obtained an order for the production of all papers, and also that Mr. Lanctot be asked to produce his check for $292, or any other amount paid by him in connection with the work.

Mr. Laflamme produced a statement of an account rendered by the Department of Marine, to Mr. Lanctot, and a cheque for $635 paid by him. Mr. McDougall then proposed to call Mr. Lanctot as the first witness, and his counsel while saying that it was a matter of indifference to his client, objected. Messrs. Devlin and Geoffrion argued that it was unusual to ask a defendant in the case to be the first witness.

Messrs. Barker and Crothers contended to the contrary, and Chairman Girman ruled that counsel for the prosecution had a right to proceed in any way he liked.

Mr. Lanctot on the Stand.

Mr. Lanctot then took the stand. Under examination by Mr. McDougall, the member for Richelieu said that during the summer of 1910 he spent three or four days a week at Saranac, where his wife was ill. In June, he was building a house at Sorel, and being unable to get painters from outside or in the town, he applied to the Marine Department for workmen.

A long wrangle ensued as to the method of examination. Mr. Lennox insisted that the questions should be asked in English, and interpreted into French, instead of vice versa, as was being done.

"The witness has a right to elect to give his evidence in which ever tongue he likes," declared Mr. Geoffrion, "if Mr. Lennox is not satisfied, let him get out."

"I was put out of a committee by you once, but I won't be this time," retorted Mr. Lennox. Mr. Lanctot insisted on giving his evidence in French, and a motion by Mr. Lennox that the questions be first asked in English was voted down.

The evidence was then resumed and Mr. Lanctot told of applying to the Government shops on May 29, as he was leaving for Saranac Lake. He asked for painters to finish his house, and was told by Mr. Page, the foreman, that he could get some. He had also asked to get some paint and materials from the shops, and told the foreman to keep account of it. What was not used would be returned. The work was done while he was away.

September and October, he had four men, possibly five, at work for him. Earlier in the summer one or two were engaged. It might have been from May to November. The agreement was that he should pay the men at departmental rates of wages.

"Did you speak to the foreman about the account?"

"Yes, many times. I asked for a statement, and he replied he would have it ready some time soon. I offered to pay the men from time to time. He preferred to wait till the job was done."

"Were not all the materials supplied you by the Government shops?"

"I cannot tell that, till I look over the accounts of Labelle and Company.

"What did you pay finally for painters' wages?"

No Expert Valuation Made.

"Was any expert valuation made of the work done by the Government employes or materials supplied?"

"That is my own business," Mr. Lanctot answered.

Mr. McDougall pressed for an answer and was told finally that no such valuation had been made.

"I had full confidence in Mr. Champagne, foreman, over the shops, who rendered the account of $375.62, and which I paid."

"Did you correspond with the Department about the work?"

"No. I gave my cheque when I got the account."

The letter rendering the account dated November 21st, 1910, was then read. It was sent by Oscar Champagne to Mr. Lanctot, at Ottawa. The writer hoped everything would be found satisfactory.

When was it paid," Mr. Lanctot was asked.

"I sent the cheque on November 22nd. It was cashed January 11th."

"Was it not held back at your request?"

"No."

"You knew it was Government employes who were doing the work?"

"Certainly."

Only Borrowed the Materials.

"Why did you not pay for the materials as well as for the wages of the men?"

"Because I was to have similar materials returned to the Department. I had only borrowed them."

"What was paid for materials?"

"$81," the witness replied.

"Did you get a receipt?"

"No. I paid the money to Mr. Papineau, superintendent at Sorel."

Mr. McDougall asked whether a year before this particular job was done, one Alderic Senecal had not worked for Mr. Lanctot without being paid. Senecal was a Government employe.

Mr. Laflamme insisted on particulars, and a long wrangle followed, the point being undecided when the committee rose

SHALL WE "ANNEX" ELECTIVE JUDGES?

It is impossible—in view of the persistence with which our Parliament pushes ahead with the Taft proposals—though they are not yet properly before us at all—to avoid thinking of some of the certain effects of Annexation if our politicians drag us ruthlessly into the trap. One of these effects must infallibly be the loss of our judicial system and the substitution for it of the elective system which often makes so tragic a travesty of justice in the neighboring Republic.

Our judges are appointed for life or good behaviour by the Domininon Government, and can only be removed from office "for cause" by a joint address of both Houses of Parliament. Most of the judges in the United States are elected for short terms by popular vote. This means that they are usually selected by the party "Bosses": that they commonly earn that honor by satisfying the "Bosses" as to their docility and meekness; that it is only when the public are aroused that it is necessary for the politician to run really good men for these positions; and that the most of them are working, from the day of their election, to make sure of re-nomination and re-election.

The difference between the two systems need not be emphasized. Assuming exactly the same sort of people living in both countries, we cannot be in doubt as to character of the judiciary in each. If we had the American system, we should get the American judiciary. We need not be hypocritical about it. Our politicians are no more scrupulous than theirs, and our people will watch them with no greater vigilance. And just here lies the danger. When we import the system, we import the fruits; precisely as if the Americans would import our system, they would get our class of judges. They do let the Federal Executive appoint their judges of the Federal Supreme Court; and there is no better Bench of Judges in the World. Our neighbors are just as good as we are; but they have chosen to drag the ermine in the mire of party politics.

Do we want to go and do likewise? We surely will if we permit the political amalgamation of the two nations. We cannot become a part of the United States, politically, and escape the infiltration of the American political system. In the name of "triumphant democracy," we will soon be electing our judges, and reproducing the condition of affairs in this country which made the Thaw trial a possibility. It is only necessary to compare the trial of Harry Thaw with that of Dr. Crippen, to see at a glance the difference between the two methods. To-day we enjoy the judicial system which hanged Dr. Crippen. To-morrow—if we follow the beckoning of Taft at "the parting of the ways"—we may be burdened by the system which gave the world the Thaw trial.

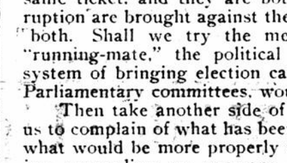

An elected judge, who was looking for re-election, would be more than human if he were not susceptible to popular clamor and amenable to party discipline. How, for example, could we entrust political trials to judges who might be dependent upon the influence of the political law-breakers before them for re-nomination? A judicial candidate and a member of Parliament go to the polls, let us say, on the same day on the same ticket, and they are both elected. But charges of corruption are brought against the organization which elected them both. Shall we try the member of Parliament before his "running-mate," the political judge? Obviously our whole system of bringing election cases before judges and not before Parliamentary committees, would have to be thrown overboard.

Then take another side of the case. It is, perhaps, not for us to complain of what has been called "trial by newspaper," but what would be more properly regarded as trial by popular feeling proceeding on unsworn testimony gathered from every quarter. No reputable journal would contend for a moment that such a trial would be always or even usually reliable enough to settle the question of a man's liberty or life. We in this country feel secure, however, that every accused citizen will get a calmer trial before an absolutely independent judge where nothing but proper evidence will be heard, and that will be sworn to and compelled to stand the test of cross-examination. But if we had an elected judge who was looking forward to holding his job by keeping step with public opinion, would we feel so certain that rigid and careful justice would be done in every case, even if the Court had to run counter to the general view?

A judge, of all men, should be put beyond the reach of personal ambition, political pressure or popular outcry. We do not even want to have judges who are thinking that they may have to go back to the practice of their profession, and appear in court before, possibly, one of the very lawyers who are now wrangling before them. When we elevate a man to the Bench and entrust him with the tremendous issues which come before a judge for settlement, when we practically put our property in his hands for safe-keeping, when we give him power of life and death over us under certain circumstances, we ought surely to hedge him about with every safeguard that human ingenuity can devise which will permanently protect him from the passions which play upon and divert the judgment of other men.

We cannot hang before the eyes of our judges the menace that they must come down from the Bench again at no distant day and join the struggle for a livelihood. We cannot then offer them a sweet postponement of this dread disaster if they will truckle subserviently enough to "the man in the street" or follow faithfully enough the "man in the caucus" to keep their serene eminence for another term. If we do these things, we cannot expect to make British and Canadian judges out of time-serving politicians and anxious seekers after popular applause. It we are going to bring our judges every few years before the bar of the mob, we must not expect that they will heroically resist the passionate and ill-considered verdict of that mob on every sensational and long-to-be-remembered case which comes before them.

To-day, we have our judges chosen under a rare sense of responsibility by the Dominionn Cabinet, and lifted to the Bench with the full knowledge that they are beyond the reach of party condemnation and street criticism for the rest of their lives. Under the elective system, our judges would be little more independent than our Mayors and considerably less powerful than our members of Parliament. Do we want to tread on the brink of such an exchange by accepting the Taft direction as we stand "at the parting of the ways"? For, if the Americans are "preparing to annex Canada," we are preparing to annex their judicial system.

ONCE RESIDENCE IN WELLINGTON STREET TO BE WAREHOUSE.

Wellington street will have one more up-to-date warehouse building which will be constructed by the McClary Manufacturing Company, on the land now occupied by the old buildings Nos. 21 to 29 Wellington street. The new building will have over 100 feet on each front.

The property was purchased by the McClary Manufacturing Company from Mrs. Beaune Major, for $29,000, or about $4 per square foot.

Previous to 1860 these old stone front buildings were occupied as residences by prominent business men of Montreal, and their destruction will remove one of the city's oldest land marks.

Seven hundred pounds of veal, that was not fit for human consumption, was confiscated by the food inspection department of the city last week.

OTTAWA TO HAVE FINE EQUESTRIAN STATUE OF KING

Ottawa, March 14.—A magnificent equestrian statue of the late King Edward VII. is to adorn the centre of the proposed Plaza Laurier at Ottawa.

This is understood to be the wish of the majority of the Dominion Cabinet, who have just approved of the plans for the merging of Dufferin and Sapper Bridges into the broad expanse of a plaza.

It had been announced that a statue of the late Thomas D'Arcy McGee would be given the place of honor on the plaza, but as there are movements afoot in other cities to erect statues to the late King, the Government is said to feel that the Capital City should not be behind in this respect in honoring the memory of the deceased Sovereign.

It is also pointed out that Ottawa has not yet an equestrian statue, and that it would be an opportune time to depart from the heretofore accepted idea of statues in this city, when such a splendid location offers for a memorial of this kind.

King Edward VII., as is well-known, made a majestic figure on horseback, although his stature was not above the ordinary.

While methods of the proposed statue to King Edward VII. have not been called for as yet, it is understood that in addition to the equestrian figures, bas-reliefs of incidents in his visit to Canada will surround the base of the monument, thus making the connection with Canadian life and his memory the closer.

Although in other cities the founds for the erection of King Edward VII. statues are being raised by public subscription, the one here will be built at the expense of the Government.

Supreme Court Cases of Interest.

Ottawa, March 14.—In the case of the Town of Westmount vs. Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, in the Supreme Court, counsel for the municipality produced plans for the town at the time of incorporation, showing the streets, position of electric lights, posts, electric wires, etc. The case was taken under consideration.

The appeal in Candian Pacific Railway vs the City of Montreal is now being heard.

WHO WINS THE EXHIBITION CASE?

The Star has bought a beautiful dress suit case for presentation to the person who is judged to have given the best answer to the following question:—

Why is the circulation of the Star increasing faster than at any period of its history?

The Star has now reached a circulation close upon 60,000 a day greater than any of its competitors; that is, greater by nearly 60,000 a day than that of any competitor. Think of this:

The best short letter written within one hundred words wins the dress suit case—a beauty.

Begin your letter thus:

The Star's circulation is increasing faster now than at any other period of its history because.....

MR. FREDERIC LECLAIR, FORMER THEATRE MANAGER, SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS.

THE LATE MR. FRED LECLAIR.

Mr. Fred Leclair, for thirty years connected with the theatrical enterprises of Mr. J. B. Sparrow, died last night at the residence of his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. B. Brunet, 1747 Esplanade avenue. Mr. Leclair was connected with the management of various local theatres, specially with the Theatre Royal, where he was manager for a long time. He was also at one time manager of the Theatre Francais and the Academy of Music. His death follows a long illness, attacks of pneumonia and pleurisy having developed into valvular disease of the heart, leaving him an invalid for the past two years.

Mr. Leclair was born in St. Hilaire, 58 years ago, but spent most of his life in Montreal.

TWO WOMEN SEERS QUIT OCCUPATION

This Followed a Trip to Magistrate's Court and a Little Talk.

"You are charged with unlawfully telling fortunes," said Judge Bazin, this morning, when Mrs. Roberts, 6 Victoria street, was arraigned before him, "what do you say to the charge?"

Mrs. Roberts, who is a rather old lady and a little hard of hearing replied in a most business like way: "I charge one dollar for a full reading, and fifty cents for a general reading."

Judge Bazin then explained that he was not inquiring as to her charges, but simply asked whether she pleaded guilty or not guilty to telling fortunes.

With this explanation Mrs. Roberts said that she had told fortunes, but did not know it was against the law, and would close up her business at once.

Madam Belle, 369 City Hall avenue, was arraigned on the same charge, and when she promised to close up the Judge allowed both her and the Roberts woman to go on suspended sentence.

Madam Wilson, 188 St. Catherine street west, and Madame Olivet, 78 St. Lawrence street, pleaded not guilty to the charge and were remanded until the 22nd for trial.

SPECIAL DEPARTMENT FOR THE DOMINIONS?

Special to the Montreal Star.

London, March 14.—Colonel Lynch, in the House of Commons, asked whether, in view of the prejudice caused in Australia through reference to that country as a "colony," the Government would consider the desirability of creating a separate department to deal with the affairs of the self-governing dominions.

Mr. Lewis Harcourt replied that the question would be discussed with the dominion premiers at the Colonial Conference.

Replying to a question whether Mr. Grigg, the Canadian trade commissioner, had reported on the reciprocity agreement, Mr. Harcourt said information on this and other matters affecting British trade was received from time to time. A special report would be furnished if called for, he added.

APPROVES TAFT'S ARBITRATION PLAN FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Sir Edward Grey Makes Notable Speech in British Commons on Peace Movement.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, March 14.—The Tribune's London correspondent cables:

The members of the Coalition forces in Parliament are subordinating everything to the Veto Bill, and until that measure is made law the Government is in no danger of defeat. So much was made manifest during the debate on armaments last night.

Mr. Arthur A. W. H. Ponsonby, a spruce, dapper young Radical who began political life as Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman's secretary, hit the nail on the head when he said that except for that overwhelming issue, the constitutional question, the Government would be saved in division only by the votes of Opposition Nationalists, who in former years have gleefully joined in the game of voting down a big navy, but on this occasion faithfully adhered to the terms of the Veto Bill compact and gave no assistance whatever to the Liberal mutineers.

Breaking Civilization Down.

Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Secretary, who was leading the House of Commons, in Premier Asquith's absence, made an important pronouncement on the Government's naval policy. Reginald McKenna, First Lord of the Admiralty, in defence of his estimates against attacks from certain quarters, had explained that in 1914 Great Britain would have thirty, and Germany twenty-one Dreadnoughts,—not, he said, an unreasonable margin. The size of the British navy, he added, practically was governed by that of Germany, and unless some change occurred in the German naval law, this year would be the high water mark in the British estimates.

Sir Edward Grey, affirming Mr. McKenna's statements, emphasized the cordiality of Great Britain's foreign relations and his earnest desire that nothing should disturb these friendships, especially with Germany. He then dealt with the difficulties to be encountered in the disarmament question and pointed out that it was the most civilized nations that spent the most on armaments, asserting that unless the mischief was brought home to men's feelings as well as their minds the growth of armaments must in the long run break civilization down.

Approves Taft's Scheme.

Any real limitation to armaments, he declared, must depend on nations learning, like individuals, to resort to law instead of force of arms. He referred to President Taft's arbitration speech as bold, courageous and pregnant with consequences, and said:

"Such a statement ought not to go without response. We should be delighted to have such a proposal made to us. We should feel that it was something so momentous and so far-reaching in its possible consequences that it would require not only the signature of both governments, but the deliberate and decided sanction of Parliament. That, I believe, would be given."

Sir Edward's speech was loudly cheered. When he referred to the possibility of the adoption of President Taft's proposal, he was listened to in tense silence. If, he said, the two greatest nations should thus make it clear that in no circumstances were they going to war again, the effect of their example to the world must have beneficial consequences.

Nations entering such an agreement, continued the secretary, might be exposed to attack by a third nation. This would probably lead to their making another agreement to join each other in any case of quarrel with a third power in which arbitration was refused.

Law Better Remedy Than Force.

"In entering an agreement of this kind," said Sir Edward, "there would be risks, and you must be prepared for some sacrifice of national pride. I know that to produce such changes public opinion must reach very high ideals, higher than some think possible, but men's minds are working in this direction, and history affords instances of reaching such an ideal point. It was so in the case of slavery, when the United States rose up, not counting the cost in blood or money or the risk of national existence."

Mr. Balfour supported the Government who eventually had a big majority. Sir Edward Grey's speech was too late for comment in the morning newspapers, but it created sensational comment in the lobbies of the House.

CITY'S AMENDMENT TO M.S.R BILL ACCEPTED; FIGHT ALL BUT OVER

On Company's Acceptance of New Clause 14, Committee Unanimously Agrees—City Claiming Right to a Referendum—But Committee Votes Down the Proposition—Freight and Mail Carrying Privileges Subject to Contract—Premier Gouin on Montreal's "Committee of Terror"—Mayor Guerin Repudiates a Newspaper Interview and Newspaper Writer is Reprimanded by Premier Gouin.

THE DISPUTED CLAUSE IN TRAMWAYS BILL

Clause 14 as it Appeared in the Original Bill.

14. The company shall, during the period of forty-two years from the sanction of this act and thereafter until the sale to the municipalities is effected, as hereinafter enacted, have the right and power to acquire, construct, equip, maintain and operate by means of electric power or any power other than steam approved by the Quebec Public Utilities Commission, tramways in and across the City of Montreal and the Municipalities of the Island of Montreal and of Isles Jesus and Bizard, outside the City of Montreal; and the construction, maintenance, equipment and operation of the tramways which the company may acquire or construct in virtue of this act shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the agreements existing with the City of Montreal and with the Municipalities of the Island of Montreal respectively, and to the terms and conditions of all new agreements which the City of Montreal and the said municipalities respectively are by this act authorized to enter into with the company, to cancel, amend and extend existing agreements and generally to stipulate the terms on which the said tramways shall be constructed, maintained and operated in and across the City of Montreal, and the said municipalities respectively.

The company shall have the right to convey freight and mails over all parts of its system on such terms and conditions as shall or may be hereafter agreed upon by mutual consent with the municipal authorities, or, in default of such agreement, on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Quebec Public Utilities Commission.

Sec. 14, as Amended By the City Council.

In the event of the undertaking and property of the Montreal Street Railway Company, of the Montreal Park and Island Railway Company, of the Montreal Terminal Railway Company and of the Public Service Corporation being acquired, as provided in this act, the Montreal Tramways Company shall have, during a period not exceeding forty-two years, from the sanction of this act, the right and power to acquire, construct, equip, maintain and operate, by means of electric power or any power other than steam, approved by the Quebec Public Utilities Commission, tramways in and across the City of Montreal, as it now exists, and as later on extended. This provision shall be subject, however, to a contract to be entered into between the city and the company to determine the duration, the conditions which the said company shall be held to comply with as to the operation, maintenance, equipment, establishment, and extension of routes in the different streets and thoroughfares of the city, the rates of fares, the percentage to be paid to the said city on the gross earnings of the said company, the share of the cost of paving and maintaining the streets and of removing the snow to be paid by said company, and such other terms and conditions as the city may deem advisable to impose.

All differences between the city and the company, as regards the interpretation of the said contract, shall be submitted to the Quebec Public Utilities Commission for final settlement.

As exclusively foretold in last night's Star, a way out has been found in the tangle over the Tramways Bill at Quebec.

The Company's legal advisors appeared before the Railways Committee this morning and formally accepted the City's amendment to Section 14 of the Bill, which provided for a new franchise not to exceed forty-two years in length, the city to have the right to negotiate the details with the Company, and providing for the intervention of the Public Utilities Commission in the event of ultimate disagreement.

The Committee unanimously accepted the amendment.

The acceptance of the City's amendment and the changed attitude of the city officials ensures that the Bill will go through in its modified form.

The City's representatives at Quebec insist that the amendment carries with it the privilege of the City Council, if it so disposes, to submit the new franchise to a vote of the electors of Montreal. The Railways Committee, however, voted down a motion to submit the forthcoming contracts to a referendum.

Premier Gouin read the City's representatives a lesson on tolerance and, incidentally, maintained the Premier's right to express an opinion on the issue without being subjected to violent attacks by "a committee of terror which is in existence in Montreal."

During this morning's session, Mayor Guerin was taken to task by members of the Committee for an alleged interview, printed in a Montreal newspaper, which has been unusually vociferous in regard to the Bill, in which dishonesty was imputed to the members of the committee. The Mayor repudiated the alleged interview in toto. Premier Gouin himself, took a hand, sharply reprimanding a member of the editorial staff of the newspaper in question, who was present and who attempted a defence on behalf of his paper.

Everybody repudiated the suggestion of graft in connection with the Bill and the atmosphere, for a time very much strained, was again cleared up.

As Mayor Guerin put it, it was agreed to "let by-gones be by-gones."

While all this was going on a special train bearing a crowd of Montrealers was on its way down to Quebec. They were going, in responce to the appeal of Mayor Guerin, first to protest against the passage of the Tramways Bill at all, and second to insist, if it were passed, that the amendment adopted by the City Council be made a part of it.

The civic delegation had a pleasant little free excursion to Quebec, only to find, on arriving there, that their presence was not really necessary after all.

SETTLEMENT IN SIGHT OVER TRAMWAYS BILL

Special Staff Correspondence.

Quebec, March 14.—The Railways' Committee consideration of the Montreal Tramways Co.'s bill was delayed for half an hour this morning while conferences were held in the Prime Minister's office on the subject between Sir Lomer Gouin and Controller Lachapelle and Ald. Brodeur, representing the city of Montreal. Afterwards Mr. J. A. Perron was called in as representing the Tramways Company.

It was said after the conferences that there was a good prospect for a settlement of the outstanding differences between the city and company. No mention, however, was made of any prospective agreement when the committee took up the consideration of the bill.

Ald. L. A. Lapointe, speaking for the City Council, informed the committee that the aldermen and controllers had carefully studied the bill since the adjournment last Thursday, and the outcome was the resolution adopted by the City Council yesterday.

After reading this resolution, Ald. Lapointe added, in reply to Mr. Lavergne, that it did not mean the absolute acceptance of a forty-two years' franchise. The acceptance was conditional, he said.

"The resolution says the franchise shall not exceed forty-two years, and I maintain it reserves to us the right of submitting the question of contract to the people if we deem it necessary."

Ald. Lapointe, in conclusion, denied that the City Council had any fear of making a contract. This question was in the hands of the controllers, and if they were ready to recommend the terms for a contract the Council would ratify them, knowing there was public confidence in the controllers.

Dr. Finnie made a conciliatory speech, in which he congratulated the civic authorities on the spirit shown

Prosecution Threatened Against Hockeyists Who Manhandled An Umpire

Thirty-two New Members of The Shamrocks Voted and Tom O'Connell is President

The struggle for power at the Shamrock Lacrosse Club last evening was a drawn battle. Insurgents and stand-patters each succeed in drawing from the results a certain amount of consolation, and, while the insurgents, supported by a certain wing of the stand-pat party, succeeded in electing Alderman Tom O'Connell to the chief executive office once again; in placing Mr. Peter Murphy in the comparatively inactive position of honorary president, and electing a second vice-president and assistant secretary, the stand-pat element won in the struggle for the office of first vice-president.

The officers elected finally were as follows

Hon. president—Peter Murphy.
President—Ald. Tom O'Connell.
First vice-president—Mr. M. Hughes.
Second vice-president—Mr. H. E. McCallum.
Secretary—J. J. O'Neill.
Assistant secretary—James Mahoney.

Two of the offices, that of first vice-president and assistant secretary, were balloted for, the others went by acclamation.

With a single exception, there was no determined opposition to any of the meeting's proceedings, although Mr. Flynn made things interesting from time to time by registering various protests to the proceedings. The real opposition developed in regard to the motion to suspend a part of the constitution in order to enable some thirty newly-elected members to vote at the meeting. The motion was regularly moved and seconded and put to the meeting, and, while there were only a few actual votes in favor of the motion, there was no dissentient hand raised when the question was called for those against.

Mr. Peter Murphy, who was in the chair, *thereupon declared the motion carried, which word brought Mr. J. O'Brien to his feet with a strenuous protest.

There was a roar from the greater part of the members, and for a moment there seemed a little excitement. From the midst of the racket Mr. O'Brien could be heard protesting that no vote had been taken, and that the action was unconstitutional, and several other things Mr. O'Brien was strongly supported by some of the older members, but the chairman's ruling had been given, and Mr. Murphy declined to alter it, in which course of action he was supported by a majority of the members present. The new members, therefore, got their vote.

The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and adopted. The former showed that the club from last year's activities carry over a deficit of $1,519.35. That of the secretary was not as favorable as in past years, as last year's team did not finish as well as could have been hoped. This was due in part to the recommendation of the directorate, who at the beginning of the season had decided that the club should play as many amateurs as possible, and as a result many junior and intermediate players had to be drafted into senior ranks.

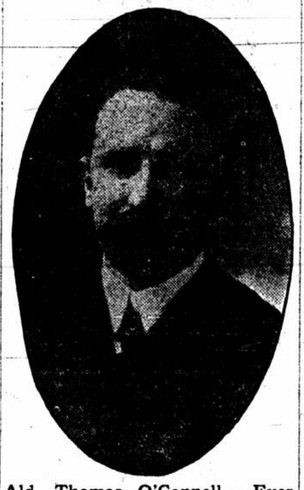

Mr. Michael Fennel had no difficulty in getting his motion to so amend the constitution as to allow of an annual meeting instead of semi-annual meetings as heretofore, and to hold that annual meeting in the second Wednesday in November. The change, when explained to the members, was favorably received, and the vote in its favor was practically unanimous.

Under the new arrangement, the officers will come into power at the close of the season, and will be able to spend the winter months planning for the lacrosse season, instead of wondering what chance they stand of being re-elected. Mr. Flynn was practically the only member to raise any kick against this.

Mr. Cooney opposed Mr. Hughes for first vice-presidency, but, although the figures were not read, it is understood that Mr. Hughes' majority was only about twelve votes. Mr. Nolan opposed Mr. Mahoney for assistant secretary.

The meeting closed at midnight, after votes of thanks to the Young Irishmen for the use of the hall; the president, and the press.

BROUGHT BACK INTO HIS KINGDOM.

Ald. Thomas O'Connell.—Ever popular past-president of the Shamrock Lacrosse Club, re-elected to that office last night, after twelve months rest.

SPORTING VIEWS AND REVIWES

Endowed with perennial youth and possessed of an unflagging zeal for the interests of our national summer sport, the Shamrock Lacrosse Club has once more set its house in order, chosen its executive, and put its shoulder to the wheel, prepared to roll the old organization through another season. The Shamrocks and lacrosse are as inseparable as summer and blue sky, or youth and hope; and the time will never come, at any rate, it never should come, when the Shamrocks will not be prominent among those upholding the game that has made Canada famous and the rest of the world jealous. It is to be hoped that during the season upon which they are about to enter the club will experience some of that good fortune which in past years so often linked together the Shamrocks and victory.

The Galt hockeyists seem to be able to get about so far, and then comes a halt, usually followed by retreat. Having won the championship of the Ontario Professional League, they naturally were ambitious to climb to the very top of the tree, where ripens big fruit like the Stanley Cup. Well, they have not reached there yet, Ottawa blocking the way. It is one thing to win the Ontario championship, but it is quite another to defeat the leaders of the National Association.

There are other signs of an early spring besides the appearance of tan boots on the streets and the creeping back into the advertising columns of the summer resorts. One of these signs is the activity of lacrosse people. It has already gone so far that in Toronto they have arranged a match for May 6, which, it is said, will be one of the earliest big matches ever played. Well, if the early bird catches the worm, why may not the early lacrosse player catch the elusive and fleet-footed dollars. The managers of the Nationals and the Tecumsehs think they can, and so they are to bring off two early May matches, the first to be played six days after moving, which should be time enough to permit Toronto to get settled, and compose its mind sufficiently to enable it to take in lacrosse.

The most jubilant boys in town are those modest youths who hide themselves under the name of Garnets. Among other things that they do well is to play hockey, and this season they have done that so well that they have not only won the City League championship, but hold the Jubilee Cup also. The Garnets' cup of happiness is running over, but they must have a care that it is not upset by the boys from Vankleek Hill.

Having been fairly good boys, the Newark ball players are to get new spring suits. The boys have promised to be careful of them, and to bespatter them with nothing except glory. The new suits are to be somewhat different from those worn during the past few seasons. The shirts, or blouses, and the "knickers," will be of solid stiff, "all-wool and a yard wide," warranted not to fade in sunshine or shrink in rain. These two necessary parts of the suit will be military brown in color, trimmed with navy blue, which will also be the color of the lettering and of the stockings. It is now thought that the Newarks, whose pet name has been "Indians," will this season be christened the "Browns." "Fine feathers make fine birds," and something quite superior may be expected of Newark.

When announcing the match between the Parkdale hockey team and their own Crescents some New York writers gave the visiting Canadian team a very high place in the field of amateur sport. For instance, this is what the New York Sun said:

"By winning from such teams as McGill, Queen's, Toronto and St. Michaels in the 'Varsity League, as well as the Monttral A. C., Shamrocks, Maple Leafs and Cliffsides, the best amateur teams in Canada, the Parkdales have demonstrated their right to the title of champions of the Dominion, and are recognized as such, with the authority to play an American team for the world's championship."

Well, if it was a championship match it was not the Crescents who won it, for they scarcely had a look-in; certainly not in the matter of scores, for they did not make a single goal. The Crescent waned before the bright light that shines in Parkdale.

ST. PATRICK'S A.A.A. HONOR CHAPLAIN

The Rev. Father McShane received an agreeable surprise on Sunday afternoon when he was made the recipient of a gold watch fob in the shape of a winged harp, the crest of the Association and also a pair of gold cuff links with a "bas relief" of the crest, wrought in gold upon it. On the back of the fob was engraved "From the members of St. Patrick's A. A. A. to the Rev. Father McShane, on the occasion of his feast." As the inscription indicates, it was on the occasion of the feast of his patron, St. Gerald. The President, Mr. John J. Ryan, made the presentation, accompanying it with a very well-worded and suitable address, expressing the appreciation of the members for his invaluable assistance, advice and encouragement rendered the Association adding that the gift was but a trifle compared with the magnitude of the sentiment they wished to express, after which the members burst forth in good round voice "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Father McShane in the course of his reply said, that the presentation was not altogether a surprise to him, knowing the calibre of the members as he does, that nothing they may do in showing their appreciation to those whom they consider have at any time rendered them the slightest service would surprise him.

In honor of the occasion a suitable programme was arranged, among talent selected from the members, consisting of songs, musical selections, etc., the Reverend gentleman himself contributing to the sucress of the afternoon by relating a few of the laughable stories for which he is famous. The entertainment then closed with the singing of God Save Ireland, and God Save the King.

JUBILEE CUP TO-NIGHT.

Garnets Play Vankleek Hill in Second Game for Trophy.

A hard game is expected to be the result of to-night's meet between the Garnets and the Vankleek Hill, Ont., team, at the Jubilee rink, for the "Jubilee Cup." The visitors have a great record this year and word was received last night that they have every hope of returning home with the cup under their arms. The team will have a big bunch of supporters to cheer them on as over one hundred and fifty are booked to come along on the excursion. The Garnets have been resting up since last Saturday's hard game, and while not being over confident, fully expect to retain the cup. The probable line up will be as follows:

Garnet.		Vankleek Hill.
Wray	Goal	McCuaig
Kirlin	Point	Bates
Johnston	Cover	Saucier
Turner	Forward	Art. Blanchard
Seguin	Forward	Alb. Blanchard
Walsh	Forward	Matte
Kane	Forward	Cheney

Three twenty-minute halves will be played, starting at 8.30 o'clock; the officials are expected to be Cooper Smeaton and Tommy Riddell.

HACK AND DECARIE MEET TO-MORROW NIGHT.

George Hackenschmidt, the famous wrestler, will appear in a new role at Sohmer Park to-morrow night, when he will engage in a weight lifting contest with Decarie, the St. Henri strong man.

George Kennedy has been trying for years to bring these two giants together in a championship contest of this kind, and has at last got the consent of the Russia Lion.

Decarie has beaten everybody against whom he has been matched, and is confident that he can defeat Hack, but the latter, after a lapse of some years, has been practising during his American tour this season, and has every confidence that he can dispose of the local Hercules.

There will be some good wrestling bouts, in addition to the big contest.

CRICKETERS GATHER TO-MORROW EVENING

The annual meeting of the Montreal and District Cricket League will be held to-morrow evening at eight o'clock in the Carslake Hotel, when the usual business of the annual meeting will be considered, and the schedules for the coming year drawn up.

The meeting is expected to be a most successful one, and indications point to a very successful cricket season for Montreal clubs. The added interest in the game which follows the announcement of the proposed trip for Montreal cricketers, is evident among the clubs and the members are waiting anxiously for the season to open.

Application will be made at the meeting to-morrow for admission to the league by at least one new club, the C. P. R. Angus Cricket Club. This C. P. R. Angus Cricket Club, which is affiliated with the C. P. R. Angus A.A.A., is expected to put a very strong team into the first division of the league.

NEW GOLF CLUBHOUSE.

A Twenty Thousand Dollar One for Toronto.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, March 14.—Reports presented at the annual meeting of the High Park Golf Club showed the club is in a flourishing state.

The new $20,000 club house will be finished by April 15, and will be one of the finest in Canada. Every convenience of golfers will be found in the club's new home.

Fifty new members have been enrolled, and applications are coming in every day. The club intends putting a limited number of treasury shares on sale, $150, about May 1.

F. W. Tanner was chosen the captain for the coming season.

The officers for 1911 are as follows: President, H. W. Beatty; vice-president, W. F. Dineen; honorary secretary-treasurer, E. V. O'Sullivan; directors, F. W. Tanner, J. J. Walsh, H. M. Weatherald, and L. L. Anthes.

BUFFALO BOWLING TOURNEY ROLLS ALONG

Buffalo, N. Y., March. 14. — Five times individual bowlers at the National Bowling Association's tournament made a bid for the leadership of the singles, and four new teams found places with the leading ten in the double events. W. W. Rathbun, of the Erie, B.S., of Cleveland, came the nearest to Joraschek, of New York, the high man in the individual series, when he scored 680 pins, just two below the mark of the New Yorker. Rathbun rolled 257, 199, 224. He made one miss in the fifth frame of his second game. On the ninth frame of the last game he had enough to beat Joraschek's score, provided he struck out, but he got only 8 pins with his first ball in the last frame.

It now requires a total of better than 648 to join the first ten in the individual event, Upson, of New Haven; Niven, of Albany, and Moffatt, of Newark, N.J., being tied for tenth place at that figure. The other changes of standing in the individual series as a result of great games were: Del. W. Currier, Port Huron, Mich., 677 (third place); Troke, Rucks, B.C., Cleveland, 666 (tie with Muller, of New York, for fourth place); Vaughan, Grand Centrals, Rochester, 658 (sixth place); Stenho, Windy City B. C., Chicago, 649 (ninth place.)

Krol and Stenho, of Chicago, went into second position of the two-man event with a total of 1,272, or 83 pins under the world's record of the leaders, Kelsey and Johnson, of New Haven. Krol's games were 256, 219, 224. Brunt and Geraghty, of Patterson, N. J., made fifth place, with 1,235, and Maine and Eyrich, of Newark, N.J., are a tie for eighth, with 1,220.

CHAMPETRE STILL LEADS.

BILLIARDS AT M.A.A.A. SUCCESS LAST NIGHT

A large and appreciative audience greeted the opening game of the individual championship in the Montreal Billiard League, and the form shown by Menard and Viau was a revelation to some of the younger members present.

Menard started like a whirlwind, scoring 78 in the first 10 winnings to Viau's 51. From that on Viau started to pull up on his opponent and at 200 points was only 8 behind. Viau's knowledge of the game from this run was very apparent, making a fine run of 33. He finished the game 250 to Menard's 220.

Menard (Canadian Club).
Score 220
Average ..... 3.29.
High runs, 24, 19, 18, 17, 17.

Viau (St. Denis Club).
Score 250
Average 3.67
High runs, 33, 28, 18, 14, 13.

To-night, Tuesday, Menard will play Noel de Tilley of the Delorimier Club, and there is no doubt but Menard will endeavor to redeem himself to-night at the M.A.A.A.

HOCKEY PLAYERS BADLY BEAT UMPIRE

It is announced that there may be criminal prosecution of some of the players of the Suburban League for assault and battery.

It appears that one of the umpires in a match played at the Victoria rink last week was so badly assaulted that a surgeon had to be called, and an attack of erysipelas was feared.

Civil action for damages and doctor's fees may also be instituted against the assailants, who so badly beat up the official because he would not give a decision in their favor.

AUTOMOBILE NOTES

It now looks as if a second train will be necessary to transport the cars and crews which will participate in the proposed national racing circuit.

Some one has added to the list of prizes to be given in the Jacksonville automobile races, late this month, a Florida orange grove. A number of jests regarding handing some one a citrous fruit leap naturally to the tongue.

There will be automobile shows until very late in the season, one of the farthest along toward outdoors being that of the Wilkes-Barre Automobile Club, which has just decided to run an exhibition from March 20 on for a week.

Emperor William still leads all European rulers in the number of motor cars he owns. When he receives four new cars he has ordered the imperial garage will contain thirty, all told. His cars are easily distinguished by a peculiar fanfare of his motor horn.

Believing that it is a great help to the spread of Christianity, a committee of the North Woodward Methodist Episcopal Church, in Detroit, Mich., has been soliciting funds to buy a car for the pastor. When the Rev. Eugene Antrim preached his first sermon there last fall, he said that it was his intention to visit each of the 1,100 members of the congregation. Since then he has visited three hundred of them and has lost no time.

A law passed in 1703 has been invoked for the widening of the old Albany post road where it passes through Tarytown and other villages along the Hudson in New York. It is claimed that numbers of valuable estates have so encroached upon the historic road as to make it too narrow for safe and easy travelling.

It is estimated that if the 187,000 motor cars produced in the United States during 1910 should travel on an average of ten miles a day during the presnt year, the total mileage would be 682,550,000, or 27,302 times as far as the distance around the world on the equator, or over seven times as far as the sun is distant from the earth.

The Berlin Tageblatt has been interviewing leaders in the German automobile industry, and in the sport, as to whether there is any real future for motorcar racing in the Emperor's dominions, and has obtained a surprising number of opinions to the effact that racing has helped, and still can help, the development of the car, even from the point of view of the man who uses it as a family conveyance.

The news from Washington that the federal automobile license bill has been reported favorably by the committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce has caused feelings of the liveliest satisfaction among motorists throughout the country, as shown by favorable public and press comments. Although the bill still has a long way to go—that is to say, to pass the House and the Senate, and then to come to the President for signature—Mr. Terry points out that this is the greatest progress yet made by any such measure. None before this has ever been reported.

Entry blanks for the 24-hour race that is to be run at Los Angeles, in the motordrome, on April 8 and 9 show that it is open to any motor car under the piston displacement limitation of Class C. The first prize is the Los Angeles Motordrome Twenty-four-hour Trophy and 15 per cent. of the gross gate receipts.

THIS NEW GAME A BRUTAL PASTIME

New York, March 14.—Why have sports like football, basket- ball and baseball and such other relics of the stone age. Instead why not substitute a few diversions of a more artistic character? says the Endman of The Syracuse Daily Orange.

Here is a new game which would be received by the classic element of our universities and colleges instead of sports which tend to ruffle the part in the hair. Here are the rules of the new game:

Before giving the rules it would be best to state that the game is nameless and nobody knows who invented it. This safeguards the life of some struggling author. Five young gentlemen with red hair and five young gentlemen who are prematurely bald dress themselves in gingham clothing with a wide sash over the left shoulder. (The purpose of the sash appears later, the gingham cloth is for pure devilry.)

The five young men with red hair range themselves opposite the five young men who are prematurely bald. The signal is given (dropping a handkerchief scented with cologne) and the game is on. The red haired young men then say in chorus.

"If we cannot possess red hair, let us have none at all."

To this daintily phrased compliment the prematurely bald young men reply, smiling pleasantly as they speak:

"Thank you so much!"

Instead of saying, "Don't mention it," as would naturally be expected, the young gentlemen of hair of a roseate shade step gracefuly forward and seize the sashes of the other contestants of the game. These in turn also seize sashes. Being paired off, they waltz gently about the apartment to the music of a German band concealed behind a bank of flowers.

At this point of the game the spectators are taken violently insane, thus offering the superb finale of everybody present actually taking part in the diversion. This is so different from football and the other forms of sport that it quite charms every one.

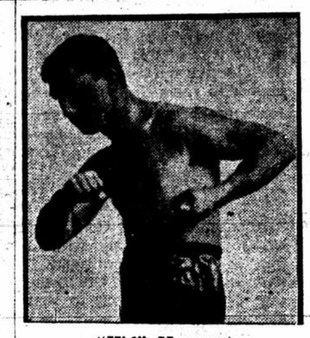

P. S.—Part of the fun is the extreme difficulty of finding any young gentlemen with red hair who will consent to play the game. But when once captured they play a very strong game. The game wil be adopted by universities to be played at faculty teas. Mr. Walter Camp has already been asked to pick an All-American team.

MONTREAL BOWLING TOURNEY NEXT WEEK

At an executive meeting of the Montreal Bowling Association held at the Elk's Club last evening, plans were laid for the holding of a Montreal tournament at the Palace Alleys next week.

The tournament which will start on Monday the 20th, and go over until the following Monday with games on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, will be open to all clubs in Montrea and district. The matches will be for five men teams, doubles and singles. The entry fees for the five-men teams is ten dollars, for the doubles three dollars, and for the single in three strings a dollar fifty. Single entries will be received in unimited numbers at an entrance fee of twenty-five cents.

There will be a special class for novices as well as the open competition, and the:i one which will be open to any club members in Montreal except those playing in Class A of the Montreal Bowling Association's League. The prizes for the novice class will be the same as for the open, namely, three cash prizes in every event.

Games must be rolled on the Palace Alleys. Entries should be addressed to Mr. Rupert Darling at the Palace Alleys, and must be received not later than Monday next.

The Montreal Bowling Association's annual banquet will be held at the Queen's Hotel on April the 20th.

KID HERMAN TALKS.

Sporting Editor Star:—

In answer to Billy Weller, I am open to meet him, as I said before. If Weller claims the lightweight championship I will fight him for it. If a go can be pulled off before the 1st of April, I will fight him, winner take all, or any way suitable. The reason why I want a match before April is because I am going away on my farm to train up and get into fighting for good. I'll make 130 pounds, and if he will make 133 it will be all right. I will fight him in public and no other way.

I remain, yours truly,
KID HERMAN.

A NOVELTY MILE RACE FOR TO-NIGHT.

A mile race, open to any bona fide member of any local hockey team (barring professional) for a suitable prize in gold during the hockey match between The Orpheum and His Majesty's, this Tuesday, evening, March 14. Entries received up to 6 p.m. Tuesday, by Frank Faber, of The Orpheum.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

St. Patrick's A.A.A. Becoming Very Literary.

"Resolved that Professionalism Degrades Athletics," was the topic of the first debate of the St. Patrick's Literary and Debating Club, held yesterday in the Association rooms.

There were over sixty members present, of which about thirty expressed their opinions for or against in the general discussion after the debate proper. The affirmative of the resolution was upheld by Messrs J. I. Brady and J. P. O'Loghlin, and the negative by H. Fitzgerald and Emmet Quinn, president of the National Hockey Association. The discussion was awarded the negative on the debate. Another vote, however, was taken after the discussion on the merits of the subject itself, and the decision reversed and given to the amateurs.

Much promise was shown for the future of the club.

On Monday next at 8.30 p.m., R. L. Calder, will give a lecture before the association on "A Hidden Talent." Members and friends are cordially invited.

Honor Dead Comrade.

At a special meeting of the Executive Board of The Canadian Snowshoe Union, resolutions of regret were unanimously passed upon the sad demise of Alex. Bergevin, first vice-president of the C. S. S. Union, and it was also resolved that copy of these resolutions be sent to the members of his family, and to the press.

St. Patrick's Harriers.

The sixth annual meeting of St. Patrick's harrier and track teams will be held at the club rooms, 492 St. Urbain street on Thursday evening at eight p.m. As the officers for the following year will be elected and other important business dealing with this branch of sport will be brought up, a very large gathering of members is requested.

Hack Defeated Olson.

Battle Creek, Mich., March 14.—George Hackenschmidt, the Russian Lion, defeated Charles Olson, of Indianapolis, in an exciting bout here, winning by two straight falls. The first fall came in 20 minutes 30 seconds on an arm and body hold, and the second in a like manner in 16 minutes and 30 seconds.

Loyola College intermediates met and were defeated by the Billiken seven by the score of 2 to 1 last night at the Victoria Rink. The game was not very fast owing to the heavy ice, which was also responsible for the rough work displayed by the players in the first half. The score was 1 to 0 at half time for Loyola, but when the Billikens struck their pace early in the second half, Loyola had no show, and led on till the end. The teams lined up as follows:

The executive of the National Lacrosse Club announce that Lamoureux, one of the oldest of their players, has signed a contract to play with the French twelve again this season.

There was a unique match at the Quebec Skating Rink on Saturday night, when the seven Morency brothers met a team from the St. George's Club. In addition to the seven brothers on the ice, there was an eighth brother on the side in uniform as spare man. The Morency brothers were only defeated by a score of 8 to 6.

Simon Nicholls, shortstop and captain of the Baltimore Eastern League Baseball Club, died at an hospital at Baltimore on Saturday from typhoid fever.

The Czar has sanctioned the largest contingent of cavalry officers of any army to compete in the International horse show at London. There will be 20 picked riders and jumpers, including Cossacks, under the personal command of the Czar's aide, Col. Prince Serge Beloselsky.

Billy Papke, the middleweight, knocked out Dave Smith, the Australian middleweight champion, in the seventh round at Sydney, N.S.W., on Saturday.

Frank Gotch won two straight falls from Fred. Beell on Saturday at Duluth, the first in 25 minutes and the second in 22 minutes.

Henry Ordemann, of Minneapolis, and Stanislaus Zbysco, of Poland, have been matched to wrestle to a finish at Detroit on March 18.

The New York authorities are planning an all-round investigation of certain athletic clubs. Summonses were issued on Saturday for Tom O'Rourke, manager of the National Sporting Club of America; for Pal Moore and Sammy Smith, principals in the last fight on Friday night, and for "John Doe, referee," and "John Doe, timekeeper." They are returnable to-day.

PORT ARTHUR NEXT.

Western Challengers for the Stanley Cup Will Be in Ottawa Wednesday.

Ottawa, Ont., March 14. — Disposing of Galt, as had been anticipated, Ottawa will now prepare for the Port Arthur challengers, who will appear at the Arena on Thursday night in the final cup match of the year. The match is forecasted as a win for Ottawa, and, from the tone of the eastern sporting experts, the N.H.A. title-holders ought to have little difficulty in getting away with the long end of the score. According to Trustee Foran, the Port Arthur team will arrive in the city Wednesday, working out at the Arena Wednesday evening, and then resting up for the big game.

Ottawa is backing their team at odds of two to one to beat the western champions, and, with their great eastern record behind them, the locals ought to be able to score their second victory of the week. Russell Bowie and Duncan Campbell will likely officiate, this pair having acted very capably in the past.

Grand Mere play the return game of the final series for the amateur title of Eastern Canada at the Arena to-morrow night, when the champion New Edinburgh seven will make their last appearance of the year.

New Edinburgh ought to win, but in any event they hold a two goal lead which they won in the Quebec town, and a trip after the Allan Cup is now likely. The only obstacle in the way of this jaunt to the Pegs is the inability of some of the team to secure leave, but it is possible that arrangements may be made for a series early next week.

LITTLE ENGLISHMAN IS VERY CONFIDENT

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, March 14.—Packey McFarland, who will face Owen Moran at the Fairmont Athletic Club to-night, wound up his training for the bout at Cannon's Road house yesterday afternoon. Packey is well under the weight limit and looks strong, rugged and in perfect condition.

Reports from Lakewood, where Moran has been training, say that the conqueror of Nelson was never in better condition.

McFarland was a slight favorite last night. He is several inches taller than Moran, has a longer reach and will be fully ten pounds heavier.

This physical disparity, however, is the least of Moran's worries. He has met and defeated men much bigger than himself, and he plans to carry the war into McFarland's country and meet him blow for blow.

The Boston Terrier Show To Be Held For Charity

Decorations Have Been Started For The Big Auto Show at The Drill Hall on Saturday

Although it is yet four days from the opening of the Automobile Show which is to be held at the Drill Hall, exhibits are already arriving and there promises to be a class of cars in the large hall from March 18th to 25th, such as has never been seen before in Montreal. The officials are doing everything in their power to make this year's exhibition a greater success than the last. Yesterday two immense loads of decorations arrived at the Drill Hall and in the afternoon an army of carpenters arrived on the scene and started work in the erecting of the booths and putting up the decorations which will surpass anything that has ever been seen in our fair city. Electrical men also arrived late yesterday and the work of putting up the huge chandeliers which will be the feature of this year's decorations, will be completed shortly.

The officers of the exhibition have arranged to divide the days of the show for the different classes of cars, and the programme for the week is as follows:—Opening night, 2nd day, any cars in general, 3rd, Auto Club Night; 4th, Military Night; 5th, Society Night, 6th, Trucks; 7th, Closing Night.

Among the many features that have been arranged for the public at an immense cost will be the large display of flying machines. A genuine French Bleriot will be on view as well as many others. In this line however, the feature will be the large number of model flying machines which will be in motion and give the enthusiasts a chance to see how these wonderful machines, which have been the cause of so much discussion of late, work, and the public will find the exhibit of these motors most interesting, and profitable.

The automobile has already been in general use for some time, having become a necessity, not only amongst the citizens but also for commercial purposes. With the aeroplane, however, it is different. These wonderful inventions are being rapidly improved, but are now almost in a state of perfection, the lightness and strength of the motor being the only part of the problem of air navigation not yet satisfactorily settled. From a military point of view however, these flying machines promise to play an important part in any future wars and already the different governments have started to secure these machines and are placing great confidence in their use.

A wireless outfit, a thing that has never been put on view at an exhibition before will also be seen at the Drill Hall, a Toronto firm having promised to instal this wonderful instrument, and those who visit the show will be able to get an idea how the wireless system from a flying machine is worked, and its many uses. In fact, the exhibits at the show this year will almost be double the quantity at any of the previous exhibitions, and the public will be able to see for themselves all the different minute particles, that go to make a first class car.

CURLING SEASON DRAWS TO CLOSE

The effects of the soft weather of the past week, which appears to presage a general break-up of the frost, are apparent on the curling rinks, where granites are being generally requisitioned on the sticky ice. But in spite of the disability which the weather just now is laying on the clubs, there is a keenly sustained interest, and every club last evening had its quota of enthusiasts.

The most important match last evening was played at the Outremont Club, where the destiny of the Chase & Sanborn Cup for this year was settled. Mr. W. Douglas, after winning with ease in the semi-final, stacked up against a hard proposition in the final game, and won out by only one point from R. C. Binning.

At the St. Lawrence, D. C. Drysdale defeated W. H. Griffin with ease in a match for the Forbes Trophy, and so placed himself on a level with Dr. Harding, having four wins this season. If the ice holds Drysdale will probably have to play again to-night in this competition.

The finals for the single-handed competition at the Montreal Club, Dr. Morrison won comfortably from Hedley Suckling, by seven to four. The scores in the competition games were:

LACROSSE MOVEMENT BOOMING IN WEST

Special to The Montreal Star.

Regina, Sask., March 14. — Most thorough preparations are being made here to boom the good old national game of lacrosse, and place it in the position which it at one time occupied in the hearts of the athletic youth of Canada. Regina's expedition to the Coast two years ago gave lacrosse a set back instead of a boost, but with organization behind the game, such as is in evidence in this city, lacrosse will be brought back to stay.

When Joe Lally was on his way east after taking in the National-New Westminster game for the Minto Cup last September, Regina was one of his many stopping off places, and while here looked up the solid lacrosse men of years gone by and made a proposition to help the game along here, which appealed to those old lovers, the outcome of which is lacrosse is to be organized in the schools of Regina on the same principle as in Winnipeg, where they have some fifty-five teams in the School League.

Mr. Gordon Bishop has donated a very expensive cup to be competed for in Regina, and the Daily Province newspaper is putting up thirteen gold medals to encourage the youngsters along.

Mr. M. G. Howe, another Reginian, is putting up a really elaborate silver trophy to represent the provincial championship, and the school-boy movement is being looked after by Mr. Hutcherson, Superintendent of Public Schools in this city. Many other small towns in Saskatchewan are going in for the game, and indications are the movement will be extended throughout the province, and that lacrosse players on the prairies will be as numerous, and the game as popular as it is on the coast.

GALT NOT IN SAME CLASS WITH OTTAWA

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, March 14.—Galt may be world-beaters on the smaller ice surfaces of the Ontario Professional League clubs, but when it comes down to scientific hockey, with the stiff checking cut out, the Stanley Cup challengers do not travel in the same class as the Ottawa champions—a fact that was amply demonstrated at last night's game at the Arena when the locals won from the Galt contenders 7 to 4 before about 4000 spectators.

Never at any time did the visitors look like winners; at least two goals separated them from the winners throughout the struggle.

Galt lived up to its record as a hard-checking and straight hockey team, the entire seven playing the old slap-dash style of hockey that reigned in the east half a dozen years ago.

When the awful condition of the ice is taken into consideration, one wonders how the teams played hockey at all. The surface was entirely covered with water, when the match began, and though it hardened up considerably as the match drew to a close, the teams gave a brilliant display of stickhandling in spite of the slush.

Many a goal was missed because the puck would flip over the sticks, while the goal-tends had a busy evening keeping track of the bounding puck, which on one or two occasions nearly dropped in for a flukey score. The heavy ice affected the combination work, while the going told on the men towards the last, the teams being pretty well tired out when the final gong rang.

A small Galt contingent kept the thing going, the supporters of the Ontario professional challengers gathering in a hundred or so on the double-the-score proposition. Little betting, however, was done, the Galt management refusing to wager their coin on Galt in Ottawa, the Canadien whitewash apparently closing up the westerners on the betting game.

Ottawa showed superior knowledge of the game, and, added to this, every man on the team showed his real form. The defence blocked very effectively, Shore and Lake using the poke check to perfection, while Lesueur blocked many a nasty shot.

The forwards were also very good, Walsh was the pick, getting three goals because of his activity on the nets. Ridpath coming a close second with a pair of goals that were the fruit of lone rushes, one of the latter being the prettiest piece of play during the whole game.

Darragh was badly battered up by the sturdy Galt defence, but he pluckily stuck to the finish.

Kerr did not extend himself, although he made the visitors look like selling-platers in the last period, when he took the rubber from behind his own goal net for a lovely score.

Russell Bowie and Duncan Campbell gave both teams entire satisfaction, and while Galt did not understand the eastern checking rule, the officials, after imposing one or two penalties, were content to let things take their own course, one warning being sufficient. The teams:

BOWLING TOURNEY IS PROGRESSING

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, March 14.—This year's C. B. A. tournament will be held on the Athenaeum alleys, the C. B. A. executive deciding this yesterday at a special meeting, the dates, as has been already announced, are April 1 to April 8.

The tournament will be run on the same plan as last year, and promises to be the largest in the history of the organization. $1,720.50 or $20 more than was received in entry fees was distributed in prize money last year, and this year $85 more than last in guaranteed prizes will be handed out.

A special event this year will be a $50 purse to the high five man team representing any business firm. A large number of local concerns have expressed a desire to enter and a record for this class should be established.

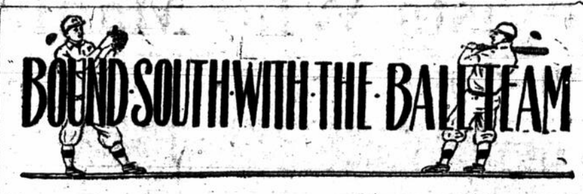

Hamilton will send ten teams, Buffalo at least six, Montreal two, Ottawa one, and Thompson's Colts, of Chicago, will try again for the high honors.

These local teams will have entries: Adams Furniture Company, Emmett Shoe Company; Royal Canadians, five teams; Gladstones, four; Athenaeum Club, five; Paynes, Brunswick, Rowing Company, George Downs, Eaton team, James Stephenson's Toronto Typesetting; Canadian General Electric, and many others.

Ottawa's Y. M Beat Locals.

The Ottawa Y.M.C.A. lowered the Central Y.M.C.A.'s colors on Saturday at the latter's gymnasium in a basketball match, Ottawa winning out by a score of 29 to 28. The home team practically gave the game away, losing 20 points on fouls through holding.

Joe Yeager, who will this year resume his duties as third baseman for the Royals, is probably the best known ball player outside of the big leagues in the world to-day, Joe has been for fifteen years in ball, and his cheerful smile has shone on the bleachers from coast to coast.

JOS. YEAGER.

Joe is one big asset to any club. His principal constituent is ginger, and his cavortings around the sack or on the lines, are alone worth five or six times the price of admission.

Joseph was with Montreal before, but he left us to go to the big leagues where he did yeoman service for the New York Americans, the St. Louis Americans, and Detroit, finally returning here to as hearty a welcome as any prodigal son ever heard of. This is his third season with Montreal.

Last year several managers tried to get Joe away from us, but there was nothing to it. The management declares loudly on all occasions when Yeager's purchase is mentioned that there isn't money enough in any club in the Eastern League to buy him.

It is just typical of J. Yeager that he should have been the first man to write his name at the foot of one of S. Lichtenhein's contracts this season.

All Preparations Made for Royals Reception at Newport News

Special to the Montreal Star.

Newport News, Va., March 14.—Extensive preparations are being made here for the entertainment of the Montreal team, of the Eastern League, which will arrive on March 20, for a stay of three weeks to engage in its annual spring practice. This will be the first league team from the north to train in Newport News in many years, and the fans, not only of this city, but of the entire peninsula, including Hampton, Phoebus and Old Point, are anxiously awaiting their coming.

In preparation for the coming of the team one of the finest baseball parks in Virginia is being erected at the Casino grounds upon the site of the field used heretofore by the Peninsula League teams. This work is being done under the direction of Superintendent L. B. Manville, of the Old Dominion Land Company, and Manager McCafferty, of Montreal, will come here within ten days to supervise the finishing touches and the laying out of the field.

No finer location for a ball park than the Casino can be found. The field is on the banks of the historic James river and even in the hottest of summer days cooling and refreshing breezes blow up from the river and make it comfortable for fans and players alike.

Workmen are now constructing a sectional board fence for the Casino Park. The sections are to be twenty feet long and eight feet high, and are being made of light timber so that they may be put up and taken down without trouble. The park is to be 400 feet square, the fence running 400 feet along the edge of the river, and 400 feet along West avenue, and 400 feet across from the avenue to the river. A grand stand with a seating capacity of 600 is being constructed and bleacher circus seats to accommodate 1,000 people will be built. These are to be located on opposite sides of the field, with one behind first base and one behind third base.

A picket fence is to be erected along the side lines and there will be a passage way between the grand stand and diamond for fans to go into the first base bleachers. The big club house will be located near the grand stand and the players' benches will be arranged along the side lines in front of the bleachers. The field is being ploughed up and levelled off and grass seed sown. The diamond will be in excellent condition when the Canadians arrive here.

Manager McCafferty and his men are to make their headquarters at the Warwick Hotel, which is one of the finest in the South. It overlooks James River and has two fine park courts in front, between West avenue and James River. It is located only a few blocks from the ball park. Everything possible will be arranged for the comfort of the ball players, and there will be plenty of recreation for them when they are not busy on the diamond.

Within a radius of ten miles, all of easy access by street car and automobile, are the largest fort in America, the National Soldiers' home and America's greatest shipyard, as well as several historic battle fields. Excursions by boat around the harbor and Hampton Roads also will be provided.

Spring-like weather has been prevailing here since the middle of February and all indications are that the Canadians will have fine weather for their spring training. The thermometer now hovers around 60 degrees and already local semi-professional teams have started their spring training.

Montreal will play about eight games here with National, American and Tri-State League teams. Trenton, of the Tri-State, will come for two games late this month, and will be followed by Altoona, which also will be here for two games.

Following these teams will come the first division of the New York American Leaguers with Hal Chase at their head. They will meet the Canuks in a single game before going to Richmond to play the State-League team of that city. The New York Giants will follow the American leaguers for a single game. Several of the Virginia League teams will come here to meet the Canadians.

Manager McCafferty has arranged for a game with the Norfolk League team of the Virginia League at Norfolk, and it will play several games here with the Newport News team of the newly organized Tidewater League.

After leaving Newport News on April 10, the Montreals will go on a barnstorming tour on their way back to Canada for the opening of the Eastern League season. They will meet teams in several northern cities on their way home.

When he was here a few weeks ago Manager McCafferty seemed to be deeply impressed with the advantages offered by Newport News as a place for the training of big league teams. Even in the dead of winter the weather here is very moderate and spring begins to come early in February. At the opening of March almost summer weather prevails and but few days of cold weather follow.

Barring rainy days, the Montreals will find, as good baseball weather here in March and April as they will find in Canada at anp time during the summer season. The climate is healthy, the water here is the best to be found in any seaport town on the Atlantic coast and at the Warwick Hotel the ball players will find every delicacy that the market affords and this city is the centre of the finest truck-raising country in the United States.

EXPERT BRITISH GOLFER ON HIS WAY

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, March 14.—Mr. H. S. Colt, secretary of the Sunningdale Golf Club, sailed from Liverpool last Saturday for New York on his way to Toronto. Mr. Colt is coming here to lay out the new course for the Toronto Golf Club at Etobicoke. He has had a wide and varied experience in laying out golf courses, not only in England and Scotland, but also on the continent. He is looked upon as one of the highest authorities in this important part of the game now. Mr. Colt is well up amongst the good players, being at 3 below scratch; is a member of the rules of golf committee, and also of the committee on selection of courses for the amateur meetings. While on this side of the Atlantic he will plan out a new course also for the Detroit County Club.

Royal Rovers Meeting.

The Royal Rovers, A.F.C., will hold its annual meeting and election of officers for the coming season in the East End Exchange Hotel, on Thursday evening, the 16th inst., at 8 p.m. Players, intending players and supporters are requested to attend.

The Boston Hockey Club easily won from Westmount on Saturday at Boston, the final score standing 8 to 0.

THE EXCLUSIVE BICYCLE TIRE.

The Doughty Patent Process for making Bicycle Tires is probably the greatest step forward in the tire industry in recent years. Dunlop Detachable Bicycle Tires are made by the Doughty Process. This accounts for Dunlop exclusiveness when it comes to durability, resiliency and uniformity.

The Dogs With the Kinks in Their Tails are Coming Once Again and This Time for a Charitable Purpose

The Boston Terrier Club of Montreal will hold their annual show on Saturday, the 20th of May next.

From the amount of encouragement that the committee are receiving, they expect to have double the number of dogs that were benched at their last show, which was the largest the Boston Terrier Specialty Show ever held in Canada.

The show will be held in the beautiful large hall of the Victoria Rifles Armory.

The Children's Memorial Hospital have expressed their willingness to accept the proceeds of the show to help on the good work of aiding the children, and it is hoped that the friends of the Hospital will express their interest by freely patronizing the show.

The work of the secretary of the club would be greatly lessened if all owners of Boston terriers would send in their names and addresses to him at 437 St. Catherine street west, Montreal, so as to facilitate the forwarding of the class lists when same are ready.

TORONTO JOCKEY GOES TO RUSSIA

Toronto, March 14.—Jockey Butwell, the Toronto boy who has signed a seven-months' contract to ride for Count Lazorff, whose stable is the largest in Russia, arrived in the city yesterday from Jacksonville, Florida, where he has been riding this winter for "Bud" May, whose colors are familiar to Canadian turf patrons. Butwell was the most successful rider at the southern track, leading the other boys by a good margin. He left Jacksonville last Monday for New York, where he stayed until Sunday night, making arrangements for his departure to Russia. He is visiting his parents at 25 Clarence Square and returns to New York to-morrow night. He will sail with his wife on March 21 for Hamburg, where he will be met by a representative of Count Lazorff, who will see that the diminutive jockey reaches St. Petersburg in safety.

Butwell's contract calls for his appearance in the Russian capital on April 15, and from then until the racing season closes the jockey will be kept busy, as his employer has 94 horses in training.

Butwell is only 24 years old, and has been riding for seven years, having begun in 1904 as exercise boy with Trainer John Nixon.

Shot at Prize-Fighter.

New York, March 14.—The police are searching to-day for a man who fired three shots at Ted Nelson, the Australian prize-fighter, late last night.

Nelson, who came to this country about six months ago, was seated in an uptown restaurant, when a man rushed into the place and said, "Now I've got you," thereupon firing three shots from a revolver. He got away.

Nelson told the police that his assailant was a former candidate for a job as manager, with whom he had quarrelled over money matters.

TELEPHONE CUP GAMES AT VICTORIA RINK

With the amateur and professional hockey season practically closed in Montreal, the hockey loving public turns with keen anticipation to the annual struggle between the Northern Electric and Bell Telephone Companies' team for the possession of the now famous Telephone Cup.

Stanley and Allan Cups may come and go, but among the "Hello" people at least, the Telephone Cup ranks first in importance, and the annual battle for its possession always affords scenes of the wildest enthusiasm.

The cup is in itself a handsome and unique trophy, being strictly representative of the two telephone enterprises, and is beautiful in design and finish. It is now held by the Bell Telephone Club, and may be seen in Riley Hern's window on St. Catherine street.

The series will comprise two games, which will take place at the Victoria Rink on Tuesday and Thursday, March 14th and 16th, at 8 p.m. sharp. Both clubs will be represented by exceptionally good teams, and while the Northern people promise to "deliver the goods" in large quantity, the Bell supporters are of the opinion that their opponents will find their "line busy" from start to finish.

In any event, first class games are assured, and from present indications, the attendance promises to exceed all previous records.

FAIRMOUNT CHAMPS.

Fairmount and Knox Church teams met at the Jubilee Rink on Saturday to decide the tie for the championship of the Inter-Church League. In a hard game Fairmount were the winners by 3 goals to 2, thus entitling them to the Inter-Church shield. Teams:

Special Notice.
THE BIGGEST FREEHOLD FARMERS IN THE WORLD.

Our readers will be interested to learn that the Oxo Company are by far the biggest freehold farmers in the world whose lands are devoted to a preparation of concentrated foods. This concern has owned Cattle Farms since 1865, and its holding now amounts to over 4,500,000 acres situated in the River Plate and in South Africa. Recently they have carried out an enormous deal with the British South Africa Company by which they have acquired the freehold of 1,200,000 acres on the highlands of Rhodesia.

The breed of cattle they favor is the well known Hereford breed. They have on their farms splendid specimens of pedigree animals from His Majesty the King's Farms at Windsor Castle, and many other well known British Breeders.

The amount of grass which the cattle consume in a year has been estimated by experts to exceed the enormous weight of three million tons, and the water drunk by the cattle is estimated at over nine million quarts per day.

The Oxo ranches are all situated in mild climates, the calves are born in the open air, and are practically never placed in sheds, and this renders them particularly healthy and disease proof. Tuberculosis, the dreaded cattle disease, is practically unknown among the Oxo herds. The pastures are luxuriant and constant, and artificial feeding consequently is not called for.

This enormous cattle supply is the great secret of the success in the Oxo products. They are able to prepare their concentrated foods from exclusively high grade and home fed beef thus securing a richness otherwise unobtainable.

If you are interested in Oxo send a post card to the Company's Agents, Messrs. Cornelle David & Co., Toronto or Montreal asking for a handsomely colored Oxo Cattle Farm Card which your children can cut out and set up.

NO APPEAL FROM PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSIONERS

Extension of Their Powers to Control Contracts With Individuals Held Over.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, Legislative Assembly, Quebec, March 14.—The proposed amendments to the Act of the Public Utilities Commission were brought under consideration of the Lower House last night, and during the brief discussion, Mr. Tellier stated that criticism was being made to the effect that with the increasing work which was to be provided for the Commission, the members, under the present constitution, would not be able to devote the time to the work which the obligations demanded.

Sir Lomer Gouin thereupon replied, that he would not have any objection next year to further amend the Act constituting the Commission in order to compell the Commissioners to devote their whole time to the work of their office, and to increase their renumeration accordingly.

The majority of the clauses in the bill were approved in General Committee, but criticism was offered with regard to the paragraph which provides that the Commission may exercise its jurisdiction in relation to tolls charged by public utility companies, and reduce them where it considers the rates are too high, except in the case of contracts with individuals.

Mr. Bourassa argued that the Commission's powers ought also to apply to contracts with individuals as well as with municipalities.

This particular question was held over for further consideration to-day.

It was, however, definitely decided that there should not be any appeal from the Utility Commission's decision.

A Cobalt Development Company.

Third reading was given to the bill to incorporate the Development Company of Canada, which proposes to carry on extensive works for the development of the Cobalt region. The Company's properties are in the county of Pontiac, where Mr. M. J. O'Brien last year secured the water rights of the Rapids des Quinze.

The powers of the company are extensive. It may carry on the business of wholesale and retail merchants in all kinds of goods, wares and merchandise, also the business of general warehousemen in all its branches, and generally trade and deal in all produce, provisions, materials and goods of every description; carry on the business of a lumberer, saw and planing-miller, and manufacturer of lumber and woodenware, and buy, own, hold, sell and deal in timber-limits timberlands and logs, and manufacture buy, sell and deal in timber, lumber and wood of all kinds and in articles, in the making of which timber or wood is required, or can be utilized; carry on in all its branches, the business of a paper manufacturer and dealer: it may acquire, construct, maintain and operate and, if deemed advisable, dispose of pulp, paper and lumber mills and engage in the manufacture and sale of any and all products of the forest or of any product in which lumber, timber, pulp or paper or any material used in the manufacture of lumber, timber, pulp or paper is employed; acquire, hold and dispose of pulp concessions and timber licenses granted by the Crown; acquire, from time to time and hold, use and enjoy and develop lands, water-courses, water-powers and other powers in the county of Pontiac, and sell or dispose of the same; and create, develop and produce gas, electricity or other force or energy, and, in the operation of its undertakings, utilize or sell the same in whole or in part, and transmit and distribute such gas, electricity or other force or energy for light, heat or motive power, or for other purposes, in the said county of Pontiac, through transmission lines by means of poles, pipes, conduits or otherwise; purchase, charter, hire, build or otherwise acquire and navigate steam and other ships or vessels. It was also proposed that the company should act as immigration, colonization or industrial agent, and acquire by any title, settle, cultivate or colonize any lands.

This clause, however, was struck out of the bill.

The capital stock of the company will be $1,000,000. The promoters and provisional directors of the company are:—Reuben Henry Welden, financial agent; Charles William Batho, manager, and William Brereton Smith, accountant, all three of the city of Montreal.

Street Railway Directors.

Third reading was given to the bill to amend the Montreal Street Railway Company's charter to authorize an increase in the number of directors to fifteen and sanction the sale of the concern to the Montreal Tramways Company.

Third reading was also given to a bill to amend the code of civil procedure in order to exempt from sheriff's sales properties at Three Rivers upon which mortgages have been guaranteed by the city since the fire; and to a bill amending the revised statutes, 1909, to permit more than one co-operative agricultural society being formed in any one parish.

MENINGITIS ON STEAMER.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, March 14.—The steamer Martha Washington, from Trieste, Patras, Palermo and Algiers, was last night detained at quarantine, owing to the presence on board of several cases of spinal meningitis. One of her steerage passengers succumbed to the disease at sea, and four others are seriously ill with the disease. Four others are stricken with pneumonia.

Insanity, as Defence, is Upheld.

New York, March 14.—Abolition of the defence of insanity in criminal trials or any restriction of the issue of writs of habeas corpus after conviction of the criminal insane were opposed by a committee of the Society of Medical Jurisprudence last night. The committee's proposition is unanimous and is based on three classes of objections: First, because too many changes are being made in laws generally; second, because the proposed changes appear to be unconstitutional, and have been so declared in the State of Washington; and, third, because of moral, ethical, humane and charitable reasons.

Chinese Consulates for Mexico.

Mexico City, March 14.—Shi Ai Shum, Chinese charge d'affaires, announced that his country has decided to establish consulates in the more important cities of Mexico. The Chinese colony here is already large and is growing.

PLANS OF CANADIAN NORTHERN INVOLVE ENORMOUS OUTLAY

Appropriations for West Include 600 Miles of New Rails Costing $12,000,000.

Western Associated Press Special.

Winnipeg, March 14.—Sir William Mackenzie, left for the east on Saturday evening via St. Paul, after consultation with the heads of the Canadian Northern Railway in Winnipeg, for two days. He approved of appropriations for extensions and improvements for the company's railway system in western Canada for the year, to the extent of approximately $12,000,000.

Over six hundred miles of new lines will be constructed during the present year in the three western provinces alone.

This includes the following lines, and branches of the Canadian Northern system: Rossburn-Moose Jaw, Belisle, Prince Albert to Battleford; Jack Fish Lake; Thunder Hill, Greenway, Vegreville, Calgary and Brazeau Coal fields, and the main line west of Edmonton.

RIOTS AT SAO PAULO.

Mob Resisted Military and a Number Were Killed.

Rio Janeiro, March 14.—Anti-clerical rioting is reported at Sao Paulo. The military and the police attacked the mob, which fought back, and during the encounter a number of persons were killed and others injured. One hundred and fifty arrests were made.

All of the churches in Sao Paulo have been placed under military guard. The rioting originated in the disappearance from a parochial school of a young girl, who could not be produced by the school authorities when a demand for her was made.

NEW WINNIPEG JUDGE.

Mr. G. C. Patterson Succeeds Judge Walker.

Ottawa, March 14.—As successor to Judge O. M. Walker, who recently retired, Mr. G. C. Paterson, barrister, of Deloraine, Manitoba, has been appointed county judge at Winnipeg.

Caledonia Water Found Pure.

Ottawa, March 14.—The health department yesterday announced the result of a test of "Magi" Caledonia water as sold in Ottawa. Five samples were examined and showed no trace of colon bacilli. Some days ago samples of water from Caledonia Township bottled here were examined and condemned, but it is pointed out by the health authorities that these were from a point 12 miles from Caledonia Springs, the source of "Magi."

Any water from this township is entitled to be called Caledonia, hence the confusion. All the waters sold locally are being examined and when polluted their sale is forbidden.

Telegraph Company Enters Plea.

Toronto, March 14. — The Great Northwestern has replied to the Dominion Government in reference to the request of its telegraph operators for the appointment of a board of conciliation. The company denies the right of the union or the committee selected by the men to deal with the alleged grievances.

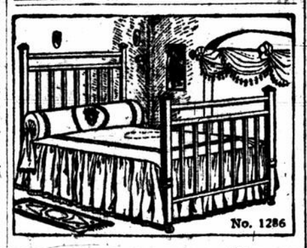

It points out that a large portion of the employes signed a circular issued by the management repudiating the committee's action. A further objection was that President Konenkamp, of the Telgraphers' Union, is a foreigner.

Tablets for Halifax Memorial Tower.

Halifax, N.S., March 14.—The Halifax Canadian Club was informed by cable from the Guildhall that the Corporation of London would this week send to Halifax a sculptured tablet for the Halifax Memorial Tower, which will commemorate the establishment of representative government in Nova Scotia, years ago. Edinburgh also has signified its intention to send a suitable tablet. The Corporation of Toronto is expected to take similar action.

Cruiser Von der Tann Claims Record

Rio Janeiro, March 14—A wireless message received from a German battleship cruiser, probably the Von Der Tann, 180 miles from this port, claims a record for the cruiser of seventeen knots an hour between Teneriffe and Rio Janeiro, and the world's record for its class.

No. 1286

One does not buy a bedstead. For buying means to incur expense; and a bedstead is an investment—a lifelong one. So the bed good enough for your home should be all a bed can be. It is, when this trade-mark is on its footrail.

Look for that trademark. You may need to pay a trifle more to have it on the bed you buy. But it is worth that little more when it is "Ideal" quality.

Worth more, because the snow-white enamel remains white (does not turn dingy gray, or yellowish.) Worth more, because that "Ideal" trademark guarantees the buyer a metal bed that will not rattle; nor become wobbly; nor ever look cheap. Worth far more than the little extra price—perhaps forty cents—for forty technical reasons.

We who make and guarantee "Ideal" Metal Beds believe many people think betterness is valuable when it affects sleep.

For those people we have printed a little booklet called "The Philosophy of Sleep." Your copy is to be sent quite free for your name and the name of your dealer if you ask for Booklet No. 127

IMMIGRATION AND GEORGIAN BAY CANAL THE TOPICS

Mr. Monk Presents Resolution Calling for Immediate Construction of Canal.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, March 14.—The Reciprocity Agreement was side-tracked according to the Government programme yesterday. But it got first place after all. The Government programme was that Hon. Frank Oliver should make his first annual statement as to his department. But instead, when the House was moved into committee of supply for the purpose, Mr. F. D. Monk stepped into the foreground with a resolution declaring for the immediate construction of the Georgian Bay canal to offset the evil effects of the Reciprocity Agreement on our transportation routes.

If the Government did not avoid the subject of reciprocity even for the day, the Premier did succeed in sidestepping a vote. He raised a point of order that Mr. Monk's resolution enjoined on the Government the expenditure of money and the Speaker upheld him and ruled the motion out. The Opposition leader did not take part in the debate.

In the meantime, nevertheless, the motion had been the subject of a couple of hours' discussion. Mr. Monk began the discussion by reminding the House of the emphasis already laid on transportation in the reciprocity debate. It was of utmost importance consider whether the agreement would not interfere with our arrangement for a line of communication entirely through Canadian territory. A prime mover in the reciprocity movement in the United States was J. J. Hill, who was quite evidently influenced by the possibility of diverting Canadian traffic.

Mr. Monk then turned to discuss the Georgian Bay canal as a means of insuring our control of our western traffic. Its construction, he pointed out, had been favored by the Transportation Commission of 1903-05. He then read figures as to distances, showing that the Georgian Bay canal was 330 miles shorter than any other Canadian route and 420 miles shorter than any American route. Further, no trans-shipment would be necessary, and most important it was entirely within our own territory.

Mr. Monk proceeded to indicate his faith in future extensions of our waterways system, even to the Rocky Mountains. He urged on the Government the importance of an immediate decision on this matter.

Mr. Monk's Resolution.

Mr. Monk concluded by moving this resolution:

"The House, in view of a possible diversion of the country's carrying trade from Canadian channels, and, in order to ensure the most favorable conditions of transportation between Western points and the Canadian Atlantic seaboard, records its opinion and determination that the contruction of the Georgian Bay Canal should be commenced forthwith, so as to preserve and further facilitate interprovincial traffic and the carriage of freight, in unbroken bulk, from the Great Lakes to the sea."

The motion of Mr. Monk was seconded by Mr. Gerald White, of North Renfrew, in a brief speech, in which he quoted a resolution in favor of the Georgian Bay Canal, passed by the Montreal City Council.

Mr. E. B. Devlin, of Wright, said he was as anxious as any person to see the Georgian Bay Canal built, but he could not congratulate Mr. Monk on the manner in which he introduced his motion. It was obviously designed to block the Reciprocity Agreement.

Hon. William Pugsley regretted that Mr. Monk had introduced politics into the discussion of the Georgian Bay Canal. Mr. Monk knew, he asserted, that nothing had occurred or was likely to occur in the near future to divert Canadian traffic to American channels. The Georgian Bay Canal would place the Canadian route in an unrivalled position not only for the holding of Canadian trade, but for the capture of American trade as well. It was merely a question of finance which was delaying the construction of the canal. Mr. Monk's motion, he warned that gentleman, was more calculated to injure than to assist the building of the canal.

Raised Point of Order.

The Premier here raised a point of order. The motion was out of order, because it enjoined on the Government the expenditure of money. Members of the House had the right to express an abstract opinion, but could not go further and enjoin on the Government an expenditure of money. This the present motion did.

Mr. Monk could not agree with the Premier on the point of order. His resolution merely declared a principle. He also denied that the motion was political in character.

Mr. Speaker upheld the point of order taken by the Premier and the discussion dropped.

Lord Strathcona Denies.

Another phase of the reciprocity issue came out in the reading of a telegram from Lord Strathcona by the Premier. The telegram was as follows:—

"The statement attributed to me by Mr. Goodeve in the House of Commons, Ottawa, on the 9th instant, as reported in to-day's London Times by their Ottawa correspondent, that I had said that Canadian Ministers had been hypnotized by the brilliance of the American offer and had fallen into a trap,' is entirely baseless and without foundation in fact. It is unwarranted by anything I have ever said in connection with the reciprocity agreement, which I have refrained from discussing. Will you kindly make this known in the House."

Mr. Goodeve gave a Canadian Press cable as his authority.

A question in regard to the reciprocity agreement was put my Mr. C. J. Thornton, of Durham. Would the agreement admit Canadian vessels to the American coasting trade? he asked. The answer was that "the agreement does not deal with coasting laws in any manner." He also asked whether, if the agreement went into force, the Government would remove the quarantine on American hogs. Quarantine regulations cannot be affected by trade agreements, was the reply, but depend upon considerations of health.

STATEMENT ON WORK OF INTERIOR DEPARTMENT

In the evening the Minister of the Interior made his statement. It was made at the request of Mr. Uriah Wilson of Lennox-Addington. Mr. Oliver opened by a comparison between the first nine months of the current year—to December 31 last—and the 12 months of the year previous. It may be put in this tabulated statement:—

	1911 (9 mons.)	1910 (12 mos.)
Total immigration ...	253,326	208,794
From Britain	98,995	59,790
From United States..	07,702	1$3,798
From Europe	56,628	45,628

Mr. Oliver estimated that by the end of the present fiscal year, which coincides with the end of the present month the total immigration for the year would show an increase of 100,000 or 33 1-3 per cent.

Immigration form Ireland is on the increase. In 1901 the Irish immigrants numbered 931; in 1910 they were 3,601; and for the nine months of the current year 3,940.

The minister stated that last year 7,600 farm laborers had been located in Ontario and Quebec. The department made special efforts to get these men and one hundred and twenty-five agents were employed in the work of locating them. The number located was double that located the year previous. Mr. Oliver explained and defended the policy of the Government in refusing to aid immigrants and in pursuing an advertising campaign, backed up by bonuses to steamship agents. These bonuses, he said, gave the department the aid of 3,000 booking agents in Great Britain.

Government Policy Criticized.

Mr. Wilson condemned the Government for spending so much with so little return. In 110, he said, though there were nine permanent, forty special, and 3,000 booking agents at work, the total number of immigrants who had come in the specially encouraged classes was only about 18,000. The efforts of the Government in the United States were also much more costly than the results warranted. The United States returns—the Canadian returns as to emigrants were wanting—showed a balance of only 21,000 in our favor; and for these we spent $232,000. For the last three years Canada had spent a million dollars a year, received $1,500,000 more revenue from immigrants than it paid out in protective measures and it paid nothing out to encourage immigration.

Dr. Paquet made a strong plea for more immigration from France. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux replied that the paucity of French immigrants was due to temper of the French people and the policy of the French government.

During Question Hour Hon. Charles Murphy told Mr. Monk that it was not the intention of the Government to amend the Foods Adulteration Act this session to protect those engaged in the maple sugar industry. The reason given was that the standards now being prepared gave all the necessary protection.

Mr. Claude Macdonell, of Toronto, learned that the Dominion Government does not propose to apply the Imperial Copyright Act in Canada. They will, however, bring in a bill along the general lines of the decisions of the Imperial Copyright Conference.

"Who is an authority on this?" jokingly asked Hon. G. P. Graham, when Mr. Stanfield inquired whether the Government knew that a band of Mormon elders were at work in Canada and had made converts in Montreal. The answer was given by the Premier. "We have no information on that subject," he replied, with a smile.

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy.

Costs Little, but Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16 oz. bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep-seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made, for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guiaicol and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equalled.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you; if not send to the Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

"Have You The Dollar to Quit?"

To the Editor of the Montreal Star,

Sir,—A fortnight ago I wrote an open letter to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, pleading the cause of Canadian workmen; asking him to use his influence to prevent the reciprocity agreement coming to a successful issue. I did not expect a reply to such a unit as myself, but, I must confess, I was somewhat prepared to find some diminution in "Sir Wilfrid's" affections for his political lady-love, reciprocity. What do we find? The Premier is apparently more firmly wedded to his pet scheme than ever he was before. Is it because he is afraid of being termed a turncoat and thus lose his hold on the people? I would remind him of a great Imperialist on the other side of the Atlantic, who, through frankly admitting his previous political opinions were wrong, earned fame as a great statesman, and the gratitude of the majority of workingmen electors of England and Scotland. I have read carefully Sir Wilfrid's speech, defending reciprocity during the recent debate in the House of Commons, and have utterly failed to find any tangible arguments or facts in its favor. He first says that he cannot understand why there should be any objections; then he says that all parties have been seeking this panacea for 40 years. Why, I think, without anything else, the 40 years' grovelling is sufficient objection in itself. The most noticeable feature in the whole speech, to my mind, is the most careful way in which he omits every fact and speech connected with the opposition during the last few years; and the laborious efforts he put forth in digging up mildewy speeches and facts connected with Canadian struggles of half a century ago. Then he goes on to compare Canada with China. Ye Gods. How absurd! Need I remind him, although there are more causes than one for a nation's backwardness, that, with the exception of Great Britain, China and Turkey are the only free trade countries in the world. Does he honestly think it spells prosperity for either of those countries, for Great Britain and other countries to do their manufacturing for them when they ought to be doing it for themselves? They have traded their natural products, that "Sir Wilfrid" has harped on so much, in exchange for manufactures. Has it paid? It has been the lazy policy, easy come, easy go. The nation that will win in the battle of trade and commerce must be strong within her own borders. Whilst touching on Oriental nations, why did Sir Wilfrid not refer to Japan? I think that that would have been too hard a nut for even such an able debater as the Premier is, to crack; why tariffs have made her the nation that she is, the mistress of the East. My friends, it is only by sticking to the present wise system of tariffs that we can make Canada the Power of the West. Don't you think that it would have been much more dignified if the Premier had, instead of attacking Mr. Sifton, Mr. Foster and others, upon their past speeches and actions (which after all might have been suitable for the times then) had made a little better defence for himself and his ministry? He says that the "no mandate" cry, is a foolish one. Is it? Sir Wilfrid cannot deny this, that the very thing that has made him so popular, is the fact that he created a tariff upon tariff, owing (we must admit) to the pressure brought to bear on him by the various industries. Through their protective influence Canada has progressed by leaps and bounds. Later on, in his speech he states that it is impossible to confine trade. I would like to ask one question concerning that point. What caused the gigantic strides in the output of steel rails, and other steel products in the United States after "the eighties," if it was not the high tariff? It is common knowledge (I refer you to "The Inner History of the Carnegie Steel Co'y," written by Andrew Carnegie's secretary), that the tariffs on foreign steel products, fostered American enterprise and successfully eliminated British competition. Why, gentlemen, with free competition in those days, Americans would not have stood a ghost of a chance against British manufacturers.

It would have been like a child fighting a man. What would happen now between the two countries with free interchange, I do not know, because both are extremely well organized. What I want to hammer home is, that Canada is the child, that the U. S. A. was last century. How could you expect a boy to grow up an expert prize fighter, if you allowed a Jeffries, or a Johnson to hit him for all they were worth before the lad was well out of his teens? Why they would kill the lad, sure, and that's what's going to happen to the Dominion if you put on the reciprocity gloves too soon.

Our worthy Premier next gibbly talks of wheat transit and consumption. I should have thought that he was more astute man than he gives him self out to be. Mr. Hill is not behi the reciprocity wheat stack for noth ing. The worthy American magnat wants that stack and all that he an his clique can make out of it. Surel he can see our Yankee friend is lay ing low. As soon as the pact is sea ed and made law, around Mr. Hi will go to his milling friends. The will borrow, beg or steal fresh cap tal, up go gigantic milling plants, goes your No. 1 Manitoba hard (fine wheat in the word I'm told), out comes, the finest flour in the worl Now do you suppose that Hill so dull as to give something to th millers for nothing, not a bit of it. Th flour, (which by this time has bene fited the wage-earners in the millin industry, those engaged in buildin the mills, those engaged in makin steel girders, machinery and all aper taining to mills), goes merrily on it way to the consumer in America o Great Britain, over American rail Then is the time Montreal will fe the pinch. Say "Have you got the do lars to quit?" Quit you have to, an find the Yankee town that has th business. Sir Wilfrid says that onl only one industry will be affected, that o agricultural machinery. Don't believ it, I can point out dozens. Workin men! do not forget how very depen dent we are on each other. To us Dumas' happy phrase in the "Thre Musketeers": "All for one, and one fo all." If America wants flour, paper furniture, doors, window sashes an the hundred and one things wanted b a nation, let us send them. But do no send them the raw material any mor than you can help. We can manufac ture the wheat, the pulp, and the woo into the finished article quite as wel as Uncle Sam, and we can do with th wages just as well. I think that have gone over the Premier's speech as well as space admits. Now there is one thing I want to impress on you before I have finished, that is to turn up at all the anti-reciprocity meetings you can and let Mr. Fielding see tha he is wrong when he says that Si William Van Horne and the other business men he saw fit to sneer at are in opposition to the wishes of Canadian workmen. It is not so. Al classes will unite. They will caus the agreement to be torn into a thou sand pieces, or bring about the down fall of a ministry that has dared t imperil Canada's future.

DIAZ STATES DISTURBANCE UNIMPORTANT

Government Expects to Re-Establish Complete Order

MEXICO AND WASHINGTON PLANNING RECIPROCITY.

Assurances From Washington Have Pleased Mexican Statesmen—London's Serious View.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Washington, March 14.—An indication of present relations between the United States and Mexico can be gleaned from the fact that the Taft and Diaz regimes have begun negotiations for tariff reciprocity agreements which it is hoped will benefit the trade of both countries. The Mexican tariff law has made it hard for that Government to make special concessions to the United States, but a way out of the difficulty is now being considered.

Naturally, the trouble in Chihauhua has taken the attention of Mexican statesmen temporarily from tariff matters, and this may mean a delay in the consummation of negotiations, but the American State Department has by no means given up hope.

DIAZ'S CABLE TO LONDON DAILY MAIL.

Special to the Montreal Star.

London, March 14.—The Daily Mail prints a cablegram, signed by President Diaz, who says that there have been slight disturbances of public order, but that they are of no importance and that the Government with means at its disposal expects to re-establish complete order in a short time.

Colonel Sir Thomas Hungerford Holdic, who has seen much service in many noted expeditions and who is now on his way to London from Mexico, writes a letter to the Times touching on conditions in Mexico, which, in his opinion, were not serious at the time the letter was written, February 14. He concludes by saying:—

"There is, however, no doubt at all about the bitterness of anti-American feeling in Mexico generally. It is that, rather than hostility to Diaz' administration, which threatens disaster in future."

PAPERS CONSIDER WAR IS PROBABLE.

The Standard and Daily Telegraph intimate that the presence of thousands of Japanese in Mexico and the attitude of the Tokio Government toward the southern neighbor of the United States is responsible for the mobilization of American troops on the Mexican border.

The Standard, in an alarmist editorial, refers to the possibility of Mexico being used by Japan as the base of operations against the United States in the event of war, and hints that such war is possible.

The Telegraph says it is clear from President Taft's action that there are explosive possibilities in the situation and dilates on the statement by Senor Limantour that intervention would mean war.

WASHINGTON HAS REASSURED MEXICANS.

New York, March 14.—The Mexican ambassador here and the Mexican Minister of Finance received assurances from Washington to-day which convinced them that there is sincere co-operation between the administration of President Taft and that of President Diaz. It is not professed that all tension has been slackened, and while American troops remain in force on the Mexican border, it is admitted that some tension will continue, but the edge of apprehension was appreciably blunted by to-day's developments.

A long telegram to Ambassador de la Barra from the State Department at Washington announced that the United States warships assigned to patrol duty on the Pacific and Gulf coasts of Mexico had been ordered to call at Mexican ports only for coal, and then to withdraw promptly.

Senor Limantour Pleased.

This action is deeply reassuring to Senor Limantour. In a recent interview he said that he could only consider the presence of American men-of-war in Mexican waters so far distant from their base at Galveston as part of an unnecessary effort to impress on Mexico the power of the United States. His personal protest was promptly followed by official representations and last night he expressed himself as "very much gratified that the request of his Government had been so promptly granted." Ambassador de la Barra added that the action of our Government "was highly satisfactory to his Government, and that perfect understanding exists between the two governments regarding the matter.

Secretary Dickinson's assurances that the presence of so many troops on the frontier was to be explained by a determination to enforce rigidly the laws of neutrality across the great stretch of boundary, Senor Limantour said "could not help being gratifying to his Government."

TROOPS MOVEMENT AND EXTRA SESSION.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, March 14.—A Washington special to The Times says:

"Some of the radical insurgents in the Senate and members of both parties in the House are already preparing to make trouble for the President at the extra session over the sudden mobilization of 20,000 men on the Mexican frontier. As things stand now, the President will come in for some sharp criticism in certain radical quarters, while it seems certain developments are such that he must ask Congress for further powers to act, and a great issue will be made.

"Direct opportunity for comment on the administration's attitude will be offered when the necessary Urgent Deficiency Bill is introduced to defray the expenses of the unprecedented manoeuvres. Senator La Follette and others of his persuasion are openly in sympathy with the Mexican revolution. La Follette takes the position that the insurrectos are fighting for greater liberty than their autocratic President is willing to give them, and he believes that this country should let them alone. He and others think the use of this country as a political asylum is perfectly proper, and they oppose any policy that would prevent these refugees from returning to their own country in furtherance of their campaign.

"Of course, if conditions in Mexico should become so unsettled that President Taft should feel that active intervention across the border was necessary La Follette would find strong support in his efforts to refuse permission for what would be tantamount to an act of war. Few persons in Washington, however, believe that Taft contemplates any such step."

Diaz Under Shadow of Death.

The Times Washington correspondent says that it is known in Washington that President Diaz is suffering from arterial sclerosis, a malady which does not show any evil effects upon its victim but which may carry him off without warning at any moment.

No More Troops for Border.

Washington, March 14. — Major-General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the United States army, to-day denied that the War Department has ordered, or was contemplating ordering, more troops to the South. This statement was made because of persistent rumors that another division of 20,000 men was about to be assembled on the border.

GOVERNMENT ORGAN IS VERY FRIENDLY.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Mexico City, March 14.—"El Imparcial," the Government organ, to-day published an inspired editorial calling attention to an attempt being made by the Maderists in the city of Mexico, under the guise of patriotism, to bring about trouble with the United States by having the government make a counter-manifestation along the border and also demand that the United States abandon manoeuvres in Texas. In short, for Mexico to make a protest against the gathering of soldiers and sailors on the three sides of Mexico.

The "Imparcial" condemns such ideas in the strongest terms, saying the United States is the best of neighbors and the most friendly of nations.

Suspension of Guarantees.

Action on the Government's measure invoking the clause of the constitution which provides for the suspension of personal guarantees, where deemed expedient under extraordinary conditions has been deferred until Wednesday. The bill will be read before the special committee to which it was referred, to-morrow, after which it will be sent to the permanent committee of Congress for passage.

TORONTO MAN SAYS ALL QUIET IN MEXICO.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, March 14.—"The position of affairs in Mexico has been very much exaggerated, and there is no serious trouble going on—at least, if there is, no signs of it appear as one travels through the country. All the factories are running and business appears to be going on as usual. Theatres, street cars, cafes, are finding plenty of patrons, and making as much money as they can. There is really no evidence of anything unusual happening at all."

This is the present Mexican situation summed up by a Toronto business man who has just returned from a trip to that country. It is the opinion of Mr. W. E. Davidson, Secretary of the North-Western Railway Company, the Mexico Tramways Company, and the Mexican Light and Power Company, Limited. Mr. Davidson took his wife with him, and he says they never lost an hour's sleep. He insists that all was quiet in the streets, that the reports from Mexico appearing in the United States papers have been over colored and overstated.

Headaches Stopped

Mr. J. A. Wessinger found Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey the only medicine to cure him of his headaches, which had been the bane of his life.

"For years I suffered from headaches and though I tried all the Doctors in my community, they all told me that they could not do me any good. On the recommendation of a friend, I commenced to use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and I have not had a headache since. You may be sure I will pass the good word along to all my neighbors."—J. A. Wessinger, Chapin, S. C.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

through its tonic and rebuilding constituents, will cure troublesome nervous complaints by supplying the system with those vital elements which it needs to bring about a complete restoration to health.

The processes of tearing down and building up are constantly being carried on in the body, and if nothing interferes with these important processes good health results; but when something occurs to check them disease is sure to follow. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey overcomes the disease by stimulating the heart and nerves, which quickens the circulation of blood, enabling the system to properly assimilate the food from the alimentary tract; also to adequately eliminate from the system, through the lungs, pores, kidneys and intestines, those waste products, such as uric acids, toxins, etc., which result from the disintegration of the old tissues of the body, and the decomposition of alimentum in the alimentary canal.

All liquor dealers, or direct, $1.25 a large bottle. Medical booklet, containing rare common-sense rules for health and testimonials, also doctor's advice, sent free to any one who writes.

HOLIDAY CROWD, NOT CHAMPIONS OF CITY, TOOK QUEBEC TRIP

Only 228 Answered Mayor's Invitation, a Very Few of These Were Public Men.

Exactly two hundred and twenty eight men and youths left Place Viger station this morning in answer to the invitation of His Honor Mayor Guerin to appear to-day at the city's expense before the Legislature and give the members a sample of Montreal's feelings regarding the Tramway bill.

A still greater number of would-be-delegates came to the station and saw the train pull out, but did not go.

It was exactly nine when the train left with the six cars half filled with merry excursionists. Most of the travellers were young men a great number being clerks, the Early Closing Association having a solid delegation, and Laval being represented by twenty five students.

Of men of prominence in public life, about a dozen could be seen on the train. But all did not go. Ald. Dandurand, for one, was at the station, but explained that he could not go because he was acting-mayor, and must stay in Monareal," while Mayor Guerin was in Quebec. Ald. N. Lapointe and J. B. Lamoureux, were the only other members of the City Council on the delegated force; ex-alderman Vallieres and ex-Chief Benoit, were the only others, recently in the public eye.

Among the other delegates were Messrs. T. Page, president of the Butchers Association; J. D. Bolleau, president of the Grocers Association; A. Blondin, president of the Licensed Victuallers; J. B. E. Poirier, president of the Early Closing Association; C. R. LaSalle, president of the Shoe Manufacturers' Association.

The Trades Unions were represented, the carpenters, plasterers, moulders, painters unions and the Building Trades Council having delegates.

All were on board at or before half-past eight, time for which the train had been advertised, and their main pre-occupation was not the discussion of the Tramways bill, but getting information about the tickets and about the return to Montreal. Some of the delegates remarked that no buffet had been attached to the train, and that fact had a gloomy effect. Over a dozen regular travellers who were taking the regular train for Quebec changed their mind and joined the delegates when they were told that on the excursion train their transportation would be at the expense of the city.

After the train had left, those who saw it off expressed various opinions about the advisability of the delegation, an alderman suggesting that after the resolution of the City Council yesterday afternoon, there was no use for a delegation.

Many other comments were made about the organization of the excursion, some claiming that invitation cards should have been sent to responsible parties and that if the city was paying the transortation,some City Hall official should have been at the station, in charge of the delegates.

Among those who were on the train were:—

Messrs. H. Prevost, Jules Noguin, H. Delorin, J. R. d'Orsonnens, Grocers Association; T. Trudel, G. Labelle, ex-Chief Benoit, W. Roy, J. Burns, J. E. Delaurier, Shoe Association; J. M. Prevost, Druggists' Association; J. A. Francoeur, Real Estate Association; Arthur Favreau, Blacksmiths' Association; T. Daverd and A. Bernier, Dry Goods Association; J. T. CITY'S AMENDMENT TO M.S.R. BILL ACCEPTED; FIGHT PRACTICALLY OVER in their resolution. If the Tramways Company responded in a similar spirit he saw no reason whatever why an amicable settlement should not be speedily reached between the two parties to the contract.

Lachapelle For Settlement.

Controller Lachapelle said it had to be admitted that it was necessary that the Tramways Company should be granted a lengthened franchise and that the city was ready to accept forty-two years as a basis for that contract. With this agreed upon, with the reserve that the city was to settle the terms of the contract, the controllers were ready to settle down at once to study a new project to be granted to the Tramways Company. He was confident the terms could be agreed upon without delay.

"We have no intention," he added, "of attempting to paralyse the company in its enterprise any more than we would agree to a contract which would hurt the interests of the city. The interests of the city and the company are really allied in this matter. Our mutual interests are the interests of the public and this being so I do not see why the question of the contract should not be referred to a vote of the people."

Danger in Resolution.

Mr. Beaubien, legal adviser for Outremont, saw some danger in the phraseology of the city's resolution that a franchise not exceeding forty-two years should depend upon the passing of a contract with the city. He feared the company in the event of non-agreement with the city would be able to operate under a claim that they actually had a forty-two years franchise given by the Legislature.

Ald. Morin, in reply, justified the city's resolution which he said would enable the city to accord a franchise of less than forty-two years, say thirty years if they were not satisfied with the contract conditions offered by the company.

Ald. Boyd submitted that the city's resolution preserved the city's autonomy. That, he said, was all they asked for.

Controller Wanklyn endorsed the remarks of Controller Lachapelle. He added that it would be necessary to repeal clause 14 in the bill already passed. He submitted that with the repeal of this clause the city's resolution should stand as the basis of a new franchise. Then the city would be in a position to frame a fair business-like contract as a settlement of the present difficulties. With this done he favored the submission of the terms of the contract to a vote of the people in order that no mistake should be made now and no misunderstanding in the future.

Mr. Bourassa favored the acceptance of the city's resolution with a provision that the contract should be submitted to a referendum of the people.

The discussion was continued at length and there was considerable conflict as to what legal interpretation might be placed upon the city's resolution if passed as a clause of this bill.

Sir Lomer Gouin then interposed in the debate. He remarked that last week he expressed the opinion that this was the most difficult problem that Montreal had to face in twenty-five years. The committee proceedings were adjourned to give the city an opportunity to study the bill as it stood. They came back with a resolution unanimously passed saying, in effect, "let us have our municipal autonomy." Without saying whether he was in accord with the resolution or whether he was against it, he submitted that it demonstrated how difficult the question was before the committee, and," proceeded the Premier, "while the city is properly concerned in the maintenance of its autonomy, let the city leave to us the right to express on opinion on this question before us without being subjected, when we do so, to violent attacks by a committee of terror which is in existence in Montreal."

City Attorney Ethier supported the city's resolution, which he said maintained the city's autonomy.

Mr. Perron, speaking on the authority of Mr. Robert, president of the M.S.R., said the company was willing to accept the resolution as submitted by the City Council.

The company, he proceeded, never had any intention to make difficulties with the city. Their interests were mutual and they ought to walk hand in hand for the interests of city and citizens. They met the city in a spirit of conciliation which was manifest in that resolution and with that spirit prevailing in sincerity on both sides ther was no occasion why an understanding on the question of contract should not be reached within sixty days.

Mayor Guerin's Statement.

Mayor Guerin, after putting before the committee the resolutions passed at the Monument National, and other meetings, against the Tramways Bill, as originally framed, welcomed the spirit of concillation which has prevailed here to-day, and he accepted with joy the speech just made by Mr. Perron.

All the civic delegations wanted, he said, was to safeguard the interests of Montreal. He maintained that they were not safeguarded in clause 14. They, therefore, offered in place of that clause the resolution passed by the City Council, yesterday afternoon.

His Worship was proceeding to stat that if this bill had not been presented the difficulties would have been settled before this.

Mr. Perron denied this and said if they were to go into the past there never would be a settlement. They had practically arrived at a settlement since the bill was introduced when certain visitors arrived from Montreal and then all progress stopped.

(Hear, hear.)

A Remarkable Scene.

A remarkable scene followed, Messrs. Galipeault and Francoeur called Mayor Guerin's attention to a reported interview in which he had been made to declare that he had no longer confidence in the committee and that the members could be bought.

Mayor Guerin—"I say that is absolutely false. I never attack any man behind his back."

Mr. J. C. Walsh stepped forward and remarked that as the paper he represented was attacked he asked Mr. Galipeault in justice to produce a copy of the paper in which he said the members' honor had been attacked.

"I have a copy here," interposed Sir Lomer Gouin, "and if Mr. Walsh has not sense enough to know that caricatures of this kind attack the honor of public men then he had better stay at home."

Mr. Walsh remained silent.

Mr. Walker complained that the Mayor had said to him last week that "You boys will make enough out of the Tramways Company to pay for the extra expense you may be put to by the prolongation of the session through this bill."

Mr. Walker and other members emphatically declared that such insinuations were absolutely unjustified.

It was then unanimously agreed to accept the City Council's resolution as adopted yesterday, in the place of clause 14, after an amendment by Mr. Lavergne had been rejected by 29 votes against five, proposing that the franchise should start from the date of a new contract with the city and not from the passing of the bill.

It was agreed to add a clause to allow the company to carry freight and mails on terms to be agreed upon in the contract.

A further decision was that the existing contracts with the company should remain in force until a new contract is made.

Then there was another fight. The city delegation stood by their proposal that the contract should be submitted to a vote of the people in accordance with the law which insisted upon this in all cases of contracts extending over a period of ten years.

Mr. Perron said the company could not accept the referendum clause. The Mayor said the law should operate as it stood and the city representatives would not agree to put it on one side.

Mr. Bourassa—"Here we have another complication. Mr. Perron speaking for the company, says they will not sign a franchise if there is to be a vote of the people upon it. On the other hand, the city says the referendum should take place. We must clear this up before going further and accept our responsibility."

Mr. Lavergne proposed that the referendum should take place on the contract conditions when framed.

The proposal was voted down by 4 to 27 against the 4 votes of Messrs. Tellier, Prevost, Bourassa and Lavergne being polled for it.

Some discussion took place relative to the position of outside municipalities, but this question and several other incidental questions were held over until to-morrow.

Council Adopts Lapointe's Motion

The resolution of Ald. L. A. Lapointe to amend section 14 of the Consolidated Tramways Bill, approving of the extension of the Montreal Street Railway franchise for a period of thirty years, but stipulating that all other terms of the contract should be left to the joint negotiation of the city and the company, subject to the intervention of the Public Utilities Commission in case of disagreement, as printed in the Star yesterday, was approved by the City Council later in the day.

The Council made one change in Ald. Lapointe's proposed amendment. This was to the effect that the new franchise shall be "for not more than forty-two years," instead of stating definitely that it shall be for forty-two years outright.

The Council also approved the various resolutions passed by public bodies and at public meetings, protesting against any invasion of the city's autonomy.

It was stated by Ald. Lapointe, and others, that it would be useless for the aldermen to go before the Legislature again without they could show some definite action had been taken by the City Council to come to an agreement with the company.

Mayor Guerin also said that it was necessary for the civic delegates to have a definite project to place before the Legislature. He still contended, however, that the Legislature should not have interfered in the matter at all.

Mr. Robert Reford, on behalf of the Board of Trade, expressed the sympathy of that body with the fight to maintain the city's autonomy as well as their confidence in the Board of Control's ability to administer the city's affairs.

In explanation of his resolution, Ald. L. A. Lapointe said the time had come when the Council was forced to take a stand and could no longer delay matters. It would be foolish in the extreme for the civic delegation to go to Quebec again and say that it could not agree upon anything. His resolution, in brief, while consenting to the extension, preserved the power of the city to deal with the company. It would allow the city to arrange percentages, routes and various other matters. He pointed out that the city had not the power to prevent the amalgamation of the four companies, neither had it power to say that the company should not increase its capitalization. These were matters that could only be dealt with by the Legislature.

Controller Wanklyn said that owing to the stubborn attitude of the Legislature the resolution of Ald. Lapointe was acceptable. It was quite true that the Council must go to Quebec with some definite programme. He still felt that the Legislature was dealing with the Bord of Control and the City Council in a most unjust manner, and rehearsed what had already been done or left undone.

"The Legislature," asserted Mr. Wanklyn, "must not treat the controllers as though they ought to be interdicted."

Ald. Carter—"There is nothing in the Lapointe motion which permits the city to deal with the company in regard to the removal of freight. This is a serious oversight. The trade bodies of the city long ago asked the Council to arrange a freight contract with the company."

Ald. Lapointe said that the City Council could arrange for a freight service when it was completing other details with the company.

Ald. Boyd said that while he did not object to the motion of Ald. Lapointe be trusted it would not be used as a lever, at Quebec, to prove that the City Council was anxious to grant the extension.

Controller Lachapelle said any resolution that Council might send to the Legislature ought to be adopted unanimously.

Ald. Tetreau feared that Ald. Lapointe's motion as originally worded was calculated to convey the idea that the city favored the granting of a forty years' contract to the company by the Legislature. He submitted an amendment to the effect that the city should reserve to itself the right to determine the duration of the contract.

An amendment offered by Ald. Dandurand was to the effect that the contract, when entered into, should not be made to exceed a period of forty-two years.

Other members expressed fear that the Lapointe motion would result in the company being given a perpetual franchise.

In reply to this objection Ald. Lapointe said that the company's present franchise practically gave it an endless contract; he did not think his motion was dangerous in any way. It had been worded with the greatest care in order to proteect the interests of the city.

Assistant City Attorney Lavallee said that the motion of Ald. Lapointe did in reality imply the sanctioning of a 42 years' franchise—but hypothetically. That is, such a franchise was sanctioned by the city, provided it were granted with the consent of the city authorities.

Ald. Lapointe thereupon consented to remove that portion of the clause relating to the forty-two years' franchise, but it was afterwards pointed out that the provision that the contract "should not exceed forty-two years" amply covered matters.

This opinion settled matters, and the Lapointe resolution was then unanimously adopted.

Westmount for Civic Autonomy

"The Council of Westmount places itself on record as being opposed in both principle and practice to the Legislature of the province conferring upon any individual or corporation any rights or privileges over the streets or property of any municipality, without the consent of the constitutional representatives of that municipality.

"While the Council offers no objection to the incorporation of the Tramways Company as such, they wish to put themselves in line with the City of Montreal as being opposed to the Legislature including in any such bill of incorporation any conditions under which it shall be operated, feeling that such should be the proper subject of negotiations and agreement between the municipality and the company, and that any difference or inability to agree on a contract between the two principals as thus understood should be referred either to arbitrators or to the Public Utilities Commission.

"Also, that the Council's representative at Quebec be instructed to do his utmost to have these views carried out, and further, that a copy of the resolution be forwarded to the Premier of the Province."

The above resolution was adopted at last night's meeting of the Westmount Council after a warm debate.

The discussion was brought about by a letter from Mr. Alex. Falconer, attorney, who protested as a citizen, against the attitude of the Westmount representative at Quebec. Mr. Falconer protested against any official support as had, to his mind, been accorded the Tramways bill, by the Council's representatives at Quebec, which had amounted to the Westmount Council putting themselves on record as being in favor of depriving the city of Montreal of its rights.

Alderman Hyde denied that the deputation had been a party to attacking the autonomy of the city of Montreal, but they had certainly tried to do their best to look after the interests of Westmount. As to Montreal talking of their autonomy, this to his mind, came with a very bad grace from a body of men who had forced Notre Dame de Grace into the city, and who would have done the same with Westmount if that municipality had not protested with such vigor.

Alderman Hyde also referred to the fact that Westmount had been driven by reason of delays and the want of a proper tribunal for reference of the dispute to accept the terms of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, and thought it would be better if these questions could be referred to the Public Utilities Commission, which would be the case with the street railway dispute if the present bill is adopted.

Mayor Rutherford thought that Westmount should stand by Montreal and favored leaving Montreal and the railway company to work out their own contract without the interference of the Legislature.

Ald. McBride attacked the motives of some of the most active opponents of the Tramways bill accusing them of having personal ends to serve, and not being actuated by the public good.

There was some further discussion, when the resolution was put to a vote and adopted.

DOMINIONS AND DEFENCE PROBLEM MUCH DISCUSSED

Opinions on Sir Joseph Ward's Advocacy of Imperial Council for Empire Defence.

Canadian Associated Press.

Sydney, N. S. W., March, 14. — Sir Joseph Ward's speech advocating the formation of an Imperial Council to deal with the defence of the Empire, as a whole, it is believed here, is unlikely to meet with general approval here.

Premier Fisher merely advocates the erection of a consultative council whose decrees would only be binding on individual governments when confirmed by these governments.

The Sydney Morning Herald, discussing the subject, says such proposals are still merely academic, the problem being one that requires patient treatment.

Mr. Easton, secretary of the British Immigration League, in a speech here yesterday, urged all loyal Australians to support the Federal defence scheme, as the time was near when Australia might have to fight to retain the last and fairest of the continents as a British outpost in the Pacific.

PALL MALL GAZETTE APPROVES THE SPEECH

Canadian Associated Press.

London, March 14.—The Pall Mall Gazette to-day says, editorially:

"The people of the Dominions know that armed strength is their only security and eralize that the defence of the whole Empire is a burden which Britain no longer can carry alone. The Dominions which have arrived at manhood must do their share for the support of their own roof-tree.

"The Premier of New Zealand," the paper continues, "is the first candidate and makes an official announcement that the Dominion is ready to acknowledge and discharge to its full extent the Dominion's moral obligation, thus setting a standard to which we believe every portion of the Empire will respond.

"With the co-operation of the Dominion in the expenses will come a claim for participation in control, but this is merely a matter of adjustment. The essential problem of the future of the Empire will have been solved when the Dominions are ready to fill their due places in the serried ranks of the Empire."

RUSSIA SENDS ULTIMATUM.

Her Troops Now Nearing Chinese Border.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—Russia has sent an ultimatum to China insisting upon a closer adherence to the provisions of the Treaty of 1881, which has been the subject of negotiations between the two countries for some weeks past. The Russian occupation corps is within a hundred miles of the frontier and marching on Kulja.

The instructions which the Foreign Office telegraphed to-day to M. Korostovetz, the Russian Minister at Pekin, contain the ultimatum. This embodies two points, first, the re-opening of Russian consulates at the points specified in the treaty of 1881, and, second, the establishment of free trade in fulfilment of Article 12 of the same treaty.

CANADA IS OFFERED AN OCEAN PROVINCE

The Legislature of the Bahama Islands Invites Canada to Discuss Annexation by a Practically Unanimous Vote.

At the moment there looms in sight the question of an annexation movement in which Canada is offered a new ocean province. A cablegram received here to-day by Mr. T. B. Macaulay from Mr. de Lery Macdonald, who is at Nassau in the Bahamas, announced that at yesterday's meeting of the Legislative Assembly, a motion was adopted inviting the Dominion Government to appoint a committee for the purpose of discussing the annexation of the Bahama islands by Canada.

Twenty-three members of a total of twenty-nine voted in favor of the proposal and immediate action is anticipated.

Previously the matter was discussed at a meeting of citizens at which strong public sentiment in favor of this annexation was expressed. It is said by Canadians who winter in the islands that public feeling is strongly in favor of the proposal.

There are now several Canadian financial interests in the islands. Canadian insurance companies practically control this branch of business. The Royal Bank is represented on the island and does a thriving business at Nassau.

Mr. Macaulay who knows the situation thoroughly and who has been a visitor of the islands, is most enthusiastic, describing them as the "future Florida of Canada."

He also declares that there are fine business opportunities offering. For instance the islands required manufactured products, while they have to offer fruits, vegetables and flowers. At the moment Canada takes large quantities of vegetables from the islands. Mr. J. R. Clogg, of Montreal, recently sent a thousand crates of tomatoes in one shipment. Practically all the winter tomatoes used here come from the Bahamas.

There is considerable vacant land on the islands offering fine immigration and agriculture possibilities.

The Bahama Islands form a chain six hundred miles in length, lying between the south-east corner of Cuba and Florida. The area is 4,466 square miles; twenty islands are inhabited, but there are 3,000 islets and rocks. The population is about 70,000. New Providence with an area of fifty-eight square miles is the most important island politically. Nassau, the capital, is situated on it. The Government is representative and is composed of a Governor and an executive, a Legislative Council, and an assembly of twenty-nine members. Education is free, compulsory and unsectarian.

At an immense meeting of the citizens of Nassau, held February 20, which was addressed by a number of Canadians then visiting the island, a resolution favoring the admission of the islands to the Canadian Confederation as a Province, was carried by a standing vote, with great enthusiasm, there being but two dissenting votes.

A committee of six members of the Legislature was appointed to give effect to this expression of opinion. At a subsequent meeting, a week later, February 27, a small group wished to postpone the consideration of the question, but the sentiment was so overwhelmingly opposed to postponement, and in favor of annexation, that the chairman, and three or four others who had called the meeting, withdraw their motion ,not even considering it worth while to put it to a vote.

Subsequently a resolution was introduced by Mr. L. G. Brice, requesting the Governor to invite the Government of Canada to a conference, to consder whether annexation to the Dominion is feasible and desirable, and if so, on what terms it would probably be carried out.

Armistice in Saskatchewan

Opposition Drops Obstruction of Business Other Than in Supply—Progress Made.

Western Associated Press Special.

Regina, Sask., March 14.—An armistice was established yesterday afternoon, when the Legislature reassembled after the week-end recess. By a motion made some days ago, Monday, in the ordinary course of things, is Private Members' day. As there is only one important resolution on the order paper, that dealing with the question of the Province's natural resources, it was agreed that progress should be made with committee work.

Intercolonial Men Get Raise

Board Grants Increase Ranging from Ten to Twenty Per Cent. to Trainmen.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Moncton, N. B., March 14.—The increase in pay for which the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen has been contending, has been granted by the Board of Management of the Government Railways, who have been in session here for some time.

The increase affects 900 men and will date from January 1st last.

Yard men get an increase of 20 per cent., and men out on the road 10 per cent. Some minor details remain to be arranged at another meeting on March 22.

Chief Tremblay Limps After Collision and Chief Mann Nurses Injured Eye.

The damage by fire at the Montreal Stock Yards, St. Etienne street, yesterday is roughly computed at $50,000 the amount of insurance on the entire market, sheds, hay and animals, is $46,000.

Mr. F. H. Carlin, the General Manager of the Montreal Stock Yards stated to The Star representative this morning that on account of the large number of insurance companies interested no definite figure as to the loss sustained could yet be given. The rate of insurance was very high, he stated and on looking up the policies found that altogether $46,000 was the limit of insurance carried on everything, save $12.000 which covered the holding market, a building which was only scorched by the fire.

Carelessness of a drover is blamed for the outbreak. The fire started in the hayloft of a shed in the rear of the Bank of Toronto Branch.

In the collision of Chief Tremblay's Automobile with No. 1 Engine, at the intersection of McGill and William streets, the Chief sustained a bruised hip and side. And he is going limping to-day. His knee was cut when he was hurled against the engine.

The gates of the shed in which the cattle were had only been fastened by a latch. The fire spread so rapidly that before the men could get to it the cattle were already overcome by smoke.

Johnson Matched Once More.

Chicago, March 14.— Arrangements were completed last night for an automobile race between Emile Brouard, the French driver, who is in Chicago now, and Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion fighter. The race will take place at either Los Angeles or at Oakland, within four weeks. It will be for 100 miles and both contestants are to drive ninety horsepower machines

DOCTOR STEDMAN'S
Worm Powders
For Children and Adults
Worms in the intestines are not only an inconvenience and a nuisance, but in very many cases lead to serious danger. In children convulsive fits may be induced by their presence, and in adults, distresing indisposition. All the different kinds of worms are acted on by this preparation, the tape-worm, the round worm, and the thread-worm. A few doses will never fail to dislodge the enemy and in most cases prevent its reappearance.

MANY PAID LAST TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO LATE DR. SHAW

Large Crowd Attended Public Service in Deminion Squâre Methodist Church.

The public had been permitted to view the body in the James Ferrier Convocation Hall of the Wesleyan Theological College, from 10 a.m. till 12 noon. The remains were garbed in clerical attire and in the hands were placed a bunch of violets. The face, although much wasted, wore a peaceful expression.

The Hall was draped n black and at the edge of the platform, near the coffin, were placed the wreaths and floral tribute. Amidst the draperies at the back of the platform, was a scroll, the work of one of the students, inscribed as follows:—"His students mourn a Teacher, a Guide, and a Friend."

Those present at the service held in the Wesleyan Theological College, included the bereaved widow; Fred., J. Fletcher and George McD. Shaw, sons; Mrs. Antliff, Miss Louise Shaw and Miss Etta Shaw, daughters; J. Morgan Shaw, of Toronto, brother; Mrs. Henry Skinner, Mrs. Wm. Skinner Miss Minnie Shaw and Miss Jennie Shaw, all of Toronto, sisters; officers and members of the Auxiliary to the British and Foreign Bible Society, of which Dr. Shaw was president; members of the Protestant Board of School Commissioners, Montreal; Dr. G. W. Parmalee, secretary of the Provincial Council of Public Instruction, which he represented; delegations from officers and teachers of public schools; Rev. Dr. J. W. Graham, representing the Educational Society of the Methodist Church and the Board of Regents of the Victoria University, Toronto; Methodist Ministerial Association in a body; the governors, senate and students of the Wesleyan Theological College in a body; Mr. Wm. Hanson, treasurer of the Wesleyan College; representatives of McGill University; Ald. S. J. Carter, president of the Dominion Alliance; and Mr. C. C. Holland, treasurer Dominion Square Methodist Church.

After the service in the college, which was conducted by the Rev. E. J. Hart, the body was conveyed to the Dominion Square Methodist Church, being met in University street by a guard of honor of three or four hundred boys from the High and public schools of the city. As the cortege passed, the boys fell in behind and proceeded to the church, together with all those who had been present at the service.

Among the wreaths and floral tributes were those from:—Trustees Dominion Square Methodist Church, Principals of Public Schools, The Women's Society of Dominion Square Methodist Church, Students of the Wesleyan Methodist College, Rev. Principal and Mrs. Scrimger, Miss Anson, W. Young and Sunday School Class of Dominion Square Methodist Church Sunday School, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Holland, Mrs. Samuel Finlay, Mrs. Wm. Skinner, Miss Bonnycastle and Miss Forgey, Mr. and Mrs. John Leslie, Miss Dillon, Methodist Ministerial Association, Mr. Joseph Skinner and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lavers, staffs of the two High Schools, the Governors of the Wesleyan Theological College, Co-Workers of the College Faculty, staff of Chas. F. Dawson, Ltd., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Craig, Miss Irving O. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. G. Franklin Johnston, "Father" (from his children), Montreal Auxiliary Bible Society, Principal and Staff of Royal Arthur School, Fred. Birks, Robert Macdonald and family, French Methodist Institute, 4th year class high school, Mrs. F. J. Dawson and Mrs. R. M. Cushing, Mr. and Mrs. W. Godbee Brown, Ladies' Aid Society of Dominion Square Methodist Church, and the Protestant Board of School Commissioners.

The Presbytery of Montreal, who were in session at Knox Church today, adjourned their afternoon session in order to attend the funeral in a body.

Rev. E. I. Hart conducted the funeral service in the Dominion Square Methodist Church, which took place at 2.30 p.m. and was largely attended.

Rev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada, Toronto; Rev. Dr. Young, Rev. W. Timberlake, and the Rev. G. S. Deeprose, Ottawa, also officiated at the service.

The church was so crowded that many were unable to get inside. Among those present were Rev. Canon Renaud, Dr. Fred J. Tees, W. Craig, W. G. Brown, F. B. Robbins, Rev. Dr. Gordon, Principal Trueman of Stanstead College; Rev. Dr. Symonds, Rev. E. McManus, Rev. John Curry, Rev. G. S. Aubins, Dr. Clark Murray, W. Hall, J. Rives Hall, A. Watt, W. Williamson, W. Findlay, W. G. Taylor, Fred B. Lockker, Dean Moyse, A. R. Oughtred, H. Millen, H. B. Smith, J. R. Smith, S. A. Finley, D. Ludington, W. L. Lee, E. H. Therrien, J. T. Peterson, P. H. Fraser, G. MORE COMMITALS RE THE FARMERS' BANK.

Toronto, March 14.—"I shall commit you both for trial," said Magistrate Denison, when the cases against Matthew Wilson and W. S. Morden, assistant manager of the Trusts and Guarantee Company, were called today.

The charge against Wilson and Morden, this morning, was that they did conspire with W. R. Travers, vice-president and general manager of the Farmers' Bank to induce the said W. R. Travers to obtain, for the Trusts and Guarantee Company undue preference over the other creditors of the Farmers' Bank.

"After looking into the circumstances and the legal aspect of the case, I have decided to send this case to a higher court," said the Magistrate.

RECIPROCITY AND HAY.

Mr. T. A. Trenholme, one of the most practical and successful farmers in this province, finds one of his strongest objections to the Reciprocity agreement in one of the principal reasons urged by the Dominion Government to commend it to the Quebec farmer—its effect upon the hay business. One of the most generally accepted maxims of modern scientific farming is to sell nothing (except dairy produce) that cannot walk off the farm. The contrary policy is about equivalent to a manufacturer trying to get rich by selling his raw material instead of his manufactured article. Hay comes about as near as anything there is that can be carted off the farm to being the very rawest of the farmer's raw material. We have not the slightest doubt that the Minister of Agriculture, who is credited with knowing something about farming, has given the farmers of Canada much good advice upon this subject. He must have advocated mixed farming over and over again. He must have pointed out with convincing eloquence that the ideal farm is the farm in which all the various branches of the industry have been carefully planned to dovetail in with each other so that the by-product of one branch may be utilized to the best advantage as the raw material of another. He may have gone so far as to explain that continual cropping and selling the crops in their unmanufactured condition is not farming, but mining, and that one of the unavoidable drawbacks to mining is that every ton of ore you take out of the ground leaves the mine one tone of ore the poorer.

Now, if this kind of advice is good for the individual farmer, why is it not a good policy to commend to the agricultural community as a whole? If it is bad for the individual farmer to impoverish his land and to sell his raw material at a minimum of profit, why is it not bad for the Province of Quebec to do precisely the same thing? True it is that a very distinguished member of the Government says that there are permanent timothy meadows along the shore of Lake St. Peter, which have been cropped for a hundred years. But Mr. Trenholme declares that there is no such thing as a permanent timothy meadow in the whole province, that eight years at most is the life of a timothy seeding. That there are permanent meadows along Lake St. Peter he admits, but their crop is swale hay; in other words swamp grass, which no self-respecting cow would eat if it could get anything better, and which no American importer would buy seeing that he would have to pay the same freight upon it as he would upon good hay. An authoritative utterance on this subject from the Department of Agriculture would be most interesting and instructive and would no doubt help the Canadian farmer to form an opinion upon the Reciprocity agreement—and other things.

QUEBEC FORESTS FOR QUEBEC PEOPLE.

Sir Lomer Gouin has formally and in the most unqualified terms, declared that his government will in no way modify its decision of last year to conserve the public forests of the Province of Quebec for the benefit of the people of the province.

The export of pulp-wood cut on the Crown lands of Quebec will not be permitted unless it has undergone a certain degree of manufacture in Canada. The provincial Premier has the unanimous support of the whole Legislative Assembly on this subject, and as there is no doubt about the Ontario Legislature adhering to the same position, it is manifest that those American newspapers and statesmen who have been principally actuated in their reciprocity campaign by a desire for free Canadian pulp-wood, are doomed to a certain measure of disappointment.

There is another important aspect to the case as it stands. In this matter of forest conservation, the two provincial legislatures not only represent the most vital interests of Quebec and Ontario, but they unquestionably reflect the opinions of the people they represent. In view of the manner in which Sir Lomer's declaration of policy was received by members of all shades of political opinion, it will be exceedingly difficult for anyone who values the confidence of the Quebec electorate to take an equivocal position on this issue.

Finally, there is the unanswerable argument that upon this point Sir Lomer Gouin is obviously right. The provincial regulations preventing the exportation of unmanufactured pulp-wood from the Crown lands have already, even in their first year, forced the American paper makers to invest capital in mills in this province; and a continuance of this policy will compel the investment of a good deal more United States money, for the employment of Canadian labor in the Province of Quebec.

A SCREAM OF THE EAGLE.

"I think it is an attempt to impress on us what a powerful neighbor we have in the North; how wide her arms can stretch," said Senor Jose Limantour, Mexico's Minister of Finance, in commenting on the announcement that the United States government was sending three or four warships to the Gulf of Mexico to "co-operate" with the twenty thousand soldiers who are cutting off supplies from the revolutionists in Chihuahua, a thousand miles away. With true Castilian courtesy, Senor Limantour adds that many people in Mexico are quite cognizant of the greatness of the United States and that, so far as they are concerned, at least, the demonstration is both expensive and unnecessary. As for the Mexicans who do not know, the presence of the whole United States fleet at Galveston and the eighty thousand men of the regular army on the Texan frontier would have no significance. There is no doubt that it does the eagle good to stretch its wings, stand on tip-toe, and fill the air with its raucous and menacing screams once in a while. As long as the demonstration is taken at its real value and consequently not resented by those towards whom it is directed, the eagle's other neighbors will have to bear with equanimity the intrusion on their peace and the disturbance of their rest. All statesmen, however, are not so philosophical as Senor Limantour, and this is specially true of statesmen of the Spanish-American republics. There has been too much loose talk in the United States about the extension of its boundaries from the Arctic Ocean to the Gulf of Mexico to make this kind of diplomacy either safe or popular among the neighbors just at the present moment.

PROGRESS TOWARDS DISARMAMENT.

Sir Edward Grey did not mince matters in discussing disarmament as a theory and disarmament as a definite policy before the House of Commons yesterday. When the nations of the world—especially of the Christian and civilized world—are willing to adopt the same general rule of conduct towards one another that they enforce on individuals within their own borders, the effective desire to possess the heaviest battleships and the largest armies and the deadliest ordnance will disappear with the possibility of putting them to profitable use. The world has long since deprecated the appeal to arms as a method of determining the rights and wrongs of a private dispute; there is no nation, civilized or uncivilized, which does not frown upon and punish such methods of obtaining justice because, in the first place, they are inequitable, and because, in the second place, they are a menace to the interests of society as a whole. And yet the sum total of all civilized nations, which is to say the the Christian world, has not yet been able to devise a way of making this same principle effective in the immensely more important field of international activities. Great Britain, the United States and Russia are openly committed to the ideal of putting an end to the enormous and unproductive expenditures which are required every year under the system of competition in warship construction and standing armies. It should not require many more recruits to force the bellicose and recalcitrant Powers—or rather Power—into line.

THE RETURN OF THE OUT-CASTS.

It is difficult to quench the ardent ambition which burns in many breasts to serve the city. It is especially difficult to do so after the flames have been fed by such fuel as was supplied the close-knit clique of patriots in the last city council who became known, far and wide, as "The Twenty-Three." A little over a year ago, the citizens of Montreal, with great unanimity and no little enthusiasm, undertook the task of quenching this co-ordinated zeal, for a variety of reasons. Although the flood of cold water that was emptied on the City Hall at that time swept all but one, and he the least important, of the affiliated aldermen from their comfortable desks in the council room out into the bleak and cheerless streets, it failed to drown out the embers of their desire to be aldermen. Drenched and bedraggled, two or three of the old company have crawled back into the warmth through the narrow little openings made by the annexation of suburban wards. Two more are stamping tentatively on the thin ice of one of the city wards to see if it will bear them on a dash for the City Hall. The next time we clean out the City Hall, it might be as well to try hot water, very hot water.

A COOL PROPOSITION.

It has been suggested in various quarters that certain honorable members, who have ventured to express themselves in opposition to the Reciprocity agreement, should resign their seats and submit their views to their electors. Subject to only one qualification, the idea is an admirable one. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. The honorable gentlemen who oppose reciprocity should resign, at the same moment as do the honorable gentlemen who support it. To propose that all the ministerialists who disagree with the government on this question should put it out of their power to vote; while those who agree with their leaders should stick to their seats like mortar, pitch, and plaster, is to make parliamentary institutions in Canada supremely ridiculous. There is a frankness about the proposition, which verges upon the cynical.

France, under Delcasse, has begun to wonder if it had not better try to catch up with Germany in this Dreadnought race. There was a time when France was the second naval power in the world, and Germany had to do the "catching up." Delcasse has no delusions in this naval business, however; and, as long as he remains a power in the Government, France will set itself seriously to the task of arming against eventualities.

From Washington comes the faint whine of the saw and the dull thuds of the hammer as the Democratic leaders get to work on the revised tariff schedules which both the Senate and the President will be asked to accept and look as if they liked it. Except for one brief period, it has been fifty years since the Republican party has been in so humiliating a position.

According to certain organs of public opinion published for the benefit of our neighbors to the South, the real reason for the Duke of Connaught's appointment as Governor-General is to make it possible for prominent New York and Chicago families to visit Canada without loss of prestige.

The coming of Spring would be much more generally welcomed if there was a little firmer confidence in the preparedness of our street-cleaning department to do a reasonable portion of what is expected of it.

Moving Day is drawing near. Have you made your choice of a fire-trap flat yet, or are you going to help discourage the Jerry-builders?

The Russians say that boxing is contrary to good manners. They probably think that the police methods in their prisons are the pink of politeness.

Single Tax in Saskatchewan.

Calgary Morning Albertan:—The province of Saskatchewan has taken a forward step, which will mean much to the development of that province. By a vote in the legislature, which was practically unanimous, the legislators decided in favor of the passing of a single tax measure. The new act makes it optional with the municipality, but it permits any municipality which is so disposed to introduce the single tax providing for exemption of taxation upon buildings and improvements. It provides for a reduction of 15 per cent yearly, and it is probable that with this legislation the entire province will be under the single tax within a very few years.

War Upon Tuberculosis.

Kingston Daily Whig:—The campaign against tuberculosis, or rather the attempt to educate the people regarding the disease and the manner of combatting it, is one of the greatest importance. A plague that carries away our people annually in thousands should enlist the fullest public interest.

An Idea Worth Adopting.

Toronto Daily Star:—London, Ont., is to have a system of red lights at its busiest corners, whereby traffic will be warned when the fire brigade is coming. It is an idea which might well be adopted by other cities.

Street Railway Mass Meeting

(From the Montreal Witness)

The mass meeing of citizens in the Monument National called by Mayor Guerin to register a protest against the passage of the Montreal Tramways Bill through the Legislature, was a great popular success, especially for Mr. Bourassa, who can always draw a crowd. We should like to have gained some information as to the merits of that bill, but any discussion of its merits was sadly lacking. From what we can make out, the chief complaint against the bill seems to be that the Montreal Street Railway is trying to 'usurp the most sacred rights of the 'city,' and there has appeared in the press a statement, purporting to have been signed by the Mayor, which reads in part as follows: 'According 'to this high-minded piece of legisla-'tion, no more will we have control 'over any part of our city, the bill 'ordering that cars can run through 'the city anywhere and everywhere. 'Not even is Mount Royal excluded. 'All our efforts to beautify our city 'and consecrate recreation grounds 'for our children are to be ignored in 'order to satisfy the greed of a few 'young speculators.' However, Mr. C. H. Cahan, K. C., who has been acting for the Street Railway Company at Quebec, says that the statement does not contain even a scintilla of truth, and that he cannot believe the Mayor made it. He asserts that if the Tramways Bill is enacted, the city of Montreal and outside municipalities will continue to exercise in the future the same control over their streets, parks and recreation grounds as they do now, and that nothing in present conditions in this respect will be changed by the bill.

The point that Mr. Ainey made at the Monument National, speaking, as he said, as the representative of the working classes, was that the company does not treat its servants well, refusing them the right to enter into a labor union, and so forth; and also that the company employs foreign labor at ridiculously low prices, to the detriment of the home labor market. This would seem to mean that the throngs of new people who are making their home in this city are to be refused work. If it is wrong for the street railway company to give them work, it is equally unpatriotic for all other employers. Mr. Ainey's principle that the company should be practically ruled by its employes is out of keeping with that of the mayor, and of the Citizens' Association, that it should be ruled by the city. Mr. Bourassa and others made charges against Sir Lomer Gouin of assuming to himself the task of being "Attorney-in-Chief" to the Street Railway, and insinuated that his motives are venal. This is a dastardly charge against a public man if it cannot be proved. It is of a piece with much of Mr. Bourassa's recklessness with regard to the character of his opponent. On the face of things there is no evidence of it, in this or any other part of Sir Lomer's administration, as far as we have observed. The fact was that the City Council and the Street Railway Company could not come to terms, and could not even approach any terms on a common basis. The Railway Company, therefore, went to Quebec for certain powers, and offered to accept the Public Utilities Commission as arbitrator as between the city and itself. As this was objected to, Sir Lomer Gouin proposes, if the Tramways Bill passes, that the Legislature itself shall revise its terms every ten years, and that surely is reasonable enough.

To hear the Mayor and others talk one would think that trying to pass this bill through the Legislature was an unheard of treason, peculiar to the Province of Quebec, whereas in England, as well as other countries, the machinery of governments is always invoked when extensive franchises are asked for and when disputes between utilities companies and municipalities cannot be settled otherwise and are at a deadlock. By all means let us make the best bargain we can for the city, but do not let us act as we did in the case of lighting the city streets. Delay after delay took place in that matter, with the consequence that we are paying much higher for light than we need have done if the Light, Heat and Power Company's early offer had been accepted. The late Mr. Walbank distinctly charged that that offer was hung up because he would not continue the old practice of graft. Everybody agrees that extensions and improvements are needed on a grand scale, as the service is quite inadequate to our enormously expanding conditions; and everybody would find it a boon to travel more comfortably at reduced fares. But the work required will need millions of dollars to finance it, and these cannot be obtained unless the company has reasonable security of tenure and such terms as shall enable it to pay at least its mortgages. It has been shown that the workmen of Montreal have been losing about a third of a million a year in the price of tickets, and this city more than half the cost of keeping its most important streets through the delays which have taken place. The discussion on the bill has been quite apart from the merits of the company's offer, which is one for which we know no parallel in other cities. We should have greatly liked to see the bargain itself capably discussed. For our part, there are many things we should like to see the Street Railway Company made to do. We should like the company to be made to stop its ruin of our roads; we should like to see overcrowding prevented by the police; we should like to see the cars made to stop on the convenient right side of the street, and transfers made less wilfully annoying. We should like the Tramways Bill to look to these things and give the city something better in its relations with the company than it has ever had before.

Rev. Dr. Jowett On His Mission

Hopes for Closer Communion of Churches on Both Sides of Atlantic.

New York, March 14.—A special cable from London says: Dr. J. H. Jowett at a farewell luncheon last evening, at which many Nonconformist clergymen were present, said:

"I cannot express how the call to New York impels me to stand in New York and proclaim there the message which has become the very fibre of my being. It calls me at fifty as if I were only twenty-one."

Dr. Jowett added that he hoped his going foreshadowed a closer communion of the churches on both sides of the water.

Mr. Joseph Tait, former member of the Ontario Legislature for North Toronto, sustained a fracture of the right hip and other injuries yesterday, in a fall down the elevator shaft in a Toronto garage.

A Frank Avowal By N. Y. Times

In the first place it is a crowning of the policy of lasting peace that has been maintained, not without difficulty, along our northern border for nearly a century. It makes for peace in two ways. It largely secures the benefits of freer commerce between the countries, and this is a great gain because it is the hindrances to trade that cause bad feeling, which the liberty of mutual trade tends to prevent and to replace by countless ties of good feeling. In this process the agreement opens the channels of commerce northward and southward and practically puts an end to the policy of the British Tories, which aims at blocking those channels and directing the currents of trade eastward across the ocean to the special gain of England. Incidentally, our acceptance of the agreement would also destroy the hope of the British Tories to establish a tariff wall about the markets of England, with the avowed purpose of reducing American trade. These are results of great and permanent value which in themselves are enough to decide the votes of reasonable members of Congress.

In the second place, reciprocity is the beginning of a policy that will powerfully protect the natural resources of our own country, to the conservation of which the nation had devoted years of study and is preparing to expend many millions of dollars. It would at once open to us the immense actual and increasing supplies of food and of forest products existing in the great Dominion, and give to us the same priceless advantages we have derived in the past from like resources within our own borders. Our growth has been so rapid that we have only lately begun to understand its effects. A score of years ago we still looked upon those resources as practically boundless and their exploitation as the sure means of incalculable prosperity. Within ten years we, as a nation, have come to know that their limits are quite within comprehension and that our constantly and swiftly advancing demands are outgrowing the certain supply. The basic need of food and shelter and the infinite industrial needs of a great people for wood in its varied uses are now becoming distinctly serious and are bound to become pressing. The agreement with Canada offers us free access to resources comparable to our own before our tremendous growth encroached upon them. To refuse this would be as crass an act of folly as for the commander of a besieged garrison to decline convoys of provisions.

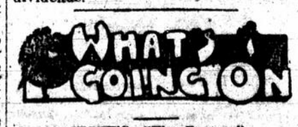

It would be all the more foolish because our varied industries supply us with ample means to purchase all that we may require. Already Canada takes nearly two-thirds of its imports from the United States—$223,000,000 out of $376,000,000—and with its sure advance in population and in all forms of activity will constantly take more. Our trade with Canada is in its infancy. We took from her last year some $20,000,000 in lumber, some $6,000,000 in pulp and paper, $6,000,000 in fish, and so on through what is an insignificant list considered in its relations to her resources and our requirements. The proposed treaty, measured by the actual trade that it would immediately influence, is not of great importance. Some $12,000,000 of Canadian goods and $30,000,000 of American goods are freed from duty, while duties are reduced on some $35,000,000. But the possibilities of the future are very great. There are not in our own country 6,000,000 of people better equipped by native qualities and by training than are the people of Canada for the progressive development of their rich inheritance, and with every year, when the barriers to trade which are in part lowered by this agreement shall be removed, this people, while wholly independent politically, will be as valuable to our economic progress as those of the Middle West or the Pacific Slope. They will prosper, and we shall find our prosperity grow with theirs. They will grow strong and we shall be the more secure for their strength. Canada, says the President, 'has cost us nothing in the way of preparations for defence against her possible assault, and she never will.' And the establishment of a free, strong, and friendly people across our northern border, bound to us by the countless intimate ties of trade and mutual interest, is an appreciable guarantee of peaceful relations with the great Empire of which Canada is a vital part. Every rational consideration of our immediate and future advantage, of the economic and political security of ourselves, and of the far greater nation whose welfare we hold in trust, demands that the agreement with Canada shall be accepted, carried out, and ultimately extended. Any member of the Senate or of the House who from narrow partisan or local motives obstructs this measure of broad and far-reaching beneficence is unworthy of his office.

Novel Way To Pay for Church

Special to The Montreal Star.

Boston, March 14.— Thirty men of Sacred Heart parish in East Boston have taken out endowment life policies in favor of Rev. Father James H. O'Neil, their pastor ,to pay for a new convent. The plan is backed by a local insurance company, the officers of which have held several conferences with Father O'Neil with the sanction of Archbishop O'Connell. By this plan, which was thought out by Father O'Neil, within twenty years ten members of the church will have paid in $1,000 each, ten $680, and ten $500. With the expiration of twenty years the entire cost of the building, $30,000, wil have been paid for out of dividends.

THE United States papers are making more fuss about their military manoeuvres on the Mexican border than we would about a church parade of our whole garrison.

Clarence—"Did Hazel's people object to her going on the stage?"
Percy—"No; but the theatrical people did."

THE papers tell us of a man having been arrested just as he had finished eating ten pounds of chocolates he had stolen. He was caught with the goods in him.

DO our neighbors fear a Japanese invasion through Mexico?

AFTER all, it is quite a long time since Uncle Sam took a piece of Mexico.

Mistress—"I'm sorry you are going to leave, Marie. Are you going to better yourself?"
Marie — "No, ma'am; I'm going to get married."

Willie—"Mamma, am I descended from monkeys?"
Mother—"I don't know dear; I never saw any of your father's relations."

ANYBODY can make a fairly good argument by letting the fellow who is against him do all the talking.

Husband—"There has been a lapse of twenty years since the last act."

Duke May Get Regent's Post

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, March 14.—The Duke of Connaught is due to leave for Canada in September, but there is an idea that he will return to England in November in order to act as Regent during the absence of King and ueen in India. The Queen, under the Regency Act, is the only person capable of acting as Regent, but as Queen Mary is going with the King on his visit to India another Regent must be chosen.

The most natural and fitting person for this office is the Duke of Connaught, but an Act of Parliament will have to be passed appointing him to the office during the King's absence. This, if done, will involve the absence of the Duke of Connaught from the Canadian Vice-Royalty for about three months.

Irish Church For the Romans

Special to The Montreal Star.

Rome, March 14.—Irish residents in Rome or visitors to this city will assemble on St. Patrick's morning in the new church of the Irish Augustinians, now finished on the Via Ludovici.

This edifice, to be known as St. Patrick's, will be the national one of Ireland in Rome. Architects say it is one of the finest examples of ecclesiastical art in the modern city. It was begun in the winter of 1908. The exterior is finished, but several years will be required to embellish the interior.

In the meantime the church is to be blessed and formally opened. Cardinal Martinelli, formerly Papal Delegate to the United States, and a member of the Augustinians, will bless the church on March 16. On the following day the Pope's sacristan, Mgr. Zampini, will celebrate the first mass in the new temple.

ANNUAL CHURCH CONCERT.

The annual church concert was held in Norwood Presbyterian church building, and was well attended. Rev. W. T. Morison, the minister of the church, presiding. Refreshments were served after the programme which was well rendered and in which the following took part: Misses Boyd, violin duets, and piano and violin duet; Master Kiel Oxley, recitation; Miss Riley, elocutionist; recitation and song; Miss Ruby Muir, songs; Miss Maybury, recitation; Miss Bennett, whistling solos; Mrs. W. T. Morison, song; Miss Brown, recitation; May Oxley, recitation, and Rev. Mr. Macleod, and Miss Elsie Drysdale, piano solo. Rev. Mr. Morison announced that on Friday night, March 17th, a concert will be held in the new school house at Petite Cote, Rosemount.

"HAREM" SKIRTS IN SYDNEY.

Special Cable to The Montreal Star.

Sydney, N.S.W., March 14.—A number of women wearing "harem" skirts have appeared in the streets here. They drove out in taxi-cabs, and descending in a crowded street were soon the object of the good humored banter of a mob of people. When the crowd became so dense that it blocked the traffic, the women took fright and fled to their taxi-cabs.

Principal Ousted; Parents to Strike.

Baldwinsville, N.Y., March 14.—Principal Frederick V. Webster, of the High School, has had his certificate revoked by State Commissioner of Education Draper, as the result of fraud charges. The Board of Education here, recently, appointed another principal, claiming that charges of substitution of a paper prepared by the principal, for a pupil in an examination, had been proved.

Parents of pupils in the school, however, threaten to "strike" if Principal Webster's removal is insisted upon. The Education Department declines to be receded, and an interesting situation is anticipated.

Presentation to Dr. R. F. Preston.

Toronto, March 14.—The Conservative members of the Legislature, eighty-seven in all, gathered at the Albany Club last night to honor the party whip, Dr. R F. Preston, M.L.A. With the guest of honor sat Sir James Whitney, the members of the Cabinet, and George H. Gooderham, M.L.A., who presided. After the banquet, J. H. Fisher, M.L.A., read an address, signed by every Conservative member, and T. Herbert Lennox, M.L.A., presented Dr. Preston with a massive gold watch chain, with locket pendant having the letter "P" emblazoned in diamonds, and a heavy gold ring set with a sapphire.

REV. DR. SHEARER CRITICAL.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Calgary, Alta., March 14.—Rev. Dr. Shearer, of the Dominion Alliance, is here in the interests of the temperance cause. Discussing conditions in Western Canada, Rev. Dr. Shearer declared that the betterment of the western provinces in respect to temperance was very slow as compared to the east.

Alberta was the most backward of all, the speaker stated, while British Columbia and Manitoba, though improving, were far behind. Saskatchewan, however, he said, had good temperance legislation.

NEW PERSIAN MINISTRY.

Teheron, March 14.—The new regent of Persia, Nassir Ul Molk, has appointed a new Cabinet, with Sepahdarazam as Prime Minister. The new ministry, is composed of Sepahdarazam as Premier and Minister of War; Mohtachemos-Saltaneh, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Moshire-dovleh, Minister of Justice; Mostachared-Devish, Minister of Interior; Momtazed-Dovleh, Minister of Finance; Moavenod-Dovleh, Minister of Commerce, Posts and Telegraphs; and Alaos-Saltaneh, as Minister of Public Instruction and Public Works.

Sepahdarazam was the first Premier of War, following the overthrow of the Shah and the establishment of constitutional government in Persia.

Toronto Man Had Narrow Escape.

Toronto, March 14.—George Gardner, aged 45, of 65 Dupont street, spent two and a half hours in the cold waters of Toronto Bay last night, and was rescued just as his strength gave out. Gardner was walking home across the bay from the Island, where he had been working, when he went into a hole, about 7 o'clock. Two hours later his cries were heard, and four members of the Queen City Yacht Club went to his rescue.

Fatal Snowslide Near Kaslo.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Kaslo, B.C., March 14. — Mr. P. G. Johnston, while crossing with Mr. George Banbury, between Flint Mine and Granite King, near here, yesterday afternoon met instant death in a snowslide. The men were on snowshoes. Banbury escaped unhurt by throwing himself backwards on the moving avalanche, being carried safely to the bottom of the mountain. Both men came from Ingho and were lessees of the Granite King mine on the south fork of Kaslo Creek. Johnson leaves two children in Spokane and two in Bellingham.

WATCHING THE MILLINERS.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, March 14.—In the last ten days the trunks of some forty returning milliners and dressmakers, containing goods which Surveyor Henry conservatively valued at $100,000, have been sent from the steamship piers to the appraisers' stores for careful examination.

The homeward rush of those in trade bringing the latest styles for the Easter season is now on, and the Collector is determined there will be no opportunity to cheat the Government by under-valuation.

Where Values Will Increase

We are able to offer a lot, measuring 99 feet front by about 110 feet deep, total area about 10,890 square feet, with first-class buildings, situated on Belmont st., near Beaver Hall Hill, in a locality where values are rapidly increasing. It affords a chance to a speculative buyer to make a handsome profit within a short time.

Price is $40,000, with $15,000 cash, which after paying interest charges, insurance and taxes, gives over 10 per cent. net on money invested. Don't hesitate. Investigate this proposition at once.

RUSSIAN REPORT SAYS CHINA NOW PREPARES FOR WAR

St. Petersburg Hears That Munitions of War are Being Hurried to Mukden.

St. Petersburg, March 14. — The Novoe Vremya prints a despatch from Mukden which states that 110 tons of gunpowder, 42 boxes of cavalry rifles, and 70 boxes of infantry rifles, destined for Chinese garrisons in Northern Manchuria, have reached Mukden from Peking. Forty-one van loads of rifles and ammunition, the despatch adds, have been sent from Kwang Chantze to Kirin.

Political circles take great interest in Japan's attitude towards the Russo-Chinese crisis. The eventuality of action similar to that now contemplated by Russia was clearly premeditated in the Russo-Japanese compacts of 1907 and 1910. The recent speech at Tokio of H. Ijuin, the Japanese Minister to China, in which he declared for the integrity of China is commented upon in both capitals as a possible warning to Russia that Japan is jealous lest Russia gain too much advantage as an outcome of the threatened clash with China.

However, the remarks of Ijuin are somewhat discounted by the knowledge that he is inimical to Russia, and was appointed to the Peking mission to strengthen the China-Japanese friendship.

Japan Making War Preparations.

Telegrams from Harbin state that the Russian press in the Far East has for weeks been talking of Japanese preparations for war, and declaring that their railways and roads are being adapted to the transportation of troops. The staff of the Chinese Railway and the employes generally have been replaced by Japanese and armed soldiers.

Huge barracks, it is asserted, are under construction at the principal stations, and the Japanese commissariat is gathering reports of the quantity of grains held in private stores in Kwan Tung province.

Simultaneously the Chinese viceroy of Manchuria addressed a secret project to the Throne regarding Manchuria, and proposing the gradual limitation of the rights of foreigners, a diminution of garrisons, the exclusion of gunboats from the Sungari and Yalu rivers and the increasing of the Chinese garrison to 100,000 men, at an estimated annual cost of $10,000,000.

Military Party for Forward Move.

Military circles, the opinion of which has great weight with Emperor Nicholas in reaching a final decision, consider the occupation of Northern Manchuria along a line of demarkation from Kwan Chengtze to Kirin a possibility. A correction of the frontier of Tarbagatai in Mongolia, is also held to be a possibility. The military party frankly favors utilizing the crisis to strengthen the Russian garrisons in the Far East and to correct the frontier strategically at China's expense.

The Cabinet, however, is firmly decided to restrict the military action to the barest necessity. This attitude was determined upon at a conference between Premier Stolypin and Finance Minister Kokovseff.

FIRED TWO SHOTS IN STREET CHASE.

Cocaine Vendor Gave Patrolman Half Mile Run Before Surrendering.

After an exciting chase of half a mile through the streets, starting in St. Lawrence, near Roy, and ending after several doubles at Pine and Colonial avenues, and after two shots had been fired to stop his escape, William Cowan, of 425 Drolet street, was arrested last night by Constable Paquette of No. 12 police station, and arraigned before Recorder Weir this morning charged with common assault, and sentenced to a fine of $10 and costs or two months.

He was trying to sell cocaine when the constable saw him and started in pursuit. When captured he was found to have a box of what is alleged to be cocaine and two quills which are used for sniffing drug. The contents of the box are being examined by the city chemist, and the trial on the charge of selling a poison not properly labelled has been postponed eight days.

CANNOT DECIDE ON EXHIBITION WITHOUT MEMBERS

Directors Have No Power to Deal With Project Until General Meeting.

Whether there is going to be an exhibition in Montreal or not still remains an unsettled question. While no steps have been taken to call another meeting of the Exhibition directors, it is explained that the directors themselves have no authority to dissolve the association or to decide to abandon the project.

There are twenty-eight directors, but there are also 200 members of the association, representing various organizations and interests in Montreal. The directors, it is claimed, were appointed to carry out the project, not to kill it by reaching a deadlock.

When the directors last Saturday rejected all the sites so far offered, Senator Beique as chairman spoke of calling another meeting to decide whether there was going to be an exhibition or not. It is now pointed out, however, that the meeting referred to would be another meeting of the directors, and that before decisive steps are decided upon, the 200 members of the association should be called together. If the directors cannot decide, they should resign and let the members decide what to do. This was admitted this morning by several members of the committee.

However, it is likely that another meeting of the directors will be held before the matter is placed before the members. There was considerable dissatisfaction when the meeting broke up on Saturday, and it is regarded as unlikely that the directors themselves can reach an agreement. Meanwhile, Mr. Henry Miles, as secretary, has received no notification to call another meeting.

PLOUFFE'S FIRST INJURY NOT FATAL IS THE TESTIMONY

Special to the Montreal Star.

Three Rivers, March 14.—The preliminary investigation in the case of Hormisdas Trepanier, charged with the murder of Maurice Plouffe, was opened yesterday afternoon, before Magistrate Desilets. The first witnesses were Messrs. Eugene and Hector Doucet, who discovered the body of the victim.

Dr. C. A. Bourgeois gave his report of the autopsy, and declared that there must have been at least one hour between the blow which fractured the skull of the victim, and the cuts on his throat which severed the jugular artery. The fracture of the skull was not necessarily fatal, and death, he stated, was caused by the cuts. The doctor could not explain in what position the blows had been given.

Baby's Body is Found in Snow

Buried in a pile of snow at the corner of Vinet and Albert streets, the body of a baby girl was found at 7.30 this morning, by a corporation employe, who was shovelling snow. No covering other than a newspaper was on the child, and it appeared to have been for several months frozen in the snow. Constable Narbonne took charge of the body, and it was taken to the morgue this morning. An autopsy will be held this afternoon.

IGNORANCE OF FRENCH LEADS TO LOSS OF ACTION

Plaintiff Did Not Understand, But Judge Says "No Excuse," and Gives Adverse Judgment.

Legal documents served on Mr. Hamilton Andrews by Mr. E. L. Vaugh were ignored by the former because they were written in French. In fact, it seems that he was unaware that he was being sued. Now Mr. Justice Tellier has given judgment declaring that this was no excuse and that he will have to suffer the consequences.

The action was entered in February, 1909, but it was only when judgment was rendered by default and the plaintiff wanted to get the judgment enforced that Mr. Andrews realized the importance of the papers he had received. Through his lawyers, he then applied for permission to have the judgment suspended at least while he could oppose the plaintiff on the merit of the claim.

His petition, however, was refused by Mr. Justice Tellier on the ground that Mr. Andrews had had opportunity to realize his position and that a man is inexcusable for ignoring papers bearing the legal stamps, even if such papers are written in a language he does not know.

FIND NO JUDGE MUST STAY IN JAIL.

Prisoners who were booked for voluntary statement in the Court of Special Sessions this morning were somewhat surprised to find that there was no judge awaiting them when they appeared in Court. The result was that they were locked up and will have to remain in jail, without bail until the arrival of Judge Langelier, who will replace Judge Choquet in the Court of Special Session during the latter's absence in Europe.

CHALMERS-MOTOR-CO Detroit, Mich. U.S.A.

This monogram on the radiator stands for all you can ask in a motor car.

HERE'S JUST ABOUT ALL YOU CAN ASK IN A MOTOR CAR

THE CHALMERS "FORTY" meets the motorist's maximum desire in every direction. It has as much room as any car made. It will carry seven and still have "room for one more."

The 40 h.p. motor gives all the power you can use at any time—the power for a mile-a-minute speed, for scampering over hills, for faultless pulling in mud or sand has beauty and finish that suits those who demand the utmost. Handbuffed leather of the finest quality is used in the upholstering. Dash, heel boards and door strips are Circassian walnut. The painting of a "Forty" is done with extreme care.

The extra long wheel base, the staunch double drop frame, the tilted seats and the long three-quarter elliptic springs make this car as comfortable for the aged as for the vigorous.

$3,800, including fore-door body, Bosch magneto, Prest-o-Lite tank and gas lamps.

Touring car, five or seven seats: Torpedo, four seats. Roadster, two, three or four seats.

Laurentide Meeting Called--New "Soo" Stock--More Winnipeg Stock

DETROIT IS UP, TEXTILE 75, "SOO" EASIER

There was quite a little buoyancy in the markets to-day, with Textile and Detroit the local features.

The spurt in Detroit has long been predicted, and is, no doubt, based as much as anything on tangible results—namely, earnings, it being pointed out the other day that the road (not allowing for depreciation) is earning at the rate of slightly over 13 per cent. on the capital.

Laurentide was up again on the definite announcement that the long-looked-for reorganization is in sight.

Textile Was Up.

Textile was active, touching 75, the trading being pretty general. Further developments are looked for, as the "Street" takes the sordid view that the insiders did not buy that 10,000 shares for their health, and that there must be something doing.

Winnipeg Railway was up to 194½ bid.

In Wall Street

A wire to E. & C. Randolph said: "Transactions, although on a small scale, have been decidedly larger than yesterday's, as the market has advanced from ½ to 3 p.c. Money on time and call continues to be a drug, which certainly indicates that the bankers do not fear the decisions from the Supreme Court in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases, whether they be favorable or unfavorable. The enormous reserves of the National City Bank, which are attracting so much attention, probably indicate that, in the case of adverse decisions, the Standard Oil people are prepared to buy stock. To think that Wall Street can be shocked or surprised by a radically adverse decision in the Standard Oil or Tobacco case, seems to us to be absurd. The conditions above referred to mean that the situation is discounted, and the larger interests here are prepared."

A BIG PANIC 4 YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Four years ago to-day there was an overwhelming collapse in the stock market, the first break of the great 1907 panic.

Stocks fell all the way from 2 to 16 points, and call money ran up to 25 per cent.

Union Pacific dropped 8 points to 138. "Soo" sold at 107, and C.P.R. at 170½. The next day the market rallied and regained nearly all of the lost ground.

TWO INSIDERS IN RUBBER "POOL" RATTED

The many Montrealers who had big profits in U. S. Rubber stock and didn't take them, only to see them fade away in an 8 point break, will be interested in the assertion made by Adams in the Boston News Bureau as to the cause of the decline.

He states that two New Yorkers in the "pool" played false with their associates by dumping their stock on the market. He says that the talk of a dividend will be revived just as soon as these insiders get their stock back again.

One message received yesterday stated that a dividend is a possibility in April. The company's earnings are very large.

New Dividends

The regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. has been declared on Laurentide common, payable April 1st to shareholders of March 24th.

The regular quarterly dividend of 2 p.c. has been declared on Ogilvie common, payable April 1st to shareholders of March 20th.

A quarterly dividend of 1 per cent. has been declared by Canadian Consolidated Rubber, payable April 1st, also the usual 1¾ per cent. on the preferred stock.

A quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent. has been declared on Canadian Consolidated Felt preferred, payable April 1st.

The Attractive Features About Penman's Stock

Speaking of Penman's common, McCuaig Bros. say in part: "Considering the large surplus after the payment of the common stock dividend, that was shown in 1909 and 1910, an increase in the rate could be conservatively made at any time. Penman's common would, therefore, appear to be one of the most promising speculative investments on the list. At 61 it affords a return of 6½ per cent.

	Pfd. p.c.	Com. p.c.
1908	17.8	5.9
1909	29.2	11.6
1910	26.1	10.0

"In 1910 the net profits of the company showed a decrease of $23,646 as compared with the previous year, the falling off being due to increased cost of raw material and higher wages. While this showing was not quite as good as had been anticipated, it is very satisfactory. It might be noted that the percentage earned on the common stock in the past four years averages nearly 9 per cent., or more than double the present dividend rate."

SIR WILLIAM CALLS MEETING OF LAURENTIDE

In a circular to the shareholders, Sir William Van Horne says:

"Your directors are of the opinion that the time has arrived when the progress and development of the company's business render it advisable that a reorganization should be effected.

"After careful consideration, your directors think this can be best accomplished by the incorporation of a new company with an increased authorized capital sufficient to meet the requirements for future extensions of the business in all its branches.

"The new company will acquire the shares, and as soon as practicable the entire assets and undertaking of the present company, upon such terms as will afford every shareholder of the present company fair and equitable treatment."

This means presumably that the plan to double the capital and put the new stock on a 5 or 6 per cent. basis will be carried out.

BUYERS OF C. P. R. STOCK.

A wire to Shearson, Hammill & Co. said: "Austin Gray & Co. bought 1500 C.P.R. London was also a buyer."

$100,000,000

MAY CUT ITS DIVIDEND.

Baltimore & Ohio is just earning its 6 p.c. dividend and no more. There are rumors that the rate will be cut.

A WOMAN AND HER MONEY

They want security and, at the same time, a liberal rate of interest—5, and even 6 or 6½ per cent.

He points out some of the investment pitfalls, and, in consequence, the men will find profit in reading the articles, too.

DIVIDEND ON BANK OF ENGLAND.

The latest return of the Bank of England shows that the "rest" was brought up to £3,676,613, an infallible prognostication of the dividend.

The now usual rate of 9 per cent. would leave the rest at £3,033,728, so that rate may be looked for.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

It is said that Hon. James Dunsmuir, of Victoria, who was elected a director of the C.P.R. over two years ago, has never attended a meeting of the board.

Mr. Dunsmuir is a pretty busy man, and, as he frequently moves between London and Vancouver, 8,000 miles or so, it happens that he has never been in Montreal on a board meeting day.

It is also interesting to note that Lord Strathcona has never been able to attend a meeting of C.P.R. directors since he was appointed High Commissioner.

Britannia rules the waves, but at some expense. England will spend $222,000,000 on the navy this year.

On the 22nd of last month four prominent Liberals were lunching together down-town, and there was considerable hilarity over a joke one of the four had just told.

A prominent financier came along just then, looked at the group, and said:

"Hello, are you chaps celebrating Washington's Birthday already?"

He passed on out of sight before any one of them could think up a suitable reply.

A report from Augusta, Georgia, says that President Taft and John D. Rockefeller are going to play golf.

Street Ry's Surplus for Four Months

In January Montreal Street Railway showed an increase of 13 3-4 per cent. in gross earnings and a gain of $6,115, on 7 11 per cent. in the surplus.

For the four months ending January the surplus was $450,000, an increase of $22,903 or 5 3-5 per cent. The four months' statement is as follows:—

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, March 14.—At the meeting of the City Council last night, Mayor Sanford Evans announced that power would be sought from the Legislature this session to submit a by-law to the ratepayers of this city to authorize the city to purchase the power, lighting and street railway plants of the Winnipeg Street Railway Co.

BIG PARTY OF RICH MEN GO TO SEE WEST

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, March 14.—A party of British financiers representing many millions of dollars capital, has left Toronto for the west, accompanied by Mr. Aemilius Jarvis, in the private car "Canada."

The party, which will go through to the Pacific Coast, will inspect the Canadian Northern lines in the west, and visit all the principal points en route, and on returning to England will present a report to the various interests concerned.

Mr. J. Leigh Wood, a member of the London banking house of Brown, Shipley & Company.

Mr. F. E. S. Balfour, connected with the financial firm of Rowe & Pittman.

Mr. Ernest Anson, M. Inst. C. E., a prominent mining engineer, and Mr. Walter Hargraves Brown, a son of Mr. Alexander Brown, head of Brown, Shipley & Company.

Lawson Sees A Galloping Bull Market

(T. W. Lawson.)

The tax decision, added to the fade decision, clears the way for the coming trust decision, which all three-eyed students of finance and government feel will be along the broad lines of statesmanship, rather than along the narrow one of legal hair-splitting.

If that cloud which is moving over the crest of the hill of prosperity doesn't mean a galloping bull market then we old-timers have barnacled our two and two-four apparatus in vain.

LA ROSE BOARD MEETS MARCH 20

Directors of Nipissing and La Rose meet in New York on March 20th, for dividend action. In the case of Nipissing the usual quarterly rate, namely 5 p.c. and 2½ p.c. extra, will be ordered.

On La Rose it is uncertain whether the dividend will be continued at the rate of 2 p.c. quarterly or will be increased. La Rose has $1,200,000 cash assets, which include ore in transit and process of refining, an amount amply sufficient to permit of a higher dividend, but Mr. McGibbon and his co-directors are running things on a business-like basis, and are not likely to make an increase until they are absolutely sure of their footing.

"NIP'S" FINE SURPLUS.

On February 18th, 1911, Nipissing had a surplus of $1,125,816 in cash on hand, ore in transit, at smelters, and at mines ready for shipment.

New York, March 14. — An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed to-day against Burr Brothers, Inc., dealers in stocks, whose offices were raided by Federal authorities last November.

CHATS ON CHANCE.

The Dominion Department of Agriculture has made the first issue of a series of monthly bulletins to be published called the Publications of the International Agricultural Institute.

In the issue just published a recapitulation of the world's wheat production for 1910 as compared with that for 1909 is presented as follows:

MILLFEED STILL SCARCE.

A firm feeling prevails in the market for bran and shorts, owing to the limited supplies and steady demand.

Ontario bran, $22 to $23; Ontario middlings, $24 to $25; Manitoba bran, $21 to $23; Manitoba shorts, $23 to $25; pure grain mouillie, $30; mixed mouillie, $25 to $28.

HAY PRICES ABOUT STEADY.

No. 1 choice, $10 to $10.50; extra No. 2, $9 to $9.50; ordinary No. 2, $8 to $8.50; clover, mixed, $7 to $7.50; clover, $6 to $6.50, car lots.

FLOUR TRADE WAS SMALL.

Prices on all grades of flour are steady, though the volume of business to-day was on the small side.

Manitoba spring wheat patents, firsts, 5.60; do. seconds, $5.10; winter wheat patents, $4.75 to $4.90; Manitoba strong bakers, $4.90; straight rollers, $4.25 to $4.35; do. in bags, $1.90 to $2; extras, $1.60 to $1.70.

WAR SCARE RUMOR PUT WHEAT HIGHER

Chicago, March 14 — Wheat ruled higher, May selling at 88½ to 90¼, and July at 88⅜ to 89¼, compared with 90¾ and 88⅝ respectively one year ago. There was a weak tone in wheat early, and further losses were made on an attack made by room traders, who felt that with James A. Patten, of Chicago; Charles E. Lewis, of Minneapolis, and John T. Milliken, of St. Louis, and a thousand and one smaller speculators on the bear side of the market, there was little chance for a bull to make any money.

When prices were at the weakest, a Japanese war scare rumor bobbed up, which, with garbled reports on the condition of the plant in Kansas, ran the shorts to cover. On the advance the Patten - Lewis - Cutten - Milliken crowd walled up all comers, and the result was reaction and rally from the lowest prices reached. Crop news was favorable from both sides of the Atlantic, and all the foreign markets were lower, save slight hardenings at Paris and Berlin.

Primary receipts of wheat to-day were 428,000 bushels, against 603,000 bushels one year ago. North-western wheat receipts were 278 cars, compared with 481 one year ago.

The European visible supply increased 164,000 bushels for the past week, against an increase of 3,800,000 bushels one year ago. The total is now 113,852,000 bushels; a year ago 26,708,000 bushels. The world's available supply of wheat, as compiled by Bradstreet's decreased 1,700,000 bushels, against an increase of 4,531,000 bushels one year ago.

Liverpool was ⅝ to ¼d lower, Antwerp was off ⅛c, Buda Pest was ½c lower, and Paris was unchanged to ¼c lower.

J. P. PRITCHARD.

EGG PRICES ARE LOWER.

Receipts of eggs, 819 cases, compared with 18 a year ago. An active trade is passing, but supplies are ample to fill all requirements. Strictly new laid, 28c; selected cold storage, 23c; No. 1 stock, 20c; and No. 2 stock, 18c per dozen.

A BRIBE FOR ROBIN.

Special to the Montreal Star.

New York, March 14.—Jospeh G. Robin, self-confessed bank wrecker, confessed to-day in the Tombs that he had been approached with an offer of $500,000 to keep silent about his financial secrets and go back on his promise to stand by District Attorney in investigation now going on into the affairs of the Carnegie Trust Company.

"When I refused," he said, "the bearer of the bribe threatened to "get" me. When I asked how he could "get" me when I would be in prison, he replied, "we might get you through your sister."

A STRIKE AT THE "SOO."

Special to The Montreal Star.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., March 14.—This morning 26 electricians employed by the Lake Superior Corporation in the rail mill went on strike, alleging that the management had dispensed with the services of Electrician J. Wilson, yesterday, without cause.

MUNROE HAS STARTED ON HIS DEFENCE

New York, March 14.—The defence of George H. Munroe, formerly of Montreal, to the three sets of charges of misuse of the mails in connection with alleged fraudulent stock sales upon which he is being tried in the Federal Court here began to-day.

George H. Robinson, the first witness for the defence, was on the stand regarding an agreement alleged to have been entered into between him and Frank L. Chocker, Munroe's counsel, and Dr. John A. Munroe, of Saranac Lake, N. Y., the defendant's brother, in 1908.

Robinson, who is said to have been a salesman in this country for English Marconi Wireless Company stock, testified in direct examination to delivering some shares of English Marconi to purchasers in 1908. He was then closely cross questioned by the defense.

DOMINION SECURITIES CORPORATION LIMITED

Security of Interest

If the first essential of a good bond is "security of principal," the second is assuredly, "security of interest."

To see this point clearly by contrast, suppose for instance, that a company buying $1,000,000 worth of real estate, pays for part of it with $500,000 borrowed on bonds. The principal of the bondholders thus appears reasonably secure. This real estate, however, may be undeveloped and held for speculation. If the favorable time to sell is delayed, the company may be pressed for money to pay the bond interest, for the property is not earning and it cannot be sold except at a loss. The security of interest therefore, is not so certain by any means as the security of principal.

To complete the contrast, consider the P. Burns & Company 6% Bonds. This concern is in no sense speculative. Its assets, 2½ times greater than its bond indebtedness, consist of properties all earning incomes. The history of the Company is a history of steadily increasing profits.

For four years past the net earnings have been more than double the bond interest, which thus makes "security of interest" ample.

Nothing can stop the growth of Western Canada, and every step of its development means greater strength and larger profits for P. Burns & Company.

ONTARIO'S FINAL ESTIMATES DOWN

Toronto, March 14. — Further and final supplementary estimates for the provincial financial year ending October 31, 1911, have been tabled in the Legislature. They provide for the expenditure of $704,512, which, added to the main estimates brought down last session and the first supplementaries brought down on January 31, make up a total expenditure for the current year of $10,987,299.

Of the total amount of $704,512 provided for, the greater bulk, or $543,879, will go for colonization roads and public works in the newer districts of Ontario. A large portion of the balance is devoted to salary increases for civil servants.

Considerable progress was made in the Legislature in clearing the way for the resumption of the reciprocity debate. An important amendment was made in Hon. Mr. Matheson's tax bill, by which the tax of 2 cents on stock transfers must be paid by the seller instead of the buyer.

"We, the students of the Wesleyan Theological College, assembled together on this dread and sorrowful occasion, desire to put on record the deep love and high esteem in which we held our late principal, the Rev. William I. Shaw, B.C., L.L.D., D.C.L. Some of us have known him for years, and the more we knew of him the better we loved him, for to us he was a wise teacher, a true guide, a faithful friend.

"We loved him for his unfailing devotion to true principles, because he desired that we should attain to the highest development of Christian character and usefulness in the Methodist ministry. His profound learning, his high attainment commanded our respect; his thoughtful kindliness, his Christian tenderness, make our hearts throb with deep emotion at our unutterable loss.

"We desire in all our sorrow to respectfully present to Mrs. Shaw and the members of the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy, praying that our God may grant them all grace in this hour of deep affliction, that He will be a Father to the fatherless, and a Husband to the widow."

The pall bearers at the funeral today were: Rev. Dr. Scrimger, Principal Presbyterian Theological College; Rev. Dr. Rexford, Principal Diocesan Theological College; Dr. W. M. Patton, acting-Principal, Wesleyan Theological College; Mr. Wm. Hanson, treasurer of the Wesleyan College; Alderman S. J. Carter, and Mr. C. C. Holland.

BUTTE CENTRAL COPPER

The properties of the Butte Central Copper Company are located in Butte, Montana, where more copper is produced annually than in any other mining district in the world, and where failures are practically unknown.

All drifts in the Ophir claim of the Company are in ore. An immense tonnage of milling ore is already blocked out. Sinking is going on rapidly, last week a station was being cut at the 600-foot level and development on upper levels is pushed rapidly.

This stock has not only a speculative value, but is a mining investment as well. It has been, since listing a short time ago, one of the leading trading issues on the Boston Curb Exchange. Full particulars and quotations will be furnished on request.

Bonds in excess of $16,000,000 can only be issued to pay for 80 per cent. of the cost of future extensions, betterments and improvements. $1,000,000 bonds are held in the Treasury to be issued as and when required.

Mississippi River Power Company is now constructing a Hydro-Electric Plant on the Mississippi River at Keokuk, Iowa. Initial development, 120,000 delivered horse-power, of which 60,000 horse-power has been contracted for already; ultimate capacity 200,000 delivered horse-power.

Construction of hydro-electric plant is progressing steadily and satisfactorily, and it is estimated that the initial development of 120,000 delivered horse-power will be completed by July 1, 1913.

We recommend these bonds for the following reasons:—

(1) The territory within power-transmission distance embraces a population of over 4,500,000.
(2) The strategic position of the plant gives access to a large and important market in which the only competition is power produced from coal at a much higher cost.
(3) An assured gross income from contracts already made covering delivery of 60,000 H.P., sufficient to pay operating expenses and interest on the present issue of bonds.
(4) With the estimated sale of at least an additional 25,000 H.P. during the construction period, it is estimated that the net earnings will be largely in excess of bond interest requirements. These earnings should be greatly increased upon the sale of the entire initial development of 120,000 H.P.
(5) Sinking Fund of 1% of outstanding bonds, beginning 1916, will be sufficient to retire 33 per cent. of the issue prior to maturity.
(6) A substantial cash equity behind the bonds.

CONSTRUCTION AND OPERATION

Messrs. Cooper & Powelson, of New York, will have direct charge of the hydraulic construction, and the Stone & Webster Engineering Corporation will have direct charge of the electrical installation, including the transmission and distributing lines.

The Stone & Webster Management Association will manage the property and during the construction period will have charge of the sale of power. The firms named have all had large experience in this class of work, and the Company's interests could not be in more capable hands.

The New Hats

There is another feature in the new Millinery which we would like to bring to your notice. It is the hat with the brim turned away from the face. This particular hat will receive the post of honor in our Monday's Millinery exhibition. This hat has a wealth garden of flowers. Some designs of it have touches of cerise, and others deep mauve, and some touches of the new King's blue.

While it is a hat of an entirely different nature from the "Helmet" hat, it partakes enough of the military in its sharp, clean-cut lines, to make it very companionable to the Helmet Hat.

Good Wash Goods
Fresh and Dainty Too

We have good ginghams at .10 per yard. We have good white Swiss crossbar muslins and white striped muslins and embroidered spot muslins, and embroidered figures muslins, fresh, spotless and dainty, at from .15 to .75.

We have white Piques at from .25 to .45 and just this shall we say for them, we are proud of their quality.

We have a most exceptionally fine range of linen and cotton suitings in almost any good color that you could wish for for Spring. Some at .15, some at .18, some at .25. Others up to .45, and the 45 cent ones you should know, are absolutely pure linen—every thread, and like the best of our linen damasks, have been subjected to the Old Bleach Process, and the Old Bleach simply means, the "sun and meadow" bleaching, instituted in the days of our grandmothers before the world was in a hurry.

As for Silk muslins, we have already disposed of two entire shipments this Spring and the third, bringing us a pattern more beautiful still, will be all ready for you in our Department on Wednesday morning. An entirely new design in the very newest shades at, per yard.... .39

MONTREAL GENERAL HOSPITAL

ESTABLISHED 1823

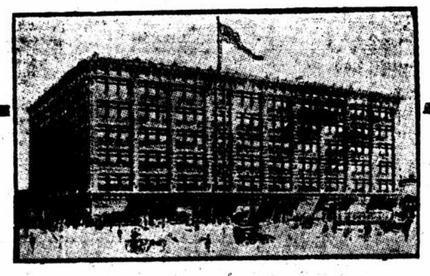

Supported Entirely by Voluntary Subscriptions

Through the generosity of the public, the Montreal General Hospital has been supported for the past eighty-seven years on a scale commensurate with the needs of the community.

The unprecedented growth of the city during the past five years has so enlarged the demands upon the institution by the suffering public as to necessitate the reconstruction of the Hospital buildings.

The modernized Montreal General Hospital will be fireproof, and will embrace the latest improvements in hospital architecture and equipment.

This important undertaking, necessitating increased expenditure for maintenance, has been assumed by the Committee of Management, in the full hope that the public will recognize the growing claims of this venerable institution.

WEEPS AS HE TELLS OF FATAL FIGHT; MOTHER ILL OF GRIEF

Casavant Claims Bigras First Attacked Him and Death Due to Fall.

In the Court of King's Bench yesterday afternoon Rosario Casavant, who is charged with the murder of Ernest Bigras, told his story of the tragedy. He wept in the box and told Crown Prosecutor Walsh not to be too harsh to him, as he was telling the truth. He said that the Saturday before the alleged murder he had been badly beaten by Bigras, so badly in fact that he had to be carried to his home afterwards.

On December 23 he was working near the crossing of the tracks, when Bigras came by and threatened him. When Bigras returned Casavant tried to hide in the gate-keeper's shanty, but as it is against the company's rules to permit any but their employes in such buildings, Robidoux ordered him out. As he came out Bigras hit him on the mouth. Casavant did not strike back. Bigras hit at him again, but the blow was parried. Then Casavant struck Bigras, who fell and hit his head against the sidewalk. He was soon on his feet again, and Casavant, fearing further bodily injury, picked up a stick, and swinging it in front of him said: "Do not come near me or I will strike you." Bigras came near enough for the stick to hit his elbow, and then suddenly raising his hand to the back of his head he asked Casavant not to strike him, as he was very badly hurt. Casavant threw away the stick and started to run. Bigras picked it up and started after him, but ran headforemost into a wall and fell.

The mother of the victim was called to the box to testify, but was so overcome with grief from the recent death of her son that no questions were put to her.

The case was adjourned for argument.

NO HOUSE DELIVERY FOR MONTREAL ICE.

Dr. Louis Laberge, Medical Health Officer, has informed the ice dealers that he had decided to report against the proposition to deliver ice directly in houses during the coming summer. Dr. Laberge and Dr. McCarrey, the Chief Food Inspector, reported to the Board of Control that such action would mean a stiff advance in cost to the consumer.

STOMACH DISTRESS IS ENDED FOREVER

Indigestion, Stomach Gas, Sourness, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Will Be Relieved in Five Minutes.

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin, and let you eat one 22-grain Triangle and see if within five minutes there is left any trace of your former misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring, the Digestive organs, become weak, there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fulness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, billousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness or many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of indigested food.

Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Gold Dust
makes dish water that digs

GOLD DUST offers the shortest cut from the drudgery of dish washing. Just a little GOLD DUST shaken in your dish water will remove the grease and dirt.

GOLD DUST digs deep into cracks and corners—purifies and drives out every bit of dirt or hidden germs which soap and water will not reach. GOLD DUST sterilizes as well as cleans.

If you spend two hours a day washing dishes, GOLD DUST will enable you to save one hour—and your dishes, too, will be spotlessly white, wholesome and sanitary.

GOLD DUST is sold in 5¢ size and large packages. The large package offers greater economy.

COMES FROM APPLE HILL TO FAIRMOUNT CHURCH

REV. HENRY S. LEE.

Rev. H. S. Lee, B.A., who has accepted a call to Fairmount Presbyterian church, is the son of Rev. Archibald Lee, B.A., of Gordon Church, St. Elmo, Ont., familiar to many as the scene of Ralph Connor's Glengarry stories

Mr. Lee is a graduate of McGill and the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

For the past four years he has been pastor of the Congregation of Apple Hill, in the Presbytery of Glengarry, during which time the church has made substantial progress.

The membership has increased and a debt of about $2,000 has been paid off.

At the meeting of the Glengarry Presbytery the representatives of the Apple Hill congregation spoke very highly of the work Mr. Lee has done, the esteem in which he is held by the people, and the general desire that he should remain with them.

Attractive Course of Lectures.

The Local Council of Women offers to its members a series of lectures by speakers whose scholarship and charm have long been recognized. The first of the series, which is by Prof. Brodie-Brockwell, on Primitive Hebrew Women will be open to all friends of the Council, both men and women. It will be given in the Ladies' Parlors of Emmanuel Church at 8.15 to-night. As Prof. Brodie-Brockwell finds reason to differ from other authorities in the interpretation of certain passages of Holy Writ concerning women, the lecture will probably be of exceptional interest to many people.

Other lectures in the course are as follows:

Tuesday, March 28th, The Position of Women in Ancient Greece, by Miss G. Hunter, B.A.; The Position of Women in Ancient Rome, by Mrs. Irwin, M.A.

Tuesday, April 4th, The Status of Women in Canada, by Mrs. John Savage.

Tuesday April 11th, The Position of Women in Industrial England, by Miss Ethel Hurlbatt, M.A.

Tuesday, April 18th, Woman Suffrage, by Miss C. M. Derrick, M.A.

ICE HARVEST IS FINISHED FOR SEASON

300,000 Tons of Material is Stored Here

Dangers to Men Engaged in Working on the Task are Many.

Montreal's ice harvest has been reaped, and with it the attendant dangers to those engaged in the work have passed.

Saturday saw the last of the cold tons put into storage, but the season did not close without loss to dealers and the disappearance for all time of at least one splendid team of horses, sleigh, harness and all the trappings belonging to the outfit. There were many narrow escapes from death, and in some cases the rescues were heroic and even wonderful.

Ice dealers told the "Star" to-day that this season had been a very hard one in many ways; consequently there was more difficulty experienced in procuring the city's supply than there is generally. The main difficulty to contend with is the "frazile" which is not infrequently a snare to the workers on the river above Victoria Bridge outside of Nun's Island, where most of the city ice is cut from. Added to the quantities of frazile which constantly come down the river, the snow has been piled feet deep along the field of operations, the liquid slush and frazile has been encountered under the ice to a depth of ten feet in places and the flooding of the top ice through the holes has been of frequent happening.

Thus innocent-looking traps were laid by Nature in the midst of the men and horses engaged in hauling ice all winter. With apparently solid footing ahead of them, there were some occasions this season when the first intimation of real danger was the horses' suddenly plunging out of sight in the treacherous stretches when drivers had to jump for their lives. The several teams which suffered this winter walked leisurely into the engulfing watery pit and disappeared as through a huge trap door. At different times long skids, which had done service for transferring the great ice blocks, were hurriedly brought into requisition, and after mighty efforts on the part of all present the struggling and half-frozen horses were taken from what seemed almost certain death. A team belonging to the Ewart Ice Co., went into the luring frazile, and though all the help that could be mustered was brought to the scene of the accident, the horses were lost.

However, with the accidents which are bound to happen in this cold and precarious trade, the merchants report with the closing of the season on Saturday last that they have now stored for use of the citizens in the hot weather some 360,000 tons of the acceptable article, which Montreal householders are so pleased to have delivered at their doors in the hot days of summer, and about the gathering of which they have generally known so little. Of this amount 250,000 tons were harvested in the vicinity of Montreal and the rest has been brought from outside points.

FATHER McDONAGH MOVES FROM ST. AGNES TO ST. ALOYSIUS.

Rev. Father W. E. McDonagh, who for the past two years has been stationed at St. Agnes's Parish Church, has been appointed first curate to the Rev. Father M. L. Shea, pastor of St. Aloysius parish.

Father McDonagh has been stationed at St. Agnes's Church since his ordination about two years ago, and has already acquired a reputation as a pulpit orator.

REQUIRE MANY ROOMS FOR TETRAZZINI'S COMFORT

Luisa Tetrazzini will arrive in Montreal three days in advance of her concert and will devote the time to renewing old friendships and sightseeing. The Windsor Hotel has received telegraphic instructions from W. H. Leahy, manager of Tetrazzini, to reserve fourteen of the best rooms. Frank W. Leahy, personal representative for W. H. Leahy, is registered at the Corona.

FATHER McSHANE RECEIVES GIFTS.

At St. Patrick's Hall last night, Rev. Father Gerald McShane, pastor of St. Patrick's, was made the recipient of several handsome gifts from the different organizations and societies of his parish. Testimonials were also presented in the afternoon from St. Patrick's A. A., and the pupils of St. Patrick's Academy. The occasion was the celebrating of his feast day.

HOTEL METROPOLE LOSES LICENSE IMMEDIATELY.

Yesterday Recorder Weir handed down judgment on the charge against the Hotel Metropole for selling after hours a week ago. He fined the proprietor $25 and cancelled the license.

A Calgary despatch states that a number of "ready-made" farms are completed, awaiting the arrival of a party from England.

Suggests 'Ankle' Not 'Harem' Skirt

Harry Furniss, Famous Caricaturist, Says New Style Hygienic and Comfortable.

London, March 14.—Harry Furniss, artist, champions the cause of the harem skirt in a statement in the "Times." He suggests that it should be made a permanent fashion, as, from the point of view of common sense, comfort and hygiene, the garment is far preferable to the present microbe-gathering costumes.

Instead of the "harem," however, he would call it the "ankle" skirt.

Preparations for Rush of Tourists, I.C.R. Busy Repairing and Building Passenger Cars.

Anticipating a busy season of summer travel, a large number of passenger cars are being thoroughly renovated and rebuilt at the I.C.R. shops, and there is considerable activity on this account, as it is the desire of the management to have every piece of rolling stock in thorough repair before the rush of summer travel commences.

The cars of the Ocean Limited express are being thoroughly overhauled, repainted, varnished and upholstered, and this famous train will go on the route when summer commences with a thoroughly renewed equipment, equal in elegance and comfort to the best through trains on the continent.

Inspecting His Own Stomach

Canadian From Alberta Who Had Stomach Cut Out Goes to See It In Bottle.

Special to the Montreal Star.

"Yes," said Sykes, "I hadn't seen it for a year. True, it gave me lots of trouble while I had it, and I have got along well enough since, but then, you know, I once had a personal interest is my stomach, and I wanted to see it in a glass bottle. If I had kept it I would have been dead long ago."

"If your stomach doesn't agree with you, have it cut out." That's what Sykes commends. The doctors a year ago gave him one month to live, and told him he had one chance in a hundred of surviving the operation. He took the chance.

Last summer he raised several thousand bushels of wheat on his 500-acre farm in Southern Alberta, and will go back this spring to raise more wheat and to once again enjoy life.

Among other things that Sykes enjoys are three square meals a day. He says he eats anything that anyone else would eat, and never felt better in his life, but he doesn't disclose his secret. Neither will the physicians.

Lightning Played Strange Pranks

Sleepers Unharmed, But Furniture in Room Torn to Pieces—House Set Ablaze.

Harrisonburg, Va., March 14. — A lightning bolt that in its freak peregrinations parted at an iron bed, left unharmed a couple sleeping there, while it destroyed chairs and pictures and other furniture in the room, caused the destruction by fire of the two storey frame home of David Fulk, near Singer's Glen yesterday.

The electric fluid shattered the roof of the house, set fire to a vacant bed, darted into the lower room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fulk, divided at their iron bedstead, wrought havoc in the room all about them, shot out into the kitchen, demolished sideboard and chairs, shattered every window, and left a trail of flame through the structure. The terrified couple escaped in their night clothes.

Death of Bridgetown Clergyman.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Bridgetown, N.S., March 14. —Rev. W. H. Warren, who was in his usual state of good health up to yesterday morning, was suddenly attacked with appendicitis, and died at noon.

Mr. Wm. Gerherty, of Toronto, fell off a York Street car in Hamilton, Ont., last night, sustaining fatal injuries.

St. Mary's Cuts Allan Cup.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Calgary, March 14.—St. Mary's will not play for the Allan Cup this year. Bert Sparrow, captain and star wing man was attacked with appendicitis Sunday. St. Mary's had no spare man to take his place as one of the players turned professional a few weeks ago.

Mr. John A. Misener, of Dartmouth, N.S., died of apoplexy within an hour after leaving an anniversary celebration at Waverley Methodist Church last night.

SMOKE COST LIFE OF MR. J. C. GIASSON.

Devotion to his pipe cost the life of Mr. J. G. Giasson who died last night at Notre Dame Hospital. A fortnight ago, when cleaning a pair of gloves at his home 1250 St. Hubert street, Mr. Giasson placed them on his hands and rubbed them with gasoline, meanwhile continuing to smoke. The gasoline ignited, and Mr. Giasson was severely burned. He died last night.

Mr. Giasson is survived by a widow and five children. The funeral will take place on Thursday morning with a service at St. Jean Baptiste Church.

ON RECIPROCITY.

Canadian Club Holds Special Meeting Thursday to Hear Mr. J. Ellis Barker.

The Canadian Club will hold a special meeting on Thursday at 1 o'clock at the Sailors' Institute to hear Mr. J. Ellis Barker, of London, Eng., discuss the question of Reciprocity from an economic view. He is an economist and author of note, and he has been touring Canada making a study of conditions here.

Queen Orders Irish Lace.

French Hand-Made Lingerie

There is very little question as to whether the well dressed woman prefers "FRENCH HAND-MADE LINGERIE" to any other kind.

It is not only most preferable from a point of exclusiveness in design, but it is far more serviceable than the dainty machine-made goods.

HERETOFORE French Lingerie was considered a great luxury, the price being far beyond the reach of the average pocketbook.

TO-DAY we are importing tremendous quantities of this work, and have succeeded in bringing out a great many specially low priced lines.

TO-DAY you can buy in our Whitewear Department high grade French Lingerie at prices equal to the ordinary Whitewear, and you can have a choice of a fine assortment of styles.

Toronto Lady Fatally Burned.

Toronto, March 14.— Mrs. H. M. McArthur, 122 Kenilworth avenue, was burned to death last evening. She was pouring coal oil on the fire, when the oil ignited and blazed up, badly burning her face, hands and breast.

Her three children, the youngest only two weeks old, were all ill with measles, and the unfortunate woman fell dead before a sofa on which her eldest boy was lying. The sick lad ran several blocks to give the alarm to his father, a hardware merchant, at Queen and Kenilworth avenue.

Dr. Henry P. Bowditch Dead.

Boston, Mass., March 14.—Dr. Henry Pickering Bowditch, an eminent physiologist and formerly professor at the Harvard Medical School, is dead at his home in Jamaica Plain, aged 71. He was an international authority in his special field.

William Clinto, a fireman, was killed and another man seriously injured, as well as $200,000 property loss caused by fire at the American Wood Products Company's plant, at Buffalo, N. Y., last night.

Nova Scotia School Statistics.

Halifax, N.S., March 14.—The report of the superintendent of education, laid on the table of the House of Assembly, shows a total enrollment of 104,341 pupils in the common schools, night schools and academies of Nova Scotia.

There are in operation 2,579 common schools. Of 1,804 school sections in the province, 111 sections are without a school; an increase of seven during the year.

...ONVILLE, Ont.—Moses B. Hem... is dead.

Montmagny Man Electrocuted.

Belleville, Ont., March 14.—Henri Valee, a French-Canadian telephone lineman, was electrocuted yesterday afternoon by touching a live wire of the Trenton Electric Power line. Valee was 27 years old, and was from Montmagny county, Quebec, where he was to have been married next week. An inquest will be held.

The Hull, Que., City Council has cut off only one license, at Tetreauville, leaving Hull with fourteen liquor places. A big reduction had been expected.

Ottawa Assn. Tenders Sympathy.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, March 14.—The Methodist Ministerial Association of Ottawa has passed a resolution of sympathy in the death of Rev. W. I. Shaw, of Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal.

It was resolved that such a loss was a severe one to the Methodist Church ... during his thirty-seven years' work in Wesleyan College he has exerted a commanding influence over the educational life of the province of Quebec.

Vera Cruz Prisoners Escape.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, March 14.—Overpowering and killing the guard who opened the doors of the jail early yesterday to give them their coffee, 40 prisoners escaped. From the jail to the outskirts of the city, a fight was waged between policemen and prisoners, but all except two escaped. One prisoner was captured and one was killed. One policeman was killed and three wounded. The prisoner killed was the one who planned the escape. Mounted policemen are pursuing the fugitives.

South African Land Scrip Returns.

Ottawa, March 14.—The weekly figures on South African veterans' land scrip issued by the Interior Department, are: Total issued, 7,112; located by veterans, 586; located by substitutes, 4,459; instruments registered, 5,176; located, but not registered, 586; off the market, 5,762. Number issued during week and still on the market, 1,350.

Mrs. Edward J. Boyd, was struck and probably fatally injured by a street car on Avenue Road, Toronto, last night.

Younger Redmond's Maiden Speech.

A noteworthy incident of the debate in the House of Commons some days ago was the promising maiden speech of the Irish leader's son William Archer Redmond, member for East Tyrone. Mr. Redmond's easy delivery and good style secured the approval of the House and drew compliments from Sir Edward H. Carson, Unionist member for Dublin University, who, amid cheers, observed how well it illustrated the hereditary principle.
