The officers to be named to the board include the president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and executive committee. Appointment of an auditor will also be made.

STREET MISHAPS DURING WEEK LOW IN NUMBER

Police Investigated Less Accidents Than For Any Recent 7-Day Period

The Westmount Police Department, besides having an unusually peaceful New Year's Eve this year, have had to investigate less accidents during the past week than for any recent seven-day period.

The accident book at the station contains reports of but two or three mishaps occurring since last Friday and in no case, were the persons involved even slightly injured.

When an automobile driven by Henri Gelinas, 4 Oldfield avenue, apt. 12, skidded at the intersection of St. Sulpice Road and Mount Pleasant avenue, at 10.05 o'clock Saturday night, it crashed into a lamp standard, causing damage to both the lamp and the car.

Gelinas told police he was proceeding from east to west on St. Sulpice and turned his car into the lamp standard to avoid striking another machine that was going south on Mount Pleasant.

When it was sideswiped by a passing truck, a parked automobile belonging to Mrs. G. Eadie, 425 Roslyn avenue, was slightly damaged. Mrs. Eadie's car was parked on the north side of Sherbrooke street between Victoria and Prince Albert avenues at four o'clock Saturday afternoon when it was hit by the truck. She told police the licence number of the machine which they say is registered in the name of G. Petrelle. Only slight damage was caused the left front mudguard of her car. Constable W. Mackett investigated.

Council Holds Final Session

Unless Monday's nominations necessitate an election the present Westmount City Council held its final meeting in the City Hall on Tuesday night, when considerable routine matters were attended to.

Announcement was made that two more traffic signs will be erected in the city. A "slow" sign will be placed on the Boulevard at the southwest intersection of Lansdowne avenue and a "stop" sign to be erected on Thornhill avenue at the southwestern corner of the Argyle avenue intersection.

The meeting was presided over by Acting Mayor C. K. McLeod and was attended by Alderman G. F. Currie, Douglas Lorimer and B. Panet-Raymond.

Westmount Stamp Club, with headquarters in the Westmount Athletic Grounds, recently held its annual meeting when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. R. J. Sutherland, President; Messrs. T. Kearney and J. D. Williamson, Vice Presidents; L. Flood, Secretary-Treasurer. The executive is cooperating with the other committees to make this the biggest and best year in the club's history.

The membership committee is composed of Messrs. Foster, Bell, Munn and J. D. Williamson, while the program committee consists of Messrs. R. J. Haldimand, G. Sheppard, Ian Warren and L. Flood.

The Exhibition Committee composed of Messrs. T. Kearney, R. H. M. Falls, J. Pickering, J. A. Yearwood, G. Sheppard, and M. Shulman, are working on a large exhibition and postage stamps to be held in Victoria Hall March 2nd, 3rd, and 4th. Many thousands of stamps will be on display.

Model Plane Club Members Visit Aircraft Factory

Thirty members of the Model Airplane Club of the Westmount Y.M.C.A., under the leadership of Ted Swift, made an educational trip through the airplane manufacturing division of Canadian Vickers on Tuesday morning.

The model plane club meets every Friday evening at 8 o'clock and is one of the most active of the units at the local "Y" branch. It got into full swing during the summer and its members advanced rapidly in the art of model making.

The first planes built were those of the glider type depending on gravity for their motive force. Later, the boys were shown how to construct planes equipped with elastic motors and today there is a group specializing in jet-propelled models. This latter division meets every Thursday night.

A number of members have been connected with the club for some years now and are particularly well versed in the art of model making.

Police Had Quiet Time Here On New Year's Eve

The Westmount Police and Fire Departments experienced their quietest New Year's Eve in a number of years on Saturday, it was reported at the station this week. Only persons arrested were a few loiterers.

As far as the Fire Department was concerned it didn't even have to respond to a false alarm, an unusual situation for New Year's Eve. The minor outbreak of false alarms three weeks ago ceased immediately upon publication in the Westmount Examiner of a warning to the person or persons responsible by Chief Walter Gaugh.

The situation here was in direct contrast to that existing in Montreal where the report of the night patrol division of the Detective Bureau showed that 1,867 arrests — an unusually large number — had been made.

No special reason for the unusually quiet night here was advanced at the station. It was pointed out, however, that police seldom experience any real trouble in Westmount on New Year's Eve and the almost complete lack of it this year only meant a difference of a small number of arrests.

COUNCIL WILL PLAN VISIT OF KING, QUEEN

Will be One of First Matters To Come Before Attention of New Body

One of the first matters to come before the attention of the new City Council will, in all probability, be the formation of arrangements for the expected visit of the King and Queen here on May 16.

The present aldermanic body communicated with the Secretary of State two weeks ago citing Westmount's desire to arrange a gala celebration for the visit of the Royal Couple but so far no reply has been made. It is pointed out that due to the limited time set forth in the itinerary of the Royal Couple they will be able to spend but a brief stay here.

Provided it is feasible for them to pass through Westmount they will be met at City limits by a police escort, and if time allows will be formally received by the mayor and aldermen.

All public buildings will be suitably decorated and merchants will have displays in their store windows. Flags, of course, will fly in profusion from private dwellings.

RABBI H. STERN WILL ATTEND U.S. MEETING

Rabbi H. S. Stern of Temple Emanu-El will attend the Union of American Hebrew Congregations' meetings to be held in Cincinnati, January 15th-19th. Last night he spoke before the Lion's Club on "The Problem of the Refugees." While in the United States, he will address a number of meetings. He plans to attend the Jewish Congress sessions at Toronto, on January 21-23rd, and on Sunday evening, January 29th, he is the guest preacher at Emmanuel Church (Montreal).

On Friday evening, January 13th, during Rabbi Stern's absence, the pulpit will be occupied by Rev. J. Lavell Smith, of Westmount Park Church.

Two Persons Are Hurt in Accident

Injured in a car accident at Vendome and Notre Dame de Grace avenue, Mrs. H. L. Blatter of 151 Cornfall avenue, Mount Royal, was treated for nervous shock. Also injured in the same accident was Roger Thibault of 595 Victoria avenue, Westmount, who was at the Homeopathic hospital for injuries to the face.

Mrs. Blatter was a passenger in the car driven by her husband, on New Year's Day, when the machine and another car driven by Thibault, was involved in a head on collision.

RETURNING OFFICER MUST RECEIVE PAPERS BY 2 P.M.; ELECTIONS NOT EXPECTED

All Nomination Formalities Completed Yesterday by Candidates So Far in Running — Election Date Set For January 16 — No Civic Election Has Been Held Here for Eight Years

Nomination of candidates for municipal mayoralty and aldermanic seats will be held in the City Hall on Monday afternoon from 12 to two o'clock. All papers must be in the hands of City Secretary-Treasurer Arthur F. Bell, the returning officer, by 2 p.m.

By mid-afternoon yesterday all candidates who have thus far entered the running had completed nomination formalities. They are Walter Alfred Merrill, K.C., mayoralty candidate; the following aldermen who are seeking re-election, Douglas Lorimer, seat one, William Bridges Scott, seat two, C. Kirkland McLeod, seat three, B. Panet Raymond, seat five, and Irving Putnam Rexford, who has entered the municipal elections this year for the first time as aldermanic candidate to seat four.

The nomination will also be held on Monday for trusteeship of the Westmount Public Library.

If an election is necessitated—if so it will be the first in eight years—it will be held on January 16.

However, the general opinion is that all candidates would be elected by acclamation. Those so far known to be in the running have the wide support of many leading citizens and the possibility of their being opposed is believed to be slight.

Listings of nominators of the mayoralty and three aldermanic candidates, all that were available yesterday afternoon, are as follows:

Irving Putnam Rexford; Nominated by: Harold B. Stewart, Norman Root, T. Ross Whitehead, D. Macpherson, Sydney Pierce, M. V. Cordell, Edward C. Pratt, F. E. Scott, Geo. S. Currie, John B. Cudlip, A. O. Ponder H. R. Little.

William Bridges Scott; Nominated by: W. H. A. Olive, R. H. Macdonald, Gordon M. Pyke, Keith Leishman, Harold E. Walker, E. C. Dean, W. J. Davidson, H. W. Nesbitt, G. R. Hodgson, W. Earle Walker, Charles Paul, Jas. A. Robertson, Ivan Leger.

Walter Alfred Merrill; Nominated by: John Jenkins, R. A. Nixon, Geo. Hogg, Ross Clarkson, P. W. McLagan, Hy. Weinfeld, J. H. Labelle, C. F. Crutchlow, Jackson Dodds, Wm. E. Clarke, G. A. Campbell, K.C., Geo. K. Buddet, John H. Hand, W. Boyd Robson, R. Brock Thomson.

Annual Musicale
Westmount Women's Club will hold its annual musicale next Friday at three o'clock in Victoria Hall. The event will be under the convenership of Mrs. H. Shoobridge. Artists on the program will include Miss Sylvia Kelsey, Miss Suzette Forges, Herve Baillargeon, Harriet Prutsman will be at the piano.

APPECIATION SHOWN BY TURKEY WINNER
Mrs. G. King, winner of the turkey offered as the prize in the Limerick contest conducted in the Westmount Examiner has written us the following letter:

Apt. 7, 255 Melville Ave., Westmount.
Mr. H. Mount,
Westmount Examiner
Dear Sir:
I wish to thank you for your letter informing me that I was the winner of the Limerick Contest. I must confess I got a big surprise when I read in the paper that I had won the turkey.

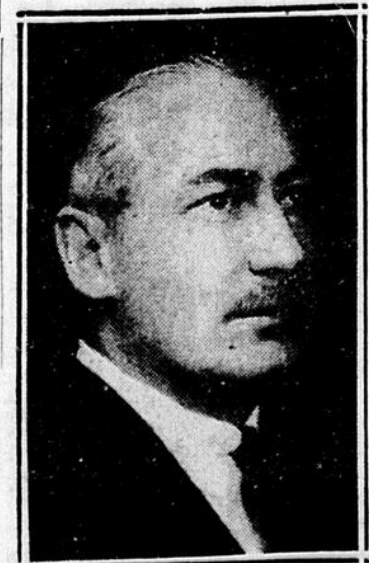

On account of the Christmas rush of mail, your letter was delayed several days, so we had the turkey for New Year's instead of Christmas. That is the reason I have not acknowledged it sooner. However I do thank you, and would like to take this opportunity of letting you know how much we enjoy your weekly paper, The Westmount Examiner.

Wishing you and all your staff a very happy and prosperous New Year.
With many thanks, I beg to remain
Yours truly,
MRS. G. KING.

RETURNED MONDAY
Mr. and Mrs. Archie F. Baillie and their family, returned home on Monday from Knowlton, Que., where they spent the New Year's weekend.

IN DEFENSE OF BALDNESS When Deputy-Mayor Henry H. Curran, of New York, was asked to lend his aid to a "drive on baldness," instead of acceding to the request, he launched into a defense of bald-headed men...

And is there not a good deal of sense to what Mr. Curran says? After all, of what earthly use is a good head of hair? In times when men did not have comfortable headgear, or when the winds whistled through the chinks of log houses, it might have served some purpose in keeping the scalp warm. Now it is not an essential.

A bald-headed man does not need to worry each morning trying to get the tats out of his hair, or to continue worrying through the day to keep it in place. He does not need to fear dandruff. It has already done its worst for him. And it is much easier to wash a bald head than it is to lave one which has a good stand of hair.

And what is all their worry about? It only hastens the departure of their locks. When the hair is gone they are still the same men, even if they do look different from their youth.

Closeups Of A Love Scene By Shearer-Power

History records that Marie Antoinette and the gallant Count Axel de Fersen fell in love at first sight. On a Hollywood sound stage Norma Shearer and Tyrone Power are about to recreate the scene for "Marie Antoinette" which is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday.

Power appears taller than his six feet beside Miss Shearer, who is seated on a specially constructed two-foot stool. Her gown of gray silk billows around her. It weighs 50 pounds, including the steel panniers of the period that support it and ten petticoats.

"This will be a 'take,'" says Director W. S. Van Dyke II. The scene is a closeup of Power taking Miss Shearer in his arms. Van Dyke orders the set quieted down while Miss Shearer walks slowly back and forth. In a few minutes, tears come to her eyes.

"Roll 'em" the director said. "I thought love came more happily," says Miss Shearer. "What are you saying?" Power demands.

"Perhaps that great love comes with tears," Miss Shearer smiles, wistfully. Power looks at her, dazed and incredulous. Then his scruples swept away by the expression in her eyes, he kisses her. Miss Shearer's head falls on Power's shoulder.

"Cut," says Van Dyke. Miss Shearer starts to laugh, and says to Power, "Hold me tight."

"What's the matter?" asks Power. "I caught my foot in the hem of my dress," explains the actress, "and if you don't hold me up I'll fall down."

Parade Of Stars Is Featured In Goldwyn Follies The most amazing array of stellar talent ever assembled in a single production is presented in Samuel Goldwyn's magnificent Technicolor musical extravaganza, "The Goldwyn Follies," which is now playing at the Seville United Theatre.

Drawing from every field of entertainment to augment a screen cast headed by Adolphe Menjou, The Ritz Brothers, Andrea Leeds, Ella Logan, Jerome Cowan and The Gorgeous Goldwyn Girls, the producer secured radio's Edgar Bergen and "Charlie McCarthy," Phil Baker and Kenny Baker; grand opera's Helen Jepson and Charles Kullmann; the dance's Zorina and George Balanchine's American Ballet, and the musical stage's favorite comedian, Bobby Clark.

Missouri Town Recreated For "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer"

Most of California's "ghost towns," communities which numbered thousands of souls, now abandoned to pack rats and an occasional squatter, were founded in the hope of increasing greatness. Today, however, a town has been built in the positive knowledge that it will never amount to anything.

On the screen, the sleepy village, with no past, no future, is called St. Petersburg, Missouri. Up and down its dusty main street, shimmering in the heat waves, trudge Tom Sawyer, Huckleberry Finn, Aunt Polly, Muff Potter the town drunkard; Injun Joe, the river renegade; Becky Thatcher, and all the other characters of Mark Twain's imagination.

When Mark Twain wrote "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," he wrote of Hannibal, Mo., on the Mississippi, but in common with most authors he gave his locale a fictitious nomenclature.

When St. Petersburg was translated into shadows for David O. Selznick's production of the Twain classic of boyhood, it took its place among other ghost towns left to wither in the California sun. Its entire life as an inhabited community was just a few weeks.

"The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," which is now showing at the York United Theatre and is released through United Artists.

War On Crime Is Leading To Many Reforms

Edward G. Robinson's gallery of film portrayals will some day provide observers of the American scene with the most complete pictorial chronicle of the cavalcade of crime in the United States.

Robinson is now playing in "I Am The Law" at the Snowdon United Theatre until Saturday. In 1930, with American staggering from the body blows inflicted by big-syndicate, ruthless run-runners, Robinson brought his first, and one of his greatest gangster characterizations to the screen in "Little Caesar."

The dramatic force of the picture's theme and the impact of Robinson's portrayal of the gang chieftain brought the nation to its feet cheering the film and demanding in stronger voice the repeal of prohibition. Two years later 3.2 deluged the country and spelled the doom of the run-running racketeers.

This phase of crime's development into a billion-dollar racket was again glaringly exposed by Edward G. Robinson in "Smart Money."

With this lucrative source of income cut off and the bounty of the racket dissipated in gambling, gangdom next turned to bank robbery, kidnaping, policy and corrupt politics to provide the wherewithal for living in the manner to which they had become accustomed.

Sonja Henie Brilliant In New Screen Ballet

In their search for a colorful ballet to climax the skating numbers in her current 20th Century-Fox picture, "My Lucky Star," currently at the Westmount United Theatre Sonja Henie and her dance director, Harry Losee, turned happily to one of the most beloved story-book classics of all time — Lewis Carroll's "Alice In Wonderland."

All of Carroll's fantastic creatures have come to life—and all on skates. Sonja skims across the ice in the company of Tweedledee and Tweedledum (appropriately played by Jack and Bob Heasley who are identical twins) and the Walrus and the Carpenter.

The philosophic caterpillar descends from his tangle to join the dance, together with the King and Queen and Knave of Hearts; there are the Griffin and the Dodo, the Mock Turtle and the Dormouse, as well as the Ugly Duckling, the Cheshire Cat, the Mad Hatter, the White Rabbit, the Red and Black court attendants.

The ballet is worked into the story of "My Lucky Star" as part of a gigantic ice carnival which Sonja stages for a big departure.

Mrs. H. Pope Plans Bible Study Services To Be Resumed Sunday

Bible Study services will be resumed in Calvary Church, on Sunday morning, when the Minister, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will preach the sermon on "Mountain Peaks in the Religious Experience of Mankind," based upon the story of the children of Israel at Mount Sinai, as recorded in the Book of Exodus. Throughout the closing months of the year 1938 the congregation in Calvary Church derived much inspiration from the Bible Study services, and it is confidently expected that a continuation of these studies will still prove inspiring and challenging.

The Church Schools will resume their usual hours, 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Sunday, with the young people's organized group meeting for the opening session of the opening session of the New Year. A special meeting of the teachers and officers with the members of the church board will be held at 4.15 p.m. to consider together the work of the schools in the life of the church and the community.

At the evening service at 7.30 p.m. Dr. Jones will preach on a theme of challenging significance for our own time, "Christ for every Crisis." This theme was adopted recently by the World Wide organization of the Christian Endeavour, as it faces the problems of youth in the modern world. Many are anxiously asking whether Christianity has a vital message for our own day and generation. In this sermon an endeavour will be made to relate the vital faith of Christianity to the needs of men today.

On Monday, at 8.15 p.m. the

Academy Road Resident Was Connected With Pulp and Paper Industry

Final tribute was paid to Percy Edmond Iago, of 50 Academy Road, on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the chapel of Jos. C. Wray and Bro., 1234 Mountain street. Mr. Iago died on Sunday evening at his residence following an illness of two months.

He had been connected with the pulp and paper industry in Montreal and Shawinigan Falls for a number of years and was employed as an accountant with the Consolidated Paper Company.

Born in London, Eng., Mr. Iago came to Canada 26 years ago. He is survived by his widow, the former Hetty Claridge, and a brother residing in Hobe, Sussex, Eng.

The Argentina Touring Club of Argentina will send a "Good-Will Delegation" to the two 1939 fairs in the United States.

Extreme Hairstyles For Evening Wear

Many very extreme picture coiffures are adapted for evening. Gallant military hair-dos from the Versailles days are modernized to accompany evening tailcoats. Louis XV beauties with towering coiffures of puffs and curls intertwined with ribbons, strings of pearls and plumes complete handsome robes de style. Elegantes even affect powdered hair. Antoine is showing youthful wigs a la Madame Recamier lacquered in silver white or pale gold.

One Day Special Californian: "Now in my State we can grow a tree that size in about a year. How long did it take you to grow that one?" Floridian: "Can't say for sure, but it wasn't there yesterday."

THE WAY TO A MAN'S HEART

Skill Plus New Skillet Plumbs Depths Of Tasty Tenderness

Within the breast of veal lies hidden tenderness. But there is nothing like a modern skillet to bring it out.

Breast of Veal with Prune Dressing (Serves 4 to 6)

One small breast of veal, 2 pounds, 1 cup cooked chopped prunes, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, 3 tablespoons melted shortening, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons vegetable shortening, 4 medium sized sweet potatoes.

Have the butcher slit the veal breast to form a pocket. Wipe the meat with a clean cloth. Season well with salt and pepper. Mix the ingredients for the dressing and pack loosely into the cavity. Sew securely. Place the skillet with the fat over medium heat (350 degrees F.). When butter begins to brown add meat and brown thoroughly on all sides. While meat is browning peel the potatoes and cut in halves. When meat is brown pack the potatoes around meat, cover, and leave on medium heat until cover is too hot to touch and vapors begin to escape from under the cover. Reduce heat to low (300 degrees F.) and cook until tender—about 1 1/2 hours.

Budget Dinner (Serves 4 to 6)

One pound lean beef, ground, 1 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 1/2 small onion, chopped, 2 tablespoons vegetable shortening, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 2 cups hot water, 1 cup canned tomato soup, 1 tablespoon chili sauce.

Mix beef with salt pepper, onion. Shape into small cakes. Place skillet with fat over medium heat (350 degrees F.). When butter begins to brown add meat cakes and brown well on all sides. Remove cakes. Stir flour into drippings in pan, add water, soup and chili sauce and bring to a boil. Return cakes to pan and drop 1 tablespoon dumpling mixture on top of each. Cover and leave on medium heat until the cover is too hot to touch and vapors escape from under the cover. Reduce heat to low (300 degrees F.) and cook until done—about 10 minutes.

Breast of veal, prunes and sweet potatoes cooked together on top of the stove in a new hard, sheet aluminum skillet not only cuts down fuel, shrinkage and costs of meat, but enhances the flavor.

Eve Maxwell-Lyte Here on Wednesday

Eve Maxwell-Lyte, regarded by critics as the greatest folk singer of the day, will make her Montreal debut next Wednesday evening at Victoria Hall in the first of Mrs. A. M. Russell's Nine O'Clocks for 1939. This will mark the inauguration of a nationwide tour which will take Miss Maxwell-Lyte through Canada and the United States.

A most charming personality and great musical talents have forced this young English singer to the front rank of contemporary concert artists.

Miss Maxwell-Lyte's art is intimate, but its appeal is unlimited, it is said. Her American debut was made last year in New York, where again the critics gave her unqualified praise.

Next Wednesday night's Nine O'clock is the third of a series of five under the direction of Mrs. A. M. Russell. Vronsky and Babin, considered the greatest two-piano team on the concert stage today, and the famous Gordon String Quartet will follow next week's recital with concerts in February and March.

ANNUAL DISPLAY STAGED BY BOYS BRIGADE COMPANY

FRIENDS AND PARENTS OF MEMBERS ATTENDED EVENT; INSPECTION HELD BY UNIT

Arthur H. Webster, Inspector, Congratulated Group on Neatness and Alertness—Challenge Medal Awarded to Sgt. Clifton Blair—Boxing and Shadow Skits Featured Program

Attended by parents and friends of the members the annual display of the First Westmount Company of the Boys Brigade was held last Friday in Melville Church. The unit was inspected by Arthur H. Webster who congratulated it on neatness and alertness. "If the boys adhere to the standard they have set they should prove a success in life," he said.

Following his remarks, the Squad challenge medal was awarded to Sergeant Clifton Blair by D. A. Grant. Sgt. Blair has been twice the winner of the medal this season and in his remarks, Mr. Grant told the boys of the days when he was himself a lad in The Brigade in Glasgow and the thrill that his squad experienced as they were awarded a medal for altruism. He was pleased to see the keen enthusiasm which is ever present in the First Company and hoped to see the Company grow even larger.

During the evening James Patterson and Donald Taylor excelled themselves in the presentation of shadow skits and the boxing teams composed of Bryan Pearce, Harold Fairhead, Duncan Patterson, Kenneth Bolduc, Philip Lamb and Bruce Marshall, gave a very fine display of sportsmanship.

Team and Group Games were shown under the leadership of Sgt. Gordon Leach and L. C. Wm. Mulligan, and handicraft was taken by Sgt. Clifton Blair.

The Company Choirists rendered a number of Christmas carols during the intermissions, accompanied at the piano by Miss Geraldine Hamlet.

The presentation of a brass trumpet to Ronald Baxter for having sold the most Christmas cards in aid of the Company, was made by Dr. Mulligan. Billy Dryden and Teddy Hilbæne were awarded their official membership badges as they had completed the necessary requirements.

The evening closed with a social hour and refreshments, followed by the National Anthem and Benediction.

Captain Richardson, in his report for the half season, stated that the Company was the strongest in its history and was still

REG'LAR FELLERS—Brotherly Advice

By GENE BYRNES

Operations Of C. N. R. For 1938 Are Reviewed

Railway results reflect the general level of business activity. According to a report issued this week by S. J. Hungerford, president, the first check on the gradual recovery of Canadian National Railway earnings from the low level of 1937 began with the decline in business activity in the last months of 1937, a decline which continued throughout a great part of 1938. The decline was first felt and was most marked on the United States lines of the Company.

The operations of the system for 1938, the report continues, were largely influenced by the necessity of curtailing expenses as far as possible in view of the falling revenues, while at the same time maintaining the property and its equipment in condition to meet the present and prospective transportation requirements of the country, also to provide for the movement of grain arising from the anticipated improvement in the western crop.

The revenues in the last quarter of the year indicate a cessation of the downward trend, and there now appear definite indications of the trend turning upwards again.

The problem of reducing expenses in the face of declining traffic was made more difficult than it otherwise would have been on account of increases in the price of fuel and other supplies, the restoration of wage rates to pre-depression levels in Canada—agreed upon early in 1938 and an increase in wages above pre-depression levels on United States lines. These factors, together with a programme of creating a reserve of freight cars and locomotives in the expectation of a large crop movement, limited the reduction in operating expenses. The increases in wage rates, resulting from protracted wage negotiations with organized labour in Canada and the United States, alone amounted to several millions of dollars. Notwithstanding these adverse factors, it proved possible to reduce the operating expenses of the system by approximately $4,500,000 from the 1937 level. It is gratifying to be able to record that the steps taken to curtail expenses did not impair the efficiency of the property.

The decline in gross revenues in 1938 was upwards of 15 million dollars and the decline in net revenue between ten and eleven million dollars, as compared with 1937. Notwithstanding the very difficult operating conditions and the supplying of essential transportation requirements to many parts of the country at heavy expense, the revenues for the year were sufficient to pay all the operating expenses, and leave a balance of net revenue from railway operation of nearly $7,000,000.

The year 1938 also saw the opening of Canadian air express and mail-carrying services between Montreal and Vancouver over intermediate centres, over the Nationally owned Trans-Canada Air Lines. It is expected that the carriage of passengers will begin in the early months of 1939. Operations will be extended eastward to Moncton, Saint John and Halifax when facilities have been made ready.

It is a little more than a year and a half since the formation of the Trans-Canada Air Lines. In that time most of the necessary personnel has been selected and trained; two-way radio, radio beam meteorological and other equipment have been installed, and landing fields constructed by the interests co-operating. Delivery of the fifteen high-speed latest type transport planes which were ordered has now been completed.

Looking ahead to 1939 the general outlook for the Canadian National System is distinctly better and it would seem reasonable to expect that the improved conditions

The SNAPSHOT GUILD FINDING PICTURES

Winter is full of pictures—indoors and out—that you should be capturing now.

WHEN one is taking pictures—in the winter or any other time—there are just three things to seek. They are: interesting subjects, or interesting occurrences, or interesting effects of light.

Any of these—or all together—will yield good pictures, and you can find them almost anywhere.

At random, I have set down a list of winter picture ideas—just suggestions to set your imagination working. Load up your camera, try them—and I'll hazard the guess that you can turn out dozens of good pictures in the next few days.

First, snow pictures. Can you picture the sparkle of sunlight, falling across new snow? Curious shapes of snow in drifts, on trees, on shrubs and fences. Children sledding, or throwing snowballs? Shadow patterns on the snow? Neighbors shoveling snow from the house walk? A horse-drawn sleigh? Tracks of people, or birds, or rabbits, in the snow? Snow falling, soft and white, outside your window? Paths beaten to barn or garage? Birds in the snow, pecking at crumbs? All these will make good pictures.

Then, cold weather. Can you put cold into a picture—so that the viewer feels it? How about a picture of an old horse, nuzzling a frozen-over water trough? Icicles hanging from a faucet or pump spout? Frost on the kitchen windowpane? Passerby, bending into the wind, snuggled deep into the collar of their overcoat? Someone scattering cinders on an icy pavement? A small boy, rubbing his frosty ears with mittened hands? An old automobile with radiator spouting steam? A stretch of open country with snow clouds dark above it? These are good pictures—they tell the story of winter.

Again, indoors. Warm pictures, to contrast with the cold outside. Have you tried fireside pictures? Pictures of the family toasting marshmallows, or telling stories before the fire? Reading, under the warm glow of a lamp? These are good—and easy to make, with fast X-type film and two or three photo bulbs.

Pictures such as these are interesting because they tell a story. They have "something to say." And they are the snapshots you should be getting now.

Drives All Through Night But Loses Race With Death

O. C. Farnsworth, of Pembroke, Ontario, lost a race with death recently when nine-year-old Russell Osgoode, of Detroit, victim of a streptococcus infection, died at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, before Mr. Farnsworth, speeding to his aid by taxi, could arrive for a transfusion.

Ill with the same infection two years ago, as a result of which he lost use of a finger, Mr. Farnsworth was ill for many months in an Ottawa hospital, but recovered. Last spring, when two men were suffering from the infection at Grace Hospital, Windsor, Mr. Farnsworth was one of those who had his blood typed for possible transfusions, but it was not the right type.

When he received an urgent request from the Henry Ford Hospital to come as quickly as possible to give a transfusion to the Osgoode boy, who was hovering between life and death. His blood same type.

Mr. Farnsworth left by taxi for Detroit, but the Osgoode boy died before the precious blood, that could reach him. Doctors at the hospital were loud in praise of Mr. Farnsworth.

"He did everything in his power to get here on time. He didn't report at the hospital today, and we presume that he contacted the child's parents directly to discover that Russell had passed away in the night," they said. "It was most unfortunate, but Russell was so very ill with the infection that it is doubtful that even the transfusion could have helped him."

The nine-year-old lad had been in the hospital for about a week.

Skiiing Conditions In Laurentians Perfect

An exciting New Year's weekend has passed in the Laurentian Mountains with 17,500 visiting skiers reported by the Canadian Pacific Railways, so Montreal winter sports enthusiasts can now look forward to a winter of sport without all the holiday trimmings.

Conditions will be perfect for this week-end, barring earthquakes and tornadoes. At all Laurentian points the depth of snow is around three feet, the Seigneurie Club has two feet of snow and good conditions, and Lac Beauport near Quebec City lacks only five inches to have five full feet of snow.

Temperatures have taken a turn for the colder, early morning readings being around 15 degrees below zero, but with clear calm weather and the dry mountain air this is not too uncomfortable for an exhilarating out-door sport like skiing.

HANDY ALL-ROUND ATHLETE

Fred Haney, the St. Louis Browns' new manager, starred in football, track, basketball, rugby, and swimming when he attended high school in Los Angeles.

Conditions, which became manifest in the last quarter of 1938, will continue, Mr. Hungerford contends in his report.

Goodyear Earns Full Dividends

Present indications are that 1938 profits of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Canada Limited will cover all dividends paid, states A. G. Partridge, President. In a letter to shareholders accompanying fourth quarter dividends paid January 3rd, he says: "I am pleased to report that from present indications the twenty-eighth year of our Company's operations will show sufficient profits to provide for all the regular dividends and in addition approximately the entire amount required for the special dividend."

Regular quarterly dividends have been paid for 1938 on preferred and common shares and an extra dividend of $5.00 a share was paid on the common on December 29th.

Georgians to Meet MacDonald Saturday

Don Burton will lead the St. George Williams College Georgians against Macdonald College in the first 1939 game of the Montreal Intermediate Basketball League at Central Y.M.C.A. Saturday evening at 9.30. Neither team has won any of its games to date, and both will be trying to get out of the basement.

With Hughie Stevenson back from Fort William and Don Burton returned from Sudbury, the Georgians will have all regulars present for their first tussle since mid-December.

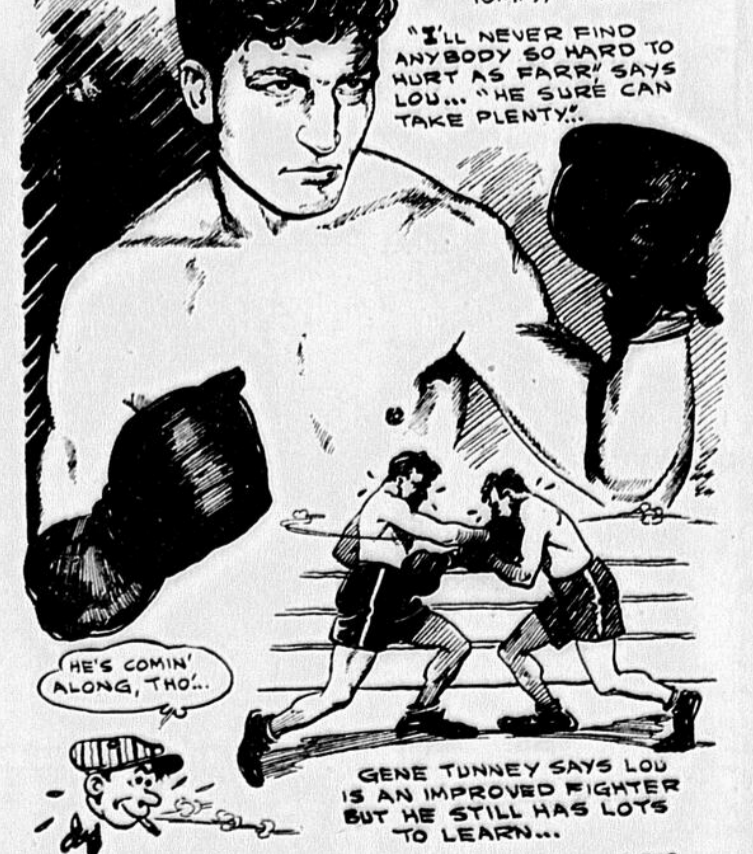

Y Seniors meet Nationale in the second feature of a double-header.

SNEAK UP ON OMELET
You can sneak up on the most suspecting omelet and transfer it to the platter in all its unbroken glory, if you use the three-fold gadget which opens out to three times its original size. It looks like an ordinary lifter, which you slip under the omelet. You then press a spring in the handle, and it spreads out under the entire pan full in a very engaging manner.

FLOWERS NOT AFRAID
With winter barely getting into stride, flowers are not afraid to show themselves on hats. White lilacs droop over the front of a tiny black dinner hat and big red poppies nestle at the back of a pale blue felt built on a Watteau silhouette. Molyneux covers the top of a shallow sailor with small felt flowers in several pastel shades.

Polly Drouin Says "It's Fun to Keep Fit with BLACK HORSE"

EVERY second is packed with thrills when this human whirlwind skims across the ice. A sure-shot, with a deadly, scoring drive, he keeps up a pace that would down the best of men.

Since his amateur days with the Ottawa Senators, Paul "Polly" Drouin has enjoyed an enviable reputation for physical endurance. Asked what he does to keep so trim, he says, "Early in this game I learned that the top-flight players were those who could always be depended upon—those who followed sensible training rules.

And, after all, training need not be a hardship. I get lots of sleep... eat good, plain food... and, after every game, take time out to relax. That's when I always drink a glass or two of Black Horse Ale. It calms my nerves, reduces muscle tenseness—and, boy, it makes food taste good! Try a glass or two of Black Horse yourself and see!"
