Fined Himself For Being Drunk.

OAKLAND, Cala., December 6.—Last week a cousin of Police Justice Laidlaw came to town and the judge went on a spree with him. They took possession of a road house, and smashed the furniture and windows. Yesterday Judge Laidlaw presided in his court, and his first act was to publicly accuse himself of being drunk and disorderly and to fine himself $50. He ordered the fine entered on the records. The judge made a statement confessing his sin and promised to resign should he ever get drunk again.

Portland to be the C. P. R. Outlet.

PORTLAND, Me., December 6.—The Press says it has information from undoubted authority that Portland will be the outlet for the business of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The Boston & Maine Railroad Company will erect an immense elevator on their wharf in this city to accommodate the increased business. It is said the Beaver line of steamships will be the first to take the Canadian Pacific grain from the new elevator. The latter is to be ready by next winter.

Responsible for the Minneapolis Fire.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., December 6.—The coroner's jury in the inquest on the victims of the Tribune building fire yesterday brought in a verdict declaring the owners of the building morally culpable, if not legally responsible, for the loss of life. The jury found that but for the obstruction caused by the electric wires, the fire ladder would have been erected in time to save all the people in the sixth and seventh stories. The jury therefore recommended that the authorities cause all electric wires to be placed underground.

The Milk Record Broken.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., December 6.—The three-year-old milk record has been broken by Celestie third, owned by Powell Bros., a Holstein heifer, 3 years old. She gave 107 pounds in 24 hours, 714 pounds in seven days and over 3000 pounds in one month. Her monthly record nearly equalled the annual average product of the dairy cow of New York State.

Robbing Freight Cars.

URBANA, Ohio, December 6.—A New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad detective yesterday arrested Conductor Isaac Hickney and Brakemen Berry, Ramsay and Jesse Clark, for robbing freight cars. Much stolen property was recovered.

DEMOCRATS in the United States Congress have not been slow in issuing their counterblast to the declaration of Republican policy. Issued in the form of "a greeting to the people" it declares unswerving adherence to "the principles of tariff reform as embraced in President Cleveland's messages to the last congress upon that subject." It furthermore renews the pledge to "continue in congress the contest for reduction of the war taxes." This shows that the Democrats have decided as a party to press the fighting on the tariff issue as the most popular and likely to be successful course to adopt. The caucus which issued this manifesto appears to have based its resolution on the "emphatic approval of these principles by the people expressed at the polls in recent elections." In the early days of the Republic the tariff was not considered a party question and, strictly speaking, it ought to be outside party questions. But the Republicans, by insisting on the maintenance of a high tariff after the necessities of revenue no longer needed it, have compelled the Democrats to accept an issue foreign to their traditions. There can be no doubt, however, that the Democrats have been gaining strength on this issue since Mr. Harrison's election, and that it will be the great question in the next contest. The progress of the movement has a deep interest for Canadians, as our trade policy must take its tone largely from the policy prevailing among our neighbors. But Canada has learned to stand alone in her trade policy, and probably by the time this question of tariffs will have been decided in the States, she will be still better able to preserve that policy whatever changes may take place beyond her borders.

It is time that a well-considered system should be devised for the regulation of a class of people who now crowd the city gaol. It consists of the imbecile of both sexes and all ages, incapacitated for regular employment on account of mental and physical defects, sickness, caused by want and exposure and old age. The great majority of these unfortunates come from other places outside the city, but being found here, are sent to gaol as vagrants, or because there is no other place to send them. The city should not have to bear all the expenses of these outside parish burdens. The question is one for the consideration of the Legislature in an economical and philanthropic spirit. It should not be left to the indifferent solution of public charity nor should a great city be made a refuge for the unfortunate and helpless of the whole province. Each parish should be compelled to take care of its own poor. Justice, humanity, charity are obligatory in a moral and religious sense, but since these claims are systematically ignored, they should be made obligatory by law. Industrial homes, where adults could live cheaply and do such work as they are capable of performing, and boys and girls taught an honest trade, ought to be established. It is a disgrace to our boasted Christianity and civilization that they should be herded, as they are at present, with criminals and vagabonds in the common gaol, which is, to them, nothing else but a college to fit them for admission to the ranks of the criminal class. The existing neglect foists them on city charities, and drives them into vice, crime, the gaol and the penitentiary. More particularly should legislation be directed to save the boys and girls of the streets who are well known to the police and constantly drifting downward on the dark stream to destruction. Organised and private charity is doing much, but the responsibility rightly rests with the Government to prevent the recruiting of criminals and compel the local authorities to take care of their own poor and helpless characters.

VISITORS to the new Mormon settlement in Alberta have noticed and commented on the number of Mormon women in excess of the number of men. The elders when questioned concerning this suspicious peculiarity explained it by saying the women were their relations. This may be quite true and still unsatisfactory. But granting they be relations only, the Mormon settlers can boast of larger numbers of female relations than any other class of people in Canada. They are loud, however, in declaring their monogamous intentions. Be that as it may, there still remains the radical objection to the settlement en bloc of a people whose religion is fundamentally antagonistic to British and, in fact, to all free institution. The planting in our North-West of foreign groups, who evince a fixed determination to live as separate communities and refuse to amalgamate with the general population, is the reverse of desirable. Race and religious questions have given enough trouble without permitting our country to be parcelled out among little exotic nationalities that in time are sure to become populous and troublesome, perhaps rebellious. But of all these importations the Mormons are the most objectionable. Recent exposures in the courts of law in Utah, concerning the practices of the Mormon Endowment House, the oaths there administered to all Mormons, and the penalties enforced in the cases of those who abandon the faith, ought to be sufficient to exclude these people from Canada. When it is remembered that the United States Government has for years vainly exerted all its constitutional, legal and coercive powers to suppress an institution that set it openly at defiance, we may form some idea of the nature of the evil we have allowed to be planted within our territory. We have no laws to deal with the threatened danger. The Mormons hold their lands by private purchase, and may not be reached by ordinary process should they set the Dominion at defiance. It would, therefore, be well for Parliament to guard against possible trouble by enacting without delay such legislation as will compel the Mormons to observe the law. Such legislation need not trench on the dangerous ground of religious rights. But this is a British country, and conformity to British institutions must be insisted on from all who dwell within its borders.

PRESIDENT HARRISON in his message to Congress says there is nothing more hurtful to the national prosperity or more justly humiliating to the national pride than the inferiority of the American mercantile marine. He truly observes that the fact that some of the Pan-American delegates had to go to Washington via Liverpool is very suggestive. It suggests more than the shortcomings of the American mercantile marine it suggests one of the great difficulties in the way of improvement. Opportunities neglected seldom repeat themselves, and although a wise and liberal policy even now may do much to improve the merchant shipping of the United States, it will be difficult to divert the bulk of South American trade from the channels it now occupies. The next time there is a Pan-American Congress in Washington, the delegates from South America may be able to get to the United States capital without crossing the Atlantic, provided Congress subsidises a few lines of steamers in the meantime, but when these same gentlemen are going to talk business rather than politics they will probably continue to go to England until the United States can and will offer them equally advantageous terms in every respect. The great secret of success in business is prompt recognition of opportunities. As a rule the conditions under which a man is led on to fortune are not peculiar to himself. Other men have precisely the same chances only they do not recognize them until too late. There is a lesson for Canada in the experience of the United States. The Dominion has entered upon an era of golden opportunities. Canada has invested large amounts of money in public works for the advancement of her commercial interests and has had no reason to regret the investment; but if the country is to have the full benefit of these works the policy of wise and liberal expenditure must be continued. Public enterprise must at least keep pace with private enterprise. The Government's railway policy has brought about conditions which necessitate further expenditure to provide shipping accommodation at the principal ports and no better justification of the railway policy could be desired.

To Aid Their Lady Teachers.

At the monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cathedral held yesterday, Mrs. Henderson presided. The treasurer's report showed that there was a balance on hand of $137.35. After some discussion it was moved and seconded that each member of the diocesan branch should be asked to contribute $3 a year required for the lady teachers' salaries at Wasahaka Home, which sum is to be in addition to the amount promised by the parochial branches for the same cause. After the reading of an interesting paper by Mrs. Johnson, which referred to the importance of educating the children of missionaries, the meeting closed.

There has been another advance in wheat throughout Manitoba during the past week, the rise being ten cents. Grain merchants discussing the question say the competition of buyers for local mills was the cause for the increase. Mill owners in Winnipeg recognize the fact that there is not left in the North-West more than enough wheat to keep their mills running until the next crop is harvested, and unless they are to be idle, they must secure all there is in sight.

The Temperance Colonization Company of Manitoba in 1884 apportioned free town lots and supplied lumber to build houses to the settlers at valuation, with interest at 6 per cent. until paid. There was a clause in the agreement by which the company might take peaceable possession after a certain time if the principal and interest was not paid. Taking advantage of this clause they have now taken possession of the buildings owned by several settlers, and others will be dispossessed.

ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS.

English Capital to be Invested in the United States in a New Enterprise.

NEW YORK, December 6.—The Times says: English capital to the extent of $100,000,000 is about to be invested in this country in a single enterprise. This project is intended to embrace a variety of purposes. One of the chief plans will be to provide credit for new American projects. It will be what is technically known as a "financiering" company, acting upon principles and along lines long recognized in the English financial world. It will be an insurance company—its risks will be railway mortgages; it will be a guarantee company—it will endorse railway credit. The working plan of the company will be to investigate new enterprises submitted to it for endorsement. Expert accountants and engineers are already engaged in making preliminary investigations. Satisfied that such an enterprise is substantial, the company will underwrite it—will pledge its own capital that it will be a safe investment. It will assume relations to a new railroad enterprise just as a conservative life insurance company assumes relation to a man-seeking insurance. If found sound, and in all essential respects satisfactory, the risk will be assumed and a guarantee made of interest upon the company's bonds. Companies operating upon this principle abroad have been successful.

The Flight of Cashier Silcott.

WASHINGTON, December 6.—Speaking of the defalcation and flight of cashier Silcott, ex-Sergeant-at-Arms Leedom stated that he never suspected anything was wrong until his paying teller, Mr. Ballentyne, told him on Wednesday that he was distressed by Silcott's absence and feared Silcott may have been killed. Ballentyne had the combination of the safe, it having been given to him by Silcott four years ago. He unlocked the safe with difficulty, and he and Leedom counted the money, finding a deficit of $71,000. The real name of Silcott's female companion is Louise Thebault. She is a French Canadian, living in Quebec. On Tuesday she told a woman here that Silcott had asked her if she would live with him after he had got located in the West. She told him she would, but she wanted to go home first.

EMIN PASHA'S BAD ACCIDENT.

He Fractures His Skull by Walking Out of a Window—In a Critical Condition.

ZANZIBAR, December 5.—Emin Pasha has met with a probably fatal accident. Being nearsighted he walked out of a window by mistake and fell on his head, fracturing his skull. He now lies at Bagamoyo in a critical condition. All the doctors, except Stanley's physician, declare Emin's injuries will prove fatal. Stanley's physician is hopeful of saving Emin's life, but says that under the most favorable circumstances the patient cannot be moved for at least ten days. Emin misjudged the height of a balcony parapet, over-balanced himself and fell twenty feet. When found his right eye was closed and blood was issuing from his ears. His body was terribly bruised.

The Best Remedy

For Dyspepsia is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Other medicines may give temporary relief; but Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes a positive and permanent cure, as thousands can testify all over the country.

"My stomach, liver, and kidneys were in a disordered condition for years," writes R. Wild, of Hutto, Texas, "and I never found any medicine to relieve me, until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than six bottles of this remedy cured me."

Mrs. Joseph Aubin, of Holyoke, Mass., was for a long time a severe sufferer from Dyspepsia, trying, in vain, all the usual remedies. At last she began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and only three bottles restored her to perfect health.

"I have gone through terrible suffering from Dyspepsia and Indigestion," writes C. J. Bodemer, 145 Columbia st., Cambridgeport, Mass., "and can truly say Ayer's Sarsaparilla has cured me."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

MONTREAL'S NEEDS.

THE MAYOR AND ALDERMEN AWAKE

To the Urgent Necessity of Increasing Montreal's Wharfage Accommodation to Secure the Western Trade.

[From Our Own Reporter.]

LA SALLE, Man., December 5.—The Montreal Civic deputation left Duluth yesterday afternoon. At the station speeches were made by several parties. Mayor Grenier said he was convinced of the vital necessity of Montreal providing cheap and rapid means for handling freight. Mr. Phelps, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, in responding, said they could not do without Montreal, which was the natural outlet for Duluth's freight going to Europe. Large shippers say that this year they shipped seven million bushels of grain to Europe, but could only send two millions bushels via Montreal, for want of shipping facilities. The best they could do was to send by New York and pay 3 cents extra per bushel.

RECEPTION AT WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, December 6.—The Montreal delegation were received on arrival here by Acting Mayor Lewis and aldermen Mr. Redmond, President of the Board of Trade, and other prominent citizens. The party were banqueted at the Clarendon Hotel, and were afterwards driven through the city. The fire brigade were called out for the inspection of the visitors, who subsequently adjourned to the Council Chamber in City Hall, where speeches were made. Ald. Lewis said the people of Winnipeg were much interested in the advance of Montreal. Mayor Grenier, replying, said that his party had learned many things in the West, and were convinced that they must take immediate steps to carry out important works. Ald. Villeneuve said that docks costing $5,000,000 must be constructed. Ald. Clendinneng and others spoke in the same strain. The party attended the theatre last night by invitation. This morning the party visited St. Boniface, and were received by Archbishop Taché. We leave for home to-day.

Premier Greenway, in conversation with some of the members of the delegation, said that dual language is as good as abolished. Parliament meets in February, and a bill for the above purpose will pass immediately.

THE CHRISTMAS STAR.

NIGHT AND DAY FILLING ORDERS.

Many Complimentary Letters Received—More Kindly Criticisms from Prominent Citizens, Publishers and Newsdealers.

Our entire mailing and clerical staff is working night and day tubing, parcelling and shipping copies of the Christmas STAR. We must ask forbearance on the part of the trade to whom partial daily supplies will go forward. Those wholesale merchants who are sending complimentary copies to their agencies and customers may get supplies on Monday if sent for early. To newsboys and dealers a limited sale will commence at the STAR Office to-morrow morning at 10 a. m. We are requested officially to announce that the postage to the United States and any part of Canada is 5 cents, and to England 10 cents. We have to acknowledge the receipt of many complimentary letters and kindly notices in the pres.

REV. DR MACVICAR,

Principal of the Presbyterian College, says: "I think the Christmas STAR is by far the most beautiful Christmas souvenir yet published in Canada, and deserves every success. Especially worthy of comment are the pictures of Canadian cities; they are extremely well executed, as are the flower plates, which are well worthy of being framed. I have sent some copies to my son in China, and I am sure he will be as well pleased with it as I am."

MR. HECTOR MACKENZIE,

member of the Council Art Association of Montreal: "I think it is the greatest credit to any paper to be able to produce such a handsome and magnificent work of art as the Christmas STAR."

HON. HENRY STARNES,

Speaker of the Legislative Council: "I consider the Christmas STAR a beautiful publication. Its illustrations are well selected and beautifully executed, and its letter press is artistically arranged. As to the supplements, they are works of art and splendid ones."

MR. EDWARD HOLTON, M. P.

"The Christmas STAR is one of the most creditable publications I ever saw. Its illustrations make up quite a fine collection of art pictures, while the whole get up of the number, letter press, etc., is attractive."

REV. PROFESSOR SCRIMGER,

Presbyterian College, remarked: "The Christmas STAR is a very beautiful number. It is elegantly designed and well finished. It is a compliment to Canadian enterprise and deserves to have a large sale."

MR. A. DESJARDINS, M. P.

"I never saw a more beautiful lot of illustrations in one publication. The pictures of the Canadian cities are particularly valuable, as they will give those abroad an idea of Canada's importance, which they could not derive in any other way. The colored supplements are truly beautiful, and altogether the publication is one of which Canadians ought to be proud."

MR. GEORGE HAGUE,

General Manager of the Merchant's Bank, says: "The STAR has quite surpassed itself this time. The Christmas Number is most beautiful and artistic, and is by far the best thing of the kind that has yet come out in Canada. It is superior to the splendid issue of last Christmas. Quite equal to the Christmas Numbers of the English illustrated papers."

HON. MR. JUSTICE DAVIDSON:

"The Christmas STAR deserves universal applause. The publishers might have taken Pope's line for its motto—" Blest with each grace of nature and of art."

REV. JAMES BARCLAY.

"The present number of the Christmas STAR is very nice indeed. It surpasses that of last year, and both illustrations and letter press are excellent. The pictures of Canadian cities seem to be very true and the whole is most creditable."

REV. J. EDGAR HILL.

"I am charmed with the Christmas STAR which is far superior to last year, and that is saying a good deal. The variety of the pictures is marvellous, and the letter press seems excellent. The supplement of panoramic pictures of Canadian cities is a very good idea and will commend itself to a great many people who would like to give their friends abroad an idea of what things in the Dominion really are. All in all it is highly creditable as an art publication."

MR. S. C. STEVENSON,

Secretary of the Council of Arts and Manufactures: The exceedingly pretty cover of the Christmas STAR offers irresistible temptation to carefully scrutinize the number. The paper and letter press and the artistic arrangement of the matter would be a credit to any paper in the world.

MR. R. S. WHITE, M. P.,

Editor of the Gazette: I am glad to observe that each year's issue of the Christmas STAR shows a marked advance on its predecessors in its artistic features. It now ceases to be necessary to go abroad for an illustrated holiday number suitable for purposes of presentation.

PUBLISHERS AND NEWSDEALERS.

Prominent publishers and newsdealers of Montreal are loud in their praises. Below will be found the criticisms of some of the most prominent houses in the trade.

MURRAY & CO.,

2313 St. Catherine street: "It is a very good numer. The views of Canada are excellent and will be most appreciated. The front cover is unique and a happy hit, and the letter press is simply perfect. It compares very favorably with Old Country publications. The colored picture of flowers is something different from the general run of colored supplements and is sure to take well."

W. FOSTER BROWN,

successor to Dawson Bros., 233 St. James street: "The front cover is of a truly Canadian character and a most attractive picture. Altogether, the Christmas STAR is well worth the money and is without doubt the best number out. Every true Canadian should help to circulate it for the sake of Canada."

J. T. HENDERSON

St. Peter street: "This number far surpasses the previous efforts of the STAR. The cover is a perfect gem, the flowers simply exquisite and the whole, from an artistic point, is ahead of any Christmas number I have seen."

F. E. PHELAN,

2331 St. Catherine street: "The best Christmas number by far that is out this year. As usual, the STAR leads."

B. N. M'CALLUM,

"A first rate number; away ahead of all others. The principal supplement is a grand work of art. Other Christmas numbers do not come near it in merit."

H. ST. DIZIER,

Balmoral Hotel: "I believe it must have an enormous sale, as it is superior in point of artistic merit to any number yet published. I cannot understand how it is possible to give so many beautiful pictures with the paper for 50 cents. It seems to me that the large colored picture is worth more money than the price of the whole."

C. ASHFIELD,

No. 818 Dorchester street: "It is far ahead of last year's, and I am sure Canadians will appreciate it. The flower piece is good enough to place in any drawing-room as a work of art. The entire number compares most favorably with the other Christmas Numbers published this year. I cannot understand how so much can be given for the money."

MORRIS MICHAELS,

Windsor Hotel: "I think the Christmas STAR of this year is better value than any other illustrated number published. The views of Canada make it Canadian in character, and will advertise Canada as no other paper can possibly do."

W. J. CLARK & CO.,

Beaver Hall: "It is far ahead of any of the English numbers and unquestionably the finest ever published in America. The STAR seems determined to excel and distance all competitors. The large colored picture is a superb work of art and worth more than the price of the whole number. The publication is invaluable to Canada, and just what is wanted by Canadians to show folks at home what Canada really is."

His Leave May be Extended Indefinitely.

La Patrie believes that Mr. Dubail, Consul-General of France at Quebec, who obtained a six months' leave of absence, which has long since expired, may not return to his post. The reason for this would be that France felt offended at the action of the Canadian Government in deciding that Canada should not take part in the exhibition, and to the insulting remarks made by certain Canadian papers to the French Republic. It adds that it is no reason because the French Minister has not been withdrawn from London that a consulate may not be closed up without interrupting diplomatic relations.

HANDSOME BEQUESTS

Made by the Will of the Late Mr. George Rogers to Various Institutions.

By the will of the late Mr. George Rogers a large number of Montreal charitable institutions and several of the Funds of the Presbyterian church will be substantially benefitted. The two institutions which will benefit most largely are the Montreal Western Hospital and the Protestant Hospital for the Insane, between which the residue of the estate, after the payment of the widow's legacy and the various bequests, is to be equally divided. To Mrs. Rogers is left one-half of the entire estate, the house, 167 Mansfield, the furniture, etc., therein and the sum of $200 to provide mourning. To nephews and nieces the sum of $8500 is bequeathed, and the following are the bequests to charitable and other institutions: The General Hospital, $1500; Presbyterian Church Home Mission Fund, $1500; do Foreign Mission Fund, $1500; do. French Evangelization Fund, $1500; Hervey Institute, $1000; Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund (Presbyterian church), $1000; Protestant House of Industry and Refuge, $1000; Mackay Institute for Protestant Deaf Mutes, $1500; Protestant Infants' Home, $500; Irish Protestant Benevolent Society, $1000; Montreal Ladies' Benevolent Society, $500; Montreal Auxiliary Tract Society, $400; Canadian Sunday-school Union, $400. The sum of $2000 was left to Stanley Street Church, but this was paid over some years ago in the shape of a loan to that church. In addition to these a number of smaller private bequests are made. After all expenses have been paid, including commissions to trustees, the surplus is to be divided equally between the Montreal Western Hospital and the Protestant Hospital for the Insane (building fund). The estate is estimated to be worth from $80,000 to $100,000.

GONE TO QUEBEC

To Urge the Government to Hand Over the Exhibition Buildings to a Company.

At the meeting of the old Permanent Exhibition Committee held yesterday afternoon, the following were appointed a deputation to wait upon the Provincial Government, and left for Quebec last night: Messrs. L. R. Massue, Jos. Barsalou, S. C. Stevenson and O. Chaput, Dr. McEachran, V. S., and Mr. J. K. Ward, M. L. C. The deputation, acting on the instructions of yesterday's meeting, will urge the Government either to hand over the present exhibition property to a joint stock company or to dispose of this property and purchase another more accessible and better adapted to exhibition purposes and hand it over. Hon. Mr. Rhodes has announced his desire to come to the arrangement suggested, but the Government is afraid of the expense of either placing the present buildings in a thorough state of repair or of equipping new grounds. The Exhibition Committee thinks that it will be impossible to raise the capital for the proposed company if they have to make a heavy outlay on buildings, etc., at the start, but anticipates comparatively little trouble in raising a company with a capital of $100,000 to assume the expense and risk of conducting a series of exhibitions. If the Government returns a favorable answer to the deputation now at Quebec a meeting of gentlemen who took an interest in past exhibitions in Montreal will be called for next week to organize the company.

Not Satisfied with the Board of Health.

At a meeting of the Montreal Sanitary Association held last night the sanitary condition of the city was discussed. The death rate is not quite so high as it used to be, but still the Association consider that it is yet too high, and that there must be a cause for it. They claim that the Board of Health is not looking after the health interests of the city as it ought, and that a re-organization of that body is desirable. A committee was appointed to consider the matter, and lay their decision before another meeting of the Association; after which a delegation would wait on the Board of Health, or the City Council. The Association is quite willing to co-operate as far as they can with the Board. A number of new members have joined the Association.

Insurance Actions.

An action has been entered in the Superior Court by Messrs. Greenshields & Co. on behalf of Mr. Stewart Browne against the London & Glasgow Insurance Company for $20,000 for balance of commissions and to render an account of its business. Mr. Hugh Browne, brother of Mr. Stewart Browne, is suing the Gazette for $5000 damages for having printed a statement to the effect that there was a shortage in his cash while agent of the company at Toronto, while it is claimed such charges had been fully investigated before a competent court, there disproved and an apology and retractation of the charges made by the company.

The "Baron" Sues the Hotel-Keeper.

Felix Lauwers, alias Baron Felix de Hensch, who was sentenced to the penitentiary of St. Vincent de Paul for two years for theft from Magloire Lalonde, hotel keeper of St. Genevieve, is now suing the same Lalonde for the value of a gold watch, a family diamond ring, a sword, a silver headed cane, two trunks with laundry worth 500 francs, a valuable cigar holder and a revolver, altogether worth 1375 francs. He alleges in his declaration that Mr. Lalonde obtained the gold watch and diamond ring in a pawn shop, without the plaintiff's authorization. The other goods, he alleges, are also in the possession of Lalonde.

Christmas Mails.

The Post Office officials are already experiencing the difficulties connected with the transmission of Christmas cards and publications. The mail which closed for England yesterday was the largest despatched since last New Year's, while today's mail for England was very heavy, a large proportion of the mail consisting of Christmas STARS.

Will Support Laurier and Mercier.

Le Clarion, the new organ of the Club National, appears to-day. In its programme it declares itself favorable to Hon. Mr. Laurier at Ottawa and Premier Mercier at Quebec, but reserves for itself the right to criticize their acts.

Returned This Morning.

Mr. Stewart Browne, late manager of the Glasgow & London Insurance Company, who has taken an action for $25,000 against that company for alleged libel, and who, as it was stated in the Practice Court yesterday, had left the city, returned to Montreal this morning.

No Change.

There is no change in the condition of Senator Trudel, who continues in a very precarious condition.

JEFFERSON DAVIS DEAD.

EX-PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERACY

Passes Peacefully Away Last Night—His Afflicted Widow Prostrated—Sketch of an Eventful Life.

NEW ORLEANS, La., December 6.—At 12.45 this morning Hon. Jefferson Davis, ex-president of the Confederate States, died at the residence of his life-long friend, J. M. Payne. From the beginning of his illness Mr. Davis had insisted that his case was nearly or quite hopeless, though the dread of pain or fear of death never appeared to take the slightest hold upon his spirits, which were brave and even buoyant from the beginning of his attack. In vain did the doctors strive to impress upon him that his health was improving. He steadily insisted that there was no improvement, but, with Christian resignation, he was content to accept whatever Providence had in store for him. At six o'clock last evening, without any assignable cause, Mr. Davis was seized with a congestive chill, which seemed to absolutely crush the vitality out of his already enfeebled body. So weak was Mr. Davis that the violence of the assault soon subsided for lack of vitality upon which to prey. From that moment to the history of his case was that of a gradual sinking. Despite the fact that the end had come slowly and peacefully, and after she had been face to face for hours with the dread reality the blow fell with crushing force upon the afflicted widow. As long as there had been work for either hands or head she had borne herself bravely, and not until the sweet uses for her tender ministrations were lost, did she seem to realize the terrible force of the blow that had fallen upon her. Knowing of a predisposition to heart affection the doctors were at once gravely alarmed for her. They promptly administered a composing draught and at a late hour she was resting quietly. After death the face of the deceased, though looking slightly emaciated, showed no trace of suffering, more nearly resembling that of a peaceful sleeper than of the dead.

HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS.

SKETCH OF AN EVENTFUL LIFE.

The death of Jefferson Davis removes from earth a man who has played in his time a very prominent part in the history of the world. Mr. Davis died at the advanced age of eighty-one, having been born in June, 1808, in Kentucky. In 1824 he entered West Point, graduating in 1828 and obtaining a position in the United States Army, which kept him engaged for seven years fighting the Indians. In 1835 he settled down as a cotton planter in Mississippi, shortly after entering Congress as a strong Democrat in 1845. During the Mexican war he served as a Colonel of Volunteers, and distinguished himself very highly, both at the storming of Monterey and the battle of Buena Vista. His "sovereign state" tendencies, which afterwards were so strongly shown in the rebellion, were evidenced at this time by his refusal of the rank of General of Volunteers from the President. Mr. Polk put the ground that the appointment was one with which the Federal Government had no right to meddle, as it belonged to the separate states. In 1847 Mr. Davis entered the United States Senate, and as chairman of the Military Committee earnestly contended for States rights and slavery. In 1851 he took the field on behalf of Mr. Pierce, the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, and on his election entered the Cabinet as Secretary of War, a post he occupied for some years, but on the success of the Republicans in 1860, he withdrew from the Senate and commenced to organize Secession, South Carolina beginning the work by calling a convention to consider the question. Then was passed the historic resolution "the Union now subsisting between South Carolina and other states, under the name of the United States of America, is hereby dissolved." Before the end of May, 1861, the following

STATES HAD SECEDED:

South Carolina, Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Virginia, Arkansas, Tennessee and North Carolina. The Montgomery congress followed when the confederate state constitution was framed, a government organized and Jefferson Davis chosen president, and Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, vice-president. Then came the opposition to secession by the Lincoln regime, the affair at Fort Sumpter, the four years' war in which the south drew the eyes of the world upon them for their gallantry and the military ability of their generals, headed by Jackson and Lee, and then the fall of the Confederacy. Mr. Davis was imprisoned for some time after the end of the war and tremendous efforts were made to have him put to death, but wiser counsels averted this event. Latterly Mr. Davis has been living in comparative retirement, but wherever he has appeared in public his reception has indicated that the spirit of the "lost cause" is not yet dead.

Mr. Davis lived for several months at the end of the war at the St. Lawrence Hall here, and was very intimate with Mr. John Lovell.

THE CRONIN CASE.

Mr. Hynes Resumes His Address for the Prosecution To-Day.

CHICAGO, December 6.—At the opening of the Cronin trial to-day Mr. Hynes resumed his address to the jury. He continued his examination of the defence of Beggs. He said the evidence did not show, as claimed, that Beggs was simply in an attitude of waiting and deprecated any discussion until the report of the Committee to try the triangle was made. It was not merely that Dr. Cronin was premature in his report to his camp. Beggs' objection was against uncovering the alleged frauds at all. He announced himself a friend of Alexander Sullivan and he wanted the investigation of the frauds dropped. Mr. Hynes added, on this point: "He insisted that there was no use opening old scores; that they were the enemies of Irish unity; that the men behind him, the men who had the power, as he says here, or 'the men who are the power,' will in time realize the motives of those who are continually breathing disorder in their ranks, and a day of punishment will come. I am very much discouraged at the present outlook and hope no trouble will result. He did not mean the trouble that had been going on in the camp or discussion of it. The trouble had a more significant meaning than the mere acrimony of discussion, than debate and ventilation on the subject in the camp. People were talking to Beggs at that time about trouble. Of course in writing to Mr. Spellman he would not disclose any more than his anxiety that Spellman should take some action, and as I said yesterday that perhaps the scheme was under the cover of that secret committee that has been already appointed was to do its work. Who was breathing threats of trouble into the ears of Beggs at that time?"

COONEY, THE FOX.

A Sensational Story that He has been Murdered in Indiana.

HAMMOND, Ind., December 6.—The citizens of this place are excited over a discovery which may prove of a sensational character. Adolph Kreuter, while hunting yesterday, came across a handkerchief stained with blood, and other evidences that murder had been committed. Last Thursday six strangers came to town, and their suspicious actions are now remembered. On Friday afternoon three of them left town. A little later the other three started in the exact direction of the scene of the tragedy. Four hours later two of them returned. It is now believed by the authorities here that the missing man was murdered, and enough evidence has been discovered which points to connection with the Cronin conspiracy, and that the murdered man was Cooney, "The Fox," and his body buried in the sands of the Calumet river.

CLEMENCEAU URGES UNION.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

PARIS, December 6.—M. Clemenceau, delivering an oration at a students' lunch to the Republican deputies, said the reconciliation of the Church and the Republicans is impossible, but a union of all sections of Republicans is imperative. For his part, he said, he would be a brother of the most moderate Republican.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

OTTAWA, December 6.—Sir John Macdonald is sufficiently recovered to be able to be up. The Council met at Earnscliffe this morning and remained in session for some hours. It is understood that they only considered sessional work.

A Youth's Strange Story.

A complaint has been laid against two men who were formerly in the employ of an ex-detective of this city, on a charge of conspiracy. The complainant claims to have been arrested without cause and locked in a room for two days and two nights under the guard of the accused, who finally offered to liberate him and stop proceedings provided he guaranteed to pay $105. In order to breathe fresh air, the victim gave in and he now intends taking action against his prosecutors.

Messrs. Parker and Laird, of Hillsdale, write: "Our Mr. Laird having occasion to visit Scotland, and knowing the excellent qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, concluded to take some with him, and the result has been very astonishing. We may say that in several instances it has effected cures when ailments had been pronounced incurable by eminent practitioners."
