FINANCIAL.

The Money Market is quiet and without change; good lines of commercial paper are discounted at about 7 per cent and loans on approved collaterals are made at about 6 per cent on call and short dates. Sterling Exchange is dull, 60 day bills are quoted at 8¼ @ 8¼ for round amounts between banks, and 8⅜ @ 8¼ over the counter, but with so little business quotations are to a great extent nominal; in New York the posted rates remain steady at $8.42 for 60 days and $4.84 for demand. Currency drafts on New York are quiet at 1–16 @ ⅛ prem. There were few transactions on the Stock Exchange, but the market was fairly steady; Bank of Montreal is offered at 133, with buyers at 131½; a few shares changed hands at 132½; Ontario is stronger but inactive, at 59 @ 60, and Peoples' quiet at 47 bid, 50 asked; Molson's is stronger at 65 for buyers, holders asking 70; Toronto is wanted at 112, but there was no stock forthcoming at the price; Eastern Townships is offered at 97 and Exchange at 50, but no business resulted; Commerce is firmer at 112⅜ @ 113½, and Montreal Telegraph ½ lower at 82½; Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Co. is stronger at 37½ @ 37¾ and City Gas steady at 118½ @ 119; City Passenger Railway is quiet at 79½ @ 81; there was an enquiry for Hudon Cotton at 140 but no stock was on the market at the price. The sales were as follows:—

PRODUCE AND PROVISIONS.

There was not much doing in grain to-day; in the morning Canada Red Winter Wheat was offered on spot and to arrive at $1.32, and a small quantity changed hands at this figure, but on receipt of strong advices from New York, backed up by those from the West, holders materially advanced their qustations, and asked $1.35; White Winter is now offered at about $1.37. There was a small business in Peas and prices remain steady; two small cargoes are reported sold at 79c. The receipts of Flour are now more liberal, but the market remains firm; the inside price of Superior Extra was advanced 5c, being now quoted at $6.05 @ $6.10, while Extra Superfine is firmly held at $6; Spring Extra is not so scarce as it was and the turn easier at $5.95; Ontario Bags are advanced 5c since Saturday, to $2.90 @ $2.95, and City Bags are 10c higher at $3.10; trade both on local and shipping account was only of moderate dimensions. Hog products are about steady; Chicago Mess Pork is selling at $14, and Lard at 10c for Fairbanks, and 9c @ 9¼c for Canada tubs and pails. There was rather a better enquiry for fine Butter, but inferior descriptions are dull; 19c was bid and refused this morning for a choice lot of Townships, but as we hear of no sales above this figure we quote from 16c @ 19c, while choice Morrisburg would bring about the same price; buyers in Morrisburg have been paying 18c @ 20c and the bulk of the Butter from that district has been shipped direct to England without coming on this market at all. Some 50 packages of Brockville & Western were sold at 15c. We note a sale of Creamery here at a very high price, 300 packages for shipment having changed hands at 26c; this transaction however cannot be taken as a criterion of the value of most of the offerings as the lot was exceptionally fine, including some of the Butter which took first prize at the Ottawa Exhibition, but it proves that for really fine quality high prices can be obtained. Cable advices from England show rather a better enquiry, still the market is not active; latest mail advices from Liverpool and London quote finest States Creameries 120s. and Canadian 110s.; choice Eastern Townships 85s. and Brockville and Morrisburg 75s. @ 80s. The recent advance in the Cheese quotation by public cable to 51s. gives holders confidence, while private cables quote strictly finest 2s. @ is. above this figure. We quote from 11c. @ 11¼c. for finest Fall make. In New York there was a better feeling on Saturday and to-day; more orders have been received the past few days than for some time past and prices are stronger. The high freights now prevailing will check to some extent the shipments to England, so that prices there are not expected to recede; whether this will cause an accumulation of stock on this side the Atlantic and thus weaken the markets here remains to be seen; holders claim it will not, as the make has been much smaller than had been expected, and one of our leading houses in this city states confidently that there is less Cheese back in the country now than at the corresponding period for many years past; the "bears" on the contrary assert that there is plenty yet to come forward. Eggs are scarce and firmly held at 18c; there is a fair enquiry for good fresh stock. The demand for shipping Apples is brisk and prices are somewhat higher; there have been large sales at $2 75 @ $3 for choice winter fruit. Some shipments of Potatoes to England are still being made, but from what we hear of the market on the other side we think exporters would be wise to cease operations for the present; the first lots that were sent did well, but later ones have not been so successful.

NORTH OF ENGLAND COTTON AND WOOLLEN TRADES.

The course of the Manchester market throughout the past month has been generally quiet and uneventful, at the same time a considerable degree of firmness has been apparent. The anticipation of a temporary scarcity of the raw material led producers to be chary of contracts save for early delivery, but the action of buyers appears to have been influenced by nothing except the actual requirements of their markets. Demand, while occasionally flagging and at no period of the month excited, has, on the whole, fairly kept pace with the production of fabrics adapted for the East. The home trade has been specially inactive, influenced by unfavourable harvest prospects. Prices have fluctuated little, sellers being unable to establish any advance beyond the slight difference generally obtainable between sales from stock and for forward delivery. The business of the month has been chiefly for India, China and Japan. A small trade continues with the Mediterranean ports. For South American markets generally the enquiry has been languid. As to prospects, the opinion is favourable as regards the East, indifferent or poor as to the West. A scare as to cotton supply will not force a paying demand for manufactures, but rather, in the existing circumstances of trade, tend to reduce the out turn. The present level of prices is a very moderate one, and as there, happily, seems to be an unusual absence of the speculative element, any alteration in values will probably be effected solely by the actual offtake of manufactures in the larger Eastern markets, under the more favourable conditions of food supply now developing.

In Twist, a considerable business has been done for China and Japan without much change in the quotations given at the close of last month. For India there has been little inquiry at practicable rates.

In Goods, a moderate business has gone forward at steady prices.

Bradford—Wool—While there has been little business doing in English wools the demand for Colonial descriptions has improved with increasing firmness in values. Yarns—There has been a fair demand for yarns on home account, but the export trade has been dull. Pieces—More activity has been manifested in this branch, but there is no improvement as to prices, which are still low and irregular. Leeds and Huddersfield—Throughout these districts business has been moderately active, the finer class of goods have commanded most attention with prices firm, whereas low qualities (if in stock) may be purchased more favourably. Dewsbury—The heavy woollen trade has ruled steady, with an improved demand for export, especially in Presidents and Pilots; Sealskins also have come more into notice, good makers being well employed. Blanket manufacturers are also fairly engaged on orders. Rochdale—The flannel trade has improved; in consequence of the upward tendency in the price of wool at the London sales, orders have been placed more freely. Wool—Manufacturers buy only for special requirements. Prices continue firm.—Barbour & Brother's Circular, Manchester, October 1.

THE WOOL TRADE.

Further advices show an increasing demand and firm market in the States for all descriptions of Wool, foreign varieties being in strong request. One of our houses engaged in the Wool trade reports that a cargo of Greasy Cape which arrived for them at New York a day or two ago has been sold at 16½c net cash from the ship's side. The auction sale of this description of wool announced to take place here on Thursday next is attracting notice in New York; the U. S. Economist says:—"The public sale of Wool at Montreal deserves attention; one or two trusted brokers should be sent from this side to secure the wool, or part of it, if possible. If manufacturers do not see a wool famine approaching, we can. Wool must inevitably advance in price before the next clip."

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL, October 13—The arrivals at St Gabriel market this morning were eleven cars of Cattle and three of Hogs. The cattle were almost all small second-class animals, and the top price obtained was not within 25c per 100 lbs of that obtained on Thursday last; common to medium cattle were bought at $2 50 @ $3.50 and a few good cattle at $4; extreme prices were quoted at $2 50 @ $4 25, but there was little done over $3.50. There was no business for export, and it is stated that the demand for Canadian cattle in England has fallen off. There is no doubt that this is the case, and the reason is not far to seek; recent shipments have been of a very inferior quality to those made earlier in the season and, as we warned exporters in the Spring, it is no use sending anything but choice beasts; inferior stock is not wanted there, and the low prices obtained do not pay the shippers. Live Hogs are in fair demand, sales ranged from $4.60 @ $4 80 as to lot and quality.

THE ENGLISH LAND SYSTEM.

This is a subject on which, just now, the American editor lets himself out very freely, and as it appears to us very ignorantly. It is quite true that many of the men who have hitherto tilled the land of the United Kingdom are leaving it, and that this class will continue to leave it. It is also quite probable that present rents may be proved to be too high, by the circumstances of a speedily and deep declension. Again it is very likely that this fall in rents may as a consequence tend to identify the owners of the land with the actual cultivators of it more than has hitherto been the case. And once more it may fairly be held that, all other things being equal, it is better that the land should be owned and worked by the same men, than by different men. But, given all those things, what has the "system" to do with creating the contrary conditions. There is properly speaking no such thing as the law of primogeniture, of which we hear so much, since every man may divide his property by will; and on the other hand, in most of the United States, any man may by will leave all his property to his eldest son if it so please him to do. Again, if an American likes to have two, three, four, or twenty farms instead of one, there is nothing to prevent him, if he can only pay for them; nor when he has them is he restricted as to the rent he shall charge for such as he does not choose to work himself, provided only he can get a tenant satisfied to pay his demands. It is not any peculiar system of law, therefore, but the progress of natural events, which creates the pressure upon the British agriculturist. Comparing the British Islands with France the great fact of population is that while in France, with little emigration, population remains almost stationary, the British Isles have for a couple of centuries been pouring out settlers to their own great advantage for the purpose of converting the desert places of the earth into fruitful fields, and yet the people who remain are every year more numerous than the year before. Moreover, in spite of the poverty of which we hear so much, and which is quite great enough to be seriously deplored, no well informed person can doubt that the labouring class of Great Britain are, even in hard times, taking them as a whole, infinitely better off than they were forty years ago. But while the people are more numerous, and more comfortable—as compared to their father's, more luxurious even—than they were, the soil of the islands has not been enlarged. When all is done, indeed, in the way of enclosing commons, &c.—which has its disadvantages as well as advantages—the increment of land will not nearly keep pace with the population. Hence land becomes dear, and it products would be dear also, were it not that very cheap and very fertile lands have been for the purposes of sustaining the British people, added to the soil of the British Isles by the modern improvements in transport. Let us suppose the sea had retired from the shores of the British Islands so as to expose a surface as great as that which has heretofore been available for pasture and tillage—would not there be an immediate rush from the over-populated lands of the past, to the new lands of the future. Of course, there would be; but it would not be any more on account of the so-called "system" than it is on account of any "system" that the agricultural population of New England is constantly leaving, not landlord-ridden farms, but farms owned by themselves, in order to seek the richer soil of the Western States. The fact is that these new lands in America and Australia are a blessing to all that part of the civilized earth, which obeys the God-given command to increase and multiply. And those who feel the pressure, which in all ages and under all laws, have prompted men to create new homes when their old seats have become too narrow for them, so far from being regarded as sufferers, should be looked upon only as we look upon any enterprizing men, who, dissatisfied with their present condition, look about for another and a better one. This is constantly taking place in all walks of life, and no change of law anywhere can prevent it. To prevent it, indeed, would be to depress one of the springs of human life, whose elasticity gives life much of its value. How many hundreds of thousands here and in Australia, have reason to bless the day, when for want of a little competence which would have killed ambition out of them, they were forced to look abroad for a wider field for exertion, where their exertion has been rewarded ten-fold more than it could have been even on a few paternal acres, which even in a country divided like France cannot be distributed so as to prevent the greater part of the population from having to fight their way with nothing but their hands, feet, and brain.

PUBLIC TRUSTS.

The New York papers inform us that the Superintendent of Banks in that State, has recently addressed a series of questions to the Saving Bank Directors as to certain kinds of expenditures which it was presumed that some of them may have incurred. These expenditures are such as are sometimes made for charitable or quasi-charitable purposes, and especially for lunches, cigars, &c. All these disbursements are expressly forbidden, and though the sums actually expended at one time are not often considerable, it is stated that two banks in ten years have in this way got rid of $25,000 of their depositor's money, enough to pay dividends of $8 to each depositor. Some of the outlays objected to were in the nature of contributions for ornamenting the localities were the banks are situated. It must be remembered that these banks are fiduciary institutions; and not merely proprietory, and that they are especially enjoined by law against any uses of the money of depositors such as that described. They are all to be required to refund improper charges made for these appropriations or misappropriations. The principle of the statute is the principle of common law, and we notice that a few weeks ago the plaintiff recovered in an action against the individuals composing a board connected with the Corporation of Toronto—we think the city assessors—for refreshments furnished to them, while engaged in their duties. The Court held that they, and not the city, were the proper persons to pay for whatever they had consumed. This principle may, perhaps, in practice, admit of some relaxation in the case of boards who have to do a gratuitous duty, and who do not push the outside expenditure to an excess. But just now when the public is disposed to hold those who act as trustees for others to a somewhat rigid account, it may be well to remember that properly such charges are illegal.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH—FALL TERM.

Monday, October 13.

Present—Hon. Mr. Justice Monk.

THE QUEEN vs. JOHN FACTOR RENNY ET AL.

The Court opened at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Devlin, Q.C., and Mr. Archambault, Q.C., were present for the Crown, and Mr. Ritchie, Q.C., for the private prosecution in the case of the General Manager and the Directors of the Consolidated Bank.

His Honour rendered judgment on the motion to quash the indictments in this case as follows: The questions which have been presented for the consideration of the Court arise on two motions to quash and two demurrers to indictments, against the accused. The objections urged by the defence in these several proceedings are identical, and the decision of the Court in regard to one disposes of the other three. I may remark also that the two indictments are the same in form, setting forth the same description of offences committed, the one on the 9th January, 1879, and the other on the 6th February, 1879. The defendants are there charged with having unlawfully and wilfully made at these dates, respectively, certain wilful, false and deceptive returns respecting the affairs of the Consolidated Bank of Canada, they then being, one the General Manager and the others directors of the aforesaid Bank, and these wilful and false statements are alleged to exist in certain material particulars which are therein set forth in detail. As before remarked, the motions to quash and the demurrers involve similar grounds of objection, and it is urged against the indictments that they should be declared and adjudged insufficient in law. 1st. "Because there is no allegation therein of the said offence therein set out having been committed in the district of Montreal." This ground was abandoned by the defendants' counsel at the argument, and as a matter of law and legal procedure it could not prove successful on a motion to quash or on demurrer. The point is too clear under the statute to admit of doubt or discussion. 2nd. "Because it does not appear in the said indictment that the said Act, or any Act of the Dominion of Canada, applies to the Consolidated Bank of Canada." This objection was argued at great length, and urged with considerable ingenuity by the counsel for the defence. But in regard to these pretensions, it might perhaps be sufficient for me to refer to the case of Cotte, in which one of the points raised on motion to quash reads as follows: "Because it is not shown as set forth in the said indictment, that the Bank therein referred to as La Banque Jacques Cartier, of which, it is alleged, the said Honore Cotte was Cashier, was a duly incorporated banking institution, doing business within the Dominion of Canada, and subject to the provisions of law relating to banks and banking." A learned judge of this Court refused to reserve the question thus submitted for his decision, and held that this omission in the indictment was not fatal. In that opinion I entirely concur, and in any case, even if that view of the law was not so clear to my mind, I would hesitate in the face of such a ruling before dissenting from that decision on the present occasion. But as this point was not submitted to the Court of Appeals upon the reserved case, and as the Consolidated Bank of Canada is not to be found in the schedule to the Banking Act 34 Vic., Cap. 5, it is, perhaps, due to the argument of Counsel that I should, in a few words, assign my reasons why the above decision in the Cotte case applies to the one under consideration, and must be upheld and adhered to in this instance, although there is a slight difference between the two banks in regard to the dates of their incorporation — the one being in existence at the time of the Banking Act, and the other incorporated by a statute subsequent to that Act. If I clearly understand the objection, it amounts to this: The Consolidated Bank of Canada not being in existence when the Banking Act was passed, and therefore, not being referred to in the schedule to that Statute, its subsequent incorporation and the application of Dominion banking law to that institution should have been alleged in the indictment. At first sight, and upon a restricted view of the law, there is, no doubt, something plausible about this argument, but I confess myself after careful consideration, unable to see how it can be successfully urged against the sufficiency of this indictment. Bearing in mind, therefore, the precise point raised by the defendants' counsel, viz.: If the Consolidated Bank of Canada was in existence when the 34 Vic. Cap. 5, was enacted, that Act does not apply to it, because not mentioned in the Schedule, and as it was incorporated five years afterwards by the Act 39 Vic., Cap. 44, this subsequent charter should have been alleged in the indictment, in order to show that it came under the operation of the Act 34 Vic., Cap. 5. In order to mark the relation of these two statutes, the one to the other, it is necessary to refer to them a little more in detail. By the first clause of the Banking Act it is enacted in substance as follows: The Charters or Acts of Incorporation of the general banks enumerated in the schedule to that Act are continued, subject to the provisions of that Act until 1st July, 1881, and the provision of that statute shall apply to each of them respectively, and their then present charters were repealed, except only as to the matters for which the said charters are as therein above continued until the day last aforesaid. In the section 2 of that Act will be found the following words:—"The provisions of this Act shall apply to any bank to be hereafter incorporated, (which expression in this Act includes any bank incorporated by any Act passed in the present Session, or in any future Session of the Parliament of Canada) whether this Act is specially mentioned in its Acts of Incorporation or not, as well as to all banks whose charters are hereby continued; but not to any other, unless extended to it under the special provisions hereinafter made." Section 13 of the same Act provides that "Monthly returns shall be made by the bank to the Government in the following form, and shall be made up within the first ten days of each month, and shall exhibit the condition of the bank on the last juridical day of the month preceding, and such monthly returns shall be signed by the president, or vice-president, or the director (or, if the bank be en commandite, the principal partner) then acting as president, and by the manager, cashier, or other principal officer of the bank, at its chief seat of business." Section 62 of the same Act, 34 Vic., Cap. 5, enacts that "The making of any wilfully false or deceptive statement in any account, statement, return, report, or other document respecting the affairs of the bank shall, unless it amounts to a higher offence, be a misdemeanour, and any and every president, vice-president, director, principal partner, en commandite, auditor, manager, cashier, or other officer of the bank preparing, signing, approving or concurring in such statement, return, report or document, or issuing the same with intent to deceive or mislead any party, shall be held to have wilfully made such false statement, and shall further be responsible for all damages sustained by such party in consequence thereof." By the 13th clause the law imposes on the banks the duty of making monthly returns to the Government; and the 62nd clause speaks of any wilfully false or deceptive statement in any account, statement, return, report or other document respecting the affairs of the Bank, and it further declares that any president, vice-president, director, auditor, manager, cashier, or other officers of the bank preparing, signing, approving or concurring in such statement, return, report or document, shall be held to have wilfully made such false statement. It must be admitted that this clause embraces a great number and variety of cases regarded as wilful and false in business transactions. It undoubtedly is extremely stringent and comprehensive, and is calculated in the highest degree to stimulate the activity and vigilance of every one connected with the management of those important institutions. It goes far beyond the monthly returns which banks are obliged by the Act to make to the Government; but such is the law and we have to take it as we find it and administer it as best we can. Its bearing on this case will appear in the sequel of these remarks. Now let us ascertain whether this Act 34 Vic., cap. 5, with this and other provisions applies to the Consolidated Bank of Canada. Section 9 of the Act of Incorporation of this "Consolidated Bank" 39 Vic., cap. 44, enacts that "The Act of the Parliament of Canada, passed the thirty-fourth year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter five, intituled 'An Act relating to Banks and Banking,' and all the provisions thereof, and the amendments thereof, shall apply to the 'Consolidated Bank of Canada,' in the same manner as if the same were expressly incorporated in this Act, except in so far as such provisions relate specially to banks in existence before the passing thereof, or to banks en commandite, or are inconsistent with this Act," and it is then declared to be a public act. Here we have an express clause of a public act declaring that the Banking Act, 34 Vic., Cap. 5, shall apply to the Consolidated Bank. The Court is bound to know this provision of the law. I am obliged to recognize and act upon it without allegation in legal proceedings and without proof other than that furnished by the law itself. What necessity for alleging the fact in the indictment? What object would be attained in a prosecution like the present, by inserting such an allegation therein? I have none—I know of none—in the opinion of the Court such an averment would be simply useless, and, therefore, this ground of demurrer must be overruled. We come now to the third reason for demurring to this indictment, and it is as follows: Thirdly—Because each of the false statements alleged in the said return is, if false, as alleged, a misdemeanour of itself, and each such misdemeanour should be the subject of one count, whereas there are over six misdemeanours alleged in the sole count contained in the said indictment. This ground, I believe, was abandoned at the argument; but, in any case, this point was disposed of by the Court of Appeal in the Cotte case; the Court holding that the indictment, which was in form precisely the same as the one under consideration, did not charge the defendant with several offences or with one offence in different counts, but contains only one count, charging the defendant with only one offence—that is, of having unlawfully and wilfully made a certain wilfully false and deceptive statement in a return respecting the affairs of the Bank, which statement, it is averred, was false in several particulars, the whole forming but one offence, as the several particulars in which the statement was false and deceptive were included in the same return, and formed but one and the same transaction. This pretension, therefore, can not be sustained. The "4th" and "5 th" reasons are as follows; viz.,—"Fourthly."—Because it is not therein alleged that the return, which is said to contain false statements, was a return to the Government of the Dominion of Canada. "Fifthly."—Because it is not therein alleged that the said return was ever published or made known to the public. The law does not distinguish between returns imposed as obligatory by the Act and other returns, and where the law does not, the Court will not—cannot distinguish. Besides, these points were disposed of by the Court of Appeals in the Cotte case, and in that judgment, I concurred. The wording of that indictment, as before remarked, was the very same as in these, and it was held that these allegations were not necessary. The offence consists in the making any wilfully false or deceptive statement in any account, return, report or other document respecting the affairs of the bank. The indictment is in the very terms of the statute, and no more is required in this instance. Besides, the return must be wilfully false and deceptive—the nature of that return will speak for itself when produced and legally proved. Till then, and owing to the comprehensive language of the statute, the Court is of opinion that these averments were not necessary, and consequently that the omission of them is not fatal. The reason that it is not alleged in the indictment that the defendants were directors and officers of a bank to which the Banking Acts of the Dominion of Canada apply has already been considered and disposed of. The necessity of negative averments in the indictment was also mentioned in the argument. The counsel are aware of the holding of the Court of Appeals as to such allegations in the case so often referred to above. The authorities cited by Mr. Kerr, from Archbold and Paley, in my opinion, do not apply to the case under consideration, and the inconvenience and even inexpediency, in view of an effective administration of justice in cases like the present of attempting to point out, before the adduction of evidence, in what particulars such statements are false and deceptive must be obvious to every one familiar with the incidents of this kind of prosecution. The statutes I have quoted and referred to are public Acts. They are precise, formal and peremptory in their provisions, and I am of opinion that the jurisprudence of this Court fully justifies the application of them which the Court feels called upon to make in these cases. The motions and demurrers are consequently dismissed.

Mr. Kerr, Q.C., moved, as a matter of form, that His Honour would be kind enough to reserve the points for the Court of Appeals, and to enter the motion on the record. It was merely a matter of opinion.

His Honour admitted it was a matter of opinion. The Court would enter the motion, but he declined to make any reservation.

THE ARRAIGNMENT.

In answer to the usual question put by the Clerk,

Mr. Kerr, Q.C., said they pleaded "not guilty." In asking to reserve the question for the Queen's Bench, he meant, of course, on both the motion and the demurrer. He would at the same time move for a separate trial.

Mr. Ritchie, Q.C., said it had not been allowed in cases of misdemeanour; he had no objection, however.

Mr. Kerr, Q.C.—I suppose my learned friend will consent to an English-speaking jury? We are ready for trial immediately.

Mr. Ritchie, Q.C., said the difficulty was that the prosecution had to get witnesses from Upper Canada, one from Ottawa and another from another part of Ontario.

Mr. Devlin, Q.C.—There is the telegraph.

Mr. Ritchie, Q.C.—His learned friend must remember that he had only the ordinary means of enforcing the attendance of witnesses.

His Honour said they were desirous that the trial should close this week; if they could begin on Wednesday, this might be done.

Mr. Ritchie, Q.C. — I think Thursday would be the earliest day on which we could proceed.

Mr. Kerr, Q.C.—Any day will do; it is indifferent to us. What case will you take up first?

His Honour.—He is not obliged to tell you before the day unless he has no objection.

Mr. Ritchie, Q.C.—I intend to take up the case against Sir Francis Hincks, first.

The trial of Sir Francis Hincks having been fixed for Thursday, the defendants left the Court.

STEALING FROM P. X. BEAUDRY.

Joseph Huot was put on his trial, charged with breaking into the house of P. X. Beaudry, on the 22nd September, and stealing therefrom a silver water jug, a silver coffee pot, six watches, $30 and other property.

Mr. Roy deposed the prisoner.

William French, the man hired to look after P. X. Beaudry's house in his absence, F. X. Beaudry, Constable Maguire, and Sergeant Lapoint, were called for the prosecution, and Ruth and Robert Slattery for the defence.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty.

ACQUITTED.

AFTER RECESS.

Robert Slattery was placed on his trial charged with stealing silver ware, &c., from F. X. Beaudry. The evidence was the same as in the other case. He was found guilty.

FIRE REPORT

DISASTROUS FIRE AT SHEDIAC.

Specially reported for the Montreal Herald.

Shediac, N.B., October 13, 3 a.m.—A fire broke out on Main street about eleven o'clock, and has made terrible progress within the past three hours. The wind, which is blowing a gale from the north-west, sends the sparks in showers for hundreds of yards, and as they light on the roofs of the wooden buildings it is with the greatest difficulty that other fires are prevented from starting up. Harper & Webster's immense boot and shoe factory, with all its improved machinery, is destroyed; the Adams House is in ruins; also the hall opposite. The Waverley House, the scene of the murder of Tim McCarthy, is almost consumed, and the Post-office is doomed. The Wellon House still stands, but everything is being removed from it as rapidly as possible. The wind still continues to blow hard from the same quarter, and there are no fire engines to battle with the flames. Main street looks like a blazing double line of fire, extending down towards the Scadoux Bridge. Adam Tait, E. J. Smith, W. B. Deacon and other property-owners, lose heavily. None of the store-keepers saved much, if any, of their stock, and many residents will be made beggars. The excitement is something terrific, and no one knows where help can come from to stem the torrent of fire. The fire is approaching the depot, and everything is being removed therefrom. The operator is preparing to remove the instruments. Help is on the way from Moncton and other places. The railroad authorities are moving at Moncton to send a body of firemen, engine, &c. The office of the Moniteur Acadien is destroyed. So far the fire has not spread to the district of the town containing the churches or the finest residences, being confined to the business portion of the place. The loss is very heavy. Insurance light.

Later.—The fire commenced in an unused outbuilding at the back of the old Adams House and destroyed all the buildings on both sides of Main street from that point up to the railway crossing. The following is a partial list of the buildings destroyed:—The Adams House, P J Sweeny's and Kelly's blacksmith shops, Pope's barber shop, Richard Moore's store, store belonging to Adam Tait, Le Moniteur Acadian printing office, the store of George Pelletier, the dwelling of B Burns, the store of E J Smith, the liquor saloon of Marshal Casey, the building belonging to Bliss Smith, the building formerly used as a hotel belonging to Johnston. These buildings were on the south side of the street. On the north side of the street, commencing at the railway, were the following:—A building of J D Weldon, used as a sample-room, Deacon's drug store, Landry & Richards' law offices, in a building belonging to Morse Weldon, Karney's photographic car, Mrs. H. Gallant's millinery establishment, D. M. Brown's saloon, saloon belonging to Joseph Gallant, store belonging to Fidele Poirier, store belonging to Calvas Gallant, jeweller, store belonging to S. Gallant, store of Melanson & Poirier, harness shop of M. G. Ayre, the shoe factory of Harper & Webster, store of John Calder, Smith's Hall, Gilbert's law office. The warehouse belonging to Fidele, Poirier & Calder, immediately in the rear of their stores, were also destroyed. This comprises the entire business portion of Shediac. Only one store is left. The fire broke out about eleven o'clock p.m. and was plainly visible in Moncton. Most of the stores carried large stocks of goods. Harper & Webster's shoe factory was in complete running order and doing a fine business. Its loss will be most severely felt in the town, as it gave a large amount of employment to men and women. The following is a correct list of the losses: insurance, etc.—Masonic Hall; loss, $1,000; insured for $700. Edward McDonald, store and dwelling; loss, $700; no insurance. T. Smith est te, two buildings; loss, $1,600; no insurance. F Cormier estate, building; loss, $400; no insurance. W Hope, stock, $300; no insurance. R Chesley Tait, building and furniture; loss, $700; insurance, $100. Adam Tait, building and stock; loss, $1,200; insurance, $400. E Moore, stock; loss, $100; no insurance. T Taylor, furniture; loss, $50; no insurance. Mrs. McKean, furniture, &c.; loss, $200; no insurance. Jas Kelly, iron and tools, &c.; loss, $800; no insurance Sweeney & Richards, waggons, tools and stock; loss, $800; no insurance. P J Sweeney, two buildings; loss, $1,000; no insurance. F Robideau, Moniteur Acadien, press and stock; loss, $1,300; no insurance. George Pelletier, stock; loss, $3,000; insurance, $1,800. R C Bishop, of St. John, building; loss, $700; insurance, $600. Lewis Burns, furniture, etc., and building; loss, $800; no insurance. Edward J Smith, two stores and stock and one house; loss, $6,000; insurance, $1,000. M Casey, store; loss, $300; no insurance. Harper & Webster, shoe factory and stock; loss, $30,000; insurance, $10,000; M G Ayer, harness and stock; loss, $2,000; no insurance. Melanson & Poirier, general dealers, stock, etc; loss, $4,000; insurance, $1,200. J Fawcet, building; loss, $600; insurance, unknown. T Gallant, watchmaker, stock and furniture; loss, $800; no insurance. F Poirier, general dealer, building and stock; loss, $7,000; insurance, $3,000. C H Gallant, general dealer and millnery, store, dwelling house and stock, &c; loss, $4,000; insurance, $2,000. Jos Gallant, liquors, billiard tables, furniture and buildings; loss, $4,000; insurance, $1,000. D B White, assignee, etc, building; loss, $400; no insurance. D Brown, oyster saloon, stock and furniture; loss, $300; no insurance. Mrs Jos Weldon, dwelling house and two stores; loss, $1,000; no insurance. W P Deacon, druggist; loss on stock, about $200; no insurance. The latest estimate of the losses makes them foot up to about $90,000, while the insurance is not quite one-quarter of that amount. The fire is said to be of an incendiary origin. The Moniteur Acadien, which was burned out, was the only French paper in the Lower Provinces.

Fenelon Falls, Ont., October 13.—About 9 30 this a.m. a fire broke out in R. C. Smith's mill yard, caused by a spark from the slab kiln catching in some shavings, but was promptly put out; Damage will not exceed $75 Covered by insurance.

Bellville, Ont., October 13.—An incendiary fire was discovered early this morning in Mrs. Horne's millinery store, Hotel street, which damaged stock to the extent of about $1,000; insured for $580 on stock, $400 on fixtures, and $200 on buildings in Scottish Northern and Mercantile.

St. John, N. B., October 11.—Robert Kirkpatrick's house at Debec was destroyed by an incendiary fire the other day loss, $5,000; no insurance.

Halifax, October 11.—About two o'clock on the afternoon of September 26th a fire broke out in the house of William Mountain at the south side of Ferry Lane, Nfld. It is supposed the fire originated in a linny attached to the house which was full of hay, and, as the house is considerable distance from the harbour, it was almost consumed before any one was aware of its being on fire. It was burnt to the ground and Mountain, with his wife and children, was left homeless.

Special Notice.—We direct particular attention to the sale to-morrow morning of the splendid property on the Cote des Neiges Road, belonging to the Insolvent Estate of Mrs. Tomkins. The property will be sold without reserve at this offering, and a rare opportunity is presented for investment. Conveyances for intending purchasers will be in attendance at the office of Mr. W. E. TELEGRAPHIC DESPATCHES

QUEBEC

AN AMERICAN THIEF ARRESTED.

ARTILLERY COMPETITION.

QUEBEC, October 13.—An American came here a couple of days ago and registered at the hotel as Walter Baker, of Boston, was arrested on the steamer bound steamship "Polynesian" on Saturday evening on suspicion of robbing one Walter Palmer, who is wanted by the Pa'l River Line Company on a charge of embezzlement to the extent of $60,000. He was brought before the Police Court to-day and remanded. He does not, it seems, deny his identity, but says that he cannot be extradited, as he has telegraphed for a New York lawyer to come over and defend him. The competition between "A" and "B" Batteries, which took place this afternoon, resulted in favour of the former Battery by 9?4 seconds, the official time being, "A" Battery 3.41?, "B" Battery 4.34. A large number of people were present to witness the contest. To-morrow the Batteries go to the Island for big gun competition.

OTTAWA

TURNING AWAY SCHOLARS.

PREPARING TO HANG CLARK BROWN.

OTTAWA, October 13.—The parents of many of the pupils attending the Collegiate Institute having refused to pay the fee recently imposed by the Board, the fee recently imposed by the Board, the Treasurer to-day visited the school and sent the young people home.

At a meeting of the Art Association of Canada to-day, in the City Hall, the following officers were elected:—President, Chief-Justice Ritchie; Vice-President, Allan Gilmour; Second do., Sandford Fleming; Treasurer, M. Courtney, Deputy-Minister of Finance; Secretary, F. A. Dixon; Council: Messrs. Chamberlain, J. Cockburn, Fennings, Taylor, Dr. Grant, and Col. Denis.

It is said the murderer, Clarke Brown, has elected to die in the Roman Catholic faith, and he is now visited daily by the Rev. Father Murray, P.P., of Cornwall. A local contractor has received an order to build the scaffold, and it is rumoured that a hangman has been engaged who hails from the Ottawa district and has had previous experience.

Sir John MacDonald, Hon. Mr. Langevin, and probably other members of the Cabinet, will leave for Quebec to-morrow, in order to attend a banquet tendered to the Right Hon. gentleman.

Nothing has yet been done with the tender for Departmental printing.

The St. Ann's lock contract will not be awarded until the return of the Minister of Public Works.

TORONTO

THE INQUEST ON R. W. TURNER ADJOURNED.

INSPECTING CONDUIT PIPES.

REWARDED FOR BRAVERY.

THE HEALTH OF JUDGE MACKENZIE.

TORONTO, October 13.—The work of inspecting the conduit pipe across the bay was completed to-day. E. P. Roder, a Mail reporter, in company with an employee of the water works and a civil engineer made a sub-aqueous journey through the pipes for a distance of a mile and a half. A number of leaks, small and large, were discovered, but they can be repaired at a nominal cost. It is the intention of the Water Works Committee to extend the conduit pipe as far as Island into the lake for a distance of a mile, thereby supplying the citizens with purer water than they are now receiving.

The inquest on the body of Robt. W. Turner was resumed at the Hospital this evening. The prisoner Smyth, who is alleged to have inflicted the blow that caused Turner's death, was present in charge of an officer. The medical testimony was to the effect that death was produced by concussion of the brain, caused by a blow. So far no evidence has been adduced to connect Symth with the act. Great sympathy is expressed for the prisoner by all classes, and daily offers of financial assistance are pouring in. The enquiry was adjourned till Thursday in order that the whereabouts of Mrs. Smyth could be learned.

The Grand Jury this afternoon returned true bills against Robert W. De Courcie, for the murder of his brother, at Lambton Mills, and Frank W. Rimmer, for forgery. The trial of the latter, who is held on eleven separate charges of forgery, was set for Wednesday morning.

At the City Council Meeting to-night, a young man named J. Darling Andrews was presented by the Mayor, on behalf of the Royal Humane Society, London, England, with a medal for saving lives.

The state of Judge Mackenzie's health still causes grave anxiety to his friends. It is understood that his honour's medical men insist upon his retirement from active work. At noon to-day he had so far recovered from his illness that he intended holding a term at his house this afternoon.

Special reference was made in all the city Presbyterian churches yesterday to the death of the late Dr. Topp.

LONDON

ARREST OF A BANK CLERK.

LONDON, Ont., October 13.—Charles Lancaster, who has been employed at the Merchants Bank here as ledger-keeper, was arrested to-day on an information charging him with embezzling $1,000 from the bank. He enjoyed a high character for integrity, and was greatly trusted, but seems to have fallen into bad hands. Shortly after he was arrested another man named Geo. Rowe was also taken into custody for receiving stolen property. Lancaster is but 16 years old, and his companion Rowe some years his senior. It is alleged that he was induced by Rowe to make false entries and take the money, and after compelled to divide with him. The special embezzlement referred to of $1,000 was effected eighteen months ago, but since then it is alleged other sums have been appropriated, making about $3,000. It is understood that three thefts were committed at the repeated instigation of Rowe, who prevailed over his young companion by threats of exposure, but this remains to come out in the evidence. A preliminary examination was held this afternoon, when Lancaster pleaded guilty to the charge. He is considered less guilty than Rowe, who is alleged to have systematically blackmailed him.

KINGSTON

WINNERS OF SCHOLARSHIPS.

KINGSTON, Ont., October 13.—At the matriculation examination in connection with Queen's College, the following scholarships were gained:—Leitch Memorial, No. 1, $57, S. W. Dyde; Watkins, $80, open only to the Kingston Collegiate Institute, D. E. Mundell. $56. J. R. Campbell; Tassie, $25, W. Nicol; Redden, $20, A. Givan.

BARRIE

SENTENCE OF DEATH COMMUTED.

BARRIE, October 13.—The death sentence passed upon Chester Munro, at the late assizes, for the murder of Thomas Cook, in June last, has been commuted to imprisonment in the Kingston Penitentiary for seven years. Great satisfaction is generally felt at the result of the many petitions sent to the Minister of Justice.

HALIFAX

SUDDEN DEATH OF A NAVAL OFFICER.

HALIFAX, N.S., October 14. — Naval circles are very much shocked to-day at the sudden death on board the flagship "Bellerophon" of Lieut. Harvey. He was a very popular officer and a great favourite with all who knew him. He was on duty on the ship this afternoon and fell in a fit on the upper deck. He was immediately carried below when life was discovered to be extinct. Heart disease was no doubt the cause of death, as the ship's physician some time ago informed him he might be taken away at any moment.

Col. Lovell and Lieut. Hussen, of the Royal Engineers, who have been to British Columbia inspecting the fortifications there, returned here to-day.

WINNIPEG

SILVER MINE DISCOVERED.

FORMATION OF TELEGRAPH AND RAILWAY COMPANIES.

NO TROUBLE FEARED FROM THE INDIANS.

WINNIPEG, Man., October 11.—Judgment was given to-day on the petition of David Young and Archibald Wright, against the election of Donald A. Smith for the County of Selkirk at last year's general election. Judge Betourney decides that the petitioners have failed to prove any of the allegations of the petition; that the election is valid, and that nothing has been proved to have been done by Smith or his agents to justify the petition, which is therefore dismissed with costs.

The town of Emerson on the boundary, has petitioned the Lieut.-Governor for incorporation, under the terms of last year's Act.

A charter has been applied for to incorporate a company, with a capital of $10,000, to build a line of telegraph between the city of Winnipeg and Portage la-prairie, and thence to other places.

The whole of the capital stock of the South-Western Colonization Railway, but $8,000, was subscribed to-day. Each of the provisional Directors subscribed $4,000, and Mr. Spencer, collector of Customs, $1,000.

WINNIPEG, Man., October 13.—Secretary of State Aikens and Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs, returned from the West to-day.

M. H. Wilkinson, mining expert, who discovered the Pigeon River Mines, has found a silver lode at Falcon Lake, about twelve miles south of the Canadian Pacific railway station at Cross Lake, he estimates it will yield $200 per ton. It is proposed to form a company with a capital of $300,000 to work it.

Major Irvine, of the Mounted Police, who arrived here from the West on Saturday, en route for Ottawa, says there is no danger in the North-West in case of trouble with the Sioux or other tribes. The Blackfeet, whose loyalty is sound, would furnish 1,500 mounted warriors, splendidly armed and equipped.

VICTORIA, October 13.—At a large meeting in this Province resolutions were passed and petitions forwarded to the Premier of the Dominion Government protesting against the employment of Chinese labour in the construction of the Canada Pacific Railway.

Afternoon Despatches

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, October 13.—At the great anti-rent meeting yesterday, in honour of Mr. Parnell, there were shouts in favour of shooting the landlords. Parnell, Sullivan, O'Connor Power, and O'Sullivan spoke. The last named declared shooting landlords could do no good in future, whatever it might have done in the past.

Advices from Barrow-in Furness says the order on hand for iron and steel will be sufficient to maintain the activity of trade throughout the winter.

NAVAN, October 13.—Mr. Parnell and other Liberal leaders were welcomed yesterday by an immense crowd. There were triumphal arches in every corner bearing the mottos: "Down with the Land Robbers," "Parnell for Ireland," and so-forth. Thirty thousand people were in town, and the streets were constantly paraded by armed police.

RETURNED COMMUNISTS.

COMMUNIST'S FUNERAL.

PARIS, October 13.—The 490 amnestied Communists, who were landed at Port Vendres, have reached here. A numerous crowd, with members of the Aid Committee, including Clemenceau and Humbert, received them. The large crowd gave cheers for the Republic and plenary amnesty.

Two thousand persons were present at the funeral of a Communist to-day. A Socialist made a speech declaring that the people should demand, and if necessary exact justice for the heroes who saved France. The speaker was enthusiastically applauded.

THAT TURKISH INSULT,

ST. PETERSBURG, October 13.—The insult offered to the Russian Consul-General at Salonica has been exaggerated. An employee of the Russian representative was maltreated, and the offender was punished by the Turkish Government.

EMANCIPATION OF THE JEWS.

LAMENTABLE STATE OF AFFAIRS.

BUCHAREST, October 13.—Fifty-eight Deputies being opposed to the Government's Bill for the emancipation of the Jews. It is thought it will not obtain the two-third majority requisite to its passage.

LONDON, October 13.—A correspondent at Constantinople says all classes are suffering from the effect of the political and financial crisis. There are grave apprehension of serious disturbances the coming winter, of which the prevalence of robbery and murder at present is considered premonitory symptoms.

MEXICO

DISCOVERY OF GOLD AND SILVER MINES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 13.—The Consul at Matamoras gives some information concerning the newly discovered silver and gold mines in Mexico. These marvelously rich mines are located in the Sierra Morada range, 600 miles west of Matamoras, and are very inaccessible. The great distance, terrible roads, danger from Indians, makes it a hazardous journey to reach them.

HAVANA SANITARY MATTERS.

A HURRICANE FEARED.

HAVANA, October 13.—The Minister of the Colonies has ordered a commission to examine into the causes of the insalubrity of Havana, and ascertain means to ameliorate the condition of the bay, which is a receptacle for the dirt of the city, the refuse of slaughter houses, and of the hospitals.

There were fourteen deaths from yellow fever here last week.

A severe storm prevails throughout the whole island and telegraphic communication is interrupted. A hurricane is feared.

CLEVELAND, O., October 13.—The strike of the freight housemen on the Lake Shore Road has ended, all but one hundred resuming at the old pay.

LAREDO, Tex., October 13.—Information from Monterey, Mexico, says the City of Chihuahua has been captured by the revolutionists, under Macherrao. Gen. Trevino, with the federal forces, is en route to the scene.

THE UTE INDIAN WAR

THE HOSTILES CEASING TO FIGHT BY ORDERS OF THEIR CHIEFS.

A PEACE COMMISSION ASKED FOR.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN A CRITICAL POSITION.

THE INDIANS GETTING TO OTHER AGENCIES.

LOS PINOS AGENCY, Col., Oct. 9.—The employee, Brady, who went to White River with the Indian escort, under Chief Sapenaro, has returned. The Indians obeyed Ouray's order as soon as communicated; they ceased fighting and moved off. No further trouble is anticipated, unless the soldiers advance. Ouray endorses the Agent's despatch to Washington for a Peace Commission to investigate the trouble, and let the blame rest where it belongs.

A runner just from the Southern Ute Agency, reports that the Utes will abide by Ouray's order. They want peace, and will have nothing to do with the White River trouble, and requests Ouray to inform the White River Utes of their decision.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—Agent Stanley reports, from Los Pinos Agency, the arrival of Brady from White River Agency and that the Utes recognized and obeyed Ouray's order and withdrew, and will fight no more unless forced to do so. Stanley adds: "If the soldiers are now stopped the trouble can be stopped by a Peace Commission to investigate the offences, and let blame rest where it may." The Commissioner of Indian Affairs says immediate action will be taken.

Schurz has sent the following reply to Agent Stanley: "Tell Ouray his efforts are highly appreciated by the Government. In view of the attack upon the troops and the massacre of the Agent and employees, the troops will have to proceed to White River Agency. Ouray should endeavour to prevent any resistance to this movement. The troops are now in great force, and resistance would result only in great disaster to the Indians. The hostiles will have to surrender and throw themselves upon the mercy of the Government. The guilty parties must be identified and delivered up. We shall see that no injustice is done any one. Peaceable Indians will be protected. Ouray's recommendation for mercy in individual cases will be respected as far as the general interests may permit. Special agents are being despatched to Los Pinos with further instructions."

BEAR RIVER, Colorado, October 13.—An Indian reports from the Agency by Los Pinos, that the Utes say 37 Indians were killed during the fight and seige until Merritt's arrival.

RAWLINS, October 13.—Lieuts. Bark and Schuyle arrived and at last an authentic report is had of the doings of Merritt. On the afternoon of the day on which he reached Payne's Camp, he had a fight with the Indians who had moved their camp a mile from Payne's old position that night on account of the fearful stench. Merritt moved upon the agency and reached there on Saturday. The Indians are retreating southward. It is expected that in small bands they will drop into various agencies, and thus, covering up themselves, it will never be known as to who were the warriors who opened the battle on Thornburgh. The dismounted companies and wounded will be here in seven days.

The Ute war has reached a critical stage. Merritt's forces have been moved a mile from Payne's old position to await reinforcements, ammunition and rations. It is believed that Merritt will make a night's ally and dislodge them. It is likely Crook will take the field himself. Ouray says the fight was brought on by Meeker's folly.

[MIDNIGHT.]

RAWLINS, Wy, October 13.—Two couriers have just arrived from White River Agency, and give the following particulars. Merritt advanced on the Agency on the 11th inst. On his way he found many dead bodies, among others he found the body of Carl Goldstein, who left here with the Government supplies for the Utes at White River Agency. The command advanced through the canon, and they came to the old coal mine, and there was found the body of an Agency employee named Dresser. He had evidently been wounded and crawled into the mine to die. On entering the Agency a scene of quiet desolation presented itself. All the buildings except one were burned to the ground, not a living thing in sight except the command. The Indians had taken everything except the flour, and decamped. Women and children were missing, and nothing could be found to indicate what had become of them. Whether they have been murdered and burned, or else taken away as hostages, their dreadful and unmentionable fate calls forth most profound sympathy. The body of Father Meeker was found about one hundred yards from his house; the body of W. H. Post, Meeker's assistant, was also found, both stripped entirely naked; another employee named Taton was found dead, the face badly eaten by wolves. The bodies of Eaton, Thomson, Price and Kridge, and all the other employees, were also found. From this it appears the Indians are not alone in their hellish work. The supposition is the Indians have gone South to join the Southern Utes, and the impression among officers of Merritt's command is that the Indians who fought Thornburg numbered at least 700.

WASHINGTON, October 13.—A telegram to-night from Sheridan to Sherman says the latest official news from Merritt is dated 9th inst. He says he has been joined by Bryant's command and will send back the wounded next day and move against the Indians.

THE AFGHAN INSURRECTION

THE AMEER STRICTLY GUARDED.

GREAT LOSS OF THE ENEMY.

UTTER ROUTE OF THE AFGHAN ARMY.

GEN. ROBERT'S PUBLIC ENTRY INTO CABUL.

LONDON, October 13.—Despatches from Afghanistan state that the Ameer is strictly guarded. In the defeat of the Afghan army before Cabul the Afghans lost 400 killed.

A special of the 10th instant from the British camp before Cabul says when the cavalry returned from pursuing the enemy on the 9th instant they rode through Cabul. Some shops in the Bazaar were open, and the people sitting about all quiet.

A special from Allahabad says no quarter was given any one found firing upon the British. Prisoners were shot. The leaders of the mutineers are the Ameer's most trusted friends. (These statements are most improbable.)

[MIDNIGHT.]

LONDON, October 13.—General Sir F. Roberts telegraphs: "The Afghan troops have been completely routed. The tribes that assembled to fight have returned home. The heavy battery coming with the Khyber column can go back to India. The heavy guns and howitzers presented by the British to the Ameer are in our possession." Gen. Roberts visited the Bala-Hissar on the 11th instant and was to make a public entry into Cabul on the 12th instant. The most influential men of the city have paid their respects to him.

SIMLA, October 13.—Gen. Robert's public entry into Cabul took place at noon yesterday. He was accompanied by the Ameer and his suite. British troops of all arms lined the road and the artillery fired a salute when the British standard was hoisted on his entrance into the city. The 67th Regiment and the 5th Goorkas subsequently occupied the Bala-Hissar.

SIMLA, October 13.—The magazine blown up by the Afghans on the night of the 8th, was in the camp outside the city.

LAHORE, October 13.—Jellalabad was occupied yesterday by three British regiments and four guns. Allahabad and Bala Hissar will be victualled for five months. The Ameer approves of all that has been done now that the flight of the mutineers has averted the danger of sacking Cabul.

CRIMES AND ACCIDENTS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, October 13.—Yesterday afternoon a handsomely dressed woman entered the Burnet House and called for Mr. Hickey, advance agent of Miss Anderson, the actress. Hickey seemed a little annoyed, but entered the reception room. A moment later the report of a pistol was heard, and Hickey rushed from the room, the blood streaming from his head, exclaiming, "She shot me, arrest her, don't let her get away," and staggered into the arms of a gentleman. Another shot was heard; an employee rushed into the room to see the young woman fall to the floor, dying from a shot by her own hand. The woman was Miss Florence McDonald, of doubtful reputation, from Syracuse, N.Y., also the home of Hickey. Since he left Syracuse Miss McDonald has been following him, endeavouring to persuad him to return to her. Hickey refused, and told her he hoped for something better, probably marriage with Miss Anderson. This seems to have enraged her beyond measure, and she determined to take his life. She died in an hour after she shot herself. Hickey is still conscious but talks little. He gave the woman's name and admitted that he had been trying to get rid of her. In a diary found on the girl's person it shows that after his business relations with Miss Anderson his attentions in writing gradually lessened, and he finally sought to desert her entirely, telling her he loved Miss Anderson and hoped to make her his wife. Miss Anderson says the supposition that Hickey was making love to her is entirely unfounded. Another report states that Hickey will live unless inflammation supervenes. The murderess was a sporting woman in Syracuse and Hickey's mistress when he was managing a theatrical concert in that section. Her right name is Florence Smith; her parents sent her to a convent at Buffalo, but she ran away to Canada, and for some time lived with a car conductor named McDonald. Hickey was formerly a real estate broker in New York, and afterwards had a sawmill in Williamstown, Oswego County, which he exchanged for the Academy of Music in Auburn. He afterwards managed the Oil City Opera House and the Barton Opera House in Syracuse, but was unsuccessful in his ventures until he undertook Miss Anderson's management, in which he was very successful.

HALIFAX, October 11.—A young man named Murphy, of River Head, Harbour Grace, Nfld., and two others named Coughlan, of Topsail Road, and Cleary, of St. Johns; were killed by a land slip which occurred at Belt's Cove, Newfoundland mines.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., October 11.—Judge Henry Hayden, of Wood County Court, well-known throughout the States, was shot and killed at Centralia, Wis., on Thursday, by W. H. Cochrane, cashier of the First National Bank. The affair grew out of the alleged intimacy of Hayden with Cochrane's wife. No words passed between the two, so it is supposed the killing was premeditated. The excitement at the time ran high, and threats of lynching were made. Cochrane has surrendered.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

"DIPLOMACY."

This favourite and interesting play will be presented to-night at the above house. It is unnecessary to say anything in its favour, for last winter it took complete hold of the public. Mr. and Mrs. Majeroni at that time played the roles of Count Orlof and Countess Zicka, and by their clever and powerful impersonations added much to the success of the piece. We are informed that the present company are, in point of ability, superior to the "Ward-Barrymore" one, and that "Diplomacy," well as it was played then, will be even better presented to-night. We confidently trust to see a good audience present, for the artists who take the leading characters are most deserving of a generous support.

SYNOD HALL.

READINGS.

The well known elocutionist, Mr. Neil Warner, will to-night give his first evening of the course of readings at the above Hall. We are glad, indeed, to announce that this pleasant and intelligent mode of pointing out the beauties of Shakespeare, Milton, Tennyson, Longfellow and other poets has been undertaken by so able and truthful an exponent of the dramatic art as Mr. Warner. As an elocutionist and a correct reader of English literature he has few equals, certainly no superiors in America to-day. He is so minute in detail in all he reads, and his action is so natural that the dullest mind cannot fail to grasp at once the true meaning of the authors language. By attending these readings, given as they will be by a finished and artistic elocutionist, many people who have been puzzled over some of the strange and deeply hidden points of Shakespeare and other poets will have them made plain. Again many other fair readers will gain much in listening to the correct intonation that will be given each word and phrase. These readings must, if our citizens will only give a generous support, do much good to the young in making them acquainted with the great moral truths to be found in the works of the early poets. We trust Mr. Warner's enterprise will be a success, no gentleman better deserves it at the hands of our citizens.

NORDHEIMER'S HALL.

Staring us from all the street cars, in all the newspapers, on circulars in our letter boxes and on cards tacked to the trees and telegraph poles, the fact that the De Cordova with "That Dog Next Door" will "speak in the meetin" next Thursday and Friday is announced. He deserves good houses.

In the same Hall, commencing next Monday, the most wonderful of all little Buttercups, all Cousin Hebes, all Josephines, all Sir Josephs, Ralph Rackstraws, Captains or Dick Deadeye's will appear in the famous Murphy's Minature "Pianofore" Co. of Boston, where for 106 consecutive times they really delighted the Hub. The Boston Herald says:—

The success which has attended the season of the Murphy Juvenile "Pianofore" company at the Boston Museum, is unprecedented in the annals of amusements in this city. For eleven weeks this Company has appeared daily, and often twice a day, to large and delighted audiences, which have shown the highest appreciation of the performance given. Though the Company is composed of boys and girls, there is nothing amateurish in their presentation of the opera, and the fresh, young voices give a charm to the beauties of Sullivan's music which cannot be too highly praised. As a whole the Company will well bear comparison with any of the organizations that have presented this favourite opera in this city, and the picture presented by the young lads and misses in the ensemble numbers, is strikingly novel and beautiful.

WILBOR'S COD-LIVER OIL AND LIME — The friends of persons who have been restored from confirmed Consumption by the use of this original preparation, and the grateful parties themselves, have, by recommending it and acknowledging its useful efficacy, given the article a vast popularity in New England. The Cod-Liver Oil is in this combination robbed of its unpleasant taste, and rendered doubly effective in being coupled with the Lime, which is itself a restorative principle, supplying nature with just the assistance required to heal and restore the diseased Lungs. A. B. WILBOR, Boston, proprietor. Sold by all druggists.

A CARD. To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretion of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure, FREE OF CHARGE. The monthly meeting of this body was held yesterday afternoon.

The following communications and were presented: From F. Braun, Secretary of the Department of Railways and Canals, stating that enquiries would be made with reference to the death of the late Daniel Wilson. From N. D. Whitney, on same subject. From W. Lachapelle, for permission to keep a wood-yard on the corner of Craig and Amherst streets. From John Dougall & Bros., for leave to erect a steam engine on Isaac lane, off St. Urbain street. From Provincial Board of Notaries, expressing thanks for the use of rooms in City Hall, during last session. An address from American Mining Engineers to His Worship the Mayor, expressing thanks for his address of welcome.

Alds. Gilman, Watson, Laurent, Donavan, Jeannotte, Gauthier, Hagar, Allard, and Holland presented numerously signed petitions from the tax-payers in their respective wards against the abolition of the private butchers' stalls.

Ald. HOLLAND said the petition he presented bore eighty-one signatures; it had been signed on the Merchants' Exchange.

COLLECTION OF WATER RATES.

The Special Committee on water rates reported that they had enquired into the proposition to make proprietors of real estate responsible for the water rates, and had come to the conclusion that it was not advisable to make any change in that direction. They recommend that the rates be collected in two equal instalments annually, and that a discount of 20 per cent. be allowed to those who pay the whole amount on or before the 15th August, and that two collectors be appointed at a salary of $1 per day and one per cent. commission. —Consideration of the report deferred.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

His Worship the MAYOR, in answer to Ald. Allard, said that he had submitted certain interrogatories to the City Attorney which had been answered as follows: 1st. The Treasurer had no right to pay the salaries of employees in advance; 2nd. As to whether employees had the right to attack members of the Council in the newspapers, he replied that it was for the Committee under whose authority the employee might be to make enquiries and report to the Council. He might say that the Council had not the right to prevent employees writing in the newspapers.

WIDENING OF ST. BONAVENTURE STREET.

On motion of Ald. HOOD, seconded by Ald GRENIER, the reports from the Road and Finance Committees to widen Bonaventure street and St. Michael's lane, to the G. T. R. Station, were adopted.

COAL CONTRACT.

Ald. WILSON asked by whose authority coal was being supplied to the City Hall when the Committee had decided to advertise for new tenders?

Ald. ROBERT said the Contractor had sent the coal on his own responsibility.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

The resignation of Ald. Childs was accepted on motion of Ald. GRENIER, seconded by Ald. PROCTOR, and a writ ordered to issue for a new election.

His Worship the MAYOR and Ald. GRENIER paid a compliment to Ald. Childs.

THE BUTCHERS' STALLS.

On the order to consider the expediency of granting leave to open private butchers' stalls being called,

Ald. McCOAN thought it was not expedient to go on to-day.

Ald. GRENIER suggested that the matter should lie over until a decision had been obtained in the Courts.

Ald. THIBAULT moved, seconded by Ald. GREENE, that the question be postponed to another meeting to await the dicision of the Courts.

Ald. DONOVAN would be prepared to abolish private stalls if the citizens were prepared to abolish them, not otherwise.

Ald. MCSHANE thought the question should be disposed of at once. He moved, seconded by Ald. Gilman, that this order be struck off the paper altogether.

The Council divided on Ald. McShane's amendment which was lost. Yeas, 6; nays, 19.

Ald. MCSHANE moved, seconded by Ald. GILMAN, that this Council go into Committee of the Whole to consider the question of private butchers' stalls.

Ald. HOLLAND moved, seconded by Ald. ALLARD, that in the opinion of this Council it is expedient to adhere to the by-law now in force concerning private butchers' stalls, and that the resolution adopted by Council on 11th June to do away with said stalls after 1st May next be reconsidered and annulled.

Motion ruled out of order.

Ald. Thibault's motion to postpone the consideration of the subject was then put and carried—Yeas, 20; nays, 5.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

On motion of Ald. GRENIER, three month's leave of absence was granted to Ald. Greene.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

On motion of Ald. NELSON, seconded by Ald. GRENIER, Ald. Proctor was appointed on the Finance Committe in the room of Ald. Childs, resigned.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Ald. GRENIER moved the appointment of Ald. Gilman as Chairman of the Board of Health in the room of Ald. Childs.

Ald. HOLLAND moved in amendment that Ald. Allard be substituted. (Laughter)

Ald. ALLARD said as he had a notice of motion to abolish the Board of Health, or rather to transfer its work to the Police Department, he hoped his friends would not insist. He moved in amendment that Ald. Genereux, who had filled the place of Chairman in Ald. Childs' absence be continued. Lost on division.

Ald. Holland's amendment was then put and carried.

Ald. Nelson was then appointed a member of the Board of Health.

THE NEW NORMAL SCHOOL.

The reports of the Road and Finance Committees recommending an appropriation of $400 for a sidwalk in front of the Normal School in Sherbrooke street, were adopted.

The Council adjourned.

MONTREAL VETERINARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

This Association held its first meeting for session 1879-80 on Thursday evening last, October 9th, in the Lecture-room of the College. The President, Principal McEachran, in the chair, with a very fair attendance of members. The President briefly reviewed the history of the Association since its first formation in 1875. It was gratifying to notice the continued and increasing interest manifested by the members in the meetings. He directed the attention of the younger members to the great benefits they would derive from their connection with it the papers read being always most interesting as well as instructive and frequently on subjects not fully treated upon in the regular curriculum, the discussions that followed were a great advantage to them. The library, containing as it did nearly three hundred volumes, many of them being rare and valuable works, was always at their disposal. It afforded him great pleasure to be able to inform them that the number of books was constantly being increased by donations from friends of the Association. Several volumes had recently been received from Messrs. Fenwick, M.D., A. Lientard, M.D., and C. C. Lyford, M.D., V.S. In conclusion he would state that the success of the Association had exceeded his most sanguine expectations, and he would urge upon the members the necessity of continued exertion to maintain its reputation.

A vote of thanks was proposed and carried unanimously to Drs. Fenwick, Lintard, and Lyford for their kind donations to the library.

The following are the officers of the Association:—D. McEachran, F. R. C. V. S., Honorary President; William Osler, M.D., L.R.C.P.S., President; C. J. Alloway, V.S., First Vice-President; James Bell, M. D., Second Vice President; M. S. Brown, Secretary and Treasurer; William Jakeman, Librarian. The new members proposed were as follows:—Messrs. F. Torrance, Compton, P.Q.; A. J. Chandler, Coaticook, Que; F. Thomas, J. Skaily, Boston, Mass.; F. Dundin, Salem, N.Y.; A. Glass, Philadelphia, Penn.; W. Wardle, Montreal.

At the next meeting, 23rd instant, Principal McEachran will read a paper on contagious pleuro-pneumonia, a subject that at the present time is one of special interest, not only to members of the profession, but to all interested in the breeding and exportation of cattle, and Mr. M. S. Brown will communicate a case.
