Encyclopaedia Brittannica Presentation During Education Week

Above, School Board Chairman J. S. Gaw is shown presenting a volume of the Encyclopaedia Brittanica to Miss Mary Pringle (left) and Miss Mabel MacMillan (right), for the School Library. The complete set was donated by the publishers to the school. Miss Pringle and Miss MacMillan were chosen for the honor on account of the contribution they have made to education at Huntingdon High School during their long service on the teaching staff. Both are now retired. The presentation was made on Thursday evening at Huntingdon High School.

Presentation, Panel Discussion Part Of Education Week

Education Week at Huntingdon High School was observed with a full week of activities in addition to the regular school routine, which made for a very busy week.

Visits to manufacturing plants in town provided an opportunity to the students to gain some incite into what is going on around them and a knowledge of the workday pattern of the adult world. The Open House program provided a period for the parents to visit the school and to see the improvements and their children in their classrooms with their teachers. The various programs all played a part in highlighting the purpose of the observance of Education Week.

On Thursday evening, the Huntingdon Home and School Association held their regular meeting and as part of this a panel discussion was held on Education. Education as it appears to the students was the theme of the speeches delivered by the students taking part. During the business meeting several items were taken up for discussion. The matter of the Hot Supplement program was discussed and it was decided the Assocciation would lend its assistance toward this program. The matter was left to a committee to work out a program with the suggestion that some project be sponsored with the object or raising money to help offset the costs of the supplement plan. It was disclosed that the School Board had purchased supplies to the extent of about $1.000 to get the plan started and were willing to do more as the plan progresses.

An invitation was extended to those present to visit the kindergarten and to see the improvements that have been made through the help of the School Board. A nominating committee was formed to select a panel of officers for the next year of the Association and to be brought in at the annual meeting to be held in April.

Following the business meeting, a pleasing ceremony was conducted in connection with the presentation of a set of Encyclopeadia Brittannica which had been donated to the school by the company publishing same. J. S. Gaw, Chairman of the School Board made the presentation to Miss M. MacMillan and Miss M. Pringle, former teachers at Huntingdon High School for many years and now retired. The presentation was in their name to the High School Library originally founded by the Huntingdon Home and School Association. Before presenting the set to the ladies, Mr. Gaw outlined the plan which led to the works being donated to the school and to other schools throughout Canada. He explained that the books should be presented through someone who had made a contribution to education and to the school and that it was felt that Miss MacMillan and Miss Pringle qualified in no small measure in this direction. Whereupon he called the ladies to the front and made the presentation to them. Both ladies made suitable reply and thanked everyone for the honor bestowed upon them.

It was mentioned also that a number of new books had arrived for the library and some help was needed by the Library Committee to put these books into the circulation of the library. Several ladies offered their help and will meet on Wednesday to plan what it to be done.

The panel discussion then took place with Betty Lough, Dawn Henderson, Karen Evans, John Westrik and Alice Hamilton taking part and each giving an address on the subject of Education. We fell that the panelists are deserving of congratulations for the very excellent presentation of their speeches and the way in which they all answered questions and questioned the points of others. It would take too much space to give the individual views presented, but some very good points were brought out and the audience participated in asking questions on the various views of the students. Had this been a debate it could have developed into a lively one. As it was, it held the attention of the audience and actually had to be called to a halt due the lateness of the hour. It would seem that on future occasions the views of these young people could well form the basis of interesting discussion for Home and School Meetings. Mr. Robert Baker was the moderator and he had a big job to do when deciding to break in on the questioning, for many desired to speak in the limit of the time allowed.

Refreshments were served following the meeting and a further social time was spent. Generally Speaking this was a very interesting meeting and was very well attended.

R.C.M.P. Seize Still In Huntingdon

The R.C.M.P. Huntingdon Detachment seized a still on the farm premises of H. Smith, Back Ridge Road, Huntingdon, on March 8th. This still had an output of approximately 75 to 100 gallons per day. It had a 12 inch diameter column of 18 feet in height, mounted on a 300 gallon cooker and heated by steam boiler.

Along with the still, some 88 gals. of illicit alcohol were seized by the R.C.M.P. Six vats were also seized which could contain about 1800 gallons of wash.

Investigation is continuing on the case.

Iroquois Indians Lay Claim To Winfrey's And Other Islands

Ownership rights by the Iroquois Indian Band at St. Regis, Que., of the offshore Islands in Lake St. Francis made the headlines in the Dundee area this past week. Three members of the band representing, so they said, the St. Regis Council, came down from St. Regis and proceeded to post Dept. of Citizenship and Immigration signs on various islands. Winfrey's Island, Sheep Island and Deschamp Island were three that were reported to have been declared Indian territory by the spokesman for the party an Indian by the names of Oakes.

The Indian Council argument for their action stems from the assertion on their part that when the white settlers bought out a considerable portion of the Iroquois Reserve in 1888 and later all Islands in the Lake remained their territory. However according to Registry Office Records in Huntingdon Islands Nos. four five and 32 were bought by John Fraser in 1902 from the Crown, which represented the Iroquois tribe and for which an Indian Patent Deed was issued thereof. Islands Nos 4 and 32 were sold to the Gooch family relatives of the Fraser family and later sold to Dr. Winfrey in 1916. Island No. 5 is now the property of Fred Smith from New York State.

Since Dr. Winfrey's death in 1956 and pending the protracted will settlement which is now before the Supreme Court of Canada the Montreal Trust Co., are acting both as executors and seguestrators of the late Doctor's Estate. The matter of the tribe's action in posting what the records show as Island 4 and the Indians call Senecal Island was duly reported to the Trust Co., and they through their legal counsel are taking appropriate action to substantiate the claim of ownership on behalf of Dr. Winfrey's Estate.

The Participants In Panel Discussion At Home and School Meeting

Seen above is the panel of students of Huntingdon High School, who took part in the panel discussion held on Thursday evening, in connection with Education Week at the Home and School meeting. The students did a very excellent job and they are from left to right: Betty Lough, Dawn Henderson, Karen Evans, John Westrix and Alice Hamilton. In the centre is Mr. Robert Baker, who acted as moderator.

Howick Farm House Lost In Fire

The farm house on the Tullochgorum Road, Howick, owned by Stewart Kerr, was completely destroyed by fire on Tuesday afternoon. It was an old house of log construction and finished with brick, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Norman McWhinnie and family

Mr. McWhinnie was alone and sleeping in the front part of the house at the time. He awakened about 3.30 p.m. to find smoke pouring from the kitchen at the back of the house. The fire dept. was called, but the water supply could not be reached and the house soon became a total loss. A few pieces of furniture were saved, but nothing else.

Mr. Kerr had been at the farm feeding the cattle and only left a few minutes before the fire was noticed.

A small amount of insurance was carried on the house and a small amount on the contents.

Mr. Leo Cappiello Injured In Accident

An accident involving four Huntingdon residents occurred in Westmount, around 8.30 p.m. Monday, which resulted in Mr. Leo Cappiello suffering a knee injury. Two couples, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Lalonde and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cappiello, were proceeding from west to east on Western Avenue in Mr. Lalonde's car, when they were involved in a head-on collision with a car travelling in the opposite direction. Mr. Lalonde and Mrs. Cappiello were treated for minor cuts and bruises at The Montreal General Hospital and then allowed to leave but Mr. Cappiello was detained for X-Rays on his knee. Reports reaching The Gleaner indicate the knee cap was fractured and the leg has been placed in a cast. The car, an Edsel owned by Mr. Lalonde, was damaged extensively. The two couples were on their way to Quebec City when the mishap occurred.

Hoping that his son would enter politics, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's father had his son live for two years with an English-speaking family in order to become truly bilingual.

Council Meets To Discuss Finances And Arrive At A Budget

An adjourned meeting of the Huntingdon Town Council was held at the County Building on Monday evening, with all members present. The main business of the meeting was preparation of a budget for 1960.

The first item was a decision to increase the wages of the two truck drivers by 10 cents per hour for a period from May 1st to December 1st, only.

The council then went over the financial statement to see where it would be possible to pare the expenses and thus have a budget to work on. Grants to the amount of $500. for 1959 was considered something which could not be changed. Poor and Relief cases could only be adjusted as they came up to be dealt with.

An amount of $14,832.54 was expended for Roads and sidewalks which included snow removal. The cost of snow removal in 1959 was given as $6,000. Repairs to trucks cost $2,024 The cost of snow removal for 1960 so far was reported as $2,500. Some suggestions were made for cutting this cost in the next season, but some were not considered practical.

Cost of operation of the Filter Plant for 1959 was $27,920.49. It was felt that very little change could be made in this.

Police and Fire showed a cost of $16,267.14. Considerable discussion ensued on the cost of fire drills and it was considered that these would be reduced to save some cost. It was suggested that a flat rate of $2.00 per man per drill be instituted instead of so much per hour This proposition is to be presented to the firemen before being ratified.

The annual police report was read and discussed, but owing to limitation on space this week, this will be held over until the next issue. Chief L'Heureux was questioned on a number of details set out in the report and gave satisfactory answers to all the questions. The report was adopted.

The Fire committee will check on some supplies needed by the fire department and decide if these shall be purchased.

It was decided to obtain a bond for Chief L'Heureux in the sum of $1.000. All monies handled by Chief L'Heureux are to be handed in to Secretary Martin before each monthly meeting of the council.

Alderman McGerrigle thought that more effort should be made to collect arrears of taxes and less should be written off.

Mayor Lefebvre reported that the Municipal Commission would authorize the council to borrow up to $75,000 as needed to finance the town operations until taxes start coming in.

Ten layettes were completed for handing out to needy mothers, 18 articles were supplied for the children's ward. Mrs. Morrison expressed thanks for materials donated and to all who helped in this work.

Refreshment Committee: Mrs. Rose Primus stated this committee served refreshments on Hospital Day, the June Tea, the Fashion Show, the Christmas Tea and at some of the general meetings. She thanked her committee and all who had donated time, food and money to these projects.

Ways and Means: Mrs. Gordon McCrimmon reported her committee had had a most successful year. On June 20, 1959, an Afternoon Tea was organized in conjunction with the Annual Art Exhibit held at Grove Hall. At Huntingdon Fair two booths were tastefully decorated and a Tag Day was held and a Parcel Post conducted which were very lucrative as the financial report will indicate. A quilt made and donated by Miss Malina Murphy was raffled for which the committee was very grateful. Braithwaite Bros. held a General Electric Demonstration with an added attraction of a Fashion Show presented by Henry Morgan & Company, a raffle of two bicycles donated by Braithwaite Bros. and the Raleigh Co. at this same event added greatly to the funds. In November a Card Party was held by members of the Auxiliary of Dundee which event was very successful. In December the annual Christmas Tea and Food Sale was held in Masonic Hall. A Valentine Dance took place in the Huntingdon Chateau on February 12, 1960. The total money raised from the foregoing events is $1,852.71. Mrs. McCrimmon expressed thanks to her assistants for their wholehearted and willing help and to all members who assisted her in any way.

Publicity: Mrs. H. MacNaughton stated that reports of special events, general and executive meetings were published in the Gleaner. Last November to encourage better attendance at general meetings, notices were mailed to every member, in French and English as required. Attendance did improve. Mrs. MacNaughton, on behalf of the Auxiliary, thanked Mr. A. L. Sellar for his continued interest and cooperation in publishing reports of its various endeavours.

The above reports were all given in French and English by the convenors and when unable to do so were translated by Mrs. Barnard Sauvé and Mrs. N. Langon.

Dr. F. G. McCrimmon addressed the meeting briefly and felt very grateful for all the Ladies' Auxiliary has done for the hospital, making special mention of the incubator which, he felt, had saved the lives of many babies. In his own words we quote the following, "I don't know what the hospital would do if there wasn't an Auxiliary."

On behalf of Mr. Gilbert Macmillan, who was unable to be present, Mr. Raymond Rowat gave a few remarks of appreciation to the auxiliary. He stated that when one examines in total

Huntingdon Clydes Doing Well In Final Games League Series

On Wednesday night, March 9th, at Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena, Huntingdon-Clydes won their second game of the finals in overtime over Dewittville Villains 7-6. This proved a see-saw affair, first Clydes scored four goals and seemed to have everything going their way. But Dewittville came right back and when they had finished had scored six goals. Before the third period ended Clydes had tied it up and scored the winner at the 11.00 mark.

Scoring for Clydes: Gerard Racine (3), Raymond L'Heureux, Yvon Riel, Maurice Pilon and Howard Duheme.

For Dewittville: R. Laberge scored all six goals.

The law of averages finally caught up with the Huntingdon-Clydes hockey team Friday, Mar. 11th, when they lost their first game in their last six starts.

During the regular season play Clydes were a disappointment to their supporters, winning only four of their league games to squeeze into third spot.

When the play-offs started they were not conceded much chance to go too far, but they breezed through the semi-finals against Howick in three straight games, and were well on their way to take the finals against Dewittville Villains the same way, winning their first two, then they dropped the third game 5-3.

In the last few games of the schedule they lost Roger Saumier. They then acquired the services of Bobby Sunday, a defenceman from St. Regis, who seemed to put new life into the team. Due to an unfortunate accident to Raymond L'Heureux, who suffered a broken leg in an accident in an industrial school in Valleyfield, Coach Bob Marshall decided to put Bobby Sunday at centre and then drop him back on defence, and Bobby proved to be another Gordie Howe, playing practically two-thirds of the game.

In the Friday night game, the Villains were determined to win this one, and at the end of the first period had a commanding 3-0 lead, increased it to 4-2 in the second, and both teams scored one each in the last to make it 5-3.

Gilles Laberge, Dewittville goaler, was probably the busiest man on the ice, and robbed Clydes of what seemed to be sure goals.

Scoring for Dewittville: Reid (2), Carignan, Chagnon and Laberge one each.

For Huntingdon: Maurice Pilon, Arthur Murphy and Bobby Sunday.

Seven penalties were handed out, six to Dewittville and one to Huntingdon.

These two same teams will again meet tonight (Wednesday) in the fourth game and if a fifth is necessary, it will probably be played Friday night.

Ice Cutting To Start Clearing River At Chateauguay, Que.

Recently a resolution was sent to Mr. Maurice Laberge, Provincial Member of Parliament for Chateauguay, asking for a subsidy in connection with the breaking of the ice in the Chateauguay River to prevent flooding. The Provincial Government on March 9th sent a cheque for $2,000.00 in this connection.

A request was also made to the County Council at Ste. Martine and to the Municipality of Chateauguay Centre for a contribution towards the cost of breaking the ice in the Chateauguay River.

At the meeting of the Chateauguay County Council at Ste. Martine, which George Soyez, Mayor of Chateauguay, attended on March 9th 1960, a proposal was made that the County of Chateauguay should supply and lay pipes in the Barrette Water Course, in order to effect an adequate drainage system for the Colonia Project. This proposal is to be studied.

At the same meeting the Mayor received, from the County Council a cheque for $500.00 as contribution toward the breaking of the ice, also a cheque for $500.00 from the Municipality of Chateauguay Centre for their contribution.

The cutting of the ice on the Chateauguay River was commenced on Monday, March 7th and is progressing favourably. The photograph above shows the ice cutting operations prior to clearing the ice from the river to save flooding.

Lacolle Rink Cops Ladies Curling Title

Mrs. R. Smith's Lacolle rink took the Quebec Dominion Silver 'D' ladies curling title Saturday, by whipping Chanteclerc 17-9.

Lacolle thus won five matches without a loss during the week's play. Chanteclerc were the victims of the Lacolle curlers in two occasions.

The Lacolle rink will now travel to Oshawa, Ont., to play in a three-day five-province round robin Dominion Diamond "D" championship which begins Tuesday, March 22.

Winner of this event will meet the champion ladies rink from Western Canada in an invitation match as forerunner of ten-province round robin Dominion Diamond "D" championship which will begin next year.

The 1951 census reported that 1.9 per cent of Canada's population over 10 years of age, about 166,000 persons, had never attended school and presumably were illiterate.

Dundee

DUNDEE — The Fort Covington Fire Dept. answered a call for a fire at the home of Mr. Harold Fraser shortly before the noon hour, on Friday. Before the firemen arrived the outbreak caused by a spark from the chimney igniting the house roof had been extinguished by Mr. Fraser and his two brothers Gordon and Lester. A windstorm had ripped open a portion of the metal roof sometime ago and had not been made quite tight when the repairs were made. By just a 100 to 1 chance the spark had found a slighly open spot and set fire to the old dry shingles under the aluminum covering. Luckily Mr. Fraser was still in the house when he heard flames cracking. He went upstairs by a back staircase where he saw the roof on fire. As that particular part of the dwelling was not sealed in over the rafters he was able to douse the fire before it gained too much headway. His brothers, who were at the home place and saw the smoke came on the double to lend assistance. Considerable water damage was caused to the ceiling and floors in putting out the fire but the damage to the roof itself was not extensive. Mr. Gordon Fraser recently suffered a considerable loss when the barn on the Hugh McNicol farm burned the latter part of February. He lost 18 head of young stock in the outbreak. While the Fort Firemen were at the Fraser home they received another call around Fort Covington where their services were required. This is the third fire call on the Lake Shore Road in the last few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNicol went to McMasterville last Sunday, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McNicol and family and other relatives.

Last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNicol went to Montreal to visit Mr. Ian McDonald, who is a patient in the Montreal General Hospital. He fractured a leg in a skiing accident a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Eleanor McNicol spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Harry MacNaughton, in Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Faubert, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ouimet at Chateauguay, Que. Mrs. Ouimet was the former Miss Huguette Faubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gallinger and sons Byron and John were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smellie.

Mrs. Cecil Arnold, William and Bernice of St. Lambert, spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. A. H. Fraser and family. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold and family spent the weekend with Mrs. Wm. Arnold.

"Well, if we women did it, they'd call it nagging."

JUDGMENT NEEDED BY BOTH PARTIES

It is very rare that a traffic accident occurs through pure chance. Most traffic accidents, involving either pedestrian or motorists, are caused through lack of judgement on the part of one or both parties. Pedestrian and motorist must cooperate to the highest degree if accidents are to diminish throughout the province of Quebec, says the Provincial Highway Safety Committee, (Prudentia). The pedestrian should be careful, and the motorist prudent, and thus accidents will surely decrease.

THINK OF THE POOR PEDESTRIAN'S PLIGHT

The snow is starting to melt signalling that winter is coming to an end. The Provincial Highway Safety Committee, (Prudentia), calls on motorists to show courtesy and to think of the poor pedestrian. The pedestrian is always the one who suffers during springtime through being splashed by the careless motorist who drives madly through mud and water puddles created by the melting snow. If you show courtesy on the road, then the pedestrian will thank you.

Two city boys visited a farm and returned filled with wonder at the things they had seen. David, age 7, was overheard explaining milking machines to Dick, age 6. He said: "They just put those things under the cow and wait until she starts to breathe."

Huntingdon High School Notes

Education Week at the High School.

To mark Education Week at the High School an extensive program was held in which a large number of students, staff, parents, and citizens took part.

On Tuesday afternoon, March 8th, Grades 7—11 were an interested audience, listening to and asking questions of some of Huntingdon's businessmen, the latter group including the Messrs. G. MacMillan, G. W. Thompson, S. Liversidge, A. Siellar, F. Anderson, and A. Guerin. The grades were divided into two groups, Grades 7 and 8 forming an audience in the gymnasium under the chairmanship of Mr. Melnyk, the Principal, and Grades 9, 10 and 11 in the cafeteria under the chairmanship of Mr. Gill. The programme was so arranged that each guest spoke for about twenty minutes to each audience.

On Wednesday afternoon, Grades 9 and 10 visited the Gleaner office and were taken on a tour of the premises. In the morning, the Kindergarten class paid a visit to Mr. Foisy, the shoemaker in town; Grade 1 had a visit to the Fire Station and Grades 2—6 were shown two films: Modern Railroad Building in Canada and Canadian Heritage.

Thursday afternoon proved to be a very busy one when more than 250 parents visited the classrooms on an "Open House" invitation, to take a first-hand look at what was being accomplished. This event always proves a popular one and the teachers on staff worked especially hard to have an interesting afternoon for their guests. Mrs. Greig and Mrs. Dahms of the Home Economics Department, with the assistance of many of the girls, prepared and served a lovely tea in the cafeteria at the conclusion of the visiting.

During the evening under the auspices of the Home and School Association, a panel discussion was held with a parent, Mr. Robert Baker, acting as moderator and students as the panelists—Ann Tannahill, Grade 11, John Westrick, Grade 10, Dawn Henderson, Karen Evans, and Betty Lough, Grade 9. The students delivered papers on Education, discussed their divergent points of view among themselves as well as with members of the audience. The students conducted themselves well and made many interesting and provocative remarks which stimulated lively discussions.

Friday of this important week was spent in a visit during the morning hours to Model Dye Works by Grades 7 to 11. During the evening, under the auspices of the Chateauguay Valley Teachers' Association and with Huntingdon High School acting as host, a Career Conference was held at which representatives from a cross section of society was present to put before the students of Grades 10 and 11 throughout the Valley, information which would help them in selecting a career. As part of their fund-raising campaign for a trip to New York, the students of Grade 11 with the capable assistance of Mrs. Brown and some of the mothers of the students, served dinner to the guests prior to the opening of the Conference.

Though much extra work was involved in preparing the week of activities, the teachers think the effort was well worth while, and greatly appreciate the generous assistance of so many in the community and their very favourable comments.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the beautiful floral tributes, sympathy cards, and acts of kindness from our relatives, friends and neighbours in our recent bereavement.

I wish to express my appreciation and sincere thanks to Dr. Stalker, doctors, nurses and staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital, for the excellent care during my stay in the hospital, to all neighbours, relatives and friends for visits, gifts and get-well cards.

Huntingdon High School Students Visit The Gleaner

As a part of the activities of Education Week, Grades 9 and 10 of Huntingdon High School paid a visit to the Gleaner office and printing plant on Wednesday afternoon. There were about sixty students in the group and they were taken over the plant in smaller groups. Following the tour the whole group with teachers were assembled outside and the above photograph was taken. It will be noticed the number of girls as compared to boys in these two grades.

Canon Hatcher Suffers Illness

On Thursday evening, Canon W. S. Hatcher was taken suddenly ill and removed to the Huntingdon County Hospital. While diagnosis has been taken, it has not yet been established the cause of the trouble, but it is considered a nervous collapse. Canon Hatcher is still in Hospital, but is improving. There was no service in St. John's Church on Sunday, a Lay reader, Mr. C. Hornett, of Valleyfield will be in charge of morning services at the church for the next two Sundays, March 20th and 27th, at 11 o'clock. The wishes of the community go out to Canon Hatcher for his rapid return to normal health.

Fair Warning

Motorists, take heed: A recent Montreal news item states that a motorist has been fined fifty dollars because he had not signed his name on the back of his automobile registration license. Mr. Beatty, local license issuer, tells people to sign the licenses when he hands them out, but more often than not this is overlooked. If and when a motorist is asked by proper authorities to show his driver's license and car registration, he has violated the law if these are not properly signed. A closer to home incidence involved Guus Stout, now a Montreal resident but formerly of Huntingdon who was employed by The Huntingdon Gleaner and later by the Bank of Montreal. Mr. Stout was fined one hundred dollars in Montreal because he had not signed his operator's license nor registration for his motor scooter, $50. on each count. It only takes a minute to sign the licenses and be within the law so do it now, ignorance of the law is no excuse.

Mail Truck Hi-jacked

The mail truck which serves Huntingdon was the victim of hi-jacking on Monday evening, at a point this side of, but near Caughnawaga. From information obtained, only one bag of mail from Huntingdon was on the truck. Three armed men blocked off a portion of the highway forcing the mail truck to stop. Two men trained their guns on the driver while a third looted the truck contents. They sped off in a waiting car. It is still not known just what amount was actually stolen.

Old Time Supper, Penny Sale Sponsored By Daughters Of Isabella

On Sunday, March 13, in the Parochial Hall, an Old Time Supper and Penny Sale organized by the Daughters of Isabella of Huntingdon was held. The response was tremendous. Around 250 persons, young and old, enjoyed a very delicious supper. Twelve lovely ladies in their 18th and 19th century fashions could be seen walking around in a settin of St. Patrick's decorations. They were Mrs. Doris Montpetit, Mrs. Bulger, Mrs. Jules Caza, Mrs. Adele Dextrase, Mrs. Irene Laberge, Mrs. Paul Lefebvre, Mrs. Henri Gregoire, Mrs. Rodrigue Montpetit, Mrs. Claude Pilon, Mrs. Roland Lavallée, Mrs. Claude Renaud and Mrs. Romain Menard.

Mrs. Lawrence McCallum, as master of ceremonies, welcomed everyone. She then introduced the guests of honor who were as follows: Father Bergevin, curate of Huntingdon, Padre Viau of Valleyfield, Mrs. Rodrigue Montpetit, vice-regent of Huntingdon and her husband; Mrs. Josephat Marcil, regent of Valleyfield; and her husband; Mr. Paul Lefebvre, Mayor of Huntingdon and Mrs. Lefebvre; Rev. Mother Ste. Claire, Superior of Notre Dame School; Rev. Mother St. Mary Philippa, directress of Notre Dame School, Mr. and Mrs. Rodolphe Proulx and Mr. Laurence McCallum.

Mrs. Rodrigue Montpetit, vice-regent, replacing Mrs. Gisele L'Heureux, regent, hospitalized, thanked everyone for coming in such a large number to encourage them. She also warmly thanked all those who had helped in any way possible to make the evening a success.

Padre Viau thanked the Circle for inviting him. He was very pleased with the wonderful work that all the members were doing together. Mr. R. Proulx congratulated the organization for the lovely supper which must have given a great amount of work to many of them. He mentioned that on many occasions the St. Joseph School received substantial help. If the school, he added, has won the inter-school championship for 2 years in a row, some of the credit should go to the Daughters of Isabella for their support.

Last but not least Father Bergevin, curate, replacing Monsignor David, unable to attend because of the death of his brother, also mentioned a few of the donations given to the Church and Notre-Dame School by the Circle.

After supper all the guests enjoyed a penny sale presided over by capable Mrs. Paul Lefebvre. Many persons went home quite happy with lovely prizes generously donated by local and out-of-town merchants. Mrs. Roger Raymond was the lucky winner of the telephone table.

Many thanks for the success of the evening are due to the organizers, Mrs. Paul Lefebvre, Mrs. Claude Renaud, Mrs. Lucien Loiselle and Miss Eliane Lasalle also for the magnificent effort of all those who worked in the following: Decorations, Sale of tickets, Refreshment counter, Kitchen, Service at the table, etc. The daughters of Isabella are very grateful to them all.

LEGION NOTES

Attendance at the monthly meeting showed a slight increase, a trend which, it is hoped, will continue during the next few months.

According to reports furnished by the various committee chairmen, all activities are flourishing and finances are in a fairly stable condition.

Applications for social membership are becoming more numerous, a fact which President Dave Zabitsky added in urging more members to bring along their friends to partake of the branch's activities.

During the meeting, a letter was read from Mr. Tom Vine thanking the branch for the honour of electing him to life social membership and enclosing a sizeable donation in appreciation.

Entertainment Committee chairman John Thompson has laid on an interesting programme for the St. Patrick's Dance on Saturday night, including Irish singing, door and spot prizes, refreshments and a Chinese auction. So, whether Irish or no, come into the parlour and join in the fun.

The Shuffleboard team is progressing in its unwinning way, but nevertheless enjoying every game and making many new friends.

On Friday, a team from the Amvet of Malone will be entertained at the Legion Hall, whilst on Sunday a visit will be paid to the K. of C. Hall.

The financing of the purchase of sweaters, etc. for the junior hockey players, a project sponsored by Huntingdon Legion, has received tremendous support by fostering the competitive spirit of our citizens. Lucky holders of tickets forecasting correctly the results of last Saturday's Canadian game were Mac Helm, John Fitzsimmons and Chas. Hurteau.

Beauharnois Hotel Changes Ownership

Pictured above is the Beauharnois Hotel, popular rendez-vous for Beauharnois - Woodlands - Chateauguay residents, which was sold to Mr. Lucien Brunet of Montreal in a business transaction that was finalized on Thursday morning of the past week. Mr. Gordon Kirby, the former owner, purchased the hotel in July 1944, after being assistant manager of the Chateau Huntingdon for a number of years. Mr. Kirby effected many renovations in the Beauharnois Hotel during the past sixteen years and both he and his hotel were highly regarded. The hotel employs a staff of nine. The club seats 170 guests, the dining room 80 and the tavern 100. There are 25 bedrooms besides the apartment used by Mr. and Mrs. Kirby. The hotel was sold because doctors advised Mr. Kirby that he was in need of a two-year rest. Mr. Brunet, who also operates a hotel at Epiphanie, has taken up residence at Beauharnois Hotel.

THE BUSINESS WORLD

Boss (to office boy, who is half an hour late) — "You should have been in here at nine o'clock."

Office Boy — "Why, what happened?"

-o-

Willie — "Hello! Why are you standin' here in front of the office you got fired from last week? Waitin' to get taken back?"

Jimmie — "Not much! I just wanted to see if they was still in business."

-o-

Mrs. Newlywed — "Aren't these eggs rather small today?"

Grocer — "Yes'm, but the farmer who sells me my eggs had to start to town early this morning and took them out of the nest too soon."

Rotarians Told Story Behind La Belle Fermière Products

"La Belle Fermière" is a very well known name and their products have long been highly regarded. At the Rotary meeting on Monday, Mr. Maurice Primeau, sales manager, spoke about this old family business. Rotarian R. Menard arranged for "La Belle Fermière" presentation, which was done through the use of slides which were projected by Mr. Leo Massée. The slides told an excellent story of how this firm established itself 103 years ago on Bonsecours Market, Montreal.

Their principal products being sausages, hot dogs and bacon. Naturally the company regards its products as superior to that of competitors, and from the pictures screened it is quite evident the 175 employees endeavour to do things in a very sanitary manner. Quality meats go into the goods which are attractively packaged.

The Rotarians were informed that the company had quite a time in extending their trade because of the adoption of attractive packaging. However, the fourth generation of "La Belle Fermière" now feel that their product is so superior they are preparing to enter into the United States market this summer. They realize that they will meet with stiff opposition from already established firms, but for all of that they fell their product, which they look upon as being superior, will take hold and be a success.

Samples of sausages, hot dogs and becon were given to the Rotarians. A drawing for a five pound gift of La Belle Fermiére products was awarded Rotarian Hector Provost.

Office Boy — "Sorry, madam, but Mr. Brown has gone to lunch with his wife."

The Wife — "O! Well... tell Mr. Brown his stenographer called."

Lacolle Mixed Bonspiel Won By Gilles Brunet's Rink, Ormstown

On Saturday night, the Lacolle Curling Club annual mixed bonspiel closed for another year. Gilles Brunet's Ormstown rink emerged the winner with Ken McRae's Howick rink the runners-up. In the consolation event Glenn Whyte and his rink from Howick were the winners and a Lacolle rink skipped by George Wright was the runner-up. This was one of our most successful bonspiels, there being 32 teams entered and preliminary play was held during the week with the play-offs on Saturday. Annual Meeting . . . .

the work of this group the results are truly astounding. He didn't believe there was a room in the hospital that the purchases and work of the auxiliary members is not evident. To obtain sufficient revenues to attain cost, even with the various donations and government grants has always been a hospital problem let alone buying equipment, furniture, etc., that the Ladies' Auxiliary have purchased.

Mrs. Lorna Hughes tendered a vote of thanks to the retiring officers, especially so to the seemingly lesser officers who work so diligently without sometimes too much recognition, but who help so greatly in keeping a group running smoothly and successfully.

Mrs. Mae O'Connor spoke a few words regarding the recommendation of the Service Committee that the Board of Directors be approached to have new Christmas trimmings purchased. Mrs. O'Connor was quite in agreement with this fact.

Mrs. F. G. McCrimmon presented the Slate of officers:—Past President, Mrs. Bernard Sauvé; President, Mrs. Lucien Galipeau; 1st. Vice-Pres.: Mrs. Gordon McCrimmon; 2nd Vice-Pres.: Mrs. Leo Curran; Treas.: Mrs. Norbert E. Bourgon; Recording Sec.: Mrs. Nelson White; Corresponding Sec.: Mrs. Douglas Burns.

Mrs. L. Galipeau, the new president, took the chair and in French and English expressed her thanks to the members for their confidence in her election. She spoke a few words on the convention held in the Queen Elizabeth Hotel in February which she and Mrs. B. Sauvé attended. After the reading of the auxiliary by-laws the meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by the refreshment committee and assistants.

Advice For Health —

Mrs. W. B. Holmes, Prov. Convener of Welfare and Health for the Quebec Women's Institutes, gives us some good advice for Health at this time when National Health Week will be observed Jan 31-Feb. 6.

"APATHY IS OUR GREATEST KILLER: Strong words, I assure you, but unfortunately true. In a pamphlet issued by the Health League of Canada seven different classifications of health problems are listed with notes which do not reflect credit on the health of the average Canadian, and concluding with the remark, 'All these can be avoided . . . HOW?' Anyone reading these words can do something.

"But," you may ask, 'What can I do about it?' In almost every community today there is some kind of a health organization to which you can turn for help. If you should happen to live in an area where there is no organized health committee, here is your golden opportunity for action in sponsoring one.

"Do be alert to conditions in your community, and avoid the regrets which come when you have to say, 'I wish I had known'. This unfortunately was the case with the recent Polio epidemic. The 1959 epidemic is past history about which we can now do nothing. DO NOT LET IT HAPPEN AGAIN."

The Federated Insurance Co is pleased to announce the nomination of Mr. Gerald T. Butt as District Manager for the counties of Beauharnois, Chambly, Chateauguay, Huntingdon, Laprairie, Napierville, St. Jean, Soulanges, Vaudreuil and Vercheres. Mr. Gerald T. Butt is fully qualified to solve your commercial and residential insurance problems as well as auto insurance, etc.

Call Mr. Butt at FR 3-0536, 53 Donald St., Valleyfield.

News from Ormstown

COVERING THE ACTIVITIES OF THE "LITTLE ROYAL" EXHIBITION CENTRE

7-11 Club and Young Parents

The two parent-teacher groups at Ormstown High School met on Tuesday evening.

7-11, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Margaret Campbell, met for the regular business meeting prior to the program.

The secretary, Mrs. Hollis Rowe, read a letter of thanks from Alanne Hooker, Bishop University, for the Scholarship she received at the Christmas assembly from this Club.

The re-instating of a Grade XII at Ormstown High School was discussed and Principal J. C. Moore and Chairman B. L. McGerrigle were on hand to answer various inquiries.

Other necessary business was discussed and the meeting closed promptly in preparation for the program.

Mrs. Lindsay Cullen conducted the Young Parents meeting and Mrs. Erskine McClintock reported on the previous meeting, the executive meeting, and read some correspondence received.

The Club reported progress made with regard to the medical examination and that parents would receive notification in the near future. It was also reported that a five-year survey of students for Grade I was underway, and urged everyone to give any possible information in this regard.

A nominating committee of Mrs. Lloyd Sproule, Mrs. Douglass Glover and Mr. Kenneth McDonald was named to bring in the slate of officers for the next meeting.

A very worthwhile program was prepared by the students of Grade IX and X under the direction of Mrs. M. Campbell.

A debate: "Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished", was presented by each grade.

In Grade IX, Donald Moneypenny was the chairman, the affirmative was defended by Garth Cavers, Dorothy Winter and Sydney Green, while the negative was upheld by Joyce English, Patty Gillan and Edna Forrester.

Each speaker did an excellent job, and after some consultation, judges, Mrs. Lindsay Cullen, Rev. Loree, James Winter and Alan Hooker brought back the decision in favour of the affirmative.

In Grade X Keith Frost acted as chairman and the speakers were: affirmative — Harley Sproule, Jean Cottingham, Patsy Rowe; for the negative — Terry Dawson, Jane Cameron and McRae Nussey.

Grade X speakers each presented the material very convincingly and the decision in this Grade was made by Mr. William Frost and Mr. William Bennett, this decision also was in the affirmative favour.

Following the debating, all present assembled in the cafeteria where refreshments were served by a committee from each parents group.

O.H.S.

On Tuesday morning, at an assembly conducted by Grade VI, a finalist to compete at the Public Speaking Contest in Howick was selected from Grades IV and V.

Wendy Furey was the chairman and Marielle Green gave the Bible Story.

From Grade IV, the speakers and their topics were: Joy Green, "Our Pet Monkey"; Heather Wallace, "Have you ever wondered"; Margaret McClintock, "Cooking".

From Grade V: Gordon Furey, "Dairy Products"; Jimmy McClintock, "Missing"; John Moore, "My Year in Temiskaming"; Jimmy Sproule, "The Red Cross".

Judges were: Mrs. M. Campbell, Miss H. Davidson and Mr. A. Goguen. Mrs. M. Campbell gave the judges decision, congratulating all contestants; the placings were as follows:

1, Jimmy Sproule; 2, Joy Green; 3, Gordon Furey.

Parents Day

On Thursday afternoon, parents were invited to visit the classes at Ormstown High School. Many parents took advantage of this opportunity to see O.H.S. in action.

World Day of Prayer

On Friday last, the Women's World Day of Prayer was observed in the St. Jame's Anglican Church with Mrs. W. T. Payne as the leader. Mrs. Loree represented the St. Paul's United Church and Mrs. Olive Goodall of the Ormstown Presbyterian, shared the leadership with Mrs. Payne.

The theme throughout the program was "Laborers together with God" and Mrs. C. L. Taylor gave an address based on the theme.

Mrs. Cameron Bryson was the soloist, rendering beautifully "My Task", accompanied by Mrs. Mervin Barrington. A joint choir led the hymns of praise.

Messages from shut-ins were given by Mrs. William Hamilton and other participants were Mrs. Victor Curtis, Mrs. Bruce Hamilton, Mrs. Gilker, Mrs. Athur Henderson, Mrs. A. A. Tannahill and Miss Mabel Elvidge.

Mrs. Robert Furey and Mrs. John Whitehead were the ushers and collected the offering.

Mrs. W. T. Payne closed the meeting with prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Widowson and Miss M. McCuaig of Covey Hill visited with Mrs. William Perry and Mr. George Hooker.

St. Paul's Evening Auxiliary Entertains

The regular meeting of St. Paul's Evening Auxiliary was held on March 9, in MacDougall Hall, with 30 members present. Special guests were the Anglican Fellowship Group and the Presbyterian Evening Auxiliary.

Mrs. Bruce Hamilton presided and extended welcome greetings to all present.

Mrs. Lloyd Sproule had charge of the devotions, taking for her topic "Demonstrating the Way of Christ in Friendship" and closed with the poem "Touching Shoulders With You".

Mrs. Hamilton conducted a brief business meeting.

Miss Vera Rutherford introduced Miss Heather Davidson who was guest speaker for the evening. Miss Davidson showed very interesting and beautiful pictures on Switzerland and other parts of Europe taken by John Davidson during his stay in Switzerland where he attended school for a year. Mrs. Erskine McClintock thanked Miss Davidson on behalf of all present, on completion of the pictures.

A social hour followed when Mrs. A. E. Loree, Mrs. Gordon Elliott, Mrs. Bill Lawrence and Mrs. Ewen McDougall were in charge of games.

Dainty refreshments were served by several members, thus bringing an enjoyable evening to a close.

Mr. Brian Hooker, O.V.C., of Guelph, Ont., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hooker.

The Southern Cross Crusade, one of the Billy Graham Evangelistic films, is to be shown in the Ormstown Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday, March 22nd, at 8.00 P.M.

Highlights of the film include the climatic service of the Melbourne Crusade as 140,000 persons jammed the Cricket grounds to provide the largest single crowd ever to attend a Billy Graham meeting. The closing service of the Sydney Crusade is documented, an event which saw two adjoining grounds crowded to capacity.

Interwoven through the Crusade scenes are glimpses of Australia and New Zealand countryside and animal life giving the viewer a warm introduction to the Land Down Under.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hamilton of Montreal were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Walsh

Mr. John Campbell left from Dorval on Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother, the late Bobby Campbell of Walnut Creek, California. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hal Wilson (Elma) of Toronto.

Rebekah Lodge

A regular meeting of the Ormsdale Rebekah Lodge No. 30 was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall, last Monday night. As the Lodge has been closed for the past two months there was considerable business to take the attention of the members. A very successful report of two card parties held in January and February was received and it is hoped that new regalia will soon be purchased for the Lodge. Another project that is at present underway by means of drawings and future card parties is the purchasing of new dishes for use in the Hall.

The charter was draped by Mrs. Ivan Barrington and Mrs. Harold Kerr in loving memory of our late sister, Mrs. John Goldie.

The Noble Grand, Mrs Henry Stewart, was presiding and announced there would be a card party on Tuesday night, April 19th. The Rebekah Assembly of the Province of Quebec will be held this year in the Windsor Hotel, Granby, on May 20th and 21st.

The Lodge was pleased to hear from Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, who have been enjoying the past months in Florida and are now planning to visit Nasseau before they return home to Ormstown.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trestram of Montreal visited on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hooker.

Miss Joan Barrington of Hudson, N.Y., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Barrington.

The regular monthly meeting of the Presbyterian W.M.S. Senior Auxiliary was held in the Ladies' Parlor of the Church on March 8th, at 2:30 P.M. Mrs. O. Goodall, the president, presided and opened the meeting with the call to worship and hymn. Mrs. C. Stackhouse conducted the devotions.

Plans were made for the Easter Thank-offering meeting, to be held in the Church, April 12th, at 2:30 P.M. Mrs. B. Brittain is to be the guest speaker and Mrs. Lindsay Cullen in charge of the music. The Ladies from Georgetown, Riverfield, Upper and Lower Ormstown Group and the Evening Auxiliary are to be invited.

Miss Marion Swan gave the current events, reading a letter from Mrs. Fossum, missionary in Africa. Mrs. Olive Goodall gave the topic on "The Impact of Industry and City Life in Africa."

Mid-Week Lenten Service At St. Andrew's Wednesday

Large congregations are attending the Midweek Lenten Services each Wednesday evening. Speaking on the subject: "I Believe in God" the Rev. James Grant said that a living faith in the living God is the greatest need of men and women in our world today. He called for a fuller and deeper surrender to God as revealed in Jesus Christ in this Lenten season and urged the members of the congregation to practice the presence of God through daily meditation and prayer. The service of worship was conducted by the Rev. Robert Beal assisted by the Rev. Canon W. S. Hatcher and the members of the choir of the United Church.

The co-operation of churches in sponsoring services of Lenten worship and preaching is a relatively new venture in many communities. However, in Huntingdon it has a long history. Canon Hatcher tells of meeting the late Rev. Dr. J. B. McLean, former minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and the Late Rev. Dr. J. H. Millar, former Pastor of the United Church, one evening twenty-three years ago in the post office. In the course of a casual conversation Dr. Millar suggested the possibility of their three congregations joining for special services during the Lenten period. The thought met with an immediate and enthusiastic response from his two friends. Later in the week the three ministers met at the United Church Parsonage and completed plans for the first series of services. They have been continued each year since that time and Canon Hatcher reports that the attendances at the services this year are the largest ever.

The third service in the present series will be held this Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Robert Beal will speak on the subject: "I Believe in Jesus Christ" and the Service of Worship will be conducted by the Rev. James Grant assisted by the members of the Choir of St. Andrew's. The ministers and members of the co-operating churches take this opportunity to invite their friends and neighbours to worship with them each Wednesday evening.

A man entered a drug-store and asked for a dozen two-grain quinine pills. "Do you want them put in a box, sir?" asked the clerk, as he was counting them.

"Oh, no, certainly not," replied the customer. "I was thinking of rolling them home."

Students Had Good Argument

WE believe the students who took part in the Panel Discussion at the Huntingdon Home and School Association Meeting which was a part of Education Week, are to be congratulated upon the way they presented their talks. There was much in the talks which was open to argument, but by taking an analysis of all the talks, it could be the basis for reform in the curriculum of our schools.

One of the panellists raised objection and asked the question why students of today should learn items of literature and poetry written and composed by authors unknown to them. We attempt to answer this by stating that this is all part of our civilization. Unfortunately, we do not have too many such authors in our present day world. Because the works of authors like Shakespeare and Dickens and several others are so outstanding, is why they are used today in illustration to the present student population. These works teach us culture, art and the finer things for which there is a need in our civilization. Such works are not covered with a light veneer, they are quite deep and must be studied well to obtain the fine points of the deep down culture that abounds in them. For this reason they have been carried down through the years and the books by such authors can be found on almost every bookshelf. It is hard to find some of the so-called best sellers which will remain in existence for so long.

It is therefore necessary to go back in the dark ages, so to speak, in order to study such works from which we obtain our culture in this age of civilization. If our civilization is to remain on a high peak, we must have culture as a background. The teaching and studying of these books is therefore intended to help in breeding culture and improving our outlook. It may appear unnecessary, but nevertheless it is required. In other words we use these very old things to make comparisons and to point to the fact that these works were part of our improved outlook upon the finer things of life.

Studying history gives a broader knowledge of how we have progressed and the why of many things which would otherwise be hard to understand. However, we do believe that closer study of the present day history is a must also. The world is travelling at a fast pace and our young people need a sound knowledge of what is happening in order for them to be properly equipped to meet this new order of things.

Like the foundation of any building has to be made on a firm ground, Education also needs to be founded on something solid. By learning those things which may seem of no consequence, is like building the foundation which is never seen. If it were not there, however, the building would soon fall into decline and have to be removed.

It would almost seem therefore, that in view of the thoughts brought out by some of the panellists, that more reason should be given why certain subjects of an apparently outdated nature are quite necessary in the overall of the educational system.

There were many other points which could be taken up for debate and would prove interesting. However this does not deter from the fact that these students had put much thought into their talks and presented them with clear and precise understanding. Such we believe bids fair for our educational system and our schools. If the students can discuss such subjects then the system is producing results.

Tribute To The Safe Driver

"SUCCESS should be its own reward" is a slogan that could be aimed at the 5,500,000 motorists in Canada, who, in 1959 had neither accident nor brush with the law in traffic.

Slight recognition is given these drivers who, through their own efforts or good fortune, escaped mishap or police action. Organizations and individuals devoted to reducing the number of accidents on the nation's streets and roads must give almost their entire attention to drivers who were involved in accidents or were guilty of infractions of traffic regulations. There were some half a million of them in Canada last year.

The highway's good drivers went through the year with little recognition. Some communities honoured them during safety campaigns by naming "Mr. Safe-Driver", giving medals or shopping orders on local stores and interviews on radio or television. But the great majority of the five and a half million accident-free and infraction-free motorists sailed along their honourable way, unsung and unglorified.

Their reward was great. It included freedom from the high cost of repairs, litigation, medical and hospital bills, pain, suffering and anguish. They had the uncomfortable security of watching their half-million colleagues of the pavement writhing in the bitter fruits of the consequences of disaster whether it lasted 30 seconds or a lifetime.

Drivers of commercial vehicles, whether they be trucks, buses or taxicabs, are honoured by their employers and organizations if they pile up handsome records of safety at the wheel. Communities with outstanding records of road safety are cited each year by the Canadian Highway Safety Council. But the man who drove his private car through the menacing maze of modern motorized machinery went on his way with nothing much in the way of thanks. In fact, often he was the target of abuse from the motorist who tried to sneak around the laws of man or nature and found his way successfully blocked by the driver who was doing what he knew he should do.

So the Canadian Highway Safety Council, joined, it is certain, by provincial, community, industrial and government safety officials, expresses appreciation to the safe driver for his care, consideration and attention. He saved his country countless millions of dollars, and his fellow Canadians many hours of suffering.

Spring Fever

IT'S been a tough winter all right, but spring has to come sometime. The astronomical calendar says spring this year arrives at 9.43 a.m., E.S.T., on Sunday March 20.

Of course, that doesn't mean the sun will shine warmly on green grass and birds will burst into song as the official moment arrives. Echoing many earlier poets, the English philosopher Samuel Taylor Coleridge, who died in 1834, noted that "spring comes slowly up this way."

Only a couple of weeks before the vernal equinox, which marks the arrival of spring, most of Canada and large parts of the United States were still shivering in the longest cold snap of the winter.

A great storm dumped more snow in the Maritimes in the second week of March, on top of February storm which left 30 inches of snow in some areas. Ontario, unusually deep in snow during the winter, was further plagued by freezing rainstorms which twice tied up highways with a treacherous coating.

A continuous layer of snow in fact covered the ground as far south as the Carolinas and Kentucky, late in March.

It's curious to think that about 50 years from now, today's young people will probably recall the "old-fashioned winter" of 1959-60.

Nowadays, of course, winter's attacks have different effects than in older times. Snow and freezing rain that cripple today's immense highway motor traffic didn't hurt the old horse and buggy too much.

Farm-houses and even town homes were perhaps better equipped to withstand a siege in the old-time winters, with their stocks of coal or wood for the heating and cooking stoves and oil for the lamps.

In the modern winter, an icing storm that topples power lines can instantly cut off the heating, cooking and lighting facilities of thousands of homes dependent on electricity.

Perhaps by the time 1960 has become an "old-fashioned" winter they will have worked out some new means of protection. But it is hardly likely that they will have worked out means to stop the temperature diving below zero, or to prevent the snow coming down.

Only Mother Nature can do that. And this year, she can't do it too soon.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Letter to the Editor

11th March, 1960

Huntingdon Gleaner,
Huntingdon, Que.

Dear Sir:

I would appreciate the opportunity, through your column, to correct a very wrong impression conveyed by the Report of the last School Board Meeting, wherein it was stated

"Mrs. Watson asked for an increase in salary... It was decided to seek a new secretary."

This had to be my first intimation of such a decision, if such a decision had been made. In the first place, no decision could be reached since the Board had an offer to make to me and would have to await my comments. Secondly I am advised that no such thought was in the minds of the Commissioners. On the contrary, they are most anxious to retain my services.

I would respectfully suggest that your representative, when wishing to give reports of meetings he is privileged to attend, should first acquaint himself with the true facts, secondly to present them in a fair manner and not with such omissions that a very wrong impression is given to the public.

I have asked the School Board for an increase in salary and whilst it is acknowledged that my work well merits such an increase, the Commissioners, ever-mindful of the cries of the taxpayers, do not see their way clear to grant such an increase at the present time.

My dealings with the Board have always been amicable; thus it is only at their request and that of the members of the staff that I should remain, and with the real interest of the school in mind, I have intimated my decision to continue in my present position for the coming year.

This letter is sent with the full approval and sanction of the Chairman of the Huntingdon Protestant School Commissioners.

Yours respectfully,
Edith K. Watson
(Mrs. Ralph Watson)

Dear Sir:

The improvement of housing in any community is a worthy cause and should be assisted in every possible way. The Rotary Club, in keeping with its fine tradition of supporting worthwhile projects, is to be congratulated for having looked into one phase of the housing industry.

Mr. Somerville's letter in The Gleaner of March 9th clearly indicates one of the past intrigues of the Union Nationale government. He dismissed with a simple statement, but without explanation, the fact that, "Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at the present time is not included in the list of fifty or more companies that are accepted by the act for the Provincial Reimbursement of 3% of the interest". Why discriminate against the home-owner who borrowed from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation between 1955-60?

As everybody knows the rebate was paid on Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation loans until 1955. Then, according to Mr. Somerville Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation was no longer acceptable. Now, according to the Montreal Star, March 11, 1960 the act has been amended and the rebate will be paid on this type of loan.

It is evident that there is no consistency in the housing policy of the Union Nationale government rather only manoeuvering with public funds for political advantage.

My concern in raising this issue is to draw attention to the lack of a provincial housing policy which has hindered the flow of mortgage funds to small communities and to point out the arbitrary tactics of the present government in depriving a deserving group of home-owners from the 3% rebate.

Your truly
Lyman A. Roberts.

The Week At Ottawa

OTTAWA, March (CP)- The country will remain under present management but Canada is giving the vote back to the Indians.

Emphatic statements were heard in the Commons last week that all Indians are citizens, not wandering waifs of a benevolent government.

There was no dissent on spurring the Indian ahead to what one MP described as the better way of life — "at any rate what we consider to be the better way of life."

The outcome of debate was parliamentary approval of amendments giving the federal franchise to those of Canada's 175,000 Indians who are of voting age, with no tampering with present rights — specifically exemption from paying income tax on money earned on the reservation.

New Voters

The Commons' action will add about 50,000 voters to the list for the next federal election.

J. W. Pickersgill (L-Bonavista-Twillingate) tried unsuccessfully to introduce amendments to state specifically that recognized Indian rights would not be changed by approval of the franchise.

While his measure was ruled out of order, Citizenship Minister Fairclough repeated assurances provided previously that these rights would not be affected.

The citizenship minister provided a brief history lesson in introducing the amendment on voting qualifications for Indians.

"It will come as a surprise to most members," she said, "to learn that as far back as 1885 many Indians of Canada had the right to vote in federal elections."

Records reveal, she said that Indians in Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime provinces voted in general elections of 1887, 1891 and 1896, "in some instances at polling subdivisions established on reserves."

Historic Note

She added this footnote in the decline and fall of the Indian franchise:

"In 1898 the franchise act was repealed, thus providing that provincial voters lists would again govern in determining the entitlement of persons eligible to vote in federal elections.

"As a result, the majority of the Indians lost their right to vote, for ordinarily they were not on the povincial voters lists and in most cases were specifically disqualified as electors..."

Laws as they stand now give federal voting rights to Indian war veterans and their wives, Indians in the Yukon and Northwest Territories and those on reserves who waive income tax exemption. Only 122 of the reserve Indians have waived that exemption.

Frand Howard, CCF member for Skeena, B.C., whose riding has a large Indian population, expressed hope there would be cancellation of waivers signed by Indians. He said they should not be left in this position when the proposed changes become effective. He met no opposition from Mrs. Fairclough, who assured members the tax waivers would be nullified as soon as the other Indians were enfranchised.

All Citizens

Mrs. Fairclough said in firm language that all Indians are citizens, but citizens who are at present restricted in "the right to participate in the election of their representatives in Parliament."

Erick Nielson (PC-Yukon) took a look at the other side of the coin.

"We pay lip service to the idea of accepting Indians as fellow citizens," he said, "but government at all levels, as far as my experience goes, has yet to recognize the Indians as citizens equal in all respects to their white counterparts."

The Yukon member, whose constituency includes a large number of Indians already able to vote, listed in detail other matters in which Indians are in an inferior position.

Many Checks

"Nearly every aspect of his life is subject to the discretion or consent of either the Indian Affairs branch, the cabinet or the (citizenship) minister, and in neither case can he have a voice in their appointment or election at the present time."

This "dictatorship" imposed by the government was designed for the protection of the Indian, but "the more advanced and better type Indian is being held back by not being allowed to handle his own affairs."

If the department acted truly in the Indian's best interests, no harm could come to him. But if it chose not to, "a great injustice can be done and at present the Indian can do nothing to protect himself from this injustice, as there is no appeal from the minister's decision."

Loans Preference

Works Minister Walker, buoyed by an increased participation by private lenders in government-guaranteed housing loans, indicated in the Commons that chartered banks will not have their interest rate raised to permit wider participation in this field.

Mr. Walker was speaking as the Commons took the first steps to raise to $1,500,000,000 from $1,000,000,000 the amount that Central Mortgage and Housing Corporotion can lend directly to home builders. He noted there had been an upturn in the amount of private capital available for these loans. First reading was given a government bill to authorize the increase.

He said that if CMHC were flooded with applicants for direct loans and the funds had to be allocated, people with an annual income of less than $5,000 would have preference. However, there was no indication that CHMC would be inundated, and this was "all subject to further research."

Mr. Walker also said that applicants for direct loans will be asked first to look at the 82,000 homes now being built to see whether one would suit them.

Private lenders had fled the market as more profitable investment opportunities were available, he said. Last December the government moved to bring them back by raising the interest rate on CHMC loans to 6¾ per cent from six.

Following a "minimum" response, private lenders now are back in the market, he said. But he admitted that chartered bank loans, held to a six-per-cent ceiling by the Bank Act, are still a trickle.

The Story Of

The Coming Of Electric Light And Power To Huntingdon

EXCERPTS TAKEN FROM HUNTINGDON GLEANER FILES

December 1st, 1904 — The council meeting Monday evening resolved itself into an interview between Mr. Desmarteau and the councillors, which was resumed at an adjourned meeting on Tuesday evening. The subject of the prolonged talk was the contract of Languedoc & Mackenzie to supply the village with water and light for ten years at $2,400 a year. They transferred the contract to the Huntingdon Milling Company, which is now being wound up, with Mr. Desmarteau as liquidator. He states to contract does not pay, that he has had to trench on the assets of the company to operate the plants, and asked $50 more per month while the company was in liquidation. To this the council agreed providing he guaranteed good light. With this however, Mr. Desmarteau was not satisfied, he asked the council to annul the contract, giving as his reason that while it stood, there was an opening for litigation in a suit for damages, which as liquidator, he did not want. The councillors would not agree to that, when Mr. Desmarteau refused the proffered advance of $50 and threatened to stop the light. He said if council would drop the contract, they would have to pay $4,500 a year, which he alleged, was the cost of operating the two plants. The hours of talk ended in the two parties being as far from an agreement as when they began.

December 22nd, 1904 — News Item — The electric light of late could hardly be worse and called light. In the early part of some evenings it has been little more than a glow which showed where the lamps are.

January 19th, 1905 — Mr. Desmarteau, liquidator of the Milling Company, was here on Thursday, and stated it was likely the real estate owned by it would shortly be offered for sale by auction.

March 2nd, 1905 — The Mayor read the opinion of Mr. Laurendeau, K.C., relative to the village's rights under the contract with Languedoc & Mackenzie. In substance it was, that the liquidator could sell the mill property without its being subject to the contract, that the recourse of the village was against Languedoc & Mackenzie and not against the mill property. That the village could not enter into a new contract until the present one was set aside, and that the council had no authority to sell power over and above what it needed for its own purposes, and no council could engage in peddling or selling outside the prescribed limits granted by the code. Coun. Walsh held the opinion confirmed the view he had announced, that no contract could be made while the present one was uncancelled. The opinion also upheld his assertion that the council's supplying water and light to persons living outside

THIS HOBBY OF MINE

HOW IT BEGAN WHERE IT HAS LED

by ARNOLD McNAUGHTON

My first meeting with the Grand Duchess Olga occurred in June 1951 at the Koulikovsky farm home at Campbellville, Ont., and her letter after that visit was as follows. I refer the reader to only a few lines:

21st July 1951

....I was very pleased to make your acquaintance at last!.. We have had terrible storms - also hail as large as walnuts which not only battered our wheat but also reduced my flowers to pulp!..You needn't call me with a high title - just Mrs. K., will do...

Lots of Good Wishes,
Olga Koulikovsky.

As follows is a letter from the Countess Edwina Mountbatten of Burma by way of her Private Secretary Elizabeth Ward dated 9th February 1952.

"Lady Mountbatten asked me to acknowledge your letter of January 9th as she did not have time to deal with it before having to leave on a tour of Singapore, Hong Kong and Korea to visit various Welfare Organizations with which she is associated.

Lady Mountbatten asks me to say that Lord Mountbatten would be prepared to lend you for a period not exceeding six months, a copy of a book of relationship tables which he himself prepared and had printed in India. These show, among other things, all the descendants of Queen Victoria.

If you can undertake to return this copy, since this is the only spare copy which Lord Mountbatten has, I will arrange to have this sent out to you.

I have also been instructed by Lady Mountbatten to look and see if we can find any photographs and if I can find some I will arrange to send them out to you.

I might point out that you have mixed up the date of Lord Mountbatten's christening with the date of his birth: he was born on June 25th, 1900 and not July 25th. He was married on the 18th July 1922 and not in 1923.

His elder daughter, Patricia, was born in London on the 14th February, 1924, and married on the 26th October 1946 The Hon. John Ulick Knatchbull, now the 7th Baron Brabourne. You have the particulars of their two sons correct. The elder one, Norton, is heir, after Lady Brabourne, to the Mountbatten Earldom, by special remainder.

Lady Pamela was born in Barcelona on the 19th April, 1929."

The book of relationship tables arrived a few weeks later. The contents were extremely informative. I indeed felt privileged to have the loan of this book for it had not been made available to the general public and had in fact been published privately for members of the Mountbatten family in 1947. With this above letter began my correspondence with the Earl Mountbatten. It is interesting to note that all the correspondence we have exchanged since then he has typed his letters to me and personally signed every one of them. I may quote from a few of them at a later date.

Each Christmas since 1952 the Earl Mountbatten has remembered me with one of his fabulous Christmas cards which he personally autographs. This last Christmas 1959 was the first year that Countess Edwina Mountbatten added her signature under his. This will indeed be one of my most treasured keepsakes in all my collection for I will never have a card quite like it again. The Countess Mountbatten died, alas, quite suddenly on February 21st, 1960.

Dundee

DUNDEE — The annual meeting of the Dundee W.I. was held March 8 at the home of the president, Mrs. T. W. Stowell. Reports from the different convenors were read. Ten suggestions for growing better African Voilets were heard. Mrs. Gardiner read about the International House in London officially opened January 10, but used since August. Here different nationalities come together to learn about other countries and to enjoy a social period. Mrs. Smallman read about the principles and objectives of the Canadian Broadcasting League. She also read of the many perils of the farm pond. Mrs. J. Platt told how to make delicious pop corn using a tightly covered pan. Linoleum can be recemented by heating with an iron. Also an effective scare-crow is one which is fastened to an overhead wire so that the wind can move it along the wire. A useful gadget is a small paint board to use when painting window frames, etc.

read, it was noted that even though the membership is very small several projects have been completed. About 45 lbs. of old cotton were sent to the Cancer Society. The community hall was sold. There were visits from the County President and the Quebec Women's Institute Demonstrator from Macdonald College. A film "Assignment Children" was shown in the local school. A resolution on water safety was forwarded to the County W.I. Mrs. Smallman is one of a committee working on the provincial Jubilee Program to be held at Macdonald College in 1961.

Mrs. Gardiner is doing the script work on the Provincial Presidents. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Hon. Pres., Mrs. T. W. Stowell; President, Mrs. A. H. Fraser; Vice-President, Mrs. J. Platt; Secretary, Mrs. Earl Gardiner; Treas., Mrs. N. D. McPhee. Conveners—Agriculture, Mrs. T. W. Stowell; Citizenship, Mrs. Earl Gardiner; Education, Mrs. Charles Smallman; Home Economics, Mrs. J. Platt; Publicity, Mrs. A. H. Fraser; Welfare and Health, Mrs. E. J. Cameron.

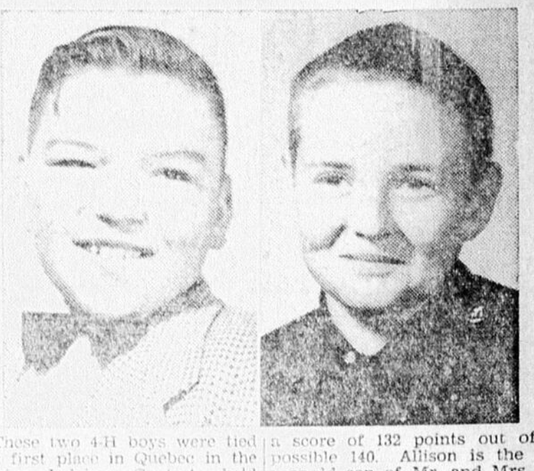

Mrs. Charles Smallman and Mrs. J. Platt were named as auditors. Mrs. E. J. Cameron and Mrs. Chas. Smallman were appointed delegates to the County Convention to be held in May in Dundee. A delicious supper was served by the hostess following the meeting.

Crossing Racial Barriers

One of the main duties of the Christian is to foster Christian fellowship across the racial lines. "In Christ there is neither Jew nor Gentile, bond nor free, male nor female." In th area of race relations today, the church is weak. It is so partly because it usually denies Christian fellowship across racial lines. Most of our churches are not churches of God but churches of men, of custom, and of tradition. Until the individual Christian and the clergy are able to set themselves over against the state, against tradition, and against custom and say by words and deeds that when a member of any racial group crosses the threshold of this house, he is no longer in the custody of men but in the custody of God, and that in God's house the state or society has no voice and no jurisdiction, the church will be weak and impotent; it will have no right to speak to the secular order about its behaviour. Freedom of worship, if it means anything at all, means freedom to worship God across racial lines and freedom for a man or woman to join the church of his or her choice irrespective of race. Separate churches for the people may not be un-Christian but segregated churches are un-Christian. Denominational churches, for example, are not necessarily un-Christian; but churches organized purely along racial lines can hardly qualify as Christian. If worship and fellowship are denied because of race, it is definitely un-Christian.

Defendant: "It was the other way around, your Honour. She insisted on letting her two dogs and a cat sleep in our bedroom, and I couldn't stand the odor."

The Coming Of Electric Light

the Corporation limits was illegal. Coun. Hunter stated he had met Mr. Desmarteau in the city, who said he was not going to sell the mill property subject to the contract to supply water and light, but would try and arrange with whoever got it, that the contract be fulfilled to the 1st of April.

Coun. Walsh — We can understand that it is to get the $600 due them. As the pump may cease to operate on the day of sale, we should be ready to supply water.

There was the question of collecting accounts for electric light, but there was no agreement reached on this.

News Item — The sale of the the mill property on Monday is exciting much interest. On who gets it depends, in no small degree, the prosperity of the village.

March 9th, 1905 — The mill property was knocked down to J. Alex Cameron for $18,600, who stated he bought it for Francis H. Henderson of Huntingdon and Lachlan C. McArthur of Dewittville. Adding the costs to the property the property stood them $19,500 No time was lost in transferring the property. At the evening meeting of the council on Monday. How the change will affect the supply of water and light will be known.

March 16th, 1905 — Mill property sold to John Hunter & Sons.

April 6th, 1905 — A temporary agreement has been effected with John Hunter & Sons to give us the use of the power house at $1 per night, the village to pay the man in charge and all other expenses. His wages are $40 a month. This agreement to stand while water continues high. After that, the firm would see what they could do. As to the water, the committee had ordered coal and continued the man in charge at $30 a month with free house, but no fuel.

Coun. Hunter — As one interested in the welfare of the village, I want to see the electric light continued and we are disposed to do what we can to that end.

June 8th, 1905 — Coun. Hunter said he was not yet in a position to take definite steps with regard to the electric light. The man placed by the council in charge of the power house had been dispensed with, and he would object to any one being placed in it whom he did not control, for the care of the plant which he owned was at stake. He expected to be able to continue to give as good light as they were now having. Mr. Hunter was asked if he was ready to make an offer for permanent service for both water and light. He said he would be a position to do so in two weeks. For the light alone, I am inclined to think we will need $1,500 a year. Meanwhile we will require $100 a month. The council agreed to a temporary arrangement at $100 a month for light alone.

June 22nd, 1905 Hunter & Sons agree to supply light alone for $1,500 a year providing village overhauled the wiring and put it in proper state. They would supply power to drive pump for water only. The pump, motor, wire, etc., would cost the village $2,400 according to an estimate given. For the power needed to operate the pump and charge would be $1.000, or for the light and power for water a total of $2,500 a year. An offer in writing from Hunter and Sons was requested and the council would further consider it at the next meeting.

July 20th, 1905 — Hunter & Sons submit proposition to give village 30-day trial. If satisfied to make contract for one year for 1,000 lights, 16 candle, 110 volts from dusk to daylight for $1,500 a year. At the end of that time if satisfied a contract for 3 or 5 years be entered into at $1,500 a year. Controversy arose over this, but it was finally decided to accept the agreement.

News Item — Reports, that many improvements were made by Hunter & Sons to insure good service and good light.

August 17th, 1905 — News Item — Hunter & Sons purpose making the changes at the power house next week, which will cause suspension of the electric light for some time.

September 21st, 1905 — Coun. Will — Has any definite arrangement been made with Hunter & Sons for the light and if so what are the conditions. The Mayor explained the terms and conditions. Coun. Will — Is that a contract? Mayor — The council is morally bound by the agreement, whether it is legal I cannot answer. Coun. Will — held the council had no business with the Hunter plant, he doubted the ability of Hunter to supply when the water was low. I am confident an arrangement can be made with the Chateaugay Chasm Co. The Mayor explained they did get a proposition, but the council could not entertain it. They offered to sell the village 200 h.p.at $20 per horse — $4,000 a year. The ratepayers to become good for a loan of $15,000 from E. T. Bank repayable by deduction from rental during a 10 or 15 years' lease. The company became quite abusive when council declined to entertain such an offer.

News Item — Messrs Hunter expect to be able to start the light beginning of next week.

September 28th, 1905 — The electric lights were turned on Saturday evening and were welcome. They have come to stay. The light is all that could be desired, being brilliant and steady.

The driver had become so interested in his companion's conversation that he missed a red light and was halfway across the intersection before a police whistle brought him to his senses.

"Officer, I tried to stop but I couldn't, I think there's something wrong with my car", was the alibi. "You're right, buddy", the policeman said sarcastically. "I think it's the 'nut' that holds the steering-wheel!"

"I work in the opera at night. In the last act I carry a spear."

"How do you manage to stay awake?"

"The fellow behind me carries a spear, too."

The Week In Quebec

QUEBEC (CP) The Legislature session, opened last November 18 and already one of the longest in many years, appears headed for prorogation within the next two weeks.

The legislature proceeded with business at hand at a rapid clip this week in an atmosphere heightened by the possibility of a provincial election within the next four months.

If the current pace is maintained the session could be prorogued as early as March 18, but indications are that it will carry on to about March 24 or 25.

Once the legislature prorogues, premier Antonio Barrette is expected to call for a general election. The last one was in June, 1956.

The government is also expected to hold a special session in September, primarily to set the wheels in motion for a provincial hospital insurance plan. The cabinet was authorized Thursday to appoint a committee to examine how to establish hospital insurance in the province. Appointment of committee members is expected to be announced soon.

Lieutenant-Governor Onesime Gagnon gave royal assent Thursday to a series of Government bills increasing provincial aid to educational institutions at all levels.

One of the bills deals with disposal of $25,000,000 of federal grants which have been refused by Quebec Universities on constitutional grounds since 953. Another provides that the government pay the universities and classical colleges additional grants on the basis of $1.75 per capita of population while a third increases the Provincial tax on corporations to 10 per cent from nine of net profits.

The additional grants to universities will cost the Quebec Government $8,750,000, and raise the total provincial contributions to universities to $20,000,000, for the coming year.

The Government is financing the greater part of the additional grants through the increased corporation Tax. No additional cost to corporations results from the increase in tax because, by agreement, the corporations will be able to deduct the provincial tax increase from their federal taxes.

The $25,000,000 backlog in federal grants now is held in trust in Ottawa by the national conference of Canadian Universities. Universities are now authorized to transfer the sum to a provincial sinking fund set up to finance expansion and construction programs.

Universities also hope to receive $16,000,000 held by the Canada council and presumably will turn it over to the sinking fund.

Premier Barrette and Liberal Opposition Leader Georges Lapalme clashed verbally in the assembly over the Trans-Canada Highway program rejected by the province of Quebec since it was started in 1950.

Mr. Lapalme said the only reason the Quebec government was not taking part in the program was that the federal plan would have required the province to call public tenders — a practice not in use by the public works department.

Mr. Barrette said it was purely a matter of safeguarding provincial autonomy. The Premier said Quebec's policy in federal-provincial affairs is to recover "both the millions and our rights" but never would provincial rights be ceded to Ottawa.

Premier Barrette earlier denied "insinuations" that he had looked to Ottawa for inspiration after being stung by a harshly-worded attack from Rene Hamel (L-St. Maurice).

Mr. Barrette said if ever Ottawa fails to hear the voice of Quebec he will be the first to put up a fight.

Mr. Hamel at one point blasted the provincial administration as a "corrupted regime dominated by the underworld."

The Premier said "it is the blackest infamy for a man to get up and say I lead a government dominated by the underworld."

Mr. Hamel's sharp words came during debate on the government bill which increased the corporation tax to ten from nine per cent.

Canadian Red Cross Chateauguay Branch

Commencing March 25 the annual financial campaign will get under way. Volunteer canvassers will be contacting, people all across the country. The help of everyone is needed and graciously solicited.

The need for the campaign is well known to most Canadians in that free blood, plasma, help to the needy, and to vets, loans to homes of hospital equipment and help to victims of catastrophies. The recent earthquake at Agadir, Morocco being a typical example. A DC4 flew nurses there from Montreal.

As Chateauguay is growing so rapidly, it must be prepared to share its portion of responsibility. To point out the need and end use, Dr. Guy Preville, native of this area, will address a meeting to be held Thursday, March 24, at the St. Jude School in Chateauguay Center, at eight P.M. Miss L. Menard, regional Director, will also be present. The public is welcome to attend this informative talk. The origin and a century of progress of the Association will be explained. A film will be shown to illustrate many points.

In charge of the current campaign are: Pres.: Henri Laberge OX2-8088; Vice-Pres.: Richard Turner 2265.

Chateauguay Home Owners' Association

The regular meeting of the Association was held at The Julius Richardson School, Wednesday, March 9th. Befitting Education Week the guest was Bill Yearnell, representing the Chairman, Rolly Brown, of the Protestant School Board. The talk was very interesting and infomative. A brisk question period followed. Many people now realize that the old tax dollar goes for a little more than the old "three Rs". One important point brought out was that many people pay more money for school taxes than municipal tax. But when it comes to the Public meetings, you may have to stand at a council meeting, but you would probably be the lone spectator at a school board meeting.

One of the intangibles illustrated was the responsibility on the part of the board, to predict the direction and magnitude of the growth in the younger element of population. (Up to 17). Most married couples can't figure this out for themselves, woe the school board.

The date of the annual meeting will probably be available April 3.

Dan Lavigne was also invited to address the above mentioned meeting for the Catholic Board, or to name a delegate unfortunately no representative attended.

Julius Richardson School News

Mr. Rod Fullerton Grade 7 teacher at the Julius Richardson School selected the following poem which was turned in as a composition assignment to his class. Frances Bickerstaff chose to write in poetry rather than prose and both Mr. Fullerton and Mr. Russell Mosher, Principal deemed it worthy of publication.

Ode to a Summer Afternoon

I was walking down a sunny country road,
It was summer and the birds
were singing gaily in the trees,
The sweetness of the afternoon
took the load
From my mind and my troubles lifted skyward with the breeze.

I went on, enraptured by the beauty of the day,
Lost in a wonderland of blissful
peace,
I stopped to pick some daisies
by the way,
And felt the rich, deep beauty
still increase.

All was silent as I crossed the little brook,
That led into the forest, deep and still,
And then entranced by beauty
bright I paused to look At sunlight playing with the flowers on a distant hill.

The water of the brook below me
sparkled,
As though a thousand diamonds
lurked beneath,
The many fish within it spun and darted
And circled round the stepping stones like wreaths.

Many days have come and gone
since then,
Autumn will replace the summer
soon,
But when the winter's here I still remember when I lived the glories of an afternoon in June.

Thornton Burgess Laying Down Pen As He Reaches 86

Thornton W. Burgess, whose children's nature stories have been familiar to three generations of readers, has announced his retirement.

The nationally-known syndicated columnist who lives summers at "Laughing Brooks," 61 Washington Rd., Hampden, Mass., was 86 Thursday. He is at his winter home in Tobago, British West Indies.

His artist, Harrison Cady, whose sketches appear with the "Bedtime Stories" in 125 newspapers throughout the world, is also in his mid-80s and planning to retire.

Burgess, who came to Springfield from Sandwich at the age of 21, wrote for The Republican for a brief time. His first book, "Old Mother West Wind," was published in 1910.

After its publication he was quoted as saying, "I don't have another in me."

Since then he has written 15,000 stories and over 100 books.

His characters, Peter Rabbit, Reddy Fox, Paddy the Beaver, and Billy Woodchuck have become familiar friends in countless households.

He is credited with a major role in the development of bird sanctuaries over eight million acres of land in the United States. He began working for such development in World War I.

He also conducted a radio program during his career and sponsored contests which helped thousands of younsters familiarize themselves with birdcalls and other aspects of nature.

She watched the door of her new establishment open to admit her first client. Business had started! A good impression must be created!

Hurriedly she grasped the telephone receiver and became engaged in an animated conversation. Then, an appointment having been arranged, she replaced the receiver, and asked: "What can I do for you, sir?"

A moment's pause, and then: "If you please, Ma'am, I've come to connect the telephone!"

CHATEAUGUAY PARK

NEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL COMPLETED

A new elementary school in the Parish of St. Jean Baptiste Marie Vianney was opened on Monday, March 7th. This school is situated in Chateauguay Park directly behind the site of the future church. It is of the most modern design, two storeys high and constructed of laminated wood and brick. There are 12 classrooms and a large gymnasium on the premises. French Catholic boys and girls from grades one to six will attend. Although not completely finished a number of teachers and pupils formerly attending classes in the village, have now moved in. The Official Blessing will take place at a later date.

If everything goes according to plans, there is a possibility that a new English Catholic elementry school will be started in the same parish by Fall.

Kinsmen News

With the news of mail delivery starting this spring, the Kinsmen Club of Chateauguay Valley have decided to go into business. Their object: to sell mailboxes. This is certainly a good way to support your Kinsmen Club who have so earnestly put themselves out for you and your children in the past. The proceeds in selling these mail-boxes will again be donated to some worthy cause. So be on the lookout for them and encourage them when they come to you with their mailbox display.

The Valentine's Chocolate Project which they have just completed was a splendid success.

PARKVIEW

Mr. F. Berry president of the "Chateauguay Centre Proprietor's League" formerly "Parkview Home Owners Association," wishes to extend to all members of Chateauguay Centre an invitation to attend their meetings held every 2nd Tuesday of each month at 37 Hillsdale Drive at 8 P.M.
