AUSSIES SMASH THROUGH BORNEO OIL PORT

World News In Brief

Prague, July 5.—(P)—Bodies of 930 persons—possibly including some Canadians—who died in a Gestapo march of death have been recovered by Czechoslovak authorities who completed opening of eight mass graves near Karlsbad yesterday.

Czech officials said some Canadian and New Zealand prisoners of war almost certainly were among the victims, but that none had been positively identified as such. Some 587 bodies still are unidentified.

The march of death took place in the last weeks of the war as the Germans emptied their central and eastern camps and tried to mass thousands of prisoners in the giant Theresienstadt camp north of Prague.

Toronto, July 5.—(CP)—Names of Harry Nixon and Eric Cross, Premier and Attorney General respectively in Ontario's 1943 Liberal administration, yesterday were added to the list of scheduled witnesses in the Royal Commission inquiry into C.C.F. Leader E. B. Joffe's charge that the succeeding government of Premier Drew set up a "political Gestapo."

Winnipeg, July 5.—(CP)—One of eight persons seriously injured in the Red Lake, Ont., hotel fire Sunday morning, Andrew Szasza, died in hospital here today. The death was the eighth due to the fire.

Saurau was a hero of the tragedy in the northwestern Ontario mining centre. He rescued three persons, who might have perished had he not returned into the flaming building to drag them out.

Chicago, July 5.—(P)—The United States government's efforts to end the 20-day-old strike of 16,700 United Rubber workers (C.I.O.) at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company in Akron, O., appeared near a final showdown today.

As the groundwork was laid for the apparent federal seizure of the strike-bound plants, workers and company officials maintained an attitude of "watchful waiting" on the government's next move.

Moscow, July 5.—(P)—Red Star reported today that the Russians had arrested a pistol-packing woman Nazi who had formed a Hitler youth organization at Zhdanov, 25 miles north of Berlin.

Rising City, Neb., July 5.—(P)—Six persons were killed and at least 12 critically injured by a tornado which swept a path five miles long and two wide north and west of Rising City last night.

Twenty miles southeast of Seward, Neb., what apparently was the same storm bore down on a grandstand housing spectators.

Australia Mourns Passing Of Prime Minister Curtin

Canberra, July 5.—(P)—John Curtin, Australia's Labor Prime Minister since 1941 and proponent of Empire collaboration, was mourned today by citizens of this "down under" Dominion he helped rally in the days of Japan's Pacific triumphs and saw become a great springboard for action against the battered Nipponese.

The 60-year-old Government Leader, whose party won power with the defeat of the Coalition in 1941 and triumphed in the 1943 election, died in his sleep early today after a long illness with a recurring lung ailment and heart condition. Medical advisers said the death was due to coronary thrombosis.

A state service will be held here Friday. The funeral service will be at Perth, Western Australia, probably on Sunday.

Illness had prevented Mr. Curtin attending the United Nations conference at San Francisco where Army Minister Francis Forde and Dr. H. V. Evatt, External Affairs Minister, represented the Commonwealth.

Mr. Forde, acting Prime Minister, announced his death. With Commonwealth Treasurer John Chifley, Mr. Forde is mentioned as a possible successor to the former policeman's son who reached the Government's leadership after a long career in labor activities.

Main Jap Force Is Retreating Toward Heart Of Oil Area

Artillery Duels With Strongly Placed Enemy Guns Across Three-Mile-Wide Balikpapan Bay—MacArthur Says Philippine Islands Won Back in "Greatest Disaster Ever Sustained By Japanese Arms."

Manila, July 5.—(P)—Australian infantrymen struck today at the last Japanese footholds in Balikpapan, Borneo's major oil port, which already for all practical purposes is in Allied hands.

Artillery duels, meanwhile, with strongly placed enemy guns across the three-mile-wide Balikpapan Bay while engineers rushed reconstruction of captured Sepinggang air strip and a column smashed against strong opposition in a drive to envelop Manggar, last major enemy air field in the invasion territory.

Three columns of the tropic-hardened Australians, who swept through the heart of the burned and devastated central city yesterday, joined in a headlong smash against the final refinery area of Pandanari, as the main Japanese forces appeared to be withdrawing to the north-east toward Samarinda in the heart of the oil producing region.

An Australian unit swept in an encircling movement on Pandanari from the ridges which overlooked and controlled the central dock and industrial areas of Balikpapan. Still another column pushed after the retreating enemy on the Samarinda road with the help of strong naval gun fire and artillery support.

Australians shoving to within four miles of Manggar airfield, more than ten miles north of Balikpapan, met strong opposition along the highway from Sepinggang, whose area was so pitted, mined and cratered that equipment for reconstruction had to be delivered by landing craft from the sea.

All the Philippine islands have been won back in "the greatest disaster ever sustained by Japanese arms," Gen. Douglas MacArthur said today and their 115,600 square miles are being transformed into bases "comparable to the British islands" to spur the march on Tokyo.

A spokesman estimated that possibly 30,000 Japanese survive in all the Archipelago, cut up into groups and driven into mountains where they are reduced to guerrilla activity.

A fleet of 500 Superfortresses fire-bombed four Japanese mainland cities, leaving them in flames set off by 3,000 tons of incendiaries.

The B-29 attack was followed by a force of more than 150 fighters which went on an aerial rampage, flying over hundreds of miles of Japan's home soil looking for Japan's air force and ground targets.

The fighters destroyed eight planes on the ground, damaged 24 more, and then roamed at will, shooting up six airfields, radio stations, freight cars, control towers, ammunition sheds, gas tanks and power plants.

Imba and Nobara airfields at Tokyo proper were hit, and to the northeast Kashiwa, Tsukuba, Konoike and Kasumigaura felt the fighter planes' wrath.

Australian Air Force planes flying from Sepinggang strip already are acting as observers for artillery and naval fire against Japanese positions and engineers at the field estimated it could be expanded to accommodate Allied bombers as well as fighter planes.

The Independent Manchester Guardian, sometimes listed as Liberal, yesterday suggested "the possibility of a combined Liberal and Labor majority sufficient to form a Government of the left."

PARLIAMENT TO BE ELECTED IN BRITAIN TODAY

Main Issue, Free Enterprise Versus Socialism. Will Indicate Europe's Post-War Political Trend.

By DON DOANE
London, July 5.—(P)—Britain is voting today to decide the bitterly debated issue of free enterprise versus socialism in a general election watched by the world for an indication of Europe's post-war political trend—left or right.

In the country's stormiest campaign in decades the Conservative Party led by Prime Minister Churchill supported its traditional policy of freedom of economic enterprise.

The Labor Party headed by Clement Attlee demanded the nationalization of four basic industries with the announced aim of eventually establishing a "socialist" commonwealth of Great Britain.

Results will not be known until July 26th because the absentee soldier vote will remain to be counted, but both sides voiced the usual election eve confidence in the outcome.

Conservative newspapers speculated on a majority of up to 100 seats for their party, which had a 52-seat majority in the last House of Commons, elected ten years ago.

However, the Labor Daily Herald said: "All indications are that today's poll will overwhelmingly confirm the swing to labor which, months before the campaign began, was freely admitted in Tory circles."

THREE RIVERS REGIMENT HAS FINE RECORD

By WILLIAM BOSS
Canadian Press War Correspondent
With the First Canadian Army, July 5.—(P)—More than 100 men of the Three Rivers Regiment were killed in Sicily and Italy but action in the Northwest European theatre cost this tank unit only three casualties, all of them recovering.

In the late April advance west of Apeldoorn in Holland, Lieut. Bill Prince of Sunnybrook, N.B., and Cpl. W. (Ken) Thompson of London and St. Marys, Ont., were wounded by a sniper and Sgt. Tom Bullbrook of North Bay, Ont., suffered head injuries when an 88-millimetre shell knocked over the turret flap on his tank.

This was the occasion when Three Rivers squadrons under Maj. Frank Simard, Montreal, D. R. Cameron, Vernon, B.C., and F. W. Johnson, Three Rivers, with First Divisional Infantry riding the Sherman and Stuart tanks, drove out west of Apeldoorn and forced the Germans back onto the Grebbe Line.

Desperately seeking a way out of their predicament the retreating enemy tried to cut across the line being developed north of Arnhem by the 5th Canadian Armored Division. The epic battle of Otterloo in which the Divisional Headquarters and the 17th Field Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery, whipped them to a standstill was precipitated directly by the Three Rivers manoeuvre.

The regiment landed at Marseilles March 6 in the switch from Italian to European theatres. Then it made a beeline for the Belgian concentration area near Menin and on April 9 moved on toward the front.

For some days it was held in reserve in the Reichswald Forest, then was called upon to provide flank protection for the capture of Zutphen, key Nijmegen town. Stuart tanks under Maj. Simard and dismounted troopers under Capt. Dick Cooks of Montreal, were on the job.

At Doesburg later, Lieut. H. D. Beach of Enfield, Sask., intelligence officer at Regimental Headquarters, supervised the surrender to the Three Rivers Regiment of the entire garrison, comprising Russians conscripted into the German army who massacred their Nazi commanders before coming over to the Canadian lines.

At Apeldoorn, with 1st Division Infantry aboard, the Three Rivers tanks swept forward to points north of Amersfoort and along the Utrecht-Edde Highway to Ede, pushing the enemy behind his Grebbe line. They were holding these positions when the German capitulation came May 5.

During the formal liberation of Western Holland Maj. Simard's squadron went to Delft while Maj. Cameron's occupied Haarlem. Maj. Johnson's squadron and Regimental Headquarters remained in reserve west of Apeldoorn.

A pilot jumping back into central Holland near Veendam, the Regiment held a memorial parade conducted by its parades, Hon. Maj. W. M. Higgs of Vancouver and Hon. Maj. M. A. Minville of Winnipeg.

Three hundred "originals"—men who landed with the unit in Sicily more than a year ago—are still with the Three Rivers Regiment, 100 of them men who had combat roles. The total killed since the unit left England is 112.

Twenty-three battles are in the unit's long fighting record: Sicily—Granichele, Piazza Agira, Leonforte, Nessoria, Agira, Regalbuto and Adriano.

Italy—Termoli, Ortona, Arielli, Cassino, Gustav Line, Hitler Line.

Canadian Troops In German Capital

By WILLIAM BOSS
Canadian Press War Correspondent

Berlin, July 5.—(C.P. Cable)—Canada's "Berlin Battalion," commanded by Lt. Col. A. F. Coffin of Medicine Hat, Alta., who preceded his troops into the German capital, today had a free day in which to get their bearings in the Wilmsdorf area where they are garrisoned.

Their first official appearance will be tomorrow when they parade for an official flag-raising ceremony which will indicate that British forces have taken over their sector from the Russians. The locale is believed to be in the Tiergarten area and the pipe band of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders from Hamilton, Ont.—the only Highland band in Berlin—is to play a prominent part.

It is expected there will be a victory parade to coincide with the Big Three visit later this month and preparations already are in progress for it. A rehearsal by British troops—including the Canadian battalion—is possible next week, perhaps Monday.

Exactly two months after the order to cease fire went out along the Canadian front in Germany and Holland, the Canadians entered Berlin last night as part of the British garrison force.

A pilot jeep, driven by Pte. Roy McDonald, of Greenwood, Ont., and carrying Maj. Roy MacKenzie, of Sarnia, Ont., second in command, led the composite battalion including men from the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, Hamilton, Ont., Les Fusiliers Mont-Royal, Montreal, and the Loyal Edmonton Regiment into the capital at 7 p.m. after a 13 1/2-hour trip which began at Brunswick.

ALLIES AIDING IN SETTLEMENT OF SLOVAK JEWS

By A. I. GOLDBERG

Bratislava, July 5.—(P)—Jews in Slovakia are walking the streets as free men again, but complain of slowness in dealing with the problem of restoring their homes and business properties.

Government heads agree that there has been some delay in untangling the intricate business deals whereby Jewish properties were confiscated and then sold to Slovak citizens, but they insist that they are following up their first official act—abolition of race decrees—and trying to work out the problem in a manner fair to all. "We are trying hard," they say, "and must go slowly."

Russian occupation troops are re-creating the situation, saying it is a problem for the local government. Armin Frieder, Chief Rabbi of Slovakia, who was sheltered from the Germans by Franciscan monks at Bezka during the uprising against Puppet Premier Joseph Tiso last September, is now back at the head of his flock of 9,000 Jews.

His wife and child were among 3,000 killed during the German roundup of Jews when the uprising started.

Two thousand of Bratislava's Jews died in the roundup, and 60,000 Jews taken out of Slovakia in 1942, only 500 are known to be alive.

The local committee executive, Hugo Colman, said the principal task is to help hundreds of Jews passing through here daily to reach their homes in the Danube Valley.

Colman said his group deals chiefly with transient refugees, feeding them in a soup kitchen he set up and giving them 300 crowns (about fifty cents) for travel expenses.

ELECTIONS IN FRANCE WILL BE DISCUSSED

Paris, July 5.—(Reuters)—The most important internal political decision which the French Provisional Government has had to take since the liberation, will be considered by the French Cabinet when it discusses the form of the general election at a special meeting Saturday.

In preparation for Gen. de Gaulle's Bastille Day announcement July 14th, the cabinet will have to decide whether to hold elections for the Senate and Chamber of Deputies on the basis of the pre-war constitution or whether to make a radical break with the past and hold elections for what is known as the constituent assembly.

The issue is fundamental and depends largely on Gen. de Gaulle's personal decision, which may easily prove the most momentous he has had to make.

Controversy has been fierce. One school of thought seeks an election on the basis of the pre-war constitution, leaving constitutional reforms, which nearly everyone favors, to the newly-elected representatives of the people.

This plan has the support of the Radical Party and of the moderate elements, and recently the Catholic Party has likewise tended to veer in this direction.

Gen. de Gaulle is reliably reported to be in favor of this solution because, as he hinted clearly a few days ago, the country needs something new, but at the same time must retain its links with the past.

The second school is led by the Communist Party and so far has the support of the Socialist Party, headed by Leon Blum, as well as the left-

ABDICATION OF KING LEOPOLD NOW UNCERTAIN

Brussels, July 5.—(C.P. Cable)—The Belgian crisis over King Leopold's abdication drags on and the capital is knee-deep in rumors and counter-rumors with "clocks-and-dagger" politics in the best European tradition being played in government departments as the mystery of the monarch's intentions thickens.

The situation has many qualities of a political farce and would be if the postponement of vital decisions were not a tragedy for Belgium. More than ever the current issue is interfering with the country's sincere efforts to get back on its feet. Government, business and commerce are tied up by uncertainty.

Intra-government arguments continue and both the supporters and opponents of King Leopold are handing out "hot tips" which only confuse further the already muddled issue.

Most people in Brussels who have followed the situation closely still believe firmly that the king will abdicate and that some procedure will be settled upon to cushion as much as possible the repercussions from his act, particularly with regard to the conservative Catholic party which supports the king, and the Flemish people of northern Belgium, who also lean toward the monarch.

However, Wednesday night a report circulated in government circles that the king insists both he and the regent be retained until a general election so that the monarch can determine definitely the feelings of the people.

However, such a suggestion is receiving a poor reception. Some say a king cannot be subject to election. It also was pointed out that it would take several months probably to prepare up-to-date electoral lists to ensure a fair election. The present list is eight years old and the underground tampered with it during the occupation because the Germans used it to call up labor drafts.

The outlook for the home islands of Japan is bleak. Daily our raids are demonstrating that Japan is much more vulnerable to bombing than was Germany—and the air attack was one of the prime factors in bringing the Reich to its knees. The paralysis which overtook Naxos will come to Japan much more quickly because of the flimsy construction of most of its cities and towns which succumb to incendiary bombs like tinder. Thus far we have destroyed areas exceeding a total of 17 square miles.

Tokyo spokesmen acknowledge—as they must—that their country is ill equipped to fight such attacks. However, they say that new fighter planes are being built in underground factories and will provide the answer. Probably they have built some underground factories, but thus far we haven't seen any results which would indicate that underground production is extensive.

Anyway, Japan is going to be slashed to ribbons with bombs—unless she surrenders. Annihilation is the alternative, and one wonders how long the civilian population will be able to stand up under such a rain of death, coupled with the hunger which they face because of the blockade. It's reasonable to believe that, despite their fatalistic fanaticism, they have their cracking point.

So things go well with our attack against Japan proper. We should remember, though, that capitulation of Nippon doesn't necessarily mean the surrender of her forces on the continent where she has 2,000,000 men and large resources for making war. That's one of the impediments.

More than 250 men, women and children had been cremated since last November, the officers said. Other experimental stations included one at Harhausen near Linz in Austria, described as a major one, and smaller ones at Grafenack, Wuestenberg and Gueburg in Bavaria, it was reported.

Extra Bonus For Killing Children

Munich, July 5.—(P)—A Nazi "scientific starvation" station, whose grisly experiments on children and adults were claiming victims until only a few days ago, has been uncovered in Bavaria by two public health officials of the American Military Government.

Allied Military Government authorities announced last night that four German doctors and three hospital attendants had been arrested at the station in the Kaufbeuren area, 45 miles southeast of Munich. One woman nurse confessed killing 211 children, for which she drew an extra bonus, the statement said.

The station, marked under the title of a public sanatorium, was one of a series of systematic starvation and drug experiment laboratories scattered throughout Bavaria and Austria, the authorities said. Those who died were cremated.

Those under arrest included Dr. Valentin Faltheuser, 63, charged with operating the station; Franziska Vill, his secretary-for-administrator; and the head nurse of one of the children's wards, a woman named Worle.

Toronto Trams Resume After Electrical Workers' Strike

Toronto, July 5.—(P)—Toronto's street cars started to move again at 11 a.m. E.D.T., today, about 2 1/2 hours after they came to a halt when electrical workers pulled the sub-stations switches that gave them power.

Toronto Transportation Commission officials announced that "The full service" was resumed at 11:35 and that "there will be a statement very shortly." They declined to say whether the strike was over.

While police herded traffic around street cars halted in street after street, the Commission—with a staff of 3,500 persons—issued a statement that the "illegal" strike came "with out any knowledge on the part of the Commission that such action was contemplated."

The statement said the action was taken while a long-festering dispute involving a five cents an hour wage increase for the electrical workers was "before the tribunals directed to deal with such matters by the Dominion Government." It added that the action was taken "while active negotiations were being carried on by a negotiator appointed by the Department of Labor."

Allied Aerial Blows At Japan

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Allied aerial bombardment of Japan has progressed far enough so we can say with assurance that, between this increasingly intense bombing and the Allied blockade, the Mikado's home island could be crippled prior to invasion—if our high command should decide to pursue such tactics.

One suspects that the Allies intend to anesthetize Nippon so far as possible before undertaking amphibious operations and thus reduce our casualties. Certainly invasion will be a nasty job unless the islands are thoroughly stunned in advance. Apropos of this, Tokyo claims that a chain of powerful underground fortresses, girdling the entire coastline of the main island, is being rushed to completion.

I don't believe we want to dispute that claim, for it may easily be true. However, three or four months of such bombing as we carried out yesterday could make a mighty difference in the efficacy of coastal defenses.

We are just beginning to get going in a big way with our bombing of Japan proper, and things are moving well. The Tokyo radio admits that 4,900,000 Japanese were killed, injured or made homeless by bombing of Tokyo, Osaka, Yokohama, Nagoya and Kobe up to May 31. The broadcast said that 1,135,000 homes were destroyed in these cities.

What's more to the point, as long ago as the middle of May, Maj. Gen. Curtis LeMay, chief of the United States 21st Bomber Command, said that the B-29's had knocked out, or nearly knocked out, war production in these key cities of Japan. That's a terrific blow to the Mikado's fighting machine.

Some 26 of Japan's most important industrial cities have now been deluged with incendiary bombs by the giant B-29's. Not only are bombers seeking out all the manufacturing centres, but are aiming at the so-called "backyard" industries which produce many cheaply built suicide planes. The ports and rail communications will come under increasingly heavy attack as more Allied air power is available and as Okinawa is developed for big-scale operations.

The outlook for the home islands of Japan is bleak. Daily our raids are demonstrating that Japan is much more vulnerable to bombing than was Germany—and the air attack was one of the prime factors in bringing the Reich to its knees. Disgruntled Canadians At Aldershot Staged Rioting

By DOUGLAS AMARON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Aldershot, England, July 5.—(C.P. Cable)—The heart of the business section of this Surrey army town was a shambles today after hundreds of Canadian soldiers staged a riotous demonstration last night in which nearly all the plate glass windows for blocks around were smashed. The rioters were troops from depots awaiting transportation home to Canada.

Maj. Gen. Dan Spry, of Winnipeg, officer commanding the Canadian reinforcement units, reprimanded the soldiers in the parade square this morning for the "school-boyish action" of "twenty or thirty" of their number. He said that was the sort of thing that would "undermine the good reputation Canadians have built up on the battle-field."

Gen. Spry said he had been told the men had three complaints, lack of shipping space, food and pay. He explained the reasons why there was a shipping space shortage which was delaying repatriation of Canadian troops overseas.

He said that as far as food was concerned, they were on home establishment rations, which was less than they got in the field, but far more than British civilians were getting. Gen. Spry acknowledged that the men had a legitimate pay grievance.

The men had drawn their pay when they left on embarkation leave, and found they had no money left when their sailings were delayed. He promised that they would be able to draw more money later today.

Gen. Spry was acting for Maj. Gen. P. J. Montague, Chief of Staff at Canadian Military Headquarters in London, who was not expected to come here.

The outbreak started without warning and the streets are littered with glass and debris today. Canadian Provost officers said as far as is known, no one was hurt during the disturbance.

One man was reported to have been taken into custody, but service police generally did not interfere with the soldiers. More than 200 British and Canadian Provost Corps reinforcements were rushed to the district, but were not used for fear of precipitating a major fight and causing more severe damage.

Cause of the disturbance was not known definitely. However, many civilians who watched the outbreak said they were told by Canadian soldiers of grievances over delay in their return to Canada, complications in regard to pay while they were awaiting transport and criticism of "fleeing" tactics by some Aldershot shopkeepers.

It was perhaps significant that the incident came only a few hours after a statement was issued in Ottawa saying that only 101,430 army personnel will be repatriated between July 1st and the end of the year.

Rioting started about 10 p. m. after an open air political meeting which was attended by some Canadian soldiers stationed at the camp. Troops gathered on street corners and then someone broke a window. That started the wide-spread disturbance.

One Provost officer said as many as 3,000 servicemen took part in the outbreak, but other estimates ranged down to 700 men involved.

In a short time there was glass everywhere along several blocks of High Street and along roadways branching from it. A stone was thrown in a shoestore window and several men grabbed heavy boots, using the heels as hammers to break other windows.

The glass display case windows in front of a large movie house were all smashed and jars suffered the same treatment. A pub of ham, taken from the window of one grocery store, was hurled through the window of another business establishment.

One shoe store manager, who had removed the stock from his windows on V-E Day because he feared a demonstration, said nothing had happened then. But this morning he stood looking ruefully at the broken windows of his store and the scattered boots and shoes.

"What a silly, senseless thing to do," was typical comment of Aldershot residents who walked gingerly through the broken glass scattered on the streets.

Provost officers and men and civilians were emphatic that there was no drunkenness among the rampaging troops.

The incident ended about 12:30 a.m. when the Canadian servicemen returned to their barracks of their own accord.

One report said that some soldiers burned to the ground a camp in the vicinity, known as "Tin Town." The Press Association placed the damage as "thousands of pounds," but this was not confirmed and no authoritative estimate was placed on the damage.

One resident said soldiers "went about in small groups smashing every bit of glass they could see. When they found nothing else to break up they went quietly back to their barracks."

London papers gave the story front-page space and the Daily Mail quoted one soldier as saying: "This is nothing compared to what you'll see tonight unless they arrange a boat for us."

The rioting last night recalled incidents in 1919 when Canadian troops rioted while awaiting transportation home following the First Great War.

Three rioters and two men on picked duty were killed and 21 others were injured in rioting at Kimmel Park, near Liverpool, on March 4th and 5th of that year. A court martial tried 38 cases involving fifty men. Seventeen were acquitted, 27 convicted of mutiny and six convicted on minor charges.

At Epsom on June 17th, about 400 soldiers attacked the police station in an effort to release some Canadian prisoners. Several British policemen were wounded and one died. Five Canadians were convicted of manslaughter and received a year's imprisonment.

On June 19th, 1919, following delays in transportation aggravated by dock workers' strikes at Liverpool, a demonstration took place at Witley Camp during which several buildings were burned and several men injured.

wing resistance groups. They want an immediate break with all the institutions of the past and, therefore, urge that the elections be held for a single constituent assembly which would have full legislative powers to which the Government would be responsible and which, according to Communist speakers at the recent Communist Party Congress, would directly control not only the Government but also the police force and the army.

But Gen. de Gaulle is believed to have made up his mind that the election of two chambers is the proper democratic method, and is reported he will make it an issue of confidence, being prepared to abandon power if he is not supported.

played a standstill role. Mr. Churchill declared last night: "All over the world people are looking to Britain. They are looking from the continent of Europe to see which way Britain is going to go. If there should be a landslide to the left, many countries would slide into the violence of Communism. If we go down all the ninetens of Europe will fall."

Mr. Attlee, likely successor as Prime Minister if the Labor Party wins, told voters in a final speech: "Labor will organize the economic life of the country in order to insure good homes, food, clothing, leisure, security, employment, leisure, freedom and the amenities of life for everybody. This has never been done under the system of 'private interests first' which the Conservatives support."

Industries Labor would organize are coal, mining, power, inland transport and iron and steel. Their platform also calls for public control of the Bank of England.

All voting will not take place today. It is estimated 25,000,000 or more votes will be cast.

ADRIEN ARCAND RELEASED FROM N.B. INTERMENT

Pre-War Leader of National Unity Party Now in Montreal After Five Years in Internment Camp in New Brunswick.

Montreal, July 5.—(C.P.)—Adrien Arcand, self-styled Führer of the pre-war National Unity Party, who spent more than five years in a Fredericton, N.B., internment camp for violations of Defence of Canada Regulations, arrived in Montreal last night. His release from internment camp was said to have taken place Tuesday.

Arcand reported at Royal Canadian Mounted Police Headquarters on his arrival here but conditions of his release were not immediately disclosed. It was learned, however, that other "lesser-known" men interned for similar violations of Defence of Canada were released some time ago.

Arcand, whose Party adopted black shirts with a superimposed flaming torch symbol, was interned in June, 1940, with ten of his lieutenants, after a non-completed court hearing brought evidence that the Nazi-supporting party planned to take over Canada "sometime in 1940."

Preliminary hearing on charges laid under the Defence of Canada Regulations was adjourned indefinitely when the late Justice Minister Lapointe ordered internment of the men. The order came after Judge DeSerres recommended that the Attorney-General investigate some of the exhibits produced at the hearing "which lead me to believe there has been a conspiracy against the state."

The exhibits were from six truckloads of material seized in a series of R.C.M.P. raids on the homes and offices of members of the Canadian Fascist Organization.

An eight-page plan, said by the Crown to show how the party intended to administer the finances of Canada after it had taken it over, was introduced as evidence. The Crown said that plan called for taking over "something in 1940" and was dated February 15, 1940.

of war, to merge the Labor Party into a National Government. At the same time he made it clear Labor would back the war effort wholeheartedly.

When the Commonwealth was threatened with invasion by Japan, he devoted all his efforts, despite ill-health, to building up her strength for defensive, and then, offensive action.

The Prime Minister championed Empire collaboration and at the 1944 conference of Empire Prime Ministers in London advocated an empire secretariat. He visited Canada after that conference and also went to the United States to confer with President Roosevelt.

majority of employees it "cannot yield to intimidation and unlawful action."

Mayor Robert Saunders, appealed to in the earlier phases of the dispute, said he would make no statement until receiving more details. Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell was en route to Toronto from Ottawa on other business.

Street cars still ran on some lines in the city, such as St. Claire Avenue—and in suburban areas which are served direct from hydro sub-stations.

The striking employees man four of the 11 sub-stations which supply the power to operate the street cars. The other seven are manned by employees of the Toronto Hydro-Electric Power Commission who, one time threatened a sympathy strike if the T.T.C. workers struck.

Police headquarters sent squads to the sub-stations to stand guard and prevent any possible damage. As surprised as anybody in some cases were the operators of the street cars. In one case a dispatcher at a North Toronto terminal was just about to send a car north when the power went off.

Taxi cab firms reported their cars tripping up with loads and their phones swamped with calls. Firemen looked with anxious eyes on the stationary cars, possible obstacles for them in case of an emergency.

It was noticeable that the power did not go off until the normal morning rush of workers ended about nine o'clock. The first inconvenienced persons were those whose office hours started after nine.

The climax of the problem will come when the hundreds of thousands of people who work in the industrial areas and the congested downtown business section try to get home after work.

On downtown streets at 10 a.m., operators sat alone in their stalled cars while crowds of people walked by on the sidewalks. On Yonge and Richmond Streets little clusters of the cars huddled near one another, powerless.

ZAKAIB.—In loving memory of my only dearly beloved Phil (LAC. Philip George Zakaib), who passed away on July 5th, 1944.

Dear God, with this message take,
For one who walks the golden way,
He is my own, my very best,
Whom I love, all are empty days,
Without him I am lost in the night,
In that Kingdom up above,
Tell him that I miss him always,
And I send him all my love.

Dear God, you will know my Philip,
By the beauty of his smile,
With love to say I'm coming home,
Home in just a little while,
Sadly missed and longed for
BY HIS MOTHER.

That death would be the end of his being,
The call was sudden, the shock severe,
To part with one I loved so dear,
And wonder why he had to die,
Without a chance to say good-bye,
Always remembered by HIS SISTER, KATIE.

IN MEMORIAM

To hear your voice, to see your smile,
To hear you say, "I love you,"
To love you back, to feel your heart,
I never did, or ever will, forget you Philip dear.

Provision Of New Park In North Ward Approved At Council Session

The creation of a new park on the Beckett Road to bear the name of St. Alphonse Park was approved at a special session of the City Council yesterday afternoon, when some twenty lots in the vicinity of the Redemptorist Monastery were set aside for this purpose. The establishment of this park has been discussed for some time and a few days ago the members of St. Alphonse Parish petitioned the Council to take this move.

The report adopted yesterday said nothing about improving and equipping the property, merely providing for the reservation of the land, but it may be presumed that in the near future appropriations will be introduced for the needed expenditure.

Victoria Park also came in for its share of attention, one section of the report providing for the construction of five shelters at a cost of five hundred dollars and another calling for the leasing of the restaurant concession at this once-popular resort.

The bandstand on two city squares will also be painted, the City Clerk being authorized to call for tenders for the work of embellishing the kiosks at Dufresne Park

PRESENTATION TO J. E. LOIGNON BY Q.C.R. STAFF

J. Eugene Loignon, who has been in the employ of the Quebec Central Railway Company for twenty-six years, left the service yesterday to engage in other work, and on the occasion was presented by J. T. Hawkins, General Freight and Passenger Agent, on behalf of the officials and staff of the General Office of the Q. C. R. here with a travelling bag. Mr. Hawkins expressed the best wishes of the staff to Mr. Loignon, and wished him success and good health in his new work.

P. W. Johnston, recently retired from the Traffic Department, also participated in the presentation.

Mr. Loignon began work with the Q. C. R. as a stenographer at Thetford Mines on March 17, 1920, afterwards working at various stations on the line as Clerk, Freight Checker, Telegraph Operator and Assistant Agent. He joined the staff of the Traffic Department at Sherbrooke on May 28, 1929, holding several positions, with that of Rate Clerk at the time of resigning.

Justinia Fortier, 41, Drowns 36 Hours After Alice Gagnon's Death

Less than thirty-six hours after the tragic death of Alice Gagnon, who drowned in the Magog River on Tuesday afternoon, the holiday season claimed another victim. Justinia Fortier, 41, met her death yesterday evening, while bathing in the St. Francis River, about 20 yards upstream from the Carnation Milk factory.

Miss Fortier, who was employed in Montreal, was on her vacation, and was staying with her father, Jean Fortier, who resides at 439 Wellington Street South.

Together with two of her sisters, Anne Marie and Cecile, and two or three friends, she went swimming in the river opposite the internment camp. Suddenly, while less than fifteen feet from the shore, her friends saw her disappear into the water.

The search for the missing girl, but nothing could be seen of Miss Fortier. One of the girls rushed to Gilbert's garage, about a mile from the scene of the accident, and phoned the municipal police authorities.

That was at 5.55. A radio car and a truck from the fire department were immediately sent to the scene, and a search was started. Friends of Miss Fortier believe that she was seized with cramps, since she could swim quite well.

The search for the body was continued this morning under the personal direction of Chief of Police Moreau and Sgt. Gauthier. Three rowboats are searching the river, and dynamite has been employed. By noon police had not been successful.

In the meantime a coroner's jury turned in a verdict of accidental death at the inquest determining the circumstances of Alice Gagnon's death. Miss Gagnon drowned while swimming in the Magog River on Tuesday afternoon.

Chief witness at the inquest was G. E. Martineau, who had been at the scene of the accident. He explained to Coroner Armand Nadeau how he rushed to shore she was dead. Dr. Marin, who was called immediately, tried artificial respiration, but in vain.

Two other witnesses of the accident were also heard at the inquest, but they could add nothing to the statements of Mr. Martineau. After deliberating for only a few minutes, a verdict of accidental death was returned by the jurors.

Miss Fortier is survived by her father, Jean, four sisters, Anne Marie, Cecile, Bernadette and Francoise, and four brothers, Guy, Paul, Emile, Henri and Gerard.

SCOUTING AREA FOR DUTCH ELM TREE DISEASE

Warning is being issued to the inhabitants of this district to be on guard against a disease which is always fatal and against which the only acceptable expedient is to isolate and dismember the patient. Fortunately humans are not susceptible to this germ, or rather this fungus, since it attacks trees only and, to be specific, elm trees only. However, the Dominion Government considers prevention of the spread of this disease, officially known as Dutch elm disease, of such importance that at the present time they have six or seven crews at work in this province under the direct supervision of R. P. Beaudoin, entomologist of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, and the work in the City of Sherbrooke is being done with the co-operation of J. A. Tardif, Parks Superintendent.

The most characteristic external symptom of Dutch elm disease is the sudden wilting of leaves and the tree is small, all limbs may be affected simultaneously. However, in most cases the wilting will occur in one or two limbs only at first and may take years to spread over all the branches in a big tree. Usually the leaves rapidly turn yellow and fall off but they do not always change color and they may stay on the tree for a long time.

Anyone whose trees show this symptom should get in touch at once with R. J. Letourneau, head of the crew doing this work in the district. He is making his headquarters in the New Wellington Hotel. Mr. Letourneau says that so far the only infections were discovered in St. Ours and Berthierville.

FORMER CITIZEN VISITS DISTRICT AFTER 26 YEARS

A former resident of this district dropped in at the Record office yesterday for a friendly little chat. He is George W. Lucy, of Campbellford, Ontario.

This is Mr. Lucy's first visit since he left Lennoxville in 1919. From 1914 to 1919 he worked for Mr. Burge in the latter's printing shop in Lennoxville where they did the printing for Bishop's University and Bishop's College School. Before that time he was on the staff of the Compton County Chronicle.

Mr. Lucy commented on the great changes that he had noticed in Sherbrooke. He declared that the industrial developments in this city were almost a duplicate of the development in the city of Peterborough. "Wellington Street has completely changed," Mr. Lucy continued. "I miss particularly the old cigar store Indian and the Casino Theatre near the intersection of King and Wellington Streets."

"His Majesty's Theatre was another great centre in those days; we had some wonderful times there," he reminisced. At this point in the interview he took from his pocket a carefully preserved copy of the Sherbrooke Daily Record of June 13, 1914, and showed the announcement stating that he was leaving the employment of the Compton County Chronicle.

Mr. Lucy said that he was going to visit Lennoxville tomorrow and Cookshire the next day in the hope of meeting some of his old friends and acquaintances.

"I'd sure like to be able to ride out to Lennoxville on the old street-car," Mr. Lucy said with a twinkle in his eye, "we sometimes got an extremely bumpy ride, particularly when the car was only half full and there was a good coating of ice on the tracks."

E.T. Industrialists To Be Invited To Take Part In Jubilee Exhibition

Plans to have a Main Building that will be truly in keeping with the Fair's 60th anniversary and that will present a comprehensive and interesting picture of Eastern Townships' industrial production were discussed yesterday at a special meeting of the Industrial and Manufacturing Committee of the E.T.A., presided over by R. A. Webster. Always one of the leading attractions at the Fair is the Main Building, the large hexagonal structure containing forty thousand square feet of space on the ground floor and erected in 1885 the year of Sherbrooke's first Fair, which usually contains exhibits from leading manufacturers and industrialists from all sections of the Eastern Townships and many parts of the Province. A special effort is being made this year to increase the number of exhibits and yesterday's meeting decided to contact E. T. industrialists and manufacturers and invite them to take part in the Diamond Jubilee Exhibition.

The meeting also read a letter from Henry Kieffer, chief of the forestry protection service of the Quebec Department of Lands and Forests, stating that this department planned to have an exhibit and asking information regarding space available and the accommodations that could be provided.

Following the meeting the committee members visited the Industrial or Main Building and inspected the work which is being done. The structure is being renovated and is receiving a coat of paint, the floor is being raised and levelled, the various booths are being dolled up and everything is being placed in readiness to receive the exhibitors.

In addition to Mr. Webster who presided, attending the meeting were A. C. Ross, president of the E.T.A.A., Leo Laliberte, vice president, F. W. Webster, Carl Ives, Claude Spafford, T. R. Johnston and John Coyle.

Dad—The Unsung Hero

Father's Love and Sacrifices As Deep as Mother's

WE HAVE just had Mother's Day, which we celebrated with telegrams and letters and cards and flowers and presents and the beating of drums and general ballyhoo. That was fine, for no honor can be too great, no appreciation too fervently expressed to the women who bore us in agony; who slaved for us in our helpless infancy, and who endured us through our nerve-racking adolescence. So three cheers for Mother! Long may she wave and get every tribute she deserves.

There is a Father's Day also, in case you haven't heard of it and need to be reminded, but it is a lukewarm affair compared to Mother's blowout. In the popular opinion it doesn't call for much shouting, and Father is lucky if his children even remember to telephone him, and if he gets a few neckties that he is ashamed to wear in public and a box of cigars that are best smoked in the open air.

Somehow, Mother has stolen the show from Father. There are a million Mammy songs, but the only pappy song that I can recall at the moment is: "Everybody Works at Our House but My Old Man." It is the poor old mother, or the self-sacrificing mother, or the devoted mother who fills the pages of best sellers and brings down the house at three-hundredth plays.

And even during this war it has been a curious and a terrible thing that the grief of the fathers of the boys at the front has been practically ignored. It has been the mothers whom we deluged with our tears; the mothers whose anxieties we have pitted; the mothers whose broken hearts tore our own hearts to tatters with sympathy when they lost their sons. Nobody says a word about what the fathers are feeling. The public doesn't weep over them. Yet I have looked upon the face of a man who had lost his only son in battle and it was the face of the crucified.

The very fact that a man may not wall and beat upon his breast, as women do in their hours of travail, does not make his sufferings less. It makes them greater, because he is denied the blessed relief of tears. Also, he has to mask his own agony under the guise of cheerfulness, because he has a family to support and because he has to be the stay and prop of a mother who is giving away to her despair. There are as many hero fathers as there are hero sons. Only the fathers get no medals.

There is no belief more commonly held, and none that is false, than that mothers love their children better than their fathers do, and that mothers sacrifice more for their children than their fathers do. The mothers may pet and coddle and spoil the little darlings more than their father does, but he has the love for them that expresses itself in deeds. His is the love that lays the toll and exacts of a whole lifetime as a sacrifice on the altar of fatherhood. It is the love that makes him go shabby that his children may have fine clothes; that they may have an education that will forever lift them above him and even make them ashamed of him. And greater love hath no man than this.

So let's give a cheer for good old Dad. Mom is all right, but he is there pitching, too.

The Record will be pleased to receive any letters to this Dorothy Dix column. These will be forwarded to Miss Dix who will answer them as quickly as possible.

Oxydol WASHES SO CLEAN
Your biggest wash comes
WHITE WITHOUT BLEACHING

Oxydol is Far Ahead of Other Soaps in Preventing "Dirty Grayness"

Tests Prove Oxydol Washes Clothes CLEANER and WHITER!
Yes, Whiter! In wash test after wash test—Oxydol proved that it actually washes clothes cleaner and whiter than many other soaps which, unlike Oxydol, fail to get out that last possible trace of stubborn dirt and grime! White and Bright Wash after Wash! Soaps often leave tiny discoloring particles caused by dirt in the clothes and the "hardness" of the water. These stick in the clothes and turn gray or yellow under ironing heat. But Oxydol combats "dirty grayness"—it helps prevent "dirty grayness" particles from forming in the clothes. New "Hustle-Bubble" Suds Lift Dirt Out! Oxydol's new "Hustle-Bubble" suds are so active they lift dirt out. All your white things—except for unusual stains—come so clean they're White Without Bleaching. Sparkling white! So Safe for Colors, Too! And Oxydol is so safe—safe for wash colors, rayons and your own precious hands. Its rich, safe suds wash your colored clothes so clean they fairly sparkle! Next washday use Oxydol—and enjoy a wash so clean it's actually White Without Bleaching!

WARP AND WOOF!

DO YOU KNOW the difference? Edna does. Her grandmother taught her how to weave, and she spends hours at the loom. "It may seem pretty old-fashioned," she laughed. "But wouldn't you like a real piece of cloth, all wool and a yard wide, and a pattern of your own choosing?" When we asked her about corn flakes, Edna said, "I think Kellogg's taste best!" And so she was another of the 4 out of 5 who again voted them first for flavour. Have you tried Kellogg's Corn Flakes lately? It's the dish that's really economical... saves time, work and fuel! Get a couple of packages tomorrow. Two handy sizes. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

GOOD DIGESTION KEEPS BABY HAPPY

If you want baby happy, don't risk digestive upsets. Solid foods are often hard on baby's delicate digestive system. Undigested digestive juices do not always penetrate the tough cellulose walls of food cells. Baby loses needed nourishment and undigested food passes into the large intestine where it may cause serious disturbances.

To prevent this, Libby's have developed HOMOGENIZED baby foods. HOMOGENIZATION breaks up the food cells and releases nourishment so that baby can digest it quickly. Ordinary strained foods usually require about 2 hours to digest while HOMOGENIZED foods can be digested in about 30 minutes. Libby's are the only baby foods which are HOMOGENIZED—a patented Libby process. Write today for free booklet on baby feeding.

Women's Institute In North Hatley Is Entertained By Mrs. P. Knight

North Hatley, July 5.—The June meeting of the North Hatley Branch of the Women's Institute, which was entertained by Mrs. Percy Knights with Mrs. Glen Bennett presiding, was marked by several interesting features.

Routine business was conducted and reports of standing committees given. Mrs. Grant LeBaron read extracts from a letter showing the increasing interest in the Blue Cross Hospitalization plan.

Mrs. Daintrey conducted a short discussion on "Russia," which brought out a good deal of information. A brief period will be allotted to discussion on China at the next meeting.

The prizes which are being awarded in the Essay contest were shown to the members. This branch has again undertaken to be responsible for filling five ditty bags and these were given out. This work will be under the supervision of the Convener of War Services, Mrs. Guy Kezar reported on the County meeting held in May at Stanstead North. She spoke of the good reports and addresses and of the pleasing personality of Miss Walker, who was making her first visit to this country.

The rucal was answered by relating incidents in the life of the King. Mrs. Jack McKay then spoke informally about Princess Elizabeth emphasizing especially the care with which she is being educated in preparation for her future as a reigning queen, and the simplicity of her home life. Mrs. McKay showed two charming pictures of the Princess.

Toward the close of the meeting four teachers from the High School were welcomed. On behalf of the Institute members Mrs. Daintrey presented the Principal, Miss Fraser, with a small gift as a mark of appreciation for the work which she has done in the school. All regret that Miss Fraser is not returning for another term. Mrs. Knights served very delicious refreshments and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Drew.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION DANCE

The Graduation Dance of the North Hatley High School was held in the Town Hall. The Hall was decorated with the school colors of royal blue and gold. The back of the stage was banked with cedar, while on each side at the front were large bouquets of apple blossoms.

The guests were received by Miss G. Fraser, Principal of the High School, Mrs. John McKay, and Mr. John McKay, Chairman of the School Board. The orchestra began playing at 8:45 p.m., and the dance was formally begun by a "Grand March" led by Mr. and Mrs. John McKay.

Refreshments were served in the Community Hall, which was decorated in red, white and blue. Mrs. J. McKay poured coffee at the refreshment table.

Dancing continued for a short time after the serving of refreshments.

BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

The annual Baccalaureate Service of the North Hatley High School was held at St. Barnabas Church in North Hatley.

The school church-parade was led by the members of the Graduating Class, who were followed by the pupils of Grades VI to X, the Teaching Staff, and representatives of the Home and School Association, and of the School Board.

During the special service, which was held for the occasion three members of the Graduating Class, Eichel Banfill, Ardley Carman, and Margaret Knutson, read selections from the Bible. As it was also Empire Youth Sunday, the theme of the addresses by Canon Roy, as well as of the entire service was an emphasis on youth and its opportunities.

The great interest of parents and friends, in the school, and present-day problems of youth, was clearly indicated by the large attendance at the service.

Ayer's Cliff, July 5.—The regular monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held in the United Church Hall, when the President, Mrs. W. P. Berwick, conducted the meeting, opening with the "Crusade Hymn" followed by the reading of a Psalm and repeating "The Lord's Prayer."

Convention open.

In was reported that there were now only three Unions in the County. But even if the number is small the accomplishments reported were indeed worth while. Much literature had been purchased and distributed throughout the County, and where ever possible, put into Red Cross articles and parcels. Comfort bags had been filled for sailors. Mrs. Bond Little conducted the noon-tide prayer.

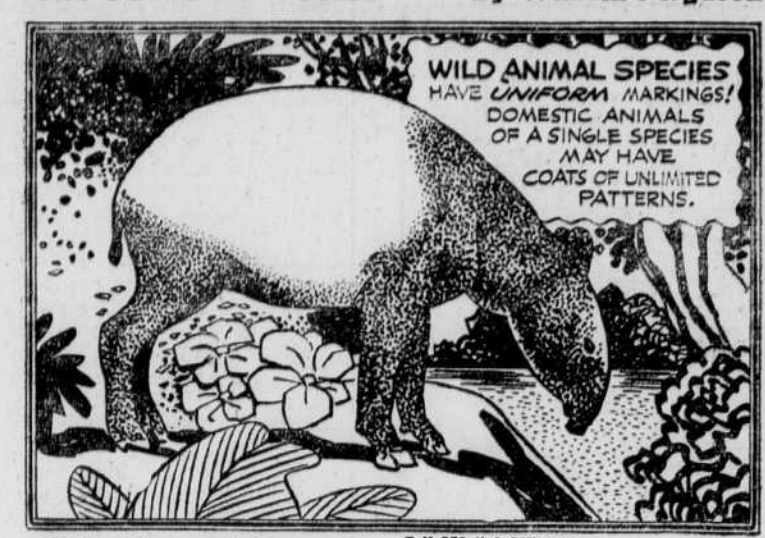

Dinner was served by the Young Women's Association and a gracious welcome extended by Mrs. F. A. Johnston.

During the short "Memorial Service" held in the afternoon, for Mrs. James G. Robinson, of North Hatley, the duet, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," was sung by Mrs. R. G. McHarg and Mrs. H. N. Pi.

Mrs. Harris, offered prayer and asked that all be worthy of the day of Victory, and humble and help to build a finer world on that ideal, which our champions honored most. "The Eternal Brotherhood of Man to Man." The speaker referred to the many thousands of veterans, who will soon return home, and he said, for the most there had been a much greater temptation to use alcoholic beverages than would have been in normal times, and urged all to defend their communities and nation from the growing menace and scourge, and to pray for clean politics and sober citizenship. Mrs. Harris, also brought to the attention of the ladies the need for supervised recreation for the young people of

"Therefore" he said, "work, pray and believe together."

RAND AND NOTRE DAME SPLIT DOUBLE-HEADER, 7-6 AND 6-3

Bessent Strikes Out 11 Players As Rand Come Back To Win Second Game

In a double-header last night both the Rand and the Notre Dame teams picked up a win, Notre Dame taking the first game by the score of 7 to 6 and losing the second 6 to 3. There was a crowd of about three hundred in Dufresne Park to see both games and very few left before the second game was finished.

In the first game, Caunter, pitching for the Rand, held the Notre Dames hitless until the fourth inning when they collected four hits by Simard, Z. Cote, L. Roy and R. LaBonte and on these hits three runs were chalked up by Simard, Cote and Charlier who got to first base on a walk. This gave them a tie with the Rand who had collected one run in the first off O'Connor and two in the second off Proteau and Bouchard.

In the fifth inning the Notre Dames banged out four more runs by Ellyson, Z. Cote, B. Cote and R. Delafontaine to end the scoring for their side.

In the sixth inning the Rand came within an ace of tying the score when Planche, Dion and McIntyre each tallied but in the seventh the Notre Dames tightened up and pulled

CARDS HITTING HARD, 2 GAMES NETTED 27 RUNS

By JACK HAND, Associated Press Sport Writer.

St. Louis Cardinals are beginning to hit and that's bad news for the rest of the National League.

Topping yesterday's home run fiesta with 27 runs and 36 hits in a double decision over New York 8-4 and 19-2, the world champs are making a habit of double number hit totals with an average of 12 safe blows in their last 19 starts.

Augie Bergamo was the big slugger of the Majors Fourth of July celebration that exploded 22 home runs, 11 in each league, into banner turnouts of 209,035 paying customers. The Cardinal outfielder hit two round-trippers, one with the sacks loaded, and battered New York pitching for a total of eight safeties and nine runs batted in for a day he'll never forget.

Both the Cards and Chicago Cubs, who trimmed Boston twice, 5-3 and 7-6, closed in on Brooklyn, whose lead was clipped to 3½ lengths in a split with Cincinnati.

Hal Gregg finally grabbed his 10th victory on the fourth try, becoming the first hurler to hit the mark in the national, as he tossed the Dodgers to a 5-3 edge in the afterpiece against Cincy.

The Phillies made life tough for Rip Sewell, knocking him out of the box, in a 7-6 shade over Pittsburgh and Jack Kraus' initial victory after 14 months in the armed service. But Max Butcher lowered the boom on the Phils in the other half, won by Pittsburgh 13-0.

Washington's surge continued to be the most exciting story in the American where the Nats swept a pair from Chicago 5-4 and 11-2. Marino Pieretti and Mickey Haefner

Mel Ott, Like McGraw, Is A Tough Loser — And Giant Bosses Admire Him For It

Mel Ott is not a graceful loser and had plenty of time to prove it when his Giants plunged from first place to fifth with a famine that saw them triumph only six times in 27 ball games.

During this stretch poor Melvin sat alone in a corner of the hotel lobby, nibbling his nails and wondering what had happened to the club which once threatened to shatter all records for quick get-aways. He couldn't sleep or eat, merely shoving his food about with an unwilling fork, and spent long hours in the clubhouse, his head in his hands, brooding at the tide which had so suddenly turned against him.

"But that is the way a manager ought to be," exclaims Giant secretary Eddie Brannick, who echoes the opinions of Horace Stoneham, club president.

"Those managers who can take a licking and then walk off the field with a cheery smile and say 'tomorrow is another day'—they are not for us," declares Brannick.

"John McGraw was not like that. Nor was Bill Terry, and say what you want, Berry had some remarkable managerial talents."

"Mel Ott isn't that way, either. And we're glad of it."

Brannick travels with the club, shares Ott's joys and despair, and reveals that as time goes by Little Melvin shows more and more resemblance to the late McGraw.

Eddie can remember when old John J. would roar into the clubhouse, fling his shirt to the floor and bellow to his men:

"I don't mind if another ball club gives you fellows a good whipping. That's what the other clubs are trying to do. But it makes me boil when you go out on that field and whip yourselves."

Old Mac could really tell them off, and you could hear a pipe cleaner crash to the floor as players silently changed clothes, trying their best to keep out of Little Napoleon's view.

Some folks suspected Ott might have mellowed when he refunded the $500 fine plastered on Bill Voiselle for that game-losing pitch in St. Louis. But Mel put them straight a few days later when he chastised first baseman Phil Weintraub in front of 21,000 home fans by abruptly yanking him out of a ball game with the Pirates.

Twice in four innings Weintraub had failed to make what seemed easy plays at the bag, preferring to let pitcher Van Mungo cover the base and risk unnecessary collision with Pittsburgh base runners. The fans booed this apparent timidity and Mungo was seen to deliver himself of some choice remarks when the players returned to the dugout.

Thus Ott was confronted with a delicate decision. Either he must save his first baseman's face by leaving him in there or he must order him off the field, humiliating Weintraub in front of all those people.

Mel Ott did precisely what John McGraw would have done. He ordered Weintraub off the field. And the Giants went on to win their fourth straight game.

TWO EVENTS IN SWEEPSTAKE AT COUNTRY CLUB

Two events were run off at the Sherbrooke Country Club over last week-end, a Ball Sweepstake and a qualifying round for the Turnbull Cup.

Low net went to J. Latraverse and A. Laberge with 69 each. W. Olivier gained second place with a net of 70, while third place went to R. I. McCabe with 71.

Buffalo, Royals Split Twin Bill, Montrealers Hit Four Home Runs

By The Canadian Press

Buffalo broke even with the International League-leading Montreal Royals yesterday, losing out a 4-3 triumph with two down in the eighth and overtime inning of the nightcap, after the Canadian team blasted out a 9-3 decision in the first game.

An epidemic of home runs proved vital in deciding each contest as the Royals accounted for four of them ringing off Eddie Stevens' bat in the opener to bring his season total to 13. John Babbard had little difficulty in racking up his 12th triumph against a solitary defeat in the opener.

Circuit blasters by Ed Borom, Walt Chippie and Jack McFale contributed heavily to the defeat of Jean Roy, who was seeking his 15th mound victory in the finale.

Jersey City and Newark divided a league doubleheader before 10,164, the Little Giants taking the opener 7-3 while the others bounced back to capture the nightcap 6-3.

Johnny Toncuff paced a 14-hit Little Giant attack with four safeties, including a home run, in the first game as Sal Maglie scattered 10 Bruin blows effectively to rack up his second victory of the season.

Adrian Zabala got the shakiest in the after-piece when the Bears scored five times on four hits, Trotter.

In Syracuse, Wally Cazen supplied most of the fireworks as Syracuse Chiefs handed Baltimore Orioles a double defeat, 10-2 and 6-4.

Cazen belted two singles, a double and an inside-the-park homer to drive in two runs in the opener and added a pair of singles in the nightcap to drive in three more tallies.

Bottles flew and police were summoned to the field by umpires at Rochester as Toronto Leafs swept a league doubleheader from the Red Wings 4-1 and 7-3.

A decision against the Wings by Umpire Winters at second base irked the fans in the nightcap eighth when class B fielding gave the Leafs four runs on four hits, three of them of the cheap infield variety. At least half a dozen bottles came from the stands as the inning ended and Plate Umpire Pellerski called the blue-counts.

Curt Johnson's four-hitter won the twilight gamefests as the double behind a hit batsman and a stolen base costing his shutout in the fourth. The Leafs got eight blows and all their runs off starter Bill Bears scored five times on four hits.

Canadian Sport Snapshots

By ALAN HARVEY

Canadian Press Staff Writer

Toronto, July 5.—(A) A new angle on the anticipated post-war sports boom is volunteered by Tom (Caigary Albertan) Moore. Talks with military officials have convinced him that army training will make many new athletes.

Moore says it was the army's experience at first that men were definitely hampered in playing personal contact sports because they had little confidence in themselves.

The army sought to overcome this by a training syllabus in which 300 of 677 training periods were devoted to physical activity organized in sports, bayonet training, route marching, drill, night exercises and battle routine—all with proper coaching.

It paid off. Last year the army boxing championships drew 15,000 participants.

"With that record behind it," says

Moore, "the army definitely can take credit for whatever boom in sports comes in North America during the next few years."

The Old Army Game:

Questionnaires showed fastball is the army's favorite sport in off-duty hours (dice weren't even mentioned).

Fifty-five per cent of a group labelled

English-Canadian, voted for fastball compared with 44 per cent of the French-Canadian, who showed greater interest in tennis, ping pong,

English rugby, borden ball, volleyball, skiing and cross-country racing.

Other percentages for both groups included: Swimming 52, bowling 50, skating 47, rifle shooting 40, hockey

35, baseball 29, skiing 23, horseshoes

23, volleyball 22, basketball 22, boxing 20, tennis 18, table tennis 15, soccer 12, track and field 10, wrestling

10, handball nine, weight lifting eight, curling eight, fencing six, English rugby five, lacrosse five.

Canadian football wasn't included in the poll.

Around the Circuit:

Kolo Kwariani, the 250-pound wrestler from Russia, has visited virtually every country in his mat travels.

He reports that in Iran, wrestlers gathered for annual tournaments, pair off 50 at a time, starting just after dinner and going at it in moonlight until declared, when a winner

finally is declared. . . . The starry
