WIDE SUPPORT IS GIVEN TO WAR WORK COMMITTEE

POLICE RESERVES CALLED UP TO DISPLAY SPEED OF ASSEMBLY IN EMERGENCY

Experimental "Policing" of City Carried Out Friday Evening — Reserve Units Dispatched to Pre-Arranged Points of Vulnerability — Legion of Frontiersmen Took Prominent Part in Proceedings

An experimental calling up of Westmount's entire police reserve in order to determine its effectiveness and the speed in which it could be assembled in an emergency, was held on Friday evening when large numbers of men, including the full day staff of the force, members of the Legion of Frontiersmen and other volunteers, swarmed to the station following a call to duty.

Following assemblage at the station units were dispatched to points of vulnerability such as the power station and public buildings. Certain units were manoeuvred to several different points during the evening.

The entire reserve force was under the command of Chief of Police and Fire Departments Walter Gough, instructions being delivered by means of police radio facilities.

LOYALTY, FAITH HELD NEED IN WAR STRUGGLE

Rev. Dr. F. W. Kerr Scores Defeatists in Church Sermon Here Sunday

Rev. Dr. F. W. Kerr of St. Andrew's Church scored persons who adopted a defeatist attitude in regard to the war and asserted that courage, loyalty and faith are the indispensable elements in Britain's progress toward victory, in his sermon on Sunday.

Victory has come to countries pitted against far more powerful adversaries because they had gained courage through faith, both in themselves, and the fact that they were fighting for a just cause. Any man or nation assuming a defeatist attitude is already beaten, the minister declared.

The "armchair patriot" who gloried in criticizing past actions of the Allied governments was strongly condemned by Dr. Kerr. This sort of person knows exactly the mistakes of the King Government and of Mr. Chamberlain during the past two years but his face falls when confronted with a single practical proposal involving some measure of sacrifice or valor, he said.

"His voice takes on a note of grievance," he continued, "as he declares that one has no idea of what demands are made on businessmen today — that we could not have asked at a more inopportune time — and perhaps later on he may be able to do something."

The speaker referred to the indomitable spirit of the Empire's armies. "During the past week," he said, "there were disappointments and setbacks and an atmosphere almost of despair. Then over the radio, sweeter than the songs of the angels of Heaven, came the shouting, cheers and songs of the Anzac boys arriving in England, and a few days later the irrepressible laughter and songs of our Canadian boys and nurses, arriving to help the Motherland. We realized that such spirit and morale constituted one of our finest military assets."

Dr. Kerr emphasized the need (Continued on Page 5)

Lieut.-Col. R. J. Osmond Inspects Frontiersmen

Lieut.-Col. R. J. Osmond, M.C., Provincial commandant, inspected the Westmount B 11 Squadron of the Legion of Frontiersmen, Eastern Canada Command, in St. Matthias Church Hall Tuesday evening.

The event, first annual inspection of the unit, was scheduled to take place on King George Park but due to rain it was held in the Squadron's regular meeting place.

Formed in Westmount some time ago, the squadron is under the leadership of Captain McGuire, while Major Campbell is chief of staff. Maj. H. W. Briscoe, district commandant, also officiated at the inspection. The unit meets every Monday evening in St. Matthias Church Hall, and is presently open for recruits. Those interested in joining are invited to apply for enrolment. Recruits must be 35 years of age or over. The squadron is currently co-operating extensively in home service work assisting the R.C.M.P. in the internment of aliens. It is also co-operating with the Westmount Police in the carrying out of emergency measures.

HOMELESS HOLLANDERS FIND HAVEN IN ENGLAND

Shocked children, whimpering from fear and hunger, wives whose husbands are battling the Nazi invader back where their homes once were and a bride and bridegroom who were greeted with bombs instead of confetti were among the first shipload of Dutch fugitives from the blitzkrieg to reach safety in England. This weary group found rest and a cheering cup on their arrival in London.

YOUTH INJURED WHEN BICYCLE, AUTO COLLIDE

Lucien Gosselin, Messenger, Taken to Western Division of Montreal General

Lucien Gosselin, 18, of 6051 Beaubien, street, a messenger employed by Sam Goldstein, 5114 Sherbrooke street, suffered abrasions to the left side of the face and bruises when his push bicycle collided into the rear of a car driven by Dr. R. Walter Scriven, 510 Roslyn avenue, directed opposite the driveway of the latter's home at 5 p.m. on Saturday.

The messenger told police that he became confused when he noticed the car driven by Dr. Scriven slow up to enter the driveway and could not stop his bicycle in time to avoid crashing into the rear of it. Dr. Scriven stated that while he had intended turning into the driveway he straightened out his car when he heard the bell on Gosselin's bicycle. Both vehicles were proceeding south on Roslyn.

The messenger was taken to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital where he was treated by Dr. Brooke and allowed to return home. The bicycle was badly damaged.

CARS DAMAGED IN COLLISION

Slight damage was caused both vehicles when an automobile driven by Ronald Blackburn, 481 LaGauchetiere street, and a car operated by Frederick Irvine, of 4609 Melrose avenue, collided at the intersection of Western and Victoria avenues last week.

Blackburn, who was proceeding east on Western, told police he did not know if the traffic light was green or red when he passed the intersection. The driver of the other car, who was going from south to north on Victoria, stated the light was in his favor at the time.

The left front fender, wheels and steering apparatus on Blackburn's machine were damaged as were the fender and bumper on the other car.

No one was injured.

CARS COLLIDE

When the driver of one of the vehicles failed to notice traffic lights at the intersection of Sherbrooke street and Clark avenue, a car driven by Mrs. Janet Johnson, of 327 King Street, west, Brockville, Ont., and one operated by Ernest Durrance, 4709 De-carie boulevard, were slightly damaged.

Library Accepts Magazines For Soldiers

Persons wishing to donate magazines for soldiers may leave them at the Westmount Public Library where they will be collected by the Central Book and Magazine Depot in the Sun Life Building, Miss Kathleen Jenkins, Librarian, announced yesterday.

Many people have found the library the most convenient place to bring periodicals for the troops and a large number have been left there.

SCHOOL PUPILS GRADES 11, 12 FINISH TESTS

Senior Students Complete Matriculation Papers Here Yesterday

Students in grades eleven and twelve at Westmount High School completed their junior and senior matriculation papers, respectively, yesterday and all Westmount Protestant public schools are now closed for the summer, S. F. Kneeland, secretary-superintendent of schools, announced yesterday.

Pupils in the high schools not writing matriculation papers completed their examinations on June 21 and elementary school pupils not taking final exams were finished for the term on June 14. In the latter schools the majority of the students are passed on their year's marks and few are required to take end-of-year tests.

Mr. Kneeland stated that preparations are now being made for adoption of the 6-3-3 plan next year and that teachers have been busy transferring books and other belongings from Argyle School to Westmount High as when the plan is put into effect the present high building will become the intermediate school and vice-versa.

SEASON ENDED BY AUXILIARY; OPENS SEPT. 4

Monthly Meetings of Field Ambulance Group Held in Melville Church

Termination for the summer of the regular monthly meetings of the Women's Auxiliary of No. 9 Field Ambulance which holds sessions in Melville Presbyterian Church, is announced. They will be resumed on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 4.

With the Ladies' Aid Society of Melville Church as the special guests the executive committee recently entertained members of the auxiliary at an evening party. The organization has presented the unit with numerous gifts.

A large quantity of wool for summer knitting was furnished members at the final meeting in June. Should any emergency arise among members during July and August they are advised to communicate with the visiting convener, Mrs. E. T. Burke, or the knitting convener, Mrs. Eric Parker.

These monthly meetings have brought together wives, mothers and friends of men of the unit so that they might exchange news received in letters and see snapshots taken of the men in England. They also provided an opportunity for those members who might have family or financial troubles to submit them to the executive committee for advice and assistance when necessary. Wool is given out each month so that the shipment of knitted comforts overseas may continue.

OVER 800 JOIN MOVEMENT PRIOR TO RECRUITING; MRS. H. MILLS COMMANDER

Bishop of Montreal, Rev. Dr. F. W. Kerr, Westmount Women's Club Back Movement—Special Meeting Held in Victoria Hall Yesterday — Registration Officially Opens Today at Y.M.C.A.

Westmount Women's Club gave its unanimous support to the War Work Committee of the club in signifying its intention of sponsoring the proposed Women's Volunteer Reserve Corps (Canadian Beavers), at a special meeting of the club held in Victoria Hall, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Harold Mills, president of the club, was named Commander No. 1 of the Corps. Other officers named were Miss S. Elliott, Commander No. 2 and Mrs. W. F. Worfolk, secretary.

Letters were sent to various clerics throughout the city, outlining the work to be undertaken by the W.V.R.C., and asking the support of the churches. This was widely received.

While waiting for the City of Westmount to give consent to the using of Victoria Hall, registration of all women interested in the movement is taking place in the Westmount Y.

While, officially, registration starts to-day, more than 800 women have become members since Monday. Large stores and large offices have informed the W.V.R.C. headquarters that they are forming platoons, all of which will be operated under the Westmount Women's Club project.

Women from all parts of Canada have written to Mrs. Mills signifying their intention of becoming members. Many cities throughout the Dominion have also taken up the entire project and are forming divisions. It is hoped by members of the War Work Committee, that these groups, now being formed, will eventually come under the jurisdiction of the Westmount Group.

"Unity in Purpose for God, King and Country," is the motto of the Corps. A beaver on a maple leaf has been adopted as the official crest.

Uniforms will be worn by members, when the Corps has been fully organized. They will consist of an airforce blue coat, skirt and cap, with navy blue buttons and belt. Each member will defray the cost of their own outfit.

Drill practice under the direction of ex-servicemen and graduates of the McGill University Physical Training School, is scheduled to commence immediately. Registration is taking place from half-past nine each morning until nine o'clock in the evening. Women desiring to join the Corps are requested to contact any member of the Committee.

The following letters were received by Mrs. Mills in response to the appeal that was issued: Rt. Rev. Arthur Carlisle, D.D., Bishop of Montreal. Mrs. Harold Mills, 504 Roslyn avenue, Westmount, Que. Dear Mrs. Mills:

I was greatly interested in your letter describing the proposed organization of a Women's Volunteer Reserve Corps under the direction of the Westmount Women's Club War Work Committee. I feel sure that the days that lie ahead are going to make tremendous demands upon us all. The victory which we hope and pray for will come only when all of us are making the very maximum contribution in physical and spiritual effort. The women of Canada have already shown their willingness to do their part and there are, I know, many thousands of them who are only waiting to be told what their part is. Your War Work Committee is doing a fine thing in organizing a Volunteer Reserve Corps. The training and discipline will be good for all who join it and the

Principal C. W. Brunt Appointed To New Post

C. W. Brunt, principal of Argyle Junior High School since its opening six years ago, has been appointed assistant to the superintendent of Protestant schools, S. F. Kneeland, it was announced this week.

M. Brunt's former post will be filled by C. H. Savage, principal of Laurentide School, Grandmere, at the opening of the next term when the intermediate school will occupy the present High School building.

NEW OFFICE, STORAGE ROOM ARE COMPLETED

Superintendent's Quarters At Victoria Hall Now on Second Floor of Building

The new superintendent's office, storage room and workshop housed in the wing recently added to the south-west corner of Victoria Hall, were completed at the end of last week.

The superintendent's quarters, previously located on the ground floor of the building by the west side entrance, is now on the second floor and J. C. Dutton will henceforth conduct his duties there.

The new office is far larger than the one previously used and provides ample space for filing cabinets, desks, etc. Entrance to the office is from an attractively furnished reception room equipped with a lounge, chairs, and two public telephones.

The storage room and workshop will be used to store chairs and scenery when not in use and for the repair of stage settings and general equipment.

Addition of the wing also provides an extra entrance to the building's main auditorium and audiences in the future will have the choice of leaving the hall by either the rear or front. This is expected to materially facilitate in the clearing of the hall at the conclusion of performances.

Practically all lodges and other organizations which use the hall as their meeting place, have suspended activities for the summer and bookings therefore have fallen off considerably. However June weddings keep the staff busy, with as many as six taking place in a single day.

Only meeting there today is a convention of Plymouth Brethren.

Closing Meeting Held By Hashomayim Group

The closing meeting for the year of the Junior League B'Nai Brith, Chapter No. 21 was held at the Shaar Hashomayim Synagogue, when the group resolved that it would resume its activities in early October in Red Cross work and to be of use to the Community.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1940

AMEND THE B.N.A. ACT.

News from Ottawa to the effect that all of the provinces have promised to enact enabling legislation to permit the Federal authority to amend the British North America Act so that a system of contributory unemployment insurance can be put into effect will be welcomed by all forward-looking citizens. The conditions which presently obtain in industry and commerce make job insurance an essential of public welfare, and in this respect Canada has lagged somewhat behind Britain, New Zealand, and the Scandinavian countries. Mr. Bennett endeavoured to put such a system into effect, but he started at the wrong end, endeavouring to impose it upon the provinces regardless of the B.N.A. Act. We are to have it now, after the formalities of amending our out-dated constitution are complied with. Now that the ice is to be broken, why not go much further in streamlining our government? Why, for example, is it necessary to have nine provincial governments with all the consequent overlapping of services? Why should a small community like Prince Edward Island, with hardly more people than the City of Ottawa, have a Provincial Government composed of thirty members? Why cannot all the maritime provinces be combined, and all the prairie provinces for purposes of government? Why cannot the central authority be strengthened in order that in times of duress like the present it can act with a speed in line with other Twentieth Century developments? These questions and many others are being asked by the man in the street every day. Some day we've got to get out of the horse and buggy era, as far as our constitution and our processes of government are concerned. Why not now? Let's rid democracy of the shackles that are binding her.

STREAMLINING SPEED LAWS

The Provincial government has at last taken a realistic view of its speed laws. For many years motorists have been travelling over the highways of the province at fifty and sixty miles per hour regardless of the fact that the law (made in the days of the Model T Ford) prohibited speeds in excess of thirty. Early this week, however, the legislators changed the law, bringing it in line with modern automobiles and modern highways. Now, motorists can largely use their own judgment. On wide highways, where there is ample vision ahead and no houses flanking the roadway, there is no speed limit. Reasonable care in driving, especially on hills and in passing other cars, is all that is required. Where the roadway winds, however, as in mountain country, the speed will be graded down to twenty miles per hour. The new laws are much more practical than the old and will meet with the general approval of motorists.

WHY THE PRICE TAG?

A news item records that $37,600,000 worth of surplus war material, munitions, and ordnance has been sold by the United States War Department to a steel company which in turn is delivering it at that price to the British.

This is heartening and gratifying in the sense that it indicates that American aid through the furnishings of supplies to Britain is actually getting under way. The more quickly other such deliveries of guns, airplanes and other equipment can be made, the better.

Yet since Americans clearly believe their own interests and safety to depend on the success of British resistance to aggression, why do they haggle over payment and put a price on the assistance they are willing to give? Why charge the soldiers of Britain for means of protecting a freedom and decency that is America's as well as theirs?

If the United States by an expenditure even of billions of dollars, can help establish a world order based on justice instead of force, and can be spared the sacrifice of its sons, the victory will be cheaply purchased. In a common cause, should not America from now on be glad to give arms to the Allies in addition to those they can purchase?

EXPERT ADVICE

The experts who assured us that Hitler was bluffing when he threatened Czecho-Slovakia in September, 1938, were substantially the ones who said a few months back that it was a "phony war." Now they're quite convinced that an ocean will stop an aggressor, possibly because they know for a fact that Mr. Fulton's invention never will replace the sailing vessel.

HI-Y CONFERENCE

Tuesday marked the return of Allan Soper and Keith Farquharson to this city from their motor trip to Cleveland, Ohio, as representatives of the third Westmount HI-Y International Conference. Near Cleveland they participated in the busy six-day programme after leaving here with five other Montrealers by auto, rail and motor coach.

The exact scene of the colourful convention was at famous Oberlin College twenty miles from Cleveland, which the Canadian delegates visited on sightseeing trips along with more than 1700 youths from every state in the union. From points as far south and west as San Bernardino, Oakland, Savannah, Mobile, Memphis and Dallas, the HI-Y members arrived banners waving, welcoming committees cheering wildly.

In the beautifully-pannelled chapel at the historic college, the daily meetings were held. Here in the great hall, draped from ceiling to floor with the bright flags of many nations, more than 1680 youthful representatives sat down to listen to addresses from men whose period of service to the world-wide society has covered every phase of activity in every past convention since the memorable inception days of some fifteen years ago. The speeches were concerned, principally, with the HI-Y in action, and they reviewed the accomplishments of the working season ending June 1940. The various reports showed the organization's work in America to have included the sending to eight European capitals of Canadian and American members on good-will missions and the donation to charity and the more important humanitarian causes symbolized by the Red Cross, of more than $30,000. Equipping young people for the future while they were still in high school was pointed out in one of the reports as having been the most genuinely successful of all undertakings. The finding of permanent occupation-in-training and part-time employment was also reviewed as having contributed greatly to the Youth Aid section of their campaign in Public Welfare.

"Democracy" was taken as the

The Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest

The Westmount Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest is run with the kind co-operation of Mr. Godel, manager of the Westmount Theatre. Each week twelve passes are given to the six lucky winners who comply with the following requirements:

Simply find the two "ads." in the current issue of The Westmount Examiner in which the names of the two feature pictures being shown at the Westmount Theatre during the first half of the coming week are hidden.

Submit all answers to The Contest Editor, The Westmount Examiner, 2191 Hampton Avenue, using the special coupon provided in each issue for the purpose.

Contestants must be over 16 years of age. Residents of Westmount, only, are eligible. All answers must be in the office not later than Wednesday, and the names of the winners will be published in Thursday's issue.

A convenient coupon will be found elsewhere in the paper. The winners are drawn from among those who submit the correct answers as, unfortunately, it would be impossible to give passes to every one submitting the right answers.

The winners of last week's contest are as follows and their passes will be received in Monday's mail: Mrs. G. Smith, 4706 Westmount Ave.; Miss Lorraine E. Sweet, 4126 St. Catherine W.; Pte. N. C. Churchill, 230 Wood Ave., Apt. 1; Mrs. E. Costigan, 4781 Sherbrooke W.; Miss Marjorie Roe, 60 Thornhill Ave.; Mrs. L. Moran, 405 Metcalfe Ave.

With this issue the Examiner publishes the Hidden Titles Contest for the last time this season. In the Fall, when vacation days are over, the Contest will be resumed as usual.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Conscientious objectors in Great Britain, there being conscription, have to appear before Tribunals which are non-military. These Tribunals may give one of four verdicts—absolute exemption, conditional exemption, non-combatant service; or the conscientious objector may be placed unconditionally on the military register if the Tribunal is not satisfied that they have made good their claim. The results up to December 23 were, out of 4,781 who appeared; 692 were given total exemption; conditional, 2,151; registered for non-combatant service, 1,107 and 831 were adjudged not to have made out their claim.

Uncle Sam is thinking. Careless, goodnatured fellow, he dislikes serious thought, but this depression has jarred him and he is doing some heavy thinking.

Who has all the money? Why does it not circulate? What has happened to all the billions spent for public works and relief? The newspapers report banks overflowing with "money" yet business does not recover and eleven million men still seek jobs.

This "Federal Reserve" system puzzles me. Owned by private bankers the system now issues 97 per cent of America's money—the bank notes, cheques, drafts, and other commercial paper. The members of the system have seven billions capital, yet they own more than 18 billions of U.S. bonds—believe it or not. From an original investment of 134 millions, its wealth has increased to untold billions.

Uncle Sam is wondering why the money of the nation has to be "borrowed into circulation" from a private banking group for their profit. What of Article 1, Section 8, of the Constitution—"Congress shall have power to coin money and regulate the value thereof."

There are 16 million Jews in the world out of a total world population of 2 billions, or less than 1 per cent. In the U.S.A., the Jews number about four and a half million Jews or a little over 3 per cent of the total population of 130 millions.

About one out of six of the New York Stock Exchange members are Jews. Less than 6 per cent of the directors of U.S.A. corporations are Jews, which means that only one out of twenty persons who are directors of American corporations are Jews.

On being told that we were unable to obtain premises in Victoria Hall, the Westmount Y.M.C.A. very generously and patriotically offered us the use of a large room in their building.

Registration will commence at the Westmount "Y" on Thursday next—hours 3.00 p.m. until 9.00 p.m. We have a staff of nearly one hundred voluntary workers.

I should like to feel that the Mayor and Council of Westmount, a city in which we take such pride, is behind us in our worthy and patriotic venture, and we most respectfully ask you give us a letter, at least approving our work.

We are not doing anything that any other society east of Vancouver is doing; we are blazing a trail, and in so doing every member of the Women's Volunteer Reserve Corp is more than anxious to co-operate with and encourage women of other clubs who feel they would like to undertake similar work.

We are expecting a letter from Colonel Ralston, K.C., Minister of Defence and we have reason to believe that we will

On Sunday morning Rev. J. A. Johnston will have as his theme: "Sable Clouds that Have Silver Lining" in the Word of God we shall find Glimpses Murky Gloom. The evening service the sermon theme will be: "The Mark of the Beast." The sinister nature of the totalitarianism that has increased in the world is becoming increasingly evident. This whole system bears strong resemblance to that which is anticipated in the New Testament. This similarity is seen in the Form of Beast Worship, the Marks on Forehead and Hand that are worn by the Beast Worshipers, the Penalties imposed in those who refuse to be Beast Worshipers. The story reaches a fitting climax in the Doom of the Beast.

A general invitation is extended to all earnest men and women to join intercessory prayer each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Over 800 Join . . .

(Continued from Page 1) service that they can render is sure to be very valuable to our cause. I have much pleasure in expressing my warm approval of this proposed movement, and I shall be most happy to do anything that I can to help it forward.

With best wishes for success I remain, Your very sincerely ARTHUR MONTREAL, St. Andrew's Church, Westmount.

Mrs. Harold Mills, 504 Roslyn Avenue, Westmount. My dear Mrs. Mills:

I have your letter of the 17th instant and most heartily approve of the plan for organizing the women of the Empire and the preservation of our Christian faith and ideals. I feel very strongly that our Canadian people are not yet properly awakened up to the seriousness of our situation. We do not realize that every man, woman and child, must be prepared to suffer and to sacrifice in order that our freedom may be preserved. I appreciate very much the energetic leadership you are giving in this respect.

If you have a few minutes to spare, I should like very much to have the opportunity of talking further on this matter. In the meantime, if there is anything further I can do, I shall be most happy to cooperate.

With very kind regards, Yours sincerely F. W. KERR.

The following is a copy of a letter sent to the mayor. His Worship W. A. Merrill, K.C., Mayor of Westmount, City Hall, Westmount, P. Que.

Dear Mr. Merrill: Further to our letter of June 10th last, addressed to Your Worship, and subsequent telephonic conversations with Mr. Jarman on the subject of our organizing a Women's Volunteer Reserve Corps, with Headquarters in the City of Westmount, perhaps the following facts will help to elucidate matters:

(a) Petitions and letters from hundreds of patriotic women who are keen to serve the Empire in some more practical form than just knitting (which even an invalid can do) made us decide to organize a Women's Reserve Corps on similar lines to that now functioning in England, and of which the Queen Mother is Hon. Commandant.

(b) Our work will be purely voluntary; no salaries will be paid, nor will any charges be made to our members;

(c) We expect to start off with nearly a thousand members, who will be divided into platoons of 39, each platoon to have one officer and a non-commissioned officer (no military titles to be used unless the corps is taken over by the Ministry of Defence);

(d) One platoon will comprise women who volunteer for work, such as cooking, canteen domestic science or domestic work, washing, mending, etc. Another will be formed of Nurses and First Aid, another educational, office workers, entertainment, ambulance drivers, salvage committees, etc., etc. Refugee and Evacuee work will also have a great deal of our attention—supplying necessary workers, homes for children—co-operating not overlapping other similar committees' work.

(e) We have the backing and approval of such eminent men as His Lordship Bishop Carlisle, and the Rev. Dr. F. W. Kerr, both of whom gave us their approbation in writing, and which we should be glad to place before you for your perusal.

(f) A very large majority of our applicants are ladies of high social standing in the City of Westmount, and a great many are graduates of McGill and other colleges.

(g) On being told that we were unable to obtain premises in Victoria Hall, the Westmount Y.M.C.A. very generously and patriotically offered us the use of a large room in their building.

(h) Registration will commence at the Westmount "Y" on Thursday next—hours 3.00 p.m. until 9.00 p.m. We have a staff of nearly one hundred voluntary workers.

(i) We should like to feel that the Mayor and Council of Westmount, a city in which we take such pride, is behind us in our worthy and patriotic venture, and we most respectfully ask you give us a letter, at least approving our work.

(j) We are not doing anything that any other society east of Vancouver is doing; we are blazing a trail, and in so doing every member of the Women's Volunteer Reserve Corp is more than anxious to co-operate with and encourage women of other clubs who feel they would like to undertake similar work.

(k) We are expecting a letter from Colonel Ralston, K.C., Minister of Defence and we have reason to believe that we will

CALVARY CHURCH NOTES

The guest preacher at both services in Calvary Church next Sunday will be the Rev. Errol C. Amaron, Principal of Stanstead Wesleyan College. Principal Amaron is well known to Montreal congregations and a hearty welcome awaits his coming on that day.

The Sunday School will meet in the regular service for the worship period at 11 a.m. and then proceed to the Sunday School hall for the lesson period. Parents are invited to bring their children to the Church and then let them attend the school where lessons suitable for the children will be taught.

On Tuesday at 10.30 a.m. the Red Cross Society will meet and work through to 5 p.m. The urgency of the situation demands that every woman who can possibly attend do so, or take work home.

The evening branch will meet on Thursday at 7.30 p.m. and all the ladies who cannot attend the meeting during the day are urged to help with this branch of the Red Cross work.

The Rev. Donald Morrison of Avonmore, Ont., will occupy the pulpit of Calvary Church for the month of July and the members of the Board invite all friends to worship with them at these services.

When that letter arrives, we shall be happy to pass it on to you. (1) Mrs. Mills has called a Special Emergency Meeting of the Westmount Women's Club for tomorrow afternoon (Wednesday, June 26) in order to have every member of the Club solidly behind her. She has already received permission and a vote of confidence from her Board.

After reading the above, would you be good enough to let us know—and I am sure you will—that the City of Westmount is loyally behind her patriotic woman.

I am enclosing herewith our file for your perusal, which it is necessary that we have returned to us in time for our Club meeting to-morrow afternoon.

Yours faithfully, Estelle Jean Worfolk (Mrs. W.F.) P.S.—Some of our members will be taking lessons from a Rifle Club but positively no member of the W.V.R.C. will ever carry a rifle on the street, or have any sort of fire arm in their possession, away from the Rifle Range.

Hot Hollandaise Sauce—Ingredients: four egg yolks, two tablespoons lemon juice, one-half cup butter, one-fourth teaspoon salt, dash of cayenne, one-fourth cup boiling water. Divide butter into three portions. Beat egg yolks and lemon juice together, add one piece of butter and cook in double boiler, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Remove from stove, add a second piece of butter and stir rapidly. Next add remaining butter, and continue to stir until mixture is completely blended, add salt, cayenne and boiling water. Put through cookie press and bake at 400-425 degrees F. for from 8 to 10 minutes.

Spritz Cookies—Ingredients: one cup butter, three-fourths cup sugar, one egg or three egg yolks, two and one-half cups sifted flour, one-half teaspoon baking powder, one teaspoon almond extract, one-eighth teaspoon salt. The wedding took place at twelve o'clock noon on Tuesday in the Chapel of St. John of Jerusalem, Christ Church Cathedral, of Dorothy Jean, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Abbott, and Henry Gilbert, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ferrabee. The Right Rev. Arthur Carlisle, Bishop of Montreal, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father. Following the ceremony a reception was held for immediate relatives. Later the bridal couple left for a motor trip to the Rideau Lake District.

The marriage of Audrey Jane, daughter of Mr. James Fogan, of Moncton, N.B., to Mr. Douglas Stuart Macleod, of Moncton, took place quietly on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in St. Andrew's Church, Westmount, the Reverend F. W. Kerr, D.D., officiating.

Miss Dorothy W. Tate was the bride's only attendant, and Mr. A. W. Fowler acted as best man for Mr. Macleod.

VACATION

Laurentians Offer Much To Vacationists

The province of Quebec is France transplanted to the new world, an ancient Gallic stronghold that has retained the traditions and customs brought from the mother country three centuries ago by the forefathers of the present French speaking inhabitants. Here in the countryside and in the city, the old and new blend in artless beauty. English speaking folk live side by side with neighbours who speak no other language than that of French. The twin capitals of this amicable land are the quaint cities of Montreal and Quebec, entrancingly interesting in themselves, and the gateways to the marvelous playgrounds that surround them on all sides. Up in the mighty Laurentian Mountains, following the Riviere Du Nord, the railway line climbs steadily past little Ste. Adele, sitting prettily, high up on the mountainside and reaches St. Marguerite, one of the most popular of the resorts in this veritable paradise. Here is to be found one of the splendid hotels, good boating, most picturesque of golf courses, houses, beautiful Lake Masson, fishing, bathing, boating, golf, tennis, riding and many delightful walks and drives through superb scenery.

Val Morin, which lies just four miles past St. Marguerite is another of the Laurentians' popular summer centres. Here is to be found everything that the vacationist can possibly desire. A wide choice of hotels and boarding houses are to be found in this neighbourhood. In Quebec City itself, this city of the up hill and down dale, it is the unexpected that is always meeting you around the corner. Its inhabitants will tell you that their city is the most beautiful in the world, not at all boastfully but with that assurance that comes from implicit belief. Perched on Cape Diamond, over which it spreads in unplanned grace, and commanding superb view of the St. Lawrence River flowing down to the sea in all its majesty, its claim to being one of the most picturesque cities in Canada will be contested by none. Half of its charm is its citizens. They are intensely lovable, these French Canadians and intensely proud of their traditions and the part played by their ancestors in the finding and building up of the North American continent. What a gallery they make, these old French explorers, Joliette and Marquette, who in 1673 discovered the Mississippi river; La Salle, who took possession of that vast basin in the name of the King of France; the Bienville, founder of New Orleans; La Motte Cadillac building of the motor city of the United States, Detroit; Le Verendrye, who was the first to penetrate the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. Where the explorers went so did the missionary and it is not without cause that Quebec is often referred to as the "Cradle of North American Civilization" and it is not without reason that that old city attracts the numbers of tourists each year from every part of the globe.

LAURENTIAN LAKES OFFER IDEAL HOLIDAY SPOT

The above photo, snapped near St. Sauveur, depicts to prospective vacationists the ideal surroundings for a "different" vacation offered at many Laurentian resorts. This mountain playground offers every kind of holiday that could be desired, from strenuous mountain climbing to lazy days on a quiet, sandy beach.

Many Beautiful Spots In Eastern Townships

Geographically, the Eastern Townships comprise that district between the St. Lawrence and the counties on the St. Francis River. Historically, they are those townships settled by United Loyalists after the war of 1776. In the townships are found old English bce, which was mostly pioneered by the French. The fascinating district of St. Johns is reached by a short railway journey south from Montreal over the Richelieu River, rich in traditions of New France. Fort Lennox, the old forts of St. Johns, Chambly and Fort Montgomery recall those wars waged by British and French for possession of these fertile fields. St. Johns, less than half an hour's ride from Montreal, has long been popular as a site for summer homes, and among its attractions are a golf course, polo field, military school and yacht club. At Foster two branches of the railway leave the main line, and at Drummondville is the Manor Drummond (a modern hotel) and an excellent golf course. On the shores of Brome Lake, a beautiful sheet of water, an excellent motor road leads for miles past well kept lawns and gardens. To Knowlton at one end of the lake, summer vacationists come year after year attracted by its beauty and fine ford Lake, Memphremagog glitters into view, with Magog on its upper end in Canada and Newport at its lower end in Vermont.

Greatly begin! Though thou have time But for a line, be that sublime— Not failure, but low aim is crime. —James Russell Lowell.

PARADISE FOR VACATIONERS

Every year the charms and pleasures of Eastern Township resorts become known to an increasing number of holiday seekers, many of whom make the Selby Lake Inn their headquarters.

KAMP KANAWANA

In Europe where the ravages of total war stain that continent's soil a bloody, crimson red; where the healthy bodies of young Britons, Frenchmen, Canadians and Australians are being daily dynamited out of existence—the Y.M.C.A. is giving succor—aid—'eg, with every ounce of energy it possesses, the Allied troops in and out of battle zones. The inspiring account of what the world-wide Y.M.C.A. did in 1914-18, occupies full paragraphs in our history textbooks and few men who ought then have forgotten the faith they placed in that organization and what a brilliant light it furnished in that first great terrible darkness. Of all the civilized news that has come out of this war, there can be none more astounding than that which tells of the "Y's" intention to reopen its summer camp "as usual." The number of camps which the "Y" has established and maintained across the Dominion cannot be counted on ten fingers. The two camps which are so familiar to Montrealers and to which reference is made here, are, of course, Otoreke and Kanawana. Both these winsome retreats will be wide open and running throughout the vacation period. Kanawana will fling wide its welcome doors on June 22 and, because it grows and enlarges each year, the campers of 1940 will swell their numbers to an all-time record attendance. To those who know Kamp Kanawana and know it from a personal association, the Montreal winters, especially toward the close, remain nothing more than anxious days of waiting to return to the 47-year-old mecca. The highly enthusiastic descriptions, recommendations and long reminiscences of the old campers, literally, make the mouths of other water. Statements of fact are always more forceful when supported by pictures and to anyone who might be, in the slightest degree, curious about making this holiday camp one, he has only to request a booklet at any one of the eight branches in the city and all necessary information will be presented for leisurely examination in compact form. That camping is an adventure in living, the world recognizes as axiomatic. Few poets there are who have neglected to write of the complete and everlasting benefit man can derive from quiet, undisturbed communion with nature, and, in that, and much else, lies the full significance of the soul-soothing words, "camp life." Although the motion picture reveals in a more candid light, the latent, visible and intrinsic beauty of the camp's thoroughly rustic atmosphere, the brief, word-picture will have to suffice here. Sixty miles north of Montreal's dusty, airless streets and steaming pavements, sixty miles north of the jangle of automobile horns, doorbell noises, gasoline exhausts and telephone clatterings,—the anaemic, mechanical-moving city-dweller whose headaches, run down condition and general debility born of constant living among machines, will find a true paradise where his life will change from that of a robot's to that of a carefree, happy, fun-enjoying normal human being. The camp is tucked neatly into the valley pocket of the low-lying Laurentian foothills only five miles from the famous skiing area, St. Sauveur. In the fierce temperature of mid-July and August the shady trees, far from dust and city dirt, offer protection and contentment. At night, the full sphere or sharp crescent of a silver moon mirrors itself in the short arm of water which is Lake Kanawana and the juvenile junior and senior camp sites receive its full reflection together with the gaze of the planet Venus (while Mars looks down on Europe). In perfect keeping with the natural surroundings, the buildings in the camp are all of stained log. The tremendous sallye a manger which seats close to 300 boys is almost as spacious and spotless as the kitchens of some old country palace. The craftshop, boating houses, chapel, recreation lodge, refrigeration and pump house, the director's

UNITED STATES TOURISTS TRAVEL BY CANADIAN LINE

The camp does not boast anything for it doesn't have to. Its equipment for activities in, on and around the water consists of sixteen light Indian canoes, twenty-two flat-bottom row-boats to sturdy swimming rafts, a water chute for thrills, a firmly built gymnasium over the lake's edge, a high and low diving board most of which is new. Sanitation in Kamp Kanawana is just short of superb. Hot and cold shower baths, fresh-water, automatic drinking fountains and an hospital equipped to equal any well-organized dispensary on ship-board play no minor part in ensuring safety at all times. NEWS OF THE THEATRE WORLD

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

Drama-Packed Film Now At Westmount Theatre

Errol Flynn, the film star whose name has become synonymous with romantic adventure in far corners of the earth, has been almost everywhere and seen almost everything but had his eyes opened wider recently during the filming of his newest starring picture, "Virginia City," a drama-packed saga of the roaring west of the last century.

a wide-open wild western town could be turned into a model community. All these things have made deep impressions on Mr. Flynn, but not to the extent that some interesting data he picked up about modes of travel during the 1860's—the period in which "Virginia City" is set—impressed him.

Before the advent of the stage coach, the crack Pony Express averaged 7 to 10 miles per hour for ten hours daily, over a 1700 mile route out of Virginia City. Station were 25 miles apart. Horses were evidently more valued than humans. For messengers were required to ride 75 miles before being relieved while the ponies were changed at each station.

"You'll be surprised to know," added Flynn, "that there never was any stage service in the world, more complete or finer than that between Virginia City and Placerville.

ing at beautiful Belmont Park. Grown-ups will also find relaxation and pleasure at the Park, as the extra picnic facilities, including added shower baths, boiling water, etc., make a day's outing one of pleasure and comfort.

ACTOR'S "FALSE EYES"

Introducing a brand new make-up trick, Walter Hampden, distinguished Shakespearean stage actor, actually changed the color of his eyes to play an Indian chief for Cecil B. De Mille in the Technicolor historical epic, "North West Mounted Police."

"French Without Tears," the romantic English made comedy, which is now in its third week at the Snowdon Theatre, was adapted to the screen from the stage play of the same title which played in London for two years, and many months in New York with such marked success.

Authored by Terence Rattigan, a young Irishman, it is generally credited with having brought laughter back to Broadway following several seasons devoted to heart-rending drama.

Briefly it tells the story of a romantic interlude at Professor Maingot's School for Young English Gentlemen, located in the South of France. The students are all earnest aspirants to the British diplomatic service, one of the prerequisites of which is a knowledge of French, the language of diplomacy.

Ray Millard and lovely Ellen Drew handle the leading roles, while Janine Darcey a Parisian importation has a splendid part, as has Roland Culver, who is remarkable good in the role of a Commander of the British Navy.

Robert Young and Helen Gilbert In Picture "Florian"

Pomp and spectacle, romance and a thundering cavalcade of the collapse of an empire, are blended in "Florian," dramatic filmization of Felix Salten's novel of the fall of the Hapsburg dynasty in Austria following the World War. The love story of a boy and girl is told against the background of spectacular Austria of the days of Franz Josef, and the effect of war, revolution, and world turmoil on them is traced through a beautiful Lippizan stallion, owned by the Emperor.

Robert Young, of "Northwest Passage" fame, and Helen Gilbert, new acting discoverer, play the lovers, Irina Baronova, famous Ballet Russe dancer, plays the fiery sweetheart of an archduke, enacted by Les Bowman, and stages a glamorous ballet at a replica of an Imperial Ball. Spectacular details include the ball the review of the Imperial Lippizan horses at the Emperor's riding school in Vienna, and other lavish episodes. Players include Charles Coburn, Reginald Owen and Lucille Watson, Edwin L. Marin, director of "Maizie."

William Boyd, star of Paramount's "Stagecoach War" productions, acted as best man recently at the wedding of Lawrence Houston, foreman of his Malibu Mountain ranch. Grace Bradley, Boyd's wife, was organist for the affair. The bride is Betty Jean Beeson, of Oxnard, Calif.

Ann Sheridan Stars In 'It All Came True'

The Monkland United Theatre's next attraction, opening on Sunday, will be "It All Came True," based on the Louis Bromfield novel and starring Ann Sheridan, the red-headed Texan dynamo who has become Hollywood's most outstanding feminine personality, combining, as she does, that "oomph" with dramatic fire.

Playing one of the most delightful characters ever created by Louis "Rains Came" Bromfield, Ann is at once bold and beautiful, hot-tempered and honest. She is sentimental but is the last person in the world to admit it. She sings, does the rumba, and "hangs one" on the jaw of a would-be talent scout, all with equal proficiency.

With the quaintness, charm and dramatic suspense of the Bromfield novel, "It All Came True" tells the story of a group of people who live in a New York boarding house run by two sentimental old women, using it as a refuge where they can fight off the reality of the present and dwell in the fond memories of the past. The complacent atmosphere of the house is shattered when first Ann, daughter of one of the landladies comes home to roost and again when the housekeeper's son, Jeffrey Lynn, returns home after an absence of five years, with a gangster who intends to use the house as a hideout.

Lewis Seller directed the screen play by Michael Fessler and Lawrence Kimble adapted from the Bromfield novel.

Sven-Hugo Borg, former translator and interpreter for Greta Garbo, who plays in "Mystery Sea Raider," is writing a play based on his own life. He has titled it "Vagabond Swede."

WESTMOUNT TEAM WINS FOURTH STRAIGHT GAME

DOWN NATS 5-3 IN SNOWDON LOOP MATCH; STAMWAY STOPS 9 HITS, ALLOWS BUT 3 RUNS

Westmounts won their fourth game in the Snowdon Senior loop topping Nats 5-3 in a close struggle. A three-run Westmount rally in the fifth gave Westmount their margin of victory. Stamway scattered nine Nat hits and allowed but three runs. Donn gave up 11 hits and the three-run rally in the fifth told the tale. Brown scored the only homer of the game in the first inning with nobody on. A double play took Nats out of danger in the third when the bags were loaded with only one out. The fielding gem was Don Maher's leaping catch of Daniels' liner in the first.

Adanacs dropped another to Eastwards 6-3 in a hard fought game. Ken Anderson, Adanacs' hurler, held the Eastwards hitless for six and a third innings when a single by Whinton broke the spell. McInnis' triple with the sacks loaded was the big blow. Anderson nevertheless retired 16 batters via the strike-out route. Nats managed to win their first match of the season when they topped Adanacs 16-6. The winners took an early lead and were never headed.

Nats play Eastwards tonight.

The Czechoslovakian exhibit at the Golden Gate Exposition was dedicated anew recently in ceremonies led by Erwin E. L. Chloupek, Czechoslovakia's consul-in-outside-country. THRILLS AT BELMONT PARK

"The Peaches Sky Revue" which will be held over at Belmont Park for a second sensational week of thrills.

During the last week, the Pascal's lost their initial game of the year, as they were turned back by the Eastwards by the score of 18-12 in a game played under the lights at Viau Park in Maisonneuve. They also won their fourth game when they outscored the Nats 5-2 in last Thursday's tilt.

Frank Stanway won his second straight game of the year, when he sent the Nats down with 7 hits and struck out 5 men. Going ahead for first time this year in the opening frame, on a home run by Desse Browne, the Pascal's kept the lead until the 3rd inning, when Nats put on the pressure and scored two runs. In the fifth, the Pascal's forced their way into the lead once again, as John Donn, the Nats' pitcher, allowed five hits, which enabled the Westmounters to push 3 runs across the plate before the side was retired. In the sixth the Westmount team scored once more and made the final score read 5-2 in favor of the Pascal's.

Everyone on the Pascal team obtained a hit except the pitcher, Ted Price. Bert Dalzell, Desse Browne and Don Maher each received two hits, while the remaining four were credited to Bill Willock, Ossie Dalzell, Tommy Brennan and Rollie Loftus. Norbert Schratz, the best fielding short stop in the city, was about the best for the Nats.

In the game played at Viau Park, the Pascal's were without a starting pitcher, which accounted for the big score. Desse Browne hurled for the losers, and pitched very well, considering he hasn't pitched since he left school. Another excuse, if it may be called that, was that the Westmount boys have never played under lights previously and it seemed very strange to them. After the ball game was over as far as the Pascal's were concerned, they put third baseman, Ted Price onto the mound. Errors were made in the outfield, as the lighting system was not so good. When Rollie Loftus drops a ball there must be some excuse, and he stated that he could not see the ball. Bert Dalzell, Tommy Brennan, Emmett Cloran, and Teddy Price were the chief sluggers for the Pascal's as each hit safely twice. The other hits went to Ossie Dalzell and Rollie Loftus. The next game will be played Tuesday, when the Pascal's meet the Adanacs. There are no more Sunday double-headers, as the league stops Sunday ball in the summer, so as to enable the players to have the week-ends in the country.

In the only game played so far this week, the Royals, which were dubbed "the Gas House Gang" after the game, beat the Grads by the score of 10-7. The Royals came from behind in the last inning to score 7 runs and which stretched their unbeaten streak to eight games and their second under new management. (We have received several letters asking who the new manager is, but he wishes his name be kept secret until he is off probation.) Starting off the 7th inning, Bill Willock singled and Bronc Taylor walked. The next batter to face Pitcher John Cronin, was Bert Dalzell. With the count two and two, Bert hit the next one far into centre field, and scampered home easily to put his team ahead by one run. Cronin, then, received very little support from his team, and before three men were out, the Royals scored four more. In the Grad's half of the inning, Dick Hunter hit a towering home run over left fielder Bert Dalzell's head to score a mate before him. The next batters went down in order.

That wasn't all the excitement which the game produced. Herb Priestman certainly earned his money for the game, as there were arguments galore. Three bats were hurled at him and consequently one Royal man was ejected. This man being Tommy Brennan. Mr. Priestman was very bad behind the bat, and when the leagues meet, he may be forced to retire. Bad as he was, he only admits calling four bad ones throughout the game. We doubt that he can count past four. And people get put in jail for accepting money under false pretences.

Dots and Dashes: "Smoky" Halpern may join the business men of Westmount soon as he was offered a job by the city and (don't faint) he may accept... "Pull", huh, "Smoky"?... Bert Dalzell is still receiving his fan mail from Peterborough... We are wondering who it could be... Desse Browne about the best batter on the Pascal team... In thirty-eight trips to the plate so far this year, Des has hit nine singles, two doubles, two triples and three home runs to drive in nine runs... Which isn't too bad... Who will be the first team to score a win over the "Gas House Gang"?... We hear that someone was kind enough to introduce Hazel to Howie Hushion, which is good news... He has been pestering us to introduce him to the young lady when we don't even know her ourselves... We might like to now... What do you say Howie?... Jack Coleman pitching great ball for the Westmount entry in the Juvenile Hardball League, so Ed McCrory tells us... But we are still from Missour!... Ed by the way, is leading hitter of the league... Batting .615... Clifford Maher is back from Mt. St. Louis, where he spent a dreadful year, so he says... Doug still in Cobourg... Batted and pitched his team to a victory the other day... Nice going Doug... Who is that pretty little miss seen with Molly Feeney the other night?... Sibby Munday down for 'St. Henry night' and he saw her too... Tell her to watch her step, Molly... Sibby is quite the lady's man... Is Eric Fleet still going to Chatanooga?... Tommy Brennans ejection was the first this season... There should be more though... Ken Strachan workingman now... Canadian Pacific No. 1 Locomotive Winnipeg Exhibit

A picturesque reminder of the early days before the construction of Canada's transcontinental railway system is the flower bedecked Countess of Dufferin, Canadian Pacific Railway engine No. 1, which stands opposite the Canadian Pacific Railway depot at Winnipeg.

This little locomotive with its broad "hay-burner" smoke stack, arrived at St. Boniface, first local terminal of the railway to the south, loaded ingloriously on a river barge. That was in 1877. Two years later when the engine was needed for railway construction west it was run on rails over the frozen river, no bridge yet having been built.

Interest in the arrival of the engine in 1877 was so great that a public holiday was declared. Years later the little engine was demoted to service in a British Columbia lumber camp. Long forgotten, it was recognized by an old-timer, and arrangements made for its presentation to the city. This took place in 1910.

Many To Spend Holidays At "Y" Kamp Kanawana

This summer from June until August 24th, hundreds of Montreal boys will travel northward to spend a few weeks at Kamp Kanawana, the Y.M.C.A. camp for boys near St. Sauveur. Built on the shores of Lake Kanawana and equipped with over a score of log cabins and as many tents, the camp possesses one of the finest holiday sites in the Quebec Laurentians.

As campers approach Kanawana from St. Sauveur, the lake is first visible from a hill to the east; there they catch a glimpse of the mile-long expanse of water surrounded by thickly-wooded shores. Further along the road are Page's farm and the Kanawana gate, which marks the boundary of camp property. Here the road dwindles into a narrow pass between lake and woods, finally emerging into the Senior Circle, which is occupied by campers over 14 years old; to the left is a wharf, while to the right are the tents and the Lookout, oldest structure in camp.

Then the road winds past the Crafts shop where day after day baskets, boats and all kinds of knick-knacks are made by the campers. High up on the hill to the right are the Juvenile cabins; these lodge the youngest boys. Next to them is the Lodge, a combination recreation hall-library-museum which houses collections of wild life and books, and provide a rendezvous for Saturday night shows.

In quick succession appear the Chief's Cabin, the Wigwam, and the Mining Pavilion where all campers meet for meals. Then more points of interest come into sight; the Hospital, the boat and canoe wharf, swimming wharf, diving boards, raft, waterchute, and the Lower Pavilion, indoor recreation hall for the Junior campers.

High above the Junior Circle tents flies the Union Jack; a flag raising ceremony every morning reminds boys that they are citizens of a far flung empire and that millions of others are camping under the same flag.

By this time the end of the main site is reached. A trail, however, leads around the lake, passing such points as the Indian Council Ring, the beautiful outdoor chapel where the camp worships on Sundays, and Farewell Rock, the scene of many campfires; then it skirts the "Suez Canal", and reaches the shores of Lake Wilson, another Y.M.C.A. owned lake. Other facilities of the camp include two baseball fields, a volleyball ground, a lacrosse field, horseshoe pitches and a camp craft site.

this week from Hollywood to Canada, whence have emanated conflicting reports concerning impending large-scale film production in the Dominion.

Things started humming Sunday with release of an Associated Press despatch from Montreal announcing plans for a series of features to be shot in Canada's metropolis. Backing for the new venture was reportedly assured by Alexander Korda, producer, and John Sutro, London financier.

However, Korda blew into town Monday from Portugal via Atlantic Clipper, and knocked the story into a cocked hat by disclaiming any knowledge of the proposed Canadian set-up.

Apparently more authentic are the tidings that the Associated British Film Corporation plans to shoot three pictures in Vancouver — "The Manxman," "Cavalier of The Night" and "Door With Seven Locks."

and actual filming may start within ten weeks.

Expert opinion here favors Vancouver over Montreal as the locale for any permanent film centre in Canada. Only eight hours from Hollywood by plane, the western city boasts climate and scenic backgrounds unrivalled east of the Rockies.

It is an undiluted joy to report that "Tom Brown's School Days" is tiptop entertainment for every member of the family.

Saturday, June 29, is the closing day for sending gifts to the Young Men's Canadian Club for distribution in the Far North. The gifts are being sent with the Eastern Arctic Patrol, which leaves at an early date, and will be distributed among the residents in the Arctic by Major D. L. Games, books, magazines, toys for children, gramophones and gramophone records make the most acceptable gifts. G. E. Dockrill is convener of the committee collecting the gifts. These may be sent to him at 3552 St. Patrick Street, or will be called for on telephoning him at MA. 7386.
