Service Club Welfare Work Related By C. A. Wylie Here

"Some welfare organizations would cease to exist if it was not for the support given to them by service clubs", Clarence A. Wylie told members of the Rotary Club of Westmount at Victoria Hall on Wednesday.

He said service clubs do not deal in theory, but being made up of practical businessmen, they tackle their problems in a practical and business like manner.

Mr. Wylie, who is executive director of the Montreal Boys Association, has been active in this type of work since 1926 and has been with the MBA since 1931.

Using the Unity Boys Club in Westmount as an example of work which can be done by service clubs, he said that Rotarians first became aware of a problem in Westmount in 1943 when groups of boys from this city and St. Henry were carrying on gang warfare. "Instead of just sitting back and holding their heads and shrugging their shoulders the Rotarians got busy and formed what is now the Unity Boys Club," he said.

In those early days their task was not very easy and there were many times when they would like to have given up in despair, but, being practical men they knew the job had to be finished he pointed out.

He told the Rotarians that the present Montreal Boys Association is actually the outgrowth of two separate organizations which were started by two service clubs in the area. The Province of Quebec Society for Crippled Children as well as Camp Lewis, Camp Weredale and many other such

W. B. Kingston Joins Westm't 'Y' Staff As Boys Secretary

W. B. Kingston has joined the staff of the Westmount YMCA as secretary in charge of boys' program and special activities, it was announced this week.

He replaces Ernie Taylor, who left the Westmount department to join the staff at High Park YMCA, Toronto.

Mr. Kingston has considerable Y experience, and served as physical director on the Charlottetown, P.E.I. YMCA, and in the Central Y at Calgary, Alta.

He is a graduate member of the Saskatoon YMCA senior leaders corps and spent several years as fellowship secretary there while attending the University of Saskatchewan.

Previous to his college experience Mr. Kingston spent three years in the Canadian Navy. He is married and has a daughter three years old. His wife is at present teaching school in Saskatchewan and is expected to join him in January.

Mr. Kingston is keenly interested in photography and swimming, and has an active interest in all sports and games.

Celebrated Regiment Is Adopted

By TRACY S. LUDINGTON

The Royal Montreal Regiment has always had a special spot in the hearts of the residents of this municipality — but Sunday on the steps of city hall that feeling mounted to a throat-tightening crescendo as mayor and aldermen, senior citizen and johnny-come-lately turned out to pay tribute to the celebrated unit that has made Canadian military history in two major world conflicts and in the Korean affair.

Turning from the sombre tribute of Remembrance at the Cenotaph to the moving 'adoption' ceremony at city hall, Westmount officially placed the highest stamp of civic approval on the regiment they have come to know as their 'very own'.

With officers and men of all three conflicts present Mayor Campbell presented a deed of freedom of the city to General C. B. Price as the focal point of the regiment's 40th reunion, a week-end celebration that surpassed anything of this nature ever held in Canada.

It was a gay occasion as well as a noteworthy one. Bands played, flags fluttered in the autumn wind and the men of the regiment, some in the new 'blues' issue and others in the khaki of wartime never looked better, marched more briskly, or stood at attention more smartly.

From the Saturday night dinner at the armoury, attended by dignitaries of military and civil life through the Sunday luncheon at Victoria Hall and the two ceremonies Sunday afternoon it was RMR day in Westmount, and everyone loved it.

To do justice to the event, in story and picture, The Examiner will issue a special supplement next week — depicting every phase of this magnificent reunion and displaying some of the scenes that took place and which will be recorded in full detail.

Death Accident As Local Woman Struck By Tram

A verdict of accidental death was handed down on Wednesday by Montreal Coroners Court in connection with the death of Miss Gwendolyn McWilliams, of 371 Prince Albert Avenue.

The victim died instantly after being struck by a street car on Sherbrooke street near the intersection of Strathcona avenue Tuesday. Police said Miss McWilliams was apparently trying to cross the busy thoroughfare when she was hit by the streetcar.

Stanley B. Wilson Paintings On View

There is quite a variety in the exhibition of paintings by Stanley B. Wilson, which is being held every afternoon and evening until December 4th. Most of the works are in water colour, but several of the largest are oils. The subjects include landscapes and portraits of both humans and birds.

All the pictures were made within the past year, the majority of them near St. Adolphe de Howard, in the Laurentians. And while there are no winter landscapes, every other season is well represented. The birds were painted by Mr. Wilson while they were at a window feeding tray.

Christian Science

How the spiritually correct view of God and man destroys anxiety and restores peace of mind will be brought out at Christian Science church services this Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body."

Among the passages to be read from "Science an Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy is the following: "We cannot deny that Life is self-sustained, and we should never deny the everlasting harmony of soul, simply because, to the mortal senses, there is seeming discord. It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony."

"Y" BRIDGE CLUB

Library Displays Children's Book Original Sketches

Original pen and ink illustrations of the juvenile book Nuki, by Alma Houston will be on display at the Westmount Public Library starting today until Nov. 26, head librarian Kathleen Jenkins announced.

The drawings, by husband James Houston, are part of the display celebrating Young Canada's Book Week, which started Monday and will continue until next Monday.

Miss Jenkins told The Examiner she felt Book Week had done much to bring high quality children's novels to the attention of both youngsters and adults.

Book Week opened at the Library with a personal appearance by Phyllis Lee Peterson, author of the juvenile book Log Cabin In The Woods.

There is also a large display of books, which has been well received by adults for possible Christmas presents.

Miss Jenkins emphasized the fact both book display and drawings would be up for another week, and she urged both parents and children to come in.

The children's librarians, she said, will advise on any special cases or reading problems.

This sixth annual book week, under the patronage of Dr. Arthur Lismer, opened officially Friday when a group of young readers visited Mayor Jean Drapeau.

All branches of all children's libraries, both English and French, have special displays this year.

There were also original drawings of four books by Canadian authors and a collection of books, both English and French, was shown.

EYES AUTUMN BLOOMS: Mrs. Mary Shepp is caught by the camera as she views the banks of late autumn blooms featured in the fall flower show at the Westmount greenhouses in Westmount Park. The exhibition this year features 142 varieties in some 1,677 pots and 14 baskets and it is figured that in all there are 3,571 plants on view. In addition to chrysanthemums there are cyclamen, African violets, banana, sugar cane, coffee plants and bird of paradise. (Birmingham Photo)

Westmount Library Head At Rosedale H.S. Session

Children's needs provide background for books, Miss Catherine Fraser, children's librarian at the Westmount Public Library said Monday.

Speaking at a meeting of the Rosedale Home and School Association, she said children need to belong, to achieve, escape, and be loved.

All of these needs provided backgrounds for juvenile authors in writing books, she said.

"Books have always been a source of comfort, information and pleasure," she said, "and they supply certain basic needs."

"Security, material and economic, and simple tales of everyday things, satisfy this need.

"Beyond creature comforts comes emotional security, something to make them feel the rightness of family loyalties, and later to prepare them for adult life," she said.

Miss Fraser took part in a panel discussion with Miss Genevieve Barre, CBC Times television editor. Mrs. A. Gardner, study group leader at the Montreal Mental Hygiene Institute, summed up their two talks.

Miss Barre said the CBC was accomplishing much that is good for children, despite frequently heard accusations that television is harmful to children.

Miss Barre said that surveys show more children are reading more books as a followup of some of the TV programs.

W. Rosenbaum, president, presided.

★ Keith Herrington, A Young Englishman

In MRT's "Captain Carvallo"

Marks Their 144th Production

For its 144th production, "Captain Carvallo" by Denis Cannan, the Montreal Repertory Theatre has brought a young Englishman from New York to play the title role.

Although proud of its record of achievement as an amateur Little Theatre, MRT felt that it would be fitting to engage a professional player on the occasion of its 25th anniversary production.

The young Englishman is Keith Herrington, who was born and educated in Suffolk, and who studied drama at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art. His first professional appearance in London was in an American play—"Junior Miss". After several roles in London plays, and a good deal of repertory work, he was engaged to appear in a series of Shakespearean plays at the famous memorial theatre at Stratford-upon-Avon. Here, he supported Robert Helpmann in "Hamlet" and Diana Wynyard in "The Taming of the Shrew", "The Merchant of Venice" and "Othello". These were to be but a few of over a dozen plays in which he appeared with Diana Wynyard, who played the leading feminine role in "Captain Carvallo" when it came to be produced at the St. James's Theatre in London in 1950. Mr. Herrington also appeared in Sir John Gielgud's Stratford production of "Much Ado About Nothing."

In 1949, after appearing at Stratford as the youngest known professional player in the role of Mark Antony in "Antony and Cleopatra", Mr. Herrington was invited by the American National Theatre and Academy (ANTA) to go to New York. He was on a ten-week contract, which extended to five months before he returned to England. He was home for only six weeks before he received a request to return to the United States to make a number of guest appearances in summer stock.

For the past few months, Mr. Herrington has been engaged by the Antioch Shakespearean Festival, which has presented a series of outdoor Shakespearean productions without scenery, somewhat in the manner of Canada's Stratford Shakespearean Festival. As soon as he finishes playing in MRT's "Captain Carvallo", he is due to go to Cincinnati, where he will play Gonzalo in "The Tempest", which is being given its American premiere in combination with the Sibelius music by the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. Playing the Diana Wynyard role in MRT's production of "Captain Carvallo" is Lauriel Bailey, who has had experience on the professional stage in London and New York. A Montrealer, she appears for the first time in this part on a Montreal stage, although she has played in other Canadian cities.

The three most important roles, after Captain Carvallo

★ A Great Entertainment Returns

"The Glenn Miller Story"

Today at Four Local Theatres

"The Glenn Miller Story," Universal-International's gloriously thrilling Technicolor production of the great band-leader's life-story, will be shown for the first time in the city at regular prices today at the Seville, Snowdon, Outremont and Strand. James Stewart and June Allyson are in the starring roles with Frances Langford, Louis Armstrong, Gene Krupa, Ben Pollack, the Archie Savage Dancers and the Modernaires as guest-stars.

The real-life story of the celebrated musician re-creates the exciting times in which the band-master built his renowned orchestra and features the songs he made famous, played in the Miller manner. Starting from the time Glenn was struggling to find a 'new sound,' the picture carries him through his whirlwind romance with his wife-to-be, to his fabulous success in dance hall and cafe, on the radio and in theatres, and eventually his formation of the great Army Air Force Orchestra and the tragic flight during which he was lost.

"The Glenn Miller Story" is essentially a love story, always tender and sometimes a little wild... a love story that maintains an intimate mood. Charles Drake, George Tobias, Henry Morgan are in top featured roles.

It Pays To Advertise, Ask Westend Cleaners

If you don't think it pays to advertise, ask Westend Cleaners.

Due to a comedy of errors that saw a mixup over the delivery of a garment that had been cleaned by the local cleaning firm, Westend Cleaners were on the spot.

What to do, they asked themselves, and then came up with the right solution.

They told their story in The Westmount Examiner, and within a few hours the garment was recovered, the owner was happy, and Westend Cleaners — why they breathed a sigh of relief.

The Examiner is proud, but not surprised — you see — It Pays to Advertise in The Examiner.

Service Club...

organizations were all started by service clubs.

"It would have surely been a great tragedy if services clubs such as Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and the others were not formed by far sighted men many years ago," he said.

The service clubs also come to the aid of the welfare agencies by doing pioneer work for them, he said. Agencies such as the Red Feather cannot find the capital to go out and start Boy's Clubs or camps or whatever the case may be, but you in the service clubs can. Once these various services have been pioneered the agencies can then step in and take over the operation of them.

"Montreal is growing fast, its needs as far as welfare work is concerned are growing just as fast, and the future years will bring many more needs," he concluded.

The Late Stan Mackerrow

Popular Sports World Figure
Will Be Widely Mourned

The death of Stan Mackerrow came as a shock to the many friends who have known him over the years. Still a comparatively young man, in his fiftieth year, he had been in apparently good health and his sudden passing was a stunning blow to his friends, acquaintances, and business associates.

A native of Montreal, the late Mr. Mackerrow was educated in the Westmount schools and at Lower Canada College. He was the son of Clarry Mackerrow, famed old-time lacrosse and hockey star, and a member of the celebrated Little Men Of Iron.

Stan entered the sports goods business after graduation, first with Spalding's, and later with Murray's and Lord's. At the time of his death, he was Myer Insky's store manager at Lord's.

A pleasing personality and popular with everyone who knew him, he was one of Montreal's best known and most successful sports goods salesmen.

His passing will be deeply regretted by a circle of friends that extends to all parts of the country.

We extend sincere condolences to his widow, son, and father.

A Homily On Colossians IV

by Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor
Rector of Trinity Memorial Church

We were thinking of the Christian's relationship with outsiders — walking in wisdom in regard to those who are without, and especially of the relationship of the whole body of Christ to those who do not acknowledge Him. We speak of bearing witness to Him. It can be seen in the way Christians behave towards one another; their care for one another, the sacrifices they make for one another. In the early centuries they made their enemies say "See how these Christians love one another!", and their enemies must also have thought: "There must be something behind this." And conversely when Christians slander and backbite one another, the world still says in derision, "See how these Christians love one another;" and again conversely they say: "There cannot be anything to all these claims." It means that we have failed in our relationship with the outsiders.

There is another way in which we display our Christianity: that is by the warmth of our worship. We actually do make sacrifices for one another; we give time and means to help our fellow-Christian in distress. But is there the same warmth in our attitude to God, as we express it in our worship? Remember what worship is: it is our declaration of the worth of God, of the way we feel towards Him, of our deep and abiding gratitude for all that God has done for us in our creation, preservation and all the blessings of this life; but above all for the redemption He has wrought for us in Christ Jesus our Lord. It is our declaration in the face of the world that we place God first in our lives: we worship Him. In the old form of the Anglican marriage service the bridegroom makes his promise — "with my body I thee worship, i.e., I place thee first in my life — no one else can take that place." Can we truly say that that is what outsiders see in our worship?

Think too of what the Sacraments mean to us. When we bring a child to be baptized do we do it in order to bring the child within the family of God or do we simply conform to a social custom? Or in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, do we show to the world our certainty that there we meet with our Blessed Lord in a very special way; or do we show by our casual and careless attitude that we are not very much concerned except with an occasional conformity to the Church's rule? Our casualness will not cause many outsiders to come within the Beloved Community.

The same question can be asked concerning the help — financial and otherwise — which we give to the Church. Does our enthusiasm for the Church show in our attitude in such a way that outsiders simply must flow into the city that is set on a hill, that city that hath foundations whose builder and maker is God?

The answer to those questions will show us whether we are walking in wisdom in relationship with those who are without.

Anglican Sisters Of St. John Render Service To Destitute

By ELLA DACK

The special speaker at the bi-monthly meeting of the Evening Branch of the W.A. of Trinity Memorial Church was Sister Christine of St. Michaels Mission, 2017 Kimberley Street, Montreal.

"Our Community, the Sisters of St. John the Divine, was founded in September, 1884, by the late Mrs. Coombs (Hanna Greer)," Sister Christine stated, "and is a Canadian community, having its headquarters in Toronto. It is not only a religious community, with the emphasis naturally on the spiritual life," she continued, "but we render a wide variety of service wherever needed."

Sister Christine, in outlining some of the aspects of their work, stated that the first ruler of their life was to glorify God, and in giving expression to this rule, they served in various fields, such as teaching—taking charge of the work of the Sunday Schools—the work of the Sunday School by Post at Regina was in charge of the Sisters of St. John the Divine and they also have a college in that city. Nursing is another phase of their work and she mentioned a very modern convalescent home the Sisters have at Newtonbrook, near Toronto. There is also considerable work being done for the aged, as they have a home for the aged both in Edmonton and in Toronto. In Edmonton they also have a home for unmarried mothers. Then they have a convent at Bracebridge Ontario, and then there is their work in Montreal.

Their work in Montreal was started in 1928 on Dorchester Street, in the heart of the slums, where they worked for many years, but due to expropriation by the city, they were obliged to find other quarters. They took over a very large room at 2017 Kimberley Street, which was transferred into their present thirteen-room apartment, with a lovely chapel, now dedicated.

Sister Catherine, who has a fine sense of humour, stated that her own work was entirely with men, and she said men came to her daily in great numbers, from about 9.15 a.m. until 5.15 in the afternoon. "Their plight," she said, "was pitiful. So often the rags they had on their bodies were not only very dirty, but scarcely recognizable as the shirts, socks, trousers and shoes they were supposed to be," she continued. She said their shoes so often were bereft of soles, or uppers, and many had no shoes at all, nor socks, even in the severe cold of winter. When they turned their filthy rags of clothing over to her, in return for which they received good clean clothing, she turned the rags over to a ragman and thus made a few cents towards their own expenses. "There is such a demand for all kinds of men's clothing," she stated, "and I cannot always meet it." The need is for socks, shirts, trousers and shoes, and overcoats too would be welcome. If the men's clothing is merely dirty, but otherwise in fairly good condition, Sister Catherine said she had it laundered so that it could be used again.

In addition to giving the men clothing, it is also necessary to feed them. Sister Christine stated that during January alone she had spent $189.00 on meal tickets at the rate of 25c each. Tickets for beds were also often supplied, apart from the meal tickets. During the period from January to June, the speaker declared, she had given out tickets for 2,624 meals alone, and this is likely to be repeated this season, as there are many unemployed men. "Sometimes the men return for further help," Sister Christine mentioned, "and when they are clean, shaven, and a little pale, I know they have been in jail." Drink has been the cause of the downfall of many of these men, some quite young, and some University graduates.

Sister Christine stated that there was a greater demand for their services than they had personnel to meet that demand. A special offering was taken for Sister Christine's work. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Work Of Scout Auxiliaries Lauded: Officers Installed At Annual Mtg.

The president, Mrs. A. E. Anderson, was in the chair, at the annual meeting of the Ladies Auxiliaries of the Boy Scouts and Cubs of the Montreal Metropolitan District, which was held recently at Boy Scout Headquarters, Bishop Street. The meeting opened with reports from the various conveners and advisory committee, and showed that these groups were proving to be a strong working adjunct to scouting.

Co-ordinated with this group, in growing numbers, are the mothers of the boys, who form these many auxiliaries, and whose aim is to be of constant help and assistance. In so doing, they further the knowledge that a good Scout becomes a good citizen.

During the summer, two delightful visits were made to the boys' camps. Mrs. Jack, Pointe Claire, gave an interesting sketch of a day with the Scouts at Tammaracouta, and Mrs. Savage, Te-treauville, gave a mother's description of a day at the Cub Camp at Joliette.

Mrs. G. M. McQuiggan, a past president, officiated at the installing of new officers, the new slate being as follows: President, Mrs. A. E. Anderson, Willingdon group; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. J. H. Kroeger, Town of Mount Royal; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. H. Bant, St. Mark, Dorval; Rec. Sec., Mrs. S. W. Dewick, Greenfield Park; Corr. Sec., Mrs. C. J. Campbell, Rosedale; Treasurer, Mrs. W. C. W. Lister, Strathmore; Membership, Mrs. J. Deigan, Iverley Settlement; Social, Mrs. G. E. Weston, St. Mark's and Gardenville; Publicity, Mrs. W. H. Walker, Trinity Memorial and St. Matthew's; Hospital, Mrs. A. Lawson, Crawford Park United.

Advisory Committee

Western, Mrs. A. Anderson, Lord Alexander; Eastern, Mrs. F. Bonnet, St. Aloysius; Southern, Mrs. H. W. Lawson, St. John the Divine; Lakeshore-Lachine, Mrs. F. A. Hinchcliffe, Summerlea.

Mrs. E. Storr introduced the

MRS. J. R. BEVERIDGE, Municipal Regent of the I.O.D.E., who will preside at the Tea at the I.O.D.E. Christmas Fair and Tea on Saturday afternoon, November 27, in the Montreal West Town Hall. This Annual Fair is organized by the Prince David, Commandos, and H.M.S. Victory Chapters, and is under the convenship of Mrs. C. Humphys.

guest speaker, Mr. Cyril J. Dendy, Provincial Executive Commissioner, and one of scoutdom's most ardent workers, who spoke briefly on the forthcoming World Scout Jamboree to be held in August at Niagara-on-the-Lake. He pictured it as a jamboree bringing together young people of all nations — the launching of a boy's movement to prevent wars. He recalled that it was Lord Baden-Powell's idea of ending wars through the power of amity.

Mr. Dendy outlined the tremendous amount of planning and work associated with such a gathering of youth — staging areas for incoming scouts, camp sites to be found, troops to be met, lodged and fed — not to mention the great quantities of food to be purchased for the Jamboree — including enough bread to measure 84 miles!

In concluding, Mr. Dendy stressed the need for a successful financial campaign as the Scout movement is not yet self-supporting.

Zonta President Defines Services

On Tuesday evening November 16, members and friends of the Zonta Club of Montreal gathered in Victoria School for an evening program of membership and service, and Miss A. May Jackson, President, answered the question "What is Zonta?" During World War I, she said women for the first time had the opportunity to try their wings in the business and professional world on a large scale. Following the war a group of these young women, who had proven their ability as executives in various fields, gathered in Buffalo New York in November 1919 and established the organization now known as Zonta International, a one-of-a-kind classified service organization of business executive and professional women. This service organization spread rapidly and this month 300 Clubs of Zonta International will celebrate its 35th Anniversary with 10,600 members living in 13 countries.

Service on the International level includes the Amelia Earhart Scholarship to which all clubs contribute. This is an annual award of $1200 granted to an outstanding woman engineer majoring in aeronautics. This scholarship has been awarded to 16 women since it was established in 1938 to honour the renowned pioneer woman flyer Amelia Earhart who was a member of the Zonta Club of New York.

On the Community level, each club is engaged in projects of its own choice. The Zonta Club of Montreal is mainly concerned in

Capozzi Advises Study

Youngsters must do well in studies even if intending to make football a profession, Herb Capozzi, tackle with the Montreal Alouettes, warned Monday.

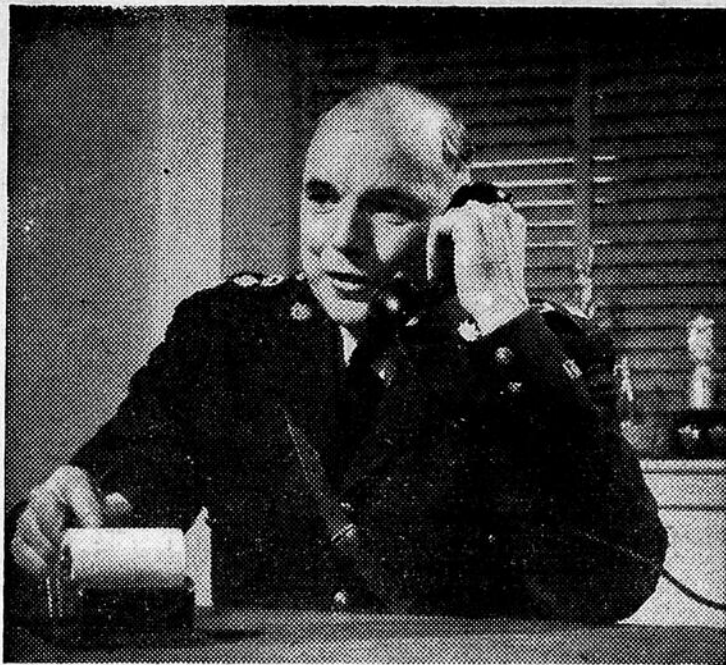

Addressing the annual awards night of the Municipal Touch Rugby League, he pointed out nine other players present—all college graduates.

Over 300 players attended the annual touch rugby awards night held at the Westmount Athletic Grounds. Many parents were also on hand.

Altogether four leagues were formed, with 22 teams and 330 participating, in age groups from eight to 15 years. These included mosquito, pee wee, bantam and midget categories.

Rams won the mosquito title, Lancers went unbeaten in the pee wee league, as did Cavaliers in the bantam section. 74B beat St. Leo's Blues in the midget playoff.

Joey Pal and Bruce Coulter presented crests to the mosquito champs; Marty Martinello and Doug McNichol made the presentations to the pee wees, while Ted Elsby and Tom Moran did the honors in the bantam section. Juan Sheridan and Bill Bewley handed out the midget crests. Hal Patterson conducted a question and answer period.

MacRae, NDG Score Wins To Take St. Laurent Lead

By CLIFF FARNWORTH

MacRae Electric and NDG Regents came through with lopsided wins Saturday to take over dual leadership in the St. Laurent Intermediate Hockey League.

Phil Martin paced the Electricians to a 6-0 victory over Michaud Freres, while Charlie Garneau starred as Regents dumped Royal Pharmacy 5-1.

Michaud will try to regain lost ground this Saturday at the St. Laurent arena when they tackle NDG in the opener. Royal Pharmacy will also be looking for a return to the top when they tangle with MacRae in the second tilt. Only two points now separate the four teams.

Martin Counts Three

Phil Martin's three goals and an assist sparked MacRae Electric to their whitewash of Michaud Freres with the Electricians notching two goals in each of the three frames to win 6-0. Martin fired home a goal in each period with Brisebois collecting his first shutout of the season and second in the league so far this year.

Earl Willis was thrown out of the game by referee Jimmy Slater after the player argued too vehemently over an interference penalty. This was the third week that Michaud Freres have had a rough time with the officials. A league meeting this week will hear the Michaud cause.

In the second game of the afternoon Charlie Garneau sparked the N.D.G. Regents to their 5-1 victory over Royal Pharmacy in the all-N.D.G. contest.

Either setting-up or scoring all of his teams goals, Garneau celebrated his second game back with the Regents landing him up in fourth place among the individual scoring leaders.

Larry Gallagher, Ronnie Kenwood, and Jimmy Campbell banged home the other Regent goals. Jeff Boyd tallied Royal Pharmacy's only goal in the first period but other than brief flashes in each of the period Royal Pharmacy spent most of their time covering up their goalkeeper.

Formidable Defence

Pete Simpson, Warren Gamble, Syd Griffin and Frank Slavin formed a formidable wall for the Regent defence, with Griffin getting back into shape after a long illness during the summer.

Griffin was coaching the club for the first part of the season, so that the Regents are now scouting around for a replacement.

This Saturday's round will complete the one-third mark in the

Repeat Triumphs Scored By Teams In City Hoopla

Alouettes, CNR and Royals all repeated as winners in their second games in the Municipal Basketball League. Als beat the defending champion Stayner crew 62-49 Tuesday, while CNR edged BYers 48-45 and Royals topped MacRae 42-33 Wednesday.

The Als, a new entry in the loop, led throughout their match with Stayner and were ahead by six points at the half. Jack Dudley topped their scorers with 23 points, but Earle MacDonald was outstanding in a losing cause sinking 32 markers.

Stayner had only five men out, and only three hit the score sheet. Dave Binmore was second high man for Als with 14, while Pete Seimers sunk 12 for Stayner.

Royal Lead at Half

Royals lead MacRae 27 - 25 at half, and opened up a 35-30 lead at three quarter time. They increased this during the last canto to finally end up ahead 42-33.

Ian Slater and Jack Edwards were high for the winners with 12 and 10 points respectively. Hugh McDonald and Jack Stryde had 10 and nine for MacRae.

Five Fouls Feature

CNR and BYers hooked up in a close clean game, which saw only a total of five fouls. CNR drew four, BYers one. The railway crew led at half 17-15, and managed to stay in front to the wire.

Brown was outstanding two ways, counting 15 points and playing well defensively. Bob McLeod matched his output for BYers and was the pick of their team.

● THE RUGGER STORY: This week will probably see the end of another rugger season in Westmount, and a backwards look is sufficient to see the growth of this game here. Rugger has gained in popularity immensely over the past few years, with more players and spectators than ever before.

It was significant this year that the Westmount Rugger Club thought itself both strong enough and large enough to split into two groups; one remained here as a Westmount team, the other moving to West Hill High School as home grounds. Both have been successful, and it is likely will be even stronger next year.

It is not only in Montreal that the game has grown. Other Canadian centers have seen it mushroom from an improvised game in a field to a well organized recreation, if it can be termed recreation. It has also seen amazing growth in England, where it is fast replacing soccer as the big game in the schools.

This might come as quite a jolt to many people, who feel if there are two sports that will always predominate the English scene, they are soccer and cricket.

But the English view on sports, especially at the scholastic level, varies greatly from both Canadian and American views. They do not immediately form into leagues, with the object being to declare a champion. They do not chafe over national rankings, or even the outcomes of most contests. The idea of recreation is predominant, and above all sportsmanship must be maintained. This may sound highly idealistic, and in recent years soccer in the schools has become more and more competitive.

This is a direct result of emphasis on the professional level. Soccer is the national sport, and big time soccer is all professional. Granted that even the best players are highly underpaid by our standards, the key to its importance is seen in the amounts paid teams for players in trades. The weekly football pool involves large amounts of money, and the feeding grounds for professional teams are the schools.

Authorities at the scholastic level have not gone along with this change. Instead they have advocated a switch on emphasis from soccer to rugger. They desire once again to have the individual teams, not entered in any leagues, and not playing for any championships. Rugger teams make their own schedules, against such opponents as suit them. The game is played for the game's sake, not with the intention of spawning stars for the professional leagues.

What the long range effect this switch will have on English soccer is, no one can be sure. But the higher ups in the soccer trade have already expressed concern at the switch in sports, and many foresee the day when England will lose her place among the soccer powers of the world.

● WESTMOUNT WANDERINGS: Rockey Rothwell, recreation department director is off on two weeks holidays. Johnny Garland has taken over for the duration . . . The Municipal Association is handing in a report on the WAG situation to City Hall. Recurring deficits prompted the investigation, and the word is out that they may lose the senior B teams as tenants next year . . . Hockey is coming in now and the recreation department is preparing for the season expecting a bumper year. Terry Gray, who looked good in junior A competition last year, is playing with Verdun in the Metropolitan League . . . Hugh Stratton is also looking forward to more athletic success at Westmount Junior High during the winter season. This past year he chalked up his third bantam football title in four years with the Junior High squad. During that time they have lost one game (last year), and tied two . . . Over at the Senior High basketball and hockey are both coming into their own. The hoop squad, under coach Ron Sharp, will forgo the Golden Ball tournament this year. They have more height, and five holdovers from last season — Al Golden, Lance Thomson, Roy Smith, John McFarlane and Gordon Wasserman. This quintet could provide Sharp with the makings of a good team . . . Ross Firth has had his pucksters out for two practices, almost has his team down pat. Exhibition games for both teams will start after coming examinations . . . Adath Israel will provide new competition this year in the senior B basketball setup . . . Both students and teachers at the school, especially the latter, were keenly interested in the gymnasium Wednesday. That's where caretaker Bill Green had parked his television set, and everyone was watching the Alouettes edge Hamilton in the playoff opener . . . Especially fortunate were gym classes throughout the afternoon.

● UNITY BOYS CLUB hoop team is rolling along again this year. After going all the way to the city intermediate championship last season, they have started off in defence of their title with three straight wins in the Golden Ball tournament. Coach Maurice Marasine has nine men out regularly, and would still like a little more strength. Bill Buckberrough has been a real find at guard, and is ably filling in for Ted Rice, who was transferred out of the city. Bill hails from West Hill High School, where he and Grant Peterson combined with Laird MacLennan as the backbone of several fine teams, including one high school junior championship squad.

Intersquad Rugger Game Only Westmount Action, Barbs Rap Beavers 11-3

By JIM ADAM

With no opposition to be found and rivals Montreal Barbarians busy with the Bytown Beavers, the Westmount Rugger club held an intersquad game last Saturday at the Park.

Much to everyone's surprise some of the best rugger of the year was seen with no one giving or taking any quarter. For the record the Blues beat the Colors 16-11 after trailing 8-0 shortly before half-time.

The Blues which had the first team backs eventually broke through the suspect Colors' defence to run up enough points to win the game before the Colors hit the scoring column again.

New Positions

Many players were playing in positions new to them and showed up well. Gerry Fotheringham could be a find at scrum-half. A beautiful break from a scrum, the likes of which we haven't seen this year produced the first score of the game by Joe O'Flaherty.

Bob Watt who has been in and out of the team this year because of injury was in the Blues side at full-back and gave a good display of attacking and defensive play.

For the Colors Mike Wolstencroft after being moved to stand-off at the beginning of the second half was nearly the spark in his team's back division which might have given them victory.

Barbs Beat Beavers

Across at the West Hill High School grounds the Bytown Beavers were in town for the second week in succession but this time were losers to the home-town Barbarians.

The Barbs who when at home can always be depended on to turn out a strong club gave the Ottawa visitors no chances with an easy 11-3 triumph.

The final game of the season scheduled for this Saturday is in the hands of the weatherman. Should the temperatures remain reasonable and the ground does not freeze the game will be on but a drop below the freezing point will rule out any play.

Westmount Favored

The Barbarians are anxious to break the Westies skein of wins against them and if the match is played a close exciting game can be expected. The two teams have met three times previously this season with the Westmount squad coming out on top each time. None of the games have been walk-overs and the Barbs could easily win with the breaks but the home team go into the tilt favorites to win.

The Westmount club held a successful dance last Saturday night at the R.C.A.S.C. Officers Mess on Bel-Air avenue. Everyone was there and it was one of the best dances ever held by the club. The Bytown Beavers were guests for the night. The Club wishes to take this opportunity of thanking Col. Short, the officer commanding for his kindness in letting the club use the mess and also to Major Dan Grant, president, for all his work.

Y Badminton Club Has Varied Program

Addicts of the racquet and shuttlecock are reminded the Westmount Y Badminton Club meets every Tuesday from 7.30 to 10 p.m. Pat Smith is on hand to assist beginners with instruction from 7.30 to 8 p.m.

Unity Boys Club Notches Two Wins In Golden Ball

The Unity Boys Club senior B basketball team won its second and third games in Golden Ball competition this week, defeating RMR 77-55 Wednesday and Immaculate Conception 50-37 Tuesday.

Grant Peterson led the Unity larrigans in a rough match against the army boys, which saw them ahead at the half 33-22. Unity had 21 fouls called against them, RMR 29. UBC counted 24 of their points on foul shots, while RMR only made good on 15.

Against the Immaculate Conception squad, Unity was down 23-20 at half, but came on in a rush to win handily. Peterson was again the leading marksman.
