In laying before the Public the 16th Edition of MACKAY'S MONTREAL DIRECTORY, the Publisher regrets not having been able to do so at an earlier period. She trusts, however, that the correctness of the work will in some measure compensate for the delay. Sixty pages of names have been added, and every care taken to make the work as complete as possible. It is with the utmost difficulty that anything like accuracy can be obtained among the working classes in the suburbs, the fear of taxation, &c., causing them to give wrong names, and in many instances to withhold them altogether.

The Publisher returns her grateful acknowledgements for the liberal manner in which she has been sustained by the public for the past three years, and hopes, by unremitting exertions for the future, to merit a continuation of their patronage.

CHRISTIANA MACKAY.
