SIXTY CA[illegible]DIAN SOLDIERS G[illegible] HOME FROM THE WAR

Limping From Wounds and Weak From Enteric Fever They Longed For Their Own Land.

QUEBEC WELCOMED THEM ROYALLY

There Are Half a Dozen Montreal Boys Among Them, Who Will Reach Here To-night or To-morrow.

Quebec, September 24—Sixty-one soldiers from the Canadian troops in South Africa arrived here yesterday morning on the steamer Dominion, broken with the rigors of the campaign. Enteric, slow fever, dysentery and wounds have, in many cases shattered the health of these young heroes and it may be that although they have for the present recovered from their illness they will feel the effects to their graves. They are all glad to get back to their homes again, but not a man regrets having gone to South Africa. One of the men when spoken to on this point, said that the experience was one that was worth every thing he had suffered, and this opinion seems to be general.

It is very difficult to get the men to talk freely about the campaign. They have such a store of anecdote and story that they are embarrassed by their plenty and can scarce tell where to begin. Every little incident, every shot fired, every false alarm, can be made the basis for a war tale. There is no need to weave in fiction; the truth is startling enough for the most exacting. One thing all are agreed upon, they have no desire to go back to South Africa, and as for settling there they are of the opinion that Canada is good enough for them. "Why," said one of the men, "no sensible Canadien would live there for all the gold in the rand."

ALL WEAR THE MEDAL RIBBONS.

Much interest was excited by the fact that all the men are wearing the ribbon of "South Africa, 1900." The new ribbon, which will be attached to the campaign medal, is a very attractive one. The colors are a broad centre strip of khaki; and a narrow stripe of navy blue on each side of the khaki and a narrow stripe of red on each edge. The Canadians have special permission from the War Office to wear the ribbon, although none of the Imperial troops have yet received it. The tiny bits of color which means so much, were served out by the authorities in England just before the steamer sailed. The medals will follow after the war is over.

Owing to the crowded state of the steamer the men were not accommodated as well as they would have desired or as well as the ship's officers wished, but the trans-Atlantic rush at present, is so great that the company can readily be pardoned. During the passage out the boys made many friends among the passengers and when they were leaving the steamer they were heartily cheered by every one on board. Captain Menzies of the Dominion states that he was exceptionally glad to have the men on board and gives them a most flattering reputation. They are all gentlement, every one of them, and are a credit to Canada.

STILL FEEL THEIR WOUNDS.

Two officers were aboard the ship, Lieut. H. D. B. Ketchen, of Strathcona's Horse, and Capt. Van Luven, of the Mounted Rifles. Lieut. Ketchen was wounded at Sugar Buschrand near Heidelberg. He was struck in the left side, and is now invalided home to recover. Capt. Van Luven had the enteric, and is here only on furlough. He purposes returning to Africa in a week or ten days. One of the men, Gunner Brewer, is still unable to walk. On the arrival of the steamer he was taken to the Citadel Hospital in the ambulance. He was wounded in the leg, and the fever has much weakened him.

ARRIVAL AT QUEBEC.

At eleven o'clock yesterday the Government steamer Druid went alongside the Dominion to take the soldiers ashore. Luncheon was served on the boat, and at 1.30 the Druid landed at the Queen's wharf, where, in spite of the rain, a very large crowd had assembled to meet the soldiers and greet them as fittingly as the occasion warranted. Amid the cheers of the people the men walked ashore and lined up on the wharf, where they were officially welcomed by pro-Mayor George Tanguay in the name of the city of Quebec.

Capt. Van Luven replied in a few well-chosen words, and after another volley of cheers the procession formed and marched up to the Citadel in the following order:

Guard of municipal police.
R. C. A. Band.
Men of the Contingent.
Men of the R. C. A.
Men of the R. C. R. I.
St. Patrick's Band.
Soldiers and citizens in carriages.

All along the route the men were greeted with tumultuous cheers, and the streets were crowded with citizens bearing flags and maple leaves. Despite the lowering clouds and the cold drizzling rain, the reception was emphatically a success.

CORPORAL McTAGGART.

Of the stories told by the men the most interesting is that of Corp. McTaggart, of 37 Clark Avenue, Westmount. Corp. McTaggart states that after the battle of Paardeberg, when the regiment was on the march to Bloemfontein, he fell sick, and was told by the officer commanding to wait for the transports. He lay down, became unconscious, and when he awoke it was dark and none of the British were to be seen. In trying to find his way back to camp he ran straight into a Boer patrol, some twenty in number, and was immediately captured. The Boers took away his equipment and arms and a portion of his clothes. The next evening the sentry detailed to watch him dozed a little, and McTaggart made a break for liberty. His escape was noted, and the Boers took horses and started to look for him, but it was very dark, and he had no difficulty in concealing himself. Four days later he walked into Kimberley, having existed for that time without rations and with very little water. His feet were a mass of sores, and he had to go to hospital to recover. He got enteric at Kimberley, and was invalided home.

PRIVATE FARMER.

Perhaps the most disappointed man in the party is Pte. Chas. Farmer, a member of Roberts' Horse. Pte. Farmer's home is in Boston, Mass., although he is of English birth. At the time of the outbreak of the war he was a commercial traveler, but he [illegible] his job and paid his own fare to Cape Town, where he enlisted in Roberts' Horse. He was wounded at Sanna's Post, and invalided to England. He received only a portion of his pay, and was told in England that the rest would be forthcoming on his arrival here.

Unfortunately the authorities here have no orders to pay him and hence he is in an unenviable position with neither money or prospects, at least for the present. Pte Farmer is a very intelligent and fine-looking young fellow and during the campaign wrote a series of very excellent letters to the Boston Herald.

SERGEANT HESSIAN.

Sergeant Hessian, who was in charge of the draft of the regiment at Bloemfontein in May last, a victim to enteric. He was after some time sent to Wynberg, and later to Netley, and he is enthusiastic over the splendid care he received. Sergt. Hessian was a member of the Quebec football team last year and is very popular in the city, both with his comrades of the R.C.A. and with the citizens generally.

PRIVATE McNAUGHTON.

Private Frank McNaughton, of this city, was formerly employed in the Post Office, and went to South Africa with the draft which recruited the first contingent. He is a football player and received a splendid reception yesterday from his many friends. Pte McNaughton was first knocked out of the running with sore feet, but later he developed symptoms of enteric and together with dysentery he had a pretty hard time. He has, however, completely recovered.

PRIVATE CROTTY.

Private Crotty's march up Mountain Hill was somewhat of the style of a triumphal entry, he being immensely popular here. Pte Crotty, whose home is at 40 St. Julie Street, kept with the regiment as far as Springs, where he took enteric and rheumatism. He was only two weeks in England. He had a very narrow escape at Paardeberg, a Boer bullet going through his puttee and scraping his leg rather roughly, but it did not prevent him from keeping up with the column. He has no desire to return to South Africa, but still he expressed himself as being glad he went.

PRIVATE RUSSELL.

Pte Percy Russell, also of this city, went to South Africa with the recruiting draft, but his health broke down after a few weeks' campaigning, and he was invalided to England. While on the steamer he took enteric, but the attack was only a slight one and he is now as well as ever. Pte Wolfe, of this city, also one of the recruiting draft, had a bad attack of enteric, but is now as well as ever.

PRIVATE PROULX.

Pte H. Proulx, of Montreal, was wounded at Paardeberg about half an hour before Cronje surrendered. The bullet entered his left elbow, plowed up his arm and came out at the shoulder. While in the hospital at Wynberg he had enteric. He is still weak but is recovering rapidly.

PRIVATE THERIAULT.

Pte Theriault, formerly an officer in the 89th battalion, was wounded in both feet at Paardeberg, and shortly afterward was reported to the Canadian Government as dead from his wounds. He says the fever nearly did him up, but he is now quite recovered. His return will be a joyful surprise to his friends.

PRIVATE BENBOW.

Pte Benbow is an Ottawa boy, living at 44 Dufferin Row. At Thabanchu, beyond Bloemfontein, he was prostrated by sunstroke and his life was endangered. The change and cool weather of the sea voyage and the two months stay in England has entirely restored him and his only regret is that he could not stay with the regiment until the close of the war.

LANCE-CORP. FRAWLEY.

Lance-Corpl. Frawley, Stanley Hotel, Montreal, fell ill of enteric at Sand River, after going through the campaign practically untouched. He was given up by the doctors for a time and when he became convalescent was so weak that he could not lift his rifle. He has gained strength rapidly, however, and is glad to be back at home.

The rest of the men are mostly recovering from the effects of enteric. They will all be examined by the physician and will then be paid off. It is probable that some of the Montreal men will leave for home to-day.

CAMPAIGNING WITH TUPPER.

Stratford, Ont., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The Great Chief only spoke 6½ hours to-night, and was obviously in poor form. He was followed by Hugh John, who said, as he arose: "I suppose everyone knows that those whose woes uprose, after I came, will, with throes of pleasure, realize that I am here to win the fight. As sure as the river flows, the straw blows with us. Be not morose, we'll win, and remember, everyone knows the paramount issue is a nose." President Kruger was wise enough to accept passage from South Africa on a Dutch ship of war. MR. M'CULLOUGH IN THE WITNESS BOX

Denies That He Ever Said His Firm Got $50,000 Out of Mr. Chisholm's Transactions—His Bookkeeper Testifies.

Mr. McCullough's examination was continued in the Cold Storage case when the proceedings were resumed this morning, and, at the request of Mr. R. D. McGibbon, produced certain cheques and other documents already referred to during the progress of the case.

Mr. Cornelius A. McDonnell, liquidator of the Croil & McCullough Company, also produced certain documents.

Mr. McCullough then produced a cheque on the Merchants' Bank of Halifax for $4,300, dated November 25th, deposited in the Bank of Hochelaga. He did not know how that cheque had come to be deposited in that bank; he had no account there. The cheque had been part of a loan of $5,200 raised upon the security of warehouse receipts. Croil & McCullough had always spoken of its transactions with Mr. Chisholm as with the "M.C.S. Company."

Mr. McCullough explained in detail the circumstances under which various cheques had been given. He supposed that Mr. Chisholm was using the proceeds of the cheques to pay for the goods he was buying.

A number of the cheques represented loans to Mr. Chisholm apart from cheese transactions. The firm had continued making advances to Mr. Chisholm even after the discovery that the warehouse receipts were bogus. They had desired to help Chisholm in order to get back the full amount of the money advanced.

Only five cheques had been made payable to T. J. Chisholm; the others had been made payable to other parties on verbal instructions from Mr. Chisholm. It had been the practice of witness's firm to make out bills of exchange for advances on the security of warehouse receipts. These bills would be given to Mr. Chisholm, who would cash them at the bank. The advances in this way had amounted to an aggregate of a hundred thousand dollars. The cheese represented by the warehouse receipts was understood to be shipped to Campbell, Shearer & Co., or sold in Montreal.

Witness would swear that he had never admitted that his firm had received fifty thousand dollars out of the proceeds of the transactions of Mr. Chisholm.

To Mr. C. A. Duclos the witness repeated most emphatically that his firm had received no part of the proceeds of the cheese transactions, amounting in the aggregate to two hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

To Mr. Donald Macmaster, witness said that he could not say that the cheese shipped by Mr. Chisholm last fall and winter was the cheese upon which witness' firm had made advances; but witness did know that his firm had, between October, 1899, and March, 1900, shipped $84,000 worth of cheese for Mr. Chisholm. Witness had not had a dollar of the two hundred and twenty thousand dollars, but upon previous shipments Campbell and Shearer had paid the customary commission of one per cent.

To Mr. McGibbon — Cheques had not been made directly payable to Mr. Chisholm, witness supposed, because Mr. Chisholm owed money to various parties, and desired to have the cheques made over to them at once.

To Mr. Macmaster — Mr. Chisholm had told witness that he did not desire his other tenants to know that he was in the cheese business.

Mr. D. J. McGillis, recalled, said in reply to Mr. McGibbon that he usually had a memorandum of instructions from Mr. Chisholm as to the drafts and warehouse receipts.

To Mr. Macmaster—He always followed Mr. Chisholm's instructions.

CROIL & McCULLOUGH'S BOOKKEEPER.

Mr. Sidney Hartley, Croil & McCullough's bookkeeper, was next called. He had taken his instructions while in the firm's employ from Mr. McCullough. He knew nothing about the fraudulent warehouse receipts. Warehouse receipts were frequently brought into the office, and witness had gone to the Montreal Cold Storage office for warehouse receipts. When witness got warehouse receipts, he entered them in the day book, charged to Campbell, Shearer & Company. Sometimes witness made out the bills of exchange. The warehouse receipts usually had invoices attached with memoranda from Mr. Chisholm or other party. Witness always took exchanges to the Merchants Bank of Halifax. He had never gone to the Merchants Bank of Canada. Witness had been instructed not to enter up records of certain transactions. He did not know why. He merely did as he was told. Witness had never been left with blank cheques to be filled according to Mr. Chisholm's instructions. Mr. McGillis usually brought in a memorandum of the cheques to be made out by Croil & McCullough, showing to whom they were to be made payable, etc. Shown a cheque for $4,200 made out in favor of Mr. Chisholm, witness identified the handwriting as his own. He had made it out on instructions from Mr. McCullough. When witness made out a cheque for Mr. Chisholm payable to a third party, no record was kept, except the memorandum in the bank book.

To Mr. Macmaster—When witness got a memorandum of instructions from Mr. Chisholm, or Mr. McGillis, he drew out the draft accordingly, and Mr. McCullough signed. Witness had had no doubt of the cheese transactions being made for Mr. Chisholm, and not for Croil & McCullough. He had been told that it was "Chisholm's cheese." His firm had done a warehouse business with the Montreal Cold Storage and Freezing Company. Witness could not say when the fact of the warehouse receipts being bogus had first come to his knowledge.

The enquiry then adjourned until half-past two.

THERE HAS BEEN NO HARDSHIP AT ALL

Government and Patriotic Committee Have Looked Well After Wounded Soldiers Since Their Return, Says Col. Cole.

In certain quarters there is a disposition to make it appear that the Dominion Government has treated the invalided soldiers, who recently returned from the campaign in South Africa, with some harshness. For example, it has been alleged that when these men were discharged at Quebec over a month ago, they received only $32 out of $82 due, and that they were told that the balance would be paid to them by the officer commanding in the district in which they resided. It is also averred that the men are in urgent need of the money, many of them not having yet been able to secure employment. All of which may be true. But enquiry in official circles fails to disclose just why the Government should be held blamable.

After being discharged from the hospitals in England, and during their somewhat protracted stay in London, advances were made to many, if not to all, of the men. The delay in paying over any balances which may be outstanding is due to the necessity forced upon the Government of waiting until the papers showing the condition of the various accounts is forwarded from England. In the meantime, upon the emphatic assertion of Lt.-Col. Cole, there has not been, among the Montreal men at least, a single case of hardship. All have been looked after by the Patriotic Committee.

"Every man," asserted Col. Cole, when interviewed upon the subject this morning, "received $80, so far as I can ascertain. All the men from Montreal received that amount, with the exception of Pte Malin, of the Royal Scots, who was paid $35, and was told that whatever balance was due him would be paid when some needed papers were forwarded from England. Besides the four men out of my own regiment, who came to see me—for two of whom I have secured positions—there have been only three from other regiments, and for two of these I also obtained situations. In the case of men, whose money was entirely used up in paying back debts and in meeting their current expenses, I advanced an average of $5 on the sanction of the Patriotic Committee.

"The allegations about the men suffering hardships, so far as it alludes to Montrealers at least, is utterly unfounded. You may make that as an emphatic statement coming from me. There may, in other places, be cases in which men did not receive as large an amount as $80, but that is to be attributed to the fact that the condition of their accounts are not known. It is impossible for the Government to know exactly what is due until the papers relative to the matter are received from London. One thing, however, is sure—that the Patriotic Committee has helped every urgent case since the men returned, so that there could not possibly have been any hardship."

RECOGNIZES THE UNIONS.

Recorder Poirier Says Striking Members Have a Right to Talk to Non-strikers.

Recorder Poirier on Saturday delivered an interesting judgment in the case of Thomas Brethom vs. John Kilbride. It seems that Mr. Kilbride and a couple of other men employed by Mr. Brethom were members of the Plasters' Union. Lately Mr. Brethom had engaged non-union men outside the union. Now he charges Kilbride of inducing some of the union members to leave his service.

Mr. Kilbride acknowledges that he did speak to one of the men, but that he did not say anything to him that would damage the business of Brethom. In rendering judgment Recorder Poirier said that he did not consider that the defendant was criminally guilty. These men belonged to a certain union and he considered that the members had a right to discuss their business among themselves. He, however, did not wish them to think that the laws of such unions were binding upon the members as affecting their duties to the court as their rules were not binding upon the courts. The case was dismissed without costs.

LT. HOBSON DENIES

That He Said Dewey Didn't Win Manilla Fight.

HIS NEW NAVAL THEORY.

The Best Way to Sink a Vessel Is to Chase it Around Till it Runs Short of Coal or Something.

Not long ago Admiral Dewey was the American hero of heroes. Lieut. Hobson was a good second, and supplemented his naval feats by great feats, setting up world's records in the kissing art. A few days back a startling report came over the wires that the young lieutenant, superintending the reconstruction of Spanish gunboats, raised from the depths of Manila Bay, had declared Admiral Dewey not guilty, so far as the actual sinking went. The Spaniards, themselves, had sunk the ships. Naturally Dewey was not pleased at what seemed to be an attempt to minimize his skill and daring.

In reality, Lieut. Hobson did not attempt to do this. He arrived in Montreal from Vancouver, on the Imperial Limited, last night, and left for New York this morning. He was shown his alleged report on the Spanish ships that went down in Manila Bay and Admiral Dewey's remarks thereon. Lieut. Hobson emphatically declares that his actual meaning was absurdly twisted by a reporter. He says the United States navy is proud of Admiral Dewey's work and positively will honor it even more highly. He did what had never before been done. He made things so warm for the Spaniards that they had to sink their ships, which was better than sinking them himself.

American skill, continued Lieut. Hobson, did hit the gunboats, but it is almost impossible to hit below the water line, and above it, the ships are so strong that sinking them by hitting them there is almost impossible.

This declaration leads the way for a new and comforting naval theory. Henceforth naval fighting will be much safer than amateur yachting or fishing.

The new theory, briefly, runs as follows. It is only intended for the use of Admirals only. First fact, When firing at the other fellow, recollect that it is impossible to puncture his ship below the water line. Therefore, don't aim below the water line. Second fact. Unless his fleet is merely a string of old street cars, fitted with paddle wheels, you cannot sink him by hitting him above the water line. Naval architects do not know much but they have got ahead of you there. Therefore, do not try to hit him above the water line. It's only fooling away ammunition. Third fact. Even if you try, you may not hit him at all. Therefore you must chase him round and round the world until he runs short of provisions and coal, or his ships sink each other (a frequent failing in navies) or until the noise of your guns so scares him that he sinks himself.

UNDER FALSE COLORS.

A Cornwall Man Deserts a Wife and Family and Is Heard of in Watertown, N.Y.

Kingston, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—An interesting story comes to hand from Watertown, N.Y., regarding the doings of David Sydney Bates, an expert electroplater, who has been proven to be a man named Baker, of Cornwall, Ont., who deserted a wife and three children. In Watertown Bates posed as a model young man, a leading churchman, Sunday school teacher and chorister. Soon after Bates reached Watertown he ingratiated himself into favor and soon was enabled to secure credit on all sides. In church he sang and spoke well, and was much sought after. He paid attentions to a young woman, secured her favor and also $100 on a mortgage to meet pressing obligations. He gave her a fine bicycle as a present. Soon after a Canadian was walking with a Watertown friend when Bates was met and pointed out as a noble, model man. The Canadian recognized him and remarked, "model devil," and told who the man was. The rector of the church was informed; he interviewed Bates, and the young man admitted sailing under false pretences. The result was the exit of Bates or Baker, leaving many sorrowing creditors. He has written some that he had to leave town hurriedly, but he would settle the little bills. The young woman has heard that her mortgage was worthless, for the man had no property, and the bicycle presented to her had been bought on the instalment plan and had not been paid for. The Times, of Watertown, N.Y., relating the affair, said Bates was last heard of in Rochester.

MLLE. MILHAN HERE

For the Reopening of Royal Victoria College,

WILL TAKE PLACE TO-MORROW.

Will Teach French and German—Miss Lichtenstein Arrived from Europe Yesterday Also.

To-morrow the Royal Victoria College re-opens for another season. The staff of teachers is now complete and fresh students are registering daily. A number have already arrived, ready for work, and more are expected. A good many entered for the exhibitions, but the results cannot be made known yet. There will be no opening lecture given to-morrow, but the students will assemble at the hours appointed for each subject, and begin to prepare for regular work.

Principal Petersen arrived by the Parisian yesterday. The same vessel brought Miss Clara Lichtenstein, whose instruction in music is one of the features of the college, and Mlle. Marie Louise Milhan, who has come from France to teach German and French.

Mlle. Milhan's success in her especial branch of the college work appears to be assured, for she comes with a fine record of past achievements. Educated, like most French Protestant girls, principally by governesses and tutors at home, at a very early age, she passed the brevet (simple) and brevet (superior) entitling her to teach in the girls' high schools. She spent eighteen months in England, and also taught in a German school. After leaving Germany, she obtained the requisite license to teach German in girls' high schools in France.

Mlle. Milhan obtained a two years' scholarship at La Sarbonne, Paris University, which was the only scholarship for women, for German. Her course of study in Paris was most interesting. While holding the scholarship Mlle. Milhan had to teach in the Paris Girls' School, in the presence of the professors for certain rooms. After giving a lesson her work was criticized in writing by the professor, and the criticism given to the principal. In the same way the professor would teach before the student, who in her turn criticized his work, and was also expected to give impressions and suggestions as to the work of the girls, reforms, etc.

Mlle. Milhan, who has all the grace and charm of a well-bred French woman, comes from Casties, France, not far from the Pyrennees, and is a Protestant. In the course of a conversation upon educational matters Mlle. Milhan stated that it is only within a comparatively few years French girls have attended public schools and universities. Lately, however, instead of being educated privately, or in convents, many French girls are attending public schools with a University course in view.

ADMITS HE STOLE $60.

Henry Wayland, Collector of the National Cash Register, Pleads Guilty.

Henry Wayland, of 82 Union Avenue, was arrested by Silas H. Carpenter, jr., of the Canadian Secret Service, on Saturday morning, on the charge of stealing $60 from the National Cash Register Company, of Dayton, Ohio. Wayland was employed as collector by Mr. Alfred Blackwell, the company's local agent, on Notre Dame Street.

Some suspicion that Wayland's accounts were not correct was raised a few days ago, and on investigation, it is said, it was found that no returns had been made for several accounts which had been settled with him. Among these was that of Lalonde's hotel, on Chaboillez Square. On September 17, it is alleged, $50 was collected there by Wayland, but no returns were made.

The case was given to the Canadian Secret Service on Friday evening, and on Saturday morning, at three o'clock, Wayland was found at his boarding house, 82 Union Ave. He willingly accompanied Principal Carpenter to the office of the Canadian Secret Service, saying he was innocent of any crime.

On Saturday morning Wayland was taken over to the Police Court, but as he entered the door he evidently changed his mind, for he suddenly turned around, facing Mr. Carpenter, and said: "No, I'll never go in there." Then he bolted.

Detective Carpenter, who had not handcuffed his man, went in hot pursuit, and was gaining on him, when Detectives Guertin and McKay, of the C.P.R., who were coming along, caught the fugitive. Wayland was taken back to the Police Court, and pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing $60. He will be sentenced on the 25th.

GOVERNMENT BAKING POWDER TESTS.

The Royal Baking Powder is an old candidate for favor with the housekeepers of the Dominion. Its patrons will be pleased to know that the recent Government report giving the analyses of baking powders sold in the Dominion show the Royal to be the purest of cream of tartar powders, the most healthful in character, and of greatest leavening strength.

It is shown that the art in baking powder making is to give a pure and healthful powder, of highest leavening power, which will keep indefinitely without losing its strength. These two qualifications—effective keeping and highest strength—it is impossible to combine in a powder except with the use of chemically pure ingredients. The report states that the only entirely cream of tartar powders which came up to this standard were the Royal and Cleveland's.

TROUBLE OVER A NOTE.—James Jordan, of the Berlinger Gramophone Company, of this city, has been arrested in Ottawa on a charge of obtaining $24 and a purse from P. C. Guillaume under false pretences. The plaintiff alleges that Jordan came to his store, bought a purse, and gave in payment a note for $50 on the Bank of Ottawa, signed by the Berlinger Co., in favor of Jordan. Guillaume gave him $24 of his change, promising to pay the balance later. On presenting the note at the bank he was told that the company did not have an account with it.

PUT ON SPECIAL CARS.—Through the instrumentality of Mr. James Croil, both the Canada Atlantic and Canadian Pacific Railway companies, paid a nice compliment to the members of the Dominion Commercial Travellers' Association on Friday. Quite a large number of the travellers had been attending the Ottawa Exhibition during the week, and on Friday evening both railways attached a special car to their regular train on Friday evening for their accomodation.

PTE. McTAGGART TO BE WELCOMED.

REV. J. T. L. MAGG'S FIRST SERMONS.

At Mountain Street Methodist Church, yesterday, the Rev. J. T. L. Maggs, the new principal of the Wesleyan Theological College, preached the morning and evening anniversary sermons. The morning sermon, his first in Montreal, was on this text, St. John, XV. 6: "If a man abide not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned."

The preacher compared the unity between Christ and men to that between the vine and the branch. It was a visible union, but more than that there was an invisible, mystical union. Just as life came from the vine stock to the branch, so life came invisibly to each believing soul. This union was a condition of fruitfulness.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.

To-day the Celebration Begins and Business Is Pretty Well Suspended.

To-day the ram's horn was sounded in the Synagogues, and the observers of the law of Moses commenced their two day's celebration of the opening of the year, according to the Hebrew calendar, 5661. Services of a devotional character were also held last night; but those of this morning were of a more elaborate and striking, including sermons, choral singing and prayers. The celebrations will be continued to-morrow and business in the Jewish community will be to a large extent suspended during the progress of the festival.

The congregations of the different synagogues, have been strengthened this year by the presence of a large number of Roumanian Jews.

THREE SMALL FIRES.

Three small fires occurred yesterday, and, besides, the brigade was called out twice in response to false alarms. A foul chimney occasioned a considerable amount of damage in the home of Moses O'Brien at 158 Young Street. Some rags in a shed in the rear of John Allen's at 54 St. Patrick Street took fire, but there was no damage. In the home of Mrs. L. O. Allard at 328 Visitation Street, an overheated stove set fire to the kitchen. The damage was slight.

FIRST TRAIN OVER CORNWALL BRIDGE.

Cornwall, Sept. 24. — (Special.) — The first train of passenger cars to pass over the O. & N.Y. bridges at Cornwall, went over yesterday. It was composed of a locomotive and four coaches. As the bridges have not yet been inspected, only the officials of the road were on board. Several construction trains crossed last week. The bridges will be inspected shortly, and will be thrown open to traffic about October 1.

MR. PALMER'S GIFT.

Mr. Frederick R. Palmer, the well known special correspondent of the New York World and Collier's Weekly, is in Montreal to-day on his way back to New York from Manila and Pekin. He had absolutely nothing to give away except a Filipino flag captured, he said, by the 14th Infantry. This he left at Windsor station. Mr. Palmer registered at the Windsor Hotel.

SOCIALISTS MEET AND DISAGREE.

Paris, September 24.—The international Socialist congress opened yesterday in Wagram Hall. The proceedings were far from harmonious and the session closed without having accomplished anything.

THE BOILERMAKERS' STRIKE.

The Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railway companies are only finding employment slowly for the boilermakers who went on strike.

At the Place Viger Hotel—Henri Bourassa, Papineauville; Hugh H. McLean, St. John, N.B.; C. W. Weldon McLean, England; R. Grant Fitzgibbon, Toronto; H. Simard, Quebec; T. Fortier, Beauce, Que.

SOLDIERS GET ALL THAT IS DUE THEM

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—A Montreal evening paper, the Star, has repeated the story of ill-treatment of Canadian soldiers invalided home in the matter of pay. The Gazette follows suit. When seen regarding the matter, Lieut.-Col. Pinault, Deputy-Minister of Militia, explained that under the agreement pay was due the men on their return to Canada, but in view of the reports that men were penniless in London, Lord Strathcona was advised to give an advance, on account of deferred pay, to such of the men as had not already assigned it. The amount advanced was in each case charged at the Militia Department here against the deferred pay. When the men return to Canada they are granted the balance as soon as the statement of the amount advanced by Lord Strathcona is received. A statement is received weekly, and as soon as each claim is adjusted it is paid. Instead of there being any dilatoriness on the part of the Department, the greatest despatch is used in dealing with the claims. In addition to the amount of their deferred pay, the men are given a travelling allowance to cover their expenses en route to their several homes.

The allegations made in the story published on Saturday are regarded here as a deliberate attempt to mislead the public for political purposes, as the actual facts have been made public weeks ago.

MR. CHARLES COBURN HERE.

Talks of London Music Hall Successes, and Says He Has Come to Measure America with Footrule.

Mr. Charles Coburn, the celebrated music hall artist, arrived here yesterday by the steamer Lake Superior, and is making a tour of Canada and the United States. He purposes giving some entertainments in the city, starting with a parlor concert at the Windsor Hotel. Mr. Colin W. McCallum, who is known to London music hall audiences as Charles Cobourn, and in Paris as the Laulus de Lourdes is half a Londoner and half a Scotchman. He found buisness in his father's shipbroker's office in London not quite to his taste, and took to the music hall stage. Some of his biggest hits were "Two Lovely Black Eyes," written by himself, as a parody on an American song. It has a chorus in nine languages—namely, English, French, German, Italian, Greek, Hebrew, Welsh, Dutch and Gaelic. That was the great Trocadero success of its day. "The Man Who Broke the Bank of Monte Carlo," is another of his successes, but belonged to no particular theatre, for from the time it became known it was a popular favorite on every music hall stage. "He's All Right When You Know Him," is Mr. Cobourn's great Coster song. In French business this artist has been especially successful Buvous see (drain your glass) a play upon an old French song of thirty years ago. "Goo, Goo, or the Dutchman's Baby," and "Off She Goes Again," and "The Coster's Friendly Lead," are also among the selections which have made Mr. Coburn famous. "I have brought," said the artist a foot rule with me to measure America in order to find out for myself if it is as big as they say it is."

COAL TRADE OUTLOOK.

The coal trade in the city is, comparatively speaking, at a standstill. Dealers are merely booking orders from day to day; none are being taken for supply throughout the winter. The wholesale merchants are supplying the retail merchants now on a purely cash basis, but, as this is usually the custom throughout the coal trade at all times, the present stringency in the regulations will only have a reflex influence upon the purchases of the poorer people should the present strike in Pennsylvania continue into the winter. No coal from the mining regions has been delivered in this city for considerably over a week. No further advance is expected within the next few days.

THE DUBOIS-NAUD AFFAIR.

Sub-Chief Dubois and Supt. Decarie Will Give Evidence—Say Naud Borrowed a Horse.

The Dubois-Naud enquiry will be resumed to-morrow evening by the Fire and Light Committee, when it is expected that some interesting developments will occur. Sub Chief Dubois and Chief Engineer Decarrie will be the principal witnesses, and both say they intend to show that this is not the first time Mr. Naud has been the cause of an enquiry. At an investigation held in 1887, it is stated, it was shown that, on June 14th, in that year, Naud borrowed one of the department's horses to go to a picnic at Back River, and kept it away from the station from four o'clock in the morning until nine o'clock in the evening. Naud swore before the committee that Supply Officer Beaulieu had permitted him to take the horse.

NO CHANGE IN THE STRIKE SITUATION

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 24.—The entire Hazleton region was reported extremely quiet this morning. To-day was expected to witness either a big break among the strikers or the going out of a large additional number of mine workers, but neither happened.

Shenandoah, Pa., Sept. 24.—The promise of protection by the state troops failed to encourage the mine workers of this region who ahd expressed a desire to continue at work and the strike in this region was to-day more extensive than ever.

THE STRIERS SCORE.

Shamokin, Pa., Sept. 24.—Notwithstanding the efforts of operators none of the collieries in this vicinity resumed work this morining. Attempts were made to work collieries between here and Mount Carmel, but scarcely any miners reported. The strikers scored a victory by inducing ten per cent. of the men in the North Franklin colliery at Treverton to stay at home to-day. Leaders of the Union Mine Workers sai dthat within a few days the colliery would be tied up.

MINE-OWNER'S STATEMENT.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 24.—The operators to-day issued this statement: "There is no change in the Wyoming and Lackawanna districts. The West End Coal Co.'s colliery at Mocanaqua is working this morning as last week, with nearly a full force. All the Reading Company's mines in the Mahanoy region south of Broad Mountain are working; five out of twenty collieries north of Broad Mountain are in operation. All told 60 per cent. of the Reading collieries are in operation to-day. In the Shamokin region there is an improvement over last week, and an increased output of coal is loked for."

The best miners continue to leave this section. A large crowd left at noon to-day for the soft coal fields at Virginia.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 24.—The strike situation in the Lackawanna region was practically unchanged to-day, except that the Bellevue collieries which operated nearly all of last week were idle.

"SHOOT TO KILL."

Shenandoah, Sept. 24.—A disturbance was expected at the Cambridge colliery, south of here. Of the 140 men employed at the mine 130 went to work to-day. Every man is said to be armed. J. McGinnes, one of the officials of the company, addressed the men this afternoon, and said: —"Fight if you must; retreat when attacked. I will fire the first shot. When I do fight for your lives. Don't shoot until I do, and then shoot to kill."

MR. CONNERS NOT HERE.

But Harbor Commissioners Expect to Hear from Him by To-morrow Afternoon.

The Harbor Commissioners at their meeting to-morrow will, according to their decision of a fortnight ago, take up consideration of the contract with the Conners syndicate for the construction of elevators and freight sheds on Windmill Point Pier. It was understood that Mr. Conners would be able before the meeting to show that he was in a position to go on with the contract, but since the meeting a fortnight ago nothing has been heard from him. He is not in town to-day. At the Harbor Board the officials still expect that a communication will be received from him before the meeting to-morrow afternoon.

CALLS IT VANDALISM.

London, Sept. 24.—Dr. Morrison, the Pekin correspondent of the Times, wiring September 19, protests against what he calls "an unworthy act of vandalism" upon the part of Gen. Wilson's expedition, namely the "attempt to destroy the superb white pagoda in the temple grounds at Pei Tai Chu." Fortunately, says the correspondent, the masonry was too solid.

Dr. Morrison adds: "It is expected that orders sent to M. Pichon to withdraw will be countermanded. Communications are still deplorably bad. Many telegrams are never sent at all, some being destroyed after they have been accepted. General Yung Lu is returning here to assist in the peace negotiations, although foreign ministers have protested against his participation."

VARDON AT PRACTICE TO-DAY.

Harry Vardon, who plays at Dixie to-morrow, put in a couple of hours to-day over the Dixie course, learning the tricks of the links. He did not find much difficulty in getting on to the course, and will undoubtedly break the records for these links at all the matches to-morrow.

A special train leaves Dixie at 5.30 to accommodate those who go out in the afternoon.

FRANCE WOULD NEGOTIATE.

Paris, September 24.—France's reply to Germany's note making the possession of the instigators of the Chinese troubles a preliminary to peace negotiations, is not entirely an acceptance of the proposition. France argues that punishment is necessary but would negotiate under certain conditions without first punishing the guilty officials.

Two Wins for Kramer.

New York, Sept. 23.—Frank Kramer won the 25-mile professional race at the Vailsburg bicycle track at Newark, N.J., to-day. The race was a go-as-you-please affair and a prize was awarded at each lap and at every five miles. Bob Walthour's wheel broke down in the second mile and this put him out of the race. Eighteen riders faced the starter and only seven finished. Kramer won by a length and Krebs, who finished second, was only a foot ahead of Collett.

Time—Five miles, won by J. P. Jacobson, 11.35 1-5; ten miles, won by Floyd Krebs, 23.42; fifteen miles, won by Frank Kramer, 36.15 2-5; twenty miles, won by G. H. Collett, 49.30 2-5; twenty-five miles, won by Frank Kramer, 1.03.23 1-5.

Westmount Golf Club.

A men's competition took place at the Westmount club on Saturday afternoon. Mr. O'Flaherty and Mr. Tytler both made a score of eighty-eight strokes. They agreed to play one more hole for the presidents' prize, Mr. O'Flaherty winning. Mr. J. W. Hutchinson won the first prize for members who have never played golf in a previous season, Mr. A. K. Trenholme winning the second prize.

There will be a ladies' competition next Friday afternoon and it is hoped a great many members will take part.

RECONSTRUCTED CABINET MUST FOLLOW ELECTIONS

New York, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—I. N. Ford cables to the Tribune from London this morning as follows: Lord Salisbury has broken his silence. In an electoral manifesto of great weight and the highest statesmanlike qualities he appeals for a large majority on the ground that the submission of the Boers cannot be secured and durable effects of a benign colonial policy produced unless the Government has an overwhelming parliamentary strength, and there are no chances for a shift of public opinion.

The necessity for a reorganization of the military system and the magnitude of the Chinese complications are also referred to as warnings to the country that a strong majority is indispensable for the safety of the Empire, the loyalty of whose colonies has been splendidly demonstrated. The address is remarkable for elevation of style and argumentative force. It contrasts strongly with Mr. Chamberlain's Birmingham speech, which is open to criticism for faults in taste. Mr. Chamberlain evidently aimed, however, at drawing the fire of the Radicals and setting them talking about South Africa, and in this way hoped to swell the Unionist majorities.

CABINET RECONSTRUCTION.

The air is heavy in political clubs with rumors of Cabinet changes. Mr. Goschen's retirement from the Admiralty is now regarded as a foregone conclusion, since his health is broken and he is weary of official responsibilities, and cannot be induced to remain at his post. Lord Salisbury, who considers old age a poor excuse for retirement, is reported to be greatly annoyed by Mr. Goschen's determination to abandon office, but will be forced to find a successor for the Admiralty.

Lord Lansdowne's tenure of the War Office will also be short, but he will not leave the Cabinet. Lord Salisbury's relations with Lord Lansdowne are most intimate, and he is not convinced that any change in the War Office is required, but in any event he will insist upon having him remain in the Cabinet. Well-informed men who know what is going on behind the scenes assert that Lord Salisbury, when forced to admit that the logic of the situation requires a new head for the War Office, since military reorganization is heralded as the first work of the new parliament, will transfer Lord Lansdowne to the Foreign Office. This result has been predicted by leading members of the diplomatic service, who have reasoned from the intimacy between the two statesmen that Lord Salisbury will be likely to choose Lord Lansdowne as his successor in the Foreign Office. This transfer would leave Mr. Balfour leader in the Commons, where the old Tories are not yet ready to take orders from Mr. Chamberlain.

WAR OFICE REFORMS.

The succession to the War Office is generally conceded to Mr. Chamberlain, on the ground that he is the only Minister with sufficient force of character and administrative ability for carrying out thorough and far reaching reforms in the military system. Reformers, however, are zealous when they assume that the emergency requires the services of Mr. Chamberlain at the War Office, with Lord Roberts as Commander-in-Chief, and Lord Kitchener as Adjutant-General. The British army must be in a bad way if the concentration of so much talent is indispensable. One of the freshest rumors in the air points to another field of activity for Mr. Chamberlain. This is a report that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach as well as Mr. Goschen is weary of office and bent upon retiring from the Cabinet.

If this rumor is well founded Mr. Chamberlain may become Chancellor of the Exchequer and leave Sir Alfred Milner to work out a settlement in South Africa. This solution would delight military men, who know that Mr. Chamberlain cannot be controlled from Aldershot, and probably it would tend to promote a reconciliation of the white races in South Africa, where the Dutch are bitterly prejudiced against him. If Mr. Chamberlain does not take the War Office Mr. George Wyndham may succeed Lord Lansdowne. He has earned promotion by his debating skill, and is the most promising among the younger men on the Conservative side.

OLD AGE YIELDS TO YOUTH.

The retirement of Viscount Cross, the Duke of Devonshire and Lord James, is also strongly hinted at from many sources of information. Lord Salisbury, unless all signs fail, will be forced to reconstruct his Cabinet after the elections. His superannuated colleagues have not learned the secret of perennial youth, nor has he himself found it in his chemical laboratory at Hatfield. He is described by those who have recently seen him as more uncommunicative than ever, as harrassed and worried with public life and as disinclined to part with colleagues or do anything but brood in silence over Cabinet perplexities and Chinese complications. There is, however, no lack either of power or skill in his appeal to the constituencies.

GIRL KILLED AT HAMILTON: FARMER SHOT AT ST. DENIS

Hamilton, Sept. 25.—Geo. Arthur Pearson, twenty years old, is confined in No. 1 police station, the self-confessed murderer of Miss Annie Griffin, aged 17, who was a domestic in the employ of Mrs. A. R. Niblett, and whose parents reside on the Hamilton road near Dundas. Pearson became acquainted with the girl at Dundurn Park on May 24th, and since then had kept company with her. Yesterday he hired a rig and took the girl for a drive. After having supper they drove to Carlisle, and when driving home on the 4th concession, about one mile this side of Waterdown, young Pearson pulled from his pocket a 32 calibre revolver and shot Miss Griffin twice through the head.

She fell from the rig and was carried by Pearson and Mr. Sheppard into the latter's house, directly in front of which the murder took place. Pearson at first said that two men driving past in a rig had done the deed, but on being closely questioned by the police later on he broke down and confessed that he was the guilty person. He said: "I kissed her good bye, then shot her dead, but the reason no one will ever know." These were the words of the young murderer, as he talked carelessly to Constable Bainbridge, of Hamilton, and Chief Constable Twiss, of Dundas. He then took the police officers to the scene of the murder and showed them where he had thrown the revolver, which they found just over the fence.

Pearson said that the girl and he had made up their minds to kill themselves, and that he shot her and then tried to shoot himself, but that his nerve failed him. He showed a hole through his clothes which he said had been made by the bullet. Young Pearson was generally employed around the butcher market, and his reputation was one of the best. He was last employed as driver for John Lampman. Miss Griffin was of respectable parentage, and bore a good character. Her father is an employe of the Cataract Power Company. Coroner McGregor, of Waterdown, has ordered an inquest.

LARGE CAPTURES OF BOER SUPPLIES

Rolling Stock, Live Stock and Ammunition Are Gathered in.

London, Sept. 24.—Lord Roberts from Pretoria, under date of September 24, that the Guards under Pole-Carew occupied Komati Poort this morning. The bridge was found intact. Much rolling stock, locomotives and truck loads of "long tom" ammunition were captured. Only a few rifle shots were fired.

Lord Roberts adds: "Paget has captured Erasmus' camp, 3,000 cattle, 8,000 sheep and 23 prisoners. Methuen has made another big haul of stock."

The British Commander-in-Chief in South Africa also reports that the few Boer troops remaining in the eastern Transvaal are completely "out of hand," and says they are mostly burghers, the foreign mercenaries having gone to Lorenzo Marques owing to the Portuguese Government promising to maintain them while there and give them passage to their respective countries.

AMERICA'S REPLY MUCH CRITICIZED

London, September 24.—The afternoon newspapers which comment on the American reply to the German note attribute it to "political exigencies." The Pall Mall Gazette says:—"It is a shock to find the Government at Washington taking up the position that the question of punishment of the Chinese responsible for the outrage, torture and murder of American citizens should be left to the initiative of the murderers themselves, for it is impossible to doubt that the responsible authorities are the Imperial authorities."

The Globe says:—"The refusal must have a mischievous effect at Pekin. Much, however, as President McKinley's attitude is to be deplored, it can have no effect on the British Government, which, of course, will continue to insist that the punishment of the proved murderers shall be an indispensable condition precedent to the negotiations."

RAILWAY NEWS

MIXED SHIPMENTS QUESTION.

Mr. John Earls, chairman of the classification committee of the Canadian Freight Association, has issued a notice to shippers, consignees and other persons interested to the effect that violations of the rule governing mixed shipments at carload rates have been so frequent of late that a continuation will result in the railways taking action with a view to the withdrawal of existing privileges. It is pointed out that when the railway companies adopted this rule, it was understood, and in fact agreed to by many of the wholesale merchants, that the regulations governing the transportation of mixed carloads would be faithfully carried out by shippers. It was recognized that the privileges conceded therein were of such an important nature, and so valuable to the wholesale trade, that advantage should not be taken of the rule in order to include shipments which were not bona-fide from one shipper to one consignee. The railway companies now find, however, that the rule is being systematically ignored, and so general has the abuse become that they are seriously considering the advisability of cancelling it entirely.

MR. SHAUGHNESSY AT WINNIPEG.

President Shaughnessy, accompanied by Messrs. Angus, Matthews, and Osler, directors, and Mr. Peterson, chief engineer of the C.P.R., have arrived in Winnipeg, where they will remain for the next few days inspecting the company's property and recent acquisitions in Manitoba. To-morrow night the C.P.R. president will be entertained at a banquet at the Manitoba Club by the leading business men of Winnipeg.

GOES TO GREAT NORTHERN.

Mr. N. J. Fraser has been appointed general freight and passenger agent of the Great Northern Railway. He was for some years in the freight department of the Grand Trunk Railway, and recently has been Montreal manager of the Johnston steamship line.

MANY IMMIGRANTS COME.

Special trains from Quebec arriving at Bonaventure and Windsor Stations brought over 800 immigrants here yesterday, who had crossed the Atlantic by the steamers Dominion, Lake Superior, Parisian, and Buenos Ayrean. Three hundred arrived on a special train in the morning at Windsor Station, and two hundred on a special at the Bonaventure Station. At ten o'clock last night a special train with one hundred and fifty arrived at the Bonaventure Station, and one hour later a special train with two hundred arrived at the Windsor Station. Among the immigrants were 124 Scotch miners going to Nanaimo, B.C., and ten Irishmen and their families, numbering thirty-six in all, from Waterford, Ireland, who are going to Brantford, Ont., where they have been engaged to cure ham and bacon. These men are experts in that line of business, and they are expected to improve the Canadian brand of ham and bacon. Ten or fifteen more are coming over in a few weeks. The majority of the new arrivals are going to the North-West.

CHICAGO AND GRAND TRUNK.

Messrs. E. W. Meddaugh and H. B. Ivy, as receivers of the Chicago & Grand Trunk section of the Grand Trunk Railway system, have just filed their second quarterly report, which covers the period between March 31 and July, 1900. During this period the disbursements have exceeded the receipts by $70,000. Besides this, the condition of the road, according to its engineer, demands the outlay of $100,000 for twenty miles of new rails to put it in a safe condition for winter travel. The receivers hope to secure this amount from the next quarter's profits.

NEW BRITISH RIFLES.

Though the War Office is not pledged to provide a new rifle for the army, it is determined to discover a better weapon than our present one, or at least to improve the service pattern.

To this end a special committee is now experimenting with all modern firearms, and each succeeding week witnesses activity at the Enfield and Birmingham factories, which are raided by the gentlemen of the committee, who, aided by gunsmith experts, are testing and trying Mannlichers, Mausers, Lees, Lebels, and Vetterli rifles.

The utmost confidence may be placed in the ultimate recommendations of this committee. Its members are expert marksmen, some of European reputation, and others of army and Bisley renown.

In addition, the War Office has appointed a civilian to the committee, whose knowledge of rifles renders his opinion of great value. This gentleman is Mr. A. P. Humphrey, N. R. A., one of the most expert marksmen ever produced from the 'Varsities.

All European rifles are coming under review, as well as the two in use by the United States.

It is gratifying to learn that the Lee-Enfield barrel has no superior, and in any new, coverted, or improved rifle this barrel will be almost certain to figure.

Expert opinion asserts that the sights on our rifles are not good enough for the qualities of the barrel, and that with an improvement in this respect the barrel should give even better results than hitherto.

The detachable magazine of the Lee-Metford rifle is generally condemned, and at an early date one may expect to see a clip of cartridges, similar to those in use by the Boers, supplanting the metal case. Such a clip was submitted to the War Office as long ago as the eighties. Side slides also come under the ban of faint praise.

"Straight pull" bolts, such as those which the United States navy use, are not favored, and preference is given to the Mauser and Metford bolt action.

There is still a considerable difference in army opinion on the respective merits of the Mauser and Lee-Metford weapons. The former weapon is better sighted, and perhaps this is the chief material advantage over and above the increased value obtained by using the clip cartridge. With these advantages added to our own Lee-Enfield, it would, it is thought, result in a rifle of most accurate calibre, better than the Krag-Jorgensen, the Schmidt-Lubin, or other rifles already experimented with.

Since the old Ninety-fifth Regiment was armed with Baker's rifle the army has had eight makes, embracing the Brunswick, Minie, the long and short Enfield, Snider, Martini-Henry, and Lee-Metford.

The committee has before it the arms of all nations and ready access to the comparative virtues of old patterns such as the Springfield, Berdans, Jarmans, Gras and the Werndis, so that nothing of even contributory value shall escape notice.

Most of the modern rifles have been frequently used by such renowned shots as Lieut.-Col. Hoyton, Majors Lamb and Cowan, Capts. Grant, Savile, Lloyd and Lauder, and Lieut. Etches. This aggregate of experience is at the command of the committee, and will be invaluable in the task of finding a new rifle or the means of making the present one equal to any in the world.

THE PREMIER ON MUTUAL TRADE PREFERENCES.

What strikes one in reading over the speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at Sohmer Park on Thursday is that with the exception of a single paragraph the address consisted altogether of an explanation of the Government's policy. In the single exception noted, the Premier addressed himself to a criticism of the only item of positive policy put forward by the Conservative party in Opposition, the alleged policy of mutual preferential trade. The Premier discussed Sir Charles Tupper as a prophet; the settlement of the Manitoba school question; the prosperity of the country during the Liberals' term of office; the interference of the Senate which prevented adequate court facilities being accorded to Montreal; the revision of the tariff; the opening up of the St. Lawrence route as a great national highway; the acts of the Government and especially of Mr. Mulock on behalf of labor; and the despatch of the Canadian contingents. Every issue here discussed, it is quite plain, has to do with the record of the Government. It is worthy of more than passing remark that there should be so much time given to a review of the Government's record, and so little to the alternative policy of the Opposition. It indicates that the Premier, at any rate, considers the record of the Government to be the principal issue before the electors, and that he does not rate very high the disturbing influence of the one item of alternative policy Sir Charles Tupper is offering to the consideration of the electors.

It is interesting to note, moreover, that in disposing of Sir Charles Tupper's arguments on this one point the Premier presents the argument which has been urged by The Herald since Sir Charles Tupper's appearance in Montreal, that it is impossible to have, at the same time, a preference for Canadian goods entering Great Britain and tariff protection for Canadian industries. A British preference for Canadian produce he considers to be not possible unless we are willing to have absolute freedom of trade between England and Canada. The Premier's reference to the subject is as follows:

"They ask us why we have not obtained a reciprocal preference. Gentlemen, I am ready to have a reciprocal preference if it is possible to obtain it under present conditions. But it is not possible unless we are willing to have absolute freedom of trade between England and Canada. Never, gentlemen, will the Conservative party obtain a reciprocal preference in England, as long as they keep up the protective tariff in Canada. How can it be seriously pretended that they can go to England and ask the British workman to tax what he requires for his daily support for the benefit of the Canadian producer, while Canada taxes British products for the benefit of the Canadian manufacturer. A free trade tariff is at present out of the question. I have thought of a preferential tariff with duties on a revenue basis; but I learn that there is no prospect of that either."

This places the issue clearly and fairly. If we want any protection for Canadian industries, we cannot have a tariff preference in the British market. If we want a tariff preference in the British market we cannot have any protection for Canadian industries which enter into competition with British manufacturers.

In assuming that we might get a tariff preference for Canadian goods in the British market on condition that British goods were to be admitted free of all duties into the Canadian markets, the Premier takes for granted that Mr. Chamberlain would be able to implement the promises he made in 1897. But it is to be borne in mind that Mr. Chamberlain is the only statesman of any standing in Great Britain who has gone even this far, and, as may be inferred from recent contributions to the London Graphic, it is quite possible that he might meet with serious and perhaps overpowering opposition to even that plan. Granted, however, that Mr. Chamberlain can get his way, and it is to be admitted that he generally does, the irreducible minimum of the British side of the bargain would be the free admission of British goods into the Canadian market. If the friends of Sir Charles Tupper among the Canadian manufacturers of cottons, woollens, carpets, silks and hardware are prepared for this, a Canadian Government led by Sir Charles Tupper might convey to Mr. Chamberlain the intimation that Canada is ready to proceed along the lines he has laid down. But we venture the opinion that Canadian manufacturers are not prepared for any such step, and that the Canadian people would not ratify it unless the manufacturers were satisfied. Too many sacrifices have been made for the sake of building up what manufacturing industries we have, to make it possible they should now be jeopardized. But that Sir Charles Tupper is utterly insincere in advocating his mutual preference plan, is shown by the fact that he is trying to excite suspicion against Mr. Fielding by trying to convince the manufacturers that a further slight increase in the British preference is shortly to come into effect. And on the same platform with Sir Charles, Mr. Macdonald is talking protection as it was in 1879, a time when the Conservative party announced that if protection should prove to be detrimental to British connection "so much the worse for British connection."

THE SETTLEMENT OF THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

Whether the Manitoba schools question has been settled or not depends a good deal upon the point of view. The Catholic Church authorities clearly do not consider it settled as they desire it should be. Sir Wilfrid Laurier hinted pretty broadly on Thursday that extreme Protestants in Manitoba object to the concessions made to meet the views of the Catholics. For neither of these is the question settled. But what is certain is that by the events of four years the dispute has been removed from the Dominion field. It is now a provincial issue if it is an issue at all. The Manitoba majority have always insisted that it should be; and the result of Mgr. Merry del Val's visit was to commit the Pope to the same view, a view, it may be said, held all through the controversy by some of the wisest and most respected of the Canadian Catholic hierarchy. In prevailing upon Mr. Greenway to consider the Catholic grievances, Sir Wilfrid Laurier accomplished the return of the controversy to its original and proper field. And quite recently both the Conservative party in Manitoba and the Church authorities there have adopted this position, the former by offering a place on the educational advisory board to Father Cherrier, the latter by countenancing Father Cherrier's acceptance of the place. Settled or not settled, from the point of view of the interested parties, the schools question is settled forever as an issue in Dominion politics. Mr. Taillon does not think so, but Mr. Taillon cannot get a hearing even from his friends among the new leaders of the party in Quebec.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT'S COAL BILL.

Ald. Hart has apparently stirred up something very like a scandal in the Fire Department through some investigations he has been making into the needs of the department for coal. When the tenders were opened a few days ago the question was asked how much coal was required for each station. As there was no information immediately obtainable, time was taken to procure it, with the result that Superintendent Decary gave in a request for 730 tons, apportioned to the different stations on the basis of last year. Ald. Hart, however, to further satisfy himself, had the purchasing officer of the department, Mr. Beaulieu, make a tour of the stations to see what they would likely require. Mr. Beaulieu's requisition was for 590 tons, or 140 tons less than that of Mr. Decary.

Needless to say, an item of 140 tons of coal, more or less, is worth looking after, and an effort is now to be made to ascertain from the captains in charge of the different stations the amount of coal actually received by them out of the 730 tons bought last year. The carelessness already revealed is suggestive of what we may expect will be discovered as the investigation proceeds.

CAUSE FOR APATHY.

Because some Liberal papers have remarked that there is in certain parts of the country apathy in regard to the impending elections, a Conservative journal assumes that this apathy is manifested only by Liberals, and is a sign of dissatisfaction. On the contrary, it is an indication of satisfaction, and makes doubly difficult the task of arousing the people against the Government. It is when times are bad, or the Government is discredited, or great issues are at stake, that there is unusual interest in elections. To-day there is an explanation for political apathy in the prosperity of the country and the good record of the Government. Lack of interest in a political contest is to be deplored, but it hurts the Opposition more than the Government.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Canada is well satisfied with Laurier.

Le Journal is trying to minimize the importance of the Sohmer Park demonstration. Good sign.

Mr. Quinn went to Toronto to tell them about the reaction in Quebec. Then came the Sohmer Park meeting.

Toronto Globe:—"We venture to say there is no man in public life to-day who enjoys the affection and admiration of Ontario to a greater extent than Sir Wilfrid Laurier." Same here.

Chief Benoit says he always kept a second horse, fed by the city, because he wanted to. Right you are, chief. What's the use bothering the Council with a lot of things you can attend to so much better yourself? Why not raise your salary a couple of thousand and say nothing about it?

Le Journal says the people were paid to go to Sohmer Park. Apart from the compliment to the people of Montreal and the district this suggests that either the thousands who went away should give their money back or the thousands who were crushed and jostled for four hours have something more coming to them.

Sir Charles Tupper says the Conservatives will carry every seat west of the lakes, seventeen in all. One of these seventeen seats is the District of Lisgar, until now represented by Mr. Richardson, whom Sir Charles Tupper delighted to quote as more of a Liberal than Sir Wilfrid, and therefore more to be opposed by the Tory party than any other Liberal. The Conservative party are not putting a man in the field in Lisgar, so there is at least one of the seventeen that Sir Charles will not get.

JUST FOR FUN.

Customer (to Mr. Isaacstein)—"This coat is about three sizes too big."

Mr. Isaacstein (impressively) — "Mine frient, dot coat make you so proud you will grow into it."

Towly—"They say that that immensely fat woman over there is remarkably shrewd."

Torthy—"Well, I certainly think it would be pretty difficult to get around her."

Son—"Pa, what is the 'halo of victory?'"

Pa—"The halo of victory, my son, is the unbecoming smirk your mother gets on when she has succeeded in making you or me do something we don't want to do."

"Ha, ha!" he cried, with a bitter sneer, as he suddenly revealed himself to the beautiful girl. "I have found you out at last."

"No," she remarked calmly; "but you will the next time you call."

Teacher—"Now, Tommy, when you are struck upon the right cheek, what do you do?"

Tommy—"Turn de left one, miss, and when de duffer reaches, give him a upper cut dat'll put him to sleep. See?"

Dick—"How did you hint to old Squeezem that you expected a dowry with his daughter?"

Tom—"When he said that she was young and thoughtless, I remarked that he ought to make some allowance for her."

The Parson—"I t'ink it'd be moah 'propriate of yo' 'tend church on Sunday, 'stid of gwine shooting."

The Reprobate—"Wall, pahson, de shootin' in dis hyah neighb'hood am bettah dan de suhmons."

A one-pound bass, caught in a certain river five years ago, was returned to the water with a penny tin-whistel attached to his tail. Three years later the bass was caught near the same spot. It still weighed a pound; but the whistle had grown into a fog-horn.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY

MISTAKEN POLICY.

Hamilton, Herald—(Independent)—The Conservatives can afford to rest their case on the bad record of the Laurier government.—Galt Reporter.

That is where the Conservatives are making a mistake.

In 1896 that was Laurier's policy. It proved to be a good paying policy then. But the fact that it paid Laurier to depend altogether for Liberal success upon the weakness of the enemy does not prove that it would pay Tupper to cherish that faith and pursue the same tactics.

Conditions are not the same now as they were four years ago. Then, the country was suffering from a long period of depression, the people were restless, and in a mood to try whether any relief could be obtained by putting into power a new set of rulers. Now times are good, the country is prosperous, the people are contented, and there doesn't seem to be any pressing need of a change. There are no serious divisions among the Liberals, or if there are they are skilfully concealed; the people have not been shocked and disgusted at any such humiliating incident as was the desertion of Sir Mackenzie Bowell by almost all his cabinet ministers. In short, the conditions which made a policy of mere attack the proper thing for the Opposition four years ago do not exist to-day. The Conservatives cannot afford to depend for success upon the weakness of the Government.

The Government is not weak. It is pretty strongly buttressed. Its record is not faultless; but if it has made some blunders it has also put on the statute books much progressive legislation. The preferential tariff is one of the boldest political steps that has been taken by a Canadian Government since confederation, and its good results are likely to be world wide, and to profoundly affect the welfare of the British Empire. The postal reforms wrought by Mr. Mulock—the ablest postmaster-general that the Dominion has had—are real, substantial reforms. More government legislation designed to promote directly the interests of the workers has been passed by the present Parliament than by any previous Parliament. Granted that it has been an extravagant Government, it has a good deal to show for money spent.

Therefore the Conservative leaders are not wise in "resting their case on the bad record of the Government." The Conservative leaders would show more wisdom in going to the electors with a constructive policy—a progressive policy.

A CANADIAN LEADER.

Toronto Globe.—It is probably true that Sir Wilfrid's strength in his own Province is due in some measure to the pride which French-Canadians feel in one of their own race rising to so proud a position. That is a natural feeling which makes for the unity of Canada. It is a bond of union between the French-Canadian people of Canada and their fellow-citizens. We venture to say that there is no man in public life to-day who enjoys the affection and admiration of Ontario to a greater extent than Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He occupies his present position not by virtue of his race, but by virtue of his possession of the qualities which make a leader. He could be kept out of the foremost place only by the rankest kind of racial ostracism. It is natural that men of his race should be proud of him, and it is in the highest interests of the nation that they should feel that one of their race, if he has the merit, can rise to the highest positions in the country. If he enjoys exceptional strength in Quebec, it is a matter for congratulation to the rest of Canada that Quebec has so wise and statesmanlike a leader, a man so acceptable to people of all races and creeds throughout the nation.

HITHER AND YON.

CHRONICLES.

During the last five years the birth rate among the native French race has been appreciably inferior to the death rate, although the total population of France has increased about 175,000 in those five years. This increase, however, is due to foreign immigration. An eminent French statistician, writing recently in the Petit Journal of Paris, estimated that Russia will double her population in forty-five years, Germany in sixty-five years, Austria-Hungary in seventy years, England in eighty years and Italy in 110 years, while France, at her present rate of increase, will require 860 years.

The Germans have set to work to develop their east African territory with their usual thoroughness. The measures which they have taken to counteract the effects of the climate are very elaborate and include substantial stone houses, hospitals, and ample medical staff, inspection of the meat sold, carefully sunk and covered wells, vaccination, examination of native houses in the towns, drainage and finally a careful study of the black water fever by Dr. Koch.

At the last general election in Great Britain 3,867,000 votes were cast at an average cost of 82 cents per vote for legitimate expenses; in the English counties the cost was $1.22 in the boroughs 60 cents. Each Welsh vote cost $1.06 to cast; in Scotland the cost was $1.31 in the counties and 89 cents in the boroughs and in Ireland 79 cents in the counties and 51 cents in the boroughs. There were 1,181 candidates for 670 seats in the House of Commons.

Insurance for bathers is the newest enterprise in the insurance life in England. Penny-in-the slot machines will be erected in popular bathing places. Before you enter the water you drop in your copper and out pops a twenty-four hours' life insurance policy. Then if you are carried down to Davy Jones' locker your widow or next of kin is entitled to $1,000 worth of compensation for the sudden taking off.

A Swiss genius has invented a pith cloak weighing about one pound, which will hold up a fully equipped soldier on the surface of the water. Successful experiments were made recently on the lake of Zurich. The cloak is provided with waterproof pockets in which food and drink may be carried as well as blue lights in case the wearer is shipwrecked in the night.

The Japanese are making rapid strides in their march towards western culture. The latest innovation is the formation of commercial schools for the training of female clerks, and one of the largest railway companies in Nippon has intimated that after a certain date women only will be employed in the clerical department.

The coldest temperature experienced by Sir George Newnes' expedition to the south pole was 52 degrees below zero, and occurred in August. The party discovered near Robertson bay, mountains exceeding 12,000 feet in height, and penetrated farther to the south (78 degrees 50 minutes) than any previous expedition.

There are 104,636,404 gallons of whiskey now ripening in bond in Scotland, an increase of more than 70 per cent over the amount held five years ago.

A NEEDFUL PROTEST

Made Against Profanity by a Parade of Holy Name Societies in Brooklyn Yesterday.

New York, September 24.—As a united protest against the use of profane language between fifteen and twenty thousand men paraded through the streets of Brooklyn yesterday. It was the fourth annual rally of the Holy Name societies of the Catholic churches in the Brooklyn diocese.

The Field of Politics.

Chatham, Ont., Sept. 23.—The Liberals of Kent held a nominating convention here yesterday morning and a mass meeting in the afternoon. At the morning meeting several names were brought before the convention, but all retired in favor of George Stephens, of this city, who thus received the unanimous nomination. Mr. Stephens is considered to be a very strong candidate. The Conservative nominee is Mayor T. A. Smith, of Chatham, with Captain H. A. Paterson in the field as an independent Conservative. The chief speakers at the mass meeting were Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture; Arch. Campbell, M.P., D. A. Gordon, Liberal candidate for Bothwell constituency, and George Stephens.

RICHMOND AND WOLFE.

Mr. Stenson, M.P., has been delivering a series of addresses to his constituents in Richmond and Wolfe. At the meeting in Richmond Mr. Sutherland presided, and Messrs. S. Fraser and P. S. G. Mackenzie were on the platform. The member reviewed the work done by Parliament during his term of service, touching upon the salient points in the Government policy, and defending the Government which he had supported. He said he had sacrificed a lucrative office at the call of duty and had voted conscientiously since he had been in Parliament, and would probably not be again a candidate. He had no positive announcement, however, to make on that head, as he had not been formally tendered any office. When, and in the event of his being so favored, he would meet his friends again and ask their approval. The speech was brief and was in a tolerant tone towards the opponents of the Government.

THE COMBINATION BROKEN.

Toronto, Sept. 23.—The Conservative leaders shook hands after their two weeks' tour of Ontario at the Queen's to-night and separated to go into campaign work in various parts of the country. Sir Charles Tupper returned to Ottawa to-night; Hugh John Macdonald will speak in East Simcoe tomorrow, and Mr. Foster will spend some more time in Western Ontario.

EAST BRUCE LIBERALS.

Walkerton, Ont., Sept. 23.—At the Liberal convention for East Bruce at Formosa yesterday, Mr. J. Coumans, of Walkerton, formerly Reeve of Greenock, was nominated for the House of Commons against Mr. Cargill, the present member. Mr. Coumans accepted the nomination.

MANITOBA PROHIBITIONISTS.

Winnipeg, Sept. 24.—At a meeting of the Dominion Alliance it was decided to endorse the finding of the last Dominion Alliance convention at Ottawa, which pledges prohibitionists to oppose the M.P.'s who supported the Parmelee motion in the Commons and to demand clear cut statements on prohibition by parliamentary candidates. The president, Rev. Mr. S. Cleaver, and W. W. Buchanan were appointed a committee to draft the questions to be submitted to candidates.

It was decided to raise a fund to defend the new liquor act in the courts.

CONSERVATIVES OF STRATFORD.

Stratford, Ont., Sept. 23.—Sir Charles Tupper and Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, arrived in the city this morning and were joined by Mr. J. P. Whitney. A torchlight procession formed on the market square this evening, and headed by the 28th Regiment Band, led the way to the skating rink. The meeting was presided over by Mr. H. B. Morphy, of Listowel. An address from the North Perth Conservative Association to the speakers was read by the first vice-president, Mr. J. P. Griffin, of Mornington. Speeches were delivered by Mr. A. F. McLaren, M.P., Hugh John Macdonald, J. P. Whitney and Sir Charles Tupper.

At Strathroy Hon. Mr. Foster and Sir Charles Tupper delivered addresses in the Opera House. Hugh John Macdonald and J. P. Whitney, who had gone on to Watford, to address the electors there, returned to Strathroy before the meeting was concluded and both gentlemen made short addresses.

MAY OPPOSE HAGGART.

Toronto, Sept. 23.—Hon. John Haggart, ex-Minister of Railways and Canals, was here yesterday. Mr. Haggart believes he may be opposed by an independent Conservative. Dr. Preston, a local man, is expected to run against him. Mr. Haggart has not arranged so far to address any political meetings in this Province.

LEVIS CONSERVATIVES.

Quebec, Sept. 23.—The Conservatives of Levis held a meeting this afternoon at Notre Dame Hall. Mayor Dupre presided and the speakers were Senator Landry, Hon. Messrs. T. C. Casgrain, Chapais and Pelletier and Bouffard, M.L.A.

OPPOSES SIR ADOLPHE.

Le Trifluvien, the Conservative organ of Three Rivers, continues its opposition to Sir Adolphe Caron. In the last issue of the paper an article appears over the signature of Mr. E. Llane, referring to "a meeting of some kind," held in a house on Hart Street, at which "a resolution of some kind" was passed, no one knows by whom," supporting Sir Adolphe Caron's candidature.

"It seems intended," continues Mr. Llane, "to present that as a resolution of the Conservative Association of Three Rivers.

"What is this Conservative Association of Three Rivers? Where is its headquarters? Who are its founders? Who provided the funds for its inauguration, and who provides the funds for its support? Who belongs to it, and whom has it ever commissioned to speak for it?"

The article goes on to remark that the few genuine Conservatives at the meeting in question protested energetically against the irregularities of all kinds in the proceedings. "Sir Adolphe Caron," it concludes, "will perceive that all these manoeuvres will not avail him."

In a second article of two columns long, based upon a declaration by the late Mgr. Laflèche that as a rule a candidate should be chosen from among the electors of the constituency, Mr. Llane proceeds to argue that there is no reason for departing from that rule in the case of Sir Adolphe.

AT VANKLEEK HILL.

Vankleek Hill, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—The meeting of the Liberal electors called by the County Reform Association was held here Saturday. Owing to the bad state of the roads and the weather, the attendance was not large. In the absence of the president, Mr. E. Z. Labrosse, of Vankleek Hill, was called to the chair. The election of officers of the association took place with the following results:—H. W. Lawlor, president; B. R. Poulin and C. Hamlin, vice-presidents; Carl Jones, secretary, and W. S. Hall, treasurer.

COL. DOMVILLE NOMINATED.

St. John, Sept. 24.—The nomination of Lieut.-Colonel James Domville as the standard-bearer in Kings County is pleasant news to Liberals of this Province. Colonel Domville's popularity throughout the Province is a matter of common knowledge, and his election is regarded as a certainty.

TWO ON GEORGE EULAS.

At Strathroy Mr. Foster thought to have some fun with the Liberals. He got twenty of them to stand up, and then asked any of them to give a reason why they should vote confidence in the present Government. Mr. G. B. Glenny, Delaware, a self-possessed and clear-voiced old Liberal, promptly responded: "Because they are a better lot of men than those that preceded them." (Laughter and applause.)

Mr. Foster—"A tree is known by its fruits. Shall ye gather figs from thistles or grapes from thorn trees?" Is that it? Whatever it is, that is the idea.

Mr. Glenny—He is as bad in Scripture as he is in politics. (Great laughter.)

HEAR HON. SYDNEY FISHER.

Mitchell, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the Opera House here in the interests of Mr. Erb and Mr. Goetz, the Liberal candidates for South and North Perth respectively. Hon. Sydney Fisher was received with loud applause, and proceeded to the discussion of the administration of the country's affairs by the present Government as compared with that of the Tories. He devoted the time at his disposal to matters of practical importance to the farmers, and proved beyond question that the broad liberal policy of the Government in developing the resources of Canada by a judicious investment of the people's money was one of the chief causes of the prosperity of Canada at the present time. He ridiculed Sir Charles Tupper's appeal to race and religious prejudice in the present campaign, and in an eloquent peroration called on the people to sink all race and religious disputes and unite for the advancement and development of Canada as a nation. Mr. Fisher's speech created a profound impression on his audience, and regret was generally expressed that he had not had longer time to address the meeting.

MR. GEO. STEPHENS NOMINATED.

Chatham, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—The Liberals in convention nominated Geo. Stephens as their standard bearer. Mr. Stephens' name was the only one before the delegates, and his nomination was received with great acclaim. The candidate is the senior member of Geo. Stephens & Co., hardware merchants, of this city.

ENDORSE MR. PETTET.

Picton, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—The Liberal meeting held in the Bijou Opera House, Picton, resulted in the endorsation of Mr. W. V. Pettet, M.P., as candidate for the County of Prince Edward. The Patron element was largely represented, and the fusion of the two parties will thus be a help to the candidature of Mr. Pettet, who has been the Patron party representative during the last four years.

ASK MR. TAILLON.

(La Patrie.)

Speaking at East York, Mr. Hugh John Macdonald said: "The Conservative party is now united, for the school question has been settled and the settlement has been accepted by the people of Manitoba, who are of opinion that it is best to let sleeping dogs lie. The question has disappeared from the Federal platform, and I do not believe that any party in Manitoba wants to revive it."

Put on your spectacles, Mr. Taillon.

DISLOYAL TACTICS.

(La Patrie.)

Sir Charles Tupper denied on Thursday at Wiarton that he ever said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was "too English" for him. But he expressed the wish that Sir Wilfrid was more English and more imperialistic by half.

Is that not another example of the disloyal tactics of Sir Charles Tupper?

How is it that he did not make such a declaration in Montreal?

It will be remembered that in his interview with La Presse, published in that paper on the 18th of August last, Sir Charles said: "As far as Sir Wilfrid Laurier is concerned, you may say, in effect, that he is too English for me."

He sought to explain this declaration in Nova Scotia; he remained silent on the subject at his two meetings held in Montreal. Now, behold him, having betaken himself into the heart of Ontario, before an English audience. Not only does he deny the conversation he had with a reporter of La Presse, which was published in that paper, but he goes to the length of saying that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not English enough or imperialistic enough for him.

Does anyone need more flagrant proof of the disloyal duplicity of the Conservative leaders?

Here is the passage from the Mail and Empire's report:—

"Sir Charles next touched upon the accusation that he had said 'Laurier is too English for me.' He had never said nothing of the kind; he wished that Laurier were half imperialist enough; half English enough."

Why did not Sir Charles when in Montreal give the same denial to La Presse?

Because he does not desire to spoil the effect which he believes to have been produced in our province by pamphlet No. 6.

Why does he now say in Ontario that Laurier is not English enough nor imperialistic enough? To try and ensnare English opinion.

In any case, is it possible to play a double game more cynically than Sir Charles plays it at the present time?

Never.

CLARKE WALLACE'S CRY.

(La Patrie.)

At the East York convention, at which Mr. Hugh John assisted, Mr. Clarke Wallace made a new sally against the French-Canadians. Touching the South African question, he related that Mr. Tarte had said at Laval University that it was the duty of a French Canadian representative to be a Frenchman; and that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had said at Sherbrooke, "We are not as you, Englishmen; we are Frenchmen."

"These people forget," cries Mr. Clarke Wallace, "that we conquered them a hundred and forty years ago. How long must they take to become Englishmen if this sentiment survives after the five generations which have followed the conquest?"

This poor Wallace; he does not wish us to speak French; he does not wish us to be proud of our origin; he does not wish us to cherish the memory of our ancestors, to preserve the love of our traditions. He wants us to become Englishmen pure and simple.

And it is to bring a fanatic of that kind to power that Mr. Bergeron goes on all fours, that Mr. Taillon promenades his white beard from one end to the other of the Province of Quebec, that Mr. Chapais raises his hands to heaven, and that Mr. Royal resumes the practice of the public virtues!

FOR ONTARIO CONSUMPTION.

This is the way the Toronto Mail and Empire attempts to belittle the Laurier demonstration in Montreal:—

"Those who carried the torches in the procession which escorted Sir Wilfrid Laurier from the Windsor to the park had to be paid. Everyone who was willing received a torch, six Roman candles, a badge and one dollar. This is the way in which the great popular demonstration was organized. One of the most significant features of the gathering was the absence of the English-speaking Ministers. Mr. Fielding was the only English Minister who went on the platform with Messrs. Laurier and Tarte, and the presence of the former secessionist of Nova Scotia on the same platform as the anti-British agitator was regarded as very appropriate. Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Mulock, Mr. Paterson and Premier Ross of Ontario all declined to go on the same platform with Mr. Tarte, and it is reported that the English Ministers have notified Sir Wilfrid Laurier that so long as Mr. Tarte remains in the Cabinet he cannot count on their support at Liberal demonstrations.

IDEALIZED INTERVIEWS.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER, INTERVIEWED BY HIMSELF, EXPLAINS THE INWARDNESS OF THE QUESTION OF CONSERVATIVE LEADERSHIP.

[Editorial Note.—In order to set at rest certain questions now agitating the public mind, The Herald has arranged for a series of interviews with distinguished Canadians to be prepared by themselves. This expedient will make possible more authentic statements than could otherwise be secured.]

Sensing the importance which has always appertained to every utterance of that venerable—no, venerated,—statesman, Sir Charles Tupper, I recently visited the Grand Old Man in his private apartments. The Patriarch of Canada was as ever oblivious of himself in his watchfulness for the interests of the Dominion—alas, how few other statesmen can show a like spirit of self-abnegation—but after much gentle compulsion I at last induced the Conservative chieftain to tell me of himself.

"I would hardly care to obtrude my personality or my views upon the people of Canada," he remarked deprecatingly as I broached the subject to him.

"It has always seemed to me that the less one spoke of his deeds the more they spoke for him. I will, however, make an exception in this instance, though you will understand the effort is both novel and distasteful."

"It has been asserted, Sir Charles," I hazarded, "by certain irresponsible papers of your own party as well as by those of your opponents, that you did not consult solely your own inclinations when you called on Hugh John to enter Dominion politics."

The honorable leader of the Opposition smiled gently at the implied question. "Ah yes," he said, "the newspapers will say those things. Disinterestedness is not appreciated, I fear, in this Canada of ours. I need scarcely say that any one who knows my personal character—and who is there in Canada that does not?—will at once discern my motives."

"You are still the leader of the Conservative party?" I queried.

"Leader is scarcely the word," he replied thoughtfully. "It would be more correct to say that I am the Conservative party. In that capacity I saw an opportunity to transfer the son of my old friend to a sphere of greater opportunities, and I gladly took advantage of it. It showed my generosity and should encourage the young men of our party to greater efforts to secure my recognition."

"Then the statement that the weaknesses of the Conservative campaign forced you to fall back upon the name of a former leader to bolster up your cause is without foundation?"

Sir Charles laughed pleasantly. "Of course," he said, "the Conservative party needs no name but mine, though I am free to admit that as a supplement Macdonald's comes in very well. My personality could fill every nook and cranny of the Dominion if I wanted it to, but by holding it in check I shall find opportunities to work in that of Hugh John's father to good effect."

"Your theory being that as son of his father, Hugh John is necessarily a great statesman?"

"Scarcely that, though I do not question Mr. Macdonald's sterling qualities. We, however, do not need another statesman in the Conservative party for reasons which modesty forbids me to mention. All the work in that department is being adequately attended to by one who shall be nameless. Hugh John, if I may so express myself, is part of the fireworks. He draws the people and I do the rest. He is the sugar-coating and I am the pill. Not that I am hard to swallow, but the sugar improves things."

"Is there anything more you would care to say, Sir Charles?" I enquired.

"You must really excuse me just at present. It has been a great strain to talk so much, especially about myself. I am a man of few words, as you know, but I hope I have made the situation clear."

After congratulating the leader on the clarity of his explanation, I left more impressed than ever with the modesty and magnetism of the great Canadian.

FROM ONE POINT OF VIEW.

President Loubet's dinner to the mayors of France in the Tuileries Gardens seems to have been much more informally enjoyable than is usual with social events of such magnitude. "After the viands had been done full justice to," quoting a telegraphic account of the function, "Max Regis, the anti-Semitic, arose and attempted to speak, but was forced to leave owing to articles of food being thrown at his head." The spectacle of twenty thousand mayors, clad presumably in their robes of office, hurling epithets and French rolls as one man at a speaker who had earned their disapproval, must have been inspiring and impressive. Through an unfortunate inattention to details the correspondent neglects to state what delicacies were found most effective for purposes of bombardment, and fails to send the list of casualties. It is improbable that all the mayors scored hits, and in a general fusilade such as that which seems to have greeted M. Regis, a leg of ham or a loaf of Vienna bread is liable to find its way to an innocent spectator with unfortunate results. In fact one may infer from the despatch that M. Regis escaped with no farther injuries than those to his feelings, while the President's glass and linen suffered heavily. The affair, however, is described as a distinct success.

Golf has been described as "knocking a small ball into a series of little holes by the aid of instruments curiously ill-adapted for that purpose." More ill-natured remarks and more vicious attacks are also on record, but to them all your enthusiast turns a deaf ear. Other forms of athletics have their particular charms, but none to compare with the pursuit of that small rubber sphere across greens and over bunkers. Enthusiasts have before now told of the glorious mental discipline of the game and the magnificent morality which it inculcates. That these qualities are hidden from the multitude is no reason for believing that they do not exist for the enthusiast. Walking is excellent exercise, a bag of clubs are not an encumbrance except to the caddy, and there is a certain picturesqueness in the links which inspires noble thoughts and high ambitions. For these and other good reasons golf has secured a firm foothold in Montreal, and the number of its adherents is greater than the thinking man would believe possible. To-day and to-morrow the cult celebrates with special ceremonies on the Dixie links. One Harry Vardon, who is said to carry more clubs in his caddy bag than any other player, is to form the central figure. He plays "best ball" of two professionals. This is said to be a very noble achievement.

More to keep before the public in an unfavorable light than for any other reason, their Imperial Highnesses of China have announced the pollution of the palace at Pekin by the presence of foreigners, and the consequent necessity that the Chinese people build a nice new one somewhere else. Without questioning their Imperial Highnesses' authority in the question of pollution of palaces, it would be well for some kind friend to suggest that the Chinese treasury will probably be fully occupied for some little time in meeting the polite although forceful requests of various other governments. Russia, with her customary modesty and consideration, has headed the list with a little bill for $500,000,000, and expert accountants have been busy for some weeks casting up Emperor William's account for services rendered. It is to be feared that their majesties will have to put up with the old palace a while longer. If they read the advertisements of American soap-makers the pollution question will cease to bother them.

ACROSS THE BORDER.

While Canada has been taking her politics in allopathic doses of late, she has not been alone among the peoples of this continent. The Republic which forms the southern boundary of the Dominion has had her share of ante-election excitement and is already looking longingly toward that "Tuesday after the first Monday of November" when the free and untrammeled citizen shall call a four-year halt to the politician and re-open the opportunities of the statesman at one and the same time.

• • •

It is one of the unfortunate features of United States politics that elections and statesmanship seemingly are unable to exist together. Rule the Government never so wisely for three years, the beginning of the fourth is fairly certain to see the introduction of demagoguism into the field of diplomacy and statecraft complicated by expediency. A national policy to win votes must be a policy easily understood by the rank and file of the voters—something with a dash of bravado and a scream or so of the eagle for preference. This state of affairs naturally does not promote the ends of diplomacy but diplomacy is, after all, a secondary consideration.

• • •

President McKinley's attitude of late has strikingly exemplified this. Being blessed with the absence of that part of his intellectual anatomy which corresponds to the back-bone it perhaps has bene less of a strain to execute a "volte-face" on important questions than it would have been for his predecessors. In China, for instance, after having taken a stand, which, if it lacked other merit was, at least, consistent, he has calmly and equably reversed himself and upset all calculations of the European powers which had innocently counted on the continued co-operation of the United States.

• • •

To order the withdrawal of United States troops from China could scarcely have been pleasant for one who believes so strongly in the aggrandisement of the executive as Mr. McKinley. Probably the proudest moment of his life was that on which he wrote his famous letter to the German Emperor couched throughout in the Imperial first person plural. "We, William McKinley" was a glorious phrase and made excellent campaign material—for the Democratic party. If the anti-Imperialists had sat themselves out to frame a mistake for the President to make they could not have succeeded better than the President has. It is a fundamental principle in United States politics that the President may shine but only in the reflected glory of the Republic. Mr. McKinley forgot for a moment and it is necessary that entirely disinterested parties must suffer for his atonement. The best antidote to administer the voters was to be found in prompt and thorough repudiation of any co-operation with the hated monarchies in settling the Chinese embroglio. Consequently the President's interest in the Far East suddenly ceased. It complicated matters for the President's allies but it may help to win him a re-election.

DISASTROUS CLOUDBURST.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—A despatch to the Times-Herald, from Dallas, Texas, says a cloud burst ninety miles west on the Southern Pacific Road has resulted in a terrible flood and much loss of life. It is said that from thirty to forty Italians employed on the sheep ranches were drowned. Many flocks have been lost and a large amount of property destroyed. From the most reliable information obtainable extensive damages have been inflicted on the Upper Colorado and the Concho River. Wire communication is cut off, and the railroad lines are damaged.

DR. PETERSON TALKS

Frankly of Politic Affairs in Great Britain.

LORD STRATHCONA'S VIEWS

Regarding the South African Struggle—New Developments in McGill Art Faculty.

Principal Peterson, of McGill University, returned yesterday by the Allan steamer Parisian, from his annual visit to Great Britain and the educational centres of Europe. One of the principal matters which he had this year in view was to make preparation for developments in the faculty of arts which will take place when the new curriculum in that department is in full operation.

One appointment of considerable importance has been made to the University staff by Dr. Peterson since he has been in England—that of Miss Milhan, a distinguished graduate of the Sorbonne, Paris, who promises to be a great acquisition to the Royal Victoria College. Miss Milhan, who also arrived by yesterday's steamer, speaks the German language as fluently as French and English, and she was selected out of a number of other ladies as having the most distinguished record.

CANADIAN EXHIBIT AT PARIS.

The excellent illustrations of McGill at the Paris Exposition greatly simplified the task of Dr. Peterson in securing the services of a French lady to take up the work of modern languages at the college. The art decoration of the college is, Principal Peterson states, to be improved by a collection of autotypes to be placed in the halls and corridors, of the works of Burn Jones, Watts, the French schools, and the best pictures produced by their process.

Dr. Peterson states that he was most favorably impressed by the completeness of the Canadian educational exhibit and the excellent showing that the Dominion had made in other respects. The principal of McGill was present at the Fete Grande Nationale in July, and speaks highly of the kindly spirit displayed by the French for the English. He thinks that the journalists who have made so much trouble between the two countries are responsible for a great deal of unnecessary friction.

LORD STRATHCONA COMING.

Dr. Peterson states that Lord Strathcona is enjoying remarkably good health, and is looking forward to coming home to Montreal very shortly. McGill, at any rate, observed the principal, will not forget that this will be his first visit since the Royal Victoria College was opened, and will celebrate with some quiet and unostentatious ceremonial. The founding of this important part of the University is one of the many things for which Lord Strathcona will be remembered by future generations, and even now he is adding to the donations to it.

Dr. Peterson spoke of the depth and evident seriousness of Lord Strathcona's views with regard to the struggle in South Africa in the gloomy days at the close of last year. It was his appreciation of the magnitude of the crisis and the danger to the Empire that induced him to raise the regiment of Strathcona Horse from the Canadian North-West. The same depth of conviction on the other side had dictated the course pursued by Mr. John Morley with regard to the war. He was entitled to every respect.

THE AVERAGE ENGLISHMAN.

Dr. Peterson seems to share the low opinion which Lucas Malet makes Montagu Rivers express in her latest novel, "The Galeless Barrier," with regard to the average Englishman. He says that with regard to China Englishmen are very stern; that they have hardened their hearts and will back up the Government in any action that may be necessary; but it is hard for them to realize that there are now other European nations in the East to reckon with. Germany, especially, he says, is not as yet realized by the average Englishman. They still think of her as a conglomeration of small principalities, which are ready to sell their soldiers to the highest bidders, rather than as the mighty nation she has now become.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

The views of Dr. Peterson with regard to the general elections in Great Britain are a practical confirmation of the intelligence which has already come to hand from cable and other sources. The majority of the people of the United Kingdom realize, he thinks, that it would be a mistake to swop horses while crossing a stream, and if for no other reasons until the South African drama is entirely closed, the general elections are not likely to result in a change of Government.

Had Sir William Harcourt been the accepted leader of the Opposition, the question of Ritualistic practices in the Church of England might have been used with effect from the hustings, although it would have been obscured by the larger question of the South African settlement. As, however, Sir William is not at the head of the Opposition, it is not likely to be a serious element in the present contest.

Dr. Peterson says that Mr. Chamberlain is looked upon as the ablest man in the present Administration, and one of the few Ministers to whom the pleasures of private life appear to present no alluring attraction. Some of the Ministers are suspected of being a little too fond of ease and pleasure. Mr. Balfour finds it difficult to withstand the desire for his exhilarating pastime, golf, but the Secretary of State for the Colonies sticks to his post, and it looks as though he were marked out for a higher destiny that he has yet achieved.

DISEASES OF THE BRAIN

And Nerves Lead to Melancholy, Prostration, Insanity or Paralysis— Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (Pills) Prevents These Dreadful Results.

As the heart sends out the blood to nourish and sustain the body, so does the brain transmit through the nerve fibres the nerve force, or energy, which directly controls the movements, the functions and the very life of each and every organ.

The body of man can be influenced in health or disease only through the medium of two channels—the blood and the nerves; and it is through these channels that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) has such a marvellous power in uprooting disease and revitalizing the wasted tissues.

The feeble cells are aroused to new vigor, and new life and energy is instilled into them by using this great blood builder and nerve restorative, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills).

Headache, loss of memory, tired brain, and inability to concentrate the mind are symptoms of diseased brain. Lack of nerve force to control the digestive system leads to indigestion, nervous dyspepsia and irregular action of the kidneys, liver and bowels, nervousness, sleeplessness, and irritability are other indications of a breaking down nervous system.

No diseases are so difficult to cure as are those of the nervous system, and through Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) is the most successful treatment ever prescribed, it takes time and regular and persistent use to effect a thorough and and lasting cure. Be patient and the gradual upbuilding effect of this wonderful nerve restorative will make you strong and well.

Mr. Joseph Geroux, 22 Metcalf street, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "I was nervous, had headache and brain fag. I was restless at night and could not sleep. My appetite was poor, and I suffered from nervous dyspepsia. Little business cares worried and irritated me. After having used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for about two months, I can frankly say that I feel like a new man.

"My appetitie is good. I rest and sleep well, and this treatment has strengthened me wonderfully. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) are certainly the best I ever used, and I say so because I want to give full credit where it is due."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Imitators do not dare to reproduce the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, which are found on every box of the genuine.

THE ROSSLAND MINES

LE ROI AND CENTRE STAR WERE HEAVY SHIPPERS LAST WEEK.

Probable that the War Eagle Will Send Some Ore to the Smelter in the Near Future.

Rossland, B.C., Sept. 22.—The shipments for the week ending this evening have smashed all the previous records. The shipments for the week were 7,484 tons, topping the previous week by 554 tons. The LeRoi shipped but 4,581 tons, which is not as large as the quantity shipped during the summer by about 1,000 tons. The shortness of the shipments are due to several causes, the chief of which is the capacity of the smelter to handle the ore that could be taken from the mine. During the month of August there were two tons broken down for every one that was shipped. The balance is stored in the stopes, some of which are so blocked by the accumulation of ore that they cannot be worked. The matter can hardly be remedied until such time as the Northport Smelter has considerably increased its capacity. This increased plant is being installed, but as such enlargement cannot be accomplished in a day, one new furnace is practically ready. There is no word at present as to when the War Eagle intends to resume shipment regularly, although it is probable that some ore will be sent to the smelter in the near future. From the way matters are shaping themselves, the outlook now is that the ore output this year will not fall far short of 200,000 tons, and this notwithstanding the fact that the Cenre Star did not ship during seven months of the year, and the War Eagle eight months. The Centre Star shipped 2,370 tons; the LeRoi 4,781 tons, and the Giant 61 tons during the week, or a total of 7,484 tons.

Superintendent A. C. White reports that he has uncovered a strong lead on the Joseph Leiter claim on Sophie Mountain, an open cut was made for a length of 50 feet in wash gravel, and at a depth of six feet a lead has been uncovered, which is 30 feet in width. It is a continuation of the copper Wonder ledge, and is close to the north line of that claim. Superintendent White is greatly pleased with the find, and is soon to sink a shaft upon it.

NEW HOTELS.

New Scheme for a Big New Down-Town Hostelry—The Big Up-Town Project.

If all the present hotel projects are carried out Montreal will find itself well supplied with accommodation of that class before very long. The latest scheme to be mooted is the organization of an east end syndicate to secure all of the property on Notre Dame Street between St. Vincent Street and Jacques Cartier Square, opposite the Court House, and erect thereon a first class large hotel to cater specially to the judges, lawyers and others having business at the Court House and City Hall. If the project is carried out the hotel will be conducted on the French system, and a special feature will be made of the buffets, restaurants, lunch rooms and dining rooms.

Meantime the big uptown hotel project is still being quietly got into shape, and when the prime mover returns from England, where he is at present, something practical will be done towards putting the scheme into effect. Enquiries are still being made, having in view the securing of one or the other of the two blocks under consideration. The favorite block is still said to be that bounded by St. Catherine, Metcalfe and Mansfield Streets, but the authorities of St. George's Church and the Dominion Square Methodist Church are still being pressed for answers as to the probability of being able to secure the block on which those churches are situated, as the site for the new hotel.

SUNSET ON THE RIDEAU.

Smooth-rippling lies the placid lake;
The sunset gilds yon towering cliff;
Never a sound the calm to break,
But voices faint in the nearing skiff.

A gull swings slow on broad-spread wings
Across the tall crag's pine-clad breast;
And back the lake 's brigt bosom flings
The crimson glories of the west.

It is an hour for calmest joy
Where Nature's healing hand is felt.
All cares, all worries, all annoy
Before her silent witchery melt.

INTERESTING, IF TRUE.

You Can Try it for Yourself and Prove It.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard boiled egg into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated, place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water heated to 98 degrees (the temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the eggs will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg in the bottle it will do to the egg or meat in the stomach, and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak, and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are easily explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essences, aspetic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingles with the food and digest it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Dieting never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world wide, and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cents for full sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

For the information of those interested a little book will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., giving brifly the symptoms of the various forms of stomach weakness, causes and cure.

Department for Women Readers

As Seen by Her.

A recent number of a church paper contains a severe criticism of the display wedding, touching upon the fact that the religious side of the subject is forgotten, or at least slighted in the interest of the bride's clothes, the decorations, the gowns of the guests and the published list of wedding presents. In connection with this subject it might be well to think of another feature of church weddings and that is the behavior of the crowds who flock unasked to every wedding of which they hear. The very whisper of a wedding, no matter how small, is enough to send a crowd of women hurrying to the church to see the bride, and if she happens to be well known and fashionable, the excitement reaches fever heat. Long before the time of the ceremony the side aisles are filled with spectators, while the porches and the grounds without are the vantage ground of more people intent on seeing the sight. There are many brides who object to this publicity and to being stared at and criticized by total strangers, who comment upon their looks, the texture and fit of their gowns, and the general appearance of the bridesmaids, but if the wedding be a church wedding, and the hour known, it is difficult to keep the inquisitive public out. The present question, however, is not the suitability of grand church weddings, but the behavior of the spectators, who appear to feel that, perhaps because it is a free show, they are at liberty to act in any manner which best pleases them. That a church is a sacred place on week days as well as on Sundays appears to be forgotten in the ravenous anxiety to see "how she looks." As soon as the bridal procession appears there is a general craning of necks and pressing forward. Good manners are completely forgotten and the women crowd and push unmercifully. During the service people are known to stand on the seats, sit on the window ledges and even on the book rests.

When the heads of the bridal party are bowed in prayer is the grand opportunity to see the dresses and the uninvited stare with unblushing rudeness, while their conversation is often distinctly audible. It has been known for the officiating clergyman to administer a reprimand. When the procession turns to leave the church, the spectators charge frantically for the porch to see the bride enter her carriage, exhibiting manners generally associated with football matches, and bargain counters. It is quite natural to like to see a pretty wedding, when it takes place in a church open to the public, but why should manners be forgotten. Most of these offenders, judging by their appearance only, belong to a decent class of society. It is very evident that the laws laid down for good behavior in public—letting alone the question of reverence for the holy place—do not apply in the case of church marriages.

The Editor of this Department will be pleased to receive for insertion all matter relating to women's organizations, meetings, personals, etc. Address Editor, Department for Women Readers, Herald Office, Craig Street.

WOMEN'S DOINGS.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

There will be a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in the King's Daughters parlor of the Y.W.C.A. to hear the report of the committee who have been working in connection with the summer creche. The creche is now closed for the year, after having been of inestimable benefit to many poor people.

MESSAGE FROM THE QUEEN.

Lady Taylor, President of the National Council of Women, has received from Her Excellency the Countess of Minto the following letter respecting the resolution of condolence with Her Majesty upon the death of the late Duke of Edinburgh, passed by the council at the recent annual meeting:—"Osborne, Aug. 25th, 1900. Dear Lady Minto,—The Queen desires me to ask you to be good enough to convey to the National Council of Women of Canada her sincere thanks for the kind expression of sympathy and condolence contained in the resolution passed at their annual session at Victoria, British Columbia, and forwarded by you to Her Majesty. Yours very truly. (Signed) Arthur Bigge. To Her Excellency, the Countess of Minto, Hon. President of the National Council of Women of Canada." Her Excellency when forwarding the above letter says she has also heard privately from Princess Beatrice, that the Queen was much gratified to receive the message of condolence.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S CONVENTION

The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Women's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of Eastern Ontario and Quebec will be held at Perth, Ont., Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 2nd and 3rd.

The names of a number of Montreal ladies appear on the programme for the two days' convention, devoted to foreign and home missions. The address of welcome, which is to be given by Mrs. Donald Robertson, Perth, will be replied to by Miss Green, of Montreal, President of the Missionary Society. The recording secretary's report will be read by Miss Tester, of Montreal, and the superintendent of Mission Bands is Miss Muir, of Montreal. The report of the corresponding secretary comes from Mrs. H. Hibbard Ayer, and a paper on The Post Office Crusade will be read by Mrs. Cole, Westmount. The devotional exercises at the opening day meeting will be led by Mrs. A. N. Frith, Ottawa, in the afternoon by Mrs. J. C. Sycamore, Brockville, and in the evening there will be a meeting, at which Rev. G. C. Rock, of Perth, will preside. Addresses will be given by Miss Agnes E. Baskerville, India; Miss Annie Trotter, Toronto, and Mrs. Parsons. The meetings promise to be very interesting and helpful.

ABOUT THE DOUKHOBORS.

"Mrs. Fitz-Gibbon has been out again this summer through the Doukhobors' settlements, and is most enthusiastic. She says they are getting on well and are making good settlers. She is evidently expecting a large amount of work to be done by them this winter and would like to send two more looms. She found the fifty spinning wheels and the thirteen looms that had been given them last winter by the Women's Council fully employed, and the first prize for home-made yarn at the Winnipeg Industrial Fair was given to one of these Doukhobor women and was made on one of the wheels that had been sent to them."

The foregoing is an extract of a letter from Lady Taylor, of Toronto, president of the Women's Council, Mrs. Fitz-Gibbon is the convener of the Council's committee on the Doukhobor loan, and gave an address here last winter upon the subject of her visit to the Doukhobors.

MEETING OF W.C.T.U.

The annual Provincial meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Granby, Que., on October 2nd, and following days. A number of delegates expect to go from Montreal to attend these meetings, which promise to be very interesting.

THE LADIES' MAGAZINE.

The quality of Canadian periodicals has been steadily improving with the years, until we now have some publications which rank with the world's best. A new publication, to be issued almost immediately, promises to be an addition to the ranks of our highest class of illustrated periodicals. It is to be published for women and the home, and to be called The Ladies' Magazine. The originator is Mr. Hugh C. MacLean, an experienced and successful publisher. Mr. MacLean and his brother, Lieut.-Col. MacLean, are well known as the founders and publishers of the Canadian Grocer, Dry Goods Review and other papers. The MacLean papers have always been turned out in the best possible style—the publishers energetic and enterprising, and hence remarkably successful. The Ladies' Magazine will combine the best features of the leading journals in Great Britain and the United States. The popular English and Canadian writers will contribute specials and short stories, besides which social events, fashions, domestic science, correspondence, home decoration, etc., will be treated in special departments by writers thoroughly qualified. The Ladies' Magazine is to be artistically printed and profusely illustrated, and with ample capital, and energy and experience, should be a success.

POT POURRI.

OVER A GRAVE.

Loving and low,
The bending buds and grasses bow and blow,
And whisper to each other—
"One at rest
Lies here beneath with lilies on her breast.
She was so tired, and she fell asleep,
Let her lie here the while a watch we keep.
Hush!"
The sunbeams fell,
And kissed her grave as though they loved it well,
And whispered to each other—
"She was fair.
We used to frolic in her sunbright hair,
But she grew tired and she fell asleep.
Let her lie here the while a watch we keep.
"Hush!"
The west wind said—
"Why watch you here? She is what men call dead!"
"Nay," said the grasses, "she but fell asleep,
They put her here that we a guard might keep."
"Hush!" said the sunbeams, "let her lie and rest.
She and her heart were tired. It is best.
Hush!"

M. R. Burton.

VANITY IS HER AID.

A self-respecting vanity may be counted a virtue rather than a weakness, and it is the duty and privilege of every true woman to accentuate all her good points and as far as possible eradicate the poor ones. Indeed, there is little excuse for allowing the poor ones to remain conspicuously in evidence, for science and art have done so much to improve upon shortcomings of nature that a little care and skill may convert ugliness into comeliness. A thoroughly groomed woman is always an attractive one, irrespective of her claims to actual beauty, and nothing is so productive of this well-cared-for, dainty appearance as a knowledge of toilet accessories and how to use them.

ADVANTAGE OF HOUSEWIFELY MERITS.

"I love a beautifully worked darn!" said a good housekeeper. "It implies so much. If I see table linen that has been carefully mended, I say to myself, 'That woman is an excellent housemistress,' and a girl whose stockings are neatly darned by herself is a girl after my own heart. I tell my sons to find out if a girl darns her stockings before asking her to marry. I know one young woman who sews up her stockings with black thread, and another who wears a stocking until it is useless and then gives it away. I hope neither of those girls will become my daughter-in-law. A neatly mended glove or carefully darned stocking, I say to my boys, is far more attractive than a perfectly new article, for it shows the character of its owner.

"Some old-fashioned writer of moral tales tells how a young man falls in love with a girl because of a dear little darn in the toe of her stocking, her slipper having been stuck in the mud, while her far more beautiful sister revolts him by betraying inadvertently a hole in the heel of her silken hose. I dare say the men in those old stories who bestow their affections with so much discrimination seem like absurd prigs to the girl of the period, but after all it is the homely virtues that wear the best, and a man might do worse than choose a wife on account of her housewifely merits."

ON CAKE MAKING.

Regulate the temperature of the oven according to the kind of cake to be made.

Fold the flour in carefully, instead of by strong circular strokes.

Keep the raisins, currants and other fruit in a warm room over night, dredge thoroughly with flour and stir in lightly the last thing.

Line the tins for loaf cake with oiled paper, and make the lining for a fruit or large loaf cake an inch higher at the sides to support a paper cover and prevent its baking too hard.

Whip the whites of eggs to a coarse, moderately stiff froth rather than a fine stiff one.

Place the cake in the oven as soon as the baking powder is added.

Grease the tin with sweet lard rather than butter, and sift a little flour over.

Have everything in readiness before commencing to mix the ingredients; have the latter at the right temperature, and do not suspend the mixing until the cake is ready for the oven.

According to an old housekeeper, two apples kept in the cake box will keep moderately rich cake moist for a length of time if the apples are renewed when withered.

TO-MORROW'S MENU.

If thou continuest to take delight in idle argumentation, thou mayst be qualified to combat with the sophists, but wilt never know how to live with men.—Socrates.

Breakfast—Malt breakfast food and cream, meat croquets, green corn fritters, toast, plum marmalade, coffee.

Dinner—Roast ribs of beef, Yorkshire pudding, roasted potatoes, squash, cauliflower salad, Swiss cream, wafers, coffee.

Supper—Devilled eggs, hominy balls, Sally Lunn, baked apples, raisin layer cake, tea.

RAISIN LAYER CAKE.

Three eggs, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of butter, one-half cupful of sweet milk, two cupfuls of flour, one-half teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Bake in layers. Filling—Boil one cupful of granulated sugar and one-quarter of a cupful of water until brittle; remove from the fire and stir in the well-beaten white of one egg, one cupful of chopped and seeded raisins, and one cupful of chopped hickory nuts.

STUFFED STEW.

Buy five or six pounds of the under round, mix one teaspoonful of cinnamon, half a teaspoonful of pepper, a grating of nutmeg, half a teaspoonful of ginger; rub this well into the meat. Mix two tablespoonfuls of vinegar, two tablespoonfuls of oil or melted butter; moisten the meat well with this and let it stand over night. In the morning to one-half cup of crumbs add one tablespoonful of melted butter, one half teaspoonful of salt, and a little pepper. Make incisions in the meat two inches long and almost through the meat. Fill these cavities with the stuffing and tie the meat tightly into shape. Put it in a baking pan, nearly fill the pan, and bake in a moderate oven four hours, basting every twenty minutes. Serve hot with a made gravy, and it is very nice sliced and served cold; on account of the spice it will keep a week at least.

Miss V. M. Holmstrom has returned to town, and is visiting Mrs. D. Macpherson, 14 Bishop Street. During the summer Miss Holmstrom attended the Harvard Summer School, the Colby Gymnasium lectures and the Boston Hospital clinics, so will open her classes with renewed energy and enthusiasm.

On Saturday afternoon the Cote St. Antoine Lawn Tennis Club closed for the season, after a thoroughly successful and enjoyable summer. In spite of the damp weather there was a good attendance of interested spectators in the grounds, as well as some players. Three courts were open. The last of the Saturday teas was given by Mrs. G. C. Dunlop. The date for the tennis club dance has not yet been definitely fixed.

Now that so many of the members have returned to town, the Ladies' Golf Club will begin play in good earnest, and the Dixie links and the pretty club house will no longer wear a deserted aspect. A meeting of the committee was held this morning at the residence of Mrs. R. W. Macdougall, University Street, president of the club, to discuss coming matches, and make plans for the autumn. During the month of October the Quebec Ladies' Club is coming up to play a match at Dixie, and will be entertained at luncheon by the members of the Montreal Ladies' Golf Club. If the weather keeps as fine as it is at present there should be some very good play.

The popular Doncaster race meeting in Yorkshire has this year been very successful in spite of the regretted absence of the Prince of Wales. Most of the big country houses in the county were represented by large parties, and there was quite a record attendance of the non-racing contingent. The Duke of Cambridge, who was staying at Newburgh Priory with Sir George and Lady Wombwell, did not attend the meeting. In the Wombwell house party, with the Duke of Cambridge, were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Livingston, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson brought a large party from Tranby Croft for the Doncaster meeting. Among its members were the Duke of Roxburghe, Lady Norreys, and Lady de Trafford, Miss Muriel Wilson, who was in New York last winter, assisted her mother in entertaining the guests at this Tranby Croft house party. On the day of the meeting she looked remarkably well in a most effective gown of pale mauve. Lily, Duchess of Marlborough, was with her husband, Lord William Beresford, who was not particularly fortunate with his horses; and among others present were Lord Londonderry, Lord Feversham, Sir Edward and Lady Cayley, Lord Lawrence, Lord Granby, Lady Alwyne Compton, Lord and Lady Essex.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Hammond Dodd, second daughter of Hon. Thomas W. Dodd, to Harry Edmund Mahon, barrister-at-law, son of the late Edmund T. Mahon, of Halifax, took place last week at St. Paul's Church, Charlottetown, P.E.I. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Leo. Williams, assisted by Rev. W. H. Sampson, of St. John, N.B. The groom was supported by his cousin, Fitzroy Elliot, Halifax, and the bride was attended by a maid of honor, Miss Winnifred Cotton, and two bridesmaids—Miss Annie Mahon, sister of the groom, and Miss Ethel Davies, daughter of Sir Louis Davies, K.C.M.G. The ushers were N. Mark Mills, attorney-at-law, St. Stephen, N.B., and Dr. Fred. Haszard. The bride wore a lovely dress of white mousseline de sole over ivory satin and the maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively, pale green organdie and pale pink.

THE HUNT BREAKFASTS.

Last year the opening breakfast of the Montreal Hunt Club was given at The Kennels, under the most delightful auspices. The day was perfect and consequently a large number turned out, including many ladies beautifully gowned. This year the clerk of the weather being in bad humor the opening breakfast took place under unfavorable conditions. All the early evening the rain poured down, and although it cleared later the trip out to the Kennels was not as pleasant as it might have been. In spite of this, however, more than one hundred attended, and appeared to enjoy the affair thoroughly. Major Hooper, Mr. F. H. and Mrs. Hooper received, the latter wearing black and white cloth and black hat. The sound of a horn blown lustily announced breakfast, which was served at flower decorated tables in the two dining rooms and the ball-room. Later the guests gathered on the verandah of the club house to see the gathering of horses and dogs start. About the time the party was breaking up the weather turned fine, which made the return to town more enjoyable. Amongst the guests were an unusual number of out of town people, including several Americans. A large number of the regular patrons of the Hunt were present. Amongst others were Mr. and Mrs. Montagu Allan, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Hartland MacDougall, Mr. A. E. Ogilvie, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Paton, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Strathy, Dr. and Mrs. Bell, Miss Arnton, Miss Eadie, Major A. H. Sims, Dr. and Mrs. McEachran, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Reford, Capt. Frank Meighen, Capt. and Mrs. McGowan (Washington), Major and Mrs. Dent, Miss Dent (New York), Mr. George Gillespie, Mr. F. E. Meredith, Mr. W. C. McIntyre, Mr. Colin Campbell, Miss Cook, Mr. P. H. Roy, Miss Roy, Lady Hickson, Miss Hickson, Mr. G. A. Farmer, Dr. Ruttan, Dr. and Mrs. Sairnes, Mr. and Mrs. Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Macmaster, Mrs. Chevalier, Mr. Leopold Galarneau and many others. On account of the bad weather most of the costumes were of the tailor-made variety and some smart new coats were observed.

The Canadian Hunt Club also had their opening breakfast on Saturday, the party going by special boat across to Laprairie. The Hon. J. E. Robidoux, assisted by Mme. Robidoux and her daughter, received the guests. A sumptuous breakfast was served, to which eighty guests sat down. The only lady who pluckily followed the hounds was Mrs. L. H. Painchaud.

Kingston, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—Mrs. Henry Joseph, of Montreal, and her little son, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Walkem.

On Wednesday afternoon, Miss Constance Tandy, was hostess at a young girls' tea given in honor of Miss Mary Miles, of Toronto. There were about twenty-five guests, and the tea room was in charge of Miss Leslie, Miss Lettice Tandy, Miss Brownfield and Miss Harty.

Miss Mabel Brownfield left yesterday for Englewood, N.Y., where she will be the guest of Mrs. Bliss and will act as bridesmaid next week at Miss Bliss' wedding.

THE HERALD'S ONE HUNDRED SHORT STORIES

No. 4.

Betwixt the Cup and the Lip

BY. M. A. MEAD.

(Copyrighted, 1900, Wm. R. Miller.)

After excusing his tardiness to his hostess, a friend tried and true whose loyalty even this delinquency could not alter, Mr. Fairfax was not a little discomforted to find the only vacant seat—his seat—placed between an older married woman with whom he had scarcely a speaking acquaintance and Miss Carruthers, the girl whom for the past three weeks he had been trying so hard to forget. Beyond a slight nod she did not notice him, and he devoutly hoped she was not aware of how uncomfortable and embarrassed he was feeling.

For, of a sudden, those past three weeks during which, while supposedly shooting in the wilds of Virginia, he had in fact been steeling himself against just such a meeting, seemed very futile. Yet it would be told himself, be ignominious, unmanly, to attempt any explanation or reconciliation after the way she had treated him, this utter want of confidence she had shown even returning his letters unopened and giving him no opportunity for justification. She had judged him without a hearing. In the weeks he had spent fighting against his pain, he had decided that a faith so easily turned to scorn had never been very robust; that such an affection was not worth having, and that he was better without her. So he had determined to acquiesce in her decision to let their engagement, which fortunately had never been announced, however much it might have been guessed at, quietly lapse. The little talk would, he knew, soon blow over; the interest of society be fixed by some later tragedy or comedy.

But now, as he looked at the pure brow and tender, sensitive mouth of the girl beside him, he felt an almost irresistible impulse to try to reinstate himself in her good opinion, to win a kind look from her clear eyes. After all there had been some cause for her suspicions; and he could imagine how her cousin, who was always against him, and, he shrewdly suspected, in love with her, too, had worked upon her doubts and inflamed them. Should he permit her to fall a victim to such a man in a moment of pique? He regretted now that he had not told her the man's true character so that she might now take his insinuations at their proper value.

As he watched the play of her side face and admired the familiar contrast of her bronze hair, black gown, adorned only by her favorite violets (he wondered who sent them now), he also became conscious that other people were beginning to notice and wonder at their silence. Then he turned quickly to her.

"Listen a moment," he said, in an urgent whisper.

Miss Carruthers turned haughtily to him.

"You forget that I have been away three weeks," he continued, "so none of these people understand that there has been any change in our relations; and if you don't want to announce the fact in the most blatant way, you must try to act as though things were as usual. Our hostess," he added, with a little laugh, "thinks she is doing us a kindness in placing us beside each other."

Miss Carruthers appeared to hesitate, glanced up and down the table, then seeing no one watching her, she turned resolutely, almost recklessly, to her left-hand neighbor.

During the soup and fish she continued to talk to him though his attention seemed very much engaged by his dinner; but as she turned to someone across the table, Mr. Fairfax again caught her eye and said in a low tone:—

"Are you wise? Will not such absolute avoidance be remarked by every one. Miss Jenniman has already cast several searching glances in our direction, and you know how hard it is to escape being detected by her piercing eyes. I thoroughly appreciate how disagreeable any conversation with me must be to you, but for your own sake"—she lifted her brows disdainfully—"to avoid talk and gossip, let us try to keep up appearances. At least, let us talk as much as common acquaintances would. Or rather, since it is so disagreeable to you, I will do the talking, and you need only pretend."

After a moment's consideration, Miss Carruthers nodded assent, and Mr. Fairfax boldly launched into a discussion of some paintings then on exhibition. Then to show his indifference, or perhaps from some other motive, he began to speak of his shooting trip.

"The weather was perfection," he told her, "and we tramped the fields all day, had excellent sport, and only returned to a late dinner, too tired out to do anything but go to bed. You may be sure we slept without rocking—say something quickly," he urged, "Mrs. Key-Smith's looking at us now, and you know what a scandalmonger she is—a thousand times worse than Miss Jenniman."

Miss Carruthes' lips moved, but there was no sound.

"Oh, of course," he continued, "I remember you said you'd never speak to me again, but under the circumstances, I think you had better forget—during dinner at least; or, to save your feelings, you might merely repeat the multiplication table, or the alphabet, when I pause for a reply. A nonsense rhyme would, perhaps, suit the occasion better!"

"Once one is one; once two is two; once three is three; once four is four; once five is five," Miss Carruthers counted up to fifteen, getting very red over it, and glancing apprehensively at Mrs. Key-Smith.

"Where was I?" he resumed; "Oh! telling you about my shooting trip and how well we all slept."

He paused again, then with an abrupt movement and a complete change of tone, he went on.

"I suppose I am lacking in proper pride to tell you that, in spite of your bad treatment of me. I was such an egregious idiot and so spoony as to spend all my time thinking of you couldn't even shoot. You needn't look angry or disdainful. Such madness and folly, I assure you, I mean to conquer at once and forever, and you need

"I had pledged myself to secrecy, and I never fear to hear the subject alluded to again. It was really unnecessary to resort to such extreme measures as giving orders to your butler that I was not to be admitted and returning my letters unopened. Its contents wouldn't have contaminated you, and I assure you I can take 'no.' But I cannot quietly permit my honor to be doubted and besmirched by you—in this way."

His face grew heavy with the memory of his wrong.

Miss Carruthers gazed haughtily in front of her.

"Perhaps," he said at length, "to an outsider appearances might have seemed against me, but from you I think I might have expected more loyalty under even more difficult circumstances." He paused.

Miss Carruthers, looking fearfully toward Mrs. Key-Smith, counted angrily to thirty-four.

"I had a right to some faith."

Miss Carruthers gazed steadily before her.

"But I suppose you had heard all that old gossip about my devotion to Alice Welsh revived. I would willingly have told you everything, but the secret wasn't mine."

He paused again as if considering.

Miss Carruthers in vain tried to keep the interest out of her voice, as she rapidly counted:

"Once thirty-five is thirty-five, once thirty-six is thirty-six, once thirty-seven is thirty-seven, once thirty-nine is thirty nine once forty is forty, once forty-one is forty-one, once forty-two is forty-two, once forty-five is forty-five, once fifty is fifty, once fifty-one is fifty-one."

never imagined you could doubt my love. That evening after I had told you that I was engaged on important business for the firm, and so couldn't go with you to the opera, and when I got back to my rooms I found a note from Mrs. Hodges, Alice's grandmother, saying Alice had suddenly been taken alarmingly ill, and begging me to come at once. She wanted Charlie Force's address, too."

Miss Carruther counted with breathless interest as far as 65. "You may never have suspected that he, my best friend, and Alice are engaged. They have had a sort of understanding for three years, but Mrs. Hodges, on account of a family prejudice, would never consent to this marriage. And Alice was unwilling to defy her grandmother. When I reached the house I found Alice indeed alarmingly ill, falling into long fainting spells; so Mrs. Hodges implored me to stay until the immediate danger was past, which, of course, I did. I telegraphed Charlie to come at once, and now their engagement is to be announced next Thursday. Dear old Charlie! 'It's an ill wind that blows nobody good.'"

Miss Carruthers counted steadily enough from 65 to 78; but Mr. Fairfax could see that her whole body was tense with suppressed excitement.

"So that is the reason that on your way from the opera you saw me leave their house at 12.30. Charlie or Dr. Clarke will tell you that all I have said is true."

Mr. Fairfax looked at her attentively as he stirred his coffee, but her head was bent, and he could not get a good view of eyes or mouth.

"I am sorry to have distressed you by speaking of this subject. It has been painful to me, too, but I could not let you so misunderstand me. Forgive me if I have seemed to play an unworthy part in thus forcing you to listen to my story. Perhaps after all it hasn't really been so much your fault; perhaps someone has had an interest in exciting and fanning your suspicions. For your mind is not the kind that naturally harbors suspicion."

This doubt that earlier had contended with belief had now completely disappeared, but he failed to see that eager words trembled on her lips, for now his eyes were glued to his coffee cup—Miss Carruthers counted as far as 93.

"As I said in the beginning," he resumed, "I shall never refer to the subject again, I have never meant to pain you by word or deed. It was because I loved you so, that I had to set myself right in your eyes. When we met in the drawing-room a new era will have begun. In the future——"

Miss Carruthers interrupted in the modest ed that her hostess was collecting eyes. There was not a moment to lose, so brazenly skipping the rest of the column. "One and one is one," she said, pushing back her chair at the same moment. Her eyes and flowers simultaneously falling to the floor.

"Did you really mean that?" he eagerly questioned, looking into her radiant eyes. For an instant his hand closed firmly over hers as he gave her back her violets. A moment later she passed out of the door in the wake of her hostess. He watched her disappearing figure, triumph and joy contending in his face.

✻ SATURDAY'S SPORTS THE WORLD OVER ✻

ARE NOW CHAMPIONS

Athletes Fought Hard For Coveted Honors Saturday.

CANADIANS WELL TO THE FORE

Though No Records Were Broken, the Track and Field Events Were of a High Standard.

A heavy fall of rain on Saturday morning threatened to deaden the Montreal A.A.A. track and spoil the championship games, for both athletes and spectators. Before noon, however, that erratic old person, the chief clerk of the Solar department, got to business and turned on the drying appartus. The games were advertised to begin at 3 p.m., and prompt to time Max Long, the New York A.C. flyer, Coverton, and Newman, the 100 yards first heat trio, were under the starter's orders. Long was running for a place in the final and did not trouble Newman, the winner, but made dead sure of second place. F. L. Stephen was away with a sprained leg, a pity for Canada. Thus Oborne and Coldwell monopolized the second heat. Oborne made a rush from the half distance and won. The time for each heat was 10 4-5. This was dropped in the final to 10 1-5, moderately good time considering the sponginess of the track. Max Long, a lithe, loose-jointed sprinter, got away none too quickly, but led the way at forty yards From this point the championship belonged to him, though Newman gave him no time to look back and admire the scenery. Newman lost by less than a yard, with Oborne three yards behind.

Arthur Smith, of the Montreal club, has very big shoulders and legs. Moreover, he knows how to use them. His shot putting is not of the sheer strength variety. It is at once powerful and graceful. His first put practically won the medal, but, like the melodramatic villain, only more genially, he remarked "I'll do it." He did it, and this time paled the fires of the other gentlemen most effectually, though his best was not near the Canadian record.

Now the attendance had nearly doubled A fair number of prettily dressed ladies were present, and naturally the sun shone more brilliantly than ever. Newton jumped off at the head of the Milers, with his club mate, Grant, on his heels, and the Montrealers third and fourth. Corbett dropped out after a lap and a half, leaving the others in their starting order. Three hundred yards from the fatal tape, Adams was shaken off, and the race was a match between the New Yorkers. Coming up the straight, Grant made his sprint, and won with ridiculous ease.

Newton could not sprint at Grant's hot pace when the time came for a rush. Probably Newton knew it beforehand. Grant is a sturdy-looking young man and seemed to enjoy the little run immensely, particularly the solo sprint home.

The take-off ground for the high jump was almost hard when Harry Gill, the versatile Ontario man, had first go. The jumping was excellent all through, and the high jumps were the best of all the jumps. Webber, Montreal Y.M.C.A., looked a midget beside Gill and Baxter. He had three tries at five-eight, but failed to arrive. The onlookers cheered him heartily as he retreated, for his display had been plucky and lively. The South African "record," five-six, (if some of the Boers have not broken it) had been passed by the whole trio. Now came a duel, Gill and Baxter. Five-ten, six feet, six one. Gill was dashing, fiery; Baxter, cool, wary, saving every ounce of his strength. At six-two Gill was knocked. Baxter had one jump to take. He gave his legs a little massage treatment, ran, then turned back from under the bar and waited for the 220 yards to be run off. After Long had settled that argument, Baxter came again and, with the customary wriggle, added another event to the New York collection. "If you'll put it up to six-three I'll try for the Canadian record," said Baxter. This record, by the way, is his own. He failed to beat it.

John Flanagan appropriated unto himself the medal for slinging the "fifty-sixer" and afterwards tried to kill a photographer with exhibition shots. Again, after winning the hammer throw, he had a try for the gentleman with the camera. After shifting the hammer 151 feet and 2 inches, he failed to reach him. This was very annoying to the spectators, but the photographer, apparently, was not disappointed.

Grant won the half mile in a common canter. Vercival Molson, of McGill, was game, but was fagged at the finish. Grant won by six yards and looked almost fresh enough to start off again.

J. Corbett, Ottawa, who won the long jump, is an evenly built athlete. Looks a likely one to wrestle, or sling the gloves successfully, in the intervals of long jumping. Finding his balance "on the wrong foot," to save the situation he gave an impromptu exhibition of base-sliding which was much appreciated.

The quarter mile win gave Max Long the triple event. There was a desperate struggle for second place, which went to Oborne by inches.

The pole jump was not on the programme, neither was a great umbrella balancing feat by Mr. James Pearson, of the Ontario A.A.A., but they were both accomplished. Knox won the former. In the latter, Mr. Pearson had a walk over.

Hutchinson, of Princeton, won the 120 yards hurdles, by three yards. His striding between the gates was faultless, and, bar shouting, it was all over at the sixth. Gill was running into third place but fell at the last hurdle and was badly scraped. In fact the "yaller dog" was on the versatile Gill's trail all day.

The meeting was admirably managed. There were no tiresome delays. Every man came up to the scratch promptly.

The officials of the meet were as follows: W. O. H. Dodds, President, C.A.A.U., referee; Lt-Col. Whitehead, Hon President M.A.A.A.; Thos. L. Paton, M.A.A.; Harry Morrison, Ottawa A.A.C., Major W. B. T. Macaulay, judges of track events; Inspector Starke, Toronto P.A.A.A.; Jas. Pearson, Ontario A.A.A.A.: Alex Stewart, Montreal S.S.G., W. C. Finley, and A. F. Rutter, M.A.A.A., measurers and judges field events; James A. Taylor, M.A.A.A.; Henry Brophy, President, M.A.A.A.; Dr. D. D. McTaggart, M.A.A.A., and Major Wm. J. Stewart, Halifax, timekeepers; R. Helmsley, M.A. A.A., official watch inspector; Norman Fletcher, Quebec, starter; F. C. A. McIndoe, announcer; David J. Watson, M.A. A.A.; W. G. Ayling, M.A.A.A.; Chas. S. Meek, Argonaut R.C., Toronto, and J. F. Savage, Quebec Rugby Union, scorers; Chas. M. Cameron, M.A.A.A., clerk of the course, and Louis Rubenstein, A.S. A.; C. C. Chitty, M.A.A.A.; Inspector Hall, Toronto, PA.A.A., and A. Roland, Hall, Toronto, P.A.A.A., and A. Roland Williams, Ontario A.A.A., assistants. Mr. McIndoe was especially efficient as an announcer, and his voice was clearly and distinctly heard through the megaphone along the entire length of the grand stand.

The following were the events in the order arranged for with the world's and Canadian records for each event:

THE AMATEUR RULE CHANGED.

In the evening the annual meeting of the Union was held in the Windsor Hotel and two important changes were made in the constitution. One allows the use of professional referees in amateur boxing tournaments; the other leaves the choice of the place of holding the annual games to the executive. These changes and the election of Inspector Starke, of Toronto, as president for the year, completed the business of the meeting, which, howveer, was enlivened by Mr. Pearson's little talk on amateurism, and the discussion which grew out of it.

The members present were: Mr. W. O. H. Dodds, president, in the chair; Inspector Stark, first vice-president; Hon. Secretary E. Herbert Brown; members of the Executive: Messrs. Harry Morrison, Major Macaulay, H. Brophy, C. S. Meek. Delegates; Ottawa A.A.C., W. K. Cummings; Argonaut R.C., W. Morson; Amateur Skating Association of Canada; Louis Rubenstein; Toronto Police A.A., Inspector Hall; Ontario A.A.A., J. Pearson and A. R. Williams; Canadian Amateur Hockey League, Geo. James; Toronto L. & A.A., C. H. Nelson and A. F. Rutter; McGill A.A.A., J. H. Boulter; Montreal A.A.A., W. G. Ayling; Montreal S.S.C., Alex. Stewart; Quebec Rugby Union, J. F. Savage; Shamrock A.A. A., W. P. Lunny; Canadian Amateur Bowling League, P. Gorman; Montreal Police A.A.A., Captain F. Loye.

The annual report was presented by Secretary Herb Brown and showed that the year 1899-1900 had been a busy one. Associations admitted to affiliation during the year were the Canadian Amateur Bowling Association, Ontario Amateur Athletic Association, British Columbia Amateur Lacrosse Association. The following were suspended for playing during the season 1897 with the Toronto Lacrosse Club while Alf. Smith, one of the players, was being paid: Archie Allan, Frank Moran, Geo. Wheeler, Dave Butler, Thos. O'Connor, Harry Griffith, Wm. Patterson, D. Guthrie, J. W. Gale, W. E. Burns, Thos. Moore, Thos. Murray, Jeff Churchill, Frank Nolan, Arthur Read.

The first five mentioned, having furnished sworn affidavits that they were not aware that Smith was a professional, and that they themselves had never been guilty of infringing the amateur rules, except in this particular case, and having compiled with our by-laws, were all reinstated in due course.

Thirteen applications for re-instatement were dealt with during the year, with the following result:

George Glover, Markham, reinstated; Geo. Mackinnon, Kingston, reinstated; Frank Moran, Toronto, reinstated; Geo. Wheeler, Toronto, reinstated; Archie Allan, Toronto, reinstated; Dave Butler, Toronto, reinstated; Thos. O'Connor, Toronto, reinstated; John Powers, Ottawa, reinstated.

E. A. Williams, Montreal, rejected; Wm. Galloway, Woodstock, rejected; Alf. Smith, Ottawa, rejected; Jeff. Churchill, Toronto, rejected; H. E. Griffiths, Toronto, rejected.

The report then continued: as follows: "The organization of the Ontario Amateur Athletic Association, during the past year, is a movement that we trust will be well supported by the athletic clubs of that province, and your executive would suggest that efforts be made to organize similar associations in Quebec, Manitoba, North-west Territories and British Columbia, and also that if such associations can be organized, and affiliated with this Union, also including the Maritime Provinces A.A.A., which has already been a number of years in existence, it will not only materially strengthen this Union, but will be carrying out our first objects as laid down in the constitution and by-laws.

Such organizations could each control athletics in their respective provinces or territories and with this Union as a governing body for the whole, we feel that a great advance would be made towards the better control and encouragement of amateur athletics, and also towards the suppression of such disgraceful cases of shielded professionalism as has come to light during the past few years."

The treasurer's statement showed the day's receipts to have been approximately $550, which paid all expenses, cleared off $108 deficit from last year's games at Toronto, and left $116 on hand.

Before the adoption of the report Mr. Pearson begged leave to state that in his opinion the suspension of the Toronto lacrosse players had been very hard on the individuals, and hinted that the men should not be suspended till professionalism was proven. He drew a very pathetic picture of the innocent lacrosse player pining away his athletic life under the shadow of suspension.

Mr. Brophy took the stand that the legislation had to be for the good of all, and that it could not afford to be sympathetic.

Mr. Lunny referred to the Toronto lacrosse suspensions, and stated that all the players of '97 were not suspended.

Mr. Brophy asked what the lacrosse clubs affiliated with the C.A.A.U. were doing if they knew of such cases and did not report them. The list had been made as complete as possible. It was not too late yet to add to it.

In the absence of Mr. Heron, Mr. Morrison, of Ottawa, introduced his motion to allow the use of professionals as officials by amateur clubs. After a great deal of discussion it was decided to give the executive power to allow the use of professional officials at amateur boxing contests, which was what Mr. Heron was aiming at.

Then came the question of whether the annual games were to be held at Montreal and Toronto alternately as before, or if, as Major Macaulay moved, the choice of the meeting place should be left to the executive. Major Macaulay explained that the intention of the motion was to further the interests of athletics. There were other places where a great deal of good might be done by holding the annual championships, such as Ottawa, Halifax or Winnipeg. Athletics was on the boom in one place some years, and not in others. His motion was to allow the executive power to choose the best place for the games.

After much unnecessary talk and hair-splitting, it was decided that the meetings be held alternately at Montreal and Toronto, but that the executive could, if they thought advisable, award the meet to some other city.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

President—Inspector Starke, Toronto Police A.A.A.

1st Vice-President—Harry Morrison, Ottawa A.A.A.

2nd Vice-President—Major W. B. Macaulay, M.A.A.A.

Hon. Secretary—O. Heron, Argonault R.C.

Treasurer—A. F. Rutter, Toronto L.C.

Committee—W. O. H. Dodds, M.A.A.A.; F. Colson, O.A.A.C.; Capt. Loye, Montreal Police A.A.A.; W. P. Lunny, S.A.A.A.; J. F. Savage, Q.R.U.; Alex. Stewart, M.S. S.C.; J. Pearson, Ont. A.A.A.; W. G. Ross, A.S.A. of C.; F. H. Wilson, C.A. H.L.

After votes of thanks to the retiring officers the meeting adjourned.

GATHERED ON THE FIELD.

Baxter says Gill gave him a harder fight for the high jump than any man this year.

Oborne showed himself a very good runner. He is sure to be a credit to the M.A. A.A.

Of the thirty-five prizes, Canadians got twenty and United States athletes fifteen. The Canadians took three first, seven seconds and ten thirds.

Dennis Horgan, the Irish shot putter, who holds the world's record for the 16 lb., teelgraphed at the last minute that he would not be present. Horgan would have made Arthur Smith throw a few inches farther to win the gold medal.

A man that should be looked after is Desmarteau, who got second in the 56 lb. weight. He has not had the advantage of regular training, but he has an easy style, and is very strong. He looked to be the best of those entered with a good man to look after him.

Alex. Grant, who won the half mile and mile runs in such easy style, is a Canadian, though running now under N.Y.C.A. colors. He comes from St. Mary's, Ontario, and developed his speed while a student at the University of Toronto. Dickey Grant, who has run for Pennsylvania for several years, is a brother.

Frank Stephen was unavoidably absent through the hardest of luck. He went to Boston three weeks ago to compete in the games there. He sprained his ankle slightly and could not finish his races. He went to New York two weeks later, and the night before the games gave the tendons in his leg a twist which put him out of all the contests. Had he been present he would have given Max Long a hustle in the 100 and the 220.

Harry Gill beat his best high jump by going 6 feet 1 inch. He has gone 6 feet before, but got an inch better Saturday. He is the young Toronto athlete who made such a sensation by carrying off the all-round championship of America at New York a month ago, when he won three firsts, three seconds, two thirds and two fourths, and broke the American record for points, scoring 6,360 1-2, which was 116 more than H. Clarke had made in 1897.

SATURDAY'S BOXING CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The championship bouts at the P.A.A.A. at Point St. Charles on next Saturday night promise to be the sporting event of the week. The committee has decided that the competition will be open to amateurs qualified under the C.A.A.U. rules, section 12. The classes are therefore under the regulation weight scale. O'Grady is working hard, and confidently expects to repeat his last performance at the M.A.A.A. and win by a decisive margin. Norton is just as sure of the medal, and he is not without supporters in his belief. This bout will virtually settle the Dominion championship at the weight. "Dave" Simon and O. Oswald Lindrees, the well-known local amateur wrestlers, will meet for a second time. This contest is best two falls in three, Greco-Roman, at the lightweight limit. Ashley, Hudson, J. Hanley, T. Hanley, Clendenning, Payne, Belmont, King and all the best amateurs in the local field have entered. This tournament will surely prove one of the best shows to be brought off in Montreal this coming season.

Corbett Sails for Home.

London, Sept. 22.—Considine, the manager of James J. Corbett, informed a representative of the Associated Press to-day that the pugilist sailed for New York today from Liverpool on board the Cunard line steamer Campania.

LACROSSE OVER

Capital Beat National in the Final Game.

CORNWALLS BEAT POINTS,

And Now the Intermediate Championship Will Be Fought Out by Cornwalls and Shamrocks.

The most interesting event in lacrosse on Saturday was the intermediate match at Cornwall. The home team defeated the Point St. Charles boys, which makes them champions of the western district. The Cornwalls have to play off with the Shamrocks for the League championship.

The senior series is at last closed with Capitals an easy winner for the trophy. There was little interest in Saturday's match as most people expected the Capital victory.

The standing of the clubs for the year is as follows:

Team.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Capitals	9	1	.900
Shamrocks	5	5	.500
Toronto	5	5	.500
Nationals	4	6	.400
Cornwall	4	6	.400
Montreal	3	7	.300

CAPS DEFEAT NATIONALS.

Though vanquished on Saturday, the Nationals, particularly after the termination of the third game, played in a fashion that was worthy better results At no time, except at the outset, did the Capitals evince any marked superiority. The score of 5 goals to 3 does not in any wise indicate the merits of the contest. Though the Capitals undoubtedly had the best of the argument during the first three games, matters were evened up very materially when, at the commencement of the fourth game, the National players were found to have been re-arranged. Brennan was moved further into the field than he usually plays, and Kavanagh was moved down from the defence to help him. These changes produced the desired effect, and by straining every energy the home team soon transformed certain defeat into a hope of victory. Three straight games for the visitors was soon made four to three in their favor. Then it was that the play became increasingly fast, exciting and furious, and it was only through the aid of the most timely misadventures on the Nationals' part that the Capitals succeeded in preventing the score from being evened up. Though they had to play to win, however, the Capitals are undoubtedly the greatest aggregation playing lacrosse to-day. Their combination work, backed up by the most perfect physical condition, is simply superb. No disposition to selfishness is displayed by any individual, and all the grand stand work which works detrimentally to the standing of a club and is objectionable in the eyes of the spectator is avoided. A majority of the team also play on the ball all the time, thus backing up their confreres at every point. The only feature which marred the exhibition was its unparalleled roughness. No less than ten players graced the fence at different stages, but Percy Quinn, the referee, had his hands so full from this cause alone that it was impossible for him to get his eye on every evidence of fouls. It is perhaps only fair to say that the Capitals were most to blame in this particular, no less than half the team —Messrs. E. Murphy, P. Murphy, Powers, Robertson, Hutton and Burks—gracing the verge of the field in repose at intervals. Of the Nationals, Messrs. A. Valois, L'Heureux, Brennan and Cousineau forced the referee to use drastic treatment, and they, too, were ruled off. Robertson, Ralph and O'Doherty, among the visitors, were also guilty of tactics which are scarcely to be commended. But roughness is a thing which seems inseparable from lacrosse when it is once started, and Saturday's game proved no exception to the rule. When the referee's whistle blew, the teams lined up in the following order:

National.	Position.	Capitals.
L'Heureux	Goal	Hutton
Joe. Valois	Point	O'Doherty
Blanchard	Cov.-Point	Ralph
A. Valois	Defence Field	W. Hutton

Cornwalls Defeat Points.

Cornwall, Ont., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—The Cornwall seconds won their saw-off game with the Points to-day. The game was played on the Cornwall Lacrosse grounds, and it was certainly of the first grade of lacrosse. The Points were the heavier team and their defence was superb. However, the active home of the locals was able to break through on three different occasions while the best the visitors could do was to tally twice.

Young Capitals Won.

The Young Capitals of Ottawa won the championship of the Eastern Ontario series in Almonte Saturday by defeating the Crescents of Perth by four goals to three.

WRESTLING BOUT WEDNESDAY.

On Wednesday night next George F. Little and C. Robillard will meet in a wrestling match at the Atlantic Gardens for $200 a side. A month ago the match was arranged and $50 deposited when the articles were drawn up. To-day the remainder of the money was deposited. Little goes on at 158 pounds. Little comes here from the United States, but is a Canadian by birth. His home was formerly in Western Ontario.

Quinn, the well-known wrestler, was chosen as referee, but since then he was killed in an accident, and Fred Richard will act.

All the bouts will be Graeco-Roman.

WITH THE RUGBY PLAKERS.

Montreal had 54 men out this morning.

Lewis turned out with Montreal for the first time this year on Saturday afternoon.

Billy Murphy had his uniform on this morning. He will play half or wing.

The absentees at Montreal's practice this morning were Meigs, Williams, Massey, Henderson, Matthews.

McGill will practice steadily all week.

First match next Saturday, Brits vs. McGill, at McGill grounds, in city championship series.

Argonauts want to come to Montreal on Thanksgiving Day.

King Clancy simply could not keep out of the game. He will don his canvas on Wednesday.

Fahey and Eddie Murphy will also be out again with the Collegians.

Moore, with the Brits, is putting up a good game.

Valance is coming on nicely, and will be an acquisition for the Brits.

THE END OF BASEBALL

No Games Saturday Owing to Wet Grounds.

THE PENNANT WINNERS.

Billy Murray Thinks His Success Was Due to His Splendid Pitching Department.

No more rooting,
No more hits,
No more masks and
No more mits;
No more homers,
No more flies,
No more coachers,
No more cries,
No more knockers,
No more men
Glad to say:
"They're licked again."

THE Birds were "up against it" to the last. As a fitting wind-up of a cheerful season, it rained on Saturday, and the grounds, instead of being fit for baseball, were only suitable for mud pies. Yesterday Montreal made an appearance at the Mascotte grounds to wallop the latter team, and they walloped, the score being 14 to 1.

But while the fans here are gritting their teeth at the luck, there is joy and sunshine in Providence, and everybody is doffing hats to Billy Murray.

The secret of Murray's success is the fact that he had people behind him who were ready to cough up $500 to $700 any time he wanted to buy a good player. No other team in the Eastern League was favored in this way, but at that Murray had a close run for his money.

While in Montreal the early part of last week Billy talked a little baseball as he sat on the bench.

He attributes the year's success to his twirling staff. His pitchers all did splendid work, Danny Friend excelling until he quit the team. Dunkle then took up the mantle, and won 15 out of 17 games pitched, 14 of them consecutively. Corridon, who has been farmed out for two seasons, showed good form in the closing games of the season.

"Connor has been our big mainstay in the infield," said Mr. Murray. "He has played a great second base and no better tutor could have been secured for young Parent. This youngster I consider the find of the season. He is a wonderful shortstop. Cassidy has worked hard at first, and Jud Smith's playing the past few weeks has been of the sensational variety. Jud has given us very good service at third base, especially during the recent crucial period—then he was the best man on the team. Tommy Leahy is a great catcher, and never before in his life threw as well to bases. I got Clements from Boston because I could not take a chance in case Leahy got hurt. Clements has done well, and is the only player on the team that did not belong outright to the Providence club. In Harvey Davis, in left field, we have the league's best batsman and baserunner, and one of the finest fielders and throwers. The rest of the team is well balanced, and we pulled through the season nicely, although we had our full share of the hard luck."

Mr. Murray made a wise outlay of money at the beginning of the season. He gave $75 for Parent, $500 for Stafford and Friend and $500 for Connor, all of which was well expended according to the results. Mr. Murray is proud of his team, and they are proud of him. On the ball field he is a stickler for his rights and off the field he is a very companionable gentleman, whom everybody likes.

Billy waited until he got to Toronto, however, before he talked changes, and there he said that he would like to see Montreal and Springfield dropped from the circuit. Billy forgets that with a winning team Montreal is one of the best cities in the League. Last year showed it.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The game yesterday was easy for Montreal, and the score of 14 to 1 tells the story.

VARDON IS HERE

Harry Vardon arrived in Montreal yesterday. To-morrow, Tuesday, in the morning, on the Dixie links, he will play the best ball of Tom Smith, Montreal, and Cumming, Toronto, professionals, and in the afternoon the best ball of amateurs Percy Taylor and Gordon McDougall. On Saturday he beat the best of two balls on the links at Toronto.

Vardon is 30 years old, 5.10 1-2 in height, 155 lbs. in weight. He is a sturdy-looking man, looks heavier than he really is. He has been playing golf twenty years, and played his first games with marbles and a walking-stick.

His first club was the Workingman's Golf Club on Glonville Column, Isle of Jersey. A feature of the club's competitions was a monthly handicap over 18 holes, played for six consecutive months, and Vardon's handicap at that early stage of his golfing career (he was about 19 or 20 at that time) was plus 6. The six best scores turned in during the six competitions by the same man entitled the winner to a large cup, which was the only cup he ever won, and which he values as much as he does his open championship medals. After winning five times during the first five months during which the competition ran, and leading the second man by nearly thirty strokes, and being obliged to sail for England to take charge of the Ripon Golf Club (his first engagement as a professional), he was permitted to play for the sixth time, a few days before the regular match day, an innovation in the rules of match play which shows in what hight respect and with what cordial feelings he was regarded by his fellow-townsmen. Vardon then migrated from the island made famous by the beautiful but slightly erratic Jersey Lily and took up his residence at Ripon, in Yorkshire, where he remained until one of the members of the club, recognizing that he had the making of a great golfer, and that his play was being utterly ruined owing partly to the natural disadvantages of the course and to his lack of opportunity for playing, advised him to try and secure a new green.

Just at that time the Bury G. C. in Lancashire were looking for a green keeper, and he was offered the position, which he promptly accepted, and stayed there three years, during which time he improved his game wonderfully, and it was there that the idea of holding his club in the peculiar way which he does occurred to him—a grip which has since become famous as the "Vardon grip."

From Bury he went to the Scarboro' Club, and three months later won his first open championship. Taylor, the open champion of 1894-1895, tied with him and had to play 36 more holes medal play to decide the tie. At the end of the first 18 holes Vardon led his opponent by two strokes, which he promptly threw away on his first drive in the afternoon, putting his ball into the woods and having to play three from the tee. He then started in and gave the most phenomenal exhibition of nerve ever seen on a golf course. He was an unknown man against the open champion with 20 to 1 bet against him, and to play the whole match as he did, never taking more than two on a green to hole out, requires a nerve which is not necessary in any other part of the game.

In 1897 he was sixth, six strokes behind the winner, H. H. Hilton, the amateur; he went out the first time in 86, and stood nearly at the bottom of the list after the morning play; and it speaks well for his control over himself that after practically losing all chance of winning during the first 18 holes, he played the remaining 54 holes in so brilliant a manner that he had pulled himself up to sixth place at the finish.

In 1898 Park looked a winner with three strokes lead out at 54 holes, but Vardon finished well and won by one stroke.

In 1899 he won for the third time, with second man seven strokes behind.

Vardon Won at Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., September 22.—Fair weather favored the golfers this afternoon and afforded them the chance of seeing the most interesting and important exhibition ever given over any links in Toronto, when Champion Harry Vardon, of Scarboro, England, defeated the best ball of George S. Lyon and Vere Brown of the Rosedale Golf Club, by 5 up and 3 to play. In the bye he won by one hole up, making a total of 6 holes up on the 36 that were played the full course of 18 holes being gone over twice. On the first round Vardon broke the record of 73 strokes, which until to-day was held by Ritchie, the Rosedale professional. Vardon went over the course in 72, taking 38 on the way out and 34 on the way back, making an average of four strokes to the hole.

U. S. Cricketers Won.

Philadelphia, Pa., September 22.—The annual cricket match between the United States and Canada ended to-day in a victory for the United States, but only after a stubborn contest, and with only two wickets to spare in a two innings match. Yesterday the Canadians scored 108 in their first innings, and the United States team 119. To-day Canada put together 120 in its second innings, making the grand total 228.

The United States then went in for their second innings, and lost 8 wickets before they obtained the necessary 110 runs to pass the Canadian total. H. S. Chambers made the top score for the Canadians to-day, putting together 30 runs. C. C. Morris carried the honor for United States in both innings, with 35 and 32 respectively.

Sports of All Sorts.

The race for the H.M.S. Crescent cup on Saturday at Quebec was won by the yacht Jamboree, Captain J. A. Thom, against the Curlew, Captain George Scott.

The P.A.A. Association Football Club will hold a meeting in the gymnasium on Tuesday evening at 8.30 sharp.

The Strathcona's and Lachine Football Clubs, met in their schedule match at the latter's grounds at Lachine Saturday afternoon. Each team scored two goals.

Lister Reiff and Rigby each two winners past the judges at Hurst Park on Saturday.

THE 'MAJAH' BEATEN

The Mile Championship Goes to Kimball.

TAYLOR WON THIRD MILE.

A Good Day's Racing at Queen's Park Track—Tuff Won Queen's Park Championship.

Those who went out to Queen's Park on Saturday afternoon to see the Grand National Circuit professional and amateur bicycle races were not disappointed in their expectations of interesting and keenly contested events. The racing was not remarkable in the matter of speed. The racers did not aim to lower records. In the final heat of the one mile international championship of America it looked for a while like a "slow" race. Taylor, Kimbal and Collert were running. No one of them wanted to do the pacing. In fact, the first lap was given to an endeavor on the part of the three racers not to take the lead. This was interesting of itself. But the finish compensated to a degree for the slowness of the start. When the riders passed over the line after a most exciting sprint of 200 or 300 yards, Kimball was first. Major Taylor, who had been the favorite, was beaten. Taylor said he could have won, but he had miscalculated his distance, and had started his sprint too late. He won back the favor of the crowd, however, in the one third mile handicap, when, starting at scratch, and giving Kimball 15 yards, he came in an easy winner.

The failure of Newhouse of Buffalo, Tom Butler of Boston, and Otto Maya of Erie, Pa., to put in an appearance considerably affected the racing and the disposition of the contestants in each heat. Instead of three semi-finals, as had been announced, there were but two. There were also but two prizes given. This decision did not suit some of the racers, and Kramer, who had qualified in the second heat for the semi-final, refused to run. As a consequence, he was suspended for the day. The amateur events were also interesting.

The officials are to be congratulated for the despatch and little delay with which all events were put through. The attendance was not as large as the programme should have attracted to the park, but it was an enthusiastic and appreciative crowd, and, as stated already, nobody was disappointed.

Why Butler Was Absent.

Mr. A. G. Batchelder, chairman of the National Cycling Association, has written to Manager Dandurand as follows:

"I have to-day received a letter from Tom Butler in which he states that he is so ill that it will be impossible for him to ride to-morrow at Montreal. However, his story is not accepted, and he will be both fined and suspended. To be candid, at the present time, Butler is not riding fast enough to keep warm, and I question if he can beat even the third-raters. He has won but a single race this season, and that was a handicap. I am afraid that his racing days are over, but I regret that he did not wait until after your meet before retiring for the season."

Win for McEachran.

Baltimore, Md., September 22.—The six days paced bicycle race on the Coliseum track between Archie McEachran, of Canada; Burns Pierce, of Fall River, Mass.; and Henry Smith, of this city, ended tonight in a victory for McEachran by a score of 212 miles, 5 laps, 161 yards, to 212 miles, 1 lap, 146 yards, for Pierce.

(The race was evidently a one hour a day race.—Sporting Editor.)

Elkes Wins the Second Race.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 22.—Harry Elkes won the second of his series of three races with Johnny Nelson at Charles River Park to-day, breaking all records from 40 up to 50 miles. Elkes covered the 50 miles in 1.22.22 2-5.

A special general meeting is called for tomorrow night (Tuesday), at 477b St. Urbain Street, to make final arrangements for the third annual field day, and to discuss several other important matters. All up, Cedars. Come early and avoid the rush.

QUIET STOCK MARKET HERE

Attention Concentrated Upon Pacific Street Railway aud Republic.

There was not much of a market locally to-day, and apart from the trading in Pacific, Street Railway and Republic, there was little or nothing doing. Street Railway was on the easy side, and after opening at 267, was sold down to 264, the final sale of the morning being at 264¼. Pacific failed to show very much change, while Republic held steady at 74 to 76.

Things did not look very promising in Wall Street early in the day, but later on the feeling became firmer, with an appreciable improvement in St. Paul, Sugar, Brooklyn, and a few others. The news regarding the coal strike was rather favorable.

The showing made by the Montreal Street Railway the past week was as follows:

	Earnings.	Increase.
Monday	$5,378.12	$150.28
Tuesday	5,247.80	561.86
Wednesday	5,075.54	502.63

L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable quoted Grand Trunk first at 85¾, second at 57⅝, third at 21¾, Canadian Pacific at 89¼, Hudson Bay at 22, and Anaconda at £8⅝.

The Metropolitan Stock Exchange, 45 St. Francois Xavier Street, says: The market opened weak, with traders selling the entire list. Most of the demand came from the shorts. Opinion is divided as to which side Mr. Keene is on. Many believe he has not covered the line of shorts put out just before sailing for Europe, and that he is trying to depress the market before covering Sugar, B.R.T., People's Gas and T.C.I. were the principal objects of attack on the opening. The coal stocks were firmer, on report that half of the Reading mines were working. It is believed that strong measures to preserve order would collapse the strike.

At noon the market had rallied strong with St. Paul up a point.

$ $ $

In Wall Street the average price of 20 railroad stocks fell during the week from 76.40 to 74.23. Twelve industrials fell from 57.46 to 54.37. This is the most pronounced decline that has occurred since June and represents a fair amount of liquidation with some bear pressure. The strike was the most potent influence, although talk of dear money, political complications, the Chinese problem and the Galveston losses had a part in creating bearish sentiment. Bonds ewre weaker, although not much lower.

Earnings of 60 roads for the second week in September increased 4.57 per cent. The proportion of roads showing small decreases was larger.

Twin City Rapid Transit earnings for the second week of September were $62,052.70, compared with $58,903.50, an increase of $3,149.20, or 5.35 per cent. The increase for the year to date is $256,620.55, or 15.09 per cent.

WHEAT MARKET WAS WEAKER

Market in Chicago Showed Some Early Strength but Later Eased Off.

The tone of the Chicago wheat market was just about steady this morning, although it had a couple of weak spots. The cables from Liverpool were a shade higher for both wheat and corn. The world's shipments were placed at 8 millions.

October wheat in Chicago closed on Saturday at 78— and opened this morning at 78⅞. It went to 79, but eased off a little later and at 12.30 was quoted at 78⅝.

$ $ $

The price of wheat in New York last week rose from 80 3-4 to 82 3-8 on damage to wheat in threshing, and reports of low grading of new crop grain. Receipts for the week were 7,275,442 bushels, compared with 8,098,297 last year. The falling off was attributed to bad roads and to the large movement in August. Receipts for the year have been about six million bushels greater than for the same time last year.

MONTREAL MARKETS

NO MATERIAL CHANGES IN EITHER CHEESE OR GRAIN MARKETS.

Butter Is Just the Same, and the Movement in Country Produce Is About Normal.

The grain market fails to show any material change. The tone is steady. No. 1 spring wheat at 76c to 76 1-2c afloat, peas, new crop, at 68c to 68 1-2c, rye at 75 1-2c, No. 1 barley at 41 1-2c, oats at 29c to 29 1-2c.

In flour only a small jobbing trade was done, and the market on the whole is quiet at steady prices. We quote: Manitoba spring patents, $4.50; winter wheat patents, $3.75 to $4; straight rollers, $3.25 to $3.50, in bags, $1.55 to $1.60, and Manitoba strong bakers, $4 to $4.20.

The demand for rolled oats was slow today at $3.25 to $3.30 per barrel, and at $1.57 1-2 to $1.60 per bag.

A fair trade continues to be done in feed and the market is moderately active at firm prices. We quote: Manitoba bran, in bags, $16; shorts, $18; and moullie, $20 to $24; Ontario bran, in bulk, $15 to $15.50; and shorts, $16.50 to $17 per ton.

There is no change in baled hay. The demand is good, and the tone of the market firm. We quote: No. 1, $9.50 to $10; No. 2, $8.50 to $9; and clover, $7.50 to $8.25 per ton, in car lots on track.

DAIRY PRODUCE.

The cheese market goes along in about the same groove. Eleven cents was paid for 7,000 cheese at St. Hyacinthe, and prices in Ontario at the boards ranged around 11 1-8c. In some instances factory men refused that figure and even better. Finest western, 11 1-2c to 11 7-8c; finest western Argusts, 11 3-8c to 11 1-2c; finest eastern Septembers, 11 3-8c to 11 1-2c; finest eastern Augusts, 11 1-4c to 11 3-8c; finest Quebec makes, 11c to 11 1-8c.

The butter market fails to show any material change. The market is about steady. Finest creamery, 20c to 20 1-4c; seconds, 19c to 19 1-2c; dairy butter, 17 1-2c to 17 3-4c.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Eggs are in moderate demand and firm prices prevail. No. 1 candled stock, 17c to 18c; No. 2, 13c to 14c, and culls, 10c to 12c per dozen.

Business in maple product was slow at steady prices. Syrup sold at 70c to 75c per large tin, and 50c to 60c per small tin, and 6 1-2c to 7c per lb., in wood, and sugar, 9c to 10c.

There was no change in honey, the demand being still rather slow. White clover comb is quoted at 11c to 12c; white extracted in large tins, 8c to 8 1-2c; and in small tins at 9c to 9 1-2c; and buckwheat, extracted, at 6 1-2c to 7 1-2c.

In beans trade was slow and prices unchanged. We quote: Canadian hand-picked at $1.70 to $1.75, and primes at $1.60 to $1.65.

PRODUCE IN ENGLAND.

London, Sept. 22.—The cheese market here was less active this week, and prices on most instances were 1s to 2s lower than last week. A moderate business was done at 50s to 54s, while the stock of cheese on hand here is fair. Lower prices were also noted in the case of butter, for which the demand was light, at 100s to 104s. Stock of butter here is sufficient for requirements.

MONTREAL GRAIN STOCK.

The following table shows the stocks of grain in store in Montreal on the dates mentioned:

THE OTTAWA FAIR.

MESSRS. STEWART & CO.'S FURNITURE.

Ottawa, September 24.—(Special.)—Probably no exhibit in the main building attracted more attention than that of Messrs. Stewart & Co., 32 Rideau Street, who are widely known as owners of Ottawa's leading furniture store. The exhibit included a counterpart of a luxurious home, a long space in the centre of the building being nicely carpeted with pretty rugs, while at one end was a heavy quartered-oak sideboard, with bevelled mirror, also chairs and table to match. Then stretching along were sofa, parlor and bedroom sets, china cabinets, beautiful bookcases, and, in short, everything useful or beautiful in this extensive line of business. The walls were given the appearance of ancestral halls in baronial castles, by the addition of shields, swords and armory hanging on the walls. In short, Mr. Stewart, who was in charge, made a big hit by his untiring politeness and attention to a host of friends. Messrs. Stewart deserve continued success.

UWANTA REMEDIES.

The famous Uwanta remedies attracted a great deal of attention in the main building, and an elegant display was in the hands of capable attendants. This company has just been evolved in Ottawa by strong capitalists, who have secured the services of a well proven and experienced druggist. Their exhibit included nicely arranged goods, comprising the following remedies:—Uwanta Grip and Headache Capsule—For LaGrippe, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Cold in the Head, Soreness and Pains in the Limbs. Said to give relief at once.

Uwanta Special Laxative Pill—For Chronic Constipation, Biliousness, Torpid Liver, Sallow Skin, Nausea, etc. A sure and speedy cure.

Uwanta Dyspepsia Tablet—For Indigestion, Sore Throat, Fulness after meals, Heartburn, Flatulence, Over Indulgence, etc. It acts at once.

Uwanta New Blood-making Pill—For Pimples, Anaemia, Nervousness, Weakness, Locomotor Ataxy, Mental Worry, Overwork and General Debility. A powerful nerve tonic.

They also have a Uwanta Catarrh Tablet, for Influenza, Tonsilitis, Hay Fever, Cold in the Head, Sore Throat, etc., which gives immediate relief.

In ordering any of these remedies address the Company, corner of Nepean and Bank Streets, Ottawa, and specify in each case the different remedies in full.

THE GRAND UNION HOTEL.

Ottawa, September 23.—(Special.)—"The best commercial house in Ottawa," is how the Grand Union Hotel is known. This has come about by the comfort, loving habits and nature of the genial proprietor, Mr. Hugh Alexander. The hotel's popularity is explained this way. If a traveller wishes to meet a business man from Pembroke, Renfrew, Almonte, Grenville, Brockville, Buckingham, or any of the intermediary points, they can always find him at the Grand Union. As many as 98 commercial men have been at the house at once. When its comforts are embodied in home-like equipment of fine commodious flats, the well lighted, heated and ventilated rooms, the excellent cuisine and fine creamery butter and dairy produce, all combining to give it a tone. The rates are just commerical enough to keep out the riff-raff crowd and the accommodation high-class enough for anyone. The bar is in capable hands too. Mr. Alexander, the proprietor, is a lover of horses, and keeps four of the smartest riding and driving horses in the Capital. Some of his horses were prize-winners at the fair, and his neice, Miss Alexander, an accomplished horse-woman, has been highly complimented for riding and driving. The hotel deserves continued prosperity.

A FAMILY FEUD.

St. Hyacinthe, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—News reached here this morning of a murder which was perpetrated yesterday afternoon at St. Denis, Richelieu, on the arrival of the steamer Chambly. From the meagre facts elicited from a farmer just in from the neighborhood it would appear that two individuals named Bergeron and Perron, brothers-in-law, had an altercation some time ago over an alleged theft of some pork, with the result that Bergeron had Perron arrested and lodged in jail here. Since then gerat biterness has existed between the two men and it is said that yesterday, as Bergeron and family and Perron's wife were about boarding the boat for Montreal en route for the States, Perron suddenly turned up on the wharf and deliberately attempted to stab Bergeron with a knife.

In the scuffle that ensued Bergeron pulled out his revolver and shot Perron through the heart. Perron expired in a few minutes. The population of this peaceable parish, as may be imagined, is in a state of great excitement over this murder, committed too, on a Sunday. The authorities here have been notified.

A Scotch Confectioner Looking for Canadian Fruit Pulp—English and Irish Trade Openings.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—The Department of Trade and Commerce has been notified that a wholesale confectioner in Scotland asks to be placed in communication with a Canadian exporter of strawberry pulp. The request is a further evidence of the bright prospect for the growing export trade in fruit pulps, which has practically only come into existence in the last couple of years.

Other enquiries have been made as follows :—A Birmingham firm in close touch with the market invites communication with Canadian shippers of lead or iron ores; a British firm is open to purchase horsehair drafts prepared by brushmakers up to 18 inches; a Dublin firm would like to hear from Canadian houses able to fill orders for cloth boards.

Chinese Rulers Think Their Palace Desecrated

BY BARBARIAN INTRUSION.

Prince Tuan Is Again in the Ascendancy—United States Has Too Good an Opinion of Chinese.

London, September 24.—3.30 a.m.—The morning papers are too fully occupied with the general election campaign to bestow much attention upon the Chinese problem.

According to the Pekin correspondent of the Daily News, wiring September 10, the Chinese declare that the Empress Dowager and the Emepror will in no case return to the Imperial palace in Pekin as they hold that it has been desecrated by the intrusion of barbarians.

This irreciliatory attitude receives confirmation in many reports emanating from Shanghai. One of these is a reply of denunciation from Prince Tuan and others by the viceroys, an Imperial edict, dated September 17, dealing most leniently with the Boxer movement, and reminds the people that both the Boxers and Chinese Christians are Chinamen, who shall receive Imperial protection if they quietly disperse to their homes.

The edict points out that it is impossible for the Imperial Government to distinguish between good and bad Boxers. It says, however, that if the rebel Boxers still continue to assemble, they will be dealt with summarily.

Another report asserts that the edict frankly declares that no executions can be sanctioned until an adequate enquiry has been made.

TUAN IN THE ASCENDANCY.

Further indications that Prince Tuan has resumed his former ascendancy are found in the Shanghai reports of his promotion, and in the statement from the same quarter that General Tung Fuh Siang has been appointed generalissimo of the Northern Chinese armies, and Prince Chuang, deputy commander-in-chief of the Boxers, has been made a grand chancellor. It is also reported that Loh, former governor of Kiang Su Province, a Manchu, and bitterly anti-foreign, has been appointed to succeed Li Hung Chang at Canton.

According to various accounts of the Pei Tang affair, the Chinese had anticipated that the allies would attack in force. The Britishers and others who left Tien Tsin with the intention of cutting off the retreat of the Pei Tang garrison, arrived too late. They were only half way to their destination when the forts were captured.

The Tien Tsin correspondent of the Standard explains that the Russians refused to provide trains for this force, but gave the Germans and Austrians ample notice and every accommodation. Advices to the Standard from Shanghai place the losses of the allies before Pei Tang as three hundred, principally due to the explosion of mines, one of which, 200 yards long, exploded like an earthquake, killing and wounding large numbers and literally blowing two mounted officers to pieces.

The Standard publishes a belated telegram from Tien Tsin giving an illustration of the international difficulties. It appears that the British at Fent Tai guaranteed safety to the natives if the railway property were restored. Accordingly the men returned; but, a few days later the Russians arrived and killed them all just outside the British lines.

The Standard, which discusses editorially the r pl s of the United States Government, says:

"The policy thus laid down implies the existence at Washington of a very exaggerated estimate of the good will of the Chinese rulers. It is to be feared that the action of the United States will tend to weaken the moral influence of the allies and for this reason it is to be greatly regretted."

THOUSANDS FEASTED

At the Tuileries as the Guests of France.

GREATEST BANQUET KNOWN.

An Army of Domestics Required to Attend to the Needs of 20,000 Diners.

Paris, September 22.—Under a tent covering 35,000 square metres, 20,000 persons breakfasted as the guests of France in the Tuileries Gardens to-day. The banquet was given by President Loubet to the mayor of the municipalities of France in honor of the exposition. It can safely be said that such a prodigious repast was never before undertaken. Long before the hour for the feast a vast crowd began to assemble on the Place de la Concorde, but such admirable police precautions were taken, that the throng was handled without confusion.

Such an immense gastronomic entertainment necessitated a marvellous organization to insure success. An army of waiters were employed numbering nearly 3,000 men. The tables, placed end to end, covered a distance of seven kilometres, while the kitchens covered four kilometres.

The fare provided for the feast included 1,500 pheasants, 2,500 ducks, 2,500 chickens, 5,000 pounds of salmon, 6,000 pounds of beef, 66,000 rolls and other bread, 33,000 bottles of red and white wine, and 7,000 bottles of champagne.

A band stationed in the tent played patriotic airs; but the music was scarcely audible on account of the din occasioned bly the clatter of dishes, knives and forks.

Just at noon, President Loubet and the cabinet ministers arrived in carriages entered the tent and ascended to the raised platform on which was the table of honor, where the dignitaries were seated. The band then played the "Marseillaise" and the 20,000 persons present arose and with their faces turned towards the President loudly acclaimed him. It was an impressive sight, and is said to be the greatest ovation that M. Loubet ever received. When he had taken his seat, the wonderful machinery of the service was set in motion and the 21,870 domestics of various descriptions began furnishing the fine menu to almost the same number of diners. For two hours the feast continued, concluding at 3 o'clock.

MARTINEZ CAMPOS.

The Famous Spanish Soldier and Cuba's Humane Governor Died Yesterday.

Madrid, Sept. 23.—Marshal Arsenio Martinez de Campos died this morning shortly after 10 o'clock at Zarauz, near San Sebastian.

Martinez-Campos was born in 1834, his father being a soldier. He studied at the staff school at Madrid, obtained the rank of lieutenant and served with distinction under O'Donnell in the Morocco campaign. In 1864 he went to Cuba as colonel and remained on the island six years. On his return in 1870 he took part in the Carlist war. He was put on the retired list in 1873 for hostility to the short-lived republic, and was later confined in a fortress, from which he was released to take command of a division against his old enemies, the Carlists. He distinguished himself by his vigor and daring. After the calling of Alfonso to the throne, a step which he worked for, he renewed his fight with the forces of Don Carlos, with the rank of captain-general, and soon suppressed the pretender and his army. In 1877 he was sent to Cuba as commander-in-chief and kept the rebels in check for seven years, and also granted many liberties to the people of the island. On his return to Spain he was made Minister of War and President of the Council. These positions he resigned because the Corte would not approve of his Cuban policy. He was again in the Cabinet in 1881, but retired in 1883 because he could not obtain from France a sufficient apology for the insult to King Alfonso by the Spanish Government. He was sent out to Cuba again as captain-general after Weyler's failure to suppress the last rebellion, but came too late to repeat his former experience. He commanded at Havana during the war with the United States, and when it was over returned home.

NOVA SCOTIA STORM-SWEPT.

Halifax, September 24.—The worst thunder and lightning storm in years passed over the eastern section of this province on Saturday night. No damage is reported in this city.

The Anglican church at New Ross, Lunenburg County, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Several barns were struck and burned in the same county. A small house in the suburbs of this city was struck by lightning and set on fire and burned. Warner's coal warehouse at Dartmouth was also struck by lightning and shattered.

THE BELL ORGAN & PIANO CO.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—(Special to the Herald.)—One of the finest exhibits at the Ottawa Fair was that of the widely-known Bell Organ & Piano Co., of Guelph, Ont. The display consisted of a group of the company's organs and pianos, tastefully finished in the finest woods, and the round, velvety quality of the sixteen orchestral tones was well shown by talented players. Large, well-pleased audiences gathered about the Bell stand every day. The interests of the firm were well looked after by Mr. John Smith from the head office, and his sterling Scotch merit had much to do with the popularity of the display. Then, too, as an illustration of the excellent management, it may be mentioned that every instrument on exhibition was sold to the retail trade in Ottawa. This speaks well for the efforts put forth by Mr. Smith, who is one of the most capable men in the piano business. He is wide awake and genial, and deserves credit for his marked "hit" in Ottawa.

TO QUIET AFRICA

Salisbury Asks for a Strong Majority.

ALL ADMIT ARMY DEFECTS.

Lord Rosebery Criticizes Conduct of the War—Mr. Morley Confesses Annexation Is Irrevocable.

London, Sept. 24.—Lord Salisbury's manifesto to the electors of the United Kingdom, in anticipation of the parliamentary general elections, emphasizes the necessity that the Queen's Government should be supported by a strong parliamentary majority as "the only means of convincing the inhabitants of the conquered South African territories that there is no hope of diverting the Government from their policy by persistent resistance or agitation."

After remarking that "all the recent troubles in South Africa have been due to a shift of parliamentary opinion at a critical moment," the Prime Minister goes on to say: "It will depend upon the disposition and conduct of the Boers how long an interval is to elapse before their full position as a British colony is attained. The brilliant success of Lord Roberts's army must not blind us to the imperfectness disclosed in our own defensive armor, imperfectness which, but for the war, might have remained unnoticed. It will be the urgent duty of Parliament and the Government to remove these defects, a duty which certainly could not be discharged by a ministry depending upon a broken party."

In conclusion, Lord Salisbury refers to China as a difficulty among others confronting the Government, and requiring that the Government should be armed with a strong majority in the House of Commons. He urged, that, in view of all these considerations, there would be no abstentation at the polls.

LORD ROSEBERY SPEAKS.

The Earl of Rosebery, issuing a manifesto in the form of a letter to a Liberal candidate, says: "In the present situation of the world, I would vote for almost any strong administration; but the present Government are strong only in votes. In other respects, they are the weakest Government I can recollect."

After enumerating the Government's "failures at home and abroad," Lord Rosebery criticizes the conduct of the South African war, declaring that it has "exposed England to humiliations unparalleled in our history since the American war."

Mr. George Goschen, first lord of the Admiralty and member for St. George, Hanover Square, London, announces that he will not seek re-election to Parliament.

JOHN MORLEY'S MANIFESTO.

Mr. John Morley, Liberal member for the Montrose boroughs, in his manifesto, declares that his opinion has not changed, that everything might have been attained in South Africa without war. "In a single year," he says, "the work of a generation in uniting the Dutch and English in South Africa has been undone, and not even in Ireland has the difficult race problem been more miserably mishandled."

Mr. Morley admits, however, that it is impossible to revoke the proclamations of annexation.

THE NEWFIELD ASHORE.

One of the Government Steamers Likely to Be a Total Loss in Bay of Fundy.

Digby, N.S., September 24.—The Dominion Government steamer Newfield went ashore at 1 p.m. yesterday at White Cove, three miles west of Sandy Cove, in the Bay of Fundy, and will probably prove a total loss. The tug Marina carried a despatch to the Government steamer Lansdowne at 6 o'clock to-night to come to her assistance. The Lansdowne left here as soon as she could get steam. A telephone message from Point Prim fog alarm, says that it is thick fog in the bay, but no wind. It is doubtful at present if the Lansdowne will be able to get a line to her. The crew are safe.

The Newfield was built at Sunderland, G.B., in 1871, and is 500 tons net tonnage.

A later despatch from Little River, near the wreck, says the captain is sick. Mr. Hutchins, inspector of lighthouses, is doing all he can to save the ship.

WILL OPERATE MINES

With the Protection of United States Soldiers.

RAILROAD MEN MAY STRIKE.

The Delaware & Lackawanna Switch-Men Are Sending a Committee to New York.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—To-morrow will open the second week of the anthracite coal miners' strike and developments having an important bearing on the outcome of the struggle are looked for. An effort will be made in the morning to start work in collieries located in Schuylkill county, with the protection of three regiments of the state national guard, in all numbering about 2,000 men. Some of these mines were voluntarily closed Saturday by the operators at the request of the sheriff, with the object of checking disorder in and about Shenandoah, where the riot occurred Friday, which resulted in the killing of one of the rioters by the sheriff's posse.

The operators and mine owners claim that a sufficient number of hands to run many of the colleries are desirous of returning to work if they can be protected from assaults from the disorderly element. The sheriff found himself unable to control this element and hence his request for troops was complied with by the governor.

No estimate of the number of mine workers likely to return to work in the morning has been made by either side, but General Gobin, in charge of the militiamen, to-night issued detailed orders, which will distribute the troops along the roads leading to the collieries and about the mines in a manner which, will, no doubt, insure the safety of all who may desire to work.

RAILROAD MEN MAY GO OUT.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 23.—It now begins to look as if the strike would extend to the railroaders, at least in this region. The switchmen had another conference to-day with their national officers, Grand Master Frank T. Hawley and Grand Secretary John E. Tipton, of Buffalo, to discuss the request of the striking miners that they refuse to handle non-union coal. Nothing could be learned of what was done further than that the national officers and a committee of the local switchmen would go to New York to-morrow, and on their return something definite would be done.

The purpose of their visit could not be learned, but it is supposed it is to petition President Truesdell, of the Delaware, Lackawana & Western, to spare them the task of handling the non-union washery culm and save them from the alternative of striking or refusing the miner's request.

The tie-up remains practically the same as when the strike went into effect a week ago. All the mines are idle and the ten washeries continue to operate. The mine workers now claim to have 70,000 of the 75,000 men of the district No. 1, enrolled in their organization.

FIGHTING UNDER COMPULSION.

London, Sept. 24.—Kelly-Kenny reports that the Boer concentration at Doornberk is broken. There is now no organized opposition in the southern part of the Orange River Colony.

The War Office has also received the following despatch from Lord Roberts, dated Nelspruit, September 20:

"Released British prisoners report that Delarey has imprisoned hundreds of Boers who refused to break their oaths of allegiance and fight again. Of those in the field the greater part are fighting under compulsion. Boer women clamored for the shooting of the British prisoners."

AN HONOR FOR PARIS.

Paris, Sept. 24.—General Andro, Minister of War, has reported to President Loubet in favor of authorizing Paris and Bazeilles to place the cross of the Legion of Honor in their municipal's arms, in recognition of their splendid defence in 1870 against the Germans. Several other French towns enjoy this privilege on account of courageous resistance and the decision of General Andro is certain to be very popular with Parisians and the army.

THE WINTER PORT

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Letter to Mayor of St. John.

ST. JOHN COUNCIL EAGER.

To Interview the Minister of Railways, but He Thinks it Undesirable to Discuss the Question.

The correspondence published by the municipal authorities of St. John, while it throws no fresh light upon the latest phase of the dispute between the Intercolonial authorities and the Canadian Pacific Railway authorities with regard to the winter freight arrangements at the New Brunswick port, is of importance as showing the details of what had transpired between the time of President Shaughnessy's last interview with the Municipal Council of St. John and his letter to the Minister offering to hand over the C.P.R. freight at Jacques Cartier Junction. The report presented to the St. John City Council by the special committee of that body appointed to consider the matter, speaks of the revenue which accrued to that port from the extensive business which had been done by the C.P.R. during the past five winters, and submits letters that had passed on the subject between Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Mayor subsequent to the visit of President Shaughnessy to St. John in June last.

The Mayor of St. John, in his letter to Sir Wilfrid, points out that the chief alarm on the part of Mr. Shaughnessy is that he thinks the Government should assist him to develop business at the port of St. John—a Canadian port—rather than throw difficulties in the way.

"The attitude of our citizens is at present one of incredulous amazement that at this stage there should arise any doubt of the continuous prosecution of this business for which they have made such immense financial sacrifice—about $750,000—and which they consider vital to their future welfare. The withdrawal of this business would be viewed in the light of a calamity and stir up an angry and regrettable agitation. Since this business was first started here there has been a large and constant growth, every winter being marked by a very great increase in the tonnage exported, so that last winter nearly 200,000 tons were hauled outwards, as against 45,000 tons four seasons previously, and everything points to a gradual but immense development.

"I have seen it stated that this matter is still the subject of negotiations between the Government and the C.P.R., but Mr. Shaughnessy intimates that he knows of no negotiations at present, and so the matter may be allowed to drift into an impasse.

"I take the liberty as Mayor of calling your attention to our position in the hope that the Government of which you are the distinguished leader, will in the settlement of this matter as between the I.C.R. and C.P.R., not forget the great and important interests of this city and the immense stake we have in the steady prosecution of this really national undertaking.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's letter shows very clearly that the matter at the time the letter of Mayor Daniels was received was engaging the serious attention of the Government. Here is the full text of the Premier's reply:

"Arthabaskaville, July 30, 1900.

"Dear Sir,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 25th inst. I have also received the report of the interview of Mr. Shaughnessy with yourself, a certain number of the aldermen and the president of the Board of Trade of St. John. The matter therein referred to is now engaging the attention of the Government. The question is that the Canadian Pacific Railway objects to the present condition of things and would require different arrangements from those which now exist in order to continue their present system of winter port at St. John. Without at all prejudicing the case in any way, I can only say at this moment that it is engaging our most serious attention.

"Yours, very sincerely,
"WILFRID LAURIER."

When Mr. Blair returned from England he declined to discuss the question with the Mayor of St. John, stating that he did not think an interview was necessary or advisable. The committee of the St. John Council telegraphed to Mr. Blair asking for an interview, which was again refused, the Minister stating when he passed through the city on the 20th inst. that he did not think an interview was necessary or advisable. The committee add in conclusion that they do not for a moment say or express themselves as believing that the Minister of Railways was wrong in his opinion that an interview was useless, but they feel that the publication of Mr. Shaughnessy's offer to turn over the C.P.R. winter business to the I.C.R. at Montreal and Hon. Mr. Blair's reply thereto place this matter in a new light, and your committee would have been glad of an opportunity to present their views on this aspect of the question to Hon. Mr. Blair, not only as Minister of Railways, but as the representative of the Cabinet of the Province of New Brunswick. The fact that the Minister states the I.C.R. could not possibly carry the winter freight for export, even if it was handed over to it at Montreal, makes it absolutely plain that if we are to have a continuation here this winter of the immense winter export business to which we have been accustomed it can only be done by the C.P.R. at the west side of the harbor. The committee accordingly submitted a resolution to be forwarded to the Government.
