

THE PRINCE LEAVES FOR THE WEST.

His Imperial Highness Prince Fushimi concluded his visit to Montreal this morning, and was given a very hearty send-off at the Bonaventure station by a large assemblage of citizens. The station was prettily decorated for the occasion with British and Japanese flags, etc., and carpet was laid from the entrance through an avenue of palms and flowers to the royal train.

The train was timed to leave the station at ten o'clock, and just before that hour the Prince drove down from Ravensara, in company with his host, Sir Montagu Allan, and attended by the members of his suite, and by Mr. Joseph Pope, C.M.G., I.S.O., Under Secretary of State, representing the government; Mr. M. W. Lammson, M.V.O., representing the Foreign Office; Captain D. O. C. Newton, representing His Excellency the Governor-General; and the Hon. T. Nosse, consul-general for Japan. A detachment of the 3rd Victoria Rifles was drawn up outside the station as a guard of honor, and on the arrival of the Prince they gave the royal salute, and played the Japanese national anthem. Col. Buchan, C.M.G., A.D.C., was in command, and was accompanied by Col. Dumbear, the other officers present being Lieutenants Gascoyne and Browne and Captain Ham.

Having inspected the guard of honor, the Prince, who was attired in the usual frock coat and top hat of western conventionality, passed through the station, bowing right and left in acknowledgment of the greetings of the crowd. Mayor Ekers, together with Aldermen Yates, Molson, Sadler and L. A. Lapointe, were on the platform to wish him good-bye, and Mr. H. R. Charlton, who will represent the Grand Trunk Company on the trip over their line, was there to welcome him on behalf of the company. After shaking hands with the civic party and the officers, and whispering a few words of hearty thanks in the Mayor's ear for the hearty hospitality shown him in Montreal, the Prince boarded the royal train, which looked handsome in its speckless varnish, and its decorations of shields bearing the Imperial coat of arms of Japan—a chrysanthemum of sixteen petals in gold, on a white background.

The train consisted of two private cars, two sleeping cars, a dining car, and a baggage car. The Grand Trunk Railway Company has made the most elaborate arrangements for the comfort and enjoyment of the distinguished guest. The interior of the private cars and the dining car had been made to look like a conservatory. American Beauty roses, lilies of the valley, daffodils, and mignonette covered the tables and the upper parts of the cars, while vines and ferns of various kinds had been artfully arranged to give the whole a harmonious effect.

The band outside the station gave another selection just before the train started, and Ald. Yates led three hearty British cheers and a 'Banzai' as the train began to pull out of the station. The Prince stood on the rear platform doffing his hat and bowing his acknowledgments until the train was lost to sight.

The itinerary of the imperial train conveying Prince Fushimi over the Grand Trunk Railway system through the provinces of Quebec and Ontario is as follows: Leave Montreal on Monday, June 10, at 10 a.m.; arrive at Ottawa on Monday, June 10, at 1 p.m.; leave Ottawa on Tuesday, June 11, at 9 a.m.; arrive at Brockville via Coteau Junction, on Tuesday, June 11, at 1.30 p.m.

At Brockville the Imperial party will board the new palatial steamer 'Rapid King,' of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company, and a tour through the Thousand Islands will be made, arriving at Kingston at 5.30 p.m. Leave Kingston on Tuesday, June 11, at 5.40 p.m.; arrive at Niagara Falls on Wednesday, June 12, at 12.45 a.m.; leave Niagara Falls on Wednesday, June 12, at 12.30 p.m.; arrive at Toronto on Wednesday, June 12, at 2.55 p.m.; leave Toronto on Thursday, June 13, at 11 a.m.; arrive at North Bay on Thursday, June 13, at 6.30 p.m.

At North Bay the Prince will join the C. P. R. royal train for his trip to the Pacific coast.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A terrorist attempted to commit suicide near St. Felixburg yesterday. He is said to be implicated in the recent attempt on the life of the czar.

The Japanese Council of Progressives, at a meeting in Tokio to-day, accused the anti-Japanese press in San Francisco were not of a temporary nature, that the Federal Government at Washington must be held responsible for its attitude to prevent them, that the attitude of the Japanese Government in the matter had not been satisfactory to the Japanese nation and that it was necessary that the government should take steps to maintain the dignity of the nation and permanently ensure the safety of the rights and property of the Japanese in the United States.

German antiquarians digging near Pyllos believe they have discovered the palace of Nestor, the king sung by Homer.

There is revolt threatened in the south of France over the government bill for the suppression of the manufacture of fraudulent wines. At Montpellier, on Sunday, half a million people swore with uplifted hands to support a measure by which all mayors and town councillors resign and all citizens refuse to pay taxes until parliament affords relief. Several mayors, including the Mayor of Narbonne, have already resigned.

The daughters of King Leopold are objecting to his proposal to turn over to Belgium the Congo Free State on the ground that it is part of his personal estate.

Santos Dumont had a narrow escape from serious injuries, if not losing his life, on Saturday. He started to try a new airship at daylight in a field at Bagatelles. The machine was mounted on bicycle wheels and was speeding along at a rapid pace preparatory to making a flight, when a bungling workman tightened the guide rope, causing the tail of a small balloon above the aeroplane to sag, with the result that the propeller touched the ground, rebounded and ripped open the gas bag. Fortunately Dumont shut off the motor in time to prevent an explosion. The aeronaut was badly shaken up, but is not discouraged, and will try again as soon as his combination balloon-aeroplane apparatus is repaired. He hopes eventually to develop a speed of about one hundred kilometres an hour.

A cyclone sweeping over southern Illinois, Indiana and Central Kentucky, on Saturday, destroyed thousands of acres of standing crops, swept away houses, demolished bridges, killed twenty persons and injured forty more.

President Roosevelt was to-day, for a second time, at the Jamestown exhibition, brought back by the formal opening of Bulloch Hall, the ancestral home of his mother at Roswell, Ga., and reproduced at the exhibition as the Georgia state building.

An elephant, in a circus parade in Buffalo, to-day, so injured a boy that he is not expected to recover. He dragged him out of the crowd on the roadside, dropped him and stepped on him.

The ore handlers at Buffalo who struck work on Thursday last, have been expelled from the union because they struck in violation of the contract made for them by the 'longshoremen with the furnace company.

Money madness, the Rev. Dr. Chown, temperance and moral reform secretary of the Methodist Church of Canada, says is one of the most vicious octopuses with which the life of the nation is attacked. The arch corrupters of youth in the Dominion to-day are the men who get rich quickly and instead of punishing them the government gives them large timber areas.

Temperance workers in London, Ont., find that in spite of the law against them there are several canteens in the summer volunteer camps doing business as usual, and a protest has been forwarded to the Militia Department at Ottawa.

The Rev. Dr. Leonard Gaetz, well known in Montreal, at one time pastor of the old St. James Methodist Church, is dead in Red Deer, Alberta, at the age of 67.

Two beautiful memorial windows to Miss Sarah Maxwell and the children who lost their lives in the Hochelaga school fire were unveiled in St. Mary's Episcopal Church yesterday.

Mr. George Clarke, chief of the night staff of the Montreal post-office, died suddenly on Saturday of rupture of a blood vessel after a game of lacrosse with his sons.

A shocking accident happened at St. Henri on Saturday when Rita Hastie, a little girl, eleven years old, was run over on the G. T. R. track and had both arms cut off.

JAPAN AND THE UNITED STATES.

Viscount Tani Declares if Diplomacy Fails an Appeal Will be Made to Arms.

Tokio, June 9.—Viscount Tani, leader of the Opposition in the House of Peers, and head of the defence of Kunamoto in the Satsuma rebellion, is reported to have said in the American trouble:

The persecution of the Japanese in San Francisco is a most wicked act. Should diplomacy fail to bring about a satisfactory solution, the only way open to us is an appeal to arms. Our mind is firmly made up. It is certain that the United States will yield, for its people are radically commercial in their sentiment.

How much Viscount Tani represents public sentiment it is difficult to estimate at the present time.

RESOLUTIONS BY PROGRESSIVES.

Tokio, June 10.—The Council of Progressives at a meeting to-day adopted a resolution, the substance of which was as follows:

The anti-Japanese feeling upon the Pacific coast of the United States, especially in San Francisco, culminated in an assault upon Japanese trading places last month, constituting a most flagrant violation of the rights guaranteed by the treaty concluded upon an equal footing between the two nations.

The anti-Japanese acts are not of a temporary nature and the federal government at Washington must be held responsible for its failure to prevent such outrages.

The attitude of our government towards that in Washington has so far been unsatisfactory to the nation and it is necessary that proper steps should be taken by our government in order to maintain the national dignity and permanently ensure the safety of the rights and property of our compatriots in America.

FRENCH SCHOONER LOST

THE 'LORAIN' CRUSHED BY THE ICE AND SANK NEAR LOW POINT.

North Sydney, N.S., June 9.—Crushed between immense ice clammers, the French fishing schooner 'Lorraine,' owned by Prosper Gauthier, of St. Pierre, and commanded by Captain Blebourdais, sank on May 26 last, about thirty miles off Low Point. So suddenly did the thing happen that the captain and crew of eighteen men had a hard time to escape with their lives, and saved only the clothing they wore at the time when the ice smashed the vessel's timbers, causing the schooner to go to the bottom. The men managed to secure their dories, and for nearly eight hours rowed aimlessly around until picked up by the French fishing topsail schooner 'Fauvette,' Captain Lepage, about twelve miles off where she had gone down. The next day four of the shipwrecked crew went on board two other schooners, and to-day Captain Lepage decided to take the remaining fourteen men here. Tomorrow the French consul will take charge of the men and will be asked to forward them to St. Pierre or to their homes in France.

DR. CHOWN'S ARRAIGNMENT

HE MAKES STRONG ATTACK ON PARTIZANSHIP, POLITICAL CORRUPTION AND FINANCIAL TRICKERIES.

Bowmanville, Ont., June 10.—When preaching yesterday morning at the ordination service of H. H. Craig and A. W. Shaver, who were received into the Methodist ministry last Friday night, the Rev. Dr. Chown, temperance and moral reform secretary, Toronto, made a strong attack on partizanship, political corruption, and financial trickeries. Money madness, the speaker declared, before an exceptionally large congregation, was one of the most vicious octopi that attacked the national life in this age. Rome had crumbled down through the decay of noble citizenship. Canada had no greater prospect of perpetuity than had the famous Italian state and the city, he thought. "Thank God," said Dr. Chown, with fervor, "for the present investigations. Thank God that some financial idols at least, have been shattered. The men who get rich quickly are the arch-corrupters of youth in the Dominion to-day, and instead of being punished, they are given large timber areas by our governments."

Members of the conference gave themselves to out-door pleasures on Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Prof. R. P. Bowles, of Toronto, lectured in the evening before the Theological Union in the Disciples Church, on "Homiletic truth, or what shall we preach?" He maintained that great preaching did not lend itself to controversial questions to discussions on old and new theologies and to higher criticism.

FAIR AND STILL COOL

I heard a voice in the darkness singing
(That was a valiant soul I knew)
And the joy of his song was a wild bird
winging
Swift to his mate through a sky of blue.

Myself—I sang when the dawn was dinging
Wide his guerdone of fire and dew;
I heard a voice in the darkness singing
(That was a valiant soul I knew).

And his song was of love and all its bringing
And on certain day when the night was through:
I raised my eyes where the hope was springing,
And I think in his heaven God smiled,
too.

I heard a voice in the darkness singing
(That was a valiant soul I knew).

DOVE OF PEACE ASSAILED

YOUNG MAN WHO TRIED TO STOP A SMALL BOYS' FIGHT, GOES TO THE HOSPITAL.

William Poirier, 23 years of age, of 150 St. Charles street, lies in the Notre Dame Hospital with a nasty cut in the side of his head, as the result of a well meant, though ill-advised, attempt to make peace between two small boys who were pummeling each other yesterday afternoon.

The youngsters were indulging in a very thorough kind of a 'mill' near the corner of Beaudoin and St. Louis streets, and as long as the fight was an even one Poirier was content to be a spectator and to see fair play. One of the youngsters, however, eventually began to show signs of exhaustion and Poirier, thinking the affair had gone far enough, stepped in and attempted to separate the combatants.

The father of the victorious pugilist, however, being mindful of the fact that his son was winning and therefore the fight must go on, picked up a stick and clubbed the arbitrator on the side of the head, felling him to the ground, unconscious. The ambulance was called and Poirier was taken to the Notre Dame Hospital, where he will remain for a few days. He is not seriously injured.

AERONAUT KILLED

Granite Falls, Minn., June 9.—Entangled in the ropes of a parachute, John Puepura, an aeronaut, of Utica, N. Y., met death yesterday by drowning in the Minnesota river. Puepura ascended last evening. The wind carried the balloon up the river half a mile before the aeronaut detached the parachute. In some manner his arms and legs became entangled in the ropes and when the parachute struck the water he was unable to save himself.

FALSE ALARMS

FIREMEN HAD MANY UNNECESSARY CALLS DURING MAY.

Odilon Rodrigue, 20 years of age, of Richelieu street, St. Henri, was arrested on Saturday evening by Constables Beaudry and Choquet, while in the act of turning in a false alarm from firebox No. 75, at the corner of Rose de Lima and St. James streets. When taken to the police station the accused made the excuse that he had been drinking and did not know what he was doing. Of the record number of false alarms, a total of 46, turned in during the month of May, 15, or nearly one-third, had to be responded to by St. Henri firemen, while during eight days of the present month seven more unnecessary runs were made within the limits of that ward. Ste. Cunegonde, the adjoining ward, was, during the month of May, a close second to St. Henri in the monthly fire alarm list.

GIRL LOST BOTH ARMS

WAS PLAYING ON RAILWAY TRACK AT ST. HENRI.

Rita Hastie, eleven years old, who lives with her parents between St. Henri and Montreal West, lost both her arms as the result of an accident which happened while she was playing on the G. T. R. tracks near St. Henri station on Saturday.

The little girl was struck by a freight train and although the cowcatcher threw the child partly off the tracks, the wheels passed over both arms, which were extended across one rail. One arm was torn off near the socket, while the other was so badly mutilated that it had to be amputated at the shoulder.

Previous to the accident, none of the G. T. R. employees appeared to have noticed the little girl, who was playing about the tracks in front of the station, and did not see the approaching freight train until it was upon her.

G. T. R. yardmen picked the child up as soon as the train could be stopped, and carried her into the station, where emergency bandages were applied, while the Royal Victoria Hospital ambulance was answering the call.

When taken to the institution she was almost unconscious from loss of blood, and her recovery was regarded as doubtful. Towards last evening the little patient gave more encouraging signs, however, and the surgeon in charge thought there was a chance for her recovery.

FRANCE ON 'ARMAMENTS.'

Ready to Discuss 'Limitation' at the Hague.

MR. MORLEY'S DEFENCE OF HIS VIGOROUS INDIAN POLICY— CONCESSIONS TO NATIVES— EFFECT OF SYMPATHY TO A MURDERER.

(Cable despatch to the New York 'Evening Post.') London, June 8.—M. Pichon, yesterday, in the French Chamber, according to the summary of the 'Times's' Paris correspondent, in replying to the interpellation of M. de Pressense, said in relation to the question of the limitation of armaments, that France has declared that if the question should be put at the Hague, she would be ready to consider it, not that her government entertained any great illusions on the subject. To succeed in such a matter, a concrete formula was necessary, and such a formula did not appear as yet to have been found. More than that, a unanimous understanding of the Powers was required, which thus far it had been found impossible to effect. Still, France was prepared not only to discuss the proposal when formulated, but to endeavor also to point out a path for diplomacy in this direction. M. Pichon concluded by saying that French interests would be safe in the hands of M. Léon Bourgeois and the other delegates, to whom had been conceded a certain latitude of initiative at The Hague Conference.

REPRESSION IN INDIA.

Mr. Morley's defence on Thursday of his repressive policy towards the Punjab disorders was a hard saying to many of the Liberal majority behind him, but he did not whittle down his own responsibility, nor shrink from the ultimate consequences of his attitude. After admitting that the measures taken by the government, under the law of 1818, were both violent and coercive, he described the excessively dangerous and provocative nature of the agitation carried on by Lalajai Rajai and Ajit Singh, particularly the rumors which they disseminated of poisoned wells, and their propaganda of mutiny among the Sikh regiments. He maintained that criminal prosecutions at that time would have enormously enlarged the area of sedition. He said: "It would have been absurd for us, knowing that we had got a weapon there at our own hands, one given by law, not an exceptional law, but a standing law, and in the face of a risk of a conflagration, not to use that law, and I for one have no apology to make for using it. Nobody appreciates more than I do the danger, mischief, and iniquity of what is called 'reason of state.' I know all about that. It is full of mischief and full of danger, but so is sedition, and I should have incurred a criminal responsibility if I had opposed resort to this law."

The London 'Telegraph,' commenting mischievously on the fact that its own support can hardly be of any service to Radical statesmen, thanks its stars that in a Radical government there should be two such sane Imperialists as Sir Edward Grey and Mr. John Morley. The Liberal press finds it difficult to be enthusiastic, and fastens preferably on the promised Indian reforms, which, says to-day's 'Nation,' are vital in character. The commission is to inquire into the question of over-centralization. One, or perhaps two, natives are to be nominated for the Council of India, sitting in London, and an advisory council of Indian notables, framed on the lines of Lord Lytton's abortive council of princes, is to act as a buffer between the native population and the viceroy's government.

EFFECT OF SYMPATHY.

The most pernicious aspect of the unfortunate reprieve of Mr. Whiteley's murderer came up before Justice Phillimore, where a convicted thief pleaded extenuation, on the ground that being an illegitimate child, he had only stolen from his sister's husband property which was morally his. Justice Phillimore, in sentencing the prisoner, publicly declared that this was not the first case where the misplaced sympathy for Rayner had wrought harm and brought sorrow. Sir Thomas Lawrence's portrait of Julia Peel, better known as 'Childhood's Innocence,' has been sold at Christie's for eight thousand guineas. This doubles the record price for the master, but the canvas was expected to fetch far more.

ENTERTAINING THE IMPERIAL VISITOR.

William and Lady Van Horne entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of His Imperial Highness Prince Fushimi.

One of the most notable dinner parties that have been given in Montreal on the occasions when the city has had the honor of royal visitors, was the one at which Sir Montagu and Lady Allan entertained last night in honor of His Imperial Highness Prince Fushimi, G. C. B.

The decorations, which were much admired, were arranged by Wilshire Bros. and it is a noteworthy fact that although one hears so much nowadays of domestic inefficiency, the culinary success of the dinner was due to the cook at 'Ravenscrag,' without any outside catering.

This was proposed in a speech by Sir Montagu Allan, speaking in French, which Prince Fushimi understands better than English, and Lady Allan then graciously presented to His Imperial Highness the souvenir aforementioned.

DOES NOT WANT CONTRACT

Power Company Said to be Anxious to Sell Gas Plant to City.

According to a well authenticated report to the City Hall to-day, the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company is not at all anxious to enter into any kind of contract with the city for the supply of gas. As a matter of fact, it is said the company would welcome an opportunity to get out of that branch of the business altogether, and towards that end, aldermen have been asked by the company's agents if they would favor a proposal that the City Council should purchase the plant, and run the gas works as a municipal enterprise. The twenty-five million dollars that have been mentioned as the purchase price was never taken in any other sense than as 'the straw which shows the way in which the wind is blowing.'

KERR LAKE Crown Reserve Limited.

is one of the best in Cobalt; 10,000 oss. of silver to the ton, valued at $6,700, was mined from the 33 foot level; 7,000 oss. of silver to the ton, valued at $4,690, was mined from the 45 foot level. And there are six veins equally as rich and perhaps many more.

THIS IS A GOOD ONE

Take Jay Gould's advice—invest quickly. If it was not a proven mine, would such well-known men be on the directorate? Would they finance the enterprise unless it was good?

Again we say, take Jay Gould's advice—invest NOW.

After June 24th the shares increase to $1.00 and $100 or more invested now will be worth 4 and 5 times their value this time next year. We want you to investigate the matter thoroughly.

MAIL TRANSFER TEST.
The first experimental mail transfer test occurred off the port of Sydney, N.S.W. on Saturday night, when the E.M.S. Virginia, from Montreal for Liverpool, took on board the mails by special intercolonial train from the West.

Dense fog that had for the past two days enveloped the coast, lifted at 9.30, and at 11 o'clock the Montcalm, with mails and passengers, came out from North Sydney, and anchored two miles off Flat Point. At 11.30 the signal service sighted the Virginia, and shortly afterwards the Montcalm steamed out to meet the incoming liner. At 11.50 the Virginia stopped, being then about five miles off Flat Point. After some manoeuvring, the Montcalm managed to run alongside. At 12.05 the position selected, however, was altogether too exposed to the heavy easterly swell and the ships immediately swung clear. The Montcalm falling astern, and coming up on the port side to windward, crossed the Virginia's bow, and steamed toward the harbor entrance, followed by the Virginia, which took some time to regain headway. When off Lloyd's Cove at 12.45, the Virginia anchored, the Montcalm coming alongside again at 12.55, and by 1 o'clock the actual transfer commenced. This was completed by 1.30 p.m., and at 1.55 the Virginia proceeded on her voyage. On the stop outside almost an hour was lost, but the transfer after reaching the entrance was made with good despatch.

SS. LAKE ERIE'S PASSENGERS.
The S.S. Lake Erie, of the C.P.R., sailed for Liverpool on Saturday with the following cabin passengers: Mr. B. B. Atkins, Mrs. Atkins, Revelstoke; Dr. Barnes, Mrs. Barnes, Montreal; Mr. Jesse B. Barton, Mrs. Barton; Miss Lucy Barton, Chicago; Prof. E. J. Manning, building, groceries, boots and shoes, loss, $4,000; insurance, unknown; stock partly saved. M. J. Lawson, machinery and harness, loss, $3,500; insurance, $2,000. H. G. Greenwood, jewellery, stock, loss, $500; insurance, $250; stock partly saved. The Bank of Toronto sustained considerable damage by fire and water.

Hampton, N.B., June 7.—The most disastrous fire that ever occurred here broke out this morning and threatened at one time to sweep the entire village. After a hard battle by bucket brigades and hand pumps, the flames were stayed, but not until the Canada Wooden Ware plant was entirely destroyed. Their loss is thirty thousand, with eighteen thousand in the Western, Queen, Sun, Northern, Equity and British American companies. G. Barnes & Son lost a warehouse and contents, with $2,000 insurance in the Royal. Large piles of lumber, waiting shipment by the I.C.R., were destroyed, and the total loss is estimated at $50,000.

Ottawa, June 7.—The grist and lumber mills of Jules Patry, near Papineauville, were yesterday destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of nearly $50,000. The fire, which was caused by the explosion of a tank of gasolene, burned for hours, and, despite great efforts, could not be got under control until the mills and buildings connected had been destroyed. Some valuable hardwood lumber, which was situated near the mills, also fell a prey to the flames. A large quantity of lumber, the property of farmers, who had brought it there to be sawed and dressed, also burned, as was a large quantity of grain, which was stored in the grist mill.

THE LATE MRS. J. A. PARE.
The funeral of the late Madame J. A. Pare took place on Friday from the residence of her nephew, Mr. Alfred Mackay, K.C., 464 St. Joseph street, Lachine, to the parish church, where the Rev. Canon Savaria officiated, the Rev. Fathers Fontrouge and Lessard acting as deacon and sub-deacon, respectively. The chief mourners were Messrs. Alfred Mackay, K.C., of Lachine; J. A. Pare, nephews; A. Paré, L. Lavigne, P. Robert, brothers-in-law; A. Garipey, cousin.

FIRE RECORD

An Englishman, an Irishman, and a Scotchman were one day arguing as to which of the three countries possessed the fastest trains.

"Well," said the Englishman, "I've been in one of our trains, and the telegraph poles have been like a hedge."
"I've seen the milestones appear like tombstones," said the Scot.

"Ho," said Pat. "I was one day in a train in my country, and we passed a field of turnips and a field of carrots, also a field of cabbage and parsley, then a pond of water, and we were going that quick I thought it was broth!"

"Ah!" said the doctor, "you ride a great deal in the trolley cars, you say?" "Yes, sir," replied the new patient. "I see. Your trouble is due to your sedentary habits. Now, when you're at work, what do you do?" "I'm a motorman." — Philadelphia Press.

"Linen Suitings" for Holiday Suits.

As we have said before, we use the term "Linen Suitings" to convey to you a better idea of what we mean. They're not all linen—some of them are, however—but whether linen or union, they have proven to be the best of materials for making those kinds of shirtwaist suits, that are needed to stand any amount of abuse, and yet wash and iron up just as bright and fresh as ever, when the occasion demands.

It's a lot of these kinds of suitings that we are going to clear out on Tuesday at .15 a yard, prices of which were formerly .18, .20, .25, .35, .45 and .50.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION

INTENSE INTEREST MANIFESTED IN THE MOVEMENT TOWARD CHURCH UNION.

Hamilton, June 7.—The Rev. Dr. Walter Currie, who is the superintendent of the denomination's Foreign Missionary work in West Central Africa, in an able address, appealed to the churches for their loyal and generous co-operation in sustaining the work already undertaken, and in furthering a strong forward movement in response to the appeal constantly coming from many sections of the country further inland. This was Dr. Currie's farewell to the Canadian churches, as he leaves with his wife this week for a third term of service in Africa.

The Rev. Frank J. Day, M.A., B.D., superintendent of the Immigration Department of Home Missionary work, speaking of the fact that "God is sending the ends of the earth to our shores and very doots, drew attention to the increasing number of immigrants, and the duty of the Christian Church to welcome them, and to help in assimilating their ideas and ambitions with those of Canadians. He drew special attention to the fact that 77 percent of the immigrants at the present time come from Great Britain, Ireland, and the United States, but that the great problem of the future would emerge from the possible change in the complexion of immigration. Within forty years the United States' figures have been completely reversed, and while formerly 75 percent of the immigration came from Great Britain and the northern countries of Europe, now 75 percent come from Austria-Hungary, Poland, and Russia.

The Rev. Wm. McIntosh, of Ottawa, superintendent of Canada Home Missionary Society, presided.

FRIDAY'S MEETINGS.

The sessions opened with a devotional meeting, over which the Rev. W. H. Clark presided, and in which the Rev. Horace G. Rice, M.A., B.D., of Montreal, preached upon the theme "The Manly Man." He described such a man as one who does right, and thinks right, pointing out the close relation between man's conceptions of truth and the life he lives. The preacher, in closing, spoke of the power and influence of such men, and the great need which the world ever has for them.

At the regular business session of the Union immediately following the devotional hour, almost two hours were devoted to the report of the Church Union Committee. This report was presented by the Rev. J. W. Pedley, B.A., who presided at the last Union Conference held in Toronto. After reviewing the work of the committee for the year, the report contained the following resolutions:

"First: That this union affirms its continued interest in the negotiations for union, its gratification of the report of progress that has been received, and its sincere desire that the progress shall not cease until the goal of a vital and effective union has been reached.

"Second: That while we rejoice that a joint committee has been able to adopt a general statement of Christian doctrine which fairly represents the common faith of the negotiating churches, we still adhere to the resolution of the Union of 1906, that it is desirable that this statement should be "simpler, and lay greater emphasis on Christian experience and conduct."

"Third: That in the matter of ordination to the Christian ministry, we consider that it will best safeguard the intellectual integrity of ministers, and at the same time preserve the church from formalism, if at the ordination of candidates to the ministry they shall not be compelled to give an absolute subscription to a creed, but having before them the doctrinal statement of the church, may frankly, and in their own language, indicate their relation thereto. It shall then remain with the ordaining body to decide as to the acceptance of the candidate, great importance always being attached to its general spirit and character.

"Fourth: That we express our satisfaction that the joint committee has so far met the views of the Congregational churches as to make provision that local churches now existing may practically retain their present practices as to organization and as to control of property. At the same time we would urge that in the formation of new charges the very largest share of local responsibility and freedom of action, compatible with the welfare of the whole, shall be granted.

"Fifth: That we express our gratitude to the brethren in England for the earnest consideration they have given to the question of union and for the exceedingly able and sympathetic letter they have sent in response to our request for counsel. We rejoice that in their letter they have expressed their sympathy with the general movement towards union, and their agreement with us in an endeavor to carry into the united church all that is of vital importance in our Congregational Church."

On motion of the Rev. John Morton, Hamilton, the Union decided to consider these resolutions seriatim.

Discussion on resolution 1 occupied all the time at the disposal of the Union for the morning.

Mr. Seth P. Leet, K.C., of Montreal, spoke in favor of continuing negotiations with the desire of reaching the goal of a vital and effective union, but felt that a frank and full discussion should take place in order that the committee might understand as fully as possible the attitude of the churches upon this matter.

The Rev. J. Lambert Alexander, of Granby, believed the majority of the strong men in his church would be opposed to union.

The Rev. John McKillop, of Montreal, and the Rev. W. H. Clark, of London, also spoke in opposition to the proposed union. On the other hand

The choice was made at a meeting of the board of governors held today. Six names were balloted on. The Rev. Mr. Hutchinson is 46 years old, a Nova Scotian by birth and an Acadia graduate, and has been some twenty years in the ministry in the United States. He will accept the Acadia appointment.

many of those taking part in the discussion expressed sincere pleasure and gratification for the splendid progress already made, and were strongly in favor of continuing conference with the negotiating churches. Among these were the Rev. Messrs. J. B. Silcox, of Toronto; J. K. Unsworth, Hamilton; R. K. Black, Granby; Charles Villiers, Kingston; James T. Daley, Marville; D. S. Hamilton, London, and Hugh Pedley, Montreal.

Mr. Pedley emphasized the fact that if church union were ever realized there must be concessions from three directions—the Methodists, Presbyterians and Congregationalists. Thus far, the Methodist and Presbyterian churches had made very important concessions, which, if ultimately determined upon, would mean a great deal to many of the men in these churches. 'Congregationalists,' said he, 'must be willing to make similar concessions from our own standpoint. Pointing out (1) the fact that the gospel by its very spirit and life tends to unite men; (2) that a wise and effective union of Christian forces would be necessary to cope with the moral and religious needs of our country, and (3) that the movement was one which concerned not only Canada but one which was at the present time seriously being thought of in all the great Protestant countries, and that we in Canada, by our action, would influence the whole movement by the action finally adopted, closed by strongly urging the Union to continue negotiations with the hope that the goal of union would ultimately be reached.

Resolution number one was then adopted almost unanimously, and discussion of the other resolutions adjourned to the next session.

During the conferences upon the subject a reply from the council of the Congregational Union of England and Wales and the directors of the Colonial Missionary Society to a communication addressed to those bodies last year asking for their counsel upon the subject of union before the Canadian churches was read and produced a profound impression.

The educational and publishing interests of the churches received careful attention at the afternoon meetings.

The college was shown to be in splendid financial condition, but in need of students. In reply to questions concerning the prospects for new students next year Principal Hill reported that the Colonial Missionary Society would send five picked men to enter college here this fall, while several young men would enter from Canadian churches. Messrs. Charles Cusack, C. R. Black and the Rev. Hugh Pedley were re-elected as governors for a term of five years.

THE BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE

SUNDAY CHEESE MAKING BROUGHT UP BY MR. C. W. NEVILLE.

Bowmanville, Ont., June 7.—The Rev. T. Albert Moore, provincial secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, in addressing the Bay of Quinte Methodist Conference to-day, stated that, on the authority of the Attorney-General of Ontario, all persons found making cheese on Sunday would be brought before the courts to answer for violation of the Lord's Day Act. The Government had decided to let the prosecution of such cases proceed.

When Mr. Moore had concluded his remarks, Mr. C. W. Neville, a large farmer of Lennox, who is attending the conference as a layman, sprang to his feet and opened a battery of verbal opposition to some of the utterances of the alliance. He asked Mr. Moore if it were true that under the new act railways could start trains on Saturday night and run them into Sunday. 'Yes,' he continued, with vehemence, 'trains may run to their destination, even on Sunday, and yet cheese-makers throughout Ontario, who have large quantities of milk in factories waiting treatment, cannot continue for two or three hours on Sunday the work they began Saturday night.'

Mr. Moore answered this by saying he was not responsible for the law, but that the Dominion Parliament had made such legislation.

"Well then, some of these laws are most unreasonable," said Mr. Neville, "I am a practical dairyman, and know that the dairymen of Lennox and Addington are not all in the position of being able to keep milk over Sunday. You ask us to pay salaries and give to missionary funds, and yet you make laws by which farmers must lose from $5 to $10 a day. The fault is that these laws are often made by enthusiasts, who are not practical men, and know nothing about what they legislate against."

Mr. Moore again replied that Parliament was responsible for the law prohibiting cheese-making on the Lord's day, and that experts had explained to Parliament that it was not necessary to continue the work in such factories into Sunday. A brief lively debate ensued, in which Mr. H. K. Daniels, ex-warden of Hastings; Mr. J. L. Squire, of Norwood, and other dairymen took part.

MRS. McLEAN A CANADIAN

WITH G. OTTO ELTERICH SHE WAS DROWNED IN THE THAMES.

Freeport, L. I., June 7.—Elterich, who, with Mrs. McLean, was drowned yesterday in the Thames, near London, was a railway contractor, and travelled extensively, much of his time being spent in Europe. He and his wife left here about a month ago, Mrs. Elterich going to Washington, while her husband sailed for Europe. In the past year Mr. Elterich had been associated in business with Henry Guinard. He was about 40 years old. Mrs. McLean was the widow of Arthur McLean, a lumberman, who, before his death, over a year ago, lived in Denver and Chicago. Before her marriage she lived in Canada.

STORY OF A REMARKABLE CRIME WHICH HAS ATTRACTED WIDE-SPREAD ATTENTION.

Karlsruhe, Germany, June 8.—Karl Hau, professor of Roman Law at the George Washington University, Washington, D.C., who is in prison here, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor, was visited by the governor of the prison to-day, and informed that his wife had committed suicide by drowning in a lake near Pfaffikon, Switzerland. The governor had quite a lengthy conversation with the prisoner, which led to a report that he had confessed that he had murdered his wife's mother, which he has strenuously denied. The state's attorney subsequently denied that Hau had made a confession. Mrs. Hau came to Karlsruhe two days ago, and had a long talk with her husband. She left the prison in a state of the utmost depression, and went back to Pfaffikon.

On arriving there Mrs. Hau went directly to a bathing establishment on a small lake near Pfaffikon, and requested to be given a separate dressing room. The attendants later saw her swimming out in the lake, but was no longer moving. A boatman rowed out to the spot, and brought the body ashore, where a physician who was hurriedly sent for attempted in vain to resuscitate the unfortunate woman. A long farewell letter was found in her clothing, in which she declared it was impossible for her to any longer bear the sorrow of living apart from her husband, notwithstanding the charge brought against him, but death was bitter for her, owing to her child.

A considerable sum of money was also found in Mrs. Hau's clothing.

It has not been possible to discover the origin of the story that Hau had confessed the murder of his mother-in-law to the governor of the prison, but it is assumed here that Hau did make a confession to his wife when she last saw him. She had been asked by both sides to be a witness in the case, it is said, but had refused, as she did not think she could give any important testimony.

STORY OF THE CRIME.

The crime of Karl Hau has attracted considerable attention, owing to the high standing of the prisoner, his intellectual gifts and the many peculiar aspects of the case, which up to the present time have only been explained by the fact that Hau was in financial difficulties. This, however, he has been satisfactory to many persons, who insist that he is insane, although his official examination resulted in his being sane on May 18.

Hau was born in Germany about 27 years ago, studied at the universities of Freiburg and Berlin, and went to Washington some four years ago with his wife and four-year-old daughter. He had married Lena Molitor, when he was a student of nineteen, against the wish of

MRS. HAU'S DEATH.

Following an Interview With Her Husband She Drowned Herself.

STORY OF A REMARKABLE CRIME WHICH HAS ATTRACTED WIDE-SPREAD ATTENTION.

Karlsruhe, Germany, June 8.—Karl Hau, professor of Roman Law at the George Washington University, Washington, D.C., who is in prison here, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor, was visited by the governor of the prison to-day, and informed that his wife had committed suicide by drowning in a lake near Pfaffikon, Switzerland. The governor had quite a lengthy conversation with the prisoner, which led to a report that he had confessed that he had murdered his wife's mother, which he has strenuously denied. The state's attorney subsequently denied that Hau had made a confession. Mrs. Hau came to Karlsruhe two days ago, and had a long talk with her husband. She left the prison in a state of the utmost depression, and went back to Pfaffikon.

On arriving there Mrs. Hau went directly to a bathing establishment on a small lake near Pfaffikon, and requested to be given a separate dressing room. The attendants later saw her swimming out in the lake, but was no longer moving. A boatman rowed out to the spot, and brought the body ashore, where a physician who was hurriedly sent for attempted in vain to resuscitate the unfortunate woman. A long farewell letter was found in her clothing, in which she declared it was impossible for her to any longer bear the sorrow of living apart from her husband, notwithstanding the charge brought against him, but death was bitter for her, owing to her child.

A considerable sum of money was also found in Mrs. Hau's clothing.

It has not been possible to discover the origin of the story that Hau had confessed the murder of his mother-in-law to the governor of the prison, but it is assumed here that Hau did make a confession to his wife when she last saw him. She had been asked by both sides to be a witness in the case, it is said, but had refused, as she did not think she could give any important testimony.

REVOLT IN THE SOUTH OF FRANCE If Officials of Towns Follow Example of Mayor of Narbonne Anarchy Will Result.

Paris, June 10.—The revolt of the wine growing population in the South of France, which goes into effect to-day, is causing apprehension in government circles. By the terms of the resolutions, which half a million people at Montpellier yesterday swore with uplifted hands to execute, the departmental, city, town and communal officials must resign to-day and the inhabitants refuse to pay taxes until parliament affords relief. Several mayors, headed by M. Farroul, mayor of Narbonne, resigned last night, and if this example is followed a condition bordering on anarchy will result and all civil government will cease to reign from the Spanish frontier to the Rhine, comprising the departments of Hérault, Aude, Haute-Garonne and Pyrénées-Orientales. The situation is all the more grave because it constitutes a unanimous protestation of the population, and, being unaccompanied by disorder, furnishes the government with no pretext to resort to force. Marcelin Albert, the leader of the movement, was until a couple of months ago an obscure wine grower of Argeliers. Now he is acclaimed as a redeemer, and seems to hold the south of France in the hollow of his hand. His orders are implicitly and unquestioningly obeyed, and by the powers of organization with which he is endowed, he has proved himself to be a born leader of men. It is realized among the hot-blooded people of the south that such a man might fire a formidable revolution. The government's bill, providing for the suppression of the manufacture of fraudulent wine comes up in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon, but beyond passing this bill the government can do little, all the experts who have investigated the conditions having found that the real depression was caused by overproduction, for which even the rigorous application of fraud will be no remedy. The only solution they report is the abandonment of much of the wine acreage in favor of regular farm crops and truck gardening. The outlook has caused much agitation in the press. The 'Aurore' says it thinks the government should treat the impoverished wine growers as if they had been overtaken by a catastrophe, and distribute money for their relief. It would cost several millions, the paper adds, but if it would restore tranquility, why hesitate? The 'Echo de Paris' says the government undoubtedly has the right to arrest M. Albert, the leader of the movement, but it dreads the consequences of such action. The paper further asserts that the government cannot yield to the anti-Republican, illegal and anti-patriotic challenge.

THE MAXWELL MEMORIAL

WINDOWS DEDICATED AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH, HOCHELAGA, YESTERDAY.

There could hardly be a more fitting memorial for the sixteen little children who lost their lives in the Hochelaga School fire on Feb. 26 last, and of the heroism of the late Miss Sarah Maxwell, their devoted teacher, than the two stained glass windows which were unveiled yesterday morning in St. Mary's Anglican Church, by the Very Rev. the Dean of Montreal, assisted by the rector the Rev. Henry Jekill before a large congregation including many relatives of the victims of the fire. The service consisted of matins and the communion with a sermon suitable to the occasion, preached by Dean Evans. Special music was furnished by the choir. The windows are beautiful specimens of stained glass. The Maxwell Memorial window is an allegorical representation of the sublime virtue of love, with the figure of a woman bearing a child in her arms, while another nestles at her feet, with the motto: 'The greatest of these is love.' Under the window is the following inscription: 'To the Glory of God and in loving memory of Miss Sarah Maxwell, principal of the Hochelaga Protestant School, who gave her life to save her pupils in the burning of the school building, Feb. 26, 1907.' The children's memorial window is a representation of the Good Shepherd carrying a lamb in his bosom, with the quotation from Isaiah: 'He shall gather the lambs in his arms, he shall carry them in his bosom.' Underneath is the inscription: 'To the Glory of God and in loving memory of the sixteen little children who met their death in the burning of the Hochelaga Protestant School fire, Feb. 26, 1907.' The Maxwell memorial was presented by the congregation of St. Mary's, and their friends, while the children's window was presented by the Sunday-school. Dean Evans preached a touching sermon, reviewing the disaster which gave rise to the memorials. The Dean took as his text, David's words with regard to his dead child, 'He cannot come to me but I shall go to him.' During the course of his remarks the preacher exhorted his hearers to prepare for the life hereafter. He referred to the devotion of Miss Maxwell; to her life of loving faithfulness, and to her heroic death. The dedication of the two memorial windows, he said, was a fitting tribute by the congregation and Sunday-school, and to those whose lives would always remain in the memory of the people of this country. The Dean assisted by the Rev. Mr. Jekill then proceeded to dedicate the windows to the glory of God and in the name of those to whose memory they have been erected.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS RE CHURCH UNION—ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

(See also Page 7.) Hamilton, Ont., June 8.—The business of the Union was resumed this morning after devotional meeting led by the Rev. E. D. Silcox, and sermon delivered by the Rev. J. W. Schofield, Ph.D. A report was received from the business committee recommending the Union to pass a strong resolution urging His Majesty's government to prohibit the export of opium and intoxicants to foreign countries, which was unanimously carried. On the report of the nomination committee, the following officers and committees were elected: The Rev. Messrs. T. Daley, secretary-treasurer; H. G. Rice, statistical secretary; J. W. Schofield, Union preacher; R. G. Watt, alternate. Committee re incorporation of churches.—The Rev. E. D. Silcox, Messrs. C. Cushing, N. Brewster, Lyman, Lee, Seth P. Lee. Sabbath observance.—The Rev. Messrs. H. I. Horey, W. E. Gilroy, J. B. Bacchus, W. R. Horner. Sunday school and young people's work.—The Rev. Messrs. D. S. Hamilton and N. H. Sanderson, Messrs. J. C. Copp and H. W. Barker. Representatives to college senate.—The Rev. Messrs. J. L. Alexander and W. A. Robins, Messrs. W. H. Smith (Montreal) and F. A. Stevenson (Montreal). Delegates to Union of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.—The Rev. Messrs. Dr. E. Munson Hill, William T. Gunn, William McIntosh, and Henry O'Hara. Temperance.—Mrs. Mary E. Sanderson (Montreal), the Rev. Messrs. D. S. Hamilton, W. H. A. Clark, Gale Craik, John McKillop, Messrs. M. T. Walker and E. J. Joselin, Mrs. R. W. McLachlan and Mrs. S. P. Lee. The question of Union with the Methodists and Presbyterians was taken up, and careful attention devoted to the clause referring to the relation of the ministry to the creed. Some expressed the belief that the time had come when the Congregationalists should make it perfectly clear through their committee to the other negotiating bodies that there could be no possibility of union in which the Congregational ministers and churches of Canada would have a part if absolute subscription to a written creed were required. The prevailing view brought out in the discussion upon this clause was, as the Rev. John Eames, representative from the Congregational Union of England and Wales, expressed it, 'that the crux of the whole matter was found in this clause, and that it was right here that Congregationalism could make its most important contribution to the united church. As, however, the pronouncement of the joint committee upon this question had been postponed until the next meeting in September, the Union decided to adopt the clause as presented in the report of the committee. The other clauses of the report were also adopted unanimously.' The Rev. Mr. Eames asserted the Union that their brethren in England were deeply interested in the question of church union now before the churches of Canada, and their hope and expectation was that the goal of an effective organic union of these three denominations would ultimately be reached. On Friday evening the Union listened to a very interesting address by the Rev. G. A. Sanden, founder of the home-mission stations among the Swedes around Wetaakiwin, Ala. Describing the beauty and richness of the country surrounding the churches there, he prophesied that Edmonton would be the first city of the Dominion in the years to come. As an immediate result of Mr. Sanden's visit to the Union, funds were appropriated for the extension of the work and the placing of two new missionaries to aid Mr. Sanden in coping with the rapidly increasing needs. One of the missionaries will be supported by a generous and interested member of Calvary Church, Montreal. On Friday evening the Rev. Mr. Eames delivered an impressive address emphasizing the need of 'more heart and soul in the church.' Not the abstract minor the abstract churches, not cold formalities in temple or chapel, could win and hold the hearts of men, but the warm, sympathetic, spirit-filled groups of Christian men and women, whether they assembled for worship in the fine churches, with ornate services, or the plain churches, with simpler forms of worship. 'Better, God's pure light in a cabin than darkness in a temple.' On Saturday afternoon Mr. S. H. Alexander entertained the Union at his home on Hamilton Beach, where a very pleasant social feast was enjoyed by a large number of happy people.

REPLY FROM BRITISH CONGREGATIONALISTS.

The reply from the Council of the Congregational Union of England and Wales and the directors of the Colonial Missionary Society to the Congregational Union of Canada on the question of union, expressed the opinion that in face of the great problems confronting the Church, a happier understanding between Christians of various communions was specially necessary in Canada, in view of the rapid influx of population into the opening territories of the North-West. But while this was true, a union of churches varying considerably in their ecclesiastical polity, to be successful, would require some give and take on the part of all concerned; and so long as such concessions did not affect fundamental principles, right-minded men would be ready to forego mere personal preferences if some real advantage might be thereby attained. The distinctive witness of Congregationalism had ever been that a Church of Christ could only exist truly and to purpose when it consisted of spiritual men—men 'born of the spirit,' and who manifested this in life and conduct, and upon whom personally there rested a large and inalienable responsibility. Given such a body of spiritual men, acting under the sole and supreme Headship of the Lord Jesus Christ himself, it followed that they were capable of and entitled to, self-government in all that concerns the internal life and administration of the Church. It was, indeed, by such self-government that character is disciplined and Christian manhood attained. On the other hand, mischiefs of the most serious kind have again and again attended the surrender of this self-governing power from the general body of the Church to its officials or others, however able or well-meaning. On this important point some of them were not without concern as we read the 'Proceedings of the Second Conference,' held in Toronto, December, 1905, in which it appeared that the individual church—the 'living Church,'—was made to retreat far into the background to give place to district councils or presbyteries, to annual conferences or councils, and to a general assembly, which would have full power to legislate, among other things, as to 'qualifications for the ministry, matters of doctrine, discipline, government and worship'; this assembly to be 'the Supreme Court of Appeal for questions of law, and also for questions of fact on matters under its immediate administration.'

These misgivings had been considerably modified by the proceedings of the third conference, held in Toronto, December, 1906, in which the Congregational unions of Ontario and Quebec, and of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, made the following statement: 'Inasmuch as it is desirable that each of the negotiating churches should bring into the United Church substantially what which has been distinctively its contribution to the progress of the Kingdom of Christ; inasmuch, also, as the special glory of the Congregational churches has been the ideal of full responsibility and large Christian duty set before the members of the local church, we would urge that ample opportunity for the preservation of this ideal be guaranteed in the Constitution of the United Church.' (pp. 7 and 8).

There was, however, one other important point. From the independent and Congregational standpoint, the long and elaborate Doctrinal Statement was open to serious objection. All through their history independents had refused to bind themselves by any written or stereotyped formula, on the ground—to use John Robinson's words—that 'God had always more light and truth to break forth from his word.' They have, believed in the constant guidance and illumination of the Spirit of God, and have always held themselves free to accept that illumination however and whenever it might be given. This was especially true for the ancient Congregational freedom an elaborate doctrinal schedule seemed very much like, exchanging the liberty of the spirit for the bondage of the letter. Of course this objection was diminished in force if this doctrinal statement was regarded as merely declaratory, and not meant for purposes of subscription or formal personal assent. We have read with pleasure the admirable expression of the views of the Canadian Congregationalists on this subject, when they say (p. 7), 'As to the questions which specifically relate the ministers to the doctrinal statement.' In the event of organic union being found impossible, the hope was expressed that some scheme of federation might be devised, by means of which overlapping and competition might be corrected where they now exist, or avoided for the future; and in their steady hearty co-operation secured amongst churches which by different methods pursue the same great end—the winning of all men to the faith and obedience of Christ our Lord. The signers of the document were: Albert Spicer, chairman of Council of Congregational Union of England and Wales; Richard J. Wells, secretary of Congregational Union of England and Wales; Alfred Rowland, chairman of board of directors of Colonial Missionary Society; D. Burford Hooke, secretary of Colonial Missionary Society.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE CLARKE.

Mr. George Clarke, chief of the night staff of the post-office, who lived at No. 150 Liguain street, died very suddenly in his home yesterday afternoon. The cause of his death was a ruptured artery. Mr. Clarke seemed to be in his usual health yesterday, and in the morning received Holy Communion in St. Anthony's Church. After a hearty dinner he went out to watch his two boys playing lacrosse in the yard at Belmont School. He took a hand himself in the game, and in running around slipped and stumbled over a stone. When he came back to the house nothing unusual was noticed, and without speaking to anybody he went into a small room facing the street and sat down. About a quarter of an hour later Mrs. Clarke went to speak to him, and noticing that he looked strange, shook his hand and called him, but receiving no reply, she thought flashed through her mind that he was dead. A physician and priest were at once summoned, but when Dr. Hackett arrived he could only say that Mr. Clarke had died of a ruptured artery of the heart. The news of the sudden death of one of the oldest employees of the post-office came as a shock to many friends who had known Mr. Clarke, and for whose family much sympathy was expressed yesterday. The deceased was 55 years old, and had been employed in the post-office about twenty years. The funeral will be held to-morrow morning at 8.30 to St. Anthony's Church.

FURS STOLEN.

Mr. Albert Vineberg's fur store, 622 St. Paul street, was broken into early yesterday morning, and a large quantity of furs were carried off. The burglar used a fire escape as a means of gaining an entrance to the second story window of the firm. The thieves evidently took over more furs than they could carry, for at daylight thirty lambskins were found at the foot of the fire escape.

CARNEGIE'S THOUSANDS Queen's University Endowment Committee is Working for Large Donation.

For a long time this morning the General Assembly discussed various minutes which gave rise to discussion, much of which was of no public interest. The proceedings were of a most prosaic nature. On the consideration of the report of Queen's College, Principal Gordon asked the Assembly to note one or two matters. It was gratifying to note the increase of students. There were 1,139 enrolled, of whom 700 were in Arts, 221 in Science, 210 in Medicine, and 38 in Theology. This was double what it was ten years ago, and 97 more than last year. A new feature is in the training of teachers. Under this provincial aid will be given Queen's to provide for its students privileges similar to those accorded to Toronto University, so that High School teachers will be trained at Queen's. As to the work of the university, it has gone on faithfully and well, and on the theological side presented no new aspect. The Rev. Mr. Mackay moved the adoption of the report. He believed that the church could little afford to lose Queen's, though their were so many universities around. He prophesied that the university would share in the growing material prosperity of the country. The lion, Mr. Laird seconded. Here at any rate, whether it was an evil or not, was a university free from state control, and it was able to speak out its mind. The students were loyal to their Alma Mater, and they were taking high places in law, science and medicine. The Rev. Robert Laird read the report of the committee appointed by the General Assembly to co-operate with the trustees of Queen's University in securing additional endowment for the university. Mr. Laird said the work was going on slowly but satisfactorily. Up to June, 272 churches had been visited, and $271,000 had been received. That the work was progressing was proved by the fact that $9,000 had been received in the last two weeks. Mr. Charlton had just paid in his subscription of $50,000 for the endowment of a chair of Moral Philosophy. Mr. Andrew Carnegie had promised that as soon as their fund reached $400,000 he would complete the half million dollars. So far the men of large wealth had not done much, as most of the subscriptions so far ranged from $1,000 to $5. Local building projects, the clearing off of debt and such like projects, have in many quarters quite occupied the attention of the most generous givers. But disappointments were outweighed by the bright prospects of the future. He was certain that the endowment was going to be a success, and in a year or two they would obtain the $300,000 to enable them to claim Mr. Carnegie's gift. The Rev. Dr. Lyle, Halifax, moved the adoption of the report, and in doing so stated that he believed that Queen's was doing a grand work. The university had struck the right national and Canadian note: 'Canada for the Canadians.' Although he had no connection with Queen's, he was proud of the university and those who were at the head of that institution. Mr. W. H. Cram, of Berlin, Ont., seconded. The report was carried and the sitting ended.

HONOR FOR C. P. R. OFFICIAL.

While the C. P. R. steamship 'Empress of Ireland' was steaming up the St. Lawrence, her commander, Lieut. J. B. Nesbitt, R.N.R., was summoned to the presence of Mr. Joseph Pope, who was invested with the Order of the Rising Sun, fifth class, and presented with a handsome silver teapot and cigarette case, on both of which was emblazoned the arms of His Imperial Highness. Captain Forster was complimented by Prince Fushimi on the magnificence of the 'Empress,' and congratulated on the admirable manner in which he had handled the ship during the voyage. The Prince's entire suite were present during the ceremony.

THANKS TO CITIZENS.

When leaving this morning, His Highness issued, through his chief of staff, Mr. Nagasaki, a message of thanks to the people of Montreal for their hospitable welcome of him. His reception by the citizens on his arrival at Bonaventure station, he states, was gratifying in the highest degree. All displayed a friendly interest, which spoke well for the relations between Japan and Canada. This was also noticeable in the kindly address of welcome which he received at the City Hall, and in the cheers of the thousands who gathered at the Jockey Club race meet to meet him. Throughout his whole stay here, he had been received with nothing but the greatest kindness and hospitality. It was a kindness which he would every appreciate, and in future years he would look back to it as one of the pleasantest epochs of his life, and most especially he desired to express his appreciation of the hospitality of Sir Montagu and Lady Allan.

THE PRINCE AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, June 10.—Prince Fushimi arrived in Ottawa at one o'clock and was received at the Central Station by a large concourse of citizens and by a guard of honor drawn from the Governor-General's Foot Guards. The station, the City Hall and many private buildings were hung with flags in honor of the distinguished visitor. As the Prince stepped from the train he was greeted with the strains of the Japanese National Anthem. His Excellency Earl Grey met his guest on the station platform and after an inspection of the guard of honor the party drove off to the Government House. The instruction furnished the public in the pronunciation of the Japanese burrah was thrown away on the crowd, for the only 'Banzai' that was heard was that of an enthusiastic small boy. During his stay in the Capital the Prince is the guest of His Excellency Earl Grey at Government House. Immediately after his arrival this forenoon he was entertained to luncheon at Government House. This afternoon at half-past three o'clock he will receive a civic address of welcome at the City Hall and will also have an opportunity of viewing the Parliament Buildings and the Experimental Farm. A state dinner is being given in his honor this evening, followed by a reception at which a large number of Ottawans will be presented to His Imperial Highness. The Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company have been commissioned by the Dominion Government to furnish a steamer to transport His Imperial Highness, General Prince Fushimi, G. C. B., from Brockville to Kingston, to-morrow. The party will arrive at Brockville at 1.30 p.m., and drive immediately to the steamer and embark for a trip through the Thousand Islands to Kingston. The trip will be made through the Canadian channel, giving the Prince an opportunity of seeing the beauties of the Thousand Islands to the greatest advantage. This trip will be made through intricate channels and round the Fiddler's Elbow and ending at Kingston, at 5.30 p.m. The steamer furnished for this occasion is the new 'Rapids King.' The upper saloon deck is provided with a large open cabin with glass windows and doors all around, so that the beauty of the scenery can be viewed from the inside.

CHESS MASTER AT WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, Man., June 9.—Dr. Lasker, champion chess player of the world, concluded his engagement here last evening after giving two exhibitions of his marvellous skill during the day. He played thirty-nine games, of which he won thirty-two, lost five and drew two. Those who earned the credit of having beaten the great master were Mr. Smith, the Canadian champion, who played two games with Dr. Lasker, losing one and winning the other. C. Blake, one of the greatest and most promising young players of western Canada, defeated Dr. Lasker twice, and the champion was kind enough to say that he regarded both Blake and Smith as players of very high merit.

ONE KILLED WAS W. JOHNSON.

William Johnson, 39 years of age, a native of the United States, is one of the men who were killed by the Grand Trunk International Limited on Friday morning last near Vaudreuil. His identification was established on Saturday by John Ryan, of 48 St. Etienne street, who said that Johnson was a cattleman. The victim and Ryan had recently made a trip together on board a cattle ship from Montreal to Glasgow, Scotland. They made the return voyage on board the Donelson line steamer, which arrived in port last Tuesday. Since landing Ryan had lost sight of Johnson and he did not know what had taken him to Vaudreuil. The body of the man who had been walking on the tracks with Johnson and who was killed at the same time, has not yet been identified.

PRINCE FUSHIMI.

The Japanese, it is often said, have the most charming manners of any people in the world. They are certainly among the most generous in the matter of gifts, if one may judge from the splendid souvenirs which His Imperial Highness bestowed upon the members of the family and the household where he was a guest during his stay in the city. To Master Hugh, and the little Messrs. Martha, Gwendolen, and Anna Allan, His Imperial Highness gave silver bonbonnières with the Japanese crest. Also, learning that it was the birthday of Mr. Joseph Pope's little daughter, he celebrated it with the gift of a silver basket. To Mr. Jones, the butler at Ravenscrag, Prince Fushimi gave a medal; to Mr. Scotten, the valet, a diamond scarf pin with the Prince's monogram; and to the maids, handsome gifts of money.

It was a kindness which he would every appreciate, and in future years he would look back to it as one of the pleasantest epochs of his life, and most especially he desired to express his appreciation of the hospitality of Sir Montagu and Lady Allan.

THE PRINCE AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, June 10.—Prince Fushimi arrived in Ottawa at one o'clock and was received at the Central Station by a large concourse of citizens and by a guard of honor drawn from the Governor-General's Foot Guards. The station, the City Hall and many private buildings were hung with flags in honor of the distinguished visitor. As the Prince stepped from the train he was greeted with the strains of the Japanese National Anthem. His Excellency Earl Grey met his guest on the station platform and after an inspection of the guard of honor the party drove off to the Government House. The instruction furnished the public in the pronunciation of the Japanese burrah was thrown away on the crowd, for the only 'Banzai' that was heard was that of an enthusiastic small boy. During his stay in the Capital the Prince is the guest of His Excellency Earl Grey at Government House. Immediately after his arrival this forenoon he was entertained to luncheon at Government House. This afternoon at half-past three o'clock he will receive a civic address of welcome at the City Hall and will also have an opportunity of viewing the Parliament Buildings and the Experimental Farm. A state dinner is being given in his honor this evening, followed by a reception at which a large number of Ottawans will be presented to His Imperial Highness. The Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company have been commissioned by the Dominion Government to furnish a steamer to transport His Imperial Highness, General Prince Fushimi, G. C. B., from Brockville to Kingston, to-morrow. The party will arrive at Brockville at 1.30 p.m., and drive immediately to the steamer and embark for a trip through the Thousand Islands to Kingston. The trip will be made through the Canadian channel, giving the Prince an opportunity of seeing the beauties of the Thousand Islands to the greatest advantage. This trip will be made through intricate channels and round the Fiddler's Elbow and ending at Kingston, at 5.30 p.m. The steamer furnished for this occasion is the new 'Rapids King.' The upper saloon deck is provided with a large open cabin with glass windows and doors all around, so that the beauty of the scenery can be viewed from the inside.

CHESS MASTER AT WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, Man., June 9.—Dr. Lasker, champion chess player of the world, concluded his engagement here last evening after giving two exhibitions of his marvellous skill during the day. He played thirty-nine games, of which he won thirty-two, lost five and drew two. Those who earned the credit of having beaten the great master were Mr. Smith, the Canadian champion, who played two games with Dr. Lasker, losing one and winning the other. C. Blake, one of the greatest and most promising young players of western Canada, defeated Dr. Lasker twice, and the champion was kind enough to say that he regarded both Blake and Smith as players of very high merit.

ONE KILLED WAS W. JOHNSON.

William Johnson, 39 years of age, a native of the United States, is one of the men who were killed by the Grand Trunk International Limited on Friday morning last near Vaudreuil. His identification was established on Saturday by John Ryan, of 48 St. Etienne street, who said that Johnson was a cattleman. The victim and Ryan had recently made a trip together on board a cattle ship from Montreal to Glasgow, Scotland. They made the return voyage on board the Donelson line steamer, which arrived in port last Tuesday. Since landing Ryan had lost sight of Johnson and he did not know what had taken him to Vaudreuil. The body of the man who had been walking on the tracks with Johnson and who was killed at the same time, has not yet been identified.

THE LATE DR. GAETZ

HIS DEATH GREATLY REGRETTED BY MANY FRIENDS IN MONTREAL.

(See also Page 12.) The friends in Montreal will be glad to learn of the death of the late Dr. Gaetz, the well-known Methodist minister of Red Deer, Alberta, who died on Sunday at his home in Montreal. Dr. Gaetz was born in Norway about sixty-five years ago, and was taking a thorough school training at Mount Allison University, Sackville, New Brunswick, where he studied for a ministry. After graduating from there he was stationed at several points down east, and about the year 1880 he accepted a call to the James Methodist Church, where at that time was situated down town. His residence in this city he spent with friends and warm admirers, and he lived for his true character and his fortitude. He was an earnest and loyal and faithful friend. He took a keen and earnest interest in the work of the church, irrespective of denomination, and his ministry at Montreal was a blessing to many who came within the ministrations of his own congregation. At the close of his pastorate he decided, owing to failing health, to give up commercial life and to devote himself to the active duties of a minister. In 1884, Dr. Gaetz, accompanied by his wife and family, left Montreal for W.T. At that time there were but a few white settlers in the west, and of two hundred miles from the coast of Edmonton, and among them were Catholic and Protestant Mission Stations, not a church, school or post office in a radius of a hundred miles from his chosen homestead. However, he was not easily discouraged by the solitude of his surroundings, and he went to work with that indomitable perseverance which meant for him a better life after years. Dr. Gaetz visited Montreal last year during the Conference of the Methodist Church, when he was given a warm and enthusiastic welcome. He was always a leading figure at these occasions, and although he was no longer in the active work of the ministry, he nevertheless maintained an interest in the deliberations of his church, and this was demonstrated by attending the Conference. The news of his death has been received with great regret among the Methodist clergy of this city, and in speaking of the late Dr. Gaetz this afternoon, the Rev. Dr. Shaw said, 'I am sorry to learn of his death, for in Dr. Gaetz the Methodist Church of Canada had a faithful and eloquent member. His death will remove a striking figure from the Canadian ministry, and we will certainly miss his influence not only as a minister but a friend and companion.'

EARLY GAINS LATER CHANGED INTO LOSSES

See-sawing on Wall Street with Bullish Influence Slowly Gaining.

SOME NOTABLE GAINS HERE, INCLUDING IRON ISSUES.

ROSE 5 POINTS—IRON PREFERRED SOLD AT 54—COMMON WAS LOWER—TWINS AND SCOTIA HIGHER.

Exchange value of £1 Sterling to-day is $4.04.34.

Opening business in stocks on Wall Street was scanty. Small advances were made, but there was a sprinkling of losses, including some of the most prominent stocks.

Later, prices rose sharply on liberal buying, but much of the advance was lost when realizing followed heavy selling of Union Pacific. The earlier gains were canceled, as a rule, into small losses, and activity subsided gradually as the recessions, but there were no important rallies.

There was pronounced strength in 'Soo' line stock, the common advancing to over 100, and the preferred being particularly strong at 135, although there were no sales of the latter stock.

On his market 'Soo' common was quoted at 106-10. There were no sales. The market here is generally about steady. There were a few strong issues, but the list was outbalanced from the prices ruling at the close of last week's business. Scotia, Twins and Mackay preferred were all strong stocks, each making about a point on the last selling price. Iron preferred was exceedingly strong and higher at 54; an advance of 1 1/2 points since Friday. A week ago to-day the stock sold at 51, and two weeks ago at 48 1/2. The common was rather weaker than the last previous sale, declining to 21 and 21 1/2, after making almost 22 last week.

This particular flurry in the iron stocks, caught the Montreal papers napping, as they were all united in the theory that the rise was 'significant' of peace in the warring camps of Iron and Coal. The position was shown in this column on Thursday, the first day of the iron advance to be untenable, on account of the want of sympathy in the Dominion Coal stock. On Friday there was a change of front and the 'Witness' suggestion was upheld throughout.

When Dominion Iron and Steel stocks begin to anticipate a favorable ending to the Steel-Coal troubles, it may be taken for granted that Dominion Coal, which pays a 67 percent return on the market price, will not be far behind in the dash for a higher range of quotations. That stock is just as sensitive as the ultra-susceptible iron issues and will move when there is really 'something doing' on permanent peace lines.

On the local curb this morning 1,000 Nova Scotia were sold at 24.

Money on call at 2 percent in New York. Prime mercantile paper 5 to 5 1/2 percent. Exchange, $172,062.126.

Directors of Illinois Traction have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 percent on the common stock payable July 1. Books close from June 15 to July 1.

The strength in Exchange indicates a continuance of gold engagements for export.

The London settlement begins to-morrow and transactions after mid-day will be for new account.

Sixteen New York banks reported less than 25 percent reserve in Saturday's statement against 18 last week and 17 at this time last year.

The output of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company's collieries for the week ending June 7 totaled 21,096 tons, a daily average of 3,015 tons.

On Victoria Day, it is pointed out, there was no flag flying from the Board of Trade building, but on Saturday many of the members noted that the flag was unfurled in honor of the Japanese royal visitor. While the latter mark of appreciation was thought to be fit and proper, there was some resentment that those in control of such matters should have overlooked the national occasion for a display of the Union Jack.

POWER STOCK IS VERY UNIQUE.

In a two-column article on the technical position of the stock of Montreal Power, the Financial Post of Canada has the following comprehensive outline of the stock's position on the security market.

The capital stock of the company... has rather a unique position in the security market, as it bears through a peculiar combination of circumstances all the hallmarks of a gilt-edged municipal security.

The following table also taken from the 'Financial Post,' demonstrates that the company has been economically managed: Declining Ratio of Expenses to Gross Profits on Ratio of

INVESTMENT RETURNS OF TWO PERIODS

Yield of Stocks at 1906 High Level Compared with Current Returns.

AVERAGE OF 17 ISSUES SHOWS 6.1% AGAINST 4.4% IN 1906.

When contrasted with the investment returns, based upon the highest prices ruling in 1906, the average return of seven-tenths industrial and railway stocks on current selling prices, shows a very wide range, and demonstrates to a remarkable extent the decline in the market value of securities since the highest of last year.

The following representative Canadian securities illustrate the point in the simplest manner. The average return on seventeen of the twenty stocks appended at the highest respective point in 1906, gives a return of only 4.4 percent, compared with 6.1 percent on the present prices. This estimate has been made by ignoring completely those stocks which have renewed dividends since 1906.

SASKATOON ACREAGE 50% IN EXCESS OF LAST YEAR.

Saskatoon, June 10.—Carefully compiled reports from the immense hard wheat area tributary to Saskatoon, now justify the conclusion that the acreage under seed in June, 1907, is thirty to fifty percent greater than last year, and of oats and barley fifty to sixty percent.

While the sowing was late the weather for the past two weeks has been propitious, and crop conditions are declared by old timers to be the very best. The severity of the winter and the late cold spring is considered by them to be the direct cause of the present unexampled growth.

East of the city at French, Woodview, Brockton and Elstow, the increased acreage is large. Durrain Brothers show 250 acres more than a year ago, and individual reports show increases of from twenty to eighty acres.

In the twenty-five districts west of the city, many of which have been settled five to ten years, the increase are sixty to eighty on a farm. In a few cases there are decreases, but the acreage of oats is very much larger. On the line of the Wetaskiwin branch of the C.P.R., there is a marked increase in area. These people have waited long for a railway, and the sure hope of getting it this fall has inspired them to increased activity.

A WILL CASE.

Argument in a very important friendly action has just been heard before Mr. Justice Charbonneau. The litigation referred to concerns the disposal of a portion of the estate of the late Hon. Joseph Masson. By his will, the late Mr. Masson substituted his property, estimated at over three million dollars, to his grandchildren. Mr. Louis Masson, one of the testator's sons, died without issue, and Mr. Leopold Masson, who under the will, would be one of the final substitutes now claims the partition of his deceased uncle's share, known as lot Nos. 2 and 9, the value of which is estimated at $1,250,000.

PRETTY VASSILISSA.

A POPULAR RUSSIAN FOLK-STORY, TRANSLATED FROM THE FRENCH OF M. EDOUARD BLANC.

(New York Evening Post.) (Concluded.)

Next morning, at dawn, she arose, and, going down, found Baba-Yagha in the garden. The witch whistled. The mortar, pestle, and broom appeared. "Do what I told you, Vassilissa, and have everything finished by this evening, or I will eat you up."

"What else do you want to know?" "That is all," said the young girl. "Very well. The outside dust must not get mixed with that inside my cottage. It is my turn now," said Baba-Yagha. "To ask you a question. How were you able to find time, yesterday and to-day, to do all the work I gave you to do?"

"My mother's blessing, which she gave me upon her death-bed, helped me," replied Vassilissa. "Ah! Is that it? Well, then, go away, you girl; you have been blessed, cried the witch. "Go back to your house. I don't like people who have been blessed."

"The witch sat down at the table, and ate just as on the day before. Then she went to bed, and fell asleep, after having given Vassilissa a little bread and soup. Previously, she said to her: "To-morrow you will do as to-day. You will clean the whole house, and set everything in order. Then you will go to the garret, where you will find ten bushels of poppy seed, and you will clean it. Some evil-minded person has mixed some death in it. If you don't succeed, I will eat you up."

"The next morning Baba-Yagha left, in the same manner as on the day before. Vassilissa set to work. The task was difficult, and would have taken the dearest person a great length of time. But, thanks to the doll, it was accomplished as easily as the rest. Everything passed as on the day before. While Vassilissa did the rest of the work, the doll, by the means she knew, sorted the grain. In the evening the witch returned as usual.

"Well," she cried to Vassilissa, "I have done what I told you? I have long teeth to-day, and you are fat; I would like very much to eat you." Vassilissa showed her the poppy seed, separated from all the particles of sand and earth. The witch looked, and seemed satisfied. Then she cried again: "Good and faithful servants, take this seed, and go and extract the oil from it."

"The three pairs of hands appeared, took the seed, and carried it off. "Bring me the dinner you prepared for me," said Baba-Yagha to the young girl. Vassilissa brought the dinner. "Sit down there," said the old woman to her, "and eat with me." Vassilissa sat down at the table, so as to obey the witch, but she hardly touched the different dishes, although she was very hungry, and she remained quiet.

"Why don't you speak?" asked the witch. "I don't dare," replied Vassilissa. "All right. I don't like chattering. However, you probably saw some things here which astonish you." "I don't speak about what astonishes me." "You are right; I don't care for curious people." "However, I should like very much to ask you one thing."

"What is it?" asked the witch. "I have a question to ask you. But, at the same time, don't forget the proverb, 'They who learn too much grow old quickly.'" "Now, say what you wish." "While coming here, in the forest," replied the young girl, "I met a white horseman, wearing white armor, mounted on a white horse. Who was he?" "He is my 'Bright Morning,'" replied the old woman.

"A little farther on, still in the forest, I met another horseman, dressed in red, mounted on a red horse." "He is my 'Red Sun.'" "Finally, on arriving here, I saw a black horseman, dressed in black, on a black horse." "He is my 'Dark Night.'" Vassilissa then thought of the three pairs of hands, which she had seen appearing. "What else do you want to know?" "That is all," said the young girl. "Very well. The outside dust must not get mixed with that inside my cottage. It is my turn now," said Baba-Yagha. "To ask you a question. How were you able to find time, yesterday and to-day, to do all the work I gave you to do?"

"My mother's blessing, which she gave me upon her death-bed, helped me," replied Vassilissa. "Ah! Is that it? Well, then, go away, you girl; you have been blessed, cried the witch. "Go back to your house. I don't like people who have been blessed."

"The witch pushed her out by her shoulders. Vassilissa started to run, but the witch called her back: "Wait. Here is the light you came to get. Take it into your house." She took one of the skulls on the hedge, and, putting a stick into the bottom hole, she put it into Vassilissa's hand.

Vassilissa started running again, and, as soon as she was out of sight of the cottage, she wanted to throw the skull away, as it frightened her. However, a deep, hollow voice came out of it, saying: "Do not throw me away. Take me to your house; you will have good luck, if you do."

"The young girl continued on her way, carrying the glowing head, which lighted her through the forest, and whose light did not go out in the daytime. She walked through the woods the whole day. Night came on when she reached the village, and the darker it grew, the brighter the head became. When she arrived near the house, it was dark night. She was much surprised at finding no light there. Having opened the door, she found her stepmother and her sisters, and, for the first time, she was pleasantly greeted. They said to her that they hoped the light she had brought would burn in the house. Since she had gone, they could have neither fire nor light there. The flint and steel refused to give sparks, and the fire which was brought from the neighbors' houses went out, too.

"In the house, as well as outside, the eyes of the skull continued to give a brilliant light. The stepmother and her daughters tried to light torches with it, but they had no success. The eyes of the skull looked at them and burned them. Vassilissa alone could not feel any burn from it. The stepmother and her daughters were frightened and tried to run away; but the eyes of the skull followed them everywhere with their stare, from the cellar to the attic, and burned them to the very bone. In the morning they were completely burned, and turned to charcoal.

Vassilissa closed the house door, hurried to the garden, and went to ask the hospitality of an old country woman, who was living alone, near by. This old woman welcomed her heartily, and treated her as her daughter. Vassilissa stayed with her through the winter. In the following spring, while passing near the house Vassilissa saw that, where she had buried the skull, an enormous tuft of flax had sprung up. This flax was so fine, that she could not help admiring it. In the evening, she said to the old woman: "I must buy a spinning-wheel. I want to spin."

The next morning she went and cut the flax, prepared it with care, and, as soon as it was ready, began to spin. The thread she formed so fast that it fairly burned her fingers. She had never spun so quickly before. Also, at times, Vassilissa thought that other hands were helping hers. When the thread was spun, it was so fine that it was impossible to find a suitable loom with which to weave it. Vassilissa and the good woman applied in vain to all the weavers and joiners of the town. At last, the idea came to Vassilissa, as it always did, to confide her trouble to the doll.

"It's very simple," she said to her. "Just give me an old loom and some horsehair." Vassilissa gave them to her one evening. The doll set to work, and the next morning had made a very good loom for the young girl, suitable for the size of the thread. With this loom, Vassilissa wove the cloth, and, when all the thread of the flax was used up, there were ten pieces of this cloth. It was so fine that each piece would pass through a needle's eye. Vassilissa gave it to the old woman, and told her to go and sell it, but to give it to no one but the king.

The old woman took the cloth, and went away to the king's palace, which was situated in the next town, on a little hill. For the whole day, she walked up and down, with her bundle, in front of the palace windows, until they came and asked her what she wanted. She replied that she desired to be taken to the king himself, to offer him something precious. She was taken before the king, who was young and good-looking, and who asked her what she was bringing. The old woman presented the cloth to him, and all the courtiers were amazed. He asked the good woman how much she wanted for the cloth. "It is a priceless thing," replied she. "So I came to make a gift of it to my sovereign."

The king took the cloth, and had a large purse of money given to the old woman. The cloth was admired by all. The king decided to have it cut, in order that it might be made into clothes for himself. But, when it was cut, the texture was so fine that it was impossible to find a tailor clever enough, or thread fine enough, to sew it. The king had the cloth exhibited, and had all the cleverest tailors in his kingdom called together for the task. But as soon as they saw the weave, they said they were unable to do the work which was required of them. One alone, tried to sew the pieces, but could not succeed in doing so. At last the king had an idea, an idea such as kings do have. He said to himself: "I am going to have the good woman come, who brought me the cloth. She who wove it will very probably be able to sew it."

CHILDREN'S CORNER. THE HAPPY DAY. The twins were wishing for things. They often did that, and when they went back to their play-things some-thing was wrong. The toys were not there and the dolls had ugly clothes and the books were ragged, and nothing was pleasant. Mamma never liked to have Max and Molly begin a wishing game, but the children played that nearly every day.

"I wish Geraldine Matilda had a long, white silk and a trunk full of pretty clothes," said Molly, taking the poor old doll up with a jerk. "Geraldine Matilda, you are a perfect fright!" The doll was too polite to hint that Molly had allowed her to stay out in the rain-storm and rain the only dress she had, and the little girl went on with her unkind remarks. "I guess I'll put you in the next missionary barrel and send you off. You aren't fit for anybody but heathen folks to play with."

"Why don't you wish for something nice?" said Max. "Who cares for old doll clothes? I wish we could do exactly as we please all day. That would be fun, wouldn't it?" "Yes, it would," said Molly, tossing the poor old doll into a corner. "I'd stay up late in the evening and not go to bed till midnight, and I'd—"

"And I'd have candy and pop corn and peanuts and—interrupted Max. "And I'd play in the dirt without having to wash my hands. What a happy day we'd have!" "Well, you can have a happy day if you want," said Mamma, who had been listening. "Of course, you cannot go down town by yourselves, but you may have your wishes granted as far as possible if you think you will have a happy day."

"Goody! Goody!" screamed the twins. "Let's go out and paddle." There had been a little shower, and the gutters were brimming with water. The twins were soon having a fine time dabling in the mud, with no one to top on the window and tell them to be careful. Their clothes were soiled, and they had mud in their hair, but all the time they were laughing and having a good time together. "Now, let's have some candy and cookies," said Molly, after a long time spent in splashing and playing in the water. "I'm hungry."

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Ella Dingman, Morganston, Ont., writes of her experience with them: "It is with the greatest of pleasure that I record Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled for a long time with my heart; I had weak and dizzy spells, could not rest at night, and I would have to sit up in bed the greater part of some nights, and it was absolutely impossible for me to lie on my left side. At last I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they did me so much good I got another box and they effected a complete cure. I have not been troubled with my heart since."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25. All dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DAILY TEXT.

June 10. Sing forth the honor of his name: make his praise glorious.—Ps. lxxvi., 2. I would I were a child, That I might look, and laugh, and say, My Father! And follow Thee with running feet, or rather Be led through dark and wild! How I would hold Thy hand, My glad eyes often to Thy glory lifting! Should darkness twist Thy face and mine come dark drifting, My heart would but expand. If an ill thing came near, I would but creep within Thy mantle's folding, Sht my eyes close, Thy hand yet faster holding, And soon forget my fear, —George MacDonald.
