

LOCAL NEWS.

THE PRINCE OF WALES RIFLES.—The usual monthly social of P. W. R. was held last night and was a great success, dancing being kept up to the latest hour conforming to the regulations.

THE ICE HARVEST.—No less than 2,500 tons of ice have been shipped hence to Boston, but even greater quantities have been sent on to Chicago and other centres in the States.

HACKMEN'S SOIREE.—The hackmen of the city purpose having a supper and ball at Peloquin's, Back River, on the anniversary of St. Patrick's day, and the event promises to be a decided success.

THE TRACEDIANS OF KALAMAZOO open on Monday night in the Academy of Music, with an immense bill and a No. 1 company of artists. They have been everywhere highly appreciated, and will most certainly draw crowded houses here.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The list in this Court yesterday was very small. George Norton, charged with vagrancy, was sent down for fifteen days hard labour; Isaac Desjardins, driver, for having no number,

Suspicious.—A man named John Lee, on offering some tweeds for sale at a remarkably low price in a shop on Craig street, on Thursday, was apprehended on suspicion of having stolen the goods. He

A SCOTCHMAN'S SOCIAL.—Last evening the members of the Caledonian Society held a happy social in the rooms of the Natural History Society. Robert Burns was duly honoured, and the songs and writings of other Scotch authors received full justice at the hands of lady and gentlemen amateurs.

A RINAWAY.—On Thursday morning

MISSIONARY SERVICES—Ottawa Street

PERSONAL.—Mr. Gilbert Roy, Mayor of St. Henri, has been elected Warden of the County of Levis. Mr. Roy, by the way, is one of the late Levis Turnpike Trustees.

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL.—The second sermon of the special course to young men will be preached in the Cathedral to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock by the Rev.

THANKS.—The members of the Fire Brigade desire to return thanks to Mr. George Carslake, of the Mansien House Hotel, for his kindness in providing them with hot coffee on the occasion of the recent fire at the Express Hotel. The morning was bitter cold, and this attention was fully appreciated. Mr. McClanahan speaks in high praise of the firemen, who did all that was possible to save both life and property.

ARRIVAL OF EMIGRANTS.—About twelve o'clock last night some 92 emigrants arrived at the Bonaventure Depot, in charge of Mr. Kellum, the Government Travelling Emigration Agent. The party was received by Mr. J. Mley, the local agent and his staff, and by them escorted to the hostelry of Mr. George Carslake, the Mansion House Hotel, where they were comfortably housed for the night. Of the party 82 are English and Scotch and very few are Irish.

ROBBERY EN ROUTE.—A parcel of sam-pe boots shipped by Fogarty Bros., last week, to Mr. Marchildon, of Sherbrooke, was stolen from a car at Bonaventure Depot. Detective Cullen ascertained that a suspicious character had been noticed around the depot at times, making a pretence of earning his living by selling matches. He next appeared last evening. On being interrogated by the detective as to what he had done with the boots, he acknowledged they were at his mother's house, and gave the names of all the parties to whom he had sold them. Mrs. Lalonde, keeper of a saloon at the corner of Cathedral street and Chaboillez Square, purchased six of them for twenty-five cents. When Cullen called on her, he found that she had sent them to a pho-

THE N. P. AND THE WORKINGMEN.

A STOLEN HORSE.—Mr. Thomas McLaughlin, of Lowell, Mass., a day or two ago purchased a race horse in this city for the sum of $650. The animal was directly afterwards seized by Mr. Lewis of the afterwards seized by Mr. Lewis, of the Canadian Customs, on a charge of having been smuggled into this country. Mr. McLaughlin, who bought the horse in good faith without a knowledge of its previous career, has learned some particulars concerning it since the seizure. He stated that about three years ago it was bonded from Kentucky to an exhibition or fair in London, Ontario, and that after the exhibition was over it was retained in the country, while a less valuable horse was returned in its place in order to deceive the Customs authorities. Lately, however, one of the officers received intimation of the irregularity and hence the seizure. Mr. McLaughlin has appealed to Ottawa for the release of the horse, as he

THE MEETINGS IN THEATRE ROYAL.—The success of the Rev. Mr. Hammond's revival services in this city bids fair to equal, if it does not outstrip, that which we have been practicing. I do not propose to indulge in vain rhetoric or in any declamation, but simply to give the actual facts, so far as they have been ascertained or can be ascertained, showing the true incidence of taxation under the tariff upon the artisan and the manufacturer. With reference was perfectly packed, and every inch of standing room was called into requisition. Canon Baldwin, Revs. J. F. Stevenson, A. H. Munro, D. V. Lucas, and other local clergymen, and Alderman Nelson, Mr. George Hague and other prominent citizens, were present, and the program was

George Hague, another prominent citizen occupied places on the platform. Rev. Mr. Hammond delivered a powerful appeal, the effect of which was apparent on the vast audience. After the discourse, a meeting for inquirers was held, at which hundreds remained to receive word of comfort from Mr. Hammond and those labouring with him. It is understood that the meetings will be continued next week, and as much longer as they secure good results.

IN TOWN—Windsor Hotel—F A Ball, Toronto; H Waterman, London; J H Bottrell, Quebec; Maj-Gen Denville, St John, N B; Horace Moody, New York; T S Peck and wife, Jo Murphy, Vermont; C W. Casper and wife, W. H. Goodale,

G W Cooney and wife, W M Underbank, G P Platt, New York; Wm Wagner, Ottawa, Man; C Ross, Ottawa; Miss Ross, St Johns; Thos McGreevy, Quebec; Hector Cameron and wife, Toronto; McPherson LeMoyné, Boston. St Lawrence Hall—D Croward, M P, John Kenby, Ottawa; W Shanly, Boston, E A Johnson, wife and son, L'Orignal; E C Farmsworth, Bedford; F H Mickleburgh, S S "Nova Scotia"; R Macdonald, Pictou. N. S.

Geo W Howlan, Ottawa; W J Maguire, Quebec; C M Pullman and wife, C Lundgard, New York; M S Fickett, Wallbridge, Me; H Torrance, Guelph, O; C D Smith, Lebanon; John C Jefferies, Toronto; W. S. Syme, C. L. Syme, St. Catharines.

G Taylor, Port Hope; F Buckingham, New York; James Kieragan, Toronto; D L Kennedy, Chicago; Ottawa Hotel—J A Lamot, Isle Lamot; F W Whitter, St John, N B; T L Con-

neau, Quebec; W H Murray, Toronto; Richard Davis and wife, Chicago; John M Hatch, New York; E Lathel, City; Geo L Smith, New York; A D Campbell, Toronto; D Darby, Waterloo; J L Irwin, Toronto; J D McPherson and wife.

Detroit, Albion Hotel—H M L Black, Sarnia; H E Gleason, Cowansville; Jas P Brown, Walter Macfarlane, Ottawa; C G McCoy, Troy, N Y; J Belard, Richmond; Wm Eager, Liverpool, Eng; R L B. Peck, Little Rock, Ark. Peck says

R L Ryan, Dublin, Ireland; E Brown and wife, Edinburgh; Jos C Irvine, Cardinal; Jas E Baker, Belleville; Jas McCaffray, Three Rivers; E H Doran, Prescott; L D Denier, Toronto; J C Jones, W A Dinsmore, Lyndonville, Vt; John W

Thomson Hamilton; W J Kenyon and wife, New York; John Booth, West Point, N Y.

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery is the standard remedy for the cure of

As an alternative, when used in connection with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, it will effectually overcome torpid liver and constipation. In skin diseases it has no equal.

allow an extremely small sum for t

[illegible][illegible]