

Annual Campaign For Funds Staged By Westmount "Y"

G. Harold Fisk is Divisional Chairman—Local Objective is $3200—All Branches Participating—Drive to Start on April 10—Teams and Captains—Work Being Organized

With an objective of $3200, Westmount Y.M.C.A. will fire opening guns in its annual financial campaign on Saturday, April 10th, with eleven teams and more than one hundred and twenty workers in the field. "Become a Trustee of Canada's Future" is their slogan, and already indications of a hearty response to their efforts are apparent. G. Harold Fisk is Divisional chairman for Westmount.

The combined objectives of the various city branches is $95,000. This sum is needed to carry on the many activities in which the Y.M.C.A. participates during the coming fiscal year. The local branch has a particularly diversified programme, and carries on extra-mural work that provides a heavy drain on its resources.

Noteworthy success in the drive staged a year ago indicates that a repetition may be expected this month. Citizens in the Westmount-St. Henry division have always been generous donors to the work of the Y.M.C.A., and the workers are looking forward to their support as in the past.

Captains of the eleven teams are as follows:— Team 1, Wm. E. Cooper, of Sharp Milne and Co.; Team 2, A. Weatherstone, of Henry Hope and Sons; Team 3, H. S. Griswold, of Griswold and Co., Ltd., and A.H. Ransom; Team 4, Lovell C. Carroll, advocate; Team 5, J. C. Atkinson, of C.I.L., and Eric F. Allison, of W. C. Pittfield and Co.; Team 6, I. E. Tait, of C.I.L., and A. L. Stewart, of Bailey Meter Co.; Team 7, C. A. Smith, of the Bell Telephone; Team 8, Stanley Dart, of Consolidated Smelters, and Robert Brodie, of Dominion Textiles; Team 9, Campbell Mussels, of the Westmount Hi-Y Club; Team 10, Manning Jamison, of Belding Cotticelli; and Team 11, Thomas Bignell, of Dent Harrison and Sons, Ltd.

Work is going forward presently on the organizing and planning of the campaign.

Novel Trick Played Yesterday Boys Could Not Drive Dog Away

It was April Fool's Day yesterday, and many were the tricks perpetrated on unsuspecting victims by practical—or so they think—jokers. But at least one gag was put over without intention, and a dog was the cause of it.

Yesterday morning, taking advantage of the sunshine and fine weather generally, three small boys set out on their bicycles along Sherbrooke street, heading east by the Park. Keenly intent on a pleasant morning, they failed to notice that they had a fourth member of their group, who was running behind, barking in a loud voice and dragging his tail behind him.

The owner of the hound looked around. In stern tones, he ordered:—"Go Home!"

Third Ann'l P. T. Display On April 20

Police and Fire Departments to Present Colourful Event in RMR Armoury—Tickets at City Hall

The programme for the third annual display of Physical Training to be staged by members of the Police and Fire Departments on Tuesday, April 20th, in the Armoury of the Royal Montreal Regiment, 4625 St. Catherine street west, has been announced. Free tickets for this event may be obtained upon application at the City Hall.

Mayor John Jenkins, Alderman W. B. Scott, K.C., P. E. Jarman, general manager, W. Wren, Chief of Police and Fire, and Lieutenant A. Rubens instructor, will be among those present. By kind permission of the Officer Commanding, the Band of The Royal Montreal Regiment will play during the evening.

The evening will open with the Reception of His Worship the Mayor and the District Officer Commanding by the Guard of Honour, The Royal Montreal Regiment, 1st (Westmount) Battalion; this will be followed by the Inspection and the March Past.

Following, the Band will play a selection, after which a Mass Trot will be held.

A First Aid demonstration will be staged after the Trot. Members of the two departments took a course in this subject during the winter, and will have a chance to demonstrate their prowess. Following the first aid will be a demonstration of Shelf Work.

Team Apparatus Work is the sixth item on the programme, and will be followed by Mass Rhythmic Exercises. What promises to be an interesting highlight is the Wall Competition and R.L.O. Car Demonstration, to follow the calisthenics. Club swinging will be the ninth number.

The Tug of War, Policemen Vs. Firemen for the Royal Montreal Regiment Cup, is an annual feature, and is a keenly contested event. The Fire Department won it last year, and in the previous year the Policemen captured it. After the Tug of War, Lieut.-Col. J. E. Slessor will present the cup to the winning team.

The final item will be the presentation of Physical Training Proficiency badges and medals by His Worship the Mayor, and God Save the King will bring the evening to a close.

WRECKAGE OF AIRLINER SEARCHED FOR KEY TO GRIM RIDDLE

Five minutes earlier, it was a giant flying machine. Here it is a huge mass of wreckage with some of the 13 victims, killed when the TWA liner crashed five miles southwest of the Pittsburgh airport, still in the crushed fuselage. Ice on the wings was one suggested cause for the mystery crash which occurred just before the pilot was to make his scheduled landing after a flight from Newark. The plane, which had been working perfectly, apparently fell several hundred feet. Notice how bag gage on the ground is split open. The ship did not catch fire. It was the seventh air crash in three months, sending the death total to more than 50.

Lamp Posts Not Suited To Smashes

Two Lamp Standards Come Out Second Best in Collisions with Cars—Milk Truck and Wagon Collide

Sunday may have been Easter to most people, but it was just a headache to the local Light Department. Two lamp standards, both on Atwater avenue, came out second best in encounters with motor cars, and both were struck at approximately the same time, and both are—or were—within a few hundred feet of each other.

At about 10:43 p.m. a Studebaker car, owned and driven by Tony Wolchaki, baker, of Cornwall, Ontario, got out of control while going down Atwater Ave. and skidded into a lamp post opposite No. 940, said post officially designated in the city records as post No. 88. The post fell over and the glass apertures at the top were smashed. Mr. Wolchaki's car was unable to proceed after the mishap, and it was slowly towed away for repairs. Constables Morgan and Bridgen investigated.

And at just about the same time, lamp standard No. 66, situated just south of the C.P.R. track bridge, was struck by a car driven by Mr. F. Mondaux, of Montreal, who lost control of his vehicle. It skidded across the sidewalk and collided with the lamp post. Constable Williams investigated.

On Monday morning at about 5:30, at the corner of Clarke avenue and Anwoth Road, a milk-wagon vehicle said that he was going west on Anwoth Road, and was making a turn to go south on Clarke avenue when the north-bound milk truck struck the horse, broke the shaft and some of the harness. The truck suffered a broken windshield and right door.

Flower Show Has Many Visitors

The annual spring flower show now in progress at the Westmount Park greenhouses has, since its opening a week ago, attracted many visitors. Open daily from ten in the morning (till ten at night, the main lobby and small anteroom have seen a steady stream of people passing through to inspect and admire the display of blooms.

Children, not engaged with their studies during the past few days, have proven appreciative visitors. Grown-ups as well have been delighted spectators, and the fine exhibit, prepared under the capable direction of J. G. McCreath, has elicited much complimentary comment. The doors are open Sundays from 10 a.m. till six in the evening.

VON Honours Two Members For Service

Mrs. F. J. Eveleigh and Mrs. John A. Bremner Given Presentations by Colleagues

In recognition of long and faithful service as members and later as officers of the Westmount Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses and the Social Service, Mrs. F. J. Eveleigh, and Mrs. John A. Bremner, presidents of the former and of the latter respectively were the recipients of presentations by the members of their respective organizations.

The donations were made by Mrs. J. N. Poole the newly elected President of the V.O.N., who handed to Mrs. Eveleigh a beautiful crystal picture frame, while Mrs. Bremner received a colourful basket of spring flowers. In making the presentation, Mrs. Poole referred to the many years of service given to the V.O.N. by Mrs. Eveleigh, who for over thirty years has donated time and money in support of the Order, and who for the past eight years has held the office of President.

"It is a record," said Mrs. Poole, "that anyone can well be proud of, and the V.O.N. is greatly indebted to its past president for her years of devotion to the cause."

At the conclusion of the presentation which was held in Victoria Hall, both ladies were warmly congratulated by the members, and the hope was expressed that they would continue their support in the future as they have done in the past, and in return both recipients expressed grateful thanks.

CHARGED WITH THEFT

Arrested early yesterday morning by Captain Broden, a youth giving his name as J. G. Theoret was arraigned before Recorder Hale on a charge of theft. He was remanded till tomorrow morning.

A number of bicycles, stolen from a local Dominion Store, were recovered in a damaged condition by the police this week. It is believed that the matter will be cleared with this arrest.

End Of Tedious Vacation Now In Sight

Joy is rampant in the hearts of thousands of local scholars. The long, tedious, Easter holidays are nearly over, and in a few days they will be able to get back to their beloved studies, their algebra, geography, history, and English!

When interviewed by an Examiner reporter, one of the pupils cast longing eyes in the direction of the school. "Just think!" he groaned. "We have been away from our studies now for over a week! I can't bear to think of it!" Others when questioned expressed similar sentiments.

The doors will be thrown open on Monday, and work will begin in earnest for the June examinations.

Magician Feature Of Rotary Party For YMCA Youths

Edward Charles Bewilders Young Lads From Rotary Sponsored "Y" Group at Luncheon Wednesday at Victoria Hall—Rotarians Invited to Binghamton, N.Y. Silver Jubilee—Final Reports on Carnival Received

The Westmount Rotary Club were hosts Wednesday noon to thirty boys of the special Y.M.C.A. group that they sponsor at the Westmount Branch of the "Y" movement.

Several reports of interest were read to the members, the initial one being a report from the president Dr. J. Kenneth Carver to the effect that Rotarian W. Meldrum was improved in health and was expected home from the hospital in the very near future.

Rotarian McBride has assumed the work on the Carnival programme committee that Mr. Meldrum had been taking care of and reported that all advertising for the programme must be in the hands of the committee by Saturday of this week. Rotarian E. Parker, in charge of the ticket-sale for the carnival reported that there were still a few choice seats left although the general sale of tickets was progressing rapidly.

Rotarian Stanley Neilson urged the members to attend the Boy Scout Jamboree, reminding them that Friday night is Service Club Night there.

The club received an invitation to attend the Silver Jubilee meeting of the Binghamton N.Y. Rotary Club to take place on Apr. 8.

Alderman Panel-Raymond delivered a brief address on the work of the French Federated Charities, urging the members to support this worthy endeavour.

Edward Charles, well known magician, was on hand to entertain the boys and delighted his audience, both young and old alike, with several fine examples of legerdemain.

Under the nimble fingers of Mr. Charles a silk handkerchief can do wonderful things, bouquets of flowers appear out of thin air, newspapers torn to shreds suddenly restore themselves to their original state.

At several turns in the act the boys thought they had Mr. Charles "on the spot" but he always had his apparatus well in hand and turned the tables on them.

Rotarian Will Buckley led in the community singing and thanked the entertainer for his fine performance.

Dr. J. Kenneth Carver, president, was in the chair.

FACULTY MEETING

The Faculty of the Temple Emmanuel-El Religious School will be held on Wednesday evening in the Board Room of the Temple at 8:15. Mr. Arthur S. Jacobs will preside.

Capt. Broden Is Bereaved

The death of Mrs. M. Broden on Tuesday bereaves Captain Broden, of the local detective force, of his sister-in-law.

Mrs. Broden's death followed a lengthy illness. She was a native of Tipperary County, Ireland, and was a member of St. Augustine's Church. Her husband, Michael, has been an employee of the Tramways Company for forty years, and an inspector for twenty-five.

The funeral is being held this morning, and interment will be in Cote Des Neiges Cemetery.

Nimble Fingers Play Their Part Nearly Break Policeman's Heart

When Greek meets Greek, it's "Yes, We Have No Bananas!" But when policeman meets policeman, it's a case of "Where are my cigarettes?" And when the two policemen involved are musicians as well...

This is the way it all came about.

Constable Orchison at the local police station, was munching his lunch (sounds poetic—eh? So did Constable Orchison!) on Monday. While he was so deeply engrossed in his food, Mr. Ted Petrony, the electrician, stole up on him from behind, slipped a nimble set of fingers into the unsuspecting Constable's pocket, and removed a package of cigarettes therefrom.

Perhaps many long years of pounding the piano had led Constable Orchison into believing that only piano players have nimble fingers. But Mr. Petrony plays the accordion, and also has agile digits.

Anyway, shortly after lunch, Constable Orchison reached for a cigarette. There was none. He searched his other pockets. He looked on the floor. He looked under the chair. But still no cigarettes.

Constable Arsenault began to sympathize with him in that gentle way that only constables have, and during the afternoon a few others took up the general sympathizing, making Constable Orchison's happy life miserable.

It was around five o'clock, when a homicidal look was beginning to creep into Constable Orchison's eyes, that Mr. Petrony returned the missing cigs.

Constable Orchison? We aren't sure, but we are investigating the rumour that he plans to install a couple of high-powered rat traps in his pockets. (Rat trap salesmen should call during the afternoon.)

SPRING RETAIL BUSINESS

Local merchants report an improvement in business this Spring as compared with last year, to date — an indication of generally improving business conditions. Easter came early this year—too early from the viewpoint of the retail merchant—and the weather was anything but conducive to a buying frame of mind on the part of the public. But in spite of this difficulty, business was good — an evidence of underlying strength that promises a continuance of the improvement noted since before the Christmas season. Those two great indicators of the buyer's attitude—the stock market and the used automobile market—have been more buoyant this year than for any Spring season since 1930. Yes, things look much better. The dull, defeatist attitude that pervaded the ranks of business from 1931 until 1936, is changing. Better days are here.

"ENLIGHTENED" ITALY

In a recent interview, during which he castigated the democratic countries of the world, Mussolini declared that the only modern system was that in force in Italy, where fascism rules. Just how "modern" Italy is can be judged from the following extract of a speech made to the Italian Senate on December 18, 1930: "Fortunately the Italian people are not yet accustomed to eat several times a day. Its standard of living is so low it feels scarcity and suffering less." Sentiments of that kind were expressed by the despots of Europe in those dark days preceding the Renaissance. They might still be considered "modern" in Italy but we of the free, democratic countries of the world disposed forever of such sentiments long ago.

SETTLEMENT OF THE RAIL STRIKE

Thanks to the timely and emphatic intervention of the Canadian Minister of Labour, Hon. Norman Rogers, the threatened strike of 117,000 railway men has been averted. The unions had voted 98 per cent to strike. 99 per cent of the Canadian National men had voted for a walk-out, while ninety-seven per cent of the Canadian Pacific unions had similarly marked their ballots. The situation was extremely serious, for a walk-out would have affected the entire Canadian business structure. At the time of the sitting of the Board of Arbitration, the unions would have compromised on five per cent restoration of the ten per cent cut, while the railways offered to give back one per cent. The Board's findings were academic, and little effort was made to bring the disputants together. When the strike threatened, however, the government took a hand, and made it known that the solution favoured by the government was a full restoration over a twelve-month period. In its issue of March 13, the Toronto Star said: "The general impression is that the strike is on the eve of settlement through the mediation of Hon. Norman Rogers, Dominion Minister of Labour. Four days ago, conferring with Sir Edward Beatty and S. J. Hungerford, Mr. Rogers took a firm stand in asserting the government would not permit a deadlock between masters and men that would result in a strike." The manner in which both the companies and the men met the situation is worthy of notice. Although American railway men had not only previously received full restoration of their cuts and a raise in addition, the Canadian unions were always willing to take somewhat less than their American brethren received. Strike instructions that had been sent out, furthermore, urged all union men to respect the company's property. There was to be no sit-down tactics. Train crews were instructed to bring all trains to the terminus before quitting work. The companies, on the other hand, met the request of the unions and the government in fine spirit in spite of the terrific drain on their revenues the increased pay rates will mean. The railways know well that strong, well-run trade unions are a bulwark of our democracy and a solid barrier against the advance of Communism.

The railroads of the United States have passenger trains on 644 different runs where an average speed of 60 miles an hour or more is maintained from terminal to terminal. The total mileage of these runs is 40,205, of which 29,301 are scheduled daily.

University Professor says the only alternative to written examinations is the good old Chinese method; shut each candidate in a cell and let him write out all he knows. In the case of many students, however, this'd be a wanton waste of a perfectly good minute and a half.

Oklahoma City doctor says men and women of 75 should be able to dance, run 300 yards or enter upon a new love life. There's just a chance, though, that men and women of 75 mightn't be a danged bit interested in dancing, running 300 yards or entering upon a new love life. There are other things, surely!

A man who blackened both his wife's eyes, dragged her around the room by the hair of the head and then bruised her with a stick of cordwood, has been sentenced to two months and five lashes. But, for the sake of the gentleman himself, the lashes will be administered by jail officials, not by the wife.

A gift of a $200,000 chapel to Colby College, Waterville, Me., in memory of Dr. George C. Lorimer, pastor of Tremont Temple, Boston, a generation ago, honors a son as well as a father. Born in Edinburgh the father went to sea at the age of 18; made a success in turn of carpentry, law, medicine and the stage; but found himself at last in the pulpit. The son who made the gift, as a young journalist heard of the success of Prof. Arthur Roberts in teaching English and so went to Colby. Starting with the almost defunct Saturday Evening Post, as literary editor at $1000 a year, young Lorimer was left in charge while the publisher searched for an editor. But the next few issues gave him the job. Under his management, the circulation has grown from 1,600 to 3,000,000.

Admiral Byrd's leadership in the Emergency Peace Campaign is a result of a promise during his solitary vigil in the shadow of the South Pole, when, feeling death from poisoning fumes gas very near, he wrote in his diary: "The distance and detachment of this place seem to soften some human follies. Others take an added significance. From here the great folly of all follies is the amazing attitude of civilized nations toward each other. It seems a great madness. If this attitude is not changed, I don't see how our civilization, as we know it, will survive." Later he added: "If I survive this ordeal, I shall devote what is left of my life largely to trying to help further the friendship of my country with other nations of the world."

For over 5 years Saskatchewan has witnessed a shifting of population that has been of deep significance to the churches. Due to drought conditions in the South a steady northward trek of settlers has taken place. These farmers have taken up homesteads in the brush-lands of the north. More than 40,000 people have moved inland to this "Land of Beginning Again."—Rev. Clarence Halliday of Saskatoon.

The Dominion Water and Power Bureau of the Department of Mines and Resources has completed its annual inventory of the developed and undeveloped water power resources of Canada, under the direction of Hon. T. Crerar, Minister and Dr. Charles Camsell, Deputy Minister. The available water power totals 20,347,400 horse power under conditions of ordinary minimum flow and 33,617,000 horse power ordinarily available for six months of the year. The total turbine installation is 7,945,590 horse power. The figures of available power quoted represent only the minimum water power possibilities of the Dominion. The average machine installation to be 30 per cent greater than the ordinary six months flow power. Applying this, the above figures indicate (according to the Bureau) that the present recorded water power resources of a turbine installation of about 43,700,000 horse power. The present turbine installation indicated the development of only a little more than 18 per cent of the present recorded water power resources of Canada.

About 60 per cent of the total available water resources and more than 81 per cent of the developed water power are located in the highly industrialized provinces of Ontario and Quebec in which there are no natural coal deposits. No large hydraulic plants were built subsequent to 1931, but there was an increase in plants early in 1933 and culminated in 1935 with a net gain for that year of over 36,000 horse power with only 38,475 h.p. in 1936. There is now a resumption of plant construction.

The Ottawa School Board is considering having French taught throughout the school classes including below the sixth grade. In discussing the matter stress was laid on the advantage of knowing both languages, particularly in Ottawa, as a qualification for obtaining employment as well as broadening the field of culture of Canadian school children. A number of members of the Board feel that children should be taught to speak French and not given much of any grammar until they can speak fairly well.

According to the United States 86 per cent of the newspapers of the United States attack the contention of Labor that every family in the United States would receive an income of $3,600.00 if the fruits of industry and agriculture were equitably distributed. "Observer" in The Progressive of Madison, Wisconsin, adds: "While this $3,600.00 is only an average it is interesting to note that about the same percentage of newspapers that opposed the re-election of President Roosevelt attack the conception of a fair distribution of wealth. In other words at least 86 per cent of the press is hopelessly reactionary."

A part of Oscar Wilde's "Sonnet to Liberty":

"But that the roar of thy democracies—
Thy reigns of terror—thy great anarchies
Mirror my widest passions like the sea
And give my rage a brother—
Liberty.

For this sake only do thy dissonant cries
Delight my discreet soul, else
By bloody knout or treacherous cannonades
Rob nations of their rights in-volute
And I remain unmoved—and yet
and yet—
These Christs that die upon the barricades,
God knows that I am with them,
in some things."

Quoted in a recent letter from George F. McKay, M.D., a boyhood chum, now a prominent surgeon in the U.S.A.

Mr. Neill, M.P. for Comox-Alberni, recently referred to the theory which he said had been advanced so often, that increases in tariff did not raise prices: "I read in the morning paper of a squirrel which had cached 75 golf balls under the impression they were some new kind of nut. If honorable gentlemen opposite really believe the theory I have mentioned I would advise them to keep away from the vicinity of squirrels."

Westmount Baptist Church Notes

Communion and Reception of members will take place at the close of the Morning Worship on Sunday. Mr. Johnston will speak on "The Amazing Power of Influence," the theme being based on the prayer of Jesus—"For their sakes I sanctify myself that they also may be sanctified through the truth."

The Evening theme is one of engrossing interest. The title, which is borrowed from Mr. H. G. Wells, "The Shape of Things to Come." Every person is interested in the present drift in politics, morals and economic programmes. Jesus has some very striking and disturbing as well as comforting things to say about "Things to Come." Life somehow compels us to lift our eyes from the natural to the supernatural and many earnest, intelligent people believe that it also compels us to recognize not only the rational but the super-rational. The Preacher will seek to interpret what Jesus meant when He said:—"As it was in the days of Noah and Lot even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed."

From the 4th to the 11th of April, Mr. Johnston will conduct special services in one of the Toronto churches. In his absence on Sunday, April 11th, Rev. Ewart G. Hinds, B.Sc., Ph.D., will occupy the Westmount Pulpit. Dr. Hinds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hinds of Western Avenue. He was Gold Medalist of Westmount High and won highest distinction in scholarship at McGill. It is anticipated that large numbers of his friends will desire to hear this Westmount Boy who is now Minister of King Street Baptist Church, Kitchener, Ontario.

CHRISTOPHER ELLIS RECOVERING FROM ILLNESS

Confined to his bed with rheumatic fever for the past several days, Christopher Ellis yesterday afternoon, was reported well on the way to recovery. The popular newscaster, whose eleven-hour summaries of world events have been handled by station announcers during his absence from duty, is expected to resume his activities Sunday evening.

Three Groups Combine In Plays

A new note in local amateur theatre will be sounded on the evenings of April 12th and 13th tomorrow—when the Sixteen Thirty Club of the Church of the Messiah, The New Theatre Group and the C.I.L. Theatre Guild produce jointly at Victoria Hall three one-act plays.

The C.I.L. Theatre Guild will do "The World Beyond," a play about English folk life by L. du Garde Peach. Maida Gage Bolton's "The Eight Square" will be presented by the Sixteen Thirty Club of the Church of the Messiah. The New Theatre Group will do Paul Green's "Hymn to the Rising Sun"—a play about the chain gang system in the Southern States.

This will be the first time in Montreal that several amateur groups have co-operated in the presentation of a major production. Each of the participating groups has given commendable performances in the past and since the play matter is widely divergent in each case, the programme will prove of unusual interest to theatre goers.

Calvary Church Notes

On Sunday morning in Calvary Church, Dorchester St. at Greene Ave., Westmount, the Minister, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will preach on the theme: "The Ministry of the Hands of Jesus—and of Ours." The Gospel narratives contain a wealth of illustration concerning the gracious ministrations of Jesus in which his hands mediated his love to men and women in need. Is it possible that our hands can continue His helpful and uplifting ministries?

The Sunday School and the Men's Own Brotherhood will meet at three o'clock.

A Guest Preacher will occupy the pulpit of Calvary Church on Sunday night in the person of the Rev. Harvey B. Campbell, B.A., B.D. of Chalmers Church. This will be Mr. Campbell's first visit to Calvary Church, and the congregation is cordially invited to share in extending a welcome to him.

The choral service on Sunday night will be led by the celebrated radio artists, the Utica Jubilee Singers, from Utica Institute, Mississippi, who have been heard by radio audiences over the N.B.C. national network, as well as over many European stations. The quality of their Sunday evening programmes, led to their selection by the New York Telegram as the country's foremost Negro Spiritual singers. They will sing during the preaching service and will give a sacred recital in the church following the sermon.

The public is cordially invited to attend this service and share the uplift of the message through the sermon and through sacred song.

On Monday in the Church Hall at 8.15 p.m., a travogue of the West Indies, illustrated with moving pictures, will be given by Mr. H. C. Collier, of the Canadian West Indian League. Owing to the unusual educational nature of this programme, children cannot be admitted unless accompanied by adults. A silver offering will be received.

BADGER'S GREEN WILL BE STAGED AT ST. MATTHIAS

Players Guild Present Sheriff's Comedy Thursday, Friday and Saturday of Next Week

The Guild of Players of St. Matthias announced the presentation of R. C. Sherriff's comedy "Badger's Green" in the Church Hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 8th, 9th and 10th at 8.30 p.m.

These players will be remembered for their splendid presentations of Shakespearean comedies—"Twelfth Night," "Much Ado About Nothing" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Their last modern comedy was "Captain Applejack" which was very well received by capacity houses.

R. C. Sherriff made his name with the famous "Journey's End" and while "Badger's Green" is a play on a very different theme it no less illustrates his ability as a playwright. The scene of the play is a little English village on one of the byways that evade the great London roads. A place once famous for badger-baiting but now forgotten by guide books and neglected by tourists it leads a quiet happy life, its one great ambition being to beat the nearby village of Ragholt at cricket.

What happens when a London Syndicate decides to modernize Badger's Green and make it into a "Show place" provides the story of the byways that evade the great London roads. A place once famous for badger-baiting but now forgotten by guide books and neglected by tourists it leads a quiet happy life, its one great ambition being to beat the nearby village of Ragholt at cricket.

The play has been in rehearsal for some time and the players are working hard to assure a first class production.

Luncheon Held

Past Presidents' Day was celebrated by Heather Curling Club members on Saturday, with eleven former heads of the group in attendance.

T. Howard Stewart presented the club with a new cup to commemorate the fiftieth year of the club's existence.

George Wood, a charter member of the club, gave an interesting historical talk on the early days of the club.

HE WORE NO CLOAK

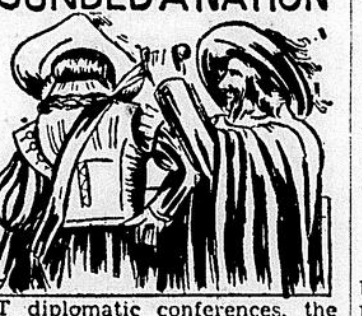

Several years ago, Princeton University invited Prof. Walter Raleigh, distinguished British scholar, to lecture. As the professor stepped into the Princeton railway station, an official "greeter" approached him and inquired, "Excuse me, are you Walter Raleigh?"

"No," the professor replied, "I'm Christopher Columbus. Walter Raleigh is out with Queen Elizabeth looking for a puddle."

Realm After Death Topic Of Preacher

Rev. A. Lloyd Smith Spoke on "Where Are Our Dead" at Dominion Douglas Church on Sunday

In his sermon Sunday evening at Dominion-Douglas United Church, Rev. A. Lloyd Smith expressed belief that the souls of the dead inherit a "realm of spirit" where they experience genuine concern for mortals and sincerely desire to help living people in their troubles.

"Where Are Our Dead?" was the subject of the sermon, and in the course of it Dr. Smith said that he had nothing to say against those who visited cemeteries, but hoped that those who did so went in a spirit of wonderment and gratitude—that this mortal can put on immortality.

What was called death was merely a physical manifestation of the preacher continued. He believed there was a "realm of spirit" which was, however, very difficult to understand, but which he felt, was a place of great beauty and of spiritual glory.

Ewart G. Hinds To Preach Here

Rev. Ewart G. Hinds, B. Sc., Ph.D., minister of King Street Baptist Church in Kitchener, Ontario, and a native of Westmount, will conduct services in Westmount Baptist Church on Sunday, April 11th, in the absence of Rev. J. A. Johnston, who will be conducting special services in Toronto all next week.

Dr. Hinds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hinds, of Western Avenue. He was Gold Medalist at Westmount High and won highest distinction in scholarships at McGill.

Many of his friends here are expected to attend the service to renew his acquaintance.

Pioneering Days Here Discussed

Emile Vaillancourt Addressed Meeting of St. George's Club on Saturday

The days of the hardy French and Canadian explorers, who pioneered in this country and the United States in the 17th century were recalled on Saturday at the regular luncheon meeting of St. George's Club by Emile Vaillancourt, of the Montreal Tourist and Convention Bureau.

Le Moyne D'Iberville, a native of Montreal, established a settlement in Louisiana, and founded Mobile, Alabama, claimed Mr. Vaillancourt, Nicolet, a resident of Quebec, first explored the territory now known as Wisconsin, and Louis Blouchette, another French Canadian, founded St. Charles, Missouri.

Mr. Vaillancourt also told his audience that many high positions in the early days of the United States were held by Frenchmen and Canadians.

The speaker mentioned in passing the recent attack of Prof. Walter B. Pitkin, of Columbia University, New York, on French Canadians, and reminded his hearers that the wife of Columbia's President, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, was a Montreal girl, Kathleen Lamontagne, born of French Canadian parents.

BURIED YESTERDAY
The burial was held yesterday afternoon at four o'clock from the chapel of Jos. C. Wray and Brother, Mountain street, of Mrs. William M. Campbell, whose death occurred on Tuesday at her late residence, 427 Grosvenor avenue. Nec Agnes Reid, she was 77 years of age. Interment was made in Mount Royal Cemetery.

SPOKE ON I.L.P.
Rev. Dr. F. W. Kerr, of St. Andrew's Church, was the speaker yesterday at the regular luncheon of the Lions' Club of Montreal in the Mount Royal Hotel. He spoke on "Home Improvements."

Dictators Denounced By Rabbis

Passover Sermons Locally Make Concerted Drive On Autocracy, Oppression and Tyranny

In local synagogues on Saturday, Rabbis formed a united front in their denunciation of dictators, all forms of despotism, and in the demand for liberty of conscience; these items formed the backbone of Passover sermons.

Taking as his subject "The Three-Fold Freedom," Rabbi Abramowitz of Shaar Hashomayim recalled that the Passover is a festival to emphasize the blessings of freedom as it commemorates the time when, in a world enslaved by tyranny, the Israelites had the courage to strike out for their freedom from Egyptian bondage.

Dr. Abramowitz traced the history of the human struggle for political and economic freedom, and pointed out that these ideals could never become effective until based on moral foundation. "Let the heads of governments be ethical characters," he said, "and there will be less duplicity in diplomacy, less dishonoring of solemn treaties and less violent aggression on defenceless peoples."

Rabbi Harry J. Stern of Temple Emmanuel-El, said in part:—"Because the Jew at Sinai pledged his loyalty to the moral law, he was destined to become the great protestant—embodying the Divine protest against injustice, slavery, falsehood and oppression."

"Dictatorships and dictators threaten to dominate human society. Practical men interested in the preservation of their vested interests are indifferent . . . to the cause of social justice. These possessors of wealth favour the Pharaohs' slave institutions to those of Mosaic legislation of justice. But . . . liberty manages to live on the souls of men, for it is a sacred, deathless and immortal ideal."

Camp Laclouwhi Re-Union Event

Over one hundred boys and fathers attended the Camp Laclouwhi reunion banquet held last night in St. Andrew's Church hall. The event took the form of a turkey supper which was followed by an entertaining programme of special interest to boys who had been at the camp, and an eye-opener indeed to those who are thinking of going this summer.

13 Spook Street Is New Feature Belmont Park

Brought to Canada direct from the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland, Ohio, "Thirteen Spook Street," described as the spookiest, weirdest and most thrilling of all entertainment attractions, will be the outstanding new feature at Belmont Park, in Cartierville, this summer.

New features introduced last year, including the Cartierville Navy, the Lindy Loop and others will again feature the Belmont Park outdoor entertainment. Rex D. Billings, park manager states, but, in addition, several new entertainment devices are being added. "By our policy of continuous improvement," Mr. Billings said, "we are each year adding to the attractions of the park. The results of three years of constant spending for new attractions will be very evident at Belmont this summer."

With the opening date still indefinite Mr. Billings reports that picnic bookings by Montreal industrial organizations, social and national associations and clubs will set new park records. Belmont Park during the past two seasons has developed amazingly as a picnic center and picnic facilities available to large and small groups are considered to be among the finest in the Montreal district. Bookings for this summer are already well in advance of last season.

IL DUCE'S LIBYAN OUTING CUT SHORT

Notes And Oddities Of Westmount 32 Years Ago

This is the sixth of a series of articles dealing with the Westmount of thirty-two years ago, and taken from files of The Westmount Advertiser for 1905, which recorded local history as it unfolded. Older residents who may recall incidents herein recorded, or others which may have been omitted, are invited to communicate with The Editor. Reminiscences of old times are always welcome, and we will be pleased to print any letters submitted, according to subject matter and space available, and subject to editorial "condensing."

Dear Sir:
As you are "digging into the past" the enclosed might interest you.
With regards,
Sincerely and cordially yours,
(signed) Alex McA. Murphy.

The "enclosed" to which Mr. Murphy refers in his letter consists of notices to electors in the election in Westmount in January, 1908. That election was termed "one of the most critical elections" and a circular to the electors states that "there will be a contest in each of the four wards. Your support is requested for the following four candidates: In the first ward, Mr. William Rutherford; in the second ward, Mr. Alexander McAulay Murphy; in the third ward, Mr. Arthur J. Hodgson; in the fourth ward, Mr. Donald L. Campbell. The platform on which these candidates asked to be elected consisted of five planks, among them "A vigorous and persistent effort to be made to secure pure and uncontaminated water." And also, "The conduct of Municipal Government upon business lines, and by business methods." The election was held on January 20th, 1908, and the voting day was twelve hours long, from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Another document dated 4th January, 1906, is a letter to the electors of Ward No. 1, Westmount, and is signed "A. G. Cross." Mr. Cross outlines in general his activities during his past term in office, states that during his term "seven streets or street extensions have been opened to traffic, and five miles of cement sidewalks have been laid." Mr. Cross then points out other aspects of his administration, and mentions the water question: "Early this year upon the report of the Mayor, Councillor McLagan and myself, I submitted a first draft of bylaw to the council, making provisions whereby the Town would acquire the right (which the present contract does not give) to acquire the water pipes and plant in the Town in eleven years on paying an indemnity based upon the value of the pipes in the ground, without allowance for goodwill, and would obtain a supply of filtered water at an annual reduction in the by-draw rental, and the consideration of an increase in the water rates of about one half of what the company was asking."

March 18th, 1905
Chas. Routh, F. G. B. Hamilton and F. C. Nash with 18, 18 and 17 respectively, were the high scorers of the third monthly competition of the Westmount Gun Club.

The monthly meeting of the Westmount W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Jacques.

March 18th, 1905
The conference will be open to students of Grades X and XI of High Schools.

Deaths noted: Wm. McCoy, Cote St. Antoine Road, and L. R. Bardon, Victoria Avenue.
March 25th, 1905
During the month of February there were twenty-four transfers of property in Westmount, aggregating the large sum of $132,826.
Hugman vs. The Town of Westmount: The plaintiff brought suit for $1,900 for injuries sustained by his wife through a fall on a slippery sidewalk on Greene Avenue. Judgment rendered for $1,000.
By a margin of two points Westmount Heathers defeated McGill last Saturday night in the second game of the series for the city basketball championship. At the finish the score was 19-17 in favour of Heathers.
Death noted: Solomon Hyman, tobacconist, aged 58.

Monday is a big day at the Square Circle Club of Calvary Church, as it is annual Ladies Day. The members are looking forward to it.

The speaker for this occasion will be Mr. Bruce McLachlan, who will talk on "My Experiences in the British Secret Service."
Any lady, young or old, will be made very welcome.

REV. SPRINGETT WILL SPEAK AT THREE MEETINGS

Outstanding Winnipeg Preacher Brings Vital Message

Rev. E. J. Springett, Dominion Commissioner of the British Israel World Federation, (Canada), Inc., will lecture at the former American Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of the coming week. On Tuesday his subject will be "Outstanding Facts of British Israel Truth;" on Wednesday "God's Ideal State, It's Governmental;" and on Thursday "Legislative and Economic Set-Up." All meetings will begin at 8.15.

Following are some of the matters to be discussed:—
It is imperative that the Anglo-Saxon nations should know that:—
1. The message of the Bible is primarily addressed to the Nation, "Israel."

2. The Bible deals not only with the Gospel of Salvation, but in great detail and much more exhaustively with regard to the Gospel of the Kingdom.
3. The Gospel of the Kingdom deals with the actual, literal kingdom here on earth, having a king, a constitution, a people and a geographical position.

4. The Law, Statutes, and Judgments outlined in Deuteronomy and Leviticus, are applicable to our modern complex civilization and must be put into effect before the chaotic conditions existing in the world today can be rectified.
5. The two Anglo-Saxon English-speaking nations, the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States of America fulfill and satisfy all the prophecies dealing with the Ten-tribed House of Israel, and, therefore, must be Israel.

6. Human intelligence and ingenuity has failed to devise legislative and economic laws and regulations for equitably distributing the blessings and wealth of the world. Only by adopting God's Laws can this ideal state be developed and put into effect.
7. Approximately 90 per cent of the prophecies pertaining to the House of Israel have been fulfilled in the Anglo-Saxon peoples. The remaining, approximately 10 per cent is due for fulfillment during the next relatively few years.

Can you answer or do you know the solution to the following vital questions?
1. Are the chaotic conditions generally existing throughout the world mere chance or are they the fulfillment of prophecy?
2. What will be the final outcome of the three troublesome forces in the world today, Fascism, Nazism and Communism?
3. Can these forces be overcome, and if so, how and when? (see Rev. 16, 13-16)
4. Will we return to the Gold Standard? If not, why not?
5. Will we have a return to the formerly higher rates of interest? What is the Biblical law concerning interest?
6. Many express the opinion that world peace can only be effectively guaranteed by 100 per cent co-operation between the two great English-speaking nations. Is this possible, and, if so, what will be the means of bringing it about?

British-Israel Truth

Thinking men and women today are asking themselves some of the following pertinent questions: Is there or is there not a "Great Architect and Grand Geometrician of the Universe"? Is there only blind chance today, or is there a Divine Plan for the Ages? If a Divine Plan, can it be seen now in operation? What is the explanation of the vast extent, unique position, power, and influence of the British Empire? Can the origin of our Race be traced? Why has Britain been divinely protected and preserved?

Why have all the great Empires except the British gone down; and why does the British Empire stand? What is the explanation of the deliverance of Jerusalem in the year 1917, and the manner in which it was delivered? What is the meaning of Armageddon?

The Nation Israel was established for ever; where is it today? The Throne of David was established for ever; where is it now? Whence came the Coronation Stone in Westminster Abbey, and why is it called the Stone of Destiny? Can the consolidation of the whole English-speaking world be effected, and, if so, along what lines?

The answer to the foregoing, and other, most important questions, will be given in a series of articles under the heading "British-Israel Truth." The Bible is the text-book to be used, a light-house for guiding and directing our present, and future, course. May this column serve the function of the "reflector" for the illuminating beam of increased knowledge of God's Holy Book.

BETTY SPEIRS

Miss Speirs will present her Spring Recital at Victoria Hall, April 10th. The features will be "Ballet d'Amour," "Ora Pro Nobis," and "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe."

Business Girls Will Star In Betty Speirs Recital On April 10th

The approaching Spring Recital of the Betty Speirs' School of Dancing in Victoria Hall on April 10th, gives promise of something quite out of the ordinary as far as artistry of entertainment is concerned—a delightful, delectable treat to discriminating lovers of the theatre.

What need to say that Betty Speirs has always concentrated on the higher type of entertainment. Constantly she has contrived to create the cultural and the classic. To the Principal of this wonderful School, it is glowing personal satisfaction, and a source of immense gratification annually to the hundreds of pupils who avail themselves of her tutelage, that the Montreal public has been so keenly appreciative of her labours. The Spring Recital of the Betty Speirs' School of Dancing has become a local institution—an event in the social life of the city.

New scenery and lighting effects in keeping with the splendor of the production have been installed for the presentation of the "Ballet d'Amour," which the collaborators claim to be the "piece de resistance." It is ballet technique at its finest, a most ambitious offering for which Betty Speirs and Hulda Semmens are responsible.

Miss Semmens, it is perhaps needless to recall, is the favourite protegee of Sonia Serova, and Betty Speirs is not lacking in appreciation of the splendidly enthusiastic work which her talented assistant has rendered in tutoring the senior classes, where most of Miss Semmens' work is particularly evident.

It is interesting to note the identity of the soloists who will take part in the elaborate setting of the Ballet d'Amour: Hazel Webb, Jean Barnes, Joyce Lozinski, Patricia Patience, Peggy Jean Ross, Doris Jackson, Shirley Harris, Bernice and Phyllis Dickson and Shirley Watson.

But perhaps, as always, the event to receive the most acclaim will be the individual and collective appearance of Betty Speirs' infant prodigies—dainty tots who are rightfully proud of their technique. They have been well coached and do their part with ease and assurance that belies their babyhood.

What these children have to display in "The Old Woman who Lived in a Shoe" will charm you to the limit. It is quite a long story, and a beautiful story, skilfully compiled by Peter Miller, co-director of the School, who specializes in this very sort of thing. He has modernized the fairy fable without unduly disturbing the ancient fabric, and the kiddies will do justice to the material which Mr. Miller has prepared for them. Betty Speirs is very proud of her baby pupils, and well she may be.

The ensemble of the city business girls will be an outstanding success. These very modern young ladies have given special study to deportment. There is elegance and grace in their every movement, accentuated the more by reason of the care they have taken.

Couple Hurt In Accident

Their conditions were not considered serious.

The collision occurred on the Warrensburg-Chestertown road. Weldon and his wife were driving southward, on a curve near Balsam Lodge on Spruce Mountain, the automobile had a head-on collision with a five ton truck coming in the opposite direction. Mr. Weldon is an investment dealer.

A SONG OF SPRING
 Dull winter's past, the Spring is here.
 And summer time is drawing near
 We'll sing a song, as the days get long
 At this refreshing time of year.
 Green buds are growing on the trees
 And birds are building nests—to please,
 All Nature sings one grand sweet song
 In tune and harmony—so strong!
 It's seedtime, too—then let us sow
 More seeds of "love" and "kindly deeds"
 A harvest-ripe will surely grow
 And bring us more than all our needs,
 May one and all, obey the call
 To make this world a better place
 For youths and maidens—children—"All"
 New light to shine on every face!

Station Executives Of Local Aircastles Deny Rumours Of Espionage

"Plain Unmitigated Hoey" Says Yvon Bourassa, of CKAC — "Figment of the Imagination" Remarks Victor Neilsen, Station Director at CFCF — Jean Sablon, Paul Lukas and Sally Rand Expected Locally

By JACK HIRSHBERG

Reports published in a weekly journal last weekend of organized crime enmeshing the City of Montreal in an island-wide network of illegal radio transmitters, coupled with fantastic tales of radio espionage approaching that of war-time days, were termed "a lot of hoey" last night by regional broadcasting officials.

"If there were anything to the report we would have heard it," remarked Yvon Bourassa, program director of CKAC. "I think it plain, unmitigated hoey!"

Allegations aired by the weekly journal included the charge that not since World War days had the Canadian authorities come across so well an organized body of illegal transmission posts, and went on to say that the allotted wavelength of one of Montreal's own stations was being usurped and utilized to broadcast material of a salacious and obscene nature. This latter statement was emphatically denied by representatives of all local aircastles.

"It strikes me as being a figment of the imagination," mused Victor Neilsen, Station Director of CFCF-CFCX. "The Marconi outlets are as yet unaffected by broadcast interference of any variety. As for our wave-length carrying material of a salacious and obscene nature, you need only drop a live microphone into our announcers' lounge any time to effect such a transmission!" Officials of other stations denied the reports in similar humorous vein. Charges that local police cars had of late fallen prey to illegal broadcasting of Corp messages were recorded more than the customary wave of the hand in authoritative circles yesterday, but it was emphasized that many amateur transmitters are capable of summoning police cars on these wild-goose chases and that practical jokers often wield their Morse key or voice transmission apparatus in just such ungentlemanly fashion. Vague reports of a city imperilled by a web of radio espionage, as proclaimed in roaring headlines by the paper in question, were dismissed with a smile or an outright laugh, and one official went so far as to term them "exaggerated fairy-tales."

It thus appears that local listeners are safe from the onslaught of crime and invasion for the present at least, and that regional journalistic enterprise shot to new heights of imaginative genius with publication of this report. Some local news-writer has a fine future in fiction!

OPERA TO CONTINUE THROUGH CFCF

Spring opera from Boston by the Metropolitan Opera of New York has been secured for local release by CFCF-CFCX, thus affording local devotees of fine music an opportunity to hear the entire Metropolitan season, according to announcement made late last night by representatives of the Marconi radio salons. "Das Rheingold," by Wagner, opens the spring season Saturday afternoon at 1.55 featuring Friedrich Schorr, Rene

BETTY SPEIRS' BALLET D'AMOUR

The talented soloists of "Ballet d'Amour" which will feature The Betty Speirs Recital at Victoria Hall, April 10. This group includes Phyllis Dickson, Hazel Webb, Doris Jackson, Shirley Harris, Shirley Watson, Jean Barnes, Bernice Dickson, Peggy Jean Ross, Patricia Patience and Joyce Lozinski. Hulda Semmens is in the centre of the back row.

Maison, Emanuel Liszt and Doris Doe . . . Grisha Goluboff, colorful young violin virtuoso with the Montreal Orchestra Sunday last, sailed Tuesday for a series of three concerts in Bermuda and will likely pay Montreal a return visit in the near future as guest soloist on a prominent radio hour originated locally for transcontinental release . . . Going into two new territories and expanding service in a third, NBC added three new stations to its roster Tuesday last, bringing its total station strength to a new high of 121 . . .

JEAN SABLON, PAUL LUKAS, SALLY RAND EXPECTED

Hailed in the United States as the French Bing Crosby, Jean Sablon, heard several weeks ago on the Magic Key, arrives in town Tuesday next for a Wednesday evening broadcast through CKAC. Sablon is well-known to local French fans for his Parisian recordings, but this will be his first appearance anywhere in Canada . . . Likewise, efforts are being made to bring Paul Lukas, suave smoothie of the celluloid strip, to Montreal for a personal appearance in the near future, and Fan Dancer Sally Rand is scheduled for an early return to town . . . Alex Lajoie returns to CKAC this week, and seems headed for an eventual tance spot on the Mutual network from Montreal's Chez Maurice. Ted Wright is no longer with the Lajoie outfit, and has been replaced by an uncommonly good vocalist, Jimmy Dunlop . . .

GABLE GIVES UP ARMS

Clarke Gable makes one of his rare radio appearances Monday evening through CKAC, when he stars opposite Josephine Hutchinson and Adolphe Menjou in a special adaptation of Ernest Hemingway's hit novel of several years back, "Farewell to Arms . . . Press agents have an easy time when assigned to publicity duty for Edgar Bergen. The clever ventriloquist, heard talking to himself on Rudy Vallee's show Thursday evenings, has been practicing the art since his high school days when he used to confound teachers by answering for his classmates as they faltered in oral examination. Bergen is a graduate medical doctor, but prefers talking through the ether to smelling it . . . "Little Women" is scheduled for a probable return to the air next Tuesday evening through CFCF, when Dorothy Davis directs her talented cast of kiddies in a special microphone version of the Louise M. Alcott tale . . . Drawing a gratifying mail response, this program should be accorded an earlier broadcast hour and thus be made available to the younger set of radio listeners . . . Tyrone Power Is Acclaimed As Sensation

Darryl F. Zanuck, Twentieth Century-Fox production chief, in assigning to Tyrone Power the leading male role in "Lloyds of London," screen triumph now playing until Saturday at the Westmount, and opening Sunday at the Seville, gave that young man one of the most coveted characterizations of the year.

The opportunity of overnight stardom was granted the young player as a result of his outstanding performances in two previous Twentieth Century-Fox pictures. Previous to his movie experience Tyrone received the indispensable training of acting before the footlights in theatres throughout the country. A romantically good-looking young man, just over six feet tall and weighing 155 pounds, he has dark brown eyes, brown hair, an infectious smile and a vital, boyish personality that insure his popularity as a romantic favorite.

"Lloyds of London" finds Tyrone in the role of Jonathan Blake, who carves a brilliant career for himself in the great international insurance firm whose fortunes he brings to its greatest peak. At the height of his meteoric career Jonathan falls in love with Madeleine Carroll, who, with Freddie Bartholomew as the very young Jonathan, is starred in the production.

The romance, however, is ill-starred from the beginning, and it is not until a thrilling climax culminating in Admiral Lord Nelson's thrilling victory at the Battle of Trafalgar, that the couple find the path to happiness.

Set against the turbulent canvas of the beginnings of British supremacy of the seas, the romance serves to focus into a single stirring kaleidoscope the birth of the empire and the growth of the world's most extraordinary and exciting business organization. An integral part of the fortunes of Great Britain, Lloyds of London found her early struggles closely bound up with marine policies, and Jonathan Blake innovated the now famous procedure of insuring everything and anything.

Sir Henry Figg (to butler)—"James, the doctor has ordered me to take more exercise. So in future I'll wind up my wrist watch myself."

Reicher, Michael Curtiz directed from a screen play by Casey Robinson.

SCREEN LOVERS ONCE AGAIN . . . !

Kay Francis and Ian Hunter are paired for the third time on the screen, in her newest starring picture for First National, "Stolen Holiday," a great human drama of fashions, finance and love, based on recent international events, which will be at the Westmount Sunday until Tuesday, following at the other local United Theatres.

Montreal Gazette and Gotham commentator on "Canada 1937," has turned playwright with Raymond Hackett, first-screen actor, and their first play has been accepted for production on Broadway late this coming summer . . .

Fashion Parade Thrill In New Westmount Film

Kay Francis is the dominating star of First National's new film, "Stolen Holiday," which opens at the Westmount Theatre, on Sunday, but all the exquisite gowns which evolved from the sketch-board of Orry-Kelly for the picture are not worn by her. Since she plays the role of a famous costume designer, there is a fashion promenade in her own saloon which features gowns of breathtaking loveliness.

From each mannequin in the picture's style show there are pertinent hints for the fashion vigilante. One model wears a brocade tunic over a skirt draped with a deep front slit. The tunic's girdle is swathed low around the hips, but the top edge also goes higher up around the normal waistline, giving the tip that one can soon expect a generally slight lowering of the waistline.

That sport clothes are being elevated to the drawing room, is evidenced in a dress of cellophane mesh which has a floor length tube skirt with a turtle neck blouse of self-material. It is a copy of an outfit one might spot on the tennis court, but the elegance of its material puts it in dress-up circles. Lots of sport clothes, including the lowly sweat shirt, are being copied in sumptuous materials for formal wear.

Three costumes in the fashion show introduce huge collars of crisp white, on black frocks. One moulded black velvet dress has a brief white organdy cape-collar with a Mary Stuart hat also of white organdy. A floor-length black crepe suit has a wide scalloped collar of white satin which extends out far enough to square the shoulderline. The third dress is black moire made with a very full tunic. Huge white organdy collar and cuffs contrast with the black while a black moire poke bonnet is lined with white taffeta.

Numerous gowns are lavish with metal cloths and one is trimmed with many bands of silver kid on black crepe. Persian lamb and silver fox are the favored fur trims and tiny high-crowned hats are in the majority. One cape trimmed in silver fox swings about both shoulders while one done in Persian lamb comes down from a single shoulder in the hussar fashion.

A fashion show as elaborate and as authentic as those that stirred Paris early this fall awaits you in this picture. "Stolen Holiday" is a thrilling romantic story of the rise of a lovely but humble mannequin to the position of queen of fashion in Paris, dictating to the whole world what women shall wear. Others in the cast besides Miss Francis include Ian Hunter, Claude Rains, Alison Skipworth, Alexander D'Arcy, Betty LaFord, Walter Kingford and Fran-and there ensues the plot told with hilarity by Mark Reed in his play, "Petticoat Fever," which the Montreal Repertory Theatre is presenting at Victoria Hall. The show opened last night, and will continue until Saturday.

In the MRT production Cecil Nichol, well-known on the local stage and radio, takes the part of the wireless man, with Margaret Rawlings and Joy Laflure as the two girls. Filmore Sadler plays the role of the crusty fiancé, Alfred Dann, that of the missionary, and Murray Black appears as the skipper of a sealing-vessel. Stuart Warrington, Dorothy Danford and Peggy McLean are seen as Eskimos.

"Petticoat Fever" is the MRT's fifth major production of the season.

ROTARY ICE CARNIVAL TO BE STAGED AT FORUM WEDNESDAY

SPORTS MOTORCYCLE CLUB NOTES

It is evidently going to be a record breaking season for the good old S.M.C.C. this year judging from the large attendance at the meetings so far.

Thursday evening the clubroom was crowded again and there were many new faces. Four of the visitors were accepted as new members and they certainly appear to be very keen and anxious to get things started in a motorcycling way. Besides these four, there were others who handed in applications which will have to be passed by the Executive. Things are humming and with all the programs being arranged, it won't be very long until larger rooms in which to hold the meetings will have to be secured.

In the absence of president, Ted Neapole, who unfortunately has been slightly ill, Herb McRae took charge of the meeting and seemed quite at ease judging from the humorous remarks coming from his direction. His able handling of the general business resulted in the meeting being over at 10.30 which included, of course, a very fine lecture by Herb Blair.

Herb spoke on the subject of Big Ends and very ably described the various types in use as well as much of their early history, he is the first speaker to illustrate his subject with specimens and while he was speaking, several con rods he had brought along with him were passed around to his audience. He got every one back.

We have already announced the Cage Tourney Second Round

Second round of the basketball tourney for the Sammett and Blair Trophy will be played Monday night at Queens school when two contests will be carded and in the latter the Westmount Junior Football Club will make its first entry into the tournament.

Interest is running high in this tourney and many noted cage stars of the city are seen in action on the four teams.

Novice Trial to be held April 25th and as the course will remain a secret until race time, it will be impossible to give details. Only riders who are members of this club and who have paid their fees will be eligible. The old experienced riders can enter of course but theirs will be only a personal victory as the glory all goes to the first Novice to finish. Water splashes and rocks will be omitted and judging will be on the usual basis i.e., five points for light footing, 25 points for failure etc.

The Outing Committee have arranged a small dance to take place Thursday April 15th at the Caroca Grill and tickets are now available from any member of the club. The cost is very slight and will include refreshments.

We have still been dogged by the continued wintry weather but there are several chaps riding about the city and every day finds another bike out for its spring airing. Several members were seen last Saturday afternoon despite the snow storm.

you?" we cried. "If it weren't for our quick thinking, we might have been in the ditch by now!"

He took our number and license, and threatened to inform the police. But we know these roadhogs... yellow and full of wile!

Spring being on the way, look out for the roadhog. He'll be on the highways in the near future, endangering life with his careless driving. If some dope wants to pass you at thirty five miles per hour, let him; it's his funeral he's preparing, not yours. And if he crowds you into the ditch, let him; the next time he does it, he may do it to the car of the chief of Police—and then you can have your laugh.

What? What's this legal looking letter from the Police Department? Let's open it. Hm! What? Hey! They can't do that to us! A summons for careless driving! That d—d dirty roadhog went and told the cops on us! The rat!

Next week, the subject will be "Spring!" And we'll guarantee it will be the worst yet!

Minuet On Skates Will Be Feature Of Annual Event To Aid Children's Hospital

Four, Eights, Singles, Clowns—All Will be There to Make Fine Program—Forum Officials Co-operate With Westmount Rotarians to Make This Year's Card the 'Best Ever'

With a fine group of successful ice carnivals behind them the Westmount Rotary Club committee, aided by the Forum officials, will stage a bang-up affair on Wednesday night that threatens to set attendance records at the Atwater Avenue Arena and at the same time establish a new high in entertainment of this nature.

Helen Chandler, who last season thrilled the many thousands who thronged the rink for this same affair, has been brought back by popular demand. Since her last appearance here Miss Chandler has won many more honors in the realm of figure and fancy skating and comes once again to a local audience, and once again on the program of a Rotary-sponsored carnival to aid the Children's Hospital.

LORD AT TEN YEARS

Lord Montague of Beaulieu of England, who succeeded his father to the title when only three, is the youngest member of nobility on the invitation list to the coronation of King George. Chances are Lord Montague, who is now ten years old, would enjoy a game of ball more than that day.

Nathan Walley is another world-renowned exponent of the figure-skating art who will be included on this programme of top-notch events.

A minuet, with one hundred skaters on the ice in costume and with powdered wigs will be another feature that should live long in the memory of everyone who sees the show.

A further version of last year's 'top-hat' number will be given, also by popular demand.

The clowns will be there as well and many other novelties.

Home Improvement Plan A Boon To General Trades

Panelled Walls Prove Popular

Panelled walls are equally effective in a dignified library or a summer living room. Their suggestion of mountain ruggedness makes them particularly adaptable to the latter use, for they give a feeling of mountain lodge or desert ranch-house that is a long cry from the city apartment.

Wood panelling that is easily applied is being made by a number of companies today. Funds for this improvement, to your home may be obtained from any Canadian bank under the generous terms of the Home Improvement Plan.

Of every dollar spent in the building industry—which employs one-ninth of all industrial workers—75 cents goes to the building trades workman who in turn spends the money on assorted commodities and thereby stimulates prosperity generally. A. H. Paradis, chairman of the Home Improvement Plan in the Montreal district, said Tuesday night over station CRCM.

Appealing in French for wide-spread participation in the H.I.P., Mr. Paradis explained its function and told how it is already relieving unemployment and assisting home-owners to renovate neglected property.

"From every dollar spent in the building industry," Mr. Paradis said, "the workman employed in the construction of buildings as well as in the fabrication and transportation of materials, receives about 75 cents. He spends the money, throughout the country, on merchandise of all sorts."

A slump in the building industry, he explained, can react to the detriment of the entire commercial system. One-ninth of all workmen are normally employed in building; "recent falling off in construction has reduced the national purchasing power and has slowed the sale of the products and services of all other industries," he said. Since the building industry is so important, revived construction under the H.I.P., Mr. Paradis said, will brighten the entire economic picture, besides relieving

Modern Sink Is Great Advantage

No wonder the family hated doing dishes! Once upon a time the sink was merely a convenient place to set the dish pan, and where the drain was usually clogged once a week because the sink was also used for garbage disposal.

But now, thanks to modern design, the old fashioned sink and the weary housewife can be done with forever, says the Canadian Institute of Plumbing and Heating. And thanks to the Home Improvement Plan, the new magic sink is a possibility for every housewife.

The kitchen sink has now become a symbol of efficiency, sanitation, convenience and beauty. The germ ringed dishpan is now replaced by a sink deep enough that dishes may be washed in it, and afterwards rinsed and sterilized with a hot water hose spray.

It also contains a movable strain which catches all the debris. Underneath, attached to the sink is the garbage container conveniently located to swing out when needed. Hidden underneath also, and easy to swing out when anything is wanted, is a container for brushes and cleaning compounds, which formerly made very unattractive ornaments for the handiest window-sill.

The new sinks have bright chromium faucets and acid resisting enamel which cannot be harmed by fruit juices or acids, and that keeps its original lustre undimmed for years. Combined with the new cabinet units it transforms the old fashioned kitchen.

The new sink is an essential part in any plan for modernizing the kitchen and is a sound investment in thousands of homes where housewives are struggling along with obsolete sinks. Home economics experts, whose studies have shown that half the time the housewife spends in the kitchen is involved with tasks at the kitchen sink realize the need for modern equipment.

SPAT

The newly married man and his wife fell out of temper with each other. The quarrel lasted through the night and the next morning the wife went down stairs to prepare breakfast.

Thinking it time to make peace, the husband went to the top of the stairs and called: "What's for breakfast, darling?"

"Rats!" came back the tart reply.

"All right, dear," replied the man, "cook one for yourself and fry me an egg."

MAINLY ABOUT ROADHOGS

Roadhog: — a pig on four wheels. The paradox is that they permit packing companies to slaughter thousands of harmless, helpless porkers every year, but let someone attempt to do justice to a roadhog, and it is only a matter of minutes before the law is after you for attempted murder, or something.

Spring being in the calendar, if not in the air, (at the time of writing) many roadhogs will awake from their hibernating and will bring out their cars for a spring tryout. A tryout because they want to tryout how many laws they can break without being apprehended.

At great personal danger we secured the photograph herewith presented. Ducking into the middle of the road as the model T-57½ approached, we snapped the shutter and had the roadhog photographed before he knew it. See the perturbed look on his brow; see his wife (or his girl friend) bawling him out; observe the wobble in his front wheels; perceive the highly modern car he drives; see anything you like. The perturbed look on his brow is because he has just missed a pedestrian; his companion is bawling him out because—well, because she's a woman and would bawl him out anyway whether there were reason or not; the wobble in the front wheels is put there on purpose because it makes the car more dangerous, thus causing the roadhog to feel more at home; the modern car (vintage of 1924) is a greater hazard to the safety of others—that's why he drives it; these things sum up the roadhogs from one end of Canada to the other.

We were out for a drive the other day—Tuesday, to be exact. Driving along at about forty-five or fifty miles an hour, we looked up in horror from the book we were reading (clamped on the windshield near the wiper; it makes driving less tedious) and saw a roadhog approaching. We knew right away he was a roadhog because of the way he kept to the right side of the street, drove at only fifteen miles an hour, stopped at the stop-sign, and put out his hand when going to make a turn. These things are just put on to detract attention from the fact that he is a roadhog—a mask behind which to hide his pernicious anamnia—pardon us, his pernicious habits.

In horror we knew right away that we were in deadly danger from this driving maniac. In order to avoid being struck by his car, we suddenly swerved to the left side of the street, ran through a stop-sign, did a U-turn and came up just in front of him. Throwing the gears into reverse, we backed up at high speed and rammed him in the radiator.

"Ha, ha! Fooled you that time, you—! Try to crowd us, would you—!"
