R. Beare Family Lose Home And Many Possessions In Fire

A fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Beare and their five children at Clyde's Corners on Tuesday, March 19th.

The fire was first noticed in the summer kitchen about 10:30 a.m. Water and fire extinguishers were used in a vain attempt to quell the blaze but to no avail, the fire having gained too much headway between the walls.

Only the kitchen and living room furniture were saved. The blaze spread very rapidly and the family escaped with only the clothing they were wearing at the time. All their other clothing, beds, bedding, etc. in the upstairs part of the house as well as many articles downstairs, being a total loss.

Mr. Beare had made extensive repairs to the house and had planned to make further renovations this summer. Some insurance was carried.

The family are temporarily staying with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henderson, Atholstan Road, Huntingdon.

Panel Discussion Sponsored By Board Of Trade Draws Good Attendance

It was a well attended and enthusiastic meeting that greeted the seven panelists who took part in the Board of Trade discussion at the Galt-Lalonde Supt. of Industrial day evening. The topic was "Teamwork in Industrial Development" and after the various talks had been given it showed that everyone can get into this plan of industrial development.

The panelists were as follows: F.A.E. Van Boven, Business Development Officer, Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce; Claude G. Blais, Provincial Dept. Trade and Commerce; Mr. George Bellavance, Industrial Development Promotion, Shawinigan Water and Power Company; Mr. Joseph E. Lalonde, Supt. of Industrial Business Development, Bank of Montreal; Mr. R. Gosselet, Manager Industrial Development, St. Lawrence Region, C.N.R.; Mr. J. O. Lefebvre, Caisson, Supt. of Industrial Development, C.N.R.; and Mr. R. L. Tinker, Huntingdon, C.N.R.

Before going in to the discussion on the subject of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, Mr. L.A. Sanderson, President Huntingdon Board of Trade, opened the meeting and explained that the only business that would be discussed would be to have a slate of officers nominated and for this to be voted on in accordance with the rules and regulations of the board. This was done with the slate being read by Mr. Ronnie Lalonde and the same officers being nominated. This proposal was made because it was felt these officials had performed very favorably during the past year and that they should continue for at least another term. This met the favor of the meeting and they were duly re-elected.

They are as follows: Honorary President, George Thompson; President, Leslie A. Sanderson; 1st Vice-President, Jacques L'Ecuyer; 2nd Vice-President, Fred Anderson; Legal Adviser, E.C. Martin; Secretary, Gerry Lalonde; Treasurer, George Collum.

The meeting was then opened to the panel discussion. It was a very interesting discussion and each one taking part added more information on the subject of Teamwork in Industrial Development that was enlightening to all and also very interesting. The various speakers touched many phases of the subject and in the question and answer period which followed some lively discussions prevailed.

Drama Night At Ormstown High School As Seen By The Adjudicators

Three one act plays were presented by the pupils of grades nine, ten and eleven on Friday and Saturday evenings, at Ormstown High School. Philip Clark's 14th century story, "Petronella," by grade nine, Yvonne Firkin's "The Royal Suspect" by Grade ten and the old favourite story of "The Monkey's Paw" by W. W. Jacobs by grade eleven were the selections presented. This is an annual event at O.H.S. and each year the calibre of performers seems to get higher. This is due in great part to their Director and English Specialist, Mrs. Margaret Campbell. Four trophies are awarded each year for the best male and female leads and for the best supporting male and female roles.

The adjudicators had a most difficult task in selecting the winners for the two evening's performances. The female lead in the first play was that of Petronella, portrayed by Marielle Green. This young lady gave a most eloquent interpretation of a reader's skill. We commend her highly on her beautiful recitation, but we felt that the dramatic eloquence over-shadowed and indeed lost, the image of the pathetic Petronella, even from her opening lines. We hope to see more of Marielle in future dramatic endeavours. The male lead of Master Richard, the Bailiff portrayed by Gerry McCartney was a good part and gave great scope for an actor's skill. Gerry was much too fast and could not be understood on Friday evening, he slowed down considerably for his second performance but still lacked the most necessary quality of pacing and articulation. Brian Aldridge as the Priest was articulate, perhaps a little ill at ease, as was Bob Clark in his role as the Minister. Bob let himself become distracted by members of the audience and back stage personalities, thus losing any chance of special recognition as a convincing actor. Ken Barrington, as Asa, the Axeman had similar problems, but was more at ease on Saturday night than at his previous performance.

The second play, The Royal Suspect, by grade ten was of a peculiar nature in that there was no male lead. Two very strong supporting male roles played by two very strong actors made the judges' decision a hard one to cope with. The Governor played by Peter Rona was exceptionally well done. Peter was much better Saturday night and kept the Governor's identity almost completely throughout the play. Bogden Krawchenko as the Mayor gave a fine performance. Bogden is an orator of high calibre. We predict great things for him in that field, but he failed to convince the judges of his ability as an actor, especially in one small instance when he had to abandon his oratorical fuming as the irate mayor and graciously refuse a drink of wine offered by the lady he has just been accusing of being an impersonator. His entire performance was nonetheless excellent.

Wendy Cruickshank is the Landhand's wife was most gracious as the hostess to her unexpected guests. Madame Sidone, the female lead in this fine play of 18th century France was portrayed by Sheila Stevenson. The part was heavy and although she may have overacted at times and indeed was rather weak in her climatic disclosure of her true identity, her articulation was good, her tones pleasant and her identification with the role was effective. Each performer was at a distinct advantage in this presentation in that each had very strong support in the other members of the cast. Three awards and one honorable mention went to the cast of "The Royal Suspect". Another player who should be highly praised for his work is Andrew Sancton. One could not help feel that Andrew pulled all the strings and kept the play on a good even keel.

The Monkey's Paw, a story full of mystery, suspense and bathos died a slow death. The players were so weak on opening night that they could not be heard even by the judge who sat in the front of the hall. The second performance was a little better, particularly the feeling of the unshined suspense called for in the last act and portrayed their parts rather well. It was unfortunate that the rest of the performance was not up to the required standards. Carole Cottingham as Mrs. White tried hard and perhaps succeeded in portraying the heartbroken mother of a dead son. Fred Sherrington as Mr. White was not strong in his interpretation although he too was much more convincing in the final stages of the play. Bruce Cottingham as Herbert was more articulate in his first performance, he seemed to lack nerve on Saturday evening. The role of Sergeant Major Morris by Jim McGeorge was lost. Jim made a most convincing-looking old soldier but his pacing, volume and articulation was not good. It was not easy to understand any of his lines. This was a difficult play and if the performers had spoken their lines more clearly a better appreciation of their efforts may have been attained.

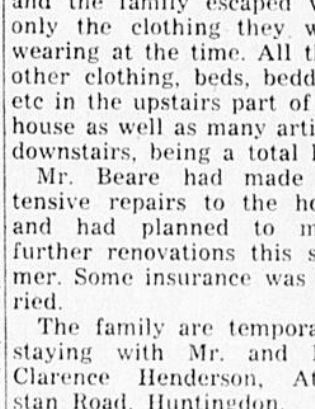

Honorable mention was extended to Marielle Green for her fine performance and to Bogden Krawchenko for his excellent portrayal of the officious mayor.

Our congratulations to all the players and sincere wishes for all success in future adventures in the field of drama. Special mention must be given to the costume committee and to the stage crew and lighting and sound effects committees. The latter was under the capable direction of Mr. J. Johnson of the faculty.

Judges for the two performances were Mrs. J. A. Davidson, Mrs. J. C. Hood and Mrs. Lindsay Cullen.

Awards were as follows: Lindsay Trophy, best female lead, Sheila Stevenson; Gage Trophy, best male lead, none awarded; Campbell Trophy,

Canadian Teacher's Federation Awards Travelling Fellowship To Robert M. Gill

Robert M. Gill

It has recently been announced by the Canadian Teachers' Federation that Mr. Robert M. Gill of Fairview Road, Huntingdon has been awarded a travelling fellowship by the Canada Council and the Commonwealth Institute of London, England. This fellowship will take Mr. Gill to England during the school year 1963-64 where he will lecture to British school students of several age groups. In the course of the tour he will visit practically every kind of school in the country, visit Teacher Training Colleges, and will have opportunities to talk to administrators in education.

Chosen from a field of candidates from across Canada, Mr. Gill says that he is highly honored to have been selected, and is looking forward to his tour of duties. He will be leaving for Britain this summer with his wife and three sons, the latter attending Huntingdon High School, Grades 4, 3 and 1. The family expect to be able to tour a considerable part of Britain and continental Europe when they are overseas.

Mr. Gill is currently Principal of Beauharnois Intermediate School. He is a graduate of the Faculties of Arts and Science and Law of McGill University and the Institute of Education at Macdonald College, graduating from the latter with honours and winning the Dr. Robbins Memorial Prize. The family has been living in Huntingdon for the last four years and is well known by many people in the area.

It was decided to have a special guest farmers meeting in the very near future, when members will bring a farmer as their guest at the regular luncheon meeting. The probable date for this will be May 6th, if arrangements can be made for this date.

Rotarians Planning Another Public Entertainment Soon

Robert M. Gill

There was only a small attendance at the Huntingdon Rotary Club luncheon meeting on Monday. A number of the members are attending a curling competition in Ottawa and accounted for some of the absentees.

Rotarian Brockman asked the Club if it would be interested in sponsoring a student or students from the schools here to attend a special gathering at the United Nations which would consist of probably about 50 students from various parts. They would be given pointers on the working of the United Nations and probably would have a mock assembly of their own to become better acquainted with it. It is an educational trip and would be very beneficial to students who attend.

The members were in favor of the suggestion and asked Mr. Brockman to obtain more information and whether students from both schools here could attend. The event will take place sometime in August of this year.

It is intended to have another public event in the near future, probably in May and tickets for this will go on sale in a short time. Some valuable prizes will likely be offered in connection with this event and more particulars will be published in due course.

A slate of new officers for the coming year was proposed

Education Week At Franklin Intermediate School

Reported by Grade 10 Students

Education from the Latin, "educare" means "to lead forth" the development of all the powers of the individual. School systems of all enlightened countries recognize this meaning of education and provide for the development of all the powers of the pupils — physical, intellectual and moral.

Schools all over Canada recognized March 4th - 8th as "Education Week". Parents' Day on the 6th enabled the pupils of this school to make display of their previous work to show proud parents.

Grades 1 and 2 showed a collection of art work based on the feast of St. Patrick. They also displayed their composition and phonic workbooks. Grades 3 and 4 demonstrated the use of a pulley when moving a house. Art and map drawings were on display in grades 5 and 6. Science, history and geography projects were exhibited by grades 6 and 7. Grade 8 showed its science, geometry and history work while in grades 9 and 10 a butterfly collection was shown on display in the hall. Franklin is one of the few schools in Quebec that is using this self-teaching aid.

The final event of Education Week was the Career Conference held at Howick High School on Friday evening. The pupils of grade 10 attended in order that they might gain knowledge about

Official Candidate For The New Democratic Party

Jean-Guy Tremblay

Deeply concerned with the urgent need for new blood in the Federal Government, Mr. Jean-Guy Tremblay of Delson, has accepted to run in the next election. The convention in which he was chosen took place the 10th of March in Laprairie, 41 years old, father of 4 children, bilingual, Mr. Tremblay has been employed, as a tool-maker in a large Communication Company, for the last 20 years. He graduated from Chomedey-de-Maisonville Secondary School in Montreal.

Mr. Tremblay is starting his campaign this week and will base his platform on six major planks:

1. Old age pensions to be increased to $75 a month.
2. These pensions should be obtained at 65 years of age instead of 70 years of age. This measure will immediately make room for younger people in our industry and therefore strongly fight unemployment.
3. Portable pension to every employee.
4. Medicare plan, in which the Federal Government will pay 60% of the cost.
5. A National promotion plan for Agricultural Cooperatives. A similar plan has boosted the importance of cooperatives in the western provinces.
6. A non-nuclear policy for Canada.

The above mentioned platform planks do not constitute a made-in-a-hurry election program, but can all be found in the constitution book of the New Democratic Party, founded in August 1961.

beneficial. They not only provide the parents with an idea of the school's programme of teaching but also induce students to display some of their learning in practical ways.

HALF LOADS

Unfortunately farmers who don't have their fertilizer requirements for this season may be in for some delays. Commercial fertilizer suppliers are swamped at this time of year with orders. Trucks will soon only be allowed half loads during the spring thaw. This not only delays delivery but adds to the cost.

It is advisable that orders be placed as soon as possible to avoid these delays.

LAKESHORE ROAD NEWS

Thought For To-day

It is a comely fashion to be glad, Joy is the grace we say to God.

St. Patrick's Day has come and gone, and that means, spring is not around the corner, but really here. What with the rain, thunder and lightning we had on the weekend, surely it won't be too long before all the snow disappears. We, on the Lakeshore Road are still surrounded by snow drifts but the warm sun last week really made an impression. It was brought to my attention that the Town last week, did open up some of our ditches, but what they have done will not help the spring thaw run-off. I do hope in the days to come, the Town will try and do a little better job, for if nothing more is done, I'm afraid the old row boat will replace the car, on the Lakeshore Road.

Congratulations
That famous bird with the long bill, was quite busy in our community last week. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sunstrum on March 13th. Mr. and Mrs. Midgley, the following day March 14, were blessed with a baby girl. Our very best wishes go to these proud parents.

Fire
Friday evening, a summer cottage, on the property of Mr. David, Lower Woodlands, burnt to the ground.

Sympathy
Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Grace Campbell on the passing of her sister Mrs. Alice Scott, of Long Island, N.Y. Funeral was held on Saturday at Long Island.

Birthdays
Happy birthday to Allen Jenner who celebrated on March 18th and to little Eric Johnson a happy birthday to you on March 25th.

W.R.A.
The monthly meeting and Coffee Party was held last week at the Club. This is one morning the ladies in our community have a chance to relax, and chat over a cup of coffee.

Guides
Trinity Church Sunday School Hall was the scene of great activity on Saturday afternoon. The guides held a St. Patrick's Tea and Food Sale and I believe it was very well attended.

A beautiful pheasant has been seen in Woodlands feeding from a bird feeder early every morning. What a lovely sight against the white snow! Last Friday, while working at my kitchen window, I looked up, and lo and behold, a rabbit crossed our lawn. I thought I was seeing things. Don't you think he's a little early for an Easter Bunny?

Get Well Wishes
Our best wishes for a speedy recovery to Mrs. J. Patterson, who at present is hospitalized at Queen Elizabeth Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. J. Patterson and family were summer residents of Woodlands for many years. From all your friends in Woodlands and Bellevue, best wishes.

Election Interest
Do hope everyone is keeping abreast with the campaign speeches for the coming election. This is an important election, and each and every one of us should know and try to understand what the party of their choice is offering. I have heard many women say, "I'm not going to vote. What does one vote more or less matter?" This is no way to be. For years women had no vote, and now that we have, some will not exercise the right. The women's vote is important. So come on, girls, don't slacken, let's all read and listen to what's going on so that we can help to choose candidates who will form a good government.

Sports' Association Promotes Gala Time for Children
Delson Children spent a very happy Saturday afternoon enjoying free Ski-Doo rides sponsored by the Sports Association Inc. Seventy to one hundred youngsters availed themselves of the opportunity for heaps of fun. The supervisors had quite a time controlling the young fry but made sure that all had a fair share of rides, and Cracker Jack and Chocolates which were handed out, this of course went over in a big way and the children really enjoyed themselves. Thanks go to Mr. Herbert Yellenik for his assistance which was greatly appreciated by the Pres. Ronald Sutton. The Weather was good and everything went fine resulting in a perfect afternoon for all.

Election Interest
Do hope everyone is keeping abreast with the campaign speeches for the coming election. This is an important election, and each and every one of us should know and try to understand what the party of their choice is offering. I have heard many women say, "I'm not going to vote. What does one vote more or less matter?" This is no way to be. For years women had no vote, and now that we have, some will not exercise the right. The women's vote is important. So come on, girls, don't slacken, let's all read and listen to what's going on so that we can help to choose candidates who will form a good government.

Stop! Don't Blow That Nose No, we're not speaking to Schnozzle Durante or to Danny Thomas, - we're speaking to you little girl with that cute little turned up nose, and to you Sir, with that aristocratic Probusis or for that matter to anyone else who has a nose and who sometimes blows it. Stop! we say, don't blow it until you've read what the doctors have to say about it. They've been counselling for years against blowing the nose too vigorously as this can cause trouble in the ear. The Health League of Canada reporting on a recent statement issued by the American Medical Association on the subject of nose blowing, quotes the following reasons for this potential damage to the ear: "Two tiny tubes that have an opening in the upper part of the throat connect with the middle ear, one on each side. The tubes are basically safety valves to keep air pressure in the middle ear the same as outside. The eardrums do not normally permit any air to get in or out of the middle ear. Adjustment of air pressure in the middle ear is normally carried out automatically and without conscious effort. If there is too rapid a change in outside air pressure, such as occurs when ascending or descending in a plane, the air in the middle ear may expand or contract. The eardrum will either bulge out or curve in and ear pain may be produced. Then a conscious effort is needed to open the tubes in the throat and let air in or out of the middle ear. This can be done by swallowing, chewing gum or holding the nose and then trying to blow. The nose should be blown with both nostrils open, so there is no chance of back pressure developing and forcing the tubes open. During the acute stage of a cold, germ-laden mucus is present in the upper throat, and this can be forced into the openings and thus into the middle ear. This is more likely to happen if one nostril is closed and the other is blown hard, since considerable pressure is developed. The proper way to blow your nose is not to blow too hard and to leave both nostrils open."

THE LATE DAVID JOHN GREIG

The Late David John Greig The community was saddened to learn of the death on March 13th, at Ormstown, of David John Greig. Mr. Greig was born at Allan's Corners in the year 1870 and lived in the community all his life. His wife Jessie Lillias Greig predeceased him in 1947. David Greig was one of the first planners and founders of the Ormstown Fair. He spent several years going from coast to coast judging horses. When he was forty he attended the Chicago World's Fair and then again forty years later. Mr. Greig was the first manager for the Black Horse tables being employed for many years by the National Breweries. At one time in his career he was nominated to run for the Provincial Parliament. He was a great lover of life and a very devoted family man. He had the misfortune to lose his eyesight and for seventeen years he was completely blind and then by the miracle of medical science he underwent an operation and his sight was restored. His one joy of late years was his visitors and "getting the news" through them and the local paper. He is survived by six daughters and two sons, thirteen grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren, also by a sister, Mrs. Janet T. Greig of Vancouver and a brother, N. Lorne Greig, of Williamamantic, Conn. Funeral service was held at Georgetown Presbyterian Church, Howick, Que. on March 16th, 1963.

Obituary The Late Wm. J. Sherry This community was shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden illness and death of William J. Sherry, Monday evening, March 11, in his usual though precarious health, he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and never regained consciousness and died approximately 48 hours later. Mr. Sherry was known as an honest upright man of a quiet, though jovial disposition, and even for his 80 years could always give a witty answer. He was born January 23, 1883, the second son of the late Francis Sherry and his wife Mary Brady. The deceased resided all his life in this district. He was a successful farmer, served many years as a councillor and mayor and was a Warden of the County. Their only daughter, Edna, died in 1958. Mr. Sherry is survived by one son, Leslie, who, together with his wife and family bestowed every care and kindness that a loving son and daughter could render an aged parent. Also surviving are two sisters, Margaret Sherry, Mrs. J. Darragh (Mary), two brothers, Patrick and Edmund and five grandchildren, all of Huntingdon. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place in St. Joseph's Church and interment was in the Parish cemetery. Obituary The Late Wm. J. Sherry This community was shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden illness and death of William J. Sherry, Monday evening, March 11, in his usual though precarious health, he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and never regained consciousness and died approximately 48 hours later. Mr. Sherry was known as an honest upright man of a quiet, though jovial disposition, and even for his 80 years could always give a witty answer. He was born January 23, 1883, the second son of the late Francis Sherry and his wife Mary Brady. The deceased resided all his life in this district. He was a successful farmer, served many years as a councillor and mayor and was a Warden of the County. He was a delegate to Quebec on several important missions for his county; also served as church warden. In 1911 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Whittall, who predeceased him ten years ago. Their only daughter, Edna, died in 1958. Mr. Sherry is survived by one son, Leslie, who, together with his wife and family bestowed every care and kindness that a loving son and daughter could render an aged parent. Also surviving are two sisters, Margaret Sherry, Mrs. J. Darragh (Mary), two brothers, Patrick and Edmund and five grandchildren, all of Huntingdon. Barn And 2,000 Young Chickens Lost In Fire At Hemmingford

A disastrous fire in the early hours of Monday morning completely destroyed the barn of Mr. Alex Baillie on the Covey Hill Road. Just past 1 a.m. Mr. Martial Duteau was driving a companion home up the Hill when he encountered thick swirling smoke near the roadside. He roused Mr. Baillie, then dashed back to the house of Mr. Bill Gordon next door, and phoned the Hemmingford Fire Brigade. In a very short time the Fire Engine arrived and water was being drawn from the well at the house, but Mr. Baillie had opened the door at the end of the barn and had been immediately driven back by the intense heat, unable to rescue any of the small pieces of machinery there.

The barn, which during the past couple of years, Mr. Baillie has converted into a well insulated, well equipped Broiler house, contained 2,000 young broilers, just 4 weeks old. They were of a very good strain and were doing very well. The intense heat was endangering the house and other small buildings so Chief Harry Warner looked for another source of water. It was found in the West Branch of the Norton Creek. Firemen cut through the ice and with 1,400 feet of hose extended, plenty of water was provided.

Seed Recommendations For 1963

The 1963 Recommendations of the Quebec Seed Board has been published and is available to all farmers.

Every farmer should have a copy of this informative and useful bulletin. It contains grain crop varieties recommended for different regions; hybrid corn varieties for silage and grain; root crops, hay and pasture mixtures. The bulletin also contains information on varieties as to maturity, disease resistance, yield and growth habits.

The recommendations are arrived at by extensive trials at the agricultural colleges and experimental stations throughout the Province. The information is kept for several years after which time the best varieties are chosen.

The bulletin is available free from the local agronomer, or the Information Division, Quebec Department of Agriculture.

Guide Catholique

En mai 1940, la Fédération des Guides Catholiques de la Province de Québec était incorporée par une loi du parlement provincial.

En 1941, naissait la revue des chefs "Le Brasier", d'abord mimeographiée puis, avec les années, imprimée.

Dans le même temps, le Secrétariat provincial s'organisait à 841, rue Sainte-Marguerite, Trois-Rivières.

Les manuels se multipliaient, d'abord polycopiés puis imprimés "Pour servir — pour entrer dans le jeu" — "Mon carnet de C.E." — "Vive la joie!" — "La chanson que tu chantes" et tous les autres.

Les effectifs augmentaient; de nouveaux diocèses s'affiliaient; "Vivre" lançait un calendrier guide dont le succès n'a fait que grandir; la semaine guide était célébrée partout avec éclat; on en parlait dans les journaux, les revues, à la radio; les chants guides étaient diffusés sur les ondes de Radio-Canada. Nos délégués participaient aux rencontres nationales et internationales. Les évêques, heureux des résultats obtenus, ne manquaient aucune occasion de nous encourager et de nous stimuler "Guide Catholique, Val!" Nous les chantions et nous nous efforcions de le vivre de tout notre cœur. Mais comment contenir tant d'enthousiasme dans les limites territoriales? L'esprit ne connaît pas de frontières.

L'origine des paroisses dans les Cantons de Godmanchester et Hinchinbrook SAINT-ANICET

Le missionnaire se vit dans l'impossibilité de faire payer sa dime. Il s'enouvrit à son supérieur. Celui-ci répondit qu'elle sera de 26 minots pour qui travaille la terre, de 2 cordes de bois pour qui travaille le bois s'il a des animaux, de une corde pour les autres que la chapelle sera sous le vocable de Saint-Anicet; que s'il est impossible de bâtir ailleurs que chez M. de Boucherville, il faut, avec les habitants, en obtenir la permission de ce monsieur; qu'on construise un édifice de 55 pieds de long et de 20 de large; qu'on prenne 40 pieds de long pour la chapelle et 15 pour deux logements de 10 pieds de large; un pour la sacristie, un pour le prêtre.

MM. Dufresne et Vallée, après le départ de M. Mar-

Mgr Plessis. Le décret d'érection attendra. Mgr Panet qui lui succède à Québec, est absorbé par nombre de problèmes plus pressants. Relevons en passant, que Mgr, en 1826, recut de Rome une lettre datée du 25 mars. Elle a trait un peu à notre région. Elle est du cardinal Simaglia qui prie Mgr Panet de lui dire ce qu'il pense d'une requête de Mgr Alexander McDonell, auxiliaire de Québec qui a été nommé en janvier, évêque de Kingston, d'attacher à son diocèse Hinchinbrook, Godmanchester, Saint-Régis et la Nouvelle-Longueuil. Mgr Panet, le 17 août, fit savoir à son Eminence que c'était impossible.

Le décret d'érection de Saint-Anicet sera signé le 26 mai 1827; la paroisse comprend une étendue de territoire de 12 milles de front sur 9 de profondeur, borné au nord-ouest par le lac S. François; au sud-est, par les terres des sauvages de S. Régis; au sud-ouest, par le canton de Hinchinbrook; au nord-est par la ligne seigneuriale d'Amfield ou Beauharnois.

C'est quelques jours après ce procès-verbal que meurt

FELECITATION A NOS JEUNES

La série finale de la ligue de la ville de Huntingdon vient de prendre fin.

L'enjeu final eut lieu jeudi soir comme prévu, et les deux équipes étaient au grand complet pour la circonstance. Les jeunes de l'école St-Joseph, doués d'un esprit combattif et encouragés par leur instructeur M. Albert Matte, leur principal et plusieurs compagnons de classe l'emportèrent assez facilement au compte de 8 à 1.

Des le premier coup de sifflet, les jeunes se mirent à attaquer de toutes parts et après cinq minutes de jeu, le compte était déjà de 3 à 0 en faveur des collégiens; la première période se termina au compte de 5 à 1. Par la suite, les jeunes se replièrent sur la défensive et attaquèrent seulement lorsqu'une ouverture se présentait. Ils sortirent donc vainqueurs au compte de 8 à 1 et remportèrent un championnat bien mérité. D'autant plus que les adversaires alignaient des joueurs pesants.

Le trophée Adam Sellar nous fut présenté après la joute.

Toute l'équipe de l'école a excellé tant à l'offensive qu'à la défensive, mais on dut choisir trois étoiles qui furent Philippe Leblanc avec 2 buts et 3 passes, Denis Raymond avec 2 buts et 2 passes et Denis Durin dont le travail défensif a été très remarquable.

Félicitations à tous ces jeunes pour leur bel esprit sportif.

Faits d'hiver et réparations d'été! Court-circuit!

Quelques contrats d'électricité ont dû être lamentablement retardés dans la région d'Huntingdon, ces derniers temps. Mais plus lamentable encore était l'état moral de René Declaire, la victime de l'incident. Au coin des rues York et Bouchette, les voisins sont accourus sur le pas de leur porte en entendant un bruit de tonnerre. Les établissements de "Huntingdon Electric", propriété de M. Declaire, ont vu leur toiture s'écrouler; les camions qui s'y trouvaient remis furent une lourde perte pour les compagnies d'assurances... L'entre-pôt se remonte et le moral aussi!

Pour mieux dire

Dernièrement, j'entendais à encore des "windshield", des "snow-tires" parsemés d'ans une conversation française. Il est vrai qu'il est difficile de perdre de mauvaises habitudes et que l'on se sent un peu gêné parfois de se servir du mot juste quand personne d'autre ne le fait. Mais, comme je vous le disais déjà, il faut répéter ces mots pour qu'ils nous deviennent familiers et entrent ensuite tout naturellement dans notre conversation.

Ces jours-ci, on entend souvent les automobilistes s'exclamer: "Que les chemins sont donc "coulant"! On "slide" d'un bord et de l'autre. On devrait plutôt dire glissants; on glisse d'un côté à l'autre. "Bord" est une expression utilisée dans la marine que nous ont sans doute léguée nos ancêtres de Bretagne. De même, on n'embarque pas dans une auto et on n'en débarque pas; on monte en auto et on en descend. Pour les dames, ceci peut devenir une opération difficile. J'envisage beaucoup des mannequins dans les annonces d'automobiles à la télévision vous les avez vues posant gentiment le postérieur sur le siège puis ramener élégamment les deux jambes bien ensemble? Il est vrai qu'elles n'ont pas, sous un bras, un sac à emplettes (shopping-bag) débordant et, sous l'autre, un bambin qui gigotte, comme c'est souvent notre cas quand nous montons en voiture.

Parlant de sacs, il y a le sac de couchage (et non "sleeping bag"), le sac à eau chaude ou bouillotte (hot-water bottle), le sac de papier (paper bag). Et puis il y avait la robe-sac... On dit aussi cul-de-sac ("blind-alley").

Si vous désirez vous faire des toasts (ce mot est accepté maintenant en français; heureusement, je n'aurais jamais pu m'habituer à dire des "rôties"), ne "pluggez" pas votre grille-pain ("toaster"), branchez plutôt la fiche à la prise de courant ("plug").

"PROFESSEURS ET PARENTS se doivent de collaborer"

"Joie! Sécurité! Voilà de l'avis de tous les psychologues, l'atmosphère essentielle à l'épanouissement intégral de l'enfant. A l'unanimité encore les éducateurs prescrivent, comme moyen infaillible d'assurer cette ambiance, la collaboration entre la famille et l'école. Cette collaboration n'est pas un octroi discrétionnaire, à la merci de ceux qui le concèdent et au pseudo mérite de ceux qui le reçoivent, mais il s'agit, pour l'enfant, un droit indéniabie et pour les parents et professeurs, un devoir dont personne ne saurait se récuser."

"Joie, sécurité, existent dans l'école, quand le professeur alimente chez l'étudiant, le culte de la famille, l'appréciation de la tâche des parents, quand il entraîne l'enfant à la pratique des obligations familiales qui en découlent: respect, amour, entraide. Aussi le maître se garde bien, en classe, de formuler le moindre blâme à l'endroit des parents; il s'applique à développer dans le citoyen en herbe, le sens profond des responsabilités; il le traite comme un être conscient de sa valeur personnelle, comme le véritable artisan de sa propre formation. Oh! certes, il ne manque pas de signaler les erreurs éventuelles, mais il s'acquitte de ce devoir avec toute la discrétion qui s'impose, évitant d'humilier le fautif en présence de ses condisciples. D'autre part, il ne ménage pas les éloges en face d'un effort louable, d'un progrès sensible. Dans cette atmosphère de franche collaboration, l'enfant accepte avec enthousiasme une tâche confiée, car il sait que sa bonne exécution assure le progrès et ajoute à l'honneur de sa famille.

"Joie et sécurité fleurissent au sein de la famille, quand les parents secondent et apprécient la compétence et le dévouement des maîtres. L'enfant éprouve une fierté légitime à l'endroit de son école, de ses professeurs; il a besoin de sentir que ceux qui travaillent à sa formation, à son bien-être reçoivent la collaboration, l'estime auxquels ils ont droit. D'autre part, il éprouve un certain malaise en face d'une dissension éventuelle entre sa famille et l'école. Aussi les parents avertis se gardent bien de critiquer programmes et professeurs en sa présence. Ils choisissent de préférence le huit clos d'une entrevue avec l'instituteur ou la direction de l'école. Ils ne manquent pas d'examiner attentivement le bulletin mensuel pour y découvrir le message personnel du professeur, le signal d'encouragement ou d'alerte indiqué par le double graphique. Non seulement ils s'enqurent de la cause des échecs, mais ils fournissent au besoin toute intervention susceptible d'aiguiller vers le progrès".

"Joie et sécurité deviendront peu à peu l'héritage de la cité nouvelle avec ces futurs citoyens rompus au sens des responsabilités, de la franche collaboration. On ne reprochera plus à notre race son "manque de solidarité" défaut natif qui entrave souvent l'ascension vers les sommets. Nos institutions religieuses, sociales et nationales s'épanouiront plus librement, protégées par un peuple qui aura enfin compris la force de l'union, de l'unité d'action. Sur cette terre imprenable flottera avec honneur la bannière du fleurdelisé, tandis que sur ses flancs, viendra se briser l'astuce des mercenaires dont la stratégie n'est autre que le machiavélique "diviser pour régner".

Should the Western Alliance Use Force Rather Than Compromise in Fighting the Forces of Communism?

ORMSTOWN — This was the question debated at O.H.S. on Monday evening. The participating teams were composed of two members of the student body of Sir George Williams University, Miss Patsy Rowe and Mr. Tom Goodenough and two eminent members of Ormstown's Community, Dr. J. A. D. Davidson and Mr. H. Gordon Green.

The Students started the ball rolling by taking the affirmative and presenting their reasons for their belief. Said Miss Rowe, "The Communists will not compromise, they are subversive, they want world domination." Dr. Davidson for the Negative said, "Communism is an ideology, a religion to those who embrace it, Communism is not evil to those who embrace it. Force cannot be used to crush an ideology." He then went on to cite several instances in history from the time of the Spartans 2500 years ago to present day attempts to fight against religious survival. We desire safety, we desire freedom, we desire security and ideology. The result has always been chaotic. Force is not the way to subdue the threat. Tom Goodenough for the Affirmative disagreed. Said he, "Communism is not a religion, it is merely a commitment. It takes away the dignity, the hope and the future from those who are under its domination. The Communists cannot be bargained with. Under the iron hand of Communism, the weak die, only the strong are allowed to breathe freedom of the press, we do not desire suppression. We will meet the Communist threat on their own ground, on a position of strength." H. Gordon Green for the Negative: "How are we going to meet this threat? Are we sure we will emerge the winner? Who will our friends be? Franco? Batista? The John Birch Society? Mr. Green quoted from the Atlantic Charter on our position in the use of force. In reply to the affirmative's statement on "the tiny minds of Communists" Gordon said, "Those tiny minds were the minds of the people who put the first Sputnik into space they were the minds that put a man in orbit for the first time and so on and so on, let us not fool around with this thing, let us try to find other ways rather than force down the threat of Communism in our country, because we have no reason to think we can win. Let's not commit suicide."

Mr. Goodenough for the affirmative, "Russia will bury us if we allow her to, without forces we are lost, with it, we have a fighting chance. We must and we will defend ourselves. We will keep our dignity." H. C. Green for the negative: "Our way of life cannot be accepted by all the world, there has to be another way."

The judges for the evening were Rev. A. E. Loree, Rev. J. C. Hood and Mrs. Margaret Campbell. Their split decision resulted in the Affirmative side being declared the winners.

Ormstown Ladies Curling Club Entertains

Winner of the morning games was the Riverfield Club, and the Baie D'Urf Club was victorious in the afternoon. Afternoon tea was served by the Associate members with Mrs. R. E. Walsh pouring.

Miss Nettie Hunter Celebrates Her 90th Birthday

Miss Nettie Hunter was pleasantly surprised on Friday afternoon, when a few of her intimate friends called on her to wish her happiness on her 90th birthday.

Miss Hunter enjoys good health and does all her own housework. Her eyesight is impaired somewhat but that does not deter her from enjoying the pleasant company of her friends and neighbors. She is keenly interested in everyone and everything about her town. Miss Hunter was a most active member of the Presbyterian Church and the Women's Missionary Society and the Ladies Aid for many years until her failing sight and great age dictated a more quiet life for her.

She is very proud of her age and enjoys reminiscing with her friends, she has a sharp mind and a wonderful memory.

One of her friends brought a birthday cake and others brought ice cream and cake and a real birthday treat was enjoyed by all the ladies.

Explorers Hostess St. Patrick's Tea

ORMSTOWN — The Ormstown Explorers were busy all day Saturday preparing for their afternoon guests. They had a work shop in the morning then sat down to a well deserved lunch of baked macaroni and hot dogs. To the uninitiated this spells gastronomic disaster but to hard working young people it meant heaven. After lunch each member busied him (or her) self with the business of tidying up the hall and setting tea tables. Tea with assorted cakes and sandwiches were served to parents and friends with J. C. Hood and Mrs. Wm. Rennie graciously pouring tea. An amount in excess of twenty dollars was taken at the door and the Explorers extend their thanks to all who helped to make the project a success.

Bible Class in Presbyterian Church

Fourteen persons attended the Bible Class in the Presbyterian Hall, on Sunday evening, Rev. J. C. Hood read and discussed the second chapter of the First Epistle General of John. A discussion period followed with each one interested in pursuing the study of the Bible, voicing his special problem.

U.C.W. Unit 1 Meets

The United Church Women Unit 1 met on March 12th at 2 p.m. in MacDougall Hall, with an attendance of 16 members and 1 visitor. President, Mrs. Martin, opened the meeting with an appropriate poem. Devotional was taken by Mrs. Lorne Elliot. The treasurer reported $38.22 from Father and Son banquet and $87.47 on hand in treasury. Discussion on both at Ormstown Show took place and was left in the hands of Mrs. Sault.

The Spring Luncheon will be held in May, conveners will be Mrs. A. Cavers, Mrs. Finlayson, Mrs. Sault, Mrs. McGerrigle. Mrs. Gartshore was in charge of program and called on Mrs. Elsie McKell to give the chapter, "The Red Silk Dress" from "Hasten the Day."

Mrs. W. Lawrence described the music festival and three of her pupils took part in the program — Tommy Bryson, Heather Wallace and Susan Nussey, who all rendered piano solos. A duet was also rendered by Susan and Mrs. Lawrence. These pupils are taking part in Music Festival in May. Much credit and en-

The girls of the Explorer Group, trained by Mrs. G. Ficko and accompanied on the piano by Mrs. P. Préparation du Centenaire de Notre-Dame

Le dimanche, 5 mai prochain, auront lieu de grandes fêtes commémorant le centenaire anniversaire de l'ancien Couvent, maintenant Ecole Notre-Dame de Huntingdon. Ce sera une journée mémorable, il n'y a pas de doute, mais qui songera alors aux innombrables heures de travail dévoué qu'aura exigées un tel événement? Nous voudrions ici vous en donner une brève idée.

Dès septembre dernier, le Comité Exécutif de l'Amicale Notre-Dame de l'Espoir se réunissait pour discuter de l'organisation des fêtes. Les Mères Supérieure et Directrice, de l'Ecole Notre-Dame, en tant que membres honoraires du comité, étaient là pour apporter leur précieux concours. Mme Gerald Brisebois, classe des finissantes 1946, est présidente de ce comité, Mme Monique Racine et Mlle Rita Kerby en sont vice-présidentes. Il y a en outre deux secrétaires-trésoriers, et huit conseillers (je mets au masculin parce qu'il s'y trouve deux messieurs — Robert McGee et Patrick Coffey). L'exécutif avait devant lui une lourde tâche. Il fallait d'abord retracer les anciennes, songer à la publication d'un album-souvenir, fixer la date et l'horaire de la célébration, s'occuper de la réception, des repas, des divertissements et, pour tout cela, recueillir des fonds. Plusieurs comités furent donc mis sur pied pour aider l'exécutif.

Le Comité d'Invitation (Messieurs Gilles Bergeron, Rosario Deniger, Maurice Smith et Mlle Rita Kerby) se mit à la recherche de plus de 1,100 anciennes. Ces dernières étaient disséminées un peu partout dans le Canada, depuis Halifax jusqu'à Vancouver, aux Etats-Unis et même en France et en Suisse. Ce comité bénéficia naturellement du concours de plusieurs anciennes n'ayant pas quitté Huntingdon et correspondant en outre avec leurs amies en lointains pays. On avait eu l'heureuse idée de poser des boîtes à l'arrière des églises environnantes, demandant aux anciennes d'y déposer leur nom et leur adresse; mais, à part l'église d'ici même, où on en recueillit 46, les autres boîtes demeurèrent vides. Ayant retrouvé les adresses, il fallut ensuite que ce comité envoie des invitations à tout ce monde.

Le Comité de Publicité (Mme André Villeneuve, Mme Harold Higgins, Mlle Liette Planette) se chargea de recueillir, chez les marchands, des annonces pour l'Album-Souvenir. Leur travail donna de bons résultats.

Le Comité des Finances (Mlle Gilberte Bougie, Mlle Rita Kerby et Mme Douglas Burns) devait, avec l'aide de l'exécutif, voir à ce que toute cette entreprise ne tombe pas dans le rouge.

Guides Catholiques du Canada

Une date historique

Le 10 novembre 1962, mesdemoiselles Gertrude Lemire, présidente du comité directeur et Gabrielle Moreau, commissaire nationale, signaient au nom des guides Catholiques du Canada (Girl Guides of Canada), (secteur français) un accord avec les guides du Canada. En vertu de cet accord, toutes les guides catholiques romaines d'expression française ou qu'elles soient au Canada, pourront désormais vivre un guidisme conforme à leur foi, à leur culture et à leur mentalité dans les cadres de l'Association des Guides Catholiques du Canada et être reconnues comme d'authentiques guides sur le plan mondial.

Les membres de la Fédération des Guides Catholiques de la province de Québec jouissaient déjà depuis longtemps de ces privilèges. Peut-être les considérait-on comme "allant de soi". Pour réaliser toute la portée du geste posé le 10 novembre 1962, il sera utile d'évoquer le passé.

Le passé

La première compagnie de guides, au Canada, fut fondée à Ste-Catherine, Ontario en 1910. Deux ans plus tard, un quartier général canadien s'établissait à Toronto et une commissaire en chef était nommée pour le Canada. En 1917, le mouvement prit son véritable caractère. On pria alors celles-ci de téléphoner à Mme Brisebois le plus tôt possible.

Pour vous mettre l'eau à la bouche, voici l'horaire du 5 mai:

9 heures - 11 h. 15 a.m. — Inscription à l'Ecole Notre-Dame.

11 h. 30 a.m. — Messe pontificale à l'Eglise.

1 h. 30 p.m. — Banquet au Château.

3 heures p.m. — Réunion à l'Ecole Notre-Dame, où l'on pourra renouer connaissance, rappeler d'anciens souvenirs.

5 h. 30 p.m. — Buffet froid, servi à l'Ecole.

7 h. 30 p.m. — Soirée intime à la salle de l'Ecole Notre-Dame.

Lundi matin, 6 mai, une messe sera chantée pour les membres défunts de l'Amicale. R. Rougerie.

Le Comité de Musique

(Mme Monique Racine, Mme Michelle Latreille et Mlle Gilberte Demers et Gilberte Bougie) prépare un programme musical exécuté entièrement par des anciennes et composé de chants et de pièces favorites au temps où elles étaient étudiantes. Ainsi, Mme Latreille jouera, en duo avec Mlle Bougie, le mouvement "Romance" du Concerto en ré mineur de Mozart. Mlle Demers donnera un solo de piano, Mlle Jacqueline Diodetti, un solo de chant. Les sœurs Fournier chanteront un duo. Une chorale, formée d'anciennes, sous la direction de Mme Latreille, présentera quelques chants qui ne manquent pas de rappeler bien des souvenirs à l'auditoire. D'autres anciennes participent aussi à cette soirée.

Le Comité de Décoration

(Mme Rosemary Cosgrove, Mme Marcel Latreille, Mme Arthur Gauthier et Mlle Cecil O'Connor et Lawrence Bergevin) s'efforcera de rendre le décor gai et attrayant à la salle de l'Ecole Notre-Dame, à l'entrée, ainsi qu'à l'intérieur et à la salle à manger du Château. Le comité désire rester dans la simplicité, se servant surtout de fleurs pour la décoration, ce qui devrait être charmant.

Le Comité de Divertissements

(Mlle Marthe Beaudin, Mme Patrick McCallum) s'occupera de la partie non musicale de la soirée intime du 5 mai. Connaissant l'entrain et le dynamisme de Mlle Beaudin, l'on peut s'attendre à quelque chose de très amusant.

Le Comité du Ruban-Souvenir (Mlle Bibiane Daoust, Mlle Mireille Brisson, Rachel Mainville, Lisette Derepenti) verra à la vente de ces rubans à tous les participants de la fête. On espère que les recettes aideront à défrayer une partie des dépenses encourues.

Enfin, le Comité de Réception (Mme Georges Rich, Mlle Diane Primeau, Mme George Collum et Mme Robert Whyte) arboreront leur plus beau sourire, le matin du 5 mai, pour accueillir les anciennes et les anciens qui viendront, pendant un jour, puiser à la source du souvenir.

Les membres de tous ces comités et, surtout, ceux de l'exécutif, ont dû sacrifier plusieurs soirées depuis septembre pour venir discuter ensemble de nombreux problèmes suscités par une telle entreprise. Et il reste encore un mois et demi à travailler. Mme Gerald Brisebois, elle-même mère de cinq enfants et première responsable, désire remercier ici tous les membres pour leur dévouement. Son plus cher espoir est que cette journée attire le plus d'anciens et d'anciennes possible et connaisse ainsi un véritable succès.

Mme Brisebois désire aussi faire remarquer que l'incendie qui rasa le Couvent a aussi détruit les archives où étaient inscrits les noms des élèves. Il se pourrait donc que certaines n'aient pas reçu d'in-

Canadian Council of the Girl Guides Association était incorporé. Il avait une existence autonome mais maintenait des relations très étroites avec la Girl Guides Association de Grande-Bretagne.

Le Canadian Council of the Girl Guides Association était un mouvement ouvert, expression qui signifie que toute fille adolescente, jeune fille ou jeune femme peut devenir membre du mouvement, quel que soit sa langue, sa religion, sa couleur, sa nationalité. (Au sens guide, le mot fermé signifie que tous les membres d'une unité ou d'un groupe appartiennent à une même religion). Le mouvement national, pour être membre de l'Association Mondiale des Guides et des Eclaireuses, doit être ouvert. Il doit aussi être représentatif du guidisme de Cette affiliation fut accordée en janvier 1939 mais limitait les activités de la fédération à la province civile de Québec. La Fédération ne pouvait s'affilier de groupes en dehors du Québec sans l'autorisation écrite du Canadian Council.

Les premiers "Statuts et Règlements" tentèrent de donner corps à cette Fédération dont la fraternité était l'âme. Que de sacrifices généreusement consentis, de part et d'autre! Les questions d'uniforme et d'insigne ne furent pas les plus faciles à régler.

Si pénible que fut pour elle cette restriction, la Fédération respecta son entente: le travail manqua dans la province de Québec.

Dès 1939, la Fédération avait sa première commissaire provinciale: madame Rodolphe Philie.

Les plus anciennes parmi nous, se souvenaient avec émotion des premières rencontres provinciales: le ralliement de chefs au Lac Vert, en 1939, où la chaleur de la fraternité "brisa la glace" et camp-école du Lac Long, en 1940, où furent confrontés et furent les liens de l'amitié mises en commun les expériences "dans le labeur et dans la foi".

Guidisme catholique

Le guidisme catholique est un mouvement d'éducation. Comme tel, il doit, pour des catholiques, s'inspirer des principes catholiques et être soumis aux directives de la hiérarchie en matière d'éducation et d'apostolat, car il est aussi mouvement d'apostolat.

Le guidisme canadien a sûrement compté, dès le début, des membres catholiques dissimulés dans des unités ouvertes. Il a compté, avec le temps, un certain nombre d'unités fermées catholiques — il existe aussi des unités fermées protestantes — tant de langue anglaise que de langue française.

1928 semble avoir été une année décisive, avec la fondation, à Québec, de la première compagnie de guides catholiques de langue française. En 1932, un district groupait les unités de langue française sous la direction d'une commissaire catholique; en 1933, sous l'impulsion et avec l'aide des Franciscaines Missionnaires de Marie, plusieurs unités furent fondées et devinrent le district numéro 3. A la fin de cette année, S.E. saire nationale, signaient au nom des guides Catholiques du Canada (Girl Guides of Canada), (secteur français) un accord avec les guides du Canada. En vertu de cet accord, toutes les guides catholiques romaines d'expression française ou qu'elles soient au Canada, pourront désormais vivre un guidisme conforme à leur foi, à leur culture et à leur mentalité dans les cadres de l'Association des Guides Catholiques du Canada et être reconnues comme d'authentiques guides sur le plan mondial.

CONFERENCE-FORUM A LA CHAMBRE DE COMMERCE A HUNTINGDON

Voici une photo des conférenciers qui prirent part à une Conférence-Forum ayant comme sujet, "La collaboration pour le développement industriel." La discussion fut sous les auspices de la Chambre de Commerce de Huntingdon à l'occasion de l'assemblée annuelle de cette organisation. Le conférencier à ce moment était M. Joseph E. Lalonde, Supt. du Développement Industriel, Banque de Montréal.

Causerie - Forum de la Chambre de Commerce

Hier soir, à l'Hôtel "Le Château", la Chambre de Commerce de Huntingdon a organisé une Conférence-Forum ayant comme sujet: "La collaboration pour le développement industriel". Sept conférenciers ont présenté la participation de leur organisme respectif et ont répondu aux questions de l'assistance. Tout près d'une centaine de personnes ont participé à la manifestation.

M. Blais, le représentant du Ministère de l'Industrie et du Commerce pour la région du Richelieu, a bien exposé la situation en nous consultant de réver nos projets d'expansion vingt ans d'avance; planifier pour les besoins industriels futurs, soumettre les projets aux autorités gouvernementales et coordonner les efforts de chaque citoyen.

Tous les conférenciers invités ont été vraiment à la hauteur de la situation dans leur exposé et leurs réponses; et la manifestation en général s'est révélée un véritable succès et constitue un grand pas vers la préparation pour l'établissement d'industries futures dans notre région.

Nos plus sincères félicitations à M. Sanderson et à tous les officiers de la Chambre de Commerce pour cette heureuse initiative. La semaine prochaine, nous publierons en détail l'exposé de chaque conférencier invité et l'essence des questions de l'assistance.

Pierre Ménard.

St. Andrew's United Church Observing 130th Anniversary

St. Andrew's United Church in Chateauguy is observing its 130th anniversary this week. The Sunday morning worship service on March 17th was conducted by the minister, the Rev. Howard C. Fraser, B.A., B.D. The choir, under the direction of the organist, Mr. Alun Hughes, B.Sc., P. Eng., rendered the anthem "Trust in the Lord" by Handel. Guest preacher on this special occasion was the very Rev. James S. Thomson, M.A., D.D., L.L.D., F.R.S.C. In introducing him, Mr. Fraser mentioned that Dr. Thomson is widely known and greatly respected as a Christian preacher, teacher, lecturer and writer. Many theological students have been and still are grateful for his comprehensive lectures and wise counsel. For several years he was Dean of the Faculty of Divinity in McGill University and presently he is the Professor of Homiletics at the United Theological College. From 1956-58 Dr. Thomson was moderator of the General Council of the United Church of Canada. It was indeed an honour to have a person of such distinction sharing in the anniversary celebration.

Dr. Thomson said he has for some time had a special interest in this congregation at Chateauguy and that it was a pleasure for him to be taking part in their 130th anniversary while one of his own students is their minister. Dr. Thomson's sermon was based on the text John 14:6 when Jesus is quoted as saying "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life."

He spoke first of two ways we experience life: a) as a journey which we all share, over which we have little control and which has a time limit as far as living on this earth is concerned; and b) that to some extent we each choose the kind of life we are going to live and cultivate certain qualities in it. He then asked the question that Thomas asked "How can we know the way?" In other words: "Where are we going? Has our own human life any ultimate meaning?" Dr. Thomson showed there are also two ways of regarding the "end" of life. To be sure, death terminates or ends our mortal lives, but in God's plan as set forth by His Son, life has a purpose or end in view. The realization of that "end" comes through our attachment to Jesus Christ. Our Saviour did not merely present a series of doctrines or abstract propositions about existence. He was Himself the Way and is today for all who are willing to believe in Him. "Our faith in Christ does not rest on scientific proof," said Dr. Thomson, "but on the experience of His saving power in our own personal lives. Jesus Christ is the Way, thus giving us direction, He is the Truth, providing us with assurance, and He is the Life in whom alone our finite lives can find their fulfillment." Dr. Thomson's message was greatly appreciated by the people of St. Andrew's.

Here follows a brief historical sketch of the St. Andrew's congregation in Chateauguy. Since 1833 the people of St. Andrew's in Chateauguy have been meeting regularly for Christian worship. A missionary, Rev. Walter Roach, sent to Canada by the Church of Scotland, was the first minister here. He was at the same time minister of St. Edward's Presbyterian Church in Beauharnois. St. Andrew's was Presbyterian until the time of Church Union in 1925 when it became part of the United Church of Canada.

Three church buildings have served this congregation, the present one having been opened for worship on March 26th, 1910. The first church was completed in 1849 and in 1880 it was replaced by the old stone church. Both these buildings were located on the ground now occupied by the Chateauguy Protestant Cemetery near the Village. Our new Memorial Hall and improved facilities for Christian Education were added to the present building in 1950. The Manse was built in 1921.

The Anniversary Supper — Will be held in the Memorial Hall at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, March 22nd. Every family in the congregation is cordially invited and will be contacted by the ladies who are planning the meal. There is no admission charge. It is hoped that a goodly number will gather to enjoy this evening of fellowship and the one hour program which will follow the Church Family Supper.

Red and orange shades, for instance, are the warmest while yellow is the sunniest. Blue and green shades tend to be the most restful. Cool colors give an illusion of spaciousness, warm colors seem to bring objects closer to you. It is well to know something about this complex theory of color before going forward with elaborate redecorating plans which may not give the desired results. Advice from an experienced interior decorator can avoid costly mistakes and is usually worth the price.

Report Of Employment Conditions

Mr. J. DeSerres, manager of the National Employment Office in Valleyfield, declares that on February 28th, 1963, 2603 males and 569 females were registered for employment, compared to 2544 males and 541 females on January 31st, 1963 and 2416 males and 543 females on February 28th, 1962.

During the last month, in the male division, an increase has been noted in clerical work and construction while, for the female division, a diminution was noted in distillery and clerical work.

Compared with last year, unemployment, for male, has somewhat increased in construction, while it has decreased for female, in manufacturing and general office work.

In February, 296 persons were placed in employment through the National Employment Service, in manufacturing, trade, construction and services.

It is expected these conditions will remain unchanged until Spring time, when activities will start in many economic sections of our district.

Chamber Of Commerce Urges All To Study Election Campaign And Be Sure To Vote April 8

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce announces it is encouraging citizens to go to the polls on April 8th. They will bring into play such things as literature, speakers, posters, counter cards and stickers. "As citizens of a free country, we have many privileges and we also have corresponding duties and responsibilities," stated President Victor Oland of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. "One of the most important of these is intelligently on election day. Those eligible to vote should make sure their names are on the voters' lists, inform themselves on the issues and candidates, and on election day — April 8th — they should vote."

Work on the Council Hall and Committee Rooms being constructed by Contractor, Mr. Ovide Asselin in the basement of the Town Hall on Blvd D'Youville, is well underway. Tenders for the renovation of the offices on the ground floor will be received on March 26th.

Mr. Maurice Crepin of Crepin St., the Station, has been engaged as a clerk in the Public Works Department.

Work on the River opening by Mr. Zepherin Bouchard and his crew is progressing favorably according to the Town Council. Mr. Bouchard encountered a major difficulty this year in that the ice was frozen three miles out into Lake St. Louis from the mouth of the River, thus work was slowed up considerably. No danger is anticipated but in the case of extreme emergency all plans have been made to engage the assistance of the Militia who can be summoned by wire in very short time.

St. Andrew's Notes

The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered at St. Andrew's at the close of Worship next Sunday morning. At the regular monthly meeting of the St. Andrew's United Church Women on March 27th next, the program committee will present the third and concluding portion of the current Adult Mission Study. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Wilfred C. Smith of Montreal, wife of the Professor of Comparative Religion at the McGill Faculty of Divinity. He is also head of the Institute on Islamic Studies at McGill.

Mrs. Smith was born and spent her girlhood in China where her parents were Christian Missionaries. She received her higher education in Japan and studied medicine. Afterwards she and her husband served a term as missionaries in India and this summer they plan to return to India for a year with their five children. Mrs. Smith is very well qualified to speak on missionary work in the Orient and the U.C.W. of St. Andrew's is extending an open invitation to any ladies who would like to attend this meeting.

Sincere sympathy is also extended to Mrs. W. J. Bryant of Desrochers St., the Station, in the sad loss of her husband William which occurred on Sunday, March 17th. Mrs. Bryant, the former Florrie McGrath has been a resident of Chateauguy for many many years.

The Misses Gertrude and Ellen Noonan of Gilmour Avenue, are vacationing in New York City.

Consider Your Rugs When Spring Cleaning

When spring comes, homemakers usually find themselves involved with a variety of housecleaning tasks. One of the most important of these is the care given to your rugs. Rugs should really be given constant consideration if they are to retain their beauty and deep, luxurious pile. A thorough vacuuming at least once a week is imperative. For daily care, a carpet sweeper is excellent. Rugs should be shampooed twice a year.

A good rug should never be laid in one position too long. This will cause it to wear unevenly. For this reason, it is wise to turn a rug end to end at least once each year.

Matter Of Town Manager Still Under Consideration By Town Of Chateauguy Centre Council

A special meeting of the Town of Chateauguy Centre Council was held on March 12th, 1963, at the usual time for the meeting. The changes for and place with Mayor Armand Brisebois presiding and presented to the secretary following councillors: Jean Gauthier, Richard Sutterlin, Yvan Gilbert, Edouard Reid, Mr. Claude Mongeau, who had presented his resignation to the council at the meeting of March 5th, accepted the resolution passed at that meeting.

Moved by Councillor Sutterlin and seconded by Councillor Gilbert that Mr. Claude Mongeau be authorized to withdraw his resignation dated March 5th, 1963.

Moved by Councillor Gauthier and seconded by Councillor Reid, 1—Considering the manager, since his term of office, has not established staff discipline, allowing everyone to administer or work program, causing considerable loss of time and services to the taxpayers; 2—Considering many complaints of the taxpayers regarding the lack of notice, and held on March 14th, 1963, between 7 and 8 p.m. with Edouard Reid, attention of the manager on many occasions by the Council and its members; 3—Considering the manager's refusal to answer the taxpayers' telephone calls and this being an important part of his duty; 4—Considering the fact the functioning of manager and civil engineering have accumulated only two years experience, and the reasons already mentioned, I consider that the salary of $10,000.00 a year is more than satisfactory and I think that Mr. Mongeau before asking for an increase in salary should give a better service to the taxpayers which could lead to a reduction of taxes.

This increase of $1,000.00 a year is, in my opinion, exaggerated and unfair to the taxpayers and would be in the manner of an offence to all the other employees. The voting on the motion resulted in a tie and Mayor Brisebois was in favor of Councillor Gauthier's proposition but suggested the Council should wait until the Council is complete to study the matter.

Mr. Claude Mongeau left the meeting.

The chairman opened the meeting and had the secretary read Article 593 of the Cities and Towns Act, by-laws No. 337 and 338. After reading, the by-laws were presented to the meeting for approval. Electors eligible to vote for the by-law did so unanimously. A certificate to this effect was signed by the presiding officers: Edouard Reid, Councillor; Laurier Legault, Asst. Secretary-Treasurer.

The second game saw the Mohawks take 4 to 1 victory over the Lions with young George Norton, the League's scoring champion, leading the way with two goals and 1 assist. Ron Beauvais and Clifford Ryc were the other Mohawk Marksmen while Roland Lacharite was the lone Lion's scorer. The Mohawks would have had more goals if it had not been for the stellar performance of Lion's goaler, N. Brosseau. The Lion's event though outplayed throughout the whole game, never gave up and will be out there fighting to overcome the 3 goal deficit this Saturday. The Mohawks playing real fine hockey should take this series and go on to the finals.

CHATEAUGUAY SPORTS ROUND UP

(by JOHN McDONALD)
Phone No. OX. 2-2647

The final game in the C.V. J.H.L. got underway Saturday night at Loyola College Arena. The Castors and Mohawks came up with impressive 1st game victories in the two-game total point series.

The first game saw the Castors take a 5 to 1 victory over the Warriors. The warriors took the lead early when Ross Chamberlain scored at the 50 sec. mark with the assists going to G. Kezar and M. Dettmers. The Castors tied it up at the 2:3 min. mark with Don Laberge scoring and the assist going to J.P. Rochon. The rest of the first period was scoreless with both teams making a number of good plays. Norm Simmons put the Castors 1 up at the 10:39 mark scoring on a beautiful backhand. The Warriors fought back during the remainder of the second period but just couldn't tie the score. The third period saw the Castors put on a fine display of hockey while the Warriors seemed to fade. Jerry Aucoin got two third period goals and M. Laberge got one. Final score Castors 5, Warriors 1. The Warriors have a hard uphill fight ahead of them in this Saturday's game, with a 4 goal deficit, but a little de-

Scoutarama '63

The Scoutarama will be held from March 21st to the 24th on the 29th floor of the Imperial Bank of Commerce Building. 13,000 square feet will house exhibits ranging from Astronomy, scuba diving, gliding to judo, which should prove of interest to everyone attending.

Overcome it and come up

With an impressive victory. However, to be able to come up with a victory in this series, they will have to do some solid hitting and some good old fashioned backchecking. Watching the Warriors last week one would think that they just didn't exist in hockey anymore. I, for one, think that the Warriors have it in them to come up with a big game this week and hope that they will go into the game fired up and determined to win and not get out of the ice with a defeatist attitude.

The second game saw the Mohawks take 4 to 1 victory over the Lions with young George Norton, the League's scoring champion, leading the way with two goals and 1 assist. Notes and Jottings

FROM

Robert Sellar's Historical Writings

The growth of that section of the country which forms a gorge between the old Hemmingford and Hinchinbrook lines, extending from the Flats to near Rockburn, was blighted for 25 years by an attempt to prove that it was part of the seignior of Beauharnois. From the beginning there had been a doubt as to how far the seignior extended southwards. Anxious to have the country settled the first seignior-agent, Winter, told those who were put to take up land in what is now Franklin, that he would make them safe by giving them permits, which few accepted, the majority regarding that an unnecessary precaution, being persuaded that not only Russelltown and Edwardstown, but a strip of Williamstown were outside the bounds of the seignior and therefore belonged to the crown. Milne was so dubious about the seignior owning these lands that, in a case where he wished to favor a family, he would not give a deed. When Brown came all doubt as to the designs of the seignior were ended. The Hon. John Richardson and he resolved to begin with the Williamstown settlers. The Highlanders were summoned to attend at Beauharnois one day in October, 1821. Asked what they had to say for themselves, they told how they had sought homes nine years before in the forest and how, when informed that the owner of the seignior claimed the land they had selected, two of their number had gone to visit Milne and wanted to arrange with him, for they wished to act honestly, and he refused to deal with them in any way and, thereupon, they had taken possession. Richardson perceived the simple character of the men and he proceeded to bully them. Affect-signior and pay rent, shattered their dream of fancied security in their possessions and set them enquiring into the foundation of his claim. The question was a rather involved one, and turned upon the correctness of the surveys of the boundary lines between the seignior of Beauharnois and the Huntingdon townships. In 1787 W. Chewitt was ordered to survey the township of Godmanchester, which then included St. Anicet. It was of course essential for him to establish the western boundary of the seignior, and the proper way to have done so was to begin at the boundary (which had been then legally established) between the seignior of Chateaugay and that of Beauharnois, and from that point measure 6 French leagues, which would have brought him to the western limit of the seignior of Beauharnois and the starting-point for the new township. Instead of that, he started at St. Regis, and measuring eastward struck the river Chateaugay which he followed until he either arbitrarily fixed the western boundary of the seignior or, what is probable, accepted some old survey that a previous surveyor had plotted. Having settled in his own way the seignior's landmark on the river bank, he ran his line north-west to the St. Lawrence. The following year Henry Holland was sent to survey Lincolnton. Without examination, he accepted Chewitt's line as correct, and continued it south-east until it struck the province line in the centre of 51. In 1791 Joseph Kilburn was engaged to survey Hemmingford, and just as Chewitt and Holland had established the western boundary of the seignior, it fell to him to ascertain its southern boundary. This he did by starting from the south-east landmark of the seignior which had been established and ran a line south-west until it intersected that run by Holland. This he struck half a mile north of the United States, when he concluded that the western line of the seignior was that extent short of the six leagues. Alexander Ellice, who was then seignior, demanded compensation for this deficiency, and, in 1801, the government, without enquiring into the merits of the case, ceded to him 6600 acres in the township of Clifton, Sherbrooke county. This matter rested for over a quarter of a century, during which the settlers were painfully and slowly subduing the forest and changing an unproductive wilderness into a fertile country. The agents of the seignior, the Hon. Mr. Richardson and Colonel Brown, perceived this. They coveted the prosperous settlements which fringed the southern border of the seignior resolved to appropriate them under the pretence that they fell within its limits by virtue of the old and forgotten surveys above described. If these surveys were correct, the claim of Mr. Ellice's agents was indisputable, and the whole question therefore turned upon their accuracy. Nothing could be plainer than the limits defined in the original deed by the French King. The Marquis of Beauharnois was to have a square of land 6 leagues long facing the St. Lawrence, and 6 leagues deep, the side-lines to run south-west. A square of this size would contain 254,036 arpents. The questions to decide Mr. Ellice's pretensions were: Did his seignior have a front on the St. Lawrence of 6 leagues; did his side-lines measure 6 leagues in depth; did they run truly

COOPERATION LACKING

It is with a heavy heart that I put on paper this article and heart that this article is many of you who have made great preparations for a special event at home elsewhere, and when all in readiness have you back and said "My, I hope everyone I invited turns up. Well, if they did not come perhaps you will know that every hurt feeling we 32 along with our chairman of the Ladies Committee felt on Tuesday last. Yes you read it right 32 people turned up for our annual social at the parish hall. And 30 of those at the usual never fails, who attend everything put on by the Association, because as family people with children they feel that in order to reap any benefit they must help and attend as many as possible the events planned for the entertainment and support of our community. But support was sadly lacking on March 12th. Even our neighboring developments and communities were conspicuous by their absence. But as everyone said who did attend - wait till the children want a corn boil this year - buses to attend the Santa parade - Santa Claus party, tree and gifts - the children's street social, etc. etc. It will be a great disappointment to all, but how can these things be expected if there is no support to the people who work and run around for these planned events and then see all their efforts shattered. There were those who asked Mrs. Rankin to call it off. But she felt that those who did come out should not have to be sent away on account of those who apparently couldn't care less about how things turned out. Mr. and Mrs. Bainville, who so kindly arranged all the speaker apparatus and also their game stayed and enjoyed the evening with us, as it proceeded as planned. Everyone, all 32 of us had a very good time as you would have had, had you attended as it was hoped. A year ago the hall was full. What has happened to everyone? Enthusiasm is a great thing, and it is infectious, and with the people we have here we should have an epidemic of it soon. So that Donnie can be always those who find fault no matter what and these same folks are the ones who never patronize anything. Well, when the association elections come up prove yourselves and air your views of the jobs and perhaps you will be able to understand just how much one has to put into a task to do it really well enough to please everyone. Sorry you missed a very good time. Listed below are the lucky winners names.

Mr. Jack Hughes and Mrs. W. Vincent both of St. Patrick Sq. were the lucky winners of beautiful cakes that were raffled. Many thanks to all the people who baked and donated to the sale also thanks to Morrette and Lavinie and Pom Bakery. Don't forget the C.C.R.A. W.A. They were accompanied by the Grenadier Guard Pipe and Drum Band.

for the occasion. Happy birthday to Judith Stanford of Albert St. who was 7 years old on March 14th from her grandmother Stanford in Hemmingford. The Ladies' Association for the Girl, Guides and Brownies will be holding a very important meeting on March 22th in the United Church, Parkview Blvd. at 8.30 p.m. At his meeting, elections will be held for new officers. It is most important to note that without the committee there can be no Guides or Brownies, so anyone interested in seeing that that this movement does not die out in this area please make it a point to attend this meeting. We noticed in last week's paper that the Parkview Women's Club legal adviser, Ian Watson, has thrown his hat in the political ring. We wish him good luck. There is a thought I enjoyed when it was passed on to me. If you meet someone without a smile, give him one of yours! Lucky Winner Mrs. Kennedy of St. Aubin St. was the lucky winner of the grand prize on the Jimmy Lapp Show. Mrs. Kennedy's prizes included a dishwasher and a free weekend trip to Lac Beauport near Quebec City, with the use of a rented car for the whole weekend. We wish her a happy holiday.

Related happy St. Patrick's Day to all our Irish friends in the projects. I hope you all remembered to wear the green. On March 4th, the Parkview Women's Club held their monthly meeting in the Bistro Room of the Rustik Restaurant. The ladies were entertained by the music of the Lightning Rods who will play for the club's next dance. Doug McKinnon of Beurling St. must be a very brave man. He has invaded the world of women and is selling cosmetics. We are happy to see that Mr. Cyril Powell of Elgin Drive is out of the hospital and feeling better again. Mrs. Margaret Elliott, Brown Owl of the 3rd Chateaugay Browne Pack, gave her girls a surprise party last week on the occasion being the pack's second anniversary. The executive committee of the Mary Gardner Home and School Association held a meeting last Tuesday night. It was decided to donate $460 to the principal, Mr. Shuffelt, for needed school equipment. It was also decided to supply the cafeteria with a 90 cup coffee urn, two electric kettles as well as some sugar bowls and creamers. It was also decided to help the dancing class with their recital. Elections will be held for a new executive committee on April 1st. Be sure to attend this very important meeting. Friends of Mrs. Kuehling of Parkview will be glad to hear that she is out of the hospital and recuperating nicely. The St. Patrick's dance held by the Sportmen's Association in Ste.  Mrs. Marshall, jam dish; Mrs. Hillock, huge bingo cake; Mrs. Blair, hostess gingerale pack; Mr. Courley, gallon paint; Mrs. Goutley, c. mer for two; Mrs. Roy, travellers clock; Mrs. Trapnell, bathroom set; Mrs. Mitchell, electric bottle warmer; Mrs. Sproston, hostess gingerale pack; Mr. Bainville, 2 cushions; parallel? Thus tested, it was ascertained, 1st, that instead of a river front of 18 miles he had one of 18". Chewitt having made a mistake in allowing half a mile more to the seignior than it was entitled, 2nd, that the west side line was unduly prolonged by Holland, as judged by Kilburn, was the reverse, 3rd, that Chewitt had run his line on the wrong angle, and by going too far west, had given the seignior a breadth in rear of 19 miles instead of 18. In addition to all this, the three surveyors had overlooked the circumstances that the St. Lawrence took a bend from the dividing-line between the seignior of Chateaugay and Beauharnois, and that the great projection of land northward, including Grande Isle, should have been taken into account, and the southern boundary been made to conform to it, by slanting it northward from the end of the eastern-line. The result of all these errors was, that if the boundaries of Godmanchester and the other townships were to be accepted as the boundaries of the seignior, then it contained 32,000 arpents more than the deed of the French king authorized, and the farms of Manning Gentle, and the 150 others east of them were part of the surplus.

There will be a meeting of the Parents and Teachers Association on Wednesday, March 20th, at 8.30 p.m. which will be held in St. Jude's school. All parents are asked to attend. We are sorry to hear that "Mr. Flu" has called at 118 Labelle St. Sandy had to have the Doctor and then she kindly passed it along to her sister Brenda. Both girls are better now and back at school. "Mr. Flu" also called at 125 Labelle to Donnie and Mrs. Butt. Hope they feel better soon. So that Donnie can be out to play with his friends again. Here's a funny little item that happened to one of our neighbours on Labelle St. When going off to work he put his lunch on the back of the car, to clear the windshield. Got in and drove to work. When there, found he had no lunch. Phoned home to tell wife, "lost male" guests home.

I know everyone will be sorry to hear that Mr. Spicer's son was knocked down by a hit and run driver on Friday. The boy is in hospital and is reported to have two broken ribs. The driver was later apprehended by the police as a quick thinking spectator took his license number.

We had a very surprised young nine-year old in our house on Saturday. It was Gregory's birthday and he had a surprise party. He stayed at his friend's Billy Kozinski house, all day and Billy kept the secret which I think is quite an achievement for an eight-year old. When all the guests had arrived Billy brought Gregory home. After the first "shock" a good time was had by all.

Isn't it nice to see the snow begin to melt? I've had it reported to me by Mrs. Paquette that she has about six crocuses up in her front garden, so we can look forward to spring flower hunting at last.

Maternity Safe Life Expectancy Highest Ever

According to a panel at the Canadian Medical Association's annual meeting in Winnipeg, the maternal death rate is one in ten thousand, the lowest in the history of the country. Other statistics show that once a child is born, he can look forward to a longer life span than any one of his ancestors.

The Health League of Canada quoting the Financial Post says a "Canadian male baby born in 1960 can expect to live 67.6 years, a female baby can expect to live 72.9 years. If the male baby survives the first year it has a life expectancy of 69 years and a female baby 74 years."

Canada's birth rate has been dropping slightly since 1959. That year births hit a record high of 479,275. In 1960 the number declined to 478,551 and last year the number dropped again to 474,000, a decrease of about one per cent from 1960.

The Health League also reports that Newfoundland had the highest birth rate in 1961 with 30.5 live births per 1,000 population; Alberta had 28.5; New Brunswick 28.4; Prince Edward Island 26.8; Nova Scotia 26.2; Quebec 25.8; Ontario 25.7; Saskatchewan 25.6; Manitoba 25.5; and British Columbia 23.6.

In 30 years the infant death rate has dropped by 60 per cent in Canada. In 1931 there were 42 deaths per 1,000 live births. In 1960 this mortality rate had dropped to 18.

of particular interest to all you men so keep the night open I'm sure you'll enjoy it. The boys hockey league of the C.P.O.A. are having their playoffs on Sunday March 31st, at Loyola College from 2 to 5 p.m. I'm sure these fellows would like to have a cheering section to spur them on to victory. Good luck, boys.

Here is a date you'll all want to circle on your calendars. Saturday, April 20th, there is to be a "Sugar-off Party" at St. Isidore. Further details will be forthcoming at a later date, just watch this column.

Reunion

Thursday, March 14th, was a "Red Letter Day" for Mrs. Wilkins of Verville, for this was the day that her oldest son, Walter, his wife and four children arrived at Trenton, Ont., from England, where he had been stationed for four years with the R.C.A.F. This very fine family spent four wonderful years in England and would love to spend another four there. One of their sons was born there so of course they bring back some wonderful memories. They are now posted to Uplands, Ont., so now Grandma will be able to visit from time to time, giving a chance to get to know her grandchildren all over again. A very hearty "Welcome Home" to Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins and family.

Mrs. M. Dooner of Dunver Rd. is entertaining a lovely German Shepherd dog. He is mostly brown in colour with a little black and he is between 9 months and one year old. Mrs. Dooner picked this dog up on Wednesday night on Dunver Rd. where she found him lying in a ditch. It is thought that he was hit by a car. Being an animal lover, Mrs. Dooner took this pet to the vet, where it was found he has a dislocated hip. If you are missing your dog, give her a call.

Household Hint

Now that spring cleaning time is almost here, I have a household tip for you. If you soak a new paint brush in linseed oil for twenty-four hours before using, it will hold paint better, spread more evenly and clean easier. Happy painting. See you next week.

The next general meeting of the Chateauguy Property Owners Assoc. will be held to inform members Thursday, March 21st at Verville Hall, at 8:30 p.m. There is to be a very good film on Legion branch which is titled "Sixty-Two Canadian Open." This should be

Do you realize that Thursday is the first day of spring! How welcome it will be! As this writing the skies have opened and we are getting their leisure hours at a local year's first genuine rainfall. The luck of the Irish didn't hold off nasty weather, but I'm sure that Irish were not damaged or were they?

Many will be interested in hearing about my conversation with the General Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., Mr. Hubbard who told me that any group of citizens who are concerned for their community needs, can get a "Y" program underway. This shows the Lakeshore "Y" as a first must be established in that center such as a Y.M.C.A. is needed in the area, the more interested people willing to work towards this goal. Four series of meetings can be held with Y.M.C.A. authorities to discuss the problems involved. A program such as one that a Y.M.C.A. offers, can provide recreational and educational facilities for every age group from 6 to 60, at a moderate cost per year around. Such a venture takes time and effort and of course the big question is "Are we ready?"

If you have any thoughts or views on this subject, I'd like to hear from you so just give me a call. Belated happy birthday greetings go out to Mrs. Anita Low-Cubs of 46 St. Paul Street, whose special day was Saturday, March 9th. Helping Anita and her family to celebrate were their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. Blouin and two children all of Shavinigan Falls.

Last Wednesday, March 13th was the 13th birthday of Ross Murdoch of 42 St. Paul street. Saturday afternoon saw the arrival of friends for the ever delicious treat of a party with all her trimmings. Best wishes, Ross.

Your youngest birthday celebration is Geoffrey D'Arcy of 129 Lang Street who was one year old on Monday, March 18th.

The current problem, in this topic anyway, is the complete lack of unity between numerous associations. Each strives for the same end, by the same means, with only a care for their own area residents. Can they not look upon their basic needs as also being the basic needs of all of Chateauguy? Here, I would like to quote Mr. Hubbard who said "As each area develops, people end to stick together and form their own groups. But as an area, like Chateauguy grows it will mature and the various organizations will no longer exist." Mature is indeed the right word! How much longer before we group up? How can a group work for a common aim without co-operation from others?

The question of a Y.M.C.A. in Chateauguy is certainly controversial one, with arguments both for and against.

Tomorrow marks the official arrival of Spring, but there are many weary weeks of cold, slush and mud to go yet. For those of you who find winter's aftermath more than the human spirit can reasonably be expected to bear, and who would love to get away from it all, Letter from Seignior Park is happy to offer a free trip to Jamaica, all expenses paid — by you, naturally. All you have to do is follow a few simple rules:

1. Send no money — a certified cheque will be quite acceptable.
2. State three reasons why you like the muck and debris of early spring, along with name of attending psychiatrist and location of confining institution.
3. Is there any Distant Early Warning of an impending attack?
4. Remember, You Go Free! A nominal first instalment of $1,000 per person is payable in advance for other members of the family.

May we wish you a life filled with happiness and good health? Where is everybody going? On Sunday, I saw a "For sale" sign posted in front of homes in our neighbourhood. Of course, the reasons are numerous and varied, but to all those who are planning to leave our community we wish every success and happiness in their new surroundings. I'm sure there are many who will join me in bidding them a very fond farewell to the McDowd and Rockwell families. They have done so much toward improving our community and will be missed very much!

Last week, a neighbour told me about and ad they saw in one of the morning paper which read: "For Rent, Queen Mary, large comfortable business gentleman." Obviously, I was an amusing misprint but wonder if he got any offers! Promises of spring were all around us this past week. Four tarlings were seen perched on telephone wires on St. Paul Street and our neighbour of Beauchamp has a 4-inch high whip growing in his flower bed.

Poor Mrs. Joyce Fedorko was hit by that awful flu bug last week. I know exactly how it feels, because he came to visit me too. Those stomach cramps re really very painful. My doctor suggested bed rest and urged drinking of lots of hot milk. It certainly relieved the burning sensations. So if you should be un-lucky enough to contract this type of flu, try the hot milk. I think you will find that it helps. Here's hoping that Mrs. Fedorko has fully recovered.

Editor The Gleaner:

wolf ancestors, and they become dangerous nuisances, and frighten the children. Granted all these things, but I may be so indelicate as to mention it, the really fundamental nature of the problem seems to have been overlooked, i.e. the dogs were unclothed. All thinking people acknowledge society's gratitude to President G. Clifford Prout, of the Society for Inocency to Naked Animals, for bringing this pernicious and degrading practice to the headlines of press, radio and TV. As a bare minimum, we suggest Bermuda shorts for boy dogs. Department stores report that the latest spring models have just arrived, and vertical stripes seem to be the vogue this season. For mild dog, fashion consultants recommend the latest in tubular shifts — delicate pastels for the slim, and subtle neutral shades for the not-so-slim. And then of course there are cats...

By coincidence, this winter with heavy snow protecting the ground from freezing, was an ideal winter to clear ditches. Just enough frost to keep the ditches dry, just enough snow to keep the digging easy. You may have noticed that other dog, fashion consultants recommend the latest in tubular shifts — delicate pastels for the slim, and subtle neutral shades for the not-so-slim. And then of course there are cats...

Art Group. There has been an art group meeting at Mrs. Pat Bedard's house at 383 St. Francis Blvd., every second Thursday, under the instruction of Mr. K. Keipert of Chateauguy. The students are most enthusiastic and have contributed to the success of the course, which is almost over for this winter. These particular classes are for adults. The young fry have not been left out, however. Children from the ages of 7 to 12 meet each Saturday morning in the basement of the Club-house for art classes under the direction of Mr. Keith Strike. The children are great enthusiasts and slosh paint everywhere with gaudy abandon. Some of it even gets on to the paper!

The Sports' Association met last Wednesday night to discuss plans for forthcoming sports activities in Seignior Park. They decided to hold another meeting tonight, March 20th, and the public is invited to attend. The meeting will be held at the Club-house at 8 p.m.

Editorial Notes...

Election Issues Still Remain Hazy

OVER the past few weeks since the election campaign got underway, we have studied the reports of the various meetings and also the offerings of the various party leaders, but as yet have failed to come upon a clearcut program that makes sense.

One point has been bandied around and that is "we need a stable government". In perusing a speech made by Tommy Douglas of N.D.P. at Toronto, we came upon one statement he made which is very amusing. He was speaking about the question of other parties talking of the need of stable government. He said he was not greatly in favor of such a government for he is afraid it would smelt and he was sure we did not want a government of this nature. He felt that Canada needs responsible government. To a certain extent, we believe he is right.

The issue of nuclear weapons seems to have died down somewhat from the outset. No party except the N.D.P. has come out with a real flat opinion on this matter. The N.D.P. has flatly told the people they will not accept such weapons. A proposal from this same party says they will seek to have old age pensions paid at 65 and that the rate will be raised to $75 per month. Incidentally, this party seems to be making gains in popularity in this Province and the Social Credit Party is a little on the wane. However, these two parties seem to be in the limelight, probably because this is something new in Quebec. According to reports Quebecers seem to be taking more notice of these two new parties in this election. This could mean a switch in the general thinking or may only mean that the people are curious and want to know more. The older parties seemed to be getting just casual hearings, although there are some good attendances at the meetings.

Social Credit is labelled as the phony money party, but so far we have not heard too much of these theories. However, there is something to the effect that certain reforms could be made which would improve the economic condition of Canada. We are sure that this is needed, but we are not sure the Social Credit Party is the one to institute it. There are two Provincial governments which are Social Credit, but they do not seem to have been doing anything very much different to any of the other parties in power. However, they have stood the test of elections and have been returned to power, if that means anything.

To add to all the confusion we have been told that the Diefenbaker government was a do-nothing government and had done nothing of a definite nature. Yet recent statistics published have claimed that 1962 was the best year that Canada has had in many years. Despite the cry of ruin and chaos on account of the devaluation of the dollar and other austerity measures, the economy is in better shape than for many years. As we remember it, it was the defeated government that put these measures into effect and who took them off when they had served their purpose.

The Liberals have lately promised to have more jobs for the people and to do something for eastern farmers to overcome their problems. They are asking the people of Quebec to elect them and for them to form a government like the one of Premier Lesage in Quebec.

In this constituency we have a candidate for every party, Liberals, Progressive-Conservatives, New Democratic Party, Social Credit Party. We have made acquaintance of the candidates for the first two—these being Ian Watson, a native born son of Howick for the Liberal Party; Raymond Bériault from Candiac, Laprairie County for the Progressive Conservatives. Gaston Boileau, is the candidate for Social Credit and he is from Ste. Philomene. Mr. Jean-Guy Tremblay has been named for the New Democratic Party. In the Beauharnois-Salaberry constituency there are also four candidates — Progressive-Conservatives, Florian Palement; Liberal, Gerald Lanier; N.D.P., Denis Bosse and Social Credit, Jean Boyer.

The people of our coverage area will have to make a choice among these candidates when they cast their ballot on April 8th. No doubt more will be heard about this as the campaign goes on and meetings will be held in the various districts.

Canadians Not Race Discriminators

GENERALLY, Canadians are not race discriminators and that is how it should be. About two weeks ago we celebrated "Brotherhood Week" in this country and as the title implies the week is supposed to symbolize brotherhood toward all. It is also part of our Christian teaching and that we should be as brothers to one another. With such a true spirit reigning among all people this would truly be a wonderful age.

For some reason in many parts of the world, there are people who foster a strong dislike for people of other races than their own. This is particularly true of the whites and the blacks. It has been especially prevalent in the United States, where there are a large number of people of the black race. The story of how these people came to the States is well known and the reason they were brought there is also well known. They were the slaves of people of the States. Eventually they were liberated from this bondage and allowed to live free lives. It is natural that a very large number of these people were born in the States and know no other country than this. However, although they were so called free, they were obliged to live under restrictions. Later, however, these people have been given still more freedom and allowed to intermingle with the white population. This has given rise to much trouble in the States even at this time and age.

Canada has its share of people of the black race, but we do not know of any restrictions or regulations that prohibits these people from mingling with the whites of this country. In fact one can go into the Halls of Learning in this country and at graduation time witness black and white receiving their diplomas and degrees side by side. We can go into work plants and see the two working together and so it goes in anything that white people may be doing.

Just recently a group of Barber Shop Harmony Singers, which association has affiliations with the States, had a colored singer in their number. These people give public performances and are very well received. The group received notification from the United States office of the Association that the colored singer must be dropped. This group is made up of Canadian members and the order was against the principles of many of the members. As a consequence, a number of them resigned when it was made known that the colored member could not remain with the group.

The people of Canada in the ordinary way do not act like this. Oh yes, there are individual exceptions and we have heard of hoaxes and other such types of accommodation refusing admittance on the grounds of racial discrimination. But generally, Canadians treat all people of all races with respect and cordiality. In other words the spirit of brotherhood abounds here for a much longer period than a week.

We have to thank the people of many different races for much of the advancements and culture with which we are imbued today. There are many fine and noted singers belonging to the black race and whom we respect and would attend concerts which they may be giving. We feel that the resignations of the many from this group of singers should surely tend to show the rulers in the States that Canadian people are just a little more broadminded. Whether a person is black or white, they are all creatures of God and under the teachings of Christianity, we are supposed to treat others as we ourselves would like to be treated, to love one another and become bonded in the brotherhood of man. This cannot be carried on if we discriminate between the people of one race and another. We must commend those members of the singing group who made it known by their resignations that they will not be party to such actions.

There's one thing about Canadian weather — you'll never die of boredom. This is my thought for the week as the equinox arrives. I think a Canadian March 21, the first day of spring, is just what the word suggests. Equinox is from the Latin Equus—horse, Nox—night. English translation—nightmare.

We don't know whether we're going to be sitting out on the patio in the sun, having lunch with the birds yelling wildly and the grass sprouting green, or huddled by the window with a red nose, looking at a backyard of navel-deep snow, with a gale howling about the house.

It's refreshing, by George. I have neither patience nor sympathy with those traitors who complain continually about our Canadian weather. What we should do is pack them off to England, where it rains all the ruddy time; or ship them to the desert, where they'd be stunned into sullen submission by the brutal thump of the daily sun; or pay their passage to the tropics and let them mould in the midst of monotonous dampness.

We should be proud of our winters, for example. They're mean, tough old devils, grimly clinging to their reign until they've wrung the last ounce of resistance out of us. Some times, I swear, one more week of cold weather would have everyone in the nation at each others' throats.

Then comes one of those incredibly soft, caressing days, then the wind is velvet from the south, the sun licks ice and snow with hot, ravishing tongue, gutters gurgle, and there's a lovely stink as the wrappings are peeled from the rotting, buried body of the earth.

Out in the ice, the steamboats bellow like trapped buffaloes. Out on the street, the kids stroll through puddles over their boot tops. Out in the bush, the trout streams, black eels against the snow, snort and chuckle and burble with pure pleasure as they race to their nameless destiny, free again after months of silent slavery.

Down at the dock, the boat owners prattle, calculating, estimating, figuring the days until they can launch that leaky, paint-peeling monument to man's eternal folly. Up on the hills, the fanatics are still at it, hurdling down over gravel and grass, rocks and roots, and occasionally some snow.

Up in the bedroom, the good views, with horrified delight, the sickening shade of light, the yellow March sun, Down in the basement, the fisherman putters and mutters, swears and glares, flies flies.

Down at the park or the poolroom or the post office, the old gents, sick to the soul with confinement, suck in the sun, shivering, but once again defiantly alive, part of the world. Up in their rooms, the teenagers seem to be studying for their Easter exams, while through their heads and bodies swirl the heady fluids of life, the juices of spring.

Up in the attic, the black squirrels perform their endless do-si-do, interrupted only by queer periods in which they don't scurry, but chortle and crouch to the doubtless thousands of babies they have produced in the winter months. Down in the basement, crawls the cat, vast with unwanted kittens, brooding, patient, green-eyed.

Ours, I'm afraid, is not the spring of O To Be in England, Not That April's there. It's not the spring of tiny jonquils poking their dainty heads through the turf. It's not the spring of birdies and blossoms of gambolling lambs and tender green buds. All this is two months away.

Ours is a savage, sudden spring, raw and rugged, ornery and awkward, unexpected and uncomfortable, muddy and moody. But it's never dull. And boy-o-boy, aren't we glad to see it.

March 23rd, 1938 Report on Spring Flood The Chateaugay River, jammed by ice on Monday and Tuesday, flooded the Huntingdon, Dewittville, Ormstown and Howick areas. A section of the main street at Ormstown was covered by more than six feet of water. Highway No. 4 was closed at the east end of Chateaugay Street in Huntingdon as the water there was more than four feet in one spot.

From Huntingdon to Ste. Martine the flood reached its climax on Tuesday evening and motor vehicles could not reach Huntingdon from Howick after 6 o'clock. The Highway to Trout River was also closed with six and seven feet of water in several spots. At Huntingdon water rose for more than four feet in less than twenty minutes at about 7 p.m. last evening. The ice broke away at about that time to fall over the dam. Water then came over the main street at a terrific speed with several cakes of ice taking the same path but did not cause any unusual damage.

Early this morning the ice had all disappeared and there appears to be no danger of further flooding and little damage has been reported. Impressive Showing At Music Festival The Huntingdon Choral Group which made such an impressive showing in the Quebec Music Festival Competition at Montreal has been asked to sing in the mass choir to be conducted by Sir Hugh Robertson at the grand finale of the festival in Montreal this evening. The choir placed third with a total of 170 points.

The Huntingdon Academy Choir retained the trophy they won last year. The adjudicator, Sir Hugh Robertson, complimented the members of the choir and their director and stated that he had found in them a graciousness of performance that was not noticed with the other choirs he had previously judged.

Mr. Stanley Popeck, director of the Senior Choir, Principal J. B. MacMillan, director of the Junior Choir and Miss E. Sellar, the accompanist, gave much time and thought to the preparation of the Huntingdon entries. House Addresses According to the local

Report From Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) The Liberal party introduced a "Truth Squad" and a coloring book into the federal election campaign last week and immediately drew scathing criticism from other parties.

The Truth Squad was formed, Liberal headquarters said, to attend meetings held by Prime Minister Diefenbaker and to point out "any inaccuracies" in his speeches. Headed by Miss Judy LaMarsh, MP for Niagara Falls in the last parliament, its other two members are Jack Macbeth and Fred Belaire of Liberal headquarters staff.

But at week's end it was reported the squad had become an embarrassment to the party and would be withdrawn. Toronto Liberal party sources said the squad would be disbanded. They did not give a reason for the move.

Members of the three other parties all attacked the squad. Finance Minister Nowlan said formation of the "truth squad" was the biggest blunder of the election campaign. He said many Liberals are policemen the houses are practically all numbered but residents are requested not to give their street number as an address for a few weeks yet as minor changes have to be effected.

Sap's Runnin' And So Are Boys — After it. Most of the farmers in this locality began to tap early Monday morning or, at the latest, Tuesday. They are expecting an excellent sugaring season. The weather is ideal at present and should turn a little colder in the evenings it will unquestionably be a big year for syrup. Fenian Raid Veteran Dies John McDowell, a Fenian Raid Veteran, passed away at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Henry Laforest, Heron, N.Y., on March 17th, at the age of 92 years. The deceased was a member of the Huntingdon Borderers' Regiment which repulsed the Fenian Raiders at Trout River in the years 1866 and 1870.

hanging their heads while the set aside Thursday by the majority of Canadians are having a great laugh" at the idea. Maj. William Allan Platt was found guilty last October by the military tribunal of a breach of army discipline while serving with the International Truce Supervisory Commission in Indochina. It found him guilty of organizing and participating in the illegal transportation of gold between Laos and South Viet Nam and fined him $500. He also received a severe reprimand — a notation on his service record that would affect his chances for promotion.

The three civilians making up the appeal court said Maj. Platt, formerly of Coburg and Picton, Ont., suffered "substantial injustice" with respect to eight of 14 grounds of appeal on which he based his appeal. They took strong exception to a decision by the Judge Advocate-General, Brig. W. J. Lawson, to refuse a defense request that a commission be sent to Indochina to collect sworn evidence from 15 defense witnesses.

Maj. Platt, now serving at Army Headquarters in Ottawa, was one of five soldiers convicted by court martial for smuggling in Indochina. The four other — all non-commissioned officers — were convicted of smuggling opium. Members of the appeal court were Mr. Justice T. G. Norris, Mr. Justice J. C. A. Cameron and Mr. Justice Yves Bernier.

Drama at Inquiry The inquiry into marine strike and labor violence on the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence Seaway had its share of dramatic moments during the week. Mr. Justice T. G. Norris ended his one-man inquiry after 107 sittings in which he has heard evidence from 190 witnesses, collected 781 exhibits and compiled a transcript of more than 15,760 pages.

First of the dramatic moments came Monday when Joseph Nuss, counsel for the "seafarers' International Union, made a motion that the judge disqualify himself on the grounds that he failed to give the union a full and fair hearing. Mr. Justice Norris, describing the motion as totally unreasonable dismissed it. He said that he may later give a more detailed reason for his ruling. On Wednesday the Canadian Labor Congress urged federal action to outlaw what it called "the hoodlum empire" of the SIU. In its concluding submission, the CLC said the SIU is not a free association of workers but an evil tyranny.

Provincial Capital Report

QUEBEC (CP) Why is Quebec constantly seeking more tax-000 (plus Federal contribution power from Ottawa)? This year's record budget estimates — with costs up $87.464,325 — illustrates one good reason. Despite the jump in provincial costs, the increase in the Federal contribution is only $7,000,000.

Notes accompanying the estimates pointed out that while Quebec's expenses will increase an estimated 9.13 per cent in the 1963-64, fiscal year, the Federal contribution will go up only 3.3 per cent.

This is expected to be Premier Jean Lesage's tack when he makes his Budget Speech April 5, that Quebec, trying to fulfill enormous obligations has to depend on limited sources of revenue.

Our round-the-clock burner service keeps your heating system at peak efficiency.

BURNER SERVICE:

Can save you as much as 2¢ on every gallon of oil you use

An efficiently-operating heating system can save you as much as 2¢ on every gallon of oil you use. We offer you burner service protection to keep your heating system working at peak efficiency.

Even the busiest family car does not put in as many hours of work in a year as the average heating system. Like a car engine, your heating system must be checked regularly, and adjusted when necessary. Otherwise it will waste fuel. Parts will also wear out more quickly.

Our 24 hour burner service guarantees you top performance all winter long. And it saves you money these three important ways:

1. By making sure your burner is cleaned and adjusted for peak efficiency—to give you maximum heat from every gallon of fuel.
2. By catching little troubles before they become big ones. (A small adjustment or repair now may save you many dollars later.)
3. By insuring you against unexpected repair bills—and by keeping your furnace in working order.

Now, with Shell Heating Oil and 24 hour burner service working together, we can take care of all your heating problems.

Letter To The Editor
Escondido, California
March 4, 1963.

Dear Editor:

The sun is still shining in Southern California casting its warmth and glow over Escondido, the prettiest rural area that I have visited yet, and which is some forty miles north of San Diego, and a very pleasant place to spend the winter months.

The countryside is dotted with Eucalyptus, Palms, Flowering Peach and ornamental trees of many varieties. At present I am visiting with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Sorensen, and in whose orange grove on Monday, March 4, I helped to pick oranges of the navel variety that were luscious and sweet. You may rest assured that they didn't all go into the hamper. While I was thus engaged I was thinking of you folks back home in Huntingdon, digging yourselves out of the snow drifts. Well, such is

Powerscourt Resident Visits Los Angeles

Mrs. E. M. Wood returned on Tuesday from a three and half week visit in Los Angeles. The trip there and back was made by jet, she was the guest of her brother, Mr. W. G. "Bill" Hay, and another guest was their sister, Mrs. Millen of Winnipeg, Manitoba. Although the members of the Hay family have been together many times during the years, it is the first time in years, that these 3 were together at one time. Needless to say they enjoyed every minute of the get-together.

The ladies were royally entertained and motored hundreds of miles by the Pacific Ocean and to many points of interest. One glorious day was spent at Laguna, where a lovely tea was put on in their honour. Other places of interest which were visited included Bel Air, where many of the millionaire homes were burnt in the forest fire last Spring, but most have been replaced already. A day at Disneyland afforded much pleasure. A visit to Farmers' Market revealed it to be truly a wonderful place. The displays of fruits and vegetables of every description have to be seen to be appreciated.

Another visit which will not soon be forgotten was to The Descanso Gardens, breathtaking scenery expresses one's feelings. In the Camelia Gardens can be found 100,000 specimens, upwards of 600 varieties from all over the world. The bushes grow as high as 20 feet and are loaded with gorgeous blooms. The roses come later when 8,000 bushes will be featured. Every 4 months different types of flowers are grown. Truly a wonderful sight, and such a pleasant change from our snow, ice and cold.

Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Miller entertained six ladies to a delightful lunch and visit at the Hay home. Like in other large centres building developments are in full swing. The Fox Studio property has all been pulled down and is being replaced by "Century City" where Supermarkets and high apartment buildings will be built, but no private homes.

Mrs. Wood left for home Monday night and had a delayed flight. A severe snowstorm and fog in Chicago necessitated a landing at Kansas City and when Chicago was finally reached a 5 hour stop-over was necessary, owing to changed flight schedules. Mrs. Miller left on Friday morning for Victoria and Vancouver and will later proceed to her home in Winnipeg. Mr. Hay left Saturday morning for Australia, where he will spend seven weeks, in his capacity as President of the International Lawn Bowling Board, and Captain of The American Lawn Bowlers, who will play the Australians in many tournaments in leading cities. Thus ended another delightful holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Ross entertained at a family supper on Sunday to celebrate the birthday of their son, Jim.

Flu and bad colds are rampant in this district and or more patients. Consequently farmers are having a hard time getting barn chores done, and some farmers have had to continue working when they should have been in bed. Mr. Ernest Atcheson has an attack of bronchitis and George has been the victim of mumps. Best wishes to all the sick folks for a speedy and complete recovery.

One of the oldest inhabitants of this community, in the person of Mr. John Wood passed away last Sunday morning after a long illness. The sympathy of his neighbors is extended to daughter Margaret, Mrs. Pete Shearer, brother Fred, and sister Mrs. Wm. Platt, Toronto.

The saying goes "troubles never come singly" but on March 5th, we were able to change that to "birthdays". Mrs. Wood celebrated her 73rd birthday on that date and her twin sisters, Heather and Jolly their 4th. On account of prevailing sickness and weather and road conditions it was not possible to have a party, but all 3 girls were well remembered and each one had her own special cake.

Howick

W.I. Millinery Course

HOWICK — Monday afternoon, March 11, eighteen ladies met at the High School Cafeteria for the opening session of the Millinery Course, sponsored by Howick W.I. and conducted by Miss J. McOuat, employed by the Provincial Government and with headquarters at Macdonald College. Part of the first two-hour period was spent trying on shapes and looking at a variety of braids, materials, ribbons and flowers. Your W.I. scribe was among those who selected a sort of glorified "feed bag" which had to be blocked. Most of us looked worried as we approached the "block" and knew the fatal moment had arrived when we must decide what the final shape would be. As usual after some tucking and bending of straw, the results were satisfactory. Later the finished hats, with suitable trim were quite attractive — we thought!

braids or materials, and all received the personal touch. It was surprising to see so many smart models, with greenhorns doing the work.

Sickness thinned the ranks but 39 hats were made by 22 people. Others came to three lesson periods on cookery so there was a good average attendance.

The final lesson was on casseroles. With added donations of bread and cookies, everyone enjoyed a social half hour around the tables as they tested the casseroles which were voted delicious.

Mrs. R. B. Ness president, thanked Miss McOuat for giving such an interesting week, and Mrs. F. Sutherland presented prizes to Mrs. J. D. Lang, Mrs. Elvidge and Mrs. Collins for perfect attendance. Attendance records were kept by Miss Jean Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Plaizer, who gave considerable assistance, were remembered, as was the School Board for the use of the Cafeteria and the stoves.

students about S.G.W.U. Business Course, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lang.

Miss Janet McOuat of Macdonald College was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lang during the week of the Millinery Course.

The general meeting of U.C.W. met on Tuesday, March 12, at 2 o'clock in the United Church. Mrs. M. Brown was in the chair.

The Worship Service was in charge of Unit B. Mrs. A. Peddie gave a talk on prayer, Mrs. Cecil Younie reading a few verses from the Sermon on the Mount. Mrs. Peddie spoke especially on the Lord's Prayer. We become like that which we worship. Prayer is the greatest unused power in the Universe were two great truths brought out in her talk.

Mrs. Robt. Ness introduced the guest speaker Mrs. Spinks, who has been for 13 years a missionary in Cuba. She showed slides of people she had known giving interesting accounts of their activities, also views of cities and buildings. She was thanked by Mrs. Brown for her most interesting talk.

The treasurer reported $236.76 on hand. A donation of $10. was received from Mrs. David Stewart.

Letters were read from Pointe-Aux-Trembles and from Edwin, Man., where there is an Indian School.

Mrs. Churchill of the Montreal Presbyterian is visiting Howick on April 9. Invitations are to be sent to all local churches.

A workshop, at St. Columba House on Friday, March 15, at 11 o'clock was announced.

Splendid reports on the Presbyterial were given by the following ladies: Mrs. Tolhurst, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Court, Mrs. M. Brown and Mrs. Whiteford McKell. Topics included the Christian family, citizenship, home witnessing, worship. A thought provoking statement was this:— "The power house of the church is the weekly prayer meeting."

A Roman Catholic Woman who attended said that she had never attended a meeting, from which she had got so much.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

A very pleasant St. Patrick's tea was held by the members of the Georgetown Evening Auxiliary in the church hall, Saturday afternoon. The President, Mrs. Wilburn Anderson, welcomed the guests. Colourful decorations arranged by Mrs. W. Stonehouse and Mrs. J. Tillotson carried out the theme of the day. Mrs. J. Manning of Franklin Centre, very kindly showed coloured slides taken on her trip to

Nuclear Defensive Weapons Are A Must For Canada

The following on the matter of nuclear weapons are excerpts taken from an article by John W. Sancton, publisher of The Monitor, Montreal, after a special visit to NORAD headquarters in the United States and obtaining first hand information on the matter. We have reprinted in part the story as written by Mr. Sancton in The Monitor. It will perhaps clear some matters in your mind that have been confusing to you.

BY JOHN W. SANCTON Unless by some miracle the flood of emotional clap-trap, palpable falsehoods and half-truths, and sheer confused ignorance is replaced quickly by clear, honest expositions of the truth from the politicians and from the experts who should be available to them, the country will go to the polls April 8 and unwittingly play a grim game of Russian roulette — risking electing the wrong people to entrust with our national defence and security.

This newspaper has traditionally stood independent in politics, endorsing no particular candidate over another; but presenting pertinent facts to assist our readers make their ballot decisions. Visits to NORAD headquarters at Colorado Springs must be approved by either the U.S. or Canadian governments. Our visit, made at our own request, apparently was approved just prior to the end, by resignation, of the Harkness ministry of the Department of National Defence. How rarely has the Canadian Government approved such visits is demonstrated by the fact that out of some 26,000 approved visitors to NORAD last year, only 178 were Canadians.

Hawaii. Of special interest were those depicting the unusual and beautiful in trees, shrubs and flowers, and those showing the pineapple industry from the fruit growing in the fields, through the harvesting and the processing in the Dole plant. Mrs. Manning's fine commentary added much to the enjoyment of the slides.

Two Irish songs by Rev. Mr. Brown with Mrs. R. McCaig as accompanist were greatly enjoyed. It is always a pleasure to hear Mr. Brown sing, and his lovely Scottish voice and the Irish melodies made a very happy combination. Delicious refreshments were served, with Mrs. Brown and Mrs. N. Simms pouring tea at the attractively decorated tea table. A successful sale of novelties and home baking was held at the close of the tea.

Howick had one entry in the Wentworth Ladies' Bonspiel. They lost to Ottawa Hunt Club 8:3; defeated Royal Montreal 8:6 and played one game in consolation, losing to T.M.R. The rink was Mabel Glasgow, Stella Gourley, Irene McKee, Laura Robertson (skip).

Friendlies were enjoyed at three clubs. Baie D'Urfé, Ellen King, Frances Reddick, Audrey Reddick, Mary Reddick (skip).

Ormstown: Pauline Cairncross, Grace McWhinnie, Agnes Brown, Mabel Smith (skip).

Lachine: Millie Birchmore, Dot McKee, Brenda Black, Anne Logan (skip).

Congratulations to the Howick rink skipped by Mitchell Ness, which won the Montreal and Maritime section of the Massey Ferguson Curl-o-Ram. Their final games in this area were played at the Bonaventure Club as Moncton, N.B., and next day they flew to Toronto for the play-offs. The team was: Ross Brown, Ross Peddie, Bill Ness and Mitchell Ness (skip).

Mrs. Arthur Kerr was joint hostess with Margaret Peddie, on Saturday afternoon, when a miscellaneous shower was held at the latter's home in honour of Jean Kerr. About thirty guests gathered to surprise Jean and extend to her their very best wishes. The tea table was prettily decorated, the colour scheme being pink, blue and white. Mrs. Russell Kerr and Mrs. Greer poured tea.

Belated birthday wishes to Mr. John Collum who celebrated his birthday on March 16th and "wishes" to Mrs. John Collum who celebrates hers on March 25th.

posture of war deterrence and the determination to defend North America from attack. The Social Credit groups still seem unsure, but especially from the Quebec Creditistes have been heard the arguments that Canada is giving up her sovereignty in the NORAD arrangement and that we can't afford nuclear weapons;

Say NORAD experts: The table of organization of NORAD is dotted with Canadian officers, including the deputy commander, RCAF Air Marshal Roy Slemmon, and the chief of operations, Air Vice Marshal Murray Lister. A high proportion of the time, Slemmon is left in undisputed command of all NORAD forces, which are overwhelmingly American. Visiting Congressional leaders have thought this strange but they, who include some of the most jealous guardians of national rights and sovereignty anywhere, have readily accepted this "surrender of U.S. sovereignty" to a foreign Canadian air marshal. Simple truth is that neither Canada nor the United States could effectively defend themselves separately. In integration of defence, impregnability is a much nearer even if perhaps an unattainable goal.

Regarding cost to us of nuclear warheads for our Bomars and Voodoos, there is none. Many Canadians forget that U.S. law prohibits sale or surrender of control of U.S. nuclear devices. We already have bought, paid for and installed our Bomars (and they stand useless without their warheads) and we are paying for our Voodoos by taking over the manning of more radar sites.

The necessary nuclear warheads come as a free "loan" from the U.S. Government, which already has contributed a disproportionately high share of the cost of our joint defence through NORAD. This is without mentioning the astronomical cost of the Strategic Air Command and U.S. Navy Polaris counter-offensive capabilities, to which Canada contributes nothing and even seriously hampers by all but banning nuclear-bomb overflights of Canada by SAC bombers.

The visitors could not escape a sense of great pride in Canada's military contribution to NORAD, as far as it goes. The quality of the Canadian personnel, from Air Marshal Slemmon on down, is unquestioned by their fellow Noradians of the U.S. armed forces.

According to the experts, Canada has acquired the two best weapons in the NORAD arsenal. Contrary to high Ottawa opinion which should know better, the Bomarc B is "one of our best weapons" and is not, as some have tried to lead Canadians to believe, outmoded and useless. It is rendered useless only by lack of its warhead which, of necessity, must be nuclear.

The F 101 Voodoo fighter interceptor flown by RCAF Air Defence Command, a NORAD component of great value and upon which NORAD depends a great deal for a first line of defence, is likewise regarded as the best of available airplanes for the job. There is only this snag of convincing the Canadian Government, whoever that may be after April 8 if not right now, that the Voodoo, firing only a high explosive shell rather than a nuclear device, is in some respect a menace, and more of a menace to Canadians than Americans.

A Soviet bomber brought down over Canada by ordinary high explosive can be expected to fall from the sky, its nuclear bomb exploding automatically just above the ground or on impact and releasing radioactive fallout capable of wiping out populations great distances away from the point of impact.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Oney visited Mrs. B. W. Allen of Hibiscus Apartments, West Palm Beach, Florida, on Monday last, and assure all of Mrs. Allen's friends in Huntington, that sunshine, combined with pleasant congenial friends residing in the Hibiscus, makes for the "Home Away From Home" atmosphere of the Palm Beaches which Mrs. Allen is enjoying.

Mr. L. T. Brown and C. M. Oney accompanied the Lake Worth Camera Club on a field trip to Miami. After spending two hours in Miami, they continued on to Crandon Park, where many photographed the various birds and animals. Returning on the Greyhound, which took a surprise trip along Miami Beach and the various points of interest pointed out were duly appreciated by the 37 members of the Club.

The Brown's and Oney's were surprised on Thursday morning by a visit from Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leduc of Trout River, Que. To make it even more interesting Mr. James Smythe dropped in to report that the Smythes were in Palm Beach. In the afternoon, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Benson stopped to leave a few Gazettes, therefore the Canadian news was appreciated by all. Dr. and Mrs. H. Benson stopped in again on Friday to bid farewell to all as they were on their way home.

March 15th was C. M. Oney's birthday, so he was pleased to see all who called that day.

HEMMINGFORD LEGION NEWS

A St. Patrick's Dance was held on Friday evening, March 15th, at the Frontier Inn, under the auspices of the Hemmingford Branch No. 244. Organized by the Ways and Means Committee, it was voted a success by all who attended. Unfortunately the Chairman of the committee was unable to be present to see the fruits of his labour. Comrade Bill Gordon is hospitalized at Queen Mary's, having undergone an operation. Best wishes for a speedy recovery are sent on behalf of all members.

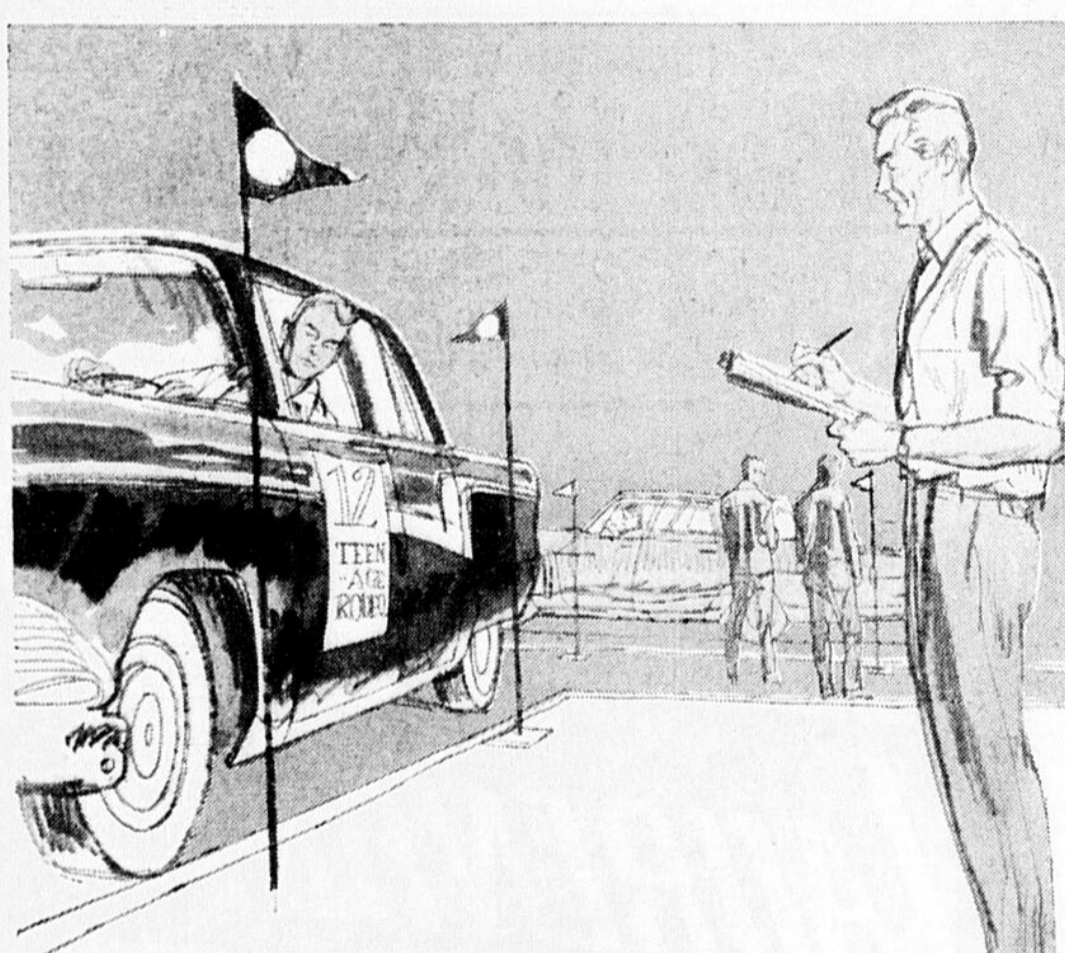

Members were pleased to welcome Deputy District Commander D. L. Watson and Mrs. Watson and, during the evening, Comrade Watson, or behalf of the members of Branch 244, presented Comrade H. Short with a Past Presidents Pin. Major Short expressed his sincere appreciation to the members for the support they had given him during his two years in office following the formation of the Branch and would always have pleasant memories of this time. He was accompanied by either country over the other. Still, and most important, is to deter war. The threat of counter-offensive (stalemate, you may call it) is what deters aggression against us. But counter-offensive is impossible and pointless without defence.

Canada is a relatively small country, in population. Canada cannot mount an offensive role in modern war. Canada's role is defensive. Canada's only logical and effective means of carrying out a defensive role is through her partnership in NORAD.

NORAD's weapons are armed with nuclear devices. Canada must arm these weapons. NORAD's second task, if it should fail in its No. 1 role — to deter war — is to defend continental United States and Canada, to minimize loss of life and injury as well as property damage in both countries. No priority is given Accident Vaccine?

WELL, NOT EXACTLY. Ten years ago, polio was a major killer of youth; today, vaccine has made the disease a comparative rarity. But, even when polio was claiming lives by the hundreds, traffic accidents were killing more people under 25 than any other single cause of death—and they still are. Do we have an accident vaccine? No. People can't be vaccinated against accidents, but the toll can be reduced through the teaching of correct driving habits—and safety habits—to our teen-age population at the formative stages in their lives.

This is what the automobile insurance business does through its sponsorship of the National Teen-age Safe Driving Championship—the culmination of a coast-to-coast series of safe driving competitions involving more than 30,000 young drivers in 225 Canadian communities each year.

Harold Stratton

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. — (AP) — Two teen-aged boys drew sentences last week of 60 years to life for slaying an automobile salesman in order to steal a white convertible. Edward Fontaine, 18, of Lancia, N.H., and Joseph MacKay, 17, of New York City, had pleaded guilty to reduced charges of second-degree murder in the beating of Harold Stratton, 66, of Plattsburgh. Dundee

The annual meeting of the Dundee W.I. was held this month at the home of Mrs. T. V. Stowell. The roll call—each member told how and where an imported food is grown and the use for it. This often led to a discussion about the food. Public speaking in the Consolidated school was discussed and the members decided to ask Mrs. Earl Gardiner and Mrs. Lester Fraser as to active changes. Miss Thelma MacMillan and Mrs. W.S. Smellie were appointed auditors. Mrs. Stowell showed how fall bulbs could be planted in a basket and then buried in the ground to be taken up in the spring and replanted in a window box for very early blooms.
Mrs. Gardiner read an interesting account of how factors tented to create changes in a language, such as lapse of time, environment, geography. Mrs. Platt discussed the question of how cushions should be smoked.
Mrs. A.H. Fraser read Mrs. Wm. Hough's report about her visit to the Yukon and the McKenzie District Institute. The interest shown and the work already accomplished by the women in this northern land is tremendous.
Annual reports were read and officers for the coming year appointed. With the exception of Welfare and Health convenship, all officers, year are the same as last year.
Mrs. E. J. Cameron resigned and Mrs. Hugh Ferguson was appointed to take her place.
At the close of the meeting Mrs. Stowell served a delicious supper to members and friends.

refrigerators can be a great help. This is only natural, for the newer models — particularly those with freezer units — can save countless hours of cooking time each year.
There are several tips worth knowing about making the best use of a modern refrigerator. All foods, for instance, should be kept tightly wrapped or covered in glass or plastic containers designed for this purpose.
Bacon and other fresh meats are best kept on the bottom shelf, tightly wrapped in kitchen foil. Mild cheese should be kept under the evaporator. Always well wrapped. Sharp, tangy cheeses should never be refrigerated. Fish should be stored in a middle position in covered containers.
A refrigerator should be defrosted at regular intervals if it is a model which requires

Have you ever heard?...

"The parties are all alike"

They're not — fortunately. Never have political parties been more different than right now. Let's see to what degree each can form Canada's next government.

The New Democratic Party — The minority minded NDP doesn't even pretend it can form a government, now or in the foreseeable future.

Social Credit — The leader and "co-leader" of this weird money party can't even agree on basic policies — except on schemes to ruin our dollar. Even the "26" are divided among themselves. In seven provinces the party has no following.

The Progressive Conservatives — Can you put your trust in a divided party, a party without confidence in itself or in its one-man leadership who tried desperately to cling to power? It collapsed because it would not face up to Canada's immediate and long range problems at home and abroad.

The Liberals — The Liberal Party is united under one Leader. The Liberal Party can give us a government we can respect — believe in — count on to give Canada new direction and drive.

Pearson heads a united party that knows and agrees on what must be done. It has a program of action. Pearson's leadership has attracted able, responsible people who are prepared to make sound decisions — people qualified to get on with the job.

A Liberal government is the only government that can make decisions to regain your confidence and — just as important — regain the goodwill of Canada's friends, customers and allies. The Liberals will preserve national unity by promoting true partnership between the founding races.

Canadians have the opportunity, now, to put an end to do-nothing, wait-and-see, minority government. You can help do it in just one way — by voting for your Liberal candidate and so assure a Liberal majority in the next Parliament.

Vote for a strong, decisive, responsible, do-something LIBERAL GOVERNMENT
