lard also has a fine lot of mutton lamb, his mutton in some cases weigh 140 lbs., while his spring lamb average 95 lbs., being beautifully fat. Mr. Carroll shows a fine animal, two years old, weighing 425 lbs.; while Mr. Joseph Boock shows one of Mr. Reeves', of Guelph, the well-known stock raiser, at which although not being anything particular as regards weight, is in prime condition. His mutton is also nerve is not behind hand with reand spring lamb this year. Mr. F. R. Hardt, Stall No. 7, has his usual fine play of porkers, hams, German sausage, bacon, lamb and fresh meat, as has A. Cerment. Mr. H. Benard's mutton is also deserving of attention, run about 100 lbs. each; his spring lambs also good.

ST. ANN'S.

The decorations are very stylish in market. The display of meat is up to average. E. Burns, stall No. 47, has very fine assortment of pork in all shapes.

from the hog to the sausage. Jos Limer, stall No. 15, has some very fine Whitey cattle. Wm. Ryan, stall No. 16, has a large and fine stock of beef. The young beginners, G. W. Ryan, stall No. 24, and J. R. Outeth, stall No. 49, have both vied with the older hands in making a display, the meat of the latter being especially fine. Pashby and Munro, Nicholson and W. Sexton are also to be found with a good show. Mr. McArthur and Mr. M. McShane have excellent plays of mink.

ST. ANTOINE.

The butchers in this market have made a really creditable display of artistic decorations, while the meat exhibited is above the ordinary standard. At the stall of S. Languelet, a fine dressed steer hanging, decorated with rosettes and flags, surrounded by a number of porkers, lambs and veal. The other butchers have been behind-hand, Berkshire pigs vie with well-dressed veal and mutton.

ST. GABRIEL.

On entering this market from the outside, the market-goer finds himself confronted with an immense steer, mounted in front of the stall of Mr. O'Grady. The beef is indeed worthy of admiration, being suspended whole, enables the looker to view its gigantic proportions. Its weight before dressing was 2,500 lb. when dressed, 1,700 lbs. Mr. O'Grady also has numbers of porkers, and quantities of mutton and excellent looking veal. The stall has the finest display in the market. D. McCarthy also has some fine beef, immense grunners, and some plump-looking mutton. Mr. J. Kelly has some excellent fat heifers, &c. ; Mr. Ely, fine young beef, bacon and veal. In fact, ev-still in the market has a very fine display of sausages. No appearing on the outside, and the butchers may well be proud of the exhibition.

PRIVATE STALLS.

On the principal streets of the city to be seen, in private markets, many shows of beef, lamb, veal, etc., some which rivalled the displays made in former years.

On Bleury street, at the corner of Juliette, Crovier & Leperance, butch have their store, besides being well-stocked with good meat, tastefully decorated with evergreens, banners, etc. The lamb is of good quality, and, with the beef, is from the neighborhood of Brampton, Ont. 112 Bleury street,

RENAULT & CO.,

A lot of splendid beef is exhibited, among which is heifer, this claimed to be the best meat in the city, and has taken first prize at the Whitty show last fall. This, together with a large bull we noticed at a week ago, a prize calf, fed by V. Legras of St. Philip, P. Q., 10 weeks old, weighing 256 lbs., dressed. They also make

On St. Catherine street, fair shows made by Joseph Levolette, No. 844, Barre, No. 912 : Charles E. Brown, 923 ; and G. Bridgeman, No. 949, greater portion of whose stock comes from Guelph and Whitby.

On Dorchester street, at No. 658, Art Hamal has a moderately good exhibit three-year-old heifer, weighing 1,670 when alive, from Ontario, forms part his stock.

Off Ridgetown street, at No. 12, A. Conlry has a very large stock of fine m which is generally of good quality which it is useless to go into details. Wiseman, of No. 18, has several fine ap mens suspended amid evergreens con tress before his store. A heifer, weigh 1,800 lbs., from Whitty, and anot heifer of 1,700 lbs. weight, which taken a prize at the Ottawa Provincial exhibition, raised by Mr. Hickson, of G. T. R., and a lamb, weighing, w dressed, 240 lbs., all form a part of his display.

Mr. Amadee Racine, corner of Co street, has an arch erected across the path, and makes a fine display of meat, poultry, &c., one steer, weighing 2,447 lb being the centre of attraction.

Perrault & Derome, corner of St. Leberts' hill, have a fine show of calves & sheep.

C. Meunier has some very good meat exhibition, also a novel advertisement the shape of a box, which works across the street upon a rope; painted upon it is the motto—"A Great Revolution,"

ST. JOSEPH STREET.
I. J. Mallette & O. Brunet, corner St. Joseph and St. Martin streets, have good display of meat, and large number customers are in attendance.
B. PICARD, ST. JOSEPH STREET.
After a visit to all the principal stores anyone who chances to visit that of Picard, 139 St. Joseph street, will perceive that it is worthy of more than a passing notice. On either side of the door hang two large beefers, weighing, dressed,
1,600 and 1,400 lbs. respectively. In

As seen an immense number of small steers, and as large as 150 lbs when dressed. This animal weighs Mr. Picard has choice joints of butter lamb and white porkers of large variety adorn the stalls. There are had poultry of all kinds and vegetables, including greenishes, tomatoes, etc. This latter department is under direct management of Mr. Beaucaire. At the time of our visit Mr. Picard and assistants were kept very busy by a steady stream of customers, which promise clear business, so long as it is filled.

For, it is generally stated, they frequently lead to Consumption, and are the cause of the greatest suffering.

In all classes of Female Diseases, Dr. Ferri's Female Prescription is without a rival. Medicine has never surpassed it. In "The Female Prescription," Dr. Ferri has given the

of which R. V. Pierce, M.D., of Buffalo, N. Y. is the author and publisher, is an exposition on Woman and Man from a scientific point of view. The book is so written that no one to whom it is incidentally referred is carelessly overlooked, and is carefully portrayed, and a restorative course of treatment suggested. Every woman, as well as every man, should read this valuable book. If the book is sent to you, it will show how you may restore your health, and the direct route to it. It is a book that should be read by every woman, and is constantly being exp- and let every-where women hold this lively, stirring and revealing as others see her.
