Beauharnois Meeting C.V.T.A Brings Out Many Points

President Thanks Members For Help and Cooperation During Her Term of Office

The final meeting of the C.V.T.A. for the school year was held at Beauharnois, on Thursday, April 28. Miss Tomlinson presiding, minutes of the last General Meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer, Mr. Ferris reported a balance on hand of $50.75.

A letter from Donald Black, M.P. was read stating his support for Federal Aid in Teaching. Miss Tomlinson suggested that the members of the Association write to any candidate standing for election requesting his support for this project. Mr. Brady moved that the various schools be responsible for at least five letters from each. This was seconded by Miss MacMillan.

Mr. Welburn gave a short account of the delegates' meeting.

A nominating committee consisting of Miss MacMillan, Miss Elliot, Mr. Welburn, Mrs. Hooker, and Mrs. Shepherd was appointed to draw up a slate for the coming school year. Mrs. Hooker to act as chairman.

Acting on a request from the P.A.P.T., Mr. Welburn was named permanent secretary.

Miss Tomlinson then closed the business meeting, ending her term of office stating that she had found this year had presented a great challenge and had widened her viewpoint as to the scope and efforts of the P.A.P.T. and the C.V.T.A. She expressed appreciation of the support of the executive committee as a whole and added that she had found Miss Gladys Herdman and Mr. Upton, who had collaborated with her in so many of her efforts, an invaluable asset. After expressing her best wishes for the success of the organization, Miss Tomlinson adjourned the business meeting.

A delicious supper was served by the Beauharnois Home and School Association to whom Miss Robinson rendered thanks.

While the Assembly Hall was being rearranged, the Beauharnois teachers escorted their guests through the School. The Ohs! and Ahs! and other numerous exclamations expressed more completely than any words the opinion of the teachers of this Dream School.

The evening session opened with Mr. Upton presiding. Miss Poole introduced the soloist, Mr. R. Paige. His selection of the well known and loved songs "I'll Walk Beside You"; "In the Garden of Tomorrow", and "Rose of Tralee", was a happy one for they were fully appreciated by all. Mrs. MacLean expressed thanks to the soloist.

Miss Poole introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. J. M. Paton, who spoke on the subject, "Tests and Marking". He laid emphasis on the fact that tests could be subjective and objective but that the two types should not be combined. He pointed out the fact that values and objectives should be very clear in the mind before we compiled or marked a test. He also reminded us that sometimes outside influences would affect marking especially in a subjective test and that these must be guarded against. In his opinion a test that contained a choice was much more difficult to evaluate than one where no choice was given.

At the conclusion of his address Dr. Paton gave an opportunity to ask questions on any point that we felt needed clarifying.

Miss Page thanked Dr. Paton for his excellent address and expressed appreciation of his presence at the meeting.

A Sectional Discussion then took place. The following represent the Sections and the Leaders:

Primary—Mrs. Cooper.

Elementary—Miss Herdman.

Science and Mathematics—Mr. Farquharson.

Social Studies—Miss Macdonald and Mr. Munroe.

Languages—Miss Procter.

In these discussions many points were raised and debated and many problems clarified.

The various groups then assembled and Mr. Upton expressed to Miss Tomlinson, Miss Herdman, and to Mr. Munroe appreciation of the work they had done and the effort they had put forth in behalf of the C.V.T.A.

We shall miss them greatly in the future. No organization can sustain the loss of three such active and interested members and not realize that their work has been of great value to the Community. We wish them all success and happiness in their new endeavours.

The meeting adjourned.

Girl Guides to Hold Enrollment Tea

Local Guides Are in Third Year of Successful Operation

In the third year of successful operation with the fund raised at a dance, the Huntingdon Girl Guides Association are planning a Tea and Food Sale to be held in the Academy in May. The formal enrollment ceremony will be held the same day in the Gymnasium at 2.30, to which the public is also invited. It will be a big event for the Girl Guides, mothers and friends.

At the Association meeting, Capt. Nancy McCrimmon reported that 35 girls are now receiving Guide instruction. Last summer ten Guides went to the Camp at Morin Heights and it is indicated that twenty want to go to Camp during the first two weeks of August this year. These undertakings require a great deal of advance preparation by the officers, both locally and in the Provincial organization. Donations for the Food Table as well as attendance at the Tea will be highly appreciated. Food Committee: Mrs. Charles Boyce, Mrs. George Boyce, Mrs. S. Herdman. Officers are: Mrs. W. L. Carr, Pres.; Mrs. B. A. Rankin, Vice-Pres.; Mrs. Erle Martin, Secretary; Mrs. W. K. Pope, Treasurer. Guiders: Capt. Nancy McCrimmon, Lieut. Goodall.

It is the intention during the coming year to organize a Brownie Pack for girls from 8 to 11 years. This will prove of great benefit to the youngsters by introducing them to activities and amusements suitable to their age group.

The Enrollment and Tea will be advertised and should be patronized by all interested in the good work the Girl Guide movement is accomplishing towards education of youth.

A Gay Easter Event

The past week the Maple Leaf Grange was host to five recently married couples, one or both of whom were members. The Master, Russell Macdonald, welcomed as guests of honor: Mr. and Mrs. David Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. George Renaud. About two hundred friends and relatives from near and far were gathered to dance waltzes and quadrilles to the music of Milne's Orchestra. Fred Donnelly called-off for the popular square dances and Bill Graham was an efficient floor manager.

The Service and Hospitality Committee with Mrs. Jessie Macdonald and Mrs. G. P. Elder as co-chairmen, provided a delicious supper. The table, seating 45, decorated in pink and white, was centered by the handsomely decorated wedding cake, contributed by Miss Lizzie Anderson.

Community Service is the Grange project of the year and in this respect the Maple Leaf Grange fills a very important requirement for the surrounding district.

At the regular Grange meeting on April 19th Sgt. H. Murphy, of Andover, Mass., U.S. Air Force, provided a most interesting travelogue, showing colored views he took when in Alaska. There were also moving pictures he had taken from a car, of the ice moving out of Trout River. Mr. B. A. Rankin added to the programme on Travel by a description of his recent trip to the Western States by air. Readings by Mrs. Evelyn Chambers and Miss Bessie Graham were much enjoyed. The programme was directed by Miss Margaret Wilson.

Riverview Terrace

Rest and Convalescent Centre conducted by Mrs. Violet Beattie and Miss Lillian Rankin, R.N., will shortly celebrate its first anniversary. It has taken unusual enterprise, hard work and a lot of money to equip the residence, formerly known as the Newman or Walker place, for its new and very necessary purpose. Sufficient to say at this time that Riverview Terrace is already well and favorably known in hospital and medical centres.

Miss Rankin was delighted to have as Easter guests three Nursing Sisters, she met in Germany. Miss Lyle Creelman, now of Vancouver, was Chief Nurse in the British Zone in Germany. Miss Creelman has been doing a survey across Canada for Canadian Public Health Nurses' Association, and addressed a meeting of the Public Health Section at the Montreal General Hospital last Friday. Miss Creelman has recently been appointed to the position of Senior Consultant, Maternal and Child Care, on World Health Organization, of which Dr. Brock Chisholm is president, and will shortly leave for Geneva, Switzerland.

Miss Norena Mackenzie, is now Director of Nursing Education at Montreal General Hospital, and during the War, Educational Director for UNRRA in the British Zone. Miss Astrid Jorgensen of Copenhagen, who was with the Nurses Assembly Centre in Germany, has been for eighteen months with the V.O.N. in Montreal. She has been appointed a delegate for Montreal Branch to the Annual Meeting of Victorian Order of Nurses in Ottawa. The four Nursing Sisters had a delightful week-end at Riverview Terrace, the distinguished visitors being much impressed with the progress and future possibilities.

Recent guests at the Terrace enjoying its facilities for rest and recuperation were Miss Beith, Executive Director of Child Welfare, Montreal, Miss Dorothy King, O.B.E., Director of Social Service at McGill University, Mrs. John Hearn, Westmount, and Miss Margaret Martin, a tired teacher, who spent her Easter holidays simply resting in bed.

And that's a mighty good idea that some tired housewives tell me they would like to adopt. Well, you know it could be done, and now you know where to go.

Step. Roman Wins Local Rotary Contest

Will Go to Montreal For Further Contest

Rotary Public Speaking contests open to students in Quebec Province are now being heard at many Rotary Clubs. On Monday representatives from Valleyfield, Ormstown and Huntingdon High Schools spoke before the local club. The judges were Rev. J. B. Maclean, D.D.; E. C. Martin and Gilbert McMillan. The contestants were Stephen Roman from Gault Institute, Valleyfield; Donald McNaughton of Huntingdon, who is presently attending Ormstown High School and Basil Kelly of Huntingdon Academy.

The judges spoke well of the addresses given by the candidates. The enunciation of Basil Kelly was excellent, his subject being the Hon. George Drew. Donald McNaughton spoke of Canada's Black Gold, viz. the new oil discoveries of Alberta and Stephen Roman of Valleyfield, the candidate accorded first position, chose as his topic, "A Canadian Culture of our own is needed". The subject content prepared by Stephen Roman was unquestionably more difficult to prepare and though his delivery was not on par with Basil Kelly the judges unanimously agreed he was the candidate to be sent to Montreal West for the preliminary hearing of contestants. The candidates were accompanied by teachers of all three schools and the students received excellent hearings and applause from the Rotarians. The three contestants showed marked improvement had been made in public speaking when compared with the contestants that appeared before the Club in previous years. In appreciation of the efforts put forth by the three contestants prizes were awarded the boys previous to the judgment being announced by Dr. Maclean.

Girl of Five is Killed By Autobus on Street

VALLEYFIELD.—Francine Charlebois, five years of age, daughter of Chief of Police Joseph Charlebois, of nearby Melocheville, was fatally injured at about 6 p.m., on Monday, by a Provincial Transport Company autobus.

The driver was not held, and an inquest is to be held.

According to the preliminary investigation of Provincial Police, Det. Paul Coulombe, the little girl ran across the street in front of her home in the path of the incoming bus.

Malone Entertains Rotarians

Fifteen Rotarians of Huntingdon visited Malone, on Thursday evening. At this International Rotary meeting the Huntingdon Rotary Club turned over a check for $25. to be applied to the American Red Cross Fund. At a recent International Rotary meeting in Huntingdon $50 was raised for the Red Cross through a chinese auction.

Mr. Bantham, a prominent Schenectady Rotarian, was introduced by G. Berton Davis. The speaker traced mankind's progression through the ages. He told how certain species of life had become extinct and described causes for their disappearances. He likened such disasters as the flood during Noah's time and the glacier age to what could happen if this age became the nuclear fisson age. He said that Rotary's work should aim at preventing such a disaster as the disappearance of man from the earth because of circumstances now more or less uncontrolled.

He said that the opportunity of having the UN in this country was all too great to be overlooked and that the time was now for action to uphold and back it to the limit.

B. B. Bregman thanked the speaker.

Town Council to Enforce Traffic By-laws in Town

Speed Limit in Town to be Twenty Miles Per Hour — Fines For Speeders

Huntingdon Town Council met for its regular monthly meeting at the County Building, on Monday evening, with a full council present. The minutes of previous meetings and the list of accounts were read and passed.

A complaint was registered regarding an outsider taking orders and delivering meat in town. After some discussion regarding the matter it was decided to instruct the police chief to collect a business tax from the person. In the course of discussion on this matter it was also decided that the Chief had the right to check on all business licenses and ask to see them. If parties did not have them he is to collect the amount required or to lay a charge against the offender. Other complaints were made in this respect and Mayor Cappiello said the town would have to institute some form of collection for its taxes and see that these are paid.

Application was made by two town laborers for increases in their hourly rate of pay, which is at present 55c per hour. The Mayor and the majority of the Aldermen considered that this was a fair rate of pay, but Alderman Lefebvre did not think it was enough under present conditions. Alderman McWhinnie said that if these rates of pay were increased, then the rate of pay for the foreman, Mr. Moody, should be increased also. There was only a difference of 10c per hour at the present and he felt this was hardly sufficient in view of the extra responsibilities and knowledge that Mr. Moody had of the work. It was decided that at the present no increase would be granted, but the matter would remain under consideration and a decision will be arrived at at a later date.

Building permits were granted for houses, one on the corner of Chateauguay and Church Streets to Dr. Boyer; one on Cemetery Street to Mr. Romeo Daigle; one on Chateauguay Street to Mrs. Frank Hunter. The application of Honore Picard which was brought up at the last meeting was still held over pending further investigation.

The collection of the garbage contract with Riel Bros. was renewed at the increased figure of $1,500. per year, an increase of $200. over the previous contract. It was considered that more houses were being built all the time and the route was much larger. Mr. Riel is giving complete satisfaction and therefore the increase was warranted.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is again planning a clean-up campaign this year for the week of May 16th to 21st. The council was asked through Alderman Foisy if it would be willing to extend the same cooperation as granted last year. It was planned to hold a parade on May 16th and for trucks to go around and pick up the excess rubbish on that evening. The council decided it would co-operate in every way possible.

The condition of the sidewalks in town came up for discussion and in this connection a letter signed by a "Taxpayer" was read. Mayor Cappiello said that the council was always ready to deal with complaints but wanted these to be signed by the person making them. Many of the sidewalks have fallen into disrepair and there is much work to be done on them. The town men are quite busy, but they were instructed to make the repair of sidewalks their first job. They will work on these until supplies for water connections are received and then the work will be stopped until the connections are made. Meantime at least two other men are to be engaged to rush the work with all speed.

Traffic conditions, an old-time problem, came up again for discussion and this time examples of those disregarding the by-laws of the town are to be made. Warnings have been given over the past few weeks, but from now on fines will have to be paid for infractions of the traffic by-laws. Speeding and not stopping at stop signs were mentioned as having the greatest number of offenders. It was decided that the speed limit through town and on any of the streets of town would be not more than twenty miles per hour. Signs are to be placed on all streets leading into town warning motorists of this fact. There is to be no parking from the corner of Prince Street, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, on Bouchette St., to the end of the Church property, at any time. This was decided on account of the buses which have to turn the corner at the Post Office having insufficient room when cars are parked on the church side of the street. Ten-minute parking only will be allowed outside the Post Office on that side of Bouchette Street. No trucks will be allowed to park in the business section of Chateauguay Street except for unloading purposes and this must be done with as little delay as possible. No parking will be allowed for a certain number of feet from the corners of all streets. Business men on Chateauguay Street who have their cars or trucks parked on the street for most of the day are to be asked to move them and allow other persons the parking room. Parking is to be restricted in front of residences on Chateauguay Street.

The buses stopping on Chateauguay Street came in for criticism and on a vote and resolution it was decided to write the Provincial Transport and ask them to find another location for their terminal, off Chateauguay Street. The vote on the resolution was four for the resolution and two against. Those against were Aldermen Lefebvre and Fournier. The letter will be sent.

Aldermen Foisy and Lefebvre were for changing Chateauguay Street back to a two-way street with one side parking, but other members of the council felt that this would mean greater congestion and add to their present worries. Both of the aldermen said that businessmen in that section of Chateauguay Street were not satisfied with the present arrangement and felt that outsiders were being considered instead of those who belonged to the town. Argument from other aldermen was to the effect that the system was working now with very little bother and had previously been very much of a headache. They therefore could see no sense in changing back to something that they knew would cause trouble. It was pointed out that under the system two streets were being made extremely busy whereas only one need to be. Prince Street was mentioned as one of the streets on which speeding was being done and it would have to be stopped. It was also mentioned that the sign system at the intersection of Prince, Dalhousie and Chateauguay Streets was bad and needed something done about it so that traffic would proceed in an orderly manner at busy times of the day.

General overhauling of the traffic system and parking points is to be carried out immediately and the regulations will be rigidly enforced once a system is put into effect. Speeding will be checked upon immediately and also stopping at the stop signs; fines will be imposed on all who ignore the law in these respects.

The meeting was adjourned until Friday, May 6th, at 8 p.m.

Woman Killed When Car Goes Into River

LACOLLE—A tragic accident occurred at Richelieu Bridge, Cantic, early Sunday morning. Mr. Roméo Patenaude of Hemmingford, and Mrs. Ida Ritchot of Cantic were proceeding towards Noyan on Route 5 and as they approached the Richelieu Bridge, Mr. Patenaude lost control of his car. The car struck the bridge railing and bounced back into the river on the opposite side. Mr. Patenaude attempted to rescue Mrs. Ritchot from the car, which was submerged in 15 feet of water, but was unable to do so, and barely escaped drowning. He immediately summoned help and after some time the wrecker removed the car. A doctor was called and pronounced Mrs. Ritchot dead from head injuries.

Red Cross Campaign Reaches $4,143.12

Huntingdon County is one of the very few districts in the recent Red Cross Campaign to reach its objective and also to pass it. Most districts have had a hard time trying to reach the objective. Huntingdon's objective was set at $4,000 and to date the amount subscribed is $4,143.12, with still one canvasser to report. This is considered to be a very excellent showing and the people of Huntingdon can be quite proud of the results obtained.

Male Choir Well Received Here

Audience Enjoys Hearing Clarkson College Singers

The superbly beautiful young voices of the students of Clarkson College Male Choir, Malone, who sang before the appreciative Huntingdon audience, on Tuesday evening, in Huntingdon Theatre, are worthy of all high praise for their excellence. Director Richard Rhoades has just reason to be proud of the choir he has trained, and it was nice to note that as applause was accorded the several numbers sung, Mr. Rhoades did not accept unto himself the praise but turned to his choir and pointed out individuals who had carried the outstanding parts in the various numbers. Some 400 people attended this Rotary benefit, but now that so many complimentary and truly worthy comments have been made as to the excellence of the Clarkson College Male Choir, it is but natural to expect a number of our people will go to Malone and hear this same choir in the Franklin Academy Auditorium, on Friday evening, this week. The Rotary Club is indeed grateful to the students, Mr. Rhoades, the accompanist Miss Betty Nokes, Clarkson College and the Malone Rotary Club for all that was accorded in arranging for this musical treat to be heard in Huntingdon. The quartette composed of Larry Bean, James Geddes, James DePalma and Bert Miller took the audience by storm and gave repeated encores. Donald Weller and Joseph Smith who gave the cornet solo, "The Two Friends" were also highly appreciated and the audience would certainly have enjoyed hearing an encore.

During the late afternoon the Choir came to Huntingdon and had a short rehearsal in the Huntingdon Theatre before having dinner in the Chateau. During the dinner hour at the Chateau the quartette sang several numbers which were greatly appreciated by dining room guests as well as the Malone visitors.

Drawings took place for the prizes on the Rotary Carnival that was intended to be held some months ago. Of the 12 prizes awarded, it took 17 drawings to award the prizes, for it so happened that five of the tickets drawn were members or honorary members of the Huntingdon Rotary Club. Naturally Rotarians would not permit a fellow Rotarian to accept of a prize, all of which added to the frivolity of the occasion.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

The RCA Victor combination radio and record player went to J. McLochel, 657 Côté St. Antoine, Montreal; $50 Victory Bond to Ralph Goodfellow, Huntingdon; and the ten prizes of $5 each to Gordon Lindsay, Clarkson College and who returned the prize to the Rotary Club; Elinor Blachford, David Zabitsky (2 prizes), Ed. Galarneau, Paul Galipeau, Fred Greer, James Hatton, Mrs. Terry Rabidoux and Huntingdon Chateau.

Rotary President Dr. J. E. Caza extended words of appreciation to the various contributors to the success of the entertainment. Thanks were specially due the Legare Company, who very kindly sent a new piano to the Huntingdon Theatre for this particular event. The appointments of the Huntingdon Theatre contributed much toward the successful presentation of the programme.

Lawn Bowling Activities Started

The annual meeting of the Huntingdon Lawn Bowling Club took place on Monday evening. Arrangements were made to get the activities of the Club for the season 1949 advanced. Members present volunteered to get the membership enrolled immediately as it is felt the actual playing will be able to get underway before the 24th of May. The greens have wintered well and work has already been started toward getting them in readiness for playing. Officers elected for 1949 are: Wilf. Grant, President; C. L. B. Wheeler, Vice-Pres.; Dan. Grant, Sec'y-Treas.; J. R. Fox and Fred Stark, Greens; A. L. Sellar and Alex. Fawcett, Games Committee.

With the bright prospect for a long season of active bowling it is to be hoped that within a few days' time some of the ladies will make a move toward organizing a women's lawn bowling club. The fee for men bowlers is $5 a season and for women, $2.

PLAN SHOPPING WEEK

Huntingdon Gets Boost Through "Town of the Week" Broadcast on Friday

Huntingdon, England, Will Also Benefit by Gift of Ogilvie Company

The Broadcast made in behalf of Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. Limited by Kate Aitken on Friday morning featured Huntingdon as the "Town of the Week". Dr. J. E. Caza, President of the Rotary Club of Huntingdon was present and participated in the broadcast and also accepted the $100 check given by the Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. Limited to be used in whatever way the Rotary Club so desires. S. J. Currie had his sound truck announce the broadcast in Huntingdon and with such reminding, along with the advertising of such in the Gleaner on Wednesday, the number of local listeners was undoubtedly greatly increased. Mr. Currie made a record of the broadcast and at a special Rotary meeting held Friday noon it was again heard. Dr. Caza was back in Huntingdon for the noon meeting and was accompanied by Messrs. Morris and Desrosiers of the Ogilvie Company. Messrs. Morris and Desrosiers informed the Rotarians how pleased they were to have Huntingdon so acknowledged as "The Town of the Week" and that Mrs. Kate Aitken who made the broadcast was personally very much taken with Huntingdon. Mr. Morris intimated that he was quite certain Mrs. Aitken would willingly come to Huntingdon and present a benefit programme for the Rotary Club. Mrs. Aitken is a much travelled person, and reports of public meetings in which she was the entertaining feature, have seen her appear before packed houses. Mr. Morris was much taken with the tie between Huntingdon, Que., and the Huntingdon, England, Rotary Clubs. During the war, Mr. Morris was in Huntingdon, England and was in contact with the people the Rotary Club had to deal with when making the food shipment in 1948. Mr. Morris told the Rotary Club that he would gladly donate 35 cases of Ogilvie Bran Muffin Mix, which contains as ingredients eggs, milk, shortening, sugar and the necessary cereal and that all that is required to be added is water to make into good muffins. This fine gift of Mr. Morris will in due time find its way to Huntingdon, England as a further gift of good-will from Huntingdon, Que., to Huntingdon, England. When the shipment arrives in Huntingdon, England, it will be divided up amongst the 400 people who received food donations in 1948 from the gift forwarded by Huntingdonians of Canada.

Expressions of thanks were made at the Rotary Club to the Ogilvie Flour Mills Co. Limited, Mrs. Kate Aitken and to Messrs Morris and Desrosiers for the various parts played in giving Huntingdon and the Rotary Club such publicity as is claimed by radio to have been heard by more than 264,000 people in Canada.

LORNE DRYSDALE—IN MEMORIAM

By H. C. COLLIER

In the death of Lorne Drysdale of Allan's Corners at the Barrie Memorial Hospital in Ormstown, on Monday night, the 25th inst., the world has lost a truly great man. Lorne Drysdale was not rich nor influential in a worldly sense. His greatness lay in his character; his riches in the real esteem and affection in which he was held by all who knew him. He was a friend to all men and was by all men beloved. One never heard him say an unkind word of any man, even of those with whom he did not agree. Indeed his love of his fellow man was above distinctions of creed, race or religion—truly one of God's gentlemen, he lived with charity towards all.

He loved the earth, too, and all living things. One recalls a bright May morning a year ago. He greeted our arrival with his familiar "Good Day! Good Day! Good Day!", a hearty greeting which always made even the darkest, coldest days seem bright and cheerful. Pausing from his chores to welcome us, he looked up at the blue rain-washed sky and inhaling the smell of the freshened earth he exclaimed, "You know, I like that smell of fresh earth at this time of the year. It seems to hold promise of summer growth".

We met Lorne Drysdale eight years ago when as city novices we bought a little property near his. In all the trials and tribulations of getting that property in order and in accustoming ourselves to the ways of country life we leaned heavily upon him for help and advice. Both he gave unstintingly. Never was he too tired to come to our aid when we had some job to do or some problem to solve that was beyond us. Always he brought with him that cheerfulness and that ungrudging help which we came to learn was part of his philosophy of life towards all men.

If one may paraphrase Browning to a fitting epitaph of this great soul, it would be to say

"He never found fault with you, never implied your wrong by his right; and yet men at his side grew nobler, youths finer, as through the land those were gladder who shook his hand".

Lorne Drysdale's passing will be mourned by hundreds but by none more than his beloved wife. Theirs was a happy life partnership in which each took their share of the burdens of the farm and household. One never heard a wry word but there was always that complete understanding between them which made their household always a happy place to visit. To Mrs. Drysdale will go the deepest sympathy of many friends, among them of this writer and his family with whom Lorne Drysdale will remain a living memory and a link with that Better Land to which he has gone.

ACTIVITIES AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The annual Campaign of the J.E.C. from April 25 to 30 was a real success. The campaign opened on Monday morning presided over by Reverend Brother Raymond, c.s.v., the Director; Reverend Father Quenneville, the chaplain of the society, and the Reverend Brothers Gagnon, Leclerc and Michaud and Miss G. Chretien. O Canada and God Save the King were sung in a military way. The mayor of the school, Master Roger Caza, made the opening speech, inviting all the pupils to join in for the success of the campaign. The pro-mayor, George Lazure, gave the order of the week and secretary, Lalande, explained the event of the day.

Every day there were new attractions, singing and sports, also good studying. Every teacher was pleased with his pupils.

Friday evening there was a gathering in the Parochial Hall. Guests of honor were Reverend Father Pigeon presiding, Reverend Brother Director on his right, Reverend O. Aganier, the diocesan chaplain with his four assistants, also our local chaplain, Father Quenneville.

Monologues, dialogues, playlets and singing were given. The entertainment was a success and each one will do his best from now on.

Mothers' Day

PERHAPS of all the special days set aside for observance, Mothers' Day is the one most universally observed. Fittingly, it always falls on a Sunday and thus is observed in the churches throughout the land by religious recognition in the sermons preached. Thus, greater significance is placed on motherhood and all it means to the nation, the country and the world. In the Christian world woman is looked up to and treated with respect. When she takes on the added burdens of being a mother to a family, the respect is deepened.

No longer is the married woman a chattel, she becomes a partner in a lifelong contract and with the coming of motherhood that contract is bonded with ever increasing responsibilities. It is not until the family has grown to better understanding of what motherhood really means, that full appreciation of mother is realized. Thus it is good that small children should be made to understand that they really owe a great deal to their mother. The annual observance of Mothers' Day helps to make small children realize that mother must be important for a whole day each year to be set aside for her homage. Children pay scant attention to worths until they have been able to understand and appraise them. Thus it is not until we are older that we really appreciate all that a mother stands for. It is only natural then that Mothers' Day has a great significance for the older sons and daughters and it is they who should show their affection and feeling for mother on that day. They have come to understand what their mother has done for them in bringing them thus far successfully through life. Realization comes of the teachings she has given them that has enabled them to battle with the way of life, avoid the pitfalls, take advantage of the good things and to make the best of their abilities.

Mothers have no knowledge of how their offspring will conduct themselves as the years go on, they can only impart good advice and teachings and hope that their counsel will be heeded. But the human will is sometimes quite weak and despite the best of teachings, the human can fall upon evil ways and be led astray. In such cases and according to the severity of the case, it is easy for the fallen to be forsaken by their so-called friends. They can always depend upon one friend, however, and that friend is "Mother". She knows the faults and weaknesses of her child, her love causes her to have a compassion that could not be fostered in the breast of any other individual. Having this deep compassion, she will fight for her child even although she knows the cause to be lost.

Society in general owes much to mothers, for society owes its very life to mothers of today and those who have passed on. Mothers are the backbone of the family and the family is the backbone of the nation. Within the family sacrifice becomes a part of everyday needs, selfishness can find no place within the realms of a family. Mother, in particular, knows the meaning of sacrifice and she cannot long remain selfish if her children are to be reared in a proper atmosphere. In the earlier days of childhood, naturally a mother's sacrifices are greater than when they attain a more reliant age. But even in later years and after the children have homes of their own, they fall back on mother for help and guidance,

We therefore say that all should pay homage to the mothers on Mothers' Day, May 8th, and let their affection go deeper than just the commercialized version that is so prevalent in these days.

Gault Institute

LAST week's edition of the Gleaner was truly heavy on the side of education, but it only goes to show how important this is to the welfare of all citizens. In these days much stress is being made on the importance of a good education for everyone and to back this up, educational facilities are being increased and advanced to provide the best obtainable.

In this edition of The Gleaner, we are publishing pictures of still another Protestant school in the territory we serve, that show advancements made for the benefit of the education of the protestant children of Valleyfield and district. We refer, of course, to Gault Institute, the only Protestant school in Valleyfield. One might say that this school is a protegee of Montreal Cottons Company, having been founded by Mr. Andrew Frederic Gault, President of the Montreal Cottons Company, who built and endowed the institution. All through the years this company has taken a great interest in Gault Institute and for many years was its main contributor. In later years of the growth of industries in Valleyfield, some of the burden has been lifted from Montreal Cottons and shared by these other industries. The taxation revenue going toward the upkeep of this school is very small, amounting to only one-twelfth. Naturally, in these past few years the expenses have increased as they have in all other endeavours.

Gault Institute has maintained an enviable reputation in circles of learning by having a large percentage of its pupils pass the final examination at each year-end. With the great strides forward made in education generally, Gault has found its facilities for maintaining its record severely taxed: Expansion was needed, modern methods of teaching demanded modern facilities. Without these facilities the teaching staff was seriously handicapped and the record was at stake. The Board of Trustees decided that help was necessary and immediate, so they set out to solicit ways and means to overcome at least some of the difficulties that confronted the expansion. The help of Montreal Cottons and the several other industries in Valleyfield was obtained in a financial way and also some assistance was obtained from the Provincial Government through the Department of Education. With this encouragement, the Board went ahead with plans prepared to make over parts of the Institute into better facilities for the education of the children.

The consequence is that Gault Institute now has an up-to-date Domestic Science Room, a well equipped and apportioned laboratory, sound system, library and board room, as well as the whole interior being reconditioned and renovated in modern style. The school has not expanded its outside walls, but the actual space at its disposal has been considerably increased. This may account for the fact that so many people feel that there is not much to show for the amount that has been spent. It must be remembered that this is a time of high costs and it takes much to do even a little. However, there is no debt accumulated for the taxpayers to worry over, everything has been paid from the amounts realized in the way aforementioned. Thus the taxpayers should be truly grateful and especially the parents of the children who attend this school. There are many who do not actually contribute anything toward the upkeep, yet they receive its benefits.

One thing that Gault is lacking now, is an auditorium, or gymnasium. Athletics are taught at this school and the pupils have built up quite a reputation for sports of various kinds. When necessary to hold any function in connection with the school, such is held in a hall near by. There is sufficient land belonging to the school that an extension could be built and it is the hope of the Trustees that at some near future date, such an addition will be made. When this is done it will be for the purpose of an auditorium along the lines that other modern schools have. Dr. W. P. Percival has hinted that something may be done for the school in order that the auditorium will become a fact. He was very pleased with the work that had been accomplished and he saw the need for the auditorium.

An Election Nears

WITH the resignation of Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King as Prime Minister of Canada last year it was to be expected that a general federal election would be held very soon after. That time has now arrived, and official announcement of the election date is now awaited. It has been set as June 27th.

Since the advent of the Hon. George Drew as Leader of the Progressive-Conservatives, the debates in the House have been much more fiery. The Liberals have been taken to task at every possible turn and their methods of government have been picked to pieces with an idea of discrediting their regime. Of course it does not take two looks to discern that all this has been a pre-election build-up to bolster the Progressive-Conservatives' chances of election. From now on there will be plenty more of it and the people will be advised to change their politics or face ruin.

Canada at the moment is in a fair position of prosperity despite what political opposition may say about it, and the question arises, will another party in power do any better? Everyone that does not get their own way feels that they have had a raw deal and are ready to make changes to suit their own particular needs. Thus it will be found that there are groups of individuals, or organizations, who feel that the government has ignored them and would not help. On the other hand there are those who feel that the present government has done a good job all through the war years and also in the afterwar years to the present time. If we glance at our position today, we find that none are actually in want and our country is in a good state of prosperity. It is probable that a recession may come this year, but it is to be expected, there must be a peak and there must be a levelling off period. But if the Progressive-Conservatives or some other party should happen to gain office at about that time, they would immediately blame the government party in power before them. Yet in the House they are continually warning the government to prepare for such times.

The bickerings and dickerings of the political parties do not bring anything really constructive and worthwhile for the ordinary man on the street. The sores that are being dug up and hurled at the present government are old ones that have been forgotten once and should remain that way. They will not help the people to live any better, or to produce better, or to build the wealth of the country. They will not aid in the fight against reducing diseases of the world, increase our health standards, build up our defences, or anything else. What the people want is constructive government and constructive criticism, not sensationalism. Actions speak far louder than words and we have seen the actions of the Liberals and we have seen the actions of the Conservatives at least. Having seen the actions of both, we all know which has made the best job — the general conditions today speak for themselves. Very soon now, the battle will be on and the air will be filled with speeches and ballyhoo from which the elector will have to unravel the tangle and decide for himself which party he wants for a government.

Philosophy

APPROXIMATELY half a century ago the following classical utterance concerning grass was made by the late United States Senator John J. Ingalls:

"Next in importance to the divine profusion of water, light and air, those three physical facts which render existence possible, may be reckoned the universal beneficence of grass. Lying in the sunshine among the buttercups and dandelions of May scarcely higher in intelligence than the minute tenants of that mimic wilderness, our earliest recollections are of grass; and when the fitful fever is ended and the foolish wrangle of the market and the forum is closed, grass heals over the scar which our descent into the bosom of the earth has made, and the carpet of the infant becomes the blanket of the dead.

"Grass is the forgiveness of Nature — her constant benediction. Fields trampled with battle, saturated with blood, torn with the ruts of cannon, grow green again with grass, and carnage is forgotten. Streets abandoned by traffic become grass-grown, like rural lanes, and are obliterated. Forests decay, harvests perish, flowers vanish, but grass is immortal. Beleaguered by the sullen hosts of winter it withdraws into the impregnable fortress of its subterranean vitality and emerges upon the solicitation of spring. Sown by the winds by wandering birds, propagated by the subtle horticulture of the elements which are its ministers and servants, it softens the rude outlines of the world. It invades the solitude of deserts, climbs the inaccessible slopes and pinnacles of mountains, and modifies the history, character and destiny of nations.

"Unobtrusive and patient, it has immortal vigour and aggression. Banished from the thoroughfares and fields, it bides its time to return, and when vigilance is relaxed or the dynasty has perished, it silently resumes the throne from which it has been expelled but which it never abdicates. It bears no blazonry of bloom to charm the senses with fragrances or splendour, but its homely hue is more enchanting than the lily or the rose. It yields no fruit in earth or air, yet should its harvest fail for a single year famine would depopulate the world".

"Someone Was Interfering"

By LEWIS MILLIGAN

It is abundantly evident that Marshal Stalin and his twelve disciples — there are thirteen members of the Politburo — do not like the Atlantic Treaty. Why do they not like it, and why have they so vigorously tried to prevent it? This may seem a foolish question, for it is quite obvious that the Treaty is an alliance of the Western Nations against a potential enemy, and the only such enemy at the present time is Soviet Russia. In opposing the Treaty, the Soviet leaders virtually admit their aggressive intentions. The very bitterness of their attacks indicates that the treaty interferes with their plans; otherwise why should it worry them? If they have no designs for extending their power over the rest of Europe, then they have nothing to fear from a defensive alliance of nations who are sick of war and whose only desire is to recover from the last one and live in a peaceful world.

The Soviet Government disliked the atomic bomb for the same reason they now dislike the Atlantic Treaty. In his speech at Boston, Mr. Churchill gave the reason when he said: "It is certain that Europe would have been communized and London under bombardment some time ago but for the deterrent of the atomic bomb in the hands of the United States." For what other purpose was the largest army in the world maintained and kept ready for action behind the Iron Curtain? The military forces of the British Commonwealth and of the United States had been demobolized. Apart from the fear of the atomic bomb there was nothing to deter the Russian armies from sweeping over Europe, and the Western Powers would have been helpless to stop them. With the complete conquest of Europe, the Mediterranean would have been closed and Africa annexed to the Russian Empire, while the Atlantic Ocean would have isolated the American continent from trade and traffic with the Old World.

In the first volume of his war memoirs, Mr. Churchill said that at certain crisis during the war he felt that "Someone was interfering," and that when all seemed to be lost, the tide of overwhelming defeat was turned as by a mysterious hand. When Hitler did a jig after forcing the French to sign an armistice, he was what the Scotch people call "fey", which means that he was over-confident and fated soon to die a sudden or violent death. There is an old Greek saying that "Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad."

That is what happened to Hitler and his gang; and Stalin and his disciples should take a lesson from it and keep their heads. The atom bomb saved them from the mad act of overrunning Europe at the close of the war, and now, with the addition of the defensive alliance under the Atlantic Treaty, they may be restored to sanity. The recent changes of Soviet officials is evidence that something unusual is going on behind the Iron Curtain, and it may be that Stalin is changing his mind. Having failed to intimidate Britain and the United States into military action by the blockade of Berlin, which in itself was an act of war, he assumed the role of a peace-maker and accused the promoters of the Atlantic Treaty of warmongering.

As a matter of historical fact, Stalin himself was the real instigator of the Atlantic Treaty. He provoked it not only by the Berlin Blockade, but by blockading the action of the United Nations with the Veto on every issue that made for world peace. Thus the United Nations' councils were rendered futile and the very name a mockery. There was nothing left for the Western Nations to do but unite among themselves for their own defence and economic recovery. And now, as a result of their folly in over-reaching themselves, the Soviet leaders are confronted with the Atlantic Treaty in addition to the atomic bomb. It would seem that Someone has again been interfering.

General Election

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, in top spirits after a gruelling two week's tour of the West which left ycunger persons in his train gasping, said he would dissolve the House this week-end.

The Prime Minister entered the Chamber in jovial spirits on Monday. The election feeling was so high that members "shushed" each other every time Mr. St. Laurent rose on his feet.

Just before the House adjourned for the night, he made the announcement. He did not name the date, but it was obviously June 27.

The decision was made, it was learned, because of the welcome the Prime Minister received on every side both for himself and the party he leads while in the West.

He thus lived up to his own advice to the Liberal party, which was given the day before Parliament opened January 26.

Be salesmen for the Liberal party, he told the Advisory Council, for there is a proud record to sell.

Business of the House

The House took quick action Monday to clean up a vexatious problem in Quebec—the vast backlog of legal cases. During the past year, about 5,000 cases have piled up. The House passed a bill to appoint six Superior Court Judges in the Province.

Tuesday the House considered the pipelines Act. It gives authority for setting up pipelines from the rich oilfields of Alberta into other provinces and — if wanted — across the border into the United States.

Aerial Survey

The Royal Canadian Air Force will photograph over 950,000 square miles of Northwest Canada. Three planes have already started work; later 30 with 500 personnel will take a part.

This year the Air Force will tackle one of the big problems in "fixing" the photographs. It will use radar stations in Manitoba and Saskatchewan to overcome this surveying problem. Ground surveys had to be used to place the photographs in their exact relationship on the map.

Howe Trip

Trade and Commerce Minister C. D. Howe left Wednesday, accompanied by his deputy minister, Max MacKenzie, for Great Britain. While overseas, he will discuss trade problems of the two countries. The latest statistics showed that Britain had narrowed its trade gap with Canada.

DOOLING - HARLAND

On Saturday afternoon, the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Graham, Athelstan, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when the marriage of their foster daughter, Miss Vera Harland and Mr. John P. Dooling, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dooling, of Belle Isle, Newfoundland, was officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of ivory satin. Her finger-tip length veil of French tulle illusion was held in place by a bandeau of pearls and her bouquet was of pink snapdragon and fern. The little flower girl, Shirley Graham, carried a basket of white narcissi and she was dressed in pink net over taffeta. The wedding music was played by Mrs. A. Collins, of Malone, N.Y. Mrs. Graham, the bride's mother, was wearing a figured faille gown with corsage of yellow daffodils. Potted plants, spring flowers and ferns were arranged around the rooms, the bride's table decorations being in pink and white. For the wedding trip to Montreal and Ottawa the bride wore a printed crepe dress, green shortie coat, black hat and matching accessories. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Dooling will reside in Ormstown.

A WEEKLY INFORMATION SERVICE

LEAMINGTON, Ont.— This month your grocer is featuring special displays of the famous 57 Varieties of the House of Heinz. The occasion? It's HEINZ 40TH ANNIVERSARY in Canada! Yes, forty years ago the first Heinz kitchens in Canada were installed in a five-story frame building which was found to be out of "perpendicular" and had to be partially rebuilt. And today the huge Heinz plant at Leamington covers many, many acres—includes the largest tomato products factory in the world! The House of Heinz has grown because all the world loves good eating! . . . today, the Canadian friends of Heinz are numbered by the thousands and thousands! And we can be sure that in the years ahead, Heinz will continue to provide us with quality products easy on our time, energy and budgets!

Let's Admit It! We do sometimes worry about those valuables we leave in our homes when we go out for an evening—or away on a trip! I used to worry a lot until I rented my Safety Deposit Box at the BANK OF MONTREAL. Then, for a very few dollars a year, I arranged for the security of my bonds, important documents, jewellery . . . in fact all of my "prized possessions"! No more fear of their being mislaid —or stolen. So when it's so easy to rid yourself of this particular worry . . . why not visit your nearest B of M branch soon. It's a matter of minutes only to rent your own Safety Deposit Box . . . and for just a cent or two a day!

Don't Throw Away Those Faded Stockings! Here's a wonderful way to make them look as new and fresh as Spring itself! Dye them in the latest, fashion-wise shades with TINTEX STOCKING DYES! . . . Tintex Gun Metal to wear with shoes of "Admiral Blue"—Tintex Bronzeskin to complement shoes of bronze or "Gypsy Brown"—Tintex Black Beauty—and Smoke Haze, Mistique, Wine Blush—all wonderful with the blues and blondes of this Spring's fashions! All-fabric Tintex eliminates guess-work from home dyeing . . . just follow the instructions carefully for guaranteed results!

Maytime Means Blossomtime with the promise of fine days ahead! Days when outdoor living grows more popular —and quick-to-make, easy desserts are popular, too! JELL-O Jelly Powders are the perfect answer to dessert problems, I find. They're so full of sumptuous fresh flavor, bewitching color and "just-right" consistency. Here's a dessert in keeping with the Maytime mood: Surround a sparkling Lime Jell-O mould with canned peach halves, centring each half with a big cream cheese ball. Delicious! Serve Jell-O with its wonderful "locked-in" flavor often. Seven flavors — you'll find them so thrifty.

Showers Of Happiness for the bride-to-be . . . or the sweet young graduate! And a fitting occasion for this exquisite Silver Moon Cake made extra tender, extra delicious with the finest of cake flours — SWANS DOWN CAKE FLOUR.

FRANKLIN CENTRE—The entertainment given in the Town Hall on Friday evening, by Mrs. T. F. Sherrington and her pupils, sponsored by the W.A. Society was a decided success. The hall was filled beyond seating capacity by a very attentive audience. Rev. E. Davis gave a short welcoming address and Mr. T. F. Sherrington acted as Master of Ceremonies. The opening numbers were short, piano selections, played by the Beginners, Pat. McMillan, Billy Stevenson and Freddy Sherrington, followed by a piano duet by Mrs. Earl Forrester and Mrs. Sherrington. The theme of the remainder of the program was given in a dialogue by Mrs. R. The first photo of Grandpa and Grandma dressed for the Ball where they first met, was described by Mrs. French in the song, "When Grandpapa and Grandmamma first Danced the Minuet." This was followed on stage by Heather and Shelia Towns, dancing the Minuet and by the applause was much appreciated. The Sailor's Hornpipe dance, a favourite of Grandpa's, was performed on stage by Miss Iris Waller. Verses were read about each costume, written by Mrs. W. A. Dunn and read by Mrs. E. Davis. Mrs. Fergus Moore was pianist for this part of the program. Little Miss Lois Ann Moneypenny sweetly sang two sons and her aunt, Mrs. Morrison Brooks, also sang a couple of songs, followed by the National Anthem, which brought to a close a very enjoyable evening. Gault Institute at Valleyfield Modernized At a Cost of $110,000

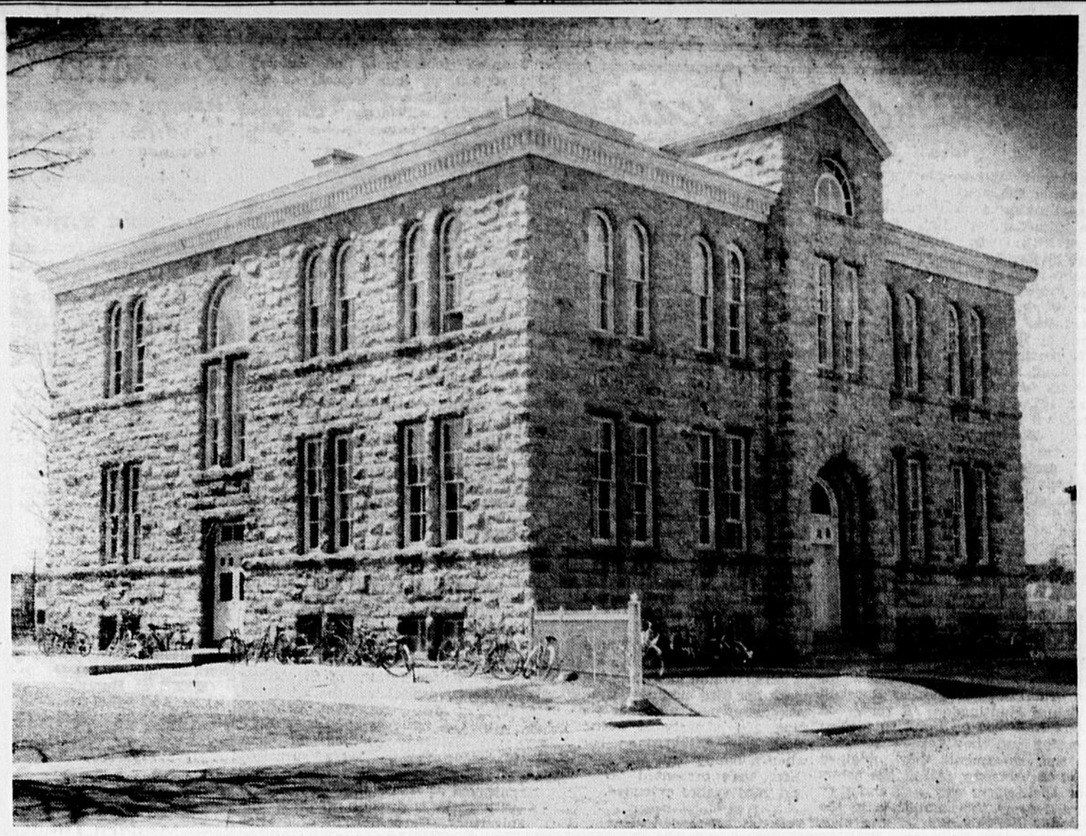
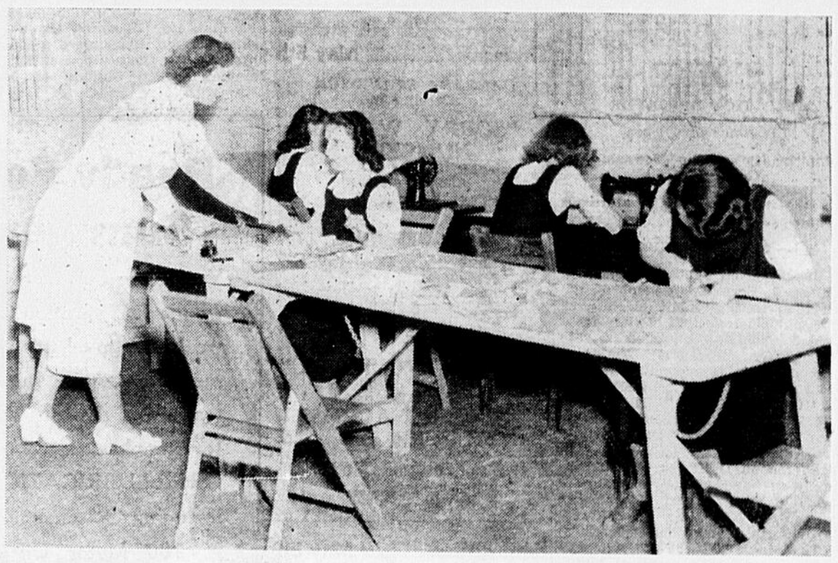
Industrial Concerns Have Given Wholehearted Support to This Worthwhile Educational Effort

ONE OF THE OLDEST LEADING EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS IN QUEBEC, GAULT INSTITUTE STILL LEADS THE WAY IN EDUCATION

The Protestant people of Valleyfield are quite proud of their school, known as the Gault Institute and founded by Mr. Andrew Frederick Gault, early president of the Montreal Cottons. Since that time, Montreal Cottons has stood firmly behind this school and helped it along financially and morally through all the years. From time to time as conditions and teaching methods have changed, Gault Institute has been changed to compete with the progress made. Always Montreal Cottons could be relied upon to assist in making these advancements and changes possible. So it is in the present improvements that have been made at Gault Institute, Montreal Cottons has been a large contributor to the cost. During the intervening period however, other industries have located in Valleyfield and they too have contributed a share toward the cost, not only of the renovations but to the maintenance. Only a very small part of the taxation goes toward the upkeep of this school and thus a great share of the extras has fallen to the industries to make up. Children attend this school from many outside districts and they are treated the same as those who reside in Valleyfield. It has been the feeling that all children should be treated alike and have the benefits of education that Gault can give them. Thus the parents of the pupils and the pupils themselves owe much to the industries in Valleyfield and especially Montreal Cottons, for the fine school that is placed at their disposal and for use.



GAULT INSTITUTE, VALLEYFIELD — Is perhaps one of the finest school structures in the Province today. The beautiful stone finish of outside walls could not be placed into the new schools of today, on account of the great cost. While this school was built many years ago, it still has a modern look, and blends in with the structures which surround it. It is situated in spacious and well treed grounds which add further beauty to this fine structure. The only change in the outside structure, is the addition of an up-to-date oil heating unit, housed in a brick building built on at the rear.



DOMESTIC SCIENCE ROOM IS NEW ADDITION — The above two views show the new Domestic Science Room which has been added to Gault Institute during the recent renovations and improvements. It is up-to-date in every respect and provides students with facilities for learning the art of economic home operation. The sinks, work counters, cupboards, electric refrigerator and electric stoves are all arranged along lines to be found in the modern kitchen of the newly constructed home. Thus the students can become accustomed to the use of these things and know what to expect when they have to look after their own homes. Blackboard instruction can also be given and desks are also provided in the room for this type of instruction. Two sewing machines are also in the room for instruction in the art of repairing and making clothing and other articles needed in the home.

Gault Institute Brought Up-to-date With Additions

Audio and visual training is fast becoming a part of the modern educational facilities of all schools and no school is properly equipped unless it has these features. Naturally not all schools have this equipment, but same is being obtained as quickly as possible. Thus it was that one of the renovations in Gault Institute was to install a sound system. This sound system is centrally controlled as well as individually controlled and reaches all class rooms of the school. Thus it is possible for a broadcast to be heard in one room only or throughout the entire school if required. The same may be said of addresses within the school. The principal may address the entire school or he may address an individual class in its own classroom. Less disturbance of school work is thus brought about and therefore less time is wasted. As Gault Institute has not yet a general assembly room, this system is particularly useful in many ways.

Blackboards in all classrooms have been fitted with direct lighting arrangements and with wired troughs to catch the dust of the chalk and to hold chalk and erasers. A ventilating system has been installed that provides each of the classrooms and other important points through the school with a change of air at varying periods throughout the day. The rooms have been painted in colors said to help the pupils in their work as being either restful or of being an aid to lighting of the rooms. Depressing and dark colors are being banished from the modern school. the trend is toward greater amount of light and brighter and more cheery rooms. Floors are covered in vari-colored linoleums that tend to deaden noise to a great extent and also add another note of cheeriness to the rooms. Ceilings have been done in acoustic tiling to assist in the reproduction of the sound system for the best hearing results.

The laboratory is fitted up in grand style, with plenty of drawer and cupboard space under the working tops of the two large cabinets. Test tubes, bunsen burners, chemicals of all kinds, convenient water taps troughs, etc., all go toward making the Gault Institute laboratory the most up-to-date on this side of the Island of Montreal. Here the boys and girls can work out chemistry problems with a scientific bent that will help them to become the chemical research workers of tomorrow. Seating and desk space is also provided here for the pupils to listen to the various lectures or to view pictures of experiments that have been worked upon. Fast, chemistry is becoming one of the everyday needs of man, no longer it is the mysterious business that only the long-haired, absent-minded professors worked at in secluded quarters. Chemical research is a part of almost every manufacturing business today and therefore is a very necessary part of the training that must be given to the school student. The laboratory in the modern school is therefore an important part of its equipment. Gault has added this equipment.

Another important addition to the school is a library and board room, and it is here that the public ad-

Play Well Received

On Monday night, the Ormstown United Church Y.P.S. put on their play "My Favorite Girl Friend", at the Huntingdon High School, for the benefit of the Pioneer Rebekah Lodge of Huntingdon. A very good attendance was on hand to witness the play and they were well repaid in the enjoyment they obtained from the comedy. All of the actors took their parts very well and they carried away their audience in the realistic interpretation of the play. Over $70. was realized from admissions and the Rebekahs were quite pleased with the results and support they got. Mrs. D. Heggie won the cake that was raffled off. Refreshments were served by members of the Lodge to the members of the cast after the play was concluded.

Dog Poisoning

Not many years ago an epidemic of dog poisoning went on in Huntingdon. This week evidence of dog poisoning has again been brought to attention. Strychnine appears to be the drug that has been set out. It s becoming for doctors to prescribe the use of such a drug but certainly not for any individual to use with the intention of poisoning somebody's dog or cat. Take heed, guilty party, don't to it again, for if you are caught, you will get little mercy or consideration from your townsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hamill and Mr. and Mrs. Francis McCaffrey spent the week-end in Plattsburg, guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey.

This word ... Guarantee

Now here is a good word that means a great deal, but I am scared to use it. There possibly is no other word that is more abused than this one. The book says that Guarantee means "a pledge of responsibility". The term responsibility takes on many different forms depending on the article that you are buying.

In my picture business I am responsible for your satisfaction. But I am afraid that if I use this word guarantee, you will understand it to mean that you will have to argue with me for weeks while I try to convince you that you are wrong, that you are satisfied, but aren't quite aware of it as yet. Then eventually I tire you out, and you say, "what's the use?" I am like every one else, I have to buy the same things you do and that is the way I am treated a lot of the time by the phrase, "money-back-guarantee".

When my work is not up to par or better, I will re-photograph it or refund the money to you. When I cannot do this for my customers, I'll get out of business, go back to aeronautical engineering. Of course there are a few people that are not satisfied with anything, but we keep a list of those persons. But they are few and far between.

Feel free to call me at any time and I pledge to be responsible for your satisfaction.

THE HUNTINGDON THEATRE ALTER THEIR POLICY

Programs Start On Saturday and Wednesday

The new Huntingdon Theatre which is healthfully air-conditioned the year round for your comfort, announce that in future their week-end program will start with the matinee on Saturday, and run through until Tuesday night, with the exception of when there is a special show, such as that which will be given this Tuesday, May the 10th by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The French attractions which have proven so popular with residents of the district, will be shown on Sunday only, along with the main feature in English from the week-end program.

This Saturday until Monday, "Walk A Crooked Mile" which is now in its second week at the Capitol Theatre in Montreal, starring Louis Hayward, Dennis O'Keefe and Louise Allbritton, will be shown Saturday and Monday along with the youthful singing star, Gloria Jean in "Manhattan Angel". Sunday only the French version of "Arizona" co-starring lovely Jean Arthur and William Holden will be seen on the Huntingdon screen along with "Walk A Crooked Mile", and the serial "Superman". This assures the French population a real treat, packed as it is with action, thrills, adventure and romance.

Another splendid bill has been arranged for showing next Wednesday until Friday, May the 11th, 12th and 13th, when Margaret Lockwood will be presented in "Jassy" photographed entirely in Technicolor with Patricia Roc and Dennis Price. The story is of a gorgeous gypsy who rises from a kitchen maid to lady of the manor and is a natural for lavish Technicolor. The second feature on this program will be announced in our ad next week.

dress system is located. In many of the older schools no provision of this kind is made and thus when a small meeting of the officials is to be held, it must of needs be held in a classroom. With this room, meetings of the board could be held at any time during the day without disturbing the school in any way whatever.

Generally speaking then, while the cost seems to be high, $110,000, and there is little difference to be seen in the school, actually much improvement has been made and only time will prove the advantages to be gained from what has been done. A new heating plant has been added and housed outside of the main building, in quarters of its own. This will provide automatic heating of the school and maintain even temperatures under all kinds of weather conditions.

There is one other need that Gault is desirous of having and that is an auditorium such as most new schools of today have. Dr. Percival when he was in Valleyfield, hinted that the day may come when it will be possible to add this to the school.

Covey Hill

COVEY HILL — A mental flight might carry one from England to Havelock, Que., via India. The London Declaration of India's plan to become a republic while remaining in the Commonwealth calls up the story of the Indian mutiny 92 years ago, when Sir Henry Havelock was killed. Many have thrilled to the poem "Jessie's Dream at Lucknow", in which the Scottish handmaid cheers her mistress when she hears the Highland pipers of Havelock's forces come to the relief of Lucknow, where the British feared massacre. The late Mr. Wm. Barrett, Provincial Surveyor, himself a loyal native Briton, named this Township, where he lived, after the heroic Sir Henry Havelock.

The death of Mr. James Semple, of Ogdensburg, N.Y., took place on April 26, and the funeral service was held at Mooers Forks Methodist Church, last Saturday afternoon. The family pastor, a lady, gave the discourse, making a sympathetic and appreciative reference to the departed. The floral offerings were very beautiful. Interment took place at the local cemetery. The service was attended by a large gathering of friends and relatives, a number being present from Covey Hill and Hemmingford. Mr. Semple, who was 79 years old, is survived by his widow, the former Miss Catherine Davison.

Mrs. Joseph Bradley, of Mooers, is a sister.

The bus service between the Hill and Montreal commenced for the season on Saturday.

Mrs. Roderick Sutton and daughter Lois have returned from a motor trip to Singhampton, in the Collingwood, Ont., district, where they enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Sutton's sister, Mrs. Lloyd, and family.

Mrs. E. E. Bourdon and grandson, E. Monty Muir, have been guests at the Customs House. Mr. E. E. Bourdon continues seriously ill following his operation at the Barrie Memorial Hospital, Ormstown.

Mr. E. R. Lowden and son George were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lowden.

Mrs. E. R. Lowden's condition is reported slightly improved.

Miss Jean Lowden has been spending some time at Ste. Dorothee.

Church of the Nazarene Organizes

On Sunday afternoon, April 24, Bethel Church, Covey Hill, was the scene of an impressive service during which Rev. A. E. Collins, District Superintendent, delivered the sermon and received seven charter members into the organization of the Franklin Centre Church of the Nazarene.

The service was presided over by the pastor, Rev. K. E. Sullivan, assisted by Rev. A. N. Christensen, of Altona, N.Y. The music was conducted by Roger Williams, trumpeter and baritone soloist, of Eastern Nazarene College, Wollaston, Mass. Assisting the clergymen on the welcoming committee was Mr. Frank Duley of Irona, N.Y., who has been influential in reopening the Bethel Church after it had been closed for

As a preface to the reception of members the Rev. Mr. Collins traced briefly the history of the development of the Church of the Nazarene during the past forty years. Holding to the doctrine and practice of the early Methodist Church from which many of its leaders have come, the church has now nearly a quarter of a million members throughout the United States, Canada and the British Isles, besides adherents on mission fields in twenty-eight foreign countries.

Since it is expected that several other members may soon be taken into the church fellowship, the charter roll is to be left open for a short time.

Roxham

ROXHAM — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith and Carol spent Sunday with relatives in Lachute.

Mrs. Wm. Akester was a recent visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kyle, in Barrington.

Mr. Robert Akester and Norman were callers in Montreal on Friday.

Mrs. Bruce Wallace and infant son returned home on Sunday from the Barrie Memorial Hospital in Ormstown.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis and children, of Beauharnois, were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Wilfred Gatien.

BRAVE 13-YEAR-OLD GIRL SAVES BROTHERS AND SISTERS

WINS DOW AWARD

VIVIAN HARPER
of Hodgson, Man.,
averts tragedy as home burns 90 miles north of Winnipeg

13-year-old Vivian knew that it was up to her to save her 6 younger brothers and sisters. She tried to fight the flames, but when the blaze got out of control she took the children and started for the nearest house.

Exhausted from carrying two children, she collapsed . . . and told the others to carry on. It was below zero when the farmer arrived and picked up Vivian and her two charges.

Her heroism resulted in the saving of 6 lives. We are proud to present her The Dow Award.

1. The fire beyond control, Vivian got the children out of the house . . . and, clad in only a light dress, she started the trek to a farm house, a mile away.

2. After struggling half a mile through the deep snow, she collapsed. Keeping the two youngest with her, she urged the others to keep going.

3. When the farmer found Vivian, she was unable to stand. He drove her and the two children to his home. Then she was taken to hospital for treatment.

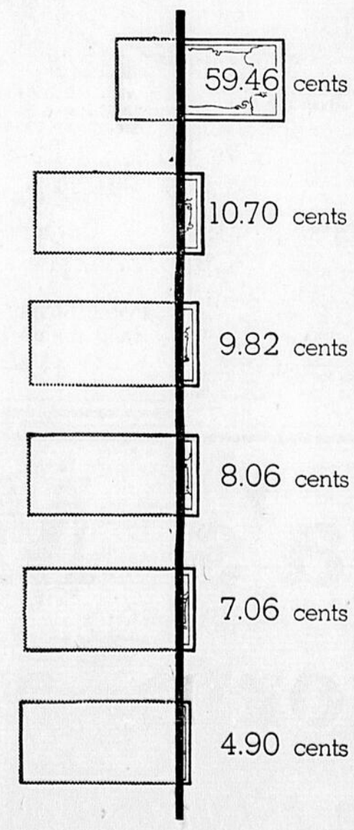
DOW BREWERY - MONTREAL

LISTEN TO THE DOW AWARD SHOW, MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY — 7.15 P.M.

Just before payday you've probably looked at what's left of your wages or housekeeping money and said: "Where does the money go?" A company must ask itself the same question, and each year provides the answer in its annual report.

The dollars we received last year—for gasoline, kerosene, fuel oil and other products—went this way:



Crude Oil and other raw materials we needed to make the products took the first big slice. Depending on where you live your oil may have come from Arabia, from South America, or from deep in the United States. In Canada only Alberta produced crude in quantity.

Manufacturing and packaging came next—complex and intricate refining operations are needed to make the hundreds of oil products which find thousands of uses in our homes and industries, on our highways, in the air and on the sea.

Transportation was the next big bite—products must move over wide areas to serve all communities in Canada.

Marketing was fourth. Marketing provides the products you need wherever you are—power, heat and lubricants for factory, farm and home. Marketing supplies that local businessman, the dealer; and if you're a fuel oil user, keeps oil in your tank!

Taxes to provincial and federal governments absorbed 7.06 cents. And this does not include gasoline tax, which—depending on where you live—takes from 22 to 33 cents out of every dollar you spend for standard grade gasoline.

Profit was 4.9 cents out of each sales dollar. From this we paid three cents to shareholders as dividends. The rest was used—together with a lot more money we borrowed and still more obtained by sales of investments—to help meet your increasing needs for oil!

Odds & Ends

Have you been trying to find your way around Beauharnois the past week? I bet you would have a difficult time directing anyone, instead of the usual, down the next street for two blocks and turn left, it would be easier to say Detour on the next Detour, all this digging is for a new Drainage system I hear.

Felt like waxing eloquent on "Ode to a Daffodil" when walking to work one morning and had my first thrill of seeing this beautiful flower which seems the very essence of Springtime with its pretty green dress and yellow cap peeping at me from a garden by the Aqueduct. I almost had itchy fingers.

The local Curlers better get in their sweeping with gusto and driving the stones right in the house from now until 1952 when the Winter Olympics are scheduled to register this fine game, to all champs who are interested. Is Beauharnois interested, and have they Champs? have better they tell me.

The folks who heard Ann McCubbin, the gal with the voice of a nightingale can hear her again at Plateau Hall, Montreal, where she is singing with a famous member of the Carl Rosa Opera Company, London, England. Second Tuesday in May is the date and worth keeping.

We see by the papers three Montrealers have top billing in the opera Guilds Canadian Premiere of Verdis Othello due at His Majestys next week.

This is what I need! and is new on the market a bread dispenser that holds one loaf and delivers a slice at a time by a turn of a knob. I never could slice that loaf straight.

This is for the girls! at a beauty contest out west all decisions went for the lassies with a minimum of rouge, powder and lipstick, the days of the complexion not from the handbag is definitely in again.

Funniest cartoon of the week. Wife in kitchen surrounded by fish saying to her husband, why aren't you like other husbands! They never catch anything! Can't be any of the husbands we know.

With the fine weather comes Saturday and the lads are out in the garden bursting with enthusiasm to get the old spade out and the digging begun, after a few back breaking hours of hard labour there is always time out for the pause that refreshes. Could be that's what they like about gardening.

DOROTHY

Sunday which is the eight day of May,
Was chosen for us that we may be allowed to say
To a Wonderful Person, for whom we fervently Pray
God Keep you Safe from Day to Day.
That you may be with us at work and play,
Sharing our sorrows and our joys,
Some of us girls, some of us boys,
Keep us enshrined in your Dear heart
Which each one of us share an equal part.
To you our Love we now extend, and say,
A Gladsome Wonderful Mother's Day.

Dorothy.

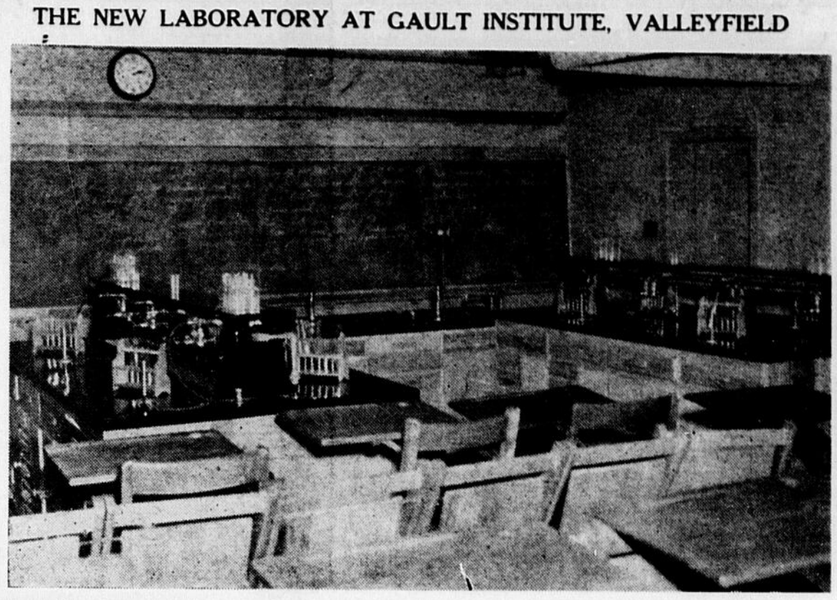
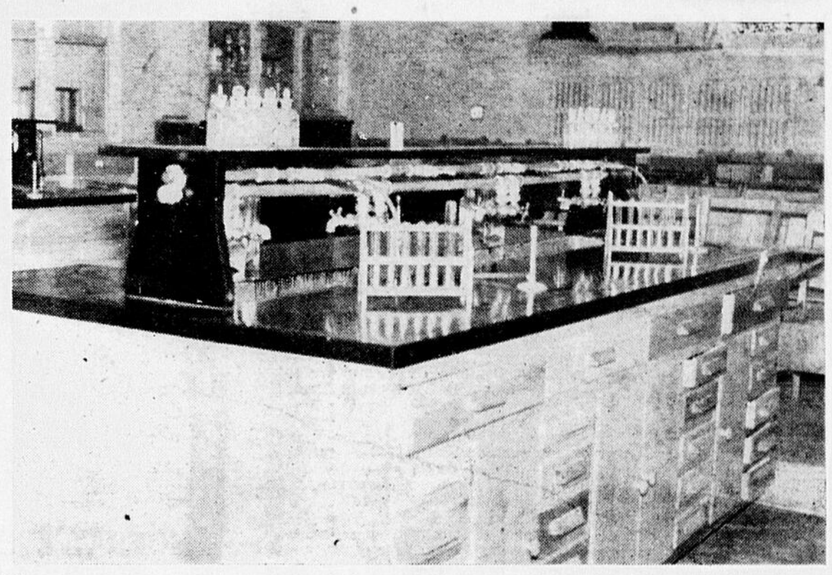
THE NEW LABORATORY AT GAULT INSTITUTE, VALLEYFIELD





Above are two views of the newly equipped laboratory at Gault Institute, Valleyfield, which give some idea of the equipment in this room. It is situated in the basement of the school and there are two large work benches equipped with all the apparatus that will be required to work out scientific experiments in the course of studies undertaken at the school. Underneath the benches are numbers of drawers and cupboards for storage purposes and to keep supplies handy. A large blackboard across the room provides plenty of writing space for the teacher to explain formulas and other data to do with the study. A number of desks and chairs on a raised platform provide accommodation for students when lectures are given. Also in the room are cupboards where chemicals can be stored. This laboratory is said to be the best equipped outside of the Island of Montreal.

Valleyfield Legion to Hold Field-Day

The Valleyfield branch of the Canadian Legion will hold their annual Field Day on the twenty-first of May, weather permitting.

The Field Day will be held at the Exhibition Grounds again this year and the Legion members promise a much larger and varied program. The highlight of the day will be the drawing for a new Ford which has been on display in Valleyfield.

The tickets for this car are going fast and it will be a good idea to get your tickets before it is too late. You can win this beautiful automobile.

The Ladies' Auxiliary extends an invitation to their open meeting on the 5th of May, 1949, to be held at the Montreal Cottons lunchroom. At this meeting they will celebrate their second anniversary.

Members of Branch 62 wish to thank the Huntingdon Branch and also the citizens of Huntingdon for their splendid support in the sales of tickets for the Ford car.

Mr. Joseph Primeau was the guest of honor at the general meeting of Branch 62 last week. Mr. Primeau spoke on the general employment situation in the Valleyfield area, and the possibilities of jobs at the Beauharnois construction project. He is responsible for obtaining jobs for many of the members of Branch 62. We hope that Mr. Primeau will visit the branch again in the near future.

Messrs. Sam Butt, M. Buttress and Charles Johnson have been elected to attend the Legion Convention in Montreal.

Remember the Legion Field Day.

C.G.I.T. Mother and Daughter Banquet at Chateauguay

CHATEAUGUAY— The annual C. G. I. T. Mother and Daughter Banquet was held on Wednesday, April 27, in St. Andrew's Church Hall. Thirty-eight guests sat down to a delicious supper, prepared and served by members of the Woman's Association under the convenership of Mrs. W. J. Reid.

The banquet theme being "Follow the Gleam", the nautical idea was carried out. The tables, decorated with Spring flowers and illuminated lighthouses resting upon plastic mats indicative of the seven seas, were gay with orange-coloured place cards in the form of anchors and the favours were "Wint-o-Green Life Savers." The programmes had been made by the girls, the covers being a picture of a lighthouse against a background of blue sky and green sea.

The First Mate, Maude Mandigo, presided and welcomed the guests. Taking part in the programme were Captain Elizabeth Goodale and Frances Watt, Skipper, Mrs. D. R. Morrison, other girls taking part were called Mariners.

A short programme followed the banquet, the first item being the Salute to the Flag, the Pledge of Allegiance and God Save the King.

The toast to the Church was proposed by Evelyn Watt and responded to by Rev. D. R. Morrison. The toast to the Mothers proposed by Ann Ellicott and responded to by Mrs. R. W. Allen.

Elinor Watt rendered a piano solo which was followed by a vocal duet, "Sweet and Low", by Marie Theurkoff and Elinor Watt with Evelyn Watt at the piano.

Mr. David Reid brought greetings from the Sunday School and Frances Watt reporting for the C. G. I. T. Group, stated there were 18 members on the roll, but regretted they were losing three members through removal from the town. Elizabeth Goodale presented C. G. I. T. Calenders to these girls.

Mrs. Morrison welcomed one new member Louise Leplaine to the group and presented her with her membership pin and card.

Mrs. Morrison then called on Miss R. M. McFarlane, president of the W. M. S. to present the World Friendship Insignia to Marilyn Eaglesham, Doreen Geary, Joyce Riach, Wilma Barber, Marie Theurkoff, Ann Ellicott and Louise Leplaine.

This was followed by a Piano solo by Elizabeth Goodale and Remarks by Rev. D. R. Morrison, who was thanked by Sandra Eaglesham.

The Candle Lighting Ceremony then took place. Mrs Morrison lit the tall white candle representing Jesus, the Light of the World, the Mothers' Candles were lighted from the first candle, the Mothers pledging their love and comradeship to their own daughters and a kindly word and helping hand to all other girls of whatever nation.

The Mothers lighted their daughters' candles, who in turn pledged love and loyalty to her own mother and kindness and thoughtfulness to every mother, and would try to help every girl to be the girl God would have her be in order that the motherhood of our land may grow more and more like Christ as the days go by.

Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Morrison voiced the appreciation of the assembled guests to Mrs. W. J. Reid and her committee for their work in connection with the banquet.

The singing of Taps brought a very plesant meeting to a close.

At the close of the meeting, there was a Shower for the Paper Table for the Bazaar being held in June. Mrs. I. Gilbert and Mrs. E. N. Suckling, conveners for the abovementioned table thanked the ladies for the many useful articles and money which had been contributed. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Rod.
