BOARD OF TRADE FOR DANVILLE

Organization Decided Upon At a Meeting of the Citizens

TWENTY-EIGHT JOIN AT FIRST MEETING—MR. M. H. RICHEY PRESIDENT.

Danville, May 31.—(Special)—A representative meeting of Danville business men assembled in the Town Hall last evening and took the initial steps towards the organization of a Board of Trade.

Mayor Guilmette called the meeting to order and spoke of the advantages which he believed would result from the organization of a Board. The matter had been discussed for some time and Mr. McCracken and Dr. Cleveland had acted as a committee to look into the matter. This public meeting had been called and the Mayor hoped it would be decided to organize.

Mr. V. E. Morrill, of the Sherbrooke Board of Trade, was present, and laid before the meeting certain facts bearing upon board of trade organization and incorporation and submitted a sample set of by-laws. It was pointed out that if Danville decided to organize its board would be the twentieth in the Townships. Already it had been shown that these boards could accomplish much both locally on behalf of their individual communities and collectively through the Associated Boards on behalf of the Eastern Townships as a whole.

The meeting was thrown open for informal discussion of the matter and on motion of Mr. McCracken, seconded by Mr. H. Girard, it was resolved to organize a board for Danville.

The chief officers were elected as follows: Honorary President—Alexander McLeay.

President—M. H. Richey.

Vice-President—G. H. Cleveland.

Sec. Treas.—A. J. Bayard.

A committee to further the organization was appointed as follows: H. Girard, Jos. Masson, E. E. Philbrick, A. C. Miquelon and J. H. Doak. The members of the committee will act as chairmen of five permanent committees and together with the President and Vice-President, will form the Executive. They will report at an adjourned meeting, suggesting names, associates on the committees, and forward plans for completing the organization and obtaining incorporation of the Board.

It was decided to have an initiation fee of $1, and an annual membership fee of $1. It is hoped to interest a large membership and as Danville's interests are closely allied with the surrounding agricultural district, it is hoped that many farmers of the township may join.

Twenty-eight joined immediately and handed in their fees.

It was decided to adjourn for two weeks, when it is expected details will be worked out for completing the organization of the Board.

Among those present were: Mayor Guilmette, Geo. McCracken, Joseph Masson, H. Girard, J. H. Doak, Dr. McKee, E. E. Philbrick, U. Bonnevill, H. R. Cleveland, S. L. Gibson, J. H. Villandre, L. A. Dion, Victor Roux, Jas. McCallum, J. Wadleigh, H. M. Richey, J. Roy, Max Richey, J. A. Bayard, J. Gifford, C. H. Cleveland, A. C. Miquelon, J. A. Boivin, J. H. Boutelle, A. Chagnon, W. Z. Mathews, Hy. Roux, C. C. Brown, Dr. I. Porter, Ed. Morrill, F. H. Bridgman, L. E. Findley, Wilson and others.

It is believed that much interest will be taken in the new organization and that the Danville Board will interest itself in many matters pertaining to the welfare of the town.

It is very likely that the Board will be represented at the next meeting of the Associated Boards at Farnham on the 20th.

BRIDE OF A DAY TAKES HER LIFE

Party Was Rejoicing In House Over Marriage at Time

MYSTERIOUS COMMUNICATION MAY HAVE SOME BEARING ON TRAGEDY

Montreal, May 31.—Mariang Lanza, a seventeen-year-old Italian bride, committed suicide by shooting herself through the heart last evening in her mother's house at 477 St. James Street, while a party of friends were still rejoicing over the wedding, which had taken place scarcely thirty-three hours before. Neither the bride's parents nor the frantic husband are able to give any reason for the act, but a letter which the young bride received earlier in the day, and which she immediately destroyed, is thought to have some bearing on the tragedy. The envelope in which it was received was found subsequent to the tragedy, and is addressed in a masculine hand unfamiliar to the dead woman's relatives.

WHERE THEY LACKED.

Poet—What do you think of my verses?

Critic—Too many feet and too little head.

WILL RESIST HOME RULE

Ulster Army Now Amounts to Quarter of Million Men

RECEIVING CAREFUL INSTRUCTION IN USE OF RIFLE FROM ARMY MEN.

New York, May 31.—(Special)—A London cable to the Tribune says it is reported from Belfast that the Ulster army, drilled and ready to resist Home Rule, now amounts to a quarter of a million trained men.

They are receiving careful instruction by army men and ex-army men in the use of modern rifles. They are practicing daily, with and without Morris tubes, indoors and out, but only the chiefs of the organization know the places where the stores of weapons are steadily accumulating, or how they are coming.

AUSTRALIAN GENERAL ELECTIONS

Outcome of Political Battle to Be Determined to day

LABOR PARTY NOW IN POWER IS EXPECTED TO BE RETURNED AGAIN.

Sydney, N.S.W., May 31.—(Special)—The Australian Commonwealth is awaiting in suspense the outcome of the great political battle that is being fought out at the polls to-day.

Never before have the issues at stake in a campaign for the election of members of the Commonwealth Parliament been so momentous and never before has the feeling between the opposing parties been so high. Whether the Labor party now in power shall be retired in favor of the Liberal opposition, or shall be returned to power for another period of three years is the great question to be decided by the voters.

During the earlier years of federation in Australia little was accomplished looking to the permanent welfare of the new nation, but during the last few years under the control of the Labor party, a pioneering policy along economic, social and political lines has been adopted.

The Labor party is headed by Andrew Fisher, now serving his second elective term as prime minister of the Commonwealth, while the Hon. Jos. Cook, whose free trade tendencies have caused a split in his party, is leading the Liberals. Although the forces are fairly evenly matched it is believed from certain indications that the Labor party will again be successful and that Premier Fisher, once a coal miner in Wales, will be returned to power.

RELEASED AGAIN FROM PRISON.

Mrs. Pankhurst Went on a Hunger Strike Again.

HER FRIENDS DESCRIBE HER CONDITION AS "VERY BAD, INDEED."

London, May 31.—Mrs. Pankhurst was again released from Holloway prison last evening. Since her recommitment on Monday, she had not touched food. She was very weak and was conveyed in a motor ambulance to the house of a friend in West London.

Mrs. Pankhurst has spent nearly thirteen days of her sentence in prison and more than six weeks out of prison. Her friends describe her condition as "very bad, indeed."

Last night she was reported as making progress under medical attention "as well as can be expected." No visitors are allowed to see her.

What is supposed to have been an attempt to set fire to the Royal Academy of Arts was discovered last night just after the exhibition closed at 7 o'clock. An official found in a small room on the ground floor a cardboard box filled with cotton, wool and two rags saturated with methylated spirits. Wax tapers, some of which were lighted, were tightly bound about the box, which was placed in a position of danger to the surrounding walls. Scotland Yard is investigating the matter.

SILVER FOX PUPPIES CAPTURED

North Bay, May 31.—Eight silver grey fox puppies were captured at Esker Lake, an extension of Wahnapitae River, by M. Mackenzie, former Hudson Bay factor, who has a fox farm on the Bruce peninsula south of Manitoulin Island.

PREMIER HAS MADE NO ARRANGEMENTS.

Ottawa, May 31.—"I have made no arrangements to go to England this summer, or, in fact, to go anywhere else," stated the Right Hon. R. L. Borden yesterday when queried as to a report that he may go to London again this year.

SENATE PASSES THE BANK ACT

Number of Amendments By Finance Department Adopted

PROVIDED THAT BANKS MAY ESTABLISH TRANSFER AGENCIES IN EACH PROVINCE.

Ottawa, May 31.—The Senate yesterday completed the consideration of the Bank Act. A number of amendments proposed by the Department of Finance were adopted. They are all of a technical character and do not affect the principle contained in the bill. An amendment which was also adopted provides that banks "may" establish stock transfer agencies in each province. As the bill came to the Senate this clause declared that banks "shall" establish such agencies.

The amendments were approved and the bill read a third time. The Senate adjourned until Monday afternoon.

RACIAL QUARREL MUST BE DENOUNCED

Premier Borden's Course is Purely of Canadian Concern

LONDON DAILY NEWS SEES RESTRICTION OF AUTONOMY ON CENTRALIZED EMPIRE.

London, May 31.—The Daily News, while expressing no opinion on the Senate's decision, says: "Whatever course Premier Borden now chooses to adopt is purely of Canadian concern. We in this country cannot fail, however, to take an interest in the development of the contest but we are not called upon to interfere except in one particular. Some extremely reckless counsellors of Mr. Borden are urging him to seek electioneering capital by giving the struggle the complexion of a racial quarrel between the English and French. Every citizen of the Empire would be under the strictest obligation to denounce such fatal and unscrupulous levity."

"Mr. Borden did not bring in his navy bill to deal with an emergency, for none such exists, but rather to compel the development of the Empire towards imperial federation. The Liberals, led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, stand for the traditional ideal of an empire of autonomous sister states, each controlling its own affairs and all united by bonds of affection, interest and common institutions. Mr. Borden's ideal of a centralized Empire restricts drastically the autonomy of the states within it, and puts its faith in machinery as a link between them. Whatever tactical course Mr. Borden may adopt the issue has now been plainly set before the Canadian people."

"Australians and South Africans" adds the Daily News, "have already decided against Borden."

M.P. PASSES AWAY.

Ottawa, May 31.—(Special)—James H. Brown, Liberal M.P. for Chateaugay, died in St. Luke's Hospital this morning after a long illness from stomach trouble. He was 72 years of age, and had been member since 1891. His death makes three vacancies in the House, South Lanark, South Bruce and Chateaugay.

NORWEGIAN SHIP DASHED TO PIECES

Went on the Rocks Near Yarmouth, N.S., In Gale

CAPTAIN OLSEN, HIS WIFE AND CREW SAVED AFTER A THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

Halifax, N.S., May 31.—During a 60-mile gale on the Nova Scotia coast yesterday the Norwegian ship, Freia, was dashed to pieces on the rocks at Sunday Point off Yarmouth, N.S., and her valuable cargo of lumber is strewn for miles along the coast.

Captain Olsen, his wife and crew escaped after a thrilling experience. The Freia was lying in what is considered safe anchorage awaiting a part of her crew from Boston. She cleared from here last Monday, for Bahia Blanca with the largest cargo of lumber shipped from this port. The anchorage was good, but the heavy westerly gale, altogether unexpected at this season, proved to heavy a strain for her cables, which parted and in a short time the ship was a mass of wreckage.

When the ship began to go to pieces and she commenced to fill, boats were launched and the crew on board scrambled into them. Through high seas the boats were forced toward the land, all the occupants being drenched through. For a time it was feared that the boats with their occupants would be swamped.

JAPAN SENDS ANOTHER NOTE

Believed States Has Not Said Last Word on Californian Legislation

PROPOSAL TO FORM JAPANESE SOCIETY IN AMERICA IS MUCH FAVORED.

Tokio, May 31.—(Special)—Another note from the Japanese Government, dealing with questions arising out of the recent Californian alien land ownership legislation, is to be forwarded shortly to Washington. The idea that the United States has not said her final word is prevalent here, and it is intimated in authoritative circles by the inference that no official action is to be initiated yet by Japan.

The formation of a Japanese association in the United States for the purpose of co-operating with the Japanese Government is greatly favored here, and the object of the members of this society when it is formed will be to strive to reach a permanent solution of the difficulty between the United States and Japan by means of a new treaty or by securing a change in the naturalization laws.

ROOSEVELT WOULD LOSE HIS JOB.

Marquette, Mich., May 31.—Dr. Lyman Abbott, of the New York Outlook, testifying at a session of the trial of Newett for charges of libel, laid by Theodore Roosevelt, said: "Roosevelt would lose his job as contributing editor of the Outlook if he was a drinker."

LIVES LOST IN CYCLONE

Twenty Houses Were Also Blown Down in Norfolk, Va.

SCORES OF SMALL CRAFT WERE TURNED OVER AND CARRIED TO SEA.

Norfolk, Va., May 31.—(Special)—Hail and cyclonic storm passed over this section yesterday afternoon and a number of lives were lost.

Twenty houses were blown down in Berkeley and South Norfolk, but no one was killed there, so far as known.

Mrs. George Harper was seriously injured when her home was blown down, and a number of others were hurt by falling timbers and flying glass.

Scores of small craft were turned over and several are reported to have been carried to sea. The tug, Katie Twohey, signaled by line steamer that small sailing craft went down with several men on board.

Saller, now of Lachine, but a former and highly esteemed pastor of this church, to preach here on Sunday, June 8th, during the sessions of the annual conference in Sherbrooke. A letter has been received, however, from Mr. Saller, stating that he is sailing for the Old Country on June 4th, and expressing his regret that he is unable to accept the invitation of the congregation in affording him an opportunity of returning to an old charge.

Mr. Wm. Pocock, of Hillhurst, is one of the first if not the first of our farmers to purchase a machine for milking his herd of twenty cows. This is run by a gasoline engine and is somewhat of a novelty to the farmers in this vicinity. The invention is such that the milk is drawn from the cows in about three or four minutes. While the machine is a great saving of time and labor it is an expensive one.

ISLAND POND 17

CUBS 12

UMPIRE JACKSON GAVE SOME WEIRD DECISIONS

The Sherbrooke Cubs travelled to Island Pond yesterday to play the "Railroaders," a game during Memorial Day celebration. The game resulted in 17 to 12 and was one of the weirdest exhibitions of "baseball" the Cubs have ever witnessed. Umpire Jackson was responsible for the large score. His interpretation of the rules throughout the game would make baseball history. The teams nosed along with an even score for several innings and then the Cubs started to pull away from the "Americans," running up a lead of five runs. After a little conference with the manager of the Island Pond team Jackson began to make rules that would give the World's Champions no chance of winning against the Pond. The Cubs protested vigorously but a smile was all the satisfaction they could get from the Island Pond manager and the Umpire. The five run lead was easily reduced and with Island Pond in the lead the umpire's knowledge of the rules of baseball was again restored. The Cubs filled out the remaining innings in an indifferent manner, thoroughly convinced that a win was out of the question. Most of the spectators were so

SPORTING EVENTS AT COWANSVILLE

Cowansville, May 31.—The billiard tournament which took place in the rooms of the Cowansville Club on Thursday evening was without exception the best exhibition of the game ever seen in this town. The excitement towards the end of the game was intense, when the apparently sure losers, almost hopelessly out of the running, overcame the lead of their opponents and won out by one point, 49-50. Messrs. Fred Vial and Ned Buzzell played against "Hub" Brown and John Lowdey. The latter were given a lead of 20 points after much protest. Mr. George Nightingale umpired the game to the satisfaction of all. At the start all wagers were made at even money but after a little when Vial's side appeared to be losing ground, the odds were 3-2 then 3-1 against him and towards the end his supporters lost all hope. With the score 49-33 it was Vial's turn to play, which he did, and did not stop until he had made the seventeen necessary points. When he made the winning score his supporters simply went wild and carried him all around the premises on their shoulders. The tournament took place an hour earlier than was at first advertised to enable those present to attend the boxing match.

The boxing match took place at nine o'clock in the evening, in the yard, between the Ottawa Hotel and Lafamme's barber shop. A large number were present and were well pleased with the exhibition. The contest was between "Mitch" Dion and "Bob" Corey. The match went five rounds but was then stopped by Constable McCabe.

GOOD YEAR

Our Gift to Automobile Owners

--The No-Rim-Cut Tire. 10% Oversize

THE words "Goodyear" and "No-Rim-Cut" are inseparable in the minds of the Canadian Car owner.

The No-Rim-Cut Tire, at no increase in cost, gives the car owner nearly double tire mileage. It has won the tire market for that very reason. It is built on a new principle.

It avoids rim-cutting—a tremendous saving to car owners. It is 10% larger than Clincher tires of the same rated size. That adds 25% to the mileage of the average car.

A sale of over 2,000,000 No-Rim-Cut Tires in Canada and the United States shows clearly that the old style tires have lost in the race—that No-Rim-Cut Tires are supreme.

Three Mighty Features

UNSTRETCHABLE BASE

Single points of advantage could not in themselves make a perfect tire. The No-Rim-Cut Tire is above everything else a balanced tire—every part is built with a view to the strength of every other part.

Without the unstretchable base it would never have been practicable. 125 braided wires woven by our patented process give it the grip of the tire that render the Clincher bead unnecessary. Examine the flat unstretchable base. Compare it with other tires.

This is Big Feature No. 1. It has made the No-Rim-Cut 10 per cent oversize Tire available for mileage reduction to over 700,000 car owners.

THEN COMES MACHINE-BUILDING

Years ago we overcame the uncertainty of hand-building our tires. Now no weak spots can occur in No-Rim-Cut Tires.

The fabric is of even strength at every point. To insure equal tension over every inch of every layer of fabric we invented the Goodyear Tire Building Machine. Automatic weights stretch the fabric equally as it is laid on the carcass of the tire. We are sure of the uniform strength of every part of every tire.

That is Big Feature No. 2.—A tremendous step towards perfection—and increased mileage.

CURING UNDER AIR PRESSURE

Goodyear Tires are cured twice. While this process is expensive it adds many miles to the life of our tires, because it insures uniform toughness through the whole tire. First, the thick tread and the fabric casing are each partially cured. Then the tread is laid on to the carcass, the tire is inflated on a rim and the curing process completed.

See what this double cure does. The thick tread is as thoroughly toughened as the thin side walls. The tire is cured under the same strain as it will meet in actual service.

We believe curing under air pressure is an exclusive process with us. It costs us 50c more per tire. But it adds mileage to No-Rim-Cut Tires.

Goodyear Service Everywhere

If you are interested in Tire Mileage investigate the No-Rim-Cut Tire. Have the Goodyear Dealer fit them to your rims.

Wherever cars go you will find a Goodyear Dealer. Branch Houses with complete stocks of Tires and Accessories have been established across Canada from coast to coast.

Mass was said in the little chapel attached to the summer home of the Seminary Fathers and excellent and abundant meals were furnished by the caretaker and assistant. Altogether the excursion was a great success.

W. A. OF ST. PETER'S.

The regular meeting of the W. A. of St. Peter's Church was held Thursday afternoon in the Church Hall, Mrs. James Mackinnon presiding.

The meeting opened with the usual devotional exercises, the "Members' Prayer," and an appropriate missionary hymn, after which the business of the month was transacted. The treasurer announced the house-to-house collection as amounting to $10.60, and the members' fees to $10. The principal feature of the afternoon was the report of the annual meeting of the Diocesan Branch of the W.A. at Quebec, read by Mrs. S. A. Jones, delegate to the meeting.

A brief resume of the sermon preached at the opening service by Rev. Dr. Van Allen, Rector of the Church of the Advent, Boston, was given, and heard with much interest. The treasurer's report showed the income for the year to be $5,081.06. Three Denary meetings had been held at Coaticook, Lennoxville and Cookshire with the result of a Girls' branch formed at East Sherbrooke, and a new branch at St. Ely, Orford. A Boys' Auxiliary had also been organized at Sherbrooke. The Diocesan pledges had been fully met and the enthusiasm had increased. The address given by Rev. Canon Gould was full of food for thought. There are, he said, seventy-nine religious bodies in Canada. The Church of England comes between the Roman Catholics and others. It tends to develop the individual and emphasize the whole. It was a fallacy to believe that the Kingdom of God could be limited to one people. The result of all nations were coming to the new country, and though they change their habits, they bring their characters with them.

The most potent instrument given to the Canadian people to work the work of God is the Church of England. The month of February was fixed on as the most suitable time for the annual meeting, and many other matters of interest to the various branches were touched on.

A vote of thanks to Mrs. Jones for her able and comprehensive report was moved by Mrs. Sewell, seconded by Mrs. Seiveright, and carried unanimously.

The meeting closed with the benediction.

COUNTRY PRODUCE

NEW SYSTEM OF BUYING EGGS.
Montreal, May 31.—This is the last week in which eggs will be purchased by the old system. Commencing Monday next, June 2nd, produce merchants in Montreal and Western cities will purchase eggs on the "loss off" basis and pay nothing for bad eggs. The new grades to be adopted are three, and are designated: New laid eggs which are sound, full, sweet, and not more than five days old; Firsts—eggs which are sound and sweet, but having a limited shrinkage; Seconds—eggs for inferior quality.

ty but not bad. The case count system in buying eggs will disappear. Eggs in the future are to be paid for according to the size and quality. The local market has not shown any material change. Sales being made this week, by the usual custom at 21c per dozen for round lots and 22c. in a jobbing way.

MAPLE PRODUCTS STEADY.
Montreal, May 31.—There were no new developments in the market for maple products, prices being steady with a fair demand for small lots, and sales of maple syrup in three-quart tins were made at 85c to 90c. per tin, and in wood at 7c to 8c per lb. Maple sugar is scarce and firm at 11c to 12c per lb.

HONEY MARKET QUIET.
Montreal, May 31.—The demand for honey showed no improvement and the market is quiet with no change in prices to note.

We quote prices as follows:
Clover, white honey, 16c to 17c; dark grades, 14c to 15c; white extracted, 11c to 12c; buckwheat honey, 8c to 9c.

POTATO MARKET FIRM.
Montreal, May 31.—The tone of the market for potatoes remains firm under a good demand for small lots and the market is fairly active. We quote: Green Mountains in car lots, at 70c, and Quebec grades at 55c to 60c, and in a jobbing way at 85c to 90c per bag.

BEAN TRADE QUIET.
Montreal, May 31.—The demand for beans continues quiet, on account of the fact that buyers seem to be still fairly supplied, consequently the market is quiet with three-pound pickers quoted at $1.60 to $1.65 per bushel extra track.

DAIRY PRODUCE

GOOD DEMAND FOR BUTTER.
Montreal, May 31.—A good demand has set in from the Coast, with some business reported for Northwest account. Last week eleven cars of creamery butter were sold mostly from Vancouver, at prices ranging from 26c to 26c, one car being held goods from last season, ordered forward at last. Better late than never. Several round lots have also gone forward to Toronto and Ottawa, and a shipment was also made to the Maritime provinces.

This week further orders have been filled for the Coast, some four or five cars being reported up to Wednesday at prices ranging from 26c to 27c. At Gould's Cold Storage 1,000 packages of finest creamery were sold at 26c f. o. b. points costing about 26c laid down here; also 2,200 pkgs. were sold f. o. b. country points at 26c to 26c. The receipts have increased to within a few thousand pkgs. of those of last year, when car lots were placed at 27c to 27c for finest creamery.

A SHARP ADVANCE IN CHEESE.
Montreal, May 31.—The country boards were characterized by a further sharp advance of 1c to 13-16c. per lb. this week, making a rise of 15-5c. within the past two weeks, Campbellford starting the pace on Tuesday at 11 15-16c. Stirling at 12c, and Madoc on Wednesday at 12c, and Brockville is expected to go 12c, notwithstanding quieter cables. The appreciation in values has undoubtedly been caused by light receipts, and the demand although limited, exceeding the supply. The market has a strong undertone, and we learn of sales of several thousand boxes of Western white on spot at 12c to 12c, over the cable and a lot of 500 boxes of finest Western white was reported sold at 12 5-16c. over the cable. These prices are 13-4c per lb. under those of a year ago, when finest Western cheese sold here at 14c. to 14c. Finest Eastern is firm with business reported at 11c. to 12c. as to quality, compared with 13c to 13c, a year ago. There is generally a good demand on the other side for the new grass Canadian cheese, which is turning out exceptionally fine.

PROVISION MARKET

DRESSED HOGS FIRM.
Montreal, May 31.—The market for live hogs continues strong but shows no actual change. Prices remain firm but unchanged. Packers are paying $10.00 to $10.50 per 100 lbs. weighed off cars for choice stock. Dressed hogs are firm selling at $15.00.

HAY AND STRAW

MARKET HAD AN EASIER TONE THIS WEEK.

Montreal, May 31.—There has been an easier tone in the hay market but prices do not show any change. The rain during the past week has caused a better outlook for the coming crop, and all that is wanted now is a little warm weather. This state of affairs has caused farmers to sell more liberally, and at prices more to buyers' favor than they were a week ago. The hay crop outlook in England is more promising, and exporters do not look for much better prices, than are being paid at present. Export freight rates at this port are lower, and with easier feeling on this side exporters will soon be able to ship again to the English markets. In the meantime there is not much moving in the way of export. There is quite a lot of Canadian hay still in the English markets held for Canadian account. Cables received report prices purely nominal as follows:
Liverpool 72s 6d; London 73s; Bristol 72s to 75s; Manchester, 72s 6d to 75s; Glasgow 85s as to grade.
We quote prices more or less nominal, as follows:
No. 1 quality, $14.00 to $14.50;
No. 2 extra, $12.50 to $13.50; No. 2 ordinary, $10.00; No. 3 hay, $9.00 to $9.50; clover, as to grade, $9.00 to $9.50.

$1200 AUTO FREE

READ THIS PROPOSITION

HUPMOBILE TOURING CAR

IT IS NOW OR NEVER

OVER one-half of the "HIGHLAND" lots have been sold, and to sell the remainder WITHIN ONE MONTH I will give away FREE a "HUPMOBILE" TOURING CAR. This is the best little car in its class and I have purchased one through the MITCHELL SALES CO., who are agents for Eastern Townships, and expect it to be delivered here on JUNE 5th.

The Campaign Will Be Conducted as Follows

All lots will be sold $25 cash, and the balance at $5 per month as at present. With each lot sold a numbered coupon will be given, and the lucky number will be chosen at the end of the month, the holder of it becoming owner of the auto.

"HIGHLANDS"

Are acknowledged to be the best proposition in the City, and you are paying no more than the lots are worth and have already sold for.

There are less than ninety lots remaining to be sold, so you have a good chance to get a $1200 auto free. There are no strings to this proposition, if the lots are all sold within one month, the auto will be given away without fail.

Every purchaser of a lot will be given a numbered ticket, and one number will be drawn from duplicates of these in public at the end of the month by prominent men of this City.

You know this is a fair and square deal or it would not be over my name.

Conditions in West For Mechanics Not as Represented

COULD NOT FIND EMPLOYMENT IN ANY OF THE WESTERN CITIES AS PROMISED.

That the conditions in the West for mechanics are not always what they are represented to be, is borne out by the experience of several young men who left Sherbrooke a short time ago. A little over a year ago several young mechanics arrived in Sherbrooke and secured good positions within a few hours after leaving the train. They were well pleased with their positions until a few weeks ago, when representations were made to them that they could still further better their positions by going west. Steady work and large remuneration were the inducements held out. They had only to go to Prince Rupert and they would find the workshop doors open, so that all they had to do was to register their names and start work.

With these prospects in view, two of the young men started out for the west. They arrived at their destination, but, alas, disappointment was waiting for them. Instead of getting the promised work, they found that there was not sufficient to go around to even those who had previously gone out on the same representations. They found every man holding on to his job, and about twenty ready to offer their services for one vacancy. Finding such a state of matters they turned their faces eastward, and had high hopes that they would locate work on the way. They dropped in at Transcona, Edmonton and other centres in Alberta, but the same state of affairs existed in these places as at Prince Rupert. With their capital greatly reduced they arrived in Winnipeg, and although they went through the shops in a most thorough manner, no positions were to be had for mechanics. At this place they found other fellow-countrymen in the same predicament, some of whom were without enough to buy the price of a meal.

Finding such a state of affairs they got into communication with Sherbrooke, and finding that the state of trade was even better than when they left they came on as fast as connections could be made. On their arrival here positions were secured without any difficulty. They have had an opportunity of seeing the West, and if experience in such matters has to be bought they have certainly paid well for the blandishments held out to them of the opportunities of the West over that of the East.

They are not the only ones who have been duped. There are others who would be well for others who tell the same story.

It would be well for others who may have the western fever to think twice before leaving a certainty for an uncertainty. There is plenty of work for all mechanics in Sherbrooke and the conditions here are in many respects better than their western brethren who are fortunate enough to hold down their work.

BUSY SEASON
AT SCOTSTOWN

Many New Buildings Will Be Erected During Summer.

NEW TENEMENT HOUSES REQUIRED TO ACCOMMODATE THE NEWCOMERS.

Scotstown, May 31.—(Special)—The outlook for business in this town this summer at present is very good. Several new buildings are to go up during the season. Among them is a new bank building, which will no doubt be an ornament to the town. This building will be directly in the centre of this town.

Then there is the new chair factory plant with several buildings, the largest one being 270 feet long, and will face Albert street. On the north side of the river Scott Brothers expect before the season is over to build a wholesale grain and feed store on Victoria street, opposite where the Canadian Bank of Commerce now stands.

Messrs. G. W. Beard and son are building a large new tenement house and there will have to be several new houses put up as there is hardly a tenement to be found now.

These works and that of macadamizing the streets of the town should call for a lot of help to come here for the summer. A hundred men will be needed in a week from now to fill the demand.

The macadam road machinery plant is nearly ready to run, and as soon as the weather gets settled work on the roads will begin in earnest.

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND BILL

WILL GO THROUGH IN SAME FORM AS IT PASSED LAST YEAR.

London, May 31.—(Special)—The Home Rule for Ireland Bill will be brought up in the House of Commons for the second time next Tuesday. The bill is expected to go through in the exact form in which it was passed last year, and later rejected by the House of Lords.

After a second rejection by the Lords, which is regarded as inevitable as was the first, the bill will come back to the House of Commons and, in general belief, will be enacted into law.

PREPARING FOR CAMP
Several Sherbrooke Units Getting Ready For Annual Training

22ND., BATTERY WILL GO TO PETEAWA AND OTHER CORPS TO DRILL AT FARNHAM.

The 22nd., Field Battery will go into camp at Petawawa on June 14th for sixteen days training. Captain Kennedy will be in command of the Battery, which will be brigaded with the 35th., Coast Artillery, commanded by Major Paige, and the 15th., Granby Battery with Captain Gibb as O. C. These three batteries form the 7th. brigade and will be under the command of Colonel J. J. Penhale, Sherbrooke. In conversation with the Record, Captain Kennedy stated that recruiting is proceeding very successfully and they are getting a good class of men and horses. A full battery will go out to Petawawa and they are anticipating a very good time. The 22nd., Battery came third last year for general efficiency in competition with the whole Dominion. "Naturally," said the Captain, "they intend to come first this time."

ARMY SERVICE CORPS.

The 6th. Army Service Corps, the Nos. 6 Cavalry Field Ambulance Corps and the No. 8 C. A. Veterinary Corps will go into camp at Farnham next month. The advance parties will leave Sherbrooke on June 14th., and the main bodies will follow on the 16th. They will return about the 27th. The Army Service Corps will be under the command of Major Keating (British Vice Consul at Portland, Maine) with Captain Keating second in command. They will be brigaded with the 15th., Army Service Corps from Montreal and Colonel Stewart will command the brigade. The local corps has secured some good men, and the indications point to a large corps and a capital time in camp.

VETERINARY CORPS.

The Veterinary Corps will be in charge of Captain A. W. Tracy. It will have its full strength of four officers, who are all veterinary surgeons, and twenty-four non-commissioned officers and men. Captain Tracy has had no difficulty in getting first class men and he is confident they will make a good showing.

CAVALRY AMBULANCE CORPS.

The Ambulance Corps will have Major Williams as O. C., the other officers being Captain Macdonald of Bury, Captain C. L. Brown of Ayer's Cliff and Lieut. R. A. Ross of Stanstead. There will be a full complement of 50 officers and men, 30 horses and three ambulances. There will also be in camp at Farnham three Field Ambulance units from Montreal, Nos. 4, 5, and 12. The Montreal ambulance units perform their training independently of the Cavalry brigade, whereas No. 6 trains in conjunction with the cavalry, in

Training In Camp
There

LIEUT.-COL. RIOUX IN COMMAND OF THREE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SIX OFFICERS AND MEN.

The main body of the 54th. Regiment left last night for the camp at Three Rivers by special train over the Grand Trunk Railway. Colonel Emile Rioux was in command, with Major Ledoux second in command. The other officers were: Captains Juneau, F. J., Codere, Chas., Codere, A., Corimer, J. B., McGee, P., McGee, Mignault and M. P. O. Gince. The full strength of the Regiment is 493 officers, N. Coms., and men, and the number who have gone to camp is officers 22, N. Coms. 64 and men 240. Total 326.

The regiment will parade on war footing with transport, ambulance, cyclist, pioneers and signalling corps, and the field officers will be mounted. The 54th., is the only military organization in the Eastern Townships who will have pioneers and cyclist corps.

In conversation with the Record, Colonel Rioux said he was extremely pleased with the manner in which the men had rallied for this year's camp and he spoke in very grateful terms of the Jencks Machine Co., the Canadian Rand Company and Mackinnon, Holmes and Co., who have shown a patriotic spirit in granting their men the necessary leave of absence.

The advance party of twenty-six men left under the command of Captains B. A. Dugal and V. Olivier.

Sydney, N.S.W., May 31.—(Special)—The members of the Dominion Royal Commission of Great Britain, who have been inquiring into the commercial resources and possibilities of Australia, sailed on the steamship Ventura to-day for San Francisco, en route to Canada and England. Sir Edgar Vincent is the chairman of the commission. Other men of note in the party are Sir Alfred Bateman, for 40 years a member of the British Board of Trade; Sir Rider Haggard, the well known author and authority on agricultural questions, and Sir Joseph Ward, former premier of New Zealand.

fact it is the only cavalry ambulance in the Province of Quebec and is really a part of the Eastern Townships Cavalry brigade.

The No. 6 corps is practically the youngest in the Dominion and in each of the last two years they took first place for efficiency among all ambulance units. When asked by the "Record" if they intended to take it again this year, Dr. Williams replied, "Naturally, we do, and we shall be equipped with the best men and horses obtainable."

ASK WARRANT FOR PREMIER. Newcastle, N.B., May 31.—The Hon. J. K. Fleming, Premier of New Brunswick, has been subpoenaed as a witness in a lumber case here yesterday, but did not attend, as he went to Montreal on public business, and later to Toronto to the Presbyterian General Assembly. Mr. Tweedie, one of the counsels in the case, asked that a bench warrant be issued against the Premier, to compel attendance. Mr. Justice McKeown made some comments on the want of respect shown the court by the Premier, but said he would not issue a warrant just now, adjourning the matter until June 24.

And Healed the Wound With But Three Applications

You could not have a better proof of the value of Egyptian Liniment than is given by the experience of Mr. C. A. Holden, of Montreal, as given in his letter.

"My pony received a deep cut across the back of her leg below the hock joint. After trying several remedies without any beneficial results, I was induced to try Douglas' Egyptian Liniment. Proud flesh had formed the size of a hickory nut. After three applications it was entirely healed, which I consider marvellous, as a small artery had been cut, which spurted blood every time the wound was disturbed."

"I cheerfully recommend Egyptian Liniment to all horsemen."

"The way Douglas' Egyptian Liniment cleans out and heals a festering wound is simply marvellous."

THE ONLOOKER COMMENTS

American Influence

The American people are noted for their concentrated interest in themselves. They are sufficient unto themselves, and a perusal of U. S. national newspapers will bring to light only a very limited space devoted to news from without the bounds of Uncle Sam's domains.

The American Review of Reviews, however, has discovered that the British Empire is becoming rapidly Americanized. Its observations are made expressly with regard to Australia, and in this connection it remarks:

"When Roosevelt sent the American fleet around the world in 1908, he captured the imagination of this commonwealth for the American nation. No such puissant fleet ever flew in these waters the flag of England. It was a revelation to the Australians of a great and separate English-speaking nation—of a nation identical in language, but as different from the English in all other essentials as pessimism is different from optimism."

Australian interest in American politics has been continuous since then. The cutting of the Panama Canal attracts as much, if not more attention in New South Wales than in Massachusetts or Connecticut. Sydney is a modern New York in the making—a coastal city with a continuous procession of Americans passing through its best hotels—and when the canal is completed, Sydney will become the great centre of Australian trade with all the Atlantic ports as well as with New York. The centripetal pull of the United States is felt already through Australia. American books and magazines—the latter not always of the best—are read in thousands; English influences are passing; Australians are becoming Americanized."

Then there is that country to the north, reaching across the continent. American magazines and Sunday papers cross the boundary by the carload. Is American influence alienating Canadians from British institutions and leading them to closer political alliance with the republic?

Recent history does not support any such assumption. The casual remark of a president that the ulterior motive of commercial reciprocity was political union turned the tide of battle in a Canadian election and sent a great party to defeat.

It is quite likely that the American people may accredit what is really only a trend of the times in other nations, to American influence. The tendency of the age is towards democracy, freedom of speech and action, progressive, optimistic commercialism, especially in young countries like Canada and Australia.

It does not signify discontent or the weakening of imperial ties, for, anomalous as it is, the world's greatest democracy to-day is the British Empire.

Canadians and Australians are free from many disturbing elements which infest American politics, and admiration of the marvellous progress made by a great kindred nation and a friendly regard for its people does not imply the disintegration of our own national ideals.

Sabbath Observance

The Puritan Sabbath as an institution has passed away. No longer is Sunday, by any considerable portion of the population, devoted to prayer and meditation, and the tendency in recent years has been along the line of still further departure from the ideas of our forefathers with regard to the manner in which the Sabbath should be observed.

The pendulum of a clock swings to two extremes. If the Puritan conception of the purposes of the Sabbath attained to one extreme in its severe restrictions upon personal recreation on the day of rest, the present day custom is reaching far towards the other extremity in its tendency to convert Sunday into a day of jollification, to the exclusion of serious thought.

Canada has not gone so far as the United States in the way of smashing old ideals. In Chicago and the West the week at the theatres begins on Sunday. Even in the East the amusement parks are in full swing, except that in the Puritan State of Massachusetts a really amusing restriction is placed upon showmen—they are not permitted to harangue the crowd in their efforts to secure patronage, but may have their appeal printed, and by energetic gesticulation direct public attention to it. The noise is to some extent eliminated.

Just where the line should be drawn is a controversial point. It is generally agreed that the Creator of the Sabbath intended that it should be, first of all, a day of rest from the toil of the week—that all unnecessary work should be eliminated. It is more difficult to find agreement as to what restrictions should be placed upon recreation and wholesome amusement on the Sabbath. The automobile, the baseball diamond, the canoe, the picture theatre, are of modern occurrence. To what extent are they inimical to the proper observance of the Sabbath?

The matter is one that may well occupy the attention of serious minded people. The happy medium has long since been passed, and there is no indication of the pendulum's return.

A Dangerous Game

The danger of speculation in stocks on margin is again being forcibly demonstrated, and many are learning the costly lesson. It is a risky game. The fortune wheel on the midway is not in it with this. The more you win, the more you will eventually lose, is pretty correct in its application to the speculator on margins. A winning creates a thirst for more. The game is continued, and the crash comes. A prominent stock broker is authority for the statement that not one in one hundred men who play the markets on narrow margins come out ahead in the long run. It is a losing game and one of the most hopeless of the many get-rich-quick allurements.

Much of the stock upon which this marginal speculation takes place is a good dividend-paying proposition if bought outright, safe and in the long run profitable.

Besides, the present tightness of the money market opens the way to attractive investments in other lines, possessing both the elements of safety and of certain interest returns.

The slower but surer road to wealth accumulation is generally the better way. He who stakes his money on a stock margin, without sufficient reserve to cover in the event of heavy decline, is taking big chances.

The game is hazardous.

Fighting Over The Spoils

One of the most lamentable dramas of modern history is now being enacted in the Balkans—the strife of victorious nations over the spoils of war.

A great conflict in the interests of humanity deserved a better conclusion. At great sacrifice of life and treasure the Turk has been driven back. The victors now face each other in hostile array, prepared to fly at each other's throats.

Here is an instance where the great Powers may enforce peace. They

HEROES OF THE PRESENT DAY

MANY INCIDENTS SHOW THAT VIRTUE IS NOT CONFINED TO ONE CLASS.

The heroic self-sacrifice of Captain Oates in the Antarctic, has led to the detailing of many incidents of heroism, which go to show that the virtue is no more confined to class than to time.

Here, for instance, is the case of a pitman's daughter in Northumberland which deserves to be placed in the same category with the brave act of Grace Darling.

BLASTING POWDER IN BLAZING HOUSE.

It was Dora Chandler, a wisp of a girl of seventeen years, to whom the testing moment came, on a winter night within sight of the wild North Sea. The wind howled round her wooden cottage at Blyth, but within a strange, heavy silence held the little rooms. Dora awoke shivering to a sense of ill-defined terror. She was not alone; five others—three women and two children—slept in the little place. Her father was at work in the pit. Suddenly her fears took shape.

It was smoke, heavy and stifling, which rushed the fury of the storm outside. Starting from her bed in her night dress she raised a shrill alarm. The three women ran gasping and shivering into the open. The fire was blazing in the lower rooms, where that day the pitman had stored many pounds of blasting powder.

The girl joined her terrified friends, but the dull glare showed her that the children were missing. Despair and dread seized her heart; too well she knew there was no time to lose—perhaps no time to act—but her native courage rose undaunted. She sprang back across the threshold and groped blindly through the smoke, to reappear faint and choking with her seven-year old brother in her arms. Her mother seized the boy, and Dora pushed back into the maelstrom of flame and smoke.

In silent terror the women waited till they saw her staggering out with her baby cousin safely wrapped, her own scanty night attire torn and smouldering. Her precious burden safely delivered, she pressed yet again into the doomed cottage. This time, with stilled heart and trembling hands, she fought her way to safety laden with the blasting powder, and fell fainting into her mother's arms. She had saved five lives, and by her have already established arbitrary boundaries for Montenegro, they have insisted upon the establishment of the state of Albania. A further exercise of the "big stick" on the part of the European concert might bring the little fellows to time and prevent one of the most deplorable tragedies in all history.

undaunted courage prevented an appalling catastrophe.

GALLANT RESCUE FROM FUMES.
At Christmas time a young soldier was passing with a friend an electroplater's shop in Clerkenwell Close, London, Eng., when a dense cloud of suffocated smoke burst from the window overhead. At the same moment a boy threw up the lower sash and screamed for help.

The boy had been playing with his sister and upset two cans, one filled with cyanide of potassium, the other holding six gallons of vitriol. In a flash the small chamber reeked with a dense, black cloud of poisonous gas. The screams ceased abruptly, telling how the fumes were doing their work. For one instant the soldier blanched, then he turned quickly to his friend. "I'm going through it, Jack, whether I come back or not; so 'Good-bye,' in case," he cried.

Words of a true gentleman, a nameless hero, who whilst he spoke seized his companion's muffler, and adjusted it about his mouth. He disappeared inside, while the crowd waited in dazed suspense. Then one by one he recovered the unconscious children—another boy of 14, a woman, and, lastly, her husband.

How he lived inside, where no other dared to venture, can be understood only by such as possess the same invincible courage. It was the spirit of sacrifice, quickened by undaunted pluck, which bore him through. His task concluded, he felt senseless to the ground with the man in his stiffened arms.

UNDER FALLING WALLS.
Let us never forget the never-to-be-forgotten heroic act of Father Canevin, a Roman Catholic priest, who died that an unknown messenger might live. In the city of Pittsburgh the boy lay disabled in the cellar of a sky scraper mown down by a cyclone. Father Canevin heard the sufferer's cries, and at once climbed down to him undeterred by the danger of a rocking wall which held all others at bay.

The good priest was in time to save the boy, but at the expense of his own life. He saw the wall cave, and deliberately arched himself over the lad that he might receive the falling mass upon his own back instead. The boy was dug out and lived; the heroic father was recovered—dead.

Well Known Ontario Merchant Has Faith Because "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him

MR. JAMES DOBSON

BRONTH, ONT., MARCH 1st, 1912.

"Fruit-a-tives has made a complete cure in my case of Rheumatism, that had at least five years standing before I commenced the treatment. The trouble was principally in my right hip and shoulder, the pain from it was almost unendurable. Not being able to sleep on that side, if I changed to turn on my right side while asleep, the pain would immediately awaken me. This kept up until I started taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. I started by taking one or two tablets with a large glass of water, in the morning before breakfast and experienced pronounced relief very shortly. After a continued treatment for about six months, I was cured and am now in first class health. This, I attribute to my persistent use of 'Fruit-a-tives' and I heartily recommend your remedy to any Rheumatic sufferers."

1913

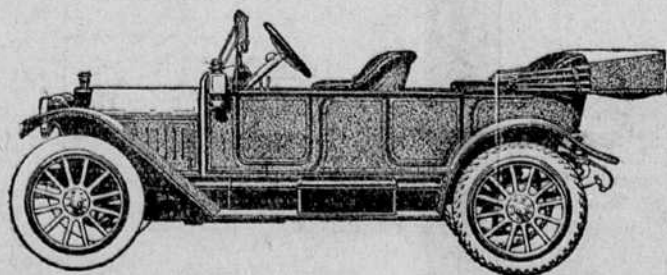

3 TOURING CARS AND 2 RUNABOUTS

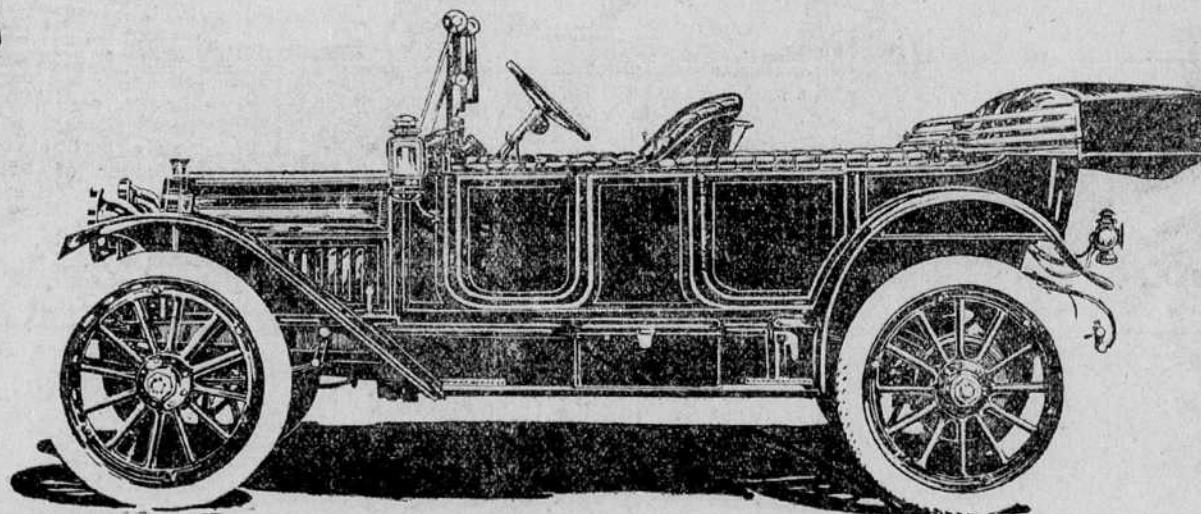

Model 40, (Touring) 5 Passenger

A man is known by his deeds. The same is true of an automobile. If you want to know a man you look up his past record. If you are a wise automobile buyer you will do likewise. There are no cars made that will not run when new, and most of them will continue to run for a short time, say two or three years, with more or less trouble. But, Mr. Buyer, is that the car you are interested in? The General Motor Co. build the Buick, Oakland, Cartercar, Welch, Cadillac, Elmore, Ewing and Oldsmobile. Why do they make more Buicks than all others combined? Why did the well-known firm of McLaughlin, whose reputation as high-class carriage builders for the last 50 years in Canada, choose the Buick for the Canadian market? Why does the Buick challenge the world to produce as many automobiles that have made 50, 80, 100 and 150 thousand miles as they can show and at the same time give the names and addresses of at least fourteen Buick owners whose cars are in daily use, that have made a total mileage of over one million five hundred thousand miles, equal to 60 times around the world. Why did the United States Government experts choose the Buick out of seventeen cars submitted? Why is it that the Buick's world challenge for power has never been accepted?

There are more McLaughlin-Buick cars in Sherbrooke than of any other make costing over twelve hundred dollars. This is the third season that an expert from the factory has been kept in Sherbrooke in the interests of McLaughlin-Buick owners throughout the Townships. It only requires twelve hours to get repairs from the McLaughlin factory at Oshawa. Those who travel in the McLaughlin-Buick in the United States will find a Buick garage, salesman and friend in every town of any importance.

The Model 25 Buick, in an economy test recently in Boston, made 30 miles on an imperial gallon of gasoline and will average under proper treatment 20 to 25 miles on Canadian roads. Write for catalogues, testimonials and statistics. Call and get a demonstration.

IN MEMORY OF REV. JOHN SMITH

TABLET SET UP IN GRACE CHURCH, SUTTON.

A tablet set up on the wall in the sanctuary of Grace Church, Sutton, was dedicated last week to the memory of its first rector, the Rev. John Smith, for twenty-six years in charge of that parish and for the greater part of the time rural dean of Bromfield. The life and work of the late Rural Dean was an inspiration to those who after so long a period are able to find it still a force in the community.
The size of the congregation on a week day consisting of many elderly people who had themselves received the ministrations of Mr. Smith in baptism and holy communion, as well as the descendants, old and young, of others, bore witness to the permanency of work that had been so faithfully carried on a quarter of a century ago in the county of Bromfield. Mr. Smith was born in Manchester, England, in 1817, and came to Canada in 1846, while still a layman. He settled at Knowlton, giving himself to scholastic work for which he and several members of his family who followed him, were eminently fitted.
Under the tutelage of Bishop Fulford there was developed in him so clear a vision of churchmanship and vocation that in 1862 at the mature age of forty-five, he was led to enter the ranks of the sacred ministry. He began and continued until his death in 1894, a faithful minister in the victitude in which he had found his vocation. Remaining in Knowlton—the scene of his scholastic labors—for two years after his ordination, he took up, in 1864, his permanent residence in Sutton. There are monuments there erected to him which will not easily be effaced. A chance to the already existing church at Sutton, a church at Abercorn, the founding and development of the mission at Glen Sutton, the endowment fund of the parish of Sutton, amounting now to about $5,000, and the constitution of Sutton into a self-supporting parish so soon after he began his labors there, will bear witness to the effectiveness of his ministry.

The service was taken by the Rev.
Herbert Charters, the present rector of Sutton, assisted by Mr. French, of St. John the Evangelist's, Montreal.
In the course of an address made by the latter, he renewed in the minds of those who were present, fond recollections of him whose memory they were called together to witness to by the erection of this tablet on the part of the family. Mr. French, though very much younger, in conjunction with Mr. Wood, had been in close touch with Mr. Smith, and ever since with the members of his family. He had assisted in laying the body to rest, vested in surplice and stole, and had himself placed the chalice and paten in his hands that were buried with him. He spoke, therefore, with feeling and appreciation of him who had always been held up to the name and a work, but also a family, two of whom, at least, have been closely identified with the upbuilding

"LIKE MAGIC"

New Food Makes Wonderful Changes

When a man has suffered from dyspepsia so many years that he can't remember when he had a natural appetite, and then hits on a way out of trouble, he may be excused for saying "it acts like magic."

When it is a simple, wholesome food instead of any one of a large number of so-called remedies in the form of drugs, he is more than ever likely to feel as though a sort of miracle has been performed.

A Western man, in the delight of restored digestion, puts it in this way:

"Like magic, fittingly describes the manner in which Grape-Nuts relieved me of poor digestion, coated tongue and loss of appetite, of many years standing."

"I tried about every medicine that was recommended to me, without result. Then I tried Grape-Nuts on the suggestion of a friend. By the time I had finished the fourth package, my stomach was all right, and for the past two months, I have been eating with a relish, anything set before me. That is something I had been unable to do previously for years."

"I am stronger than ever and I consider the effects of Grape-Nuts on a weak stomach as something really wonderful. It builds up the entire body as well as the brain and nerves." Name given by the Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont.

"There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

WEIGHT AND SAMPLE OF MILK

ONLY WAY WHEREBY COWS KEPT AT A LOSS CAN BE REMOV-ED.

Almost every dairy farmer who commences to weigh and sample his cows milk individually says at the end of a few months, "I find some in my herd were kept at a loss." Some men find only one or two cows, others state that they have found too many in the herd play a losing game.

What does this mean? Just this:
That despite all the experience gained from years of practical dairying, the farmer finds that in order to become thoroughly 'practical' he must requisition the aid of dairy records.
Neither the cow's appearance, nor the owner's knowledge of some short-period yield of milk (extraordinary as that yield may have been for a day, or one week, or a month) will testify with certainty to each individual cow's ability to pay her way for the whole year. Cow testing provides a simple and eminently practical way of discovering, not only if each cow pays, but which cows pay the most profit on the twelve months' transaction of feed consumed, and milk and fat produced. Those large profit cows are revealed only by practical cow testing.

Cows are apt to cheat the unsuspecting dairyman unless he keeps tab on the performance of each one.
Many dairymen have found this out to their utter astonishment and regret. Don't take chances with your herd, be certain that each cow pays; it pays you to find out. Individual cow records help the practical farmer to build up a profitable herd.

THE LATE JENNIE MONTGOMERY FORMERLY OF ULVERTON

(Contributed)

Jennie Montgomery (nee Bothwell) died at her residence 6410 Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois. Jennie Bothwell was born in Ulverton, Canada, February 28, 1867, but has resided in Chicago since 1893. Spinal meningitis, in its most severe form, was the disease which fastened itself upon her, and after suffering intensely for ten days she passed away in the afternoon of April 11th, 1913.

A mother, Mrs. M. Bothwell, two sisters, Jessie and Mae Bothwell; one brother, Wallace Bothwell; her husband, Jas. Montgomery, and sons, Clement and Howard Montgomery, survive.

The writer of these lines was a neighbor and friend of Mrs. Mon-gomery for several years, and wishes to testify with other neighbors and friends to her character as a true Christian woman and earnest co-worker with God in the upbuilding of his kingdom.

She was a member of Thoburn M.
E. Church in which she served as President of the Ladies' Aid Society, and Superintendent of the Home Department. In both offices she worked most faithfully and efficiently. On account of the contagious character of the illness which took her away, the Health Department of the city ordered a private funeral, and her body was laid away in Mount Hope Cemetery within 24 hours of her death.

On a beautiful Sunday afternoon, the day following her burial, the church building which she loved so well was filled with her many friends and impressive memorial services were held. The Rebecca Lodge, of which she was a member, and Ladies' Aid Society attended as organizations.
Rev. Mr. Delaney, pastor of the Church conducted the services and spoke feelingly of Mrs. Montgomery's kindness to his children and himself after the death of his wife, which occurred just one year previous, Rev.
Mr. Hill, Pastor of a neighboring Presbyterian Church made a brief address, telling the people of her sunny and genial disposition, as a member of a neighboring denomination.

The members of Thoburn Male Quartet sang her favorite selections.
Beautiful floral offerings were given by members of the Official Board of the Church, Epworth League, Rebecca Lodge, Presbyterian Church, and many friends. After the services these floral tributes were taken by her loved ones and laid upon the grave, which her body had occupied since the day previous.

The following resolutions were passed by Rebekah Lodge No. 753 I.O.
O.F., Chicago, Ill., on the death of Sister Jennie B. Montgomery.

"Whereas it has pleased Our Heavenly Father to call our beloved sister, Jennie Bothwell Montgomery, from her earthly home among us to her home On High, therefore, be it resolved: That in the death of our sister Normal Rebekah Lodge No.
753 I.O.O.F. has lost a true and faithful sister, and a most worthy officer. "None knew her but to love her." In her daily life she exemplified the teachings of the Rebekah degree. Be it further resolved: That we extend our sympathy to her husband and sons, and to her aged mother, sisters and brother, who mourn her departure and sincerely trust our Father will comfort them in their great affliction.

"Though earthly ties are broken,
"In life we meet no more,
"Our hearts are with them ever
"On yonder distant shore.
"The God Who gave has taken,
"And Heaven our friend has won;
"Although our hearts are breaking,
"Thy will, O God, be done."

DISCOVERY OF THE PACIFIC OCEAN

GREAT SOUTHERN SEA FOUND FOUR CENTURIES AGO BY SPANISH FUGITIVE.

(London Standard.)

The fourth centenary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean was celebrated by the members of the Royal Geographical Society. The Pacific Ocean was discovered by Vasco Nunez de Balboa, who climbed up on the heights of Darien and was the first white man to look down on the great ocean. The celebration took the form of a meeting in the lecture theatre of the Civil Service Commission, the new rooms of the society being too small for those who wanted to hear Sir Clements Mark-ham's address on the great explorer.

Lord Curzon took the chair, and expressed his regret for Sir Clement's absence, through illness, but welcomed Dr. Glavill Corney, who had promised to read the lecture.

A great map was spread across the theatre, and each member of the society was supplied with a map of a corner of the line of land that has the Panama Canal across it. Had it not been for these aids it is just possible that a few might not have known where the heights of Darien were. They are far down at the end of the neck of land, close to the southern continent.

Vasco Nunez landed in one of the little ships of his day on the Caribbean Sea Coast, and tried to explore the mountains and make friends with the native chiefs. To quote the words of the lecturer—"It was in those days, while visiting and collecting information from the friendly chiefs of Darien, that Vasco Nunez received the startling news from a son of one of the chiefs that on the other side of the mountains there was a vast, illimitable ocean. Then, with a few followers and guided by his native friends, the great discoverer forced his way through the dense forest and climbed the heights until the wide expanse of ocean burst upon his astonished gaze. The story tells how Vasco Nunez de Balboa descended the western slopes, and rushed into the sea waving the flags of Castile and Aragon over his head. It may have been so. It is certain that he devoted his few remaining years of life to the construction of ships that he might sail on the ocean of his discovery. The name of Pacific Ocean is due to the young son of the chief of Comogre who gave Vasco Nunez information of its existence. He said that the other great ocean was always smooth and never rough like the Caribbean Sea."

So it was called "Pacific," but its seeming peacefulness demanded toll of life in its own quiet way, for those who first tried to cross it never came back; they understood so little of the winds. Many sailors went down the coast of South America, discovering Chile, and eventually the Straits of Magellan.

"I look upon the discovery of the Pacific Ocean," wrote Sir Clements Markham, "as the greatest achievement, at least in its consequences, that was made and done in that age of daring-do, for it was due as much to the discoverer's humane policy as to his courage and resolution, as much to his statesmanship as to his gifts as a leader of men." It was impossible for any man who achieved greatness to have commenced under more depressing and apparently hopeless circumstances. Two great expeditions had been sent from colonies on the coasts from Carthage to Veragua. Both were mismanaged, their leaders were dead, and survivors were scattered along the coast, dying of fevers and starvation.

The problem was to turn this disastrous mess into a thriving colony without outside help, and the man who was eventually to accomplish this was a penniless fugitive, with no authority, no official appointment of any kind, who was in Encicco's ship, headed up in a cask to escape from his creditors.

WISE DECISIONS.
(Montreal Herald.)
Mr. Justice Beaudin in the Superior Court has upheld the decision of Mr. Recorder Geoffrion that farm land which has been bought for purposes of subdivision, which has been subdivided and is being held until a rise in value shall guarantee a profit to the owner, cannot be assessed as farm property but must pay taxes approximately on the value at which it is being held.

The decisions are eminently proper ones. The jurists who have handled them down have been able to reconcile common sense and law—which is not always so easy as it would seem—and their opinions will be heartily seconded by everybody but the real estate men whose property happens to be affected.

Why should these lands not bear their share in the common burden of taxation? To claim that they are farm lands just because a little wild hay is cut from them now and then is simply to quibble. They were farm lands at one time but the growth of the city has so increased their value that they have ceased to be profitable for their old purposes. The best proof that the real estate men who have bought them do not really regard them as farm land is the price they put upon them in the market.

The buying of farm lands adjacent to a city, the converting of them into lots and the selling of those lots to city dwellers is a perfectly legiti-mate business transaction if carried out fairly and without misrepresentation. The investor, be he real estate man by profession or not, who has sufficient faith in the future of his city and sufficient foresight to buy wisely is, fully entitled to a legitimate profit. In the majority of cases he makes it, but whether he does or not, he should not seek to escape paying his fair share of the administration renders necessary, when he does seek to escape he should be prevented from doing so.
Justice Beaudin and Recorder Geoffrion are to be congratulated on their decisions.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

AN ANSWER TO MR FAIRMAN HALL.

Editor Daily Record:

Dear Sir: I see by your correspondence column of the 13th., that your Bishop's Crossing correspondent has "got em again." He starts his letter by saying that "sometimes the old spirit has sane spells and while they last it does considerable talking." It is fortunate he mentioned this fact, am I am sure your readers would never have guessed it from a perusal of his letter, and if you will kindly grant me a little of your valuable space, I would like to point out the glaring inconsistency of some of his wild statements. He says this country is governed by the capitalist class, big manufacturers, Lawyers and Doctors and adds "just examine the laws of this country and see how their interests are protected." He asks, "what do they know or care of the wants and necessities of farmers and other laboring men." I would ask him to point out to us where a Lawyer or Doctor is protected half as much as a farmer? Who is more qualified to make laws than a Lawyer? and who goes about among the people of all classes, more particularly the working class than the Doctor? He is at the beck and call of everybody, and understands the "wants and necessities" of the people better than any other professional man you can mention. He is their best friend, and his prosperity depends upon the prosperity of the community in which he lives, therefore to say he neither knows or cares is a libel on a noble profession. He says as a rule the average man votes for a Lawyer or some of these other mentioned, and I would point out, that if Mr. Hall voted for either the Liberal or Conservative party at the last election he also voted for a Lawyer, for are not Mr. Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier both Lawyers? So if we are foolish for voting for Lawyers, what is the man who votes for one and then kicks about it? He is both foolish and inconsistent. I agree the manufacturer has a measure of protection, but does not your correspondent know that when an industry is given protection it is not to benefit the manufacturer entirely, but is to protect the industry against the cheap underpaid labor of foreign countries, and to ensure the workingman of a steady job with fair wages. Your correspondent kicks against this protection, and in the next paragraph asks, where is there a country whose prosperity has proved more phenomenal than the United States?
Now, the veriest schoolboy will tell you that the prosperity of the U. S. has been built up behind a tariff wall high enough to successfully keep out all competition. Where is his consistency? He talks of the millionaires running this country, and then points out the U. S. as a shining example of Democratic Government. A country whose affairs are entirely at the mercy of less than 100 men; if he would be consistent, instead of kicking against our moderate protection, he would be asking for a tariff wall as high as the U. S. industries were built up behind. He then turns his attention to the Naval question, and asks, Will any sensible minded person tell him, are we liable to be attacked by the U. S.? I say no, and would add, neither would any sensible minded person ask such a fool question. I have never heard or read of anyone saying there was any danger of an armed invasion by the U.
S. He is also sorry for the common sense of anybody who can believe there is any "Emergency," or any sign of any such thing. I would ask him is Mr. Asquith, the Prime Minister of England a sensible minded person, or Mr. Balfour, last Conservative Prime Minister, and leader of the Opposition, Lord Charles Beresford, Earl Grey, Winston T. Churchill, Lloyd George, in fact all the leaders of both parties? Note that, all say there is an "Emergency." Here are men who are principle actors on the world's stage of politics to-day.
Men whose every movement and speech is commented upon by all continental papers; men against whose characters there has never been breathed a word of suspicion, these men realize the sinful waste of this great armament race, and have made every advance they possibly could, consistent with their dignity to Germany with a view of putting an end to this vile thing, but the only answer they have got has been still more feverish activity in the German dockyards. I would remind your readers that these men have the services of the best organized secret service corps in the world at their disposal, which has its officers in every political quarter of the world, that neither Germany, Russia, France or any other nation can move as much as a regiment of soldiers from one town to another, without these ministers knowledge, and from the knowledge thus gained they all say there is an emergency. They also recognize that when there is any danger threatening the life of the Empire, their very political existence depends upon their all uniting on one common platform and removing this issue from the narrow confines of party politics, and here arises this philosopher from Bishop's Crossing and characterizes the opinions of these men as "contemptible rot." Verily, "where ignorance is bliss, 'twere folly to be wise." He sneers at the intelligence of the average voter, but adds, he can discern a little improvement here in Canada.
What marvelous powers of discernment he must have, he has just discovered the Canadian voter is beginning to think. I would respectfully ask him to cast his mind back to the 21st. of September, two short years ago, when all but the most hopelessly party blind were shown that the "common herd" as he calls us, were ready to put our patriotism before our partyism, and all those "little Canadians," or "little Englanders" who did not learn the lesson then, but can still see the prosperity of every country but their own, have another lesson coming at the next election, whether it comes sooner or later. Thanking you in anticipation, believe me to remain.

Yours Truly,
An Englishman, Sherbrooke.

REGARDING MORMONISM.

Editor Record:

Dear Sir: A copy of your paper, April first, chanced to fall into hand in which there was a letter from the Mayor of Inverness speaking of Mormonism.
He says he pleaded for liberty of speech and conscience for all men. He says he believes he can listen to any kind of teaching without being carried around by every wind of doctrine. He forgets the old saying "you can't go through mud without some sticking to you," and also the Lord said "His spirit shall not always strive with man," so if he still keeps listening to such trash the Lord will let him go in his own perverse way.
He says we should read our Bibles more and especially the 5th., 6th., and 7th., chapters of Matt. I don't know what there are about those to change our minds, but I think the fifteenth and sixteenth verses of the 7th., chapter of Matt., will tell him why we are against Mormonism.

Mormon Missionaries go round two by two to preach, and when they are asked what sect they are preaching for, they say they are just evangelists not preaching for any sect. If they get any converts while they are preaching this way they teach their religion to him a little at a time till they get him to join their sect.
A friend of mine went to a young people's convention in the Temple at Salt Lake City and she said the young people were told to obey the Bishops and Elders and not once were they told to obey the Lord.

If our good friend would study a little more he would find out the Mormons and Latter Day Saints are the same. There is a number of ways I could prove it to him if I had the space. There was a description of the plans for their new temple at Carleton given in the News Telegram, a Calgary paper and it was called the "Mormons or Latter Day Saints" temple and not one of the sect disputed the name.

He called them a Christian sect.
Christians do not believe in Polygamy. It is against the teachings of the Bible as anyone that reads their Bible should know.

The Mormons say "they do not practice that, as it is against the law, but they are going to teach the people so they will change that law." We are not trying to prosecute the Mormons, we are only trying to teach people the difference between their teachings and Christ's. Will our friend please tell us when the Sabbath was changed and also the Lord's Prayer? If he will look at the fourth commandment he will see that it says "Six days shalt thou labor and rest the seventh." The calendar puts Sunday the first of the week, but it is the rest or Sabbath after six days work. We may have changed from Saturday to Sunday but we have never changed from the real meaning of that commandment. I never heard before that the Lord's prayer was changed. Christ gave that to us and no true lover of his would ever change the meaning of that prayer. Christ said it was God's kingdom and power and glory forever. I will give you a copy of something I took from a reliable paper before I close.

"Less than two years ago, Elder Brigham Roberts, one of the ablest defenders of Mormonism, made a statement that the Mormon book, "must submit to every test, literary criticism with the rest." The book is flung down into the world's mass of literature and here it is; we proclaim it true, and the world has the right to test it to the uttermost in every possible way." Now, the world has taken him at his word, and has tested the validity of the Book of Abraham. A group of eminent Orientalists, including Dr. A. H. Sayer of Oxford, England; Dr. Flinders Petrill of London University; Prof. James H. Breasted of Chicago University; Dr. Arthur C. Mace of the Metropolitan Museum of New York; Dr. John Peters of the University of Penn.; Prof. C. A. B. Mercer of Western Theological Seminary; Dr. Edward Meyer of University of Berlin, and Prof. Von Bessing of the University of Munich have examined the hieroglyphic illustrations in the Book of Abraham. These distinguished men, each of whom has large experience in Egyptian research and oriental literature, united in pronouncing Joseph Smith's translations absurd and inaccurate throughout. Dr. Mace calls the Book of Abraham "a pure fabrication," and Prof. Mercer says the translation of Joseph Smith are

IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

Editor of Record:

Sir—I noticed in a recent issue of the Record a letter from Mr. Gerson in which he finds fault with me for not giving more agents authority to sell real estate situated in the Eastern Townships. Supposing I had appointed three dozen as he says should have been done, and one dozen of these after trouble, time and expense had each effected the sale of five or six properties—and all the same properties which only one buyer could have—after the owner of the property in Canada had paid one agent for his trouble there would be still eleven more wanting their pay.
Or, supposing an agent made a sale of a property to a bona fide purchaser, what is there to prevent half a dozen hungry agents conspiring together and trumping up some fictitious buyer when they discovered the property was sold, and holding up the owner of the property for a rake off? I wonder if Mr. Gerson ever heard the adage: "Too many cooks spoil the broth." The parties I left in charge of selling properties are altogether trustworthy and above suspicion, with good bankers' references, and any business done through them will be satisfactory to all concerned.

I think it is impertinent to say one should not be allowed to select whom he thinks fit. Canadian agents are not sent over for the benefit of booking agents, and out of the hundreds I interviewed, I never recommended any particular booking agent.

Mr. Gerson says human nature if given the chance to make the money will become corrupt! We all know hundreds of people who have been and who still are in positions of great trust, and who are incorruptible and uncompromised as long as they live.
Yours truly
C. N. Lyster.

RIGHTS OF WOMEN IN THE PRO-VINCE OF QUEBEC.

Editor of Record:

Sir—I agree with Mr. Oughtred that the Record is a splendid medium to discuss matters that pertain to the multitude, and I ask the privilege to make myself plain, when I said through your columns that the laws of Quebec as regards Woman's rights, and I may say in many other instances, are as obsolete as the laws of Moses. Yes, Sir, I will go further, and say that as Mr. Justice who criticized me said, "they have stood the test of fifteen hundred years." They certainly belong to the Old World, and are only a source of discontent and obstruction in the New World, and I will go further still and say that we of the present day have no right to treat women as slaves, even if they did so fifteen hundred years ago. Now, Sir, what have we to complain of? Were it not for the lack of space, I could make the blood run cold in the veins of a man that contain anything but water, however, we will discuss a few points that have come to my notice in the past few months.

A poor woman who has a drunkard for a husband, works from morning till night to support her children. He, the drunken husband, under our an-

BEDFORD DISTRICT LOCAL HAPPENINGS

SUTTON.
Mr. R. A. Wilson, who returned from the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, a few days ago, where he went for eye treatment, is still a sufferer from the affected eye and from which he is unable to see. The other eye seems all right, however.

Mrs. E. A. Longway, who has been ill for several weeks, is slowly recovering.

Mr. Z. P. Cross was in town on Wednesday to visit his sister, also his nephew, Mr. R. A. Wilson.

Mr. Joseph LeBlanc, with his son Adolphe of Farnham, visited their old home here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis C. Clapper and son were guests of his sister, Mrs. Ayler J. Hawley, at the Junction, leaving on Thursday for Derby, Vt., to visit her parents, after which they return to Brownville, Me., where Mr. Clapper is an engineer.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Robinson, widow of the late Mr. Samuel Robinson, took place at the house on Wednesday at 2.30, Rev. H. Charters officiating. There was a large turnout to pay a last tribute of respect to one who was respected by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. The bearers were Messrs. A. G. Eastman, Amos Hawley, A. J. Garland, Geo. E. Clark, Wm. Brown and P. C. Boright. Deceased, whose maiden name was Margaret O'Brien, was a daughter of the late Thomas O'Brien and Sarah Moffatt, of Sutton. She was born at Abercorn on August 12, 1888, and was thus in the 76th year of her age. She lived on what is known as the Larivee farm till Sept. 14, 1869, when she married the late Mr. Samuel Robinson, who was for many years one of the leading men of Sutton. For twenty years or till 1889 they lived on what is now known as the Chas. Thibault farm, then they moved into this village, living here from that time. Mr. Robinson died several years ago.

As before stated in the Record her death occurred on May 19th. The funeral was on May 23rd, 1913.

Deceased leaves one son, Mr. Arthur A. Robinson, proprietor of Sutton's well known hostelry the Mountain View House, also an adopted daughter, Miss Hattie O'Brien, one sister, Mrs. J. L. Shepard, lives at Abercorn. The late Mrs. Robinson was a woman of quiet unassuming manners and was certainly one of the good women of this town. She was a friend to those in need by poverty or from affliction and she will be much missed by a large circle of true friends who deplore her death.

In the absence of the pastor of the Methodist Church next Sunday at the Brome Circuit, the Rev. J. Berenson, of West Brome, will preach in the morning at Sutton, and Rev. G. W. Minnie, M.A., L.L.B., of Montreal, will preach in the evening in the interests of the Lord's Day Alliance.

The Picnic Band will meet with Miss Marjorie Smith next Saturday afternoon at 2.30 p.m.

Their many friends could not let them go without showing some mark of esteem by which they had always been held in this community, so notwithstanding the fearful downpour of rain Tuesday evening, about fifty braved the elements to wish them bon voyage also to celebrate the anniversary of their marriage. Rev. A. E. Pates on behalf of those present in a very able manner presented the worthy couple with a purse of $20 for which Mr. Whitcher replied. The hall was filled with a happy audience, who enjoyed the whole thing immensely. The play, "Sunbonnets," was performed admirably, each of the eleven ladies taking her part perfectly. Everyone was delighted. In the interval there was music, both vocal and instrumental, by Mrs. Sidney Blake, Mrs. Jesse Martin, Mr. M. Martin, Mr. H. Martin and the Rev. H. G. Baugh (vicar). The eleven ladies taking part in the dialogue were Mrs. R. A. Savage, Mrs. Young, Mrs. H. Blake, Mrs. W. Phelps, Mrs. A. Chamberlain, Mrs. Parry, Mrs. C. Martin, husband makes a holograph will. Under our ancient laws it costs the poor widow nothing less than $25.00 for two friends who charge nothing, to go before Court and swear that was the husband's signature, and it will cost at least $100 more to be permitted to dispose of the property, as it will under the laws of the ancients that are still the laws of Quebec, he advertised and sold at the Church door. Mind, the will was well drawn up, and the executor appointed by the husband before death. In the State of Minnesota I was a party to a similar transaction; there we went before a notary at a cost of 50c., and 50c. more to register. This woman has the right to pay $124.50 more than she would under more modern laws.

The father has sole authority in the education and disposal of the child, although the mother is equal with the father for its maintenance.

If a husband dies intestate, any relation within the twelfth degree has a better right than his wife to his estate. Think of that, readers, your fifth cousins have a better right according to Quebec laws to your estate than your wife. Even if the husband leaves a million dollars, dies without children, and without a will, his wife would be left penniless, and Quebec is the only civilized country that has such laws.

In Quebec a husband may say to his wife, "What is yours is mine, and what is mine is my own."

I am fond of the old Province where I was born, but ashamed of the obsolete laws, for they make it very awkward and expensive to live. They retard civilization, they are unjust, they are silly, and make it possible for graft in many ways. The wording is mysterious, complicated, and altogether out of date; our legal documents are full of repetitions, that are unnecessary, the wording is of ancient character; taking it all in all we are behind the times.

Sincerely,
J. H. M. PARKER.

COWAN'S PERFECTION COCOA

A MUSCLE-BUILDING FOOD

Growing youngsters work hard. They need food that is nourishing—food that satisfies the hunger and digests easily. Nothing is better for them than Cowan's Perfection Cocoa. Ground from the fresh Cocoa Beans, it has all the food value of pure Cocoa. It builds up the muscles and makes children healthy and strong. A cup of Cowan's made with half or one-third milk is a properly balanced food—one that the most delicate stomach can digest. And it is so delicious that it tempts the appetite when all other foods fail.

cient laws can forbid her collecting the money she has worked for. She can and does collect it and drinks it away from her family.

The husband can sell the property accumulated by both parties without his wife's consent, and need only give her a very meagre allowance if he so chooses. A woman though separate from her husband, and separate as to property, cannot sell it without his consent.

If the wife has moveable estate she has no security worth speaking about against her husband dissipating it.

A woman marries without any fortune of her own, the husband has ten thousand dollars in his business. The wife dies leaving no children, and no will. Her heirs can make the husband fork over five thousand dollars, or half his possessions. Now, Sir, this is nice for her family, but—bad for him, it looks to me like marrying the whole family. The conditions might have been all right at the time they originated, in the dark ages, or when a man had to purchase his wife—but they do not belong to civilization.

A girl of 12 can marry if her father consents, irrespective of the mother's wishes. Does that belong to civilization?

A wife inherits nothing from her husband if he makes no will. (Grand Law.)

A wife cannot take legal action, dispose of her legal property, take a gift of property, or go into trade, without her husband's consent.

If no marriage contract exists, the husband has complete administration of his wife's property, and can collect her wages.

A man may procure a separation because of his wife's adultery; it is necessary before the wife can do the same that the husband keep his concubine in the same house with his wife.

I have now a case in hand where Mrs. E. Martin, Mrs. J. Savage, Miss B. Savage and Miss M. Norton. A very hearty thanks is tendered all who took part in the entertainment and gave everybody such an enjoyable evening.

A MUSCLE-BUILDING FOOD

Growing youngsters work hard. They need food that is nourishing—food that satisfies the hunger and digests easily. Nothing is better for them than Cowan's Perfection Cocoa. Ground from the fresh Cocoa Beans, it has all the food value of pure Cocoa. It builds up the muscles and makes children healthy and strong. A cup of Cowan's made with half or one-third milk is a properly balanced food—one that the most delicate stomach can digest. And it is so delicious that it tempts the appetite when all other foods fail.

Lack of exercise and overwork were the causes that combined to almost kill Samuel S. Stephens, Jr., one of the best known citizens in Woodstock. In his convincing letter, Mr. Stephens says:

"A year ago I returned home after a long trip, completely worn out. I was so badly affected by chronic biliousness, so much overcome by constant headaches, dizziness, that I despaired of ever getting well."

"It was a blessing that I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. In one week I felt like a new man. The feeling of weight and nausea in my stomach disappeared. My eyes looked brighter, color grew better, and best of all, I began to enjoy my meals. The dizziness, languor and feeling of depression passed away, and I fast regained my old-time vigor and spirits. Today I am well—thanks to Dr. Hamilton's Pills."
