FURTHER COMPLICATION IN THE GREEK SITUATION IS CAUSING ENTENTE POWERS MUCH CONCERN

While The Attitude Which Will Be Taken By Greece Is Still In The Balance—Serbian Northern Army Is Being Slowly Ground Down By Austro-German And Bulgarian Forces—The Germans Remain On The Defensive In The East and West

London, Nov. 5—Another twenty-four hours have complicated rather than clarified the situation in Greece, the attitude of the King of which country is causing the Entente powers much concern.

Apparently determined that M. Zaimis shall remain in the office of Prime Minister King Constantine today urged him to retain the Premiership. According to Athens despatches, however, M. Zaimis declined to acquiesce in the King's desire, whereupon the King called a Council of Ministers, the deliberations of which may or may not determine whether Greece is to align herself against Bulgaria or persist in her attitude of "benevolent neutrality," which means that though the Allied troops may cross her soil her armies shall not aid them in driving the Bulgarians from Serbia.

While Greece hesitates the Serbian northern army is being slowly but surely ground down before the combined pressure of the Austro-German and Bulgarian forces. The facts of Nish hangs by a hair, and it is only at the southern end of the battle front that the Bulgars are meeting with any reverses. There, according to reports, the British are co-operating with the French, but as heretofore these reports are unofficial and fragmentary and it cannot be said authoritatively whether the British are in touch with their new enemy.

If the Bulgar-Teuton tide is turned, the best opinion here is that it will be some weeks hence, involving a period of uncertainty such as preceded the stand before Paris and on the Yser. But giving the Entente powers a month's time, it is argued that they can throw three hundred thousand, and perhaps five hundred thousand men into Serbia, not including Russians, and with such a force not only dispute the advance of the Central Powers but contest Bulgaria's occupation of Serbian Macedonia.

The Germans remain on the defensive in the east and west. Neither theatre has developed any large battles as modern battles are reckoned.

The Turks continue sporadic rally active in the Dardanelles region, as is recorded in tonight's British official communication from the Gallipoli Peninsula. This says the Turks launched attacks against the British right in the Anzac region, but that they did not dent the British line.

MORE THAN 300 PERISHED WITH BRITISH TRANSPORT

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT MADE OF SINKING OF BRITISH STEAMER RAMAZAN.

London, Nov. 5—Official announcement by the War Office tonight of the sinking of the British transport Ramazan by a hostile submarine in the Aegean Sea in the latter part of September, previously reported, shows that more than 300 men were lost when the transport went down.

The official statement says:

"The War Office announce that the British transport Ramazan was sunk by an enemy submarine by shell fire at a.m., on September 19 off the Island of Antikythria in the Aegean Sea. There were about 300 Indian troops on board, of whom 75 were saved. Twenty eight of the crew were also saved.' A number of boats were smashed by shell fire.

"The survivors reached Antikythria in their own boats the same night and were kindly and hospitably treated by the inhabitants.

Previous announcement of the loss of the Ramazan came in a despatch from Athens on Sept. 28th which told of the presence of survivors of the transport on Greek territory, whence they had been sent by the Greek government to Malta. No details regarding the transports loss were given at the time.

15 YEARS HARD LABOR FOR GEN. GREGORIEFF

Petrograd, Nov. 5, via London.—Absence from the fortress of Kovno during the fighting there and inadequate preparation of the defense were charged against General Gregorieff, who was commandant of the fortress when it fell, in the court martial proceedings at Dvinsk which resulted in his receiving a sentence of fifteen years at hard labor and the loss of all his rights.

NOBEL PRIZES.

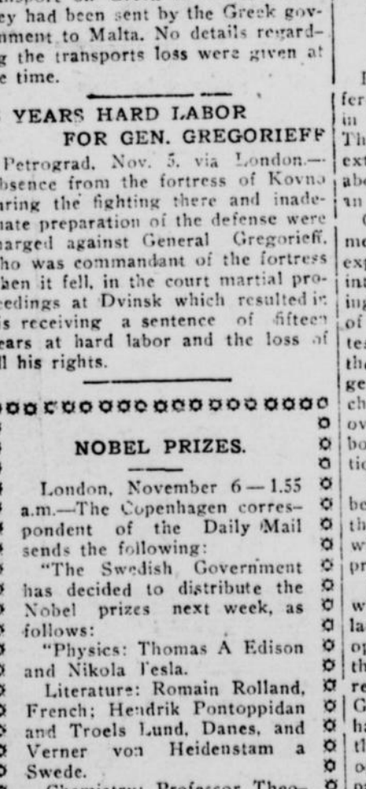

London, November 6—1.55 a.m.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Mail sends the following:

"The Swedish Government has decided to distribute the Nobel prizes next week, as follows:

"Physics: Thomas A Edison and Nikola Tesla.

Literature: Romain Rolland, French; Hendrik Pontoppidan and Troels Lund, Danes, and Verner von Heidenstam a Swede.

Chemistry: Professor Theodor Svedberg."

ZAMIS REFUSES THE PREMIERSHIP

IS DETERMINED TO TAKE NO ACTIVE PART IN INTERNAL POLITICS.

London, Nov. 5—8.30 p.m.—King Constantine of Greece has again offered the Premiership to M. Zaimis, who had resigned on the defeat of his Ministry in the Chamber, according to a Reuter despatch from Athens. M. Zaimis refused to accept the offer and a council of Ministers was called, the despatch adds.

M. Zaimis' refusal to retain the post the correspondent states, was on account that although he had previously accepted the Premiership to ease the situation, he was determined, as he had previously declared, to abstain from taking an active part in internal politics.

ROME TROUBLED ABOUT THE WAR

MINISTER SUGGESTED ITALY SHOULD NTERVENE TO RESTORE PEACE.

Rome, via Paris, Nov. 5—Sharp differences of opinion have developed in the cabinet concerning the war. These diffrencs have not reached the extent of a crisis, but have brought about a conflict in views, leading to an exciting incident.

One of the Ministers at a recent meeting of the cabinet is said to have expressed the view that Italy's best interests would be served by assisting a movemnt toward the restoration of peace. This caused an angry protest and charges were made against the good faith of the Minister suggesting peace. Epithets were exchanged and one of the Ministers, overcome by indignation, threw a book at his colleague whose suggestion had caused the strife

The incident is declared to have been largely of a personal nature and the cabinet and country are united, with this exception, for continuing the present policy.

While a cabinet crisis, such as those which have occured in France, England and Russia, has been avoided, opinion here is divided concerning the conduct of the war, especially as regards a Balkan expedition Lieut.-General Count Cadorna's iron will has triumphed in this aspect. He said that he would rather resign as chief of the General Staff than to allow a part of his troops to participate in a Balkan undertaking, and his views was finally adopted by the Minister of War and the entire cabinet.

The Navy Department also has passed through a crisis. Vice-Admiral Camilio Corsi was substituted for Vice-Admiral Viale as Minister of Marine, and this action was quickly followed by the relieving of Vice-Admiral Thaon Di Revel from the head of the naval General Staff. Vice-Admiral Corsi has now assumed active direction of thr fleet, which is active direction of the fleet, which is naval campaign.

EARLY CLOSING TO SAVE LIGHT AND FUEL

Special Order Issued at Petrograd

Petrograd, Nov. 5, via London.—With a view to saving fuel and reducing the use of artificial light it has been ordered that all shops except those devoted to the sale of food close daily at seven p.m., Places of entertainment must close at 11.30, while eleven o'clock is the hour fixed for the adjournment of public meetings.

ITALIAN STEAMER IONIO SUNK.

London, Nov. 5.—9 p.m—The Italian steamer Ionio has been sunk, according to an announcement made here tonight.

The Ionio was a vessel of 1,816 tons. She was built in 1886 and was owned at Palermo by the Navigazione Generales Italiano.

STEAMER OVERDUE REACHES ENGLAND

DOCKED ON THURSDAY WITH 41 OFFICERS AND 1,036 MEN.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The arrival of the steamer Arduna at a port in England with Canadian troops is officially announced. The Orduna sailed on Oct. 27 and docked on Nov. 4.

On board were the Fiftieth (Calgary) Battalion, 41 officers and 1,036 men; civilian medical practitioners for the British army, 6; details, 1 officer and 12 men.

KITCHENER NOT GOING TO FRANCE

London, Nov. 6—The Times today declares that a rumor that Field Marshal Earl Kitchener might take command in France may be dismissed as entirely without foundation.

SEVEN MEN ON DRIFTING BARGE

Alpena, Mich., Nov. 5—Seven men are believd to be on the barge White and Friant, which has been drifting in Lake Huron since yesterday. The barge was in tow of the steamer Homer Warren yesterday when the line broke. The steamer arrived here today and captain Brown notified all of the coast guard stations in this locality to search for the barge. A heavy sea has been running.

The vessels were on the way to Raber, Mich. to load lumber for Cleveland. The White and Friant is 158 feet long and is owned at Wiarton, Ont.

ANNUAL DOLLAR SALE.

The Annual Dollar Sale of the Baden-Powell Chapter, I.O.D.E., will be held at the Y. W. C. A. on November the twenty-sixth. A great many attractive and useful articles suitable for Christmas gifts ranging in price from five cents to one dollar will be on sale.

GERMAN AEROPLANE IS BROUGHT DOWN

SIR JOHN FRENCH REPORTS FIVE AIR FIGHTS ON THURSDAY.

London, Nov. 5.—11 p.m.—The following official communication from Field Marshal Sir John French was made public tonight:

"Yesterday five air fights took place, resulting in a German aeroplane being brought down in our line.

"Since the first of November the weather has been very wet. Mining activity continues on both sides."

REPULSE FOUR TURKISH ATTACKS

THE CASUALTIES OF THE ENTENTE ALLIES WERE VERY LIGHT.

London, Nov. 5.—The Turkish forces in the Dardanelles took the offensive on Nov. 4 and made four attacks on the positions of the Entente Allies. All these attacks were repulsed, it is announced in an official statement issued here today.

The official statement announcing the repulse of the Turkish attack says:

"Between 8.30 p.m. and 9.30 p.m. on the night of the fourth instant the Turks attacked four times against our extreme right at Anzac. The enemy advanced with filled sand bags and built small barricades. On each occasion, however, they were repulsed with bomb and rifle fire and by 11 p.m. all was quiet.

"Although during this attack there was considerable firing and demonstrations by the enemy against different portions of our line, no other attack was attempted. Our casualties were very light."

DENY KITCHENER HAS RESIGNED

PUBLIC WELCOME OFFICIAL STATEMENT—EARL HAS AUDIENCE WITH KING.

London, Nov. 5—The prompt official denial of the report that Earl Kitchener had resigned was welcomed by the public, which has pinned its faith to the man who succeeded within a year in turning a purely industrial community into a great war camp.

The official announcement of the Field Marshal's temporary absence from the War Office is in accordance with public expectation. Premier Asquith, who takes charge of the departmental work during Earl Kitchener's absence, had experience in the War Office shortly before the outbreak of the war.

The Court Circular said this morning that Earl Kitchener last night had had an audience of the King, who is still confined as the result of his accident in France.

Premier Asquith was seen entering the War Office this morning and remained a considerable time. Afterwards the Permanent Secretary of the War Office, Sir Reginald H. Brade, with one of Earl Kitchener's secretaries, visited the Premier at his official residence in Downing Street.

Correspondence

Quebec, Nov., 5, 1915.

To the Editor of The Chronicle,

Dear Sir,—A short time ago some letters appeared in the Chronicle complaining of the condition of things at the French Remount Station on the Lorette Road and it may have been inferred that our Society was not giving the matter proper attention. On the contrary our inspectors have paid frequent visits to the Station since it was opened in August last and I have been there two or three times. On the last occasion I had a long interview with Mr. R. M. Williams the Camp Director and from the information he gave me I am satisfied that the horses are well looked after. The Contractors, Messrs. Mayer & Carpenter of New York commenced receiving horses here on the 9th of August last and up to the 15th October had received and handled 11009 horses, the total number that died during that period being 163 or only about 1 1-2 per cent. Unfortunately the Contractors agreed to receive and ship about 1120 horses belonging to another Contractor. These horses arrived on the 26th or 27th of September last during very wet weather and within four days 100 of them died. The weather conditions alone could not have accounted for the enormous loss and it is quite evident that these horses must have been in very poor condition when they arrived here. It was stated in the Daily Telegraph in an interview with a Col. Woodworth that these horses had been without food for something like fifty-two hours but so far we have not been able to obtain any evidence that such was the case. We are still investigating the matter and are in correspondence with the contractor and hope yet to find out who was responsible for the condition these horses were in when thy arrived here. Messrs. Mayr & Carpenter are however not responsible for this particular shipment with which they had nothing to do. The only complaint I have to make is that the horses are in most cases in open paddocks and consequently exposed to the weather, more shed accommodation should I think have been provided. This I feel sure will be remedied next year if there is any furthr necessity for the shipment of horses from here which I trust there will not be.

Yours truly,

JOHN T. ROSS,
President Quebec S. P. C. A.

PATRIOT OR PARASITE?

Sir,—Mr. Lavergne answered his own arguments as well as the statesmanlike offer of Sir Sam Hughes, and the Boutassins are now a rump and not a real party in the State. But it is never amiss to go straight down to bedrock principles. So there can be no harm in exposing once more the fundamental nonsense of the Bourassite policy on questions of defence. All the points that really matter can be told off on the fingers of one hand—and a nice little, five-finger exercise they make for Bourassites to puzzle over!

(1)—If the heart is piereced, the whole body dies. If the British Navy was defeated the Empire would collapse; and any power strong enough to beat the Mother Country could afterwards take Canada with ease. Therefore, Canada could not possibly be defended in any better way than by the present fighting fronts in Europe. Imagine a Bourassian army defending Canada on the banks of the St. Lawrence from the attack of any enemy who could force the Grand Fleet's guard! The Bourassite policy is to fight with the few when the many have failed. The only way that can ever work in practice, is to add our few to the whole Empire's many and so help to turn the scale.

(2)—But how about the Constitutionalities? How about the "foreign wars that are no affair of Canada's," etc., etc., etc.? Well, let the rump of Bourassites explain how it is that they are "out" with all the constitutionalists and "in" with all the "antis"? The extremely democratic Australians and New Zealanders are all for defence at the front by means of oversea contingents. So is the oldest of all British colonies, Newfaundland. So, too, in, overwhelming voting force, is the Union of South Africa, with the hearty good will of all the most enlightened Boers. The argument that South Africa would only fight a la Bourassienne won't hold water any longer because, not content with her conquest of South-West Africa, she is sending two other expeditions to distant parts of that continent and a third to Europe itself. When we remember that this, the only sensible, policy commends itself not only to the people of all these other free Dominions but to the immense majority in our own, and that the same policy is gladly welcomed and freely followed by people as different from us and from each other as Indian Princes from Barbadian negroes, and both from Polynesians, we need not worry ourselves sick over the loss of all those priceless liberties which have been championed only by a lying traitor like Sir Roger Casement, who tried in vain to make the Irish prisoners in Germany as black malignants as himself, by turncoat officers like Beyers and Maritz, who met their just deserts, in Africa, and, last but not least, by those preeminent guardians of the one-and-only, true-blue British Constitution, the Messrs. Bourassa, Lavergne and Co.

(3)—What do these none-other-genuine-rump-of-the-Nationalists really want? They have often promised to keep the whole Empire safe from all and sundry as soon as the Mother Country gives them full proportional representation in her Imperial councils. But how about the corresponding responsibilities, and how about bearing their own fair share of the burden of defence? To judge from their acts, which, incredible as it may seem, are even louder than their words, they want to get everything and give nothing—to be, in fact, the perfect rasite. They have never taken one practical step towards any form of Imperial Federation, whether by means of a parliament repressting the whole Empire, or otherwise—quite the reverse. They stabbed Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the back about a Canadian navy, and then Sir Robert Borden about a Canadian addition to the Mother Country's fleet. They have never done a hand's turn for our own militia; and they are against using Canadian troops in the only way that can ensure the safety of their country. No one has ever hurt their own race more than tney have now.

(4)—If nothing suits them inside the Empire, what do they seek elsewhere? Annexation? That wouldn't help them, as the United States would either absorb them or obliterate them as a constant thorn in the flesh. Independence? Who is mad enough to think that an independent Canada, which now has the same population as London, could hold a country the area of Europe in a well-armed, land-hungry world which has a population more than two hundred times greater than her own? Perhaps the real hearts desire is for a brand-new country called La Bourassie, governed by demagogues and warmed by hot air. But it's a long, long way to other spots than Tipperary; and there'd be bayonets in plenty if the rump tried sitting on the rest of Canada.

(5)—Under these distressing circumtsances the Bourassite rump of the "Nationalistes" naturally prefer exploiting their own idea of British liberty for all it is worth, and for all they are not. Wherever there's liberty, there's a good chance for licence. We are away the freeest people in the world. But we can only remain so, if we freely do our duty as patriots towards our own country and the Empire, which is our country's sole defence, instead of taking a mean advantage to live as parasites on the strength of others. The rump opposes overseas recruiting because it choses to call this unconstitutional. Why does it not refuse to pay the taxes that pay for this unconstitutional war? Surely the taxes must be as unconstitutional as the recruits? Can it be because recruiting is voluntary, and so may be opposed with impunity from all but patriotic retribution, while taxes are compulsory, and so must be paid or else you'll find yourself in gaol? Alas! for all the highest motives that animate the rump!

I am, sir,

Faithfully yours,

WILLIAM WOOD.

How to Prevent Acid Stomachs and Food Fermentation

By a Stomach Specialist.

As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is excessive acid in the stomach, usually due to, or aggravated by, food fermentation. Acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach and food fermentation causes wind which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and they comprise over 90 per cent. of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking in a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, from one to two teaspoonfuls of bisurated magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only really effective antacid and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will at once proceed to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bisurated magnesia, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.—F. J. G.

BRITISH ARMY SING PRAISES OF THE BIG GUNS

"It is the Sweetest Sound in the World," Said Survivor of Mons, of the Noise.

ARTILLERY WELCOMED.

Soldiers Greatly Pleased With Support of Big Cannon in the Battle of Loos.

British Headquarters, France, Oct. 28—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Since the taking of Loos all are army is singing the praises of the guns and the planes. No such bombardment had ever been heard on the British front as that which preceded the attack.

There seemed no intervals between the reports of the guns; not even those of the beat of a snare drum. The roar had the power and continuity of Niagara Falls. House windows in the surrounding country kept up a continuous rattle.

"It is the sweetest sound in the world', said one of the surviving veterans of the retreat from Mons. "It means you will get into the German trench and have a fair fight of it and won't charge into the play of the machine guns or be hung up in the barbed wire. A year ago when we held the Germans back from the channel ports we were doing it with flesh and blood against the outnumbering German artillery. The most comforting sight in the world is an eight inch howitzer; and next to that is a motor truck loaded with high explosive

As morning approached after the night of bombardment, officers on the British front were looking at their wrist watches. In front of Loos the figure six marking the half hour—half-past six—was the goal of the creeping minute hand. At that moment a wave of men rose from the first line of British trenches, and the volume of shell-fire was lifted from the first line German to the second line as the stream from a hose is lifted from one flower bed to another. Meanwhile every man in the charge tried to outrun every other man. The sooner they were in the German trench the less likelihood of the Germans coming out of their dugouts and recovering their senses after the bath of shells and firing on the advance If only one machine gun can be manned before the charge goes home the charge may be stopped in that immediate section. It is all a matter of wrist watches, of speed, team play and of seconds.

With the first flush of dawn the birds of war had come from their aerodromes. The shell-fire and the planes were all that the onlooker might see.

"I should think that we had eight planes that day to one of the German's" said an aviator. "We had concentrated planes as well as guns."

Only when the secret of the point of concentration is kept can such an attack succeed against a modern defensive position. The Germans had learned that the British were preparing an attack; for their soldiers called out from their trenches to the British: "When are you coming?" to which one Briton replied: "I'll let you know as soon as Sir John French tells me."

Attacks were made that morning at several places; but the Germans expected the real attack elsewhere than Loos.

"There has been a great deal of talk", said a staff officer, "to the effect that the element of surprise has disappeared from war. It is as vital as it ever was Only concealment was never so difficult."

Troops and guns had to be moved at night when the German planes might not note the concentration. British planes must ward off German planes by day.

Infiinite labor and pains in detail are required, of hundreds of thousands of men for such an attack. That of the medical corps along its stupendous. On the morning of the attack beds were ready; and the countless ambulances and the clearing stations and all the intricate organization for caring for the wounded ready.

As the attack proceeded a veritable flock of planes was cutting circles and dipping and turning over the battlefields as if in an exhibition of airmanship. They appearel to be disconnected with the battle; but no participant was more busy or intent than they. All the panorama of action was beneath them; they alone could really "see" the battle if they chose. But each aviator stole only passing glimpses of the whole; for each one was intent on his part which was to keep watch of whether the shells of the battery to which he reported were on the target or not.

To distinguish whose shell-burst was whose in the midst of that cloud of dust and smoke over the German positions seemed as difficult as to separate the spout of steam from one pipe from another when a hundred were making a wall of vapor.

Every youth in England apparently wants to get into the aerial service. So the corps has its pick. Promotion is rapid; the romance and the excitement of the work appeal. It is easy to learn to fly in the very stable latest types of machines which, as the saying goes, are "fool-proof". It takes only two months to train a man with aptitude to do the routine work of reconnaisance. But he must be young. Men do not learn readily after they are thirty, with few exceptions and they are very poor pupils indeed after they are thirt-five. It is not difficulty to spot shells when only a few batteries are firing but when perhaps a hundred guns are dropping shells on a half mile front of trench a highly trained eye is required. Occasionally a plane was observed to slip down like a hawk which had located a fish in the water. At all hazards that intrepid aviator was going to identify the shell bursts of the batteries which he represented. The Germans might have him in rifle range but they were too busy trying to hold back the English infantry to fire at him.

SCOTTY ALLAN IS NOT HELD UP

ANOTHER HYPHENATED LIE IS NAILED—"IDIOTIC," SAYS LIEUT. HAAS.

"Scotty" Allan, from Nome, Alaska, who is in Quebec in charge of 106 dogs for the French army, characterizes as ridiculous, the story emanating from Seattle, Wash., that he was held up in Quebec because he had neglected to take out his naturalization papers.

Lieut. Haas, of the French Army, who is here on a special mission and is loking after the purchase of those dogs, said there was absolutely no truth in such statements.

"It is idiotic," said Lieut. Haas, "Mr. Allan has had no diffierence whatever with the authorities; he is not held here for the reasons stated in the Seattle dispatch. The whole affair is this:

"Mr. Allan, before closing with the French Government, did like every American subject who wishes to gain success to French soil. He wrote to Washington to have his naturalization papers sent to him here, and if he has not left yet, it is because they have not been received, though they should be here today or tomorrow at the latest. This is the whole story why he has not departed yet with Captain Moufflet, and, I repeat, it is absurd to have sent out such an item that he had been detained by the authorities at Quebec."

ITALY DOUBTFUL REGARDING BALKANS

Rome, Nov. 5, via Paris, Nov. 6.—12:40 a.m.—The reports that Italy will take a hand in the conflict in the Balkans by landing an expedition in Albania receive no confirmation in official quarters here. The negative attitude of officials leads to the strong conviction that no Albanian expedition is intended.

NOME CUT OFF FROM OUTSIDE WORLD.

Nome, Alaska, Nov. 5—The steamship Victoria sailed for Seattle late last night, the last vessel to leave Nome this season. Until next June, when navigation in Behring Sea is opened, Nome will be cut off from the outside world except by travel over 2,000 miles of snow trail to the open ports in south-western Alaska.

The Victoria is carrying 250 passengers and a large shipment of gold bullion. About 2,500 people will remain in Nome.

PROHIBITION IS LIKELY TO WIN IN NEWFOUNDLAND

ANTI-LIQUOR STRONGHOLDS ARE NOT REPORTED FROM AS YET.

St. John's Nfld., Nov. 5—The returns, so far, in yesterday's prohibition election indicate that the movement is likely to succeed, as the counts have been completed in four out of eighteen electoral districts, into which the island is divided. Of the districts which have been counted, Ferryland alone gave an adverse majority, 305 votes being cast for prohibition and 381 against.

Harbor Main gave a majority for prohibition, polling 383 for and 236 against, but Harbor Main lacked 650 votes of the forty per cent of the registered electors, which the law requires shall be polled in every district to make prohibition operative.

Port de Garve, polled 831 for prohibition and 136 against. That district had sixty votes above its quota.

Carbonear polled 590 for prohibition and 49 against. Carbonear had seventeen above its quota.

St. John's West will complete its counting about midnight, and the figures indicates about 2,200 for prohibition, 250 against. This will give about 250 above the quota. The Great Bays of Trinity, Bonavista, Notre Dame, yet unreported, are considered the prohibition strongholds, and are expected to give sufficiently large majorities to the measure to offset the present adverse figures. St John's East, Harbor Grace and Bay de Verde are expected to complete polling tonight.

STEAMER WITH FIRE IN HOLD IN PORT.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 5—The steamer Rio Lages, with a cargo of sugar on fire in No. 2 hold, arrived here tonight and anchored in mid-stream. Nothing is known as to the extent of the damage, or the origin of the fire. The steamer will go into dry dock tomorrow for examination.

MONTREAL'S CONTRIBUTION TO RED CROSS.

Montreal, Nov. 5—The conclusion of the count in connection with Montreal's campaign for funds for the British Red Cross Society may not be reached for some time yet, as Mayor Martin today said it would remain open as long as there was a chance of subscriptions coming in. So far, a total of $68,000 has been reached, this including $17,432 collected on the streets on "tag day," and the Mayor now estimates the probable total at about $100,000. The campaign was begun a week ago yesterday.

TURKISH "DREAMS"

Constantinople, Nov. 5, via London, Nov. 6, 4.33 a.m.—The official statement issued today at the Turkish War Office was as follows:

"There was minor fighting near Anafarta.

"Our artillery forced enemy war vessels to retreat from stations off Kerniklet Liman. One armored cruiser was hit three times and a transport vessel once. Fire was observed aboard the latter.

"An enemy monitor torpedo boat bombarded Enos for two hours, destroying some houses."

AVIATORS WANT BETTER TREATMENT.

Toronto, Nov. 5—In an effort to secure better treatment from the government and the Curtiss school, the Toronto student aviators held a meeting at the Toronto Canoe Club today. In spite of repeated assurances by Mr. A. F. Barr, secretary of the Curtiss Aviation School, that all the students would receive a refund of $375 of the $400 fee, the committee of the students have received word from Col. Staunton, military secretary to H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, and representative of the Royal Flying Corps in Canada, that he has little hope that the War Office will refund any portion of the fee to any student who has not qualified for his pilot's license. This puts many of the students in a very embarrassing position, as in a number of cases the money for the fee was borrowed on the strength of Mr. Barr's promise.

It was decided to hold another meeting at which representatives of the Curtiss Company will be requested to attend.

SERBIANS DEFEATED BULGARIAN ARMY.

London, November 6—The Bulgarian army descending in old Serbia to invade Macedonia by way of Veles and Perlepe, was defeated at Izvor, at the entrance of the Babuna Pass, after a battle lasting several days, according to an announcement made by the Serbin Legation at Athens, and transmitted to Reuter's Telegram Company.

JAPAN'S RULER LEFT FOR KIOTO TO TAKE THRONE

Yoshihito to Accede to the Throne of the Empire of the Rising Sun.

ALL TOKIO CELEBRATES

Hundreds of Thousands Acclaim Emperor as He Leaves City in State.

Tokio, Nov. 6.—Yoshihito, Emperor of Japan and 122nd head of the Japanese imperial house after the first emperor Jimmu whose reign began 2575 years ago, left Tokiio today for Kicto to make his state entry into the capital of his forefathers and there formally accede to the throne of the Empire of the Rising Sun. The monarch was to have been accompanied by Empress Sadako, but the nearness of the period when Her Majesty is expected to give birth to another heir prevented her from participating in th ceremonies.

The imperial carriage was preceded to the railroad station by the "kashikodokoro" or Divine Mirror, which represents the spirit of the grand imperial ancestress or Sun Goddess, Amaterasu Omikami, and was accompanied by the two other sacred treasures which symbolize the sanctity and power of the throne of Nippon, the sacred sword and the sacred jewel, sometimes known as the necklace of pearl-like gems with the magnificent curve, which have been handed down from Emperor to Emperor through untold generations.

The whole city of Tokio is in joyous fete unexampled in Japanese history since the triumphant entry of Emperor Mutsuhito nearly fifty years ago. Hundreds of thousands of people are here from the provinces, most of them to remain until the great celebration in Tokio at the end of the month when the Emperor returns from Kioto. Special flags and paper lanterns are suspended over every door to mark the inauguration of the happy coronation period. Streets, parks and public buildings are decorated with festal flag and banner. The tramcars wear garlands. From the noble to the ricksha man the dominating note is joy and gladness.

Prior to the departure of the imperial cortege a solemn religious ceremony was performed at the imperial sanctuary in the palace.

At the appointed time in the early morning the hall wherein is enshrined the imperial sanctuary was decorated by court ritualists in a manner appropriate to the occasion. This being finished, His Imperial Highness Prince Higashi Fushimi, chief commissioner, and other members of the coroantion board, all in ceremonious Japanese dress, took their seats.

The doors of the sanctuary were opened amid Shinto music, and after offerings were made before the altar Prince Iwakura, the chief ritualist, read a religious address or prayer announcing to the spirit-soul of the imperial grand ancestress, Amaterasu Omikami, the commencement of the auspicious coronation ceremonial and the transfer of the imperial sanctuary and the court to Kioto for the celebration of the same. Then a chamberlain and a maid-of-honor, both in ancient court robe and respectively representing the Emperor and Empress, proceeded before the presence of the holy of holies and made obeisance on behalf of their majesties.

The ceremony having closed with solemn chords of music, the holy of holies, which is the sacred mirror, was slowly borne outside the palace to be taken to Kioto, together with the sacred sword and gem. The sacred treasures, which are the emblem of the throne, being held in the deepest veneration and respect, their departure from the capital was celebrated in a most august and dignified manner.

The "kashikodokoro" was transferred in this way: An ancient palanquin, which is called the Feathery Wheels of Heaven, was brought to the southern porch of the imperial Sanctuary, and the sacred mirror was placed therein. Then the palanquin was slowly borne to the station on the shoulders of villagers from a suburb of Kioto—a village to which this honor has fallen from time immemorial. They wore the ancient kimono costume of the sanctuary guards.

As the royal cortege left the palace the thunder of saluting guns from the public parks informed the multitudes of the metropolis, and that was the signal for silent prayer for the joyous departure of the Emperor for his beatific accession and his safe return to the capital. For all to witness the royal departure was physically impossible. Thousands had arrived along the line of progress last night to await patiently throughout the long hours. The great majority who were unable to find places will be able to witness the royal cortege when the Emperor is officially greeted by the city of Tokio.

The emperor rode to the railway station in a coach of regal magnificence through lines of picked troops from the Household Guard.

Tailors to His Majesty "The Man"

THRIFT

A big saving on every purchase.

Enough to patch the leak in the roof and provide for the "rainy day"—enough for the little holiday once in a while—enough for a new book or an evening at "the show"—enough for the dreary days of sickness.

Enough to pay a bill when it is presented and to take up the note when it is due. Enough to save the men from becoming an unmitigated nuisance that is always borrowing quarters and halves, knowing they are obligations too small to justify a dun.

Just enough so that when your wife needs a little extra money for the little emergency demands in the household, she won't come to you with the air of a woman who has made up her mind to suicide or murder — and doesn't care very much which.

That's what you save when you buy your Suit or Overcoat from the English and Scotch Woollen Co.

QUEBEC, NOVEMBER 6, 1915.

THE MILITARY INQUIRY.

Both the civil and military elements of the population of Quebec have been much exercised in spirit lately over the affair in which a soldier was badly beaten up by a military picket which has furnished occasion for criticism throughout the summer. We have no intention of attempting to criticize Judge Langelier's decision because his record puts him beyond criticism and we have reason to believe that the evidence submitted to him was of an incomplete nature. As regards the military inquiry, however, we are of the opinion that there has been too much of an attempt to smooth the matter over and that the punishment has not been made to fit the crime. While the public has been left considerably in the dark upon this matter, we understand that the brutal maltreatment of Private Jones, which is apparently proved, by testimony given, only drew a penalty of a few days' ordinary detention, whereas a Court Martial would have been more appropriate.

To our mind the result of the events connected with this unfortunate affair is liable to produce two effects, one being a set-back in the matter of military discipline, the other a possibility of strained relations between the military and civil elements of the population.

We appeal, therefore, to General Sir Sam Hughes to hold a sweeping and impartial investigation into all the circumstances connected with this case.

MOLSON'S BANK.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Molson's Bank, Lt.-Col. W. Molson Macpherson emphasized two main features of the financial situation. One was the shifting of the balance of trade to the right side, i.e., from imports to exports. The other was the increased frequency of business failures since the previous year.

Col. Macpherson showed plainly that his bank, like others, is doing its duty in the present war in the matter of taxation and he also made it clear that although the earning capacity of the banks has been reduced their resources have been increased. Even though there was a certain depression and unsteadiness at the beginning of the war, Canada is evidently on the threshold of a new era of prosperity and activity, and there is every appearance that the worst is over.

Col. Macpherson is a financier of safe and sober judgment and he and his co-directors are much to be congratulated on their safe and conservative administration of the institution over which he presides.

ANOTHER GERMAN LIE.

The United States Navy Department, after examination of a fragment of the engine of war that sank the Allan Liner Hesperian, reports that it was a torpedo. The attack, thereore, is in the category of "the deliberately unfriendly" acts against which Berlin was warned by the Washington government.

The German Admiralty asserted that no German submarine was at the time near the region where the Hesperian went down, and suggested that the ship had struck a British mine. The British Admiralty promptly reported that two other vessels had been torpedoed near the spot a few hours before the attack on the Hesperian. The finding of the torpedo fragment clinches the proof of German guilt.

Secretary Lansing has notified Germany of the Washington Government's belief in the submarine theory. If Germany sticks to its falsehood will the United States stick to its protest and demand reparation for American lives lost? And if both stick what will happen? One of these days the United States will be confronted by a Gordian knot that can be cut only by the sword. A good many real Americans think the time has already arrived.

THERE IS A VAST ARMY

of men and women who really never know what it is to enjoy sound, vibrating health—who would be surprised to suddenly gain that exhilarating vitality that robust health brings.

Literally thousands without any particular sickness live in "general debility", as the doctors call it—have headaches, are tired and indifferent. To all such people we say with unmistakable earnestness—"Take Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month and allow its rare oil-food to enrich and enliven your blood, quicken your circulation, stimulate nutrition, and aid nature to develop that real red-blooded life that means activity, enjoyment, success."

Scott's Emulsion is not a drug, but a pleasant food-tonic—free from drugs. One bottle may help you.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP.

We have always held that churches might better fight the wickedness in the world and help out existing misery than fight over denominational differences. There is more sin than all the churches combined can overcome, without fighting each other.

It is reassuring, on the other hand, to note positive signs of growing Christian fellowship. Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore sent his benediction to Doctor Fisk, the new Episcopal bishop of central New York, the other day, and this example must have a far-reaching influence in the development of Christian fellowship.

The statement is also made that when a number of English soldiers were quartered in Rouen, France, with no appropriate place to partake of the holy communion, according to the rites of the Church of England, Doctor Wakefield, bishop of Birmingham, went to the Catholic archbishop and asked if the latter had any objection to celebration of the ceremony in the Catholic chapel. The reply was "Certainly not." That was real Christian fellowship, and one of the outcomes of the present world conflict may be a tremendous advance toward genuine Christian unity.

PRESS COMMENT.

The call of Major-General Sam Hughes, M.P., to Col. Armand Lavergne and the answer of Col. Armand Lavergne to the call of Major-General Sam Hughes, M.P., are inscribed on almost the latest page of this country's history. Canada's sentiments towards these warriors whose favorite weapon is the pen that is mightier than the sword, might be illustrated by a story from the life of Oliver Cromwell. The historian thus records the incident:—

"During the occupation of Edinburgh by the soldiers of the commonwealth, Cromwell attended by a cornet of horse, entered a Presbyterian Church, at the usual hour of worship. The Minister noticed the Lord General sitting quietly in a pew, and in the course of his sermon testified against the invaders of Scotland, and Cromwell, in words of fiery denunciation. Cromwell listened unmoved to the preacher's words, but the young cornet fumbled at his pistol and enquired anxiously:—

"Shall I pistol him, sir?"

"No, he's one fool, and you're another," was Cromwell's quiet rebuke to the young officer at his side." —Toronto Telegram.

The defeat of a Democratic governor of Massachusetts and the success of Republicans in Maryland and Philadelphia will be interpreted unfavorably in Democratic federal politics. There is here an evident swing toward federal Republicanism, for the state politics of the republic have a way of linking up with the federal vote that has often been noted. If we look about for the cause of this change, it may be found in the dissatisfaction that is felt by the extremists upon either side at the course followed by President Wilson in the European situation. There are the pro-Germans who keenly resent the forcing of Germany's hand upon the submarine issue, the virtual dismissal of Count Dumba and the building up of a huge allied munitions plant in the United States. On the other hand, there are the pro-British, who would have taken Germany by the throat when she trampled upon Belgium, when she sank the Lusitania and sister ships, and when she even destroyed American merchant vessels. President Wilson bears the displeasure of both sides. Then there is the strong protectionist element of the manufacturing East, who do not rely upon a Democratic Government to properly and adequately care for the interests of the country at a time when Europe may shortly be attempting to flood the American market with stocks of goods held in reserve through the British blockade. Local politics entered into all the contests to some considerable extent, there is reason to believe. Nevertheless there is a lively indication in the capture of Massachusetts by the Republicans that if the G. O. P. can pull together unitedly once again the hope of a second Democratic term at the White House is less bright than it was generally supposed to be. —Toronto Free Press.

The British people would not be human if they did not flame with wrath over the repeated raids of Zeppelins throwing bombs down upon a sleeping population which is non-combatant, killing women and babes as if they were armed men in the trenches. But though there are some voices in Great Britain clamoring for airships of the Allies to go and do like work against the sleeping cities of Germany, nobody need expect that a reprisal policy of that kind will be adopted. The British answer to the slaughter of women and children and the French answer to the slaughter of women and children with the bombs from the Zeppelins can be made with greater power, as well as with more honor, ever on the battlefields of France and Flanders. If the answer could not be made that way, then it will never be made—not against women and children. So will the British and French nations believe, no matter how this war goes. —New York Press.

I saw the spires of Oxford
As I was passing by,
The gray spires of Oxford
Against a pearl-gray sky.
My heart was with the Oxford men
Who went abroad to die.

The years go fast in Oxford,
The golden years and gay,
The hoary Colleges look down
On careless boys at play.
But when the bugles sounded war
They put their games away.

They left the peaceful river,
The cricket field, the quad,
The shaven lawns of Oxford
To seek a bloody sod—
They gave their merry youth away
For country and for God.

God rest you, happy gentlemen,
Who laid your good lives down,
Who took the khaki and the gun
Instead of cap and gown.
God bring you to a fairer place
Than ever Oxford town.

PAIN IN THE BACK

Usually Comes From Muscular Rheumatism.

Do not worry about a pain in the back. The worry will do you more harm than the pains. The cause of most headaches is muscular rheumatism, which is painful enough, but not fatal. Lumbago is a form of muscular rheumatism, so is a stiff neck. Sufferers from any form of rheumatism should keep their general health up to the highest standard by the use of a blood building tonic like Dr. Williams Pink Pills, while taking good, nourishing food, without too much meat. Proper nutrition and pure blood are the best means of fighting rheumatism. Rheumatism comes from an acid in the blood, build it up, strengthen the system, and drive out the poisonous acid that causes rheumatism. In this way sufferers have found complete recovery as is shown by the following case: Mrs. Samuel Childerhouse, Orilla, Ont., says:—"About three years ago I was greatly afflicted with a severe pain in the back, which I thought at first was due to kidney trouble. I tried a number of remedies but they did not help me any, in fact the pain was growing worse, and got so bad that I was quite unable to do my housework. I could not even sweep a floor. I was advised to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and I am glad I acted upon the advice, for before I had been taking the Pills long the pain began to subside, and under the continued use disappeared entirely, and I have not since been bothered with it in any way. My husband was also cured of a severe attack of indigestion by this same medicine so that we both have much reason to be grateful for it."

You can get Dr. Williams Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MAN BEATEN UP BY THUGS LAST NIGHT

WAS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL WITH FRACTURED LEG—HE ALSO LOST $15.

The local police are in search of two thugs who beat up and robbed a man named Joseph Morrell, on Thibaudeau street, Lower Town, shortly after nine o'clock last night. The victim, who is now a patient at the Hotel Dieu Hospital suffering from a fracture to his left leg and other bruises, was found lying in the street by Johnny Roberge, a carter, who immediately summoned the police of No. 5 Station.

Although some of the guard from the police station hurried to where the alleged holdup occurred, no trace of Morrell's assailants could be found, but a vigilant watch is being kept, and the police hope to round up the two hold-up men.

The victim, the police claim, was apparently perfectly sober when picked up. Morrell is employed by Mr. P. G. Bussieres & Co., flour and grain merchants, Dalhousie street.

He claimed he was robbed of $15 before being taken to hospital in the ambulance.

METHODIST CHURCH ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

The Methodist congregation will celebrate, tomorrow, the 66th anniversay of the dedication of their church and the 135th anniversary of the beginning of Methodist work in this city. Owing to unforeseen circumstances, Rev. Geo. A. McIntosh, B.A., B.D., of Sherbrooke who was announced to preach the anniversary sermons will be unable to be present. The pastor, Rev. T. P. Perry, will take the services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The Sunday School session will be held at 3 p.m.

A LARGE DIVIDEND CHEQUE FOR $3,700.90.

The largest dividend cheque ever paid out in Quebec on an ordinary straight life policy for $10,000, fifteen year accumulation of profits plan, was paid out yesterday to a Quebec merchant.

The cheque for profits alone amounted to the handsome sum of $3,700.90 and was handed over to its lucky owner by Mr. M. Monaghan, and issued by the "Mutual Life of Canada."

Evidently the war has not affected the profits of the Mutual Life.

Quebecers who invest their money in foreign companies, would do well to compare notes. The Mutual of Canada defies competition.

BOX OF FIELD COMFORTS.

The Baden-Powell Chapter, I.O.D.E., is preparing a Christmas box to be sent to the Canadian Feld Comforts Commission at Shorncliffe, for distribution to our soldiers in England or at the front. Any persons kindly wishing to contribute will please send in their donations, in care of Miss Gibaut, 83 Lachevrotiere st., or the Y.W.C.A., St. Ann street, before November the fifteenth. Any of the following articles are desirable: Socks, mufflers, muff ties, knee caps, bed socks, Balaclava caps, handkerchiefs, tobacco, cigarettes, chewing gum, Oxo cubes, peppermint, note paper, playing cards, milk chocolate, or any little Christmas token.

MAPLE LEAF DAY.

If we deem it necessary to remind the public that Tuesday, the 9th inst. is Maple Leaf Day, organized by the Ladies' of the Creche, not so, do we see any necessity of urging our fellow-citizens to open once more their purse as well as their heart in behalf of the most helpless and forsaken: for, in spite of the countless appeals to the generosity of the public, especially of late, there seems no decrease in the fervor of their charity: As many calls, as many responses, so true is the saying: Almsgiving never made a man poorer.

This constant overflow of benevolence and good will on the part of both rich and poor of our city will shed more splendor on the annals of our history than the glorious feats of pen or sword.

Tuesday, therefore, will witness charming young ladies' presenting to the public, throughout the streets of our City, the emblem of our country, engraved on a neat little pin, soliciting in return an alms none will refuse to those Angels of Charity that voice the wants of the most needy, the most abandoned.

POPULAR WEDDING IN QUEBEC TODAY

MISS JEANNE GARNEAU WILL BE MARRIED TO CAPTAIN E. A. SCOTT.

The marriage of Miss Jeanne Garneau, daughter of Sir George and Lady Garneau, of this city, to Capt. Chas. E. A. Scott, of the 69th Battalion, son of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. B. A. Scott, also of this city, promises to be the most imposing event of its kind which has ever taken place in Quebec.

Both families are prominent in local social circles and the wedding which will take place in the Basilica this morning, will be a military one. The regimental band of the 69th will be present, while a guard of honor picked from this unit will also be on hand at the ceremony.

Both Miss Garneau, who is one of Quebec's "belles," and Capt. Scott, are exceedingly popular in the city and the event will be attended by a large number of prominent people.

Amongst the invited guests are:—His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Madame Leblanc, Sir Lomer and Lady Gouin, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ross Mr. and Mrs. Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dobell, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Belleau, Mr. and Mrs. N. Garneau, Mrs. Ed. Garneau, Hon. and Mrs. N. Garneau, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Scott, Senator and Madame Shehyn, Miss Shehyn, Senator and Mrs. Belcourt, Lt.-Col. Dansereau, Major Williams, Major Halle, Colonel and Mrs. Fages, Colonel and Mrs. Doull, Major and Mrs. Pelletier, A.D.C., Miss Paule Dansereau, Miss Mina Dansereau, Miss Alma Dansereau, Mr. Shehyn Scott, Mr. Erle Scott, Mr. Paul Leduc, and Mrs. G. Tessier, Miss Marguerite Parent, Mr. Chs. Carrier, Mr. Leon Garneau, Mr. George Garneau, Mr. Paul Garneau, Mr. Henri Garneau, Mr. Jean Garneau, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith, Sr.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Shehyn.

The floral decorations at the Basilica, Quebec's most beautiful church, are magnificent, and the scene is likely to prove a most enchanting one.

Revd. Cure Lafiamme will unite the happy young couple in wedlock, while the musical program will be greatly enhanced through the singing of Miss Ruby Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Green, whose vocal talents are well known.

The ushers will be made up of young officers: Lieut. H. E. Scott, a brother of the groom, also in training for overseas service; Lieut. G. Garneau, a cousin of the bride; Captain Pierre Hamel, and Capt. C. Fages, son of Colonel Fages, O.C. No. 5 District. The flower girls will be the Misses Lucille and Eileen Garneau, sisters of the bride.

As the groom is attached to a regiment in training for active service at the front, it is likely that the honeymoon will be a short one.

CATHEDRAL GUILD.

The Guild of the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity will hold its annual sale on Tuesday, Dec. 7th in the Church Hall.

FATAL FIRE IN ST. ROCH'S.

Five-Year-Old Boy Burned to Death Yesterday.

In a fire which broke out about five o'clock yesterday morning at the home of Albert Williamson, at 61 Turgeon street, St. Roch's, his oldest child, Paul, a boy of five, perished, while the other members of the family narrowly escaped with their lives.

Facts Are Stubborn

Leading food authorities — McCann, Goudiss, Allyn and others—unite in attesting the fact that white flour foods lack certain mineral salts essential for life and health. These elements are thrown out with the bran to make the flour white.

RIVIERE PIERRE WORKMAN KILLED

STRUCK BY PIECE OF FLYING STONE, TOBY GARNEAU, DIES INSTANTLY.

Toby Garneau, aged about 43 years, was killed instantly at Riviere a Pierre on Thursday, by an explosion in the Voyer Brothers' quarry. A piece of flying stone hit the workman on the head, inflicting such a terrible wound that he died instantly.

Coroner Jolicoeur held an inquest on the remains yesterday and returned a verdict of accidental death.

The unfortunate workman leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his loss.

A GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR LITTLE ONES

Baby's Own Tablets are a gentle laxative. They are absolutely safe and are so pleasant in action that once the mother has used them for her littlye ones she will never again resort to that harsh, ill-smelling, bad tasting castor oil, which baby always fought against taking. Baby will take the Tablets with a smile and thousands of mothers tell us their little ones will coax for them. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CORRECTION.

An error was made in announcing the winner of the Japanese Silk Kimono which was raffled for the benefit of the wounded soldiers. The Kimono was won by Mr. D. W. Ross, St. Cyrille street, the holder of ticket No 279, and not by Mr. T. Ross, as stated yesterday.

QUEBEC LADY IS NURSING KING GEORGE.

Miss Vivian Tremaine Was Born at Montmorency.

Miss Vivian Tremaine, matron of No. 1 Canadian Casualty Clearing Hospital, "Somewhere in France," who had the honor of accompanying King George on his journey home from France, after his horse had fallen on him, is a daughter of the late Arthur Tremaine, of Montreal, and was born at Montmorency.

Nurse Tremaine graduated at the Montreal General Hospital, and obtained her military training at the Quebec Military Hospital, where she came out head of all the nurses, receiving the appointment of matron and leaving with the First Contingent.

Miss Tremane is a niece of the Misses Tremaine, of 12 Mount Carmel Street. Her mother is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Billett, of Fraser street.

PATRICKS WILL NOT STEAL QUEBECERS

Have Wired Quinn That No More Inducements Will Be Made Locals.

ARENA PRICES LOWERED

Messrs. Dussault Have Come to Amicable Arrangement With the Club.

Manager Mike Quinn of the Quebec Hockey Club has received a wire from Frank Patrick, President of the Pacific Coast league, stating that in view of the cordial relations which have hitherto existed between the westerners and the Quebec Club, he would offer no further inducements or enter into negotiations with members of the Quebec club which had not signed up yet for the season.

This practically means that any Quebec player who feels that he is not getting sufficient from the Quebec club will have to make the best of it or remain out of the game for the season.

However, Mr. Quinn thinks that the players are not inclined to leave the city and that they will finally turn in their contracts and get ready to help bring another championship to the Ancient Capital this season. There is no doubt that if the team is gathered together again and play unselfishly with that end in view, there is not a team in the league capable of stopping them.

Arena Prices Lower.

Messrs. M. J. Quinn, B. J. Kaine and Eug. Matte conferred with Mr. Leopold Dussault, manager of the Quebec Arena and Dr. Etienne Dussault, President of the Company, with regard to the proposed reduced scale of admission prices. Messrs. Dussault were most approachable in the matter and showed themselves prepared to do what they possibly could to help the situation.

Box Seats have been reduced from $2.00 to $1.50 while Promenade, B. seats have been clipped from $1.25 to $1.00. There will be 500 seats, formerly $1.00 now 75c, while 500 more which sold at 75c may be reserved, prior to the game, for 50c. In connection with the latter, it is understood that these will not be sold at the rink the night of the game and therefore, those desiring to secure them must make reservation before that time in order that no confusion will be occasioned during the rush time.

Gradually the situation is taking on a brighter hue and by the end of next week the Quebec club should be in a position to go ahead and prepare for another championship season with prospects of finishing in first place in the N. H. A. once more.

RING GOSSIP.

"Battling" Levinsky is very much in demand. Both the Broadway Sporting Club and the Clement Avenue Rink are angling for a ten-round bout, between the "Battler" and Jack Dillon for Thanksgiving Day afternoon. Scranton, Pa., promoters also want Levinsky to meet Tommie Mahon on that date.

New Orleans, Nov. 5.—Promoters Burns and Tortorich have offered Manager Nate Lewis, a guarantee of $1,500, with a percentage provision, for a fifteen-round bout between Charley White and Matt Wells, who recently fought a hot battle in Milwaukee.

Champion Kid Williams and Pal Moore will go to it again in another eight-round contest at Memphis next Monday night. These boys fought a great bout the other night, and as there was much discussion as to who was the winner, the club decided to have them fight it out again.

* * *

The Chicago fight fans are said to have dropped a neat sum of money when Charley White lost the newspaper decision to Matt Wells last Friday evening at Milwaukee. The odds quoted before the fight was 50 to 35 on the Chicagoan, the decision to be left to the Milwaukee papers. The fans of the latter burg must have to be left to teh Milwaukee papers, get licked, for they are said to have got down, hook, line and sinker on the Englishman. As the Milwaukee papers all gave the award to Wells, the Wisconsin sports cashed their bets. The Chicago scribes, however, stuck by White some gave him the best of it.

The Lavigne-Couture fight at the Princess Monday, is the talk of all boxing fans in the city.

FRENCH AEROPLANES IN ACCIDENT.

Paris, Nov. 5, 12.45 a.m.—Two military aeroplanes collided while making a landing yesterday at Le Bourget. They caught fire and the four aviators manning the machines were burned to death.

MONDAY NIGHT'S BOXING BOUTS

LAVIGNE . COUTURE BATTLE AROUSING LOTS OF INTEREST.

The ten round bout between Knockout Lavigne of this city and Battling Couture of Lewiston, Me., which is one of the four bouts scheduled to take place before the Quebec Sporting Club's patrons at the Princess Theatre, Monday night, has aroused much interest locally. In fact it is rumored that much money has been placed on the result.

The preliminary will be between Corriveau and Legendre, and should prove to be an even battle.

Bob Labelle and Mac McIntyre are scheduled for the main bout of the evening and as it is some time since Quebecers have seen two heavyweights in action, this meeting of two big fellows should have plenty of action.

Kid Burns, a favorite with Quebecers now, will meet young Cohen. Cohen has beaten some of the best in his class and Burns will have to use his usual skill to gain the verdict. So far this season, Burns has never been pitted against a man who lacked condition or fighting ability and it is likely that Cohen will be a worthy adversary.

Sporting Notes

While there has been nothing definite decided yet it is likely that the Y.M.C.A. club will be replaced in the city hockey league by the Sons of Ireland.

Since the Patricks have declared that they will not make any further raids on the Quebec club, the locals are in a "neutral" position. Or it would be better to say that they have concluded a "separate peace."

* * *

Hints to promoters Belanger and Drapeau:—Why not sign up Kennedy and Lichtenhein for a ten round bout. George would probably have to make weight for Sammy but it talk counts for anything there would be no telling.

We met a very interesting individual the other day. In fact he knows more about anything than anything knows about anything itself. "Well," said he, "I see by the papers that the Quebec Club is soaking the poor unfortunate players by cutting down their salaries." "Why", we ventured, "surely you must know that the Quebec club suffered a heavy deficit last season and that it was impossible to pay the high figures usually given our players."

"That's all bull" said our expert. "Do you think that Mike Quinn and Barney Kaine are in hockey for their health. Those fellows pull down a few thousand each every year and they want more, that's all." We explained everything to him but after we were through with him we felt that we knew very little about anything, especially hockey.

But, we had occasion to be present a few days later when this same individual was conversing with Mike Quinn and Barney Kaine. Here is what he said this time: "Well, Mike, I 'spose you're up against it. You do right to cut down the pay of some of those fellows, because some of them are not worth half what you're giving them. I guess you've often had to dig down in your own pockets to help out the club in the past." After we came to, the gentleman had departed.

The euchre of the Emmets baseball club which takes place on the tenth will be a most enjoyable affair. The Emmets just missed winning the pennant but they never miss when entertaining is to be done.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 4—After many months of "fakes," fables and morning glory propositions, the baseball war may see its end in a remarkable "gum shoe" conference that is going on here between Sinclair and Weeghman and possibly one other Federal League ambassador as representatives of the "outlaw league," and Garry Herrmann and at least two representatives of Organized Baseball.

That the conference has been under way for hours was not doubted, but to extract any actual information from the group was a strenuous task.

Sinclair wants "in" as an active major league magnate—that much is conceded—and Weeghmann wants "in" as a consolidated holder.

It is possible that the next fight to take place at Parc Royal, Hull, on the list of those being promoted by Billy Moorehouse of Montreal will be between Charlie McCarthy, who is now fighting in and around New York, and Johnny Lore, the New York fighter, who defeated Willie Krammer here Tuesday night. Moorhouse has wired to McCarthy asking him to hook up with Lore, and also to give Ottawa fans a chance to see McCarthy in action. While Ottawa is McCarthy's home town, he has never fought publicly there, and it is thought that the fair-haired lightweight would be a good attraction.

ACQUISITION OF A MARITIME DREDGER.

Taking into consideration the growing difficulties of access to the inner harbour due to the constant silting up of the roadsted channel, the depths to which the dredging is proposed to be carried, the nature of the mud, to be removed, the circumstances of weather and sea in the places of operation and also the urgency of doing the necessary, the Governor of the Province of Macao, duly authorized by His Excellency the Minister of the Colonies, having heard the Harbour Administration Board, orders as follows:

(1)—Within the period of 120 days from the date of publication of this ordinance in the Government Gazette, tenders will be received for the supply of one maritime self-propelling dredger, of steel hull, for the use of the Macao Harbour Works.

(2)—The tenders must be sent to Macao in a sealed cover, addressed of the Governor of the Province, President of the Harbour Administration Board, not later than 3 p.m. of the 8th January, 1916, and made out in accordance with the conditions stated below and which are also in view in the Harbour Master's Office, Macao, and in the Portuguese Consulates in Hong Kong, Shanghai, Kobe, the United States of America, and the Dominion of Canada.

(3)—In the acquisition of the above maritime dredger, the conditions annexed to this ordinance and forming an integral part thereof, shall be observed.

Macao Government House,
10 September, 1915.

ROUEN FAST BECOMING AN ENGLISH TOWN

English Spoken and so Many British Tommies, the Place is Unrecognizable.

BRITISH PAPERS SOLD.

Relations of Soldiers With the French People are Familiar if not Cordial.

Rouen, France, October 25—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Five o'clock teas, smoked fish, roast beef, boxing matches, cricket, golf, corned beef, marmalade, pickles, Tommy Atkins and the Salvation Army have so completed the Anglicizing of Rouen that Richard the Lion, hearted himself would scarcely recognize it.

Since the second week of the war the streets have been full of khaki and from that time on the English language has encroached until French is rarely ever heard excepting in the cafes from which Tommy Atkins is excluded by order of the general. Even the official communique is more English than French in Rouen. Ask a newsboy for a paper and he will inquire "Daily Mail? Telegraph? the Times?" Here and there a boy has a French paper, but seems to consider it scarcely worth mentioning.

If anyone has a building or an apartment to let, he advertises it in English, and it is promptly taken. Officers, subalterns, and privates of the auxiliary service lodge in town, while the fighting Tomies are camped just outside. The censor forbids mention of the number and discretion allows nothing more than the hint that there are enough of them to make a town of a hundred and twenty thousand French population appear to be English.

Rouen was the second English base in France after Havre; it was abandoned for Nantes during the march of the Germans towards Paris, but since the battle of the Marne the quays along the Seine where coal was farmerly king, with wine as queen, are lined with piles of cases containing crackers, cheese, marmalade, corned beef and other esentials of British soldiers' fare. Where there are no cases there are no flocks of sheep and goats freshly arrived from the slopes of the Himalayes, to feed the Indian troops. Quiet crowds of French people watch the arrival and unloading of supply ships with about the same curiosity as that which English tourists watched the movement of vast cargoes of wine before they owned the town. When the Saint Patrick, the Saint Andrew, and the Saint George steam into port these crowds watch the ambulance bringing wounded to the dock and as the hospital ships drop down the river, wave them a feeling adieu.

"Here we take English money," is announced in some places; unnecessarily, for English copper and silver circulate quite as freely as French money. Freely is the word for in the early days of the "occupation" the English were accused of "throwing money out of the window." Their expenditures were heavy, but gradually the people of Rouen have learned that though the War Office pays liberally, it is not without counting.

Tommy Atkins' relation with the French population have become familiar if not cordial. He did many things in the beginning to raise difficulties. The "side" brought by the English officers, particularly caused amazement, but that wears off and the men of the expeditionary forces have found many ways of dispelling first impressions. Two hundred of them saved the bulk of the contents of a big warehouse destroyed by fire and were thanked in official order by the French general commanding the district. On Sunday afternoon, many a "Tommy" may be seen showing the camp to a French family, generally taking charge of younger members. He is not always sober and is often over gallant. Kitchener's orders notwithstanding, and he is so conspicuous that every peccadillo is magnified several times, but while passing for a "terrible charmer," Tommy conducts himself generally so as to do credit to the Anglo-Saxon race and is regarded as a "jolly good fellow."

WHAT SASKATCHEWAN HAS CONTRIBUTED.

Regina, Sask., Nov. 5—Over $100,000 in cash and supplies were donated to the Red Cross in Saskatchewan during the past year, according to the report of the Honorary Secretary, E. D. McCallum, at the annual meeting of the provincial executive of the Red Cross Society, held here this morning. Mr. McCallum made a strong appeal for a new general canvass of the province for funds, stating that he felt "$100,000 could be collected."

STATUE OF CAPTAIN SCOTT IS UNVEILED.

London, Nov. 5—[A statue of the late Captain Robert F. Scott, the Antarctic explorer, was unveiled this afternoon in Watrloo Place, by A. J. Balfour, First Lord of the Admiralty. The statue was executed by Lady Scott, widow of the explorer, who previously designed a bronze memorial to Dr. Edward Wilson of the Scott party, who died with Captain Scott on the return journey from the South Pole.

FALL OF ZAIMIS CABINET HAILED WITH DELIGHT

LONDON HAILS NEWS WITH DELIGHT, BUT THINK RULER AFRAID OF KAISER.

New York, Nov. 5.—A cable to the Herald from London this morning says:

The fall of the Zaimis administry is hailed with delight here, though there is an undercurrent of belief that King Constantine, in fear of the Kaiser, will, as the Daily Express bluntly puts it, continue his effort to sell his birthright on Greece for a mess of sauer kraut.

It is known that Mr. Venizelos will only accept office on condition that the King, honoring the treaty with Serbia, agrees to an immediate declaration of war on Bulgaria. The King's refusal and disolves parliament, thus denying for the third time the rights of the people to constitutional government, it is not impossible that the great Cretan, who raised and successfully maintained the standard of revolt against the present King's father, may be forced by Constantine's treachery to lead an army of the people against the monarch and generals who have dishonored the nation through fear of the Huns and as a result of bribery with German gold.

The military situation dictates intervention rather than neutrality. Already Bulgarian troops are operating on her frontier and it is abundantly clear that the result of a German victory would be the joint hegemony in the Balkans of two investerate enemies of Greece, Bulgaria and Turkey.

The effect of the Greek intervention, reacting on Rumania, has no doubt. It would be the beginning of a rapid ending for Germany.

The Morning Post says: How far the new developments in Greece can modify to the situation we do not know, but nothing that happens there can allot responsibility of the government of this country.

VOICES OF TEUTONS HEARD IN DISTANCE

POSITION OF SERBIAN ARMY DESCRIBED BY A CORRESPONDENT.

Paris, Nov. 5.—"There, Monsieur, with that you can go and see how Serbia is going to die," exclaimed Ljouba Jovanovitch, Minister of the Interior, handing a letter of recommenadtion to the general staff of the allies, according to the correspondent of the Petit Journal.

Back with the Serbians, M. Landres, the messenger writes of their slow retreat from the Teutons whose voices can be heard in the distance. 'At a cross road" writes M. Londres, "a Serbian captain who was waiting for me said: 'I was asked by Col. Terzitch, commanding our division to take you to our last position.'

We walked side by side in silence and came out on a plateau. 'That's our last position Monsieur.' said the Serbian officer. 'We are on Ossiete Plateau. Those two other places you see are the plateaux Vaboratz and Michavolatz were just.'

"'There it comes" replied the officer.

"I saw debouching from a little wood a little line that brought tears to my eyes. 'The Serbians rearguard opposed the enemy on retiring from Vaboratz and here' said the captain, 'these 150 men hid in the wood. Now they are coming out to face the enemy.'

"The lieutenant in command took a few steps into a cornfield and shouted a command to his men, they lay down on the field without a word or a sidelong glance and deliberately raised their rifles.

"'Look Monsieur' exclaimed the captain, 'there are the mountains of Hungary. Behind that pass is the village of Verscatte before which is Von Mackensen. Do you see that line a little further on? That is the Danube.

"For 16 days with their 3, 5, 6 and 10-inch and rest of their guns the Germans had been blazing away on this front."

FRENCH STATEMENT.

Paris, Nov. 5—The War Office communication made public tonight says:

"Artillery actions have continued during the day in Artois, especially in the Loos sector.

"In Champagne fighting is going on with the same violence in the region to the north of Massiges. During the recent attacks, delivered with the same methods and with heavy effectives, the enemy was able to push a few elements into our first line trench at Hill 199. Everywhere else the enemy was stopped or completely repulsed by our counter attacks.

"In the Vosges one of our mines has destroyed at La Chapelotte (east of Badonvilliers) a German blockhouse.

BARROW CIRCUIT NOT TO BE PEACE GOAT FOR THE FEDS

New York, Nov. 4.— Edward G. Barrow, president of the International League, was today on his way to San Francisco to attend the annual meeting of the National Association of baseball clubs. Before leaving, Mr. Barrow said:

"The Federal league cannot use the International league for a foil in its fight for peace. There will be no merger of interest between my league and the enemy. I am sure the American Association feels the same way. The class A.A. leagues are the only ones whose co-operation could be of benefit to the independents and these feel their interests best served through unshakable loyalty to the organization of which they are now a most important part."

JUDGE LANGELIER DISMISSES ASSAULT CASE

Considers That Mr Foy Failed to Identify His Assailants.

In the Court of Sessions yesterday morning Mr. Justice Charles Langelier rendered judgment in the case of Mr. H. C. Foy against Privates Dufour and Vincent for assault, dismissing the action. The action arose in connection with an assault on Mr. Foy while he was interceding on behalf of soldier Jones who was being arrested by a military picket. The judgment in part is as follows:

1. Because the plaintiff, though he has established that he ad been assaulted on te 18th October last, has failed to prove the identity of his assailants;

2. Because even if he had proved such identity, the defendants were at that time peace agents in the exercise of their functions. As such nobody had the right to interfere either by words or physical acts; by doing so they commit a criminal offence and are liable to be arrested on the spot.

The proof as to the assault has been very contradictory and it has not been established by whom Mr. Foy was assaulted.

It has been proved that the defendants, at the time, formed part of a military picket duly appointed by Colonel Fages to look after the maintenance of public peace.

The Act of interpretation of the Criminal Code, Art. 2, sub-section 3, defines as follows a peace officer:

"A peace officer includes every constable or other persons employed for the preservation and maintenance of the public peace."

Under the circumstances the arrest of Jones was perfectly justifiable, and the moment he was under arrest, nobody was allowed to interfere with the guard except to come to its rescue. Those who interfere commit themselves to the criminal offence mentioned in section 169 of the criminal code and make them liable to a fine of $100 or six months in gaol

The court declared that it had been proved that Mr. Foy had tried to pull away the prisoner from the hands of the guard and had told them: "Don't kill that man."

Judge Langelier quoted several recent decisions in England where simpl words had been declared an interefference with the peace officers. He also declared that Jones had not been so ill-treated as it had been said. Five men had to be employed to put him in the cell at the station. Half an hour later Detective Beaudoin swore he had washed him and he only notice bruises in his face and a swollen nose; he could walk very well.

Mr. Foy, said the judge, lost his control when Scallen told him they were killing a man in the street and in his excitement it is not surprising if he does not recollect what occured that night.

Concluding, Judge Langelier said the two countries should be united especially since King George, in his recent visit to France, appealed for unity. His Majesty King George expressed his deepest admiration for the valuor of the French troops, and said that the English soldiers were proud to fight by their sides.

We are the descendants of two great people, who with unity will command the world. Let us cease to bear troubles for old childish affairs, which have no reason to exist.

On the other side of the ocean they are bounded by unity, and why should their children on this side be divided by chivalrous matters.

OFFICIAL

ITALIAN STATEMENT.

Rome, via Paris, Nov. 5, 11.55 p.m.—The following statement from the Italian General Headquarters, dated Nov. 5th, was made public this evening:

"During yesterday there was an intense action by our artillery and infantry which was actively engaged in strengthening conpuered positions. We repulsed enemy attacks in the valleys of Rienz and the Portebbana torrent, on the slopes of Monte Calvario, north-west of Gorizia, and on the Carso. We have taken 64 prisoners and one machine gun.

"Bad weather prevails throughout the theatre of operations. There is an abundant snowfall in the higher zone and a persistent rain in the lower."

NAVIGATION ON DANUBE REOPENED.

Berlin, Nov. 5—Via London—The Rumanian government has decided to abolish the prohibition on the export of grain in carloads.

The measure is interpreted here as in effect a re-opening of navigation on the Danube, which enables Bulgarian grain to compete with Rumainian in Austria and Germany.

HOBO CAUSES FIRE.

St. Mary's, Ont., Nov. 5—Fire thought to have been caused by a tramp sleeping in the building, early this morning, destroyed a fine, big barn on the farm of Thomas Patterson, south of St. Mary's, with a loss of $3,000. The entire season's crops were destroyed, together with three horses and several cows.

MONTREAL ALDERMAN CONDEMNED BY COURT

Montreal, Nov. 5—Alderman Julien Therrien, whose automobile is said to have run down and severely injured a ten year old boy at St. Pierre Aux Liens March 30 last, was today condemned by the court to pay the injured boys father $1,500 damages. Alderman Therrien denies that it was his machine that hit the boy, and he says he will appeal the case.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

WHEN CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS GIVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that you, little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is peevish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless fruit laxative they love its delicious taste and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt

Nervous Dyspepsia

The Modern Scourge
and How to Meet it.

The speed at which we live, the hustle now so necessary for success have unfortunately a very adverse effect on the nervous and digestive systems of Canadians. The baneful results, increased lately to an alarming degree, often lay the seeds of more deadly trouble, but it will be satisfactory to learn of the ever-increasing popularity in the Dominion, of the Great British Remedy, Dr. Cassell's Tablets.

Dr. Ramsay Colles, J.P. of the City of Dublin, a man of high eminence in the scientific world, says:—"I have great pleasure in expressing my satisfaction as to the curative effect of Dr. Cassell's Tablets in cases of nerve troubles. From several cases which have lately come under my notice I am able to form the opinion that Dr. Cassell's Tablets constitute a safe and reliable family remedy, and appear to be specially effective for nerve and bodily weakness."

Dr. Cassell's Tablets are Nutritive, Restorative, Alterative, and Anti-Spasmodic, and of great therapeutic value in all derangements of the Nerve, Digestive, and Functional Systems in old or young. They are the recognised modern home remedy for Dyspepsia, Nervous Breakdown, Stomach Catarrh, Kidney Disease, Nerve and Spinal Paralysis, Infantile Paralysis, Rickets, St. Vitus' Dance, Anæmia, Sleeplessness, Brain Fag, Headache, Palpitation, Wasting Diseases, Vital Exhaustion, Loss of Flesh, and Premature Decay. Specially valuable for Nursing Mothers and during the Critical Periods of Life.

Druggists and Dealers throughout Canada sell Dr. Cassell's Tablets. If not procurable in your city send to the sole agents, Harold F. Ritchie & Co., Ltd., 10, McCaul Street, Toronto; 1 tube 50 cents, 6 tubes for the price of five.

MADE IN CANADA

Canada grows the wheat, and we make it into a wholesome, nourishing, easily digested food by steam-cooking, shredding and baking.

SHREDDED WHEAT

is made of choicest selected Canadian wheat. Contains all the body-building material in the whole wheat grain and nothing else—a pure whole wheat food—the maximum of nutriment at smallest cost. A Canadian food for loyal Canadians.

45-J

Shredded Wheat is made in two forms, BISCUIT and TRISCUIT—the Biscuit for breakfast with milk or cream, or with fruits; Triscuit, the wafer-toast, delicious for luncheon with butter or soft cheese, or for any meal as a substitute for white flour bread.

THE QUEBEC BANK

QUARTERLY DIVIDEND.

NOTICE is hereby given that a Dividend of one and three-quarters per cent. upon the Paid-up Capital Stock of the Institution has been declared for the current quarter, and that the same will be payable at its banking House in this city, and at its Branches, on and after Wednesday, the first day of December next to shareholders of record on 15th November.

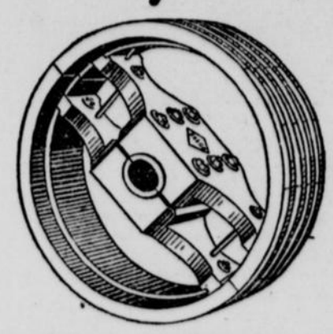

The Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders will be held at the Head Office in Quebec, on Monday the sixth day of December next. The chair will be taken at three o'clock.

By order of the Board.

B. B. STEVENSON,
General Manager.

Quebec, Oct. 19th, 1915.

"A Wood Split Pulley is still away in the lead"

SCIENCE PROVES IT

THE purpose of a pulley is to transmit power by means of a belt from one shaft to another or from a shaft or countershaft to a machine. The pulley which provides the best belt surface, upon which the belt will "slip" the least is the best pulley—and especially so when this virtue is coupled with a substantial saving, both in "journal friction" (through lightness in weight) and a very much reduced first cost when purchasing.

This argument should appeal to Purchase Departments and Superintendents everywhere.

Professor Price's report on his test carried on to demonstrate the actual relative values in pulleys proves conclusively that:

—"The Wood Split Pulley is away in the lead."

—"As has often been demonstrated the wood split pulley will carry given load at given belt speed with much smaller slip than iron pulleys."

—"Wood split pulleys are cheaper to operate at all speeds and loads than iron pulleys."

DODGE

WOOD SPLIT PULLEYS

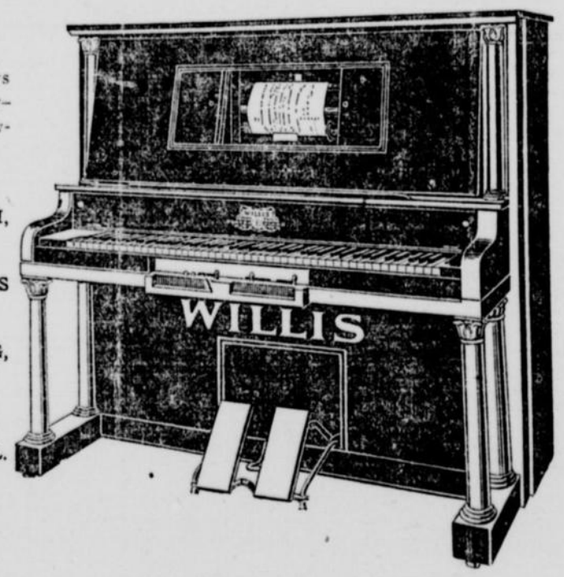

THE DODGE Standard Wood Split Pulley with interchangeable bushing system offers many substantial advantages over all other makes of pulleys. It is manufactured in large quantities in a central location, and can be had quickly in almost any quantity or size.

SAYS LONDON IS MOST HONEST PLACE IN WORLD

If You Don't Believe It Read What "A South African Visitor" Thinks, Then Compare Your Experiences, if You Have Ever Been There.

(Special Dispatch.)

"A SOUTH AFRICAN VISITOR" who has spent just eight months here has a long article in the Mail in which he expresses surprise at the honesty of London. Americans and Canadians who have at some time or other paid a visit to the English metropolis may wish to compare their experiences with those of the South African visitor, who says:—"The uncompromising commercial honesty of London is the most astonishing thing I know. It is more astonishing even than the British Museum; more beautiful and admirable than London's parks, horses and female beauty. Sleek and strong and gentle and intelligent are the horses; wonderful are the huge parks, wedged in among the men; beautiful are the women. But London's honesty is greater than all of these.

"I wonder if the people here ever realize how honest they really are? Probably it is to them the most natural thing in the world to see that the other man gets first what he pays for and then the full amount of his change. But strangers like myself appreciate the honesty with which we find ourselves surrounded and after a while come to realize that what at first seems brusqueness or even discourtesy is only part of the general scheme of uncompromising honesty. The Londoner will not stoop to flatter his man in order later on to rob him. Indeed, he is often so abrupt that polished people like the French think him rude and his methods those of the take-it-or-leave-it order.

"But at the back of it all is the sturdy pride and honesty of the London tradesman, who seems to fear that too much civility may be mistaken for the diplomacy of the dishonest. In all I have lived here eight months, which is perhaps a short time. But there are only two ways to write of a town or country—when born in it and steeped in its life and traditions and when new to it. The man who spends ten years in a huge place like London only succeeds in losing the freshness of his impressions without gaining any more the soul and insight of the native.

Uncannily Honest.

"Eight months is long enough to find out that London is honest, if it is too short to know a tenth of the British Museum. London is amazingly, uncannily honest. It is not by the thieves and tricksters of a country that we can judge it, but by the dead level of everyday people. In eight months of busy life here I have had the strange experience of "Never once being robbed.

"Never once being overcharged.

"Never once being given short change.

"Never once being supplied with an article inferior to what I expected.

"Honesty I have found among such strange bedfellows as the mail order business, auction rooms, second hand shops and gas companies. I have not yet used a lawyer, but am fully prepared to find the first one I meet an honest man. It may be that the bedfellows to honesty which I have named above are a tradition in London. I speak as a colonist to whom they are a tradition of another kind.

"A fellow South African the other day had an experience for which, he says, a long business life abroad affords no parallel. He paid some time back to a London trader an account without deducting or asking for a discount. Later on he closed his transactions with the house. To his utter astonishment he was a month later refunded the forgotten discount!

"I know a second hand dealer in —— street. The first time I made his acquaintance he advised me not to buy a couple of articles which I had selected from his window at the prices he had marked them. I was amazed. Surely the man was mad. He pointed out certain little defects which had escaped my notice and said the things were not really cheap at the price. I went away and told people of the mad second hand dealer of —— street, but somehow or other they thought him quite a normal and sane character, and the story fell flat.

"Commercially speaking the policemen of London seem to be made of asbestos. All the courtesy and assistance they may give one must remain unupped, for London seems to be blessed with a race of unflappable policemen! What an excellent thing it would be if in one of those frequent social upheavals we are having the policemen were to change places with the waiters and vice versa.

"Before my first visit to London I had heard much about its thieves and swindlers. Pickpockets were supposed to lurk everywhere diving their hands into unprotected coat openings for money and watches. Dickens, I fancy, did much to frighten us with his gallery of queer characters. But it is easy for a stranger to protect himself in a country of superthieves, providing that the people he meets every day in his ordinary life and business are honest. It is in places like Madeira, Las Palmas and Teneriffe that commerce becomes complicated. There all citizens seem banded in a great Society for the Retention of Vistors' Wealth. If you engage in a dispute with one man about the price of something, another will saunter up quite innocently, yet with a wonderful inner knowledge of the facts, and volunteer the information that the man you are arguing with is a very good fellow and quite cheap. When you need a boat to take you to your ship, and it is seen that you must have that boat, every boatman will combine to make you pay through the nose.

"In London—and, for that matter, all over England—one's needs seldom influence the boatman or cabby or motor car owner. Frequently I have been in such a position that any price could have been exacted by the other man, and nothing more than a fair price has been asked. It is frankly annoying to run up against the "that's-my-price" trader and find him refusing to abate a penny even if you "buy the whole shop." But there is the other side to it all, and that side is marked Honesty in big letters. Trading with Orientals and even some of the lower Latins develops in both buyer and seller suspicion, beating down, cringing and bullying. And coming to London is a commercial tonic which braces one up and gradually eliminates all the little trading meannesses which have developed among people less honest than the English.

Even the poor barrow pushers of Fleet street rarely do anything sharper than placing a cryptic ½ in the girth of a huge 1d., leading one to think the price is fifty per cent less than it seems from a distance. But that is really more advertisement than actual trading, and when the barrow man sells his stuff he is honest enough. On the whole I think that for a great city London must be the most honest place in the world.

London Trying Street Carpets

Mixture of Asphalt Over Macadam Is Proving Valuable Where Traffic Is Heavy.

(Special Dispatch.)

THE latest idea for roads is a carpet, and an experiment in West Cromwell road is officially reported to be successful.

The new "carpeting system," as it is called, is designed for macadam roads, which are covered with a carpet, or layer of asphalt mixture, that not only sustains heavy traffic but affords good hold for horses and automobiles. The only essential required for the new system is that the macadam must be in good condition. The method is much cheaper than tar macadam, and that is a valuable consideration. It is purposed to do some "carpeting" in streets where there is plenty of heavy traffic.

Another County Council experiment is the Kingston electric lamps. The charges for light will grow more moderate through the considerable competition between the gas and electricity rivals. The gas people have been able to hold their own against electric light by inventing incandescent mantles of a new kind. Then the electric people hit upon the metal filament lamp, which gave the same volume of light at half cost. Now they are again going to double the illuminating power of electricity by a new method of surrounding the drawn wire filament with nitrogen. By this method it is claimed that fully double the illumination can be obtained as compared with the ordinary filament lamp for the same consumption.

Two experimental lamps, each of 1,000 candle power, are to be placed in Kensington High street, and if they answer to expectations the whole of the other lamps in the borough will be scrapped and replaced by the new lamps. Special lanterns, however, have to be designed for the new lighting, on account of the great heat that is generated by the lamps.

A BABY POET.

(Special Dispatch.)

"HE has learned neither to read nor to write, and he just exclaims, 'Mother, I want to say beautiful words to you,' and then with eyes looking into the far away he will dictate wonderful prose poems." So speaks an article in the Poetry Review, the journal of the Poetry Society, of Logan Wiltshire, a remarkable seven-year-old boy poet, who for the last two years, has revelled in beautiful creations of his imagination.

One of his prose-poems is the following:—

A DREAM.

The God of Dreams came to me last night and I had a dream of the world when the world was a child. And in this child world there were two Gods; the God of Nature and the God Genius.

The God of Nature provided all the materials, and the God Genius took them and made them into wonderful things.

Nature gave Genius a pair of leaves and Genius made them into wings—wings for the birds, wings for the butterflies, wings for all the things that fly. Such a beautiful dream! Such a wonderful world—the world when it was a child.

In "The Crystal" he says:—

The Crystal lay between heaven and earth, and the rainbow filled it with light. Then the sun and the moon and the stars and the universe one by one made it gifts of their substances.

So the Crystal had the glow of the ruby and the glitter of the diamond, and all colors and powers, and with wings of gold it roamed through the sky.

So the Crystal went down to earth and lived with mortals, and by taking a peep now and then the mortals got so they could look at the Crystal and see the glory, and that was how the world was made good.

In his lighter moments he imagines Perseus as "very solemn because he had no ladies to rescue" and also as sitting "on his rock smoking his pipe and talking to a gentleman who was a knight."

Pets and People.

Washington Star:—"What kind of a dog is that?"

"I dunno," replied the man with baggy trousers. "I'm not very well acquainted with him yet. When I come home at night my wife has to introduce me to him and tell him I'm not a burglar."

PORTRAIT OF GERMAN CROWN PRINCE ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION IN BERLIN

NEW PAINTING OF THE GERMAN CROWN PRINCE

Painted by Mr. Arthur Schlubeck, the Work Is Considered Very Excellent.

(Special Dispatch.)

THE German Crown Prince has been painted many times and by many masters, but no one has achieved more striking portraits of Germany's future ruler than Mr. Arthur Schlubeck, a Berlin painter, who stands in the forefront of the modern conservative wing in Germany.

Two of the Schlubeck portraits of the Crown Prince were hung on the line at the last salon, one in the uniform of the Garde du Corps. Another was in the uniform of the famous "Death's Head Brigade" of the Royal Hussars, stationed at Danzig, from which the Crown Prince took a somewhat melodramatic farewell when remanded to the General Staff offices a few months ago.

His pronounced Hohenzollern features, suggestive in line if not in strength of his greatest ancestor, Frederick the Great, offer an interesting task to the portraitist. Here the painter has to do with an impetuous temperament, and any portrait of the Crown Prince which did not bear with it an impression of restless energy, a keen interest in men and things and a dash of that devil-may-care buoyancy which has led him into many conflicts of opinion with his father would but poorly express the essential characteristics of the moulder of Germany's future destiny.

The caller at the Schlubeck studio will also be attracted by an unusual Rembrandtesque portrait of Dr. Carl Muck, painted before he was coaxed away from his Berlin post by the lure of the American musical world.

This is primarily a study in light effects, and the idea came to the painter as he had frequent opportunity of watching Dr. Muck stand at the conductor's desk in the orchestral pit of the Royal Opera, his clean cut features thrown into relief by the yellow lights flaring out of the surrounding shadows. The pose is characteristic and the distinguished musician was the unconscious sitter for a portrait of great strength and originality.

So many officers of high rank have commissioned Mr. Schlubeck to perpetuate them upon canvas that he has become generally known as the "military painter."

To a man who believes that the face—the personality—is the chief essential in a portrait, and that the accessories of clothing should be treated as a more or less negligible quantity, it is not easy to solve successfully the problem of painting not a uniformed general but a general in uniform.

This question of clothing recalls the famous retort of Lenbach to an American woman of fashion who complained that the master had neglected to do justice to her expensive accoutrement.

"The photographer lives next door!" was Lenbach's gruff answer. "You should have gone to him if you wished a picture made of your gown!"

In Mr. Schlubeck's military collection there is no more finely characteristic head than that of the doughty German General Freiherr von Bissing, of whom it is told that on one occasion he dared to keep a dinner waiting at which the Kaiser was among the guests. The latter was fuming with impatience and ready to greet the tardy officer with a severe reprimand when Von Bissing coolly slipped into his seat, offering as the only explanation:—"I was detained by military duties, Your Majesty."

Mr. Schlubeck thinks that Egypt offers a solution for an interesting light problem on which he has been at work for some time, and has again pitched his tent on the edge of the desert to study the golden glow. In his later portraits he has applied this new principle of replacing the conventional background by one of a peculiar, luminous quality, and this he has used with striking effect in a double portrait of the two beautiful daughters of Mr. Harry B. Hirsh, of Philadelphia.

COUNTESS EVOLVES A NEW WOMAN

(Special Dispatch.)

HAS the new century evolved a new woman? Is the typical woman of 1911 a daring, self-confident and inquiring creature, whose lack of reticence and scorn of yesterday's conventions would in her grandmother have been shocking beyond words, though it need not unduly distress us of to-day?

These questions a famous woman sculptor, Countess Feodora Gleichen, answers more or less "in the affirmative" (as Cabinet Ministers say) in a new work which she calls "1914."

"1914" is to be seen by the public in a month or two at one of the big summer exhibitions. A visitor to the Countess' studio in St. James' Palace made a preliminary bow to this representation of contemporery womanhood. It is a nude, a slim plaster figure, with the right hand posed confidently on the hip and the left carrying a trifling bag.

Countess Gleichen finds the girl of 1914 self-possessed in garb of a scantiness that would have been incredible to the Victorians. Her symbolical statue is undraped because it was not desired to create a mere record of a fashion. But on a pedestal near by the model is seen in the same attitude, but clad in a fashionable dinner gown—a gown that conceals the outlines of her form no more than that of a Tanagra woman or of a "merveilleuse" of the Directoire.

The countess in her statue has wished to glorify the modern ideal of feminine slenderness. "Scraggy" her plump and voluminously robed grandmother would certainly have called her fifty years ago. But 1914 is an age of activities that do not permit of comfortable embonpoint. In the straight, unflinching look of "1914" and in the almost impertinent confidence of the pose of the right arm Countess Gleichen has sought to indicate what she finds the characteristic attitude of the 1914 woman's mind—a certain insouciance, an insatiable curiosity, a rather frivolous sort of intellectual activity, fearlessness, and not a halfpennyworth of prudery or of coquettishness.

DOG'S DISGUISE AS A WREATH

(Special Dispatch.)

A NEW and thrilling sport has sprung rapidly into popularity among women who travel. It is the result of the conflict between the passion for tiny dogs and the regulations of the Board of Agriculture imposing six months' quarantine on every dog brought into the British Isles.

At first women sadly left their pets at home when they went to Switzerland or the Riviera, but no woman with any claim to courage now flinches from the ordeal of smuggling her dog home again.

A pretty little spaniel lately made the journey disguised as a funeral wreath. His silk cushion was placed at the bottom of a tin case, the top of which was arched over with white flowers and maidenhair fern. The box was carried by a lady's maid dressed in black. A favorite hiding place for a small dog is a "vanity bag." Customs' officers are notoriously too gallant to open these.

A small brow "Pom" named Sandy passed the ordeal in safety the other day in a ventilated satchel slung from its mistress' waist inside her long fur coat. Sandy had been taken out several times in the satchel in Paris to accustom him to the hiding place, but when the boat came alongside at Dover he became rebellious.

"He's wriggling," gasped his young mistress to her fiancé. An instant later Sandy gave a yelp which would have drawn the attention of a ship's officer standing near had not the fiancé with great presence of mind sneezed loudly at the same moment.

On the way from the gangway to the customs officer Sandy made a vigorous attempt to free himself.

"He's half out," whispered his owner. "He'll be on the ground in a moment."

Again the ready witted fiancé saved the situation. Boldly he passed an arm round his companion.

"This lady's ill," he said in anxious tone to the customs officer standing before them. "Where is the waiting room?"

It was not until the train pulled out of Dover Harbor station that the half suffocated Sandy was allowed to struggle out into the daylight with a frantic volley of delighted barks.

CHAIN OF SOLAR OBSERVATORIES

(Special Dispatch.)

TO Miss Mary Proctor, daughter of the eminent astronomer the late Mr. Richard A. Proctor, is due the fact that there will soon be forged the last link in a chain of solar observatories round the world by means of which it will be possible to keep the sun under continuous observation during the twenty-four hours.

The missing link had to be either in Australia or New Zealand, to fill the gap of nearly 180 degrees between the solar observatory at Kodaikanal, in India, and that at Mount Wilson, Cal. The other two observatories for studying the sun are the Yerkes Observatory, at Williams Bay, Wis., and our own establishment at Cambridge. The new observatory will be in New Zealand, from which country Miss Proctor has just reached London after three years' absence, elated at the success of a lecture tour round the world on behalf of the project.

"I was in Australia giving a course of astronomical lectures in places of the late Sir Robert Ball, who was in bad health, when I saw that a meeting of scientists in London had declared that a solar physics observatory in Australasia was essential," said Miss Proctor. "I went over to New Zealand to see whether the people there were interested in the idea. Mr. Adams, the Government Astronomer, at once took up the matter and arranged for me to give a course of lectures throughout the country. In the meantime I visited the Kodaikanal Observatory.

"I had not been back in New Zealand more than two weeks when Mr. Thomas Cawthron, of Nelson, who is eighty years old, came to me and, saying he had heard my father lecture in Nelson thirty years before, offered to defray the entire cost of building, equipping and endowing the observatory. Originally I told him it would be about $60,000, but later I learned it would require $250,000, and gave him a chance of withdrawing his offer. He would not be released, however, and promised the larger amount."

At 94 Mr. James Sant Is Still Painting Portraits

Sending Pictures to This Year's Royal Academy Exhibition, Which Promises To Be Essentially One of Portraiture, Although There Are Several Good Landscapes.

MODEL OF STATUE FOR CAPITOL IN WASHINGTON

(Special Dispatch.)

THE period of rush and anxiety with artists who want to exhibit at this year's Royal Academy is over—for a bit. Apart from the R. A.'s and the A. R. A.'s, who are allowed to send their works along to Burlington House later than ordinary artists, would-be exhibitors have all sent in their paintings and water colors. Which of them will and which will not be "hung" still rests in the laps of the gods—the Hanging Committee—but from what one can gather it appears as if this would be essentially a portrait year.

Most interesting of all the English portrait painters of the day is Mr. James Sant, R. A., from the fact that at the age of ninety-four he is resigning his membership, though still painting, and an exhibitor this year. Asked why he was quitting the membership of the Royal Academy, he said with a charming smile, "I want to make room for a younger man." Mr. Sant is the "grand old man" of portraiture, and has exhibited at the Academy since 1829. He is still to be found at his easel, and though nearing the century of years is as vigorous as ever. Every day, from ten to one, and again from three to half-past four, he paints. All the year round he is at work on both landscape and portraits. There are no fewer than a thousand of Mr. Sant's paintings at Lancaster Gate, and altogether his output runs into many thousands.

In 1871 Mr. Sant was appointed principal painter in ordinary to Queen Victoria, for whom he painted many members of the royal family; and both Queen Victoria and King Edward called at his house.

"Fortunately I am blessed with a very strong constitution," said Mr. Sant to his caller, "which at ninety-four enables me to pursue my work. My eyesight still remains good, but I have entirely lost the hearing of one ear. This year I am sending to the Academy a study of a lady on which I have been at work for a long time, and I hope to continue exhibiting at the Academy. My hobby is to go out and sketch. Golfing has no attractions."

Mr. F. Derwent Wood, A. R. A., is sending to the Academy a sketch model of the statue of the great Earl of Chatham, which Lady Pagat, wife of the Commander-in-Chief in Ireland, and other American women resident in England are presenting to the Capitol at Washington in connection with the centenary of peace. Mr. Wood was born at Keswick. His father was American and his mother English, so it was deemed fitting that he should be asked to undertake the commission.

Mr. Frank Dicksee's contribution also consists entirely of portraits. He is sending five, perhaps the finest of which has a pathetic history. The subject is a pretty girl of nineteen or twenty, in a muslin frock and straw hat, standing in a sunny garden. The figure is full of life and youth, with a gay smile on the lips and a happy light in the eyes. But the portrait is a posthumous one. The girl died some time before the picture was painted, and Mr. Dicksee never saw her. The work was commissioned by her father and mother, who, deeply grieved at her death, wished to have some memorial of her in her happiest moments. With this idea in view, Mr. Dicksee has painted the smiling girl in her gay summer frock with a blazing background of summer flowers, particularly of pink and crimson roses climbing over a rustic trellis. Aided by photographs, pictures and verbal descriptions, the artist has produced what the parents describe as a lifelike portrait.

Besides the "Clytemnestra" already referred to in these cables, the Hon. John Collier is sending portraits of Lord Morley and the Duke of Bedford.

Mr. George Clausen has ready five pictures, varied in subject. The most important is a large landscape with figures. Two men are hoeing in a flat Essex field, against a background of cloudy blue sky. The picture is saturated with sunshine and color, and is undoubtedly one of the finest which has come from Mr. Clausen's brush. The other works are a spring landscape, with budding elms; "Primavera," a nude study of a girl plaiting her hair, an interior at twilight, and a portrait.

Mr. J. W. Waterhouse, R. A., is sending three portraits and a subject picture, "The Annunciation." Mr. M. W. Strang, A. R. A., has chosen for exhibition "The Card Players," a modern subject picture, and a series of etchings from the Bible.

Mr. A. S. Cope, R. A., has finished an important series of portraits—the King in undress naval uniform, the Duke of Connaught as Master of Trinity House, Lord Haldane, Lord Esme Gordon-Lennox, Lord Rothermere, of Hemsted, and Sir Alfred Keyds. Among the portraits sent by Mr. W. Llewellyn, A. R. A., will be those of Lord Cheylesmore and Sir William Vincent. Mr. Oswald Birley's Academy portraits will include one of Lord Headley of Earley in the robes of Lord Chief Justice. Mr. Frank O. Salisbury's portraits include Sir William Richmond and the aged Sir Walter Gilbey, while he is engaged on one of Lord Barnard.

Mr. G. P. Jacomb-Hood, M. V. O., will contribute to the Academy a picture of the investiture of the Maharajah of Rigmir with the Star of India at the Delhi Durbar in 1912. This he has done for the Queen, and in order to do it he had to make another trip to India a few months ago.

FLORAL SCHEMES FOR MOTOR CARS.

(Special Dispatch.)

FLOWERS as motor car ornaments are by no means a new idea, but floral decorations which match both the inside and outside of the cars are now in vogue.

Car colors do not vary greatly. The most common colorings are red, green gray, dark blue and yellow.

The following gives an idea how cars should be decorated:—

Red Cars.—Red carnations, red geraniums and red tulips.

Green Cars.—Asparagus fern and smilax.

Gray Cars.—White carnations, lilies of the valley, narcissus and picotees.

Blue Cars.—English violets, Spanish iris and cornflowers.

Yellow Cars.—Mimosa, daffodils and primroses.

NEW FIRELIGHT PORTRAIT OF ONE OF ENGLAND'S BEAUTIES

LADY ENID FANE

Lady Enid Fane is the eldest daughter of the Earl of Westmoreland, whose engagement to the Hon. Henry Vane, eldest son and heir of Lord and Lady Barnard, has been announced. Lady Enid is twenty years old, and her fiance is twelve years her senior. He was formerly a captain in the Fourth battalion of the Durham Light Infantry and was A. D. C. to the Governor of Madras from 1903 to 1907.

AT THE THEATRES NEXT WEEK

Meyro Pictures, the most famous in the world, will be seen in Quebec as a regular feature of the Victoria Theatre for the first three days of every week, beginning on November 15th., according to an announcement made last night by Edwin Bowen Hesser, publicity director of Metro Pictures, Limited, who is at the Chateau Frontenac arranging for the local opening. Mr. Hesser said that they had chosen Miss Valli Valli in "The High Road" as the first picture for Quebec, because of the wonderful successs it has made in Montreal, where it was heralded as the finest feature film ever displayed in Canada.

"Metro Pictures", said Mr Hesser, "stand for a new high standard in the film producers art. Every single Metro Picture has a big star in it, and we control the services of such world famous celebrities as Valli Valli, star of "The Chocolate Soldier", "The Purple Road", "Queen of the Movies" and other musical successes, William Faversham, greatest of America's actors, Francis X. Bushman, the acknowledged sovereign of the screen, Edmund Breese, the most powerful of heavy dramatic stars, Miss Lois Meredith, dainty prima donna of "Madame Sherry' and "Peg O'My Heart", Ethel Barrymore, most famous of actresses, Olga Petrova, star of "Panthea", Dorothy Donnelly who won fame in "Madame X", and a score of other celebrities. All of these appear in great plays, and they are produced by the finest of motion picture directors, expense being entirely disregarded, the only subject of the Mtro organization to make the best pictures ever created.

"To manager Tanguay and the Imperial the public of Quebec will owe a debt of gratitude for bringing Metro, because these star films occupy in the picture world the same position that grand opera does to dime vaudeville on the stage. Metro stands for best, and only for the best, but of course it costs the Victoria management three times what ordinary pictures would. And yet they are not going to raise the prices, "concluded Mr. Hesser.

The policy of the Victoria will be changed, so that on Mondays and Thursdays the program will be changed, instead of three times a week, as heretofore. The regular Metro days will be Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week.

PRINCESS KA'S DEMONSTRATION OF ANCIENT DANCES.

Extraordinary Attraction in the Five Acts of Vaudeville at the Auditorium Next Week.

Princess Ka, the feature of the bill for next week at the Auditorium, is a dancing celebrity that will present here dances that have never been offered in Canada. Her turn is a great novelty to vaudeville and the success with which she has met in Europe, where the art of dancing is so well appreciated shows of what value is such an act to a Canadian Theatre. Princess Ka starts her Canadian tour in Quebec and the spectacle she will present to our theatregoers will no doubt give her in the ancient Capital a reputation equal to that she has gained in the Old World.

Her specialty is the dancing of ancient Egyptian and Grecian dances, but she also surpasses all the Terpsichore an artists that have played here in vaudeville in the Spanish lances.

With this great feature, there will be on the bill another act that will particularly please the dance and music lovers. The Muller Brothers are two classy singers that will offer a good many first class numbers. They have also to present a bright line of patter that cannot fail to meet with the approval of our public.

Something new in musical sketches is the turn presented by the Hollanders. These two musicians offer an act in their own special setting showing scenes of Old Holland.

The clever little dog Ed Foster has trained for the stage will amuse all kinds of audiences, specially the kiddies that will like the cute little dog who performs some wonderful tricks.

The last act is that of Rae and Bendetto, who present some fine acrobatic work and have also interspersed this with fine comedy that nobody who takes any interest in the theatres can afford to miss.

"The Birth of a Nation"

Mr. Griffith, the producer of "The Birth of a Nation", that great spectacular drama that will be presented at the Auditorium one week beginning Monday November the 29th, was eight months making the entire picture. During that time he employed a small army of men and women to get the desired results.

In the Great Battle scenes which are given in the earlier portions of the production, Mr. Griffith employed many novel appliances to get his effects. For the first time in the making of motion pictures he utilized the telephone most extensively. Imagine a stage director handling thousands of players in one scene and directing them by phone.

"THE SPENDER" IS ANOTHER GOLD ROOSTER PLAY IN FIVE PARTS.

This Thrilling Drama Will be Presented Monday and Tuesday and the Olympia With "Neal of the Navy" and the News

"The Spender", a Gold Rooster play in five parts, is on the bill for Monday and Tuesday at the Olympia, with "Neal of the Navy". The story of "The Spender" is a very thrilling one. Peter Lobert, young, enthusiastic and treemndously alive, lets his reckless carelessness plunge heavily into debt just once too often, and is sent away by his indignant father to seek his fortunes as best he may.

Bagley, the faithful old family servitor, casts his lot with his young master. That night at the Royal Arms, Peter's favorite cafe, he tells his boon campanions of his misfortune. The picture of an American heiress gives him an inspiration, and he declares his intention of going to America, masquerading as a prince, and winning the hand of the Yankee newly-rich. And so they set out—Peter and Bagley.

As a Prince, it doesn't take Peter long to gain entrance to the McCabe home, and as a lover it doesn't take him long to gain admission to Nellie McCabe's heart.

They are married, much against the wishes of Pat McCabe, who does not put his faith in Princes, and who orders Peter, now that he has her, to take care of her. This hasn't been Peter's idea at all, but since it has come to a showdown, he tells her of his poverty, and she, though disillusioned sticks bravely by him.

Peter and Bagley get a job in McCabe's factory, unknown to McCabe. The latter has trouble with his help, who are incited to strike and riot by Jim Walsh, a walking delegate. Here are some tremendous scenes, in which McCabe's factory is set afire, a troop of cavalry rushed to the rescue, and old McCabe saved by Peter, who keeps the mob back by holding a lighted cigarette over a keg of dynamite.

McCabe is dumfounded when he learns the identity of his rescuer, but Peter explains it when he says that he couldn't let his baby's grandfather get hurt. There is a touching reconciliation at the end.

With 'Neal of the Navy", in two parts, and the Pathe News, this will make an eight reel programme at the Olympia Monday and Tuesday.

SAVE YOUR HAIR AND BEAUTIFY IT WITH "DANDERINE"

SPEND 25 CENTS! DANDRUFF DISAPPEARS AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT.

TRY THIS! HAIR GETS BEAUTIFUL, WAVY AND THICK IN FEW MOMENTS.

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION" AT VICTORIA.

Splendid Features Will Be Shown Next Week.

Some very interesting features will be offered at the Victoria Treatre next week as will be seen by the following programmes for the different days:—

Monday and Tuesday.

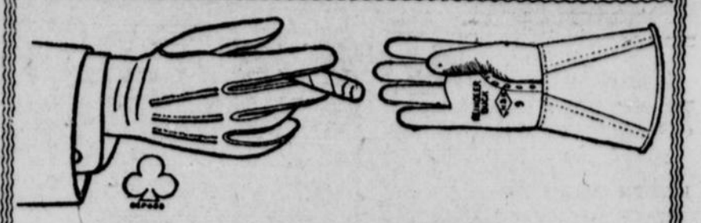

"Her Shattered Idol", a drama full of sentiment and adventure, showing how love and loyalty won a girl, featuring Mae Marsh, the star of "The Birth of a Nation"; also Robert Harron. This is a four-reel masterpiece, and has a great reputation.

Wednesday and Thursday.

The feature for these two days is a World Film entitled "The Fairy and the Waif", with Mary Miles Minter, Percy Helton and Will Archie.

Friday and Saturday.

"Hearts and Flowers", a thrilling drama of love and devotion and sacrifice, featuring Mrs. Thos. Whiffen, the grand old lady of the American stage and Beulah Poynter in a magnificent five-part photo play.

HOW TO MAKE HAIR GROW

NEW YORK CHEMIST GIVES SIMPLE FORMULA.

"To destroy dandruff, cleanse and invigorate the scalp, ward off premature grayness and baldness, and to stimulate hair growth, I recommend this formula in preference to anything else; 6 ounces bay rum, 2 ounces lavona de composee, and ¼ drachm menthol crystals. You can buy these ingredients from any druggist and mix them yourself at home or the druggist will mix them for you. If you choose, add a teaspoonful of your favorite perfume to the above ingredients. Apply to the scalp night and morning and rub in thoroughly with the finger tips."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

It is expected that on Sunday afternoon, the speaker at the men's meeting, Y.M.C.A., will be Rev. Mr. McKintosh, of Sherbrooke. The soloist will be Mr. Percy Samson; the pianist, Mr. Garrett. A wire was received Friday from Mr. Chas. W. Bishop, of New York, stating that he would be present at the membership banquet next Friday night and speak on the subject: "Mobilizing our Manhood"" The contractors are busy installing a Viking steam boiler at the buildings. The intermediate membership last night held their first bean supper. The speakers were Mr. Norman Woods and Mr. E. M. Crawford.

Toronto Central are having a whirlwind membership campaign. The first day they secured 1,000 new members. That's going some!

TIMBER REGULATIONS.

GOVERNING Timber on Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the North-west Territories, the Railway Belt in the Province of British Columbia, and the Three and a-half Million Acres located by the Government of the Dominion in the Peace River District in British Columbia.

Licenses.

A license to cut timber on a tract not exceeding Twenty-five square miles in extent may be acquired only at public auction. A rental of $5 per square mile per annum, is charged on all timber berths excepting those situated west of Yale, in the Province of British Columbia, on which the rental is at the rate of 5 cents per acre. In addition to rental, dues are charged on the timber cut at the rates set out in section 20, of the Regulations.

Timber Permits and Dues.

Permits may be gained in the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, to cut over a definite described tract of land, not exceeding one square mile in extent, on payment of dues at the rate of 30 cents per thousand feet, B.M., and subject to payment of rental at the rate of $100 per square mile per annum.

Timber for Homesteaders.

Any occupant of a homestead quarter-section having no timber of his own suitable for the purpose may, provided he has not previously been granted free allowance of timber, obtain a free permit to cut the quantity of building and fencing timber set out in section 51 of the Regulations.

W. W. CORY,

Dept. of the Minister of the Interior.

Ottawa, July 29, 1914.

Synopsis of Canadian North-west Land Regulations.

THE sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency, for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Land Agency (but not Sub-Agency, on certain conditions.

Duties: Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead, on a farm of at least 80 acres, on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price $3 per acre.

Duties: Six months residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent, also 50 acres extra cultivation. Pre-emption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right, may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price, $3 per acre.

Duties: Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

The area of cultication is subject to reduction in case of rough, scrubby or stony land. Live stock may be substitute for cultivation under certain conditions.

SHIPPING NEWS

HENDON HALL HAS COMPASS TESTED

TEST SATISFACTORY, VESSEL PROCEEDS TO MONTREAL—COST OF REPAIRS.

The compass of the steamer Hendon Hall was tested in mid-stream yesterday and the test proving satisfactory the vessel proceeded to Montreal in the afternoon to enter into the service of the West Hartlepool Navigation Co. In view of the difficulty in getting vessels built at the present time, or buying, except at greatly enhanced prices, the Hendon Hall will be a welcome addition to the Hartlepool fleet.

It is said that the repairs to the vessel, which were finished ten days ahead of contract time by the Davie Shipbuilding Co., have cost $95,000, and at that figure the underwriters have not been able to make any money.

SHIPPING NOTES.

S. S. Batiscan and steam barge Port Dalhousie passed up yesterday bound for Montreal.

Steam barge International left the inner basin yesterday for Bersimis for a cargo of pulp.

Preparations have been made at St. John, N.B., to handle, through the coming winter, three hundred cars of freight a day at the west side wharves, more than twice what was handled last winter. Twenty-two C.P.R. sailings have been guaranteed from the port, and there will be twenty sailings of supply boats chartered by the Imperial Government.

S. S. Michigan, White Star-Dominion Line from Liverpool for Quebec and Montreal passed Point Amour at 9 a.m., Friday and is due in Port at 5 a.m. Monday.

S.S. Englishman, White Star-Dominion Line sailed from Bristol at 2 p.m, Tuesday November 2nd, for Quebec and Montreal.

The Mining Record states that the shipment of coal from Nova Scotia to September 30th amounted to 4,102,031 tons, a decrease of 159,027 tons. The Dominion Coal Company shipped 3,110,019 tons of this, an increase of 27,325 tons over the same period in 1914. Springhill also increased its shipments by 4,050 tons. Other colleries showed decreases.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS FOR BACKACHE OR BLADDER TROUBLE.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

HER DREAMS CAME TRUE

Life Unbearable from Indigestion Health Restored by "Fruit-a-tives"

MELLE. C. GAUDREAU

Rochon P.Q., Jan. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I became thin and miserable. I had frequent dizzy spells and became so run down that I never thought I would get well again.

A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-tives'. I continued this medicine and all my Indigestion and Constipation was relieved. I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches, try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Give this lovely fruit medicine a fair chance and you will get well the same as I did".

THE MOLSONS BANK

Sixtieth Annual Meeting of Shareholders

The Sixtieth Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders of The Molsons Bank was held in the Board Room of their Banking House, 200 St. James Street, Montreal, November 2nd, 1915, at 3 o'clock.

The President, Mr. William Molson Macpherson, took the chair, and there were also present the Vice-President, Mr. S. H. Ewing, Messrs. George E. Drummond, W. H. Birks, W. A. Black, J. W. Loud, C. E. Sprague, A. Browning, W. H. Evans, A. Piddington, A. D. Fraser, W. B. Blackader, Allen Brown, George Durnford, A. G. Watson, and others

DIRECTORS' ANNUAL REPORT.

The General Manager, Mr. E. C. Pratt, read the Annual Report, as follows:—

Gentlemen:—Your Directors beg to submit to the Shareholders this the Sixtieth Annual Report of The Molsons Bank, and Statement of its position on 30th September, 1915.

The net profits of the year, after making ample provision for Bad and Doubtful Debts, amounted to $556,193.00, from which has been deducted $440,000 in Quarterly Dividends at the usual rate of 11 per cent. per annum; $21,452.00 to Officers' Pension Fund; $25,500 for War Tax on circulation, and $75,000 has been put aside for depreciation in stocks and bonds, leaving a balance of $61,300 at credit of Profit and Loss Account.

There has been an increase of about $2,000,000 in the deposits, which now stand at $38,821,368, but the increase is in deposits on which we pay interest. The deposits not bearing interest have decreased nearly $500,000.

In common with all the banks we have suffered a loss in circulation this year.

On the other side of the Balance Sheet: The loans now $37,151,973 are $270,000 less than a year ago, but there is an increase of $1,320,000 in quick assets. Bank Premises are shown at $2,014,000, an increase of $414,000 over last year. In addition to a number of necessary offices, to the building of which we were committed before the war, this includes the purchase of a handsome and much needed building in Winnipeg, originally erected by the Eastern Townships Bank. The building is particularly well situated and was offered at such a price that we did not care to miss the opportunity to provide suitable quarters there.

We have opened four Branches during the year: At Matane, Trois Pistoles, James and Barton Street, Hamilton, and at Montreal West.

As Mr. D. McNicoll will be frequently absent from the city in search of health, he has resigned from the Directorate. We shall miss his valuable services, but hope he will long be spared to enjoy a well earned rest after so active a life. Mr. E. J. Chamberlin, President of the Grand Trunk Railway System, has been appointed to fill the vacancy; his extensive knowledge of the trade and business of the country will be of great value to us.

We very much regret the death on the 24th ult. of Mr. W. H. Draper, Superintendent of Branches, who served the Bank ably and faithfully for upwards of thirty-six years. Mr. E. W. Waud, formerly Inspector, has been appointed to succeed him.

The Auditors, Messrs. George Creak, Lemuel Cushing and Charles A. Hodgson, whose Report is appended to our Balance Sheet, offer themselves for re-election.

As usual all the Branches of the Bank have been carefully inspected during the year, and I have pleasure in testifying to the zeal and efficiency of our Staff.

WM. MOLSON MACPHERSON,
President.

WM. MOLSON MACPHERSON, President. EDWARD C. PRATT, General Manager.

We have checked and verified the Cash, Investments, and Securities of The Molsons Bank at the Chief Office in Montreal on 30th September, and also at another time as required by the Bank Act, and we have at different times during the year checked and verified the Cash and Securities held at four other important Branches of the Bank.

We have compared the Certified Returns from all the Branches with the entries in the Books at the Chief Office of the Bank as at 30th September, 1915, and find that they agree therewith; and all the transactions which have come under our notice have been, in our opinion, within the powers of the Bank.

We have obtained all the information and explanations we have required, and we certify that in our opinion the above Statement is so drawn up as to exhibit a true and correct view of the Bank's affairs at the close of business on 30th September, 1915, according to the best of our information and the explanations given to us, and as shown by the Books of the Bank.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

NEW YORK MARKET.

(Canadian Press).

New York, Nov. 5—Metal shares were the chief sustaining influence of today's market, other parts of the stock list showing an irregular or heavy trend. The inquiry for coppers was incessant, trading in that group attaining large proportions with new records for Anaconda, which added a point to its recent rise at 87, Chino 1 1-8 at 55 1-8, and Utah 2 1-8 at 75 7-8. Other coppers, including American Smelting, rose 1 to 4 points. According to trade reports demand for this product, both from domestic and foreign consumers, indicates a material increase and higher quotations for the metal are predicted.

Specialties, more particularly those in the so-called war class, were again erratic, presumably as a result of recent financial statements which indicated that some of the spectacular advances of the mid-summer were not warranted by actual business conditions. Bethlehem Steel fluctuated within a narrow range and closed at 435, a loss of 5 points. United States Steel, which was less active relatively, through leading all other favorites, broke 1¼ to 86 1-8 and closed without recovery.

Railway shares were under greatest pressure, their gains of the early week inducing further realizing sales. Canadian Pacific fell 3 5-8 to 185 and Atchison, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, New York Central and New Haven yielded 1 to over 2 points. Among the lesser issues suggested some apprehension regarding latest developments affecting these properties.

The sessions activity was confined to the first and last hours, with frequent intermediate periods of dullness. Lowest prices were quoted in the final dealings, investment stocks showing greatest heaviness. Total sales amounted to 980,000 shares.

Sterling exchange was a trifle lower, but assurances respecting new London credits were helpful in imparting a stronger tone later. Local banks are expected to show a cash loss tomorrow, despite large additional receipts of gold. Bank clearings point to steady expansion of industrial and commercial activity.

International Mercantile Marine 4½ per cent. bonds and certificates were the features of the bond market, those issues advancing substantially on reports of an agreement regarding the terms of re-organization. Total sales par value, $7,040,00.

CLOSING MARKET LETTERS.

By private wire to Breen & Gourdeau, Stock Brokers, 63 St. Peter Street, and 6 Sault-au-Matelot 'Phone 185.

Chicago, Nov. 5—The wheat market was very irregular, making new high levels after an early break and closing at losses of ⅜c to ⅝c. December was stronger than May on the early upturn, selling at ½ cent premium and about 10c above the low point of the previous week. The demand for cash wheat and premiums which are prevailing for the better quality do not make the bears side appear attractive. On the other hand, there is every indication of continued free movement, which makes it advisable to hold buying orders for breaks.

Corn—The strength in wheat was reflected in corn and resulted in a considerable volume of short covering. Higher prices on the present upturn were made, but profit-taking and some hedging sales were sufficient to cause a fair setback. Although it is not an opportune time to invest in corn for the distant future, a continuation of the present active trading market is indicated.

Oats—The oats market shows little activity and tonight's close was at very moderate changes from yesterday. Strength in the other grain markets and reports export demand held the market steady. The movement has increased and will probably be well sustained unless the market breaks considerably from present levels.

New York, Nov. 5—Stock market values fluctuated irregularly throughout today's session. The market shows clearly that it is still well with in the period of readjustment, the switching from "war" specialties to standard issues, which began a few days ago. Heavy profit-taking sales added somewhat to the pressure, which, at times, was considerable, due to week-end evening up of accounts. Final sales, however, were generally lower, but although an average setback of between one and two points obtained, the undertone was still considered good. We can see no change in the general outlook; believe stocks should be purchased on moderate recessions in which the railroads, steel and copper shares are favored, will show substantial profits within a short time.

CLOSING LETTER.

By private wire to Bruneau & Dupuis Stock Brokers, 11, 13 and 15 Sault-au-Matelot Street, Tel. 1596. A. A. Gingras, Manager.

New York, Nov. 5—The trend of the market today has been reactionary although the declines have not been of much moment. After the long and somewhat violent upward course of the market it naturally follows that the bull position becomes extended and somewhat unwildly and that many people have inviting profits. This brings at times selling into the market which must produce reactions. There is no special news of influence either way. There has been considerable disapointment from the recent statements of some of the industrial corporations as to profits in the past few months. It seemed to be generally asumed that war orders meant immediate big cash profits, whereas in all manufacturing it must take time to realize them, the tendency to discount these profits has undoubtedly been over fast. It is quite possible that the reaction may go somewhat further but there is no reason to believe that there is any change in the prospect for great agricultural and manufacturing prosperity and with it large railroad traffic in the immediate future.

Total sales: Stocks 1,005,614; Bonds $6,948,000.

THE TORONTO PRODUCE MARKET.

NEW YORK CLOSING LETTER

McDougall & Cowans, Stock Brokers No. 116 Mountain Hill, Quebec Phones 1402—1403.

New York, Nov. 5—The market sold off sharply late in the day, not as a result of unfavorable news of any kind, but on account of the weak technical position existing in the war stocks and certain of the other industrials. A. C. M., and Lack. Steel were among the weakest features while in the motor stocks also the support was poor. The decline has not yet gone far enough to put the war issues in a strong market position, and it is advisable to transfer interests from these stocks into the railroads which are safer and better. Reports from railroad operating officials indicate that the earnings for October were considerably better than these for September and ont only will last year's figures be greatly exceeded, but in many instances the October returns will exceed all previous records.

The exchange market has been strong on account of the progress of the negotiations for the arrangement of a large British credit in this city and the continued shipment of gold from London to New York. There has been a large supply of United States Steel for sale, but the stock has met with fairly good support, although the other steel issues have generally been dull and heavy.

Sales: 1,005,614; bonds $6,948,000.

CASCARETS SELL TWENTY MILLION BOXES PER YEAR

BEST, SAFEST CATHARTIC FOR LIVER AND BOWELS, AND PEOPLE KNOW IT.

THEY'RE FINE! DON'T STAY BILIOUS, SICK, HEADACHY OR CONSTIPATED.

Enjoy life! Keep clean inside with Cascarets. Take one or two at night and enjoy the nicest gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up feeling grand. Your head will be clear, your tongue clean, breath right, stomach sweet and your liver and thirty feet of bowels active. Get a box at any drug store and straighten up. Stop the headaches, bilious spells, bad colds and bad days—Brighten up, Cheer up, Clean up! Mothers should give a whole Cascaret to children when cross, bilious, feverish or if tongue is coated—they are harmless—never gripe or sicken.

A Suggestion for Efficient Economy

Throughout the Empire has gone the call for personal economy to meet the extraordinary demands of the war. Here is a timely suggestion to men who have been spending from $25.00 to $75.00 a year on barber shop shaves:

Invest five dollars in a

GILLETTE Safety Razor

and shave yourself at home.

The saving will not be limited to money—the time you'll gain will be even more important, for the morning shave with the Gillette need not take more than five minutes.

And the comfort rivals the economy. Though you never shaved yourself before, you'll have no trouble in getting a clean, cool, safe shave with the Gillette Safety Razor. No more waiting your turn in the chair—no more breaks in the morning's work—no more dependence on unknown barbers when travelling, for the Gillette works anywhere.

Truly, the man with a Gillette is an efficient economist. Get one yourself to-day. "Bulldog", "Aristocrat" or Standard Sets cost $5. —Pocket Editions $5. to $6.—Combination Sets $6.50 up. Your Hardware Dealer or Jeweler will show you an assortment. 62
