ATTITUDE OF PROGRESSIVES WAS OUTLINED Fought Strenuously Against Notarial Code Amendment

Robert Forke Thinks High Tariff, If It Is Persisted In, Will Ruin This Country

In Both Houses There Was Debate on the Address—In the Commons, Robert Forke, Progressive Leader, Opposed High Tariffs—Progressive Measures, He Said, Would Receive Progressive Support—He Advocated Construction of the Hudson Bay Railway—J. S. Woodsworth, Leader of the Labor Group, Asked for a Parliamentary Committee to Investigate the British Empire Steel Corporation, and Sharply Commented on the Proceedings Against J. B. McLachlan, Labor Leader, Sentenced to Two Years for Seditious Libel—In the Senate Senator Pardee Moved and Senator Cote Seconded the Address—Speeches Were Made by Sir James Loughheed, Opposition Leader, and Senator Dandurand, Government Member.

(Special to The Record)

OTTAWA, Ont., March 5.—Progressives are ready to support progressive measures whenever such measures come before the House. If the Government is prepared to present these measures for our consideration, they know they will get our support.

"If they do not, then they will have to take the consequences." Thus, Robert Forke, Progressive leader, stated to the House yesterday the attitude of the Progressives towards the Government. He thought high protection, if persisted in, would spell ruin to the country, and, in illustration of the farmers' difficulties, said that in 1912, ten fleeces from sheep would buy a suit of clothes. Now, thirty-one fleeces were needed to buy the same suit.

Mr. Forke declared the country demanded economy, yet pressed for the "right kind" of economy. Construction of the Hudson Bay Railway could not be "downed."

The West was determined to have the Hudson Bay Railway built, and Mr. Forke believed it would be built in the not far distant future.

Mr. Forke suggested that the sales tax be removed from farm implements, adding that it would not be a bad move to take it off, "all along the line." He thought, also, it might be well to have a parliamentary committee—representative of all parties—to take matters affecting the Canadian National Railways under its care. Following Mr. Forke there was an orientation.

J. S. Woodsworth, leader of the labor group, had some sharp comments to make in connection with the Cape Breton strike. He took up the trial of J. B. McLachlan, labor leader, sentenced to two years for seditious libel, and charged that McLachlan had been taken to Halifax to face judges who, "up to the time of their connection with the bench had been closely connected with the coal companies."

The western freight rates issue will be thrown again in to the parliamentary mill this session.

Premier King announced that the committee to investigate the Home Bank would inquire into the record of the bank down to the time when it suspended payment.

DECLARES CANADA SHOULD HAVE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER DEEPENED—WOULD PROCEED AT ONCE WITH THE SCHEME

Mr. Woodsworth added that Nova Scotia workers pointed that Hon. E. MacDonald, the Minister of Defence, who, "is responsible for the troops being sent to Cape Breton," had seen, if he were not still, the solicitor for the coal companies; and Mr. Woodsworth advocated appointment of a parliamentary committee to investigate the British Empire Steel Corporation.

W. F. MacLean, (Conservative) South York, at the evening sitting, said the two party system would never return. He urged Canadians to watch the coming election in the United States as indicative of the political revolutions now going on in the English speaking world.

Speaking of the St. Lawrence waterway, Mr. MacLean said that although Montreal was opposed to the scheme, Canada should have the St. Lawrence deepened or the United States would build a canal across New York State and divert the traffic in that direction.

Mr. MacLean was in favor of proceeding at once with the scheme, stating that it could be done in the same manner as the Panama canal, within two years.

The Government should set an example in the reduction of the cost of living by putting postage, telegraph, express and railway fares back to pre-war basis. This would be even more important than reform of the civil service. An export duty on nickel, of which Canada had the world's visible supply, would be a reasonable thing. Since the United States had seen fit to put a prohibitive tariff on Canadian wheat Canada might also retaliate with an export duty on pulpwood and thereby make about $100,000,000 per year.

Bank Reform Necessary. Taxes on luxuries should be increased and on the necessities of life decreased. The principle of non-taxable Government securities should be abolished.

Mr. MacLean said that bank reform was necessary in Canada. Banks should be asked to accept a Federal reserve system such as obtained in the United States, and National notes issued by the Government should replace all the bank notes now circulated in Canada.

The Home Bank depositors had a very good excuse for asking for relief in the same manner that the Province of Quebec has protected bank depositors, continued Mr. MacLean.

All bank notes in circulation should be National notes, and although the Dominion had issued notes the banks had held them back, giving preference to those of their own issue.

Losses From Forest Fires. A. J. Lewis, Progressive, Swift Current, pointed out the tremendous losses which the country was suffering from forest fires. The great heritage of our forests should be protected at all costs. Mr. Lewis stated that there was a great waste in the use of newsprint by newspaper publishers.

He suggested an export duty on pulpwood, as one means of protecting Canada against depletion of forests. He regretted to observe the extravagances resulting from party politics. The National leaders of this country should be outlining great reforms and platforms rather than differing over lesser points.

Mr. Lewis was of the opinion that lower freight rates should be possible with revenues on the National Railways improving. The Canadian National might be the immediate means of helping to make the farm pay. Living conditions must be improved to keep people on the farms of the West. Providence was bestowing bountiful crops. The Canadian people and their Government must do their share to improve conditions. He said that in his own municipality of small population, eighty people have moved out in one year. No immigrants that could possibly be obtained would take the place of Canadians. It was all a question of how to keep people in the West.

Herbert Marler, (St. Lawrence) St. George) adjourned the debate. The house adjourned until Thursday afternoon.

Several persons who sought the treasure unsuccessfully in the schooner Genesee two years ago were quoted as declaring that Mr. Huntington had gone to Cocos Island, where Captain W. L. Morgan was believed to have buried it in 1820.

CLAIMS UNITED STATES GOT MOST OUT OF WAR

Lloyd George Says that as Reaction from Idealism of War the World Has Sunk into Slough of Despond.

(Associated Press Despatch) BRIGHTON, ENGLAND, March 5.

"The country that got the most out of the war was the United States; it gained prohibition," said David Lloyd George, addressing a meeting of the Free Church Council here yesterday. He appealed for a soberer England and declared that as a reaction from the idealism of the war the world had sunk into the slough of despond. Its struggles had become purely material and a new temper and a new appeal were wanted.

Man in London Prison Has Confessed To Implication in Wall Street Explosion

Was Serving with Canadian Forces in France When He Got into Trouble Under Circumstances Causing Suspicion that He Was Acting as a Spy—Names Several Persons in His Confession.

LONDON, Mar. 5.—Ralph Thurbur, prisoner in the Pentonville jail, who has confessed to implication in the Wall Street bomb explosion of 1920, formerly served in the Canadian army, according to the Daily Sketch.

Thurbur recently came to England in defiance of a deportation order sending him to the United States, says the Daily Sketch. The paper adds that the only explanation of his motive for returning here is his own statement that he came to recover a debt of £10. He is said to have travelled by way of Paris and Antwerp, landing in England at Harwich.

Thurbur is declared to have left his home in the United States when eighteen years of age to join the Canadian army. It was apparently while serving with the Canadian forces in France that he got into trouble under circumstances causing suspicion that he was acting as a spy and resulting in his deportation. The United States officials here who have been handling the case are very secretive, as are the Scotland Yard authorities. London first learned of Thurbur's confession in despatches from New York last night.

U. S. POLICE CARRYING ON INVESTIGATION

NEW YORK, Mar. 5.—The confession of Ralph Thurbur, prisoner in a London penitentiary, implicating himself and a number of other persons in the Wall Street explosion of September 16, 1920, in which thirty persons lost their lives and scores of others were injured, today was the object of an intensive inquiry by police and the District Attorney's office, which pointed out, however, that a number of similar inquiries in the past had been fruitless. Officials plainly indicated their desire to plumb the new clue before embarking on extradition proceedings which were suggested by the United States consul general in London, who sent word of Thurbur's confession to District Attorney Bafton through Secretary of State Hughes and Governor Smith.

They pointed out that many persons arrested in various parts of the world had asserted they had played important roles in the blast, and that subsequent investigation had led to no solution of the mystery.

The message from London made public yesterday quoted Thurbur as having said all details of the plot and the names of the conspirators were known to Rev. Herbert Wilson, of San Diego and Los Angeles. It was pointed out that William J. Burns, head of the Federal Secret Service, last year questioned Wilson and was satisfied he had no part in the crime.

MR. CHURCHILL WILL CONTEST BY-ELECTION

Possibility that There Will Be Four or Five Candidates in the Field.

(Associated Press Despatch.)

LONDON, Mar. 5.—Winston Spencer Churchill's declared intention of contesting the parliamentary bye-election in the Abbey Division of Westminster, has had the immediate result of bringing a Liberal candidate into the fight.

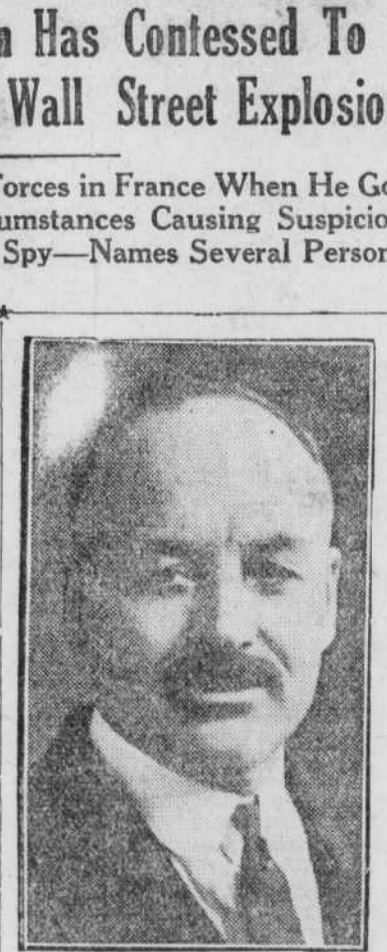

The Liberal organization had previously decided that if Mr. Churchill contested, it would oppose him, but otherwise would not run a candidate. The Liberal champion is the solicitor Scott Duckers, who was four times court-martialed during the war as a conscientious objector.

Another result is the retirement of the Independent Conservative, Colonel Parkinson, who announces that as he is in complete agreement with Mr. Churchill he withdraws his candidature to make way for "a better man."

The official Conservative candidate is Otto Nicholson, nephew of the late Brigadier General J. S. Nicholson, another member of parliament.

It is understood that Labor will also have a candidate, as yet unchosen, while a possible fifth candidate is Joseph Havelock Wilson, general president of the National Sailors and Firemen's Union, a former M.P., who is running on his own ticket as "a sane trade unionist."

The contest promises to be of national interest, owing to Mr. Churchill's personality and the predictions of certain to be made to defeat him. The former war minister and first lord of the admiralty, however, seems assured of very strong support, and the Conservatives fear he may deflect many voters from their official candidate.

HON. JAMES LYONS, Minister of Mines for Ontario, announces the imposition of an export duty which is virtually an embargo on all hardwood from Crown lands of the province.

Russia Will Strive To Negotiate Credits In Great Britain Of £150,000,000

Credits, According to Despatch, Must Be Divided in Proportion of 67 Per Cent. Goods and 33 Per Cent. Cash—Britain to Advance £40,000,000 First Year, £50,000,000 Second Year and £60,000,000 the Third Year.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, Mar. 5.—Soviet Russia will strive at the forthcoming Anglo-Russian conference to negotiate credits of £150,000,000 spread over three years, according to the Moscow correspondent of the Daily Express. He attributes his information to a direct statement made by Christian Rakovsky, Soviet Charge d'Affaires, accredited to London, who recently returned to Moscow to discuss the arrangements for the conference.

The credits, according to the despatch, must be divided in the proportion of 67 per cent goods and 33 per cent cash. Great Britain to advance £40,000,000 the first year, £50,000,000 the second and £60,000,000 the third. Russia would be prepared to begin paying interest on the loan within two years.

"We wish to emphasize that financial credits are absolutely necessary if the orders we are ready to place in England during the next few years are to be given," Rakovsky is quoted as saying. "These credits are not for the Red Army but are exclusively for economic reconstruction."

The Charge, who is expected to return to Great Britain with the full rank of ambassador, specified as among Russia's needs, textile machinery, ships, mining material, forestry machinery, motor cars, chemicals, metals and aviation materials, all of which she would obtain in England if she should succeed in effecting her programme at the coming conference. The correspondent further quotes Rakovsky as saying:

"The whole question of debts must be considered with our proposals for credits. We must have money before we begin to pay."

AMENDMENTS TO VITAL STATISTICS BILL SUGGESTED BY OPPOSITION ARE APPROVED BY MR. A. DAVID

Conservatives Put up Hard Battle Against Clause in Bill Amending Notarial Code—Bill Was Passed on Party Division by Forty-one to Fifteen—Measure Introduced Provides for Incorporation of Trade Unions.

(Special to The Record.)

QUEBEC, March 5.—Amendments suggested by Brig.-Gen. C. A. Smart, M.L.A. for Westmount, have been approved by Hon. Athanase David, Provincial Secretary, for incorporation in the vital statistics bill, now before the Quebec Legislature. The bill as drafted provides that births must be reported by the father or mother, or in their absence, the occupants of the house in which the birth took place.

The amendment will replace this and state that, "Every legally qualified practitioner, nurse or midwife who attends at the birth of a child shall give notice within the delay mentioned in the prescribed form (eight days) to the collector of Vital Statistics of the municipality or territory in which the child is born. If there is no physician, nurse or midwife in attendance, it shall be the duty of the father or mother, or in their absence, the occupants of the house in which the birth took place."

The next amendment by the General is to add the following clause: "In the case of all non-Roman Catholics, on receipt of birth ratification by collectors of vital statistics, forms shall be forwarded to parents to be filled out, and said forms shall be returned to collectors of vital statistics within thirty days after the date of birth. The permanent filing of said records shall be authentic."

The third amendment by General Smart provides that "if any child of a parent, or parents, resident of this Province, shall be born at sea, and entry of birth made in the vessels log book, any collector of vital statistics may on sufficient proof of the correctness of such entry, allow the same to be registered on prescribed forms for permanent filing, and small issue a certificate of birth in accordance with article 137A of this act." Article 137A mentioned is the second amendment mentioned regarding non-Roman Catholics.

OPPOSITION PUT UP STIFF FIGHT

(Special to The Record)

QUEBEC, March 5.—The Opposition members fought strenuously in the Quebec Legislative assembly last evening against a clause in the bill amending the notarial code which made legal deeds executed by notaries, even when such deeds did not comply with articles 4612, 4619 and 4614 of the revised statutes 1909. These clauses are the ones which provide that the notary must read the deed over to the interested parties, have the date and place of signature inserted and several other formalities. What the Opposition objected to was not legalizing irregularities of this kind, but that the provision should apply to pending suits.

Alfred Duranleau, Conservative member for Laurier-Montreal, said that the reason for this objectionable paragraph was the fact one of the Ministers of the Crown was a lawyer in a case of an important nature now pending before the courts, and hence wanted to dispose of the case by act of legislature.

This was a Quebec case, he said, and there was also a Montreal case. Later Mr. Duranleau, said the case he had in mind was that of K. L. Lachance, Ltd., now in bankruptcy.

A discussion arose on the bill, and after study he came to the conclusion that such would be the case, he would amend the bill.

The purpose of the measure, he explained, was to get statistics of births, deaths and marriages of non-Catholics. Catholic statistics were available at each parish at any time. Brig.-General C. A. Smart, of Westmount, expressed gratification with the bill on behalf of the Protestants, and thanked the minister for the amendment he had inserted in the bill itself when before the public bills committee by which amendment physicians will be obliged to report all births of non-Catholics to the collector of such statistics.

Hon. Mr. David said that Ottawa for some time had asked the Province of Quebec to gather statistics as is now proposed. The Province had hesitated for a long time, but agreed, and the Minister added for the benefit of Dr. Faucher that a council of bishops at Quebec had approved of the bill.

INCORPORATION OF TRADE UNIONS

QUEBEC, Mar. 5.—Provision for the incorporation of trade unions is provided for in a measure which E. Theriault, Liberal member for Lislet in the Quebec Legislative Assembly, has introduced. The bill comes as a result of the request of the Catholic and National unions for incorporation.

ZOTIQUE MAGEAU, Liberal member of the Ontario Legislature for Sturgeon Falls, has appealed to the "remnants" of the U.F.O. to return to the ranks of the two old parties.

La Banque Nationale, through the Sun Trust Company trustee, held a trust deed which it wished to benefit by, and the ordinary creditors, through the liquidator, were seeking to break the trust deed, because of such irregularities. Mr. Duranleau objected to the legislature intervening.

Premier Taschereau said the bill before the House was one drawn up by the chambers of notaries, and the Government was not concerned except inasmuch as the credit of the Province was concerned. Because of errors by notaries trust deeds drawn up to guarantee bond issues sold in this province, in other provinces and in foreign countries were impaired as to their value, and to refuse to pass the measure would be to strike a severe blow at the economic life of the province. If the provision was good for cases not before the courts, it was also good for cases pending before the courts. The bill simply provided that the cause of duty by a rendered non-effective when all other notary a trust deed should not be legalities were complied with.

The bill passed on a party division of 41 to 15.

VITAL STATISTICS RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

(Special to The Record)

QUEBEC, March 5.—Resolutions on Hon. Mr. David's bill regarding the collection of vital statistics were adopted in the Legislative Assembly. These provide for the payment of fifteen cents for each return made by the collector to be appointed in each municipality.

A discussion arose on the bill, and after study he came to the conclusion that such would be the case, he would amend the bill.

The purpose of the measure, he explained, was to get statistics of births, deaths and marriages of non-Catholics. Catholic statistics were available at each parish at any time. Brig.-General C. A. Smart, of Westmount, expressed gratification with the bill on behalf of the Protestants, and thanked the minister for the amendment he had inserted in the bill itself when before the public bills committee by which amendment physicians will be obliged to report all births of non-Catholics to the collector of such statistics.

Hon. Mr. David said that Ottawa for some time had asked the Province of Quebec to gather statistics as is now proposed. The Province had hesitated for a long time, but agreed, and the Minister added for the benefit of Dr. Faucher that a council of bishops at Quebec had approved of the bill.

INCORPORATION OF TRADE UNIONS

QUEBEC, Mar. 5.—Provision for the incorporation of trade unions is provided for in a measure which E. Theriault, Liberal member for Lislet in the Quebec Legislative Assembly, has introduced. The bill comes as a result of the request of the Catholic and National unions for incorporation.

Mothers Should Not NEGLECT BRONCHITIS In The Babies

Mrs. E. Langdon, Kingston, Ont., writes: "My baby boy had bronchitis when he was two weeks old, he recovered from the attack but took it again, several months later, and on account of the severity I was almost panic-stricken to know what to do for him. My mother advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, as she had used it for several years with splendid results."

I got a bottle, and after I had used it I could see a decided improvement in him; after several bottles he was completely relieved.

My boy is now two years old, and he has never had an attack of bronchitis since.

As a mother, raising a family, I am very grateful to know that I have found a real remedy for bad colds and bronchitis, as it lifts care and anxiety from an anxious mother's shoulders."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 35c a bottle; the large family size 60c; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Stubborn Coughs Stop Quick With Home Made Cough Mixture

Not until you make your own cough mixture—a half pint of it for a small sum—will you know how easy it is to stop any bad persistent cough as if by magic.

It's pleasant-tasting, but that don't stop it from knocking out a cough quicker than anything else in the world. Children love it.

Get from any druggist one ounce of Parment (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one half pint—that's all there is to it.

This loosens the phlegm, stops the irritation, allays the inflammation, clears out clogged nostrils, makes breathing easier, and causes sore throat and hoarseness to disappear.

With speed almost beyond belief this home made cough mixture stops the toughest hang-on cough, and all because there is in it a substance (too costly for ordinary cough syrups) that immediately covers the membrane like a soothing poultice and blessed relief comes at once.

And it is always worth while to bear in mind that any remedy that overcomes catarrh, partially or wholly, is bound to be of benefit to those who are troubled with head noises and catarrhal deafness.

Get Parment and get better.

Tonight's event will bring to a close a very successful season, and a large attendance is anticipated.

FOUND SKUNK IN BACK YARD.

Two burly policemen and two powerful revolvers were pressed into service to rid a neighborhood of the offensive and well known odor of the skunk. Mr. C. E. Soles, 109 Quebec Street, noticed recently that there was a very strong smell of skunk about his residence. Upon investigation he found that one of the little pussies had climbed into his garbage can at the rear of the house and was imprisoned, unable to get out. The skunk was soon put out of its agony by two policemen.

CANADIAN MANUFACTURERS MEET TODAY.

A special meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association will be held this noon at the New Sherbrooke House, when a number of important matters are up for consideration. Mr. R. W. Gould, secretary of the Quebec Division, will be accompanied by Mr. G. R. Stevens, Canadian Trade Commissioner for the West Indies, recently returned from that country. Mr. Stevens is leaving shortly to open an office for the Canadian Government service in Cape Town, South Africa. He will speak to the local members on the business outlook in those countries.

A GREAT ACHIEVEMENT.

The immense amount of physical work necessary to maintain and extend telephone service is only hinted at in the following quotation from the Annual Report of the Bell Telephone Company:

"During 1923 there were placed in new locations by addition or transfer, 120,084 telephones, and there were removed by cancellation or transfer 68,066, resulting in a net growth of 52,018 telephones."

The rate of increase in the use of telephones shown by these figures is many times greater than the growth of population in Ontario and Quebec, the territory served.

DONATIONS TO WALES HOME.

Donations received at the Wales Old Folks Home, Richmond, during the past month are acknowledged as follows: Miss Gouin, Richmond, woman's suit and undershirt; Mrs. P. C. Duboyce, Richmond, magazines; Miss Mary Reed, Lennoxville, magazines; Mr. Eustace Le Hais, Beaulieu, Hants, England, magazines; Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Allen, Sherbrooke, roses and carnations; the Ladies' Guild of St. John's Church, Brome, Que., two quilts; the women of St. Armand West, Que., one quilt; The Salvation Army, Sherbrooke, magazines; Mrs. I. E. Wilson, Upper Melbourn, eight lbs. marmalade; St. Anne's Church, Richmond, burial lots in cemetery; Congregational Church, Melbourn, burial lots in cemetery; a friend, Sherbrooke, seven books of fiction.

SCIENCE DEMANDS UNIFORMITY.

Careful research made in recent years in the study of dietetics has shown the great importance to the human system of purity and uniform quality in foods. It is a great blessing that today so many delicious foods as well as tea and coffee can be procured in air tight packages. "Salada" Tea was one of the first pure food products to become widely popular in Canada. The aluminum package keeps the tea fresh and delicious while the skillful blending maintains the quality absolutely uniform.

FUNERAL OF MASTER DONALD HEATH.

A number of sympathizing friends and relatives assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Heath, Brooks Street, Tuesday afternoon, March 4th, to attend the funeral of their second eldest child, Donald George, who died of pneumonia on Sunday, March 2nd, after an illness of about three weeks.

The funeral was in charge of the Rev. B. B. Brown, pastor of the Methodist Church, who in prayer and in comment comforted the sadly bereaved parents. He took for the scripture lesson Matt. 18:1-14, and 2 Sam. 12:23, pointing out that the child in the sight of the Lord was a citizen of Heaven and was under the particular care of God. Therefore if God, who is infinitely wise and kind and just, allowed a

TOWN COUNCIL MEETS.
The monthly meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening in the usual place. Bills were passed and necessary accounts ordered paid, and the appointment of valuers for the ensuing year took place. The business transacted was largely of a routine character.

C. N. R. Yards To Be Established.
It is rumored that the Clough property site and surroundings have been purchased by the C. N. Railway for the purpose of establishing a round-house, yards, etc. The former place was Richmond and again at one of one hundred miles apart, this brings it to Lennoxville, making two round-houses instead of three.

General Notes.
Mrs. St. Pierre, of Sherbrooke, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Baker, on Tuesday.

The attendance of every member of the Choral Art Society is urged at all the remaining rehearsals, as it is now probable that the concert may be held at or near Easter. The work being studied, "At The Foot Of The Cross," is particularly suitable for that season, and good progress is now being made at the rehearsals.

Little child to be removed from a happy home on earth to the Heavenly Home, it was our duty and privilege to submit to God's loving rule. He quoted David's words: "Now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me."

Mrs. Geo. Parsons, Mrs. A. L. Parker and Mr. Fenwick Parker, representing the Methodist Sunday School, sang two of little Donald's favorite hymns, "Jesus Loves Me," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Miss Flavia Soles, his teacher in the Central School, was present with a group of little boys from his public school grade and his Sunday School class, four of whom acted as bearers. They were Master Walter Baker, Albert Mottram, Freddie Palmer and Gordon Dunn.

Donald was only six years and four months old. He had a wonderful way of winning the love and esteem of his teachers and school mates. Just before he passed away he asked his father and mother not to weep saying that he was going to be with Jesus of whom he had been told in the beginners' class of the Sunday School.

STUNNED WHEN THROWN FROM SLEIGH.

Mr. J. E. Metivier, 85 Brooks Street, was knocked unconscious when he was thrown from a sleigh in which he was driving yesterday. Mr. Metivier was returning from Lennoxville and was accompanied by his little nieces, Lucille and Antoinette Metivier, and when near the Chateau Frontenac Hotel, the horse took fright at the sewer thawing apparatus which was at work on the street, and ran away. The runner of the sleigh caught in the street car track and overturned the vehicle, throwing all three occupants out into the street. The two little girls were unhurt, but Mr. Metivier was unconscious when picked up. He fell on his head and received cuts about the face and head. He was taken to his home and his injuries were found to be slight. This morning he appeared to be little the worse for his adventure.

ASH WEDNESDAY TODAY.

"Dust thou art and to dust thou shalt return." This significant fact is impressed upon all Christians today, Ash Wednesday, when special services are held in the different churches. At the Cathedral, Monsignor Paul Larocque, Bishop of Sherbrooke, officiated, with Monsignor A. O. Gagnon, auxiliary bishop of the diocese in attendance.

Ash Wednesday is a bank and legal holiday, with the result that all local banks, the court house and other provincial departments are closed. With the opening of the Lenten period, members of all religious denominations undertake to deny themselves of some luxury; and social events are considerably curtailed during this period of self abnegation.

Salt on Potatoes

A little girl was asked one day what salt was. "Oh," she replied, "it's what makes your potatoes taste bad when you don't put none on 'em." And, all things considered, don't you think that was a pretty good answer?

So it is with frequent bathing—a bath a day, if you please. In the words of the little girl, a bath—a morning dip or shower—is what makes you feel bad all day when you don't take it.

There isn't anything like a morning bath for putting the world in step with you, for turning the silver lining of the cloud inside outside, for guiding your feet up the ladder.

The world is waking up and washing up, people are cleaner today than they were yesterday.

Of course, the person who doesn't take a morning bath—who doesn't know the thrill of a shower—can't know how bad he feels day by day, because he has never known how good he can feel.

Now, we are not saying this because we want to sell more showers or install more bathrooms (we are). We're saying it because it's a fact.

COMBINED SNOWSHOE TRAMP.

The 2nd Sherbrooke Troop was the guests of the 1st Lennoxville troop on Friday evening, February 22, when the two troops enjoyed a splendid snowshoe tramp and social evening together. A four-mile route was laid out by the Lennoxville troop for the tramp, and although quite a few boys did not show up, the stay and played games at Lennoxville Scout headquarters, under the supervision of A. S. M. Parker and P. L. Blake, a large number participated in the hike and a fine "scouty" time was enjoyed. After the tramp and scout games an excellent "feed" was served by the Lennoxville officers, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Love, and as the Sherbrooke Scouts tramped their homeward way they were unanimous in saying that this was one of the most happy evenings they had ever experienced.

Lennoxville and Waterville in Hockey Game.

The return game between Lennoxville and Waterville scout teams was played at the Minto rink last Friday evening, and a tie score was the result after a rather exciting game. In the first period Waterville started out strong and succeeded in getting four goals before the Lennoxville boys settled down. The second period saw some fine playing on the part of both teams, with Lennoxville taking the offensive and securing two tallies. In the final period the Waterville scouts were not only held scoreless, but Lennoxville scored two more goals and rather outplayed the visitors, who had slowed up considerably. The final score was 4 to 4. Stafford tallying twice and Bassett and Cann each scoring once for Lennoxville during the game.

Lennoxville Cubs Celebrate.

The anniversary of the 1st Lennoxville Wolf Cub Pack was celebrated last Friday afternoon, when the Cubs paraded at two o'clock at headquarters. In the unavoidable absence of the lady cubmaster, the assistant lady cubmaster, Mrs. Love, was in charge of the parade, and instructive Cub games, followed by apples and candy, was greatly enjoyed, and a happy celebration brought to a conclusion at 4:30 o'clock.

Scouts Attend Lecture by Col. Keefler.

About twenty-five scouts of the 2nd Sherbrooke Troop attended the lecture given in the assembly hall to the High School by Col. Keefler on "Battlefields of the Canadian Army in France and Flanders." It is felt that the scouts were educationally benefited by attending this lecture, which was both interesting and instructive.

Some Opinions of Scouting.

Our Governor-General, Lord Julian Byng, while commanding the "Byng Boys," the Canadian corps in France: "All scout ideals have been exemplified out here, and the mental and moral training, have brought scouts to the front."

His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire, retiring Governor-General of Canada, in his farewell address to Canadian scouts: "I know very well that having taken your places in the great Boy Scout movement, you will grow up worthy citizens."

H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught: "I know of no organization or institution, not even a school or Sunday school, that does so much to promote the development of the boy along safe, sane, sound British lines."

The late Lord Kitchener: "You are building a foundation which is essential for making good men."

Admiral Lord Beresford: "Scouting has done more for youth, manhood and good comradeship than all the governments of the world together."

Sir Hugh John Macdonald: "Every thing that the Boy Scout pledges himself to do is that which his mother would like to see him do. I would have no hesitation in advising any mother to let her boy join the Boy Scouts."

The Rev. Father Patton, C.M.L.: "I am here to represent His Grace Archbishop Sinnott, and to bear to you the message of his hearty support and sympathy to the Boy Scout movement. There is nothing we can devise that will do what is required so effectively as the Boy Scout organization."

The late Theodore Roosevelt: "The Boy Scout movement is distinctly an asset to our country for the development of efficiency, virility and good citizenship."

Young People's Corner

UNCLE JIM'S LETTER

Dear Corner Family:—Well, how is work and play going in the busy month of March? We have had such beautiful weather that it seems like April, except the deep snow. In the city it is getting very untidy looking, but we cannot help that; it is part of the breaking up of winter.

The smoke from the huge chimneys, and trains coming and going makes the snow very dirty, and the streets are running with water while it is still good sleighing in the country.

The corner uncle had a letter from a friend who has been spending the winter in Florida, and the writer says that it is very beautiful there. The weather is like September with some days like July and August. The birds are very interesting; there are pelicans and there are palms, oaks and immense rubber trees; also grape fruit trees laden with the fruit which is now ripening. Many Canadians go there to spend the colder months, then the southern people come to Canada when it becomes very warm in their country.

Today we have the first part of a little story which I hope you may like. You know, India is considered a country of magic, and very odd stories are told about the country and its people. A "Crier" is one who calls out orders, or prices at auctions, and in England in the old days, here was the Town-Crier, who went about calling out notices, etc. The story will finish tomorrow, and I will try to get the plans for our next contest by Saturday, so we can think about it over the week-end. I hope every one is having a pleasant week. Best wishes from

UNCLE JIM.

THE STORY OF THE MAGIC CARPET.

A Sultan of India had three handsome sons, and they all fell in love with their pretty cousin, Princess Nourounihar. One day their father called them together and said: "You know how fond I am of curious objects. Well, I will grant the hand of the Princess to him who brings me the most wonderful thing in the world."

After arranging to meet at an inn in a certain place at the end of a year, the three brothers set out on their travels. Prince Houssain went to Bismagar where he saw a Crier offering a carpet for forty purses of gold.

"That's a lot of money for a carpet," he said.

"No, it isn't," said the Crier. "Just sit on it, and wish yourself in some other place."

Prince Houssain sat on the carpet and wished himself in his home and lo! he found himself in his bedroom. So he returned to the Crier and gave him forty purses of gold for the carpet.

"I am sure I shall win Nourounihar with the carpet," he said, and then he wished himself in the inn where he had arranged to meet his brothers, and there waited for them.

Prince Ali, the second brother, went to Shiraz, where he saw a Crier offering a plain ivory tube for forty purses of gold.

"That's a lot of money for a tube," the Prince said.

"No, it isn't," said the Crier. "Just look through it, and wish to see somebody."

Prince Ali looked through it, and wished to see the Princess, and lo! he saw her sitting with her maids-of-honor in his father's palace. So he gave the Crier forty purses of gold, saying: "I'm sure I shall win

A FAR-REACHING BENEFIT PLAN.

The Pension and Benefit Fund established by the Bell Telephone Company to provide for its employees in cases of accident, sickness, upon retirement after long service, and for dependents deprived of their breadwinner, is being called upon to sustain constantly increasing demands. As the Annual Report of the Company points out, there are now 52 persons on the pension roll, and the cumulative liability upon it has moved the Executive to increase the Fund to $722,752.00.

NATIONAL BABY HAS NOW TO BE CARED FOR

Mr. R. W. Long, of the Canadian National Freight Department, Spoke to Rotarians.

"The baby is born and we have to care for it." This reference to the Canadian National Railways conceived by Sir Henry Thornton, President of the system, was given by R. W. Long, Esq., in addressing the members of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club last evening at the regular session held at the New Sherbrooke House.

Mr. Long, general freight agent, central region, freight traffic department of the Canadian National, abstained from any direct reference to the possibilities or probabilities for the future, and confined himself to a few well chosen remarks touching upon the problems which combined to establish the freight classifications, the maximum rates being established by order-in-council, and pointed out that same were based on a general survey of conditions throughout the country and not on any particular district. The nature of the goods, the weight and other incidentals played an important part in establishing the basis of the rates.

Mr. Long did observe, however, that, given every consideration and fair treatment, he was personally inclined to believe that the Canadian National Railways would gradually develop into a self-supporting and even a profit making system. This ultimate result depended largely upon the attitude of the public in general, improvements to the railways themselves and a bigger and better Canada. The speaker, a member of the Montreal Rotary Club, was brief in his remarks and, at the conclusion of same was heartily thanked for his kindness in addressing the club. Rotarian Karl Barrett and Rotarian Willard Cross made a few brief comments with regard to the value of a business talk along the lines given by Mr. Long and expressed the hope that, with greater efficiency and profitable operations, freight rates might come in for a proportion of the reductions. President Phosie McManamy made reference to the fact that Mr. R. W. Long was father of the president of the Montreal Kinsmen's Club.

V. O. N. NEEDS MORE FUNDS.

The monthly meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses was held yesterday afternoon in the Red Cross rooms and was presided over by Mrs. A. W. Blue. The minutes of the last meeting, the treasurer's report and the nurse's report were read. The finances of the order were the chief topic of discussion. It was pointed out that funds were very low and that there was barely enough money on hand to pay the salary of the nurse for the present month. Ways and means of raising money were talked over, and it was announced that an appeal to the churches had been made. Sunday, March 9, has been set aside in most of the churches as Victorian Order Sunday as a result. A few of the churches which were unable to set aside next Sunday will observe the following one, March 16, as Victorian Order Sunday.

The question of buying a Ford car for the nurse to make her rounds in was discussed, but it was felt that the finances were so low that the order could not maintain a car, even if one were donated. It was pointed out that perhaps some ladies who drive their own cars, and who go out for pleasure, would, if they realized the need, take the large, Rev. P. Beauchamp and Rev. W. Tucker, spoke of their visitation among scattered families of the church in the Presbytery, especially the scattered families on the North Shore of the St. Lawrence river. New fields are opening up on the North Shore of the St. Lawrence river to the extensive developments of the pulp industry in that part of the Province.

The reports on statistics was presented by the clerk of Presbytery and showed the congregations to be in a healthy condition and making advances in many directions. Three congregations exceeded the missionary allocations put on them by the Presbytery, namely, Grand Mere, Hampden and St. Andrew's at Sherbrooke.

Rev. E. S. Loggie of Windsor Mills presented the report on religious education and the report showed increases in some directions but much room for improvement and advance in every way.

The Presbytery nominated Rev. Clarence MacKinnon, D.D., of Halifax, to be the next moderator of the General Assembly.

The Presbytery with much regret accepted the resignation of Rev. James Cormack, M.A., of Lake Megantic, owing to failing health. He has served the church ably and faithfully for forty-seven years. Appreciation of his services, ability and character were voiced by members of the Presbytery.

MELBOURNE FLECK, MONTREAL.

The death of Melbourne M. Fleck occurred on February 24 at Montreal Verdun Hospital, where he had been for the past twenty-two months. Deceased was twenty-one years of age, and the youngest son of John Fleck and the late Mrs. Laura I. Fleck, formerly of Melbourne, Que. He had been a great sufferer, having been stricken with epilepsy when he was seven years old. The disease gradually grew worse, and nothing could be done to relieve his sufferings. He was of a kind and true disposition, and bore all his pain and suffering with great patience.

His body was brought to the home of his sister, Mrs. Robert Newell, at Lisgar. From there the funeral was held on Wednesday, February 27, at St. John's Church, Gallup Hill. Prayers were said at the house by the Rev. J. B. S. Dickson, of Kirkdale. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Peart, pastor at St. John's Church, assisted by the Rev. J. B. S. Dickson. The three hymns sung by the deceased were "Nearer My God to Thee," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Interment was made beside his mother, who predeceased him just two years ago. There were beautiful floral tributes from friends and relatives. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved father, sisters and brothers in their sad bereavement, as he will be sadly missed by the family.

A GOOD MOVE.

The formal action of the Council, Monday evening, in engaging ex-Alderman J. K. Edwards as industrial commissioner for the city, at a fair remuneration for such time as he puts into the work, is to be commended. It places the industrial promotion work of the city on a business basis.

There is no indication of a great rush of foreign manufacturers to this country in the near future. Inquiries and investigations, however, are being made and it will be a satisfaction to all citizens to know that Sherbrooke is on the job in this connection.

SOMETHING HELD BACK.

The discussion of the financial situation at the City Hall, the losses through uncollectable taxes and the references to a recent unsatisfactory auditor's report suggested much more than was revealed. One alderman even intimated that the auditor's report of last fall was not given to the public through fear.

In any event, the ratepayers are always entitled to information. The staff at the City Hall seems adequately large and presumably it has been well paid as a proposal for reduction in salaries has been approved.

Where is the weakness as regards the civic finances? What has the auditor reported that has not been given to the public? These are questions which ratepayers naturally ask and to which they are entitled to an answer.

BUILDING PROSPECTS.

The prospects for new construction work in the city and throughout the country seem to be fairly good. There will be about the usual amount of building, in the opinion of those in touch with the situation.

In Sherbrooke there is no definite prospect of big construction, though ordinary building of dwellings and some other structures is likely.

Referring to the country as a whole, MacLean's reports says: "During 1924 it is expected that two types of home construction will predominate—the more expensive houses from architects' offices and the small houses for workingmen. The total expenditure in Canada during 1924 for residences is estimated at $90,000,000, distributed as follows: Ontario, $50,000,000; Quebec, $30,000,000; Middle West, $6,000,000; British Columbia, $3,000,000; and the Maritime Provinces, $1,000,000."

These reports reviewing building in Canada for a number of years says:

"During the twenty years preceding 1921 the average additional number of dwellings required each year to satisfy the normal requirements of the country's growth and replacement of fire losses was 37,506.

"During the four years preceding the declaration of war residential construction was very active and homes were erected in excess of the demand. However, from 1914 to 1919 very little home building was undertaken. A tremendous volume of deferred building piled up. Beginning in 1920 an aggressive attack was made to relieve the housing shortage, and since then $333,393,100 has been invested in new homes. Last year the total number of residences erected in Canada as recorded by MacLean Building Reports, Limited, was 18,393, compared with 21,054 in 1922.

"In view of these facts it is apparent that a tremendous housing shortage still exists. The demand for homes has been temporarily stifled through lack of immigration and industrial activity. Until the wheels of commerce again turn rapidly and people come to our shores in increasing numbers the demand for homes will continue latent although the need persists.

"A thorough study of the housing situation in all its ramifications makes it clear that residential construction has not been undertaken in boom-time proportions during the past four years. There is still a vast potential need for new homes—one that will take many years of active building to satisfy. The construction of homes will likely proceed at last year's level until the commercial and industrial development of the Dominion gets vigorously underway—when very active home building may be expected."

PRESS COMMENT

A REMARKABLE WINTER.
(Hamilton Spectator.)

What with mountains of snow and severe frost, ground hogs cowering near Milton, butterflies caught at Burlington and Woodstock, and peach buds found in the Grimsby district, this has indeed been a most remarkable winter.

WHAT RUHR IS YIELDING FRANCE.
(Christian Science Monitor.)

Already it is complained that although France had been told that Germany would pay, it is the French who are called upon to pay new taxes. No Finance Minister has dared to put down a profit in the budget. On the contrary the extraordinary budget of recoverable expenditure—that is to say, expenditure which it was believed would be met by Germany—has been frankly abandoned. The experiment has been tried for well over a year, and if nothing better than these results can be shown it is surely time to reconsider the whole operation. Whatever may be said in defense of France, which was faced with a recalcitrant Germany, it is better to admit the force of figures, and to acknowledge that the occupation of the Ruhr has been tried and found wanting. It is only when this acknowledgment is made that we can hope for other methods which may be more effective, to be adopted.

WINTER SUNSHINE.
(Lindsay Watchman-Warder.)

Even the keenest breezes from out of the north cannot now prevent the sun from disintegrating the winter's snow on the southern roof slope and the lawn that faces the sunbeams at midday. The battle of winter and spring has begun, and while, at intervals, it may seem that winter still holds firmly the ground he has won, the result is never in doubt. The sun climbs higher each day, radiates his warmth with increasing strength, and men and women pause to tell their neighbors that the evenings are "getting lighter." The winter sun has its peculiar beauties. The shadows he makes are longer and sharper. The more fantastic designs than ever summer shadows do. There is a grace and beauty about the shadows on snow-covered field and roof that is never present when the fiercer rays of summer beat down from above. The lace-like traceries of winter shadows are themselves one of the charms of winter suns, and their delicacy of design is never recaptured later in the year.

DR. BOX'S DISCOVERY.
(Toronto Globe.)

The Ontario Minister of Health has put the stamp of official eulogy and endorsement on the discovery of a young Toronto dentist, Dr. Harold K. Box, who has made a special study of the disease known as pyorrhea. Pyorrhea is a very widespread malady, and the majority of those afflicted with it, unless they are regular visitors to good dentists, are unaware of its existence until the gums shrink and teeth begin to loosen. The principal exciting cause has been known to members of the dental profession who have been attacking the problem, but Dr. Box's great service is that he has found the nature of the disease and familiarized himself with its pathology, so that it can be recognized and diagnosed earlier and treated successfully in time. Teeth hitherto consigned to the forceps will be saved.

It is in accordance with the highest traditions of the healing science that Dr. Box's discovery, which is a method of treatment, will be made known freely to the dental world. He might, if he chose, turn it exclusively to his own profit, but, like Dr. Banting, he takes the view that the result of his labors belongs to humanity.

FOR A LARGER PROVINCE.
(Toronto Globe.)

The suggestion has been made that the three Prairie Provinces should be united. The Calgary Albertan objects. It refers to the size of the provinces—they cover together 727,659 miles—and says that in half a century each is likely to be as populous as Ontario.

With the exception of the Maritimes, the provinces of Canada are already very large. There are nine of them, compared with the 49 States of the Union, although Canada has a much greater area than the United States. Six of them, including the Prairie Provinces, are quite large enough. In Ontario and Quebec the distance of the seat of government from the outlying districts is a source of serious inconvenience. It would hardly do to compel the people of Alberta and Manitoba to travel, say, to Regina to transact business with the government, and the Government would find difficulty in keeping track of a population extending all the way from the Lake of the Woods to the Rocky Mountains.

It is true that the same difficulty exists in regard to the huge field covered by the Dominion Government, but that is one of the reasons why Provincial Legislatures and Governments are established—to obviate the necessity of dealing with Ottawa in regard to local affairs, and to give each section a Capital within comparatively easy distance of the in-

'GRAND OLD MAN' OF RICHMOND PASSED AWAY

Mr. James Murphy, Veteran Railroad Man, Died on Monday—Well Known Throughout Canada.

RICHMOND, Que., March 5. — Richmond's grand old man, and at the time of his passing the oldest railroad man in Canada, laid down the burden of his long and honorable career on Monday, March 3, 1924, in the person of the late Mr. James Murphy, ex-collector of customs, and formerly Grand Trunk Railway agent here.

From Portland to the far West the name of James Murphy was a familiar one to the older generation of railway officials and employees, and as a public official he was known far and wide throughout Canada.

The Murphy family came to Canada from Ballanquille, county Wicklow, Ireland, in the memorable days of 1847-8. They sailed on the "Albatross," which was forty-seven days at sea, during which seventeen succumbed to the dread ship fever.

Coming to this country as a boy, he entered the service of the Grand Trunk Railway at Longueuil in 1854 under Superintendent Grant. After serving alternately as operator, train despatcher and freight agent, he was appointed agent at Richmond on May 1, 1858, on the completion of the Quebec branch.

Mr. Murphy's railway career began when this industry was in its infancy, before the erection of the Victoria bridge and when the Grand Trunk was the only rail route in Canada. During his long period of service he witnessed every phase of that railway evolution from the pioneer stage to its present status as a great national transportation system. He served successfully under Managers S. P. Bidder, W. Shanley, C. J. Brydges, Sir Joseph Hickson, and his keen memory could recall all the older officials and presidents.

In April, 1890, Mr. Murphy retired from the railway service on his appointment as collector of customs at Richmond, a post he continued to fill until going on pension in 1919, when he also ceased his connection with the Canadian Express Co., of which he had been local agent since its formation.

As a public official his urbanity of manner, genial smile and kindly word endeared him alike to his superior officers and to his fellow-men. He was beloved by all. As a citizen of Richmond he knew no enemy. His many duties prevented him from assuming civic honors which were repeatedly offered him. Nevertheless he did much to promote the growth and welfare of the community in which he spent seventy years of his life.

He was a school commissioner of the Catholic School Board and president of that body from 1868 to 1905, during which period he did much for the advancement of education, being prominently identified with the foundation of the present Academy of the Sacred Heart and St. Patrick's Convent. He was a church warden of St. Bibiana Church since 1876, and a lifelong member of St. Patrick's Society, of which he was a founder jointly with his fellow Irishman, the late Rev. Patrick Quinn.

Of unbounded charity, he was a great friend to the poor. Many a poor boy who attained prominence in later life owed much of his success to the kindly encouragement and support of this good man.

From his native Wicklow Hills, where he was born July 24, 1836, he brought along with a sacred love for Ireland a keen Irish wit and bright intellect. He was a rare "raconteur" and his keen reminiscences of early railroad days and of the pioneer in Richmond were remarkably vivid and intensely human.

Tributes to his sterling worth and his services as a public official were made him on more than one occasion, notably on August 1, 1868, when he was presented with a gold watch and chain by the merchants and citizens of Richmond and Melbourne. Tokens of esteem in the form of rings and canes were numerous, notably those from the New Rockland State Co., December 12, 1873; from the express agents, June, 1875; and from fellow employees, March 14, 1895.

All Richmond mourns his loss, and beyond the precincts of his own town a multitude of friends mourn the loss of he who in life was a splendid public servant, a good friend, a true citizen and a loving parent.

Deceased was a son of the late John Murphy and Anna O'Neill, his wife, who settled in Cleveland township in the early fifties.

Four brothers, Messrs. Thomas, William, John and Patrick, and three sisters, the Misses Sarah and Maria Murphy and Mrs. (Anna) Coughlin, predeceased him.

On November 25, 1859, he married Miss Ellen Morrissey, a native of Kerry, Ireland. Of their family of six children, Messrs. John and James and the Misses Mary Ellen and Kate Murphy have passed away. He leaves to mourn his loss two daughters, Mrs. H. M. Gain and F. Bouvette, Richmond, and three grandsons, Messrs. Sarto, Patrick and Lawrence Gain.

The funeral service will be held at 9.15 Thursday morning.

ROBERT FORKE THINKS HIGH TARIFF WILL RUIN THIS COUNTRY

He believed that the statement was true from many points of view, but unfortunately it was not true of all sections of the people. Agriculture was not prosperous. He was well aware that world conditions had much to do with creating the difficulties under which agriculture was laboring, but he believed that many of these difficulties could be removed by proper legislation.

Mr. Forke quoted with satisfaction utterances from two Montreal newspapers, which recognized that it was necessary in the interests of Canada that steps should be taken to make the west prosperous. Agriculture was prosperous so far as concerned production, but unfortunately it was necessary for the farmer to judge prosperity by his net returns at the end of the year. The men on the farms were not making enough to give them a comfortable life.

The Progressive leader cited figures quoted by Premier Bracken of Manitoba, that while wheat was only a little higher now than in 1914, three farm implements which in 1914 could be got for $253, would cost at the present $413. For a great many years to come wheat growing would be the great industry of the prairies. Wheat was going to pay the national debt of this country. Nevertheless, the farmers realized the precariousness of an industry based on only one crop and steps were being taken to introduce diversified farming.

"It used to be called mixed farming," said Mr. Forke in an aside, "but now it has got along and is known as 'diversified farming.'"

AWAIT WITH INTEREST PROSALS FOR ECONOMY.

"The House," said Mr. Forke, "awaited with interest the Government's proposals for economy and reduction of taxation. Nobody will disagree with that part of the speech from the throne which stressed the necessity for this."

There had been similar promises before which the speaker thought had not been fully carried out. Provided the necessary work of the country was carried on, and due precaution taken to prevent interference with such necessary development, the whole House, he thought, would applaud any effort the Government might make. To permit members properly to study them, the estimates should be brought down early, and the supplementary estimates should not be left to the

DEBATE ON ADDRESS FROM THRONE OPENED IN SENATE; SAYS GOVERNMENT REDUCED EXPENDITURE $30,000,000

(Special to The Record.) OTTAWA, Ont., March 5.—Debate on the address opened in the Senate yesterday and will be continued today, Ash Wednesday, a day over which the Lower House has decided to adjourn.

Senator Pardee and Senator Cole, mover and seconder of the address, had congratulatory words for the Government.

The speech from the throne, said Senator Pardee, reflected much optimism. Relief from excessive taxation was necessary to the prosperity of the country, especially in view of reduced taxation in the United States.

He hoped the Senate would take a "broader view" of the Canadian National branch lines bill, which was again to be submitted.

Sensor Cole urged the importance of a revision of the tax sale in order to remove certain inequities.

Sir James Loughheed, Conservative leader, could not endorse Senator Pardee's approval of the branch lines bill.

He proceeded that the Government appeared to be ignorant of the condition in the country and had made no effort during the past two years to reduce either expenditure or taxation. The late Government had started civil service reform in the printing bureau, customs department and post office. The present Government had not continued this work, and had been doing what they were now doing by public opinion. The Government had pyramided both taxation and expenditures.

Sir James instanced what had been done in other countries in regard to debt reduction and curtailing of expenditure. In Canada taxation was retarding progress, strangling industry and destroying trade, and all was the result of the Government extravagance.

The worst feature of the Dominion Government was that it was setting the pace in extravagance for the provinces and municipalities.

If this was not stopped it would result in national disaster.

Sir James claimed the Government machinery was antiquated, and was unable to deal with the problems which confronted the country. The West was seething with discontent. The Government should do as was done in the United States and Great Britain and call in prominent and experienced men to assist in remodelling the machinery of government. It could not be done from within.

The new audit board would be equally helpless. He suggested that the Government borrow experts from the railways and financial institutions to assist them.

Reduced Expenditures. Senator Dandurand, Government leader, replied that the Government had reduced expenditure thirty million dollars in the first fiscal year they were in office.

They had been left with an uncontrollable expenditure of $308,000,000, and yet had reduced the controllable expenditure to less than pre-war days, and after two years would have a balanced budget.

With a balanced budget the Government would reduce taxation.

Already the Government had reduced the civil service by 3,959, and he believed more reductions would be made.

In compiling the estimates for the year every consideration had been

The sessions opened at ten o'clock yesterday morning in the lodge rooms in the Odell block, and lasted until after two o'clock this morning.

During the morning and afternoon sessions reports of various nature were received and discussed. Upon the conclusion of the afternoon sessions, the delegates adjourned to the Masonic Temple, where a banquet was served, and where addresses were made by several officers of the Grand Lodge, principal among them being the address of the Hon. Dr. J. H. Edwards, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of British America.

Following the banquet, the delegates returned to the lodge rooms for the election of officers and the discussion of new business.

In the absence of Grand Master Radmore, the Rev. J. W. Shier, Deputy Grand Master, presided at the business sessions.

Following the morning and afternoon sessions of the Grand Lodge, a banquet was held at the Masonic Temple at which some sixty delegates and visitors were present. T. C. Thompson, Provincial Grand Lecturer, and Master of Sherbrooke County Orange Lodge, presided. He welcomed the visitors to Sherbrooke, and called upon the principal speaker of the evening, Dr. J. H. Edwards, Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of British America, to respond to the toast to the Grand Lodge of British America.

Dr. Edwards in his address denied that he had ever, during his political career or at any other time, uttered one word against the religion of any man. "I came from the most dominantly English speaking province of the Dominion to the other great province which is dominantly French speaking, and I want to convey from the English speaking majority of Ontario greetings to those who constitute the majority in Quebec, as well as to those who constitute the majority in Quebec, as well as to those of Anglo-Saxon origin."

Persistent Misrepresentation. "The Grand Lodge of British America was inaugurated at Brockville on January 1st, 1830. Therefore, there are only about six years to go before the centenary of this Grand Lodge. There were thousands of Orangemen in Canada before the inauguration of the Grand Lodge, however. There never has been or never will be an organization in this country which has been subjected to such persistent and malicious misrepresentation by its enemies of the Orange order. Nor has there been so thoroughly misunderstood and unappreciated by those Protestants who ought to be its champions and friends."

"For reasons best known to those who advance them, the order has been called narrow, bigoted, fanatical and uncharitable. Members of the order are grossly misrepresented, as I know from personal experience and I want to say for myself, as well as for every Orangeman in British America, that I have never uttered one word against the religion of any man. I have never felt the inclination to do so. I have no desire to place obstacles in the path of any man who chooses to reach Heaven. But where we do differ in drawing the line is outlined in the motto: 'Equal rights for all and special privileges for none.' For one hundred years we have persisted in opposing the granting of special privileges to any class, race or creed in the Dominion. We ourselves have never obtained one single favor from any government in Canada. We are consistent at all events."

"We have raised over one million dollars in six of the nine provinces for charitable work, carried on in Orange homes and orphanages. We have cared for thousands of little children deprived of their parents. Surely that is a work which would commend our order to any person."

Loyalty Demonstrated. "We have been accused of bigotry. People are disposed to sneer at our use of the word 'loyal.' This is best answered by the thousands of graves in France and Flanders filled by members of our order. We demonstrated our loyalty. When war broke out scores of our Orange lodges were recruiting centres for enlisting men. And in 1914, when the tide of battle was against us and thousands of people from the battle zones took refuge in England, our lodges became centres to collect money and clothing to send to Europe to aid the Roman Catholic refugees driven from France and Belgium. We did not ask what their religion or race was. We simply did our duty."

"What we have done will indicate to you the calls which may be made upon the order in years to come. Therefore we make this appeal to the Protestants of British America. For the first time in a hundred years we are making a grand appeal for assistance in raising in the next three years an endowment fund of one million dollars so that we will have an insured income of $50,000 to carry on the work of the order. We can ask for support without apology."

Ontario is the Keystone. "With regard to our British citizenship in Canada, 66 per cent of Canada's total population is to be found in the four provinces east of the river Ottawa and in the four provinces west of Ontario. Only forty-four out of every hundred people in these eight provinces are of British origin. 38 per cent of Canada's total population lies in the four provinces east of the Ottawa. How is that population divided? 61 per cent are of French origin; 35 per cent are of British origin; and the other 4 per cent are of various foreign nationalities. In the four western provinces, 28 per cent of the total population is found. Of this 60 per cent is British; 35 per cent is of various foreign nationalities, and 5 per cent is French. In the eight provinces, only 42 per cent is of British origin, 37 per cent is of French origin and the balance are foreign.

Between the four provinces to the west and the four to the east lies the Province of Ontario, occupying much the same position as the keystone in the arch over the door. Ontario is the keystone in the arch of confederation. 77 per cent of the people of Ontario are British. Fifty years ago 82 per cent were British and 4 per cent were French. Now 8 per cent of the population is of French origin.

"I am merely establishing these points to show the situation. You know what will happen to the arch of masonry if you destroy the keystone—away goes the arch. No matter how they say that we in Ontario are narrow and bigoted towards the French in Ontario, I tell you it isn't true. I think that there would be a different story to tell if in educational matters they would not persist in linking their language with their religion, and make it impossible for an English speaking Protestant to live in some parts. That is what happened in Prescott County. It is not British fair play. I wish my words could penetrate to every French-Canadian home in the Province of Quebec and be understood. We have not the slightest feeling of hostility towards the French, but we cannot sit back and allow, by insidious propaganda and underhand methods, we can't permit that keystone to be broken to pieces because if we do, we shall fall short of our duty to our province and to Canada."

Following Dr. Edwards' address brief speeches were made by the Rev. J. W. Shier, Past County Master, and Provincial Deputy Grand Master, who proposed the toast to the Quebec Grand Lodge. This was responded to by Rural Dean Sanders, Past Provincial Grand Master. The toast to the Eastern Townships was proposed by William Galbraith, of Montreal. Past Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of British America, and Past Provincial Grand Master, of Montreal, J. W. Macfarlane, of Montreal, Provincial Grand Organizer. The toast to the ladies was proposed by A. Larkin, of Montreal, Past County Auditor, and was responded to by A. Larkin, of Montreal, Past County Master, and W. H. Higgins, Past Provincial Grand Master.

Following the banquet, the delegates returned to the lodge rooms, where business meetings were resumed at the evening session. The Provincial officers elected last night were as follows:—Grand Master, T. C. Thompson, Sherbrooke; Deputy Grand Master, A. W. M. Accidents at Big League Training Camps Beginning to Take Their Toll and Add to Worries of Managers.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, March 5.—Accidents at the big league training camps are beginning to take their toll and add to the worries of the managers. Wayland Dean, costly young pitcher of the Giants, strained his leg while backing up a play in a practice game at Sarasota yesterday and he had to be assisted to the club house. He may be laid up for several days. Dean, who was obtained from the Louisville Club of the American Association, has been proving a useful recruit.

John McGraw donned a uniform yesterday for the first time and did everything he has asked his men to do. Five pitchers were permitted to cut loose with everything they had. The first sliding practice was begun. The first game of the season for the Giants will be played on Saturday against a Florida nine.

The Yankees had an unexpected holiday yesterday at their New Orleans headquarters when they were given time off to watch the Mardi Gras. The Yankee salary rebellion has all but subsided. Witt and Pipp signed contracts yesterday. Ward and Shawkey will settle terms with Manager Huggins at the training camp. Sam Jones has virtually accepted terms and Bob Meusel is not considered a hold-out.

The Brooklyn Nationals continued their practice yesterday at Clearwater, Fla. The Yankees won the afternoon game by 8 to 3, after some heavy slugging. A batted ball struck Joe Klugman, second baseman, over the eye and cut a deep gash which will keep him out of the game for several days.

Work for the Detroit American League team was cut from four hours to two hours yesterday, following a hard work-out on Monday, according to word received here from the training camp at Augusta, Ga. Kerr is working at third base at present, it is reported, although he is regularly a shortstop. Three candidates for the shortstop position, Haney, Burke and Gehring are working out at that position.

The regular Pittsburgh Pirates infield was given its first work-out yesterday at the Paso Robles, California, training camp. It was a snappy session, with Manager McKechnie hitting the ball to Grimm, Maranville, Wright and Traynor, while the recruits gathered along the base lines to watch the performance. Manager McKechnie discarded the slow and easy order, and for fifteen minutes the infield foursome performed in mid-season form.

Jackie May, newly acquired left hander of the Reds, started work under a slight handicap, despatches from the Orlando training camp stated. Before leaving his home in North Carolina a few days ago, May tore his pitching hand on some briars when hunting and the member was too sore to permit him to grip the ball. He expects the wound to be thoroughly healed within a few days.

FARNHAM EARN
RIGHT TO PLAY
IN THE FINALS

Defeated Cowansville Last Evening by Close Margin—Little to Choose Between Two Teams.

By defeating Cowansville by 4 to 3 in the Minto rink, Lennoxville, last evening, Farnham earned the right to play off in the finals of the Eastern Townships Hockey championships, and, weather permitting, will meet the winners of the Stanstead-Sherbrooke game on Friday evening.

There was little to choose between the two teams last evening and Cowansville went down to defeat with colors flying and far from disgraced. The attendance was a trifle short of four hundred and both teams were awarded a hearty reception.

The opening period was largely in favor of Cowansville, with the second twenty minutes evenly divided. The last stanza, however, found the advantage with Farnham and the judicious use of substitutes enabled them to retain a fast pace until the end.

The Cowansville boys seemed rather tired in the closing stages, the regulars having played practically throughout the entire game. Those who anticipated a rough game were somewhat disappointed and only one penalty, a minor one was handed out during the entire game, which was kept under splendid control by Mr. Gerald Wiggett.

The game started sharp at 8.15 p.m. and with less than a minute of play Lussier slipped a surprise shot past Pendleton. Cowansville took a little of the play into their own hands and the McClatchie brothers made several daring raids on the Farnham citadel but Morrisette turned aside the closing shots. Potvin substituted for Lorimer and a few minutes after he appeared on the ice he secured the puck after a scrimmage in front of the Cowansville goal and placed the railwaymen two goals in the lead.

Right from the face off Leduc passed the puck back and to the general surprise it slipped between Morrisettes' legs for Cowansville's first counter. W. McClatchie being credited with same. Cowansville now staged a series of well timed attacks on the Farnham defence and Leduc again fooled Morrisette with a long shot which did not leave the ice. Right from the face off, W. McClatchie bored in on the railwaymen and placed Cowansville in the lead with the third tally registered within less than three minutes. The lead was retained during the balance of the period which ended with Cowansville leading three to two.

The second period found the Cowansville boys again on the offensive and Sheppard on the right wing manoeuvred a series of nice plays finishing with dangerous shots which Morrisette turned aside. Time and again the Cowansville right wing broke away and tested the Farnham goal. W. McClatchie worked his way through for a fine position but overcame the puck with an open goal yawning in front of him.

Lussier, playing a close game with L. Stark on the defensive, made a nice run along the boards but was pulled up by Curley. Sheppard was given a couple of minutes in the "cooler" for ramming, this being the only penalty of the evening. The second period ended with Cowansville still retaining their one goal lead.

At the outset of the final stanza, Cowansville resumed their offensive which was short-lived and Farnham staged a series of attacks which had their success after eight and a half minutes' play when Starke beat Pendleton with a hard shot. Encouraged by this success, Farnham remained on the offensive and within a minute and a half O'Hara placed the railwaymen in the lead with the winning point. Cowansville tried hard to rally but the heavy condition of the ice had a telling effect on the players, and no further scoring was forthcoming, the final result being four to three in favor of Farnham.

It was a fast keenly contested game in which combination was conspicuous by its absence. Individual play was also limited as each team resorted to strenuous back checking and seldom allowed anybody to get away. It was a clean game, however, and Mr. Gerald Wiggett, as referee, was all that the most exacting critics could desire, handling the contest without fear or favor and checking up closely every play.

During the course of the evening Mr. McFie, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, put in an appearance and expressed himself as being highly delighted at the success achieved by the Farnham railwaymen.

The teams lined up as follows:
Cowansville ... Goal ... Morrisette
R. Curley ... Defence ... F. Starke
H. Pibus ... Defence ... Lussier

W. McClatchie Centre ... Leduc

Eastern Townships Semi-Finals Tonight

The first of the semi-finals of the Eastern Townships championships will be played at the Minto rink, Lennoxville, this evening, when the Stanstead Olympics will line up against the Sherbrooke Wanderers. With Hebert in goal and the Frappier brothers the Stanstead boys have been cutting a fast pace in their section of the eLeague and promise to surprise the locals this evening.

The Wanderers have got a nice team together, particularly on paper, but lack of combination play has detracted considerably from their effectiveness. An effort is being made to overcome this weakness and the Sherbrooke lads promise to show this evening that they are a smooth working team when they get settled down. The ice will probably be soft and the players can anticipate a tiring and gruelling contest. The game will again be handled by Mr. Gerald Wiggett, and will start at 8.15 p.m. The winners of this contest will play with Farnham in the finals on Friday evening.

CURLING

SOFT ICE YESTERDAY

There was only one game played yesterday morning, this being in the ladies' doubles when Mrs. O. T. Webster and Mrs. A. W. Reid won from Miss Irene Hutchison and Mrs. Lloyd McKee by a score of eight to four. The ice was not used in the afternoon or the evening.

Sherbrooke has already acquired a substantial lead in the games for the Canadian National trophy and this series will be continued as soon as the ice conditions allow.
