

The British American Picture Gallery 62 Gt. St.
James Street.

MONTREAL, June, 1867.

To the Delegates and Visitors at the Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations.

SIR,

During your stay in this city, if it is your wish to obtain pictures at very reasonable rates, either for the purpose of exchanging with your brother delegates and friends, or taking to your friends at home, you cannot find any thing more neat, durable and appropriate than a Ferrotypes taken at my place, No. 62 Gt. St. James Street.

All pictures made and finished immediately.
Prices ranging from 50 cents to $1.75, per dozen.

I remain very respectfully yours,

J. S. LAY.