PREMIER TASCHEREAU EXPLAINS NEW MEASURE Considering Amendments To Hunting And Fishing Laws

Objectors To Be Given Chance To Present Views

Premier Taschereau Discussed Measure Providing that Assessments on Real Estate of Roman Catholics to Pay for Church Needs Shall Continue a Charge Upon Property, Even When Sold to Non-Catholics—Claims Measure Merely Makes Definite What Is Now Believed to Be Law.

QUEBEC, February 2.—Full opportunity will be given those who object to Premier Taschereau's measure providing that assessments on real estate of Roman Catholics to pay for church needs shall continue a charge upon property even when sold to non-Catholics to make their views known. The legislation has no retroactive effect.

The Premier when asked about the matter said that the measure merely made definite what is now believed to be the law, but that doubts have arisen in the matter, hence the bill. "In the course of next week I will have occasion to explain the measure in the House," he said. "After this is done and second reading given the bill will be sent to the Public Bills Committee, where those who have any objections to make will have full liberty to do so."

In answer to another question the Premier said that in any event the measure will have no retroactive effect.

It is expected that when Mr. Taschereau deals with the matter in the House next week he will quote from the work of Mr. Justice Mignault, of the Supreme Court, on the subject. His Lordship in this work, it is understood, takes the view that the law at present provides that a church assessment on property of a Catholic remains a charge upon such property even if sold to a non-Catholic. Doubts have arisen in the matter, however, and it is to set these doubts at rest, the legislation has been introduced.

Definite Formalities To Be Observed.

Taxation of property of Roman Catholics has prevailed in this province practically since the days of early settlement, coming down through French régime, through the British régime, and being confirmed in the Confederation Act of 1867. There are definite formalities to be observed. Each parish makes its own provision. For example, when a new parish is created, a meeting of the Catholic freeholders is summoned and a decision is taken to borrow a certain sum of money with which to build the church, sacristy, parsonage or cemetery, or repairs thereto to cost, say, $500,000. When this decision is taken the bonds are floated, and automatically all Catholic property in that parish bears an annual tax sufficient to meet the interest and sinking fund. When the loan is wiped out in this way, the tax ceases, hence in many of the older parishes no such annual assessment exists.

Church Bonds Looked Upon As Public Issues.

Since the loan is issued on the security of the property of the Catholics at the time of the issue, it is pointed out that sales of the property thus mortgaged to non-Catholics would necessarily reduce the security behind the loan.

HUGE MERGER IN AVIATION IS REPORTED

Principal Airplane Companies in Canada Amalgamate to Put Commercial Aviation Under Control of One Company.

(Canadian Press Despatch) TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 2.—The Globe carried the following news item today: "Completion during the past few days of a mammoth aviation merger which will virtually put commercial aviation in Canada under the control of one company was reported yesterday on good authority."

The companies concerned in this merger are reported to be the Canadian Vickers, Limited, Canadian Airways, Limited, and Canadian Wright, Limited, all of Montreal; the Fairchild Aviation Company, of Grand Mere, Que.; International Airways, Limited, of Hamilton, and Western Canada Airways, Limited, of Winnipeg. This last represents the principal Canadian aviation companies heretofore in operation.

The amalgamation will result in the pooling of the resources of the largest manufacturing and operating concerns in the country. The Canadian Vickers, the Fairchild Company and the Canadian Wright, Limited are manufacturers of aircraft and engines. The last two named manufacture the Fairchild cabin plane and the Wright Whirlwind Aero Engine respectively. (The Wright Whirlwind was the engine used by Lindbergh on his trans-Atlantic flight.)

Other companies mentioned hold important air mail contracts and carry on various aerial activities, such as mining exploration, aerial surveys, fisheries patrol, aerial photography, reconnaissance and flying instruction.

FOUR MILLION MILES OF FLYING

(Canadian Press Despatch.) LONDON, Feb. 2.—Four million miles of flying were yesterday completed by the cross-channel fleet of the Imperial Airways. Since 1924 the company's planes carried more than 97,000 passengers and 3,000 tons of freight between London and the continent of Europe.

MARSHAL FOCH REPORTED TO HAVE SETBACK

Developed Another Centre of Congestion in His Lungs Overnight—Doctors Made No Statement.

(Associated Press Despatch) PARIS, Feb. 2.—Marshal Foch, who has been slowly recovering from an illness due to heart trouble and kidney complications, has had a second setback.

He developed another centre of congestion in his lungs overnight, and there was an air of uneasiness about his home although his doctors refused to sanction any suggestion of real alarm.

They explained that this second spot of lung infection already had decreased this morning and presumably was tending to disappear as did the first spot of congestion noticed several days ago.

The Marshal has slightly less fever than yesterday but when his five doctors left shortly after their midday consultation they appeared less cheerful than yesterday, although they said no word that might indicate they had altered their opinion that the touch of grippa was a mere incident in his illness which would run its course in a few days.

MAY POSTPONE KING'S REMOVAL TO SEASHORE

Statement of Physicians Yesterday that Condition of His Majesty Was Less Favorable Came as Shock to People Generally.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Feb. 2.—Some attention is being paid by physicians to King George to the kind of conveyance he will use when he leaves Buckingham Palace for the seashore soon.

It is understood the physicians themselves prefer motor transport and yesterday a special motor ambulance was taken to the Palace grounds and its suitability tested. The opinion of the doctors was not made known, however, and they may still decide a railroad trip is to be preferred. The hint in the statement of physicians yesterday that the King's condition was less favorable than recently came as a slight ray to Englishmen generally, there having been an eager proneness of late to consider him well out of danger.

It was believed that while original plans had been made to remove His Majesty to the seashore some time next week in view of yesterday's statement there may be a postponement.

KING'S CONDITION SHOWS NO CHANGE

LONDON, Feb. 2.—(By George Hamblin, Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press)—The ever-present coal problem cropped up in yesterday's discussions in the House of Commons. A number of Labor members charged that the provisions of the derating bill, now before the House, is giving freight relief to export coal, the Government was subsidizing manufacturers in Belgium, Germany and France.

"It is a grim joke," said Miss Ellen Wilkinson, (Labor, Middlesex East) "that after the Prince of Wales's visit to the coal fields and his comments on conditions there, the House of Commons should be proposing the subsidizing of our foreign competitors."

Strong Opposition Made To Demand That Higher Tariff Be Provided For Aluminum

Claim Made That Import into Canada Was Very Small and that Canadian and U. S. Companies Controlled Fifty Per Cent. of World's Output of Aluminum, So that Protection Was Not Necessary—Danger of Monopoly Seen—Board to Resume Hearing in Montreal on Friday Next.

(Canadian Press Despatch) OTTAWA, February, 2.—Creation of a potential danger of monopoly in the aluminum industry in Canada by the granting of the application of the Aluminum Company of Canada for upward revision of the tariff on aluminum bars, sheets, foil, etc., was contended at the closing session of the Advisory Tariff Board yesterday afternoon by Vincent C. MacDonald, representing the British Aluminum Company of London, England. Leighton McCarthy, appearing on behalf of the Aluminum Company of Canada, replied to his argument with the assertion that he represented a company which was primarily Canadian and interested in the development of the aluminum industry in all its phases, in Canada, rather than in assisting British concern to supply the Canadian demand.

Mr. MacDonald's argument involved the connections of the Aluminum Company of Canada, and he declared that its disassociation with the Aluminum Company of America had not been proved. The danger of falling into the hands of United States interests, Mr. MacDonald hinted at broadly on this ground. Opposition to increases in aluminum duties was also registered by the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario, the Salada Tea Company of Canada, R. J. Deachman and A. E. Dancy, representing the Canadian Consumers League and the Canadian Council of Agriculture, respectively.

To Meet in Montreal.

With the conclusion of argument the Board adjourned to meet at the call of Chairman W. H. Moore, following the conference in Montreal on February 8, where important phases of the iron and steel industry are to be investigated, the iron and steel tariff case, particularly as it affects structural steel, will come before the Board subsequent to that conference, and probably during the coming session of Parliament.

The application of the Aluminum company was to have a duty on bars, rods, strips, plates, sheet and foil, now admitted free. The company, through Mr. McCarthy, contended this was manufactured and not raw material. The application was opposed by Vincent C. MacDonald, on behalf of the British Aluminum Company, which ships goods to Canada. It wanted the articles named.

Further more it is the position of the American Government—and this has been discreetly conveyed to the proper French authorities—that there still remain certain discriminations against American goods sold in France and the removal of these cannot indefinitely be deferred or made conditional upon the result of investigations under way by the United States tariff commission.

It is easy to see in conclusion how very wide apart are the two positions, especially when it is borne in mind that the French contend that the United States made certain promises which have never been fulfilled.

LITHUANIA SAID TO BE IN THROES OF REVOLT

Report that Kovno Is in State of Siege—Two Military Organizations in Conflict—Denial Made by Government.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Feb. 2.—The Mail's Warsaw correspondent quotes refugees from Kovno, Lithuania, as saying that the city is in a state of siege and that conflict is expected at any moment between two volunteer military organizations, the "Schavals" and the "Iron Wolves" which support Premier Waldemars and regular troops in sympathy with General Plechavskis.

(The Lithuanian government, in an official statement today, denied that army officers had been arrested as the result of discovery of a plot against the government. For several days there have been rumors that a revolt threatened but all have been officially denied.)

EX-ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY AS MEDIATOR

Most Rev. Randall Thomas Davidson Suggested by Friends of Salvation Army as Possible Mediator for Present Difficulties.

(Associated Press Despatch) LONDON, Feb. 2.—The name of the Most Rev. Randall Thomas Davidson, former Archbishop of Canterbury, was suggested by friends of the Salvation Army today as a possible mediator who might be able to clear up the Army's difficulties.

It was understood that an effort would be made to enlist his aid in settling the differences of the Army's High Council and General Bramwell Booth, its aged commander-in-chief. His selection for such a role would be welcomed by the Booth family, also it is said.

Lord Davidson himself when questioned regarding the possibility of such action on his part, said he had no statement to make.

A member of the delegation to the High Council said that it had not yet been approached with such a suggestion. Doubt was expressed as to the utility of such a move, which, it was said, would "only prolong the agony" leading to inevitable reforms.

Difficulty of Amending Law to Stop Hunting of Deer With Dogs Is that This Practice Is Still Allowed in Sister Province of Ontario—Questions Being Studied by Minister of Colonization, Mines and Fisheries.

QUEBEC, Feb. 2.—Serious consideration is being given by the Quebec Government to the question of prohibiting the hunting of deer with dogs, and also to the question of limiting the size of the day's catch of trout.

Representations have been made of late to Hon. J. E. Perreault, Minister of Colonization, Mines and Fisheries, to the effect that the time has come, and is even overdue, when the hunting of deer with dogs should be absolutely prohibited. It is learned today that the Minister feels that this is the correct view on the question, and it is quite possible that he will bring in the necessary legislation. There was a question of such prohibition here last session, but as several other important prohibitions were put into the hunting laws of the province, it was left at the time that sufficient had been done for one session. The difficulty at present with amending the law to prohibit the hunting of deer with dogs is that this practice is still allowed in the sister province of Ontario, and in such matters of legislation and in view of the great extent of the frontier, it would be better if there were uniformity in that matter. There appears to be little question, but that if Ontario were to announce its intention of enacting similar legislation the Government would in all probability be prepared to go ahead this session. In the meantime the matter is under study by the Minister, and he has already received a number of opinions from citizens interested in the matter.

Initial Step Taken

The province of Quebec regulates the day's catch of bass, but while there is plenty of bass in various parts of the province, it is not so in the province as a whole, and there is no limitation to the catch by sportsmen, real or alleged, and the result that fishermen think nothing of killing two hundred trout a day if they are lucky. The Government has made an initial step in limiting the catch.

Report States That Spanish Revolt Was Planned In France

Said to Have Been Arranged at a Dinner in Paris on January 3—More Important Elements in Latest Attempt to Smash Rule of Premier—Members of Conservative Party Included—Communist Party Not in Plot.

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, Feb. 2.—The formal statement of Primo de Rivera that the recent revolt was planned outside of Spain supported a report here that it had been arranged at a dinner in Paris on January 3rd.

Dr. Maranon, former physician to the Royal Family, General Lopez Ochoa, and former Premier Rafael Sanchez Guerra, all of whom were implicated in the attempted coup in 1925 are represented as having decided to attempt the overthrow of the Spanish dictator.

The first two remained in France and Sanchez Guerra arrived in Valencia only to find the revolt had been crushed. He is now in prison while this former cabinet associate are attempting to intercede with King Alfonso in his behalf.

The heavy attempt to smash the rule of Primo de Rivera is said to have differed from such moves in the past in that it included more important elements, including members of the Conservative party who are friendly toward the King. Previous disturbances had been traced largely to communist activities against the public peace.

These elements are said to have been invited to co-operate in the recent attempt.

PARIS, Feb. 2.—Aristide Briand, Foreign Minister, and Georges Leygues, Minister of the Navy, were ill with influenza today and could not attend a scheduled cabinet meeting. Neither case was regarded in the slightest way as serious. Influenza thus far in France this year has taken a mild form.

Right Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Minister of Health, who is directing the progress of the bill for the government, replied that previous acts of parliament had contained similar provisions, yet there had never been a complaint in parliament that such authority had been abused. He agreed, however, to alter the clause.

DERATING BILL MEETS PROTEST IN PARLIAMENT

Bureaucracy Is Claim of Objectors in Both British Houses in Discussion of Bill Introduced by Right Hon. N. Chamberlain.

(Canadian Press Despatch) LONDON, Feb. 2.—Protests were heard yesterday in both Houses of Parliament against what is termed the growing power of bureaucracy. One clause in the Derating Bill would give the minister authority in administering the act to modify its provisions in such a way as might appear necessary or expedient to him.

Critics on both sides of the House of Commons charged that such a provision gave the minister power largely to undo the work of parliament.

Right Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Minister of Health, who is directing the progress of the bill for the government, replied that previous acts of parliament had contained similar provisions, yet there had never been a complaint in parliament that such authority had been abused. He agreed, however, to alter the clause.

Canadian Stocks Rose On Back Of Particular Strength Of Smelters

Outburst of Strength and Activity on Thursday and Friday Was in Great Contrast to Listlessness and Decided Weakness Which Marked Opening Days of Week.

(Canadian Press Despatch) TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 2.—Canadian stock exchanges rose on the back of a spectacular strength in the common shares of Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, Limited, into a burst of strength and activity on Thursday and Friday which was a great contrast to the listlessness and decided weakness which marked the opening days of the week.

Official reports from the Ontario Attorney General's department severely criticizing information given to the public concerning values of Tough Oats Burnsides and Jackson Manion ore, followed by the arrest of two officials of the latter mine, extended their influences over into the present week. A pessimistic report brought International Nickel common stock tumbling some six or seven points from the high point of above seventy, but the week finished in a blaze of public confidence.

Smelters moved up to a high of $47.00 on Friday, gain of $200 a share inside a fortnight, and most of it during the last week. The company is said to be nearer the point of increasing earnings in a very material way than had been expected by the general public. Increase of capacity of the Kimberley concentrator to 6,000 tons, it was argued by brokers, would put the company within a year at a point where it would be earning more than $50 a share, and the optimism with regard to subsidiaries of the company and the announced intention to build a copper smelter on the Pacific Coast had further effect. The company's plans to develop a fertilizer business and its extension in a blaze of public confidence.

ANNUAL CHURCH GATHERING AT DANVILLE HELD

Annual Congregational Social of Danville United Church Proved Great Success.

DANVILLE, Que., Feb. 2.—The annual congregational social of Trinity United Church was held on the evening of January 30th, in the church parlors. At 6.30 p.m. 126 members and supporters to the number of 140 sat down to a banquet supplied by the Women's Association. The tables were tastefully decorated for the occasion. The attendance was remarkable, considering the epidemic of influenza, which has confined many to their homes.

After supper, the pastor, Rev. W. E. Long took the chair and reports were received from the various organizations in connection with the church, viz., the official board, Sunday school, Women's Association, W.M.S., Young Ladies' Mission Circle, Prowell's L.L.A.G.G.I.T. and Tuxs. The financial condition of the church is very encouraging considering losses incurred during the year through removals.

In a brief address the minister congratulated the various organizations on the success which attended their efforts during the year.

He also was thankful for the fine spirit of unity and good feeling that prevailed throughout the entire congregation, a condition which was after all the ideal for which all Christian efforts should be directed.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mission Circle of the United Church was held at the home of Miss Helen Scott on Tuesday evening last. This was a well attended meeting. The president, Miss Helen Scott, presided. Readings were heard from Miss Catherine MacLennan on how the missionaries were recently received in China, from Miss Parsons, on how Japanese missionaries spend their furlough. The scripture lesson was read by Lorne MacDonald. A piano solo was heard from Miss Jean Smith.

A talk on New Year resolutions by Miss F. M. Sherman. Sentences of prayer were heard from some of the members. It was decided to hold a snowshoe tramp on February 8th, to help raise some money for the society. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. Those assisting in serving were Hope Roberts Scott and Catherine Smith.

Mr. W. B. Best, who has been confined to his room for some time is now on the gain.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Williamson, formerly of this place, in the death of their only daughter, which occurred at Rumford, Me., last week. The remains were brought to Coaticook on Tuesday and the interment was made in the family lot in the Crocker Cemetery.

Mrs. Clayton Thomas, Mrs. Jennie Thomas and Miss Ida Lorrimer are all ill and under the care of Dr. Thos. McCurdy, of Coaticook.

Mrs. Dan Campbell was in Scotland recently.

Among those who have been ill are Mr. J. K. MacLeod, Misses Lyla MacLeod and Arlene Graham.

Mr. Wallace Nicholson, of Wind-

ANGLICAN AND UNITED CHURCH MEETINGS HELD

Scene of Two Successful Meetings—United Church Elects Officers.

COMPTON, Que., Feb. 2.—The ladies of St. James' Guild met at the home of Mrs. Findlay, Compton Station, on Wednesday, January 30th, with the president, Mrs. P. Mery, in the chair. Prayers were said, the usual routine of business conducted and new work given out. There was a large attendance of members and friends. Tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. Findlay, assisted by Mrs. Norcross and a very pleasant social afternoon was spent.

United Church Meeting.

The annual congregational meeting of the United Church was held on Wednesday evening, January 30th, with the pastor, Rev. P. D. Muir in the chair. The meeting was opened with the doxology, Scripture reading and prayer. Mr. Stuart Ails acted as secretary pro tem. Very satisfactory reports from the different societies were read as follows: Sunday school, Mr. C. Watson; Y.P.S., Mr. Sidney Burnell; Ladies' Aid, Miss MacCallum; trustees, Mr. Fowler; stewards, Mr. Batchelder; sessions, Rev. P. D. Muir. These reports were adopted and a vote of thanks extended to the officers for their faithful work during the past year. It was agreed to ask the people to elect members for the session.

Stewards were appointed and several items of business dealt with. The meeting then adjourned. The remainder of the evening being spent socially in the vestry. Lunch was served by the ladies of the congregation.

Darkness Around Mouth.

Question—L. J. asks: "Just what causes darkness around the mouth, mostly under the nose. Is it kidney trouble? Also what causes me to rub my eyes a lot? What wash is good?"

Answer—Darkness of the skin around the mouth usually comes from some liver derangement which is invariably due to faulty diet. Your eyes may itch because of irritation of the mucous membrane of the eyelids from the discharge of irritating toxins, but you may need glasses or should surely consult an eye specialist who can advise you to put on glasses or to use an eye wash which he could recommend.

ASPIRIN

The whole world knows Aspirin as an effective antidote for pain. But it's just as important to know that there is only one genuine Aspirin. The name Bayer is on every tablet, and on the box. If the name Bayer appears, it's genuine; and if it doesn't, it is not! Headaches are dispelled by Aspirin. So are colds, and the pain that goes with them; even neuralgia, neuritis, and rheumatism promptly relieved. Get Aspirin—at any drugstore—with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) indicating Bayer Manufacture. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assure the public against imitations, the Tablets will be stamped with their "Bayer Cross" trademark.

What Doctors Say About the Laxative Habit

What do YOU do when the bowels need a little assistance? If you clear-up the condition with some laxative made with CASCARETS, there is nothing better for the system—for the blood.

But if you don't KNOW the laxative you have learned to depend on is of harmless cascara, here's some truly valuable advice:

The bark of a tree called cascara is the most marvelous conditioner mankind has yet found. It stimulates the bowel's muscular action, but does NOT weaken. A violent laxative forms the laxative HABIT. You always need more on the morrow. With cascara, you don't. Its gentle influence carries on sometimes for days. With less and less need of any aid, as time goes on.

So, the very next time you feel sluggish, take only

WAS ALWAYS AILING NEVER FELT WELL

Health Restored Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

"I am one of the many who have found new health through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," says Mrs. Everitt Dowe, South Nelson, N.B. "For some years I never felt well, and at times was so weak that I would be confined to bed. At the very best I was in an ailing condition and found it difficult at all times to do my household work. I was subject to headaches, poor appetite, breathless at the least exertion, and very pale. Before Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me I had tried several medicines, but without any good results. I had become completely discouraged and felt that I would always be an invalid. A friend strongly urged me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and finally I consented to do so, but without much hope that they would help, where other medicines had failed. But in this, to my joy, I was mistaken. I had not been taking the pills very long when I knew they were helping me. As I continued their use I found my appetite improving, I slept better at night, and my strength was gradually returning. I continued taking the pills for several months, when I again found myself a well woman, and I believe that had it not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I would today be a helpless invalid. The pills have since been taken by others in our family, with the same beneficial results. I strongly urge every weak woman to try this grand health-building medicine."

If you will send your name and address to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., a little book, "Building Up the Blood," will be mailed you postpaid.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CONTEST LETTERS FOR THE BETTER-LETTER GROUP

Three Lakes, Que.

January 27, 1929.

Dear Uncle Jim:

This is my first letter to your cozy corner. I am eleven years old. For pets I have two cats; one is a nice, big coon cat. I have two ducks. I like to play out-of-doors and go sliding; it is great fun.

Good-bye,

BURNIE MILLE.

South Durham, Que.

January 27, 1929.

Dear Uncle Jim:

This is my second letter to you. I read the letters in the corner every week and think they are nice. I am eight years old and am in grade three at school. I haven't missed a day of school yet this term. My teacher is Miss Mitchell.

Santa Claus treated me very well. I got a doll, pencil box, a book, box of handkerchiefs and a lot of other things. I like to skate and slide; the skating is pretty good now.

I have four brothers and one

UNCLE JIM'S LETTER

Dear Corner Folk:

Well, I'm sure all the corner boys and girls are enjoying the real winter weather. Isn't it nice to have the snow and ice for sliding and skating. I was out in the country one day this week and it was very beautiful and white; so different from the city where snow becomes dirty in on day from all the smoke and steam and travel.

I didn't have time to go into the woods, but hope to go some time later. I like the little verses in today's corner about fun in winter and the song and smile. If we spend some of our time out-of-doors we will feel more like singing, and I hope all the corner children know how to smile the right kind of a smile.

We have some new cousins today, also letters from some who have written before. Burnie wrote neatly and correctly as to heading, etc., but her letter is very short. We want to have newsy letters. Tell us all about your town, your school and games so we will know what is going on in many places.

I don't ask for the Uncle's picture, but she will have to be refused as well as Joe, who also asked for it. The Record Corner would not like the Corner Uncle to send photographs around, for you know corner uncles are never very good-looking, and the cousins who received photos might not want to write any more. I think the best way is for all the corner folk just to think of Uncle Jim as a tall, thin man with grey hair and sad eyes, but a happy smile—that is, when the cousins write nice cheery letters to the corner. Oh, yes, you may also think of Uncle Jim as sitting in a big arm-chair before the fireplace while reading the cousins' letters. Some day perhaps we will have a cozy corner with a fireplace, round tables, a radio, victrola, and other nice things, and all in a cozy room in Sherbrooke City where the corner cousins can come in and get acquainted with each other and have a jolly time together.

Until then we will try to keep our corner in the Daily Record bright and entertaining. So please write newsy letters, and see how nicely you can write them.

Yours faithfully,

UNCLE JIM.

LETTERS FROM THE CORNER FOLK

Dear Uncle Jim:

I haven't written to you for quite a while. My sister decided to write so I said I would write, too. I received letters from Eleanor Lowry and Wilma Sale, who you know are the ones from California that wanted us to write to them. Their letters were very interesting. I wrote to them quite a while ago. I made my visit in Montreal and had a nice time, but was glad to get home. I like Sherbrooke best, although I haven't seen much of either place. I was sick last week but I feel better tonight and I think I shall go to school tomorrow. All our playtime at school now is spent sliding on the ice. There are not many sleighs running here now. As my letter is getting long I will close.

Your niece,

RUTH JOHNTON.

South Durham, Que.

Dear Uncle Jim:

I have not written to the corner for quite a while, have I? I was very pleased to get that card from you, and daddy and mother, how they praised it! I liked it, too, and I want to thank you for it. I was sick at the time it came. I am better now though I was sick for four days and the doctor gave me some pills to take three times a day and one a night. I hope I will feel all right soon because I want to get back to school. I am in the sixth grade and I don't want to have to take the same grade over again.

Daddy is very sick now; it is the effects of the "flu" and his heart is very bad. Dr. Johnston could not get his heart to beat right. He said there wasn't enough steam for the engine. Mother is feeling better, but if she does too much she is tired, but she is gaining now.

My kitten Fatso was with me, on the bed when I was sick. She's a dear—I mean a pet dear. You know just how children like cats, especially nice ones. At Mrs. Harris's, in Lennoxville, there are two big cats. They are almost as big as a dog, in fact they are as big.

An aeroplane passed over here yesterday and I saw it plainly. It was going fast but flying low and they were waving their hands and talking. They seemed to be having a good time up there in the air. I guess this will be enough for this time. Good-bye, Uncle Jim.

Your loving niece,

HELEN PICARD.

Birchton.

FUN IN WINTER

Who finds a cold and snowy day?

Who wants to stay indoors to play?

Jack Frost may howl, and winds may blow, And the ground be white with snow. Snowbirds and chickadees may fly, And great gray clouds fill all the sky. But still we can go out to play. Wrapped in caps and coats this way!

Many people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for fifty years the standard with physicians. One spoonful of water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid again when you prove out this quick relief. Please do that—for your own sake—now.

It's Growing!

The shoulder-length bob is taking a real place among fashions of the hour for the younger set. In many high schools and colleges, more than half the girls are letting their hair grow to new length. This style is worn by New York City girls. It is shown in the above photograph of Miss Edna Rabbe, 1925 Avenue G, Brooklyn.

Miss Rabbe says: "I am certainly delighted that I let my hair grow to the new length now that I have found a way to keep it easily manageable and attractive. My hair is ever so much fluffier and more vigorous than it has been for a long time. And it is free from all traces of dandruff, now. I attribute its improvement to the method I am using to care for it. It's so popular among the girls in my set. All we do is put a little Danderine on our brushes whenever we use them. This makes my hair so easy to dress any way I want it and holds it in place as I arrange it. Danderine soothes my scalp and keeps it and my hair so clean. I don't need to shampoo more than twice a month, now. And all my friends admire the way it makes my hair so bright and sparkling."

Danderine does more to bring out the natural color, the gleam and lustre of your hair, than shampoo or brilliantine. It removes that oily film from it, gives it new life and lustre. It cleanses and invigorates the scalp; helps overcome dandruff. Danderine is delightfully fragrant; isn't oily, doesn't show. All drug stores have the generous 35c. bottles.

A "RED LETTER" DAY IN HISTORY OF SHERBROOKE SNOWSHOE CLUB
The Past Presidents' Night at the Sherbrooke Snow Shoe Club last Wednesday will undoubtedly be included as one of the outstanding meetings of the club season. A great deal of credit is due those who were responsible for getting together so many past presidents and for the excellent programme provided.
Following the business meeting:

WEATHER FOR JANUARY WAS FAIRLY GOOD

First Month of New Year Compared Favorably With Same Period of Last Year in Weather Records.

That January of this year compared favorably with the same month of last year, so far as temperature and sunshine, is shown in the meteorological report from the Lennoxville Experimental Station for the past month.

There were eleven more hours of sunshine last month than in January of 1928; there was more rain, but less snow, and higher temperature maintained, yet the St. Francis River froze over sixteen days earlier this year.

With the exception of one snow fall, the winter so far has been comfortable, yet the general belief is that lower temperature and more snow is conducive to better health conditions.

The report from the Experimental Station for the month is as follows:
The weather during the month of January has been mild, on the whole, and the sleighing very poor, as the two and a half feet of snow that fell during the month melted soon after it came, or was blown off from the roads in places. The ground is frozen deeply, and the water supply on some of the farms is getting quite low.

The highest temperature for the month was forty-eight above zero, on the sixth, and lowest twenty below zero on the sixteenth, compared with a maximum temperature of forty and minimum of thirty below zero for the same month last year.
The average temperature for the month of January was 12.40, as compared with an average of 15.04 a year ago.

The rainfall was 1.44 inches for January, compared with .94 inch in 1928. The snowfall totalled twenty-seven inches as against 29.50 inches of snow for the same month last year.

There were 89.7 hours of sunshine recorded for the month, compared with 78.3 hours for the corresponding month last year. The St. Francis River froze over January 3rd, sixteen days earlier than last year.

President Van Roden surrendered his chair to Past President John Mc-Donald, who is now residing in Stanstead, and who in a very eloquent speech expressed his pleasure at being present and thanked the members for the he accorded him in making him the acting chairman. He recalled many happy hours which he had spent in the club during his residence in Sherbrooke, and complimented the members of the fine manner in which the old club was continuing to be operated.

A programme which had been prepared contained the names of sixteen past presidents, and to each had been allotted a subject on which to speak. In most cases this subject was in line with the particular past president's business, so that it was expected he would be able to handle the subject with competence. However, this did not always prove to be the case. The past presidents, who responded to their names and the subjects of their addresses were as follows:
Messrs. John McDonald, acting chairman; Dr. W. S. Allen, "Tenth Tensils and Tripe"; W. G. Foss,
"How I Sell 2x4 Knot Joles"; M.
L. Hunting, "Alicia Mary"; J. H.
Foss, "How to Take Doughnuts
Without Holes"; E. J. Page, "Different Papers I Have Known"; Dr.
Bloomfield, "Musical Instruments Used and Otherwise"; Geo. Full,
"Fruit, Good, Bad and Indifferent";
C. E. Soles, "Stamps and Tramps";
(He sang this); H. V. Haight,
"Clotheslines, Fishlines and Airlines"; J. A. Barrie, "The Lost Chord"; J. A. Cook, "How to Keep Bobbin' Around"; J. G. Ranshouan, "Races I Have Lost"; Dr. F.
Bradley, "How I Pulled the Kaiser's Teeth"; A. C. Skinner, "Precious
Gems"; and Col. Worthington, "An Enjoyable Recitation."

On orchestra composed of club members was in attendance and the old club certainly had a wealth of musical talent. The thanks of the club are also due to Mr. Ernest Armistage for his solo; to Mr. Gault, Parker, who accompanied him, and to Mr. Messrs. Ross and Keeler, who installed a radio which assisted in the entertainment. By special request of the acting chairman and in the unavoidable absence of the past president, Mr. F. S. Rugg, Mr.
Gordon Armistage led the club in the song, "Alouette."

LOCAL MUSICIAN HEARD OVER RADIO

Many local friends of Miss Lucille Moore, of this city, at present continuing her musical studies in New York City, enjoyed the musical numbers which she gave over the radio yesterday afternoon.

Miss Moore was heard over station WGY, Schenectady, and commenced her programme about three o'clock. She gave several delightful numbers which were selected from the compositions of Medtner, Chopin, McDowell and Matkowski. The reception was very good in certain parts of the city, and the programme was much enjoyed by those who were listening in.

Miss Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Moore, Brooks street, and is well known in local musical circles, as her name has frequently appeared on Sherbrooke programmes and she is regarded as a very promising young musician.

Mrs. L. E. Codere, King Street west, is spending a few days in Montreal.

Professor E. C. Hughes of McGill University, is the guest of Mrs. A. W. Cleveland, Ontario Street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pierce entertained the ladies' staff of the Daily Record at dinner last evening at the New Sherbrooke. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. J. K. Edwards, Dominion Avenue, entertained very informally at the tea hour yesterday afternoon for Miss Mildred Lurie, of Richmond, who played several piano selections during the afternoon. Mrs. R. N. Robins poured tea.

Mrs. Leo T. Delaney and young son, recently of New Bedford, Mass., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Collins, Drummond Road, left this week for New York, where Mr. and Mrs. Delaney will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Bishop and their niece, Miss Jean Oughtred, left yesterday for St. Petersburg, Florida, where they expect to remain until the latter part of April. Dr. L. Bishop, of Wichita, Kan., will join his brother and family in St. Petersburg for part of their stay.

Among those taking part in the programme of the Musicales to be held at the home of Mrs. F. N. McCrea on Thursday evening next, in aid of King George 5th Chapter, I.O.O.F., will be Miss Buchanan, from East Angus, who was in Sherbrooke on a former occasion and won recognition from her audience as a reader of much ability. Mrs. P. H. Bradley has charge of the programme, and this in itself is assurance of an ensemble of musical artists.

A coming visitor to Sherbrooke who will be heartily welcomed is Miss MacMurey, first vice-president of the W.M.S. Council of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, who will be in Sherbrooke next Wednesday and will give an address in St. Andrew's Church Hall that evening. Miss MacMurey was one of a delegation sent to India in 1927, and her first-hand knowledge of conditions in the mission field, and of interesting places visited, besides the pleasure of having a visit from this notable Canadian woman.

Mr. T. J. Delaney, whose marriage to Miss Muri Kinkead took place on Thursday last, was prior to his marriage, presented with a beautiful electric coffee set and toaster by the officials and staff of the Superintendent's Department of the Sherbrooke Branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce where he is engaged as accountant. The presentation was made by Mr. G. Laird, while Mr. L. P. Bishop presided over the happy event. Mr. R. Stinson also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Delaney the very best wishes and congratulations of the staff.

PART OF CHEVROLET IN GROWTH OF CANADA TOLD

Interesting Pictures and Lecture on Part Played by General Motors in Canadian Industrial Life.

The show rooms of Webster Motors Limited have been the scene of three very interesting lectures in the past two days. These lectures, and the moving pictures in connection with them, were for the purpose of introducing the Chevrolet car and the part that it plays in the growth and future of Canada.

The opening picture was a trip across Canada in a Chevrolet, in which all the principal places of interest were visited. The place that the Chevrolet takes in the industrial, economic and social life of Canada was pointed out. The automobile industry is the greatest industry of today.

Some time was spent explaining the features of the new car, following which a Charles Chaplin comedy was presented.

On Thursday afternoon St. Charles Seminary students were the guests of Webster Motors, while about two hundred French citizens were present on Thursday evening, and about the same number of English persons visited the show rooms last evening.

COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION HELD MEETING

Eastern Townships County Fair Association Met at New Sherbrooke House Yesterday to Discuss Various Problems.

A meeting of the Eastern Townships County Fair Association was held at the New Sherbrooke House yesterday afternoon for the purpose of discussing problems in connection with the operation of the respective county fairs in the Townships.

Col. W. R. Stevens, secretary-treasurer of the organization, reported that forty-two out of a possible seventy-nine questionnaires, to the effect that the provincial government be approached regarding an increase in the annual grant, had been returned and, as the response had been satisfactory, steps would be taken to determine the attitude of the provincial authorities in this matter.

The president and secretary-treasurer of each county fair were appointed delegates to the Provincial County Fair Association, which is meeting in Quebec City between February 20th and 25th for the purpose of discussing the future welfare of the county fairs with Hon. J. E. Caron, Minister of Agriculture.

Some time was taken up as to the company controlling the railways of the fairs in the Association at the coming season, it being finally decided that an application of the Maple Leaf Shows be received.

The question of dates on which the several fairs in the Association operate during the present was discussed and the following were suggested: Cookshire, (Compton) August 15th, 16th and 17th; Richmond, (Richmond), August 19th, 20th and 21st; Ayer's Cliff, (Stanstead), August 22nd, 23rd and 24th; Bedford, (Missisquoi), August 27th, 28th and 29th; Bromley, (Bromley), September 2nd, 3rd and 4th, and Granby, (Shefford), September 5th, 6th and 7th.

Among those present at the meeting were: Compton County, Messrs. W. H. Hall, Jos. Reddell, J. W. Robinson and E. R. Cromwell; Richmond County, Messrs. R. Bedard, McMorine and W. R. Stevens, of Stanstead County, Messrs. John Peters and H. G. Curtis.

BILL PROVIDES PROTECTION OF MUNICIPALITY

Act Introduced in Ontario Legislature Declares All Sales of Land for Arrears of Taxes Valid and Binding.

(Canadian Press Despatch) TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 2.—If the bill introduced in the Legislature yesterday by Fred G. McBurney, Conservative, Brockton, successfully avoids any pitfalls which may beset it, all sales of land for arrears of taxes by any municipality in Ontario held prior to December 31st, 1924, will be declared valid and binding. The bill known as the Tax Sales Confirmation Act, is the first of its kind since Confederation. Under the present legislation, although certain limitations state that all are void after two years' lapse, the courts can still uphold actions in certain cases. It is to validate all titles held by purchasers of these lands that the present bill is planned. Last year it was introduced but thrown out when it was held that it was too "recent." For this season that date from which the bill will be retroactive was fixed as December 31st, 1924.

DAVIDSON HILL AND BETHEL

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ingram were taken by surprise on Saturday evening, January 23rd, when their neighbors gathered at their home and gave them a kitchen shower. Quite a number of presents were received, and refreshments were served by the ladies.

Mrs. Alfred Davidson and Mrs. H. Reed were in South Durham on Friday, guests at the home of Mrs. J. Bowring.

Mr. Garnet Henderson, who has been quite ill with the grippie, is able to be out again.

Mr. Fred Ingram, of South Durham, spent a day recently in Davidson Hill.

BROMPTONVILLE

Messrs. Ovilla and Oscar Campeau, of Sherbrooke, were in town on Thursday, calling on friends.

Miss A. Jamieson has returned to her home in East Angus.

Miss Jean Riddock is spending a few days in East Angus, Que.

DUNKIN

It has been a hard winter so far to earn anything by teaming, due to lack of snow. The Blair's large lot of logs up the Rutter brook have been moved to North Troy by trucks, four being in use till the roads began to get bad. A large plow was brought up from New York, but was unable to get the trucks to the logs. The snowfall of the last few days gives promise of better hauling conditions however.

OPPOSITION TO HIGH TARIFF

Import For Canada Very Small. The argument submitted in the brief yesterday morning for the British company, was that the import into Canada was very small, not more than 3.5 per cent. of the aluminum made in this country, and that the Canadian and United States aluminum companies controlled fifty per cent. of the world's output of aluminum, so that protection was not needed. The applicants on the other hand claimed they were losing money on the production of foils and other lines in which they are now making protection.

Mr. MacDonald in opposing upward revision of the tariff on the commodities listed, declared that the firm he represented had pioneered in the Canadian field, and was, in effect, an aluminum fabricator. His brief urged that the British preferential tariff be retained.

Mr. Moore asked Norman Somerville, appearing for seven fabricating firms, why it was that Canadian interests could undersell competitors while the cost of producing finished aluminum ware was so much higher.

Mr. Somerville replied that the companies sold some of the articles at a loss. It was necessary, he added, for the Ontario manufacturers to sell at the low cost in order to meet the strong competition with United States producers, who, he said, operated on a mass production basis.

THE STAGE AND SCREEN THE PREMIER

Again next week the Premier Theatre will carry out its policy of double bills, with special features for each day of the week.

For the first three days of the week, beginning on Monday, the screen attractions will be "Dog Law," a thrilling story of northern Canada, and "Naughty Baby," with Alice White and Jack Mulhall in the leading roles.

"Dog Law" is based on the experiences of a youth, who, after making a fortune in Alaska, goes to a small Canadian town with his dog, Ranger, where he gambles away his money. How he discovers he has been cheated, and how he finally retrieves his lost fortune through the tireless efforts of his dog and a girl, is said to be told in a colorful and appealing manner.

In "Naughty Baby" Miss White appears as a cheek girl at the Ritz Hotel, hence the name. She is one of the girls of flapper face and figure who have champagne ideas on a home brew income. Mulhall, as might be imagined, is the youthful heir to a fortune, and he provides the champagne possibilities. He is out-gilding along the Great White Way with a broad brush, and Alice helps him.

She doesn't stop at all at twinning. She has three other boys on

JAPAN TEA

'Fresh from the gardens'

Married Quarters

by DAVID LYALL

"I love you, Aunt Naomi. If you really want to do a patriotic—no, a Christian—act, shut up Eaves Corner and come and be a sheep-dog here. I won't do anything very dreadful, and perhaps after a while, when the storms are ex-austed, Jim and I will settle down into a good stodge Stony Markyate couple. I might even stand behind the counter weighing up sugar and having a jolly time with outside gossip."

She danced off to the kitchen to forward preparations for tea, and

NO MEDICINE LIKE BABY'S OWN TABLETS

For Either the Newborn Babe or the Growing Child

There is no other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones—whether it be for the newborn babe or the growing child the Tablets always do good. They are absolutely free from opiates or other harmful drugs and the mother can always feel safe in using them.

Concerning the Tablets, Mrs. John Armour, R.R. 1, South Monaghan, Ont., says:—"We have three fine, healthy children, to whom, when a medicine is needed, we have given only Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are the best medicine you can keep in any home where there are young children."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or direct by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

their intimate talk was not resumed. Naomi hoped to the last moment of her visit that Jim might drop in, but though she waited till nearly six she was disappointed.

"He's never here before half-past six, and then it is only to get into slacks for the mess", Poppy assured her.

"And does he leave you here every night for hours and hours alone?" asked Naomi severely.

"Impm", said Poppy, nodding her head. "That is for an hour and a half. He doesn't stop there playing bridge, though he is a jolly good player. He comes straight back, and he only goes to eat there, because we can't agree about the dinner here, and it is too much trouble to get it. Besides, Slattery's Ann can't."

"It should be possible to get some one better than Ann", suggested Naomi.

"Ann's a treasure and I like her, and I don't want anybody else. You'll have to leave us to paddle our own very cobbly canoe. Aunt Naomi, and I'll send out an S.O.S. call when we're getting too near the reefs. Now I'll walk to the bottom of the lane with you. It's a heavenly moonlight night. If there was any way of getting back I'd go the whole way."

"Jim would fetch you", said Naomi quickly. "Shall we leave a message with Ann?"

But Poppy shook her head. "I'm too tired, really. It's six miles there and back, and it's dinky of you to do it. Good-bye, darling Aunt Naomi, and ever so many thanks. You were my first real friend in Stony Markyate, and you'll be the last, I feel sure. You don't belong. It's a changeling you were, and a changeling you will remain till your Cabinet Minister comes to take you away."

Naomi had no answer to the bit of gay badinage that came less frequently now to the girl's lips, and her heart was heavy about these two, both of whom she loved, as she walked, shepherded by the rapacious Spot, back to Markyate. Before she sought her own house she opened the door in the wall and, seeing a light in the Parsonage House, walked up to the door and knocked. Tom Bishop had now gone to the front as chaplain to one of the Yorkshire Divisions, and Mary was doing her best to carry on in his absence. She would have liked to go farther afield to take up war work in France too, but duty in the shape of keeping the Parsonage House open, and entertaining such supply as the Deacons' Court could obtain, was obviously her first duty. And Mary, having been trained in obedience and the cheerful performance of duty, made no mean about it. She was engaged cutting out garments for her own chapel working party when her little maid showed Miss Bradford in.

"Why, Aunt Naomi, this is a pleasure, I'm sure! It's a very long time since you've been here", she cried dropping her scissors and kissing her aunt warmly.

"Not so very long, surely. How are you, dear Mary?"

It rested her eyes to dwell on Mary Bishop's sweet, kind face, which wore the seal of the happy woman's life. Her house was built on the rock of a good man's love, and was immune from the wind of adversity, the frosts of fate. Absolutely one in heart and in purpose, she consecrated to the service of God and humanity, they had a secret and inward peace which nothing could take away.

Naomi thought of the restless bit of fluff she had just left, drifting on the eddying waters of discontent and temptation, and breathed an inward prayer.

"I've come tonight because I want something, Mary. When did you hear from Tom?"

Mary left her cutting table and set down opposite her aunt, then unbuttoned her blouse and took out her last precious letter. That little incident moved Naomi profoundly.

For Mary Bishop was not a sentimental, nor emotional woman, and it meant that the depth of her feeling was unmeasurable.

"I got it this morning. He has moved up to the front line. Oh, Aunt Naomi, how terrible it all is, yet how splendid! He says he will always thank God for this, the greatest opportunity of his life."

"Don't say that, Mary, nor let him say it", said Naomi rather quickly.

"He had a great work to do here. Some of us find it rather difficult to carry on without him."

"Isn't it wonderful how God blesses him wherever he goes, Aunt Naomi?" said Mary, with quiet, shining eyes. "They are so kind to him. The C. O. says he has been sent to them specially in answer to prayer. He has the right atmosphere to work in. They want him, they need him desperately, and, oh! he will never fail them. I'm afraid, however, that he is reckless. For two days now to the girl's lips, and her heart was heavy about these two, both of whom she loved, as she walked, shepherded by the rapacious Spot, back to Markyate. Before she sought her own house she opened the door in the wall and, seeing a light in the Parsonage House, walked up to the door and knocked. And Mary, having been trained in obedience and the cheerful performance of duty, made no mean about it. She was engaged cutting out garments for her own chapel working party when her little maid showed Miss Bradford in.

"You really believe that we'll win, Aunt Naomi?"

"We have won, my dear, but victory needs to be rounded off and made clear. Those who died on the Marne reached the winning post, though they did not know it. Now I wonder if you'll do something for me? How busy are you tomorrow and Saturday?"

"Oh, just the usual round. I don't go to Mandeville tomorrow because I must get the work here in full winter train. They've got more workers there now, anyhow, and can spare me."

"Good! Would you take your work round and attend to the shop for two days—no, only a day and a half?"

Mary looked puzzled by a request so unusual and so unexpected.

"I could, of course; but why?"

"I want to go away for a couple of days, Mary. I'm sorry, but I must not say where. You can trust me, can't you?" she said, with a little rippling smile. "I want to start very early tomorrow morning, because I have rather a long journey. But I can get back about seven on Saturday night. I would close up, only it makes such a talk, and I don't know anyone I could ask to look after it in my absence."

"I can do it; it's very near the parsonage, and Rose could bring me any messages."

GROUND-HOG DAY

Today, February 2nd, is known under two different names. It is commonly called "Ground-Hog Day", but its proper name is "Candlemas Day". It is a day of special note, for, according to an ancient belief held by many, it regulates the weather for the next six weeks. It is called "Ground-Hog Day," because the ground-hogs are supposed to awake from their hibernating slumber and crawl out of their holes. If the sun shines out of a clear sky and they can see their shadows, it is taken to mean six additional weeks of cold weather. If, however, the sun is obscured by clouds, the ground-hog counts the winter over and ends his slumbers.

There is a curious old custom of long standing in Scotland in connection with Candlemas. On that day it lately was the practice for school children to make a small present of money to their masters. The master sitting at his desk, exchanged his look of authority for one of bland civility while his pupils tripped up one at a time and laid their offering on his desk. Some brought sixpence, some a shilling and many half a crown. The boy and girl who gave the most were styled the King and Queen, and the children used to form a procession through the streets, carrying "Their Majesties" on a chair of crossed hands. This is probably the origin of King's Chairs.

THE PRINCE'S VISIT TO THE MINING DISTRICT

The trip made by the Prince of Wales to the devastated coal fields of Northumberland and Durham to see for himself the actual conditions prevailing is additional proof that the Royal family is keenly interested in and belongs to all the people of the Empire. It was another noble act on the part of the heir to the British throne, and an act that will never be forgotten by the miners and their families.

During his visit to house after house the Prince was brought face to face with scenes of suffering that he had never before encountered in his many travels. In fact, he was so deeply touched by the bravery and patience of the suffering workers that he sometimes experienced difficulty finding words to express his sympathy.

While it will undoubtedly take some time before the situation can be fully relieved, the Prince has nevertheless greatly aided the miners and their families. In the first place they were undoubtedly encouraged by the knowledge that the Royal family is interested in their welfare, and the Prince's visit has also served to impress on people everywhere that the situation is very serious, and, as a consequence hundreds of thousands of dollars will be added to the relief funds.

IMPORTANT ONTARIO LEGISLATION

Some very important legislation will be presented by the Ferguson Government during the present session of the Ontario Legislature along the following lines: For the preservation of the pulpwood resources of the province, dealing with frauds in real estate transactions, to improve mining regulations, to amend the Probation Act, respecting the sale of Alberta coal in Ontario, respecting provincial forests, respecting widows and orphans, respecting the Election and Registry Acts.

While detailed information on the proposals to be put forward by the Government have not as yet been made public, it is stated that Premier Ferguson and his colleagues are of the opinion that the time has arrived when the timber wealth of Ontario must be placed on some definite basis and that they intend to prosecute a reforestation policy on a scale hitherto undreamed of. In fact, it is stated on good authority that Ontario is to have its first "Provincial forests" and its first government-controlled and operated northern "play grounds" this year. From seven to ten great areas in Northern Ontario, including the present Timagami reserve with an area of 5,380 miles, the Mississauga reserve with 4,896 square miles, the Nipigon reserve with 6,000 square miles, and the Queticoqui reserve with 1,720 miles will, under the new legislation be designated as "Provincial forests" and given over entirely to reforestation on a gigantic scale under the direction of expert foresters.

It is pointed out that the "playground" end of the arrangements is made possible by the fact that these new "forests", unlike Provincial parks, will not be closed to shooters or be subject to licensing of anglers. In fact, it is stated that it is the Government's intention to turn these areas into sportsmen's paradises by erecting at various suitable locations hunters' bungalows and fishing lodges, these also to be under the management and direction of the forestry experts.

The plan as outlined is an elaborate one and will no doubt be watched with keen interest by the Quebec Government.

CONTROLLING THE EMOTIONS

A man's emotions are like the steam in a locomotive boiler. They make him go. But the man's reason is like the engineer in the cab he is supposed to have control of the team.

A locomotive that was all steam and without an engineer would soon wreck itself.

Education is the fire-proofer of emotions.

It is among the uneducated that the emotions flame up most quickly into mobs and riots.

"Emotion," observed Dr. Platt in his "Riddle of Society," "is more restrained today. It may still be fanned into its old flame, but in more educated centers the flame does not spread. There is too much fire-proof material."

Some of the asbestos and metal that education provides to keep emotion within bounds comes from an increased ability to reason and think, a wide range of reading and a frequent presentation of different sides of questions.

The educated man's thinking becomes more complex. He has seen too many times that a question has other sides to believe in sudden, uninvestigated direct action. He is slower in being pushed into it.

The greatest force in the world is emotion. It is the driving wheels of the automobile. But front wheels to steer the power are also needed, if it isn't to be wasted or to do harm. These front wheels represent reason.

Almost without exception the acts of a mob, running without any leadership except emotion, have proved wrong-headed and harmful.

The justice of a mob is almost always injustice.

The mob that roared through Paris on the eve of the French Revolution, heading for the Bastille, demonstrated how emotion unrestrained is able to reason.

The mob that came to redress its honest wrongs under Henry III of England ended by falling not upon the King's party, against whom they had the grievance, but upon the miserable Jews, five hundred of whom they killed.

The mob that headed for London under Wat Tyler began destroying the palace of the aristocracy, against whom they had a just quarrel, and ended by attacking wine cellars exclusively.

In the balance of emotion and reason a happy mean must be struck. The too-learned tend to become so calm and apathetic that they lose their power. The ignorant tend to become so inflamed and violent that they are but puppets to fanatic destruction.

Emotion that retains its power but is fire-proofed within bounds of reason is what is needed.—Ct. 1929.

PRESS COMMENT

CANADIAN COMMUTERS.
(New York Times)

It is hoped that the Department of Labor will not seek to get around the Supreme Court's decision by some new technicality. It should be plain by now that the country regards such obstructions as petty and bureaucratic, and that the few disadvantages which may arise from time to time as a result of the unhampered entry of Canadian workers will be more than overbalanced by the advantages of continued free intercourse and free migration between Canada and the United States.

BRITISH POLITICS.

(J. L. Garvin in The London Observer)
Since the war, the historic English system has disappeared. The whole working of our public life has been weakened and confused. To this we owe no small part of our post-war disappointments. Government cannot appear with the traditional majesty it had when representing a definite majority of the electors. The House of Commons cannot be so vital as when it was the arena of combat between two sides. That was like cricket and football and harmonized deeply with British instinct. Now, the great question is whether the tripartite struggle will go on—whether the two-party system will re-emerge.

MRS. B. W. JENKINSON. Dudswell Junction, Que.

CARD OF THANKS. We wish to thank all those who assisted us in any way during the sickness, death and burial of our dear husband and father, especially Rev. W. H. Cheverton, Rev. Cordner, English Pattern, the organist and choir of St. Paul's Mission, Mr. E. J. Young for sending bearers, Dr. Bayne and the V. O. N. for all their kindness and attention. Also those who sent flowers, tributes, letters and cards of sympathy and those who so kindly lent cars.

MRS. S. H. DOUST. MR. AND MRS. T. DOUST.

ston, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. McFadden, Miss Irene McFadden and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Johnston, all of Ayer's Cliff; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Young, of North Bay, Ont.; Miss Margaret Dods as well as many other relatives from Lennoxville, Sherbrooke and the surrounding community.

The floral expressions of sympathy were many and beautiful, coming from relatives and friends in Lennoxville, Ayer's Cliff, Sherbrooke, East Angus, Montreal and North Bay.

Among the societies sending flowers were the Official Board and Ladies' Aid of the United Church, Lennoxville; the Ladies' Aid, the Band and the United Church Choir of Ayer's Cliff, as well as the Ruggs Ball Manufacturing Co., Ltd., employees, the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and a large group of personal friends in the same place.

Mrs. Johnston was born in Huntingville, the only child of the late Francis Mitchell and his wife, Jane Mills, growing up and spending her girlhood days there, until her marriage to Mr. Willard Johnston on March 19, 1874, when she came to live in Lennoxville.

This was of only short duration, however, as the destruction of property in the great fire which destroyed so large a part of Lennoxville a short time after caused the removal of the little family back to the old home on the farm at Huntingville, where they remained, Mr. Johnston still carrying on his business in Lennoxville until the time of his death, November 4, 1904.

The following year Mrs. Johnston moved with her family to Lennoxville to the house which her husband had planned for their declining years, and here spent the remainder of her life.

In her younger days Mrs. Johnston was closely connected with many musical activities in the Eastern Townships. Possessed of a strong, true soprano voice, she was the life of many a chorus, and will long be remembered by the families of the pioneer members of the Lennoxville Methodist Church for

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Fourth Troop Held Meeting

A very successful meeting was held by the 4th Troop Boy Scouts last night with nearly a full turnout. At six-thirty o'clock the Fox patrol held a patrol supper, followed by a regular meeting at 7.15 p.m. The inspection for the usefulness of pocket contents was won by the Beaver patrol.

The patrols then dispersed to their various corners for instruction and the scoutmaster conducted a short quiz, followed by a number of games. Scout law and reading each had a period, after which a number of announcements were made.

The patrol standing is as follows: Beaver patrol, 99 points, and Fox patrol, 96 points.

A sleigh drive for the scouts and their lady friends will be held next Friday night, leaving headquarters at eight o'clock.

6th Troop Hold Parents' Night. A fine programme of Nighting and Scouting was run off last evening in St. Andrew's Church Hall at a combined meeting of Scouts and Cubs of the 6th Troop and Pack. Special invitations were sent to the parents of the boys and a fair number of spectators were present.

The meeting opened with the Cubs in council circle and the Scouts in horseshoe formation. Grand howl, flag break and Scout silence followed. A brief inspection of patrols and corners was made by A. S. M. Raffan, while the Cubs were in charge of C. M. Hammond and A. C. M. Edgar. A joint game by both Cubs and Scouts "ball tag," was played under the direction of the Cubmaster, after which the Scout dispersed to patrol corners for instruction under the P.L.'s. Several games were played by the Cubs during this period.

During six corners several games were played by the Scouts under the S.M., including "hat relay" and "scarf circle" while a first aid problem, which was correctly diagnosed by the Crow patrol under P.L. Hall, completed this period. Several announcements were made concerning a snowshoe tramp for the Cubs next Friday, and Scout hike on February 9th, and closed with flag lowering, grand howl and prayer, followed by the night yell. At a meeting of the parents at the close of the evening a committee was appointed under the chairmanship of Mrs. L. A. Dunsmore, to take charge of the father and son banquet to be held on February 22nd. A programme was drawn up by the P.L.'s for next week's meeting, when the 4th Troop will be guests of the 6th.

many years of service in its choir. Formerly a Congregationalist, Mr. Johnston entered wholeheartedly into the work of the Methodist Church upon the cessation of Congregational preaching in Lennoxville, and with her family has been true to its interests, and loyal to its support throughout all the intervening years.

Though for some years failing health as well as a retiring disposition, kept her closely in her home, yet her world of thought was as wide as the daily press could keep it, and to the day of her death, in her eighty-fourth year, she was as keenly interested in world and community affairs as ever.

Thoughtful of others and never of herself, there are many who will miss keenly the little quiet evidences of kindly thought which came to them because Mrs. Johnston sat at home and remembered them.

Besides a large circle of more distant relatives, she leaves to cherish her memory two sons, Frank A. and Malcolm W. Johnston, of Ayer's Cliff; two daughters, Jennie, (Mrs. Hugh McFadden), of Ayer's Cliff, and Isabel, (Mrs. E. J. Young), of North Bay, Ont., five grandchildren, Miss Irene McFadden and Malcolm and Murray Johnston, of Ayer's Cliff, and Joyce and Gay Young, of North Bay, and Miss Margaret Dods, her cousin and companion of years, whose faithful and loving care was highly appreciated by Mrs. Johnston.

LITTLE CHANGE IN PRICES

With the exception of the dairy section prices at the Sherbrooke Market were almost stationary yesterday, as compared with last week. Cheese was up, sharply, Canadian cheese selling at thirty-five a pound, while craft and similar brands were forty cents per pound.

GRAIN MARKET

Montreal, Feb. 2nd.
GRAIN.—There was a good demand for all grades of cash wheat in the Winnipeg market yesterday from No. 3 northern down of which the offerings were light and prices firmly held. Millers took all the No. 3 northern and No. 4 wheat, while shippers and dealers bought the lower grades. No. 1 northern closed at $1.24 1/4 showing a decline of 1-8c per bushel for the day, while No. 2 northern was unchanged at $1.21, and No. 3 northern 1-8c per bushel higher at $1.16 3/4 per bushel extra, Fort William. The spreads on No. 2 and No. 3 northern were 1-2c to 1-4c per bushel over Wednesday, and No. 1 was unchanged, closing at 4c per bushel under the May option, No. 2 at 7 3/4c under the May option, No. 4 at 16 1/2c under the May option, No. 5 at 27 1/2c under the May option, and No. 6 at 42c under the May option. The premiums on the lower grades showed a gain of 1-2c to 1-4c per bushel. The marketing of wheat throughout western Canada on Wednesday amounted to 237,296 bushels, as against 1,170,565 for the same day last year.

Broomhall cabled that Argentine reported rains in parts of the south-west and in the Pampa districts which will benefit the growing corn, and a later cable stated that there were good rains in the province of Buenos Ayres, and a third cable said there were general rains in all provinces. The corn in the centre and south will be greatly benefited, but generally the damage in the northeast part of the country is now irreparable. The shipments of grain from the Argentine for the week were estimated at 5,513,000 bushels of wheat, 1,535,000 corn, 1,583,000 oats, and 755,000 linseed. The Liverpool future wheat market opened stronger at an advance of 1-2d to 3-4d per cental and closed with a net gain of 1-18d per cental for the day.

According to advices received from Winnipeg yesterday direct exporters worked a little business in No. 2 wheat with foreign buyers overnight for shipment via Alberta seaboard, and a few sales were also made for shipment via Vancouver, while New York reported the sales of wheat in all positions at 500,000 to 600,000 bushels, but the demand for other grades was slow. Local exporters stated that foreign buyers did not respond to their offers made over night.

A feature of the domestic grain trade yesterday was the improved demand that developed from local and outside buyers for Canadian western oats and a fair amount of business was done including sales of some round lots, and on the decline in corn futures at Chicago quite a few cars of corn were also quoted for February shipment. The tone of the market generally was steady and prices showed no further change. Sales of odd cars of Manitoba, No. 6 wheat were made at $1.05, feed wheat at $1.00, Manitoba feed barley at 84c, extra No. 1 feed oats at 75c, No. 1 feed oats, No. 2 feed at 68c per bushel, extra-store Montreal, and American No. 3 yellow corn at $1.16, No. 4 yellow at $1.15 and cool sweet corn at $1.12 per bushel, f.o.b. cars here.

ALL CANADIAN STOCKS ROSE

The public buying extended itself to stocks of companies like C.P.R., Ogilvie and Power Corporation, which were known to be heavy holders of Smelters' shares, and also to subsidiaries of Smelters like Coast Copper, Georges Copper and Big Missouri. They moved up altogether and the awakened confidence in Canada's future as a producer of base metals brought attention once again to Sheritt Gordon Company. The high priced gold stocks on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange re-awakened into activity, and at the end of the week they were joined on a considerable scale by cheaper stocks like Arne and Newbec.

Renewed Attention to Mining

This renewed attention to mining enterprises which are being conducted or projected on a great scale also directed greater attention to the plans of the two great continental railways to extend by hundreds of miles their lines in western Canada and elsewhere into promising districts. The trading also showed some confidence in the future of companies like Besco, which will furnish the railways with steel rails, in car companies like Canada Car and National Steel Car and to locomotive companies to a certain degree. Towards the end of the week the upward movement of Besco and Lake Superior stock was stayed as traders watched the course of efforts to impress the tariff advisory board that tariff increases would help the industry materially.

BUSINESS ON A HIGH LEVEL

The high level of construction kept the bridge, dredge, paving, gypsum and building material companies in the forefront of trading. Issuing of annual statements of many companies of all kinds continued every day to show business on a very high level and contributed to public confidence. Expansion of companies by the sale of "rights" was again resorted to by several companies, National Steel Car, Canadian Car, Winnipeg Electric and others. Mergers were much in the talk on the street, though the offer to purchase Farmers' Dairy by Eastern Dairies was the only considerable amalgamation brought to a head. Yet talk of mergers of bridge and construction companies, of distillery companies and of brewing companies, had an effect on the market, particularly on Hamilton Bridge stock, Walker's and Distillers Corporation. Increasing of storage facilities of Hiram Walker, Goddard and Worts at Walkerville, by a ten-story building capable of holding two and a quarter million gallons was interpreted by the market as a sign of intended expansion and increasingly profitable business prospects, while reports that American interests had secured a large portion of the stock gave an international viewpoint to the market interest.

Stocks of the large oil companies remained active. However, International Petroleum declined to below sixty, but began to recover at the week-end. Superpetroleum merged last week.

The Standard Stock and Mining Exchange had on Friday the most active day it has had this year, and this activity is also in response to the influences which have awakened trading on other exchanges. All loans are believed to have increased in January as in December, though rates are no easier.

GOVERNMENT IS LIKELY TO LIMIT

The direction of restriction, the regulation for the Laurentide National Park, practically all virgin territory, with only a small proportion of the 1,500 lakes ever fished, being that a fisherman may take only five dozen trout each, and the idea now is to cut down this maximum. In the park the Government is naturally in a better position to enforce its will, since the guides are Government employees.

Report on Game Fishery
The continued and increased interest of the Government in the matter of game fishery, is shown in the annual report which Hon. Perreault recently submitted to the Legislature. Until very recent years the Government interest in fisheries was almost altogether confined to commercial fisheries, but more and more attention is being given to the kind of fish which interest anglers. The Government operates six hatcheries. The Tadoussac hatchery during the year ended June 30 last collected 3,100,000 salmon eggs from the 316 parent fish captured during the 927 season at the two fishing stations of Point Rouge and Tadoussac Bay. In the same year, J. N. "Attellier" in charge of the hatchery, went 60 miles up the Saguenay River in Tadoussac, and in the St. Marguerite River captured 1,355 large trout. These yielded 1,130,000 eggs, all of which were deposited in the hatchery. Of these eggs 700,000 were sent to Quebec, together with 140,000 salmon eggs for shipment to Lake Tremblant. The hatchery also sent 500,000 salmon eggs to the United States in exchange for American trout eggs, and 320,000 salmon eggs to the Government hatcheries at St. Alexis des Monts and Lake Tremblant.

One of the troubles which Mr. Catellier had to face last May when he proceeded to capture parent salmon for the hatchery was that thousands of seals thronging the waters along the North Shore of the St. Lawrence had been worrying the salmon. Many captured salmon showed traces of having been bitten and mutilated.

THIRD READINGS WERE GIVEN TO PRIVATE BILLS

(Canadian Press Despatch)
QUEBEC, Feb. 2.—At the request of Maurice Duplessis, Conservative M.L.A. for Three Rivers, the Legislative Assembly yesterday put off third reading of the bill providing for remission of penalties for those sent to jail for provincial and municipal offences. Mr. Duplessis wants two amendments, one to allow sick prisoners five days off per month instead of two and a half days, and a second to provide that the senior judge of the district will determine whether a prisoner is deserving of remission for good conduct or not, instead of leaving the jail governors to decide.

The bill regarding the habeas corpus was also put off at the request of the same member, the grounds being that the matter was of such importance that further consideration was needed. This measure provides that notice of the application for a writ of habeas corpus must be sent to the Department of the Attorney-General at Quebec instead of notification to the Crown Prosecutor being sufficient.

The house gave third reading to several private bills, one regarding the minutes of the town of Terrebonne, one constituting the St. Joseph Hospital for convalescents, one incorporating the "Moniales" Carmelites, one amending the charter of the City of Verdun, amending the charter of the Guy hospital of St. Joseph de Levis, one regarding the parish of St. Michael Archangel, one regarding "La Maison Sainte Claire Ltee," one dealing with the schools of Beaufort, and one regarding the charter of the Port Chocoma Company.

"The matter has not yet been considered," said Premier Taschereau today when asked by the Canadian Press if this Province intends to name a commission to study increases in automobile insurance rates.

NEW YORK PRESS MARKET COMMENT

Furnished by McManamy & Walsh.

Wall Street Journal—Conflicting developments in the credit situation caused highly irregular price movements yesterday. Call money felt the effects of the week-end requirements coming simultaneously with completion of the month-end settlements, causing considerable selling in many sections of the list.

Journal of Commerce—Some of the influences that inspired continued bullish activities were indications of a relaxation in the call money situation in the near future now that the month-end settlements are out of the way, probability of additional gold imports and favorable weekly trade reports.

The trade reports more favorable than ever and the credit outlook encouraging. Wall Street's optimism expressed itself in a further stock market advance yesterday. Scores of issues soared to record breaking prices, with the rail group setting the pace.

Wall Street Journal will say today: 929 gains seen for Paramount.

Steel prices show firmer tendency. Railway Signal business better. Illinois Central gains expected. Eaton Axle net gained sharply. Zinc production up. Vacuum Oil to have gasoline chain.

STOCKS STRONG EARLY TODAY AT MONTREAL

Canada Car Was Feature at Opening With a Gain of Six Points.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
MONTREAL, Feb. 2.—Stocks were generally strong at the opening of the Montreal Stock Exchange this morning. Canada Car featured with a gain of six points at 173, after selling as low as 159. The issue closed at 167 yesterday. Nickel and Brazilian moved in a narrow range. The latter was up a quarter at 76 1/2, while Nickel was unchanged at 67 1/2. Dominion Bridge was up 2 at 110. Hamilton Bridge gained a half at 70. Other changes, for the most part, were fractional.

PRICES CONTINUE UPWARD ON WALL STREET 'CHANGE

(Associated Press Despatch)

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Prices continued to climb at the opening of the stock market today. Eastman Kodak and New York Dock stepped up 2 1/4 and 3 points, respectively, and gains of a point or more were recorded by Atlantic Biscuit, International Combining Engineering, Kennecott Copper, and Alcan. A block of 5,000 shares of New York Central was taken at 204, within a fraction of yesterday's peak and more than a point above the close. Gardiner Motors was again a soft spot, losing about 1 1/2 points.

GOSSIP IN THE WORLD OF FINANCE

Furnished by
Johnston & Ward

BROKERS' OPINIONS
J. S. Bache and Co.—Recessions will tend to invite a renewed investment trust demand for favorably situated stocks and a resumption of the markets upward trend will subsequently develop.

Continued and Weeks—Buying corners highly selective and we would caution against making commitments in issues other than those which warrant special consideration. Industrials may, as a group, mark time while attention is centered in the rails. We would by rails.

MONTREAL, Feb. 2.—Financial Service today says The local market was again very strong yesterday, with Smelters the most sensational performer, the stock advancing to 575 for a gain of 65 points, later losing 10. Other strong features included Canadian Car issues, Dominion Bridge, Hamilton Bridge, Power Corporation, Ogilvie and the Canadian public utility issues. There were practically no losses of any importance in evidence.

The advance in Dominion Bridge and Hamilton Bridge was construed as suggestive of some arrangement whereby Dominion Bridge would acquire the smaller company. This is only a surmise and is not based on anything of an official character, and is a very unlikely contingency. The continuation of the advance in Power Corporation was very impressive. At the present time, it is understood, a large block of the stock is being accumulated for London bankers who believe that the issue is under-valued. Whilst the immediate trend of the security is difficult to forecast, anyone who has made a study of the company is convinced that within the next year or two Power Corporation stock will be in the high money class.

Advisory Service Says
NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Advisory Service of today says:—Rising markets and rising totals for brokers' issues essentially go hand in hand.

The reverse is true of liquidating markets. The matter in which the first market session of the new month hurried the brokers' loans figures continues to reveal a broad degree of underlying buying power.

American Can. discloses a strong technical position, with a back log of a large short interest that can be used to cushion a fresh forward movement of this pivotal stock into new high ground. We would buy it.

Magma Copper has bettered its previous top and the line of least resistance for this stock is plainly in the direction of higher levels, aided by the new ore find of this company. It is still a purchase.

Warner Brothers—This stock is well bought, especially on any trading recession. We believe it remains a purchase for an early move into new territory.

Black Truck has been retarded somewhat by the sluggish action of other motor stocks, but it remains a prime purchase while available below 110 for an independent move.

U. S. Steel, in our opinion, is a bargain anywhere under the 200 level. Forecast of close to $10 a share for the first six months of this year should, in itself, be sufficient to establish this premier issue well across the 200 mark in the near future.

Trading Forecasts and Factors

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Trading Forecasts and Factors says:—While week-end realizing sales and closing up activities caused irregularity in early part of today's short session, the list as a whole is expected to have a firm closing.

Wall Street Mirror's Statement
NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Today's Wall Street Mirror says:—Because of the many cross currents which are appearing as a result of the wide difference of opinion as to the trend of general stock market, we look for irregularity during next few days with the high priced stocks showing strength.

Coppers, oils and the best rails look most attractive.

A renewal of good buying is appearing in Greene Canada. One of the large shareholders of the company is understood to have refused an offer of more than $200 a share. Rumors current say that two shares of Anaconda will be given for one of Greene Canada but general expectation is that 1-1/2 for one is more likely.

W. T. Grant Company stores is being sponsored by one of the important houses. Buying is due to knowledge of the wonderful growth in the company's business. This company has 215 stores and no bonds or preferred stock outstanding. Compared with other chain store stocks it is selling too low. December sales broke all records.

NEW PRETENDER TO THRONE THAT TUNNEY GAVE UP

Max Schmeling, of Germany, Registered a Knockout Victory Over Johnny Risko in Ninth Round of Bout Last Night.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 2.—A new contender to the vacant heavy-weight throne is ready to back his kingly aspirations with the power of his two fists. Max Schmeling is his name and his calling card lists Germany as his address.

The Teuton, saturnine of face and deadly of punch, hammered tough Johnny Risko into technical knockout defeat, while twenty thousand fans roared in Madison Square Garden last night. The bout came after one minute and five seconds of fighting in the ninth round of a ten round bout.

Thus in one short and furious struggle, Herr "Macks" accomplished more than did a half dozen of more of the leading heavyweights last year or so. Johnny fought them all last year and with almost universal success. Since late in 1927 Risko has beaten Jack Delaney, Paulino Uzcudun, Jack Sharkey and George Godfrey. He lost during the same period to Tom Heeney, Jimmy Maloney and Ernie Schaaf on decisions and to Roberto Roberti on a foul. And during all that time none of his rivals could put him on the floor.

Schmeling accomplished that four times last night. The defeat, coming as it does on the heels of the reverses by Schaaf and Maloney, practically removes Risko from the heavyweight picture, at least temporarily. Schmeling, on the other hand, has vaulted into the forefront of the contendership list. His first four American starts all have resulted in victories. He stopped Joe Monte in eight rounds and Pietro Corri in one, and outpointed Joe Sekyra in ten in his other appearances here.

The weights were: Risko 190; Schmeling 185.

BELANGER OUTPOINTED "WILD BILL" COX

(Canadian Press Despatch.) WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 2.—Charlie Belanger, of Winnipeg, Canadian light heavyweight, outpointed "Wild Bill" Cox, also of Winnipeg, in a fast ten round bout here last night. On the verge of a knockout in the third round after taking terrific punishment from Belanger's body punching, Cox made a sensational comeback and carried the fight to the champion for the next four rounds. Belanger, however, was leading by a wide margin at the finish.

LAST NIGHT'S BOUTS
New York—Max Schmeling, Germany, stopped Johnny Risko, Cleveland, 9 rounds; Otto Von Petat, Chicago, stopped Jack Gagnon, Boston, 6 rounds; George Hoffman, New York, knocked out Jackie Saunders, Long Island City, 2 rounds; Frankie Lennan, Cleveland, and Jack Sessons, New York, drew 4 rounds.

Boston—Jimmy M. Loney, Boston, outpointed Con O'Kelly, Ireland, 10 rounds; Arthur Flynn, Lawrence, Mass., outpointed Vincent Forgiore, Philadelphia, 10 rounds.

Detroit—Ray Miller, Chicago, outpointed Tommy Grogan, Omaha, 10 rounds; John O'Keefe, Columbus, outpointed Johnny Mello, Detroit, 8 rounds.

Des Moines, Ia.—Joe Thomas, Oelwein, Ia., outpointed Bill Hall, Chicago, 10 rounds; Pep Jennings, Chicago, and Joe Hernandez, Kansas City, drew 10 rounds.

St. Joseph, Mo.—Walter Rich, Kansas City, knocked out George Lemson, Sioux City, Ia., one round; Buffalo, N.Y.—Tommy Tait, Buffalo, outpointed Frisco Graner, Filipino, 6 rounds.

Minot, N.D.—Herman Baisch, Minot, outpointed Howard Ball, Pocatello, Idaho, 10 rounds; Kid Miller, Minot, knocked out Jeff Vidmar, Hoces, Jaw, Sask., 2 rounds.

Sacramento, California—Ricnie Mack, Minneapolis, and Phil Guro, Reno, drew 6 rounds.

Hollywood, California—Newsboy Brown, New York, and "Kid" Williams, drew 10 rounds.

San Francisco—Tommy Celis, San Francisco, outpointed Battling Dugler, Omaha, 10 rounds.

San Diego, Calif.—Jack Beasley, San Francisco, knocked out Tony Stibensau, Buffalo, N.Y., 2 rounds.

MANY COLLEGE MEN FOUND IN PRO BASEBALL

So Many Former College Men in Junior Circuit that It Could Be Called Collegiate League.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The spirit of the college campus is threatening to invade baseball on a wholesale scale in the American League. A majority of the promising recruits bidding for fame and fortune have gone in for higher education and with a number of graduates already established with the several clubs, the junior circuit may go collegiate any time.

The Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers would seem to have the best chance in the American League spelling match. Two collegians have been recalled by Cleveland and another purchased to join the club and go down already on the Bradlee-Evans payroll.

J. Goldman, Syracuse University and John Burnett, University of Florida, infielders, with Dick Porter, St. John's (Annapolis) outfielder, are the recruits.

The Redskins had the Sewall brothers, Luke and Joe, from the University of Alabama, Carl Lind and Eddie Morgan, Tulane, Ben Shante, Juanita, and Walter Miller, Ohio State.

Bucky Harris, too, has plenty of material from classic halls. In the 1929 crop he will get Phil Rizzuto, Penn State; Catcher; Edward Phillips, Boston College; Outfielder; O. S. Eckhardt, University of Texas; Charles Winfield Wade, outfielder from North Carolina State, and two Maryville College alumni, who have been up before John Thomas Stone and Art Rube. These will find other college men wearing the stripes of the Tiger, notably Owen Carroll, Holy Cross; Haskell Billings, Brown; Chick Galoway, Presbyterian College; South Carolina; Larry Woodall, University of North Carolina; Charlie Gehring, University of Michigan, and Nollen Richardson, University of Michigan.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 2.—Gus Sonnenberg successfully defended his title as world's wrestling champion at the arena last night by flooring John Smith, of Fort Worth, Texas, in thirty minutes and eight seconds with a flying tackle.

next, at 8:30 o'clock, for the purpose of entering into the business activities of the club during the coming season. It is expected that all members of the club as well as the players will be on hand and all who are interested in the welfare of the club are cordially invited to attend.

DION AND RIOUX DEFEATED C.P.R. IN CLOSE GAME

Overtime Necessary to Decide Last Night's Game—Southern Canada Won from Silk Products—Cup Donated to League.

In the Industrial Hockey League games last night Canadian Pacific and Dion and Rioux were forced to play through two periods of overtime before the latter were successful in putting in a counter and breaking what threatened to be a one-all tie. The first game to Southern Canada who defeated Silk Products by a score of two to one.

The Power boys took command of the play right at the start, and kept it throughout. Cadieux and Goff both scored in the first session for Southern Canada. The Silk Products were able to prevent any further counting in the second stanza, and the opening of the third period saw a rally on the part of the purples that netted them one goal, and threatened more. This broke down, however, and the Power team took the lead in the closing minutes, with Goff going through to tally again, the game ending with Southern Canada leading three to one.

The second game was very hotly contested, many threats being made on both goals, only to be stopped by the goal-tenders. The first period was scoreless, in spite of extremely hard work on both sides. After eleven minutes had passed in the second session, Durocher worked his way through, and scored for the Clothiers. The Railroaders, faced with defeat, extended themselves with the result that Harris was able to tally within less than two minutes to the whistle. The third period saw determination on both sides to win, but no further scoring resulted. Ten minutes overtime passed with the same result, and the tie was only broken seven minutes through the second period, when the Clothiers netted their second goal of the evening, maintaining a record of not having lost a game this season.

Lacombe and Fils have donated a beautiful cup, emblematic of the champions of the league, and have appointed a committee, headed by R.D. Bradley as trustees for this cup.

BANKERS GAMES ON MONDAY
Two interesting contests are scheduled for the Bankers' Hockey League on Monday night, when the Commerce meet the Montreals and the Royals and Nationales cross sticks.

THREE GAMES ON N.H.L. CARD TONIGHT

(Canadian Press Despatch.) MONTREAL, Feb. 2.—The National Hockey League has three games on its card tonight, but only one of them can effect any change in the leadership of either the American or Canadian divisions. Boston's battling Bruins, undefeated in their last thirteen games, meet the New York Rangers for the lead in the American group by downing the Maple Leafs at Boston. A tie would leave the Bruins a point short of the lead and a defeat would force them to remain at their present position, two points below the divisional leaders.

Montreal's Canadiens meet Ottawa at Montreal and are expected to increase their lead in the Canadian group. The fast flying Frenchmen now top the Canadian group by a single point.

In the other league game Montreal Maroons travel to Pittsburgh to clash with the Pirates.

LOYOLA PLAYS BISHOP'S TONIGHT

Tonight the Loyola hockey team from Montreal meets the University of Bishop's College in a game on the University rink in Lennoxville. This is a scheduled fixture in the Intermediate Intercollegiate Hockey League, and an important one, for it will give an intimation as to what team is likely to gain top place. The local university will be represented by the usual line-up.

Fowles, Jr., of Pittsburgh. Gosling defeated Beavis 5 and 4, and Thompson disposed of Fowles 3 and 2. Both matches were over the thirty-six hole route.

HEAVY DAMAGE RESULTED FROM AN EXPLOSION

Both Property and Machinery of Canadian General Electric Plant at Peterboro Suffered—No One in Building When Accident Occurred.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) PETERBORO, Ont., Feb. 2.—A heavy explosion last night shook the entire plant of the Canadian General Electric company and caused heavy damage to both property and machinery.

The large six inch air main in the machine shop burst and the air from the large compressor blew out all the windows in the plant and left much of the machinery a mass of wreckage. The force of the explosion was felt for blocks around the plant and the noise was heard all over the city.

Luckily the day shift had just quit and no one was in the building when the compressor exploded. It is estimated the loss will run into thousands of dollars.

NEW DODGE SIX EMBRACES MANY NEW FEATURES

Several Important Changes Made in Construction of Dodge Brothers' New Cars.

The new "six" announced by Dodge Brothers has several features of merit. A total of sixteen body types are provided, giving ample choice in both open and closed cars.

Hydraulic shock absorbers and special control for the cooling system are standard equipment on all models. The exclusive mono-piece bodies give rigidity and balance, by eliminating all possible body joints. The exceptionally wide doors compose another body feature. Chromium plating is used on the radiator, lamps, moulding, etc. The riding qualities are improved by the use of oversize balloon tires. The well known Dodge emblem has returned to the radiator.

Special precautions are used to insure that pistons, which are of hardened steel, will balance to within a quarter of an ounce and special devices are used to make easier steering.

DOES NOT EXPECT WHEAT WILL MAKE BIG SHOWING

Discoverer of Marquis Wheat and Other Varieties Does Not Anticipate Immense Increase in Wheat-Growing in Canada.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 2.—Dr. Charles E. Saunders, discoverer of Marquis wheat and other varieties, formerly of the Experimental Farm at Ottawa, does not anticipate an immense increase in wheat growing in Canada in the future but looks for great improvement of other farm products, he said, in the course of an address yesterday.

"Wheat exporting on an extensive scale is not good economy," he said, "you must not, therefore, look forward to an indefinite increase in the quantity of wheat grown because farmers will find it will pay them better to adopt different meth-
