

Textile Workers, Laid Off Over Strike Seek Unemployment Insurance

Unemployment in Canada stood at 237,000 on Oct. 17, up 24,000 from a month earlier.

The dominion bureau of statistics reported all of the decline in employment came in farm jobs, where there was a drop of 52,000. The October figure was considerably better than a year ago when 313,000 were out of work.

Applications Before Montreal Officials

By PAT BOUGIE
(Record Staff Reporter)

Unemployment insurance applications by 350 Sherbrooke Plant Dominion Textile employees laid off work two weeks ago because of the existing strike, are being decided by officials of the Montreal Unemployment Insurance Commission.

"These men have not as yet been refused unemployment insurance," Eugene Charette, of the Sherbrooke Unemployment Commission office said this morning.

"Their applications are before Montreal officials and no decision has been arrived at," he continued.

"Each application is being carefully studied," Mr. Charette said.

The employees were laid off work because of large inventories built up in the Sherbrooke plant, because of the Magog strike.

All fabrics made at the Sherbrooke plant are transferred to Magog where they are dyed.

MAGOG SITUATION
Jeff Moynan, manager of the Magog plant told the Record this morning that Union officials will be contacted either later today or tomorrow to see if agreement can be reached regarding the heating of the plant.

"We would like to have some boiler operators in the plant," Mr. Moynan said.

Mr. Moynan issued this statement following rumours that pickets at the Magog plant have prevented maintenance men from entering the plant and that water pipes are freezing.

Capt. Armand St. Jacques, of the Magog police department said today that police would not try and get maintenance men in the plant.

"We will have nothing to do with it," the Captain said. "That problem is their trouble and not ours," he concluded.

Father Hides Out

Seeks Lifting Of "Unmerciful Order"

VANCOUVER (CP) — Fugitive Weldon Chan says he is hiding in Eastern Canada and hoping an "unmerciful order" for his deportation will be suspended.

Lawyer Harry Fan said Thursday he has received a letter from Chan, whom the immigration department has ordered arrested. He found the letter cached in a napkin holder in a restaurant after an anonymous telephone caller told him it was there. Chan, his wife and five-year-old daughter arrived in Canada 18 months ago on a visitor's visa and were refused permission to remain in the country.

Chan said he was going to Ottawa to see Immigration Minister Fairclough but he disappeared along the way and has not been seen since. Mr. Fan said the letter was definitely in Chan's handwriting and said in part: "I am not running away from the law, I am protesting the injustice."

In Ottawa, Sydney Williams, executive secretary of the Canadian Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said he had discussed Chan's case with Mrs. Fairclough and is satisfied the government is "completely justified" in deporting Chan.

MRS. WELDON CHAN and her five-year-old daughter, Alice, of Vancouver, don't know what's going to happen next in the case of their Hong-Kong-born husband and father who is facing a deportation order. (CP Photo)

Reject Cease-Fire Proposal

Hope Seen Dimmer

"Same Old Package" Still Bogs Steel Talks

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Hopes for a settlement in the national steel dispute were dimmer today after the United Steelworkers spurned the newest proposal of the American steel industry.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, disclosed the new offer Thursday. He said it was a "fair offer to do what can be done and still keep within non-inflationary bounds in the cost of steel production."

USW president David J. McDonald termed the proposal "something only a company-controlled union would accept." He said the offer was just a rearrangement of "the same old package offered by the industry on Oct. 17."

The new offer was submitted to the union Nov. 15 during secret negotiations between both sides. McDonald said the union's 33-member executive board turned it down the same day.

30-CENT PACKAGE
Had the proposal been accepted, said Cooper, it would have meant a 30-cent-an-hour package over a three-year period.

McDonald claimed the proposal would mean a gain of only 24 cents an hour over the three-year period, and "the only changes in the work rules issue are a stay of sentence in the same old attempt to deprive steel workers of hard-won gains and protections."

Meanwhile, the steel workers are back on the job under the Taft-Hartley law injunction invoked Nov. 7. They are earning an average hourly wage of $3.11 under terms of their old contract.

Certain Colors

Protest Lipstick Banning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lipstick makers follow cranberries as the subject of the United States food and drug administration's next battle with industry.

Last month FDA banned the use in lipsticks of certain coal-tar colors it said had caused death and illness in test rats. The ban, if uncontroverted, would have gone into effect Jan. 6, 1960.

But lipstick makers, in vigorous protests just filed with FDA, are contending that most lipsticks on the American market would be affected. The 17 shades of red, yellow and orange the FDA cited are key ingredients and have been used for many years without harm, they say.

In fact, the manufacturers say, the ban could ruin much of the lipstick industry, whose retail sales are estimated at some $80,000,000 annually.

The industry contends there has been no substantial proof that humans may be harmed by what they claim is an infinitesimal amount of color that gets into the digestive system from lipstick.

Late Bulletin

PARIS (CP) — Government officials said today an offer by Algerian rebels to negotiate a ceasefire in Algeria is "unacceptable."

The Algerian rebel provisional government in Tunis today named five of its leaders, now under arrest in France, to discuss a ceasefire in the bitter Algerian revolt with French officials.

Name Jailed Leaders

TUNIS — (Reuters) — The Algerian insurgent "provisional government" today authorized a group of its imprisoned leaders to negotiate a ceasefire with the French government.

President de Gaulle has repeatedly invited leaders of the Algerian rebel movement to go to France under safe-conduct passes to negotiate a ceasefire.

Today's statement from the "provisional government" naming as spokesmen five men already held in French captivity served as the first sure sign the rebels are willing to negotiate an end to the five-year-old war for independence from France.

The statement reaffirmed there could be no ceasefire without guarantees for the principle of self-determination in Algeria.

De Gaulle promised in September that Algeria will get self-determination within four years of the end of hostilities.

The rebel statement named Mohammed Ben Bella and four other insurgent chiefs held by the French government to negotiate a ceasefire.

French forces captured these leaders by forcing down their plane in October, 1956, as they were flying to Tunis from a Moslem conference in Rabat organized by Tunisia and Morocco with the aim of ending the Algerian war.

They have been imprisoned ever since.

The leader of the "provisional government" is Ferhat Abbas. As chief of the Algerian National Liberation Front (ELN), it had generally been assumed that he or one of his deputies at the ELN's Tunis headquarters would be assigned to negotiate the ceasefire.

A communique issued today by the Algerian National Movement (MNA), a rival insurgent group to the ELN, repeated its acceptance of ceasefire negotiations. It named leader Messali Jadj as chief negotiator.

New Teeth For Quebec Labor Act

New Setup Proposed Bill Get First Reading

QUEBEC (CP) — The Quebec government intends to put some teeth in the Quebec Labor Relations Act.

In a bill given first reading in the legislative assembly Thursday the government proposes to change the make-up of the Quebec Labor Relations Board to give employer and employee groups equal weight.

Employer groups and labor groups would each recommend three representatives to the revamped board, although the provincial cabinet would still make the appointments and fix salaries. The government would pick the board's chairman and vice-chairman.

But under this new set-up the government proposes to make things tough for employers or employees who refuse to abide by the board's decisions or who violate provisions of the act.

Instead of a fixed fine for an offence the government now proposes to make offences punishable by daily fines of from $100 to $1,000 for each day the violation lasts.

Most of the provisions in the amendments to the law have been the subject of representations to the Quebec government by labor unions for more than 10 years.

One of the radical changes the government intends to make concerns dismissal of employees for union activities.

The amendments now provide that the onus of proof in a case involving an illegally dismissed employee will be on the employer. He would have to prove that the employee was not fired for union activities.

The labor board would have the final word in such cases. An employer, if found to have acted illegally, would also be required to re-hire the dismissed employee and pay him an indemnity equal to the amount he would have received if he had continued to work.

The government would guarantee repayment of loans floated by the universities and of the interest on the boni issues.

The assembly worked at a quick pace to give first reading to a total of 38 bills and 19 resolutions. This is a formality but it sets the government up for action when the throne speech debate, opening Tuesday, comes to a close.

Controversial Prelate Dies Of Heart Attack

VICTORIA (CP) — Most Rev. Joseph Charbonneau, one of the Roman Catholic church's most outspoken and controversial archbishops, died of a heart attack Thursday. He was 67.

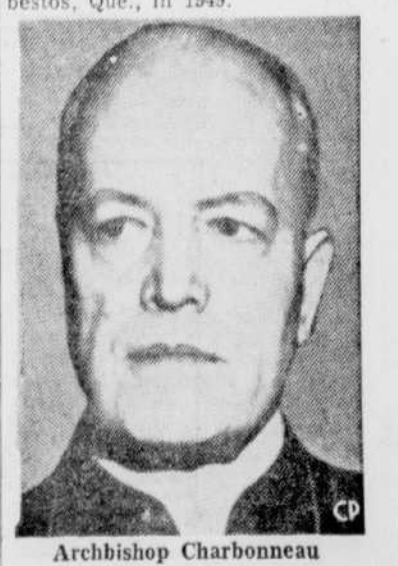

The elderly prelate, who resigned as archbishop of Montreal in 1959 during a storm of criticism for being sympathetic toward striking Quebec asbestos workers, had been in St. Joseph's Hospital here for more than two months.

He underwent a recent gall bladder operation but hospital officials said the recent surgery had no connection with the death.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced. But it is understood his body will be sent to an undisclosed destination in eastern Canada.

Archbishop Charbonneau, a tall, slim son of the farming town of Lefevre, Ont., in the St. Lawrence Valley, was archbishop of Montreal for nine years.

nation, the Vatican said the move was prompted by ill health. Some sources said the resignation was requested because he had shown sympathy toward strikers during a long and bitter walkout at Asbestos, Que., in 1949.

B.B.'s Hubby Poses Problem For de Gaulle

PARIS (AP) — Jacques Charrier, Brigitte Bardot's husband, has become a problem for President Charles de Gaulle's government.

Roland Boudet, a member of the Gaullist Union for the New Republic, has asked the government what measures it intends to take to make sure all men inducted into the armed services are treated equally—"even when they have just left... the arms of a famous star."

Although Boudet mentioned neither the name of Charrier nor Bardot, there was no question in anyone's mind that he referred to Brigitte's husband.

Charrier, 23, an actor, was inducted early this month. He was admitted to hospital with eye trouble 24 hours after being conscripted. Shortly afterward he was granted leave to finish a film. Then he visited Brigitte when she said she was not feeling well—she is expecting a baby.

Before returning to his base, Charrier was examined by a military doctor and admitted to hospital for treatment of nervous depression.

When Boudet posed his question, fellow deputies laughed and applauded. There was no immediate response from the government benches.

Mary. The reason is her debut with the San Francisco Opera Company. She drew applauding reviews up and down the Pacific coast, especially for her Musetta in La Boheme.

Back in her Beverly Hills home after the rigors of singing in five operas, Mary is still aglow. And well she should be, because she now has the ace impresario Sol Hurok to mastermind her career. Just after the opera season ended, she signed a deal with Hurok that will guarantee her $250,000 over a five-year period.

BIGGEST KICK
"One of the biggest kicks in all this," she remarked, "is in seeing the surprise of people who know me in Hollywood. One of the people in the Chrysler Corporation said to me, 'gee, Mary, why didn't you sing like that on our show?' They wouldn't let me!"

"But I don't regret anything. I don't feel that any of the time is wasted."

"And I'm glad I waited until I was asked to sing leading roles. I don't think I would have had the same impact if I had started singing small roles and worked my way up."

Likewise, she is glad she turned down a contract offer from the Metropolitan. It would have tied her down to small roles and small money until she "had developed."

Hurok has big plans for her, including a Jack Benny TV special, concerts and a European tour. And next summer she plans to make a movie abroad with Maurice Chevalier. It will be written, directed and produced by her able husband, Frank Tashlin.

"I think the time is ripe for the kind of movie Grace Moore used to do," she said. "Again, I'm glad we waited to do this picture, because use now people won't be able to say, 'Well, she got the job because she's the producer's wife.'"

ET Drive Starts Today

The St. Francis Anti-Tuberculosis League Inc. Christmas Seal campaign gets underway today in the Eastern Townships. Final plans were made last night by the Sherbrooke committee of the League at the St. Francis Sanitarium for the campaign, which supplies the funds to do considerable background research into the disease as well as to help T.B. patients. The aim of the league is to inform the public of the devastating results of this dread disease and of the circumstances which aggravate it. Financial aid helps to rehabilitate sufferers of the disease by continuing their studies or returning to their former occupations. Last year in the Eastern Townships, the Mobile Anti-T.B. Unit examined 28,574 people among which 20 patients were discovered. Of the 5,586 persons having X-rays at the dispensary, 20 new cases were discovered. The St. Francis Sanitarium admitted 115 new patients of which 30 were from the City of Sherbrooke and the rest from other Townships communities. A circular letter will be sent to Sherbrooke citizens to announce the campaign and appeal to their generosity for this worthwhile campaign. All donations were deductible for income tax purposes. A group of ladies will make a door to door canvass of the principal business firms and everyone is asked to be generous in their support of this project.

Bishop's 'Patience'
 Rollicking Version Backed By Chorus

By NICK POWELL (Record Staff Reporter)
 LENNOXVILLE — Bishop's University Dramatics Society added another leaf to its constantly growing reputation last night with a rollicking production of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta Patience at the University Gymnasium. Probably one of the least popular of the Gilbert and Sullivan's operettas, Patience was done to a turn in last night's performance. The eleven major roles were superbly backed up by the male and female choruses comprising 32 voices. In fact, chorus work was the strong point of the performance. However, what the leads may have lacked due to nervousness or non-professional skill, was more than made up by their enthusiasm and obvious enjoyment of their parts. High point of the evening was a screamingly funny "It's Clear that Medieval Art" trio involving Colonel Calverly, Major Murratroy and Lieutenant, the Duke of Dunstable, of the Dragon Guards, played by Robert Gordon, Bill Ferris and Brian Stevenson respectively. The sprightly satire on the aesthetic craze of the 1890's presents a fleshly poet, Bunthorne, played by John Wood, in competition for a group of "languid ladies" with an idyllic poet, Grosvenor, played riotously by Tom Matthews. Complications arise when both Bunthorne and Grosvenor fall for the local milkmaid, superbly played by Heidi Rumscheidt. The plot gradually resolves itself as the Colonel, Major and Duke, get back their betrothed from the weepy wiles of Bunthorne and the equally insipid gambols of Grosvenor, leaving Bunthorne, all forlorn and quite alone. Of the supporting roles, Lady

Weedon Mine May Operate 'Soon'

WEEDON — Clearing operations at the caved-in stope of Weedon Mining Co., mine are progressing satisfactorily and teams are expected to be able to start clearing 16th level sometime this weekend, said W. W. Bates, manager of mining operations of the Weedon Mining Company. Mr. Bates added that mining and milling operations may be back to normal shortly after the men reach the 16th level, about 1,300 feet down. Seven or eight pumps are installed in the shafts emptying the digging of water, flooded when the pipeline to the lake was broken in the original collapse. However, Mr. Bates states that men working on the pumps were experiencing some difficulty with break-downs. The original cave-in Monday morning, left a rift on the surface some 25 to 30 feet across and hundreds of feet in length. A crew of 22 men working underground was brought to the surface before the collapse when signs of weakening in the shoring were first seen. No one was injured. Gordon MacDonald, vice-president and general manager of the company, was called in from Toronto to oversee initial recovery operations. Last night, with clearing work well underway, he left for Montreal.

Red Cross officials said that the Clinic netted only 50 percent of the 300 pint objective. With the 150 pints given at Bishop's total donations for the district reached 1,667.

To Help Quebec Compete

A three-member commission of the Union of Municipalities of Quebec should be formed to investigate the advantages and facilities the Province of Ontario offers new industries, Mayor Armand Nadeau suggested yesterday. Such a study would enable the province of Quebec to compete with Ontario on equal basis, the mayor said at his weekly press conference. According to Mr. Nadeau, president of the Union of Municipalities of Quebec, he forwarded these suggestions to Jean-Louis Doucet, Q.C. and sub-minister of Municipal Affairs of the Union. These suggestions were made after Mr. Nadeau heard rumors to the effect that the industrial assistance policies of this province were in for a radical change. At present, the provincial government permits amendments to city charters to permit loans to industries interested in establishing themselves in cities.

BOND ISSUE
 On his return from a trip to New York to find out what progress had been made in selling some $2,500,000 worth of bonds on the American market, Mayor Armand Nadeau said yesterday that Sherbrooke was almost assured of the sale of its bonds.

According to Mr. Nadeau, the negotiating agent, Dominion Securities Ltd., are presently selling the bonds and are expected to have this work completed for Dec. 15.

Mr. Nadeau said that the American market seems to be "very nervous" at present. "New York is the place to negotiate for a loan," said the mayor. "But Sherbrooke was preceded by the Montreal Metropolitan Commission." The mayor went on to say that the Canadian market was seen in a good light by Americans. Mayor Nadeau will speak to a large group of American industrialists in Chicago at the end of this month.

 Sherbrooke Pianist Wins Praise For First Recital

A young Sherbrooke pianist, recognized for her outstanding talent a few years ago when she carried off top honors at the local Youth Festival, gave her first solo recital last night before a well filled hall at the College Sacre-Coeur, Park ave. Her program also included the onerous Sonata, Opus 110 by Beethoven; Les Fastes de la grande et ancienne Menestrandise by Francois Couperin; Theme and Variations, Opus 73, in C sharp minor by Gabriel Faure; the famous Prelude and Fugue No. 20 in A Minor, Vol. 2 from the Well Tempered Clavichord; and Chopin's Le Grande Ballade, Opus 23, in G Minor. Occasionally a bit of nervousness showed through in some of the more challenging passages but on the whole Miss Thibault

Risk Lives For Two Dogs
 Freezing Pond Claims One

DANVILLE — Two men risked their lives yesterday in an attempt to save two drowning dogs in the freezing waters of the Danville Pond. One of the dogs died of exhaustion before the rescuers could reach the pair, but the other was dragged to safety. About 1:30 yesterday afternoon, people in the Pond district heard sharp yelps and barking from many feet out towards the center of the pond. Upon further investigation, two dogs' heads could be seen just above the water line, some thousand feet from the shore of the Pond. A volunteer rescue party formed at the edge of the pond equipped with a row boat, oars and axe, and two of the men, Bill Brown and Rheume Fetcau began their daring journey over the thin coat of ice towards the

Wheelchair 'Brown Owl' A Unique Leader

SUTTON — There are Girl Guides and Brownies in cities, towns and hamlets all the way across Canada from coast to coast and even up in the Yukon. That wonderful organization founded in our Dominion in May, 1910, will celebrate its "Golden Anniversary" next year.

Multiple Sclerosis No Handicap

A Canadian of British parentage, Doreen Macoe of Abercorn, Que., grew up in her home city of St. Lambert, where, as a young child, she joined the Brownies. First, she became a Brownie; then, as soon as she could, of course, she became a Guide. "At 16," she remembered with a smile, "I had my own Brownie pack. My, how wise and mature that made me feel!" But she didn't realize then, of course, how greatly that early sound training in such a worthwhile organization would later benefit and strengthen her. After accepting a position in the C.P.R. offices, she started a business career. She enjoyed her work and in out-of-office hours filled her leisure time with social engagements, dates and pleasant hobbies. Then, suddenly, she was stricken with multiple sclerosis. Menaced by such a malignant foe, many persons would have quit cold in utter despair. But Doreen didn't.

Quebec's Eastern Townships — is 6 miles from Abercorn. To make the return trip each Tuesday in her wheelchair by bus or taxi presented quite a problem. All the same, she decided to accept the invitation. That was nearly three years ago. Now, with four sixes of Brownies designated by names of such helpful but sometimes mischievous fairies as Elves, Gnomes, Nymphs and Sprites, and three patrols of Guides, the Bluebirds, Orioles and Scarlet tanagers, she still carries on efficiently as Captain and Brown Owl. "Of course, though," she pointed out, "I have many splendid helpers. I have to have, for I'm unable to use my left arm much any more. And, without my ever-ready assistant, Martha Wighton, the Tawny Owl, I'd be utterly lost." She also gave credit to her girls. Some of these junior misses are talented young musicians; others star at schoolwork, sports and domestic science — and not a few

The Cold War

Liberal Leader Lester Pearson, beginning a Maritime tour Wednesday, said it would be stupid to think an apparent improvement in East-West Relations means an early end to the cold war.

He agreed that the atmosphere between Russia and the free world has improved since the series of "summit" visits began, but warned that "the test of the value and reality of this atmosphere is whether it can be followed up by a solution for international problems."

Prime Minister Macmillan of the United Kingdom sounded essentially the same warning in a speech at the Lord Mayor's banquet in the City of London Guildhall on Monday.

He said: "... today, instead of an atmosphere of ultimatum, we are embarked upon a series of discussions, visits and negotiations... It is of vital importance that this atmosphere should be maintained... but all these visits and exploratory conversations must lead to serious negotiation."

Mr. Macmillan's idea of a solution, as advanced in the same speech, was that tension in the world "may be reduced and problems resolved little by little, step by step," in a whole series of summit meetings.

The attitude assumed by Mr. Pearson, Mr. Macmillan, and indeed, most of the West's leaders that an easier atmosphere is not enough; that it must be backed up by a seeking for solutions to problems now unsolved provides more grounds for optimism than the "thaw" in the cold war itself.

It remains to be seen if the Russian leaders feel the same way. If they do not, then the present atmosphere is nothing more than rose-tinted spectacles over our eyes.

A Fine Response

One of the finest responses to any kind of worthy cause was made Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the annual fall blood donor clinic of the Sherbrooke Branch of the Red Cross.

Donors from the city and surrounding communities trooped to the Belvedere St. Armory clinic in greater numbers than ever before in the history of the local branch.

A goal of 1,200 pints was exceeded by 317.

Members of the local branch, and all those who helped make the clinic such a huge success may be justifiably proud of their efforts.

A Trend To Coffee?

If and when Montreal's new air terminus is completed, there's going to be lots of coffee available for travellers.

Just coffee, nothing else.

That's what Federal Transport Minister Hees told reporters during a tour of the far-from-completed airport this week.

"I'm just a man from Hogtown," he is quoted as saying. "I like coffee, and it looks like everybody else will have to acquire the taste."

Which makes one wonder about Mr.

And to those who gave blood must come a double satisfaction — the knowledge that an important social responsibility has been fulfilled, and the realization that in an intensely personal way, they have helped to save a human life.

A pint of your blood may already be giving life to a child, a man or a woman in the hospital. You will never know who you have helped, or in what way; but of one thing you can be sure; someone somewhere is going to live because of you.

Such a gift, freely given, is as precious as life itself.

Hees' influence in the beverage sphere in Ottawa. Recent news items note that at government social events in the capital city, coffee is now being served instead of stronger beverages.

Is this Mr. Hees' doing, or is it a new, and hitherto unheralded bit of Government policy?

The trend seems to fit in with a Conservative (or conservative) and wide-awake attitude.

A TEAR FOR DOBBIN

(Lethbridge Herald)

The substitution of the horseless carriage for the horse-drawn variety is progress. But it is in some ways an unsatisfactory advance. One of its defects was noted by a driver for the local dairy which has just disposed of the last horses used commercially in Lethbridge. "I won't be able to whistle at my truck to meet me in the middle of a block," he reflected.

This shortcoming may eventually be overcome by milk trucks which either possess "brams of their own or can be guided by remote control. But it is unlikely that such vehicles will be fitted with hooves that "clip-clop" along the streets on a frosty morning to let drowsy householders know that all's right with the world. Nor will the sleekest of trucks ever become the attraction for youngsters that patient old Dobbin has been over the years.

Indeed, it is the youngsters we feel for most in the passing of the horse age. For if the lion is king of the beasts the horse is surely the royal duke combining dignity with gentleness and speed and grace with a noble desire to serve. The child who has not known at least passing familiarity with a horse has missed something of value. And for many city children, even in Lethbridge, horses will henceforth be creatures which appear annually at exhibitions.

CHRISTMAS HUMBUNG

(Brookville Recorder and Times)

Scrooge lived before his time. If he were around today we're quite sure his "humbung" would be heard more often about many aspects of the Christmas season. Almost lost in the welter of commercial nonsense, the true spirit of the season takes a poor second place.

Included in this commercial nonsense is the practice of insincerity experienced in the sending of Christmas cards.

Not those sent from relative to relatives or friend to friend but the type sent for business reasons. It has become a form of advertising.

LOSES TWO WAYS

(Sudbury Star)

The Canadian Association of Consumers has written a letter of protest to Prime Minister Diefenbaker over the sale of 10,000,000 pounds of butter to the United Kingdom at a price of 56 cents a pound. The Association took the position the butter should have been made available to Canadian consumers at the lower price.

Canadians now pay around 70 cents a pound.

The objection, of course, is based on the fact that the government is in the butter and egg business for the purpose of maintaining high prices. Surplus butter is bought by the government at a floor price of 64 cents a pound and put into storage.

A strong protest was made a few years ago when the Liberal government, which introduced this "keep up the prices" policy, sold surplus butter at fire sale prices for consumption in Iron Curtain countries. The public treasury absorbed a substantial loss on the transaction.

This indulgence on the part of the government is akin to a poker player lending money to his opponents. He will eventually wind up the loser. The government buys butter with taxpayer funds and puts it into storage. Storage costs must be paid on this butter—also paid out of the public treasury. Then the government sells the butter at bargain counter prices to other than the Canadian consumers who put up the money to buy the butter. The Canadian taxpayer winds up as a double loser. He cannot recoup his financial loss and he has also lost the butter.

One of the main reasons for this turn of events is the success of past U.S. aid programs. The economies of Japan and Western Europe bolstered by huge U.S. grants and loans, have recovered to the point where they compete with the U.S. markets the world over. Many of the markets are still being financed with U.S. funds.

Aid to the undeveloped countries must continue. The United States and Canada have carried the main load of helping war-torn and distressed nations since World War II.

CANADA'S WORLD FAIR?

(Peterborough Examiner)

It would be appropriate if Canada could afford to sponsor the World Fair; 1967 is her centennial. The World Fair could enhance her prestige and propitiously launch her into her second century.

Many Canadians would like a World Fair to be held in Canada even if a financial loss were inevitable; Dominion and provincial aid could considerably enlighten the burden the city chosen as the site would have to carry.

Although the prospects of holding the fair in Canada are not at the moment encouraging, efforts during the next few years could brighten the possibilities; there is no insurmountable reason why Canada should not accommodate the World Fair.

CASTRO UNIMPRESSIVE

(Corner Brook Western Star)

Revolutionary Cuba's leadership looks less and less impressive. Premier Fidel Castro is attempting to sweep the muck resulting from his inexperience under the rug, while bombastically directing the attention of the populace at the "American Imperialists", a phrase supplied to him ready-made by Moscow and Peiping.

When an unstable head of state, lacking the know-how of statesmanship, gets into trouble, he assembles the mob and attempts to incite it by pointing at imaginary threats from foreign nations.

Celebrates 97th Birthday

Her Life A Series Of Miracles

VERNON, B.C. (OP) — Mrs. Louise Campbell-Brown says her life has been a series of miracles. Her delicate appearance belies a life of action and her glowing eyes belie her age. She celebrated her 97th birthday last month.

"I'm thankful for such a happy life," she said then to friends who had gathered to honor her as authoress, college founder and missionary.

Mrs. Campbell-Brown was born in Scotland. In 1903, she and her husband, Colin, travelled to China for the Presbyterian Church. They were stationed in a village near Amoy, where their three children were born.

There Mrs. Campbell-Brown established the Chuan Chow Westminster College, which today graduates more than 1,000 doctors, lawyers, educationists, artists and technicians annually.

Mrs. Campbell-Brown adopted a Chinese daughter there, too. The daughter now is a maternity doctor, working in the Philippine Islands.

The family came to Canada in 1911 and made their home at Amory Ranch, between this Okanagan Valley city and Oyama, about 20 miles south.

Shortly after her husband's death in 1924, Mrs. Campbell-Brown converted the ranch into a resort. During the years there, she walked five miles to attend and sometimes conduct the services at the United Church in Oyama.

This, she says now, was no hardship. Often in China she walked as much as 14 miles a day during duties as a missionary. In addition she had dodged bullets of Chinese bandits.

"I believe the Lord preserved me," she says.

Mrs. Campbell-Brown was 75 when she carried out a promise to return to China. Her obstacle had been lack of funds.

Always independent, she did not approach those she knew would be glad to give. Her objective was $200 and she recalls that one day a man appeared at her door with a cheque for $165, a belated payment for a sale of dairy cattle. The following day, she was offered $75 for timber on her property.

Before departing, the Chinese community here had presented her with money and medical supplies and in Vancouver a similar presentation was made by Chinese there.

Mrs. Campbell-Brown stayed in China for 13 months that time and on her return wrote a book, "China Revisited."

She now lives in retirement in Vernon.

LITTLE FOUR

(Kitchener-Waterloo Record)

The big fellows just talk about a summit meeting. The little ones get down to cases and held one.

Unless you collect stamps, you may never have heard of the participants: Lichtenstein, Monaco, San Marino and Andorra.

The Little Four couldn't see any point in shuffling feet while waiting for the Big Four to do something. Said one of their spokesmen:

"We are going ahead with our own plans for advancing the cause of peace by working for more tourism."

Hard to tell how that will sound in Moscow, London, Paris and Washington. But at least it's a start. The more people move around looking at their fellows in other countries, the more they are likely to realize the absurdity of war.

The Little Four didn't do much else except agree to put out some commemorative stamps taking note of their meeting.

Still, we'd better not smile. There have been big summit meetings that didn't produce as much as a single postage stamp to show for the effort.

'NOT SPORTING'

(Victoria Times)

One man has been wounded in the knee while sitting on a lot by the roadside, and another, hunting in the vicinity, has been charged with criminal negligence in Fort St. James court.

"We offer no comment on the case, but we would like to repeat an inviolable rule in hunting."

It states that it is not sporting to shoot at a deer sitting on a stump and smoking a pipe, particularly if the deer is wearing a red cap or yellow jacket.

COST FACTORS

(Industry)

Twenty-two cents out of the Canadian sales dollar go for direct manufacturing wages and 1.6 cents go for fringe benefits, which are indirect wages. Forty-six-and-a-half cents go for materials a company buys to make its products.

Few people stop to figure out that the materials cost, in its turn, is largely wages which have been paid to other manufacturing employees, farmers, woodsmen, fishermen, miners, transportation, storage and trade workers for their contribution to the final product.

And all this doesn't take into consideration the factory's other expenses of 14.2 cents in each sales dollar, expenses which also contain an element of wages paid to some Canadian or another. (Even taxes include wages paid to the civil servant and the tax collector himself.)

Jacoby On Bridge

RISK PAYS OFF IN DUPLICATE

How would you play your nice comfortable four-heart contract? At rubber bridge you ruff the opening diamond in dummy and lead the king of hearts. When both opponents follow, you overtake ace, draw trumps and wind up with 12 tricks.

At duplicate you have more of a problem. You note the easy play for six but good dummy players want to go after every trick they can get and you can make a grand slam if you want to take a slight risk.

The risky play is to overtake the king of hearts with your ace and to trump a second diamond with the queen. Now you come back to your hand with the ace of spades and go after the rest of the trumps. If the suit breaks three-two you can now make a grand slam. If it does not break three-two you will be held to four odd.

The gambling play is correct at duplicate. A suit will break three-two 68 per cent of the time and those should be good enough odds for anyone.

are keen young naturalists. All are eagerly responsive and cooperative.

To keep them interested, Doreen busies them with various projects.

"One of the interesting things about working with children and teen-agers," laughter Doreen, "is that you never know what they may not say or do next. Once a Brownie did give me quite a shock. After another had asked me to perform an act which was rather beyond my physical strength, my indignant small defender sternly rebuked her. Don't you know that you should never ask anyone who is 'de-capitated' to do anything like that? she reprimanded."

Government Grant For Compton

The Compton County Protestant Central School Board have announced that upon the recommendation of Mr. Claude Gosselin M.P.P. for Compton they have received from the Government of the Province of Quebec special grants totalling $32,791.00 towards their accumulated deficits.

Mr. Henri Vachon M.P.P. for Weedon and Mr. Eloi Guillemette M.P.P. for Frontenac recommended the grants for the two local boards which are located in their constituencies.

Mr. C. F. Marse the Secretary-Treasurer said that these grants, the largest they have received, would do much to assist in their operation.

Cattle Prices Mixed, Bids Are Down

MONTREAL (CP)—Cattle offerings were lower and prices were mixed on the Montreal livestock markets this week.

Receipts: 2,123 cattle, 1,600 calves, 1,859 hogs and 748 sheep and lambs.

Steers were 50 cents to $1 lower with heifers and cows steady to 50 cents higher. Bulls steady.

Offerings were 319 head lower than last week and 1,080 head lower than the corresponding week last year. Trading in the heavy offering of steers, chiefly plain to good quality, was dull. Cows and heifers were in good demand.

Choice steers were 24.50-26.25, good 23-24.50, medium 20-23, common and plain 15.75-20, a few lights down to 12.25; good heifers went at 18.25-19.50, medium 16.50-18.25, common 11.75-16.50, a few down to 11.25. Good cows were 15.25-16.75, medium 14-15.50, common 9-12.75. Good bulls were 17.50-19 with common and medium at 11.75-17.25.

Calf trading was active following a light delivery. Veal calves were steady to 12 higher good and choice vealers were 27-30, common and medium 17-26 with grassers and drinkers steady to strong at 13-16.50, feeders were mostly 16-16.25.

Hog receipts on the west-end market were 1,316 and hogs sold 20 cents higher than last week's close with sows steady. Grade A were 24 and sows 14.

East end market hog receipts were 570. Hogs were steady with last week and sows 75 cents higher with grade A at 23.65, 25 at 24, sows at 14.75, a few light to 15.50.

Weed Killer Trace In Canada's Cranberries

OTTAWA (CP)—Trace amounts of the weed killer aminotriazole have been found in some lots of the current crop of cranberries but this "does not in itself constitute a danger to health," Health Minister Monteith said today.

"As far as the present situation is concerned, I personally intend to have cranberries with my turkey at Christmas," he said.

The minister was commenting on reports that cranberries grown in Washington and Oregon have been found to be contaminated with the weed killer. The chemical is said to cause cancer of the thyroid in rats.

However, Mr. Monteith said whatever hazard may exist for humans "would appear to lie in repetition of this contamination resulting in consumption by individuals of repeated doses of the chemical over many years involving an enormous amount of contaminated cranberries.

"It is the concern of my department to ensure that this does not take place," he said.

Jane, played by Alexander Matte appeared the most at ease, and carried out her rather unromantic but humorous part neatly and without fuss.

COSTUMES SUPERB

Costumes for the operetta are, to say the least, superb, and settings were appropriately simple, highlighting the efforts of the performers.

Unfortunately, the Society chose an operetta which does not do justice to the obvious talent of those contributing their efforts to the production. A livelier play with a better libretto would have been one of the smashes of the Society's recent endeavours. Last year's "Pinafore" was such a choice.

Last but certainly not least, the superb accompaniment provided by Roberta Mumby, piano, Brian Taylor, organ, and Jon Price, drums, supervised and directed by Don Patruquin, rounded out a thoroughly entertaining evening. The production was staged by Barry Wansbrough, and produced by Graham Stevenson.

The three ladies of the chorus included Rosemary Martin, Eve Norton and Ann Stockwell.

Chorus of Maidens: Nancy Adams, Gail Angel, Penny Anglin, Sue Anglin, Ann Cook, Sue Davidson, Helen Digby, Cassie Kell, Holly McCuaig, Sue Meagher, Gay Mitchell, Barbara Moffatt, Janet Montgomery, Phyllis Moore, Jean Trotter and Beverly Smith.

Chorus of Dragons: Wolf Busse, Gus Garr, Bob Cruikshank, Harry Drury, Gordon Ellens, Jim Grant, Scott Griffin, Bob Hunt, Robin Kotze, Mike Levinson, David Marler, Phil Matthews, Colin Nelson, Tony Pecaud, John Phillips and David Stockwell.

Remaining performances start tonight and tomorrow at 8.15 p.m. at the University gymnasium in Lennoxville.

This concert was the first to be presented by the group known as Le Cercle Euterpe and it was under the patronage of Mayor Armand Nadeau.

Miss Thibault will again be performing before Sherbrooke audiences at the third Symphony Concert this season, when she will be heard in a concerto for two pianos by Bach with Mrs. Lorette Codere-Brunelle.

Richmond Musical Group Celebrates 10th Anniversary

RICHMOND — The tenth anniversary of a local musical group, "L'Harmonie Intime" will be celebrated here at the St. Patrick's convent with a concert Sunday evening, Nov. 22nd at 8:15.

Two Sherbrooke artists Pierre Boux, violinist, winner of the 1959 Archambault prize and Mrs. Laurette Codere-Brunelle pianist will be the special guests.

This musical group was organized in the fall of 1949 by Miss Marthe Tremblay who became president of L'Harmonie Intime of Richmond. Mrs. Gaston Desmarais, then vice-president was host to a group of music lovers and friends on that first evening of November 9th. So much enthusiasm resulted among the musicians that evening that it has continued on for ten years.

Mrs. Marcel Chaput is now president of the group. Mrs. Roger Cameron, past-president; Mrs. George Tremblay, vice-president; Mrs. M. Ouellet, secretary and counsellors are Misses F. Proulx and G. Emond.

PLUCKED FROM AIR ANSONVILLE, Ont. (CP)—Two students caught a wild goose with their hands in this Northern Ontario community. The bird, lost in a heavy snowstorm, was flying low over the school yard.

Skating may not have started around here yet, but the stores that cater to the sports lover are showing some of the ever seen. Remember the day when winter sports meant bundling up in heavy baggy ski pants, that did nothing for the figure, a number of heavy sweaters and maybe a pair of pad's heavy grey socks. Not so for the young miss of today. She can fly through the air as light as a breeze in figure flattering clothes made of feather-weight materials.

In checking I found pencil slim ski pants of superflex stretchy nylon in bright red, blue and black. These are worn over form fitting tights of feather weight stretchy nylon. And I was assured they are warm and water repellent. Gay bulky knit sweaters are worn under bright colored nylon ski jackets, or if you want to be a really glamorous, there is a stunning Eskimo style air-seal jacket and hood trimmed with white fur. After ski boots of matching seal complete this outfit.

For fun at the ski lodge after a day on the trail, I found fascinating after ski slacks and blouses in cotton jerseyed flannel blouses. So if you have a skiing enthusiast in your house, just keep in mind the many glamorous sport clothes shown in the stores today. It may be only a pair of soft warm mitts, or a snow white bulky knit helmet, but you will be sure your young miss will welcome any of these smart ski accessories under the tree on Christmas morning.

Have you ever felt that just one more chore around the house is just one too many? Stop and take a bite to eat. No, you don't have to take a lot of time in preparing anything—just go to the fridge and get a piece of cheese. It's high in protein and an excellent pick-upper.

Are you hoping that Santa will put a lovely fur coat under the tree for you this Christmas? If you are, just drop a few hints in the right direction. That being short and slender, you would look adorable in a short haired fur with dense pile, or if tall, the long haired or spotted furs are just right for you.

there is always a strong unpleasant odor left in the house. A friend of mine told me the other day she had solved this problem by dropping in a whole walnut, shell and all, into the kettle the greens are cooking in. The walnut absorbs the unpleasant odor while the vegetables are cooking.

If you find the screws that hold the knobs on cupboards or chests of drawers have become loose and refuse to stay tight, remove the screw and stuff the hole with fine steel wool then replace the screw. It will stay firm and hold in place.

To cream butter and sugar more easily, thoroughly heat a wooden spoon in hot water.

Women's Sphere

Nestle in the flakiest of pastry shells, for a picture-pretty dessert. Good eating too, with puff-type pastry that's made in a wink with the help of butter and dairy sour cream... you'll find a host of other uses for this unique pastry recipe. These peach tarts by the way, are glazed with raspberry syrup, hence their culinary name, "Melba Peach Puffs." Serve with a generous dollop of whipped cream.

★ ★ ★ Peaches — Sunny Side Up

Since flighty "battering" foods are right now "duttering up" peaches and "milkling out" their fine flavor, the Dairy Foods Service Bureau sends along peachy dairy food dessert ideas for all of us to dine on.

The first recipe is for Melba Peach Puffs, and the pastry part—as flaky and rich as puff pastry—surprisingly skips the usual rolling-and-folding operation, in favor of letting butter and dairy sour cream do all that work in one step. We think you'll hang onto this pastry recipe for future fall fruit pies... and of course, put it into circulation right now, with raspberry-glazed peaches for dessert and when you entertain.

MELBA PEACH PUFFS
(Makes 8 servings)
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1 cup butter, 1/2 cup dairy sour cream; 8 fresh peach halves; whipped cream.

Sift together flour and salt. Cut in butter until it is the size of peas. Add dairy sour cream and blend with fork. Form dough into two balls. Chill. Roll out dough very thinly. Cut out rounds 3 1/2 inches in diameter, removing centre circle from three quarters of rounds. Prick plain rounds with fork. On plain round, layer three circles of dough. Repeat until all circles are used. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 18 to 20 minutes. Place fresh peach half in centre of each puff. Spoon warm raspberry jelly over top. Serve with whipped cream.

Everybody likes a Brown Betty, so here's a peach of a way to serve one right now. Bread crumbs and butter, sugared peaches, nutmeg and lemon, make this dessert story the old one of "sugar and spice and everything nice"—in brand new dress.

PEACH BROWN BETTY
(Makes 6 Servings)
2 cups coarse dry bread crumbs, 1/4 cup butter, melted, 3 cups sliced fresh peaches, 2/3 cup brown sugar, 1/8 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon lemon rind. Combine crumbs and butter in frying pan and lightly brown over low heat. Mix together peaches, brown sugar, nutmeg, lemon juice and rind. Place 1/3

Salad Tea Aids Library Committee Funds

Rich autumn shades predominated in the decorations in Plymouth Church Hall on Wednesday for the Sherbrooke Library Ladies Committee fall tea and sale.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Nell Tracy, president of the committee and Miss Ethel Bringle acted as cashier.

Mrs. Edna Markey, general convener, also arranged the decorations in the hall, so original and attractive in their quiet simplicity. The lace covered tea table was centered with an attractive arrangement of bitter-sweet, oak leaves, barley and cat tails, flanked by yellow and bronze tapers in crystal holders. Bronze shaded oak leaves also centered the small tea tables.

Pourers during the afternoon were Mrs. Gordon Hume, Mrs. Walter Mutchler Sr., Mrs. John Allan and Mrs. Don Howard.

The salad bar, where a large choice of jellied and vegetable salads were on hand was looked after by Miss M. A. Sare.

Waitresses were Miss Marion Tomlinson, Mrs. T. H. Stevenson, Mrs. Clarence Foley and Mrs. E. Garbutt. Kitchen duties were ably carried out by Mrs. Viola Somerset and Miss Evelyn Bradley.

The sales table, where a variety of gift suggestions were in charge of Mrs. Douglas Ward and Mrs. A. J. Ross.

A New Look In Jewelry Design

The return to the slinky look of the 1930s in evening clothes has influenced jewelry designs for winter. Small collar (left) with real jewel look combines fake black diamonds with fuchsia, a stunning combination. Bracelets worn in pairs (right) are brushed and polished gold color, very Italian in feeling. These are Trifari designs.

How to Break Up 'Group-itis' At Next Party You Attend

Ladies: If you don't want to be left stranded at the next party with the women in one little group and the men in another, here are some tactics to try:

I.O.D.E. Welfare Work Carried On Year Round

Welfare work knows no season.

But at Christmas time, the spirit of love and goodwill which prompts this action, seems to infuse even those who take little thought about it the rest of the year.

Opportunities to assist groups active in welfare programs abound at this time.

One group in particular, the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, is appealing now for funds for Christmas cheer and welfare work in general. Their work continues on a year round basis but at Christmas its greatly multiplied with the packing of bountiful Christmas baskets for needy families.

Every dollar donated to I.O.D.E. Welfare is utilized 100 per cent for this project. There are no paid officers in the group and all service is voluntary.

In order to avoid duplication the I.O.D.E. works closely with service clubs, church organizations, department of Veterans Affairs, Last Post Fund and the City of Sherbrooke, and it welcomes checking with all groups and individuals.

This practice has been followed for many years and places the group in a unique position to avoid overlapping and to determine worthy families.

All data is maintained on a strictly confidential basis. Welfare convener, Mrs. R. M. Loughheed, 631 Victoria st., has held office for 10 years and with her invaluable knowledge is prepared to answer questions of a confidential nature to qualified officers of all organizations.

Contributions may be made payable to I.O.D.E. Municipal Treasurer — Mrs. G. C. Bennett, I.O.D.E. Municipal Chapter, 1064 Walton Ave., Sherbrooke.

—Don't dismiss George with a brief greeting and then start telling his wife, Sue, all about your new draperies or the time you had getting a baby sitter.

Before you're run down from that first breathless exchange of feminine chitchat, George will be out in the kitchen with the boys.

Instead, address your first remarks to George. Tell him you heard he had good luck on his last hunting trip or that you understand he has just bought a little foreign car—and George will stick around to bend your ear.

—Don't sit down in a corner with several other women—if you don't want to be stuck there all night, talking clothes and children. Join a group of men, be a fascinated listener and just see how they expand.

—Keep circulating. One reason the women so often get left in a corner is that once they have found a comfortable chair they just sit. And no man in his right mind is going to join a group of women, obviously resting their feet while making purely feminine talk.

—Have at least one good story to tell or one amusing incident to relate. The sound of laughter draws men like sugar draws flies. One funny story is bound to bring on others to listen up.

—Once you have a man's attention, don't lose it by treating him like a husband. That is, don't expect him to want to hear about your children, your PTA work, your diet or anything else so humdrum. Treat him like a man and watch him perk up.

You don't have to get stuck off in a corner with the women if you keep your wits about you. Men really like to talk to women who know how to listen.

4,200 Fans Pay Tribute To Claude Ruel

Junior Hockey League Gets $1,000

By LEN O'DONNELL

Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League won the hockey game 7-2 over their Junior farm-hands but there was no doubt that the night belonged to young Claude Ruel. A jam-packed Arena was on hand to pay one of their own citizens, who lost an eye in a hockey accident two years ago, tribute.

The exact amount, which will be turned over to Kenny Reardon and Sammy Pollock, trustees of the Claude Ruel Fund, won't be available for a few days but it is expected that close to $3,000 will go towards the special fund instigated by the Montreal organization for Claude Ruel.

Claude Ruel, the guest of honor, at the Benefit Game, was still floating on air following the game. He stated, "I have never in my whole life felt like this. It is impossible for me to thank all of the 4,200 fans for their wonderful gesture but through your paper I would like to take the opportunity of thanking everyone."

The night wasn't only a generous one for the honored guest but at the same time two minor hockey circuits benefitted. The Sherbrooke Junior Hockey League and the Sherbrooke Juvenile Hockey League were the recipients of special cash awards. President Ivan Dugre's Junior loop received a $1,000 cheque from Frank Selke while Claude Beaudoin's Juvenile league was enriched by the sale of the souvenir programs.

Prior to the game special ceremonies were staged to honor Claude Ruel. Mayor Nadeau welcomed Mr. Selke, Mr. Reardon and both teams on behalf of the City. Ruel received a clock radio and a watch from his own team and the Hull-Ottawa Canadiens in addition to the money which will go towards his fund.

Mrs. Ruel, Claude's mother, was presented with a bouquet of roses by Maurice "The Rocket"

Richard and this was loudly applauded by the 4,200 fans. Claude thanked his players and former mates as well as the Montreal Canadiens, who had generously donated their services free of charge for the game.

All the players voted in favor of the game and agreed to play free of charge. According to the players fund of the NHL no exhibition games are played once the season starts but in this case they were behind the movement and gladly donated their services.

The game was a close battle and although Claude's team went down to a 7-2 defeat they certainly gave a good impression. They kept their Seniors on the go the whole time and the fans certainly witnessed a top notch game.

Henri Richard led the attack with two goals while Doug Harvey, Andre Pronovost, Marcel Bonin, Dickie Moore and Tom Johnson accounted for the others. For the Juniors Bob Bedard, who was playing with the Brockville team along with Gilles Dube and Normie Dussault, got the first marker while Andre Drolet got the other.

It was only in the final frame that the Canadiens turned on the heat and tallied four goals. It was 2-1 at the end of the first and the NHL champs added two in the middle session with four more in the final while Drolet got the second tally for the losers.

In the afternoon four of the players visited schools throughout the City. Kenny Reardon, Doug Harvey and Ralph Backstrom were at the High School while Jacques Plante, Jean Beliveau visited the Orphanage in Waterville and then all went to Plix X School in East Sherbrooke.

At the Sherbrooke High Doug Harvey and Ralph Backstrom answered questions following a short talk by Kenny Reardon, vice-president of the Montreal Canadiens, and the boys did a fine job despite the catchy questions which came their way. At 5:00 both teams were received at the City Hall by Mayor Armand Nadeau and the City Council. Claude Ruel and Frank Selke received gifts from the City and all players signed the Golden Book at the same time.

As a wartime measure, overtime was eliminated in National Hockey League tie games 17 years ago today by the then league president, Frank Calder. The ruling was to enable travelling teams to catch trains, and it has remained in effect since.

Looks As Though There Will Be Some Changes On NHL All-Star Lineup This Year, Newcomers Making Big Strides

It's beginning to look as if there will be some changes in the NHL's all-star lineup this season.

With the 1959-60 schedule just past the one-quarter mark, strong new contenders have emerged at every position.

Interest is focusing on two spots: Goal where incumbent Jacques Plante of Montreal has overcome the early lead built up by Detroit's Terry Sawchuk; and centre, where Boston sensation Bronco Horvath has been stealing Jean Beliveau's thunder.

Plante, twice an all-star goalie, and Sawchuk, three times the No. 1 choice, are facing stiff competition from Johnny Bower of Toronto. Bower has never made the NHL all-star grade and in fact has spent most of his 16-season professional career in the minors.

BATTLE AT CENTRE

Beliveau, top Canadian scorer during the last five years, has been dominating the game at his position almost from the time he entered the NHL. However, he will have to pull up his socks to keep his all-star berth away from Horvath.

Biggest cluster of stars appears to be at right wing, where New York's Andy Bathgate is very much in the running for the spot he snared last season, but so are old rivals Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion of Montreal and Gordie Howe of Detroit, along with another new Boston luminary, Vic Stasiuk.

At left wing Dickie Moore, all-star for the last two seasons, is off to a slow start. Johnny Bucyk of Boston has been showing the way this term, but a shoulder separation has sidelined him and will likely hurt his chances.

HERE COMES HARVEY
On defence Canadiens' great Doug Harvey has come back strongly in quest of an all-star berth.

He missed out last season for the first time since 1951.

If he makes it, either teammate Tom Johnson or New York's blueline bulwark Bill Gadsby will have to give way.

Other top contenders at this point include Detroit's Marcel Pronovost, Boston's Doug Moyns and Montreal sophomore Albert (Junior) Langlois.

NHL games Saturday night have Montreal at Toronto and Detroit at Boston. All six teams will be in action Sunday night, Montreal playing in Chicago, Toronto in Boston and Detroit in New York.

Willie Toweel Makes His American Debut Tonight When He Clashes With Len Matthews In Garden Main-Event

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Toweel, former British Empire lightweight champion from Johannesburg, South Africa, makes his American debut against youthful Len Matthews of Philadelphia in the 10-round main event at Madison Square Garden tonight, and there is much more at stake than just a victory.

The winner of the nationally televised bout will get a shot at Carlos Ortiz's junior welterweight crown. Should Matthews be the man, it will enhance his chances for a battle with Joe Brown for the lightweight title. Should Toweel win, he can clamor more loudly for a battle with Don Jordan for the world welterweight championship.

Also, Toweel faces the necessity of making 143 pounds for the fight or forfeit $1,000.

Matthews, a 20-year-old trumper with a stout punch, is winging along on a five-fight winning streak since his six-round kayo at the hands of Ortiz.

The Philadelphia has won 21 of his 24 fights, and scored 13 knockouts.

Toweel has been in the ring since he was 14, and won 82 of 86 amateur bouts. He lost to America's Natie Brooks in the semifinals of the Olympic competition at Helsinki in 1952.

Toweel lost his Empire crown by a technical kayo to southpaw Dave Charnley in one of his four starts this year. He won the other three, and his overall record shows 42 victories in 47 fights, including two draws. He has scored 21 knockouts.

Grey Cup Fever Hits Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP)—Grey Cup fever gripped football fans as they lined up for game tickets which went on sale at 6 p.m. Thursday night.

The queue, headed by three women, started about 12:30 a.m. Wednesday night, and by dawn 70 ticket-buyers were lined up. They had spent the night in 20-degree weather, outside the Ottawa Football Club's ticket office at Lansdowne Park. By mid-day there were 600 in the queue.

The Ottawa club has about 2,600 tickets for the Nov. 28 game in Toronto.

Days Of Super Spy In Canadian Football Appear To Be Numbered

Coach Bud Grant And His Bombers Move To Toronto Monday, Doesn't Care Who Takes In Club Workouts

WINNIPEG (CP) — The days of the football spy appears to be numbered.

Coach Bud Grant is taking the Western champion Blue Bombers to Toronto next Monday and plans to work out in the open for the Nov. 28 Grey Cup battle at the Canadian National Exhibition grounds.

Bombers will defend their Canadian championship title against the winner of the Big Four final between Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Ottawa Rough Riders.

Bombers manager Jim Ausley said Thursday night that the club will stay at a midtown hotel, using the locker facilities at nearby Varsity Stadium and practising on the University of Toronto campus.

"They're tearing the turf up at the stadium so we'll use the campus spot Toronto Argonauts used for a practice ground before moving to the CNE," Ausley said.

DOESN'T MATTER NOW

Grant apparently doesn't care who takes in the Bombers practice sessions.

"What does it matter what anyone sees now?" he said. "We'll stick mostly to what we've been using all season and through the Western playoffs. A club can't dream up too much new at this stage."

Grant said he will rely on scouting reports of Jim Van Pelt, who watched the first game of the two-game, total-point Big Four final, won 17-5 by Ottawa.

In past years Western clubs practising for the Grey Cup practically went into hiding at obscure, small parks and barred the doors in an attempt to keep out "spies."

On several occasions there charges and counter-charges from rival coaches that agents were sneaking into the secret workouts or sitting in nearby buildings with field glasses to watch the opposition.

When Bombers went to Toronto for the 1959 Grey Cup final against Argonauts, coach Frank Larsen had the team stay and work out at London, Ont. Bombers were beaten 13-0 by Argos.

In 1953 voluble George Trafton took his team to a motel at Aurora, Ont., 24 miles north of Toronto, for workouts. Bombers lost 12-6 to Hamilton.

In 1957 under Grant, Bombers stayed at an inn in the Toronto suburb of Scarborough. They fell 32-7 to Hamilton.

They gained revenge last year at Vancouver when they beat the same Tiger-Cats 35-28 after practising at high-fenced Brockton Point in Stanley Park. They were quartered at a hotel near the downtown area.

Yvon Durelle Gets $9,057 For Final Appearance

TORONTO (CP) — George Chuvale of Toronto and Yvon Durelle of Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., received $9,057 for the Canadian heavyweight championship fight, Tuesday night, matchmaker Deacon Alen said Thursday night.

Durelle also received $1,100 for expenses, including transportation and accommodation for his party that included manager and trainer.

The fight drew a crowd of 10,000 and had a gross gate of $40,000.

Chuvale retained his championship by knocking out Durelle, Canadian and British Empire light heavyweight champ in the 12th round.

Durelle said after the bout he is retiring from the ring.

Fungo Funston Gets Helmet Back For Final

WINNIPEG (CP) — Farrell (Fungo) Funston, the end from Los Angeles who lost his head when Winnipeg Blue Bombers won the Western Interprovincial Football Union title Saturday, will have his helmet back to cover it come Grey Cup day.

Fungo's head gear was snapped off by an admiring small boy when the player flung it aloft in jubilation as the gun went ending the game which Winnipeg won 16-8 over Edmonton Eskimos.

Funston made a public appeal for the helmet—he wanted it to use against the eastern Canadian champions in the Grey Cup playoff in Toronto Nov. 28.

The boy who "found" it turned it back and received an autographed football from the club.

Fungo has promised the lad he can have the lucky helmet for keeps after the Grey Cup game.

Folley And Machen Agree To Re-Match

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ranking heavyweights Zora Folley and Eddie Machen Thursday agreed to a 10-round rematch of their controversial draw last year.

Matchmaker Bennie Ford of the San Francisco Boxing Club announced they would meet Jan. 18 at the Cow Palace in a non-televized scrap.

Folley, of Chandler, Ariz., Wednesday night outpointed Alonzo Johnson at Phoenix in a 10-rounder and holds the No. 2 challenger's ranking. Machen, rated No. 4, has won six straight since being kayoed in the first round by Ingemar Johansson before the Swede knocked out Floyd Patterson to become champion.

Folley and Machen boxed a dull 12-rounder here on April 7, 1958. The Arizona manager, Bill Swift, called the decision, "the biggest robbery I've ever seen."

He said then his fighter would like to meet Machen again "but not in San Francisco."

That night Machen had gone into the ring ranked No. 1 among the heavyweight challengers. Folley was No. 2.

In his latest bout, Machen, formerly of Redding, Calif., and now living in the Portland area, knocked out Pat McMurry of Tacoma, Wash., in the first round with vicious left hooks.

Folley also has won six in a row. His only loss in the past four years was a contested decision in London to Henry Cooper, British Empire champion, on Oct. 14, 1958.

The absence of these men will be keenly felt in Little League activities.

Coach Frank Clair Non-Committal As Riders Leave For Crucial Game In Hamilton, Winner Goes To Grey Cup

OTTAWA (CP)—Ottawa Rough Riders leave by plane for Hamilton today, with coach Frank Clair refusing to commit himself on his choice of a starting quarterback for Saturday's second game of the Big Four football final against Tiger-Cats.

The question is will Clair decide to break the spell weaved by star Canadian Russ Jackson, starting quarterback in Riders' last 11 games, who has led Ottawa to 10 victories, the last eight in a row?

Or will he attempt to cross up Hamilton coach Jim Trimble's defences by tossing in veteran import passer Babe Parilli at the start?

"We're going to keep Hamilton guessing until the last possible minute," Clair said as Riders completed heavy duty drills, in preparation for the second game of the home-and-home series.

The game begins at 1 p.m. EST and will be televised nationally by the CBC.

Riders hold a 12-point lead in the two-game, total-points series, after defeating Hamilton, the defending eastern champions, 17-5 here last Saturday. The series winner will have a week to get up for the Grey Cup final against the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in Toronto, Saturday Nov. 28.

Jackson sprained an ankle in the final moments of the game but reports it has responded to treatment.

Jackson is the running quarterback on the Ottawa club, with Parilli, who also punts, spelling him occasionally when a situation calls for a passing attack.

Clair also has planned some adjustments, including what he described as a half-dozen new formations for new plays that may or may not be used against Tiger-Cats.

Clair all week has warned that Riders' 12-point cushion in the series is nothing to get excited about because "we'll still have to play the greatest game we've played in four years to beat Hamilton."

Canada Narrows Gap Against Aussies In Canada Cup Event, Leonard Fires 69, US Tied With South Africa

MELBOURNE (CP) — Peter Thomson fired a third straight sub-par round today to run Australia's lead in the Canada Cup golf tournament to an almost insurmountable height as Canada clung doggedly to second place.

Thomson, four-time British open king who grew up near the Royal Melbourne course here, added a two - under 68 to his previous rounds of 67 and 69 for a 54-hole total of 204.

This gave the Australians a seven-point lead over Canada, represented by Stan Leonard of Vancouver and Al Balding of Markham, Ont., in the team standings and a one-point edge over Leonard in the individual competition.

Leonard sank an eight-foot putt on the final green for a 69 and a total of 205. He had a blistering 66 Thursday and a 70 in the opening day of the 72-hole event.

Balding, not up to his game, had trouble and came in with a 75 for a total of 222. His first two rounds were 74 and 73.

The United States and South Africa were tied for third place in the team race with 433. Sam Snead of the U.S. was third in the individual race with 211. He had a 73 today.

Thomson's brilliant round offset a mild blowup by his partner Kel Nagle, who soared to a 76 after previous par rounds of 70-70.

The Australian team total, with one round left to play, was 420, followed by Canada at 427. The U.S. and South Africa were tied at 433 and hopelessly out of it.

Snead and his partner, Cary Middlecoff, soared eight strokes over par today and left the course grouching over lack of practice and unfamiliar playing conditions. Snead got his 73 after a good start while Middlecoff, his once proud and precise game in tatters, shot a 75.

Snead and Middlecoff were so disgruntled they sped away from the club within five minutes after completing their rounds and didn't take time to change clothes.

"What can you expect," said Middlecoff bitterly, "coming to a strange country and playing with a strange ball (a small English ball) with only two days rest. We should have been here practising last weekend when they kept us in Sydney hanging around the tournament here."

His reference was to the Sydney preliminary tournament in which the Americans didn't compete.

Leonard was tired as he finished under the scorching heat. He scrambled from tee to green and had to sink some good putts for pars.

He canned a 12-footer at the sixth and a 10-footer at the 11th for birdies and got another birdie at the 13th with a deadly iron shot.

Boston Gets Franchise In Ball League

BOSTON (AP)—Boston Thursday was granted the eighth American Football League franchise, completing the newly - organized professional loop.

The announcement was made by William Sullivan, promoter of the local entry. It came a few hours after Bob Carpenter, owner of the Philadelphia Baseball Club, decided not to apply for the final franchise.

Sullivan said the local application had met all the requirements of the AFL organizers.

Boston was accepted just under the wire. The league's draft meeting is scheduled in Minneapolis this weekend.

Boston joins New York, Los Angeles, Dallas, Houston, Denver, Buffalo and Minneapolis-St. Paul as an AFL entry.

The city twice before has had a major league professional football team—the Redskins (1932-36) which moved to Washington and the Yanks (1944-48) now known as the Baltimore Colts after stop-offs in New York and Dallas.

Eddie Shack Is Back In Majors Steinkraus Wins

NEW YORK (CP)—New York Rangers Thursday returned left winger Parker MacDonald to Springfield Indians of the American Hockey League and brought back big Eddie Shack, also a left winger.

MacDonald joined the Rangers two weeks ago when the NHL club sent Shack to their Springfield farm. Sweeney was returned to the Indians last Monday.

Shack, a powerful skater, had been inconsistent in his play with the Rangers and observers felt general manager Muzz Patrick sent him to Springfield as a disciplinary measure. In six games with Springfield Shack scored one goal and collected two assists.

Shack played under Alf Pike, the new Ranger coach, when Pike was coaching junior hockey at Guelph, Ont.

Mearns, Pike announced that Andy Bathgate, the star right winger, will be used at centre Sunday night against Detroit here. Bathgate, whose skating range is wide, was a centre three years ago before becoming an all-star wing. He is expected to centre for Earl Ingarfield and Dean Prentice.

Ticats' Attitude Has Vastly Improved Says Coach Jim Trimble, Team Gets Set For Tough Battle Tomorrow

HAMILTON (CP)—Jungle Jim Trimble, coach of the defending Big Four champion Hamilton Tiger-Cats, has come up with another way of saying "my boys will be up for this one."

After putting his squad through a practice session Thursday, Trimble said "their attitude is vastly improved."

Ticats apparently didn't have the proper attitude when they lost 17-5 to Ottawa Rough Riders last Saturday in Ottawa. The second game of the two - game, total-points final series will be played here Saturday with kickoff time set for 1 p.m. EST. The engagement will be televised nationally by the CBC.

Ticats appear to be physically fit and ready for their toughest game of the season. They'll be facing a hungry Ottawa squad which is on an eight-game win streak.

Trimble said earlier that his team would need to score the first touchdown to cut Riders' 12-point lead and get back in the series. Thursday he commented on ball control as he said "we'll have to hold the ball longer if we expect to beat Ottawa."

The weather which stalled Ty-cats' passing attack on a muddy field in the opening game is expected to be more favorable this time. The forecast for Saturday: Clouds and southeasterly winds of 15 to 20 miles an hour and a possibility of rain late in the afternoon.

An inch of snow which fell on Civic Stadium Wednesday was cleared off Thursday. A tarpaulin was rolled out to cover the field. It won't be lifted until shortly before the kickoff.

Tonight a Grey Cup type of festivity is due to break out here as the fans show Ticats they still love them. A huge public rally with a 48-piece band, majorettes and even Ticat players will be held downtown.

To refresh you FAST!

The Doctor Says

CHECKLIST SUGGESTS REGIMEN FOR HYPERTENSIVE PERSONS
By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The typical man with essential hypertension is a hard-working, hard-driving, over-conscientious fellow who's taken on weight as he has added responsibilities. The typical woman is an over-weight matron who has devoted herself to the endless tasks of wife, mother, housekeeper and at times wage-earner.

Curiously enough, the female tends to carry a much higher level of blood pressure than her male counterpart. And, even more curiously, she has relatively fewer strokes or heart attacks and rarely suffers invalidism or early death as a result of her essential hypertension.

Here are a few suggestions that may help the man or woman with essential or benign hypertension to live a completely normal life:

—Get rid of excess weight according to a simple dietary schedule I shall detail in a later column.

—Limit your intake of salt to the amount that's used in cooking. Don't salt your food at table.

—Find out what conditions in your life produce tension or fatigue. See what you can do to eliminate activities that get you tired, nervous or exhausted.

Sometimes you'll be surprised at the trifles that cause upset. Like golfers whose blood pressure, taken by doctors, rose to their highest levels when they were putted. Not when they drove off the tee or hacked a way in the rough.

Discover the putting greens in your daily life.

—If you can't get rid of these tension-producing circumstances learn to live with them. "What can't be cured must be endured," said Benjamin Franklin in his Poor Richard's Almanac.

—Learn to roll with the punch, is the more modern version.

—Don't insist on a blood pressure reading at each office visit. Your doctor may have deliberately omitted taking your pressure because he suspected he'd get a false reading.

—Don't keep a chart of your blood pressure readings. They're apt to bounce like a golf ball.

—Don't go doctor shopping. A strange doctor may clock you 20 to 50 points higher than your family physician.

And finally, don't think your doctor's an old fogey if he's unwilling to expose you unnecessarily to the side effects of powerful drugs, punish you with a highly restricted diet or refer you for extensive surgery that may interfere greatly with your ability to earn your living. Please respect his decision to treat you,
