Tigers Take Two Game Lead In UOV Baseball League Finals

Look For Third Straight In Quyon On Sunday

A two run rally in the top of the ninth inning gave the Shawville Tigers an 8-7 victory over Quyon Flyers and a two-game lead in the best-of-five finals for the Upper Ottawa Valley Baseball League title. The thrilling contest was played last Sunday in Quyon.

Earl Powell pitched all the way for Shawville while Jim Marks and Gil Fraser hurled for Quyon. Tigers stranded 11 baserunners and Flyers left fourteen, and on only one occasion did a pitcher (Marks) get through an inning without a base runner to bother him, all of which shows how hard the pitchers had to work.

Tigers blew a 6-2 lead when Quyon came storming back with five runs in the sixth inning. With one out in the ninth inning and Tigers still trailing 7-6, Lorne Smith singled, reached second on an overthrow, went to third on Glenn Morrison's pinch-hit single and scored when youthful Brian Murray rapped a game tying single up the middle. Royce Richardson's hot grounder eluded the Quyon third baseman and allowed Morrison to score what proved to be the winning run.

In the bottom of the ninth Romain cracked a double with one out, but "died" on second as Powell retired Fraser and Foley to sew up the win.

Next Sunday Tigers again invade Quyon in an attempt to make it three straight. It will not be easy, for Quyon will undoubtedly prepare a hot reception for the high-flying Tigers. It could well be the best game of the year.

Last Sunday's lineup:-

Shawville—Richardson, 2B; Hodgins 3B; Powell, P; Yermen, CF; Garrison, LF; O'Donnell, C; Smith, SS; Angus, 1B; Morrison, 1B; Murray, RF.

Fort Coulonge Fire Brigade Makes Trial Run

Fort Coulonge — The Fort Coulonge Volunteer Fire Brigade held a trial run, with pumper and equipment from the Fire Station to Chute Inn, a distance of approximately 5 miles out of town.

The trip made Sunday afternoon, was a very encouraging one, in as much as the members are becoming more adept to their respective duties.

Without any hazardous driving the trip with men and equipment, and water running from pumper tank was made in seven minutes. Furthermore 500 feet of hose was lined up to Coulonge River and a good supply of water with ample pressure was in operation in twelve minutes.

The committee in charge with Fire Chief Henry Francoeur, and 12 men were all happy about the whole equipment, and the general approval of all present was quite evident.

There is a "drive" on at present to raise funds for the brigade, and the 'Farmerettes' of Fort Coulonge held a bingo in the Parish Hall, Monday, which was a decided success, and a substantial amount of proceeds turned over to the Fire Brigade.

A more realistic national policy for agriculture

A policy equally advantageous to both consumer and producer.

Quality in food products is paramount.

Quality is more important than Price. Quality must precede Price. Quality justifies Price.

In a true democracy the sumers requirements, not the producers, should come first. sumers requirements, nto the producers, shuold come first. Are Canadian consumers satisfied with the quality of Canadian Agricultural food products? The answer is, - 'Decidedly not! Generally speaking the standards of quality are lower to-day than before the War. Improvement in the technique of quality segregation has not kept pace with the improvement in the technique of production. Little or no advantage has been taken of the newer and more scientific methods available for grading.

Some typical examples -

(a) Butter - Margarine to-day is a more uniform product in quality than butter. Having in mind the quality of much of the cream used to make butter, it is unthinkable that 97-98% of all butter manufactured grades 'First Grade'.

(b) Wheat, - Flour is the principal product of wheat, yet the first thing the miller does, when he buys wheat, is to blend the grades. The purpose of wheat grading should be to satisfy the consumer, not to bolster the producer.

(c) Beef-There are seven grades of beef. Only the two top grades are identified through to the consumer, none of the lower grades. The packer buys on live grades with sharp differentials in price. Those differentials disappear before reaching the consumer. "All grades same price".

(d) Eggs and -Poultry Quality standards in both lowered since the war. In no product are consumers more fastidious about quality than in eggs. In an earlier day off quality eggs could be used for home cooking. To-day ready made cake mixes largely take the place of home recipes. No place in the home now for off-quality eggs. All the more important why standards of quality should be improved not lowered.

(e) Apples - The quality of many old established varieties has been lost through indiscriminate crossing and wrongful identification. More quality segregation is indicated. Field of Government Action

With existing authority to establish high standards of quality, identify them through to the consumer and progressively amend them upward as improved grading and handling technique permit, the rightful field of Government action would appear to lie in the field of quality rather than in the field of price.

Government Departments, Government Boards, actually, have no place in the field of price. They are not constituted to buy and sell; to engage in business. There are no business incentives, no profit motives, no shareholders to satisfy with dividends. Too many people have to be consulted before decisions can be reached. Sales opportunities are lost and there is too easy access to the public purse to liquidate mistakes in business management.

Furthermore the middlemen have made more money out of price support, as administered to date, than have the producers. In their anxiety to fill their storages with support price product, their buying price is lowered earlier to support levels and continued longer than on an untrammelled market. It is more to the middlemen's profit to fill his storage with Government owned products and collect guaranteed storage charges it is to prospect possible export markets or to push sales and cut handling charges as he would have done with products accumulating on his floor. In fact the middlemen have never had it so good. He buys at the lowest possible price, the floor price; the Government takes care of all his surpluses and he just sits back and charges all the traffic will bear. No interest is taken in goods held to Government account; unless offered at sacrifice prices. Storage charges mount and the taxpayer pays.

Price support also gives the greatest possible encouragement to intergration. The big interests figure that they simply cannot lose. Price support is really anti-democratic, a fifth wheel, makes producers wards of the state.

A better plan producer-consumer negotiated, supervised, forward annual contracts, based on a consistently high and constantly improving, quality product.

With the grades of quality sufficiently high and sufficiently interesting to the consumer, any surpluses that occur, will occur mainly in the lower grades.

Years of experience in egg grading proved that the substantial differentials that the consumer's preference for high quality establishes against the lower grades is a most effective eliminating factor. In eggs, as well, a distinction between the product of the farm food flock and the well conducted commercial flock would also help.

Report On Radioactive Minerals In Pontiac

Over forty occurrences of the radioactive minerals containing uranium or thorium are described in a geological report just released by the Honourable W. M. Cottingham, Minister of Mines for the Province of Quebec. Among those listed are many in Pontiac County, complete with all details. The report (G. R. 80) entitled "Radioactive Mineral Occurrences of the Province of Quebec" gives the results of an investigation carried out by D. W. Shaw for the Mineral Deposits Branch.

The author presents in the introductory part of his report a few notes on the radioactive elements of the earth's crust followed by a description of their minerals. He also discusses briefly the geochemistry of uranium and describes the methods of instrument prospecting for thorium and uranium.

The rocks containing the various deposits of the Province are classified into three main categories each of which is fully described. The occurrences are themselves grouped into three main types of deposits which are further subdivided into sub-groups. The description of the individual properties is supplemented by the presentation of eleven coloured figures some of which are inserted in the text and others are in a pocket.

Copies of this report may be obtained from the Department of Mines, Parliament Buildings, Quebec P.Q. It's free and it's very interesting and should especially be brought to the attention of the advanced science students at the High Schools.

Martineau Speaks Over CHOV

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Parliament is slowly but surely working its way towards prorogation. In a few days perhaps the end of the Session will come and members will be despatched to their various constituencies after a very heavy programme of legislation which lasted the whole of the summer.

I have had the occasion to report to you previously on many of the salient features of this legislation. Presently, Parliament is considering the remaining items on the Order Paper. These include the much publicized bill on Canadian Broadcasting and the Bill of Rights.

Many of the departmental expenditures for the current year have been approved and the remaining estimates are likely to be passed in the coming days.

The Government has had adopted by Parliament most, if not all, of the legislation forecast in the Throne speech.

Some of the recent legislation adopted includes the National Capital Development Act, the National Parole Bill, the Emergency Gold Mining Assistance Act, the Returned Soldiers' Insurance Act, the Veterans' Insurance Act, the Children of War Dead Act.

Of particular interest to Ottawa Valley residents is the creation of a new National Capital Commission to administer the National Capital region. The area of this region has been more than doubled now comprising over 1800 square miles.

The plan for the National Capital includes a green belt around the city of Ottawa itself, with parks, driveways and scenic routes extending for many miles beyond Ottawa along both shores of the Ottawa River. The plan of the future Capital region is now taking shape and one can envision a great city of unsurpassed beauty studded with numerous parks, broad avenues, magnificent buildings of modern architectural design, parkways and driveways stretching forth into a surrounding countryside of truly scenic grandeur.

Years, of course, will pass before the whole of the plan can be implemented but already the grand design can be foreseen and prepared.

The Prime Minister has expressed eloquently his vision for a great capital city worthy of the destiny of our country and which will be a source of pride to Canadians everywhere. The new National Capital Act is the culmination of the work, efforts and planning of all those whom even from the earliest days have striven for the development of a great capital set in an area of scenic splendour which is unique anywhere in the world. Residents of the Ottawa Valley will be among the first to derive pleasure and enjoyment from the beautification and extension of the National capital area. They stand to profit from it to a fuller extent by pressing the development of their own communities along similar lines and especially by encouraging to its utmost the growing tourist industry of the Valley. To further these ends, the co-operation of Provincial and Municipal authorities as well as all development associations and Chambers of Commerce is essential. More and more tourists are visiting our region and particularly the County of Pontiac which has long been known as a sportsmen's paradise. With the building of new and modern highways, better tourist facilities and accommodation, the tourist trade in our area can be doubled and tripled and this will benefit every citizen. I take this opportunity to commend very heartily all those who have made this improvement possible and I urge all of you to join your efforts in developing and encouraging still further this expansion.

The House was particularly interested in hearing last Saturday the report of our Minister of External Affairs, the Honourable Sydney Smith who had just returned from New York where he was Canada's chief delegate to the special session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

The Minister was quite elated by the work accomplished by this special meeting which unanimously adopted the Arab resolution which should possible an era of peace and tranquillity in the Middle East. The resolution adopted by the Assembly contains three main elements.

FIRSTLY: The Arab States pledged themselves to support the systems of Government already in existence in the various countries of the Middle East.

SECONDLY: The resolution further requests the Secretary General to make such practicable arrangements as would adequately help in facilitating the purposes of the United Nations charter in reference to Lebanon and Jordan in the present circumstances, and thereby facilitating the early withdrawal of American and British troops from these two countries.

THIRDLY: Measures for the economic development of the Arab countries are forecast as a result of the adoption of this resolution. The United States and United Kingdom have announced that they will begin withdrawing their troops from Lebanon and Jordan almost immediately. Another encouraging development in the international situation is the statement that the United States and Great Britain will begin on October 31st next negotiations with Russia for the suspension of nuclear tests. The United Nations' organization has proved once again to be an effective body in the settlement of international crises and the prevention of war.

Canada has been in the forefront in the negotiations which led to a settlement and it has again played its traditional role of mediator for which it has received wide acclaim.

Parliament has adopted the Act on Canadian broadcasting which provides for the creation of a Board of Broadcast Governors to be composed of fifteen members who will regulate radio and television in Canada and will be endowed with wide powers, and a Board of eleven directors of the CBC, the members of which will be appointed by the Government shortly. This Board will report to Parliament. While effecting profound changes in the broadcast system of this country, the new act nevertheless provides for the maintenance of a state operated Canadian broadcasting corporation as well as private stations. Many of the recommendations of the Fowler Commission have been incorporated into this Act. It is hoped that this legislation will enable broadcasting in Canada to develop and progress retaining the essential Canadian features and providing first-class entertainment which would be enjoyed and appreciated by the vast majority of Canadians everywhere.

The present session will come to an end in a few days. It has been an eventful and fruitful session by the amount of legislation adopted, by the important problems discussed in Parliament and by the many distinguished visitors which included Her Royal Highness the Princess Margaret, the President of the United States Mr. Eisenhower, Sir Harold McMillan, the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom and many others.

This year there has been a tremendous influx of visitors to the Parliament buildings. It is estimated that more than 200,000 will have passed through these gates before the end of the year, and pre-

Murrells Notes

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hodgins of Litchfield who celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary of their wedding over the weekend, had numerous well wishers from Quyon, Renfrew, Sudbury, Petawawa, Graceland, Shawville and area who called upon them to congratulate them and wish them many more years of married bliss. Mrs. Hodgins who has been ill is gaining steadily.

Mrs. Don Walter and infant son Douglas, have returned home to Ottawa after spending two weeks with Mrs. Walter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Horner.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Thomlison of Arnprior were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Manson Little and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tubman returned home to Rochester, N.Y. on Sunday and were accompanied by Miss Doris Jones of White Lake, Ont., and Miss Joan Telford who will visit a few days with Joan's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flood and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Thompson, Ottawa, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. G. Telford and Rod.

sently there are about 4,000 persons daily. It is indeed a thrilling sight to see these visitors come from many lands as well as from all parts of our own country. They are keenly interested in finding out at first hand our legislative processes and are impressed by the grandeur of the surroundings. This great flow of visitors represents a true cross section of our population, diverse, young, vigorous, possessed of a sense of history and eager to take its part in the forward march of our country and on the great world stage. It is on this note of optimism that I wish to take leave of you now, extending to you all a most pleasant week-end.

DON'T USE IMPROPER FUSES

"Faulty wiring" is given as the cause of a surprisingly large number of fires. In many cases it might better be "Improper fuses".

The use of metal inserts or oversize fuses is dangerous.

In case of excess current or short circuit the wires will overheat and might cause a fire.

Fuses are safety devices. If fuses blow frequently, you are either overloading the system or something is wrong with the wiring or devices on that circuit.

Call a competent electrician in case of trouble.
